INEZ WINS REGIONAL TOURNEY

DEFEATS GARRETT AFTER P'BURG TRIPS MEADE

The Inez Indiana, perennial contenders from this section for the state basketball championship, again are on their way to Lexington to the state tournament this week after winning the regional tourney here Saturday night.

But they reached the state tourney this year, only after reckoning in the most serious way with Prestonsburg and Garrett, champion and runner-up in the 58th district net meet at McDowell.

Prestonsburg removed Meade Memorial as an obstacle to the Indiana Friday night in the biggest upset of the tournament, blasting by a 40-31 score the team that at least twice this season had defeated Inez.

Then Garrett fought its way through to the final and Saturday night extended the Indiana to limits before losing, 52-26, after leading through the earlier part of the contest.

The tournament, attended throughout by huge crowds, and featured by hard-fought games throughout, was one of the most interesting ever held in this section.

Belfry and Preneburg opened the meet Thursday night, with the Pike cantons leading all the way to win, 36 to 28. Second game of the evening saw Garrett forced to come from behind to defeat Cannel City, 38-33. The Cannel City boys, coached by C. S. Stewart, formerly of Maytown, jumped off to an early lead and maintained a three-point margin at the half.

The smoother-working Garrett, beginning to get the lead by one point at the end of the third period and increased this edge to four points by the end of the fourth.

Three Floyd Players On All-Regional

Garrett shared honors with Inez on the all-regional team selected at the close of the tournament. The team placing two. The mythical all-star aggregation follows: Wallace (Cumberland), Pison (Cannel City), Wheeler (Preneburg), Hunter (Prestonsburg), Harmon (Inez), Butcher (Meade), West (Inez), Hughes (Garrett).

The sportsmanship trophy was awarded to Cannel City. Harmon, Inez star, received the trophy as high-scorer of the tournament.

Prestonsburg fans found cause for cheering at the end of the first quarter of the Blackcats game with Meade Memorial when the Cats held an 8-0 edge, yet withheld their wilddest cheers as they feared Butcher & Co. would "turn on" later in the game. As the Prestonsburg boys tied up the high-scoring Butcher and continued to add to their lead, the crowd went wild.

Friday evening's matchup was easily won by Inez, the Indiana swamping Cumberland, 54-32.

First game of the semi-finals Saturday afternoon saw Inez continue its

This Town That World

NO CLENGING TIME

Commonwealth's Attorney John Allen's description of that Knott county woman who drew a two-year pen term, a few days ago, for shooting and wounding her cousin, indicates that she must be a tough houbress. When arrested, she was a-packing 'two pistols in a sack.

Brought to trial, she said, "Yep, I shot him and I want to pay for hit." When her attorney sought a continuance on the grounds that she wasn't ready for trial, she chimed in with "Now, I'm as ready as I'll ever be." And when Circuit Judge Stephens, after listening to her guilty plea, advised her that this meant two years in the penitentiary, she broke into a smile. "That's fine, Judge," she could stand on my head that long!"

DISRESPECT TO OLD AGE

Members of Prestonsburg's basket-ball team were using our stapling machine Thursday and they were having themselves a time with it. The thing that wouldn't staple. They didn't cut it any, but Hugh Stone handed down what I would call a very blistering opinion about that contraption.

Floyd Contributes "Brother-Act" To Aviation

These "brother acts" have been made famous in baseball by the Deans Coopers and others, but now Floyd county contributes its brother-team to the U. S. Army's Flying Cadets.

Ben and Paul Saunders, teachers of Mr. and Mrs. K. F. (Knob) Saunders, of the Auxler road, near Prestonsburg, entered the service Monday morning at Ft. Thomas, Ky.

Says Messer, Stone Merited Acquittal in Wicker Case

Instead of the two years they received for the slaying of Mart Wicker at Lackey, Allen Stone and Gust Messer should have been given a directed verdict of acquittal, the Court of Appeals held last week.

The court's opinion said Messer aided Stone, town marshal of Lackey, in removing Wicker from a roadhouse where he was drinking. It indicated that he was removed because Stone knew his arrest would mean revocation of his prison parole. Later, Wicker returned, the court cited, threatened Stone and Messer, and was killed in an exchange of shots.

Commonwealth's Attorney John Allen's concern should be considered as being another trial and that, in his opinion, a directed verdict should not be given.

DRAFT BOARDS ASKED FOR 54

NEW CALLS MAY EXHAUST LIST OF VOLUNTEERS

Calls received Wednesday for 54 men from this county for military service next week are so time consuming, the Selective Service system was instituted last year, necessitate the sending of draftees early next month, it was held here.

Draft Board No. 44 has a sufficient number of volunteers to supply the call for men for March 15, but this time lacks six of having the 20 called for entrance into military service on April 8.

The April 8 call of 16 from Board 44 will be filled by volunteers, but this will drain the Board's volunteer men, as it now stands, to 22 men. Those scheduled to leave here for the Huntington, W. Va., induction center on March 31 from Board 44

CAMERA SHOWS NEW LICK FORK

Along immediately at right trestleway has been built to convey concrete piers in place. Note the very thick rock at right has disappeared.

No longer a scene of rusticity is the head of Lick Fork of Middle Creek. Things are happening up there, as witness: Top photo: Looking downstream, top of tippie under construction in foreground. At left, machinery tearing away the mountainside for the railroad.

Lower photo: The camera clicks as the explosion went "boom" to clear the way for the railroad near the tippie.

GARRETT MEN JAILED HERE

SALISBURY, ALLEN ARE RETURNED FROM HYDEN

Charged with the shooting and wounding of James Belcher, of Mt. Sterling, and of the hold-up and robbery of other members of Belcher's gang, Thelma Salisbury and Oliver Allen of Garrett, were in jail here this week.

Fugitives since the shooting of February 3 when they are alleged to have committed the offenses, the two were arrested in Leslie county. They were returned here Sunday from Hyden by Sheriff Neal Salisbury.

Bond for each was set at $7,000, and neither had executed bail Wednesday morning.

The two men told officers that they were not guilty of the charges.

Belcher, shot through his lung, has recovered from his wound and Wednesday appeared before County Attorney Forrest D. Short to make a statement in connection with the shooting.

FAILURE TO DEVELOP LEASE COSTS GAS FIRM $3,000

The Kentucky Court of Appeals last week turned down a contention that the judgment of a gas or oil development lease is not based on sound business principles.

The high tribunal upheld a $3,000 award made by the Floyd circuit court to Thomas Reffitt, of Fyrnald, who had sought damages because the Midland Gas Corporation failed to drill three additional wells as provided in its lease, after completing two gas wells.

The corporation claimed gas was not found in sufficient quantities on Reffitt's land to warrant further development.

11-YEAR-OLD WINS BEE

WEEKSBURY STUDENT, SPELLING CHAMP OF COUNTY

Eleven-year-old Juanita Hall, seventh grade student in the Floyd county's new spelling champion.

Juanita won that title here Saturday morning at the county spelling bee in which she competed with spell-champions of 11 other consolidated schools of the county.

When Katherine Stapleton, Mayova, eighth-grader missed "mythology," Juanita had her change spelled that word and the next, which, appropriately enough, happened to be "lovely."

The winner will go to the state bee sponsored in Louisville by The Courier-Journal and Louisville Times, with the Floyd County Board of Education appropriating $25 for her expenses.

Names of other spellers, their schools and the words on which each stumbled follow in the order in which they were returned from the competition: James Smith, Wayland, "view"; Reginald Montgomery, Wheelwright, "valleys"; Thelma Burke, Auxier, "meals"; Edith Stumbo, Betsy Layne, "Italy"; Polly Mae Boggs, Drift, "trolley"; Ed.

Chairs, Not Guns Used In Second Ligon Battle

The school building at Ligon, scene of last summer's gun battle in which two men attending a United Mine Workers' meeting were killed, Saturday morning was a battleground again as the club chair men met-but guns were not used in this latest affray.

Chairs were swung in this fight, and Thomas Tackett, 40, of Beaver, this county, was reported here as having been severely injured. One miner accused of striking Tackett admitted having a part in the fight but said that the chair he swung was red, while the injured man was quoted as saying he was struck by a green chair.

Tackett was recovering this week at his home on McD Creek.

TAX INCREASE SUGGESTED

FOR FLOYD COUNTY; 1,000 TAXPAYERS FAIL TO LIST

Floyd, along with 104 of the state's 120 counties, has been advised by the State Tax Commission to make tax assessment increases on various types of property.

Suggested increases for this county are $300,000 on town lots and $2,200,000 on lands. With the assessment originally reported by Tax Commissioner Omer C. Sturgill standing at $7,800,438, the increase suggested would bring the valuation of taxable property in the county to $10,800,438.

County Judge E. P. Hill, Jr., said that the State Tax Commission wrote him a few weeks ago suggesting that the Board of Supervisors increase assessments on various types of property.

The original assessment is expected to be revised considerably, since approximately 1,000 property-owners who did not file lists have been notified to appear before the Board of Supervisors and list their property.

MINE FAMILIES EVACUATING PROPERTY

LABOR DEMANDS FROM LOGAN LIFT HOPES

Peaceful evacuation by the 108 mine families of property of the Elk Horn Coal Corporation at Wayland, Garrett and Sizemore Branch was under way this week after writs of forcible entry and detainer had been executed by Deputy Sheriffs Tom James and W. B. Boyd.

Eighteen of the families vacated the coal company's premises last week. The others were reported moving or preparing to move. Only one family had been forcibly ejected.

The eviction writs were procured by attorneys for Receivers Howard N. Evanson, W. W. Goldsmith and J. J. Moore, months after the men had become unemployed and ceased paying rent. It was stated that the men kept when there was no income.

A report received here Wednesday indicated that plight of the evicted miners may not be as sore as believed, that the West Virginia Unemployment Service had announced that mines around Logan had work for approximately 100 men. Those able to pass through the mine's gates, and not displaced by the evictions, would be employed.

The Union had an unfair distribution among the unemployed miners. Almost all of them have received WPA relief in some form during recent weeks, it was said.

FOR MAGISTRATE I have decided this day to announce myself as a Democratic candidate for Magistrate in District No. 3.

My first promise is, I absolutely will not be worse than any who have been in office the last three or four terms as I can truly say on this facts.

I further promise, if elected, that these "big-bugs," or political bosses will have no strings on me, as I will try to show the people what the office is intended to be. I contend that the office is to be the Justice of the Peace and not a Robert's Restingplace.

I also will see that the County Judge's salary is where it should be and not the salary it was recently raised to.

I will also show my friends that I appreciate their support by doing them favors instead of trying to rob them or taking their last and only mitch cow for unnecessary costs.

WHAT EVERY HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT SHOULD KNOW ABOUT TUBERCULOSIS

By ANNA MAE BAILEY
Wheelerwright High School

TUBERCULOSIS is probably as old as man. Positive proof of it has been found in Egyptian mummies and pre-Columbian Indians. Naturally it has not always been known as tuberculosis but has been given several names. Hippocrates, the father of medicine, called it phthisis, which means "wasting." Although tuberculosis continued its consumption of human lives down through the ages, little more was learned about it until Laennec, after he had performed post mortem examinations on tubercular patients, discovered how tubercles form and the damage they exact upon the lungs and other parts of the body. Other notable scientists, such as Villemin, Koch, and Trudeau added greatly to the meager knowledge of tuberculosis.

Boys and girls of high school age are particularly liable to contract tuberculosis. The high rate of the disease at this period is caused in part by over-activity. An enormous amount of energy is consumed by studying too hard and playing too hard in various activities. Plus this the boys and girls often get little sleep. Therefore, it is necessary for high school boys and girls to be particularly wary of tuberculosis.

Tuberculosis is caused by a minute germ called tubercle bacillus. Besides the human variety of bacillus, there are other types, one of which is the bovine, or cattle. The carrier in this case is milk from tubercular cows, but it is safe to drink milk that is pasteurized. The bacillus multiplies with great rapidity in the tissues they invade. To combat these germs they cells move to the spot where the bacilli have lodged. They soon build a sort of shell, which is called a tubercle, around the germ. This shell renders the germs inactive.

The germ is spread in numerous ways. People, who have no regard for the health of others, spit carelessly on floors and sidewalks. Even though they may have no knowledge of it, germs are being spread. These germs may be easily transmitted to the hands of children or blown about and breathed in by passers-by. Improperly washed dishes may have the germs of tuberculosis on them. The germs may be transmitted swiftly by means of direct contact with a person who has the disease.

A person in the early stages of tuberculosis may show no outward signs. After a person has had the germs for a while he may begin to feel tired and weak; he may have a little fever, and perspire freely at night. His appetite may be poor, and he may have some pain in his chest and shoulders. He may not have a cough or hoarseness, and he may notice blood in his mouth after coughing. Almost every case of tuberculosis differs in its symptoms from every other case, therefore if any of these signs appear a person should consult a doctor at once.

Getting fresh air and sunshine, taking daily exercises, getting plenty of sleep and rest, taking care of one's general health, having a health examination by a good doctor every year and keeping away from getting into one's body. These are rules to follow in preventing tuberculosis from getting into one's body.

Tuberculosis can be cured, but not by any medicine, vaccine, or mysterious trick. It is cured by absolute rest in bed, by good food, good nursing care, and most of all by explicit following of the doctor's orders. REST is the essence of treatment. The diseased lung may be rested by several methods. The most common is called pneumothorax, which is a process of collapsing the lung, thus leaving the lung at rest.

The treatment of tuberculosis may be carried out at home, but it is cured more accurately at a sanatorium. In a sanatorium everything has been planned for the one purpose of helping people conquer tuberculosis.

THERE'S A DIFFERENCE, MR. TAXPAYER

... between an unregulated traffic contributing nothing in state, county or local taxes, and Kentucky's $20,000,000 legalized beer industry which has paid more than $6,000,000 in taxes to the state alone during the past six years!

But occasionally some people, losing sight of this difference, would unwittingly deprive state and county treasuries of this revenue, thereby increasing their own tax burdens as well as inviting a return of the anti-social conditions resulting from unlicensed, unregulated outlets. Through our Committee's self-regulation program, the Kentucky beer industry is cooperating with law-enforcement officials to preserve these benefits by helping maintain wholesome conditions in the retailing of beer. YOU can help by patronizing the law-abiding beer outlets in your community!

INEZ WINS REGIONAL

unway tactics by defeating Prestonsburg, 60-30. In a contest in which the result was never in doubt, Garrett trounced Beltry, 42-24, in the second contest of the afternoon, to keep Floyd county in the tournament and interest at white heat. Garrett was yard-punched in the first half, holding only a two-point edge over Beltry, but came fast in the stretch.

After Prestonsburg had defeated Beltry in the consolation game Saturday night 35 to 30, Garrett essayed the giant-killer role against Inez—and for almost half of the game was well on the road to being Eastern Kentucky basketball's Little David. As it was, the Martin countians were forced to play the entire game with their original starting line-up going at top speed.

Death claimed John Sheridan Layne, 68, Betsy Layne, Sunday afternoon in the Prestonsburg General hospital. He had been ill several weeks.

A native of Floyd county and a son of the late Curtis I. and Rebecca Nesbit Layne, he had spent the greater part of his life at Betsy Layne. He lived in Montana for a few years, in which state he followed the practice of law.

Mr. Layne is survived by two daughters, Miss Pearl Layne and Mrs. Corinne Jackson; one sister, Mrs. Charlie L. Fitzpatrick; wife of Dr. W. J. Fitzpatrick, Miami, Fla.

Funeral rites were conducted Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the home at Betsy Layne, the Rev. Clayton officiating. Burial was made in the family cemetery under the direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that Beasie Swindall has filed application with the Floyd County Court for permit to operate a roadhouse at Drift, Ky., where soft drinks or beer or both, may be sold, and publishes this notice in accordance with state law. 3-20-21

sar Meade, McDowell, "dividend"; Charles Crum, Martin, "rings"; Kasaline Wood, Allen, "company"; Wilma Gearhart, Gary, "celebrations"; Doris C. Hall, Prestonsburg, "katie". The words were pronounced by Palmer Hall, Floyd county rural school supervisor. Judges were Attendance Officers Leonard Martin and Stanley A. Combs. In addition to the free trip for the winner to Louisville, the board of education presented each speller with a dictionary.

TOWN-WORLD

After some of the boys had become discouraged and had left him to tinker with the machine, Hugh finally straightened up and sang out, "Come on back, boys—she's working as good now as she did in 1900."

A BIT OF GOOD WORK

If any first-year athletic coach in these parts has done any better than Joe Taylor Hayden, of Prestonsburg high school, let us know. His football team wound up a hard schedule in what folks around here describe as a veritable blaze of glory by defeating Paintsville in that Thanksgiving game. Then he capped off a successful basketball season by winning the Floyd county championship and defeating Meade Memorial, the team that had been, all season long, sudden death to Inez.

GOODY!

If you'll read that news-story about organization of the Lions Club here, you'll find out that THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES has in Bill Wheeler what it has long needed. A talent!

Lions Clubs are non-political and non-sectarian civic organizations composed of representative business and professional men interested in the development of their community.

The purpose of a Lions Club is more than goodfellowship and club social life, important as these are. Its purpose is to recognize community needs, to discover the means of meeting those needs, and either by independent effort or through co-operation with other agencies, effect a remedy. In pursuance of this purpose the 4180 Lions Clubs in the Association successfully completed a total of 50,304 community activities during the past year.

Lions Clubs differ from similar organizations in that each club is required to submit a monthly report to the international office of the Association on the activities undertaken by the club during the month.

Lionism is an active and efficient civic effort and enterprise, a helpmate to every worthy community endeavor.

The Lions Code of Ethics follows:

5. To hold friendship as an end and not a means. To hold that true friendship exists not on account of the service performed by one to another, but that true friendship demands nothing but accepts service in the spirit in which it is given.
