Dear Henry:

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I have learned you are seeking re-election as State Representative from the 96th District. All veterans need the aggressive and intelligent type of leadership you have previously demonstrated in our Legislature. Your valuable contributions in the last Legislature to the welfare of the veterans and all citizens of our great State have not gone unnoticed.

As the only veteran in your Primary, and as an individual offering outstanding leadership qualifications, you have my every wish for your success.

With sincerest regards and best wishes, I am

Yours in Co-friendship,

To the People of
Floyd County:

Polk Saunders came from a family of eleven children. I have known him from birth and consider him a deserving candidate for CLERK.

He attended Casey Junior College; after finishing there he taught two schools and entered World War II where he remained for four years.

Those who know him can truthfully say he is sober and qualified. I hope my many friends will consider both sides and support the most deserving candidate.

It has been rumored that I was against Polk. This is the best method for me to let all know that I am 100 per cent for this deserving boy.

I consider it an honor to support this fine young man. I hope to be able to see you and talk to you about this boy.

GUY HORN,
JAILER OF FLOYD COUNTY

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Emerson (Doc) Beauchamp is candidate for Lieutenant Governor of the State of Kentucky, and

WHEREAS, said Emerson (Doc) Beauchamp in his capacity as Commissioner of Rural Highways has demonstrated by his acts and deeds that he is a friend to the road property in Kentucky, and

WHEREAS, he has been instrumental in the construction of a road from Caney to Stephens Branch, Harold to Hi Hat, Drift to Wayland, and in maintaining and improving the existing rural highways in Floyd county,

It is therefore ordered by this Court that the candidacy of Emerson (Doc) Beauchamp for the office of Lieutenant Governor be endorsed and that this Court go on record as favoring his election and urging the voters of the State of Kentucky and Floyd County to go to the polls on election day and cast their votes for Emerson (Doc) Beauchamp.

Garrison Finish Wins for Drift As 12 Runs Made after 2 Out

Trailing, 10 to 2, in the ninth inning with two men out, the Drift baseball team staged the most sensational rally in the history of baseball in this section Tuesday night at Pikeville to score 12 runs on eight hits and thus end the game the winner over Harold, 14 to 10.

The victory gave Drift the Kentucky Elkhorn League leadership with a 13-9 won-loss record. Harold, which was in a tie with Drift previous to Tuesday night's game, is in second place with a 12-9 record.

Pans started home when Drift came back in the fatal ninth. Melmsie, Drift's starting pitcher, was wild and Harold had scored all its runs on six hits off his delivery in 3 and two-thirds innings. Hancock relieved him and held Harold scoreless on two hits over remainder of the distance.

Spencer, the Harold starter, went smoothly till those two men were out in the ninth. Then the roof fell in on him and he was unable to get that last man out. Johnson came on to walk in a run and Beverly was called to the mound. Drift promptly slammed him for four hits and four runs before the Harold's stomach hemorrhaged. The whole scoring spree was aided by only one Harold error.

"Streak" Adkins, the league's leading batter, let the wanner with a double and two singles. Page's double and single in three trips to the plate was best for the losers.

His brother was badly cut on his leg and about the face. Both legs of the Branson child, a son of Arthur Branson, were broken and a heel was crushed. The Gearheart boy, a son of Billie Gearheart, was cut with lesser cuts and bruises. Witnesses said Moore leaped from his car and fled the scene. Officers said they chased him back and forth across Left Beaver Creek through fields for some time before Deputy Sheriff Frank Crum saw him limping along the railway tracks and found him hidden behind a well box.

With Girdell Moore as his surety, Moore executed $1000 bond Monday to gain freedom on a charge of assault and battery with an automobile. At the same time he executed $500 for possessing whiskey, $100 for leaving the scene of an accident and $100 on a warrant charging him with driving without an operator's license.

He was returned to jail here Wednesday by Constable Johnny Cain. Following the death of the Osborne child, Magistrate Ellis Martin issued the involuntary manslaughter warrant against him, and another charging him with drunk driving was issued by County Judge Henry Stumbo.

Injury of the four children was followed by the action by law-enforcement officers. Numerous autos were stopped in the vicinity of Price where the road was under patrol, and during the week-end 61 persons were jailed here, most of them on charges of drunk driving or plain drunkenness.

Officers said both whiskey and beer were found in Mogger's car. The Osborne and Branson boys were taken to St. Mary's hospital in Huntington after the more seriously injured boy was given a blood transfusion at Our Lady of the Way hospital, Martin. Blood from the Red Cross bank was available there and was officially credited with keeping the boy alive during the long ambulance trip.

Terry Osborne and the Gayhart boy are at the Martin hospital, where they are recovering. Surviving the Osborne child are the parents and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Clifford Brown, Howard, Bush, John M., Charles B., Terry Truman, Hugh Vinson, Bonny June and Kenneth Wade Osborne, all of Price.

Funeral rites for the child will be held at Price, the Revs. M. C. Wright, Sherman Crum and Mitchell Chaffins officiating. Burial will be directed by the Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

Biggers Makes Final Appeal To the Voters of the 96th District

To the Democrats and Other Good Citizens of the 96th District of Floyd County:

As my campaign for election to the next General Assembly of Kentucky comes to a close, I appeal to all men and women who have a vote to lay aside every consideration except the paramount one of the public interest, and go to the polls on next Saturday and cast your vote for me. Thus you will have chosen one whose experience as a former member of the Kentucky House of Representatives for two successive terms will enable me to take a leading role, and your interest can be better served by one with that kind of experience than by one without such experience. My experience as a legislator is not the only advantage I will have. During the last twenty years I have become acquainted with hundreds of leading citizens of Kentucky, active in public affairs of the state, with whom I can work with for the best interest of the people of this district and that of the entire mountain section of Kentucky. I have made my campaign on a high level of respect for all of my opponents, and without criticism or effort to any one.

The people of Prestonsburg among whom I have lived and transacted business during this long period of time know my conduct as a neighbor, and I appeal to you all for your support in this vital campaign. Cordially yours, W. G. (Bill) BIGGERS (Pol. Adv.)

Mose Collinsworth, 72, Former Floyd Resident, Dies at Caltensburg

Mose Collinsworth, 72 years old, retired lumberman and former mayor of Caltensburg, died Friday night at his home, 2865 Louis St., Caltensburg, after a lingering illness.

Mr. Collinsworth, who headed operations of the Dawkins Lumber Company prior to his retirement several years ago, was widely known throughout Eastern Kentucky and formerly resided in Floyd county. He was elected mayor of Caltensburg in 1938. During World War II, he headed the Caltensburg draft board.

Mr. Collinsworth was born in Pike county, a son of the late Thomas and Emeline Shortridge Collinsworth. He was married on August 21, 1904 to Lena M. Jackson, who survives. Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Gracye C. Kicker, and a son, W. D. Collinsworth, both of Caltensburg.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Kilgore-Culler Funeral Home with the Rev. James B. Crises, pastor of the First Christian Church, officiating.

Burial was made in the Caltensburg cemetery.

Mrs. J. J. Boyd, 64 years old, wife of J. J. Boyd and a native of this county, died July 28 at her home in Mt. Sterling, victim of a heart attack after two years of failing health. Mrs. Boyd had submitted to an operation two months earlier, and apparently was recovering when she was suddenly stricken.

Born Sept. 22, 1886, she was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carr Salmons and was a native of Arkansas Creek, near Martin. She was married to Mr. Boyd of twenty years, and to this union were born nine children, one son preceding her in death. She had been a devout member of the United Baptist Church for 38 years, often moving to Fleming county about 15 years ago, and to Mt. Sterling, Ky. Mrs. Boyd resided on Prater Creek and at Harold.

Surviving are her husband, one son, J. Boyd, of Mt. Sterling, and seven daughters, Mrs. Dewey Roberts and Mrs. E. W. Conn, of Harold, Mrs. Sam Pomroy, Cincinnati, O., Mrs. A. W. Conn, Springfield, O., Mrs. Glenn Williamson, Mrs. Ray Livinville, Jr., and Mrs. Clyde Crump, all of Mt. Sterling. She also leaves five brothers and two sisters.

Mrs. Boyd's funeral was held Saturday in the auditorium of Betsy Layne high school, the Rev. Johnnie King, John Brown and Arthur Priest officiating. Burial was made in the Hatcher cemetery at Harold.

Farm NEWS and NEWS

By HAROLD B. RICE, Floyd County Agent

Alfalfa is by far the most dependable and highest yielding hay crop that can be produced in Floyd county.

In order to succeed with alfalfa you must sow the right variety, inoculate the seed, prepare a firm seed bed, have well drained soil and use plenty of fertilizer.

Most of the alfalfa produced in Kentucky is Kansas Common and Orlahoma Common. Some new varieties have been developed that are better than these varieties. They are Atlantic, Buffalo, and Ranger.

Atlantic is the highest yielding alfalfa conducted at the Ky. Experiment Station, Buffalo, Ranger, and Hardigan yielded almost as much. Alfalfa seed should be inoculated with the nodule producing organism if alfalfa has not been produced on that soil recently. If the alfalfa plant will be weak and yellow and can't compete with weeds.

Ten to twelve pounds of alfalfa seed per acre is enough if more is needed you had better sow something else.

Alfalfa seed are very small and need a firm seedbed. The old idea that a soil has to be loose before you sow seed is not true. The soil should be packed around the seed. Alfalfa has a long tap root and when it grows down to water it stops growing and soon dies. This makes it necessary for alfalfa to be sowed in well drained soil.

A soil test should be made of the field where alfalfa is to be sown. All necessary information regarding soil tests and fertilizer needs can be obtained from the county agent.

Alfalfa should be sowed in August. The earlier the better. Late sowed alfalfa is more apt to freeze out during the winter.

More information about alfalfa can be had by writing the county agent for Extension Circular 312, "Growing Alfalfa in Kentucky."

POPCORN IN CALLOWAY
While there is some increase in field corn in Calloway county this year, County Agent S. V. Row says the big increase is in popcorn. He estimates 18,000 acres are in popcorn, with half of the production under contracts at $4 a hundred-weight of ears.

BIG SANDY DIVISION
Pikeville, Ky.

Mr. Burnis Martin
Attorney at Law
Prestonsburg, Kentucky

Dear Burnis:

I regret that I was out of the Pikeville office each time you came to see me. However, each time I was away on business for the United Mine Workers of America. So far as I know at this time, I will be in the Pikeville office every day next week with the exception of Monday and Tuesday. I suggest, however, that you call this office and check before you make a trip up here. I would be glad to talk with you on any of the remaining days if you should happen to be in Pikeville.

Frankly, the United Mine Workers have not been exactly happy about some of the recent occurrences in Floyd county, with reference to the time when some of our so-called political friends were not present and permitted certain indictments to be made against the representatives of the union that should not have happened. The laxity on the part of our political friends in Floyd county has caused the United Mine Workers to feel that perhaps in this coming election, that we should remain out of politics in Floyd county.

At the time of the writing of this letter, I am definitely of the opinion that no endorsements will be made for any candidate within Floyd county. Perhaps no active support will be given even to some of our so-called friends, who can not be found except when they want the miners support at the elections. I make this explanation to you, not because the United Mine Workers are opposed to your candidacy, but in order to let you know how we think, if and when you decide to contact me.

Very truly yours,
TOM RANEY, International
Executive Board Member
District No. 30 UMWA

I, Burnis Martin, candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney of Floyd county, do solemnly swear that the above is an exact copy of the letter received from Tom Raney after I had talked with Carson H. Hight, who told me that Tom Raney was the man who I would have to see. I wrote Tom Raney and the above letter was his reply. I have never told a living soul on this earth that the United Mine Workers had endorsed me or that they were going to.

Farmers to See Pastures, Stock

Three better-pastures and better-livestock meetings have been arranged by the Extension Service of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. They will be at the A. R. Herndon farm in Boyle county, Aug. 15; Charles Gorman farm in Fleming county, Aug. 18, and the Hazel Green Academy farm in Wolfe county, Aug. 17.

Outstanding work in pasture and stock production is being done on each of these farms.

Speakers will include Dr. W. P. Gurgis, associate director of the Agricultural Experiment Station at Lexington and head of Animal Industry at the college and station, and Dr. John R. Taylor, Washington, D. C., agronomist for the American Plant Food Council. W. C. Johnston of the college will lead the tour and discussions of the pastures.

Gov. Lawrence Wetherby has proclaimed August "Green Pastures Month."

24-D Saves Corn In Rainy Weather

Chester Stahl of Todd county sprayed with 24-D to kill morning glories, cocklebur and other weeds in his corn, when rain prevented cultivation. County Agent Stuart Brabant visited the field when the corn was about 18 inches high and reported good results. Two quarts are good for 40 percent 24-D Ester were used just before the corn came up.

Broad-leaf weeds also were killed in a large bottom field of corn and the farm of Helms Patton. A pint an acre of 60 percent Emline 24-D was put on when the corn was about a foot high.

BROME GRASS TRIED

Several Grant county farmers are trying brome grass this season. S. R. Eicker of Dry Ridge has a good stand of brome mixed with alfalfa. He cut a crop last year and told County Agent Robert Hume he was much pleased with the hay. Stock was ready for it, he said. Henry Northcutt sowed brome grass where he can compare it with other grasses.

STRATTON GRADUATES FORT KNOX, KY. July 23—Cpl. Donald N. Stratton, husband of Mrs. Edith L. Stratton, Morehead, Ky., has been graduated from the Army's Leaders Course conducted by the 3rd Armored Division.

During the eight-week course, Cpl. Stratton underwent some of the army's most rigorous advanced training. He was required to display leadership qualities in leading squads of men in mock combat problems both during the day and at night. He also had to satisfactorily conduct several classes and periods of drill and physical training. The second phase of the course consisted of practical application of the leadership principles with Cpl. Stratton serving as a training instructor for basic trainees of the 3rd Armored Division.

A native of Prestonsburg, Cpl. Stratton was graduated from high school here in 1947. He served in the army for 17 months following his graduation, after which he was enrolled as a student at Morehead State college prior to being recalled to active duty with the reserves.

DOES IT SUIT YOU to pay a seven cent gas tax for every gallon of gas you buy and then have to drive over the rough, bumpy, patched, crooked and dangerous roads of our state?

DOES IT SUIT YOU to pay a state income tax when the State of Kentucky has SIXTY-TWO MILLION DOLLARS ON DEPOSIT IN THE BANKS OVER THE STATE?

DOES IT SUIT YOU to HAVE OUT-OF-STATE EXPERTS SELECTED BY THE CLEMENTS-BEAUCHAMP-WETHERBY MACHINE COME ONTO YOUR PROPERTY TO SET UP A NEW TAX APPRAISAL FOR YOUR HOMES AND FARMS? Every farm building will be measured; number of rooms, kind of roof and floor, even down to whether the back porch is screened. They will get the number of cattle, horses and hogs. It is said, they even want to know how many hens you have setting and how many you expect to culminate to set. They have just completed an appraisal in Ashland, Ky., costing the taxpayers $29,000.00 and the work was done by experts from Cleveland, Ohio.

DOES IT SUIT YOU, if you operate a truck, to have to pay all those license and registration fees and to have to purchase a contract carrier's license costing about $80.00 before you can even move a neighbor a few miles?

DOES IT SUIT YOU when you are bumping over the rough roads to know that the State Highway Department spent seven days with road crews, bridge crews and highway equipment to build a bridge and road and parking lot to Elmer Fuson's liquor store in Bell county at the taxpayers' expense.

DOES IT SUIT YOU that our highway department was charged with dishonest dealings with the Bogey Construction Co., and, it was said, the sum of $6,000.00 was paid to Doc Beauchamp and John Keck and that these charges have never been explained? In order to whitewash the affair, Wetherby discharged Keck, a young man, making him the scapegoat BUT RETAINED DOC BEAUCHAMP, THE GRANDDADDY OF ALL CONSPIRATORS AND THEN HAD THE NERVE TO RUN HIM FOR LIEUT. GOVERNOR!

All this has happened, is happening and is going to happen as long as the Clements-Beauchamp-Wetherby machine is in power in Kentucky. THIS IS THE RECORD THAT LAWRENCE WETHERBY IS RUNNING ON. YOU CANNOT SEPARATE CLEMENTS FROM BEAUCHAMP FROM WETHERBY.

EVERY HONEST VOTER IN KENTUCKY DOWN IN HIS HEART KNOWS THERE IS PLENTY OF ROTTEN POLITICS IN FRANKFORT UNDER THE CLEMENTS-BEAUCHAMP-WETHERBY rule. The good BOOK says, "Let your hand be strengthened." On August 4th you will find in your hand the power that will topple this machine and restore honesty to the government of our proud state.

SPORTS AFIELD

Sometimes you have to use a weedless lure. But they are at best a necessary evil, to be used only where it's impractical to fish with open hooks. It's a case of how often you must row over to disentangle open hooks from weeds, or how much of the retrieve is ineffective because of weeds trailing on the lure.

However, often you can use small open hooks for weeds. On lures with only one hook, or one treble, the usual large hook may be replaced by a small single. An 8 or even smaller is much more effective in hooking even large bass than most people think, and it can be used where weeds are quite dense. But watch out to see that changing to a lighter hook does not ruin the action of the lure. A short cast and watching the lure retrieve at the usual fishing speed, will settle this question.

When it comes to plugs with multiple hooks, small singles generally won't hook fish at all consistently. But sometimes the troubles may be replaced by others much smaller without noticeable loss of action, or loss of efficiency in hooking fish.

When using weedless lures for any fish, see to it that the weedguards are barely strong enough to ward weeds from the hook point, and no stronger. A lure with stiff weedguards is generally not only weedless but fishless.

To understand why weedless hooks are relatively inefficient for hooking bass, one should know that a bass nearly always takes a plug quite delicately in his slips only almost never do you feel that furious initial tug given by a strike. The same is true of a walleye. In fact, they take a lure more gingerly than bass. But when a plug bites a lure he usually bites hard and furiously. Also, he ordinarily takes a lure far more deeply in his mouth than almost any other fish.

This being the case, it is easy to see that weedless lures are far more effective for pike than for fish of most other species. Weedless hooks seem generally to hook them about as often as open ones.

Incidentally, angling expert Justice Lucas says some very productive lures are made in weedless models only. With a single pinch between thumb and forefinger he bends the weedguard down where it doesn't interfere with hooking fish.

KENTUCKY ON THE MARCH
BY EWING GALLOWAY

If Francis Bacon, the philosopher, was right when he said reading makes a man (or woman), your weekly correspondent will live and die half educated. I have read not more than half as many good books as I should have read, and now I won't have time to catch up. One reason I'm far behind with my reading is that between twelve and thirteen I couldn't be persuaded to read anything but my lessons in textbooks. The principal of our village school, the late L. W. Turner, did his damndest to get me to read such books as "Tom Sawyer," "Huckleberry Finn," "Treasure Island," "David Copperfield," "The Three Musketeers," etc., but baseball, hunting and fishing won't out. The ten years are the turning point in the intellectual development of most young people. I began reading good literature when I was 18, partly because we were away to acquire a good vocabulary and learn how to use it.

This little essay, like so good many of my pieces, stems from personal experience as well as from observation. Several weeks ago I ran a list of twenty books suited to children eight to twelve. Now it is reading matter for boys and girls 12 to 16. I asked President H. L. Donovan of the University of Kentucky to have a big-name professor give me a list. The request moved from one desk to another, until it got the attention of Letta Gott Harris, in the College of Education. Mrs. Harris' pick is first rate, though I'm sure a lot of people will disagree with her.

"Tale of Two Cities, Dickens.
Christmas Carol, Dickens.
Captain Courageous, Kipling.
Little Women, Alcott.
Penrod, Tarkington.
Paul Bunyan, Kather Shepherd.
Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm, Kate Wiggin.
Jane Eyre, Brontë.
Wild Animals I Have Known, Beason.

"The Story of Marking, Van Loon.
Last of the Mohicans, Cooper.
Abe Lincoln Grows Up, Sandburg.
Up From Slavery, Booker T. Washington.
Call of the Wild, Jack London.
Adventures of Sherlock Holmes, Conan Doyle.
Story of the Odyssey, Church.
Story of King Arthur, Howard Pyle.

Moby Dick, Herman Melville.
The Tale of the Giant, Abbe Brown.
My Antonia, Willa Cather.
To a man Mrs. Harris' selection is strongly feminine, but it don't fall out with her for that. I'd say that probably was the reason she omitted "Huckleberry Finn," which most cruties folks this side of the Hudson River think is the best novel ever written by an American. I wouldn't leave Mark Twain's great story from any list, for readers ranging from 16 to 90. Then Mrs. Harris' Kipling's "Captains Courageous" to "Treasure Island," Stevenson's adventure classic, is not over the heads of boys and girls under 16.

There is no harm in the Sherlock Holmes detective stories, but if I were picking stuff of that nature I certainly would take the Edgar Allan Poe stories. All subsequent authors of whodunits learned the trick from Poe. I'd probably throw out both Conan Doyle's and Poe for "The Three Musketeers."
My articles about books are written with the hope that school teachers, parents and public librarians will interest themselves more in encouraging young people to read good books.

If readers of KENTUCKY ON THE MARCH write me their suggestions I may do another column on books. What a good public librarian can do might be a first-rate subject.

UK Is Host To 50 Foreign Students

Fifty students from 15 foreign countries arrived this week at the University of Kentucky to begin a six-weeks orientation program designed to acquaint the newcomers with life in the United States. Set up at the request of the Army and State Department, the U.K. orientation center will aid students from Europe, Asia and Central America. They will be given intensive training in conversational English, American history and social customs to prepare them for a full year's study at a number of other U.S. colleges and universities. In addition to their classwork, the visitors will be taken on weekly field trips to business and industrial establishments as well as to points of historic interest.

To the Citizens of the 96th Legislative District:

Since I shall be unable to be home for the primary election this year, due to my enrollment as a law student at the University of Miami, I take this means of asking my friends to consider the candidacy of my brother, CLYDE B. ALLEN of Pyramid, for the Democratic nomination for representative from the 96th legislative district. I feel that he is qualified to represent us in an honest, sincere and constructive manner.

Clyde attended Pikeville, Morehead, and Georgetown colleges and taught school for several years in Floyd county. He worked under the hills as a miner and at present works outside the mines. In his younger days he spent many years farming the hillsides of Middle Creek. He is married and is the father of three children who attend grade school and of a daughter who is a high school senior. He has three children of pre-school age.

He has, by his lifelong action, shown a sincere interest in the improvement of his community and the welfare of his neighbors. He has been interested in the REA and worked continuously for its expansion in his community and district, encouraging neighbors and friends to give rights-of-way over their property and encouraging others to come into the co-operative so that the expansion could be secured.

He has worked, and is continuing to work diligently for the completion of the David-Northern road. He not only gave a free right-of-way over his property but spent much time in aiding in securing rights-of-way over other properties.

His experience as a teacher, a miner, a farmer, and most of all as a citizen, who has been willing to sacrifice a little and make an effort to secure the public improvements necessary to allow his neighbors and friends to enjoy some of the conveniences they deserve, gives him an understanding of the problems of all the people of our county.

I feel that before any person can represent us in Frankfort, that person must have a sincere interest in our welfare. I also believe the only true way to determine whether or not a person is interested in our welfare is to look at his past performance, especially at home where he has been given a chance to prove his interest or willingness to aid his neighbors when they need and call for such help.

I think it would be of interest to the voters of this district to know that one of the present candidates, who has been previously elected your representative, was the greatest obstacle in our way when we tried to get the right-of-way on the David-Northern road. He would not set a price for a long time and when he did it was unreasonable and the county finally condemned the property. He was not interested at that time in the welfare of the miners, teachers, and citizens who were wading the mud and water but he was interested in collecting an unreasonable sum of money from the taxpayers. If you desire to verify this statement, check your county records and those officials whose duty it was to procure rights-of-way.

Another candidate, and former representative, came into Floyd county for a special interest and for a special purpose. He continues to serve that interest and will be in Frankfort regardless of whether he is elected since lobbying is a part of his job.

CLYDE B. ALLEN has only one reason for wanting to represent you and that reason is so that he may work for public improvement and for the betterment of conditions in his district, county, and state. He wants a better place in which to rear our children, a better opportunity to give them adequate and proper education so that they may become good citizens.

I ask you, my friends, to check your candidates closely, check their reasons for asking for your vote, and cast your vote for the person whom you think best qualified to represent all the people.

Your friend,
JARVIS ALLEN

July 24, 1951

Greetings:

Misleading statements have been circulated by Burnis Martin, candidate for Commonwealth Attorney on the Democratic ticket, that the officers of District No. 30, UMWA, had endorsed or were going to endorse Mr. Martin's candidacy. This letter is intended to correct or to inform the United Mine Workers of America that the officers and officials in District 30 have not, and they do not intend to endorse Mr. Martin.

The undersigned District officials of the United Mine Workers of America have given long and serious consideration as to whether or not your union officials should take a stand in this Commonwealth Attorney's race and we were convinced that under the circumstances and inasmuch as our names have been misused and inasmuch as the wrong impressions have gotten around among the miners causing them to be misled, we feel that it is our duty to definitely take a position as to what candidate for Commonwealth Attorney we believe would be to the best interest of the United Mine Workers of America.

We have searched the records of each of the three candidates as to their attitude toward organized labor and as to qualifications for the office. We therefore believe the Honorable J. B. Clarke would, if nominated and elected, be fair to the miners union as such. We do not believe that he would permit his office to be used to persecute the coal miners and that he would give a fair deal to industry and labor alike.

Therefore, we recommend to each coal miner the nomination and election of J. B. CLARK as the next Commonwealth Attorney subject to the Democratic Primary on August 4, 1951.

Very truly yours,

CARSON HIBBITTS, Representative

Is This Order Too Big?

TO WHOMEVER goes to Frankfort to represent Floyd county in the Legislature, The Times would suggest some work which, experience clearly shows, should be done. At the moment we think of these matters:

1. The district detective. The statute providing for that political sinecure should be repealed. Time was when a real service, but it apparently is good only for paying political promises or debts at the expense of the taxpayers.

2. The probationary power of circuit judges. This law giving the judiciary the right to prohibit prison terms up to 30 days' duration destroys the trial by jury and places on one official a responsibility he should not have to accept. Why go to the expense of a trial, if the defendant is to be placed on probation after his conviction? This law puts the circuit judge "on the spot." By granting clemency to one man he sets a precedent which leaves him a shining mark for every person who wants probation for himself or another, with allegations arising that he is not impartial or just in his treatment of defendants. If he refuses the plea of clemency, he gets rid of that one, too.

3. The school election law. Since election of the county school superintendent by a school board apparently is the only method those in power will accept, please let's make the election of board members by county-wide vote and not officer after every four years. Let's have a true election of that duration, anyhow, not endless sniping and strife.

4. The office of coroner. While that cannot be changed by mere legislative act, the legislators can work to the end that the state constitution is amended to make of the office something good for more than a laugh at the expense of the whole state. If changed to the office of medical examiner, with the qualifications of the official training in the science of criminology, this office would also fill whatever need the counties have for a detective.

Voting Registration. Co-operate without reservation in any honest attempt to enact a purgation and registration law which is workable and just. The present legislation surely was deliberatively written to prevent purgation and to encourage election thievery.

We would suggest, too, that the laws which theoretically endow the local option laws with power should be strengthened to make this a fact. As matters now stand, the law is on the side of the dry forces in the matter of elections but it fails to live up to that early promise and does not face up to the enforcement job.

Lastly, we suggest: Do a good job of it, heading off your own conscience and disregarding the importunities and threats of all special groups and selfish individuals who look no farther than their own interests. Then prepare to retire from office at the end of your term.

Jefferson county homemakers have placed orders for 850 foot-stools, for which they will make woven grass seats.

Name Miss Heinrich To Succeed Rene Frank

Franciska Heinrich, Blue Mountain, Miss., will join the Pikeville college faculty as piano instructor, and Charlotte A. Wright, Lake Bluff, Ill., will return to the college's teacher-training grade school as a critic-teacher.

Miss Heinrich, a concert pianist who has played throughout this country and in Canada and Europe, has been heard of the piano department at Blue Mountain College for a number of years. She will succeed Rene Frank, composer-pianist who has resigned to join the music department of Fort Wayne Bible College, Fort Wayne, Ind., Dr. Pace said.

Winner recently of an important musical competition, Frank has been a member of the Pikeville College music faculty since the fall of 1948. His anthem, "The Spite of Michu," won the Ernest Shook Award for anthems based on old Testament text, which was offered by the United Temple Choirs of Long Island, New York.

Among his other compositions are his Piano Sonata in G, written in 1942 in Japan when he was a refugee from Nazi persecution, and a song, "The Little Black Boy," which was published last year.

The new training-school teacher holds the B.A., B. Th., and M.A. degrees, the last from Teachers College, Columbia University. She has held positions as dean of women, academic dean and psychology instructor at Ward-Belmont College, Nashville; Virginia Intermont College, Bristol; Bethel Woman's College, Hopkinsville, Ky., and elsewhere.

ALL-DAY MEETING
An old-fashioned basket meeting, with dinner on the grounds, will be held at the Lafayette Church on the Left Fork of Bull Creek Sunday, August 19, beginning at 10 a.m., and continuing all day. Everybody welcome, regardless of denomination. 7-19-51.

NOTICE
On and after this date, I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by any person other than myself.

IT'S A GOOD WORLD
BY WILMAY
(Opinions expressed herein do not necessarily reflect those of The Times.)
When "Aunt" Mary Ellen passed away last week Floyd county lost its most colorful personality.
In his splendid Maytown address good suggestions about needed laws. Fourteen years as judge, and lack of competition for the coming term speak more than words for this man whom we are lucky to have in this capacity.
Roadside tables over the state are wonderfully convenient, but the manner in which refuse is scattered with drums available, is deplorable.
Some wonder if the situation existing in Kenton county will be corrected. Bibbery is a serious charge and unfortunately it is not confined to gambling. In various respectable professions it rears its ugly head in many forms, profiting, kick-backs, split fees, and undercover collaboration and continuing to cover up the guilty.
Basketball bribes bobbing into the print news the downward trend of America since the nation discarded its former standards of conduct. Little evils grow quickly into big ones. The conscience becomes hardened. One step at a time, many of our fine youths are being led to the brink of countless pits. Parents are urged to be vigilant.
Dr. R. B. Drukker sounded the cry for higher moral and spiritual standards when speaking to the School of Nursing graduates in Berea College recently. His challenge was seconded by President Hutchins.
Last spring, J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI said, "People spend eight times more hours at movies than at Sunday School; only one out of twelve persons in our country attend church; seven out of eight children quit church and Sunday School at attendance before they reach fifteen. Fifteen million 'ages' magazines are printed monthly and read by one-third of the American people; there are more barmaids than college girls in this country. One million American girls have venereal disease; one hundred thousand girls disappear every year into white slavery; one million illegitimate babies are born annually; there are almost a million illegal abortions performed annually; our nation harbors three times as many criminals as college students; a major crime is committed every twenty-two seconds; an aggravated assault of sex crime every hour, a murder every forty minutes; there are sixty suicides in our nation daily; three out of ten people who start out as light drinkers end up as drunkards; as a nation we spend about seven hundred and fifty dollars on pleasure, sins, cosmetics, and amusements for every one dollar we give to foreign missions."
READ, FRAY, WEEP AS YOU GO—OUR AMERICA'S DREADFUL SPIRITUAL PLIGHT."
These are not the words of a preacher. They are a warning from the man who for years has headed "our Federal Bureau of Investigation" in the capital of our nation, whose righteousness has been swept aside in a mad race for profit and pleasure.
These stunning facts exhibited by Frances Jones, of Prestonsburg, Mrs. Tom Hatcher, of Wayland, and Mrs. Allan Crisp, of Martin, make some of us wonder what is wrong with Kentucky sunshine.
Everyone is rejoicing that Judge Hill accepted the presidency of the FCASB, since few men know more about the needs and interests of our country. It is obvious that the major need is not leaders, but to have the many expert leaders available throughout the country unite and then combine efforts that advance movements which will bring dividends in return. Watch your magazines for lists, as thousands of American towns, cities and counties are launching into long-range programs for greater improvement.
BOSTON — Francis Russo of Worcester will enjoy his own sugar in the Danbury Conn. prison, where he is serving a year for moonshining. Judge Francis J. W. Ford ordered that the 5,800 pounds of sugar, seized in a raid on Russo's still, be forfeited to the state. The sugar will be sent to Danbury for use at the prison.

Good hay by chance? Yes, this doesn't happen—but it did in the case of Joe Calhoun, Jr., who operates a farm on Bull Creek.
Mr. Calhoun has a plot of sericea lespedeza of which he is very proud. The plot was seeded by young Calhoun's father about three years ago, because he was unable to buy Korean lespedeza seed at that time. The local seed dealer suggested that he try a new type of lespedeza. Young Calhoun thinks he has the kind of hay crop that is almost ideal for his farm.
Calhoun has only a small plot of sericea at present but plans to seed more in the spring. Two cuttings of hay has been harvested per year and the young farmer emphasizes the importance of cutting the hay when the plants are from 10 to 14 inches high, while it is yet young and tender.
Although sericea is rather new for Floyd county, it is widely grown in many counties in Eastern Kentucky. Lespedeza sericea is a long-lived perennial legume, with strong stems, well supplied with leaves. It is a deep rooted plant that is suited to a comparatively wide range of soils, and can be used for meadows or pasture; often times it is mowed for hay when 10 to 12 inches high and pastured the remainder of the season. If this plant is managed properly it will live for many years.
About two-thirds of the corn, acreage in Estill county will have been sprayed at least once with 2-4-D before the season is over.

Good hay by chance? Yes, this doesn't happen—but it did in the case of Joe Calhoun, Jr., who operates a farm on Bull Creek.
Mr. Calhoun has a plot of sericea lespedeza of which he is very proud. The plot was seeded by young Calhoun's father about three years ago, because he was unable to buy Korean lespedeza seed at that time. The local seed dealer suggested that he try a new type of lespedeza. Young Calhoun thinks he has the kind of hay crop that is almost ideal for his farm.
Calhoun has only a small plot of sericea at present but plans to seed more in the spring. Two cuttings of hay has been harvested per year and the young farmer emphasizes the importance of cutting the hay when the plants are from 10 to 14 inches high, while it is yet young and tender.
Although sericea is rather new for Floyd county, it is widely grown in many counties in Eastern Kentucky. Lespedeza sericea is a long-lived perennial legume, with strong stems, well supplied with leaves. It is a deep rooted plant that is suited to a comparatively wide range of soils, and can be used for meadows or pasture; often times it is mowed for hay when 10 to 12 inches high and pastured the remainder of the season. If this plant is managed properly it will live for many years.
About two-thirds of the corn, acreage in Estill county will have been sprayed at least once with 2-4-D before the season is over.

COOKED FINE DINNER; THREW IT TO DOG!
One lady used to throw her own dinner to the dog most of the time. It made her sick to look at food. She was swollen with gas, full of blood, felt worse-out.
Finally she got CERTA-VIN and says she now eats everything in sight and digests it perfectly. This is the new medicine that is helping so many stomach "victims" here in Prestonsburg. It helps you digest food faster and better. Takes gas, makes it work with your food. Gas pains go! Inches of blood vanish. Contains herbs and Vitamin "B" with iron to enrich the blood and make nerves stronger. Weak, miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering. Get CERTA-VIN—W. A. BOY'S WILL BE BOYS
KANSAS, Korea — A kid is just a kid the world over. As an Allied motor convoy left this war-torn area after the third session of cease-fire talks with Communists, its members spotted a Korean adult and six small children. Whether in fear or disdain, the adult made the six tots line up with their backs to the road so that no one would be facing the Allied trucks. But kids will be glances and grinning at members of the convoy.

Think Before You Vote--
SIX YEARS IS A LONG TIME

Burnis Martin stays in Floyd county only four years, then asks the people of this county to elect him SIX YEARS as Commonwealth's Attorney.

He would have the people believe that he began his law practice in Prestonsburg. Ask him how long he practised in Hindman.

Mr. Martin also says it's the rich against the poor. Is that American doctrine? Isn't that the very thing the American boys are fighting against in Korea? Class hatred has no part in our American way of life; and it does not rightly belong in this or any other political campaign.

Why not elect a life-long resident of Floyd county as your Commonwealth's Attorney? John Allen, who previously served the people, honestly and fearlessly, in this office deserves the support of Floyd county's people. He believes all the people stand equal before the law, and he will not be a party to pitting one class of our people against another.

John Allen knows the hardships of life. He had no Community Center to pick him up when he was a boy and educate him as Mr. Martin was. Ask the people of Right Beaver Creek how he got his education.

Yet he asks no maudlin sympathy. A lot of other deserving boys and girls came up the same way.
You will find that John Allen is suited by temperament and training to work with the people and to get the work done that is needed to be done. You will find him the same, in or out of office, in or out of an election—never too busy to advise with you, always courteous, in or out of court.

We urge all John Allen's folks and friends and all the friends of good government in Floyd county to work hard this week and to keep working until the polls close Saturday. By your help he will win.

SIX YEARS IS A LONG TIME — DON'T MAKE A MISTAKE. VOTE FOR JOHN ALLEN for Commonwealth's Attorney

Air Science Dept.
Established At UK

A separate Department of Air Science and Tactics for training University of Kentucky Air Force ROTC students was established last week by the U.K. board of trustees. Operated previously as a part of the school's Department of Military Science and Tactics, the Air Force unit now will have full departmental status within the College of Arts and Sciences. The change was made in recognition of the fact that the army and Air Force now are distinctly separate branches of service. Lt. Col. Edward G. Davis was appointed head of the newly established department.

To the Citizens of Floyd County,
Magisterial Districts 1 and 2:

On Saturday, August 4, 1951, the good Democratic citizens in Floyd County Magisterial Districts Numbers 1 and 2 are going to the polls to nominate one of five candidates for State Representative 96th Legislative District.

As your present Representative, I wish to take this final opportunity to urge you all to vote for me for re-election to this office.

I am widely related in Floyd county and can name among the many prominent families with whom I have blood ties: Stephens, Flanerys, Mays, Osbornes, Martins, Allens, Bradleys, Crisps, Shepherds. I hope that it is not necessary to appeal to these good people to vote for me only because I am related to them, because my record as State Representative in the 1948 and 1950 sessions of the General Assembly is such that a vote for me can be based solely on meritorious service to the people of this community.

In earlier issues of this paper, I have gone to some length to set out the stands I have made and the legislation I have sponsored and supported in the fields of labor, education, health and welfare for dependent children and old aged, and Veterans benefits. While my opponents have circulated many malicious untrue rumors about me, of all kinds and nature, NOT ONE OF MY OPPONENTS HAS HAD THE COURAGE OR AUDACITY TO DENY IN PRINT A SINGLE POINT IN THE PROGRESSIVE RECORD I HAVE SPONSORED AND WHICH I INTEND TO GO FORWARD WITH IN 1952.

During the campaign, I have tried to see as many of the voters as possible, but because of limited time I may not be able to see and talk with each and everyone of you as I would like to do. To those of you who do not know me personally, I should like to mention that I am the son of the late James Hale and Susie Stephens Hale, and I married Winifred Osborne. I live at Blue River, Middle Creek, Kentucky. I am a high school graduate and a Veteran of Foreign Wars.

My past activities and life have caused me to be well-acquainted with the problems of Floyd county and its people.

I urge your support in my campaign for re-election to the office of State Representative at this August 4th Democratic Primary.

Vote for me now, and I will vote for you in the 1952 General Assembly.

Your friend and Representative,
HENRY C. HALE

"It is a well-known fact that railroad rates on coal have increased repeatedly and substantially in recent years. In fact, a petition by the railroads for an additional increase of 15% in the general rate of their freight rates is now pending before the Interstate Commerce Commission. It is noteworthy that even with the increased rate had the estimated amount of coal to be moved remained the same in the second study as in the first—that is, $30,000 tons—the annual benefits thus estimated would have exceeded the latest estimated annual cost. It would appear that the valuation of the project was determined entirely upon an estimate of the volume of coal expected to move.

"The adverse review study made by the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors was dated March 15, 1950. Since that date there have been great changes in the economy and production outlook of the country. The available steel capacity on January 1, 1950 was 28,000,000 short tons. It was then estimated that after 1954 it was now sources of one and one-half times the capacity would reach 110,000,000 tons by 1960. That was the outlook generally at the time the review study was released. In February, 1951 the Secretary of the Interior testified, that the steel-making capacity of the United States was then 104,000,000 tons, and instead of looking forward to a steel capacity of 110,000,000 tons by 1960, we look forward to a capacity of 117,500,000 tons by the end of 1952 and 130,000,000 tons by 1960, or much in excess of that figure in the event we get into an all-out war. It is common knowledge that to produce steel it is necessary to produce pig iron, and to produce both pig iron and steel it is necessary to use metallurgical coke coal as one of the ingredients of manufacture.

"Notwithstanding this need for increased production of coal of the very type that is so plentiful in the Big Sandy Valley, I find that in that area mines are working only half time. This means the workers are engaged only half time. They are producing only half their capacity and of course are suffering with proportionately low incomes. While this condition is going on in East Kentucky, it is to be noted that between April, 1950, just after the time the review report was completed, and April 1951, the available civilian labor force dropped from $2,323,000 to $1,780,000 and at the same time employment rose from $8,668,000 to $6,044,000.

"In the period since the review of the Big Sandy project has been made, our production situation has changed so that we recognize that probably our most critical shortage is manpower. Now then, it seems to me that the Big Sandy Valley, with a resource in its mines that is increased demand, can make a greater contribution to our preparedness program than merely operating the mines half time. However, unless the transportation system is improved, increased development from these mines does not seem likely. The construction of the Big Sandy navigation project would provide a major portion of the necessary improved transportation network.

"The 1950 report, pointing to economic factors affecting the benefit cost relationship, cited the expansion of use of natural gas and fuel oil as a reason for the increase in demand for the Big Sandy Valley coal. To indicate the change in this trend, I need only call to your attention the recession concern here in Washington, particularly in the Department of the Interior, with the need to curtail expansion of use of natural gas.

"It seems to me that very significant changes in the economic and production outlook of the country came right on the heels of the review made by the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors. Conditions today are not those that existed in 1940 when the report in House Document 284 was made, nor are the conditions the same as in 1946 and 1949 when the project was considered by the Committees of Congress. The conditions actually are greatly changed since the last study of the project was completed. I believe that the changes have been sufficient to present a different answer than that obtained in March, 1950, as an objective study of the economics, if the Big Sandy project were made at this time."

An increase of eight to 10 bushels of small grain an acre resulted in Hickman county for every 100-pound application of nitrogen.

Geographer Named
Registrar At UK

The University of Kentucky board of trustees last week named Dr. Richard L. Tullih, professor of geography, to take over the duties of University Registrar September 1. He will succeed Dr. Lee Spriggins, who resigned the post he has held for two years in order to accept a position as professor of education at the University of Georgia. A native of New York and graduate of Columbia University, Dr. Tullih has been a member of the U.K. geography faculty since 1946. He was employed by the War Department from 1941-44, and 1944-46 as assistant director of research for Pan American World Airways.

SINGING SCHOOL
The old-time Singing School, conducted by Robert L. Vest, 6th Mare Creek for the last three weeks closed Sunday with a trip of the choir and singing master to the annual open air church services on the Blackenship cemetery on Johns Creek at McConits, Pike county. A new session of three weeks will begin Sept. 1, when it is planned to have visiting choirs from other rural communities to participate. The Singing School is part of a long-range project sponsored by the community for civic and social betterment. The work has been financed by local contributions, a picnic social held July 14, and by contributions from others outside the community.

In regular attendance from Pikeville were the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Vanover. These girls have been a regular feature on WLST of Pikeville for awhile, assisting mainly in the religious programs. In addition they sing old ballads and some new, too. For their father, a Pikeville attorney, has composed a song on "The Murdri Baldridge tragedy". The song was sung by the sisters in response to a request from the Baldridge parents last July and Mr. Baldridge gave written permission for them to use it.

SEATTLE—The body of a 33-year-old woman, clad in a disarranged nightgown, was found on a bed in her apartment. She was Kathryn Gonsoulin, listed on her voters registration as a scenographer. The body here numerous bruises, some of them on her neck. "We are going on the assumption it was a murder," said Detective Sgt. I. A. O'Mera.
