NOTICE—PLEASE READ

This November is just an election, but we should wake up and try to get into office who will stand for things to be done and make Kentucky a better place to live in. The ones who are in charge during these years will soon be numbered with the dead. Their race will soon be run. The things that they are doing may live on and on. It is up to us to leave a few things for the rising generation. Our children and grandchildren will have just what you and I have for them. That is why I am running for Representative of this district. If we have good schools, churches, roads, recreation parks and good laws to make Kentucky a more desirable place to live in, that will be just what the rising generation will have. On the other hand, if we have none of these things and no business for them to have employment in our state, they will have to do as many Kentuckians are now doing—going to other states to make their living. I am for the proposed legislation which is being sponsored by the American Legion of Kentucky. Following is part of what they wish to be passed:

Heavy penalty for drug peddlers and for sex assaults, especially on one under the age of 21.

Separation of juveniles from older and hardened criminals in all jails and prisons.

Extend the public school system to include the 13th and 14th grades, which is now known as junior college.

To eliminate, by Constitutional revision, the office of constable and assign their duties to the sheriff, his deputies and the State Police.

I know that the office will not pay much, but if I can get only part of the above I will be well paid and you will be benefited by my doing so.

I am a World War II veteran, a member of Elk Horn Post No. 106, and of Westland Lions Club. Investigate, study what is best for your Kentucky and mine. All I can say is that I will try my utmost to do what I can for you, that we may leave a better place for our children than you and I have had in which to live.

DEADLY ATOMIC WEAPON TO COST ONLY $20-$30

Washington, Sept. 18—Senator McMahon (D-Conn.) today urged a vast speed-up in the production of U.S. atomic weapons—ranging from A-bombs to "uranium bullets"—to strengthen America's defenses at a saving of billions.

In a dramatic Senate speech, McMahon spoke of cheap new atomic weapons which he said can produce "at a cost of $20 or $30" the same explosive force delivered by conventional weapons costing thousands of dollars.

The chairman of the Senate House Atomic Energy Committee also mentioned—though he did not say they exist now—such lethal innovations as ship-based atomic artillery, atomic guided missiles, atomic mines, and torpedoes used in atomic war heads.

Calling for a revolutionary shift in the arms program, McMahon said that with atomic weapons as the backbone of U.S. armament, the savings to American taxpayers would be $30,000,000,000 to $40,000,000,000 a year.

The Connecticut Senator proposed that the nation spend $2,000,000,000 a year for all-out mass production to equip a fully atomic army, navy, and air force, and he told the Senate:

"For every dollar spent on atomic defense, we can save five dollars on conventional defense."

"There are those who warn against viewing the atom as a magic weapon," he continued. "I agree. This is not a silver bullet which can deliver itself or otherwise work military miracles."

"But by cutting back upon the costly weapons of yesterday and forging ahead with the far cheaper atomic weapons of today and tomorrow, I believe we can fabricate very real and very practical uranium bullets that will make our country invincible in full-scale war and exempt from the cold war threat of bankruptcy."

Charlesston—Governor Patterson proclaimed September 30-October 7 as Christian Education Week.

So, if your heart is set on sitting at the wheel of this great and distinguished motor car—let us talk with you frankly about the matter.

First of all, you should come in and place your order—just as soon as circumstances will permit.

And once your signature is on an order blank—hold firm to your purpose.

This may not be easy—for temptation is almost certain to assail you!

Cars without number may be had today—almost as soon as you agree to accept them. And, quite naturally, people who sell these available cars may ask you to shift your preference from Cadillac.

But, again, we urge you to hold firm—for the sake of your own welfare and your own satisfaction.

Remember—it's Cadillac you want.

Cadillac—with its universal and pride-inspiring recognition as the Standard of the World!

Cadillac—with such performance that owners actually think up excuses for talking to the highway!

Cadillac—with such amazing endurance that its full life-span has never yet been measured!

Cadillac—with economy so extraordinary that few cars, at any price, will run farther on a gallon of gasoline!

Yes—if you want a Cadillac, come in and order it. And then stand firm until you get it.

It's far, far better to wait—than be sorry. For, remember, there is nothing that can take its place.

Moore, Others Named
By Young Democrats
To St. Louis Meet

Twenty-two Kentucky delegates and 20 alternates were named recently to the national convention of the Young Democratic Clubs of America, October 4 through 6 at St. Louis.

The appointments were made by J. D. Backman, Jr., Shepherdsville, president of the Y.D.C. of Kentucky. Backman will attend the national convention because of his campaign as Democratic candidate for Kentucky Attorney General.

The Kentucky contingent will be headed by Paul Combs, Harvard, Y. D.C. first vice-president. He said it will seek to place a Kentuckian in a national post before that of president.

Delegates from this section: Paul Combs; Fred Vesco, Harvard; Darin Moore, Princeton; Jack Linsley, Harlan; Harry K. Loman, Ashland; Redwood Taylor, Ashland; John Greene, Sandy Hook.

Alternate delegates from Eastern Kentucky: Ray Lovett, Middleboro; Joe P. Melton, Ashland; Jesse H. Shultz, Middlesboro; Stanley Tarrol, Corbin; William B. Wells, Louisa.

LOUISVILLE — While a small mongrel dog, was a favorite of the neighborhood kids, but he liked to bark at strangers. What's more, he was bludgeoned to death by a man who said the dog growled at him. Ten-year-old Morris Phelps looked on, screaming in terror as the man beat her pup to a pulp. Thomas C. James, 26, was arrested and charged with cruelty to animals.

29 ACCUSED OF CHEATING

Mail Order Houses;
Inspector Sues All
From Magoffin-Co.

Twenty-nine Magoffin companies have been accused of mail fraud. Postal Inspector W. D. Brewer, Ashland, reported the filing of charges against the 29, all but one of whom reside in Magoffin county.

Brewer said the men and women were charged with using the mails to defraud mail-order merchandise houses, principally in Chicago and New York.

The inspector said his final investigation had extended over the past several months, although he had been checking the cases off and on for about a year.

Brewer indicated that merchandise involved included aluminumware valued at $5,000 or more and watches valued at $1,000 or more.

The inspector said the accused were charged with ordering merchandise through the mails with fictitious addresses and account numbers.

United States Commissioner C. Guthrie Yager, Ashland, tentatively set Tuesday of this week as the time for preliminary hearings in the case. He planned to conduct the hearings in Magoffin county courthouse in Salversville.

The commissioner's office said warrants for the 29 persons would be mailed to the U.S. marshal's office at Lexington to be served on the men and women.

Brewer said the men and women, except one man who moved to Maysville, reside in the Cow Creek section of Magoffin county, about 10 miles southeast of Salversville.

Brewer listed the 29 as: Kash Alsept, 45, and wife, Alice, 44; Katherine Stephens, 20; Rowie Stephens, Mary Belle Roark, 19; Jesse Roark, 26; Ed Roark, 50; Lloyd Risner, 43; Edna Alsept, 22; Wilgus Alsept, 25, all of Ova.

Arnie Roark, 38; Jim Patrick, 25; Ora Patrick, 45; Lee Alsept, 37; Johnnie Alsept, 45; Daleh Roark, 28; Wardie Roark, 32; Haden Roark, 19; Deloris Roark, 21; and Elijah Roark, 60, all of Ova.

Bernie Patrick, 56, and Meta Risner, both of Ova; Thomas Alsept, 20; Gullett; Martha Risner, 54; Iness Risner, 19; John Risner, 22; Fritz; Gaines Arnett, 43; Hendricks; Taylor Alsept, 32; Maysville, formerly of Gullett, and Charles Alsept, 44, Gullett.

Inspector Brewer said Kash Alsept and his wife were accused of receiving 11 shipments of aluminumware, each valued at $240, from Guild Ware, New York City, and three shipments of watches, valued at $75.80 each, from Martin Jewelers, Chicago.

Brewer explained that merchandise was ordered on open accounts after clipping of coupons from magazine advertisements for the aluminumware and watches, and receipt of order blanks.

The inspector said that in one instance, a small down payment was made, with the remainder to be paid in monthly installments.

Brewer said fictitious names and information concerning employment and land ownership were given. Sometimes, he said, one person would make several orders, using names of his children or varying his own name.

In one case, Brewer reported, Gaines Arnett was accused of sending three checks for merchandise, valued over to the Department of Revenue, Commonwealth of Kentucky, between November 1 and November 15, 1951.

Film, Humorous Skit Demonstration Features

Old-fashioned "Grandma" is introduced to the convenience and comfort of a modern, electrically-equipped kitchen and gets the shocking surprise of her lifetime in a delightfully different sound movie called, "Grandma Goes to Town," which sets the pace for an unusual comedy demonstration scheduled for presentation at the Martin high school auditorium Saturday afternoon, Oct. 6, at 1:30 o'clock.

Kentucky & West Virginia Power Company home economists are to prepare a complete meal from salad to dessert, during the course of the afternoon's program.

In addition to the movie, a humorous skit is also to be interwoven into the program in which a pert and zany "Grandma" comes right out into the audience and gets "wined" on what goes on in a modern kitchen making household chores easy for even the newest bride.

Kentucky & West Virginia Power Company home economists, Mrs. Sally Hatcher and Miss Mary Lou Stapleton, will conduct the cooking demonstration.

At the conclusion of the show, a number of worthwhile prizes will be given away.

The demonstration will be sponsored by Margaret Hardware, Lingerie, Home Appliance Company, Martin; Utilities Elkhorn Coal Company, Martin; Sandy Valley Hardware Company, Alton; Osborne Brothers, Martin; and Kentucky & West Virginia Power Company, Pikeville, Ky.

SCIENCE CAN MAKE AGED
ACT JUST LIKE JITTERBUGS

Researcher Says Mixture Called Niacinamide Restores Mobility in Joints of Older Persons

(Reprinted from The Courier-Journal)
St. Louis, Sept. 20—Science has found a way to make people over 70 move around like jitterbugs, Dr. William Kaufman, Pittsburgh, Conn., said today.

Dr. Kaufman is president of the Geriatrics Society, which studies the secret of keeping mobility in older persons' joints by a mixture called niacinamide, or nicotinamide.

He said he saw three dozen 70- to 75-year-old women for 15 months. By that time she was wearing 90-year shoes and as flexible as those of the average 15-year-old child.

And she looks like she was under 60. Dr. Kaufman said a happy, vigorous woman who once was stiff, tired, and aching wanted to die as a release from old age.

Dr. Kaufman had delivered to the second International Geriatrics Congress. He had studied the effects of niacinamide on the joints with a joint and it developed, measuring mobility with specially designed instruments.

"I have found that certain accumulation of the so-called normal aging changes not only are reversible, but that they need no surgery or in any of us."

The principal ingredient in CRELL

the essential new dietary supplement is NIACINAMIDE and contains other valuable vitamins necessary to health.

Club Meeting Topic Is 'Community Health'

Wayland, Ky., Oct. 1 (Sp.)—The Lackey-Garrett Woman's Club met in the home of Mrs. R. H. Messer, Wednesday evening, September 26, with Mrs. E. P. Vinson, co-hostess and Mrs. J. C. Wells, leader of the program on "Community Health."

Don Hutchinson, Huntington, W. Va., representing the Caravan Company, was introduced and gave numerous facts concerning the film, "That Babies May Live," which he later presented. This film is actually the story of the progress made in the last century in making milk a safe food for infant feeding. Methods of purification in 1850 were compared with those of today—including pasteurization and evaporation. In conclusion, Mr. Hutchinson remarked "You may say also that this film depicts infant mortality reduction in the past one hundred years."

Dr. Martha Loving, of the Stumbo Memorial hospital, addressed the group on "Improving Community Health." She stressed local needs of improving sanitation and water purification. She also proclaimed the vast need for more medical technicians and suggested that the Woman's Club offer such a scholarship.

Mrs. A. H. Mandt, Recruitment chairman of the Red Cross mobile blood unit, reminded the group that the unit will be at Wayland, October 4. She expressed the great need for more blood donors and urged everyone to cooperate. Committees are being formed to promote this worthy project.

During the business session, Mrs. W. Hall of the Allen-Martin Woman's Club, displayed numerous wares and suggested ways that the club may make money by selling such items. Mrs. Edwin Mullins, of the Ways and Means committee, will have charge of this undertaking.

The club president urged everyone to attend the district convention at David, October 6.

A dessert course was served to 17 members and five guests. Dr. Adair, the Loving Mrs. J. W. Hall, Mrs. A. H. Mandt, Mrs. Estill Hughes and Mrs. D. C. Baldwin.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. George Evans with Mrs. Bert Stapleton, co-hostess, the latter part of October. Mrs. N. D. Howard will have charge of the program, "Building Freedom with Youth."

How does it feel to drive a Buick?

If you think perhaps we're hinting that it would be a good idea for you to try out a Buick—mister, you've never been so right.

It does a lot of things for you and to that that will be something new in your driving experience.

Take the way it feels beneath your hands on the wheel—eager and willing and anxious to please.

It spurts when you want to spurt—rolls with effortless momentum when you want to cruise.

When you take a curve, it snugs down to the road with sure-footed confidence.

After you make a turn, the front wheels instinctively seek a straight course. This car seems to guide itself.

When you come to a bumpy stretch, each separate wheel on its own coil spring steps you smoothly along on a level keel.

Then there's power that surges into action at a nudge of your toe—sends your speedometer needle soaring up to any speed the law allows, in a matter of seconds.

And there is also thrift—the gas-saving thrift that comes from a high-compression valve-in-head Fireball Engine found in no other car.

To top all this, there is Dynaflo Drive—that feeds power in a steady, falterless flow—lets you ride relaxed in busy traffic or on a day-long cross-country drive.

We're willing to stand on the statement that no other car rides, performs or drives like a Buick.

But why take our word for it? Come in—take over one of these lively lovelies—and see for yourself.

NO OTHER CAR PROVIDES ALL THIS:

- DYNAFLO DRIVE* • FIREBALL ENGINE
- 4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING • DUAL VENTILATION
- PUSH-BAR FRONTEND • TORQUE TUBE DRIVE
- WHITE-GLOW INSTRUMENTS • DREAMLINE STYLING
- BODY BY FISHER

Sister of Bradley Named Chief Nurse For Army in Korea

(Time-Record, Spencer, W. Va.) Mrs. Ruby G. Bradley, of Spencer, W. Va., and a sister of Smith Bradley, of Prestonsburg, has been appointed as chief nurse of the Eleventh Army in Korea.

Ms. Bradley first went to Korea last September and replaces Lt. Col. Madeline Desmond, Ayer, Mass., who will return to the U.S. for reassignment.

She entered the army nurse corps in the early 1930's and was first assigned to Walter Reed hospital. From there she went to the Philippines in 1939.

She was captured by the Japanese on December 28, 1941 at Baguio, P.I., being imprisoned about 37 months before being liberated on Feb. 4, 1943, at Santo Tomas, in Manila.

Following her liberation she returned home and spent about three months in Spencer.

She was then assigned to the McGuire General Hospital at Richmond, Va., and has been at several installations since that time. She was at Okma, Florida, when ordered to Korea.

Ms. Bradley is a graduate of Spencer high school, California University, Berkeley, Calif., and Olivet College.

IT'S A GOOD WORLD

BY WILMAX

(Opinions expressed herein do not necessarily reflect those of The Times.)

A Sunday School teacher stated recently that some national educators have just reversed their stand on discipline in the school. After having advocated no corporal punishment—any little of any other kind—for a decade, they now admit a change of policy is necessary.

Most teachers welcome a return to former standards. Numbers have been striving for it for several years, after seeing the results of "freedom," which invariably lowers the quality of work done.

Fortunately, many good school leaders kept their pendulum in the center. They believe in love, encouragement and understanding for every child. They approve of motivation, hardcraft, extra-curricular activities, even self expression, within reason. They realize criticism, strictures, while praise encourages and inspires. But they know life has certain bumps for which every child must be prepared. If he is spared everything unpleasant and difficult in childhood, and is never reproved, except in psychological factoring (with the correction sandwiched between two compliments lest the little fellow be offended and develop a complex—how can he meet realities in later years?)

One educator said when a boy whistles and craves a drink, the teacher should try to understand WHY he did it instead of reprimanding him for it. A little of both seems wiser, she counted fulltime workers will be required to do little but compile case histories. Those of us with experience in social work know what type homes produce children with no respect for property, ample correction and training of the right sort, in most instances prevent scared desks, so apparent everywhere.

For years America has been threatened by a dangerous theory in regard to child-training at home and in the school. It boiled down to all fun and play, with no scolding or hard, forced work, lest the child become unhappy and turn into a misfit from being frustrated or misunderstood. Such a viewpoint helps account for the increase in criminals and mental cases among our youth today, countless experts maintain.

The following story, taken from a magazine some months ago, illustrates what to expect under such conditions:

Three-year-old Judy refused to eat breakfast. Her mother believed in the newest ideas, so she begged to know what her little darling would like. Judy declined every food named but finally said she would like a big, fat worm, fried nice and brown.

Hubby frowned, looked at wifey dear, and went to the yard for an earthworm. He gave it to Cook, who dipped it in hot batter, fried it and brought it to Mother's little Precious. Judy burst into tears. "What's the matter now?" pleaded Daddy, who looked to the old school.

"I want you to eat half of it," she explained, smugly.

Daddy looked sidewise at Mother; then decided cooking was preferable to a sermon on her theories, so he gulped and dived half of it, whereupon Judy howled louder than ever. "Now, what?" the poor parent beseethed.

"You ate the piece I wanted! This was your piece!" Judy kindly handed him the remainder.

In The Courier-Journal last week Miss Elze Schade, of Holland, who is attending school in Pikeville this year, stated that the pupils seem rather impolite to their teachers. It is a part of the modern trend, one phase of so-called "freedom." Parents and teachers are expected to like it, though youngsters from better homes still have lovely manners.

After being absent from the classroom 15 years I note the differences in educational philosophies expressed in magazines today and then. A friend who was out only three years was shocked at the changes, she says. Good teachers realize the detention hall should be avoided when possible, and that corporal punishment is a last resort; but they know some form of discipline is essential, since human nature remains the same. The one standard for child-rearing, at home and in school, is the Bible. The ancient adage, "Spare the rod and spoil the child," is still applicable in this century.

have to do as many Kentuckians are now doing—going to other states to make their living.

I am for the proposed legislation which is being sponsored by the American Legion of Kentucky. Following is part of what they wish to be passed:

Heavy penalty for those peddlers and for sex assaults, especially on one under the age of 21.

Separation of juveniles from older and hardened criminals in all jails and prisons.

Extend the public school system to include the 12th and 14th grades, which is now known as junior college.

To eliminate, by Constitutional revision, the office of constable and his deputies and the State Police.

I know that the office will not pay much, but if I can get only part of the above I will be well-paid and you will be benefited by supporting me.

I am a World War II veteran, a member of Elk Horn Post No. 196, and of Western Lewis Club. I have good schools, churches, reading, receptive people and good food to make Kentucky a more desirable place to live in, that will be just what the rising generation will have. DEADLY ATOMIC WEAPON TO COST ONLY $20-$30

Washington, Sept. 18—Senator McMahon (D-Conn.) today urged a vast speed-up in the production of U.S. atomic weapons—ranging from A-bombs to "uranium bullets"—to strengthen America's defenses at a saving of millions.

In a dramatic Senate speech, McMahon spoke of cheap new atomic weapons which he said can produce as a cost-up $20 or $30 "the same explosive force delivered by conventional weapons costing thousands of dollars."

The chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee also mentioned—though he did not say they exist now—such lethal innovations as ship-based atomic artillery, atomic guided missiles, atomic mines, and torpedoes with atomic war heads.

Calling for a revolutionary shift in the arms program, McMahon said that with atomic weapons as the backbone of U.S. armament, innovations as ship-based atomic artillery, atomic guided missiles, atomic mines, and torpedoes with atomic war heads.

The Connecticut Senator proposed that the nation spend $6,000,000,000 a year for all-out mass production to equip a fully atomic army, navy and air force, and he told the Senate.

"For every dollar spent on atomic defense, we can save five dollars on conventional defense."

"There are those who warn against viewing the atom as a magic weapon," he continued, "I agree. This is not a silver bullet which can deliver itself or otherwise work military miracles."

"But by cutting back upon the costly weapons of yesterday and forging ahead with the far cheaper atomic weapons of today and tomorrow, I believe we can fabricate very real and very practical uranium bullets that will make our country invulnerable in full-scale war and exempt from the cold war threat of bankruptcy."

Electric Cooking is distinctly tops!

In 60 Years I've tried them all ... electricity is best

I have been keeping house for 60 years and have used almost every method of cooking. I'm satisfied electric cooking is best.

We do not believe that we could use any other type of utility that would be as economical or give us more for our dollar.

Mrs. G. Linkous

Thousands of women are switching to electric cooking—yet you rarely hear of anyone switching back! Electric cooking is just plain better.

Yes—electric cooking is so clean, so safe, so cool, so fully automatic. But the biggest thrills of all are electric cooking's speed and thrift.

Better Wait—Than Be Sorry!

For the man or woman who wants a Cadillac, there is no satisfactory substitute in the whole wide world!

So, if your heart is set on sitting at the wheel of this great and distinguished motor car—let us talk with you frankly about the matter.

First of all, you should come in and place your order—just as soon as circumstances will permit.

There is now—as there has been for many years—a waiting list of wonderful people who wish to own this wonderful car. And the sooner your name joins this distinguished list—the sooner your hope will be realized.

And once your signature is on an order blank—hold firm to your purpose.

This may not be easy—for temptation is almost certain to assail you.

Cars without number may be had today—almost as soon as you agree to accept them. And, quite naturally, people who sell these available cars may ask you to shift your preference from Cadillac.

But, again, we urge you to hold firm—for the sake of your own welfare and your own satisfaction.

Remember—it's Cadillac you want.

Cadillac—with its universal and pride-inspiring recognition as the Standard of the World!

Cadillac—with such performance that owners actually think up excuses for taking to the highway!

Cadillac—with such amazing endurance that its full life-span has never yet been measured!

Cadillac—with economy so extraordinary that few cars, at any price, will run farther on a gallon of gasoline!

Yes—if you want a Cadillac, come in and order it. And then stand firm until you get it.

It's far, far better to wait—than be sorry. For, remember, there is nothing that can take its place.

Club To Send Delegate To National Convention

Wheelwright, Ky., Sept. 22 (Sp.)—The Wheelwright Woman's Club met in the club rooms for its September meeting, with Mrs. E. R. Conroy, the new president, presiding.

The club voted to send a delegate to the national convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs to be held in Minneapolis, Minnesota, next May, and Mrs. Cora S. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Henry Fuhs, Oct. 5.

A plea was made to the club members by Mrs. J. T. Parker, workers and donors when the Red Cross bloodmobile unit makes its second trip to Wheelwright, Sept. 23. Mrs. Parker reported that the nominating committee had named Mrs. Stephen W. Clark recording secretary of the club and Miss June Staker who is leaving town and must resign her office, and Mrs. Joe Puntin for the office of treasurer, replacing Miss Betty Ann Zimmerman who is leaving for California. The club regrets to lose these club members and wishes them success in their new venture. The club accepted these nominations, and they were elected unanimously.

Mesdames John W. Rupe and Waldo B. Cummings were named delegates to the convention of the Seventh district to be held at David, October 6. Mesdames E. R. Price and Arthur Braubury were named alternate leaders of Girl Scout troops in town and to pay a bill of $6.08 for books already purchased. BOY TELLS OF BEING HELD CAPTIVE DURING GUNFIGHT

Marion, Ky., Sept. 14—A newspaper carrier boy had nightmares last night after being held captive during a barricaded storekeeper's fatal gun battle with state police at near-by Young Williams, a carrier salesman for the Harlan Enterprise and the Knoxville News-Sentinel, said he was delivering papers when an armed man reached out and pulled him into the store.

"A man said, 'I'm not crazy, but they think I am.' The man pulled me behind a counter and kept mumbering.

"He fired a shot and I was real scared. I cried some. He fired another shot and something grazed my cheek. The man yelled for me to keep down. I almost got away from him once, but he grabbed my foot and pulled me back.

"He kept telling me to look for something. I don't know what it was he wanted me to look for.

"He sang 'Gloria Hallelujah.' "I got over to a window once and a big man outside broke the screen and pulled me out."

Lonzo's mother reported today that he tossed and whimpered in his sleep last night as he dreamed of being chased by a man with a gun.

OPF also announced that dealers and companies may file higher price lists for extra equipment—such as heaters, radios, mirrors, sun visors, etc.—sold with new cars.

General Motors, the giant of the industry, filed its request for higher new car prices shortly before OPF issued the order today.

If OPF approves—and officials indicated there was little chance of rejection—the new prices may become effective after five days. Meanwhile, OPF gave Ford and Chrysler the go ahead signal on their earlier request to raise retail prices. The Ford increases range from $55 to $55 and Chrysler from $80 to $400.

IT CAN'T HAPPEN HERE—

It Already HAS!!

A great man once said, "It can't happen here in this great prosperous country of ours where all people are free and appreciate it." I say it has already happened and is now only being prosecuted along the desired lines of a few power-hungry politicians and lesser fry who are always yes-men at every election and yet expect some political plums to fall their way.

The "court house gang" that has always in the past been together on all things including the men to be elected to each office the next term, and, by the way, excluding your son or daughter—not on qualifications—but by political power. That same old bunch that has always come up each election with that famous slogan "VOTE IT STRAIGHT!" The old gang is being dismantled now by your illustrious sheriff, Banner Meade.

In the case of selecting a campaign chairman for the candidates who would be opposed November 6th, a meeting was held in Prestonsburg and only four were present as should be—Burnis Martin, Comm. Attorney; Bill Cooley, Circuit Clerk; Henry Hale, Representative and Bert Combs, Judge Court of Appeals. The decision made at this meeting was unanimous. They agreed to take anyone but Banner Meade.

Then the big meeting was held to elect a Campaign Chairman for the Democrat ticket for Floyd county, was presided over by Doug Hays. It was all out and dried as usual. One of Meade's stooges nominated Banner, Jonathan Fitzpatrick, the Highway Foreman, nodded his head and the other stooge jumped up and seconded the motion. Burnis Martin, our present Prosecuting Attorney, a young man who won his election over this same "Court House Gang" by a large majority, took the floor. Mr. Martin is to be admired as he has a head of his own and is not to be dominated by their same crowd. He said, and I quote, "Gentlemen, this is not a Democrat meeting as you can plainly see, here are four or five deputy sheriffs, two or three highway employees and about all the rest are Banner Meade men. Gentlemen, this is a Banner Meade meeting. You people are not electing a campaign chairman, you are electing the most unpopular Democrat in the county. This is exactly what the anti-administration Democrats want."

The meeting was interrupted by Henry Hale, our representative, who has not as of today took the stand in Frankfort to make a speech in behalf of his district or to introduce a bill, to my knowing. He told Burnis Martin, "Let's cut out this kind of stuff" and tried to force Burnis to leave the meeting. The Judas hour was at hand. Burnis was doubtfaced after all had agreed not to support Banner for Chairman. Not only do we have for representative today a man not capable of making a speech but also incapable of writing his articles for the papers. A yes man to the nth degree and if he's a yes man to these punkin town politicians what does he say to the big time boys in Frankfort? He is a lost ball in the tall weeds in the Legislature. He can always stand on his record—he has none, and while on the subject, Henry, did the Whisky Lobby in Frankfort send $200.00 to you, to Paul Hays or to Banner Meade as a contribution to your campaign in the Primary?

We don't want to forget our friend Paul Hays, Representative from the 97th District. Henry isn't it true that Paul Hays wrote your newspaper articles during the Primary? Isn't it also true that our representation may have worked the same way? Isn't it also common knowledge that Paul Hays expects to use these same articles for his future campaign using the same fictitious bills you were supposed to have introduced? (Still a fair brand of our "Court House Politics").

Mr. Hale, isn't it also true that you went along with the "boys" to make the town of Martin a fourth class city? This in order to force the people of Floyd county to accept whisky whether or not they wanted it. Isn't it true that if this rotten scheme had worked that your political future would have been insured by the "Court House Gang"?

I am sincerely and honestly asking the people of Floyd county to wake up and see the sordidness in our political set up in this county. I want you to see why your sons and your daughters, regardless of qualifications, do not have any part allotted to them for the future of our county, state or national government as for our rotten politics and politicians are concerned today. You have jumped the ropes and elected one fearless opponent of this rottenness and one who feels for the common man, Burnis Martin. Why not deviate from this path of the "Court House Gang" and vote for the man, the future, your children. Start now to liquidate this "Court House Gang" and what they stand for!

In casting your vote for me you will be voting for a man who will represent all the people to the best of his ability on a fair and honest basis. I will not be ruled by any political group. I will make my own speeches, introduce your bills. I will not fail my trust.

Club Meeting Topic Is 'Community Health'

Wayland, Ky., Oct. 1 (Sp.)—The Lackey-Garrett Woman's Club met in the home of Mrs. R. H. Messer, Wednesday evening, September 26, with Mrs. R. F. Vinson, co-hostess and Mrs. J. C. Wells, leader of the program on "Community Health."

Don Hutchinson, Huntington, W. Va., representing the Carrington Company, was introduced and gave numerous facts concerning the "What Babies May Live" which he later presented. This film is actually the story of the progress made in a safe food for infant feeding. Methods of purification in 1850 were compared with those of today—including pasteurization and evaporation. In conclusion, Mr. Hutchinson remarked "You may say" also that this film depicts infant mortality reduction in the past one hundred years."

Dr. Martha Loving, of the Stumbo Memorial hospital, addressed the group on "Improving Community Health." She stressed local needs of improving sanitation and water purification. She also proclaimed the vast need for more medical technicians and suggested that the Woman's Club offer such a scholarship.

Mrs. A. H. Mandt, Recruitment chairman of the Red Cross mobile blood unit, reminded the group that the unit will be at Wayland, October 4. She expressed the great need for more blood donors and urged everyone to cooperate. Committees are being formed to promote this worthy project.

During the business session, Mrs. J. W. Hall, of the Allen-Martin Woman's Club, displayed numerous wares and suggested ways that the club may make money by selling such items. Mrs. Erwin Mullins, of the Ways and Means committee, will have charge of this undertaking. The club president urged everyone to attend the district convention at David, October 6.

How does it feel to drive a Buick?

If you think perhaps we're hinting that it would be a good idea for you to try out a Buick—mister, you've never been so right.

It does a lot of things for you and to that that will be something new in your driving experience.

Take the way it feels beneath your hands on the wheel—eager and willing and anxious to please.

It spurts when you want to spurt—rolls with effortless momentum when you want to cruise.

When you take a curve, it snugs down to the road with sure-footed confidence.

After you make a turn, the front wheels instinctively seek a straight course. This car seems to guide itself.

When you come to a bumpy stretch, each separate wheel on its own coil spring steps you smoothly along on a level keel.

Then there's power that surges into action at a nudge of your toe—sends your speedometer needle soaring up to any speed the law allows, in a matter of seconds.

And there is also thrift—the gas-saving thrift that comes from a high-compression valve-in-head Fireball Engine found in no other car.

To top all this, there is Dynaflow Drive®—that feeds power in a steady, falterless flow—lets you ride relaxed in busy traffic or on a day-long cross-country drive.

We're willing to stand on the statement that no other car rides, performs or drives like a Buick.

But why take our word for it? Come in—take over one of these lively lovelies—and see for yourself.

NO OTHER CAR PROVIDES ALL THIS:

- DYNAFLOW DRIVE® • FIREBALL ENGINE
- 4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING • DUAL VENTILATION
- PUSH-BAR FRONT-ENGINE • TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE
- WHITE-GLOW INSTRUMENTS • DREAMLINE STEERING BODY BY FISHER

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT THERE WILL BE MORE THEM

Sister of Bradley Named Chief Nurse For Army in Korea

(Times-Record, Spencer, W. Va.)

Mrs. Ruby G. Bradley of Spencer, W. Va., and a sister of Sir John Boyd of Prestonsburg, has been appointed as chief nurse of the Eighth army in Korea.

Mrs. Bradley first went to Korea last September and replaces Lt. Col. Madeline Desmond, Ayer, Mass., who will return to the U.S. for reasons kind-for a decade, they now admit a change of policy is necessary.

Most teachers welcome a return to former standards. Numbers have been striven for a few scores years, after seeing the results of "freedom," which invariably lowers the quality of work done.

Fortunately, many good school leaders kept their pendulum in the center. They believe in love, encouragement and understanding for every child. They approve of motivation, handcraft, extra-curricular activities, even self expression, within reason. They realize criticism, sterilizes, while praise encourages and inspires. But they know life has certain things for which every child must be prepared. If he is spared everything unpleasant and difficult in childhood, and is never improved, except in psychological fashion (with the correction sandwiched between two compliments) the little fellow he offended and despised a complex—how can he meet realities in later years?

One educator said when a boy whistles and carries a stick the teacher should try to understand WHY he did it instead of reprimanding him for it. A little of both seems wiser, she counsels full-time workers will be required to do little but compile case histories. Those of us with experience in society child know what type homes produce children with no respect for property, simple correction and training of the right sort, in most instances prevent scared desks, so apparent everywhere.

For years America has been threatened by a dangerous theory in regard to child-training at home and in the school. It boiled down to all fun and play, with no scolding or hard, forced work, lest the child become unhappy and turn into a misfit from being frustrated or misunderstood. Such a viewpoint helps account for the increase in criminals and mental cases among our youth today, countless experts maintain.

The following story, taken from a magazine some months ago, illustrates what to expect under such conditions:

Three-year-old Judy refused to eat breakfast. Her mother believed in the newest ideas, so she begged to know what her little darling would like. Judy declined every food named, but finally said she would like a big, fat worm, fried nice and brown.

Staring frowned, looked at wifey dear, and went to the yard for an earthworm. He gave it to Cook, who dipped it in hot batter, fried it and brought it to Mother's little precious. Judy burst into tears. "What's the matter now?" pleaded Daddy, who belongs to the school. "I want you to eat half of it," she explained, smilingly.

Daddy looked sideways at Mother, then decided cooking was preferable to a sermon on her theories, so he gulped and downed half of it, whereupon Judy bawled louder than ever. "Now, what?" the poor parent beseeched.

"You ate the piece I wanted!" Judy kindly handed him the remainder.

In The Courier-Journal last week Miss Elizabeth Shade, of Holland, who is attending school in Pikeville this year, stated that the pupils seem rather impolite to their teachers. It is a part of the modern trend, one phase of so-called "freedom." Parents and teachers are expected to like it, though youngsters from better homes still have lovely manners.

After being absent from the classroom 15 years I note the differences in educational philosophies expressed in magazines today and then. A friend who was out only three years was shocked at the changes she says. Good teachers realize the detention hall should be avoided when possible, and that corporal punishment is a last resort, but they know some form of discipline is essential, since human nature remains the same. The one standard for child-rearing, at home and in school, is the Bible. The ancient adage, "Spare the rod and spoil the child," is still applicable in this century.

IT'S A GOOD WORLD

A Sunday School teacher stated recently that some national educators have just reversed their stand on discipline in the school. After having advocated no corporal punishment—any little of any other kind—for a decade, they now admit a change of policy is necessary.
