And on the other side was this: "Dear Curtis: "The paper you bought from us amounted to $10.00. Sincerely,

TO SAM ISBELL Dear Sam: Hey, didn't we pick up a lemon when we hatched up that Victory Parade idea for last Saturday? The parade idea for last Saturday was a kind of glorious failure but this one couldn't be cancelled on this even by us. Wonder what ever got into our heads the idea that folks would stand out without a band or some spellbinder to lure 'em, just to buy a War Bond? We should be known as mere amusement would not suffice. Aren't we the innocents, though? Well, anyway, Sam, the day was wet. And maybe we were all wet. NORMAN

OTHERWISE ENGAGED Some folks seem to be wondering whom "Happy" Chandler will support for Governor. Strikes us that he's too busy trying to run the army to fool with an election. WHO LOVES A JAP? I sincerely trust every person who professes not to have any hatred for the Japs or Germans has heard how those Japs killed American aviators who landed in Jap-held China after the Tokyo raid. In accordance with the rules of war, that was murder. Black-hearted murder of brave men who went out as soldiers and attacked only mil-

LOCAL OPTION POLL OFFICIALS To Be Selections Of Both Factions In May 15 Voting

If the Wets and Drys fail to get a square deal at the polling places May 15, it will be their own fault or lack of judgment. Each group, it was pointed out here this week, will submit to the county election commissioners a list of four names for each precinct, and from each of these two lists the commissioners will select two election officers, thus giving the Drys two officials of their choice and the Wets the same representation.

No Certificate Necessary

A rationing certificate no longer is required to have passenger car and light truck tires re-capped with re-claimed rubber.

The action, approved by Rubber Director William M. Jeffers, is designed to reduce the demand for replacement tires. Re-capping requires about half as much re-claimed rubber as a new "war tire."

THE GARDEN

By JOHN S. GARDNER Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics

SWEET POTATO BEDS

Sweet potatoes are a "war crop," this year, which means that a large to the armed forces, and in dehydrated form, to the allies overseas. Valuable food as they are, and easy to grow, there should be some in every garden. A 100-foot row should make 1 1/2 bushels of fine potatoes, from 75 plants. Now is the time to start the plant bed.

The size of the bed depends on the number of plants desired. A bed 3 by 6 feet accommodates a bushel of seed, and should produce 1500 plants for early-may setting, but if drawing is continued until June 15, the latest practicable setting date, from 3,000 to 4,000.

The best way is to make a hot bed with a pit 15 inches deep for 12 inches of properly-prepared horse manure, and a cover of earth 3 inches deep. This is not to be touched unless the bed, otherwise, though slower way, is a cold frame, with 12-inch sides. In either case, the potatoes are laid so as not to touch each other. Then they are covered with 4 inches of new sawdust, or light soil taken from where sweet potatoes have not been grown for at least two years, to avoid any chance of carry-over of disease. Disease may also be carried on the seed tubers, and these should be treated, even though they appear healthy. Mercury having some to wit, corrosive sublimate is difficult to find, but in its stead, borax may be used, easy to get, inexpensive, and quite effective. The borax is dissolved in water, 6 pounds to 30 gallons, the potatoes soaked 10 minutes. This solution will treat 50 bushels of seed, and half this, up to 25, but no less than 15, gallons should be made, using 3 pounds of borax. The potatoes may be bedded wet, with no rinsing. With the soil, one that remains, the frame and the sash should be thoroughly swabbed, or the canvas covering thoroughly soaked, the lice being to make everything about the bed surgically clean, so that no germs of black rot and soil stain may remain alive. Any solution that still remains should be poured out at once, no living thing may get to it.

YOUNG AMERICANS

THERE is story on Page 1, this edition, that is a lesson in Americanism and Good Citizenship. It is the story of boys and girls in Floyd county schools buying War Bonds and Stamps, engaging in other patriotic or charitable endeavors. This is the story of the Young Generation about which oldersters profess to worry so much.

Former Floyd Man, Indiana Farmer, Heart Victim

Willie D. Hopkins, 56 years old, native Floyd countrian, died at Newburgh, Ind., Friday, a victim of cerebral myocarditis. He had been ill since last week.

Well-known in this county and a member of a prominent Eastern Kentucky family, he was born at McVine, the son of the late James C. and Mary E. Hopkins. He moved to Indiana about 15 years ago and was engaged in farming.

His widow, Mrs. Maggie Hopkins, Mrs. Marion Hopkins, Mrs. John Stumbo and Mrs. W. S. Johns, of Harold; Mrs. Mary McGown, Prestonsburg; Mrs. Marion Hall, Bevinville; Mrs. Hiram Osborne, Melvin; John Hopkins, Ashland; and McKinley Hopkins, of Pikeville.

The body was returned to this county for burial. Funeral rites were conducted Sunday from the residence of John Stumbo at Harold. The Rev. P. A. Hopkins and A. L. Allen officiating. Burial in the Hopkins cemetery was under direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

Tooth Complications Fatal to Youth, 18, Monday Morning

Complications developing after a tooth had been extracted here Saturday resulted in the death of a youth, Monday morning, at 1215 Clifton, of Dwayne, at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin.

The youth was a son of James and Mrs. Rhoda Frazer Clifton, of Dwayne.

Besides his parents, he is survived by six sisters: Mrs. Dorothy Pope, Thacker, W. Va.; Mrs. Sarah Prince, Matewan, W. Va.; Mrs. Ethel Sherman, Dwayne; Mrs. Evelyn Hickman, Longacre, W. Va.; Mrs. Goldie Shepherd, Dwayne, and Miss Nell Clifton, Dwayne.

Funeral rites were conducted from the Clifton residence Wednesday, the Rev. B. W. Craft officiating. Burial was made in Dwayne cemetery under direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

GOES TO WASHINGTON

Portsmouth, Va., April 5 (Sp.)—Miss Rachel May of Lohley, recently went to Washington, D. C., to take a Civil Service Commission job. She is a graduate of Maytown high school and received her commercial training at the Mayo State Vocational Training School, Paintsville.

En route to Washington, Miss May stopped off at Norfolk, Va. for a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Hayes, while in Norfolk Miss May and the Hayeses visited Ocean View, Virginia Beach, and spent the coming week-end in Washington, guest of Miss May.

Mrs. Meadows, Victim At 27 of Brain Tumor

Mrs. Beulah Rose Meadows, 27 years old, wife of Johnny Meadows, died at her home on Katy Friend, near West Prestonsburg, Saturday, the result of a brain tumor. She had been ill three years.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rose of Katy Friend, she was born and reared in this county. Mrs. Meadows was a member of the Freewill Baptist Church. Besides her parents and her husband she leaves one daughter, Rena Ethel; three brothers, Jesse, West Prestonsburg; Reuben, of the U. S. Army; Bennie, of Michigan; and two sisters, Maud and Fannie Rose, both of Katy Friend. The funeral was conducted from the home, the Rev. Henry Meade and Lewis Robinson officiating. Burial was made on Spruck, the Arnold Funeral Home directing.

These are the youngsters who have, at no time during this war, failed either they to their country. They are the bunch who worked hardest to gather the scrap last year. According to their means and opportunity, they are the heaviest buyers of Bonds and Stamps.

And the argument that they didn't have to work for this money they invested in Bonds doesn't hold water either. Many of them do work for their spending money. And those who do not, they could have wasted the money their parents gave them as easily as they could have invested it in a Bond due ten years hence.

The older generation, fine as it is, came up from the days when it was every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost. That bred a splendid sort of raw individualism. But it didn't begot any too much teamwork.

These youngsters are learning Good Citizenship in a social workshop. They're learning the importance of unity, the valor in sacrifice. This much of good is coming out of a terrible war.

Cerebral Hemorrhage Fatal to Man, Aged 81

Ambrose (Toad) Jones, 81-year-old Teaberry man, succumbed Saturday at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, victim of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Mr. Jones was one of the section's oldest and best known men; loved by his mother, his widow Mrs. Lanie Jones, two sons and three daughters, Emmitt Jones, Mrs. Alex Hall, Mrs. Rannett Hall, all of Teaberry; King Jones, of Dway, and Mrs. Press Reynolds, Beaver.

Funeral rites were conducted Tuesday, Elder John Hamilton officiating, and burial was made in the Trickett cemetery at Beaver under direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

ary objectives, men who even had the willpower to refrain from dropping a bomb on the Son of H—'s palace.

TANK TRAP Third street, Prestonsburg, at one time a plague to every motorist, what with a hundred or so "chug-holes" in it. Now it has only four holes in all its length—not denied if one of these didn't catch a car last week, something those lesser "oles never did.

WHY NOT? Why should an elderly woman with not a son in the service worry more about surgical dressings for some hospital than the rest of us? She doesn't get a cent for either her worrying or her work. She could say at home as well as the rest, and let the surgical dressings go hanging. She could duck her head in shame with the rest when a soldier returns to Floyd county, bleeding from his wounds, knowing that not our surgical dressings helped make that boy's recovery possible.

But she just isn't that sort. She'll call for women to come out and help her work. Even after only one mother worked at the surgical dressing room on Tuesday, the day of each week designated as Mothers' Day, she didn't give up. Personally, I think it's a shame that she is mentioned those boys who will wear those bandages as white badges of courage, should be given the support of all of us.

WHAT A LETTER MEANS What does a letter mean to a boy in the armed forces? These are two answers.

From Lt. James Hicks, some where in Africa, writing to his sister, Mrs. James Prater, Huesville. "Just received your letter this morning. Sis, I wish you could see these soldiers' faces when they receive mail from home. They read their letters many times over. Mail means more than food."

From Pvt. Samuel E. Leske, Bks. 128, Co. C, 6th Regt., 2nd Div., Regt., Shearung Persn. Depot, Greenville, Pa., and his brother, Pvt. Elmer Leske, Co. A, 8th Regt., 1st Div., Camp Ford, La., both writing to THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES.

"Samuel E. and Elmer L. Leske, formerly of East Ford, wish to thank their friends and relatives in Floyd and Johnson counties."

Board. In this registration the retailer will be required to report, in addition to the name and address of business, the name and address of his retailer, the amount of his gross and net point inventories as of May 1 and the amount of his allowable inventory.

During the week from April 25 through May 1 retailers will be required to keep a record of total sales and transfers of foods subject to the ration program. This record must show the total sales to consumers of all types. The Board stresses the importance of retailers figuring their point inventory as of the close of business May 1. The retailer's allowable inventory will be equal to three times the point value of foods sold under the rationing program from April 25 to May 1, inclusive.

Three other regulations of interest to the public were cited by Mr. Thomas. The deadline for procuring Ration Book No. 2 is April 30. Those who have Ration Book 1 but who do not have Book 2 must register on or before that date.

2. Young babies cannot be registered for Ration Book 1 unless birth records are presented. If parent does not have birth certificate, one may be procured at the City, County or Health Department.

3. Any applicant for tires, tubes or re-capping service for a commercial motor vehicle must present a currently valid Certificate of War Necessity.

All transportation committees again were asked to emphasize to all employees of their respective companies the importance of "Share the Ride Plan." Because of the value of the plan as a gasoline and tire saver, such committees were urged to ascertain if each applicant for additional gasoline rations or tires is conforming with the plan, and to forward to the rationing board immediately all complete information concerning those applicants who are not co-operating in the plan.

"Price administration," Mr. Thomas said, "has become an integral part of the war set-up, and will necessarily remain for the duration. The members of the local rationing board are giving a great deal of their time and effort to the work. To that extent, it is their contribution to help winning the war. Rationing and rationing have vital parts to play in doing so."

"It is no small matter to keep abreast of the local needs and requirements constantly issued and received. But they are always willing to answer questions as best they can consistent with regulations."

"It will be helpful to the successful operation and price control and rationing of citizens with remember that the board is composed of their friends and neighbors, and is doing all it can to carry out the objectives for which it was established. The price control business hits every one of us. And even if it is so sometimes happens, get impatient, or are critical of the board's operation, if immediate information is not obtained, just remember it is a part of the war effort. And it's not nearly so hard to wait for an answer on the home front, as it is to wait for the enemy on the battle front."

Invalid Twenty Years, Mrs. Mary Spradlin, Aged 93, Victim

Mrs. Mary Prater Spradlin, one of the section's oldest women, died Thursday at Bonanza after suffering for 20 years of semi-invalidity resulting from a stroke which her husband was broken. She was the widow of "Buddy" Spradlin, well-known Abbott Creek farmer, and was 93 years old.

Mrs. Spradlin had for years been a devout member of the Baptist Church. She was born and reared in this county and had many relatives and friends in this section.

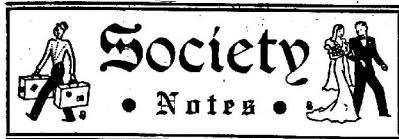

Three sons and two daughters survive: Henry Spradlin, Cliff; B. F. Spradlin, Ashland; Wm. H. Spradlin, Bonanza; Mrs. Clinton Praley, Flemingburg; and Mrs. Lee Vay, Bonanza. One sister, Mrs. Lydia Spradlin, remained also survives.

The funeral was conducted Saturday, the Rev. Joel Couley officiating, and burial was made under direction of the Arnold Funeral Home in the family cemetery on Abbott Creek.

Miss Mildred Turpin, Mr. Combs are Wed At Lexington, Ky.

Announcement is made of the marriage at Lexington, Ky., on April 19, of Miss Mildred Turpin, daughter of Mrs. Nell Turpin, Irvine, Ky., and Mr. Paul Churchhill Combs, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Combs, Prestonsburg.

The nuptials were solemnized in the home of the groom's brother, Dr. Fletcher Combs, before an improvised altar of white anemone, palms and ferns, with white tapers. The Rev. Dr. Jesse Herrmann, of the Presbyterian Church, officiated. Miss Eloise Williams, of Prestonsburg, and a student at the University of Kentucky, played "I Love You Truly," "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" and Schubert's "Wedding March."

The bride wore a tan-and-yellow ensemble and her bridesmaids wore blue accessories. Her maid of honor was Miss Geraldine Williams, Lexington, Ky., who wore an aqua blue suit with dark blue accessories. Her flowers were gardenias.

Mr. Everett Warren, Louisville, a student at the University of Kentucky, was best man. He carried the bride and groom wore bouquets of tallman roses.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony a large reception, approximately 250 friends of the two families was given at 4:30 p. m., at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Combs. Mr. Combs was graduated from the Kentucky Military Institute, Lyndon, Ky., and last year received his A. B. degree from the University of Kentucky. He is now a freshman in the Law School of the University of Kentucky and expects soon to enter military service.

125-Year-Old Marriage Commemorated Here

Former Judge A. T. Patrick commemorated on April 9 the 125th anniversary of his paternal grandparents' marriage.

A delicious dinner was prepared by Mrs. Bill Coffman at the Patrick home. The corn bread was baked as near as possible like his grandmother's baking. Before partaking of this good dinner, he told the guests that his grandparents were devout Christians, members of the Methodist Church, that his grandfather milked the cows, churned, made the fires in the stove, (a No. 7 step stove), and did other things about the home for his wife.

This marriage took place in Floyd county, April 9, 1818, and hundreds of their descendants now live in Alabama, Mississippi, Texas, California, Washington, Colorado, Nebraska, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, and Kentucky and in other states.

In account of the war many are in foreign countries and some are fighting and dying on the battlefields for freedom to save the world from aggression and the destruction of democracy. So this marriage was not in vain, but a blessing. They cherished and kept their sacred marriage vows, and God blessed them and brought about so many worthy, beneficial results and not many regrettable consequences. said Mr. Patrick. His grandfather was born in Burke's Garden, Faze-well county, Va.; his grandmother in this county.

Floyd Nutrition Group In 2nd Meeting Here; Evaluate Soybeans

Second meeting of the Floyd County Nutrition Committee, composed of all Home Economics teachers in the county high schools, Miss Davidson, community nutritionist at Wheelwright, and County Agent S. L. Isbell, was held here Saturday.

Miss Margaret Petzarross, Prestonsburg Home Economics instructor led the discussion on the value of soybeans in the diet. It was pointed out that soybeans first grown in this country for farm animals are gradually coming into use as a valuable addition to the vegetable menu on the family table and that, compared with common table beans, rank higher in food value. While soybeans are 40 per cent protein, navy beans are only 22 per cent and peanuts, 26 per cent. It was stated.

The committee has for its purpose the study of nutrition problems and how to help each individual, either by personal contact or by newspaper publicity.

LIQUOR—AMERICA'S WORST SABOTEUR

By the REV. J. E. BAHN We are in the midst of the most dangerous war of our national history. Our God-given liberties and institutions are for us and preserved to us by our fathers and mothers, are at stake. We are fighting for our Christian civilization, for Christan church, our democracy, our American way of life. And we must not allow anything to interfere with an all-out mobilization of our physical, moral and spiritual resources and powers. Any person or traffic that deliberately wastes food and other materials, or weakens manpower, thus undermining health, interfering with safety and security, and reducing efficiency of the American soldier or civilian, is guilty of betraying our most sacred spiritual values in this crisis: it is our worst sabotage and enemy.

The Liquor Traffic is such a Saboteur and Enemy. No greater menace to civilization and the cause of righteousness, in any land or age, has been imposed upon humanity than the sale of the every ounce of the wickedness of the Liquor Traffic. An eminent statesman summed up its evil effects when he said: "In the sum of all its villainies, the father of all crime, the mother of all abominations, the curse of all curses, the devil's best friend and God's worst enemy." The American Business Men's Research Foundation concludes: "Liquor has defeated more men, more armies, more nations than any other cause. It does seem that the lessons that history records should serve as a simple warning against this the worst of all enemies." History, sacred and profane, testifies that drink time and again has been the contributing, if not the prime, factor of the downfall of nations.

Holy writ records that Babylon, that celebrated city of antiquity, fell through drunkenness and dissipation. It was when Belshazzar was drinking liquor out of the silver vessels in his Babylonian palace, with his lords and ladies of the court, that the hand wrote on the wall in blazing letters: "Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting." And when America came down today in her recalcitrant, beer-puffed and whisky-soaked and sips at the glasses, she too is being weighed and found wanting.

Mineral, another proud city of antiquity, was destroyed by drink when the enemy came upon it in a night of sensual drinking and feasting. Day after day the Amalekites after they were found drunk celebrating a temporary victory. And surprised and defeated Benjamin, king of Syria, when he fell into the hands of 32 kings, "drinking themselves drunk in their palaces."

Profane history reveals that Alexander the Great, after having experienced triumph after triumph and longed for more worlds to conquer, was himself conquered by alcohol at the age of 33. Rome fell through a period of drunkenness and dissipation. The Normans won the Battle of Hastings after they passed the night in feasting and prayer; while the Anglo-Saxons lost it, "devoting the same period to drunkenness and debauch." The American troops, crushed the Delawares and won the Battle of Trenton when the surprised Hessian soldiers were celebrating the season with drinking and feasting. Napoleon met his Waterloo because Marshal Ney failed to make his appearance as ordered. Retiring the night before to his quarters, he having imbibed too freely of his favorite Burgundy, he fell into a deep and profound sleep and when he awoke found himself apparently unable to give orders, or to reach any decision." Press reports tell it that when the Germans in 1918 were drinking in on Paris, the speech of the chief cause of the overthrow of France in 1940. Honoluli was almost lost when the enemy by surprise attack on the week-end found the city in a drunken slumber.

It is time for America to arise and destroy this, her treacherous saboteur and enemy—the Liquor Traffic.

Egg Profits Soar To New Records

Kentucky poultry keepers co-operating with county agents and the State College of Agriculture and Home Economics reaped an average income of 28 cents per hen per week each egg produced in January. This is the best poultry income for that month since 1932 when the profit was 12 cents per hen.

The highest flock attention in January was almost 24 eggs per hen, and the 10 best flocks had an average production of almost 22 eggs, while the lowest-producing flocks had an average of less than four eggs per hen.

In Nelson county, homemakers are canning more meat than usual, including a greater variety of cuts.

times and that another cartridge had been snapped on.

Evidence in the Martin case generally coincided with that produced at the first trial which resulted in a "hung" jury. The defense pointed to threats of the victim, Billy Martin, Jr., against the defendant, to an assault made a few days earlier, on the defendant by the youth and to the defendant's claim that the other was chasing him when he fired. Commonwealth testimony contended that the youth was working to regain control of a dog which he and his sister were taking home and was offering no offense when shot.

In the Newsome trial it was admitted that the boy struck his grandfather with a rock after the elderly man had struck the boy with his cane.

Witnesses, including the victim's widow, Mrs. Claude Johnson, explained the absence of the case as part of the evidence by stating it had been buried with Johnson.

They said the case had been used to measure his grave and it was considered bad luck not to bury the measuring implement with the body.

Judge Stephens said he would decide at the end of the term whether the youth would be placed in a reformatory until he becomes 18 before starting his two-year sentence or whether the term would be started immediately.

The grand jury re-convenes today (Thursday) for the last three days of its session. The May court term will be devoted to the trial of equity cases.

THIS 'N' THAT

By NOBLE HOBBS

Was down to Prestonsburg last week-end and saw the member of the Fourth Estate who heads THE TIMES, and we are still good friends, although I think he sometimes misuses the power of said membership.

Also saw the Winchell of Left Beaver, the Shike, who needed a shave.

Saw the circuit court in action and it is not my purpose to criticize the court but rather to advise some of my neighbors to stay away from said court. A case was tried involving a couple of our miners who had had a scrap. The jury was convinced one hit the other with a rock. Result: fine, $10 and costs. All this is o.k. with me, were it not for the fact that I counted 12 miners who were either witnesses or spectators at the trial. The result of this part of the lawing was that 12 men lost a day's work. A coal miner produces an average of five and one-half tons per man and so 68 tons of coal didn't go to the market that day to make the scrap to lick the gap. Let's quit that stuff and keep our fights sort of private or square away in a ring on the head of Beaver and charge admission and give the proceeds to the Red Cross. Ye scrubs will be glad to referee.

We sincerely hope all the people will read the advertisements being sponsored by the United Mine Workers of America which will show the true state of affairs as far as the Union Miner is concerned. They are appearing in The Courier-Journal and The Herald-Dispatch, Huntington.

So long till next time.

Brooke Commissioned Second Lieutenant In Air Corps

Wayland, Ky., April 19 (Spl)—Albert B. Brooke, Jr. returned to Wayland this week on a well-earned furlough. He had just completed an intensive training period and had been commissioned Second Lieutenant in the army air corps April 1.

Lt. Brooke, known to friends as "Buck", entered service last July, and after basic training was assigned to Radio Operations and Mechanics School in Sioux City, S.D. Then he was sent to Valley Forge Military Institute, Wayne, Pa., after which he was selected to attend the aviation cadet special officer training course at Yale University.

Lt. Brooke was an honor student at Wayland high school and the University of Kentucky. His advancement in the army air corps was welcomed by his many friends in Floyd county. He expects to be assigned to the Advanced Flying School, Blytheville, Ark., where he will be officer in communications.

SENIORS TO PRESENT PLAY

The Senior class of Wayland high school presented its Senior play, Monday, April 19, in the high school auditorium. The play, "The All-American Family," a comedy filled with amusing incidents in the lives of a typical American family, drew a large crowd.

The director was Miss Helen Daniels. The cast included Harry Craft, Jesse P. and Gene, Bobbie Doble, Mike, David, Fannan, Betty Hampton, Henri, Adkins, Archie Zimmerman, Edna, Turner, Genevieve Marie, and Junior Oney.

George Pow, Jr. and Miss Kathryn Powell, his daughter of Miami, Fla., returned to their home town last week for a visit. George, Jr., has finished his course at the University of Cincinnati and expects to take a post-graduate research course with an industrial concern in Ohio. Kathryn is enrolled at the University of Cincinnati as a student nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pow had as their guest, Lt. A. B. Brooke.

Betsy Layne 8th Grade Bond, Stamp Sales At $1,044 Total

Betsy Layne, Ky., April 7 (Spl)—An eight-week drive during which the eighth grade of the Betsy Layne consolidated school bought a total of $1,044.45 of War Bonds and Stamps ended April 2 and its success was celebrated this morning with a Victory March over the town, with every pupil who bought a stamp joining in the parade.

One eighth grader, Charles Walters, especially distinguished himself during the drive. Immediately upon receiving a check from his father, Marvin Walters, who is in Hawaii Island army service, he invested $300 in bonds.

THE 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

Winner Take All!

There is one stark and simple fact about war which you had better get straight . . . and quickly, too
THERE IS NO SECOND PLACE IN A WAR—IT'S EITHER WIN OR LOSE!

This war is being fought for tremendous stakes . . .

- ..: for your life and your liberty.
- ..: for your church and your children.
- ..: for your freedom and your future.

And it's WINNER TAKE ALL. Don't forget that for a minute.

The winner will dictate whether tomorrow you shall be a free citizen of a free world, or a helpless serf to a "master race."

The winner will dictate whether you shall live and prosper under the Four Freedoms, or toil hopelessly in the darkness of a "New Order."

The winner will dictate . . . because the winner takes all.

The winner takes all. All you own, all you hold dear.

The winner is being decided right now . . . today . . . this very minute . . . on battlefields all over the world. Will you stand idly by . . . or throw all your weight on our side?

The weight of mighty tanks and planes. The weight of thousands of guns and millions of shells. The weight of billions of dollars . . . 13 billions which your country asks you to lend during this Drive.

Your country wants to borrow every idle dollar you have—every dollar except what you need for the barest necessities of life.

You'll have to give up some luxury or comfort which was dear to your heart. You'll have to postpone some pleasure which you had been eagerly anticipating.

But what of it?

Your sons and brothers and husbands are dying out there . . . fighting your fight. Surely it is no sacrifice to lend your dollars while they are giving their lives.

They need your help. They need the weapons your money can buy. If one of the War Loan volunteers calls on you . . . greet him with open pocketbook. Remember, Uncle Sam's goal is 13 billion dollars in April.

Don't wait to be asked. Go to your nearest bank, investment dealer, broker, Post Office or issuing agency and lay your money on the line. Remember it's an investment you're making—an investment that pays a good return and insures a happier future for you and your loved ones.

So lend up to the limit.

You'll sleep better for it.
