FIRE SEASON

The fall forest fire season is now at hand and it is hard to estimate the damage that will be done to young trees and seedlings before winter weather lessens the danger of forest fires.

On my way to Woodbury Monday I saw two fires burning on Left Beaver Creek. One was between DeWitt and Sulphur and the other above DeWitt. Neither of these fires had been reported to Forest Ranger Palmer Cram, or any of his deputies. It seems to me that it would be very little effort for anyone to call Palmer Cram at Betsy Laine, when they break out in their neighborhood.

In the spring of 1950 there were 63 known forest fires in this county and 35 fires burned 1949 acres and the damage was conservatively estimated at $4,269. If cost 50 cents an acre to put these fires out, I would out the cost of putting out fires if they could be found before they spread over so much territory. The people who live in the neighborhood would also benefit from the green woodland and wildlife.

HELP KEEP FLOYD COUNTY GREEN. Report forest fires immediately. Don't depend on someone else to do it. Just call Palmer Cram, Betsy Laine, or any fire warden.

Some of the coal companies in this county are making an effort to replant the forests that have been cut over too close or have been burned out. A look at these young trees would convince anyone of the value of reforestation.

Mrs. Allen Is Fifth In Knott-co. Family To Die In Two Years

The death on Nov. 2 in a Detroit hospital of Mrs. Allen Hall Allen, 32, wife of Carl Allen, formerly of Pyramid and Prestonsburg, marked the fifth death in two years in the family of David (Sonny) Hall, of Dema.

Two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Hall were killed in auto wrecks, a son-in-law was killed by accidental electrocution, and a grandchild died soon afterward—all within two years.

Says Stenographer For Judge May Get As Much As $7,200

A fiscal court may employ a stenographer for the County Judge and pay her up to $7,200 a year. Assistant Attorney General M. B. Holtfield said Wednesday. County Judge Henry Stumbo noted a law that fixed the stenographer's pay at not more than $1,800 a year. Various deductions from the stenographer's pay checks make the annual take-home pay less than that Stumbo wanted to know if the salary could be raised to compensate for the deductions. Holtfield said the 1950 salary law abolished the $1,800 maximum and gave the fiscal courts power to fix salaries of county officials at not more than $7,200 annually, the constitutional maximum for local government officials and workers.

what happens to every cent you pay us for electric service is a matter of PUBLIC RECORD

The law of this state requires us to report to the state public utility commission for every penny we receive and spend.

Each year we must file complete statements with the Commission on our income, expenses, and other details of our operations, for it is the duty of the Commission to see that our service is adequate and that our charges for electricity are fair and reasonable.

This conscientious regulation by your own State

Besides that, you deal with a company that pays its full share of taxes, that is sincerely interested in community welfare, and that provides dependable facilities well in advance of community growth.

All this is your assurance that service will continue to be adequate and reliable and that rates will continue to be fair.

4,000 WATCH P'BURG TEAM CLAW TIGERS

The Prestonsburg Black Cats ended their regular season last Friday night with a smashing 21-6 victory on enemy soil over their arch-rivals, the Paintsville Tigers, thus setting off a chain of week-end football happenings which ended up in the Cats winning the coveted Big Sandy Conference championship.

The game, witnessed by upwards of 4,000 persons, was featured by a hard play by both teams with the Prestonsburg team clearly outclassing the Tigers, an eleven which won its first game had lost only one game during the year.

A rugged Prestonsburg defense held Paintsville to four first downs during the entire game. Meanwhile, Prestonsburg was rolling up 12 first downs on 150 yards gained rushing and 118 yards on passes.

Hughes at quarterback and Mayo at halfback featured the Cats on attack. Hughes hit his receivers for nine completions and one touchdown on 11 passes, and Mayo, besides flashing a brilliant running game, bordered on the sensational as a receiver.

Prestonsburg drew blood in the first quarter when Hughes lobbed a pass which Mayo leaped high to take in the end zone with a Paintsville man on his either side. Hughes kicked the extra point, and repeated with unerring kicks on the next two Cat markers, even making good twice on one touchdown, when the first kick was nullified by an official penalty.

Paintsville came back in the second quarter to score when Coleman, the Tigers' backfield skeler, got away from the Prestonsburg 45 to score. The kick for extra points failed, and the two teams left the field at halftime with the score 7 to 6.

After the intermission, the game was Prestonsburg's show. Another Hughes pass to Mayo set up the second touchdown in the third quarter. Mayo took the ball to the Paintsville backfield, whirled running and was not stopped till he had reached the Paintsville 11. On the next play he carried to the 1, and from there Cardell crashed across for the third touchdown.

Don Carter, Cat fullback, had the best average on making plays during the game, gaining an average of 11.8 yards on each six times he carried the ball.

In the preceeding tabulation of the vote (see Section 5, this edition) the vote for Orville Howard for State Treasurer in Prestonsburg No. 1 should be 222 instead of 122 as printed.

LOW-DOWN on a high-powered Performer

Let us tell you this: The Buick pictured here packs more power than you find in any other car of its size and room and price.

That's the power of Buick's newest high-compression valve-in-head eight—the F-263 Fireball Engine, that really gets miles from a gallon of gas.

Add to this the fact that it tips the scales at 3817 pounds—curb—and you begin to see why this big-bodied beauty is such a nimble-footed number out on the road.

But that's only Chapter I of the performance story.

There's a big-car feel to the way this trim traveler covers the ground—hugs the curves—holds its course on the straightaway—smothers the bumps with its big soft coil springs on all four wheels.

There's a big-car room inside—six-passenger room—headroom, hiproom, shoulderroom, knee-room, front and back.

Come in, look it over, and we think you'll agree—it's big in everything but price.

And that's where it really shines. If you've shopped around you'll know what we mean when we read the price tags, and what they include in the way of standard equipment that shows up as "extras" on so many others. Such things as an oil filter, air cleaner, vacuum booster, built-in summer ventilation are all yours at no extra charge.

It's hard to believe but it's true. If you can afford a new car, you can afford this Buick at the prices we're quoting today.

Better come in and look it over with your eyes.

Apprenticeship System Would Help Labor Force, State Editors Are Told

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 13 (Sp1)—Kentucky must step up its efforts to reorganizing states in the industry as to expand to the point required by national demand.

The state accompanied a meeting explaining the Kentucky apprenticeship program and urged editors, community leaders, to make themselves familiar with the program and to help promote it.

Through an active apprenticeship system, the state will maintain a skilled worker force, provide opportunity for the youth of Kentucky and keep a higher production rate.

An apprentice is a person at least 16 years old who enters a training program to learn a skill requiring at least 4,000 hours of instruction.

The regular meeting of the W.S.C.S. was held at the home of Mrs. W. K. Allen. The group met on Nov. 12 before the regular meeting time and enjoyed a fried chicken dinner.

The meeting followed with Mrs. R. L. Anderson, the president, presiding. Another item of business was a report on the Week of Prayer and Self-Denial program, which was planned by Mrs. R. E. Williamson.

The conclusion of the business meeting a short social hour followed. Those present were Mesdames R. L. Anderson, A. J. Van Kammen, G. H. Blackmore, James George, Edward Lykins, Deakie George, R. E. Williamson, T. J. Chandler, E. P. Davis, W. E. Allen and three guests.

SPORTS AFIELD

All duck hunters will be pleased with the report that Jimmy Robinson just landed a me. He says: The duck hunting outlook is the best in years. Barring a catastrophe, Canada is sure to send more ducks down through the flyways of the United States this fall than for a good many years.

In virtually all sections of the great Canadian breeding area, from western Alberta to western Ontario and from the international boundary far north into the tundra, duck production has been the best since the war.

Most ducks came north this spring than last year. Alberta and Saskatchewan had a good-sized increase. The Manitoba migration was down from last year but as this is written, at least as many young birds are on the wing as last year.

Further north, this Manitoba decrease was more apparent than real because last year dry conditions in eastern Saskatchewan sent large numbers of these nesters into Manitoba.

Angus Gavin, manager of Canadian Ducks Unlimited, and Bert Cartwright, chief naturalist of D.U., have flown over 10,000 miles of the breeding grounds and they also have the analysis of several thousand representatives. They told me that the young duck situation in mid-Saskatchewan has been so uniformly good over such a wide area.

While natural moisture conditions this spring and summer were usually good, the benefits of the D.U. water development and restoration work were again pointedly demonstrated. The same observation should be made for the provinces. Their work of the last several years on duck raising has been extremely important.

In this country, North Dakota is the biggest waterfowl-producing state. It reports excellent overall prospects. The South Dakota outlook is good (it's said that this state now produces as many ducks west of the Missouri River in ponds developed for watering stock as the total South Dakota kill). In Montana, ducks are in good shape. All in all, it looks like good hunting.

I had a mother who read me things that wholesome life to the boy heart brings. Stories that stir with an upward touch. Oh, that each mother of boys were such.

You may have tangible wealth untold, Caskets of jewels and coffers of gold. Richer than I you can never be—I had a mother who read to me.

IT'S A GOOD WORLD

BY WILMAY

(Opinions expressed herein do not necessarily reflect those of The Times.)

The column is devoted to National Book Week because Mrs. Sallie Osborne of Hills wrote requesting our opinion on funny books. She is opposed to them. We agree with her if only because she is right about the nation, the most eminent authorities on juvenile delinquency warned the public a decade ago about the dangers from comics.

We let our children fill their minds with junk much of which according to experts, contains ideas for crimes. We would never think of letting a child get his breakfast from a garbage can, but the eleven million comic books bought and devoured monthly by American children are the equivalent of trash.

The average child of high school age reads the funnies, but he can't even name the classics. He cares little, if anything, for good literature that will be helpful to him in later years, because no one cultivates a taste for it within him.

Children prefer candy and ice cream to spinach or vegetables, but no sane parent gives them more of the former. Instead we limit the latter and teach them to like vegetables. So, similarly, we can prepare the soil of their young minds so that they are capable of appreciating the best in literature all their lives.

In the December McCall a year ago one mother told how she started her toddlers with the best of books, and introduced each child to the "fairland of story books."

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Rondei Hayes, of Haysville, adore books so that someone said their parents make their books actually, true and Rondei started early in the children's lives to make them WANT to read. Therein lies the secret of success. It is not a simple task but it can be done when intelligent parents try.

Parents who can appreciate the best provide their children with suitable material at all ages. Youngsters from such homes are usually excellent readers and a good reader is nearly always a good student. Pupils from homes with good books generally lead their classes. Teachers can often pick them out of the crowd the first day of school.

The years from two to six are crucial ones that count most. The grounds laid then is no less important than the foundation of a building, and must be equally solid and sound. This does not mean every child should receive a book worm. But no boy or girl loses through becoming familiar, at every age of life, with a wealth of good books of numerous kinds.

Librarians all over the land benomoe the fact that few children now choose the best. The majority who do read at all to any extent want trifles, and we adults are to blame. This habit or tendency offers one explanation for lowered scholastic work on the part of many. Mothers more than any one else can change it but only if they know the difference between the good and the bad, and what is in between.

Floyd Five Are Members Of Pikeville Cage Squad

Pikeville, Ky., Nov. 12 (Sp1)—Floyd County youth men, three of them former Garrett high school basketball players, are among the 14 members of the Pikeville College Bears' 1951-52 cage squad. It was announced today.

James Duff, of Garrett, and Douglas Lafferty, former captain of the Martin Purple Hawks, are two of the three veteran players around whom Coach Walter Hambrick has built his first edition of the Bears.

Coyot Bolen and Mack Stone, both of Garrett, and Paul D. Hager, of Auxler, are the other Floyd countyans who will appear with the Bears as they open their season against the Mayo State Vocational School Pirates here, Nov. 20.

Duff, son of Ira Duff, Garrett, and Lafferty, son of the late Bill Lafferty, were consistently good scorers last year as Pikeville hung up the best playing record in the Kentucky Junior College Athletic Conference. Hambrick said Duff, a six-foot, four-inch forward, registered a total of 433 points in 27 games last year, and Lafferty got 87 in 12 games he played during the spring semester.

Bolen, son of French Bolen, was active in basketball and baseball before his graduation from Garrett high in 1949. Stone, who was graduated there last spring, is the son of Robert Stone, of Garrett.

Hager, a 1951 graduate of Auxler high school, was a prominent athlete and member of various clubs there. His father is Paul E. Hager, Auxler.

The Bears will meet four senior-college teams during their 23-game season, during which they will tangle 12 times with teams of other members of the state junior-college conference. Their 1951-52 card includes "B" teams and freshman teams from Morehead and Marshall Colleges and the University of Louisville, as well as the first five of Milligan College, Milligan, Tenn.

The Bears' other winter player is George Bailey, of Hindman high school. Other first-year men on the squad are Steve Adams, Jeremiah, from Stuart Robinson high school; James Carter, Allen Cline and Franklin Keese, Pikeville College Academy; Ralph Greer, Dalton; Doug Hinkle and John Williams, Inez; and Wendell Walsh, Meade Memorial high school.

14 Girl Scouts Receive Tenderfoot Badges Here

Fourteen intermediate Girl Scouts, of Troop No. 9, received their Tenderfoot badges and took part in an investiture ceremony on November 9. There are 19 members of the troop under the leadership of Mrs. Arnold Compton, and they have 100 per cent attendance record.

Those who received their Tenderfoot badges last week are Judy Allen, Martha A. Burchett, Judy Caldwell, Judy Clifton, Betty Balckridge, Martha Sue May, Judith W. Ellis, Edie Cook, Georgia Archer, Sharon Sirkle, Judy Howard, Judy Woods, Jerry Clifton, Joy Cyrus, and Terry Leah Wick.

Three other girls in the troop completed tenderfoot requirements last year. They are Peggy Parker, Kay Roberts, and Lida Shepherd. A new member of the troop is Shirley Preston.

Members of Troop 7, under leadership of Mrs. Rainey White, are collecting coathangers to help in the Girl Scout financial drive. Anyone wishing to contribute to this drive may contact Mrs. White or Mrs. Ray Davis.

TO THE PEOPLE OF FLOYD COUNTY:

Please accept my sincere thanks for the splendid vote you gave to me on November 6. I am deeply gratified that the vote did not fall strictly along party lines and that many liberal Republicans saw fit to cast their vote for me. I could not possibly have won without the active support of a great many loyal friends, both Democrat and Republican, and I am very grateful to all of them. Space does not permit even a partial list of those who are responsible for my success but I do want to mention Mrs. Eva Meade Hall, who voluntarily and without hope of reward contributed so much of her time and energy in my behalf. I will do my best to fulfill the hopes of my friends and will attempt, at all times, to conduct myself in such manner as will reflect credit on the people of Floyd county and Eastern Kentucky. Sincerely, BERT T. COMBES

TO OPEN SEMI-PRO'S SEASON

WHISKERED WIZARDS The Whiskered Wizard high school basketball team was named "Coach of the Year" in Kentucky for 1950. It may not be in order for lighting to strike in the same place twice, but it will accept promptly dump into the waste basket any possible reason anybody can hatch up why this guy Perrell is as deserving in 1951. The boys, all of them, all credit for stous performance through a stiff schedule. Without them and their great spirit and their eagerness to play, their coach would have fared badly for all his ability. But "Doc" Perrell's record is so consistently fine, his leadership and his ability to "put across" football know-how have been so outstanding, that even that team of his cannot eclipse his record. Without a mentor of this type the brilliance of outstanding players might never have been discovered, and the all-round strength of the team certainly would not have developed. Perrell, D. T., coach of the T.

THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME

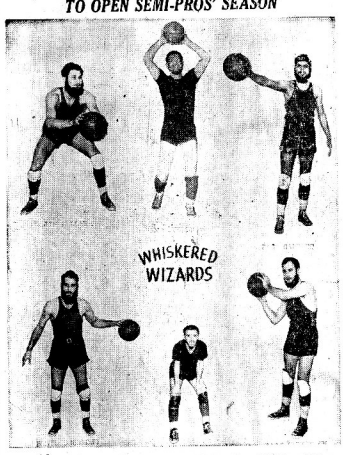

Here's an idea for Jimmy Hatlo's "They'll Do It Every Time" cartoon that anybody's welcome to. Bigdome reads in the newspaper a news-story which falls to reflect glory on a rival firm. "Hatlo!" roars Mr. B. "That's what I call honest, fearless reporting," he tells his bored office mates. "On such newspapers as these rest the hopes of our pr-great country, I tell you. Liberty—freedom is the press—aladdin of truth—bitch, blast!"

Good Elementary Schools Teach the Deeper Values

Good elementary schools help children develop... Respect for others. Appreciation of beauty. Understanding of and faith in oneself. Appreciation of the good things of life. Concern for the welfare of others. Generosity and kindness. Honesty and integrity. Loyalty to domestic ideals. In good elementary schools children have: Common experiences, because they need to develop democratic attitudes and behavior. Different experiences, because no two children are alike. Many chances to experience the thrill that comes from work well-done. Opportunities to do interesting things such as reading good books, working creatively with wood or metal, playing group games, drawing, painting, sculpturing, playing a musical instrument, enjoying good recorded music, collecting rocks, butterflies, insects. Good schools provide for the well-rounded development of every child.

Many farmers in Muhlenberg county are discouraged with further seeding of alfalfa due to the stand dying out quickly.

Whatever the Fuel Your Car Burns, It's Not Tax-Free in State

No matter what kind of fuel your car or truck burns, that fuel is taxable under Kentucky law. This was pointed out by David K. Walker, Director of Excises, Department of Revenue in Frankfort, in response to inquiries, chiefly in regard to the use of propane gas as motor fuel. Walker explained that Kentucky's tax laws on motor fuels other than gasoline are based on use of the highways. Fuels "other than gasoline" are covered by a law amended by the 1948 Kentucky legislature. This law covers "all combustible gases and liquids used in an internal combustion engine for the generation of power to propel vehicles on the public highways," Walker cited. There is an excise tax of seven cents a gallon on any and all high-type fuel. Gasoline tax is collected at the filling station. Persons using other types of fuel must obtain a license from the Department of Revenue at Frankfort, must furnish bond, keep required records and make monthly reports to the department. Walker said some confusion exists over the use of propane or "bottled gas" as motor fuel. It comes under the seven-cents-a-gallon tax, too, although it is sold by the pound. The Department of Revenue uses a formula for translating pounds of this fuel into equivalent gallons.

Although Betover is rated the No. 1 high school football power in the Commonwealth, that team tonight (Thursday) will be meeting in Mt. Sterling's Recreation Bowl in the Prestonsburg high school Black Cats the greatest offensive eleven ever to represent the school and currently the top-seeded team in Kentucky.

In the Recreation Bowl, one of the state's top post-season high school events, for the second year in a row, the eighth-rated Cats will be in the under-dog role and on top of that have to play their regular night tackle out of the game with a badly injured star, Prestonsburg's team, its coach and followers of the eleven are conceding nothing to the bigger boys from Bellevue.

The game will be the last high school gridiron contest for seven first-string seniors, Alex Patton, Bill Jim Compton, Morris Ishell, who will not get into uniform and may not even see the game), Melvin Pennington, Farrell Burton, Walter Caudill, Jimmy Mayo and Dan Carver.

Given a reasonably dry field to make their passing and running game at its potent best, the Cats will give a good account of themselves, though, and there are many who will tell you a firm field is all that is necessary for a Prestonsburg victory, even if the odds are against them.

Early this afternoon the hearse from Prestonsburg to Mt. Sterling, the new football precept for a day, began, and tonight a large part of the town's population is missing.

One who performs stayed behind remarked, "There aren't enough people left to fight a fire." Although the entire Prestonsburg team as an offensive and defensive unit is necessary for the Cats' showing against any opposition, the offensive tonight will hinge largely on the aerial sharpshooters of Delmar Hughes, junior quarterback sensation, and Jimmy Mayo, a senior, whose snifty, elusive running and great work as a pass-receiver has ranked him one of the top three scorers of the state and brought him wide acclaim throughout Eastern Kentucky.

Mayo has scored 20 touchdowns during the regular season schedule, has averaged 14.5 yards for each time he carried the ball, and has also done his team's punting, averaging 45 yards per kick.

Hughes has already passed for 20 touchdowns completed, 197 of his aerial shots, has scored nine touchdowns and has scored 44 extra points in 52 attempts.

The other halfback, "Wah-Wah" Caudill, has scored seven touchdowns and has played even more brilliantly, defensively. Dan Carver at fullback has scored six markers. Johnny Hill and Alex Patton, ends, have each scored twice or more.

Standout in a stout line is Melvin Pennington, whose aggressive play again has won him an all-conference berth.

Big Tom Spradlin will probably start tonight's game in the Recreation Bowl in the place usually occupied by Ishell. Others expected to start are: Hill and Patton ends; Caudill, tackle; Pennington and Gibbs, guards; Burton, center; Hughes, Mayo, Caudill and Carver, in the backfield.

Seventh-Grader Stars As Salyers Br. School Wins Rural Tournament

Led by a sharpshooting center, seventh-grader Birchell Sexton, the Salyers Branch school won the Floyd county rural school basketball tournament Tuesday night in the Martin gym, ending the last of the activities of the annual Floyd county rural school field day.

The Salyers Branch team defeated the Upper Prater school, 52 to 15, as Sexton poured 32 points through the hoops.

In the semi-final round Monday night, Salyers Branch defeated the Sam Hale school by an unobtainable 105 to 9, with Sexton scoring 43 points and the two Gayheart brothers adding 40 more.

Sixty-two rural school teams started the basketball eliminations in October. Salyers Branch was the Martin section winner. Prater won in the Besay Layne section and in the two Prestonsburg sections the winners were Sam Hale and Bonanza.

Purple Flash Loses 3 Regulars But Wins Over Hindman, Auxier

Although crippled by the loss of three boys on whom Coach Detmar Halbert had counted on heavily for this season's grind, the Martin Purple Flash opened its 1951-52 basketball season last week with two victories, one over a strong Hindman five.

The Flash defeated Auxier in the season-opener, Tuesday night, 30 to 24. Friday night, the Martin team and Hindman all the way to score a 58-52 win.

Ronald Tackett, one of the Martin team's tallest and most talented players, is out for the season with a torn cartilage in his knee. He is in London, where he submitted to surgery. Out of the line-up temporarily are Gaines and Peters, both of whom are veterans of last year's fine team.

The Martin-Hindman line-ups:
Martin (58) ... Fox Hindman (52)
Grigsby (49) ... P. ... Conley (2)
Pruitt (46) ... P. ... Campbell (2)

SURE ELECTION IS DIVINELY GUIDED

To prove more of my points, I wish to call attention to all readers of The Floyd County Times who have been interested in my articles. If I am never permitted to speak or write another letter, I am sure all wise people will know my work in the sure election of my neighbor, Bert T. Combs, was God-inspired and rewarded. I do not know any other man on earth I could have held up before the general public any more worthy or in favor with God and man than Bert T. Combs.

By chance I met Bert T. Combs in late 1946. I had a very serious and profitable problem to solve and could not get any one qualified to help me solve it. The County Attorney told me I had a hard problem. I told him when I was a girl, if I could not solve a problem in the day, I dreamed it out at night.

It took me a long, hard struggle and with God's help and Bert T. Combs' we certainly won a victory. When I first met Bert T. He asked me a few questions. I answered to his satisfaction, and then I asked him did he believe there was any one on earth whose prayers God would hear and answer? He answered me, "I believe there are a few." I told him God revealed to me I was in a crowd called a few. He answered, I do not doubt it. Then I entered him on my prayer list to hold up as a God-fearing lawyer.

I never saw him but a few times and did not know any of his past record he now has before the public until my first article appeared in July of 1951.

I did not say anything about any one who opposed him. My whole motive was love of God and love of country and to prove that when God begins a work in any individual He is able to finish it. I know my work is individual and an exception to the rule among women.

I have lived a hard, lonely life and have to practice self-denial. I am a woman of sorrows and acquainted with grief. A lot of people may want to know about my church affiliations. At the present time, on account of misunderstanding of men as to the duty of women, I only claim Hebrews 12:28 "To the general assembly and church of the first-born, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect." I know one of the Commandments says, "Thou shalt not covet." But 1 Cor. 12:13 Chapter, 31st verse says, "Covet earnestly the best gifts, and yet show I unto you a more excellent way."

I have always been a handicapped woman with a great responsibility. But I have always stood on the solid platform. Honesty and truthfulness will be rewarded in a miraculous way, here for ignorant and unlearned men to understand.

Letter-writing has proven to be one of my best gifts, and it just takes the power of God to stop my letter writing. Men have sure failed to stop me. Sure Election of God, 1st Thim. 1-4. Knowing brethren believed your Election of God, Privilege of Election (Rom. 8:28) and we know all things work together for good to them that love God, who are called according to his purpose. Privilege continued 2nd Peter 1:10.

Wherefore the rather brethren give diligence to make your calling and election sure:

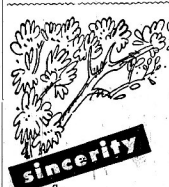

For if ye do these things ye shall never fall. Bible courts established by Moses, Jewish Courts (Ex. 18:12-26). Corruption of Courts (Micah 7:3).

The unjust judge and important widow is fully explained in St. Luke 18th Chapter. I brought that out very plain in my article of faith, and my Webster's dictionary says, Statue of Liberty, national monument is a statue of a woman. Liberty, enlightening the world. Despite all men our nation can say or do they can not prove by the Bible, nor the Statue of Liberty, that Christ ever rebuked a woman of any type to please a man.

So I thank God more than words or pen can express that I have studied my Bible and held on to the Promise of our Constitution that our old forefathers and our precious jewels marched out, and are still marching out, to fight and die for freedom of women just the same as they do men; that I have never let any blind guide or false prophet lead me into a ditch or condemn my works.

I walk, talk, sit, stand, eat and wear a knowing doctrine. If I have not put in force and action nobly low, I know no more to do until God reveals to me a deeper love, and if Bert T. Combs fails to prove all I have said or done for him, I am through with men and politics, now and forever, and will try to finish my days the life of a Hermit.

Sincerely and prayerfully,
EVA MEADE HALL

More Than 'Legal Liquor' Is Threatened

CHAIRMAN Guy C. Shearer, of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board, in a news release showing the number of moonshine stills destroyed by ABC agents in Kentucky since July 1, 1951, concluded with this statement:

"We are grateful to local officers for their cooperation in endeavoring to break up this unlawful industry, a threat to the taxpaying legal liquor industry."

Reading this statement, one wonders if Mr. Shearer was being frank to a fault or, perchance, he in the rush of business, simply failed to cover the subject as fully as he might.

Surely Mr. Shearer's gratitude to local officers arises from some concern other than his desire to see the "taxpaying legal liquor industry" protected from illegal competition. Somehow, we have always been naive enough to think the destruction of moonshine stills cuts off a source of lawlessness which produces more lawlessness and is intended, in a measure, to protect lawabiding citizens from the annoyance and threats of moonshine neers and bootlegging ringleaders.

The Times is loath to lay over-much blame at Mr. Shearer's feet solely on his brief statement, but sees in the concern expressed by him for the legal liquor industry one of the reasons no more efficient work is done over the state toward curbing bootlegging of tax-paid liquors.
