OFFICIAL ORGAN FOR FLOYD COUNTY, KY. $1.50 Per Year. Proprietor: NORMAN ALLEN, Editor

Entered as second class matter June 18, 1927, at the postoffice at Prestonsburg, Ky., under the act of March 3, 1879.

ANOTHER REASON FOR LAW-ENFORCEMENT

As never before, there is a need for strict enforcement of the law—enforcement, from the acts of the arresting official on up till the trial of the offender is concluded.

This need arises from the fact that this is an age wherein we are all near the scene of the law's operations, have the privilege of seeing the machinery work, of looking either up or down to it.

The newspapers, the radio and good roads have integrated communities, states and nations. Isolationists we have, but no isolation. The workings of a court in Prestonsburg, for instance, are as well-known to the man or woman on the heads of the creeks as it is to those who reside within a rifle-shot of the courthouse.

There was a time, far back in the good, old days, when the law was a mythical goblin that would get you "ef'n you didn't walk out." Now, it isn't a thing to scare folk with; it's a living reality to us all—a potent force for good or a pitiful something that means next to nothing.

These days, justice is on trial with us all sitting in the jury box. Or all of us hear the evidence. Arrest of one man for an offense and protection of another by enforcement officers are things which become known; a heavy penalty in the courts for one, a dismissal for another, is common knowledge.

No public official need flatter himself that he is too "smart" for the public; no official, in the exercise of his office, can arrive at the conclusion that he is beyond the scrutiny of the public gaze. The hand may be quicker than the eye, but not the ponderous-moving machinery of the law.

In these days when the law is to be respected, it must be administered in a respectable manner.

LABOR UNIONISM AT ITS WORST

The Detroit transportation strike is unionism at its worst. It is the most irresponsible and least just how bad it is can best be realized by reciting its highlights.

The city, which operates the transportation system, has a contract with the A. P. of L. union that runs until August, 1942. The A. P. of L. claims a majority of operating employees.

Apparently C. I. O. organizers were too active in taking members away from the A. P. of L. and officials of the latter union called a strike to force the city to recognize it.

When the A. P. of L. union struck, the Mayor shut down the whole system rather than take a chance on violence that might erupt if the C. I. O. workers undertook to operate the lines.

Apparently the A. P. of L. is trying, by strike method to force the city into an advance pledge of recognition.

meed a general strike of 60,000 other unionists in sympathy. We have no interest in undertaking to assay merit, because neither union is right in this situation. In the first place it is a jurisdictional fight, which is legal in private industry, but absolutely inexcusable when directed against public safety and convenience, as this one is.

There is sharp division in the army over this. Approved unit commanders have been clamoring at the bit for the tanks now beginning to roll off assembly lines. They want to let our tanks and their men and officers but to keep up morale—which says when modern war machines are missing or inoperative.

Buck privates to generals have gripped over being forced to "play at soldier" in this kind of a situation. They claim causes for the strong sentiment among citizen soldiers against extension of the year's service.

On the other hand, the general staff believes that it is far more vital to the immediate security of the U. S. to let our tanks and their men and officers but to keep up morale.

The strategists contend that a U. S. tank is performing a more valuable service knocking out Nazis on the torrid deserts of North Africa than it is doing in a training camp in Texas.

It does injury to the whole cause of labor, not to mention what it may do to the defense program in an area like Detroit if the fight extends to affiliated unions.

"THE BRIAR BUCK SPECIAL"
Never let it be said that Briar Buck won't take a hint! That little high-powered, one-coach choo-choo that rides the rails between Purg and the good town of David, Ky., will hereafter be known by no other name than its true handle, "THE BRIAR BUCK SPECIAL!" (Ahem! Thanks, Norman.)

TEACHER SHORTAGE
Reports from surrounding counties seem to indicate that Floyd county not only has an abundance of wealth, work and wickedness, but is also the only county in this section which has a surplus of school teachers.

A Mason county school board representative was over on the side of the border last week looking for school marma to keep their school from being closed. The board of teachers for $10 a month.

Prestonsburg Takes Early Lead Sunday To Lock Pikeville

Putting together five runs in the first two innings, Prestonsburg easily defeated Pikeville here Sunday behind the five-hit twirling of Ray Patton. Pikeville scored in the first on three errors and again in the sixth, but neither run was earned.

The big Prestonsburg right-hander also led his team at bat with a homer and double in four times up. Roark and Crum each drove safely, one of Crum's hits being for the circuit. Henderson and J. Radliff, with two hits each, were the only batters to have any success in solving Patton's offerings. The box score:

Table with columns: AB, R, H, O, A, E. Rows for Prestonburg and Pikeville.

Summary: Earned runs—Prestonsburg 7, Pikeville 6. Runs batted in—Salsburg, Vanhose, R. Patton 2, Crum, P. Butcher, Wiggins. Two-base hits—Roark, B. Patton, Harmon, Henderson, J. Radliff, Wiggins. Stolen bases—Roark 2, Crum, P. Butcher, C. Patton, Moore, Henderson 2. Double plays—Crum 2, P. Butcher, Wiggins. Sacrifices—Harmon, P. Patton, Harmon, Henderson 2. Murder Case Is Unsolved

Louis, Ky., Aug. 23—County Judge S. A. Ball tonight concluded a six-hour court inquiry into the shotgun slaying of Dan Brown, Jr., and County Attorney M. J. See announced afterwards that "we're no nearer a solution" to the case.

Brown, 19-year-old Richardson youth, was found dead beside his automobile on the Levisa river road last Tuesday morning. He had been shot in the neck.

See announced that 23 witnesses from the Richardson and Borders' Chapel district, 18 miles south of Louisa, were questioned, and added that "we will not continue the investigation until after the transcript of today's testimony had been completed and restudied."

Also participating in the court today were Commonwealth's Attorney Tom Burchett, Paul Gillum, his investigator, both of Ashland, and Lawrence County Sheriff Proctor Byflier.

Campaign Continues For Better Gardens

Further plantings of vegetables for fall and winter gardens is suggested in a statement from the Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

Greens, turnips, lettuce, radishes, mustard and kale are among the garden crops that will give returns if the weather is favorable. The Seven Top is the suggested variety of turnips for greens; Purple Top and White Globe for table turnips; White or Rose Chinese or any other early radish; Siberian kale, and Grand Rapids or New York lettuce.

The United States Department of Agriculture at Washington continues to stress the importance of gardens in the national defense program. Farmers, and all others having garden space are urged to plan extensive plantings for next season. These plans should include proper care of the soil through the winter.

As a result of a state-wide campaign, conducted through the extension division of the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, gardens were exceptionally large and productive in Kentucky during the spring and early summer. Plantings also were heavy for fall gardens, but drought seriously damaged late crops in parts of the state.

FREE! TRAINING that is worth $1500.00

READ HOW YOU TOO CAN BECOME AN EXPERT IN AVIATION, RADIO OR ENGINEERING AND DRAW GOOD PAY WHILE YOU LEARN!

IF YOU WANT to get ahead fast, to serve your country, to build yourself a good-paying future... here's the opportunity you've been waiting for.

The U. S. Navy may train you to become an expert in any one of nearly 50 skilled fields. Each month, over 5000 new men will be sent to a Navy Service School, where you can learn to be a Diesel engine operator, machinist, aviation mechanic, aerial photographer, radio operator, or whatever specialized work you're best fitted for. This first year's training which you get is worth at least $1500.

The Navy foots the entire bill. You earn while you learn. In fact, it is possible for an enlisted man to earn up to $125 per month—with keep.

You'll have plenty of opportunity for advancement in position and pay—and you'll have fun while you learn! You'll come out of the Navy fully prepared to take on a good job in private industry. And if you want to stay in the Service, you can go right to the top... and retire at the end of 20 years or 30 years with a liberal monthly income.

You can choose now between the regulars or the reserves. Both offer equal opportunities for advancement.

Get this FREE Booklet →

Mail coupon for your free copy of "Life in the U. S. Navy," 24 pages, fully illustrated. It answers all your questions. Tells what your pay will be... promotions and vacations you can expect... how you can retire on a life income. Describes how you can learn any one of 45 big-pay trades from aviation to radio... how you may become an officer, 27 careers from Navy life showing sports and games you may play, ships you may be assigned to, exciting ports you may visit. Tells enlistment requirements and where to apply. If you are between 17 and 31 (no high school required), get this free booklet now. No obligation. Ask the Navy editor of this paper for a copy. Or telephone him. Or mail him the coupon. You can paste it on a penny postal card.

WEAR THIS BADGE OF HONOR! If after reading the free booklet you decide to apply for a place in the Navy, you will receive this smart lapel-embell. It is a badge of honor you will be proud to wear.
