This Town-- That World

THIS IS A BELIEF

Mention of an income tax collector has always conjured to my mind nightmare visions of a dark man, dressed in black, walking half bent a la Groucho Marx, snooping into every corner, peering over my shoulder, dipping for my pocket. I've got or will have, even ferreting out with a sneer the baby's piggy-bank and shaking it down for extra pennies.

But this man Gilbert Foley, deputy income tax collector here and elsewhere in this section, has rid me of that former nightmare. Even if on the first occasion I ever saw him he did come to collect from me, he didn't soar out of me my uncollected tax. Mr. Foley is very human and he immediately gives the martyr, the American taxpayer, the assurance without saying a word about it that he is trying to help, not hurt. Whew!—What a relief!

GAS AND REAL ESTATE

County Attorney Woodrow Burchett, "Uncle" Reuben Taylor and "Lige Brown" Monday morning to the County Attorney's office were discussing the "hangings" of gas men here. Woodrow had an idea Jimmy Fletcher, Jack Spruill and Glenn Spradlin would strike gas some night in the northeast corner of the postoffice lobby while waiting for the mail. "Lige" said he had moved over to the other corner. Just to be safe in case a well did come in while somebody was smoking.

F. B. The three of them had just finished making a million "in real estate deal" right there in the County Attorney's office. I moved, fearing a land-shark might get me. (See Story No. 2, Page 6)

INDICTMENTS AT NEW LOW

Judge Stephens Says As Only 25 Returned By Floyd Grand Jury

The grand jury of the Floyd circuit court at the January session returned the smallest number of indictments returned in the last 30 years, to my personal knowledge. Circuit Judge Henry Stephens, Jr., declared this week.

A general decrease in crime was noted by the grand jury in its final report, filed upon adjournment Friday. Credit was contributing to the lack of crime is the absence from the county of about 5,000 men in the armed forces who are as hundreds in war industries. A dearth of witnesses also contributed to the paucity of indictments. Only 48 witnesses were questioned during the jury's nine days of work.

The court term was concluded to Feb. 5, Judge Stephens announced. Upon the criminal term adjournment, the court will be in civil session.

Clyde Covey, for whom trial under the Habitual Criminal Act was planned, received a five-year pen term last week. He pleaded guilty to a grand larceny charge in the theft of a tax here. After his $5,000 appeal had been forfeited, Covey Newsome appeared Friday to be taken to the LaGrange reformatory to begin a five-year term for the same offense. He was committed to the reformatory last week. Major indictments returned during the last three days of the grand jury session follow:

Frank Meade, charging concealed deadly weapon; Lillie Caudill and Kenton Smith, cutting and taking timber; Curt Cleveland, assault and battery.

EX-SOLDIER KILLED, BOY IS WOUNDED

Mad Creek Merchant And Son Charged With Murder

One man, a former soldier, is dead and a 16-year-old boy seriously wounded as a result of a dispute between Mad Creek neighbors over the alleged shooting of a deer. A murder indictment was returned Friday by the grand jury of the Floyd circuit court against Alvin Hamilton, 35, and his father, Mack Hamilton, well-known Tabbery merchant, in the death of Aggie Cross, 29.

A second indictment against the two men charged them with shooting and wounding with intent to kill Frank Adams, 19.

The shooting took place shortly after noon last Thursday at Hamilton's store after Cross, on route to discuss to work in the mines, and Adams stopped at the store to a discussion of the Hamiltons' claim "hat chickens had been stolen from them."

County Attorney W. B. Burchett quoted the elder Hamilton as saying Cross and the Adams boy came to the store, started trouble "and we had to do it." Mack Hamilton was released Tuesday under $7,000 bond, hearing on his son's motion for habeas corpus slated Wednesday.

The county attorney said Harold Hamilton, a witness to the shooting, told of the two stopping at the store and beginning a discussion of the chickens being stolen. A deer, it is alleged, was shot by the Adams boy and the deer was taken to the store.

This statement said Adams was shot in the back as he ran, and Adams took to his heels, telling his son to "put it to him."

Johnny Cross, a brother of the slain man, was quoted as saying Mack had been in trouble between his brother and the Hamiltons and he could not explain the shooting.

Adams is expected to recover, it was said Wednesday, although his condition is serious. He is a son of John Adams.

The victim was a son of the late Louis Cross, the slain by three brothers and three sisters, Mrs. John Adams, Mrs. Milford Adams, John and Jesse Cross, of Tabbery; Mrs. Balle Bridgeman, of this county; Sam Cross, Tabbery. Funeral rites were conducted Sunday at the home of the victim, which was held in the Andy Hamilton cemetery, the Ryan Funeral Home directing.

FLOYD FLIERS ARE MISSING

Two from Wayland On 'Missing' List; Baldridge Killed

Two Floyd county fliers with the American air force based in England are missing after bomber raids into Germany-occupied Europe, relatives at Wayland have been notified.

Sgt. Virgil Reynolds, member of a Sgt. crew, has been missing since Dec. 9, was last heard from when his plane sent a radio distress call 800 miles off Scotland. His next-of-kin is Mrs. Christina Reynolds, a sister of Wayland. His parents are dead.

The other Wayland airman reported as missing is Edward C. Mills, former Wayland high school coach and son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mills, who was reported missing Jan. 11 while operating as a bomber-tail-gunner from an English base over Nazi territory. The redhead Mills was a few months ago awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for bombing missions from Britain.

This award was made after Sgt. Mills was shot in the chest, although only through staff arguments with medical examiners.

Norman Bailey, a son of Fred Bailey, called by the name of Knott, over the county line from Floyd, was recently reported killed in Italy.

Leo Baldridge, son of the late Eddie L. Baldridge, of this county, was killed in Italy on Jan. 5, his father has been notified at Tuson, Arizona. He was attached to an armored division of the Fifth army.

Mother, Nurse in Italy, Son Strives To Do 'Bit'

The 17-year-old Jimmy Davis Clarke, who is "for the duration" making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Moran, of Athens, has a reason plenty for the patriotism he has been showing.

His mother, Mrs. Ora Lee Clarke, is a Red Cross nurse in the Italian war zone.

When a blood plasma drive was sponsored in Jimmy's school recently, he immediately loaned a machine picture machine to his classroom for benefit of the drive. With both the high school and grades of the school attending, the proceeds were $10.20 for the blood plasma fund.

Came the Fourth War Bond drive, and on the first day Jimmy made the first sale in his room—a $100 bond.

When the "March of Dimes" started for crippled children, Jimmy placed the first 10 dimes "on the N. W. corner" of his room. For his efforts, he said emphatically, "No, I don't want a prize. All I want is to have it put in the paper, so I can send it to my mother, who is doing her part, too."

RE-BUILDING RAZED TIPPLE

Recent Fire Cuts Cool Production Of Floyd Mine

Re-construction of the Hi-Hat Ekhorn-Mining Company's tipple, which was destroyed by fire recently, was well under way this week and approximately 150 of the 360 men regularly employed at the Left Beaver Creek mine operation were at work.

Destroyed in the fire which broke out in view of workmen almost two weeks ago were tipples on both sides of Clear Creek, shaker-screen machinery, conveyor belts and other equipment. Detective wiring was blamed for the blast.

Coal-loading on an improvised incline on one side of the stream is now in a mine-run basis, no screens having been installed. Other installations will require two more weeks for completion, it was said here.

NET TOURNAY CARD DRAWN

Wayland To Be Site Of Floyd District Meet March 2-4

Schedule for the Floyd county tennis tournament to be held March 2, 3 and 4 at Wayland was announced Saturday following a meeting of coaches and school principals at the County Superintendent's office here.

The draw placed Maytown, Betsy Layne, Auxier, Wheelwright and McKeown in the lower bracket; Garrett, Wayland, Martin and Prestonburg in the upper.

Maytown and Betsy Layne will open the tournament Thursday evening at 8:30, with an independent game probably filling out the evening's program.

Friday afternoon the upper bracket will swing into action, Wayland meeting Garrett at 2 p.m., and Martin playing Prestonburg an hour later. The lower bracket will go to the regional tournament, Kentucky's method of selecting a high school champion having been changed for this year. Although Wayland, the host team, has the best win-and-loss record in the county, as well as one of the best in the section of the state, the meet may provide all the upsets to be expected of basketball. The lower bracket is expected to be particularly interesting.

Officials for the tourney will be Billy Sturgill, Prestonburg, and Jack Turner, Langley, it was announced.

Coxswain on Famed Carrier Tells of War on U-Boats

A part of the story of the U.S.S. Card, the converted aircraft carrier which is one of seven ships of the U.S. Navy, was told here recently by 18-year-old James Robinson, coxswain on the hero "Ita 10."

It was the Card which took part in the action which saw the destroyer, the U.S.S. Borie, go to her death in one of the war's most stark dramas of the sea. After the Card had sunk one sub and made eight other possible hits in a battle with a German wolfpack on Halloween night, last year, the Borie came to grips with its victim. This battle between the destroyer and the U-boat was modern warfare's nearest approach to the days when sea warriors stormed over the side and fought out, hand-to-hand, on the deck. The Borie named the sub, itself was disabled by the enemy, and its crewmen seized machine guns, even a 100 mm. fire point blank at enemy seamen.

"About dusk the crew of the Borie abandoned ship itself. It was rendered helpless," Robinson said. "We picked up all we could that night, next morning rescued other survivors, but I'll explain it all when I return home."

CAPTIVE BLADE

Sent from South Seas By Floyd-C. Soldier To His Parents

The first Jap sword taken by an American conquer to hang in a Floyd county home is that sent Mr. and Mrs. Tandy Cecil, of Bannock by their son, Cpi. Billy Cecil, from the southern Pacific, after 13 months of service in that embattled area.

Cpl. Cecil, member of the U. S. Signal Corps, sent the Jap sword by insured mail, asked that his parents keep it against the day of his return home.

"I can't tell you how I came in possession of it," Cpi. Cecil wrote in his crew cable. "I'll explain it all when I return home."

CONCLUDES FURLOUGH

Pfc. Charles H. Osborne has concluded a furlough spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ballard Osborne, at West Prestonburg, and with his wife and little son who reside at Christiansburg, Va. Pfc. Osborne is stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington.

DAMAGE SLIGHT

Three fire alarms here Saturday took the fire department to two grass fires and a small blaze in the home of Mrs. Ethel Cross.

Law of Compensation— His Order Number High

Willard Williams, father of two, an employe of the Utilities Extension Coal Company at Martin, appeared at Draft Board 44 here Wednesday seeking all necessary papers as to his status in the selective service system.

One hand was bandaged, as was his neck. He had been burned in the rescue of his two-year-old son from the Williams home at Ivel which burned in the pre-dawn hours of Friday morning. His draft papers were burned. In fact, everything was burned, said Mr. Williams, except the pair of overalls he had worn at work on the preceding day.

Mrs. Williams escaped with a younger child from the two-room house without burns. The structure here was owned by T. E. Dimick, Huntington, W. Va. The blaze is believed to have started from a defective gas burner.

EX-MARINE TO SPEAK

To Show Pictures Of Guadalcanal As War Spar

An ex-marine who fell wounded by a machine gun fire on Guadalcanal will appear at the courthouse here Monday morning, Feb. 7, at 9:30 o'clock to make a fighting man's appeal to the farmers and timbermen of Floyd county to back the attack and his buddies have been, and are now, making by outfitting the county's overseas forces with food, ammunition, medical supplies, and by getting other timber products from the county.

The speaker will be Sgt. Ralph A. Johnson, a Virginian, who quit work as a farmer in 1940 to enlist. Less than a year after the Jap sneak attack on Pearl Harbor he was lying beside a Jap gun on Guadalcanal, two bullets through his legs, three dead Japs beside him.

In making his appeal for steady, full-time work, Johnson asks that the army forces be supplied to complete the job—a job he had to give up because of his wounds. He will tell of his battle experiences and show restricted movie taken by army photographers at the front. These movies cannot be seen in theaters. He believes he can serve his comrades best by urging those of them to carry on their work and achieve production goals.

Polo Drive Gains Headway in Floyd; Reports Sought

Although reports on separate community drives for funds to fight infantile paralysis were missing as a whole, two Floyd county towns this week had circulating stories to tell of their work. Mrs. Steve Clark, Wheelwright, chairman, said:

With $800 in sight from Wheelwright and $500 expected by Mrs. John Raymond, chairman, Wayland, the two towns have started to reveal how well they responded to a call for help for children of the present and future who now, or may suffer from the dread malady.

To reach a complete picture of the work done throughout the county during the drive, Mrs. Clark this week asked every co-chairman, all high school principals and members of the special gifts committee to furnish a report covering their contribution totals to Blaine Smith, treasurer of the county-wide drive.

"It is not too late to contribute," Mrs. Clark said. "Have you invested during this drive to make up for the part you missed from the Master Crutcher? The generous American people are reaping big benefits from the money they have invested in the fight against infantile paralysis. Several thousands of victims now rehabilitated, are producing and making vital material, and many are in the armed services, some even in the air corps."

63 ACCEPTED FOR SERVICE FROM FLOYD

Two New Members Named to Boards, Is Announcement

Sixty-three of the 167 selectees Floyd county's two draft boards sent to Huntington recently for examination under the old selective service method of inducing members of the armed forces were accepted for service. Of the 56 sent last week by Draft Board 44 to Huntington under the new production-nonselecting method, only 14 were accepted and they may be called into service at any time after 21 days of the date of examination.

Both draft boards had new members this week as W. J. Reynolds, 27, was accepted and recognized as Martin, accepted appointment to Board 45 and as N. M. White, Jr., was named to Board 44 to succeed A. C. Carter. Board 44 recognized Mr. Reynolds as successor to Henry Campbell, Wheelersburg, who resigned about two weeks ago. James Green, West Prestonburg, was named to succeed Mr. Campbell but did not serve in an official capacity.

Officials Hit Again

The draft board cut into Prestonburg's official family which already had lost three members in the attack on the county's officials. Last week Thomas M. Hereford, Councilman, and City Attorney Walter Scott Hawkins were killed in the attack on the county's overseas forces with food, ammunition, medical supplies, and by getting other timber products from the county.

SCHOOL BILL ADVANTAGES

To Floyd Teachers Are Cited by Hall As $66,000 Added

Bank accounts of teachers in the Floyd county school system for the 1943-44 school year will be swelled by approximately $66,000 and teachers in the county schools will benefit by $3,700 as a result of the retroactive bill by which the Kentucky General Assembly appropriates $3,000,000 to Kentucky teachers.

County Superintendent Dawn Hall, estimated this week the county's teachers will profit in the amount of $20 a month as a result of the Legislature's action—roughly $140 for the term for rural teachers and teachers of the grades in consolidated schools, and $180 for high school faculty-members.

In addition to this retroactive bill to old teachers during the present term, the state budget providing $15,000,000 for the schools during each of the next two years will sustain the salary raise, Mr. Hall said.

CHURCH BUYS SITE HERE

Garfield Addition Lot Is Expected To Be Church Location

Congregation of Trane Cole Memorial Baptist Church here this week purchased from County Attorney W. Burchett a lot on North Second street in the Garfield Addition on which a church to supplant the edifice destroyed by fire here two years ago is to be erected.

Although a shortage of materials at this time will prevent construction of the building the church expects to occupy eventually, a member of the congregation said it is hoped that temporary quarters will be available on the lot purchased this week by the end of next summer.

The church retains possession of the lot at the corner of Court and Broadway on which the church-building was ruined by fire.

THE WEEK IN OPA

Facts you need to know about Rationing and Price Control

Meat Increased Ration values of all major canned vegetables are down 2 to 4 points on the new point-value list effective January 30. There is a 1 to 2 points per pound in most beef, lamb and veal cuts, and a sharp boost in cheese values are effective on the same date. Butter remains unchanged, pork loin is raised one point. All canned fish except oysters show a 4-point per pound reduction. The new values are to remain effective through March 4.

Emergency Gas Rations A limited supply of gasoline for personal emergency reasons for the month of February has been allocated to each of the 14 rationing boards in the Louisville district. The allocation was made on the basis of tire, quota figures and basic ration allowances. When a board's quota for this purpose has been exhausted, no further rations may be issued during the month. Occupational use is not included in the provision.

Enforcement Action The enforcement division of the Louisville district OPA office, in line with a nation-wide program to enforce compliance with price making investigations which will include price ceiling regulations, is expected to result in enforcement actions in courts on clothing, rubber footwear, lumber, scrap, new and used automobiles, produce, meats, fruits, refrigerators, stoves, radios, used furniture, and hotel and rooming house charges.

Gas for Moving When applying for special gasoline rations for use in moving to a new residence, a motorist must present his tire inspection record. The rationing board will note on the record the amount of the special ration issued and the reason for its issuance. No special rations for moving will be allowed unless all outstanding supplemental rations (B or C books) are surrendered.

Not Exempt Doctors, ministers, lawyers and other professional people are not exempt from the regulation requiring that ration points be surrendered when the book will be used. A farmer may pay a doctor for his services with rationed foods instead of money, but he must collect the required number of ration points.

To Lick Black Market As a further blow to the black market in gasoline, local boards will issue a special notice in newly-issued gasoline ration books, beginning about February 1, telling the holder that "endorsement protects you and helps lick the black market." Regulations require that the oil license number and state of registration be written in ink or indelible pencil on each coupon as well as an A, B, C or T book is received.

Pork Tongue Prices New ceiling prices on pork tongue, effective February 1, have been set. The highest prices that may be charged (lower figures may prevail in some stores) are as follows: For zone 1—fresh tongue, 26c; cured, 27c; smoked, 37c. For zone 2—fresh, 26c; cured, 28c; smoked, 38c.

Think Farmers Can Prepare for Changes That May Follow War

How farmers as individuals can prepare for postwar changes was recently discussed in an address by Dean Thomas P. Cooper of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. As individuals, farmers can do much to prepare themselves for the shocks, he said. "Individual responsibility is very great," he declared. "Perhaps the most important single step is to enter the postwar period free of debt, or at least have debts so reduced that they can be easily handled."

"If there is any one lesson that should have been learned from the last war, it is the importance of having one's financial affairs in good position. "During this period of shortages of all kinds, it is important to set aside funds for expenses in the future. Agriculture is using up its structures, equipment and machinery at a more rapid rate than it is able to obtain replacement. Therefore it is wise to invest in bonds sufficient amounts from income during the war period to make possible the necessary changes in the home, and permit the purchase of required machinery, equipment, tractors, automobiles, freezing units, etc., to enable operation of the farm to the best advantage."

This is the time to set up funds for the modernization of the home that you and your wife may have long planned; for the construction of a new house; for the purchase of fences, and for the development of needed conveniences; electricity, of course; ample water supply, a real problem in many areas of the state; running water in the home and barn; and sewage disposal. The time to look forward to the rebuilding of the soil. In the event it has been farmed too hard; to develop the woodlots, and to plant trees and other crops. It is the time to provide for the education of the younger children. "Thousands of our farmers will make possible the future and utilize it as the material they need becomes available in the postwar period. It is the time to help meet many of the problems which would otherwise develop at that time."

Then after the war will be the essential things that provide for better and more comfortable living, education and many other enterprises we should undertake.

Through such procedure, we shall probably find ourselves in a position to meet whatever may come, instead of being impoverished through speculation or the expectation of a continuance of wartime prices and wartime demands.

Agriculture's problem will be different, but the foresight and common sense of farmers will enable them to meet the situations as they arise."

Rare Tropical Case Appears in Floyd

A patient of the Martin General hospital is suffering acutely from endamoeba histolytica, common to the tropics but seldom seen in this section. The species, belonging to the protozoan family, is contracted through polluted water or raw vegetables from infected areas, and is very harmful, often remaining unsuspected for life.

The patient had undergone several lengthy periods of ill health without learning the cause. Various physicians had from time to time pronounced the trouble functional rather than organic, but Dr. C. L. Allen, of the Martin General staff, maintained that the symptoms were definitely pathogenic and equally serious. In his entire career he had seen only one previous case of endamoeba histolytica which was at St. City hospital, Louisville, in 1939. Dr. Marvin Ransdell of the Floyd County Health Department, said recently he has had only two of three in the history of his work. Report of the State Health Laboratories, Lexington, on this case was the same as that of the test made by Dr. Allen himself.

OFFICIAL ORGAN FOR FLOYD COUNTY, KY.

Published Every Thursday by PRESTONSBURG PUBLISHING CO.

NORMAN ALLEN Editor For Year $2.00

Entered as second class matter June 18, 1927, at the postoffice at Prestonsburg, Ky., under the act of March 3, 1879.

AFTER ALL THESE YEARS

EX-PRESIDENT Herbert Hoover recently sought to blame General Douglas MacArthur for the Washington fiasco of 1932 when "Bonus Marchers" were camping in the national capital...

Ex-President Hoover, with MacArthur in the embattled Southwest Pacific, now tells us that MacArthur then, as chief...

So! Who was commander-in-chief in those days? Who directed MacArthur the soldier to do a certain job?

If MacArthur disobeyed orders or if he went beyond the authority vested in him by the commander-in-chief, why did not the said commander-in-chief, the President of these United States, say so then and forevermore clear his own skirts by taking disciplinary action against MacArthur?

Floyd's Big Problem Is Youth, Official Tells Kiwanians

"Floyd county's biggest problem, these days," declared County Attorney W. W. Burchett in a Kiwanis Club talk here last Thursday evening, "is our boys and girls."

To prove his point, the official cited a few poignant instances of juvenile delinquency. At the same time citing parental neglect as the prime cause of such crime.

Mr. Burchett told the club members how county officials are handling such problem children, saying that they are working to the child's direct benefit insofar as possible without committing the offender to an institution.

Mr. Burchett submitted for the approval of the club a plan used in larger communities which is designed to supply the younger generation greater interest in government operation. He espoused the idea of having the school children elect from their own student-body public officials who would serve for a day with the assistance of regularly elected office-holders.

Attendance for January, Joe Berry, club secretary, announced, was 93 per cent.

Wayland Five Wins Thriller at Garrett In Overtime Tilt

Garrett, Ky., Feb. 1 (Sp.) -One of the best basketball games played in the Garrett gym for several years was Saturday night's encounter between Garrett and Wayland, the latter winning by two points in two overtime periods.

The game was tied and untied all the way through and in the third quarter one of Garrett's players in a scramble for the ball put one thru the basket for Wayland. When the game was over it was tied, so they played an overtime period and the game was tied again. So they began again and DeCoursey, Wayland's center, made one of his long shots to win for his team.

H. F. Patton, Prestonsburg, led the entire agency force of the Commonwealth Life Insurance Company last month, the company's home office in Louisville recently announced.

Mr. Patton, a former Superintendent of Floyd county school, quit politics and the teaching profession around 40 years ago to enter the life insurance business. For the last 38 years has represented the Commonwealth Life here and in this section.

During that time he has written more than $25,000,000 worth of insurance. Many of his policies were written so long ago that now, almost daily, checks are arriving for endowment policy-holders.

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

Doc Mitchell and I were chewing the rag recently about America's sins in this War. We agreed the four freedoms are O. K., but a letter from Charlie Jenkins, in Italy, comes a lot closer home. "Just received a copy of my country paper," Charlie wrote, "Made me feel for a minute like I was back home again with all you folks. And when this job over here is done, I will be back—with everybody and everything just the same. I hope—" just as pleasant and cheery as ever. Well, we all know the things the boys want left "as is." The corner drugstore; taking a girl to a movie. The right to vote. The right to have a glass of beer if they want it. Keeping things the way Charlie and the boys remember them is our obligation, here as home. From where I sit, that's part of what Charlie meant.

Pin-up picture for the man who "can't afford" to buy an extra war bond...

YOU'VE HEARD people say: "I can't afford to buy an extra War Bond." Perhaps you've said it yourself... without realizing what a ridiculous thing it is to say to men who are dying.

Yet it is ridiculous, when you think about it. Because today, with national income at an all-time record high... with people making more money than ever before... with less and less of things to spend money for... practically every one of us has extra dollars in his pocket.

The very least that you can do is to buy an extra $100 War Bond... above and beyond the Bonds you are now buying or had planned to buy. In fact, if you take stock of your resources and check your expenditures, you will probably find that you can buy an extra $200... or $300... or even $500 worth of War Bonds.

Sounds like more than you "can afford"? Well, young soldiers can't afford to die, either... yet they do it when called upon. So is it too much to ask of us that we invest more of our money in War Bonds... the best investment in the world today? Is that too much to ask?

JUST THINK

This past summer America experienced its worst epidemic of infantile paralytic in many years

Think - of our tremendous war production and of how infantile paralysis has not been considered, might have sabotaged that war production.

Think - how your dimes and dollars contributed to the Annual Appeal of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis helped check the epidemic threat to our vital war effort.

Think - how the greatest minds and skills in medicine cooperated with the epidemic; how supplies, hospital equipment, respirators, apparatus of all kinds were rushed to the stricken areas so that all victims, rich or poor, regardless of age, race, creed or color could have adequate hospital and medical care.

Think - again of the magnificent job your dimes and dollars have done in fighting this disease this past summer.

Think - what 1944 may bring... we do not know. But we do know that we need your help to win this battle. This is your fight - a fight for all of the human benefits symbolized in the Stars and Stripes. Then -

Fight Infantile Paralysis Now!
