Mr. Burke, a Republican, is 37 years old and is the son of late Dr. T. M. Burke and of Mrs. Louisa A. Burke, of Booneham. He received his legal education at the Louisville School of Law after having attended Berea College and the Louisiana Normal. He began the practice of law here in October, 1926.

Mr. Burke's statement in part, issued following his appointment, was: "The untimely death of our brother, your friend and servant, Forrest D. Short, has not only brought sorrow and sadness to all of us, but the people lost a faithful, courageous and fearless servant."

"I am extremely mindful of this fact and enter into the discharge of the duties of the office of County Attorney to the best of my ability. I fondly hope that the trust reposed in me by the Honorable E. P. Hill, County Judge, and numerous others will never abate."

"To Goldie Short, the widow, and Larry Douglas Short, the son of the late Forrest D. Short, I say to you that the office of County Attorney was entrusted to him and the emoluments therefrom (always well earned) were his. I have signed giving you half of this office, and I say to you that I will stand by that much and, if necessary demand then, more."

His adversary, Allen Slone, was unfortunate in the Commonwealth, with the defense offering no rebuttal save cross-examination of witnesses, claimed that Slone fired on Triplett first without a word being exchanged between the two men, blood enemies since the slaying of Mart Wickler, father-in-law of Triplett.

Slone himself did not testify during the hearing. Gracie Castie, a waitress in the restaurant of Joe Cooley, near which the affray took place, testified that the two first met inside the restaurant where Triplett told Slone that he had heard, "You have sent me word that you're going to kill me. I did," Slone was quoted as saying after which he was berated by Triplett. "Wait till I get my pistol," Slone then said, according to the Castle woman.

Slone was wearing his shirt sleeve, returned, shortly afterward, wearing a coat, his left hand inside his belt, the witness testified. He then fired without a word being exchanged between the two men, blood enemies since the slaying of Mart Wickler, father-in-law of Triplett.

'CASELOAD' LIGHTEST IN GENERATION, ALLEN SAYS

When the Knott circuit court convenes July 14, the amended docket in a generation will be ready for trial, Commonwealth's Attorney John Allen said last week.

The court docket contains, in all, only 82 cases, of which 31 are defendants "before the court" on default. In 51 not having been arrested up till Monday of this week.

Two murder cases are on the docket—that in which Melvin Bolen is accused of killing Jake Lester and the murder charge against Leonard Bolen in the ambush slaying of Floyd Wallen.

Three other murders will be investigated by the grand jury, Mr. Allen said.

16,817 LISTED FOR SCHOOLS

PER CAPITA RATE MAY NET FLOYD $213.575

A school population of 16,817—48 girls aged six to 17, inclusive—will net Floyd county, on the basis of the proposed school per capita of $12.70, a total of $213,575.90.

School census figures were released this week by County Attendance Officer Leonard Martin, who said that the total was approximately 500 short of last year's census. This shortage is accounted for by the removal of mine families from Wayland, Garrett, Lackey and other communities and by duplicated names in the taking of district census by teachers.

The census, as it now stands, is correct, Mr. Martin said, since he and his assistants have visited several districts in person to correct errors.

Of the 16,817 children listed, 8,545 are white boys, 8,033 are white girls. The remaining 238 are colored students.

JR. SPORTSMEN WORK TOLD

By E. R. BURKE, District Conservation Officer

During the latter part of the season Mr. A. Hayes, president of the Floyd County Fish and Game Club, organized Junior Sportsmen's clubs in the consolidated Mayday in Wayland, Prestonsburg and Martin, with a total membership of 554 boys.

The Fish and Game Division of Kentucky furnished Mr. Hayes with valuable literature for the boys, such as the Fish and Game laws, wildlife posters, trapping regulations, and for the post-ers information for hunters and fishermen. Kentucky road maps and stream maps. The Federal Cartridge Company, the Winchester Repeating Arms Company sent each of the members a copy of "Upland Game Restoration" and the Federal Cartridge Company sent each of the boys a complete set of conservation advertisements, posters on how to handle a gun and information on winter feeding of quail; the Sporting Arms and Ammunition Manufacturers Institute sent each a handbook on small-bore rifle shooting; and "The 10 Commandments of Safety" in the handling of fire-arms.

Congressman A. J. May had the U. S. Department of Agriculture send to each boy a copy of Terracing for Soil and Water Conservation, "The Boy's Book of Conservation, Propagation of Aquatic Game Birds, and Improving the Farm Environment for Wildlife.

Mr. Hayes gave the boys interesting lectures on conservation and care in handling of firearms; E. R. Burke, conservation officer, gave instructions in ball-casting in each of the schools. Mr. Hayes, assisted by Mr. Burke, staged a rifle match in each school and the two winners in each school were to compete for a first and second prize in the finals.

In Maytown the winner was Austin Cassidy with Arthur Marshall, runner-up. At Wayland J. D. Tutts was the winner with his brother, Curtis Tutts, the runner-up. At Prestonsburg Adrian, Charles was the winner, with Warren Delong the runner-up and at Martin they did not compete in the school shoot but the two winners in the finals at a later date, and also give to each boy a membership card.

MY FRIENDS

In announcing my candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the office of County Attorney, I do so fully aware of the uncertainty of political endeavor and the many pitfalls along the rugged road one must travel. Twenty long years I have maintained an office in Prestonsburg, where I have been engaged in the practice of law. Most of you know me and you know how I have always given my services, whether you were able to pay or not. Particularly do all of my comrades of the World War and their widows, children, and dependents know how I have ever been ready to do their work in preparing their claims against the Government, without even permitting them to pay the postage for mailing. Thousands of dollars have been paid to them by the Government as a result of my free work. Misfortune, however, befalls most of us at some time in life, and mine hit me about three years ago. During the time I was building a home for my wife and six children one of my sons was stricken with Undulant Fever and lay nine months in the balance between life and death. For fourteen long weary weeks he lay in the hospital. His mother stood over him every hour of that time except one night, while I kept house for the others, and went to and from the hospital where he lay. During part of that time I was building a home, and before the boy fully recovered, Bronchial Pneumonia hit me and for 22 days I lay in bed at home. By this time my money and credit were gone, and I couldn't go to the hospital myself, but thanks to three doctors, I pulled through, left, as you all have seen, in poor health, weighing about 25 pounds less than I did before that illness, and today I am still reaping in health the results of this and my hardships of World War days and nights in the rain and mud of the trenches.

That new home I built is now covered up with mortgages which, as a result of all these misfortunes, I'll not be able to pay if I lose this race. What has it profited me to have gone 3,000 miles across the ocean to a cold-hearted war-mad Europe and given my health, vigor, and youth, if now Providence turns me out in the world homeless and broken in health and spirit? Am I to enjoy that freedom I spilled my youthful blood to maintain, in a rented "shack" or will my friends stand by their guns in this campaign as loyally as I stood by mine in Flanders Field, and win this election for me so I can pay off these mortgages and enjoy it in this home I have built?

I'm not ashamed to unbosom the above misfortunes to you, because they were visited upon me by Providence. In fact I do so in order that you may know how anxiously my wife, children and I will be waiting for the count of your votes in this primary.

A new war is developing on the world now, and no one doubts for a moment the burning love anchored in my bosom for the welfare of all soldiers and their families. I want to continue to give free services to those who stood by my side in camps in this country and in the front line, in the thick of the battles on yonder Argonne, St. Mihiel and Flanders Fields. If our boys are to go to a new war, worse than the other, I shall always be ready and anxious to help them, and you parents too in every way I can. But friends, my vitality was sapped in that cold chilly rain of France. Misfortune has showered upon me physically and financially, so I come to you begging of you a vote so I'll have an office which will assure me an income sufficient to feed and school and clothe my family and thus be able to continue to give to my comrades and friends that same courteous, free service which I have always given.

I shall not promise you a lot of things impossible, but I do pledge you, upon my sacred honor, that if you elect me as your County Attorney, and if war does come, my office will be open for services on behalf of your boys as well as for my two who are within the age for military service to our country. We pray fervently, though, that war may be averted, because of its horrors, of which no one knows better than those of us who have been in it.

One more pledge and I'll close this, my opening appeal to you. Commodities are being given us by the Government, and all we have to do is arrange to deliver them to the people. If elected I'll stand four squares on my solemn promise to see to it that Floyd county shall not lose any commodities for lack of delivery. The taxes we pay are amply sufficient to haul all the Government will give us out to the people. That will be done if I am your County Attorney. My plan will be to get more of them and send them on to the people who need them. When my weary body lay in the mire of the trenches and my head pressed a steel helmet for a pillow many a sainted father and mother whispered a prayer for me, I was then enduring the hardships that have made of me Joe P. I am today, as compared with the same Joe P. of that day, who weighed 180 pounds.

I was worthy of your admiration in those crucial times and I have faith to believe you still are willing to lend me a helping hand in this, the most important undertaking of my entire life. It means so much to Mom, the kids and me.

Upon these facts and promises, I lay in your hands my fate, with full confidence that in your heart of human kindness my cause will find support so loyal that I know you will not let me down.

To the Democratic Voters Of Floyd County

After consulting with a host of my friends in dear old Floyd county, I became a candidate seeking the nomination for Jailer of Floyd county. Being a poor man and having a strong ambition to serve the people of Floyd county as a public officer, I ran two years ago for Circuit Court Clerk and lost by a small margin. I feel by so many of my friends requesting me to be a candidate this year if I can win in the August primary I can win in November.

So kind friends, while you journey through dangers of life and its uncertain future, I hope and sincerely trust that a kind providence may always smile upon you. None of us know when or where we may need assistance. But if fortune has been more kind to you than to me, please help me all you can to cast a ray of sunshine on my sad and gloomy pathway. You will be thankfully received and muchly appreciated if you will be self-supporting and not a burden on my fellowman. So when you come out on August 2 to vote, please let your good conscience direct you how you should vote. Your friend in need, BILL SHEPHERD for Jailer.

FOR JAILER We are authorized to announce J. C. W. BECKHAM STUMBO of McDowell, Ky., as a candidate for

Seven Vols Inducted

Draft officials hope to get all registrants classified by July 1, date of the next registration. The July 1 registration will be for those who have become 21 years old since October 16, last.

Harry T. Hill, of Draft Board 44, said that a number of questionnaires have been returned unclaimed, and asked that registrants who have not received their questionnaires communicate at once with his office. J. C. Cooley, of Draft Board 45, said that a large number of questionnaires returned to his office have been improperly filled, necessitating their return for correction. Filing of questionnaires by competent persons will eliminate such delay, he added.

Bond Denied Stone

stagger forward out of her range of vision.

The man named "Pat" — Pat Bentley — testified that Triplett called to him, smiling, and whispered that "Allen's got a pistol on him and I'm going to take it away from him. Stand by and watch me." He added that he watched Stone, as Triplett talked, draw his revolver and point it toward Triplett. "I whirled to the left and started running, heard a shot fired and heard a bullet whiz by me." The witness testified that Triplett could not have fired the shot which passed him.

Alex (Eck) Patton told of parking his car near the Cooley restaurant, of Stone coming to him and asking him when he was going to Wayland. Patton operates a projecting machine in the theatre at Wayland for M. H. Staley. Triplett came across the road, hands on his hips but not on his two pistols, a customary posture for the officer, the witness said. Stone fired without a word being spoken; whereupon Triplett jerked his two revolvers and began shooting.

"Jack" Triplett marched to his death, according to testimony of Patton. After the first shot was fired by Stone, according to this witness, the 20-year-old Triplett jerked two guns, began firing as he walked toward Patton's car, behind which Stone was partially sheltered. "After he had emptied both guns," Patton said, "Jack came on snapping them, dropped one and tried to re-load the other before starting to fall."

Surviving the victim are his wife, Mrs. Alta Wicker Triplett; a daughter of Mart Wicker for whose slaying Stone and Claret Messer were convicted in the Floyd Circuit court and given two-year penitentiary terms. Their sentences were reversed, however, by the Court of Appeals, and the case has been re-docketed for trial at the September court term.

Other survivors of Triplett are his father, Press Triplett, Ray, Ohio, four brothers and four sisters: Lindsay Triplett, Morehead; Chester Triplett, Ray, Ohio; Maryland Triplett, Dayton, Ohio; Clinton Triplett, of the U. S. Army, Alaska; Mrs. Pearl Collins, Lacey; Mrs. Rhoda Poudy, Ray, Ohio; Treacie and Mildred Triplett, Dayton, Ohio.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday the Rev. Alex Cobern officiating. Burial was made in the triplet cemetery on Jones Fork under the direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.
