ALPHONZO McCLLOUD, JR. 12-18-81-nd.

Busy, dizzy Mrs. Brodie!

No, this isn't a new kind of toy. It's merely Mrs. Brodie, after a few hectic days of Christmas shopping.

"I'm simply whirling around like a top!" moans Mrs. Brodie. "I wish there was a way to stop without turning out of the house. My feet are KILLING me! And I'm afraid I've fractured my budget!"

Well, there's one from Mrs. Brodie doesn't have to stop—what's electricity? It comes to her special delivery, without effort or waiting. She has only to flip a switch, and electric power is right on hand, in any quantity she needs.

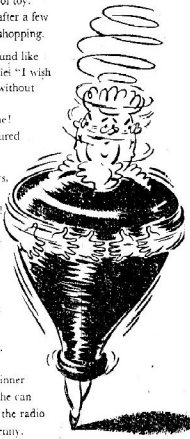

Electricity is easy on Mrs. Brodie's budget, too. For a few pennies, her coffee range will cook dinner for her while she shops. She can rest her feet and listen to the radio all evening for another penny.

Mr. Brodie has no complaint, either. A couple of cents worth of electricity fund Mrs. Brodie with from a whole week's supply of his shirts.

Busy, dizzy Mrs. Brodie! But this wild holiday fever comes only once a year. And she enjoys it every year. So do you. The practical planning of the friendly folks in this company—under sound business management—makes that possible.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear son and brother, Arbie Hunt, who died for his country Dec. 13, 1944:

That loneliness month is here again. It's the month of December. In which my darling boy departed. This month we'll always remember.

I always look at your picture. That is still hanging on the wall. I try to tell you, my dearest darling, how you are missed by us all.

Now my home is so lonely. Since you have gone away. But I pray to God in heaven. That we will meet again some bright day.

Yes, dear Arbie, you were loved by us all. And I always look. With tears in my eyes. At your picture on the wall.

Yes, dear son, I have your letters. In them you ask me to pray for you. But now I am praying we will meet. When this weary life is through.

You always wanted your mother to pray. That we would meet again some day. But the thought that breaks my heart.

Is to know, dear son, we had to part. Sadly missed by us all—MRS. CORA HALL AND FAMILY. (11)

Attention, Truckers

There is a new law becoming effective Jan. 1, 1947, which completely changes the method of licensing your truck. Hereafter you have been holding them according to manufacturers' capacity rating as 1-ton, 1 1/2-ton, or 2-ton. You must now completely forget the old method and your 1947 license will be issued according to gross weight which includes the weight of the truck plus the maximum load you expect to haul. Have your truck weighed so you will know what gross weight you will need to license it for. Your license receipt will show your gross weight and the State Patrol should check you and you are hauling a greater load than you license your truck for, then you will be fined.

Any private owner of a truck who uses it in his own business only and not for hire and who hauls gross weight exceeding 18,000 pounds must purchase weight tags in addition to his license. This weight tag will be sold only in this office.

Common and contract carriers must secure a weight tag from the Department of Motor Vehicle Transcription before we can license them in this office. Anyone who owns a truck and hauls for hire must put a weight tag on it when it is licensed as common carrier. For example, if you own a truck and haul groceries for someone who pays you, this makes you a contract carrier. But if you haul different types of material for anyone you then become a common carrier.

In order to license either of the above two types you must first secure your weight tag from Frankfort and then present them to us before we can license your vehicle.

I feel sure this law will cause quite a lot of trouble in licensing a number of vehicles, but I am ready to explain any phase of the law you may wish to ask and I will license your truck on the weight you state and either as a private contract or common carrier as you wish and have the proper papers for them. If your license is wrong it will be between you and the State Patrol. So I urge you all to begin thinking now and be prepared to tell us just what gross weight you expect to haul and whether you expect to operate for hire, and so, you should apply now to Frankfort for your weight permit so you can present it here for license.

Itinerant Jobless Claims Up Total to 2,756

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 16 (Sp.)—Jobless benefits claims of all types for the week ending Dec. 7, 1944, Kentucky Unemployment Compensation Commission reported today.

Industrial claims numbered 2,291, including 160, and veterans, 2,376. Total claims were up 298 over the previous week of the week ending Dec. 7, 1944.

Commission officials explained that the increase was due to itinerant claims being filed in the week ending Dec. 7, 1944, under the semi-monthly system of filing these claims, the number always increases in the week in which these claims were filed, just as a week in which none of these claims was filed would show a decrease from the previous week.

FOR STATE SENATOR

In announcing my candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Senator from the 26th Senatorial district of the State of Kentucky, I am pleased to announce that I am a resident of this county, I ask the support of the people of these three counties upon my record.

During the term I have served you as your State Senator I have never missed a Senate roll call at either the 1944 or 1946 sessions of the Legislature; I introduced and fought to enact the compulsory Workmen's Compensation bill for protection and aid of thousands of employees and such beneficial legislation as the following: I voted 100 per cent for all beneficial social legislation.

I have served the people as best I could and gladly submit my record for your consideration. I will appreciate the support of you all.

BETSY LAYNE

Relatives and friends greeted several young people back to their homes for the Christmas holidays. Among them were P. J. and Edna Roberts, Pvt. Charles Walters, Pvt. Claude Daniels, Seaman Eugene Stephens and Jack Combs, Glenn Layne from the University of Kentucky, Joan Stephens, Berea College, and Emily Roop, from Southland Bible Institute.

Two Christmas programs presented at the school were outstanding this season. The first was a Christmas opera presented by the grades and directed by Mrs. Carlos Haywood, and the other was a card service given by the glee clubs.

The Christmas service at the Methodist Church on the Sunday evening preceding Christmas was well attended. The sermon was delivered by the pastor, the Rev. Robert Anderson. Following the service, many young people and several adults caroled in different parts of the community. The caroling ended the evening with refreshments at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon George and children returned to their home at Lexington, Va., Christmas Day after visiting for several days with his mother, Mrs. Charlie George.

An interesting Christmas program was given by the young people of the Calvary Baptist Church Sunday evening. The Rev. R. H. White is serving as pastor of the church in the absence of the Rev. Walter Binney whose family is residing in Staunton, Illinois where Mrs. Binney is undergoing medical treatment.

Progress is being shown in both the churches now under construction in the community. The walls of the Church of Christ, constructed of limestone blocks, are being laid, while the roof is being added to the Methodist Church. Services are now being held in the basement of the Methodist Church.

The fourth meeting of the Youth for Christ Rally was held last Monday night in the school gymnasium with the Rev. Robert Anderson bringing the message and the members of Rev. C. A. White's family presenting special music. This was a very interesting session and plans are laid for a fine meeting in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Den Burke entertained several relatives and friends at their home Christmas eve with a buffet supper. Remainder of the evening was spent in singing carols, playing games and visiting.

Misses Anales and Betty Francis, of Lexington, visited Miss Clara James last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James George had as Sunday dinner guests Mrs. Clara George, Mrs. Elizabeth Spears and family, Mr. and Mrs. Den Burke, Miss Billy Jean Blackburn and Earl Hays.

Mrs. Gordon Street, of Ashland, was the Saturday night guest of Mrs. Eliza Blackburn.

Mrs. B. H. Hovens and daughter spent the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Hovens' mother, Mrs. Minnie Woods, in Ewingville, W. Va.

Mrs. Virginia McDonald, who has been visiting for several days with her aunt, Mrs. Floyd Risner, left Saturday to visit friends in Louisville.

Earl Hays has returned after spending the holidays with his parents at McKee.

Mrs. Clifton Stanley here were recently destroyed by fire which damaged, supposedly, from irregular pressure of the gas supply. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley have new living at the home of Mrs. Stanley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stratton road.

Miss Elliott attended the graduation exercises of Hershey Ray Stratton on the evening of Dec. 20 at the University of Louisville School of Medicine. The graduation class consisted of 80 members. Hershey Ray returned home to spend the holidays with his parents and has now returned to Louisville to begin intern duty in the Kentucky Baptist hospital.

FAMILY DINNER
Mrs. Laura M. Spradlin entertained her family group to dinner on Christmas Day. Dinner was served buffet-style at noon to the following: Mr. and Mrs. George P. Roberts, Miss Laura Virginia Roberts, Mrs. Mrs. Luther Shavel, Mary Jo Shavel, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Perry, Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Davidson, Jack, Jr., and

CLIFF

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Snyder returned to their home at Jenkins Thursday after spending the holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stephens.

Miss Anna Elizabeth Hoffmann returned to her home at Columbus, Ohio, after having spent Christmas here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay May.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walken moved here recently from Bill Creek, Ohio. May left Friday for Columbus, Ohio, where he will be employed.

Lewis Patton, of Prestonsburg, visited his cousins, Reba and George Vaughan, here recently.

Miss Alma Jean Meade, of Ligon and Eastern State Teachers College, Richmond, Miss Alberta Meade and James Elliott, of Ligon, were calling on Mrs. Frankie Best Sunday afternoon.

Cliff school presented an interesting Christmas program Dec. 20 before a large audience. The main feature was a pageant depicting the birth of the Christ child. Val Stratton came from his studio in Prestonsburg and made a picture of the final scene in the pageant.

Visiting the Floyd county model school at Cliff recently were Misses Myrtle and Goldie Burchett, of Austin.

Former Floyd Youth
Is Fatally Injured
Selling Yale Trees

While selling Christmas trees at a roadside near Pikeville, Dec. 25, a former Floyd county schoolboy was struck and fatally injured by a passing automobile.

The victim, each-year-old Larry Cecil Pruitt, formerly of Alphaetta, stepped from behind a tree-laden truck, it was said, and was struck by a car driven by George Henderson, of Draftin, Pike county. His skull was fractured and he died at the Methodist hospital, Pikeville, on the following day.

Young Pruitt was a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Fussit. Besides his parents, he is survived by nine brothers and sisters: S. T. Ellis R. Pruitt, Green Cove Springs, Fla.; Mrs. Glenn Pitts, III, Hat, Paul J. Wendell, Bobby Glenn, Ray, Robert, Virginia Mae and Frances Ellen Pruitt, of Pikeville.

The body was taken to Chapman, former resident of the family, for burial in the McClure cemetery under direction of the Baker & Preston Funeral Home.

Hunting and Fishing License Sale Report

During the year 1946 hunting and fishing licenses were sold in 13 different localities in Floyd county, following is a list of license handlers and amounts each sold:
Ray Long, Whitesburg, $1,245; Gardner Dingus, Martin, $745; George Allen, Allen, $682; Roger Stewart, Maytown, $652; Steve Clark, Whitesburg, $598; Roe Turner, Duff, $450; H. P. Meade, H. Hat, $297; Ira Pender, Whitesburg, $286; T. Meade, McDowell, $287; George Wells, Auxier, $244; Princess Elliott, David, $187; D. Scott, Charrest, $159; H. R. Burke, Prestonsburg, $120.

Total sales of the club amounted to $5,924, and the club received as its share of the commission $498.30. Through the generosity of Jarvis Allen, the club added this amount to its treasury and Floyd county, with the Clerk's office sales, has possibly retailed the sales of last year. It is hoped that the sportsmen can get their hunting and fishing licenses again this coming year without the added expense and time to come to Prestonsburg. The club takes this means of thanking the men who sold the licenses, and our County Court Clerk for his co-operation with our club.
