1946 OLDSMOBILE

THE CAR THAT'S REALLY NEW!

OFFERING THE NEW GENERAL MOTORS HYDRA-MATIC DRIVE

Hydra-Matic Drive is a combination of a fluid coupling and a fully automatic transmission. Gears shift automatically through all four forward speeds, and there's not even a clutch pedal in the car!

WITH MANY NEW ADVANCEMENTS

"Look to Olds For All That's New!" Look to America's oldest motor car manufacturer for the newest, smartest thing in 1946 models—and the newest, simplest way to drive. The 1946 Oldsmobile, with General Motors' new and finer Hydra-Matic Drive, is here now—for all to come and see!

And it's truly NEW in every sense of the word. The appearance is different from any previous Oldsmobile—with newly tailored lines, smart new front-end design, and newly appointed Bodies by Fisher. The performance is new, due to smoother and livelier "Fire-Power" engines. There are many new advancements throughout the chassis to provide greater ruggedness and reliability.

Hydra-Matic Drive is new, too. First introduced by Oldsmobile in 1939, and thoroughly battle-proved in fast Army tanks during the war, this great General Motors development has now been made even finer, smoother, and longer lasting than ever... for the new 1946 Oldsmobile.

You are invited to come in, see and inspect this great new General Motors car. Oldsmobile has been building quality automobiles for nearly fifty years. This newest Oldsmobile is by far the finest—the best-built Oldsmobile of all time.

Eight types of storage batteries declared surplus by the Signal Corps will have dollar-and-cent price ceilings for all sales in civilian channels, the Office of Price Administration announced this week.

The ceilings, effective Nov. 15, range from $3.39 to $28.34 at retail and from $2.26 to $18.89 f.o.b. shipping point, for sales to industrial users and retailers. Ceilings also are established for sales to wholesalers. Approximately 85,000 of these batteries are now located in various parts of the country and will be sold for civilian use by regional offices of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

The batteries, which range from two volts to 12 volts, can be used in passenger cars, buses, trucks, motorcycles, radio sets and as an emergency source of power for lighting.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear husband and father, G. B. Newman, who departed this life one year ago today. In loving memory we can see his ever-smiling face before us, inspiring the continuance of our lives in the pattern he set by his devotion to family and community, unselfishness in dealing with his fellow-humans, a sense of fairness and honesty which was inviolate, and a humbleness of spirit which caused all who met him to love and respect him.

Our home is lonely without him, and we hope to meet him in the sweet by and bye.

The Mailed Fist of MARS Has Ceased Pounding

Temporarily at least, human flesh and nerves and the human spirit have gained respite from the ceaseless hammering of Mars the war lord. Restful peace has settled once again on the world.

Now, it is the duty of us all to see the aims of this nation carried forward to gain a lasting peace... to make our country prosperous... to render the entire world a fit place for civilized men and women and their children...

Sound investments, economy, support of the nation which among all others is great—these are our bits of advice to our friends and customers.

Many farmers will buy one-man hay balers. More jobs!

One-man ensilage harvesters will add to jobs in factories.

Making Postwar Jobs—With Farm Equipment

How many jobs will there be for men and women released from military service—and from war industry? No one can say, exactly. But this much we know: Business management, in scores of industries, has long since laid plans to meet quickly the tremendous, pent-up demand for goods of all kinds—and to introduce new products and services that will make jobs by the thousands by creating new demands.

Take the farm-equipment industry. Right now, there is a critical demand for standard farm implements of all kinds. Nearly a million dollars' worth of equipment is needed in every farm county! Making this equipment will make jobs for thousands, in mines, mills, and factories.

And a great new force for job-making is in the new developments by farm-equipment manufacturers. Among these developments are new ensilage harvesters that cut standing corn and make it ready for ensiling in one simple operation. New combines that harvest and thresh wheat without backbreaking toil. New machines that pick corn, pick up and bale hay, dig and pick up sugar beets. Machines that not only mean easier, better, more diversified, more productive farming—but also new jobs in industry.

The farm-impliment industry is but one of many along the Chesapeake and Ohio, the Nickel Plate, and Pere Marquette, that are going full speed ahead putting their plans into operation, now that Victory has been won.

WE GIVE THEE THANKS

In the name of the living, and of the dead, And of those unborn - Lord, bless the bread Of brotherhood that now we break In gratitude for Thy sweet sake. In the name of the living - we thank Thee, Lord, For deliverance from flame and sword; For loved ones spared; for the task well done; For the battle fought - and the victory won. In the name of the dead - locked deep in sleep Under alien earth - give us strength to keep Untarnished their dear-bought legacy, The brave, bright armor of liberty. And for those unborn - Lord, we lift a prayer For a wiser world where we all may share A lasting amity with men. We thank Thee, Lord, for peace. Amen.

Did you ever try to pass a... Kentucky's Highways Were Not Built for 20-Ton Trucks

It is reported that the commercial trucking interests will endeavor to have the next session of the Kentucky Legislature pass a permanent law authorizing the operation of truck-trailer combinations weighing twenty tons. Heavy trucks, when grinding slowly uphill, impede all traffic because of the difficulty and danger of passing. A fast-moving 40,000 pound truck, whether on a down-grade or on a narrow level road, is a positive menace to all other traffic. The book "Kentucky: Designs for Her Future," recently issued under the auspices of the University of Kentucky, thus aptly expresses the views of the operators of all motor vehicles - whether buses, trucks or automobiles: "Few experienced drivers relish the prospect of encountering 'highway trains' on a narrow, slippery, double switch-back curve." The danger and inconvenience in the day time is increased many fold at night. According to the Good Roads Federation the 10,000 miles of highways in the Kentucky State Highway System include only 2,100 miles of hightype surfacing and there are 8,200 miles of road less than 20 feet wide and 3,200 miles less than 18 feet wide with 16,000 places where sight ahead is restricted by sharp curves or other obstructions. The facts are graphically portrayed in the following statement in the book "Kentucky: Designs for Her Future": "Her (Kentucky's) standing in high-type surfacing is relatively low - next to the bottom per cent of population." In the County Road System, of 47,000 miles there are 2,000 miles of un surfaced, mud roads, and the remainder cannot properly support the 18,000 pound trucks which were permitted before the war. The simple fact is that Kentucky's highways, consisting of a maze of narrow, winding, hilly roads, were not built for 20-ton vehicles. All commercial trucks in a normal year pay out about $600,000 in gasoline and license taxes. That is less than 5% of the total highway taxes paid by the public and is also less than that part of railroad property taxes that is used for highway purposes in this state. To permit the operation of 20-ton trucks is as unfair to competing forms of transportation as it is unreasonable from the standpoint of the capacity and character of the highways. Protection of the safety and convenience of the operators of passenger cars and of trucks of reasonable size, preservation of the highways and due regard for the taxpayers who build and maintain those highways - all unite with simple fairness to competing forms of transportation in requiring that reasonable limitations be imposed upon the instrumentalities that use public property for private profit.

This message is published by the Kentucky Railroad Association. In addition to income taxes the railroads in a normal year pay in this state more than $1,000,000 in property taxes. Approximately $2,500,000 is used for school and more than $800,000 for county roads and city streets.

Former Floyd-Co. Girl Weds in Indiana

Miss Naomi Hughes, daughter of John W. Hughes, of Medaryville, Indiana, formerly of this county, became the bride of Mr. Wilbur German, son of Mrs. Alta German, of Rossville, Ind., Oct. 6.

The nuptials were read in LaPorte, Ind., by the Rev. Hershel Conroy officiating in the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a blue suit with black accessories and a shoulder corsage of roses and baby breath.

Mr. German received an honorable army discharge on Sept. 25 after 39 months service. He spent 19 months overseas with Gen. Patton's Third Army in the European theater of operations where he was attached to the 174th field artillery.

Mr. and Mrs. German will reside in Gary, Ind., where he will be employed by the U.S. Steel Corporation in the same capacity he held before entering the service.

Auxier Seaman Who Survived Ship Sinking To Die in Shore Mishap

Frank E. Hubbard, MCM 3/c, son of Mrs. Bern Hubbard, of Auxier, died at Panama City, Florida, as a result of injuries incurred in an automobile accident. He was on shore patrol duty when the accident occurred.

Born June 17, 1924 at Pikeville, he attended the Auxier consolidated school and was in the second year of high school when he was called for service. He was inducted in the navy in July, 1943 and was sent to Great Lakes Naval Training Station. After completing training there, he was assigned to the USS Twig for active duty. He was sent to the Pacific where he was in six major battles around Leyte and the waters around the Philippine Islands.

The last engagement he was in was at Okinawa when the Twig was torpedoed on June 15, 1945 and sank in less than one hour. He was rescued and given a 30-day leave. At the expiration of this leave he reported to Nashville, Tenn., and was sent to New Orleans, La., and from there he was sent to Panama City, Fla., at which place he met his death while performing duty.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Roberta Hubbard, Prestonsburg, his father and mother, of Auxier, and six brothers and four sisters: Jack and John Paul, Theodora, Clifford and William, of Auxier; Lt. Charles Hubbard, stationed in India; Mrs. Charles Trivette, Virgie, Ky.; Mrs. W. L. Wells, Auxier; Mrs. C. L. Kophart, Hagerstown, Md.; and Miss Olive Hubbard, Cincinnati, O. Three members of his family have their discharges from the service.

The third annual farm tour of the Kiwanis Club in Clay county was held in September, when 15 farms were visited.

Our Roots Are in This Land...

How often you hear a man say of the land he owns... "When my son takes over, this will be a better place than when I got it!" Such a desire is natural to a father and splendidly American! Along with the expressed thought, there is a deep-rooted pride in continuous family ownership of productive land. So long as this ideal lives, agriculture will continue to be "the broad, enduring base upon which the entire U. S. economy rests."

There are many farm and ranch sons who stay in their families' business on the land. Some who do leave, however, might also stay, were there written business agreements between father and son. Such agreements insure a fair return to both "partners" for the labor, capital and ability they contribute to their joint enterprise.

Practical father-and-son farm business agreements have been worked out and are proving their worth in actual practice on many of the nation's farms and ranches. The various forms of these agreements cannot be explained in detail here, but they are available and worth study. Excellent bulletins on this subject may be had by writing to the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois, for Circular No. 587; or to Michigan State College, East Lansing, Michigan, for Special Bulletin No. 330.

We, at Swift & Company, know that a prosperous agriculture is the base of our prosperity and we are proud to say with you... "Our roots are in this land."

Soda Bill Sez:

... That a steer is like a sofa. His frame is built on the range, his upholstery is put on in the Corn Belt, and he is often polished off in the city. ... That the important thing about a water-hole is water, and the important thing about a good farm is good farming.

Have you heard about the new improved lard?

Swift & Company, after ten years of research and consumer tests, has developed a brand new product—Swift's Bland Lard. It has all the advantages of other high grade shortenings, plus the important qualities found only in lard. It will cause millions of American housewives to use more lard, and that's mighty important to hog producers. Any improvement in pork products which boosts consumer demand (such as a superior lard) will have a supporting effect on live hog prices, because the price paid for livestock is governed by what the meat packer can get for the meat and by-products.

*** NUTRITION IS OUR BUSINESS — AND YOURS *** Right Eating Adds Life to Your Years — and Years to Your Life

THE EDITOR'S COLUMN

The livestock-and-meat industry is like an endless chain. The meat travels in one direction; from livestock producer to meat packer, to retail dealer, to consumer. And coming back in the opposite direction is money; from the meat purchaser to the storekeeper, to the meat packer, to the man who grows the livestock.

There must be motive power to keep that chain running, and that motive power is profit. It is profit that keeps ranchers and farmers producing livestock; profit keeps meat packers slaughtering, dressing and delivering meat to retailers; profit keeps retailers selling meat in their stores.

We at Swift & Company well know that a continuing loss anywhere along the line would mean that all of us would suffer. Thus, it is clearly to our own advantage to operate our end of the livestock-and-meat industry so efficiently that the money the consumer pays for meat shall cover all costs plus a sufficient profit for retailers and livestock producers, as well as for ourselves.

PIGS INHERIT ABILITY TO MAKE RAPID GAINS

Alabama Agricultural Experiment Station Pigs from certain families or blood lines consistently made faster and cheaper gains than pigs from other blood lines in a swine breeding experiment at the Alabama Experiment Station. The ability to consume large amounts of feed and to convert it into meat rapidly and efficiently was found to run in families.

A strain of hogs which was selected for economy of gains reached a finished weight of 225 pounds in an average of 27 days less time than a strain that had not been selected for economy of gains. They also consumed an average of 34 pounds less feed to make 100 pounds of gain during the fattening period.

The appetite of a pig was found to be a good index to his ability to make rapid and cheap gains.

Martha Deyan's Recipe for CHICKEN REGAL

- 2 cups cubed cooked chicken
2 cups cooked peas
2 cups chopped mushrooms
2 cups chopped chicken fat
4 tablespoons chopped pimiento
4 tablespoons flour
4 egg yolks
4 cups milk

Make a white sauce of the fat, flour, milk, and seasoning. Add chicken, peas, mushrooms, and pimiento. Heat thoroughly. Beat yolks. Add a little of the hot mixture to the eggs and mix. Remove chicken mixture from the heat. Add egg mixture. Stir well. Serve immediately over hot biscuits, waffles, or cornbread.

CATTLEMAN ON HORSEBACK

Next time you are at the Union Stock Yards in Chicago, if you see this big, jovial man sitting on a horse in the middle of a milling pen of cattle, that will be Mr. S. ("Slim") Hughes, Swift's Head Cattle Buyer at Chicago.

'Way back in 1917, S. Hughes walked up to the Swift buyer in Kansas City and said, "Mister Stamm, I want a job." He got the job, and he's been with Swift ever since, except for a two-year army hitch in World War I. Kansas City, St. Louis, Fort Worth, St. Joseph, Kansas City again, and finally Chicago—all added to his experience in judging the quality and yield percentages, grading, etc., of cattle.

In 1943 he was made Head Cattle Buyer for Swift & Company at the Chicago Yards. He has a staff of experienced cattle buyers directly associated with him.

Music-Goodman Vows Said November 17

Mrs. George W. Music, of Auxier, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Irene, to Mr. Bill Goodman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Goodman, of Omaha, on Nov. 17. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, with several friends attending.

The bride was attired in a soldier blue street length dress with black accessories. Miss Mary L. Music, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and James W. Caudill, friend of the contracting parties, was best man. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. C. Honeycutt, minister of the Church of Christ. A wedding supper was served to several friends, and the couple left shortly thereafter for a short visit in Ashland.

WHAS' Agricultural Activities

FRANK H. COOLEY, tall, lanky Kansan, is carrying on WHAS' typical personalized farm activities designed to do everything possible for the advancement of agriculture in the broad WHAS listening area.

No fancy hallyhoo, but a consistent, day-by-day co-operation with farmers, dairymen, stockmen, anyone with an agricultural problem. Cooley travels to every nook and corner of Kentuckiana, promoting every movement for the betterment of life on the farm. He goes to and reports on the livestock conventions, farm fairs, purchased breeders' sales, livestock and crop-improvement meetings and the like. To keep you informed he works closely with National, State and County farm agencies, seasoning his gleanings with his own broad farm experience.

Cooley, recently discharged from the Army, is no studio farmer. He was born and reared on a farm in northeastern Kansas, where one of his many projects was a dairy farm with a maximum of 90 head of cattle. A graduate of Kansas State College of Agriculture, he has taught vocational agriculture in Kansas high schools in addition to holding night classes for adult farmers.

Every morning at 10 minutes to 7 Frank is at the WHAS microphone giving farm news, market reports and agricultural information. Several times each week he is heard on another WHAS farm program, "Kentuckiana Almanac," and he's likely to pop into many daytime programs when he has some farm news to give you.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son and brother who was reported missing in the southwest Pacific two years ago on Nov. 14, 1943—T/Sgt. Eugene Hyder. If we could only speak to you today, Gene, Hear your voice and see your sweet smile. Then life would be worthwhile. We miss you, Gene, in many ways. We long for you through lonely days. Taken so quickly—why should it be?—our son, who meant so much to us, we cannot tell. But God who does all things well. The answer holds in His own hands; So some day we will know and understand.

Our lips cannot tell how we miss you, Gene.

Our hearts cannot tell what to say. For God alone only knows how we miss you.

In a home that is lonely today.
So sadly missed by

20 or 25 Lots FOR HOMES and BUSINESSES

Reasons why these lots are most desirable:

1. They are near the center of Floyd county. A man can drive to work within a few minutes over good highways. Prestonsburg is only a 10-minute drive. Lucrative businesses can be built along both highways.
2. Allen has fine church facilities. A new stone church was recently completed.
3. Allen has a splendid school system. High school buses going to Martin, Betsy Layne and Prestonsburg pass these lots.
4. Allen has a pure water supply operated by Herman Porter. Every home can have running water and a bathroom.
5. The lots are 50 by 100 feet—large enough for a garden, too.

They Won't Last Long.
No Public Auction Will Be Held.

Garrett Coach Has Troubles with New, Inexperienced Team

Garrett, Ky., Nov. 19 (Sp.)—Coach Everett (Bab) Hall of the Garrett Black Devils, is having his troubles this year, what with a completely new team which has had little or no basketball experience. The team has won only one of its three games and its 91-31 defeat Friday night at the hands of McNewell was one of the worst ever suffered by a Garrett team. The Black Devils lost their first game Nov. 2 to Hindman, 43 to 25, then won the next on Nov. 15 over Auxier, 38 to 23.

THROUGH THE EYES OF A FRIEND

Customers are people. And the Telephone Company has always considered customers in that light—as individuals, like the men and women who make up our own company.

This friendly feeling, we are happy to say, is reflected in the progress that Kentucky and the Telephone Company made together through the years. It is this same kind of partnership that makes the future sparkle with promise.

Like Kentucky, the Telephone Company is buckling down to its postwar tasks. For the 3,326 men and women of the Telephone Company in this state, it means the greatest expansion program in our history in Kentucky. It's a full and complete program, designed to meet the state's industrial and agricultural needs of the future. It means the expenditure of millions of dollars in Kentucky.

Specifically, the program will provide telephones for all who have been waiting for them. This is one of our first jobs! A greatly expanded telephone program for our farmer friends is also in process. Expansion of long distance service is being scheduled too. It will include the installation of coaxial cables to handle more calls with speed and convenience for you, and provide more facilities for that exciting visual art—television. A mass of construction is to be done and a new service to motor vehicles is also in the offing.

Here's a program of achievement, to be worked out together by Kentucky and the Telephone Company as they have worked out their attainments of the past. By mutual understanding and cooperation, Kentucky and the Telephone Company will grow greater than ever.

It's a big program that shall become a reality as fast as materials become available—a reality to be translated into prosperity and payrolls for the people of Kentucky. For a business is like an individual. If he fares well, his community fares well with him. And that is the way it should be, among friends.
