This Town That World

Then there was the case of the woman who at the age of 14 gave birth to a beautiful boy who was about to be taken to the hospital by a doctor. Her husband, who was about to be taken to the hospital by a doctor, was about to be taken to the hospital by a doctor.

When the doctor came to the hospital, he found the woman in a state of shock. She was about to be taken to the hospital by a doctor.

HIGHER COSTS OF OPERATION TO HURT COAL

Under New Contract, Is Operator's View; Pay Increase, $1.90

Floyd county coal operators took a dim view of the new contract agreed to by the Southern Coal Producers Association, Tuesday, but all except one company had signed the pact, it was learned here Wednesday afternoon.

The new contract, it was said, had not been signed but was expected to do so soon.

"Every increase in expense increases the differential already hurting us," one operator explained in discussing effect of the contract on this section. He expressed the fear that many small mines, particularly truck operations, will not be able to meet the new contract.

Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern Coal Producers Association, signed with Lewis on the same terms which the U.M.W. leader secured in getting from the rest of the bituminous industry.

The agreement calls, among other things, for a pay increase of $1.90 a day.

Moody said a few individual companies "his association were holding out," but in most instances they will be straightened out within the next few days.

Lewis, too, said he hoped and expected the Dixie holdouts to sign soon. The union boss said the pact would be spread from a strike for the next day or two while the owners make up their minds.

The Southern group had faced an old dilemma. Once again Lewis had won an agreement from Northern and Western producers that the Southern's felt was too costly. But they had little choice— it was to take the same terms, or face an all-out strike.

The contract terms, which Lewis won from the North and handed the Dixie producers on a take-it-or-leave-it basis, also called for a 10-cent-a-ton increase in the overpaid royalty financing the union's welfare fund. The royalty now paid amounts to 40 cents a ton and the daily basic wage $12.25.

Most miners earn more than the daily wage, but some of them don't work a full five-day week. Lately the men have been averaging not quite four days a week. The industry has said that the miners' labor costs will mean a coal-price increase.

LAKE TESTING IS BEING MADE

For Third Time; Clark Says Impoundment Is Not Suited to Smallmouth

Tests were made Wednesday afternoon and today on Dewey Lake by the Game and Fish Commission. Clark said modern equipment will not necessarily prevent or localize the impoundment— demonstrated by such disasters as those at Centralia, Ill. in 1947, where 111 miners died, and West Point, Ill. in December, 1951, where 119 were killed.

On the contrary, the circular said, "mechanical operations prevent the escape of gas, which if not understood and corrected, may lead to further disasters."

Modern ventilation, the circular said, necessitates a departure from previous concepts, which prescribed the quantity of air on the sole basis of men and animals employed, and gave little thought to ventilating worked-out areas, the number of shafts, the difference between intake or return air, and isolating ignition sources.

The recommendations are: 1. A split system of ventilation not more than two—preferably not more than one—mechanized unit per shaft.

2. The air in each split should be circulated to each active working place and all dead ends on the split.

3. A mechanical blower should be used to draw worked-out areas, the number of shafts, the difference between intake or return air, and isolating ignition sources.

4. Worked-out, abandoned areas should be either ventilated or sealed.

5. The ventilation system should be designed to take care of the working faces without interruption.

Induction Call Oct. 9 For 13 Men, Board Says

The induction call for Oct. 9 will be for 13 men, according to a list released by Local Board No. 25, this week. Two of these were called previously but did not report, it was said.

The men called are: Herbert Woodington, Emma; Denver Scott, Lucky; Donald Howard Layne, Beta; Layne; Earned Hall, Layne; now Warsaw, Ind.; Alford Jones; Greedy; O. P. Prater; Haysville; Robert George Vickers; Meville; Raymond Stephens, Beta; Layne; Perry; now, Buckingham; Junior Cross, Ligon; Delmer Banks; Weathersby; Conley Hawkins; Langley, now Sidney; O. Tennyson; Thurston; Garrett.

WINSTON FORD HAS LOW BID

On Prater Creek Road; Bull Creek and Abbott Work Will Be Delayed

The Winston Ford Company of Lexington has the lowest bid of $5.9 million for high way construction on the Prater Creek-Mary Creek road, but it was notified after the State Highway Department opened bids on the project last Friday. The firm's bid was $174,600.00.

Work on both bids was suspended last Friday because of the failure of Columbus to leave that channel and go to Channel 5, it was stated.

Heavily a clever picture and better sound when Columbus makes its proposed change.

Another contractor, George Dotch, owner of the Independence Contracting Company, has informed B. E. Morgan, Commissioner of Public Highways, that he will not be able to begin work this year on two road contracts his firm has in this county. These are the Bull Creek and Abbott Creek road work that was advertised for blacktopping.

Dotch explained that he will be unable to get slag for use on the two routes before November 1. The slag, he indicated by the invitation extended to the Prestonsburg Mayor to be a member of the regular, Baptist Church 50 years ago.

Writing are his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Ginnella Hicks, and the following sons and daughters: Joseph Hicks, Garrett, Mrs. Olga Trusty, Mrs. May Lewis and Mrs. Jay Lewis, all of Garrett, Mrs. Nov. Busser, of Davis, and Mrs. Alpha brother, Joseph Hicks, and one sister, Mrs. Rosa Belle Wicker, both of Prestonsburg, and one son, Mr. Charles Leach, also survive.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a. m. at the home of the late Mrs. Leach, 1000 friends and relatives are invited to attend.

SAFETY STEPS ARE OFFERED

By Bureau of Mines To Prevent Blasts; Nine Steps Listed

The Bureau of Mines this week recommended nine safety steps to be followed to ventilating coal mines to reduce explosion hazards. The bureau in an information circular, said modern equipment will not necessarily prevent or localize the impoundment— demonstrated by such disasters as those at Centralia, Ill. in 1947, where 111 miners died, and West Point, Ill. in December, 1951, where 119 were killed.

On the contrary, the circular said, "mechanical operations prevent the escape of gas, which if not understood and corrected, may lead to further disasters."

4. Worked-out, abandoned areas should be either ventilated or sealed.

5. The ventilation system should be designed to take care of the working faces without interruption.

No electrical equipment other than that approved as permissible by the Bureau should be taken into or operated in other than pure-in-take air unless such conditions are met.

EILAND TELLS TV PROBLEMS

WSAZ Program Director Sees Better Reception With Columbus Change

Columbus should switch to Channel 5 next month and leave better reception of TV, was the belief expressed Thursday evening by Ed Eiland, program director of WSAZ-TV, Huntington, W. Va., in a talk before the Prestonsburg Kiwanis Club.

Discussion of television problems as they affect this section, Eiland said, was the main theme of his address.

He pointed out a clever picture and better sound when Columbus makes its proposed change.

Another contractor, George Dotch, owner of the Independence Contracting Company, has informed B. E. Morgan, Commissioner of Public Highways, that he will not be able to begin work this year on two road contracts his firm has in this county. John A. Hicks, who held the distinction of having served both Floyd and Knott counties as a member of their fiscal courts, died at 12:35 p. m. Sunday, at his home at Garrett, a victim of paralysis.

He was 75 years of age. The former Magistrate was stricken last June 27 and rallied from his illness. A Republic, he died a week before his passing. News of his death was received with deep regret by hundreds of friends in the two counties.

JURY DECIDES PRATER TRIAL IN 5 MINUTES

Acquittal Is Voted; In Slaying of Hicks; Verdict Term Is Next

A jury of the Floyd circuit court required about five minutes Saturday to decide a murder case, the trial of which had consumed three days.

The verdict was returned time that Wiley Prater, Middle Creek truck mine operator, was not guilty of murder in the slaying of John Hicks at the mine pit which is located near the homes of the two men.

The jury deliberated during the trial followed that procedure: the examining trial here. This evidence examined Hicks had previously threatened Prater with a rifle and at the time of the shooting was in the act of throwing a pistol coil at Prater.

The "hung" jury in the trial of former Prestonsburg, Police Officer Bill Kazez, charged with shooting at Elmer Carter, Daley, Harry Badridge, Earl Prater, and others, during the September court term, Saturday. A second trial of Kazez was docketed for Nov. 20.

Anderson Is Speaker At Community Service, Traces Bible History

"The Word of Life in Living Language" was the theme of the Rev. Robert L. Anderson's address Tuesday evening at the Community Service here commemorating the publication of the Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Thirty-two scholars have worked 12 years on this translation. Divine inspiration did not end with the first writing of Scriptures, but has been present in every revision and translation, Rev. Anderson said.

The Rev. Anderson is director of the Upper Big Sandy Parish and chairman of the Town and County Commission of the Methodist Church.

There have been from 150 to 200 different translations of the Bible. The speaker said. John Wycliffe made the first English translation. In 1525 Miles Cuthbert published the first completely printed Bible, using the translation of William Tyndale, who was later put to death for his work with this translation.

The beloved King James Version was published in 1611. The purpose of the King James Version as stated in its preface is also the purpose of the Revised Standard Version, stated Mr. Anderson—not to replace an old translation, but to make a good one better. Behind the Bible is the passion of God to reveal Himself to man, and the hope of this and all previous translations, is and has been that "God will step out of the framework of Scripture into the life of man."

The speaker also brought humor into his learned discussion. He told how one unenlightened person said, "If the King James Version printed in 1611 was good enough for Paul, it is good enough for me."

Five outstanding Christian laymen were awarded Bibles by Dr. Gertrude A. Haggard, who presided; Dr. C. L. Hutsinspiller, A. C. Harlowe, Dan Nealer, Ray Howard and Sam Hale.

Why Must Our People Leave Home To Get Jobs?

We have two of the richest valleys in the U. S. right here in the Big Sandy and Kentucky River sections. Yet thousands of our people have had to leave here and go to Michigan, Indiana and Ohio to get work. Why? We must attract factories to Eastern Kentucky if we expect to survive economically. How can we do this? The U.S. Government has loaned billions of dollars to build factories elsewhere, so why weren't any of these built in Eastern Kentucky, where there is such an abundance of good labor? Could it be that we haven't had representation in Washington? What happened to our canalization of the Big Sandy and Kentucky River programs that would have "loomed" our coal mining and could have brought lots of factories to the valley?

Let's wake up and send a man to Washington to represent us who WILL FIGHT to get our rivers canalized and bring factories to Eastern Kentucky to furnish jobs for our people.

That man is CURTIS CLARK, candidate for Congress, A FLOYD COUNTY MAN.

If you will work for me to be elected, I will work for you after I am elected.

BOYS are found everywhere—on top of underneath, inside of climbing out of swinging from, running around, or jumping to. Mothers love them, adults ignore them. A boy is truth with dirt on his face. Wisdom with a cut on his finger. Beauty with bubble gum in his hair and the hope of the future with a frog in his pockets.

When you are busy, a boy is an inconsiderate, bothersome intruder. A single note, when you want him to make a good impression, his brain turns to jelly or else he becomes a jolly, giggling, giggling creature bent on destroying the world and himself with it.

A boy is a composite—he has the appetite of a horse, the digestion of a search swallow, the energy of a pocket-size atomic bomb, the curiosity of a cat, the lungs of a dictator, the imagination of Paul Bunyan, the slyness of a violet, the audacity of a steel trap, the enthusiasm of a fire cracker, and when he makes something he has five thumbs on each hand.

He likes ice cream, knives, saws, Christmas comic books, the water in the street, woods, water, (in its natural habitat), large animals, a good substance, and a good engine. He is not much for Sunday School, company books, neckties, barbers' girls, overcoats, adults or bedtime.

Nobody else is so early to rise, so late to supper. Nobody else can get so much fun out of trees, dogs and creases. Nobody else can cram into one pocket a rusty knife, a ten-cent apple, 3 feet of string, an empty Bull Durham sack, 2 gum drops, 6 cents, a sling shot, a chunk of chewing substance, and a general super-sound code ring with a secret compartment.

A boy is a magical creature—you can lock him in of your work shop, but you can't lock him out of your heart. You can get him out of your study, but you can't get him out of your mind. Might as well give up—he is your captor, your jailor, your boss, and your master—a freckle on his face, plump, fat, chest-binding bundle of noise. But when you come home at night with only the shattered remains of your hopes and dreams, he can mend them like new with the two magic words—"Hi, Dad."

Mud-slinging in the national political campaign is reaching its climax in severity. Religious principles are excluded, moral standards are ignored. Slander, defamation, warnings, false promises, threats—these are familiar words in the political lexicon.

Leaders in each major party are resorting to transgressions because of one's character by accusation of dishonesty and slander.

Survivors are the parents, seven brothers and sisters. Funeral rites were conducted by the Rev. Andy Moore, Sept. 27, at the home and buried followed in the family cemetery on Salt Lick Creek, under the direction of Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

Girl Scout Dist. Board In Meeting Last Week

The Prestonburg district board of Girl Scouts held a meeting at the Prestonburg church here, Thursday, Sept. 25.

Sue May was elected secretary treasurer of the district and large. Burdett, board member-at-large. New troop leaders reported at the meeting and advised of progress but said there was still a shortage of committee members that are filled by mothers of Girl Scouts.

Among various things discussed and reported at the meeting were that Girl Scouts would act as voter aids at the coming election and that each troop will be responsible for its own transportation, all girls to have written permission and a number of mothers should go to assist the scouts.

The scouts will participate in a number of competitive skills and games that is offered on the point system. A prize is judged on the basis of the highest percentage of representatives.

"Senior Girl Scouts," Mrs. Ray Howard said "will be asked to help conduct the 'day's' activities. This is a grand opportunity for Girl Scouts in making new friends."

Girl Scout Dist. Board In Meeting Last Week

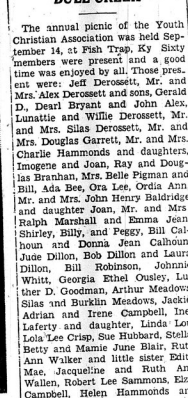

The Prestonburg district board of Girl Scouts held a meeting at the Prestonburg church here, Thursday, Sept. 25.

Sue May was elected secretary treasurer of the district and large. Burdett, board member-at-large. New troop leaders reported at the meeting and advised of progress but said there was still a shortage of committee members that are filled by mothers of Girl Scouts.

Among various things discussed and reported at the meeting were that Girl Scouts would act as voter aids at the coming election and that each troop will be responsible for its own transportation, all girls to have written permission and a number of mothers should go to assist the scouts.

The scouts will participate in a number of competitive skills and games that is offered on the point system. A prize is judged on the basis of the highest percentage of representatives.

"Senior Girl Scouts," Mrs. Ray Howard said "will be asked to help conduct the 'day's' activities. This is a grand opportunity for Girl Scouts in making new friends."

way, so I dumped the repeater. JULY (day of month not stated)—Yesterday I hiked back into the musk about four miles. It is real weird, and the fishing is out of this world. I stopped at a small ripple about four feet wide and caught eight 14-inch cutthroat. I didn't see any fear, but there were lots of tracks.

JULY 20—Today was beautiful, not a cloud anywhere. I waded an osprey dive into the bay and catch fish. He came up with one and when he was about a hundred feet above the water a bald eagle came sailing at the osprey. Being smaller, the osprey dropped the fish and fled. Then the eagle caught the fish before it had dropped to the water again. . . I shot two seals. Both bubbled and sank before I could get them.

JULY 25—I have been moved to a new location on the north shore of the Broadfield Canal, also near the Harding river. . . There are a few people in this area, two fish biologists and another stream guard about seven miles away, and an old woman 10 years old. . . He trawls in the winter and seal hunts. . . I am on an island again, so I'll escape the grizzly worries. . . You should see the paths they have worn around the edge of the bays. . . If you have ever heard the expression, "Crazy as a loon," and could hear some of their cries, you would understand what it means. I have never heard such moans, cries and screams. . . You just take it for granted no one is dying.

The old hermit happened to be a Kentuckian, Hill wrote later, and was something of a character, it seems. JULY 31—The old Kentucky hermit down the way has quite a library and he keeps me well-stocked in reading matter. Even though I'm old, it's good. . . I sure feel sorry for this old-timer. He is 70 but quite lanky and deaf. In his Kentucky days he made me take a quart of his best huckleberry wine, and he is always talking about his dead partner and the —wolves, I guess I'll keep the wine for a souvenir.

AUG. 3—I saw a grizzly with her three nearly grown cubs yesterday. Haven't seen the old man around more. I am going to make one more trip down to get some pictures of him before I leave. He said he was going to Kentucky if he made money prospecting. . . Wish I had a motion picture camera. I could have some fabulous wildlife and fish shots.

AUG. 8—I have been moved to another location to the west of Wrangell. It is on the south abutment of a big island. The bay is Totem Bay. It has two streams, both of which have dog salmon. I watched from the bridge of a commercial fishing boat while they made a haul. It was very interesting; took about 45 minutes and they got 125 dog salmon. . . I can hear the honkers going over. They fly back and forth from their nests to a bar where they get spit each morning and night.

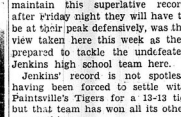

AUG. 14—The salmon run is very poor this year as compared to past years. . . I didn't get a picture of the old man. He was from around Danville. He doesn't need any books—you should see his library. . . I have quit fishing except for food. Last time I went, I lost a lure in a chum salmon. He gave me a battle for a few seconds before breaking the line. Probably weighed 12 pounds. Four ravens are in the trees above me. . . really a weird bird.

AUG. 16—I have seen more bear here than elsewhere, but they are all black. . . Tried all day yesterday to get a seal, but didn't. I found two herds numbering about 10 each. I roared too close before shooting. They lie out on the rocks islands and when they see something they wriggle into the sea. . . I found out that there is another hermit, about 80, who lives five miles further up the Broadfield. He isn't too friendly, though, because he thinks everyone is the Hammers, a family in Wrangell, who shot his dog.

AUG. 22—Had one heck of a storm last Saturday night. Wind and rain. Breakers on the bay filled the boat half full. . . tried to move the boat up on the beach. It filled with water and gravel to the extent I couldn't move it. So the only thing I could do was stand by and keep a tight line while the tide brought it in, which took about four hours. . . One boy left his stream unguarded while he took a little vacation in some village. I learned yesterday. . . that the stream was robbed of 18,000 salmon during this two-day period. . . I have been making a slingshot this morning. . . brings back old memories.

AUG. 25—I have caught (mashed) 15 mice in my deadfall trap. I used one of those Figure 4 triggers. I don't remember who showed me how to make it, but it was some one like Dan Collins or Jaller Hubert who used to buy me pop. . . (The fishing was great and the weather beautiful. Bus. . .) SEPT. 1—The Black Bear came to Totem Bay to pick me up yesterday and I am now in Wrangell. It is great to hear music again. Today I heard a car horn—what a wonder! I sound!

Hinchman Booked For Oakland Team After 1952 Stardom

Delmer Hughes was the big gun of the offense at Elkhorn City. The Prestonsburg quarterback threw four touchdown passes and scored two markers himself on runs Johnny Hill caught two of his touchdowns, Paul Osley and D. Caudill one each. Longest touchdown scored by the Cats was by Sherman Spradlin for 60 yards.

The entire Prestonsburg team looked good against comparatively weak opposition, but the improvement of "Big Tom" Spradlin in the line was most marked. After Friday night's game with Jenkins, the Cats are heads to go for the playoffs on the following Friday evening for Homecoming.

His first professional baseball experience was in 1931 when he signed with the Enterprise, Ala., team of the Alabama-Florida League. There he pitched 11 victories while losing the same number for a last place team. His effectiveness was such, however, that he made the all-star team of that loop, also. Hinchman, who is looking on as Floyd county's best bit for major league representation, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hinchman, of Tramm.

Eight Floyd Countians Report for Basketball At Pikeville Jr. College

Pikeville, Ky., Sept. 29 (Sp.)—Eight Floyd county high school athletes are among the 20 men who reported for opening basketball practice at Pikeville Junior College last week, according to Coach Walter Hambrick, of the Pikeville Bears.

Coyt Bolen, of Garrett, and Paul Hager, of Auxier, are two of the five lettermen from last year around whom Hambrick will build the 1952-1953 Bear squad. The other second-year men are Wendell Wallen, of Williamsport, John Williams and Doug Hink, both of Inez.

The Floyd countians who are out for their first college basketball experience include three former members of the Betsy Layne Bobcats, Benny Joe Fanning, Jack Hopkins and Tommy May; Richard Lyons and Durrell Rice, of the Garrett Black Devils; Earl G. Brannham, of the Wayland Wasps; Douglas C. Jones, of the McDowell Daredavils, and Ben Taylor, of the Martin Purple Flash.

The group includes nine prospects for forward posts, two centers and 11 guards, Hambrick said. Other first-year men represent Carr Creek, Inez, Pikeville, Wolfe County and Williamsport, W. Va., high schools and Pikeville College Academy. The Bears will open their season against the Mayo State Vocational School Pirates here Nov. 17, it was said. Remainder of their schedule will be announced later.

We Let the Visitor Catch the Big Fish

It remained for a visitor to this county from Sioux Falls, S. D., to land, with the assistance of two Floyd county friends, the biggest fish yet to be taken from Dewey Lake. The visitor, R. C. McMahon, with Claude Solvers of Allen, and Denver Amburgey, of Drift, teaming up with him, landed a 19-pound yellow catfish from the lake Saturday afternoon. The big unmeasured 35 inches in length.

On the preceding day, the three caught a 7 1/2-pound yellow cat and a three-pound channel catfish. Minnows were used as bait.

Harold Woman Hurt As One Is Killed, Four Others Injured

Bobby Blackburn, 19, of Peach Orchard section of Pikeville, waived extradition Tuesday and was returned to Pike county from Princeton, W. Va. in connection with the hit-and-run death of Mrs. Alice Boggs, 77, of Pikeville, and injuring of others including a resident of Harold, this county.

Blackburn who was apprehended Monday at Princeton was returned here on two warrants by Trooper Bob Strupp of the Kentucky State Police and City Police Chief Buford Johnson. Princeton officers arrested him on a tip from Snuggs.

The youth, employed by a coal operator, is charged with manslaughter and failure to stop and render aid after an accident. Officers said. Date of an examining trial probably will be announced today. Blackburn at present is held without bond.

Mrs. Boggs, one of six persons struck by a vehicle Friday night on the Ferguson Creek road about a quarter of a mile east of Pikeville, died Saturday at the Pikeville Methodist hospital.

Two other victims of the accident were in improved condition last night at the hospital. They are Mrs. Boggs' son, Eugene, 39, of Pikeville, and Mrs. Emily Gibson, 65, of Harold. Three other persons who were injured in the mishap were treated and released from the hospital. The injured were walking along the road when struck by a car.

County Attorney L. D. May said additional charges against Blackburn will be determined by the recovery of the hospitalized persons.

PLANT VISITS TO BE MADE

By 50 Representatives Of Eastern Kentucky Seeking New Business

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 26 (Sp.)—How to develop and locate industry in Eastern Kentucky—that is the concern of businessmen and civic officials in the state's eastern corridor. Fifty representatives of that area will make a close study of this problem when they visit plants in the Central Kentucky area on October 8 and 9.

Known as the Kentucky Industrial Development Tour, this program was developed by the Industrial Development Committee of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, which recognizes the need for a stimulus to Eastern Kentucky's unbalanced economy. Acquainting leaders in those communities desiring new industry, the group will study the possibilities attendant to locating industrial plants in the community as well as the purpose of this tour.

The tour, under the direction of Joseph A. Getzow, Harrodsburg, president of Spottleigh Hill, Inc., and regional vice-president of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, will visit seven plants in the Louisville area. "We have selected plants which produce a variety of products," Getzow said. "The Eastern Kentucky representatives will have an opportunity to observe operations in plants making apparel, shoes, rubber parts, light bulbs, pencils, refrigerators and radiators. We feel that any of these manufacturing operations that we will visit could effectively operate in Eastern Kentucky community."

The tour will leave Lexington at 8 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 8, for Lebanon. The group will visit the Lebanon Manufacturing Company, producers of ladies' wearing apparel. From there the tour will head for Danville and a visit to the General Shoe Corp. The Berea Rubber Co., Berea, and Westinghouse Electric Corp., Richmond, are scheduled for afternoon tours. On the morning of the second day the group will be conducted through Milledge Penell Co., Georgetown, and the Kawner Co., plant at Cynthiana, which manufactures parts and metal fabrications for government use.

The last plant on the tour's itinerary is that of the Electric Steam Radiator Corp., Paris, which manufactures radiators, electric bottle warmers, and similar heating apparatus. "We are interested in helping those people who desire to do business in Eastern Kentucky," Getzow said, explaining that a tour of the plant facilities is but a small part of the program outlined by the Kentucky Chamber. "We want the business and development leaders of Eastern Kentucky to talk with the top management of these plants so that they might gather first-hand information on what an industry looks like in a community in which it would like to locate and operate a plant."

"Of equal importance," Getzow continued, "is the opportunity these leaders will have to discuss what a community must do to prepare for industry. The men who can best give them this information are the businessmen and civic leaders of the communities who have successfully located industry. Time has been allotted each city on the tour for these discussions."

State Chamber officials indicate that the two-day trek will be made by chartered bus. R. M. West, Lexington, president of the Kentucky Utilities Company, is chairman of the State Chamber's industrial development committee, under whose direct supervision the tour is being conducted.

Two thousand persons took part in the two-day meet and more than $1800 in prize money was awarded. Winners will compete in a national meeting sponsored by the United States Bureau of Mines at a date and place yet to be chosen. The Hazard safety day was sponsored by the Big Sandy-Kelhorn Coal Mining Institute, Big Sandy Coal Operators Association, United Mine Workers, and the Kentucky Department of Mines and Minerals.

TO THE PEOPLE OF FLOYD COUNTY:

Prestonsburg, Ky., Sept. 24, 1952

John E. Campbell, of Garrett, Ky., Dr. W. D. Osborne, of Bypro, Ky., and John M. Stumbo, Jr., of Harold, Ky., are candidates for members of the Floyd County Board of Education at the general election to be held on November 4th. Mr. Campbell and Dr. Osborne are now members of the Board of Education and have conscientiously and diligently performed their duties as such members. They are committed to the present school program of this county which is just now beginning, and are promising the voters of Floyd county that the school system of this county will be carried on in an efficient way and without political consideration. The same assurance and promise has been given the people by Mr. Stumbo. It is my intention as Superintendent to so operate the school system so as to make it entirely free from politics, and these three men are in full accord with this program and this determination. They are actively supporting the program which I have just started, and while I have the highest respect for their opponents, I feel it is my duty, as Superintendent, to let all the people know that John E. Campbell, Dr. W. D. Osborne and John M. Stumbo, are behind me in my efforts to so operate the schools of Floyd county without any political consideration. For that reason, I have given them my unqualified support.

LACKEY

WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

The Lackey-Garrett Women's Club met in the home of Mrs. German Collins, with Mrs. D. C. Baldwin, co-hostess, Thursday evening, Sept. 25, for the first program meeting of the new club year. Mrs. Willard Castle, recording secretary, assumed charge of the meeting in the absence of both the president and vice-president. The flag salute was repeated in union. Mrs. J. C. Wells read the Club Collected. The program topic, "American History and Our Political Heritage," was presented by Mrs. Castle, program leader, who reviewed several articles which emphasized the political and cultural progress in the one hundred seventy years of our national existence. Mrs.
Castle compared the vast difference in America's interest in exercising the power to vote with other democratic nations of the world.
Surprisingly, America ranked at the bottom of the list. "Groups from all walks of life should stimulate discussions of the principles that made America great," said Mrs. Castle.

The GFWC is urging its five million clubwomen to aid in getting out the vote in November. Each member is responsible for seeing that 10 persons get to the polls.

During the brief business session it was decided that the committee on Community Health and Welfare investigate the needs of several persons in the Garrett-Wayland area and make a detailed report at the next meeting.

Those who make up this committee are Mesdames S. C. Berkeley and J. C. Wells, of Wayland, and Mesdames C. B. Ison and Felix Coburn, of Garrett.

A dessert course was served to 16 members and a guest, Mrs. Gordon Collins.

Next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Willard Castle with Miss Thelma Daniels, co-hostess, Oct. 9.

SONG OF MEMORY FOR MOTHER

Go bury me above the beeches,
Up on the old, lonesome hill,
There I will be re-sleeping
For the love of Blaine, Bert and Bill.

There I have worried and wondered
With hope that can't be filled.
The love of my three sons in the army
Is Blaine and Bert and Will.

Go bury me above the beeches,
Up on the old, lonesome hill,
There is where we all have worked together

With our blessed Lord's will.

Go bury me above the beeches,
Up on the old, lonesome hill,
There is where I will be sleeping
Over the loss of Blaine, Bert and Will.

I have planned and worked to raise my boys
By the blessed Lord's good will.
There we all built our home at the foot
Of the old, lonesome hill.

Go bury me above the old beech tree,
For that is where I'll be sleeping
Over the loss of my sons and liberty.

I will go to the spot up on the old, lonesome hill,
I get down on my poor knees,
I will hold my prayers with the love and hope

For my three sons, Blaine, Bert and Will.

Please trust the Lord and don't forget
For it will help you do your part in the good, old U.S.A.

Go bury me above the beeches,
Beneath Blaine, Bert and Will.
For there is where we were happy and gay.

At the foot of the old, lonesome hill.

Perkins Deserves Our Support

Max, we first of all, assure the public that we are Democrats with all our traditional loyalties, firm in our belief that ours is the party of the people and that, year in and year out, generation after generation, the principles and works of the Democratic party justify our loyalty to it.

If we were inclined to be disloyal—and we certainly are not so inclined—we would not go all the way. We still would give our full support to Carl D. Perkins in his race for re-election to Congress, and we have strong reasons for our loyalty to him.

1. Carl Perkins remains plain Carl Perkins, at home or in the nation's capital—still the country boy who lives plainly and who believes in honesty, and hard work.

2. The reputation of Drew Pearson, Washington columnist, for being exacting of public servants and probing into their weaknesses is known by most of you. This same Drew Pearson has stated that Carl Perkins is one of the hardest workers in the Congress.

3. Congressman Perkins has led the fight for federal aid to education and is recognized by educators over the country as the steadfast, militant friend upon whom the schools, their teachers and pupils can depend in Congress. Mrs. Perkins herself is a teacher in the District of Columbia schools.

4. He has been the staunch friend of veterans. He himself is one—a veteran of World War II.

5. His friendship for the men and women who earn their livelihood by the work of their own hands is known by all and hated by some.

6. Regardless of the social class you represent, Carl Perkins knows you, understands your problems, and when you call on him for service in any worthwhile cause, he does not refer you elsewhere, nor does he wait till next week or next month. He attends to the matter himself—and at once. Many thousands of his grateful constituents know this to be true.

We do not presume to present Congressman Perkins as the solution to your every problem or the answer to your every need. He has not always succeeded in his efforts in our behalf, but when present emergencies pass and leave the way open once again for such improvements he will be leading the fight which again will be waged and some day won.

Some of our less loyal friends have suggested that a change would help. We had a change a few years ago. A Republican Congressman was elected from this district. What did he do for you? Was that change a monumental success? The answer lies in the fact that he lasted only one term.

Could a change to an inexperienced man be a success now? Floyd county has on several occasions elected Republicans. Were those changes successful? We ask you.

Some of our less loyal friends have even suggested that our Congressman has something to do with the present Public Assistance law in Kentucky. They attack this law because of the lien—not the deed, as reported—which is required on land owned by recipients. Whatever the merits or faults of the law, let's get the record straight.

Your Congressman has nothing to do with it. That is a state law, not a federal law.

Carl Perkins is our friend. He has gained in experience and political stature while serving us. So it is that he will in the future be able to serve us better than ever before. Without rancor in any degree toward the young man who opposes him, we urge you to support Congressman Perkins at the polls, November 4.

LOYAL DEMOCRATS FOR PERKINS

(Pol. Adv.)

GAY NINETIES OR PRESENT PROSPERITY

An address delivered recently by Wm. Meade of Wheelersburg to a Democratic organization meeting.
 Mr. Chairman:
 Ladies and Gentlemen, I wish at this time, to try to answer some of the things of the Republican platform, in this presidential campaign. I notice Mr. Ike says "give free government back to the people." Let's take a look at what he means by that statement.

Back in the "Gay nineties," called so because for some days or so, the only means of communication were through the press and capitalist owned the press. They also owned all money in circulation. The laboring class of people worked for capital for any where from fifty cents, to one dollar per day, meaning from day-light until dark. While the laboring class were working for that wage, going bare and half-starving, the capitalist were giving big balls in New York, and Washington and various other places—having a wonderful time.
 Ladies and gentlemen, I speak with authority on these things, because I have made inquiries of older people who knew about the "Gay nineties" and don't forget that was free-enterprise, under a Republican administration.

Today under a Democratic government, the United Mine Workers of America, have a contract calling for eighteen dollars and twenty-five cents, ($18.25) for eight hours work per day.

Now, dear friends, I am not pressing at these figures, they are exact, and since we have an article in our Constitution, that reads like this: "This government shall be of the people, and since we know the people, by the people, and for the laboring class is in the majority, we have what we want, and we are going to keep what we want by electing the distinguished governor from Illinois, President of the United States, Adlai Stephen.

Ladies and gentlemen, there is one other thing I would like to refer to before I close.
 Mr. Eisenhower repeatedly, refers makes me wonder, who was responsible for the mess in the jungle, where thousands of American soldiers lost their lives because of plain ignorance of those who were in the affairs time and place? Now I wonder if he can speak in terms of needless deaths.

Mr. Perkins is now employed in the Martin Drug Store here.
 Mrs. Ada Justice has been visiting her father, who is seriously ill at his home in Millard, Ky.
 Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Mandt, Mr. and Mrs. E. Brashear and Rev. George W. Nerbonne attended the funeral of Bill Mandt in Charleston, W. Va., last Tuesday. He died suddenly at his home here. He was Mr. Mandt's and Mrs. Brashear's brother.

GARRETT
Mrs. E. C. Brewer, wife of the pastor of the Garrett Baptist Church, was guest at a surprise birthday party for a dear friend and present of the women of the church Rev. Brewer took Mrs. Brewer and her family to the afternoon and purposely got back home late, giving the women an opportunity to come to the Brewer home and present a dinner on the table by the time Mrs. Brewer was brought back home. When they arrived at the home, the lighted birthday cake was on the table. After the meal was enjoyed, Mrs. M. M. Collins presented Mrs. Brewer with a Sunbeam Mixer as a gift from the members of the church and friends in the community.
Those present or sending gifts were Mr. and Mrs. Willis Conley, Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Begley, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Sanders, Dr. and Mrs. M. M. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Collins, Mary K. and Pam, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hitchcock and Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Paetz, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Francis, Jr., Paul, Larry and Brenda, Roy and Virginia Brewer, Rev. E. C. Brewer, and Loren Conley.
Frank Rasmick remains a patient in the C. & O. hospital at Clifton Forge, Va., where he is receiving treatment.
Mrs. C. E. Petry and daughter, Faye Evelyn, spent Friday in Huntington, W. Va.
Gorman Coburn, of Washington, D. C., spent the week-end here with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Coburn.
Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Spencer, Mrs. Bill Petrey and Tommy Johnson spent the week-end in Clifton Forge, Va., with Mrs. Rasmick and visited Frank Rasmick at the C. & O. hospital there.
Mrs. Buford Martin and children, Edna Carol and Jimmy, of Spaulding, Mich., are visiting relatives here.

IT'S A GOOD WORLD
BY WILMAY
And it still is, even when the polls the kettle black, as in the case of the recent exposure concerning public figures. Mr. Allen made a dandy good point in his editorial last week, and another is that we not lapse into the habit of saying, "Oh, well, they all do it, so what harm can there be?" It is not a question who does it but whether or not it is right or wrong.
One need only read an article in a copy of LOOK several weeks ago to see that our lawmakers have managed to take splendid care of themselves in recent years, via the taxpayers' pocketbook. Little remains that they can do for themselves for expenses and extras. And then we wonder why taxes are so outrageous. We need only read what Lamar Caudle said about the strings attached to Washington cocktails to see why so much corruption exists in our capital city, long since called the modern Ninevah by the outstanding evangelist of this century.
It is not often that a new Christian is chosen to serve the superintendent of a Sunday School, when more experienced men are available. But that happened to Brownie James who the superintendent elected of the First Baptist Church Sunday School in Martin, only five months after he professed Christ. Everyone relates in the choice and a successful year for this new believer, who has grown rapidly in the things that count and prosper.
And another good one turns over the reins to him—G. C. Sargeant—who has been most faithful for two years.
A friend remarked recently that she and her husband plan to send their babies to Filiville to college and that they did wish it were a four-year college. She went further to state that she who reside in Eastern Kentucky should make it possible. We fully agree. We are not Presbyterians by any means, but we do believe it would be worthwhile to our section if religious and civic organizations would help make this school full-term. Many parents dream to see their children so far that they see them seldom, for these are troublesome times, when countless youths are led astray.
The only thing the seventh-grader objected to about my reference to him last week was that his name was not included.
We stand corrected. Mr. Palmer L. Hart is not studying medicine, as reported by a very good friend of his. He is working for his Ph.D. degree in Education at U.K. Evidently the false report occurred when someone said he was attending school for his doctorate. We retract and apologize for the error, and know the acquaintance who furnished the information had been misinformed.
It is encouraging to note Mr. Turner states that he is selecting board members as candidates who want to get out of the office and that the situation has been inherited by each administration for years seemingly. Only those in power can deal a death blow to the practice, which makes our children political pawns. Innocent victims, the major sufferers, fill the county has lost good teachers in the profession.
A cousin has been principal of the Stevenson school in Meridian, Miss., for years. They, too, have had success and campaigns, but no one ever knows or cares how a teacher votes.
We also have a brother-in-law who has been a principal in the largest county in the state for years. Once E. R. inquired how he manages to "keep in," since that county is less magnanimous than the Meridian schools. Brownie laughingly said, "When my side loses I always drop sides the day after election." The truth of the matter is that he is a well-known sportsman, whom the men want in the community, regardless of how he votes.
If you have not heard the David Youth Group sing you have a treat in store, for those boys and girls can really sing. There may be many who equal them but obviously few who surpass them.

TO MY FRIENDS, THE PEOPLE OF THE 5th EDUCATION DIVISION:
In a recent article submitted to The Times our County Superintendent while disavowing any political ties took it upon himself to, nevertheless, offer his unqualified support of my opponent. Does this gesture contain any political content? If there is no politics in this choice when are we to assume that Mr. Turner is completely satisfied with the present political policies that the members he is supporting, are following? Let us look over a few of these policies and see whether they are policies for our students' welfare and determine whether they are satisfactory or not:
According to Mr. Turner's article, as I see it, the County Board members are resolved to allow our schools to remain "run-down," continue to offer salaries to teachers the result in our having to accept "emergency" teachers' year after year (never offering these teachers enough to make it possible for them to go back to school and finish their educational training.) And in spite of this emergency situation we do not have shop teachers at Garrett or Wayland. Teachers are paid after they have worked their full month, gotten their monthly reports in and after THE COUNTY BOARD MEETS ON THE FOLLOWING TUESDAY, or some other day they choose, IN THE FOLLOWING month. In addition to this practice the teachers are not given their checks. Instead the present practice is to deposit their checks in some bank because it is feared the teacher will keep their checks and not cash them in a hurry. This supposition is that the teachers get enough to live on from month to month when everybody knows THEY DO NOT. Some schools have dire cases of fire hazards that remain in the same condition year after year and as far as I can ascertain they are going to remain that way until the people raise their voices and demand improvements. Seldom, if ever, do the County Board members take it upon themselves to visit our schools and survey the needs that are so sorely needed. These schools have been "conscientiously and diligently" performed by the meers that Mr. Turner has extended his unqualified support to.
Personally, I have no quarrel with any member of the present administration. I have neverless, decided to seek a position on the School Board because I am willing to set down in black and white the things I will truly work for, and for which I shall pursue relentlessly because the people want their children, and I want my children, to have the things that they are entitled to, and for which we are paying our taxes.
It is time for all of us to cease talking in generalities and get down to the job at hand. Year after year we hear of the needs and the improvements that are coming but with each passing year the conditions remain "as they are. We have said, "Some day we shall have better schools and finer citizens." If that day is to come it should be soon and now.
1. I shall offer as my Platform the following proposals:
1. County Board meetings open to the public.
2. School buildings in A-1 condition.
3. Teachers' pay according to that prescribed by leading educational leaders.
4. Teachers paid upon completion of their school month and by check to the teachers themselves.
5. Immediate erection of fire escapes wherever they are needed.
6. School bus schedules that will get the children to and from school quickly and safely.
7. Cooperative planning for the creation of a centralized vocational center to which we can send our youth that usually drop out of school before they have received their diplomas. Many of our young people are unable to go on after they leave school and are ready to begin their life's work.
8. Promote better health and safeguards in our schools.
Furthermore, I shall seek information from you, the voters, on what you think our schools need and together we can gain all the objectives that can only be gotten through sincerity and determined effort.
I am happy to say to you that I owe no one anything for support in this attempt to put myself in the services of the people of Floyd County. I have a son in the public schools and would have him, together with your children, get the fullest measure of our combined efforts to prepare our youth for the future that lies before them.
YOU CAN BE SURE THAT a vote for me is a vote for the future of all the children in our county.
