This Town-- That World

It's true that man cannot live by bread alone, but it might be hard to starve when you're in the dough.

THE EXPECTED
One man expressed surprise that President Truman as the miners' pay raise of $1.90. We can't say getting a lousy jury together.

TAFF BLOWS HIS TOP
The public prints generated manifold this week to register Senator Taft's blood pressure when he named a labor leader to the post of Director of Labor. We can't understand the Senator's displeasure, unless it was the climax of this "slow burn" that began during the previous convention campaign and really got going when he won the nomination. For eight years this man Durkin served as director of labor under two Republican Governors of Illinois. Business already was well-represented in the Eisenhower cabinet. Why name a man from the ranks of labor for Director of Labor—even if he was a Democrat and voted for Stevenson?

Only 99 more shopping days till Easter!

DEFYNTIONS
Everything about the fishing season is gone except the Fishing Post placard about this season and that will be shared away, one of these days. (There's no hurry about it, you know.)

"To wind up this matters presidential we record here a place to go for anglers" which Gordon Moore swept some place, pinned the sheet of paper, using an eraser, and mailed to me. I follow:

FISHING: A disease for which there is no cure. In extreme cases, the feet can be reduced to stumps; the patient in the hot sun for several hours.

FISHING CAMP: A place to eat refrigerated food, fish in a net and play poker. Liveliest hours are from midnight to dawn. Camping trips are often spoiled by scrawtalls who insist on going fishing.

POLICE PROBE FIRE ATTEMPT

Attempted Arson Seen
As Gasoline Is Poured
On Interior of Shop

Prestonsburg police this week were investigating what appeared to be an attempt to destroy one of Prestonsburg's larger buildings by fire last Thursday night.

Evidence of certain intent to commit arson was seen by the police when they were called by the beauty shop operated by Mrs. Louise Dutton Graham in the corner of the hotel building on First avenue. Interior of the shop had been smothered with gasoline and several party burned matchsticks were found on the floor.

"We have some information but are saying nothing till we have Claude Stephens," Chief of Police Epp Layfield said Wednesday. Mr. Stephens is owner of the building.

Mrs. Graham was in Ohio visiting relatives at the time of the incident.

The second floor of the building houses in addition to the beauty shop, the dental offices of Dr. M. J. Fitzpatrick and Dr. M. J. Leste, and two or three apartments on that floor are occupied. Had the gasoline ignited, occupants of these apartments would have been lucky to escape, and the entire business block would have been threatened by flames.

HUNT DRAWS 2-YEAR TERM FOR SLAYING

Of Jake Salisbury;
Charges Against Two
May Be Dropped, View

For the slaying of Jake Salisbury in the victim's home at Harold, Miss Hunt will serve a two-year penitentiary term.

A jury of the Floyd circuit court decided on that penalty for Hunt after deliberating about two hours Wednesday afternoon, and soon thereafter an attorney of Hunt's announced that no appeal is planned.

The murder charges against Mrs. Hunt and her husband, who were indicted as accomplices in the killing, were marked "continued" on the court records and they may never come to trial.

The defendant himself produced the only eyewitness testimony in the trial, but three others corroborated his claim that Salisbury had a revolver at the time of the shooting by testifying they saw the weapon on the floor of the house.

Yates, the only other person known to have witnessed Salisbury's death, and Mrs. Hunt, who was said to have shot Salisbury, were not in the house at the time, it did not testify.

Mrs. Hazel Stanley, widow of the slain man, testified she was preparing breakfast when she heard the first shot and then she saw the accused Hunt not to shoot again he fired one or two bullets into her husband's neck and head at close range. She claimed her husband had no revolver, and that he had pawned his gun a few weeks earlier.

Barford Hall, of the Baker Funeral Home, which Salisbury's body was prepared for burial, testified there were no powderburns around the five bullet holes in Salisbury's neck and head—all in a space "you could cover with your hand." Other witnesses testified Salisbury disoriented a pistol on the floor after his death while uttering threats against Hunt.

"This Salisbury had on more than one occasion threatened Hunt more than was testified by several witnesses. The trial which began with the commencement of a jury Monday, ended the criminal docket. Some civil cases will be heard during remainder of the week.

Commonwealth's Attorney Burns Martin was assisted in the prosecution by his brother, Dan Martin of Glasgow, and by attorneys R. H. Tackett, Defense attorneys were Edward L. Allen, J. B. Clarke and D. B. Hatcher.

FOOD BIGGEST BUDGET ITEM

For Floyd Families
Last Year, Report
After Survey Says

Special to The Times
New York, Dec. 28—President Truman's call for the Federal Trade Commission to determine how the consumer's dollar is being spent draws attention to the current copyrighted survey by Sales Management, which shows that food takes the biggest bite out of the retail dollar in Floyd county.

Expenditures in 1951 in the butcher shops, grocery stores, bakeries and other food vending establishments in Floyd county were equivalent to $49 per family when divided arithmetically among the local population.

This represented 28 per cent of the money spent in the county in retail stores in 1951. It was more than families elsewhere in the United States. The increase, only partially due to inflation, is attributable to better earnings. With larger incomes people treat their stomachs more luxuriously. As a result, the per family food figure has come to be an index of economic well-being.

Healthy conditions were also found in Floyd county in the other classes of retail business covered by the survey. Local sales of cars and parts, farm machinery, boats and the like came to $477,000, amounting to 22 per cent of the retail dollar.

SITE FOR BANK BEING CLEARED

Work on First National Building To Start Soon;
To Raze Three Structures

The work of razing three buildings and half of another to clear the way for the new First National Bank structure at the corner of Court and Lake Drive was begun Wednesday afternoon, and contracts on the various phases of construction of the bank building were being awarded by architects this week.

Work on the two-story bank building will be begun immediately after structures now occupying the site are cleared away, provided weather conditions permit concrete foundation work. Earl Sparlock, executive vice president of the First National Bank, said.

Buildings being razed are those formerly owned by H. D. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. W. E. Jones Sr. They are the buildings occupied by Worland's Washer Parts, the service station at the corner, and Barber's Barber Shop. The latter is owned by Tom Moore and the half of the Fitzpatrick building which has housed the Goodwill Mission Store operated by the Rev. H. Church. Hearing the site is being done by Atlas Contracting and Earl Sammons.

The bank building, a project in which the county has invested $200,000, will front 80 feet on U.S. 23 (Lake Drive) and 50 feet on Court street. It will be a two-story brick structure, completely air-conditioned, and is designed to be the most modern structure for its purpose in Eastern Kentucky.

Mr. Sparlock said furniture and equipment of the bank will be completely new, except for a part of the lock boxes. Arrangement of second-story rooms will be made to meet the needs of tenants.

It was said this week that most of the work will be completed by the end of the year.

PARTY PLANS NEW LEADERS

Precinct Vote Set
Saturday Afternoon
By Democratic Party

Reorganization of the Democratic party at the county level will begin Saturday afternoon with the voters meet at their respective precincts to elect precinct committeemen, and prospects are that county-wide reorganization will not be effected without somebody opposing somebody.

It wasn't clear here, early this week, who would be candidates for county chairman of the party. County Judge Henry Stumbo was mentioned most often. Asked about the opposition, one Democrat, who requested that his name be withheld, said, "All I know is, there will be opposition."

Precinct committeemen and committeewomen will be elected Saturday afternoon. One of each is to be elected for each precinct. He or she will be president of the precinct, and he or she should be a supporter of all the party's nominees.

These elected, the precinct committeemen, an committeeewomen will be elected Saturday afternoon (Dec. 13) hold legislative district caucuses in this county, which has two districts. A chairman from each of these two districts will be elected, and on the same day these two will meet to elect the county chairman of the party.

The caucus for Legislative District 96 will be held here, and for District 97 at Martin. Both caucuses will be held at 10 a. m.

The legislative district chairman then will meet here the same day at 2 p. m. to name the county chairman of the party.

In the event that the two legislative district chairmen do not agree on a county chairman, the deciding vote will be cast by the precinct county chairman, clerks.

The Republican party effected its reorganization last spring, prior to its district and state conventions.

Fiscal Court Names Bank As Depository

The Floyd fiscal court met Tuesday, with routine business consuming most of the session.

One of the two orders entered designated the First National Bank here the depository for all funds coming into the hands of A. B. Randall, county clerk. The other order that bids be asked on the work of moving the barn of Miller Smiley on Grand Creek, from the Banner-Harold road right-of-way.

Otherwise, the only action taken by the court was to pay bills.

12-Year-Old Child Is Victim of Burns Suffered Saturday

Lois Pay Caudill, of Eastern, 11 years of age, died at the Beaver Valley hospital at Martin, 4:30 p. m., Nov. 29, from severe burns suffered at a neighbor's home.

It was stated that the youngster's dress ignited as she stood near a stove. She was the daughter of Fred and Vada Fields Caudill and was enrolled in the sixth grade of the Maytown grade school.

Besides her parents, she is survived by the following brothers and sisters: James Earl, Billy, Arnold, Paul, Junior, Brenda and Linda, at home.

Funeral rites were conducted Monday afternoon at the home of the Rev. Henry Parsons, Estill Hughes and Vernon Mullins, officiating. Burial was in the Wright cemetery, near Goose Creek under direction of Hal Brothers Funeral Home.

NO MURDERS ON DOCKET

Is Word As Dismissal
Of Charge Against 2
In Slaying Expected

The Floyd circuit docket was believed, with the end of the trial of Miss Hunt here Wednesday afternoon, clear of a murder case for two second time in half a century.

It was conceded that Hunt's "light" sentence of two years in the slaying of Jake Salisbury will result in the murder charges against his wife and Marion Yates being dismissed. And that are the only cases of willful murder blotting the court record.

Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill remarked that this is the first time in 50 years the court is without a murder case on its docket, but a review of our court records shows that at one time during the term of Henry Stephens, Jr., as Circuit Judge, the docket stood similarly immaculate. Between terms, however, two murders were committed.

In fact, crime apparently was at a new low on all fronts in the county this week. Last week-end, the county jail at one time had only nine inmates and only three or four more were under the watchful eye of the jail, only two were accused of what might be termed major offenses. One of these was Eddie Stone, held by Deputy Sheriff Frank Crum on a charge of grand larceny and breaking and entering; and Ted T. Dark, who was marked "hold for trial" on a fraud charge.

Clearing of the murder docket was.

NEW CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM

Launched in County,
Frazier Announces;
Seek Pupil Backing

Kentucky's extensive drive in the crusade against the "Iron Curtain" carried principally to the schools to enlist the support of youth to this movement which is intended to get the youth from America to the countries behind the Iron Curtain.

This announcement was made Monday by Chalmers H. Frazier, superintendent of Prestonsburg schools, who has been named as Floyd county chairman of the Crusade for Freedom.

Each school child will be asked to make a contribution to the financial program of the crusade—from a penny to 25 cents—and the pupils will also be asked to sign Freedom-Crusade cards.

These Freedom-Grants, which carry an eloquent appeal to the people of the world, are to be placed in balloons and sent out over and behind the Iron Curtain, Mr. Frazier explained. These ask those denied the truth by the "Iron Curtain" to understand and away to world peace through prayer.

Robert E. Hatton, state chairman, announced that the crusade campaign for Kentucky is $50,000 and 200,000 signatures on Freedom-Grants. For Floyd county is $1,000 and 8,000 signatures.

Office at Pikeville To Supply Tax Forms

All federal income tax forms needed by Floyd county are to be furnished by the Internal Revenue office, Pikeville. Requests for forms should be addressed to the Director of Internal Revenue, Room 200, Post Office Building, Pikeville, Ky.

The hundred or more seniors at Prestonsburg high school will be graduated next May with something extra as a result of a program begun at the school and carried out by Chalmers H. Frazier, superintendent of city schools, only this year.

They will have had a thorough indoctrination in the principles of safe driving of sportsmanship on the highways, and more than that, actual experience behind the wheel of an automobile, meeting ordinary everyday traffic and all its snarls and problems.

The job of training high school girls and boys so that they will be safe drivers of sportsmanship on the highways, has been under way in Kentucky for five years now. But not till this year did the school here get fully prepared to undertake it.

TRUMAN GIVES $1.90 INCREASE

To Nation's Coal Miners;
Says He Acted To Save
Successor from Crisis

The coal miners' wage case thrown into his lap, President Truman did Wednesday as expected—he granted the full $1.90-a-day increase as originally provided by the contract entered into between the United Mine Workers and the operators.

This brings the minimum pay of miners to $18.25 a day.

"It relieves the situation and ends the threat of a strike, but the question is how many of us will be able to operate," was the comment of one operator.

Floyd county coal mine's this week were on the whole busy, and it looked like a cheery Christmas for the workers.

The President said he granted the full $1.90 increase because he does not want his successor, Dwight D. Eisenhower, to have a coal strike crisis on his hands when he takes office.

Truman, in approving the full $1.90 that John L. Lewis negotiated with the industry, overruled the Wage Stabilization Board, the Economic Stabilization Agency, and Defense Production Chief Henry H. Fowler.

The wage board had held that any more than $1.50 would "irreparably damage" the program to control inflation. The other high stabilization officials sided with the board.

Mr. Truman declared he was not willing to take an action that would confront his successor with a big strike emergency.

Seal Drive Passes $800 Mark in County As Fund Need Urged

Returns from persons who have been mailed Christmas Seals stood at $825.30, as of Wednesday, at $1,225, it was said this week by the Floyd County Tuberculosis Association which is staging the Christmas Seal campaign to raise funds for continuation of the fight on tuberculosis.

Persons who have purchased this year by many persons who are taking part in the program for the first time, it was pointed out by Mrs. A. C. Harlow, treasurer of the Association.

On the success of the Christmas Seal drive depends the fund which will make possible the work of the coming year of Mrs. J. D. Mayo as special Floyd county TB nurse.

LEAGUE ASKS COURT ACTION

To Comply with Law
On Numbers and Pay
Of Officials' Aides

The Floyd County Good Government Taxpayers' League announced today that it is mailing letters to each Magistrate and to County Judge Henry Stumbo, calling on them to comply with the 1950 act of the Legislature which provides that the fiscal court of each county shall by order set the maximum salary for each official may have and the maximum expense each office may incur.

It also called on the fiscal court to comply with the provisions of that legislation which, it is pointed out, requires that each official shall certify by order the maximum number of deputies and assistants each public official may have and the maximum expense each office may incur.

The letters asked that this compliance be made before the convening of the next grand jury of the Floyd circuit court on Jan. 3.

The Tax League claims that these duties have been called to the attention of the Magistrates and that the law describing such duties has been read and explained to them.

CLUB DECIDES TO BUY FISH

To Restock Reservoir
With Bass, Walleye;
Newman Re-Elected

The Floyd County Fish & Game Club voted at its Maytown meeting Monday night to buy fish for use in restocking Dewey Lake.

The action was taken following a month of discussion among sportsmen about the apparent lack of bass in the impoundment and of the need for another species, possibly walleye, as well as the need to provide fishing during the colder months.

The club directed its secretary to buy five tons, superintendent of fisheries, Department of Fish & Wildlife Resources, for recommendations as to the number and species of fish to be used in the restocking program. Hatcheries also are being contacted to determine the cost of the project.

Reservoir was purchased for the lake will be "keeper" size, it was said.

The club also held its annual election of officers at Monday's meeting, and George W. Newman, of Hill Hat, was re-elected president.

Henry L. May, of Langley, was elected vice-president to succeed Dr. L. Allen, and A. A. Turner, of Langley, was named secretary-treasurer, succeeding John R. Baldridge.

These committee chairman also were named:

J. C. Moore, Orkney, game propagation; Arnold Workman, Prestonsburg, fish propagation; H. E. Stumbo, Harlow, forestry.

The club's board of directors will hold their meeting next Monday at Maytown.

Polio Which Afflicted 19 in County Cost Floyd Chapter Over $6,000

$19,785.41 it has on hand only $1,046, with an indebtedness remaining of $18,739.41.

Backing the Chapter in this county and every other county however, is the National Foundation, which is the national organization for polio, and which has been planned to meet every emergency, with the full resources of the National Foundation behind the local chapter.

Pointing out that he knew of only one family hit by polio this year, which had polio insurance, Dr. Randall said many would have been unable to give their children treatment, especially the highly specialized treatment given in Lexington, Louisville and Milton, W. Va., had not the funds raised through last year's March of Dimes been available.

Cost of treatment for one child from this county, for instance, mounted to $1,000.97. It was pointed out, "Ordinary folks can't stand such expense, and the result would have been, had it not been for the March of Dimes, that the child would have been denied the special treatment he needed," Dr. Randall commented.

BOARD WAITS FOR CHANGES AND FINANCING

Before Asking Bids
On Three Buildings;
Expense List Asked

Final revision of plans and an allocation of financing for the projects are still awaited by the Floyd County Board of Education this week before asking bids on the construction of school buildings here and at Boso and Lion, it was said Tuesday on adjournment of the Board's December meeting.

Absence of County Young, of the State Department of Education, from Frankfort has been one delaying factor. He returned Monday, and County Supervisor Virgil O. Turner said he expects to go to Frankfort this week.

The Board meeting itself dealt mainly with routine business.

Miss Edna Davis, of the collection of school taxes again was discussed as Sheriff A. B. Meade contended that he should be allowed a commission of at least 2 percent on the 1951 tax collections. The Board asked him to submit a detailed statement of expenses incurred in the collection of taxes, and indicated its decision would be based on those figures. Sheriff Meade has settled with the Board on his collection to date, withholding 2 percent commission.

Optional textbooks available from the State Department will relate to the subject covered by books heretofore chosen, the Board decided.

New textbooks approved at the meeting are:

Christie Lee Matthews, Beaver School; Charles Houchins, Alton; Edna Mae Davis, Sam Hale school; Pauline Reed, Wheelwright; David B. Leslie, Martin; Curtis Jarvis, substitute at Daniels Creek while the regular teacher, Earl Hill, is recovering from injuries sustained in an auto wreck; Verbal Meeks, and Forrest Elliott, Hazy Lanes, near Columbus, Stone Coal school.

Claim of Columbus Campus for $300 due as pay for 10 days' salary while teaching at Dewey Lake, was rejected by the Board. Columbus claimed pay for the 10 days during which he said he was ill. Two days of vacation pay for Turner Hunt, who worked till June 1, last year, as garage mechanic was allowed. Employment of Ed Howell for two months as bus driver in the absence of the regular driver was approved.

The Board will approve for payment bills incurred only by its authorized representatives, it was said.

KY. EDUCATION NEEDS CHANGE

Edmunds Tells P.-T.A.;
Citing Legal Barrier
To Equal Opportunity

Facts and figures to prove the urgent need of a minimum foundation program for Kentucky's educational system were produced by Fred Edmunds, Irvine, Ky., Regional Supervisor of State Education, at a recent meeting of the Prestonsburg Parents Teacher Association.

"Pointing out that Kentucky ranks 46th educationally in the nation, Mr. Edmunds declared the hope of lifting the state from that lowly rank is to adopt a minimum foundation program such as has already been adopted by 48 other states.

"This move, he said, would be begun by the people by riding the State Constitution of Section 189 which requires that at least 75 percent of the general school fund be distributed on a per capita basis—on the number of children who live in a school district rather than on the number who actually attend school. "The Constitutional amendment which would remove that educational 'roadblock,' he reminded the P.-T.A., will be voted on at the next election, in 1953 election. If passed by the popular vote, it would enable the Legislature to write a school program guaranteeing a minimum education for all.

"This is the law now, Mr. Edmunds declared, there is no incentive to get the child in school," The present program also works his injustice, he said: A poorer district with 818 children per 1,000 population, say, has a property valuation of $80 per child, while a wealthier district with 225 children per 1,000 population gets each child well above $80 per child.

Under the defective program now in effect, he added, these conditions prevail in Kentucky:

"A representative of each of the organizations that I mentioned above served on a general Recreation Committee. Credit should go especially, I think, to Mayor H. R. White and his son, H. R. White, Jr., who worked unceasingly to get the thing over to the public. Of course, there were many, many others including school children who had a parade downtown last Saturday, some of whom were stationed at each precinct on election day."

"Williamsburg (3,000 population) has been a well-run little city for many years. We are always fortunate in having successful business men as Mayor and City Commissioners who are happy to give their time and talents. Some of them even pass on their salary checks to the various churches or charities. Partisan politics never plays any part in their selection. We never ask whether a man is a Democrat or Republican when the city election is up and usually only capable men offer themselves as candidates."

Appropriation Approved
UNITED NATIONS — The U. N. General Assembly approved a supplementary appropriation of $2,450,000, bringing the world organization total budget for 1952 up to $50,533,300.

Mrs. Campbell Begins Floyd Relief Work, Effective Dec. 1st

Mrs. Irene F. Campbell, of Allen, began work Monday as child welfare worker in this county, succeeding Miss Sue Mitchell who resigned recently to work with the Public Assistance Department at Lexington.

The Division of Child Welfare office for this county has been moved from the Midland building to the Layne building on Court street here. Mrs. Campbell announced.

The new child welfare worker is a former teacher in the Floyd school system and is the wife of Lewis Campbell, principal of the Allen school.

Explaining that the primary purpose of the Division of Child Welfare is to protect, preserve and strengthen family relationships, Mrs. Campbell said the Division specifically offers aid to:

- Children whose parents are dead, children without parental care through desertion or other cause, or whose parents are unable to provide a satisfactory home for them; babies born out of wedlock (also aid to their mothers); families who wish to adopt children or provide foster home care; and parents who may need guidance and support in becoming better parents or in working out their difficulties.

Homemakers in south Madison and Rockcastle counties freeze 19,142 pounds of food last year.

OBITUARY

J. M. Arnett, better known as Uncle Jack Arnett, was born October 27, 1852, and passed away November 16, 1952, at the age of 90 years, 2 weeks and 6 days. He was the son of the late Reuben and Coila Wainaker Arnett; and was born in what is now Magoffin county. He spent over 20 years as a school teacher and also engaged in farming. He was married to Delilah Hick. To this union, three children were born, Lillie (now deceased), Nora and Boone. Some years after the death of Mrs. Arnett, Uncle Jack was married to Nannie Howard. To this union was born one son, Hargis, now deceased. Again Uncle Jack took Mrs. Arnett's second companion, and later he was married to Delilah Hicks, and to this union was born one son, Charles Callahan. Upon the death of this companion and after a few years, he was married to Addie Wilson Burke, widow of John Burke. No children were born to this union, but Uncle Jack proved his faithfulness to God by being a father to the three Burke children, Carrie, Betty and Iuka, the latter two now deceased.

Uncle Jack has been a Christian and a member of the Baptist Church for well over 10 years. His faithfulness and untiring zeal for his God is well-known in this community and throughout Floyd and surrounding counties.

Surviving Uncle Jack are his widow, Addie Arnett, two sons, D. E. Arnett, Prestonsburg; C. C. Arnett, San Francisco, California; one daughter, Nora B. Fisher, Ashland, Kentucky, and one step-son, Carrie Burke, West Prestonsburg. 21 grand children, 46 great-grandchildren and seven great-great-grandchildren together with a host of other relatives and friends.

A Place for the Loser?

THE SATURDAY REVIEW in an editorial written before the country had gone to the polls to elect a President for the next four years raised an interesting question.

Pointing to the splendid qualities of the two candidates for the nation's highest office, the editorial expressed the view that one of the losers through defeat would be relegated to a sort of limbo for the full term of his victorious opponent, and thus the services he might perform with a high degree of ability would be lost during that time.

For that reason, argued THE REVIEW, the post-savvy of Senator-at-large should be extended and this position filled by the losing candidate for the Presidency, so that a man of national stature would not be even temporarily lost to the public service.

Perhaps the editorial writer has something there. The country can ill afford a vacation for any man of real ability and of the unshakable integrity in his country a would-be chief executive should possess.

As matters now stand, Governor Stevenson will serve the country in no official capacity for the next four years at least. The Democratic Party will assign to him the job of leading the opposition to the Administration, but that task could work ill as well as good for the United States. Carping criticism, without constructive thinking, could do the country a disservice.

SOIL CONSERVATION
By L. E. JOHNSON
Soil Conservation Service

The Floyd County Soil Conservation District supervisors met Nov. 10, 1952 at the Soil Conservation office for their regular monthly meeting.

J. B. Clarke, reported that he attended the ninth annual meeting of the State Association of Soil Conservation Districts at Cumberland Falls State Park. This meeting brought together supervisors from throughout the state, and a good program was provided. Many talks and panel discussions were presented on soil conservation practices and the agriculture outlook by leading agriculture men of Kentucky. Mr. Clarke stated the meeting was very interesting and educational and everyone seemed to enjoy their trip to Cumberland Falls.

Billy Merritt, chairman, reported that he had been appointed temporary deputy fire warden by the State Conservation District for firefighting duty during the emergency period. Forrest Burchett, county fire warden, stated that Mr. Merritt and other local agencies were helpful in getting the fires under control.

The procurement of sericea seed for next spring was discussed. It was pointed out that because of the drought the seed supply would be low. Plans were discussed for securing the seed early so that there would be sericea seed available for the increasing demand by the farmers.

Plans for the essay contest were made and the supervisors agreed to sponsor additional county prizes to create interest and get more essays written this year.

Mineworker Is Victim Of Seizure En Route To Mare Creek Home

Thomas Jefferson Lewis, 58, of Mare Creek, died of coronary thrombosis about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Thanksgiving Day, near Maytown.

Mr. Lewis, who was an employee of Turner Etkorn Mining Company, worked that day in the mines and had started home in a automobile being driven by a fellow employee. He was stricken while enroute and an ambulance was called. Although oxygen was administered on the way to a Maytown hospital he was pronounced dead upon arrival.

He was a son of the late George and Mahala Etkorn Lewis, of Mare Creek. His wife, Octavia Stratton Lewis, survives.

Surviving also are the following children: Shirley Lewis, of Prestonsburg; Thomas E. Lewis, Jr., Detroit and Mrs. Ruth McKenzie, Huntington, W. Va. Surviving brothers and sisters are Mills and Ballard Lewis, of Betsy Layne, and Mrs. Tom Clark of Endicott, Ky.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday, Nov. 30, at the home, the Revs. Carl Layne, Carl Senter and Isaac Stratton, officiating. Burial was in the family cemetery under direction of Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

Look what Willys makes Old-fashioned

- THE OLD WAY—Bulging hood hides the road ahead and you can see only the left fender.
- THE WILLYS WAY—Down-swept hood shows road just 10 feet ahead. You see all 3 fenders.
- THE OLD WAY—Old-type construction limits interior space, so seats must be made narrower.
- THE WILLYS WAY—Aero-frame construction for more usable space... 61-inch-wide seating, both seats.
- THE OLD WAY—Gas filler cap on fender... unhandy to reach from far side... unsightly.
- THE WILLYS WAY—Gas filler cap near center at rear... easy to reach from either side of car.
- THE OLD WAY—Needless weight that cuts down performance and slices gas mileage.
- THE WILLYS WAY—Less weight per horse-power for fleet pickup and sensational mileage.

Just compare the Aero Willys with the others and you'll see how far Willys, using aero and auto engineering, has advanced car design. To get the new things now—not next year—see the Aero Willys before you buy. Three beautiful models—Aero-Ace, Aero-Wing and Aero-Lark. Come in today!

Plymouth's New Look for 1953

The distinctive grille of the 1953 Plymouth keynotes the new styling which carries through from bumper to bumper. The new models feature horizontal character lines that accentuate the ground hugging grace of the new streamlined styling. The softly rounded hood, sweeping out to the fenders, covers Plymouth's improved 100-horsepower engine with its 7:1 to 1 compression ratio. Note also the one-piece windshield with uniform curvature for minimum distortion and "ventilator" visibility. It is available also in restful, heat-absorbing Solox tinted glass.

Floyd County Historical Notes

By HENRY P. SCALF

Material and notes left over from the McGuire article and unused because it was not germane to the main story are excerpted here.

There was Squire McGuire, who is mentioned. He was one James Davis in 1817 for allegedly taking him as bail for Reuben Clark, Clark is stated by E. C. Clark, of Athens, was the first of the name to settle in Floyd county. It is inferred from the suit that Reuben lived on Johns Creek. We are unable to place Squire McGuire property in the family of Joseph Davis, the officer, is both by deed taking the bail and judge that he is advised to the duty of every officer who is acting under oath is presumed to do his duty."

Another odd suit, bearing date of Nov. 21, 1866, is Lindsay Layne against William N. Cecil and Zachariah T. Cecil. Layne, veteran of the 39th Infantry, USA, was administrator of the estate of Elizabeth McGuire, deceased widow. No indication of her husband's name. William Cecil had bought the interest of Elizabeth's heirs in the estate but Layne sued to recover on a note of the two Cecils for $832.70, dated March 28, 1853. The administrator finally got judgment for an amount slightly in excess of $100. But that is not the main interest of this note. The suit says the heirs of Elizabeth are "G. McGuire, Weeks Sammons and Harriet, his wife, late McGuire, Jacob P. Akers and Louise, his wife, Louise McGuire." Does anyone know who these McGuire were and where they lived?

Then, there was William McGuire, in 1848 he sued William McGuire, Harry Stratton and Henry O. Harris. This suit grew out of another undated of May 2, 1842. The defendants had instituted the 1843 suit to get rights over the lands of Harry S. McGuire. At this time (1843) Zastor McGuire was deceased. Perhaps William McGuire was the son of Harry S.

Names given by early settlers to places survive for decades in most cases if connected to some important event or person. Several of the names of streams and localities of Floyd county are used today by people who have long forgotten the

CORN, BLUE OR ROMAN RED IS TASSELED WITH LORE

Wherever farmers meet, if it is in the corn belt, they talk corn. There is "corny" jokes and tall tales of corn, or tales of tall corn. Like the old mountaineer who spoke disdainfully of an indigent neighbor, he offered to wager "that he ain't got a jigger of corn likker in the house."

Or the other who complained to his wife: "That new ground hill at the corner is used to be. Once I could get a fine crop of corn. For the last five years it ain't been worth planting."

It just shows the hillman's pre-occupation with corn. Corn made settlement in the hills possible for it would thrive on slopes and in poor cultivation. Today we know this method is costly and impractical. Back then it was the height of practicality, for with corn the hillman could eat and survive on the rugged land.

The word corn is older than our knowledge of the present plant, for Europeans knew nothing of it before the discovery of America.

Centuries ago, corn was wheat or rye or barley or many of the cereals that man uses for bread. The Romans called cereals corn. When Rome was at its height of power and the wealthy patricians wanted to carry favor with the populace, corn was imported from Africa or the provinces and distributed. In this way the rich entrenched themselves in the Roman republic. Before long, the Republic was doomed, and the Caesars ruled.

In America the Aztecs and Mayas raised what they called maize, but in reality it is our corn of the present. It was not developed as ours. Archeologists show us evidence that this corn, or maize, which was a member of the grass family, was rather primitive. It grew small ears and produced only a fraction of the yield of modern corn.

The North American Indian revered the grain for in the cold winter its storage after cultivation and harvest by the squaws saved Indian lives. Hunting and fishing might be impossible because of winter, but corn was in the wigwags for food. It provided many a variant dish, was parched by him on the war trail or hunting path.

It was Hiawatha who wrestled with Manitou. The defeated spirit returned to the earth and grew as corn. A beautiful legend, beautifully preserved for us in the Song of Hiawatha. The universal knowledge of the corn legend indicates the importance of corn or maize in Indian life. It was the greatest of the many Indian gifts to the paleface.

John Smith was on a trip to procure corn from the Indians when he was captured by them. It was corn that enabled the pioneer American to survive. It is corn that today supports our mid-west economy. Truly, the greatest of Indian gifts.

Pioneer Big Sandians brought the seed with them. It was the lack of corn that caused Charles Vancouver to leave his weak settlement at the original circumstance that contributed to it.

Graham's Bottom is an exception. Maybe a few oldsters remember that their elders called it Graham's Place. It is called by both names on the records. Judge John Graham settled on Emma, either in the year 1804 or 1805. Some assumed the name Graham's Bottom. Some called it Graham's Place. The name, now in disuse, died a generation ago, perhaps as common use, longer ago, as a historical reminder, it should have been continued.

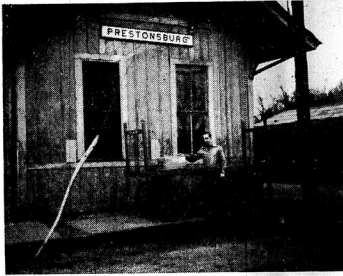

Of the 19,739 teachers in the state 2,371, or 15%, are teaching on an emergency permit. From May, till September of this year, 700 teachers changed to other districts, and 300 left Kentucky to teach elsewhere. Seven thousand eight hundred eighty-five teachers had more than the recommended 30 pupils per room.

When this column, in an unwarmed and semi-lucid moment, got started on local research, the news from Graham's Shoals began to intrigue him. A drive along U.S. 23 reveals no place that looks like a shoal prominent enough to receive the name of one of Floyd county's most influential farmers.

Wesley Martin, of Allen, knew the answer and pointed out the place. The stream as a by-product of construction of the highway so changed the natural formation of the shoals that it is almost invisible. But a careful observer can yet discern where the early settlers, clad in buckskin or linen woggles and conical skin caps, forded the Big Sandy at Graham's Place.

Graham's Bottom, Graham's Place, Graham's Shoals, No. 39. We moderns care little for euphonious, historical reminders of our past. It is Emma, and as names persist, it may be Emma for a long time.

helped along by the dismissal of two such cases. One of these was against William Hughes in the slaying of Bert Sheppard, near Hayesville—a crime for which his father, Billy Hughes, is now doing time at the state reformatory. The other was the charge against Sid Conley, who shot and killed his wife at Wheelwright. Conley is now an inmate of the Eastern State Hospital after having been adjudged insane.

Convictions in circuit court, beginning with last Friday: James Conn, drunkenness, $10 and costs; Bill Hinton and Robert Ousley, possessing intoxicants for the purpose of sale, $100 fine each; Irene Newberry and T. J. Fitzpatrick, Jr., the charge of carrying a concealed deadly weapon against each reduced to that of reckless use of a deadly weapon, and each fined $50 and costs; Jane Webb, charged with selling whiskey, fined $20 and given a 30-day jail term.

Bru Hall was acquitted Saturday of a falsifying charge.

David Girl Scout Meet Hears Regional Report; Plans Building at Lake

The four representatives of the Sandy Valley Council of Girl Scouts who went to the Kenova region convention held Nov. 8-9-10 at Huntington, reported to the regular monthly board meeting of the Council held at David, Nov. 23.

Three of the representatives, Virginia Hatcher, Marie Summerville and Barbara Goddard were from Pikeville. The fourth, Gene Floyd, representative, was from Wheelwright.

Most of the report was statistical and stated that 135,000 Girl Scouts were enrolled in the region of Kenova, with 7,000,000 in the United States. They informed the David meeting that there were 7,000 lone troops in the United States and 22 districts without executives.

One representative said: "National aim is to have every troop in a council and that redistricting be done so that troops may be in close contact with each other, thus making it more convenient to operate. In addition there should be an executive for every district."

Mrs. Ray Howard, who was at the board meeting, stated that a part of the report included a resume of the speech of Mrs. Mary Lawrence, niece of Juliette Lewis, who founded the Girl Scouts. The next Kenova regional convention will be held at Dayton, Ohio, in Oct., 1954.

William Crawford, permanent camp chairman, reported that contractors had estimated prices for the construction of the main building at Dewey Lane camp site and that the work would begin early in spring.

One Scout executive said that the construction of this building would give Girl Scouts, especially Senior Scouts, a better opportunity to advance in the scout.

Mrs. Ray Allen, of Martin, reported the organization of Brownie Troop No. 7, there and that they favor for the hospitals at Thanksgiving were made.

The next board meeting will be held at the home of R. V. May, Prestonsburg, in January.

Pneumonia Claims Langley Woman, 76, At Mar in Hospital

Mrs. Daisy Dudley, 76, of Langley, died at the Beaver Valley hospital, Dec. 3, of pneumonia.

She was the daughter of Ben and Jane Smith, of Knott county, and was the wife of Ballard Dudley. They resided on Turkey Creek.

Surviving besides the husband are the following sons and daughters: James Branham, of Eastern, a son by a former marriage; Maynard Dudley, New London, Ohio; Forest Dudley, Martin; Edward Dudley, Langley; Mrs. Pearl Martin, Moultrie; Mrs. Anna Stone, no address; Mrs. Sabren Stone, Elgin, Ohio. Surviving also are Johnnie Smith, of Florida, a brother, and Mrs. Susan Osborne, of Shelbyville, a sister.

Funeral rites will be conducted Friday, at 10 a.m., at the home on Turkey Creek, the Rev. M. C. Wright officiating. Burial will follow in the Hayes cemetery under direction of the Turner Funeral Home.

Conley Wins Round 1 At Pikeville Friday In Oratorical Contest

Franklin Conley, the Prestonsburg high school senior who is Kentucky's Youth Governor, last Friday won the district phase of the national contest, "I Speak for Democracy" which is sponsored by Junior Chambers of Commerce over the nation.

Conley's recorded speech on the subject will go to Louisville for regional competition. If he wins in Louisville he will go to Washington for the national finals and to take part in the Voice of America program.

The district contest was held at Pikeville under auspices of the Pikeville Junior Chamber. Young Conley and other contestants were guests of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Pikeville Kiwanis Club at their joint luncheon meeting.

Knott Woman, Kin Of Floyd Residents, Succumbs at Mousie

Mrs. Susie Hall, 69 years old, wife of Frank Hall, of Mousie, died at her home there Nov. 20. She had been in declining health for some time.

Mrs. Hall was a native of Dickinson county, Va., and had lived at Mousie for years. She was a member of the Big Branch Regular Baptist Church from which services were conducted at 10 a.m., Nov. 23. Ministers officiating in the service were Charlie Cornett, Coy Combs and Bert Howard. Burial was made in the Campbell cemetery at Mousie.

Besides her husband she is survived by four daughters, Mrs. May Moore, Columbus, O., Mrs. Lela Raliff, Wheelwright, Mrs. Ethel Hays, Mousie, and Mary Jane Hall, five sons, Steve Hall, Pikeville, John Hall, Wayland, Elmer Hall, Columbus, O., Everett Hall, Columbus, O., and Bill Hall, Mousie. There are 38 surviving grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

all, of the masonry work on the building has been let to Dave Patton, Prestonsburg contractor. Local labor will be used on the building, and as much of its materials as possible will be bought locally, Mr. Spurlock said.

Leveling of the structure occupying the bank site has caused a lot of moving in that vicinity. Moore's Barber Shop has moved across the street to a new building owned by H. D. Fitzpatrick; Weiland's to a part of the Harkins building opposite the courthouse, a part of which is now occupied by Halstead's Shoe Shop; and the Mission Store to the building formerly occupied by Halstead.

GOD, BIBLE, BIRD AND SPIDER

I really had a Thanksgiving worth telling about.
I ring my Liberty Bell 24 minutes each morning in honor of the United Mine Workers of America. I am a coal-miner's son and I have a spare net, and in some of Floyd county's mines are people of mine a bird for me.

No man need not curse me, for the birds and spiders talk and write what is good on. At 3 o'clock Thanksgiving morning a bird flew under my prayer net, alighted on my door and I took it in my left hand and it said: "Good morning. It was red, white and blue-red bill and red crown."

On my porch I keep a flag, a white Bible, an emblem of two blue doves, a red, a sign for my son to know I am the Lord's free woman. And it is the Lord's free woman who reads to me the beams out of their eyes before they try to run me out of my house. I carry the voice and the which birds carry to me.

Three except a messenger brought me both about 24th year. I did not take the king, no man in the thought and came to the top in the chamber, for a bird of the small carry the voice and the which birds wings shall tell the matter.

When I was woman for Judge Bert T. Combs' more election two birds brought me a message. Three days before Levi Hill was murdered a spider wrote war, and number one my gate in 1927 and war was declared Dec. 7, 1941.

I lost a son in the war in 1941, so you see God works His course. All I do or say to help any one is free and all it costs any one is read by articles in their time and it is told free clothes—read or get to read.

I want my hands clean, my heart pure, I pray day and night for leaders and all in authority that will make live a quiet, peaceful life. With men things are impossible but with God all things are possible.

Danger of falling men, Acts 24th chap, 27th verse: After this man rose up judges of Galilee in days of taxing and grew angry much people after him; he also perished and all came as many as obey him was dispersed. 28th verse: Now I say unto you, refrain from these men and believe that for if this sentence or thing, one of men it will come to pass. 29th verse: But if it be of God you cannot overthrow it: I beseech you to be found, to fight against God.

Sincerely and gratefully,
EVA MENDE HALL

First Showing Today The New 1953 LINCOLN

Standard equipment, accessories, and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice. Power steering, power elevator seat, power brakes, power windows, white sidewall tires optional at extra cost.

Powered to leave the past far behind

You have dreamed of such a car... a car that all but drives itself. It's here now—for today, such a car comes to life in the new Lincoln for 1953.

Now, for the first time, power can take over your driving. Power is in the steering wheel... and controls the brakes. Power... and even up or down. And you'll find astonishing acceleration in the new 205-horsepower, overhead valve V-8 engine.

This is purposeful, functional power to make your driving far more relaxed than ever before.

This is power in the same modern living spirit that you sense in Lincoln's clean, graceful, ground-hugging lines. In the glass-wall visibility. In the luxury of exquisite fabrics and leathers.

This is excitement that happens once in a motorist's age... and it's happening today in our showrooms. We invite your inspection. We invite you to arrange for a demonstration drive in either the Lincoln Cosmopolitan or the Capri.

Lincoln Cosmopolitan and Capri—winning achievements in the fine car field on the occasion of Ford Motor Company's 50th Anniversary.

LINCOLN—THE ONE FINE CAR DESIGNED FOR MODERN LIVING

Ky. School Enrollment 60,101 Less Than Census, Director Ward Reports

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 14 (Sp.)—Public, private and parochial school enrollment in elementary and high schools totaled 622,229 at the close of September—or 60,101 fewer than the whole number included on the school census rolls—it was reported today by C. T. Ward, director of Census and Attendance of the State Department of Education.

Teachers in these schools aggregate 21,976, an average of less than 30 pupils for each teacher.

The school census includes all children from 6 to 17, inclusive, while the compulsory school age extends to 16. Ward explained that a number of the children not in school had passed compulsory school age; others had married; and that some few had not reached the enrollment age of seven.

The official figures released by Ward showed that public schools had 434,454 children enrolled in elementary grades and 133,071 in high schools; while private schools had 6,112 elementary pupils, 8,827 in high schools. Parochial schools listed 38,939 elementary pupils and 4,662 high school pupils, while state supported, college training institutions listed 128 elementary pupils and 1,363 high school children. Other state supported institutions listed 120 elementary and 328 high school pupils.

Teachers were listed in these categories: Public schools, 19,670; private schools, 24; parochial, 1,238; state supported college training schools, 128; and other, state-supported groups, 118.

Mrs. Hugh Rowland, Jim S. Click, Mrs. Ballard Dudley, Roger Stewart and Mrs. Catherine Patton were patients in the Beaver Valley Hospital last week.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caudill, of Eastern, whose daughter was fatally burned last week. She was a member of the sixth grade in the Maytown school and will be greatly missed by her classmates.

Oldsters May Earn More And Retain S.S. Benefits

Persons receiving old-age and survivors insurance benefits can now earn as much as $75 a month without losing their benefits, according to Tommy Thompson, of the Pikeville office of the Social Security Administration.

The amount of wages a person getting benefits is permitted to earn in a month without losing his payment was raised from $50 to $75, effective Sept. 1. In case a beneficiary is self-employed, he can accept his benefit checks if his net earnings from self-employment do not average more than $75 a month; that is, more than $900 for his taxable year. Beneficiaries who work in employment not covered by the Social Security Act, and those who have reached the age of 75 may cash their checks regardless of how much they earn.

Thompson pointed out that this "work clause" applies not only to the retired worker, but also to his wife, child, or parent who is receiving benefits based on the social security account of a retired or deceased worker. Any beneficiary who is working for wages should notify the Social Security Administration promptly if he earns over $75 in one month. A self-employed beneficiary should notify the Administration as soon as he sees that his net earnings are likely to average more than $75 a month for the taxable year.

IT'S A GOOD WORLD BY WILMA

It was a joy this past week to visit Lt. Castle, former student of Washington high, in camp. He was a good talker. The pupils were allowed to study, to do a thorough job of learning while there is time. He also mentioned the boys a little, and the corps and feeling with him. The dearful of many in the world. Only recently, a young soldier captured himself if against the best of our army furnishes men in the world. And the Sunday Herald, I believe, was carried a letter to me in the name of the Second division. He candidly stated that the part of the army he is in is making for a better of drinks. Too many make similar admissions.

For servicemen leaves $5 a week on the taxpayers' back and $100 a month, that is the smallest part of the deal. Its effect on our lives is of more importance. Much corruption has been exposed by a number of voters created the lines recently, with a hope that matters might improve, since many believe they cannot become worse.

The correct example: Last week-end, when more in our pictures were made on the grounds for moving of magazines going to press, from a friend came with everything needed for her scenes. She had a few files with the necessary slip, she knew what it took and had it, and keeps it all together at home. She is a faithful person. Her home is immaculately kept. She is one of the most attractive women in the county. Progress is a part of her character. Her responsibility is to her. She does what she agrees to do and does it exceptionally well, never letting down anyone.

She likes the present seriously, and her part in it will be successful to the nth degree, for this reason alone: "I do not let my eyes see everyone's the reward, for some folks just won't take care of anything, and others will not return what they borrow."

My two sisters we all may well attempt to imitate. There is a philosophy the world needs. Careless and delay are always costly, organization and thoroughness are necessities.

We hang our heads in shame over the incident in Tupelo, Miss. Time will prove if the editor is correct in thinking the act was in protest against the paper for its articles. Yes, or may, the South still has plenty of persons who detest the Yankees, and are too stupid to understand that the practices following the War Between the States had handicapped our section more than any. "To err is human" to forgive is divine." It seems to me that millions and friends still despise the name of Lincoln. He happens to be our favorite president at all times. We owe him a debt for preserving the union, else we ourselves would have seen increased conflict on these shores all these years.

Aren't kids the limit? One remembers who fell before F in the English in the last six weeks passed. In fact, we thought he might not be capable of doing better, as he is a good sort. But his written work since then has ranged from 77 to 85, and, believe it or not, that boy made a round 60 on this examination last week. It was obvious that he was trying at last, and it actually paid off, too. This proves what effort can do, and should be a lesson to teachers who brag about not grading their papers, but suggesting grades instead. It is also a point parents may remember when doing late cuts low. Systematic homework and study can do the trick unless the little darling is dumb. Fortunately, few kids are.

HONOR MRS. ANDERSON

A surprise birthday dinner was given for Mrs. Robert L. Anderson Saturday evening, May 22. The event was sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Wesley-Day and Betsy Layne Methodist Churches and was held in the basement of the Wesley-Day church. Some 60 women from the two churches and communities gathered for the occasion. Many beautiful gifts were presented to the birthday girl, who, with a candid and happy smile, while the women were in the church zone of the room, received the package in Mrs. Lane's new living room at the Union Star. Several of the women accompanied Mrs. Anderson to the supper after the shower to witness the presentation of the surprise gift there.

CORN CHAMPION BOWS TO SISTER

Cleith Rowe, the Majomlin county 4-H Club boy who has the world's record corn yield in 1951, bowed to his sister, Lula, this year. She produced 151.5 bushels of corn on 15 acres, while Cleith's acre made 153 bushels.

County Agent Prichard King, of the University of Kentucky, says Cleith probably planted his corn 100 thick. There were 25,497 stalks on his acre. Lula's had only 19,229 stalks.

Both Cleith and Lula Rowe fertilized their corn heavily, which County Agent King believes helped to break the drought. Cleith noted that most farmers entered the corn derby failed to have good yields, due in part to poor fertility, thin stands and drought.

Cleith Rowe last year produced 233 bushels of corn on an acre, the highest yield in the nation.

Ky. 31 Resue without the drought better than other grants in Hancock county.

Judson Harmon, of McCreary county, had 6,160 pounds of 16.5 percent certified out of 12,800 pounds of seed harvested.

ARMY HOWE REPORTS

Alma Tard Class Marcena J. Rowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Rowe, of Prestonsburg, recently reported for duty with the United States Army at the Headquarters Support Group, expeditionary organization for the Air Research and Development Command, with headquarters in Baltimore, Md.

Alice Rowe, a 1918 graduate of Prestonsburg high school, enlisted in the WASH. Jan. 31, 1952, took her basic training at Lockport Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas, and attended an Air Force Clerk-Typist school at Oklahoma. AAGC Col. Rowe reports to her assignment to ARDC.

Merry's the Day you make this yours

How would you like the fun of Christmas time to last all the year through?

That's the way it seems to be when you call this Buick beauty your own—what with the constant cheer it brings to you week after week, month after month.

The cheer of traveling in style that's bright and gay as a holiday wrapping.

The cheer of having rich and spacious comfort—plus the cheery thought that nowhere else can you get as much room for the money.

The cheer of knowing abundant and mighty able power is on call, with all the solid thrift of a Fireball 8 Engine that's valve-in-head—and also high-compression.

The cheer of riding wonderfully-buoyant, level and steady—with a ride that feels like the million dollars it cost to perfect.

The cheer of taking your travel free and easy—with Dynaflo Drive* doing the chores in letter-perfect smoothness—with Power Steering assisting to make parking and slow-motion maneuvers no task at all.

Even the price is a cheerful note here—low enough, you'll find, to crowd the so-named "low-price three."

That means action is called for this very week, to make the most of this good deal while it lasts.

Why not drop in today or tomorrow and see how much cheer is to be found in a Buick showroom right now?

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

SOLDIER WANTS LETTERS

Editor, The Times:

I am a lonely, young soldier in Korea. I have no one at home to write to me. Almost all of my buddies have been wounded or aren't with me any longer; consequently I am very lonely. One of them who is still here told me to write my home-town paper and they may put a little ad or something in the paper.

It gets pretty discouraging to go on patrols and go through all this hell over here and never have mail to look forward to. I don't have a picture or I would send one along with this. I am 21 years old, six feet tall and weigh about 185 pounds. Would like to hear from some of your feminine readers or anyone who has the time to write. It gets pretty tiresome eating these "C" rations and stuff, and it will be a long, cold winter over here, and I think a little mail might help pass the time for me. Any help you can give me on this will be appreciated.

Yours truly,

ALL WORK GUARANTEED

CONVERSION OF INSURANCE STILL OPEN TO VETERANS

Millions of World War II veterans who hold five-year or 8-year GI term life insurance still may convert to permanent plans of GI insurance with guaranteed values that term policies do not have.

VA said no law has been passed by the Congress which takes away or otherwise limits the right to convert from term to permanent plans of NSLI.

The only GI life insurance which may not be converted under present laws is the special 5-year nonconvertible term policy that is issuable to veterans with service since June 27, 1950, the start of the Korean hostilities.

This insurance is provided under the Servicemen's Indemnity and Insurance Acts of 1951, otherwise known as Public Law 23, 82nd Congress, which also indemnifies servicemen against death up to $10,000, less any other GI life insurance in force.

The conversion rights of NSLI were not affected by this law.

Therefore, nearly 5,000,000 NSLI term policies with a face value of $38.6 billion, which are now in force by payment or by waiver of premium, may be converted to one or more of the six permanent plans of NSLI—ordinary life, 20-pay life, 30-pay life, and three endowment plans.

These policies may be converted upon application to VA at any time before the period term expire. No physical examination is required, but the veteran must pay the first premium of the converted policy with his application.

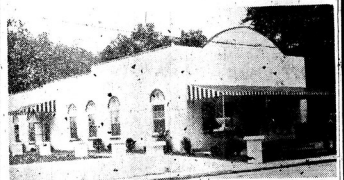

Other millions of NSLI term policies, which have been permitted to lapse for non-payment of premiums when due, also may be reinstated and converted upon application to VA before their term expire. Two monthly premiums are required with such application—one for the grace month of coverage after lapse of the term policy and the other for the first monthly premium on the new converted policy. A physical examination also is required if the term policy has been lapsed three months or longer.

Pharmacists Hear Drug Traffic Law Purpose Explained

Twenty-five pharmacists from the Ashland area recently heard Mr. Sarah Vance Dugan, Director, Division of Foods, Drugs and Hotels, discuss Kentucky's new barbiturate law at a meeting of the Seventh District Drugists Association.

Mrs. Dugan explained the purpose behind the law and, with Lawrence Blomer, of the Division of Public Health Education, answered questions about its function and enforcement. A joint meeting of physicians, nurses and pharmacists was suggested to help make clear how cooperation among these professional people can assist in compliance with the law.

According to Mrs. Dugan, a number of investigations, arrests and convictions in narcotic and barbiturate cases are resulting from close cooperation of the State Department of Health's new Narcotic Control Section, federal narcotic agents and local police.

Recent actions include the arrest and conviction in Louisville of Frank B. Janos, "doctor" of narcotics, after authorities seized a narcotic and barbiturate cache worth several thousand dollars. Much of it represented loot from burglaries over the prison term in federal court on a narcotics charge and a one-year concurrent jail sentence for illegal possession of barbiturates under the state barbiturate law.

In another case, an itinerant worker, found unconscious in a Louisville bus station, was charged with illegal possession of barbiturates after 1,000 phenobarbital tablets, not covered by a prescription, were found in his luggage. He said he had been selling the tablets for $1 each. In police court he was fined and placed under a $1,000 peace bond and released into the custody of his father on condition that he return to his home state.

More recently in Louisville, a pharmacist was arrested, who, narcotic control inspectors said, sold sleeping pills to a woman on several occasions. He received a $300 fine. A 20-year-old woman was held to the grand jury on a charge that she gave a false statement to a physician to obtain narcotics.

"Continued cooperation and vigilance by local police, federal agents and our own narcotics investigators should go far to control illegal traffic in narcotics in our state," Mrs. Dugan said.

You Know Something About This Man!

You've never seen him before.

And yet, as you watch him approach his motor car—you feel instinctively that you know something about this man.

You feel you know something of his background and his standing among his fellow men. You sense his consideration for the safety and comfort of his family and his friends. And you have a clear indication of the mark he has made in his chosen field of endeavor.

For that's one of the extraordinary things about the great Cadillac car: It speaks so clearly and so eloquently of the man who owns and drives it.

It does so from its long association with the world's distinguished motorists... and out of its constant participation in the lives of the nation's leading people.

In every community across the land, Cadillac is the predictable choice of those whose choice is unrestricted.

And how tell they choose—and how wisely!

For the Cadillac car—as any owner can tell you—is surpassingly satisfying from every standpoint.

Smooth, powerful and responsive—it makes each and every journey a pleasure to anticipate and a joy to experience.

Beautiful, luxurious and inspiring—it adds to the pleasure and satisfaction of the whole day's activities.

And dependable, long-lived and economical in operation—it complements its owner's practical wisdom through every marvelous mile he drives.

Wouldn't it be wonderful to enjoy all these things in your motor car? Well then... come in and see us. We'd be delighted to see you at any time.

THE FAMILY

NEW SCHOOLS NEEDED FOR 35,000 PUPILS

Kentucky's schools are bursting at the seams for lack of new buildings. A recent study made by the State Department of Education disclosed that new construction costing $17,844,396 is needed to provide Kentucky's public elementary and high schools with decent housing for the approximately 520,000 children attending them.

The study, inaugurated more than a year ago, was made under direction of Assistant Superintendent of Public Instruction, Gordon Young and Dr. Robert Mills, Education, in connection with an education study.

The study disclosed that 42 per cent of the pupils attending public schools are housed in buildings that are overcrowded or obsolete.

The study also revealed that to relieve overcrowded conditions there are needed 150 units of 1138 rooms that would cost $19,038,650 in the elementary, secondary and combined fields alone. These rooms would accommodate 33,180 pupils.

To house increases, it was estimated that 92 units of 795 rooms to accommodate 23,874 pupils are needed.

The replacement of obsolete buildings would require 163 units of 5,373 rooms to accommodate 165,533 pupils at a cost of $121,427,841.

Also disclosed by the study are these facts: More than 200,000 children are housed in combuster buildings. Twenty-six per cent of Kentucky's children attend schools of three rooms or less. There are yet 3,000 one-room schools in use.

Eighty per cent of the school buildings are without central heating facilities, while 12 per cent of the children attend schools without artificial lighting.

A fourth of the children attend schools with hand-operated water facilities and 33 per cent attend schools with outdoor toilets, while 2-1/2 children attend schools with no sanitation facilities.

According to U.S. standards, 2,337 school plants are rated unsatisfactory, while only 122 receive approval rating.

Blast Causes Damage To New Boys' Dormitory At Magoffin Institute

Mountain Valley, Ky., Nov. 25 (Sp.)—A boiler explosion last night did considerable damage to the new boys' dormitory of the Magoffin Baptist Institute here. The blast razed the interior walls and a large section of the front wall, in addition to destroying the furnace. Parts of the furnace were found more than 50 yards from the building.

No one was injured in the explosion which occurred about midnight. The dormitory was still under construction and has been occupied less than three weeks.

D. M. Aldridge, president of Magoffin Baptist Institute, said the building was being erected by free-will contributions. An investigation is being conducted to determine the cause of the explosion.

The Rev. L. W. Benedict, of Prestonsburg, is a trustee of the school.

ONE CHURCH!

By J. VANDER FLOEG

"No, I don't go to church. Why should I? The churches can't even get along with one another. Baptists, Methodists, Presbyterians, Lutherans, Reformed, Christian Reformed, and what have you—think of all these denominations. Why don't they quit fighting one another and all go under one roof? Then a fellow might see some sense in going to church. Don't talk church to me."

Sounds familiar, doesn't it? It may even be that you feel the same way about it.

Now, it will take you less than two minutes to read what I would like to say about this objection to the church.

If you unite with one of these denominations which are truly Christian, you will find that in reality they are one after all, Charles Reade tells of an interesting diagram which he found on a blank page in his grandmother's Bible. It was a circle with several radii or lines running out from the center which was called Christ. Each line represented the name of some Christian denomination. Beneath the circle these words were written: "The nearer to the center, the nearer to one another." What Paul once wrote to the Ephesians is true for all Christians everywhere: "There is one body and one spirit . . . one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all faith." (Eph. 4:4-6.)

Please be fair with the church. Even though its members are the children of God, they are still very human. If all Christians were of the same race, instead of being red or yellow, black or white, things might be different. The fact is that they come from different nations and that they speak perhaps a thousand different languages. Besides all this, God's truth is so broad in its scope that none of us do full justice to it.

Different groups look at it from different angles and one may see what the other fails to grasp. Don't understand this to mean that we are now placing all denominations on one level. Naturally, one will be closer to the Bible than another. Our duty is to find what we sincerely believe to be best among these various denominations and then to become an active and faithful member of it.

One more thought: The true church of Jesus Christ, washed in his precious blood, is on the way to heaven. We want you to go along. In heaven the church will be one, not only inwardly as it is now, but also in its outward manifestation. When the roll is called up yonder, will you be there?

Four 4-H Clubs in Calloway county have a membership of 661 boys and girls.

The second annual Rowan County Youth Fair had an estimated attendance of 8,000 persons.

TO THE PEOPLE OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I regret that I have been delayed in expressing to you my sincere appreciation for the loyal support you gave the Democratic ticket at the November election. In explanation for this delay I mention the fact that I underwent surgery in a Huntington, W. Va., hospital and my recovery from that was rather slow.

I am not only indebted to the individual voters who supported our cause but also to all those who worked with me, and to the United Mine Workers of America in particular. I am grateful for their great record of loyal support. I am very proud of Floyd county's record—the second largest Democratic majority in Kentucky.

FELLOWSHIP SPONSORS

The Methodist Men's Fellowship met at the Vogel-Day Methodist Church, Boldman, for its monthly meeting, the evening of Nov. 21. A fried oyster supper was served to members and guests. Kenneth Burdett, Billy Elkins and Omar Cecil, guests of the Fellowship, presented an enjoyable program of sacred music.

John I. Dean, Scout executive from Pikeville, delivered a talk illustrated by a chart setting forth the basic principles of the Boy Scouts of America. The Fellowship voted to sponsor a Scout troop for the community. Joe Begley was chosen Scoutmaster, with Harry Trimble and Simon Akers, assistant Scoutmasters. A Scout committee, composed of Edgar Layne, Fred Daniel, Donald H. Shoemaker, Hershel Morrison and Rev. Robert L. Anderson, was named. The Fellowship meeting was presided over by Donald H. Shoemaker, vice-president. Russell Wodren, Pikeville, was a guest.

GARRETT

LACKEY-GARRETT CLUB MEETS

"Chinese flowers are as aromatic as American women are temperamental," stated Mrs. Arkady Weber, as she spoke on "Flowers of China" last Thursday evening, as guest of the Lackey-Garrett Woman's Club, which met at the home of Mrs. George E. Evans, Estill.

Mrs. Weber spoke with authority on the subject, having spent the last 20 years as a missionary with her husband in China. She explained the difference between the useful white lotus of China and its lovely pink sister, which is headed to look upon but of no value. She told how the young Chinese girls gather peonies in order to bathe their faces in the juice. She compared many of our flowers with those of the same name in China—the iris, magnolia, azalea, apple, cherry, chrysanthemum, and others.

Accompanying Mrs. Weber was her husband, who is music instructor at Pikeville College. Mrs. Weber played the following piano selections: "Fantasy, Chopin"; "Pohlnische Fenchmuffel," a waltz by Chopin; Etude by Chopin; and a medley of Gypsy tunes.

This program was in keeping with the subject, "Neighbors in Other Lands," with emphasis on Music Literature, and Art, with Mrs. R. H. Messer in charge.

At a brief business session prior to the program, presided over by the president, Mrs. Frank Rasmick, the following were appointed to collect the veterans' socks which the club members fill each Christmas: Mrs. J. E. Miller, Wayland; Mrs. Gorman Collins, Lackey; and Mrs. Rudolph Spencer, Garrett. Mrs. Rasmick requested all members to have these socks filled and ready for collection by Dec. 6.

Mrs. Spencer brought before the club the need for a new walk leading to the bridge at Garrett, and a committee headed by Mrs. C. B. Ison was appointed to present this matter to the proper authorities in Prestonsburg.

At the conclusion of the program a dessert course was served by Mrs. Evans and her co-hostess, Mrs. Bert Stapleton, to the following guests and club members: Mr. and Mrs. Arkady Weber, and Mesdames Rudolph Spencer, W. T. Hatfield, Wilford Castle, J. E. Field, J. C. Wells, Frank Harman, Earl Castle, M. M. Collins, H. J. Sherman, Felix Coburn, Richard Vinson, J. E. Miller, P. M. Rasmick, R. H. Messer, Troy J. Webb, Everett Blanton, C. D. Francis, C. B. Ison, Charles Hornsby, Estill Hughes, Thomas Hatcher, S. M. Martin, Otto Martin, and Miss Marie Coburn.

W. S. C. S. Meets
At Clo, November 20

The Woman's Christian Service Club of the Church of Christ, Clo, met Thursday afternoon, Nov. 20, for its Thanksgiving program, at the home of Mrs. Cecil Johnson, Wayland.

The meeting was opened by the group singing "Count Your Blessings" after which Mrs. J. T. Spillman, vice-president, read Psalm 109. This program consisted of the following: An article entitled, "Faith and Love" by Mrs. Ben Holly; 23 original poems on Thanksgiving by Mrs. Otto Martin; a sermonette entitled, "Thou Shalt Not Take the Name of Thy God in Vain," by Mrs. James Sparks; "Secrets of Prayer," by Mrs. J. T. Spillman; the 23rd Psalm with comments by Mrs. Spillman; and a poem entitled "My Bible," by Mrs. Anthony Lyons. The program was concluded with prayer by Mrs. James Sparks.

At a business session following the program names of needy families were submitted and a committee was appointed to collect food for Thanksgiving baskets.

It was unanimously agreed upon that each member is to earn at least $1 between now and December 18 to be turned over to the treasurer to help pay current expenses.

A combination salad and dessert course was served by the hostesses to the following: Mesdames John Reid, James Sparks, Mitchell Nichols, Ben Hall, Henry Barnett, Buford Rollins, Anthony Lyons, J. T. Spillman, Ruby Blankenship, Otto Martin, and little Miss Pam Nichols and Master Michael Lyons.

The next meeting will be held December 18 at the home of Mrs. Ben Hall, Estill, with Mrs. Otto Martin in charge of the program. Each member is requested to bring an exchange Christmas gift not to exceed $1 in value.

Church Joins Drive
To Enlist Bible-Readers

Wheeler-Blair have been conducted by the Rev. Alfred E. A. Gussner that the Wheeler-Blair Community Church will join in a simultaneous drive to recruit Bible-Readers throughout the world. The period from Thanksgiving to Christmas has been designated for a concerted campaign to enlist several million individuals who will read from the Bible each day.

Every opportunity will call attention to this campaign, which was started last year in 32 countries. President Truman, who is Bureau Chairman of the sponsoring committee, has issued a full endorsement of the movement. The President has designated that Bible reading after the close of each day's activities should be a national habit, the greatest habit ever written, the Bible has on its pages a message that will give meaning and purpose to our lives.
