1948 Farming Season, Ho— And Hoe Is Little Needed

More about farming without a hoe or a hoe is little needed. Harold Blakeman said he sprayed his entire corn crop—500 acres.

"At the time we first used 2-4-D we didn't know whether it would kill the corn or the weeds," said Blakeman, "but I figured it couldn't hurt the crop any more than the weeds, so I shot the weeds. Until that time we were hoeing and every time we hoed it rained and weeds seemed to grow thicker and higher."

Blakeman said he sprayed his field once with the new chemical and wiped out the weeds. In 1946 his bottom land produced from 30 to 40 bushels of corn an acre. This year the average was 50 bushels an acre on the same ground, but under somewhat adverse growing conditions compared with 1946.

John Dington, another bottom-land farmer, thinks so much of 2-4-D that he believes all you have to do is "just show a hoe and weed 2-4-D and it takes out." He explained that the average cost of hoeing corn is $4 an acre and spraying with 2-4-D costs only $1 an acre.

Jackson explained that the weed-killing chemical still is in the experimental stage and warned farmers to be careful in spraying it. Farmers here have experimented only on corn.

However, C. B. Smith, who owns 850 acres of river corn land, said he sprayed 2-4-D down the side of a southern field and no damage resulted in the bean plants.

Jackson warned, however, that a report from Texas revealed 2-4-D was said to have killed cotton 12 miles away when the chemical was sprayed from an airplane. He said he mentioned that as a warning to farmers to use the chemical only on crops which previous experiments have shown it will not hurt.

Heretofore explained Smith, it has been difficult for a farmer to follow sections on a corn field because of the heavy weed growth following the corn harvest. Now the fields will be weed free, he said.

Smith estimated that he alone saved between $1,000 and $2,000 this year by spraying with 2-4-D.

Dr. L. M. Josephson, Kentucky College of Agriculture research specialist in corn, warned the farmers that 2-4-D is not a substitute for cultivation entirely, and added:

"There are a lot of things we still have to know about it. And we still have to learn just how to use it."

He told the farmers that in College of Agriculture experiments with the weed killer there was noted some injury "down in the leaf world" of 11 stalk when the corn was sprayed too early with 2-4-D. No damage resulted when the corn was sprayed near the tasseling stage but the weeds in the plot were killed, he said.

Josephson also said some work has been done with "pre-emergence" spraying, or spraying before corn has come through the ground.

Josephson also said some work has been done with "pre-emergence" spraying, or spraying before corn has come through the ground.

College of Agriculture chemists here for the discussion warned farmers that 2-4-D has worked effectively on corn but that it has not been used on other crops.

BOYD PREPAY PLAN OKEHD

Is First Medical Plan On County-Wide Basis Set Up in Kentucky

Kentucky's first voluntary prepay medical plan to be set up on a county-wide basis, was approved Friday for Boyd county by the State Board of Health.

It will probably "set a pattern for the rest of the state," Dr. P. E. Blackerby, state health commissioner, said.

The board approved the incorporation of Medical Service, Inc., a non-profit corporation. Its physician-members will supply up to $150 worth of surgical, obstetric, anesthesia, and x-ray and radium benefits to subscribers annually.

Dr. Blackerby said 24 of the 32 physicians in Boyd county have voted to join the service. Six physicians from Ashland and one from Callettsburg are the incorporators.

Greenup county doctors probably will form a similar service, and physicians in Pike county also are planning one. Dr. Blackerby told the board in Boyd county and elsewhere the plans can be extended to adjoining counties "any time they get 50 per cent or more of the doctors in the county to join," he said. Subscribers are not confined to any single county.

It was understood the plan will cost subscribers $1 monthly for a single person and $2 for a family, though Dr. Blackerby said he hadn't been informed officially.

Incorporators of the Boyd county service are Drs. George M. Bell, Oliver H. Pearing, H. E. Martin, Leslie D. Hester, Walter P. Williams, and Leslie H. Winanz, of Ashland; and Dr. E. W. Garred, Callettsburg.

The Ashland plan is modeled on one already working in Huntington, W. Va., he added. It is limited to "surgical services." These include operative and cutting procedures, treatment of all fractures and dislocations... anesthesia... obstetrical service in the home or hospital, and x-ray and radium therapy." Blackerby said it will cover visits to doctors' offices.

It will not cover medical costs because of hospitalization, he said, before they get started." Blackerby said. He told the board Huntington Medical Care, Inc., Inc., Inc. in $60,000 and paid out $45,000 in benefits its first six months. Only after such a service builds up a good surplus can it afford to pay "medical" benefits as well, he added.

Under the Boyd county plan, a subscriber must pay half the difference if his doctor's surgical bill runs more than $150 a year.

Only persons already subscribers to Blue Cross Hospital Service may join the new service. Lane Tyne, Kentucky Blue Cross director, said about 15,000 persons in Boyd county are Blue Cross subscribers.

The Boyd county plan differs from one considered recently by the Kentucky Medical Association in that it is open to anyone, regardless of income. The state association discussed a plan of benefits only to persons earning below a certain income.

Kentucky Children, Inc., Begins County Organization

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 3 (Sp1)—H. Fred Wilkie, president of Kentucky Children, Inc., today announced the appointment of chairman for county committees to represent the child welfare organization in five counties. Kentucky Children, Inc., plans to organize a committee of representatives in every county in Kentucky as well as a state-wide Speakers' Bureau, Wilkie said.

The five county committee chairmen named are Phuley Tyson, Shelbyville for Shelby county; Dathne Hadden, Lawrenceburg, Anderson county; Mrs. Marcus Phelps, Leitchfield, Grayson county; Mrs. T. E. Sparks, chairman, and Mrs. Paul Wickliffe, co-chairman, Central City, Mahoning county; Russell Carpenter, Hopkinsville, Hope county; Mrs. John Kirtley, chairman, and Col. Verne Caldwell, co-chairman, Owensboro, Daviess county; and Mrs. Virgil Kinna's, Lancaster, Garrard county.

Kentucky Children, Inc., is a non-profit organization set up to help meet the health, welfare, educational and recreational needs of all the children of Kentucky. It operates, through volunteers, as a fund raising and distributing agency helping approved child welfare agencies in the state, supplementing their activities.

In addition to the county committees now being set up, Kentucky Children, Inc., includes four permanent operating committees: Its Research Committee, headed by Dr. John V. Taylor, president of the University of Louisville, secures data necessary for the operation of the corporation. The Accounting Committee, headed by Dr. H. L. Donovan, president of the University of Kentucky, establishes standards for child welfare organizations applying for aid and determines to what degree they need assistance. The Budget Committee, with C. J. Donohue, Louisville business executive as chairman, receives from member groups requests for funds. It passes, increases or decreases such requests in accordance with funds available, amount of funds required and need. The Executive Committee, headed by H. Fred Wilkie, Louisville industrialist, takes final action on recommendation of all committees. All committee members of Kentucky Children, Inc., are volunteers—active people throughout the state.

THE SCHOOLS ARE YOURS

The schools are yours, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd County Citizen. They are attended by your children. They reach thousands of men and women. They are paid for by your dollars. You place the responsibility for their administration in the hands of the boards of education. These boards establish policies and have charge of expenditures. Under their direction and upon your authorization school-houses are built and equipped. You empower these officials to employ teachers under the legal arrangements and with the qualifications prescribed by your lawmakers and school authorities. The schools are the expression of the American tradition of free schools and free people. Their effectiveness, now and in the future, depends upon how well you translate their basic purposes into reality for all the children.

Know YOUR Schools

American Education Week is being observed November 9-15. Visit your schools during the week. Let us take advantage of this opportunity to see the schools in action, learn more about their program of child growth and development, and discuss our common ideals and problems.

Know YOUR Teachers

Your boards of education, your superintendents, your teachers and other educational workers are striving to do the job you want done; they welcome and deserve your approbation and your friendly consideration. They beseech your just consideration and a cooperative spirit.

OF INTEREST TO VETERANS

AUTOS FOR AMPUTEES GO TO 2,207 IN 3 STATES

A total of 2,207 disabled veterans of World War II in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky had received automobile vehicles at government expense by October 1 under the "autos for Amputees" law, Veterans Administration Tri-State Branch office in Columbus, O., reported recently.

Total cost was $3,307,616, or an average of $1,500 per vehicle.

The state totals included: Ohio, 971 vehicles, $1,545,195; Michigan, 846 vehicles, $1,242,787; Kentucky, 390 vehicles, $519,734.

The law provides an automobile or other conveyance at a cost not to exceed $1,500 for any World War II veteran who lost, or lost the use of, one or both legs at or above the ankle as the result of service-incurred injuries.

Disabled veterans have until June 30, 1948, in which to apply for automobile vehicles at government expense under the present law. Application forms are available at all VA offices.

VA INCREASES PAYMENTS

Approximately 4,000 disabled veterans in the three states are awaiting assignment to job-training facilities, including 1,207 in Ohio, 550 in Michigan and 350 in Kentucky. Employers who are willing to accept disabled veterans as trainees are urged to contact the nearest VA office.

Hazard-Jenkins Buses Stopped by Strike

A strike by about 30 drivers of the Hazard-Jenkins bus line, called Saturday reportedly in demand for more pay, leaves residents along the 40-mile route without a means of public transportation.

Louisville & Nashville trains were running between Jenkins and Fleming six miles away, but only last-cab service was available to Neon, Seco, Whitesburg, and points beyond.

No comment was available from either company or bus-driver spokesmen.

SHEDS DIRT... STAYS WHITE...

DU PONT HOUSE PAINT
CLEANS ITSELF!

Outside surfaces stay fresh and clean-looking when finished with Du Pont House Paint. Dirt and grime can't get a grip—rains just wash them away!

SELF-CLEANING Du Pont House Paint is so formulated that, as time goes by, a microscopically fine white powder forms on the surface. Heavy rains wash the powder away, taking dust and dirt with it, and leaving the surface clean and white again. Excessive accumulations of dirt (particularly in sooty industrial communities or in heavily shaded locations) may delay or interfere with this process. Because this "self-cleaning" is gradual, the wearing qualities of the paint film are not abnormally affected.

SELF-CLEANING Du Pont House Paint is as durable as it is beautiful... protects against rust, rot, and decay... gives lasting beauty and protection. Costs no more than ordinary paints—saves re-painting bills! Call on a reliable painter for your painting jobs, and ask him to use Du Pont House Paint!

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. Can I get wartime compensation?

A. No. If your disability was incurred in peacetime service, you will not be entitled to wartime benefits unless your service falls under Public Law 405, which provides wartime rates if the disability was a direct result of armed conflict or was incurred while you were engaged in extra hazardous service.

Q. How can I show that my parents are dependent on me for support?

A. Dependents will be held to exist if your parents do not have an income sufficient to provide reasonable maintenance for themselves and members of their family under legal age, or members of the family otherwise dependent by reason of mental or physical condition.

Q. If I accept the compensation check VA has sent me, does that mean I am satisfied with the rating given me?

A. Yes, a veteran can get a guaranteed loan on any type of legitimate business on which the lender is willing to lend money.

Q. Do G. I. insurance policies participate in savings?

A. Yes. If favorable mortality experience and interest earnings warrant a premium adjustment, dividends from gains and savings will be authorized by the Administrator of Veterans Affairs.

FIRM CLAIMS RECORD YEAR FOR HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 31 (Sp.)—The year ending March 31, 1947, "was the record year" for the Kentucky Department of Highways, Waldeman, Patot and Company of Louisville have revealed in the final audit analysis report of the department released today. "Total receipts, disbursements, total spent on rural highway and state construction, total value of contracts awarded and total value of work completed" for 1947 are indicated in summing up of eight years of department activities as the greatest of them all. Copies of the report have been filed with Governor Simon Willis and Highway Commissioner J. Stephen Watkins.

"With the large cash balance available at March 31, 1947 stated elsewhere in the report as being $21,754,894.50 and the value of contracts awarded but not completed, next year should exceed even 1947," the report says. Increases in receipts for 1947 over 1946 are notable. Receipts for 1947 are given as $31,094,459.23 as against 1946 receipts of $19,967,245.56. Highest year of the eight included was 1942 when the department received $34,378,645.65 from all sources.

"The so-called 'Good Roads Amendment' adopted in 1945 under which all license fees and motor vehicle usage taxes were appropriated to the state road fund was responsible for the increase."

able for the large part of the increase," according to the report. The tabulation for 1947 shows that the usage tax delivered $2,276,188.64 in new revenue to the fund; an additional $480,015 came from operators' licenses and $2,263 was added in the form of penalties on truck weight mis-measurements. "Several significant changes... were noted by the report in the administration of the department. The cost of the department's engineering and advisory commissioners' offices have been materially reduced... in relation to the total cost of administration." Percentage schedules carried in the report show that highest cost of the commissioner's office was in 1947 when $83,946.50 was expended with the lowest cost recorded in 1946 when $19,783.29 was spent for that office.

"Abolishment of the Advisory Commission in 1944 and other economies in the office of the Commissioner in later years enabled the department to expand into other activities without exceeding the statutory limit of $900,000 annually" of administrative expenses," the report indicates.

"The refund of gasoline excise taxes to farmers went into effect July 1, 1946. During the first year the law was in force, the department disbursed in refunds... a total of $207,012.84." Twenty counties are recorded as having made no application for refunds while in 19 counties individual refunds exceeded $1,000. Highest was Christian with $14,932.19 in refunds. Henderson with $14,000.18 and Davies with $12,471.13. 25,236 individuals are recorded as having obtained in excess of $500 in refunds, six in excess of $400, 15 in excess of $300, with over 5,000 other individuals obtaining from $25 to $299 each.

The Halloween carnival, sponsored by the school in the gymnasium, was a great success, with plenty of fun for all attending. The most interesting event of the evening was the crowning of the royal family members of which were Edmund Stratton, king; Joan Spiers, queen; Jimmy Hardwick, prince, and Gladys Suttiff, princess. The prettiest girl was Beulah Aker and the prettiest lady was Sandra Gale Meeks.

St. Luke, 11:31—The queen of the south shall rise up in judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them. For she came from the utmost part of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon and behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

St. Luke, 11:49-51—Therefore I send the prophets and apostles and some of them they shall slay and persecute. That the blood of the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation.

With a heart full of love for God and our fellowman I call on all the blood-washed band of a crucified and risen Lord to earnestly pray to God to change the name of bloody Floyd county to a land that flows with milk and honey.

A widow and Gold Star Mother who prays such a prayer day and night. Please take warning. Sincerely and in deep sorrow, EVA MEADE HALL, H-pd.

KENTUCKY ON THE MARCH

By EWING GALLOWAY. Nearly every time I drive over our bluegrass pastures in autumn and see Hereford cattle fattening on the grass, I think of Charles M. Meacham, Jr., of Union county, because it was Mr. Meacham who did more than any other for the Hereford in the Penyrville district.

The Kentucky Experiment Station and a committee of Union county farmers honored Mr. Meacham a dozen years ago with a Master Farmer's plaque, agriculture's distinguished service medal, for bringing hereford to that county, and the honor was more than deserved. His first large crop of seed was highly profitable, selling at around 50 cents a pound. But the price tumbled the very next year, because nearly every farmer who bought seed from Meacham harvested the seed for himself. But the drop in price did not affect seriously the production of hereford seed. It was profitable at less than 10 cents a pound.

In three or four years more than 50 per cent of the farmest in West Kentucky were growing hereford for bringing hereford to that county, and the honor was more than deserved. His first large crop of seed was highly profitable, selling at around 50 cents a pound. But the price tumbled the very next year, because nearly every farmer who bought seed from Meacham harvested the seed for himself. But the drop in price did not affect seriously the production of hereford seed. It was profitable at less than 10 cents a pound.

Now Korean hereford is grown in over Kentucky and many of my neighbors say it is the greatest blessing to agriculture that has come our way in the last 30 years. It furnishes a market for hay, or for seed, and hay crop. On ridge land, where red clover is hit or miss, one year to Korean hereford usually doubles the yield of corn the following year. Lespedeza doesn't miss, even on land that has not been swarded with time.

In West Kentucky the most popular mixed pasture is hereford and rector. Nearly everybody sows it with red clover to put nitrogen in spots where the clover misses. Lespedeza matures later than clover, so it does not help the hay crop much. To build up second bottom land in one year for two corn crops T sow 10 pounds of hereford with 10 pounds of sweet clover and turn under the rank yield of green stuff in the fall for green fertilizer, sow barley for a winter cattle pasture, then plow under the barley in the spring for more green fertilizer, and plant my corn. This rotation improves the land over the stretch, whereas red clover followed by corn kills my corn. This rotation improves the land over the stretch, whereas red clover followed by corn kills my corn.
