WHY BLAME GOD?

Graveous were the Pope's spirit may be when he learns that THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES has disagreed with him. I am constrained to state my disbelief in his claim that the present war is God's punishment for the sins of mankind. My depth in theology is definitely on the shallow side, and so I mix my theory on the basis of human reasoning and Biblical teaching. God is a just God, we are told by the Bible.

God sends rain on the just and the unjust, saith the Bible. Then why should God unjustly send suffering upon the helpless and innocent women and children and old men because of the sins of the world?

And if the rain of death must fall upon the just and the unjust, why, pray, is it that the helpless innocent suffer more than those that are the "bad fruit"?

To end our questioning of the Vatican's theory we ask—Why blame all the misfortunes of humanity on God? Sure it was sin, wickedness or whatever you want to call the misbehavior and brutality of the genus misdeed world to war, that has brought the world of war. If man were unfaithful, if all were following the paths wherein only loving-kindness and mercy would goodwill among men are to be found—of course, there would not be any war.

Each punishment for sinfulness just naturally happens just as naturally as Little Topsy grew. If you want to blame anybody, Pope, for this mess we're in, why not name one A. Hitler and your fellow-countryman, B. Mussolini?

CHANCE WANTED

Classic example of a candidate saying what he wished his opponent had said is that advertised in this state office-seeker's tour are too long for that. The following the down-seller is said to have caused to be printed on his cards:

"I have never stolen from the country."
"I'M A CHAMP!"

UNDRESS UNIFORM

We didn't print the item because there was no name signed to the letter. But the underwear correspondent had a right enticing tale to tell. Wrote he or her, in effect:

"I left home in civilian, returned home in a slightly worn Army uniform. After his wife got through with him, he was dressed in regulation shoes, hat and coat minus his or the government's pants."

ADVERSE REPORTS

The weather being such as it is, we are reminded of the story told of the Chloian who had predicted for a small daily newspaper in his town what the weather would be for the next 24 hours with remarkable success. So uncanny his predictions that the meteorologist from Columbus made a special trip to see him, the story goes.

"Just how do you go about predicting the weather?" the man of science inquired of the small-town prognosticator. "You're right at least 80 per cent of the time."

"Was-a-ah!" drawled the small-towner, "you've heard that damned fool at Columbus forecast, ain't you? I just go slap-dab the other way from what he predicts."

NO. 1 HOLE

A new hole appeared on good, old Third street this week. If the state highway department doesn't rush to the rescue, the whole thing may start with writing with the heat.

NOT LOUD BUT EFFECTIVE

Although all we've heard of the fire department's siren, advertised as a siren that could be heard as far away as Allen, has been a cross between the wall of an atomic bomb and a fire alarm, in no particular rush to get anywhere, such belting terms certainly cannot be applied to the new fire-fighting equipment, and the department itself. Already, the new truck has saved four buildings here.

Since the structures were not destroyed, it's difficult for some folks to appreciate the true worth of the new equipment and its operation by the volunteer fire-fighters. THE TIMES, however, has a notion that this is the best investment Prestonsburg has made to date.

ATTEND HOMEcoming

Prestonsburg Odd Fellows who attended the I. O. O. F. Homecoming at Lexington Sunday were J. M. Parsley, J. L. Oppenheimer, James E. Goblet, Lon E. Groves, Ed May, Wally L. May, Lee P. May.

BULLET TESTS MAY SOLVE MYSTERY

STATE PATROLMEN JOIN IN PROBE OF SLAYING

The slaying of ballistics was being depended upon this week as an aid to the solution of the mystery-assassination at Garrett on the night of June 15 of Police Officer Jerry Lee.

Governor Silent

Commonwealth's Attorney Allen said that he had received no reply from Governor Keen Johnson after transmitting to him by wire a copy of the Floyd fiscal court's offer of a reward of $250 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the slayer. It was expected, the official added, that the state would match the reward posted by the county.

UNDRESS UNIFORM

We didn't print the item because there was no name signed to the letter. But the underwear correspondent had a right enticing tale to tell. Wrote he or her, in effect:

"I left home in civilian, returned home in a slightly worn Army uniform. After his wife got through with him, he was dressed in regulation shoes, hat and coat minus his or the government's pants."

180 REGISTER AS CANDIDATES

MIDNIGHT THURSDAY, FINAL DEADLINE, IS RULING

One hundred eighty candidates registered at the County Clerk's office here for positions on the August primary ballot and the total was expected to go higher by midnight today (Thursday) deadline for registration.

Although candidates were jockeying for political positions, they were worth as the deadline approached, only three withdrawals had been made up till Thursday morning.

Some doubt was expressed here as to the actual registration deadline, some holding that Wednesday midnight marked the final date at which candidates could officially file and be within the 30 days before election. But officials here acted under the limit fixed at Frankfort. It was said, and filing will continue till tonight at 12 o'clock.

The executive tally's office at Frankfort has tallied 18 Democrats and six Republicans for the largest district. In the four Magisterial districts of the count 45 lists for candidates.

In addition to these, there are 12 candidates for town offices at McDowell, Wayland, Wheelwright, Martin and Lecky.

FISCAL COURT EYES CLAIMS

LOAN OF $80,000 TO BE SOUGHT FROM BANKS

The Floyd fiscal court's first session of the new fiscal year began Tuesday and continued into Wednesday as the court was faced with the task of considering a long list of claims, some of which were months old.

To pay claims allowed under the 1941-42 fiscal year budget, the court Tuesday adopted a resolution authorizing the borrowing of $80,000 from the Bank of Kentucky and $40,000 from the First National Bank at an interest rate of four per cent. The loans are to be secured by 12-month notes against the county's revenue for the 1941-42 fiscal year.

During Tuesday's session the judge, after paying Prestonsburg Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, rent on the WPA school quarters in the Odd Fellows' building here, directed that no further rent be paid for the rooms.

FOR COUNTY COURT CLERK

Z. S. (Dick) DICKERSON OF FLOYD COUNTY: Like many of you who will read this, I am obliged to say for a living, I work six days a week, and for this reason may not have the opportunity of meeting all of you before the election. It is my hope, that you will understand the circumstances under which I am making this race.

Do not appeal to you for your support solely on the grounds that I need the office, though my election would relieve me of heavy financial burdens. I ask your support, rather, on the grounds that I am a life-long Democrat of never-failing loyalty and am qualified to make Floyd county a good County Court Clerk.

Ask those who know me — ask about my character, my willingness to be of help to others, my understanding of the problems of others. Then decide for yourselves who most deserves the office and who will serve you best.

Your friend,
Z. S. (Dick) DICKERSON (Pol. adv.)

PROCLAMATION

Due to the large crowd expected in town tomorrow for the Fourth celebration, traffic will be seriously congested. A crowd of six or eight thousand Floyd countians living outside of Prestonsburg is anticipated. Parking space will be a problem for the police department.

In the hope of lightening this burden on the police and offering the truest hospitality and comfort to those who will be our guests for the day, it is sincerely urged that owners of cars in the city kindly leave their automobiles at home on this one glorious day.

'Better Call Doctor,' Was Man's Advice, Woman Says

When Cret Green blundered a revolver inside her West Prestonsburg home Sunday, Mrs. Josephine Campbell Wallen threatened to "call the law." Youth being called a doctor, Green replied Mrs. Wallen told relatives.

His bullet passed through the woman's thigh and wounded itself in her other leg. Mrs. Wallen is recovering at the Prestonsburg General hospital.

Green was arrested shortly after the shooting by Deputy Sheriff Tom James, Policemen Ed Laffey, Arthur Blankenship and Albert Horn. He claimed the shooting was accidental. Officers said Green had been drinking.

Leslie Will Win For County Clerk

Edward B. Leslie is qualified. He is Young, Able, Efficient, Courteous, Accommodating and Deserving. This is his first time to ask for the office.

When elected, he will not try to become a rich man out of the office. He will receive no salaries other than the amount allowed by law. He is vigorously opposed to any man who makes a public office to make a fortune at the expense of the taxpayers. He believes that no man should ask the people for a "doe" on an office. Do as a citizen, believe that there is only one man qualified for the Clerk's Office? Don't you think that there are many people in Floyd County who are well qualified to hold office if given an opportunity?

You Fathers and Mothers are making many sacrifices in order to educate your child on. Some day they will be asking for their first job just as Edward B. Leslie is asking for this office for the first time. Are we going to get jobs out of those who are rich and powerful? Are we going to let people go to college and then get a job? We will then say "Well, that man can't be defeated because he has too much money."

As Citizens, Taxpayers and Voters, let's be fair and face the facts. Do we believe that we should keep the Rev. C. C. Cobbs, Bishop of God, and Lenore Crisp, 18 Missions, in their positions? Let's be fair and face the facts. Do we believe that we should keep the Rev. C. C. Cobbs, Bishop of God, and Lenore Crisp, 18 Missions, in their positions? Let's be fair and face the facts. Do we believe that we should keep the Rev. C. C. Cobbs, Bishop of God, and Lenore Crisp, 18 Missions, in their positions?

CHANGE IN THE COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE?

No man is so rich or so powerful that he cannot lose. In a DEMOCRACY it is the PEOPLE themselves who have the Real Power and on August 2 they will use it to elect a new County Clerk.

MINERS TOLD TO IGNORE WORK SIGNS

VACATION PERIOD IN THIS SECTION BEGINS TODAY

United Mine Workers of America throughout this section went on vacation Thursday morning in the face of work signs posted by operators. It was said here:

The workers were instructed by union officials to ignore work signs. Sam Caddy, Lexington, president of District 30, U.M.W.A., said Monday that the matter of vacations for miners is a long one being discussed as an issue in contract negotiations.

The vacation period ends July 8, but unless the Southern operators sign the proposed two-year contract on or before July 7, work will not be resumed. Only the Harlan field has refused to accede to union demands in completing contract negotiations, and operators of that section were in a special talk at Lexington with union officials Thursday. It was said here.

In the Hazard field miners were warned they would be subject to contract penalties of $2 a day for every day they did not work when "week signs" are posted. "As far as we are concerned," said J. R. Hurt, superintendent of the Sandy Valley Coal Company at Water Gap, near here, "we are still working under the old contract, plus wage increases demanded by the addendum to the agreement reached April 30 between union officials and the Southern operators under which work was resumed after their second child. The 1939 contract which expired March 31 is to remain in effect, with the exception of wage and tonnage rate increases, with no vacation period provided."

To the Democratic Voters of Floyd County

After consulting with a host of my friends in the old Floyd county, I became a candidate seeking the nomination for Jailer of Floyd county. Being a poor man and having a strong ambition to serve the people of Floyd county as a public officer, I ran two years ago for Circuit Court Clerk and lost by a small margin. I feel by so many of my friends requesting me to be a candidate this year if I can win in the August primary I can win in November.

So, kind friends, while you journey through dangers of life and its unseason future, I hope and sincerely trust that a kind providence may always smile upon you. None of us know when nor where we may need assistance. But if fortune has been more kind to you than to me, please help me all you can to ease a ray of sunshine on my sad and gloomy pathway. Your aid will be thankfully received and wisely used so that I will be self-supporting and not a burden on my fellowman. So when you come out on August 2 to vote, please let your good conscience direct you how you should vote.

Your friend in need,
BILL SHEPHERD for Jailer

FOR JAILER

We are authorized to announce UNCLE GEORGE MEADE of Ambs, Ky., as a candidate for JAILER OF FLOYD COUNTY subject to the action of the Democratic party at the August, 1941 primary.

A man who has braved the battles of life for his friends, and Democracy, and who has never asked public favor, I now ask my relatives and many friends to support me in this race for Jailer of Floyd county. A man who is just and deserving. I am taking this opportunity to thank you for the many past favors, and for your vote on August 2, which I am sure you will contribute.

5-22-31-pd

FOR TAX COMMISSIONER

We are authorized to announce JACK SELLARDS of Banner, Ky., (Member of Local Union No. 589, Wheelwright, Ky.) as a candidate for TAX COMMISSIONER subject to the action of the Democratic party at the August, 1941 primary.

I have served as your Tax Commissioner and devoted those years of hard work in an effort to serve the people as I thought they deserved official service. How well I succeed, you people of this county know best. If elected again I promise you exactly the same kind of honest, efficient, sympathetic service in behalf of your taxpayers.

I will not only visit your home or office of business and take your list, but I will also work conscientiously with the board of supervisors in making the assessment adjustments.

Faithfully yours,
JOE P. TACKETT

FOR JAILER

We are authorized to announce DAY HALL of Prestonsburg, Ky., for JAILER subject to the action of the Republican party at the August primary.

We will always have the poor, the crippled and the blind with us. I am willing, if elected, to give one-fourth of my salary to their support. Have any other candidates for the office have the same spirit?

MY PLEDGE
If elected County Attorney, I promise four years of devoted work for building more rural roads and securing and delivering commodities to the needy in greater amounts.

Faithfully yours,
JOE P. TACKETT

FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY

Since the untimely death of Forrest Short I have become a candidate for County Attorney of Floyd county. I have been actively engaged in the general practice of law in this county for the past seven years and have never asked for public office. Elect me to this office and you will have an honest, faithful and efficient administration.

WOODROW BURCHETT

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I hereby announce my candidacy for the Republican nomination for the office of Sheriff of Floyd county.

During the World War I served my country as a soldier in France having mined coal for five years, and during the past three and one-half years I have worked for the present Sheriff as deputy. During this time there have been a great many homicides in Floyd county, and so we have caught or assisted in catching, every man wanted on a warrant for the killing of his fellow man. My record is open for your inspection.

Nominate me and I will win in November. Your vote and influence will be appreciated. A fair deal to every one is my promise to the people.

FOR MAGISTRATE
In becoming a candidate for the Republican nomination for Magistrate in District No. 3, I am not going so from force of habit—I am a candidate because friends and good citizens from all parts of the district have persisted in urging me to make the race.

To the Unions of Floyd County:

Having been a coal digger in the past and a day laborer, and sympathizing with any man who makes his living by daily toil, I have been interested upon learning recently that the various hospitals have agreed to raise your dues from $1.50 to $2.00, which is a 33.3 per cent increase—very large increase when you think about it.

It seems to me that it would be wise for the various Unions to have their dues for hospitalization checked off by the companies and paid over to their treasurer and deposited in some bank in a common fund, and when hospitalization is necessary, permit the miner or whoever he may be, to choose his own hospital and, when discharged, the treasurer would draw a check and pay the bill. This system would eliminate a continued fight in your camp as to where you should go and will eliminate a lot of dissension.

I merely write this article, that you may think it over; and if there is anything good in it, work out some plan for your own safety and welfare.

THE NATION'S NEEDS FIRST

CALL upon all loyal citizens to place the nation's needs first in mind and action. From this day until the emergency shall have passed, that is the pillar of cloud by day, the pillar of fire by night, which the American people must steadfastly follow. By this standard every act, every thought, must be judged—"the nation's needs first."

It is 24 years since the nation was called upon to think and to act so. The tumultuous times followed, with every man out for himself and the devil take the hindmost—with the result that the devil came pertinently near getting us. The tremulous times followed that, a period of bruised and bitter effort to put Humpty Dumpty together again. Now the fighting forties have roared in upon us.

It is just possible that if there had been, in the twenties, a little more thought of "the nation's needs first," the thirties would not have been so terrible. It is just possible, that had the thirties known a little more of such a thought, we would have recovered faster.

Now the dark shadow of war, falling across the world and ever nearer to our own homeland, dictates with inexorable force the single policy of salvation. "The nation's needs first." What we would not do because it was wrong and right, we would not do because it is our only hope of preserving all that is good in our political and social order.

Does a shipbuilder or airplane mechanic pause in his work and ask, "Can't I get a little more out of this?" The American people want him to get justice, but always—the nation's needs first. Does a manufacturer hesitate to "farm out" much of a fat government contract, as he so reluctantly to expand facilities or inclined to haggle over a profit? The American people want him to get justice, but always—the nation's needs first. Business as usual, life as usual, these are set behind us. There is no longer any salvation, even for the most selfish, except in placing the nation's needs first in mind and action.

TO THE WOMEN OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I cannot come to you individually and ask you to vote for my husband, Vinyl Osmer Turner, for County Attorney because I am an invalid. So I am writing in The Times answers to the questions I think you would ask me were I able to come to see you.

WHO IS HE?
He is a native of Floyd County, 33 years old, a son of Jack Turner, deceased, and of Laura Belle Allen, deceased. He is in good health and to whom many of you must have gone to school. He is a grandson of Jobe Turner and of "Uncle Newt" Allen and a great-grandson of Judge George May, the minister, who used to ride circuit throughout this and adjoining counties. He is in good health and well able to do the work of the office. This is the first time he has asked for a public office.

IS HE QUALIFIED?
Perfectly. He is a graduate of Berea College. He has a Master's Degree in Political Science and Law from the University of Kentucky. He studied law at the University of Kentucky and Duke University Law School, paying his tuition as he may soon be, he will re-ward through school by working trise now. Today we must think of "all of us" before "myself." We all fall as individuals if our way of life fails. Judge yourself long before others have the opportunity to judge you. Measure every thought and act by that from measure for measure. "The Nation's Needs First."—Ashland Daily Independent.

THE MOUNTAIN PREACHER

Perhaps in no other region has the preacher had so much to do with preserving the elements of culture and civilization as here in the mountains of Kentucky. Through the long years of separation from the education and developments of the Eastern colonies and the Miter Country, while there were sermons, crude and faulty as they often were, being attempted at imitation on English sermons and speeches, carried on through those stormy periods the best that was then extant in the language and philosophy of the hills. To him mountainers of several generations owe much of their faith of logic and speaking. Though often mixed with qualities that were only local, yet there were elements of classic expression and signs of the great oratory that played a great part in English and Irish history—echoes of Elizabethan English and Irish history.

Investigation seems to prove that the early preachers of the mountains long before the building of railroads were not the inferior type some have thought. One who once lived near the Cumberland Falls was a clerk in a regiment of Kentucky Volunteer Infantry that fought with honor at Vicksburg in the same regiment. Later on William E. Barton, the father of Bruce Barton, preached and taught school in a thinly settled point in Knox county. He became famous as author, served many years as pastor of a Chicago church, and taught at Vanderbilt University for a time, a could not begin to name the many speakers of talent who debated and argued with much eloquence their various doctrines back through the years that preceded the founding of colleges. One we remember will add: "As a student of the mountain preachers, we hope, also are accompanying living even more than they know of for the section known as the "mountains."—The Corbin Tribune.

and by a scholarship. He was admitted to the Kentucky Bar in 1938. He has been principal of the Maytown high school for five years and from that position has gained a widened understanding of the people of the county, their problems and needs. Much of the work of the County Attorney has to do with punishing of citizens who have committed crimes. "For this work he specialized in school and has followed this study by working with children as school principal. Mothers, if your child comes before him, this training will help him to deal out justice and to return your child to his proper place in life."

WHAT CAN WE EXPECT OF HIM IF HE IS ELECTED?
Fairness, consideration, justice, courtesy, complete honesty, intelligent and capable attention to the duties of the office. Mothers, if he is elected County Attorney you can expect that a case involving your child will be given fair and expert attention. Which of you would require more?
HERE, VIRGIL OSMER TURNER (Pol. adv.)

TIDBITS OF KENTUCKY FOLKLORE

EARLY RISING
OUR LIVES have become so complex that regular hours for everybody are no longer possible or advisable. But when most of us were farmer folk or were closely allied to them, things were different. Consequently what was the standard for a community became almost as severe as the laws of the Medes and Persians. To deviate very much from this standard meant that one was deliberately

The matter of early rising became almost a fetish. Just what was or is the correct time to rise is not well known. But the idea of getting up before the sun, even in the long days of summer, seems to have been the least of it. To rise like the woman in the Proverbs, "While it is yet night," seemed to be most virtuous. Some of our neighbors regarded this in the same light as ringing the farm dinner bell one hour earlier than any one else. You could get up any time after four o'clock in the morning and see the lights on in the cottages, where the woman of the house was cooking breakfast, while out at barn, where the house was feeding the stock and milking the cows. When I taught my first son, I boarded with a farm family that always ate both breakfast and supper by lamplight. The 4:05 train used to pass while we were at breakfast. I do not know to this day when the housewife slept, for she was up washing dishes when I went to sleep and up with breakfast prepared when I awoke. The neighborhood seemed to demand this killing routine, and my landlady and landlord would have broken their heads if I were not quick to neighborhood customs.

The thing that always amused and somewhat angered me when I was a child, was the fact that I was just as early when there was nothing to do as when the farm needed our every attention. On Sunday morning when the cows had a beauty nap of several hours in length, we were routed out of our warm beds to feed the stock and to milk the cows. It was a morning that would see us starting with a load of tobacco to the county seat or a morning when our fathers got the order of the day. We boys always declared that our heads got up earlier on the mornings after we had been to a party than on our girls up the creek and had thus got home late.

The strength of such social customs as early rising is much greater than that of superstitions. I have never known a superstition that was believed by a whole neighborhood, some skeptic would say, but hundreds of these same brave souls were afraid to dare social custom by staying in bed after breakfast serving any kind of breakfast except the standardized one of the community or having meals at times other than at the regular hours. A dinner served in the evening would have branded the woman doing such a rash thing as either a lunatic or a person of mental decay. It was just as not done in respectable families.

Letter From London Thanks Red Cross For Its Aid

Floyd Chapter, American Red Cross is in receipt of the following letter from the Woman's Voluntary Services for Civil Defence, London, England, expressing the organization's appreciation for the Chapter's contributions toward the relief of those who have suffered at the hands of the German Luftwaffe:

As chairman of the WVS, I want to thank every member of your Chapter for the wonderful contributions you have sent us for the help this has been to everyone who has suffered. The girls received have made it possible to assist people who could not do otherwise. The bombing of their homes, people who have not only lost their possessions but often members of their family as well.

I wonder if you realize how much the fact that each individual member of you has shown self-sacrifice and understanding in your gift has helped to strengthen the courage and the determination of the recipients of what you have sent. Every man, woman and child in this country is playing a definite part in the battle which is now being fought and it is because of your help and sympathy that battle strain is less acute.

It is for this reason that as chairman of WVS, acting for the American Red Cross in matters of civilian relief in this country I think you both on behalf of those who benefit by your generosity and of my members who have the job of handling your gifts.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

HISTORY AND A CORRECTION Editor, Floyd County Times: As a bit of historic information pertaining to my Revolutionary ancestors, also a slight correction, I would like to say that Colonel David Morgan (my great-great-grandfather) and William Morgan, who met their deaths on the same day and were buried in one grave in the Davidson cemetery near Banner, Floyd county, Ky., were father and son and NOT brothers. Colonel David Morgan enlisted in the Virginia Continental lines at the age of 17 years and served all through the War for Independence, receiving from Virginia at different times warrants for land grants for services in the continental lines. In 1783 he was given a land grant of several hundreds of acres of land extending into what is now Eastern Kentucky for continental services until close of the war. In 1790 Col. David Morgan, accompanied by his son William, and his daughter, Mary and her husband, Gen. Alexander Lackey, came to Floyd county, Ky., from Patrick county, Va. Col. David Morgan was a younger brother of Gen. Daniel Morgan and served all through the Revolution, also fought in the French and Indian War with Washington, was in Arnold's expedition against Quebec in 1775-6, gained distinction at Saratoga in 1777, and in 1779, when he was made Brigadier General in 1780 and made history at the battle of Cowpens, S. C., in 1781. The most brilliant American victory of the war. There is another of whom I wish to make mention and that is Gen. John Hunt Morgan, who was said to have been the "handsomest man in Kentucky and the MOST DARING," who fought so gallantly for our beloved Southland during the War Between the States. He was of this same Revolutionary Morgan stock and a Kentuckian who is a Virginian, born away from home and visa versa.

WHO WILL IT BE FOR SHERIFF?

Fellow taxpayers and Floyd countyans, Kentucky is famed for its horse races, while Floyd county is noted for its political races. But this year in Floyd county we have a political race which stands in great many respects our Kentucky Horse Races.

The race referred to is the one for Sheriff to be elected in 1941. The candidates are: Hon. W. L. Stumbo, in this particular race we see "Trainer" Bev Sturgill grooming the horse, while the other hand, we see "Honest John" the former County School Superintendent, who has a clean record-book, "reading with the words of 'HOLDERS BEV' AND 'JOCKEY WALK'."

Now, fellow taxpayers of Floyd county, with a little retrospection you can recall one of the worst political SCANDALS that ever occurred in our good county. But "uncle Sam" was too big for the "Boys." He was so big that he save no heed to Memorials and Petty Petitions, but suspended "Trainer" Bev's "jockey" for "HOLDING" in the "Home Stretch." But during all this, where was "Honest John?" He was using his "razor" and "lamb" to our county "readin', ritin' and 'rithmetical" and how to become better citizens.

Taxpayers, John Stephens has never given, either by your bitter pills to "swallow" either politically or morally. So, the question is—WHO WILL IT BE FOR SHERIFF? Let's NOMINATE John Stephens, who served us successfully once upon a time, as County Superintendent. Now, fellow Democrats and Taxpayers, on AUGUST 2, by voting for Honest John let's show "Trainer" Bev Sturgill, "Jockey" W. L. Stumbo, and "Trainer" Taylor our party is sick of "MOTH-EATEN" BALLOT BOXES AND SUPERFLUOUS COUNTY CLAIMS.

FORWARD MARCH with John Stephens as the NOMINEE AUGUST 2 and finally in November, the winner and our next Sheriff. (Pol. adv.)

PROCLAMATION

TO THE CITIZENS OF PRESTONSBURG AND FLOYD COUNTY:

YOU ARE hereby requested to forsake other activities of the day to spend a few minutes with the President of the United States and other loyal citizens to dedicate themselves to the real meaning of the Fourth of July. The liberty that this country has enjoyed since the day of its liberation from a foreign power, when it was proclaimed to the world in 1776 that every American citizen was at liberty to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, with equality and justice to all. May this nation continue to enjoy that liberty, and we will continue as long as a drop of blood flows through our veins regardless of any foreign potentate. President Roosevelt will address the nation at 4 p. m. (EST) after which the United States Marine Band at Washington will play the national anthem. Every citizen is requested to listen to this broadcast and dedicate himself to the real meaning of our liberty.

E. P. ARNOLD, Mayor

TRAVEL BULLETIN TODAY'S ROADS

Prepared by Eastern Kentucky Automobile Club

THE NATION'S CAPITAL

Washington, already one of the nation's leading travel objectives, will have two outstanding new attractions for the great army of tourists that will flock to the city on the Potomac this summer.

The memorial to Thomas Jefferson, on the banks of the tidal basin—that mirror-like body of water which many tourists remember as it is in the springtime, fringed with Japanese cherry blossoms—will not be completed until early in summer or early autumn, but its classic design will provide a new landmark even during the present season, and will be readily visible to visitors going to and from Washington's other hundred and one attractions.

The new National Gallery of Art already has opened its doors to the public, and the public is proving its appreciation for the millions of dollars worth of art treasures housed in the rose-tinted Tennessee marble structure by taking advantage of every hour that the gallery is open to go inside and marvel at the rose-tinted marble and detail of the Venetian school, the lavish use of gold by the earliest Italian painters, and all major highlights in the development of painting down through the centuries.

And for the frequently foot-worshipping tourists, the designers of the "HOLDING" Art in the "Home Stretch," referred to as the Mellon Gallery, felt that art was to be "absorbed" rather than gawked at in passing, so comfortable seating has been provided throughout the Gallery so that visitors may be seated and drink in the details of their favorite masters.

Dedication of the Mellon Gallery on March 17 this year by President Roosevelt commemorated a plan formulated by the late Andrew W. Mellon, former secretary of the treasury during the years he spent in Washington in his government service, and later announced by him in a letter to President Roosevelt in December, 1936. In his letter, Mr. Mellon offered to build and give to the nation an art gallery, stipulating that it should not bear his name. The gift was to include his lifetime collection of paintings and sculpture which he hoped would become the nucleus of a great national collection. The gift was accepted by act of Congress of March 24, 1937, and a site for the building along Constitution Avenue and the Mall was provided. Some idea of the size of the building may be gathered from the fact that it is 785 feet long (the United States Capitol is 751 feet in length) and required 800 carloads of hard surface, rose-white Tennessee marble in its construction—in addition of course to many carloads of other stone. The marble used in the building represents one of the most extensive applications of this material to any single building in the world.

"BEAR YE ONE ANOTHER'S BURDENS"

1918 "He Cometh Forth as a Flower . . . And Withereth Like the Grass" 1941

One of the richest things I learned by my World War experience and service was the complete realization of the full meaning of the above command—"Bear Ye One Another's Burdens." As precious as drinking water was on the battlefield, it was a source of genuine consolation to me throughout those nine long, weary months I spent in hospitals, receiving treatment for my wound, to know that in the midst of all that awful shell, rifle, and machine gun fire, I had stopped on my way to a first aid station and turned to the parched lips of a wounded and dying comrade, my canteen and last drop of water. Two fine young men are now opposing me in this, my last call for a cool drink of water of human kindness—votes. Yes, I'm wounded and on the battlefield, my burning desire to honorably go forward need to be quenched, but alas, though, these two neighbors approach with a canteen filled with "Bitters" instead, and I'm offered that. I hold no ill-will toward either of them though. They have the same right to run for the County Attorney that I have. That's why I was on the battlefield—to preserve that right for them. But boys, if our situations were reversed and you were Joe P. and I was Woodrow or Virgil either, I would still repeat that little act of kindness over again. I'd come along and find you wounded—wounded physically and financially, and I'd stop and out of the fullness of my heart I'd wet your parched throat with the last drop of my water and take chances on finding more.

son of his, and was about to lose his home, that I would take him in my car and drive all night to Frankfort and return, releasing Governor Laffoon from his promise to me of a good job and getting it for John. Yes, Troy, I'll forgive you, even though my home is now under mortgage because of the sickness of my son. You see, Troy, you just haven't had the pleasure of really softening up your heart, but Troy, won't you be good enough to actually tell these good folks that, after all, Joe P. is a fairly good fellow? You see, Troy, I didn't owe it to you or John to just give you the job, but Troy, I hope when you come in at night after spending the day fighting me, that you don't have any trouble about sleeping. Don't let it bother you too much. After all, Troy, if you defeat me it only means that the same thing with which you touched my heart for John will happen to me. You told me, you remember, that if I didn't go to Frankfort that night and get that job for John that he would lose his home. That's what will happen to me, Troy, if you defeat me in this race. Don't you think, Troy, you'd better change canteens and give me one with "water" in it and take this one with the "Bitters" in it back? "Bear Ye One Another's Burdens."

Ever since my World War days I've carried this kind of a heart in my bosom, and I call to witness this statement a man who is now calling on you, my voters, daily, trying to get you to vote against me. That man is Troy B. Sturgill, but I can also forgive him, because he has never seen a comrade with pale, pink blood bubbling out of a bullet hole in his chest as he gasped faintly, "water, water." If Troy's heart had been touched with a few experiences like this he could understand why, when he came to me a few years ago with a sad story of how his brother John had mortgaged his home trying to save the eyesight of that fine

Friends, I hope I've not tired you with this message. I do want your vote and if you are a Republican and can't vote for me this time, I'd love to have your good wishes and personal friendship anyway. I promise you all that I'll give you four years of the very best there is in me. After all, the job of being the lawyer for the county is a big job. A man, to safeguard the rights of the county in all its civil legal matters, ought to be a "tolerably" good lawyer, and with 23 years of actual law practice, I believe I can fairly well give you satisfactory service. I'll do my best for you if you will give me the job and I'll swear that's all either of my opponents can do. I leave it to you whether or not I am QUALIFIED, EXPERIENCED, LOYAL, DESERVING AND ACCOMMODATING ALWAYS.
