Knott County Bombardier Comes Home To Tour U. S.

Three battle-scarred bombers and their veteran crews, returning from operations over North Africa, Sicily, the Romanian oil fields and the Middle East, landed at Washington National Airport last week to be welcomed by a cheering throng of operators.

The planes were two Liberator bombers, the "Wash Tub" and the "Squaw" and a Mitchell "Desert Warrior," all members of the U. S. Ninth Army Air Force.

The airmen among them First Lieut. Theodore R. Tate, of Huntsville, will be allowed three weeks furlough to visit their homes. After that they will re-assemble as a group and make a tour of the United States.

The three planes are credited with downing 31 enemy planes and dropping 469 tons of bombs over a stretch reaching from El Alamein across Africa to Sicily, and on Italy, Greece, Czech and Rumania.

The "Wash Tub" dropped 219 tons of bombs, participated in 77 combat missions, flew 531 hours for a total of nearly 100,000 miles, and shot down 22 fighters.

The "Squaw" dropped 186 tons, participated in the diving low-level attack on the Ploesti oil fields in Rumania and destroyed six enemy aircraft.

The "Desert Warrior," a twin-engine bomber as contrasted with the two other four-engine planes, was flown in 73 combat missions, dropped more than 70 tons of bombs, and shot down three enemy fighters. Tate is the bombardier.

Former Floyd Teacher Is Now an Instructor Of Synthetic Gunnery

Grady Gray Flanery, specialist technician, is now an instructor in synthetic gunnery at the naval air station, Jacksonville, Fla.

Specialist Flanery enlisted in the WAVES in February, in April reported to Hunter College, New York City, for her basic training. After finishing her training in New York, she was one of 20 other WAVES selected to go to Dayton for a special course in synthetic gunnery. Finishing this training, she was transferred to Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 10. Prior to her enlistment in the WAVES, she was a teacher in this county. For the past two years she was a member of the faculty of the Martin grade school. She is a graduate of Maytown high school and the University of Kentucky.

Community Cannery At Maytown Gets Final Equipment

Although in operation for the last three weeks, during which it has canned approximately 1600 quarts of fruits and vegetables, the community cannery at Maytown was a complete unit this week with the arrival Monday of the last scheduled shipment of machinery for the year. R. L. Shepherd, director of the cannery, said:

"The cannery has a capacity of 239 quarts an hour. Canning, including the cans, is done at a cost of five cents per can for residents of the community. Owners of products to be canned assist, however, in preparation of the foodstuffs.

The cannery is located on the campus of the Maytown school. Miss Peggy Jo Allen is assistant to Mr. Shepherd. Canning machinery was procured through the State Department, "Victory" Agricultural Agency. Next year a meat grinder and tomato juicer have been promised as additions to the enterprise."

Heretofore, Mr. Shepherd announced, the cannery will be operated only on Saturdays in the canning of meats and late fruits and vegetables.

Worldwide Communion Service, Sunday

Worldwide Communion Day will be observed Sunday at the Methodist Church here, it was announced this week by the pastor, the Rev. W. B. Garritt. The day is a feature of each year in the religious world, is international in scope and non-denominational in character.

The service will also be marked by the presentation of stars for the Service Banner in the church which honors Methodist boys in the armed forces.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

WHAT REALLY HAPPENED

I have often wondered how a fellow would feel if he was in the army in this period of warfare and destruction, and be lucky enough to get a furlough and while on it, way home run short of money, maybe, or just want to hurry home to see his wife and children, parents or sweetheart and a few friends before his furlough ended.

So, just to try to make it a way that should be faster for a soldier, he hitchhikes to see to keep from laying over for hours waiting on a train or bus.

Well, here is a "compliment" from a passenger on his way home from Ft. Benning, Ga., on a 10-day furlough. I picked this soldier up Saturday, Sept. 4. He was trying to get a ride down to Harold from Pikeville.

When he got in the truck with me, he said, "Boy, I sure do feel good to get these good, patriotic people around here. I asked him why. So he told me that he had been trying to catch a ride for two or three hours and 42 cents."

"And now, one— one would stop and pick me up or even stop to find out where I wanted to go."

Just plain, honest, and those good, patriotic people around here. I asked him why. So he told me that he had been trying to catch a ride for two or three hours and 42 cents."

ABOUT THE BLOOD BANK

I read in the "Times" this morning about the proposed Floyd county "blood bank."

It is true, we have no such bank in our county while many of our boys have given their lives for our country and county. I gave a pint of my blood to the Indianapolis Chapter of the American Red Cross at Billings General Hospital, February 24, 1943. Perhaps many other Floyd county boys have given their blood for plasma.

I am also a member of the American Red Cross for the year 1943. Every month my pay is $3.75 short—which goes into or for War Bonds.

So, you see, soldiers who are not yet in battle can contribute something toward victory.

I am a former Floyd county boy; am a nephew of Duke Griffith, Prestonsburg Jeweler.

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

At Job Crowell's the other day, we were havin' a glass of beer or two and talkin' about the kind of world there'd be when these came.

"Hear they'll have trans-Atlantic airplanes flyin' regular as taxi service," says Ed Carey.

"Yep," says Will Frost, "and television and plastic cars and air-conditioned homes and super-duper highways."

"Fifrdly, Doc Mitchell chimes in. 'You know,' he says, 'we're talkin' about the future in terms of luxuries—like air-conditioned houses and television.

"But what really will shape tomorrow's world is what goes on in men's own hearts... like tolerance and understanding."

And from where I sit, Doc's right. Whether it's tolerance of another's politics or respect for a neighbor's right to enjoy a glass of beer occasionally, tolerance is a mighty good foundation for a peacetime world.

Effective Oct. 1, the Governor has appointed me as full-time Senior Conservation Officer to serve in Floyd and Pike counties. This office I held from Sept. 16, 1940, until Aug. 31, 1942. During this time I was on a salary and a limited expense account. In performing my duties as game warden I am ordered to co-operate with the local club and game clubs in my territory, but not to take any active part in the activities or business of these clubs. It is to be my instruction to take no active part in the affairs of my local club and spend a good part of the time I was being paid by the Division of Game and Fish in working for the game club, and due to this work I often exceeded my expense allowance from $20 to $30 a month, this amount coming out of my own pockets and never a cent from the local club; and due to the time and work I was donating to our club we made hundreds of dollars that went into the treasury of our club that was spent to restock fish and game in our county.

Some clubs in our state say, 'Kill the red fox because they destroy the game birds and other small game.' or rest-stock with certain game. The officers of the club happen to be most interested in, but Floyd county's club was a sportsmen's club and was interested in any form of game that its members had a right to hunt or trap. I took red foxes for the fox hunters, and raccoon for thecoon hunters, and squirrel for the squirrel hunters. We had one of the most active fish and game clubs in Kentucky, and due to this fact the Division of Game and Fish gave us more than our share of fish to restock our streams extra quail each season, and on numerous occasions helped us in purchasing raccoon and red foxes.

As I have said before, the work I was doing was contrary to the rules of the Division of Game and Fish but due to the success of our club and the co-operation we were getting from the sportsmen in our county I was permitted to carry on my work as I pleased. After all, we were getting results and that is what counts. This time I intend to carry on my work as near as possible in the same manner as before, but as we are in our own travel and activities will be limited, and if I am given the support of the sportsmen of our county, and I am sure that I

The school is having its bi-monthly rally at the gymnasium Tuesday night.
Service men who are home on furlough, or who have been here recently include: Pvt. L. J. Allen, Seaman Buddy Hinton, Pvt. Bernard Clark, Pvt. Sam Allen, Staff Sgt. Otis Layne, Seaman John Martin, Jr., and Pvt. Cecil Rainey.

The Betsy Layne P. T. A. held its first meeting at the school last Thursday night. It was voted to invest money on hand in War Bonds for a Beautification plan after the war. The number present was encouraging but it is hoped that more parents will find it convenient to meet with the teachers at the next meeting, the third Monday in October. Officers elected were: Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, president; Mrs. Mildred Davis, vice-president; Mrs. Hazel George, secretary; Mrs. Ruth Hobson, treasurer.

Among those who have recently passed physical examinations and will soon go into service are: Billy Joe Miller, Albert Boyd and Herbert Stratton.
Emma Lou, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Spears, returned home this week after undergoing a major operation at the Pikeville hospital. She is recovering nicely.
Mr. and Mrs. Edna Caudill and family have recently moved to Betsy Layne from Johnson county.
Mrs. Sam Caudill is recovering from an operation which was done at the Pikeville hospital. Her friends wish for her a very speedy recovery.
The class tournament in horse shoes, volley ball and tennis will begin next Monday at the Betsy Layne school.
Miss Lucille Layne, who has been doing defense work in Detroit, is visiting friends here.

The Betsy Layne Homemakers Club was organized Sept. 15 by Floyd County, Demonstrations Agent, Mrs. Ambury. A nominating committee was appointed to suggest officers for the year and a very fine demonstration on "Stance of the Right Leg" was given by Mrs. Ambury. The ladies enjoyed some interesting games discussed by Miss Ruth Gearhart. Approximately 20 women attended the meeting and the club had as its visitor Mrs. S. L. Isbell.
Betsy Layne Chapter, Future Farmers of America, held its annual "Greenhand" initiation in the Betsy Layne Gym, Friday evening, September 27.
The "Greenhands" were given such warm receptions as the "airplane ride" and "earthworm stunt," "kiss the magic book," "old drink mixture," and a formal introduction to the "board of education."
The following members were admitted to the chapter with the

"Greenhand Degree"

LACKEY

A near double tragedy barely missed its mark in a Lackey home recently. The 11-year-old daughter of Will Baker was hit over the ear on Sept. 18 and left badly injured and run but after a few days in the Lackey hospital, she was brought home and a bout of diphtheria four days later. His five-year-old son was struck by the passenger train here and narrowly escaped death when knocked from the wires. He is now in hospital.

Miss Elizabeth Eberhart and Miss Elizabeth Webb left last week for Kentucky Wesleyan College where they will resume their college work.
Mrs. Melvin Hayes has been confined to her home the past week on illness.
Homer Rattan of the Navy at the corps was visiting here last week.
Pvt. Vernon Combs, of Camp McCoy, Westport, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Kit Sheets here this week.
Miss Lois Hughes has returned from Ypsilanti, Mich., for a few days' visit with her homefolks.

Don't Waste Electricity

Use What You Need but ... Need What You Use

ELECTRICAL appliances contribute to health and morale—by saving labor at home they make possible greater factory production. This is recognized by the War Production Board in its voluntary conservation program through which all citizens are asked to conserve coal, petroleum, gas, water, and electric services, transportation and communications. "Eliminate all waste in the use of various electric appliances," says the W.P.B. but states further that no effort should be made to curtail uses of electricity essential to safety and health, including eyesight conservation.
There is ample electrical capacity to supply both war and essential civilian requirements—the need for conservation comes from a shortage of the resources from which electricity is made and for its use. Use what you need; don't waste it.

Some Conservation Suggestions

- RANGE
Use smallest surface units needed for cooking operation.
Cook on stored heat—or lowest heat possible.
Plan menus so that entire meals may be cooked in thrift cooker or oven.
Do not open oven door for "peeking" more than necessary.
- REFRIGERATOR
Defrost your refrigerator regularly.
Do not place hot left-overs in refrigerator... allow them to cool to room temperature before inserting.
Do not overload your refrigerator... keep all foods in covered dishes or wrapped in wax paper.
Keep temperature control set for 45° unless you are freezing foods or desserts.
- WATER HEATER
Do not waste hot water. Do not let water run when washing dishes, shaving, etc.
Have all leaky faucets repaired.
- WASHING MACHINE
Do not overload washing machine.
Do not run machine oftener than necessary.
Do not run machine longer than necessary to clean clothes.
- SMALL APPLIANCES
Eliminate all waste in the use of various electrical appliances such as radios, space heaters, electric irons and toasters, and so forth. Turn them off when not actually needed.

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

As the Democratic nominee for Sheriff I think it is my duty to inform the voters what to expect of me when elected to the very important office which I seek.

I am thoroughly acquainted with the duties of this office. I realize that the peace, happiness and property of every citizen depends in a great measure upon the conduct of the Sheriff and the deputies he will have. I promise the people that you will have the following service and protection:

1. I will be sober.
2. I will have sober deputies.
3. I will enforce the law.
4. I will be fair and friendly.
5. The same treatment will be given to poor and rich alike.
6. As Sheriff I will give advice instead of abuse.
7. I will be the same every day.

I desire to thank the few gentlemen who opposed me in the primary and their many friends who are loyally supporting me in this election. I am grateful to the many Republican and Independent voters who have assured me of their support.

I have no doubt as to the outcome of the election, but I want my majority to be as large as possible; and in order to do that I ask my friends to begin now to organize and get their precincts organized to get the voters to the polls.

By your active co-operation and support my majority will be the largest ever given a nominee for Sheriff.

Your friend,
TROY B. STURGILL
