This is Our Policy... on DELIVERIES, PRICES, TRADE-INS
FINANCING, ACCESSORIES
When a manufacturer produces a car so obviously ahead of the times as the Futuramic Oldsmobile, it's only natural that demand for that product should break all records. Add to this today's pent-up need for automobiles—plus continuing shortages of steel and other critical materials—and you see why we have a real problem on our hands. We value the good will of all our customers. We will like to provide all our customers with new Oldsmobile cars. But unfortunately, this is why we are taking this opportunity to reaffirm publicly our POLICIES ON PRICES AND DELIVERIES.
We believe that under present circumstances these policies constitute a sound basis for "fair play" to everybody. And we hope that, on this large, we may continue to serve you.

Four-Leaf
Phosphate

Give your clovers a good life beginning of their favorite food—and watch them grow! Feeding regularly on FOUR-LEAF Phosphate Rock Phosphate, the clovers take their nitrogen from the soil.
You get a huge increase in clover growth, richer clover for feedstock—and all following crops benefit from the increased soil phosphorus, nitrogen and organic matters. Grow phosphate clovers for low-cost soil improvement.

Official's Father
Suffers Second Loss
From Fire in Few Weeks
Dick Burchett, well-known Ind. farmer and father of County Attorney W. W. Burchett, has within a few weeks suffered two losses from fires.

His most recent loss was suffered last Thursday afternoon when a large barn he owned on Cow Creek was razed with all its contents. In the barn were approximately $1,000 worth of alfalfa hay, various items of farm equipment and approximately 3,000 feet of poplar lumber.
An electric fan left connected in the wash house at his feet home resulted in a blaze which destroyed the small building and a quantity of the family clothing, a few weeks ago.

In the interest of better schools for you we are entering the race for The mixture has a coarse granular appearance. Add liquid and appears somewhat smooth. Roll to one-half inch thickness. Dip

Judge Walter Reynolds, Former Resident Here, Succumbs at Pikeville

Pikeville Police Judge Walter W. Reynolds, 75 years old, former Prestonsburg resident and an attorney for 50 years, died in Pikeville Monday after a brief illness of pneumonia and heart complications.

A native of Rochester, N. Y., he first began the practice of law in Prestonsburg and while a resident here was a candidate for County Attorney on the Republican ticket. He came to Prestonsburg with his father, Thomas Jefferson Reynolds, who was a timberman. His mother, Mary T. Reynolds, was a lineal descendant of Francis Scott Key.

Judge Reynolds was elected police judge of Pikeville last November and was one of the few Republicans to win a Pikeville city election. He served a previous term in the same office, 30 years ago, a few years after his return from Spokane, Wash., where he served as U.S. Commissioner.

He married a daughter of Milton Hager, of Salsberyville and Paintsville, she and the following sons and daughters survive:

John F. and Walter A. Reynolds, Pikeville; Mrs. Roger G. Noe, Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Alice Gastlin, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Neal B. Scott, Sacramento, Calif.; and Mrs. Duran K. Phillips, Pikeville.

NEW CHESTNUTS

Literally making a comeback from the dead—the chestnut, Albert Hall, Water Gap, brought several green burns to this times office Saturday. They came from trees on the John Calvin Hopkins farm—and there are plenty more there this year, he said.

Hi-Ho, Mister!

Some folks tell me you can't sell flour unless you show women a bunch of pictures of cakes and things. Mostly cakes. Maybe so. If that's right I ain't going to sell much Silver Mist Flour. Silver Mist don't look good. It TASTES good. Flour looks like flour, to my way of thinking, but golly, how GOOD a chocolate cake can taste! That is, a Silver Mist chocolate cake. That's because Silver Mist's got flavor. Good-to-eat flavor. The kind of flavor that makes Pa take a bite and think Ma's 18. Sure, he thinks you're a good cook, too, but mostly he thinks you're pretty, because that's what good-testing cake does to a man. Even a grouchy old rascal like Pa. Anyhow, why don't you buy some Silver Mist Flour? It's good as any, a whole lot better than most. If your grocer's smart, he's got some.

(That's short for Silver, Mister) ADVERTISEMENT: This is what the paper makes me say. If you don't buy some Silver Mist Flour, I don't advertise nothing—least!

Prestonsburg Wins Wild One over Louisa

Prestonsburg defeated Louisa under the lights at Louisa Friday night, 18 to 15, in a baseball game featured by heavy slugger and marred by fielding miscues.

The fielding mistakes, however, were attributable, for the most part, to the wretched infield. Ground balls look wild hits that had infielders undecided whether to grab at the ball or duck for cover.

Mayor who is getting himself in a lot of trouble by running for Governor on the Democratic ticket while facing charges of malfeasance, misfeasance, etcetera, and also getting himself mixed up in his legal terminology when he has time to accuse somebody else. Mayor Conandy, according to his opponents, assessed a fine of $500 upon a woman who had been arrested on a charge of operating a house of ill fame. The charge, according to Hazoner, was "obstructing a branch of the peace."

6,000 Bass Fingering Released in Streams; 5,000 in Johns Creek

Six thousand smallmouth and Kentucky bass fingering were placed, last week and this, in Floyd county streams by the Floyd County Fish & Game Club.

Five thousand of both species of bass went to Johns Creek which is being stocked against the time when the area will be a reservoir created by the Dewey dam. One thousand Kentucky bass were released in other streams of the county.

E. R. Burke, district conservation supervisor, said crappie will be available at any time desired from the Division of Game & Fish. Some crappie will be placed in the Johns Creek area this fall and next year. Heavier stocking with this species will be done.

Charles C. Nichols, vice-chairman of the National Retail Dry Goods Association from Youngstown, O., told the association that Youngstown retailers are vitally interested in "retroscopy," he said.

He said, "Retailers there submit that something must be done to eliminate the unfair disadvantages in the steel city's leading industries. Youngstown merchants believe that such dire prospects can be avoided if the proposed Lake Erie-Ohio River waterway is constructed."

K. A. Day, of Pikeville, president of the Kentucky Wholesale Company, asserted that "freight differentials have always favored other regions over ours."

"All the Big Sandy valley asks is to be put on a competitive basis with other regions," he said.

C. D. Jacobs, of Pikeville, president of the Consumers By-Product Coal Company, said that the mining industry in the Big Sandy valley furnishes employment for some 30,000 and supports over 500,000 people.

"But freight rate differentials and high mining cost differentials have over and again penalized this great district in its competition with other mining districts," he declared.

He said that not only the Big Sandy valley, but mid-continent America as well, will benefit more largely than the installing and maintaining the proposed locks and dams would cost.

Governor Earle C. Clements had been expected for the meeting but was unable to attend. He was represented by Congressman Virgil Chapman.

Sanford Rules Branham Eligible Thru Senior Year

Sanford Branham, triple-threat veteran from last year's team, was declared eligible this week for football and basketball competition in this his last year in high school.

This announcement by Ted Sanford, director of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association, was the week's best news in the Prestonsburg Black Cats.

Question of Branham's eligibility arose when it was discovered the date of his birth had been given on his high school entrance, as September, 1929. Earlier grade school records have, however, given the date of his birth as 1928 and this date was confirmed by the local newspaper, with his mother, Mrs. Fannie Branham, and Dr. John Sturgeon, physician in the latter date.

Already hard to be graduated, the Black Cats would have been in desperate straits without Branham in the backfield.

Couch Ted Bennett also hailed the appearance for practice this week of Donald West, a junior with some experience in road materials to the front of the team.

SCHULZ COPS STATE OPEN

Winchester Golf Pro Leads All the Way; Meeks Places 4th

Philip "Bud" Schulz, Winchester pro and a new figure in state golf, was in with a 54-hole total of 209 on Sunday afternoon's run and wind to cop the Kentucky Open championship at the Paintsville Country Club.

He led from the first day and literally ran away with the title.

Schulz, formerly of New Albany, Ind., became associated with the Winchester Country Club as a professional only last February and never before had won an important tournament.

He wrote his name in Kentucky golf records today by adding a consistent 110 to a 99 posted Saturday over the nine-hole course.

Jack Ryan, Louisville professional, four-time winner of the open and defending champion, matched Schulz' 110 Sunday, but he had posted 104 Saturday for a total of 214.

Schulz was one under par for the 54 holes while Ryan slipped four above.

An amateur, however, engineered the biggest thrill of the day, Grinning Dick Hicks, Lexington city champion and 1946 state titleholder, whipped out a brilliant 22 to shatter the Paintsville course record of 30 which had been held jointly by Auble Meeks and Dr. Robert A. Hall, Paintsville amateur.

Hicks collected four birdies and one eagle on his first round of the day, and got a big round of applause from the crowd gathered at the starter's tent when his feat was announced.

The new course record holder is a junior in the college of engineering at the University of Kentucky.

His sparkling round helped him to a 98 for the day and a 54-hole total of 215 to cop third place and led the amateur contingent. Hicks and Schulz were the only two players in the tournament to break 100 on either day.

Auble Meeks, hometown pro at Paintsville, finished in fourth place.

Bill Kaiser, one of the large contingent of Louisville professionals, took third place with 216, one stroke less than Meeks, who had 217. Pete Doll, Louisville professional, finished with 104-114 for 218 and fifth-place money.

Schulz, by his victory, collected $250 as the first-place award. Ryan received $150, Kaiser $100 and Meeks $75.

Over 1,000 Tickets Go on Sale For Mat Bouts Here Saturday

More than a thousand tickets went on sale Monday for the professional wrestling bouts which will be staged Saturday evening in Prestonsburg high school gymnasium as a benefit for the Floyd County Playground.

Wide interest in the three bouts has been created by the fact that the wrestlers are well-known performers and are appearing in Cincinnati in widely publicized matches on Friday evening, day before their appearance here.

Young men of Prestonsburg who are leaders in the sports program are constructing a ring in the gymnasium at an estimated cost of $300. If interest in this and adjoining counties justifies, wrestling matches will be staged here every two weeks over an indefinite period, it was said.

The wrestling card will begin at 8 p.m. Saturday. Ivan Rasputin will oppose with Lucky Somonovich in the main bout. The preliminaries will pit Walter Achiu vs. Whitey Asberg and Tommy Martindale vs. Walter Statton.

The evening's entertainment will be concluded with a dance starting at 10—this also for benefit of the playground.

Lambert Sets Record For Boldman Track Sunday Afternoon

Curis West Virginia Lambert, of Wheelwright, set a course record of 37.9 seconds for the one-third mile track at the Boldman motorcycle races Sunday afternoon.

Results of the three-mile heats: First heat—first place, Charles Boyd, Prestonsburg, on a Flying Flea; second place, Dick Hunt, Pond Creek, on a James.

Second heat—first place, Curtis Lambert, Wheelwright, on a 74 Indian; second place, Earl Mounts, Broadland, on a Harley-Davidson.

Third heat—first place, Joe Shapp, Ewatts, on a Flying Flea.

Probably the most exciting moments were in the second heat during the time Mounts was attempting to pass Lambert. Mounts had had two spins and had no brakes on his machine but he was still game and proved it by some real riding in the final event. Starting in the handicap position of 50 yards, Curtis Lambert (Indian) and Earl Mounts (Harley) in the final overtook the three small machines and did some real riding. Earl Mounts came in first with Lambert second.

To climax the day the boys from Pond Creek had prepared a ramp for jumping motorcycles, but in the first trial run Alley warped the back wheel so badly that the jump was postponed till the next meet.

More Than Subsidies Wanted

FROM time to time Prestonsburg, as well as other communities of this section, has been queried by manufacturers about availability of sites and buildings for a manufacturing plant.

Too often, it has been the local experience, the firm proposing to locate here wants everything wrapped up and delivered in a pre-pack with a blue ribbon bow. If, now, a building to certain generous specifications could be furnished, rent-free, it would be a great inducement.

THE TIMES has never grown enthusiastic about any business proposing to move into this county with the understanding that it shall enjoy favors and privileges not granted individuals and firms who have risked their capital, established themselves in the county and succeeded, the hard way. And now, through the Bureau of Business Research, University of Kentucky, comes a discussion by H. Y. Bassett, vice-president and general manager of a division of Calumet and Hecla Consolidated, Copper Company of the question, "What Does Industry Expect of a Community?"—in which Mr. Bassett upholds that jaundiced view of the fellow looking for special privileges.

On this subject Mr. Bassett writes: "It is my feeling that both community and industry should avoid subsidies in the form of land grants, buildings, etc. Unless a town has those things which a particular industry requires, it is not the place in which that industry should locate a plant. The granting of subsidies might influence the opinion of management's representatives and lead to the selection of a given town; but in the long run if certain basic factors are lacking in the town's make-up, the choice so made will be an unhappy one for both the community and the industry. Furthermore, most managements want to be free of any feeling of obligation to the community or to individuals in the community, which must surely exist where subsidies are granted and accepted. . . . Generally speaking, the same exemptions apply with respect to means apply with respect to means."

That is speaking for the company which expects to move into a community, grow with it and make the community grow.

Now for some of the things a sound, responsible company does expect from a community:

Nearness to raw materials, available labor, fuel and power, transportation facilities, good plant sites, cooperation of the community with industry, good schools and churches, a tax set-up which is stabilized and not burdensome.

Mr. Bassett's pamphlet stresses these items:

Services and facilities which a community has to offer. These services and facilities include the public school system, vocational training, library facilities, churches, health services, public utility systems, sewage disposal practices, police and fire protection and similar benefits.

Recreation facilities. This item is nearing the status of a "must" with companies planning new plants in new locations.

Financial condition of the state, county and municipality under consideration.

The general attitude of state, county and city officials with respect to industrial expansion by interests outside the state. These are some of the requirements, as condensed from a comprehensive article by a man near the top in a big company. It furnishes a criterion by which to judge ourselves, a yardstick with which to do a bit of civic measuring.

The All-New 1949 MERCURY

Just take a look at the All-New 1949 Mercury—and you'll do a "double-take." You'll get a real thrill from Mercury's all-new look... a young, gay, poised-for-flight look. Those longer, lower, wider Mercury lines flow gracefully into a new, raved-about kind of motor-car beauty.

This 1949 Mercury is powered by a brand-new 8-cylinder, V-type engine... designed and built exclusively for Mercury... so quiet, so steady, so confident and thrifty, it sounds and performs like an engine in a car far beyond Mercury's price class.

And it's a new adventure in comfort to feel what this big Mercury does for you with its big, downy seat cushions—8 inches wider; all-new, easy-riding spring suspension; big, road-smoothing, low-pressure super-balloon tires; and new "Fingertip Weather Control."

So see it for yourself! We warn you... you'll fall in love with the All-New Mercury!

The 1949 Mercury Six-passenger Convertible* is a youthful, glamorous car with year-round driving style and comfort. Power controls at your finger tips to raise or lower the top and windows automatically. Even the front seat glides back and forth by push-button control.

SPORTS AFIELD

The beginner cannot be expected to know all the fundamentals of small-boat operation, but even a novice must recognize that some preparation is required before starting a trip, states Willard Grandall, boating authority.

Not only must proper tools and equipment be aboard, but weather must be considered. By weather we mean principally wind. Swamping or upsetting from big waves is the greatest hazard of small boating. There are no hard and fast rules as to what size wave is a safe enough tackle, but if water sloshes in, or even threatens to, the safety margin has long been passed.

The newcomer to boating should stick to sheltered waters until thoroughly familiar with his craft. One of his toughest jobs is to learn to avoid collisions with objects under water. Here are a few elementary rules.

Don't start the outboard unless headed straight out toward clear water, and with at least six inches of water under the lowest part of the motor. Never start an outboard where it is too congested and unnecessarily shallow.

When underway, avoid weeds; don't go too close to shore, and slow down at once if logs or rocks are present, or if shallow bottom is being struck under the boat. Stay well clear of cutting-points of land. Reduce speed if any man-made obstructions are seen above water. Keep speed down off rocky shores. Treat all floating objects with respect and stick to marked channels in unfamiliar waters.

The beginner must learn never to underestimate the power of waves, or to take chances with them. Particularly must he guard against swells of other boats and he must not carelessly swamp another boat with his own wake. Always head into dangerous waves. This is an invariable rule of boating.

Making the landing, the final step in boat operation, is something that can be learned only by experience. It is better for the beginner to err on the side of a too-slow landing until he has learned the best speed, and just how to handle the boat at that speed.

The game of chess originated more than 5,000 years ago in Hindustan.
