"He refused, however, 'Our funds are running more tied to prevent our expenses from running into season gear receipts, anyone who wishes to help may do so by sending a contribution to Fred Francis, secretary-treasurer of The Fresh Air Football Camp Fund and mark it so. We need all the help we can get.' By special price arrangement, the cost of sending each boy was computed at only $22.50 for the two weeks.

Floyd County Times

Official Organ for Floyd County, Ky.

The Cost Would Be Trivial

TEN more feet of water in Dewey Lake would affect only one utility company and that the United Fuel Gas Company, which estimates that the cost of preparing for the added depth would run little more than $5,000.

In view of the fact that the reservoir project itself cost the federal government over $6,000,000 and that approximately $3,000 more would make the recreational facilities of the lake many times more valuable, that cost seems insignificant.

Even if alterations at the dam would cost another $25,000, the total expenditure, in comparison with past expenditures and future needs for a section which never before in its 150-year-old history has shayed in a public recreational center of this kind, would still be a trivial item.

The Johns Creek valley to the west of the lake is a productive area except for highly doubtful value of the hillsides, which would be unproductive for ten or even fifty more feet of water. The reservoir, with ten additional feet of water, would still have a flooded contour of a few thousands of dollars at the most, the lake, he pointed out, has already broadened, its waters enlarged to accommodate the recreation-starved thousands.

Where there is no harm and only benefits to be attained, surely some effort is justified.

The cost of the undertaking would be only "a drop in the bucket"—a drop in a big bucket.

A "Well Done"

THE eight-year-old fish fry started annually by the Floyd County Fish & Game Club not only has become a fixture in the Eastern Kentucky sports picture—it is an event, it is now appreciated, which is becoming of statewide importance.

Last Saturday and Sunday, for instance, bait-casting teams from Harrodsburg and Lexington, young and old, male and female, were on the ground to compete for items in a rich prize list.

These doubtless will take home, along with prizes won, the Floyd county sporting story. We dare hope they will remember to others our hospitality and friendliness at the Alton meet as we do their splendid sportsmanship.

This Floyd county would again receive the sort of "advertising" we seek for it. Those who work each year to make the event possible deserve credit for the job already done and fuller co-operation from all in the work to be undertaken in the future.

The posting of signs marking one-way streets was completed Tuesday. A new paint machine has been purchased to mark the streets for traffic regulation.

Councilmen estimated that the cost of the machine would be much less than the present expenditure of hiring the proper marking of the streets done for traffic regulation.

Another purchase was that of a new police cruiser to replace the old one. Upkeep of the old police cruiser prompted the action, Mayor Clark said.

Several residents of the section of West Prestonsburg which successfully lobbied off recent attempts of annexation were at Monday's Council meeting to ask that their part of the community be included in the corporate limits of Prestonsburg.

ATTENTION TIRE USERS!

We wish to call attention to the present tire and rubber situation. As everyone is aware, the new tire situation is critical. There is a shortage on some sizes, and prices have advanced materially, due to increased cost of labor and crude rubber. Crude rubber, a year ago, was selling on the market at 18c per lb; today at 67c.

The government this week allocated the sale of rubber and camel-back for recapping. We have a fair stock of camel-back on hand and plenty on order for immediate shipment. Our policy will be to use only the best materials available with high class guaranteed workmanship, and hold prices down as low as possible, allowing ourselves only a legitimate profit. We expect to stay in business and are here to serve our customers to the best of our ability.

Come and see us in our new location at the sign of the big tire, South Mayo Trail.

SPORTS AFIELD

Don't wait until you're flat on your back with a tick fever and fever before learning what to do about ticks.

The bite of a venomous snake is no more dangerous than a tick with a fever. Rocky Mountain spotted fever, according to Frank Duffrene of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Ticks are not true insects, but belong to the order of arachnids, which includes mites and spiders. They have toothed probes with which they pierce the skin and cling like grim death while sucking out extraordinary amounts of blood.
However, the danger of infection is slight if the tick is discovered and pulled off within three or four hours. But be careful how you remove it. The head is embedded and may break off and remain under the skin if jerked roughly. Don't use bare hands on this delicate job, because a disease-carrying tick crushed between the fingers may transmit the fever. Use tweezers, gloves, lotion or soft paper and don't squeeze the tick too hard while drawing it out. Paint the tick well with iodine or some disinfectant, and wash your hands.

Can you pick up spotted fever from your hunting dog? A lot of people have done this—put the dog but from the ticks it carries into the house. In known tick regions, give your dog a disinfectant dip twice a week and let it dry on his coat.

There are now two kinds of vaccine to prevent Rocky Mountain spotted fever. One is prepared from infected ticks, the other, from infected, fertile hen eggs. Hunters, anglers, forest rangers—anybody who expects to be heavily exposed—should see his doctor about these.

Tick specialists say that hundreds, even thousands of ticks may bite a man with no worse effect than a bad tick. Then, along may come a certain mite slugged with germs to be prepared.

Cash prizes and trophies equivalent to $2,000 will be awarded at the sixth annual Perry county horse show, August 24, 25 and 26. It was announced this week by Charles Comb, Hazard, originator of the event.

BIRD HUNTING LAWS DEFINED

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 14 (Sp.)—A 35-day season for shooting migratory game birds and waterfowl for Kentucky has been announced by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and the Division of Game and Fish. The season will open at noon on December 1 and continue through January 4. Shooting hours will be from one-half hour before sunrise to one hour before sunset (Central Standard Time) except on opening days when the hours are from noon to one hour before sunset.

A request for a split season for Kentucky was considered by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Earl Wallace, Director of the Division reported, but in accepting such a split season the Kentucky hunters would have been deprived of seven days of hunting. He pointed out that two seasons of 14 days each could have been approved, but that the Commission and the Director decided that the full 20-day single season would benefit the hunters more than only 28 days in two 14-day seasons. The dates approved have been found to be the period in which the greatest concentration of ducks are to be found in Kentucky. Mr. Wallace pointed out that the flights are governed by weather conditions and since it is impossible to determine these conditions in advance it was decided to set the dates according to past performances of the ducks.

Possession limits remain this year the same as for past seasons. The daily bag limit for ducks is four with a possession limit of eight, which may include not more than one wood duck. For geese the bag limit is one and the possession limit is four of which only two may be Canadian or its subspecies, or two white-fronted geese are of each. Only 10 coots may be killed in one day and the possession limit may be the same number, while the possession limit for red breasted or American mergansers is 25 singly or in the aggregate of both species.

Migratory waterfowl and game birds may be held in possession in frozen food lockers 90 days after the close of the season. Any birds stored, however, must have accurate statements of the number and kinds of birds contained in the package clearly and conspicuously marked on the outside.

All guns must be plugged to hold not more than three shells in the barrel and magazine combined, and the plug must be placed in the gun so that it cannot be removed except by disassembling the gun. No shotgun larger than a 10-gauge may be used and all must be fired from the shoulder. Use of rifles on any kind of migratory birds is barred. Bow and arrows may be used in the open season for waterfowl within prescribed regulations.

No power driven boat, either outboard or inboard, may be used in taking waterfowl or cool except for transportation. The use of automobiles or aircraft as an aid in hunting is forbidden except as a means of transportation.

A duck stamp is required to take migratory waterfowl of all persons 16 years of age or older. A state hunting license is required of all persons regardless of age in taking migratory waterfowl, except residents over 65 who must have in lieu of a license an affidavit showing time and place of birth or a birth certificate.

It is a violation of the state and federal law to kill any kind of bird except those listed above, and crows, starlings, English sparrows, merlins, horned owls, Cooper's and sharp-shinned hawks.

FRANKFORT—Books in county clerk offices in Kentucky were opened today for registration of voters. The books will be closed Sept. 3, 30 days before the general election on Nov. 7.

County Clerks Must Pay
For Their Office Supplies
Out of Fees, Is Ruling

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 14—County clerks must pay for their office supplies out of their fees, with one exception, Assistant Attorney General M. B. Hollifield explained in an opinion given Clark County Clerk Clyde Gravett of Winchester.

Hollifield pointed out the State pays for the clerk's record books up to certain amounts according to a county's population. In the case of Clark County the maximum is $375 a year.

The letter explained that office supplies include stationery, blank warrants, subpoenas, deeds, mortgages, and similar necessities. Office equipment, such as chairs, tables, typewriters, filing cabinets and adding machines, are paid for by the county, Hollifield said.

"Most Fiscal Courts are liberal about this matter and pay for office supplies such as interchanges, etc. and we have never known of such claims being challenged. However, when it comes to the strict letter of the law, we can find no provision in the statutes that authorize you to charge those supplies to the County."

LOUISVILLE—Authorities here have figured out the Kentucky will have to supply about 200 of the 9,444 Army reserve officers to be ordered to active duty during the next two months.

 Report Church Progress

The Kentucky Methodist annual conference, comprising all of Eastern Kentucky east of Louisville and composed of seven districts, more than 240 pastors and 400 clerical and lay delegates are meeting at Eastern State College, Richmond, this week, Wednesday through Sunday noon.

Representatives from Prestonsburg Methodist Church to the conference are Clabe Bingham and the pastor, the Rev. Wm. Hugh Smith.

Other Method churches in Floyd county which are represented at the conference at Richmond are: Allen-Martin, W. J. Kenny, pastor; Aveter—Horn Chapel, Woodrow Bannham, pastor; Besy Layne, pastor; B. L. Anderson, pastor; Clarence Sadler, pastor; Duval Circuit, Floyd Leferty, pastor; Garret-Maytown-Sullivan, C. P. Allen, pastor; Warland, B. J. Myers, pastor; Wheelwright, Guy Coffman, pastor.

Methodist churches in Floyd county have had an exceptionally good year. A church building is being constructed at Allen; Horn Chapel church has been completed, cleared of indebtedness and dedicated; extensive improvements at the Warland Church have been about completed, and the Prestonsburg Church has been made all but new in looks with the installation of new pews, with the installation of new pews, inside and out.

Dr. W. P. Fryman has completed six years as superintendent of the Ashland district and must, according to church law, be moved to another work at this conference. During the past six years, Dr. Fryman, with the cooperation of laymen and pastors alike, has seen much growth and development in Methodism in the Floyd county and throughout the Ashland district.

Stay Home or Notify Express Office, Advice

Persons who receive railway express shipments can save money by placing up their shipments at the express office themselves if they were not at home to receive it on the first delivery. It is pointed out by local Chesapeake & Ohio officials. Numerous inquiries have been made at the C. & O. express office regarding the new charges of $1 per 100 pounds or a minimum of 35 cents for a second delivery.

If the second delivery is not completed either, the receiver of the shipment must pay the charge even though he then picks it up himself. Therefore he can avoid any delivery charge by telephoning "hold" instructions to the local express office and picking up the shipment after receiving the notice that the first delivery was incomplete because one was at home.

The express agency is a separate company and the C. & O. does not set its charges.

WHEN YOU FEEL WEAK AS A CAT

If you have that good-for-nothing feeling, like you are half-sick and half-dead, and your nerve energy is low and low, the chance is it is due to one thing; doctors call it:

BLOOD POVERTY

Your blood cells may be fagged-out or shrunken, and you might not realize it. Even if you eat the "best" foods you may not be getting all the food out of your meals simply because you have SLOW Digestion without knowing it (or gassy stomach) and as a result you are a victim of Blood Poverty! In other words, your blood is not getting the fullest good out of what you eat. So your blood-cells become worn-down and you have only half as much energy as you really need, you get up in the mornings still tired, and your nerves become dull.

Hundreds here in Prestonsburg suffered with "fade-out" blood and stomach gas until they got CERTA-VIN. This is the new medicine containing 12 Herbs blended with Vitamin B and Iron; you take it before meals and it works with your food. Benefit comes quickly. Your food digests FASTER, with less gas, and you get more good out of your meals. In a few days your blood is energized with new red cells and your nerves become stronger. Weak, rundown people tell us they soon feel different all over. And best of all, our price on CERTA-VIN is reasonable. You can actually take this New, modern medicine for only a Few Cents a Day! So don't go on feeling half-sick and half-dead. Get CERTA-VIN at the W. A. RICE DRUG CO. (formerly Hughes Drug Co.), here in Prestonsburg.

How to take the Work out of Housework

(Mixers are handy. You can run yours an hour for a cent's worth of electricity.)

Didn't finish your ironing today? Don't worry. You can keep sprinkled clothes from mildew by wrapping in wax paper, and placing in your refrigerator. They'll keep sweet and fresh for several days.

(Your refrigerator will work all week end for a nickel's worth of electricity.)

(For only one cent, an ordinary sized fan will keep you cool more than a full hour.)

Before washing dishes that have held raw eggs, rinse in cold water. Hot water cooks the eggs on the dish, makes washing harder. Lucky you, if you have an electric washer. Simply put your dishes in and forget them!

(An electric dishwasher will wash and dry 6 loads of dishes for a penny! Less breakage, too!)

TEAMS "EVEN COUNT" HERE IN TWIN BILL

Pikeville All-Stars Get Revenge; Prestonsburg Girls Also Win, 14-9

Reverse. That was the prevailing essence of play consummated in the outcome of an all-star softball twin bill benefit played here Saturday night between choice teams and select teams of Pikeville and Prestonsburg.

EX-Pikeville Mayor Bill Stone, who led his all-star team here under some there a week earlier, scored the winning run in the seventh inning. Being honored was hit on the leg by an outfield toss and he crossed the plate standing up as the ball bounced away.

Stone's run gave his team victory, 2-1. The Prestonsburg All-Stars had won, 11-2, in the first meeting at Pikeville.

The winners scored their first run in the third inning. Prestonsburg tallied its single score in the second inning for a short-lived lead when Porter tagged home on Clark's hit. Justice the winning pitcher, issued three tickets to eight batters and passed 11. May, Prestonsburg hurler, whiffed four men and walked five.

Twin All-Star Till Set

For a final season fling at trying to decide just who is the best and, at the same time, further benefit the playground, a third and doubleheader meeting has been slated for Saturday night here between the two men's all-star softball teams. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

In the first game, the Prestonsburg girls avenged an earlier loss to Pikeville and made it their sixth victory in seven starts by outscoring the visitors, 14-9.

Victory was clinched in less than the regular seven innings and the necessary five-run margin gained in the sixth when Whitaker, who made his consecutive home runs, Jackie Conley, hurling for the Prestonsburg feminine aggression, struck out three and walked eight.

The winners collected 14 hits to five for the losers. The only loss of the year suffered by the Prestonsburg girls was at Pikeville in the previous Saturday night when the Pike females edged the Floyd representatives, 2-1.

Three Prestonsburg sisters, Jackie Conley, Angie Miller and Ann Whitaker, collectively scored six runs and hit safely for eight times in four times each at bat. "Katie" Greenwald had the distinction of scoring four runs while registering a perfect day at bat with three for runs without being charged with a time at bat or with a hit.

JEST AMONG US

BY JACK WILD

Somewhat I feel about twenty years older this week, and I guess it's because of that second wedding. The first wedding in which I participated was my own, and it wasn't so long ago—well, not so awfully long ago—either. Last week I was in another one, under slightly different circumstances. This time, at the request of a charming young lady of my acquaintance, I functioned as "father of the bride."

The church was crowded with people and I was sure I heard somebody whisper as the bride grasped my arm and "we began the wedding march. 'My, he's a young man.' That made me feel better in fact I didn't feel old at all, though I must have creased a little going down that long aisle. It wasn't till later, when some smart jokers started calling me "Pappy," that I got that old feeble standing up as the ball bounced away.

All in all the wedding ceremony went off fine, except for one horrible moment when I couldn't remember of my line, which consisted of two words. Was it "I do"—or was it "Do I?"

The first wedding I had anything to do with was a bit more exciting for the spectators. The bride was nervous, understandably so, from thoughts of what she was getting into. The groom, on the other hand, was poised and self-assured—poised and self-assured that is, until the bride burst into tears. At that point the groom, so calm, so cool, so fully panicked, let out a squeal like a school girl on her first day.
