Again—Armistice Day

FOUR days after the strife of another national election and in the midst of the turmoil of war, America next Saturday will observe Armistice Day—the day which, it was hoped, twenty-six years ago, had marked the end of war.

Although November 11 did not, back in 1918, bring man's dream of universal and lasting peace, it is a hallowed day bought with the blood of men who died thinking its dawn would bring a brighter, better day for all the peoples of the earth.

This Armistice Day of 1944 is particularly memorable as millions dream of another Armistice, pray that it may come soon, that it may bring the light that failed after the world travail that came to its climax in 1918.

The day, then, should be a time for re-consecration to the task of winning the war and of the peace to come; a day when folks who prayed for success of Allied arms on "D-Day" might remember again to pray; a time for reverence of all those who fell in that other war and of all those thousands who have fallen in this.

And, too, the day could well be an appropriate time for the declaring of an armistice between political campaign foes and their followers—all for the purpose of following the nation's Commander-in-Chief, whoever he may be, with one single purpose: to win the war, return the nation's young men to their homes and assure them rest from arduous service in a world of peace.

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE LIBERATOR STATION

Master Sgt. Sherrill Haywood, of Wayland, Ky., is a section leader in the transportation division of the Eighth air force service command unit which serves this operational bomber group. The section with which he serves aids in the transportation of rations, bombs, and equipment necessary to keep the bombers on their mission of destroying German industry and transportation.

Sgt. Haywood's wife, Mrs. Doris Haywood, is residing at the home of her sister in Alexandria, Nebraska. They plan to reside at Wayland, the close of the war. The sergeant has been stationed in England since November, 1943.

POPE FIELD, N. C.—Cpl. Jay F. Preston, son of Mrs. Bettie Preston, of Inez, Ky., has been awarded the Good Conduct medal at this installation of the First troop carrier command, where he is in training with the 312th troop carrier squadron.

3rd Oak Leaf Cluster Added to Air Medal of Sgt. Lloyd Barton

Award of a third Oak Leaf Cluster to the Air Medal of Sgt. Lloyd Barton, son of Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Barton, of Auxier, for "meritorious achievement while participating in bombardment missions over enemy territory" has been announced by Maj. Gen. William E. Kepner, commander general of the 2nd Liberator bomber division.

Sgt. Barton has been flying as radio operator on the Liberator "Government Girl." Prior to joining the service he was attending Mayo Vocational School, Paintsville. He has participated in 29 aerial combat missions over targets in Germany and many in enemy-occupied Europe. His mission to Hamm proved his most exciting. His ship was hit by flak which knocked out one engine. On the way home, over the Channel, they were told to prepare for ditching, but luckily were able to make home base with the crew intact.

Raymond Hall, son of James B. Hall, of Banner, is preparing for duty with the amphibious forces aboard an LST—Landing Ship, Tank—one of the biggest ships in the navy's invasion fleet. He has been assigned as gunner to the crew of an LST at the Amphibious Training Base, Camp Bradford, Va., where he is going through the strenuous training required of bluejackets who man the beach-hitting tank carriers.

15TH AAF in ITALY—Cpl. Palmer D. Arrowood, 18, of Langley, Ky., has arrived overseas and has been assigned to duty as tail gunner in a B-24 Liberator group, commanded by Lt. Col. Phillip H. Haves, Pearl Harbor, N. H.

With over 100 combat missions to its credit, the B-24 group to which he has been assigned has kept Nazi targets extending from France through the southern Balkans. Arrowood entered the AAF June 30, 1943, and received training at army artillery school at Las Vegas, Nevada. He graduated from Maytown high school in May, 1943, and joined the AAF immediately after graduation. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Arrowood, live at Langley.

Pvt. Ellsworth H. Collins has just completed the tire repair course of the automotive schools, ordnance training center, at the Atlanta (Ga.) Ordnance Depot. A native of Prestonsburg, he was formerly employed here in the agency of a nationally known tire company. His wife, Mrs. Maye E. Collins, resides in Prestonsburg. Pvt. Collins has a brother, Lloyd, serving in the armed forces at Davisville, R. I.

AN AIR SERVICE COMMAND STATION, ENGLAND—S/Sgt. Joseph E. Dyer, son of Cliff H. Dyer, of Pikeville, Ky., recently completed an orientation course designed to bridge the gap between training in the States and combat soldiering against the enemy in Germany.

At this Air Service Command Station T. Spt. Dyer attended a series of lectures given by veterans of this command which included instructions on chemical warfare defense and pertinent tips on staying healthy in a combat zone. His next station will be one from which America's fighting planes cover the liberation of occupied Europe. Before entering the army air forces, he was employed as an instructor by the Floyd County Board of Education in Floyd county, Ky.

Floyd County Goes To War

Brothers in Service

DARWIN CAUDILL

While Lt. Darwin Caudill is serving with the medical corps in the evacuation of the wounded in Germany, his brother, Seaman 2/E Dalis Caudill is in the Pacific on navy duty. The brothers, both former students of Garrett high school, are sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Caudill, of Garrett, and are nephews of Mrs. Henry Stephens, Jr., of Prestonsburg.

At Camp Pickett, Va., has been in the army 27 months, 16 of which have been spent in the European theatre of operations—in North Africa, Italy, Sicily, England, France, Belgium and now in Germany. He has been awarded the Bronze Star. Seaman Caudill entered the navy last February. His wife and two children reside at Leander, Johnson county.

A. B. Barnett, 16, of Martin, is receiving his basic naval indoctrination at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. When his recruit training is completed, the seaman will receive a period of leave.

"I've been in the army almost four years. I'm almost 30 years old and the most beautiful thing I've ever seen was 3,000 of our planes dropping bombs on the Germans," wrote S/Sgt. George D. Ratliff, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ratliff, of Blue River, from France recently.

S/Sgt. Ratliff, who actually is only 28, is with the army medical corps.

Floyd countians have been transferred, as follows, for basic army training: Kelly Reed, son of Reuben Reed, Hippo, and Hillard McKinney, son of Bishop McKinney, Fritter, to Camp Blanding, Fla.; Tom Burke, husband of Mrs. Gladys Burke, Prestonsburg, to Ft. Leonard E. Wood, Mo.; Pvt. Charlie Vance, son of James J. Vance, Orkney, to Camp Atterbury, Indiana.

AMARILLO ARMY AIR FIELD, Amarillo, Texas—Edward Alley, son of Lee Alley, of Grethel, Ky., has completed his course of studies as an aviation mechanic in this Army Air Force Technical Training School. His graduation from this technical school now fits him for airplane maintenance and he will be sent to an air base where he will assist in keeping America's flying Fortresses in the air for Allied victory.

James A. Brooks, Home Creek, Va., former Betsy Layne high school student, recently was graduated from the basic training school at the University of Illinois campus at Urbana, Ill. Selection to attend the specialty school is based on results of recruit training aptitude test scores. The graduate is now awaiting further duty orders to sea or to some shore station. His brother, Charles F. Brooks, also a former Betsy Layne high school student, is with an armored unit in France. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Orva Brooks, of Home Creek.

Sgt. Martin Completes 42nd Bombing Mission

MARTIN

T/Sgt. Garnis Martin, son of M. J. Martin, of Melvin, has completed his 42nd bombing mission as gunner on a Liberator bomber based in Italy. He is the possessor of the Air Medal and an Oak Leaf Cluster for meritorious achievement in aerial combat against the enemy. He was recently reported as missing in action but soon returned to duty. He informed his mother in a letter recently that he expects to be home for Christmas.

Pvt. Thomas Deboard, 26, son of Mrs. E. Y. Fitzpatrick, entered the army Jan. 1, 1942, and has been in New Guinea sixteen months. He was an employee of the Elk Horn Coal Corporation, Wayland.

From somewhere in France Pvt. Galloway Lafferty writes his wife, Mrs. Nellie Lafferty, of Allen: "The people of France sure treat us Yanks nicely. We are heroes to them. When we passed through Paris the M.P.'s had to go before us to clear the streets, and when we are invited to eat with them we sure have eats which suit me."

"Tonight I am assigned to an emergency ambulance. I am at the dispensary. I ate with the 68th general hospital, and when we got in line who should I see?—Bally Leslie, of Emma. He is with the 99th general hospital and o.k., except, like me, a little homesick."

Pvt. Lafferty is with the 95th general hospital, and is driver of a command car. He was with the 68th in England, but has been in France for the last two months.

WITH THE ARMY AIR FORCE ENGINEERS COMMAND—W. L. Y. Winston Carr, of Banner, Ky., was recently promoted to the grade of technician 5th grade in his aviation engineer unit, which audits bases for Allied air power in the Mediterranean theater of operations.

T/5 Carr, a son of Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Banner, joined the service in June, 1942. After receiving special training at Keefer Field, Miss., he was sent overseas and has seen 26 months of active duty in England, North Africa, Italy and France as truck driver with the aviation engineers.

Hall's Skill as Radio Mechanic Is Cited

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE STATION, England—Sgt. Blaine R. Hall, of McDowell, Ky., has received official recognition of his skill as a radio mechanic in a Mustang squadron here.

General orders recently published at this Eighth Fighter Command Mustang base, under command of Colonel William J. Cummings, Jr., of Lawrence, Kansas, awarded a special qualification badge to the soldier which he will wear on his uniform. The order further stated that he was given a rating of "excellent" in his performance of duty.

Sgt. Hall, a former teacher in the McDowell consolidated school, was inducted in August, 1942.

Capt. Stephens Stationed in European Theatre

STEPHENS

Capt. James Stephens, son of Circuit Judge and Mrs. Henry Stephens, Jr., of Prestonsburg, entered army service in April, 1941, as second lieutenant. First stationed at Camp Shelby, Miss., he later served 18 months in Panama and is now with the European Civil Affairs Division, somewhere in Europe.

His half-brother, James E. Fitzpatrick, 20, entered the army in June, 1942, and has been overseas seven months.

From somewhere in France Pvt. Galloway Lafferty writes his wife, Mrs. Nellie Lafferty, of Allen: "The people of France sure treat us Yanks nicely. We are heroes to them. When we passed through Paris the M.P.'s had to go before us to clear the streets, and when we are invited to eat with them we sure have eats which suit me."

Thoughts on ARMISTICE DAY

Heartening as we observe Armistice Day on Nov. 11th is the blueprint that is emerging for a world-wide organization of the United Nations to prevent war in the future, by the use of force, if necessary.

Twenty-six years have passed since an armistice ended the first World War on Nov. 11, 1918.

Sacrifices made by fighters in both the first and second World Wars will not have been in vain if the United Nations properly organize after final victory is won this time to establish a program that will insure permanent Peace in the future.

Raynor-Clarke Vows Said at Pikeville On November 4

Miss Virginia Mae Raynor, daughter of Mrs. R. W. Raynor, of Pikeville, and the late Dr. Raynor, and Mr. William Francis Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bascom Clarke, of Prestonsburg, were married Saturday, Nov. 4, at the Methodist Church, Pikeville. The ceremony was solemnized by Dr. T. B. Ashley.

The church was arranged with baskets of white snapdragons, gladioli and pom-pom chrysanthemums and potted ferns. At either side of the altar were white candles with lighted tapers. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. John M. Yoet sang "Because" and "O, Promise Me" with Mrs. Robert E. Doak as piano. She also played the traditional "Wedding March."

The bride was attired in a pearl- and white blue street-length dress. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums with an orchid in the center. She was given in marriage by Atty. A. E. Auster, a close friend of the family.

Miss Helen Elizabeth Raynor, twin sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a yellow dress and carried a nosegay of yellow roses, stephanotis and lily of the valley.

Clear channeling the latest livestock and produce news, he counsels farmers daily in six states . . .

JOHN F. MERRIFIELD, WHAS Farm Co-ordinator, plows the air with the friendly desire to improve agricultural conditions for his listeners. Backed by 50,000 watts, his advice falls on fertile soil . . . in Kentucky, Indiana, Southern Illinois, Northern Tennessee, Eastern Missouri and Southern Ohio.

Man of the soil, John hails from the tall corn state, where he rotated his crop of knowledge in Iowa State College of Agriculture with extra training in journalism and economics. Radio lured him from the moment he took a vacation job, at sixteen, as office boy in a big Chicago station. Considered one of the best informed agriculturists in the area he addresses, Merrifield belongs to fifteen farm organizations, has walked and driven thousands of miles over farm land since WHAS launched its Farm Department in 1940, upon John's arrival.

From "First Edition" digest of reports covering nine principal mid-west markets, aired at 6:00 A.M., to midday government quotations, John provides accurate and complete information. He knows farmers haven't time to write . . . yet 36,000 listeners responded when Merrifield offered in three 20-second announcements to assist in procuring radio batteries for farm sets.

A r-aged, wholesome fellow, John's face lights up when he talks to farm friends, many of whom he addresses by first names. Apple of his eye is his three-year-old daughter.

Like their mail order catalogue, farmers keep John Merrifield's service within easy reach!

Courier-Journal, Times Announce $1,500 Essay Contest for Students

A Soil Conservation contest offering $1,500 in War Bonds, sponsored by The Courier-Journal and The Louisville Times in cooperation with the Kentucky Soil Conservation District, is open to young Kentucky students. It was announced recently by A. Threlkeld, president of the Kentucky District Superintendents.

The contest, first of its kind in the state, is held for any Kentucky boy or girl in grade or high school submitting an essay not exceeding 700 words on: "The Job Ahead for Soil Conservation Districts." Deadline is Nov. 15, when essays must be assembled from each school and turned to the county school superintendent's office.

The three state prizes of $100, $50 and $25 War Bonds, respectively, will be awarded Dec. 15 at the two papers' annual Farm and Home Campaign-Tom Wallace Forestry Award dinner-broadcast.

Additional district awards of a $25 War Bond will be given each winning grade or high school student in soil conservation districts, or in cities, towns or villages within the boundaries of a soil conservation district, where at least five essays are submitted.

Each essay should include plans and ideas on why once-prosperous farms are abandoned; the results of this waste land and why it is permitted to continue; what Kentucky farmers can do to prevent such future losses; and how each soil conservation district can help meet the needs for conserving soil resources.

According to Mr. Threlkeld, 95 per cent of the land areas in Kentucky are affected by soil erosion, a higher percentage than in any other state in the United States.

State judges for the contest are: A. Threlkeld, E. J. Kinney, chairman, State Soil Conservation Committee; H. K. Gayle, state conservationist, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Soil Conservation Service; J. F. Williams, state Superintendent of Public Instruction; and Mrs. Barry Bingham, representative of The Courier-Journal and The Louisville Times.

For further information concerning the contest communicate with J. M. Wynn, The Courier-Journal and The Louisville Times, Louisville (2), Ky.

Suggested sources of essay material are: County Agricultural Agents, Vocational Agricultural Teachers, Soil Conservation Service Technicians, the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky and the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

(Continued from page one) me wheeling up to the old typewriter. The guy's father before him didn't make any mistake about it. He didn't try to get away from the fundamentals of good, old mountain "object"—the oldtimer simply said "ferminas" and let it go at that.

Now I am no Chaucerian scholar, but I am told on good authority that that ancient gentleman set down the word, "ferminas" as perfectly good Anglo-Saxon. And since what some folks call the Appalachian hillbills retain the purest vestiges of Chaucer and the Anglo-Saxon speech and music forms, I maintain "ferminas" is good enough. A lot better anyway than "object" when you're wanting to say "opposite."

All this also affords an excuse for me to quote Dr. Paul Soper, of the University of Tennessee, who reminds the world that "the highland Southern accent is the purest form of speech in the United States... it is the nearest approach to the English spoken in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth centuries and has been least affected by outside influences."

Read your Canterbury Tales by Chaucer, observe those words you will hear oldtimers of this section every today. Then forget all about this hifalutin' stuff, hit yourself back home to the hills when your work is done and pick up right where you left off. Next time you hear some of us say "holper" or "holp" for "help"—don't smile. It was Chaucer's and remains here, undisturbed. And if the old folks at church do not favor sing it, "Jesus, lover of my soul"—brother, sing it with 'em and don't you change it, for Chaucer wrote it "lover." Pure Anglo-Saxon, bud!
