MOTHERS DAY

Sunday, May 13—what folks call Mother's Day. Hundreds of kind letters written long years ago and deadlier, for they will be true as long as there are mothers: If I were hanged on the highest gall... Mother of mine, O mother of mine, I know whose love would comfort me still... Mother of mine, O mother of mine, if I were drowned in the deepest sea... Mother of mine, O mother of mine, I know whose tears would comfort me still... Mother of mine, O mother of mine, if I were damned of body and soul... Mother of mine, O mother of mine, I know whose prayers would make me whole... Mother of mine, O mother of mine, if I were dead, would you not have spoken so eloquently of the rights I had and devotion, I would have told her dear, how I saved the child—yet it would have been Mother's Day, and she would have said, "I would have saved the child for the mother of this world."

OUT WENT ZEK

This was the duty which tickled the fancy of an insurance man at a picnic recently. It was told of a certain Leslie county church with the principal character a devout and lady named Aunt Bertha and her reproducible of a husband, a lanky, Jew-eyed character, who was called Zek by folks when he didn't have two too worked up over this or that. Aunt Bertha, unless ever in the vineyard, bled faithfully with Uncle Zek, and looking to lead him into the church. Sometimes, he went to church with her, but usually just to have something to argue about. The church, in fact, was not easy to get into as a member. You were considered from all angles, you were voted on. (See Story No. 4, Page 8)

PUPILS TELL CITY FATHERS

What They Need Is Pool And How To Get It; Say Bond Issue Is Solution

Youth must be served, and the Prestonsburg City Council learned how Monday night. The city fathers went to the city fathers, out went the usual informality, as they found a delegation of approximately 20 Prestonsburg grade and high school pupils who appeared to present their claims to a community swimming pool. For the youngsters themselves set the tempo and temper of the meeting. Unaccompanied by any adult, the youngsters held the attention and claimed the attention of the Council and the few citizens who had gathered for the meeting. As Sallie Hill, acting as moderator for the group, introduced each pupil, the Council heard the problem attacked, clearly and forcibly, from a new angle. Briefly, they proposed that the Council vote a $80,000 bond issue to construct and maintain a public pool. They would, they assured the Council, get their parents' signatures to a petition asking that the tax rate be increased from 75 cents to 85 cents per $100 valuation. They had the entire plan figured out to the smallest detail. The 10-cent tax rate raise. (See Story No. 3, Page 4)

ARMY ISSUES LOWEST CALL

Only 20,000 Are Asked For Draft Next Month, Half of Figure for May

The army has issued a new low in draft calls—20,000 men in June. The Air Force called at the same time it would add more than 40,000 women by June 1952. The army's call for June was the lowest number in any monthly call since the draft was resumed last fall. Some 550,000 men have been drafted or placed on army call since then. In each of the first 11 months this year, the army got 80,000 men. The April draft was 40,000 and the May quota was 40,000. Officials said the reduction in call was due to large scale volunteering and to fewer Korean war casualties than had been expected. The Women's Air Force strength will be raised to about 40,000 under the new order. The force will include about 4,000 men.

WETHERBY AT SCOUT DINNER

Avers Education, Need Of Kentucky; Awards Honor Reed, Marcum

A gathering of Scoutmasters, leaders and Scout members and friends of Scouting which will highlight Monday evening at the annual Appreciation Dinner of the Lonesome Pine Council heard Gov. Lawrence W. Wetherby declare his own interest in youth and point out that education is the key to the future. A serious study of the subject, he said, is required, if we are to fulfill our responsibility to the school children of Kentucky. The period of the dinner drew the lion's share of attention from the big crowd, but to two of the faithful among the Scout leaders in this section came high honors. E. F. Reed, drift coal mine operator, and Virgil Marcum, of Lottah, Perry county, were especially honored with the Silver Beaver award. Two other Eddy county men, J. T. Parker and E. R. Price, both of Wheelwright, have been so honored. In a brief address prepared for the Lonesome Pine Council of Boy Scouts, the Governor referred to the special session of the Legislature in March which appropriated $600,000 extra for teacher pay for the 1951-52 school year. This is in addition to the $24,500,000 provided by the regular session in 1950. "As a result of the increased appropriation for education two months ago, our state's school teachers have been placed in the strongest economic position which available funds allowed," Wetherby said. As a former Boy Scout, assistant Scoutmaster, and juvenile judge, Wetherby asserted: "There is, I believe, at every level and in every phase of government, a healthy sign of America's attitude toward problems of the young. It is a sign of progress. Virgil Picklesimer, Whitesburg, was master of ceremonies. He is president of the council, which has 1,000 boys and has an adult membership of 900. (See Story No. 5, Page 7)

THURSDAY BOARD NAMES TEACHER LIST FOR SCHOOLS

Building Program Fund Is Perplexing Problem; Dispute Teacher Picks

Although the employment of teachers and the dispute over the placement of them supplies the public interest in Tuesday's meeting of the County Board of Education, County Superintendent Palmer L. Hall said later that a deeper and a more serious problem confronts the Board. This, he said, is the problem of financing for building needs in the county school system. He had been a resident of Harold since 1928 and was a native of this county, the son of Joe Little and Mrs. Andrew Jones. His wife, Sarah Justice Jones, preceded him in death.

FLOYD TEAMS REACH FINALS

In District Baseball Tournament; Martin, P'burg Vie for Title

Prestonsburg's 1951 and Martin's 1952 teams in the finals of the district baseball tournament at Wheelwright this afternoon for the right to enter the regional tournament at Grayson and a chance at state tournament competition later. Prestonsburg won its way to the finals by a 10 to 0 victory over Virgie, of Pike county, and Martin in the second game Wednesday afternoon defeated Betsy Layne, 4 to 3. Martin eliminated the first team, Wheelwright Tuesday night, 7 to 0, behind the three-hit pitching of Thompson, but in that victory lost the services of Pete Gritsbay who broke big leg when his second base. Both teams were snuggled below the knee of the athlete who is best known for his baseball ball.

Former County Agent Heads Swiss Brethren

Lowering clouds and an early morning drizzle did not prevent probably the largest crowd yet to gather here for the Floyd County Music Festival from crowding Prestonsburg streets Saturday to witness the parade of floats which launched the fifth renewal of the annual event here.

For the third year in a row, the Maytown consolidated school won first prize with its float, and the same school took added honors by supplying the festival with floats. Loretta May, daughter of Ex-Magistrate and Mrs. John May, of Langley. The winning float, depicting a scene from "Snow White," was prepared under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Patrick, director of music in the Maytown school. Prestonsburg's float, "The Waltz of the Flowers" which was modeled under the supervision of Mrs. Evelyn Moore Stephens, music instructor in the schools here, rated second place. Seven floats, accompanied by the big bands in the festival, opened the day's parade with a parade float with a parade float. There were the Auxier high school float with its Nutcracker Suite scene, McDowell's depicting "London Bridge," Martin's which had for its motif "Spring," Wheelwright's "Dixie" and Wayland's float, the HMS "Plover," in addition to the winner and runner-up. Wheelwright's float was damaged after reaching Prestonsburg. The Auxier and Garrett schools pooled their forces of 23 pieces though neither school has a band director. For their participation under the big band, the schools drew the praise of Jesse Elliott, county band director, who with the school band directors staged the festival. Mr. Elliott also expressed appreciation of the services rendered by state police and Prestonsburg officers in handling traffic during the parade, the courtesies shown by Prestonsburg officials and citizens and Mrs. Margaret May, Kathleen Hayes, Wayland, and Carroll Gene Hall, Wheelwright.

At the April meeting of the Federation, Mrs. Conley of Cliff Foy, county attendance officer, was named School Sponsorship chairman, and Miss Dorothy Dorton, Prestonsburg, state social worker, was named Lay-off Sponsorship chairman. With sponsorship thus provided for schools and infants, aid will be afforded by the SCF without charge upon proof of need, it was said here. POLICE PLAN AUTO CHECK

Inspection of Cars To Begin, May 14th As Safety Measure

How does the old jalopy behave before an audience? The state police are planning a motor vehicle check on May 14 throughout the county, and Mr. [Name] of Floyd county cars will be checked along with all others. Jones said the purpose of the check is to insure the safety on the highways for summer travel and attempt to curb accidents by getting vehicles with mechanical defects and instructing the owner of the motor vehicle. The inspection will be carried on in error at all times throughout the state. In some towns where the city police wish to cooperate, inspections will be held on the outside of the town. State police officers will inform the driver that it is a voluntary check. "We hope," Capt. Jones said, "the public will cooperate with us to the fullest because it is for their own benefit." Such things as vehicle license, operator's license, brakes, lights, horn, windshield wipers, tires, vision, and steering mechanism will be checked. Special attention will be taken with milky windshields, or any vision obstruction on either the windshield or rear glass. These inspection procedures are to be followed: One trooper stops the car, checks for operator's license, and informs the driver that it is a voluntary vehicle check. He then checks the headlights, horn, windshield wipers, and asks the driver to stop the motor vehicle. The trooper will then check the brakes and steering. The second trooper is about 20 feet behind the first. The trooper has checked to see if the headlights were on and dimmed when the first officer asked the driver. (See Story No. 8, Page 4)

'MISSING LINK' WORK IS SEEN

Leaving Short Stretched Heelies Goo, Wetherby

Gov. Lawrence W. Wetherby told Floyd county officials last week he could not understand why a "missing link" of less than a mile was left in the David-Northern highway when a completely small road would have put the road in use to the public. "Terrible the situation," "deplorable the situation," he said. "The State Highway Department engineers to his office and directed that the situation be looked into at once. Otherwise, the Governor and Highway Commissioner Curlee were not 'long on promises.'" The past week has shown a heavy strain on road finances, with existing highways in all parts of the state severely damaged and requiring repair. It is the Governor told members of the fiscal court, Jack Stumbo and County Attorney Burckhardt. "The state faces the same problem you have at home. You have many calls from your county's citizens, and you have not stopped asked of you. You try to do all you can with what you have. And that is our position here." (See Story No. 7, Page 4)

FLOYD'S FEDERAL JOBBOLDERS COMPARATIVELY FEW, IS CLAIM

Pvt. Gibson Reported Korean War Victim

Special to The Times
NEW YORK, May 3—How does Floyd county compare with the other counties of the nation in the number of local residents on the Federal payroll? The matter came up for Congressional investigation as part of a study made by the Joint Committee on the Economy of Non-Essential Federal Expenditures. Figures were gathered on the number of government jobs in each of the 3,079 counties in the United States as of last June. Their findings show a total of 112 people in the federal employ in Floyd county. On a population basis this represented 21 on the payroll for every 1,000 residents. Elsewhere in the United States, including the District of Columbia, the average was higher—10.9 employed per 1,000 people. The present rate was also lower than in the State of Kentucky as a whole, where federal employment amounted to 68 per 1,000. In the Eastern United States there were 6.5 jobs for every 1,000 residents. Of the 112 civilian employees in Floyd county, 39 are attached to the Post Office Department. The Joint Congressional Committee found that by September, 1950, partly due to the defense preparations, federal civilian employment within the United States had reached 1,947,000 and was rising more than 1,000 a day. The committee recommends "in view of the manpower situation in the current semi-recession and the continuing resort to deficit financing, that committees of Congress and the executive departments and agencies take all possible action to conserve manpower and exercise constant vigilance against non-essential expenditures for this tremendous cost item."

NAB ESCAPEE FROM PRISON

Floyd Officers Take Collins on Johns Cr.; Harvey Reported Shot

James Collins, who recently escaped from the state reformatory at LaGrange, was captured in the upper Johns Creek section Monday night by Deputy Constables Ranso Marcum and Paris Brown, of Prestonsburg. He is being held in the county jail here for prison authorities. Collins was convicted of robbery in the Floyd circuit court, about four months ago, and was given a two-year pen term. Another Floyd citizen who recently sought relief from the attempted break was not released. He is reported to have been in an escape attempt by a burst of machine gun fire. The prisoner, Dave Harvey, it was reported here, was shot four or five times in his body and has been in a critical condition. News of the attempted break was not released from Frankfort or LaGrange and the report reached here a month or more after it occurred. It is now believed Harvey will die. Harvey was given a 21-year sentence by a Floyd circuit court jury for the knife-slashing of Sept. 6, 1949. Billie Barnett, who also was accused in the slaying, remains to be given trial. Farm INQUIRIES and VISITS

By HALGOLD B. RICE, Floyd County Agent

These little bit bugs that are working their way into your garden and your fields are the most serious pests of the year. They are not only a nuisance but they are also a danger to your crops. If you do not take care of them now, they will be a real headache to you later.

It is very important to control the population of these little bugs. The best way to do this is to use a good insecticide. There are many different kinds of insecticides on the market, but you should choose one that is safe for your crops and your family.

Remember, a little bit of care now can save you a lot of trouble later. So take the time to check your garden and fields regularly. You will be glad you did it.

Location of the public hearing was left to Judge Stumbo, District Court, at the office of the clerk. "We plan to meet you in your office at 10 a. m. and look over the various sites you may wish to show us. We plan to meet the physicians of the county at 12 noon to hear their opinions in the matter."

Dr. George P. Archer, president of the Floyd County Medical Society, said Tuesday that Dr. Underwood and associates and physicians of the county are being invited to meet at the Board of Health at a luncheon meeting Saturday noon.

It is not known when the State Board of Health will make a decision in the Jordan wrangle. Write Dr. Underwood: "Following our meeting, a decision will be made by the State Board of Health after having had the advice and recommendations of the State Hospital Advisory Council."

Paul A. Hackney, director of the Division of Hospital Services, State Board of Health, may be one of those coming to the county for Saturday's hearing. It was he who originally rejected the Allen site proposed by the fiscal court. Of Mr. Hackney, Dr. Underwood wrote Judge Stumbo:

"We are sorry there has been some resentment toward Paul Hackney, who has conscientiously carried out the job to which he has been assigned, and how the public hearing will clear up the misunderstandings which have occurred."

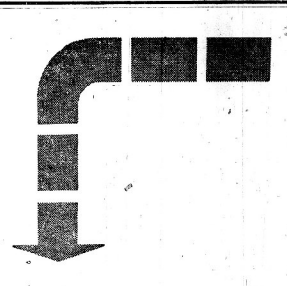

Statistics—More than 2 million automobiles entered Canada on traveler's vehicle permits in 1950.

would provide $5,100 a year, require the bonds in 20 years and leave a surplus for maintenance, they said.

Other neighboring towns—David, Martin, Painsville, Pikeville—have pools, they pointed out. But most children, another speaker said, get an allowance of only 50 cents weekly, and the bus fare to David, say, and back home is 35 cents—so . . . Prestonsburg needs more of the spirit of cooperation, and the venture would create just that, said another. Not only will we get our elders' signatures to petition a tax raise, we'll collect funds by solicitation, even begging, they promised.

"The best City Council meeting in 20 years," commented Mayor Curtis Clark, later. Every city official and citizen who heard the youngsters praised their spirit and ability.

Mayor Clark commended the group, cited, as they had, the lack of cooperation as the town's great handicap, and expressed regret that minds as bright as these may be forced later to fight for an endeavor away from home.

The Council advised the youngsters to get their petition going, and indicated that if the demand justifies such action, the bond issue will be voted.

Claims of police force members that a raise in salaries is needed did not meet so cordial a response, but the Mayor did name a Budget committee to ascertain if funds are available to bolster their pay. Chief of Police E. P. Lafferty now paid $225 a month, the traffic policeman $200, and other policemen $175. Vernon Blackburn, assistant to his brother, Fire Chief Tommy Blackburn, asked a raise from his present $100-a-month salary.

Traffic Policeman Bill Fitzpatrick resigned, and Policeman Bill Potter was named to succeed him, with Bill Little taking Potter's place on the force.

Voting a return to the town of Allen of its check in amount of $30 for services rendered by the Prestonsburg fire department during a recent fire there, the Council wrote the neighboring towns that Prestonsburg will be glad to help any neighboring community.

Public improvements voted included opening of the ditch and culvert in Second street to Broadway on Seventh where rain last week created flooded conditions; a small sewer extended from Central avenue up to Highland at the Dave Osborne property, and filling of the mudhole at the end of the pavement on Second street entering on the new Arnold addition.

The Governor termed the Magoffin-Knott county highway, which has been surveyed to pass through this county via Racoon Fork of Salt Lick Creek, as a "must" project. Work on the route, which would link three counties, Floyd, Magoffin, and Knott, and open up a large area to motor traffic, has tentatively been planned for this year.

The Floyd delegation was told the Brandy Keg road to Dewey lake will be blacktopped this year, but that the Auxler road, another access route to the lake, is "out of the picture" for this year. The work on Brandy Keg to be done by the state would extend only to the vicinity of the dike separating that stream from the Johns Creek basin. Other improvement of the road on to the lake there is a county project.

Highway Commissioner W. P. Curtis last week called for bids covering construction, reconstruction, and surfacing of 200 miles of state and county roads in 30 counties.

State roads which are to have new bituminous surfaces in counties of this section are:

Pike county—Majestic Freerburn-Phelps-Nigh road, 9.9 miles; Freerburn-Majestic road, 5.8 miles.

Perry county—Hazard-Jackson road, 5.8 miles.

County road projects for reconstruction and traffic board surface are listed in the following Eastern Kentucky counties:

Morgan county—Dixie Ridge road, 2 miles; Vance Park road, 1.2.

The department of education was made advisory and advisory until the Superintendent's decision of Mrs. Grace Conley for re-employment as principal of the Buchanan school was reached. But the Board voted to supplant her with Manus Conley, who had been nominated for the Kate Frazier school and from that grew dissension on eight other teacher-employment accounts.

All those who go to the State Board of Education for a decision, it was said.

Elie Prater, nominated by the Superintendent for Sub-District 12, 504 Resa Whittaker, who had been nominated by the trustees in that district was the choice of the Board.

Laura Schuchfield was nominated for the Forks of Hill Creek school by Superintendent Hill, but the Board named for that school Bill Foster Hammonds, who had been placed by the Superintendent for the Lower Hill Creek school.

Mary Elizabeth Wells was nominated for Akster by the Superintendent, but the Board named for her place three Alvin Music Fitch, whom the Superintendent had nominated, Christine Patton.

Mrs. Hill, New Head Of Girl Scout Council; Succeeds Mrs. Schindler

New chairman of the Prestonsburg district, Sandy Valley Council Girl Scouts, is Mrs. Edward P. Hill, who replaces Mrs. Jean Schindler. Mrs. Schindler, who is moving to West Virginia, resigned recently. Mrs. New May will continue as vice-president.

Mrs. Hill was appointed chairman at a meeting at the home of Mrs. New May on May 3. Tentative plans were made to hold a day camp this summer here on the high school grounds. Mrs. Roy Howard said that carrying out these plans would depend on the help of all leaders and mothers of Brownie and Girl Scouts.

She also said that because of a lack of leaders there are approximately 68 girls who wish to join the Scout organization but cannot at this time.

Pupil Registration Is Scheduled Friday

Failure of parents of children who will enter school next fall for the first time to register them at the grade school building here Friday afternoon may not only retard their enrollment but also will withhold information which would enable the school to prepare for their instruction later and employ the number of teachers needed for them.

This was the statement issued Tuesday by school authorities who urged all parents of children who will have attained their sixth birthday by Oct. 4, next, to register their children at the school Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

It's the only new-type engine in any "new car"!

Chrysler FirePower Finest engine ever put in an automobile

180 HORSEPOWER

With so many engines claiming newness ... how can we call FirePower the only new type engine today? The answer's very simple, and one you ought to know before you invest in a car.

The fact is that engine "improvements" happen every year ... but a basically new motor car engine is a very rare thing. And FirePower is the most basic new development since Chrysler introduced high-compression in 1924!

To get to the heart of the matter, just go to the heart of the engine ... the combustion chamber where the spark fires gas into power. Here Chrysler brings you something no car has had till now ... a Hemispherical combustion chamber ... the only perfect and ideal combustion chamber in any passenger car. Here the same amount of gasoline delivers you far more energy than it could in any other car.

What this means to the man at FirePower's wheel is impossible to tell you till you take that wheel yourself. FirePower's 180-horsepower can outperform any other engine on the road, even on regular grade-gas.

Remember, too, that Chrysler now offers the wondrous road-ease of new Oriflow shock absorbers with twice the shock-absorbing power of any others ... and the exclusive safety and delight of Hydramatic power steering* which takes four-fifths of the work out of steering! You can learn for yourself how Chrysler has changed your motoring life by seeing your Chrysler dealer now!

Chock Stumbo, Prominent Floyd Courtian, Is Victim Of Heart Disease, May 3

Heart disease from which he had suffered for the last two years, claimed William (Chock) Stumbo, 75 year old, well-known Floyd courtian, man at his McDowell home, May 3. Although his condition was considered serious, his death came unexpectedly and was a shock to relatives and friends over this section.

A son of the late Greenville and Kate Sizemore Stumbo, he was born and reared on Levi Beaver Creek, where he spent his life. He was a member of one of the county's largest and best-known families, and held the respect of all who knew him.

Mr. Stumbo's wife, Mrs. Rebecca Stumbo, preceded him in death four years ago. Four sons and two daughters survive: Sherman, Walk and John Morgan Stumbo, all of McDowell, from Stumbo, Detroit, Mrs. Ollie Tackett, Wheelwright, and Mrs. Jim Potter, McDowell. Three full brothers, Dick, Fred and G. B. Stumbo, all of McDowell survive, as do the following half brothers and half sisters: County Judge Henry Stumbo, Prestonsburg, George and Frank Stumbo, Chillicothe, O., Lee, Kit and Beckham Stumbo, all of McDowell; Mrs. Charlie McGowan, McDowell; Mrs. Taylor Hall, Greenup, Ky.; Florence Stumbo, of Arkansas; Mrs. Lucy Salisbury, Ashland.

Funeral rites were conducted from the graveside in the Lucy Hall cemetery at McDowell, Friday, the Revs. Troy Nickles and Tom Mosley officiating. Burial was directed by the Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

TIMES WANT ADS PAY—TRY THEM TODAY!

Accept the Verdict

WHATEVER the decision of the State Board of Health as to the location of the proposed Floyd County Memorial Hospital after next Saturday's public hearing, the Floyd fiscal court should accept it. And the people of Floyd county should do more than merely acquiesce in the decision; they should accept the location as theirs and pitch in to make the hospital the success it must be if it is to serve the people adequately.

THE TIMES hopes the complete picture will be fairly presented to the Board of Health and that those who offer opposing views as pertaining to Allen or Prestonsburg or whatever location will do so dispassionately and in such humor that they will not foolishly give our visitors an unfavorable concept of Floyd county's people.

Dr. Bruce Underwood, State Health Commissioner, has clearly indicated that he proposes to give each community an even break at the hearing, that he will play no favorites. This is as it should be. And the decision he and his associates reach should be accepted as one made without bias and only after consideration of the project from all angles.

In a word, we contend—in the face of some criticism—that Floyd county should not lose the hospital, even if somebody must be disappointed.

Tavis Akers, who was jailed here early last week on a felony charge growing out of the allegation that he had forced on him improper relations at the point of a knife, remains in jail, County Judge Henry Stumbo demanded for his release $5,000 appearance bond, plus a $2,000 peace bond.

Joe Miller and Lawrence Dempsey, who were released after having admitted taking part in a series of breaks into business places here a few weeks ago, were back in jail Monday after Chief of Police Ed Lafferty had nabbed them on a new housebreaking charge. A juvenile hearing will probably be held this week.

46 DELEGATES FROM COUNTY

Invited by Governor To Safety Conference At Lexington, May 18

Frankfort, Ky., May 10 (Sp.)—Forty-six persons from Floyd county have been appointed by Governor Wetherby as delegates to the Kentucky Highway Safety Conference at the University of Kentucky at Lexington, May 18.

Governor Wetherby called the conference to seek ways of reducing highway accidents throughout the state and called on all Kentuckians to support the meeting and to show an active interest in a vigorous safety program.

He pointed out that motor accidents killed 678 persons in Kentucky last year and that 1941 promises to be just as bad, if remedial steps are not taken. He said that highway safety conferences in other states have shown their worth in reducing accident tolls and that the same good can be done in Kentucky with the support of the people of the state.

"It is my firm conviction that the people of Kentucky want and intend to meet the emergency of increased traffic accidents and traffic deaths," the Governor said in the proclamation he issued in calling the conference. "It is my hope that the use of effective means for meeting it are at hand through a statewide safety conference in which all Kentuckians can participate."

The local delegation will join some 7,000 other delegates in Lexington. At city and county officials in the state have been invited along with officials of service clubs, veterans organizations, highway and church schools and church organizations and other groups.

A daughter of the late Green Belle Blevins Holbrook, who was a native of Magoffin county, but had resided in this county since her marriage in 1918, Mrs. Miller died three ago, and she had been residing with her sons at Akron, Ind., for some time. Mrs. Miller was a member of the United Baptist Church.

Parsonage Burns Soon After Pastor And Bride Leave

Campton, Ky., May 8—A shock is in store for a couple of new brides on their honeymoon. The Rev. Shilp Davidson, pastor of the Baptist Church here, was married to Miss Marie Tyler, West Liberty. The couple took off for a four- or five-day honeymoon.

But they neglected to leave a forwarding address in Campton. So Mr. Davidson doesn't know where they are. The parsonage at the church burned, destroying $1,800 worth of his newly purchased furniture. Loss to the six-room frame building was estimated at $5,250. Davidson was graduated Friday from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Goble and children, of Prestonsburg, and Mrs. John B. Baldrige, of Warsaw, attended the Tyler-Davidson wedding at West Liberty Monday.

Wilson Hurl's Shutout In Big Sandy League In Lid-Lifting Tilt

Although the weather prevented practically all outdoor sports Sunday, two games of the Big Sandy Baseball League were played on the full distance, and good games they were.

Allen shut out Henry Clay, 3-0, behind the five-hit mound work of Wilson, and Hi Hat edged Wayland in a tight one, 3 to 2.

The Allen team played errorless ball behind Wilson, who struck out eight men while walking three. At the same time the winners reached Butler and Stewart for 10 hits as Henry Clay fielders misused twice.

Hi Hat scored its three runs on six hits, but played errorless ball while holding Wayland scoreless on seven safeties. Wayland had only one error for the afternoon.

WITH FOLKS AT HOME TO REMEMBER THOSE WHO FIGHT LONELINESS AS WELL AS FOE

"Mail from Home" is the urgent plea made by a veteran of six years overseas. In keeping a personal promise made to his buddies in Korea and elsewhere, Army Sergeant Wilbur F. Radcliffe writes in a stirring letter from the Presidio, San Francisco:

"I am in the Army—I've been in the Army—I served with the Marines and Air Force. I have spent over six years overseas and many months in Army hospitals, and I have seen too many servicemen there fighting the unnecessary extra battle against despondency, loneliness, and the terrible feeling of being unloved and forgotten by the 'folks back home.'"

Sgt. Radcliffe praises as "superlative" the contributions of such entertainers as Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and others. He writes with appreciation of the attention and care provided by the various morale, recreational, athletic, spiritual and special care made by a veteran of six years overseas. The efforts of all these groups cannot, writes Sgt. Radcliffe, however completely combat the loneliness and misery of the man at the front when he is forgotten by his own. He needs the "wholehearted support and cooperation of the folks back home themselves."

He requested that newspapers, radio, magazines, television and clubs all urge the folks at home to please write cheery, newsy letters—often with their latest snapshots—and some small inexpensive gift once in a while, to their relatives, friends, acquaintances, or home town boy overseas or in the Armed Forces Hospitals.

Do YOU know some one up front, or someone who has returned to a hospital—who would be grateful to get "Mail from Home?"

PREDICTS GAIN FOR COAL IN BATTLE OF THE FUELS

The critical point at which coal will begin replacing currently competitive fuels on a permanent basis is "just around the corner," according to Joseph Purglove, Jr., of Pittsburgh, Pa., vice president of research and development, Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co., in a preliminary discussion on "Coal's Possibilities in the Next Ten Years." Mr. Purglove's analysis reviews rates of consumption and estimated proved reserves of liquid fuels, gas, coal, and also traces established trends in competitive markets.

Pointing out that coal represents approximately 95 per cent of the recoverable energy reserves and that the scarcest mineral fuel resources—oil and gas—are being used up at an increasingly faster rate, Mr. Purglove says that coal's competitive struggle will become less intense in the coming years and that it will move into "more and more situations occupied by liquid fuels and natural gas" after 1955.

A prolonged period of international tension, in which there are heavy strains on domestic reserves of both petroleum and natural gas, would hasten the general reversal in fuel uses, Mr. Purglove explains, and these fuels will be "withdrawn from present-day uses" where coal can be substituted.

"We are already witnessing what one might call a small reversal in trends because many oil consumers are now transferring back to coal," the Pittsburgh Consolidation executive declares. "This trend will continue and will grow as long as the tension lasts, but it will not be a permanent trend until the day of the big reversal arrives."

A production peak of from 614 to 7 million barrels of petroleum produced daily will be reached sometime between 1955 and 1960, Mr. Purglove estimates, after which there will be a gradual decline in the productive capacity of the oil industry.

"As crude oil becomes more and more expensive to produce, and the demand for the lighter petroleum products keeps exceeding domestic supply," he continues, "refiners will want to convert more and more of the crude oil into gasoline, diesel oils, and furnace oils that bring premium prices into the market place. In other words, less and less heavy residual fuel oil (bituminous coal's principal liquid fuel competitor) will be produced."

"The technology of this conversion is well known. Some modern refineries produce only 6 per cent of their output as heavy residual today, whereas ten years ago they produced 25 to 30 per cent. It is technically possible to operate a refinery that produces absolutely no residual fuel oil for sale. It is just a matter of economics."

"In view of these facts and assuming unrealistically—for a minute—a future peace-time economy, I believe that residual fuel oil would become less and less a competitor of coal after about 1955, because it would have then become more profitable for the refiner to upgrade it. Under present semi-wartime conditions, residual fuel is in large demand for marine and other special purposes, and it will not make any further inroads on coal's markets. If all-out war should come, residual—of course—would be taken out of most of the places where it competes with coal."

Reserves of natural gas appear to be satisfactory at this time, Mr. Purglove explains, but factors presenting problems to that industry include distances of markets from gas demands, seasonal demands, and lack of storage facilities. He believes that the limited opportunities for year-round business in natural gas will act as a brake on pipeline financing and building within the next two to four years.

"A number of industries that have looked to gas as their source of energy and chemicals for several years are beginning to study coal for their longer-term future," Mr. Purglove points out. "Carbon-black (necessary ingredient in all rubber products) makers based on gas for 50 years wonder if we can't remove some raw materials for them from coal. The aluminum industry that has rushed to Texas for cheap gas

MAYTOWN

Jest Among Us
By Jack Wain

Mr. and Mrs. Henry May had as their guests this week Mrs. May's father, Mr. Parsons, and sister, Miss Marie Parsons, from Vero Beach, Florida. Mrs. May accompanied them to Ashland to visit relative, Miss Betty May. Lois Preley, and Hollie Faye Osborne, from Casey school, Miss Libby May from Georgetown, Nelson, Allen, and Miles Gibson from Morehead, and Miss Ann May from the University game home to attend the musical festival.

Mr. and Mrs. John May are the proud parents of two chosen beauty queens from Maytown, who have participated in the music festival. Miss Ann May was queen in 1947 and Miss Loreta May in 1951. Loreta won the title of Queen of Floyd County Music Festival this year. She represented Snow White on the Maytown float and was a true replica of the real Snow White. Mrs. George Patton has been in Ashland all week with her daughter, Kathy, who was stricken with mumps fever while visiting there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Snoddy and children, of Boldman, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sutton.

Maytown takes this method of thanking everyone who helped in the least possible way toward making the float a success and helping in the purchasing of the uniforms for the band. Their generosity is greatly appreciated.

Joe Taylor Bealey is employed at Boldman. He is now staying with his parents until he can move to Boldman.

Mrs. Charles Patton, and daughter, Catherine, visited her mother on Left Beaver Sunday.

Maytown music department was well-represented in the all-festival band and chorus held in Prestonsburg.

Mrs. Ashland Salisbury, was hostess to a Stanley party in her home Friday evening.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Methodist Church was held in the basement of the church with Ray Howard, of Prestonsburg, as the guest speaker. Mr. Howard gave a very interesting talk on "Theological Announcements." We invited Mr. Howard back again.

The P.T.A. had a chicken and dumpling dinner at the regular May meeting. This project was held to increase the finances of the lunch room. Mrs. Sallie Baker, of Pikeville, was the guest speaker at the meeting held later in the auditorium.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Lucinda Mammel, who passed away last week.

ALLEN

Mrs. Cora Gearheart, of Newark, Ohio, is visiting her daughter Mrs. Earl Laferty and family, last week.

Mrs. G. L. Gray, Mrs. Palmer Crisp, Mrs. Bennie Lafayette, Mrs. Clarence Salyers, Mrs. J. W. Laferty were in Huntington, W. Va., Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Laferty and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Alex Dorsett and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Garrett on Bull Creek Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Kinzer and son, Terry, were the Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, of East Point.

Mrs. Ruth Porter has been removed from the Paintsville hospital where she has been seriously ill to her home here.

Mrs. Doris Allen was in Pikeville Monday shopping and visiting friends.

Mrs. Alice Warrick, Beulah Ann Porter and Dora E. Allen were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Warrick in Prestonsburg, Wednesday.

Mrs. Johnny Floyd, of Crayson, is visiting relatives here. She was the Saturday night guest of Mr. and Mrs. Benny Leffert.

Miss Olga Frances Preston, of Eastern College, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Preston. She had as her guest her room-mate, Miss Bobby Little.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE
We are authorized to announce DONALD L. (DOONEY) HORN of West Prestonsburg, Ky., as a candidate for REPRESENTATIVE of the 9th Legislative district, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the August, 1951 primary.

I pledge my vote for a dry Kentucky, election of County School Superintendents by popular vote of the people, and a new purgation law to take some of the crookedness out of politics.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE
We are authorized to announce E. H. (TED) STUMBO of Harold, Ky., as a candidate for REPRESENTATIVE of the 9th Legislative district of Floyd county, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the August, 1951 primary.

THOUGHTS AND THINGS:
Henry Miller of Owenton says his Grandson D. T. Miller, well-known Pancock Countian of years gone by, used to tinkle the youngsters with his spelling of "grasshopper," "grass-hippity-hop-o" . . . I don't suppose anything makes a person feel more important than to be created by name upon entering a crowded larderhop . . . Was ever a spot more fair than Kentucky in the Springtime? . . . Kentuckians who have looked toward the cold weather may be expected to howl loudly about the hot weather . . . Some folks manage to recover from one year's attack of spring fever just in time to come down with another.

The difference goes more than Skin-Deep

Nobody wonders what you're driving when you roll by in this one.

In the 1951 line-up, its brand-new front-end styling stands out with a beauty all its own.

You're the proud owner of a Buick—and the whole world knows it.

But you—at the wheel—enjoy a long list of differences that go far deeper than looks.

The ride is different—level and true. You sit the road with special assurance — because Buick's torque-tube drive keeps rear wheels firmly aligned—soft coil springs on all four wheels soak up the bumps and bobbles—honest weight keeps you on a steady keel.

The power is different—eager and sure. Buick's high-compression Fireball engine does wonders with fuel—and no matter what you demand in emergency, there's horsepower to spare.

Handling is different—this car seems to steer itself on straightaway or curve—and swings lightly into parking spots inches shorter than you'd think you need.

Capping it all, there's the silken versatility of Dynaflow Drive,* that takes all the tenseness out of driving — responds to your slightest wish with a surging swoop of power.

No doubt about it, what you get in a Buick is far more than just a new car — it's a whole new experience in getting pleasurable from here to there.

So why not explore this difference? Come, take a Buick over and find out how very much satisfaction smart money can buy.

TIDBITS OF KENTUCKY FOLKLORE

By GORDON WILSON, Ph.D.
Western Kentucky Teachers' College Bowling Green, Ky.

NO SUCH ANIMAL

Everybody is familiar with the corny old story of the old lady who, upon visiting the zoo, refused to believe her own eyes when she looked upon the giraffe (or the hippopotamus or the elephant), remarking "There ain't no such animal!" to laugh at the simple old soul without recalling how many times we refuse to recognize something merely because it has never been in our experience. Most prejudices are formed in some such way. Whatever is in our experience, is right and normal; whatever seems strange or new, is, at best, queer and out of place. At the worst, it becomes a positive evil.

Many times I have written this vein in this column, because this seems to me to be a very basic folk attitude. My returning to it, grew out of a small experience while I was out walking on a bird observation trip. A man passed me in a rather dilapidated car, stopped some yards ahead, and asked me to ride with him. In the quarter of a mile that I rode in his car he was puzzled greatly. Who was I? What was I doing out on this country road? When I told him I was studying birds, he naturally thought I meant small. He began to tell me about his fine cone dogs but stopped right in a sentence to ask whether I was a nature warden. When I assured him I was not, he continued a sentence, but I never will believe that it was the animal as before. I still doubt whether he believed my saying that I studied birds, all kinds. Apparently he had never come across such a strange animal as before. I think he has lived in my county for a good many years. He had moved into my immediate area only lately, however, and may thus have never seen anybody with a pair of field glasses around his neck. He certainly was not deaf, but he asked me my name several times to be sure that I would tell the same story each time. Even after I had thanked him for the ride and was climbing over a fence, he called after me to know my name. Maybe he felt that he had been a little too solicitous, then, for he invited me to come out to see him and his dogs. I hope to accept his invitation some day, just to show him that I am not a suspicious character out spying on him and his neighbors, not to mention the dog.

If I had had a gun on a fishing pole or a boat paddle, I could have escaped all the questioning. I am sure, for nearly everybody knows what these things are for. But a pair of field glasses, rather ponderous at that, with no visible weapons or signs or normal outdoor activities, were just too much to be taken in instantly. He probably went home with a long tale to tell his wife and children about the queer-looking old man with the "big glasses" that had ridden in his car for a short piece, just as I have come and told my side of the story.

Through the years I have wondered about the fate of the old hunter who made Bowling Green his headquarters back in the hard winter of 1917-18 and lingered around here until past the end of the next summer. I often saw him as I walked in the woods or along the stream. He was a cheerful soul, with a smile and greeting. He did not look at you long at a time, though he must find the "yacht" that were in the woods. Meanwhile I looked up and all around, probably causing him to think that I was not completely right in the head. More than he ever knew, we were very much alike, even though I had had a bath somewhat often than he and had more often slept in a bed. He found herbs, I found birds, and both of us found health and gladness out of doors. When the thermometer tumbled nearly as low as it has ever gone in my town, some of the old fellows spent the nights in a vacant room over a store down town, and he cheerfully accepted their offer. When the temperature went up a few degrees above zero, he thanked the ladies for their lodging and went back to the pergola in the park, saying that staying indoors "made him short of breath. Now wasn't he a queer one? Who says?

As if to finish my walk out of doors today, I passed a small boy, who was consumed with curiosity to know what the field glasses were but was too well-bred to ask outright. What he said was "Are you looking out to kill some?" So for two people at least today I have furnished a few minutes of puzzlement; and they have given me another essay for my column.

KENTUCKY ON THE MARCH
By EWING GALLOWAY
If I were asked what's the matter with Kentucky, I say too turned many lazy people.
Right now there are too many people away from work. There seem to be more than in Great Depression years, when people on WPA payrolls were allowed to stay home and collect wages from the Federal Government on saturdays most condition is general, of course.
When in New York recently, I saw in our residential block a street maintenance crew of ten men at some small breaks in the asphalt. One was going over small patches with a hot iron with a long handle. Two were leaning against a truck, seven were sitting on the curb. Rather unusual in ratio of workers and loaders, but truly illustrative. In driving over Kentucky I see in work crews, on private as well as public jobs, an average of about three sitters to one man in motion.
But I'm neglecting to get to the point of this little essay, which is legal holidays, of which Kentucky already has twelve. When the 1951 Kentucky legislature was in session somebody tried to have Franklin D. Roosevelt's birthday—January 30. I believe—made a legal holiday. I wrote a piece denouncing the idea but my copy got sidetracked and did not go out.
In that editorial I said that if in any future assembly the resolution was brought up again with a chance of passing I would get myself a jabbone of an axe and commit mass assault and battery on representatives and senators inclined to vote a 13th legal holiday.
Recently Senator Lehman of New York introduced a measure in Congress to make FDR's birthday a legal holiday. I am wondering why Lehman should bear his mental balance in this instance Roosevelt's big sleep in 1936 put Lehman in the governor's office over Robert Moses, the most competent administrator the Empire State has produced in fifty years.
If FDR could come back to life for a day he would oppose the holiday idea vigorously.
If the resolution is reintroduced in Frankfurt next winter and a tall guy with a lean and hungry look is seen stalking the two branches of the assembly, the guards had better search him for the kind of weapon Samson used on the Philistines.

IT'S A GOOD WORLD BY WILMAY
Ray Howard, of Prestonsburg, spoke at the Methodist Church here Wednesday evening on the "Alcoholics." Without benefit of notes he spoke for an hour, making an impressive message straight from his heart.
Sallie Baker, of Pikeville, radio's "Queen of America," chaired the Maytown P.-T.A. Tuesday evening with an account of her trip to Europe. The nicest thing about her is that fame has not gone to her head.
Maytown salutes Elsie Patrick, music instructor, whose float in the Music Festival has won top honors for the third consecutive year. Simplicity keynote the Maytown float each year.
All Maytown congratulates Miss Loretta May, who, as Snow White, being the 1951 Floyd County Music Festival Queen. Her unique beauty has never spoiled her. Her smile and charm are both natural.
It is dogwood winter again. Soon the snowy blossoms will be gone. Ashland has just ended a city-wide campaign to plant a pink and a white dogwood in each yard. Years ago, members of the Maytown Women's Club planted a tree in their yards. Today, these are big and in bloom. Scores still hope to see a Dogwood Trail through Floyd. The Azalea Trail has made Mollie, and famous. It was started with a very few shrubs.
Persons, specially skeptic, will argue as to whom Cain married, but no one ever asks whom Seth, brother of Cain, married. The answer is the same in both instances, and there is no cause for doubt, since Adam's family was at that time the only people in the world had necessarily to descend from them. No doubt Cain and Seth each married one of his sisters, for intermarrying was common in early days. Often Bible readers fail to note that the author of Genesis carries Cain's story through to the end, before resuming the story of his parents, which is not given in chronological order. Many modern writers employ the same method.

RESOLUTION
Whereas, there is some probability that there will be an effort made to vote the legal sale of alcoholic beverages in Floyd County, be it resolved that the Maytown Methodist Church stands in complete sympathy with the dry cause; and we, the undersigned officers of the church, do hereby pledge our prayers, our influence and our service to keep Floyd County dry.

MOTHER'S DAY
It's here again, and America pays tribute to the one we all love best. What is home without a mother? Only those wearing white flowers can know. A teacher asked where home is, and a small boy replied, "It's wherever Mother is."
Often handicapped mothers make a home out of soap boxes and crates, while others with a million dollars, plus a string of high-sounding degrees, fail in their attempts. It takes more than four walls to create a home. Its atmosphere counts most, and Mother has more to do with the spiritual aspect of home than any other individual.
Too many mothers today are poor imitations of the men, aping their faults and bad habits. This helps explain increasing juvenile delinquency and the high proportion of youth found in institutions. Edgar Hoover himself is calling for more family altars, but worldly mothers have no influence at the throne of grace.
The nearest route to any point on earth is through Mother's prayers. Old Glory was shot down in a Korean battle. One boy darted up the hill to replace the flag but he was cut down by mortar fire. A second boy dashed forth to raise the Stars and Stripes. He too, was killed. "Wait till eleven o'clock tonight," a third told his captain, "and I'll put the flag up and come back too." At eleven the lad went up the hill, raised Old Glory proudly and returned safely to his ranks. "How do you know you'll come back?" asked his captain. "I knew my mother always prays for me at eleven p.m.," replied the boy.
Too many youngsters today are growing up with mothers who know nothing about prayer. The hand that rocks the cradle still rules the world!

Why a Dodge truck is your safest investment
A "Job-Rated" truck is engineered at the factory to fit a specific job. You save money . . . last longer. Every unit from engine to rear axle is a specific job—engineered to haul a specific load over the roads you travel and at the speeds you require.
Every unit that SUPPORTS the load—frame, axles, springs, wheels, tires and others—is engineered right to provide the strength and capacity needed.
Every unit that MOVES the load—clutch, steering, transmission, propeller shaft, rear axle and others—is engineered right to meet a particular operating condition.
