Illness of Three Months Claims Rhoda Edwards, 84, At Wladon Friday Night

An illness of three months' duration ended Friday at 8 p.m. in the death of the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jerry Cline, near Wladon, of Mrs. Rhoda Preston Edwards, 84 years old. Pneumonia was given as the direct cause of death and was the result of a cold and influenza. A daughter of Calvin and Susanna O'Brien Preston she was a native of this county where she spent her entire life. She was a member of the Methodist Church for many years. Surviving are her daughter, Mrs. Omsley, three sons, Merida Dr. Wm. Pransoburn, Edwinton Edwinton, Edith and Charles Edwards, Wladon; one brother, Charles Preston, Ashland; and one sister, Mary Preston, of George Creek.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday from the Martin Branch First Baptist Church by the Rev. Wilcox and burial was made in the Collins cemetery at Lacey, the Ryan Funeral Home directing.

Regional Music Festival Entries Named Include Floyd County Schools

Pikeville, Ky., March 29—(Sp.)—Prestonsburg, Maytown, and Martin high schools will be among the schools represented in the annual Regional Music Festival to be held April 7th and 8th at Pikeville, with Pikeville College as host, it was announced today.

Students will be entered in various classifications of both vocal and instrumental music, such as vocal solos, duets, choruses, etc. piano and band and orchestra instrumental solos and various ensembles.

Rolf Hovey, Head of the Music Department of Berea College, will judge contestants in vocal and instrumental music, and Helen Green, of the Music Faculty of Morehead State College, will be the judge of piano competition. All the events in these two groups will take place in the Wisconsin Chapel on the campus of Pikeville College.

Ernest Lyon, Director of Bands, of the University of Louisville, will judge instrumental music, including solo ensembles and bands. Contest numbers in the instrumental group will be played in the Pikeville High School Auditorium.

The festival will close as usual with a concert by the All-Festival Band which is expected to include about 75 pieces this year, under the direction of Mr. Lyon, and the All-Festival Chorus of approximately 100 voices, directed by Mr. Hovey.

Contestants will be rated, as heretofore, under the headings Superior, Excellent, Good, Fair and Poor. Those who make the highest ratings in each classification, if they have met all other requirements, will be eligible to participate in the State Music Festival, sponsored by the Extension Division of the University of Kentucky, which was held in two sections at Lexington and at Bowling Green later in the spring.

Students of ten high schools in Floyd, Johnson, Letcher, and Pleasants counties have thus far been entered in the festival and others may enroll by the time registration closes. Dr. Page stated.

Club Scouting for younger boys was organized by the Boy Scouts in America in 1926. Since then more than 2,500,000 boys have been enrolled.

THIS ONE WINS THE CUP

Well, I'll be darned! These regulations promulgated by the Division of Game & Fish for the coming season concerning rough fish are nuts. Verily...

Besides opening the door to every game law violator in the state to take bass, walleye and other game fish pretending to abide by the law and etc. smatch, snag or snare only those rough citizens of our waters, the regulations contain this item which I read before before I could believe my eyes:

"Any protected fish taken from the water by giging, snatching or snagging shall be immediately returned to the water."

Now, I have walked all around that one, viewed it from every angle and studied every shade of meaning, and yet I can't figure out, my reason for that regulation. Unless, perhaps, the idea was to get the bass or other game fish thus illegitimately snatched or snagged back into the water, quick!—before the game warden gets you.

It's a cinch it won't help the fish, but I wonder what the line of a gig run through his gizzard?

ALL IN NEED, NOT JUST THE RURAL SOUTH

Who am I to bandy words with a minister... especially when those words have to do with matters of religion? I am not a minister.

It comes from a statement attributed to Dr. Olin T. Binkley, professor of Christian ethics and sociology at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville. A newspaper reporter quoted him as telling a homecoming gathering of alumni last week:

"Although the South is called the 'Bible Belt,' most of the people in the South do not know how the Bible was written, how it was transmitted to us, or what it teaches. Sixty million people in rural areas of the South are not affiliated with any church."

These statements were made as part of an argument for particular attention by the church to the people of the southern United States in the matter of religious education. With such education for the South or any other place I have no quarrel. My urge to comment on this implied "religious illiteracy" of the rural South must arise from the fact that I do not understand Dr. Binkley's report of the address, which I have reported covering salient points in his talk but omitting details which might have given fuller body to his argument.

Yet I would ask: What of the East, the West and the North? Does the South more than other sections need religious education? I would like to point out some facts I have discovered in a lifetime spent in rural Kentucky, which I presume believe to be the Bible Belt of the South:

1. The educated Southerner knows as well as any person on earth the Bible, how it came into existence and how it came to us.

2. The Southerner who has not educated may not know the details, but he doesn't need them. Probably more uneducated than any resident of any other section of the land, he accepts the Bible as "the inspired word of God." Its words as the literal, eternal truth. In his group, I would say you will find fewer atheists than any other place in the world except (perhaps) I have known, rather intimately, moonshiners, murderers and other with a disregard and contempt for the law which the civilized citizen cannot understand. These were men to whom the law and fear of the law and almost anything else were strangers—and yet I'd say there wasn't a laddy-buck of the lot but believed in the reality of God. Not just a Supreme Being or a Cosmic Force or Nature—but a real, living God. One who had taken the lives of four men before he was so calmly replied when asked what he expected of the hereafter: "I'll answer to my God for everything I ever do."

3. I have found, I concede, that there are a lot of these rural people who do not belong to a church. Whether their non-membership is more in proportion to population than that of more thickly populated sections, I do not know. But I also have found that to those of the rural South who do belong Christianity is a very real and important thing. It is so real and so important that they even do not believe a church member should get drunk or take the name of the Lord in vain.

So—up my views, which are free, with or without the asking: The South can come as near quoting my report and using it as any other section of any land, and it will come a lot nearer believing what it finds therein, it needs, exactly like the rest of the country, and so much of the rural Bible knowledge about which to argue and create discussion but more of the simple teachings of the Bible who in one better statement, summarized the soul of Christianity and pointed the way to freedom from fear and hatred, greed and war.

All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them...

A hearing was tentatively set for Saturday of this week, it was said Monday.

The petition itself sets forth in detail the plaintiff's grievances, starting with the March 7 meeting. Its allegations follow, in part:

The meeting was called to order by Dr. Allen, chairman of the Board, and after certain business matters had been discussed and voted upon during a session of several minutes, Dr. Allen, chairman of the Board, "one Wesley Campbell, of Prestonsburg, Ky., whose wife is employed as clerk or secretary in the office of the Superintendent of Schools, knocked on the door of the meeting room, opened the door and asked to see Dr. J. H. Allen... whereupon, Dr. Allen immediately left the meeting room, leaving his hat and coat in said room and went out into the hall and into a room across the hall where he had a conversation with... Wesley Campbell and Owen Hall, former Superintendent of Schools of Floyd county... and cousin of the defendant, Palmer Hall... that immediately upon Dr. Allen's leaving the meeting room, the purported member, Ray Fraley, tendered... his resignation as a member of the Board of Education, effective immediately, whereupon, the said defendant, Palmer L. Hall... inquired of Ray Fraley if he had anyone in mind to fill his (Ray Fraley's) place, and the said Ray Fraley replied, suggesting that his brother, Fred Fraley... be appointed."

Whereupon the defendant, Alonzo Stratton, made an oral motion, in words, "I move we accept," said motion was then seconded by Dr. J. H. Osborne, thereupon James Green, acting chairman in the absence of Dr. J. H. Allen, ruled that no vote on the motion could be made until the return of Dr. Allen; and that Palmer L. Hall, secretary, then stated: "I am taking a vote."

At this juncture, the petition continues, Green left the room in search of Dr. Allen so bring him back to the meeting room to vote on the motion. While he was out on this mission, and during Dr. Allen's absence, it was alleged, a vote was taken by the two remaining Board members in the absence of a presiding chairman. Neither of these two members attempted to act as chairman or as presiding officer, it is recited, and the vote was recorded by Superintendent Hall showing that of the two remaining members, Dr. Osborne and Alonzo Stratton, had voted in favor of the motion to elect Fred Fraley, meanwhile retarding Green as not willing.

Informed on his return to the room of the action taken, Green stated to those present, the petition sets forth, "When I vote, I want to vote... it."

At this juncture in the 16-page petition the allegation is made that the vote was illegal in that it was attempted when there was not a quorum of the Board present.

Upon Dr. Allen's return to the meeting room, it is claimed, he retired again with Mr. Green who told him of the proceedings during his absence, which, the petition claims, "was not more than five minutes."

The two then returned to the meeting room and Dr. Allen asked that he be recorded as voting against the motion to elect Fraley and requesting that the minutes show his vote, as being so cast. Superintendent Hall declined to enter his vote as "No," it is claimed.

At the next meeting, Tuesday of last week, Dr. Allen, presiding chairman, objected "to the attempt of Fred Fraley to sit in the meeting, acting as a Board member, on the ground that Fraley was not a duly elected, qualified and acting member. Fraley, however, remained in the meeting, Dr. Allen then asked that four corrections be made in the minutes of the March 7 meeting to show:

1. His departure from the room on the request of Campbell; 2. the true circumstances in connection with the resignation of Ray Fraley and the appointment of Fred Fraley to fill the vacancy; 3. Dr. Allen's return to the room and his demand to be recorded as voting "no"; 4. that Dr. Allen and Mr. Green did not vote for the motion recorded under Order 8 pertaining to deductions from the salaries of teachers and other employees for hospitalization and health insurance because both were absent. (The petition here claimed the minutes were written to reflect they were present and voted "no" motion.)

The vote was 3-2 against Dr. Allen's motion, with Fred Fraley voting. Dr. Allen as chairman declined to recognize Mr. Fraley's vote, but the vote was listed by Mr. Hall, the petition alleged. The plaintiffs claim no appeal was taken from the ruling of Dr. Allen and that Superintendent Hall wrongfully and unlawfully entered Fraley's vote.

In addition to contending that the March 7 vote on the Fraley brothers' resignation and appointment was void because "there was not a quorum present," the petition claims another cause for invalidity exists in both the absence of the chairman and vice-chairman, with no member of the Board acting as chairman to receive the vote and the Secretary without power or authority to receive or call for such vote in their absence.

Ray Fraley's resignation and the "attempted" election of his brother, it is contended, were pre-arranged and pre-determined by the defendants who conspired for Dr. Allen to be called from the room. This portion of the petition claims the defendants knew Allen would have opposed the action of Fred Fraley and that acts on the part of the defendants amount to collusion and fraud upon the rights of the plaintiffs and have deprived them of their statutory right to vote on an successor to Ray Fraley.

Superintendent Hall, it was claimed, usurped the authority of the chairman of the Board and exceeded his authority when he called for and took a vote on the motion to nominate and elect a successor; that he knew there was not a quorum present and that he deliberately and unlawfully wrote up the minutes to show that James Green was present when, in fact, Green was absent.

The charge that Ray Fraley had forfeited his office arose, the petition alleges, in the fact that he was a principal stockholder in, and general manager of, the Fraley-Deering Motor Company at Wayland which during the 1940-41 school year, while Fraley was a member of the Board of Education, sold a school bus to the Board. It was claimed the same firm sold another school bus to the Board after July 1, 1941, the date when the current school year began.

This, according to the plaintiffs, is "an express violation" of Sec. 160.130 Kentucky Revised Statutes. "That Section is cited in part as reading:

"No person shall be eligible to membership on a board of education who at the time of his election, is directly or indirectly interested in property in the sale to the board of books, stationery or any other property materials, supplies, equipment or services for which school funds are expended."

Mr. Fraley was first elected in November, 1940, was re-elected in November, 1941 and for a third year term in November, 1942.

What Five Miles of Good Road Would Do

In Breathitt county, approximately thirty days hence, a new coal operation which will employ several hundred men will begin work. Hiring of workers will begin soon.

This mine, part of a huge development program in virgin territory, is nearer Prestonsburg than any other county seat and among the county seats is Breathitt's own Jackson. It promises not only a huge payroll to be spent somewhere else, but employment for Floyd county citizens as well as others who are seeking work and who later may find work increasingly difficult to locate.

Geographically, Prestonsburg and Floyd county occupy the edge of advantage in this new industrial picture. Yet the absence of an all-weather road places us far away.

A road from David across the mountain and down Howard Branch in Magoffin to connect with Route 7, which is being graded, and upper Licking river valley toward the Beaver Creek section of this county, has already been graded. From the mouth of Howard Branch to the point where the road to the new coal operation intersects Route 7, there are less than two miles of new road to be built. The road leading to the mine is already in fair condition.

That leaves to be done only gravel surfacing of the road from Middle Creek to the mouth of Howard Branch and grade, drain and surfacing of the short sector of Route 7 — altogether, a stretch of road of around five miles.

It would appear that the State Highway Department would on careful study of the ratio of benefits to the cost of the project, find immediate improvement of the road highly feasible, even urgent.

We All Help Paint This Picture

THE Courier-Journal in its long journalistic career has published editorials of one kind or another more striking than any other in the state. How Much Is This Land Worth To You? This Land Will Be Taken From You. The photograph which accompanied the editorial argument against Kentucky's new strip-mining law told the story. It is a picture which residents of all coal-producing sections of the state should study, and is one in which every conservationist, regardless of place of residence, should be interested.

Since this newspaper has not the engraving at hand with which to reproduce that picture, we are using the ineffectiveness of words to attempt to convey something of the starkness of the scene.

In the foreground there is an oblong pond of water gathered in the deepest part of the digging for coal, and a few scattered rocks and bare gravel and sub-soil. There are a few scraggly bushes along one side and a deep gash made into the earth; on the other, there are rocks and clay scoured by rains which have fallen since the shovels made their inroads into the bed of coal.

On beyond the excavation are more terraced-like diggings, clay-yellow stretching across what was rolling grassy land. Off to the right is what appears to be a steam shovel at a new operation, digging the grave of more rocks and trees and growth-giving soil. Through this scene of desolation passes a road and one wonders what is the reaction of the occupant of that passing auto to his surroundings. By contrast, the scene in the camera, more despoiled are, off in the distance, where the land yet has not been touched by the shovels and the keenest imagination can envision for the "stripped" landscape, trees and blooming flowers.

Substitute cacti for the scrubby bushes and bleached rocks to such men as strip-mining would have a fair picture of the most life-desert.

That is something of the picture. And this is what The Courier-Journal wrote: "This land has been strip-mined. As you can see, the operation has turned what was once fertile rolling hills into a lifeless mass. useless for farming, for grazing, even for growing scrub timber or grass. A bill was introduced into the General Assembly earlier in the current session to compel the strip-mining operators to restore some part of the damage done to the soil. If he did not restore the land to some form of usefulness, it could cost him as much as $500 an acre."

This bill, as revised by the Conservation Committee of the House, now requires the operator to post bonds of only $50 an acre. In other words, if the operator does not repair the acre of land, he forfeits $50. If you are a strip-miner, would you go to the time, trouble and expense of repairing this land, or would you forfeit your $50? Look carefully at the picture above. Already 10,000 acres like those shown have been destroyed in Kentucky. Remember that one acre of such ground often yields up to 500 tons of coal, wholesaling at $3 to $5 a ton. Should it be left to the taxpayers of Kentucky to restore this land, or shall it be left to the men who have made the profit?

So commented The Courier-Journal at a period in the Assembly session when a re-tributive $50 an acre was proposed. The Legislature ended its work, however, by doing nothing—by leaving strip-mining unrestricted.

All of which causes one to wonder what lies ahead for the children of a generation whose fathers are so close to the public interest and whose legislators are subservient to moneyed and greedy interests, that they will permit such outrages on nature.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

APPRECIATION OF LAW ENFORCEMENT
 Editor, The Floyd County Times: I am of the mind that, when good government is in progress and success has already been proven, we as citizens should not be in the least backward in congratulating those in power who wish to bring on this better neighborhood. So, being in the Floyd County Times our appreciation of the law enforcement agencies which came into being since beginning of the year. When I speak of "we," I speak of every citizen, law-abiding citizen in this county. Let me say that I am a taxpayer of this county, having been living in it near 30 years. I have seen it in "The Times," "The Times" and "The Times" and I am ashamed to say that for the past few years I could not honestly boast of being a taxpayer. I have been practically taking the highways and byways. However, speaking of taxpayers, I don't want to see a man to traverse the roadways, let alone women and children. Now, thanks to "New Laws," we can be safe anywhere we travel.

So, feeling this way, let me congratulate our County Judge Henry Stumbo, our Sheriff A. H. Meade, and in this District No. 2 we give thanks to such men as Sheriff Stumbo, M. C. Wright and our Constable Adam Martin. We feel that these men are doing their level best to enforce the law, and in doing so are making it safe for our citizens. We want them to know we appreciate them, and we are back of them in their successful efforts in stamping out violations that hitherto have been the rule in this district. I do not speak of this as one of the sentiments of many I have talked with.

Stewart Says Judge Of Circuit Court Has Jurisdiction on Bond

A circuit judge has jurisdiction to hear an application and motion for bond for a prisoner held without bond on orders of an inferior court. Zeb A. Stewart, assistant attorney-general, said today.

The Attorney General's office was queried after Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill had held that he was without jurisdiction to act on the application for bond of Bill Kasez, Prestonsburg policeman who is held in jail here in the slaying of Mrs. Elmer Blackburn. Kasez was indicted by County Judge Henry Stumbo at the examining trial.

Wrote Mr. Stewart: "You are advised that the application is now exclusively with the judge of the Floyd circuit court and such application should be made to him either in vacation or term time, by written petition either before or after indictment as provided by Chapter 1, Title 9 of the Criminal Code, Section 81. Such an application is prerequisite to a proceeding by habeas corpus to obtain bail."

Kasez's case is expected to be one of the first to be considered by the grand jury, however, when it convenes here Monday, and no further efforts for bail may not be made until the jury has taken eno. It was indicated this week.

New layers of asphalt added over old layers on streets being overlaid the latter to form an integral whole.

Many Floyd Countians Among 4,000 Attending Adams' Rites In Letcher

Among the throng of an estimated 4,000 persons who attended the funeral at Mayking Friday of G. Bennett Adams, Letcher County Judge and former Baptist minister, were numerous Floyd county friends and relatives. The last rites were held from the Thorton Baptist Church of which his for years had been pastor, and in the huge crowd were persons from six states, it was said.

The official was head of an ex-panchance located in Letcher county and upon his death it became known that one of his fondest wishes was that a $4,000 debt against the institution be paid immediately. Funds began pouring in and while the body lay in state at the church it was announced the orphanage fund had already passed the $6,000 mark.

Dr. Adams, son of the Rev. Adams, married the former Miss Dinah Herald, of Prestonsburg, among those from this county who attended the rites were these relatives of Mrs. Adams: W. O. Goble, James B. Goble, Mrs. Moxie Woods and Beasley Goble.

County All-Stars To Test Touring Seniors of Eastern

Exhibition Tilt Tomorrow Sponsored by Local Jaycees

The county's selected basketball best, grouped as the "Floyd County All-Stars," are slated to test the expert hardwood wares of the barnstorming Eastern State College "Maroon Seniors," nucleus of the school's 1950 Ohio Valley Conference basketball champions, in an exhibition tilt sponsored by the Prestonsburg Junior Chamber of Commerce tomorrow (Friday) night in the high school gymnasium here. Game time is 7:30.

Graduate members of the OVC champs will have one valuable competing rival on the tentative line-up of the All-Stars.

At least one of the All-Star performers, Bill Martin, a Morehead College senior from McDowell, has had some experience against the Maroon stars. Eastern beat Morehead 69 in the 1949-50. 30-43, but Martin and his Morehead Eagle buddies remained after by dumping the Maroons, 72-26, in an overtime period game.

All-Star lineup Martin will have plenty of help in the third quarter tomorrow night.

Floyd County Site Named For District Rifle Matches

The annual district school rifle matches, featuring the competition of 27 county team winners from nine Eastern Kentucky counties, will be held this year in the first week in May in Floyd county, at the mouth of Sugar Loaf Creek on U.S. Route 23, six miles south of Prestonsburg, according to an announcement of Glenn Reynolds, district junior conservation club supervisor, Hazard.

The 27 county representative champs, Reynolds stated, are composed of one-man, two-men and four-men teams chosen from the county competition among approximately 20 schools in the district. The elimination matches for county supremacy are under way at this time, he said.

The 1949 matches were held in Perry county.

Good Shooting Expected

Indicating that this year's matches would see some top-flight shooting among the competing youth, Reynolds noted that a recent practice match at Hazard high school, home of the 1949 two-man and four-men team champs, recorded the following results:

Roger Johnson hit 146 of a possible 150 in the solo shooting; a lead-off man of the two-man team cracked 146 of 150 targets and his buddy marksmanship shattered 144 of 150 for a combined total of 290 of a possible 300; and the four-man team totaled 545 of a possible 580.

"That was unusually good shooting for high school boys, I'll say," commented Reynolds, "but, at the same time, let me say that I wouldn't be surprised to see the same good marks or maybe better ones anywhere in the district right now because the way the boys in this district have been improving in marksmanship is nothing short of amazing."

Mounting interest in school club activities manifested in enthusiasm and diligent practice has contributed to better results, he explained.

This interest has extended itself into some of the grade schools in the district. Reynolds cited two instances of this, in Johnson county, the River grade school, a group of about 12 boys, all of them under 14 years of age, formed their own club and demanded recognition on an equal footing with the older boys.

Cats To Practice Scrimmage With Two Sandy Grid Foes

To afford themselves beneficial training samples of real "honest-to-goodness" football competition of regular season play, the Prestonsburg high school spring football trainees will play three practice scrimmages during the month of April, Coach "Doc" Ferrell announced this week.

The Blackcats will play Paintsville there on April 14. Louise's Bulldogs will be met here, April 21. A return practice engagement with Paintsville, he said, brings the Tigers here, April 28. The last game, Ferrell stated would mark the close of spring grad practice at the high school.

The springtime pigskin priming was resumed on Monday of last week after two interruptions due to basketball.

The first interruption came when the opening practice announced for Monday following the district cage mee was postponed when the Blackcats upset the dope bucket by winning the meet and advancing to the 15th regional.

Practice was again suspended after the sessions of March 10 and 11 in that players, coaches and followers might attend the Kentucky state-wide basketball tournament in Louisville.

Elkhorn City Wets Drive Wedge In Dry Eastern Ky.; Barely Win Local-Option

Elkhorn City, Ky., Mar. 21—Anti-prohibition forces drove a wedge into dry Eastern Kentucky yesterday with a narrow-margin victory, 233 to 223, in an Elkhorn City local-option election.

There were indications the drys would contest the vote. In 1947, when all of Pike county voted dry by a margin of 210 votes, Elkhorn City voted wet by 50 votes.

Harring a contest, yesterday's results will be certified to the county clerk April 3, and legal liquor sales would be possible 60 days later.

Originally competitors, the radio and the photograph were first combined into a single instrument about 1925.

REPORTS SHOW WEEDS EXPENSIVE

West German costs Minnesota farmers at least $100,000,000 annually, according to current reports of the State's Agriculture Department.

Department records show farmers spend 30 to 40 per cent of their life during the growing season battling weeds. Agricultural Commissioner R. A. Probst said farmers practiced more weed control during 1949 than ever before in the state's history.

STOP-LOOK-LISTEN

Does your income mean much to your family? Would your family be able to continue at the same level of comfort and security if you should be among the thousands who annually meet death unexpectedly?

Is your answer to these two questions yes to the first instance and no in the second?

Then, as one family man to another, don't you agree that it is only good common sense to deposit a small part of your income each week, month or year, to guarantee your family at least a livable income if you should pass out of the picture?

Let me explain my company's very excellent income protection plan.

SECOND JOB RULED OUT FOR COUNTY JUDGES

Frankfort, Ky., March 29—Assistant Attorney General Walter C. Herdman expressed the view today the same person can't be county judge and master commissioner of circuit court. He gave the opinion to County Judge Dan D. Bell, of Louisa, who said he had been offered the post of commissioner.

Herdman said no statute specifically forbids that. But he added that as master commissioner, Bell would be called upon to make recommendations in many settlements appealed from county court.

RESOLUTIONS

In Memory of Brother F. C. Hall, who died March 23, 1950.

Once again death has announced a brother Odd Fellow, and the golden gateway to the Eternal City has opened to welcome him home. He has completed his work in ministering to the wants of the afflicted, in shedding light into darkened souls and in bringing joy into the places of misery, and as his reward has received the plaudits, "well done" from the Supreme Master.

And whereas, the all wise and merciful Master of the universe has called our beloved and respected brother home, and he having been a true and faithful member of our loved order, therefore be it

Resolved, That the charter of Prestonburg Lodge No. 292, I. O. O. F., of Prestonburg, Ky., in testimony of her loss, be draped in mourning for 30 days and that we tender to the family of our deceased brother our sincere condolence in their deep affliction, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family.

More Miles per Hour

—More Hours per Day!

We are not talking here about excessive speed. Sensible people, regardless of the power they have at their command, obey the laws of the highway and the rules of safety.

We are talking about distance—about the miles you can cover at the wheel of a 1950 Cadillac—entirely within the legal limits.

First, let's consider an hour...

You settle yourself comfortably into the deep-cushioned seat, rouch the soft-throated engine into action—and within a matter of minutes, you begin to understand what we mean.

When the light turns green, your rightful place in the traffic line is definitely assured. You take easy advantage of every opening that presents itself. On the hills and grades, you merely give the engine a little throttle—and float on up without the slightest loss of speed.

Braking is so certain, steering so easy, power so abundant—that you move instinctively ahead at every opportunity. And at the end of an hour, you can scarcely believe the odometer.

Did we say an hour? It seems little more than half that time! You're so relaxed and at ease that not until the sun shows red in the west do you realize that you've been sitting behind the wheel for a much longer time than you'd planned on driving today.

And how wonderful you feel! Both you and your passengers are carefree and happy as you decide to call it a day. Maybe just a little bit hungry—because you probably forgot to stop for lunch!

And where did you get to? Most owners say it's a good one hundred miles beyond their expectation.

Better come in and see about this. You'll need only an hour—because an hour will reveal what a day would be like.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

PERSONALITIES IN GIRL SCOUTING

Prestonsburg's Mrs. Robert V. May, became Girl Scout Commissioner of this district in April, 1948 and served until 1949. Since that time she has served as organization chairman for a year, Brownie Troop committee member, and is now committee member or member-at-large of the board of Sandy Valley Girl Scouts.

Her husband is interested in Scout work and is known as a "friend in need" by the local council. Mr. and Mrs. May have two daughters active in Scout work—Julia Mayo, age 13, in Intermediate Scout Troop 20, and Elizabeth Archer, 10, in Troop 40.

Like most social workers who are interested in youth and in community welfare, Mrs. May is very active in her church work and civic life of Prestonsburg. She is a member of the Board of Stewards of the Methodist church, secretary of student work, works in the Women's Society of Christian Service, and is an active member of the D.A.R.

All this, in addition to manifold duties arising from the management of a large home and the mothering of two daughters and two sons.

State Bank Resources Show Drop Last Year; Still Exceed Billion

Total resources of Kentucky's 208 state-chartered banks decreased during 1949, but still topped the $1,000,000,000 mark.

State Banking Commissioner Henry H. Carter reported the total was $1,013,141,027 last Dec. 31, off $83,338,898 from the previous year. He said the drop was "partly due to a nationwide trend." Carter added that in Kentucky many growers held their tobacco over till January this year and that reflected in the financial situation. The commissioner also reported: Demand deposits, those subject to quick withdrawal, $615,750,478, or $33,687,886; loans and discounts, $338,022,507, or $1,466,223; cash on hand and due from other banks, $241,371,813, or $39,818,265;

U. S. government obligations owned by banks, $422,971,274, or $6,286,333; surplus, $34,202,207, or $2,279,238; total capital stock $24,852,400, up $385,000.

Know This Man Hill?—He's Heir to $4,000

Chicago, Ill., March 22 (Sp.)—Earl E. Hill, between 50 and 55 years old, of his children, are being sought throughout Kentucky to claim a small but tidy $4,000 estate of which they obviously never heard.

This became known today when Walker C. Cox, probate genealogist, 206 LaSalle St., Chicago, who specializes in tracing missing relatives to settle estates, took over the search.

"Only scant information about Hill," Mr. Cox said, "was found in the effects of the relative who left the money. It was shown, however, that Hill was born in Kentucky between 1895 and 1900, and grew up in the state."

"There is also evidence that he was connected in some way with the automobile business. No clues have been found as to the locality in Kentucky in which he lived, or may be living.

"Hill would have first claim to the money. But if he is dead, then his children would succeed to the inheritance if they can be located."

Valley Ass'n President Attends National River and Harbors Meeting

Dr. O. W. Thompson, president of the Big Sandy Valley Association, attended the National Rivers and Harbors Congress meeting in Washington, D. C., March 23, 24 and 25. He will also attend the Ohio Valley Improvement Association meeting in Pittsburgh, Pa., March 30, 31.

A director of the Big Sandy Valley Association, from each county in the valley were to attend both these meetings, and the Association was to have a display at each of these meetings.

Improved Retirement Plan, Effective May 1, Announced By Firm

The Kentucky & West Virginia Power Company announced that, to become effective May 1, it has made available an improved retirement plan under which its 530 employees who retire at age 65 will receive substantially increased pensions.

According to F. M. Baker, Pikeville district manager, the improved plan will provide pensions which, on the average, will be over 50 per cent higher than the present plan. This plan covers not only currently employed persons but also the future payments to those already retired.

Under this plan, as outlined to employees of the company, the retired employee's pension will be based on his average annual earnings in the five highest consecutive years of the last 10 years of service.

The company has had a retirement plan in effect since December, 1940 the cost of which has been borne on an equal basis between employees and the company. Under this improved plan, employer payments will not be higher and may be less than would have been under the present plan.

'QUEEN SALLIE' HAS A WORD WITH HOFFMAN REGARDING EUROPEAN COUNTRIES RECEIVING AMERICAN AID, AND SHE TELLS HIM "PLENTY"

It was a word that said plenty on a matter of national and world-wide importance.

Returning home by way of the capital after a seven-weeks tour of European countries receiving aid through the Marshall Plan, she wanted to inform Hoffman of what she saw, so the Marshall-Plan boss invited her to lunch to get her viewpoint.

To a direct question of what U.S. aid is doing for Europe, she promptly gave him a one-word summary: "Plenty!"

She and her husband P. M. "Red" Baker, who accompanied her on the trip which was part of the awards received on a January radio show, reported that every European with whom they talked is "very grateful" for American help. But they are "grumpy" the bakers stated, and desire assistance only long enough to get back on their feet.

Speaker of the people of Denmark, to illustrate her point, "Queen Sallie" said, "They don't want charity, they just want a chance."

Mrs. Baker, a registered nurse, told Hoffman about nurseries in London, Copenhagen, Rome and

She told how women of Europe—women we would call high-fiving society women back in Pikeville—have "rolled up their sleeves" to help rebuild their countries.

The economic co-operation administrator was pleased by her account, saying it was a nice contrast to reports from "night-club tourists."
