SAVE OUR CONSTITUTION from this VICIOUS amendment. On your November election ballot, there will appear the most vicious Amendment to our Constitution ever proposed. If passed by a majority of only one vote, it will permit the Legislature to: 1. Submit any number of amendments it desires and require only one vote to pass them, whether good or bad. 2. To repeatedly re-submit bad amendments year after year until they finally pass by just one vote. 3. To completely rewrite our State Constitution and submit it for approval by a majority of one vote every year.

On the method used by his department to determine amount of payment to which a recipient is entitled. Bureau explained that determination is made on the basis of need of recipient.

"We prepare a budget plan for each recipient's family setting forth the recipient's requirements for food, shelter, clothing, etc., and the recipient's income and resources. The recipient's requirements are determined from a budgetary allowance plan designed to provide a level meeting a minimum standard of decency and health. The budgetary allowance plan is applied uniformly to all recipients in all localities of the state. Nevertheless, there are a number of reasons for differences in the needs of individual recipients.

"One reason is geographical differences in living costs. Food and clothing prices are fairly uniform throughout the state because of the influence of chain stores but there are important geographical differences in the cost of rent, fuel, utilities, and the like. Perhaps the most extreme example of a geographical difference is the fact that many city residents must pay for water while many rural families have free well water.

"Probably the most important reason is that, however, in the differences in the income and resources available to recipients. Typical examples are: Cash income from odd jobs, accident program, room rent, contributions from relatives in the form of free rent, fuel, utilities, etc. Differences in individual resources also include the effect of the individual's health on his ability to provide for himself—some recipients are unable to do their own laundry, others are bed-ridden and require nursing service."

Approximately 9,000 people visited Carroll county's fair, the first to be held out of doors in more than 40 years.

Governor Lawrence W. Webehr named WILLIAM H. REES, for 24 years a judge of the Court of Appeals, as special commissioner to hear out-of-proceedings lodged against Hamilton county Sheriff W. W. Brackett, who is charged with official dereliction of duty in connection with the escape of James Earl Ray, who has existed in the county.

Jesse K. Lewis, counsel for the Citizens' group sponsoring the ouster proceedings, questioned the right of the Governor to name another to hear the case, but added that "we do not object to Judge Rees."

Commissioner of Aeronautics Charles H. Gattrell appealed to the Franklin County Fiscal Court and Franklin County Council to participate in efforts looking toward construction of a publicly-owned airport to serve the state capital.

Commissioner of Police Guthrie P. Crowe assigned two state policemen—George Humphrey, Louisville, and Harold Pierce, Greensburg—license examiners to take a special course in that type work at the University of Alabama, Nov. 5-16. The course, conducted by Northwestern University, is conducted for 14 Southern and Southwest states.

Maybe there's some improvement. State police reported the fatality total on Kentucky highways total at 544 through Oct. 22. For the corresponding period last year it was 745.

State Highway Commissioner W. P. Curin announced award of contracts for improvement of 58 miles of road in 23 counties to cost $1,413,835. The contracts included 20 miles of rural roads from the two-cent-a-gallon gasoline fund matched with federal aid grants to cost $393,508, and 17 miles of federal aid construction at $767,699.

Counties involved include Allen, Christian, Grant, Hancock, Davies, Harlan, Grayson, Knott, Floyd, McCracken, Middlesboro, Madison, Carter, Lewis, Morgan and Wayne, Kentucky. Hamilton has spent or encumbered $5,959,423 for buildings at the state mental hospitals and the Kentucky Training Home since 1948. Welfare Commissioner Luther T. Gohsen announced. The housing situation at the hospitals now past the critical stage and more money may be spent for treatment, Gohsen said.

Schools Here Plan To Join Observance Of Education Week

Nov. 11-17 is American Education Week, and Prestonsburg's schools plan to make their contributions to the national observance, Chalmers H. Frazier, Superintendent of City schools, said Wednesday.

The schools will sponsor radio programs over WSPJ, Paintsville, from 12:45 till 1 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday of next week. Theme of these programs will be "Moral and Spiritual Values in the Public Schools."

Thursday also will be Parents' Day in the schools here, with the mothers and fathers invited to come into the classroom and see their children at work.

"Dutiful for Freedom" is the national theme of Education Week. Mining land that has been idle in Livingston county for many years is now being worked with a heavy disk and will be seeded to pasture.

Rules for State Bar Relaxed by High Court

The Kentucky Court of Appeals relaxed rules for the State Bar Association by permitting election of the president and vice-president from the vote of the entire membership of the Association—with more than 3,000 members—rather than restricted to one of the 14 members of the Board of Bar Commissioners. The new system provides for a nominating committee to name candidates and a small ballot to be taken, or others may be selected by petition of 100 fellow attorneys. In the past, the president and vice-president have been chosen from among the Board of Bar Commissioners by the small body of 14 itself.

Suit to enjoin submission of a constitutional amendment that would lift the ceiling on number of amendments offered the people at a given election was filed in Franklin circuit court by Harry G. Fielder, Frankfort real estate agent, who claims the question as submitted is inadequate to inform the voters of its complete import.

KENTUCKY ON THE MARCH

At McKee, Jackson county, the other day Attendance Officer E. G. Clemens had seventeen parents of delinquent children yanked into county court on a charge of failing to put their children in school after due notice by Clemens.

Seventeen parents, with perhaps an average of 2 children to the family, add up to 34 children, but the percentage column indicates more truancy in the county, doubtless some of them still to be reported to the county judge.

Jackson is a county with 61 schools. Sixteen of them are 100 per cent. Eighteen are 98 to 99 per cent, and 22 report 95 to 97 per cent in attendance. The lowest is 74 per cent.

Other counties gave all this information to the Jackson County Sun and Editor J. S. Thompson gave the county of space to it as a public service. I am sure every newspaper in the state would gladly publish reports like Clemens' if attendance officers turned it in.

An attendance officer who does his or her duty diligently has a tough job. He does not have to send their children to school are full of alibis; they don't need lawyers to get around a creditus, indigent judge.

An attendance officer can make it a soft job if he wants to. By reporting a case now and then he can collect his salary. A good officer will get the cooperation of all teachers in his county, who by a little detective work of the courts can collect his salary. A good officer will get the cooperation of all teachers in his county, who by a little detective work of the courts can collect his salary.

The work of few attendance officers is reported in newspapers. The blame for which may be charged to county superintendents or school boards. Maybe it is thoughtlessness in some instances. I asked Martin Roberts, Henderson County superintendent, about his attendance officer's work. He said Seth Perry, Jr., is doing a good job. But a report in detail every two or three months to the public through the Daily Gleamer would be telling the public what the attendance officer is doing.

In scores of counties there is agitation for new school buildings. We can have poor schools in palatial buildings. We could have good schools in barns with good teachers and diligent attendance enforcement.

ELECTION TRAVESTY

Well, the boys up at David are at it, hammer and tongs, with an clever parody on a real, knock-down-and-drag-out election as you'd want to see. The Pecco Club of the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company, you see, has two tickets in the lists at the coming election of officers, and the campaign literature is along the usual lines.

Hansford Hosercent, the Cooperative Party's standard-bearer, and Russell Harman, his opponent for the Pecco Club presidency on the Opportunity ticket, are letting their respective campaign managers, Walter Crace and Frank Music, spin defunctives, hurl epithets and smear adjectives (as well as the opposition) all over the place. For instance:

Mr. Crace, in one broadside, calls the opposition the "Opportunity for Certain People Party" and cries to high heaven about Mr. Music "thrashing out wildly in all directions" and hurling "wild charges." Then the aforesaid Mr. Music comes back thundering about "just how low some people will stoop in order to . . . gain their own ends." He also refers, in passing, to his rival ticket as "masters of deceit." He winds up by crying, "Vote 'er straight" and keep 'er straight!" Yessee, the boys are pulling no punches in this campaign. But they are setting one example some of our candidates for public office and their partisans might emulate: "They're going about it all in good humor."

Leaves Boot Camp With Rifle Medal

Marine Pfc. Kenneth Moles, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moles, of East Point, was promoted to his present rank when he was awarded from Boot Camp on October 22, 1951.

Moles climaxed his recruit training by winning the sharpshooter medal on the rifle range when he fired a score of 219 out of a possible 200 during his weapons training. During the past eight weeks of recruit training, he has become versed in precision drill, first aid, hygiene, and field tactics. In addition to firing the Garand rifle for qualification, Moles fired other weapons such as the .45 caliber pistol, Coltine, and Browning Automatic rifle.

Moles entered the Marine Corps on August 14, 1951. He was employed by the Hamilton Motor Co., Inc. of Prestonsburg, as parts manager.

Immediately following his Boot Camp graduation, he was given a ten-day leave, after which he was transferred from Parris Island to a Marine Corps unit.

Three from County In Panel Discussion

Pikeville, Ky., Oct. 29 (Sp1)—Jean Osborne Hall, of Byrro, and Mary Ellen Morris, Wayland, were among the Pikeville Junior College students who took part in a panel discussion of the United Nations Organization in honor of its sixth anniversary, United Nations Day, last week.

Two young East Point men, both graduates of Prestonsburg high school, also participated in the discussion, held before the entire student body at the college daily chapel exercises. The program was planned by Miss Stella Ekins, history instructor.

Bobby Joe Kitchen and Nelson Ray Haidridge are the East Pointers who took part. Kitchen, president of the college freshman class, acted as moderator for the group.

Besides the role of the U.N. in world politics, important nonmilitary and nonpolitical functions of the international organization were discussed. Included were the educational, scientific and cultural activities of UNESCO; the Food and Agricultural Organization's work to improve the world's food supply, and the efforts of other UN agencies to bring about better child health practices, and better treatment of refugees, the world over.

IT COULD HAPPEN HERE—BUT IT HASN'T!

I do not think any of my good friends in Floyd county have believed any of the malicious, scandalous lies which have been put out in The Floyd County Times by my opponent. In replying to these, I do not do so to obtain votes so much as to throw off the unjust suspicion which might arise in the minds of the voters from reading the articles published by Mr. Salisbury.

I should like to say at the outset that the material contained in Mr. Salisbury's newspaper articles showed, first, that he is unacquainted with what has gone on in our General Assembly in the past, and, second, that he is unfamiliar with the organization of the Democratic Party in Floyd county.

All proceedings of the House of Representatives and the Senate, including the bills sponsored by the legislators and how they voted on them, are recorded in the House and Senate Journal, which is a public record sent to the Courthouse officials of each county after each session of the Legislature. In attacking my record, which was outlined in the newspaper articles put out by my Campaign Committee during the Primary, Mr. Salisbury has ignorantly denied that I supported and/or sponsored any of the items of legislation contained in those articles. Certainly, if he had checked these Journals—if indeed he even so much as knew they existed—or if he had followed the proceedings of the House and Senate in the Courier-Journal, or the Floyd County Times, he would not have made such incorrect statements to the good people of Floyd county. I defy Mr. Salisbury to find a single item of legislation mentioned in the articles published by my Campaign Committee which I neither sponsored nor supported.

The people of Floyd county are too familiar with mudslinging to be deceived by Mr. Salisbury's articles, and, certainly, the good Democrats of Floyd county will resent the slung remarks made about their duly elected officials. Whatever difficulties, if any, the Democrats had in organizing the Party in Floyd county, they have done so, effectively, as they should have, in a democratic manner. Contrary to what Mr. Salisbury says, the Democratic Party does not have a Campaign Chairman in Floyd county. The candidates running for county office in Floyd county each selected a man to serve as a Campaign Director. We have six of these who are charged with the responsibility of managing the Democratic campaign. These six men are: Henry Stumbo, Woodrow Allen, A. B. Meade, Claybourne Bailey, Jennings Martin, and Paul Hayes. I believe I speak for the good Democrats in Floyd county, and certainly for myself, when I say that this particular group is well qualified to lead our Party to victory on November 6th of this year.

I have stated previously, and I again state, that no one in this county or state has ever controlled me far as the votes I have cast in the Legislature for the people of Floyd county. It is well known in Frankfort, and ninety-nine other Legislators will bear witness, that I am an independent Legislator who votes for a bill when its aims are for the good of Floyd county, and against it when its aims are contrary to those interests. State Senator Doug Hays and Ex-Representative Paul E. Hayes will attest to my record. For these reasons, I have accepted no contributions from any special interests whatsoever, because I cannot conscientiously do so and keep that freedom of choice in voting, which is no necessary for a Representative from this section to have. I say this because I emphatically deny that I have ever received any money in my campaign for State Representative from the liquor industry. I do not know why Mr. Salisbury would stoop so low as to tell such a great falsehood, except that he probably desires to take the spotlight off his own connection with the illegal liquor interests in Floyd county. It occurs to me, and I am sure it will to those who know Mr. Salisbury's record in Floyd county, that the liquor industry would be more interested in having Mr. Salisbury in the Legislature than it would in having me in the Legislature.

My opponent would have you believe that I am controlled by the Floyd county officials. Nothing could be farther from the truth. In my previous primary campaigns for State Representative, support from the officials in the Courthouse has been divided, and, as my opponent and the voters know, I have never had their full support in a Primary race. Certainly, they are not to be criticized for this, because, in Primary Elections, Democrats exercise a free choice in selecting their nominee. I am proud to say at this time that I have the full support of the Democratic officials in the Courthouse, which is as it should be, since I do feel they are all good Democrats.

I certainly do not intend to conduct a malicious, mudslinging campaign. I have at all times attempted to keep before the people of Floyd county the issues of the State Representative race, those issues being, broadly, the best interests of our people.

I repeat and reaffirm the record which I put before the people in the Primary, which showed my sponsorship and/or support of legislation for the benefit of education and teachers, old-aged pensioners, dependent children, and needy blind—legislation for increased compensation and unemployment benefits for mine workers and for mine safety—legislation for rural roads—increased jury pay—increased benefits for retired teachers—and legislation for a Veterans' bonus.

On this program the State Journal will show I have sponsored and/or supported all legislation leading toward these ends. On this program I have, in two sessions of the Legislature, stood on the Floor of the House and discussed these issues with my fellow Legislators, and I have pledged the continuance of this program in the 1952 General Assembly.

Name Riser Student Asst. Business Mgr.

Pikeville, Ky., Oct. 29 (Sp.)—Claude Allen, Jr. of Riser, has been chosen assistant business manager of "The Record," the Pikeville Junior College student newspaper. Dr. A. A. Page, president of the college, announced today.

A staff of 12 students of the college and Pikeville Academy is publishing the paper this year under the guidance of Mrs. Beth B. Brady, college journalism instructor, Shelby Hampton, Letcher County, is editor.

The fall's first issue of "The Record" appeared last before the student publication's 30th birthday this week. The paper first made its appearance on Oct. 29, 1921, and was named in honor of the late Dr. James F. Record, then president of the college. Dr. Page said. CLARK COUNTY CAGE COACH 'FIXED' FIXER SEEKING POINT SPREAD IN PIKEVILLE GAME

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 27—A Kentucky high school basketball coach revealed today a gambler offered three of his players money to shave the point spread in a game last January.

Cage Lecher Norton, of Clark county high at nearby Winchester, said the attempt was made on a game involving Clark County and Pikeville high at Winchester.

The alleged attempted fixer was beaten and forcibly thrown from the gym when Norton found him at the side of the playing floor preceding the game, the coach said. Norton did not identify the man.

Norton related the story to an Associated Press reporter today after the reporter received a tip. Clark County won the state championship in a tourney at Memorial Coliseum here last March.

Today's disclosure followed by a week investigators' announcement that three former University of Kentucky basketball stars — Alex Groen, Ralph Beard, and Dale Barnstable—had admitted accepting bribes to shave the point spread in a national invitation game against Loyola of Chicago in 1949.

Norton said the three boys—Lewis Snowden, Linville Puckett and Edgar Peirce—told him several days before the game that they had been approached by a man who had offered them money if they would hold the point spread to 5 points.

Norton said he contacted the man and the man said he was joking.

"I replied that it was not a 'joking matter,'" Norton said, "and told him I never wanted to see him back in the gym again."

Then the night of the game, Norton said, he saw the man at the side of the court. Norton continued: "I forced him to go to the basement with me, where I worked him over and threw him out the door."

"There has been no further attempt. I feel that this was just a feeler to see what the boys would do."

Norton said he went before the April grand jury and told his story, but officials said nothing could be done because Kentucky law does not cover an attempted bribe.

Form Speakers Bureau For Talks on Health To Interested Groups

The establishment of a speakers bureau has been announced by the Division of Public Health Education of the Kentucky State Department of Health. The bureau is designed to enable local health departments to supply speakers and discussion leaders upon request, to civic clubs, schools and other organizations interested in public health.

Requests should be made to the local health departments which then contact the State Department of Health, according to Sara C. Stuch, Division Director, who stresses the importance of making arrangements well in advance of meeting dates.

When making requests certain information should be given, including the following:

- (1) The approximate size and type of the audience expected.
- (2) The topic for discussion and the time allotted to the speaker.
- (3) The date and time of the meeting, as well as the place where it is to be held.
- (4) The local electrical facilities for projection equipment, since it is often possible for the speaker to show movies in connection with his talk.

Talks are available on a wide range of health topics, some of which are: "The Child and His Environment," "Rural Sanitation Problems," "Preventing the Spread of Mental Illness," "Safeguarding Our Milk Supply," and "Controlling Industrial Health Hazards."

For further information concerning the speakers bureau, the local health department should be consulted.

IT'S A GOOD WORLD

"Opinions expressed herein do not necessarily reflect those of The Times."

"Thanks to all who approved the column on school trends, especially for comments from our readers."

"Absolute freedom, without restraint, will yet become the keynote of this doctrine. In a few years, if Sonny manifests a dislike for regular subjects and wants to do finger-painting all day long, teachers will be advised to let him have his way."

"Questionably, countless youngsters have been wounded by too many doubts—born of nagging parents or teachers—and anyone knows a negative approach is compelling such facts need not force parents or teachers to adopt the opposite extreme, rapidly becoming general."

"Persons aware of this waste little time worrying about the crisis of these psychologists who maintain St. Paul was crazy and that the Bible must be rewritten to fit the modern age."

"We have yet to hear a teacher agree that children need what they need. Scores deplore the modern thrust upon them by a handful of national leaders, many of whom never had a child to rear."

"Prof. Istmael Triplett, of our State Department, summed it up, aptly and wisely, by advising teachers to keep a small corner reserved for fundamentals. If national trends continue at their present rate, soon a little corner may be about all that remain in the land for the Three R's and some private wonder if a generation from now may find no time at all left for reading, writing and 'arithmetical' nonessentials in the past decade help explain why so many students from promising homes require help for personality development."

"By means of Swedish weaving, Washington county homemakers have decorated towels, luncheon sets, place mats and other household articles."

"Last year a traveling salesman told a principal in Floyd County, Kentucky is far superior to that found in the Western part of the state. Could you imagine to the region that sooner or later invariably results in more play and less work?"

"Persons who would like to write the author of this article may address Wilmay, Langley, Ky."

SOIL CONSERVATION

"What do you know about your Soil Conservation district?"

"The Board must provide for the keeping of a full and accurate record of all its proceedings and of all resolutions, regulations and orders issued or adopted by it."

"Some areas are best suited for grasses and legumes, other areas are best suited to row crops, while still other areas are suited to trees. It is wise to use the land for what it is best suited and treated according to its needs."

"If you are interested in assistance call on any member of the Board of Supervisors or see R. L. Johnson, Soil Conservationist, office in Sizemore building adjacent to P.M.A. office, Prestonsburg."

"MUD-SLINGING," They Call It!!

I am now accused of mud-slinging by Henry Hale and Paul Hayes who wrote last week's article for him. It seems that every time anyone tells the truth about corrupt machines they always yell mud-slinging, but there is a difference between righteous indignation by the good people of our county and so-called mud-slinging. The people of our county will not be fooled by such answers to my articles.

The time is near for Floyd continues to arm themselves with the Ballot to free our county, state and nation from Internal Destruction by Power Hungry politicians. The time has come for the people to lay aside Partisan Party affiliations and think of the generation that is now in the class room, the leaders of tomorrow.

The national, state, county and precinct political bosses will yell "Vote it Straight." I would like to ask the veterans of all wars if they saw any place on their enlistment papers where they were required to state whether they were Democrat, Republican or had other party preference. There was no discrimination as to their party when they were laid to rest in foreign soil. The mothers and fathers of our boys who are dying in Korea are not asking whether his buddy was a Republican or Democrat. They are both fighting for the same thing that we veterans fought for and the politicians are lost for in the last war. The political scandals of the nation, state, and county are a shame and disgrace to the people who have fought and died for this great country of ours.

Wake up, neighbor! It will be too late after we have lost our heritage to the political warmongers and their henchmen. We are now on the threshold of Internal Destruction. This office I seek may seem unimportant to some people, but stop and think—it can shape the destiny of your schools, your labor and income for the next two years.

My opponent has been your Representative for the last four years. He has had a wonderful chance to help pass legislation beneficial to the District. Why hasn't he done so? Why hasn't he tried to amend the so-called aid to the unwed mother law? (Hitler had this same sort of law in Germany. They called it the Paid Prostitution law.) Why did he help pass a law to force taxpayers to go to the county seat to declare their property, forcing people to pay more bus fare than the amount of their taxes?

If Henry Hale had the interest of Floyd county at heart he would now be using his so-called influence with the state administration who control Dr. Underwood, who is the Chairman of the State Health Board, to help our county officials to obtain the $500,000.00 federal aid from the government so that we Floyd officials might have a county hospital for the underprivileged people of our county who are unable to pay large hospital expenses.

Henry and Paul must be ashamed to have the people know that Banner Meade (their Boss) is the Democrat campaign Chairman of Floyd county. They are denying that they elected him for this office. My answer to this is ask the 208 people who on October 18, 1951 attended a meeting at the Dewey Lake Inn and heard Bill Biggers introduce Banner Meade as the Democratic Campaign Chairman for Floyd county.

On November 6th you will cast your vote for the man of your choice for Representative of the 96th District. If you feel that I will be in your corner in the Legislature, your vote will be for Clean Government and not for corrupt practices and Machine Politics. I will not be controlled by any special group.

90% For! 10% Against

Railroad workers are represented by 23 standard unions. By mutual agreement, 20 of these unions—comprising about 1,200,000 men, or more than 90%—are working under wages and rules agreed to by them and the railroads. But leaders of three unions—with only about 130,000 men, or less than 10%—still refuse, after more than a year of negotiations, to accept similar wage and rules agreements. These are even more favorable than the terms recommended by the Emergency Board appointed by the President.

Yes, it certainly seems to be finally about time that the leaders of the three unions stop their delaying tactics—their quibbling. But the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors continue to refuse. They continue a course of dillying and dallying. It is definitely time to

Time to settle... THIS QUIBLING!

On June 15, 1950, an Emergency Board appointed by the President under the terms of the Railway Labor Act—An Act largely worked by the unions themselves —made its recommendations on certain wage and working conditions ("rules" in railroad language) which had been in dispute between employees and the railroad.

More Than 90% of Employees Accept
Since then, terms equal to or better than the Board recommendations have been accepted by about 1,200,000 railroad employees—more than 90% of the total of all workers. They are represented by 20 of the 23 standard railroad unions.

Less Than 10% Refuse
But three unions—with about 130,000 men, or less than 10% of the total—have refused to accept, even after months of negotiations. These three unions are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors. These are three of the so-called "big three." Already the highest paid men in the industry, their leaders demand still further advantages over other workers.

In all, there are about 270,000 operating employees. But not all of them, by any means, understand that these 140,000 operating employees are working under wages and rules which the leaders of the other 130,000 say they cannot agree to.

What Do the Railroads Offer?
They offer those three unions the same settlement which was contained in a Memorandum of Agreement signed at the White House on December 21, 1950, by four brotherhoods and the railroads. Later these brotherhoods sought to repudiate that agreement. But on May 15, 1951, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen signed a complete agreement carrying out the principles of the Memorandum Agreement of December 21. They have been working under this agreement since May 25.

What About Wages?
Under the terms of the agreement, yard engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving a wage increase of $3.4 an hour ($2.72 a day) and road engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving an increase of 19% cents an hour ($1.58 per day). Large sums of retroactive pay have already accrued and the agreement is carried out, will be paid promptly.

What About "Cost of Living" Increases?
The White House Agreement includes an "escalator" clause under which wages will be geared to changes in the Government's cost-of-living index. Two such increases—April and July, 1951—have already been paid to the 90% of railroad employees covered by signed agreements.

What About the 40-Hour Week?
The White House Agreement calls for the establishment of the 40-hour week in principle, for employees in yard service. The employees can have it any time after January 1, 1952, provided the manpower situation is such that the railroads can get enough men to perform the work with reasonable regularity at straight time rates. If the parties do not agree on the question of availability of manpower, the White House Agreement provides arbitration by a referee appointed by the President.

What Else Do the Union Leaders Demand?
The continued quibbling of the leaders of the three unions has to do principally with rules changes, which have already been agreed to by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Of these, the principal one seems to be that having to do with so-called "interdivisional service"—runs which take in two or more seniority districts.

The union leaders would bar progress and efficiency in the industry, and better service to the public, by maintaining a situation where they can arbitrarily stop a railroad from establishing such interdivisional runs. The carriers propose that if a railroad wishes to set up an interdivisional run, the railroad and the unions should try to agree on such run and the conditions which should surround its establishment, and if the railroad and the unions can't agree, the matter will be submitted to arbitration.

But the three union leaders still refuse.

Rules Can Be Arbitrated
The railroads have not only offered these three unions the same rules agreed to by the BRT and covered by the White House Agreement, but have even agreed to submit such rules to arbitration.

The Industry Pattern Is Firmed
With the pattern so firmly established in the railroad industry, it seems fair to suggest that the leaders of BLE, BFL&E, and ORC stop their quibbling and take action to make the railroad labor picture 100% complete. Certainly today's economic and international situation calls for a united front. And certainly no good reason has been advanced why these three unions should be preferred over all other railroad employees.

WAYLAND

WOMAN'S CLUB NEWS

The Lackey-Garrett Woman's Club met in the home of Mrs. George Swain Thursday evening, Oct. 25, with Mrs. Bert Stapleton as co-hostess.

Mrs. N. D. Howard had charge of the program, "Build Freedom With Youth," a contest sponsored by the Kroger Company and the General Mission of Women's Clubs. The object of Mrs. Howard's program was to ascertain what could be done locally.

Mrs. John Field presented several examples of what other clubs and communities are doing on this project. The purpose of such a contest is to provide opportunity of young people to share the responsibilities as well as the pleasures of the community and thus prepare them to assume the duties of citizenship, said Mrs. Field. She emphasized that in this contest projects are not necessarily youth but with youth.

Mrs. Howard then introduced the following school children who participated in a lively round-table discussion as to what they would like the Woman's Club to do to help local youth: from Garrett—Miss Vivian Howard and Christine Oakley; from Wayland—Bill Irwin and Miss Joyce Martin; from Denning—Johnny Bradley; from Middlesboro—Misses Aetiana Hoyts and Lucille Watkins; from East—Miss Toby Wells.

The Youth Conference committee composed of Mesdames J. T. Spillman, N. D. Howard, John Wallace, L. B. Price and Miss Marie Coburn will meet with the youth of the communities represented in the club Monday evening, Oct. 29, in Cook's Restaurant, Wayland, to formulate a plan of a program for youth, with youth assuming leadership.

During a brief business session, it was voted to send a CARE package from the club. Mrs. N. D. Howard was appointed to take charge of this undertaking. Mrs. Vinton announced prize at the recent convention of KFWC held at David. Also, the club was awarded a 100 per cent honor certificate.

Next meeting will be held Nov. 8, in the home of Mrs. J. O. Webb, with Mrs. Gertrude Collins, co-hostess. A dessert course was served to 24 members and one guest, Mrs. H. Miracle, of Gio.

Dogs running wild in Livingston county are causing farmers there to go out of the sheep business. Six Logan county farmers have owned 208 bushels of Kennerly barley on about 104 acres for certification last year.

BETSY LAYNE

CLUB HOLDS REGULAR MEETING

The Betsy Layne Woman's Club held its regular monthly meeting Thursday night, Oct. 18, Mrs. O. J. Williams program leader, had as her topic, in the safety department, "Highway Safety." Mrs. Williams opened the program by giving a brief talk on the value of safety. In this talk she stressed the fact that the three S words are Safety, Sustenance, Stability, and that safety is the most important, because without safety we would have no need of sustenance and stability. Mrs. Glenn Blackburn then gave a discussion on "Are You An Expert Driver?" She discussed the many hazards that confront drivers and presented suggestions on how to avoid accidents. Mrs. Blackburn concluded her discussion by demonstrating the proper hand signals.

Mrs. Arthur Van Kammen read an article on "Safety" by Mrs. Henry J. Burr. The program of the Safety Department, Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, in which motor manners were discussed and the importance of safety education was stressed. Mrs. W. P. Howell next talked about "The Man Who Drives Your Child to School." She brought out the fact that more than six million children ride school buses each year and that school bus drivers should be most reliable and scrupulous persons. She told about the plan some states have in training students to drive buses. She urged members to know what kind of person is driving their children to school. "Young Drivers Can Be Safe Drivers," an article by Carolyn Wilkinson, was reviewed by Mrs. Alex Davis. The plan of teaching high school seniors to drive as competent work of the state police and efficient work of the state police and a few of these being better traffic control, efficient patrol work, stricter license control and improved roads.

Mrs. Glenn Blackburn, vice-president, presided at the business meeting. A report on the District meeting was given by Mrs. O. J. Williams, members who attended. One of the events that the club is very proud of was the election of Mrs. O. J. Williams to the office of governor of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs. At the recent x-ray mobile clinic held at Harold reported that 350 persons availed themselves of this opportunity. The members voted that each member would contribute $1 each to the "Care for Korea Campaign." This campaign begins on Nov. 11, and ends Nov. 24, with the packages being delivered before Christmas in the name of the American people. The General Federation of Women's Clubs has undertaken the task of raising 150,000 CARE packages for the most destitute Korean war victims and all the clubs in the Federation are taking part in this worthy project. It was voted to contribute to the Penny Art Fund 100 per cent. Headquarters Fund and the Student Loan Fund. The members voted to hold a sewing meeting on Monday night of each week and on Thursday afternoon of each week during the month of November. These meetings are being held to make gift items for sale, with the proceeds to be used for the annual membership party. At the conclusion of the business meeting a salad course was served to the following members: Mesdames Alex Davis, Edward Lykins, Glenn Blackburn, O. J. Williams, W. P. Howell, Elizabeth Richards, Arthur Van Kammen, Miss Alice Williams and the hostess, Mrs. Chandler.

The next regular monthly meeting will be Thursday night, Nov. 15, at the home of Mrs. Edward Lykins, with Mesdames Beecher Hardwick and C. H. Dickerson program leaders.

The Irish potato crop in Elliott county was rated as being about the best in 10 years.

Harrison county homesteaders purchased 75 more acres the past year, an increase of 50 per cent.

TAXPAYERS, BEWARE!!!

Why Doesn't the Progressive Ticket or "The Do-Nothing Ticket" tell you about those promises they didn't keep? Now they say the taxes weren't doubled or tripled. You know they were. The citizens of Prestonsburg know the city can be operated with less taxes and fewer policemen. Even with taxes as high as they are now, they want to raise them more.

If there isn't a selfish interest, why are the men on this ticket trying to fool the people and be re-elected? You would think, after the mess they have made, they would get out and let some level-headed men operate the city, the way it should be.

They have the nerve to ask, "What improvements have been made in the last two years?"

The answer is Nothing. If past performance means anything, were they re-elected, the answer two years from now would still be nothing but higher taxes.

When is the city and water commission going to publish financial statements? It's been a long time. Do you think having our city so that factories won't come in is progress? Why didn't they fight the limiting of gas our city can use?

Let's not be fooled again. Two years ago they promised everything or anything to get elected. They won't restate this time. Let's vote right.

Reward the Deserving

Floyd countians, regardless of their political affiliations, should support any man from their own county who is an outstanding example of ability and high character.

No person who knows Judge Bert T. Combs can doubt his honesty, his high purpose, his calm, sensible outlook on questions of public interest. Nor can any who have known of his brilliant work as a student and later as a lawyer, member of the armed forces, Commonwealth's Attorney and, lastly, as a Judge of the Court of Appeals doubt his ability.

Bert Combs at the age of 40 is that rare combination of intellect and character which brings to Floyd county and Kentucky great credit.

There is no reason we should not recognize his worth, pay tribute to him as a young man with a vision of service, and give him our undivided support at the coming election.

Let Floyd county, undivided, give Bert T. Combs its support for election to the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

This Is Your Business

AMERICA was founded by the type of manhood which would shoulder a musket and dare attack from savage Indians to attend gatherings of public interest and to vote for what they believed to be right.

Those days, human rights were wrested from tyrants; life itself was a battle for survival. And men joyed in their new-won, hard-won liberties. The record of those days tells us no man needed to be begged to exercise his right to vote.

Our people of today would do well to think back to those days and the stalwart men and women of the period.

These days, every person eligible to vote has something to say, mainly to complain about the government in officials, their conduct and policies. But a large segment of the electorate has no just grounds for complaining about anything, because they do not take enough interest in their government to vote.

The Times urges every citizen of voting age to go to the polls next Tuesday and vote. How you vote is your business. But, please, vote.

We, the Partners

NOT ALL of us are partners in crime, but most of us are partners with it.

You and I did not connive with those who have recently been accused of violating the public trust, nor did we conspire with gamblers to manipulate sports so that the faith of the country has been shaken in its young athletic idols.

But we did go along and permit without protest the whole sordid mess to go into the pot, to stew and finally to boil over.

All of us laid that rotten egg. And we came first, before the egg.

A few voices are occasionally raised against political rottenness, gambling, bootlegging, graft and the like. But for the most part they are voices crying in a wilderness. Some hear, and wish they were well, some merely say, "Another reformer on the loose." Others even inveigh against them.

This thing reaches down to the community level. Small-time gambling and bootlegging are the embryos from which great scandals grow. Individual instances of corruption in official life are the latest examples of what eventually creates the bigger stench.

The moral fibre of the country is weakened. The bone is still there, but new sinew must develop. It can't be brought to its existing strength with this cute idea that we must get ours while the getting is good, that anything is all right as long as we are not caught at it.

The home, the church, the schools—all have a part in the big job ahead. New blood with the old concepts and ideals of honesty and fundamental rightness in us is a term; else, this country's will be the shortest national history among all the great nations of history.

Now, if you are one of those who like a bit of scoffing, you can sneer and say, "We're against sin, too." But that will not acquit you or any of us of being a partner with crime. And you've got to do some hair-splitting to put yourself; much ahead of those who are partners in it.

State TB Sanatoria Filled To Capacity

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 1 (Sp.)—The five 100-bed new Tuberculosis Sanatoria already are filled to capacity, and arrangements are being made to transfer new patients on waiting lists to Hazelwood Sanatorium near Louisville, the D. Miller acting director of the Tuberculosis Sanatoria Commission, said today.

Miller pointed out that there are approximately 50 beds at Hazelwood unoccupied at this time and that, with the other hospitals already filled, it will be necessary to transfer additional patients to this institution.

First of the new tuberculosis hospitals was opened in July, 1950.

Hazelwood has a bed capacity of 250—including approximately 40 beds in the Ellis Building, which is being reopened for occupancy.

does a citizen want to be a Councilman of Prestonsburg?

It certainly takes a lot of a man's time if he is a councilman. He is bound to make some people mad if he does his duty. He gets practically no pay for the job ($6 per month). It certainly is a job that you can get very few business men to accept.

So why would any one want the job?

Some people might accept the job if they had a son or daughter or some close kin that they could get on the city payroll; some, if they could graft and make money for themselves, while others would accept it if they could reduce their own taxes and that of their relatives.

Then there are some men who would be councilmen because they have pride in their city—who expect to make Prestonsburg their home for life and want a better place in which to live and raise their families—who want to stay up with the progress made by other cities on the Big Sandy, who want better and cleaner streets, better street lights, sidewalks, sewers and police and fire protection. In other words, they are not for reducing their own taxes and letting their neighbors foot the bill.

The men running on the Progressive Ticket have proved that they won't put their relatives on the city payroll, that they want a better Prestonsburg and are willing to give their time to see that it is. They have given you a better and cleaner city. They have paid off $10,000 worth of debts made by other city councils (read the financial statement in the Floyd County Times).

Let's not go in debt again—let's pay as we go.
