CARTER FOR CORONER

FRIENDS AND VOTERS

I want to take this opportunity to solicit your vote and support in the coming election. I campaigned extensively in the primary, but due to a broken right leg I haven't been able to get around as I should have liked. I'm trying to see all my friends and supporters, but a broken leg does slow me down, so to speak.

You all know my record since I have been your Coroner, that I have conducted the office as it should be and that I will continue to do so, that I am qualified, capable, and available, and that most of all I have the experience necessary for the office.

If your neighbor needed a helping hand, you would offer it if you could, wouldn't you? When your friend wanted the loan of something, did you not try to accommodate him? As my neighbors and friends, won't you please help me by giving me your vote? Only by your confidence in me and your support of me can we come through to victory in November.

Sincerely,

JAMES J. CARTER

The university now has an enrollment of 8,700. The university president spoke at a banquet of U. K. alumni at the Paintsville Country Club.

It didn't. Now, the Mare Creek Thompson wants to retire on Social Security disability benefits and has cleared the doctor's examinations.

But the government took its time in processing the claim and when the Floyd county applicant visited the Pikeville Social Security office he was shown his wage-earning record. For a coal miner and a part-time farmer it was generous, indeed. To qualify, the government required no earnings for six months in 1958. The earning record said he had made over $5,000. Pretty good for a subsistence farmer.

The Social Security man wanted to know about that big earning last year. Thompson looked at the paper and was agghast. "The only thing to say: If I had made that much money last year I wouldn't need disability benefits," he told the interviewer.

That was the first intimation of the Great Bear, first faint indication that somebody had made a big slip and started the red tape rolling on what may take a special act of Congress to resolve. For the Social Security Act says that was the first intimation of the Great Bear, first faint indication that somebody had made a big slip and started the red tape rolling on what may take a special act of Congress to resolve. For the Social Security Act says that was the first intimation of the Great Bear, first faint indication that somebody had made a big slip and started the red tape rolling on what may take a special act of Congress to resolve.

In the meantime Thompson, the Mare Creek Thompson, is not very optimistic about the matter. "They told me they would unravel it in another six months but I'm not betting on it," he says. "There's one thing, though, I want to do. I want to meet the other Thompson and tell him to get to work on his retirement papers. He's heading for trouble and will need all the time he can get."

Dickerson, who died from a 38-calibre bullet wound, was found at 6:30 a.m., Sept. 23, 1957, in his pajamas over which he had pulled his trousers. The pistol was lying beside him. Magistrate William Mosley, who presided at the inquest, said the bullet apparently entered the head just behind the right ear and emerged on the left side. Death was believed to have occurred instantly. Mrs. Dickerson said the gun belonged to her husband.

Dickerson had been with the Bank of Man since it was established about five years ago. He came to Man from Moundsville, where he had been a bank official for many years.

Dickerson was named cashier of the bank when it was opened in July, 1952. He had 24 years of banking experience before coming to Man from the Marshall County Bank at Moundsville, where he had been employed for eight years. He was a native of Jackson county, W. Va.

One report said that Dickerson had appeared to be despondent for several weeks, but no reason was given for the reported despondency.

The Norfolk & Western Railway, one of the nation's leading coal carrying railroads, bought 4,000 coal cars of 70-ton capacity in 1956 and if coupled together these cars would make a train 31 miles long. The road has an order for 5,500 cars or enough for a train 42 miles long.

Former Floyd Men, Navy Veteran, Dies Of Hurts in Japan

Mr. and Mrs. Beason Conley, formerly of this county, received word last week of the death of their son, Ben Conley, stationed with the U. S. Navy in Yokosuka, Japan. The family received a telegram from Vice-Admiral J. L. Holloway, Jr., chief of Navy personnel. According to the information received, Conley died at the Naval Base hospital at Yokosuka, October 2, from injuries he received in an automobile accident.

The body will be returned to Russell and funeral arrangements are incomplete pending information on the arrival of the body.

Conley was born at Wayland, July 29, 1922. He received his education in the Martin schools and enlisted in the U. S. Navy in June, 1941. He had served 16 years' active duty, seeing action in World War II and the Korean conflict. He was stationed at the Yokosuka Naval Base at the time of his death.

He is survived by his parents; one daughter, Judy Carol Conley; eight brothers, Buckner Conley, Ashland, Woodrow and Earl Conley, both of Russell, Cecil and Jack Conley of Martin, Herman Conley, Jackson, Ohio, and Frank and James Conley, both of Richmond, Ky.; two sisters, Mrs. Naolia Conley Daniels, of Urbana, Ohio, and Mary Ann Conley, at home.

According to American Riverways Operators, Inc., coal river traffic has risen 26 million tons between 1947 and 1955 and now exceeds 100,000,000 tons a year.

To The People Of Floyd County

I promised you before the Primary that if you would elect me your Tax Commissioner I would:

1. Keep the Tax Commissioner's office open for your convenience and stay in the office myself as much as reasonably possible;
2. Give individual attention to the assessment of every tax payer;
3. Come and look at your property myself when requested to do so;
4. Assess all property on an equal basis and play no favorites;
5. Devote all my time to the job and do my level best to make you a good Tax Commissioner.

You were good enough to vote for me in the Primary and for your kindness, I will always be grateful. Now, before the November election I want to renew the pledges I made to you before the Primary and to humbly ask for your support on November 5. Again I promise that I will do my very best to make you a good Tax Commissioner and I will always be grateful for your confidence in me and for your friendship.

Sincerely,

MRS. MOORE MAKES STATEMENT

DuRan Moore is my husband, we have two small children, I am a member of the Baptist Church, and October 2, we were married 15 years.
 After DuRan came home from overseas he borrowed the money and built us a home which is still carrying a G. I. Mortgage. Together we have worked and planned for the things that everyday life requires for a home and the rearing of children.

Our greatest desire as a mother and father is that we may be able to educate and guide our children in a manner that would be pleasing to God. Our greatest desire as custodian of your County Court Clerk's office is that we may ever be kind and courteous to you. We know your records are in our trust and that trust we have safeguarded even through flood and unjust attacks by those who would seek to injure our hearts and character for their own political gains.

Because you have given DuRan your vote showing your confidence in his ability, I have had the privilege of helping to serve you as a Deputy Clerk.

DuRan and I have tried very hard to run your Clerk's office so as to give efficient and courteous service, and to make you feel welcome in the Clerk's office, I think everyone will agree that we have worked hard and that the office is capably and efficiently run.

DuRan has never campaigned on a low mud-slinging level. He does not believe this is the way to build a better community in which to rear your children and ours, a community in which we can fellowship with our fellowman before, during, and after election. It is my firm belief that a candidate who campaigns or allows anyone to campaign in their behalf on a low level, injuring the feelings of their opponents and spreading false and malicious untruths, is committing a sin against God, is demoralizing our Christian Nation and is not worthy to be trusted with the important deeds and records of your County Court Clerk's office.

I have never publicly made a statement in the paper, but the article in last week's Times about the absentee ballots was false and the excerpts were taken from a case in Monroe County and were intentionally misleading and slanderous, therefore in justice to myself and my family I feel compelled to make this statement.

I PERSONALLY issued upon the sworn affidavit of the absentee voter his ballot for the recent primary. DuRan was busy campaigning and naturally could not be in the office. Because I was familiar with the absentee voting law, it was my DUTY to issue these ballots. The law is complicated and hard to administer, but I did my best to follow the law and I was kind and considerate of every voter.

After the Primary the false rumors were spread, I will always be thankful that neither the Two Special Judges, nor the Court of Appeals, nor the Grand Jury here in Floyd County found any fault with the handling of the absentee ballots by the Clerk's office. I would also like to point out that DuRan did not receive any big majority of the absentee votes. Several other candidates received about the same number as did DuRan, namely: Judge Hill, Hollie Conley, and James Carter.

I would like for DuRan's opponent to give you voters some reason for you to vote for her and to show her qualifications, because I do not feel that because she is a woman entitles her to your vote.

DuRAN not only has proven to you his qualifications for your clerk, but he also has a WOMAN and two small CHILDREN needing your help.

DuRan and I both came from large families. We both know the meaning of hard work. Along with many of you, we suffered financial loss during the recent flood and owe obligations which make it necessary for us both to work. Because of this DuRan needs your vote.

PLEASE GO TO THE POLLS ON NOVEMBER 5, and vote for DURAN, he needs your help and has proven that he is qualified to serve you.

Your friend,
 Kathleen Moore.

REX OSBORNE

for
STATE REPRESENTATIVE

96th District

For those of you that I have not been able to get around to see, here is some information about myself.

I was born and reared on Right Beaver, went to High School at Maytown and graduated from the University of Kentucky. For the past few years I have been associated with the Prestonsburg radio station.

My parents are Chaunce and Goldia Gayheart Osborne and now reside at Eastern, Ky. My grandparents on my father's side were S. F. (Desh) and Rhoda Stephens Osborne. My Grandparents on my mother's side are George and Catherine Martin Gayheart.

I am now engaged in constructing a new 5,000 watt radio station which will be on the air very soon. This project has limited my time in which to get around and see very many of you.

Your support will be appreciated.

Vote for Rex Osborne for State Representative in the 96th District

Preceding the wedding, Mrs. Chalmers H. Frazier gave an organ program of nuptial music, accompanying Miss Laura Virginia Roberts who sang, "Through the Years," "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a sheer silk marquisette wedding gown trimmed with swirling cascades of princess lace and fashioned with a fitted bodice, long, close-fitted sleeves, heart-shaped neckline and a train outlined with princess lace. Her three-quarter-length veil of imported bridal illusion from a flanged cap of appliqued princess lace, her jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift from the groom. She wore her grandmother May's cameo brooch and carried a white Bible which was topped by a white orchid with satin streamers.

Miss Marion M. Salisbury, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a lavender marquisette dress with fitted bodice.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Fitzpatrick, Jr. The bridal table was covered with an imported hand-cut and embroidered linen tablecloth, which was her grandmother Salisbury's. TO THE PEOPLE OF PRESTONSBURG
As a candidate for Mayor of your city you are entitled to know what I stand for.

All the tax dollars paid by the many citizens of Prestonsburg amounts to a considerable sum — which makes the City of Prestonsburg a business and should be treated and handled as a business.

We don't mind paying taxes if we get something in return.

If elected your Mayor, these things are what I stand for:

1. Put your city on a Budget, and keep a record of every dollar coming in and every dollar going out of the Treasury.

2. I will see that every dollar taken from the parking meters will be used for the streets and sidewalks of our city.

3. Here is how the Police Department will be run: The Police telephone will be answered twenty-four hours per day. All Policemen will be in uniform.

There will be a Policeman each morning and evening of school days stationed at both the Grade School and the High School to supervise the safety of your children.

I will see that the reckless driving is stopped in our city.

We have in our town a Surfer Law which has never been enforced — I intend to see that this law is strictly enforced and that those who do not continue to obey it if they come to town. The citizens of Prestonsburg are entitled to know where and for what their tax dollars are being spent. I will publish in your local paper a quarterly report.

Every cent I can save the people will be spent on extending sewers to serve more homes and to improve our old sewer system.

The reason I am running as an Independent Candidate is that I don't feel that it is my duty to dictate to the people who they should elect to the City Council. Whoever you elect, I will work with them for the good of Prestonsburg.

Sincerely yours,

candidates running at a special election who are on the ballot by virtue of party action or other appropriate action entitling them to go on the ballot, running to fill out an unexpired term.

Replying to the contention that delayed printing of the ballot will make it difficult, if not impossible, to supply ballots on petition of absentee voters, the special judges said:

"I see no basis upon which there ought to be a denial to the absent voters of the right to vote in the important office of Senator. . . it seems to me that it would be a denial of a substantial right to a voter to make available to him only a ballot affording him an opportunity for voting for candidates running in the regular election. . . An applicant for an absentee ballot at the election is entitled to receive a ballot which will afford him an opportunity to vote for all of the candidates running at that election."

He ruled out two separate ballots on the grounds of additional cost to the taxpayers, remarking that the situation, in my judgment, does not warrant such additional expenditure."

This is how Judge Rider's printing instruction reads: "The candidates for election at the November regular election and the special election for Senator of the 29th Senatorial district shall appear on one ballot, which shall constitute the official ballot at said election."

Such ballot shall appear in substantial form as follows: At the top of the ballot there shall appear in boldface type the words "November General Election." The type shall be of sufficient size to permit such words to be readily readable. . . Immediately thereunder, across the top of the ballot, shall appear in appropriate boxes the name of the parties having candidates at such election, with their respective emblems and devices, and under the principles, emblem and device of any other candidate at said election nominated by petition, with a one-inch circle appearing immediately under the respective emblems. Immediately under each of said boxes there shall appear the name of the candidates of such party or candidates nominated by petition. . . At the end and below the columns of candidates to be voted for at the general election, in each column, in a space within the column, immediately below the name of the last candidate at the general election, there shall appear in boldface type the words "Special Election - Unexpired Term State Senator." In letters of such size as to be readily readable immediately thereunder in the column of the respective parties or candidates nominated by petition shall appear the names of the candidates for Senator of such parties, or candidates nominated by petition, and immediately under their respective names shall appear the words, "Unexpired Term."

To the right of the columns there shall appear the constitutional amendments.

Aged Haysville Man Found Dead in Bed, Heart Attack Victim

Kinney Miller, 77, of Haysville, was found dead in bed, Friday morning at 6 o'clock. A coroner's inquest found he had died, presumably, from a heart attack. He had been dead about six hours, it was decided at the inquest.

Mr. Miller was a son of Richard and Susanna Owens Miller and was a native of Goodloe. He retired four years ago from employment with the Inland Gas Company.

He was married to Minnie Prater Miller who preceded him in death in 1951. One step-son, Milton Prater, of Haysville, survives. Three brothers also survive: Tinsley Miller, West Prestonsburg, Vinson Miller, Cincinnati, and Lacy Miller, Williamson, W. Va.

A strike would close all compressor stations of the company. A member of the local union said the company was notified that the strike would be orderly and that no wells would be closed. As a consequence, gas could be bypassed to reach towns and cities served by the company, it was said. The office here, where only garage workers and three or four men are unionized, would be little affected.

It was said unofficially that the contract plan offered the employees called for an hourly wage increase of 12 cents. Although the contract would be for a two-year period, a provision of the pact was said to have provided that wages could be renegotiated at the end of the first year if conditions warrant readjustment.

Clark to the committee and Stuart, the chairman, offered the services of the Louisville Automobile Club on the booklet publication until such a time that the state could assume the obligation.

The 20 markers authorized, besides the three in Floyd county, are to be erected at these spots: Crab Orchard Springs, scene of Estill's Defeat, Falls of the Ohio, Glen Lily, highest spot in Kentucky, site of first Kentucky Legislature, Maysville road, Owings furnace, an early toll house, Jeptha's Knob, Blue Licks Springs, Mary Ingles highway, Greensburg courthouse, Coldstream farm, John C. Carlisle home, Gethsemane, Westward Trail, Pewee Valley cemetery, John J. Crittenden home and the Andrews home.

If one of the fastest movie cameras in the world, used for taking high-speed photographs, could photograph for a full second, it would take 14 hours to show the film in a motion picture theater.

The Eiffel Tower in Paris is 985 feet high, third in the world behind the highest two buildings in New York. The latter two are the Empire State at 1,250 feet and the Chrysler at 1,046.

WHAT ARE YOU?

Be what you are, BUT BE A GOOD ONE. No matter what your job is, we're certain you're good at it or you wouldn't be holding the position you are.

In the coming election you realize you're confronted with the problems that so often arise. A friend or a neighbor of the opposite party is running for political office. We have all had an opportunity to register as we believe and for the form of government we believe in, whether it be Democrat or Republican. The fact remains that we should back the party in which we believe and for which we registered.

Ask yourself this question—Under what form of administration have we best lived and enjoyed life? There is no doubt in our minds, for we are loyal Democrats.

Certainly we Democrats are proud of the number in our ranks, for we know and realize who has put the bread and butter on our tables so to speak.

It is not required of every man and woman to be or do something great. Most of us must content ourselves with taking a small part in the chorus, as far as possible, without discord. In performing our duties we often have those who take opposite views, but we all understand "United We Stand, Divided We Fall" and this is the slogan of our great state of Kentucky. We, the Democratic Party, stand united in this coming election as never before, because we realize the importance of electing a Democratic slate so our State and National Government may profit in the elections to follow. We must all pull together now and in the future as we have in the past.

ENDORSES DICK SPURLOCK

It is indeed a pleasure and duty of mine as a citizen of Floyd County to recommend to my relatives and friends to support and vote for Dick Spurlock for the office of Circuit Court Clerk.

He is an aggressive, business type of man and is fair and accommodating. The office needs him and you will not be overcharged or excessively charged fees in your court business.

I have been a Democrat all my life, but I believe that being a good Democrat should not deprive me of voting for a Republican, if I know him to be the type of man I would like to have in this important office. You must remember that the offices belong to the people and we Democrats do not have a MONOPOLY on good people.

I FEEL HONORED THAT I HAVE THIS PRIVILEGE OF RECOMMENDING DICK SPURLOCK FOR THIS OFFICE.

The October-December quarter usually is the slack period for state receipts.

The special deposits were placed in the banks as an emergency measure because of the prospect for heavy demands for loans to the flood-stricken area.

Carter and Martin said the state had expected to withdraw the funds later, and so explained to the banks when the deposits were made.

The banks and special state depositories having the funds, besides the two Floyd county banks, are:

Citizens Bank of Pikeville, $200,000; Bank of Neon, $100,000; Citizens State Bank, Hazard, $400,000; Corbin Deposit Bank, $500,000; First National Bank, Corbin, $47,500; First National Bank, Pikeville, $200,000; Guaranty Bank, Cumberland, $22,500; Peoples Bank of Hazard, $260,000; Peoples Exchange Bank, Westville, $100,000; Pikeville National Bank, $200,000 and Union National Bank, Barbourville, $100,000.

Most fatal traffic accidents take place within 25 miles of the victims' homes.

Unofficial figures showed 195 bales of the aromatic or Turkish tobacco, weighing a total of 3,228 pounds, brought $231.20 at the West Liberty auction. The average was about $72 a hundred pounds of $1.02 a pound.

One of the top sellers was Elbert Taulbee of Morgan county. He and his landlady, Harold Rose, disposed of a 68-pound crop for $963.90, averaging slightly more than $1.03 a pound. Close on Taulbee's heels was Charles Warr, also of Morgan county, who sold 306 pounds for $312.55, an average of $1.02 a pound.

Turkish tobacco is in the experimental stage in Kentucky and probably will be for a long time, says Ira Massie, Kentucky Extension Service specialist under whose direction the growing of the crop was introduced to the state.

Growing Turkish tobacco involves many practices different from those associated with burley. For instance, it does best on low-fertility land. Martin, of this county, admits that one thing that lowered his price was the application of nitrogen. That shouldn't have been done, he says.

Do you know why your used car is worth more on a 1958 EDSEL?

- 1 An Edsel Dealer's stock of used cars is lower than any other dealer's in town. Selling a new line of cars, he needs used cars to balance his inventory.
- 2 An Edsel Dealer can offer you more on your present car because he has no '57's to sell at clean-up prices. And remember this: any amount you may have been told you save on a '57 model is wiped out the minute you buy it. Any '57 will become one year old in a matter of days—yet 24 months from now your 1958 Edsel will still be only a one-year-old model.

exceeded human endurance? Then manacle the poor sap, put him in stocks or in solitary confinement—don't try to divorce him.

We offer that advice after reading what happened in a London court. The judge in this case ruled that a woman who was a keen golfer or fisherman had better just get used to the idea and stop thinking about a decree, alimony and the like. He denied a divorce to a gal named Irene Dickens who raised the very dickens about her fisherman-husband neglecting her.

"That is one of the things which come within 'for better or for worse,'" the judge explained.

Mastadons Roamed North Kentucky

Frankfort, Oct. 7 (Spl.)—Since the Commonwealth has announced plans to develop a state park on land near Covington at Big Bone Lick to be acquired by a local development association, interest has grown concerning this spot, known as one of the nation's outstanding prehistoric bonanzas. Long ago, the sulphur springs and salt formations of the valley attracted hordes of mastadons and other gigantic mammals. Many of them mired in the soft soil and their bones were preserved through millenniums. Later, the place apparently was a neutral hunting ground for Indians who came from as far north as Lake Erie, not to make war but to kill the deer, buffalo, and other game that habitually visited the salt lick in abundance. Many French explorers, attempting to claim the Ohio Valley for France, stopped here to hunt. Mary Inglis, the first white woman to set foot in Kentucky, escaped from her Indian captors in 1768.

Several parties of American explorers visited the salt lick and collected the mastadon ribs for poles and the vertebrae for seats. They carried away mastadon teeth weighing 10 pounds each, tusks 11 feet long and five-foot high bones. In 1805, Thomas Jefferson, as an official of the American Philosophical Society, had a party gather one of the most complete collections ever taken from the lick, but an ignorant servant had the bones ground into fertilizer. All the bones are now gone.

Just before the Civil War, Big Bone Lick became a fashionable watering place for young ladies who had gone into "declines" and for men and women who ate and drank too much and exercised too little. A hotel arose to accommodate those who came to drink the sulphur water. But the spa disappeared as other health fads were followed.

OPERATE PRIVATE DOCKS
Along the Ohio River, 21 steel mills, blast furnaces and steel processing plants, and 12 electric power firms operate their own private docks for the movement of coal. These docks are almost half of the 75 coal docks privately operated on the river.

Wisconsin Electric Power Company uses 1,500,000 tons of coal every year in the generation of electricity and about 89.5 per cent is delivered by river barge.

DIRECTORY SHOWS INDUSTRIAL GAIN

Frankfort, Oct. 7 (Spl.)—Kentucky has 3,089 individual manufacturing plants, nearly 400 more than in 1955. This is indicated in the 1947-58 Kentucky Industrial Directory recently published by the State Department of Industrial Development and the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce. The last directory was published in 1955.

The new directory says manufacturing in Kentucky has reached its "highest level of development" and now provides jobs for one of every six persons in the State's labor force and contributes nearly 20 per cent of all personal income.

Average monthly manufacturing employment in the State last year reached a high of 170,830, a gain of 28.7 per cent since 1947, with employes gaining 12.3 per cent for the year. The directory says this compares for the nation and 22 per cent for the southeast.

Economic Development Commissioner George Hubley said Kentucky had a 2.8 per cent increase in manufacturing employment between 1955 and 1956, the fourth largest gain in the 11-State southeastern region.

Orisp, flavorful and juicy, good to look at and a delight to eat, describes the apples that are now coming on the market. Flavor and maturity go hand in hand. Immature fruit is usually starchy and lacks flavor, although it may be satisfactory for cooking.

Apples are adaptable to any meal of the day. They add zest to salads, make delicious desserts, and their tartness goes well with meat. Apple sauce made early in the season usually contains more vitamins than does sauce made from stored apples after January.

- Apple Nut Pudding

1 c sugar
3/4 c sifted flour
3/4 t salt
1 t baking powder
1/2 t cinnamon
1/4 t nutmeg
1 t almond extract

Capitol Notebook

Frankfort, Oct. 14 (Sp.)—The Commonwealth is becoming nuclear minded.

Gov. A. B. Chandler has allocated $7,000 from his emergency fund to establish a new Nuclear Information Division in the Economic Development Department.

The new agency, according to Economic Development Commissioner George Hubley, "will be a clearing house of information regarding nuclear energy and its uses... and will help Kentucky keep with what other southern states are doing in the field."

A director will be chosen who is capable, Hubley said, of "recognizing, appraising and exploring economic opportunities based on industrial and agricultural applications of isotopes and other atomic energy products."

Lt. Gov. Harry Lee Waterfield, a member of the Governor's Advisory Council on Nuclear Energy, also has been promoting Kentucky's advance in this field.

Last spring he told a Chicago conference, sponsored by the Council of State Governments, on the role of the state in atomic development.

"The first necessity is to make state government leaders and the general public aware of the potential uses—and dangers—of nuclear energy... Our state universities will have to provide trained manpower for potential adaptations of nuclear energy... State governments must decide where to lodge functions and services concerned with nuclear energy."

One solution to any unemployment problem in Kentucky might be to cast the jobless in the mooves.

The Economic Security Department placement service reports that a movie filmed near Lexington was a major reason for a decline in the number of job seekers during August.

FEWER JOBLESS

The average weekly number of persons receiving unemployment checks against the state trust fell to about 21,500 in August, 1957, lower than in July and 1,300 lower than in August last year, the Economic Security Department reported.

The agency said total payments dropped from about $2,400,000 in July to about $2,200,000 in August.

The report added:

"The average payment for a week of total unemployment rose to $27.75 in August, 2.51 higher than in the same month last year. The higher average was the major reason for an increase of about $12,000 in total benefits over August of last year, because the number of beneficiaries this year was smaller."

OPTIMISTIC

The Editors of Kentucky's new 1957 Industrial Directory are optimistic. They cite three factors promoting the Commonwealth's business growth:

A "prime position" with respect to industrial and consumer markets, in the heart of the Ohio Valley and at the gateway to the Southeast.

A "very large" supply of native labor.

An abundance of coal and other minerals, a wealth of timber, increasingly diversified agricultural production and a growing volume of raw goods due to greater industrialization.

A plentiful supply of water for industrial processes and nearly 2,000 miles of improved inland waterways.

Adequate electric power.

DULCET TONES

Folks interested in feminine beauty and charm may have noted that this year's Miss Kentucky, Jamie Brock of Casey County, played a dulcimer.

We don't promise that dulcimer picking will make you a beauty, but in case you're interested here's a booklet on how to "do it yourself" with the instrument.

It's called "The Plucked Dulcimer" and may be had for 50 cents from the Council of the Southern Mountains, Berea, John F. Pittman's book is the first one written on the three-stringed mountain dulcimer.

It shows the position of the notes and teaches you how to tune the Dulcimer and how to hold the fretting stick and pick.

D. V. FOR T. B.

A campaign is underway in the 13 counties in south central Kentucky served by the State Tuberculosis hospital at Glasgow to purchase and install a television set in each of the hospital's 39 wards.

Helping in the crusade are churches, individuals and civic and fraternal organizations. County judges are serving as chairman of campaign committees.

Capitol Notebook heartily endorses this campaign. Television would help relieve the boredom of confinement for long-term patients by occupying their minds and providing a variety of entertainment and educational features.

RECOLLECTIONS

I recall the old southern harmony singing at Benton. Beginning about 10 a.m., the singing continued for nearly two hours, when an old-fashioned basket dinner was eaten on the court-house lawn. The old "Southern Harmony" used in the festival was one of the most popular song-books written in four notes—fa, sol, la, me—of the shape-note kind.

According to tradition the book was brought by a family of settlers over the mountains from North Carolina, where it was known as "Singin' Billy Walker's Book," and was dated 1835—Nancy Wallace, Paducah.

LET'S HELP HIM HELP US!

The vote you cast for State Senator will have more far-reaching effect for this county and senatorial district than any vote you have cast during the past decade. Our next State Senator can either cooperate with the 37 other Senators and the administration in Frankfort for the benefit of his people—or he can make wild speeches, get lots of publicity, and gain nothing for his district.

Our next Senator should be experienced in getting along with other people. He should have the desire and the ability to get the state assistance which our people and our section of the state so badly need for roads, park development and new industry.

The ambition of our next Senator should be to do good, to build up, to improve the lot of his constituents—not destroy, accuse, and vilify others in his thirst for personal and political revenge.

Jerry Fonce Howell, a successful merchant of Price, Kentucky, is the official Democratic Nominee. He has been actively engaged in civic and conservation endeavors for years. He is an honest and respected citizen in his community. He served three terms as State Representative from Floyd county and was honored by his fellow members in the House of Representatives by being chosen to serve as Majority Floor Leader.

His past experience in legislative matters has well equipped Jerry Fonce Howell to ably perform the duties of State Senator. His wide personal friendship and acquaintance with political personages over the state, many of whom now hold important state offices and high positions, should be of invaluable assistance to him as our Senator.

Let us make the most of this opportunity to help ourselves—lets give him the kind of majority that will make even the people in Frankfort sit up and take notice!!!

Democratic Majority—2,152.

Up to and including September 7th, 1957, registered Democrats 404 and Republicans 137, making a new majority of the recently registered of 267.

The Democratic majority now stands at 16,768. The above listing completes all the precincts in Floyd county, district by district. It certainly will take a lot of crossing by Democrats to elect a Republican. The Democrats did elect Gorman Collins sheriff in 1953, and he has done nothing but to annoy the Democratic party ever since, and is NOW at it again. He has been a thorn in our party ever since, so let's rid ourselves of this man once and for all time. Through his efforts practically every Democrat, if not all, have been given opposition by him. Every candidate, both Republicans and Democrats, when they filed for office took all that they believed in their party and its principles and that they would support or intended to support it and that if nominated would accept the nomination and would not withdraw. Now, Gorman Collins, a brother of Gorman Collins, was nominated for County Judge, but resigned his nomination for business reasons as stated by him, but he had the same business reasons before the primary that he had after. What is behind this sudden change?

It will be a sad day for the Democratic party should they elect Gorman Collins, County Judge. He is using every effort at his command to destroy our party and create confusion in it. Beware of a wolf in sheep's clothing.

We respectfully submit this information for your consideration.

Floyd County Democratic Publicity Committee.

TIDBITS OF KENTUCKY FOLKLORE

By GORDON WILSON, F.L.B.
Western Kentucky Teachers' College Bowling Green, Ky.

"BETTER OR WORSE"

A typical question asked those of us who admit to some years is, "Are things better now or worse than when you were young?" The question is very unfair. It presupposes that we older ones are capable judges and that our answers could not be questioned, either. Frankly, it is unfair or unwise to expect an older person to condemn everything, whether of older times or more recent ones. If one of us said that the older times were ever so much better than now, every one of the questioners would secretly say that Grandpa was getting old and forgetful. If we said that there has never been a time like now, they would say that the old fellow was entirely too young for his age and refused to grow old naturally. At the risk of falling into one of these traps, I shall attempt to answer the question, but with no very positive or negative assertion.

There are values that we have lost or are losing because of the changing times. Neighborliness, for example, cannot be forever. I fear a neighborhood is no longer what it used to be. It is not a neighborhood that nobody could bound one. What used to be done as a neighborly act is now paid for, and both the payer and the payee expect this. Two years ago, when we buried my father back in his old home neighborhood, nobody expected the neighborhood men and boys to turn out en masse to help. We paid for that solemn duty, paid men who regularly could be employed that way. In some places, as you know, the old custom of digging the graves is kept up, nobody could think of expecting any pay for such necessary and sad labor.

Generosity, however, seems not to have been much affected by the passing of the old neighborhood. Whoever has an excess of fruits and vegetables seems as eager to share his good fortune as anybody I know more than a half century ago. Most people who raise gardens deliberately plan more than they could possibly use. Openly they would say that

COMMITTEE APPROVES HUGE ROAD EXPANSION

The program of nearly a half million dollars. The program calls for some phases of work on 321 miles of miles of interstate superhighways, 528.9 miles of primary roads, 354.7 miles of secondary, or farm-to-market, highways, and 52.9 miles in cities and small towns. In addition, the state will carry on its normal rural road program now financed with two-sevenths of Kentucky's gasoline tax and the five million dollar annual legislative appropriation for county aid.

About 600,000 tractors were bought in 1955 by farmers; about three-fifths were used tractors.

The committee appointed by Gov. A. B. Chandler to study the state on its enlarged road program unanimously approved projects listed in the expansion Oct. 9. It also urged completion of projects as speedily as possible—an aim already announced by State Administration and the Highway Department.

The committee approved continuation on projects it had endorsed last April and approved additions to the program to be worked out during the period ending June 30, 1959.

The spending schedule, dependent upon necessary funds being available provides for outlays of about 99 million dollars by next July 1, 140 million dollars in the next fiscal year, 131 million dollars in the following year.

The program to next July had been approved by the committee last April. Its latest action approved continuation of those projects plus additions in the expanded road program for the following two fiscal years.

Completion of all the projects would entail spending an estimated 147 million dollars in later years, making a total outlay for the program of nearly a half million dollars. The program calls for some phases of work on 321 miles of miles of interstate superhighways, 528.9 miles of primary roads, 354.7 miles of secondary, or farm-to-market, highways, and 52.9 miles in cities and small towns. The committee appointed by Gov. A. B. Chandler to study the state on its enlarged road program unanimously approved projects listed in the expansion Oct. 9. It also urged completion of projects as speedily as possible—an aim already announced by State Administration and the Highway Department.

The committee approved continuation on projects it had endorsed last April and approved additions to the program to be worked out during the period ending June 30, 1959.

The spending schedule, dependent upon necessary funds being available provides for outlays of about 99 million dollars by next July 1, 140 million dollars in the next fiscal year, 131 million dollars in the following year.

The program to next July had been approved by the committee last April. Its latest action approved continuation of those projects plus additions in the expanded road program for the following two fiscal years.

Completion of all the projects would entail spending an estimated 147 million dollars in later years, making a total outlay for

V. A. Smiley and Family Deserve Your Support

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

We, the members of the Committee that has recently been formed for the purpose of promoting the election of V. A. "Varney" Smiley for Jailer of this County, take this means of letting the people know who he is, how he stands as to Honesty, Sobriety, Morality and all the assets required of a good citizen in the community in which he lives.

The best way to find out about any man is from his neighbors and the people who know him best, and that is what we want you to do in this case. We feel that it is the duty of every citizen to make a diligent inquiry about any candidate before casting their vote and in this case we have no doubt but that you will gladly vote for Varney Smiley. We have known Mr. Smiley and his wonderful family for a number of years and know of no one who NEEDS and DESERVES the office more than he. Many of you people do not know Varney personally for the reason that you do not have the opportunity to see him often, because you will either find him at home with his family or at his work, for he has no time to loaf.

We doubt if there has ever been many men in this county who have asked the people to vote for them for office that have borne the hardships and obstacles that he has encountered. He has never been a strong man physically, has had several major operations, but some way or other he has managed to rear and educate this family of sixteen children. Varney has always conducted himself in such a way that whenever he needed help he had no trouble getting it. It is the intention of this committee to do our best to acquaint the people with the facts in this case and that is what we intend to do between now and the election. We do not think that politics has any bearing whatever in this case, for we know when the good people of this county make up their minds to do a thing, they always do it and LET'S NOT FAIL THIS GOOD MAN.

It would be fine if you all could visit his home and see how manly and neat all the children are and the cleanliness of the house, and have the pleasure of meeting and talking to his good wife. We know that you wonder how they have managed to get along, but his wife will be able to enlighten you on this. We have noticed that the boys will be selling paper, shining shoes or doing any kind of work that is honorable as soon as they are large enough to do so in order to help the rest of the family. But bear in mind that this is done before and after school hours. They have never neglected their education. They have all made good grades from kindergarten through college. This family is loved and respected by all who know them.

Varney was born and reared in the Prater Creek section of the county, is the son of the late A. L. Smiley, and his mother was an Akers. He is related to most all of the families in the Mud Creeks and eastern part of the county and many of his relatives are scattered to all parts of the county. His wife is the daughter of Sherrid and Cordelia Stewart Spradlin who both reside in Prestonsburg. Her grandfather was the late Henry Stewart, her grandmother was a Martin and her great-grandmother was a Turner or Left Beaver Creek. You can see that the relationship of this fine couple numbers in the thousands and lives in all parts of the county. But we do not ask you to vote for this good man because of this fine relationship. We ask you to vote for him for what he is, what he has meant to this community and county and for the fine example that he and his family have set for the future of your boys and girls.

We beg you to make a thorough investigation of this matter before casting your vote, and go to the polls and cast a vote that you will always be proud of, knowing that you have done something to make things just a bit easier for this good man and his family. DO NOT FAIL AT THIS OPPORTUNE TIME.

Gander Pulling Popular Early Sport In State

One rather unique sport that used to be popular in the early Kentucky frontier was gander pulling.

So popular was this refined pastime that a section of Bloomfield came to be known for a time as Gander town, as it was the gander pulling center of the state.

Four From This County Hoping To Win Berths On Pike College Team

Pikeville, Ky., Oct. 8 (Sp.)—Four Floyd county students at Pikeville college are looking forward to basketball activity on either varsity or freshman teams there.

Eight captains and co-captains of high school basketball and football teams in this area are among the 15 candidates for places on Pikeville College's freshman basketball squad in the coming season.

Nine varsity lettermen have reported for the Pikeville basketball team this fall, along with three promising members of last year's freshman team.

Schoolboy cage captains aspiring to the Pikeville varsity squad are Ronnie Francisco, Hillier high school; Gary Osborne, Jomarr, Ky.; Virgil high school; Edgar Hester, Garrett high school; Paul Getzler, Auster high school; and Paul Taylor, Johns Creek high school.

Also included are George Carroll, Ashland Senior high school's basketball co-captain last season; Ernest Hatfield, McCarr, captain of Bellary high school's 1956 football team; and James Heintzen, Norton, Va., football co-captain last year at John I. Burton high school.

Other stippling candidates are Bobby Bates, Wheelwright high school; Foster Coleman, Pikeville high school; Sammy Flannery, KY. Creek high school; Don Hall, Dor-ton high school; Donnie Layme, Pikeville College Academy; and Joe Robinson, Pikeville high school.

WHEELWRIGHT

The October P.T.A. meeting was opened by the president Elmer Ferguson. Along with the regular business conducted, an auditor's report was presented by the treasurer, Steve Clark, which was approved.

Boone Hall, school principal, described and explained the exhibits that were on display. These exhibits had been entered at the county fair by the graded school. This included a beautiful large painting of a portion of Wheelwright, and realistic miniature models of the community hall, theatre and the Wheelwright school system.

Mrs. Dorothy Conley had on her program Floyd County School Supervisor Wayne Ratliff. He made an interesting talk about School Amendment No. Two, urging all to vote "YES". Boone Hall introduced Mountain Clark, Floyd County Health Department Administrator who gave a talk explaining why we should vote for health district tax in Floyd county.

The prizes for the rooms having most parents present went to Mrs. Newman, fourth grade teacher, and Charles Curry, sponsor of the senior class.

SPORTSMEN TO HELP CONTROL FOREST FIRES

Frankfort, Oct. 14 (Sp.) — A new fire protection program has been initiated by the Department of Conservation and Fish and Wildlife.

The Conservation Department, through its Division Forestry cooperating with the Department of Fish and Wildlife, is asking the 300 Sportsmen's clubs throughout Kentucky to appoint volunteer deputy wardens to help fight and control forest fires.

The number of wardens selected would depend upon club membership. Each warden would have a crew of five men, to be trained by district foresters and regional directors of Fish and Wildlife.

Conservation Commissioner La-ban P. Jackson, Forestry Director Gene L. Butcher and Wildlife Commissioner Earl Wallace have been named directors of the League of Kentucky Sportsmen and received their wholehearted endorsement. Present at the meeting were Black Smith, president, and the vice-presidents representing districts. They are Arthur S. Curtis, 1st; Oliver Van Meter, 2nd;

Kentucky Offers Controlled Hunts

Controlled hunting which proved popular last year at Kentucky Dam Village State Park is again underway, with the season extending from October 1 to April 1.

The hunting ranges consist of rolling hills and natural cover, abundant in wild quail, partridge, pheasant and chucker. This controlled hunting area allows sportsmen to accumulate a full bag of birds and fish in nearby Kentucky Lake for bass and crappie.

At the park hunting lodge, well trained dogs, guides and horses may be obtained. Boats, motors and all fishing necessities are available at the park boat dock. During the controlled hunting season a special rate of $7.50 a day for room and meals is charged to hunters and fishermen at the park lodge.

Special yearly hunting memberships are available to business firms, clubs, other organized groups and individuals, who may obtain special rates to kill 40 birds.

Controlled waterfowl hunting is available in nearby Ballard county as a preserve maintained by the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources. Ducks and geese may be hunted on the 2,500-acre preserve. Transportation and guide service is available.

For hunters or fishermen who come by private plane, an all-weather landing strip is maintained at the park and free transportation is provided to the hunting and fishing areas.

Complete information may be obtained by writing the Kentucky Division of Parks, Frankfort or to Kentucky Dam Village State Park, Gilbertsville.

NEW PLANT IS COAL-FIRED

WORLD'S LARGEST SHOVEL

One of the world's largest power shovels, "The Mountaineer" is idle only once a year, on Christmas Day, and since beginning stripping operations about 15 months ago at the Cadiz, O., surface mine of Hanna Coal Co., has moved more than seven million tons of rock and dirt each month.

Moore Met His Responsibility

In answer to the question by my opposition, "Did Mr. Moore Meet His Responsibility?", published in the Times last week by an unsigned writer and under the picture of my Republican opponent, I am able to state that as Floyd County Court Clerk these responsibilities were met by me, and the Courts of our great COMMONWEALTH have voiced their approval of the conduct of the Floyd County Court Clerk's office. If the writer of this unsigned article had wanted to be fair with me and with the people he or she could have gotten the record from the Floyd Circuit Court Clerk's office and from the Court of Appeals of Kentucky. There are 120 Clerks and there were at least 120 absentee ballot boxes in Kentucky. No one can honestly say that I, the Clerk of Floyd County, am responsible for what the clerk in Monroe County did.

A recent report from a Floyd County Grand Jury tells the fair and impartial story of the Floyd County Absentee Ballots as far as your County Court Clerk and the Clerk's office is concerned, to-wit:

"We have questioned over a hundred witnesses in regard to the wide spread rumor concerning the Absentee Ballots. Among the witnesses were the Clerk, Election Commissioners, and various Candidates, during the last Primary Election including one of the other Candidates for Clerk and for our investigation. We failed to find any evidence where the County Court Clerk, DuRan Moore, or any of his office Deputies violated the Absentee Ballot Law, but we do believe that there were some irregularities in the handling of the Absentee Ballots by persons other than the County Court Clerk and we feel that the next Grand Jury should continue to investigate this abuse. In regard to the Absentee Ballot Law, we believe the Law itself needs to be changed, so as to permit only service personnel and students away from home, the privilege of voting absentee.

"Nothing further having come under our observation we beg to be finally excused.

Respectfully submitted,
PERRY GREENE, FOREMAN"

Judge M. J. See had this to say about Floyd County in the recent election, to-wit:

"The Court is of the opinion that no fraud sufficient to invalidate the integrity of the ballots in the absentee ballot box as a whole has been shown, and it is now ordered and adjudged that the plaintiff's complaint be and the same is hereby dismissed."

In a recent court action regarding the ballot to be used in the special and general election, Judge Marion Rider had this to say about your County Court Clerk, to-wit:

"The importance of this case is to the people of the County, rather than to the parties to this action. We have a situation which is extremely complicated, and it is little wonder that we find the Clerk in the dilemma which this record evidences as to the proper method of the preparation of the ballot to be used in the election. The concern indicated by the Clerk as to the proper solution of this complicated problem evidenced his sincere interest in the proper performance of his duties, and entitled him to the commendation of the people of the County, for that which he has done is in the interest of the people and their rights rather than that of the litigants."

I drove all night in order to go to Frankfort to see if the Attorney General could tell me how to have the ballots printed. County Attorney, Hollie Conley, was my official representative and attorneys for each of the senatorial candidates went with me. I am not a lawyer but I want to do everybody right and be just and honest toward all.

It has never been my intention as a candidate nor as a citizen to unjustly criticize or stir up strife and hatred among the good people of Floyd County.

Kathleen and I have worked hard and long in order to do the right thing for one and all. We have been honest and faithful to the trust you have given us.

Three Circuit Judges, the Grand Jury and the Court of Appeals have spoken the truth since the primary. They all have found our conduct clean and honest. DON'T BE FOOLED BY OPPOSITION. It is easy in an hour of desperation to cry WOLF! WOLF! when there is no WOLF.

The County Court Clerk's Office contains your most priceless records. They have been well filed, recorded, and kept by us and our good office help. As long as we are there you can expect and will always receive kind and courteous service.

We appreciate your help in the past and hope you can vote for me on November the 5th. May God be with you now and forever in the future.

Your friend,
DuRAN MOORE,
DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE for COUNTY COURT CLERK.

BASKETBALL RULE CHANGES

In the 1957-'58 basketball season, the National Rules Association has made 11 changes in the rules, but none should greatly change the game from last season.

Some of the biggest changes are: (1) No free throws are awarded for a double foul; (2) A player shall not (a) touch the ball or basket when the ball is or within either basket, nor touch the ball when it is (b) touching the cylinder having the ring as its lower base, or (c) is not touching the cylinder, but is in a downward flight during the try for a field goal while the entire ball is above the basket ring level and before the ball has touched the ring or the try has ended; (3) a player shall not be the first to touch a ball which he or a team mate caused to go from court to back court by being the last to touch the ball while it was in control of his team and before it went to the back court; (4) a throw-in from the free throw line extended is legal; (5) the 12-foot wide foul is now official for all courts; (6) the bonus penalty applies after one team has committed four or more common or personal fouls in one quarter of play.

BLACKBURN ILL

Eastern Kentucky and Floyd county coaches have missed the regular visits of veteran sports representative Harry Blackburn, who has served this area for 27 years. Harry is seriously ill in Mt. Carmel hospital, Columbus, Ohio. Cards and letters to him in room 935 may aid his recovery.

One of his first questions on our visit to see him last weekend was "Who won the Pikeville-Prestonsburg game?" Naturally I was pleased to tell him.

PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK

The weekly Black Cat Player-of-the-Week Award for the Louisa game was shared by two players, Quarterback Paul Phillip Hughes, who threw two touchdown passes and scored on runs of 95, 51 and 10 yards; and tackle Curtis Holbrook, a junior 180-pounder, who turned in his best game of the season, both offensively and defensively.

SECTION'S BALL TEAMS ADD TO WIN RECORDS

The Eastern Kentucky high school football powers added to their lustrous, ringing up record-making victories last week-end as the area's best backs romped for long-run touchdowns.

Jenkins, Belfry, Fleming and Prestonsburg won by wide margins while Paintsville was impressive in whipping M. C. Napier, and Hazard earned a hard 0-0 decision from Lafayette at Lexington.

Jenkins' unbeaten Cavaliers painted neighboring Whitesburg 58-6, for its seventh consecutive victory and a perfect 8-0 mark in the Eastern Kentucky Mountain Conference.

Diminutive halfback Gary Harrison started the romp with a 90-yard kick-off return and from there the game was a rout with halfback Charles Stoffer scoring three touchdowns, quarterback Frank Hodges two, fullback Edkins two and Harrison another on a 20-yard gallop.

Thus, the area picture will not be recited off until October 26, when Jenkins is host to Belfry.

Irvin Wilson's Belfry Pirates copped the Pike county championship in crushing a good Elkhorn City team 55-0 for their six consecutive win since their losing opening game.

Quarterback Bob Hamlin uncorked the two longest runs of the game on a 81-yard punt return and 42-yarder on a pass interception. Also entering the scoring picture were Max Hinkle on runs of six and nine yards, Richard Cliney, Ireland Smith, Harold Sullivan, and Harry Lee Smith.

Prestonsburg's Black Cats, who meet Belfry at home Friday night, lost Louisa 28-0, for its fifth decision of the campaign in a surprising display of power on both offense and defense. Last Friday night on the Louisa field.

Paul Phillip Hughes was the star of the fray with three six-pointers and fullback James Allen and Glenn Anderson each chipped in a touchdown, with Allen scoring the points after touchdowns. Hughes scored on three long runs and pitched two touchdowns passes.

Fleming kept its conference hopes alive after blasting Pikeville, 39-0, on some fine downfield blocking and the defensive play of all-state candidate, center Junior Thomas.

Playing the first half without all-state fullback James Hill, Fleming uncovered another offensive star in halfback Danny Quillen, who rolled for 21 points on treks of 80, 75 and 70 yards and counted for three extra points.

Hill came on in the last half and unleashed a 55-yard run and his replacement, Irvin Bentley, also chipped in a touchdown.

Walter Brugh's Paintsville Tigers upped their season's record to 4-3 in blasting M. C. Napier, 40-0. Freshman back Mike Minnix hurled one touchdown pass to end James Kennard and tallied two on 41 and 40-yard runs. Speedster Jim Wells raced over for 5 and 15 yards out and Maurice Minix intercepted a pass and ran it back 32 yards to complete the scoring.

Wheelwright's inexperienced Maroons bowed for the fifth consecutive time in losing to Hurley, Virginia, 25-0.

In the individual scoring race, Jenkins' Gary Harrison and James "Red" Hill of Fleming are tied with 76 points each and Prestonsburg's Paul Phillip Hughes is third with 55.

Get Floyd County out of Gas and Water Business
Put Floyd County in Road Building Business

Judge, why did your campaign committee omit witnesses names in their article in the last issue of this paper? THEY ARE FOUR CONFESSED BOOT-LEGGERS BY THEIR TESTIMONY UNDER OATH, and are supporting you vigorously. You do know that they have been raided several times in the past 3 1/2 years. Who is your Campaign Committee? Henry, are there any of the above four on this committee? The people of Floyd County are intelligent and fair-minded people—sign your names if you are not ashamed of them. The people like to know who a man's supporters are—just who is the committee?

In the past three weeks I have visited families on creeks all over the County and I find hundreds of children deprived of an education for want of roads. I have been to places that I would be ashamed to revisit and ask them to vote for me if I had been County Judge for 2 years and done nothing to improve their conditions. I have seen people that have paid taxes for 50 years and still have the same road they had 50 years ago. Where has your road crews been working during your 18 years in office?

Now, Judge, some of your political friends have done a good job on me. I can credit ten law suits against me and my deputies now in court. As long as a man works for this county as a deputy sheriff and does a good job I will stick with him. If he has a suit that stems from enforcing the law, it is my duty to see them through their trouble. That is why I have loyal deputies, and why they work hard for Floyd County.

I will admit Stumbo has had a lot of experience as a Judge, 10 years as Magistrate and 8 years as County Judge. (18 in all). I would like to quote Oscar Wilde on experience. "EXPERIENCE IS THE NAME SO MANY PEOPLE GIVE TO THEIR MISTAKES."

We are at the crossroads. It is not a case of whether you are for me or against me, but whether you want LAW ENFORCEMENT in the County or want Floyd County wide open for the next 4 years — Whether you prefer Floyd County in the Gas and Water or the Road Building Business.

Vote—COLLINS FOR JUDGE.

BURKE RULED OFF BALLOT

Former Attorney Here May Not Be Candidate On Republican Ticket

Frankfort, Oct. 11 — The Court of Appeals agreed Friday a candidate for Pike circuit judge, who lost in the Democratic primary, cannot seek the office as a Republican nominee in the general election.

The appellate court affirmed the ruling of Pike circuit judge, who printed on the ballots the name of Francis M. Burke as the G.O.P. candidate for judge in the November election.

Burke, a former resident of Prestonsburg and member of the Floyd county bar, was defeated for the Democratic nomination by James B. Stephenson in last May's primary election. There was no candidate for the Republican nomination.

On September 7, the opinion said, the Republican County Committee adopted a resolution nominating Burke as its candidate for circuit judge. Stephenson then brought action to keep Burke's name off the ballots.

Circuit court ruled in Stephenson's favor and Burke and the County Court Clerk appealed to the state's highest court.

They asserted two grounds for reversal: 1. Circuit court had no jurisdiction in the case and 2. Burke's G.O.P. nomination was expressly authorized by Kentucky statute.

Commenting on the latter contention, the appellate court pointed to a section of state law which states in positive terms that:

... No major political party shall have any power to nominate any candidate for any elective office or to provide any method of nominating candidates for any elective office other than by primary election, with the exception that if a vacancy occurs in a nomination made by primary, after the primary, the governing authority of the party may provide the vacancy."

THEY WANT TO KNOW

Q. Aren't Kentucky's school laws considered good?

A. On the whole, yes. The legal structure of education in Kentucky is very good. Though there are a few weaknesses, many other States envy us for the quality of public education and public interest in its orderly procedures.

Q. Why, then, this school amendment?

A. There are multiple reasons, the main ones being:

(a) Election of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction in a political campaign is considered by competent authorities as one of the few serious weaknesses in our school laws. What we have is political selection of a man for a very important professional responsibility.

(b) Inability of the State Superintendent to succeed himself prevents long-range planning and continuity of program.

(c) Political involvements handicap a State Superintendent in staffing and in planning and carrying out an educational program.

(d) Political involvements at the state level tend to cause policies in local school affairs, and

(e) Experience in other States indicates that selection of a State Superintendent on personal and professional qualifications, for a relatively long term (four or five years) with eligibility for reappointment, gives greater assurance of a competent superintendent of professional planning and execution of school programs, as well as continuity of program.

Does the amendment provide for such an improved method of selection?

A. Yes, it provides for the appointment of a nine-member State Board of Education and authorizes this board to select the Commissioner of Education (State Superintendent) and fix his term of office and salary.

Q. Why change the present set-up for the State Board of Education?

A. If, in addition to its other duties, this board is to appoint the Commissioner of Education, it should be as free from politics as possible.

Q. What assurance is there that the Board will be free of politics?

A. The provision as to length of terms of members is an assurance. This provision makes it certain that after the first Board is appointed, no Governor will appoint a majority of the Board during his term of office. In addition, the board will be a relatively large one (nine members), each member will serve for nine years, except in filling possible vacancies.

Q. Will the new State Board represent all parts of the State?

A. Yes. The State will be divided into eight districts of as nearly equal population as possible. One member will be appointed from each district and one from the State at large.

Q. When would the new State Board of Education assume its duties?

A. On July 1, 1958.

Q. Will the new Board appoint a Commissioner on July 1, 1958, or will the present State Superintendent complete the term for which he was elected, when ends January 1, 1960?

A. This will be a matter for the Court of Appeals to decide.

Careless Still Tops Causes of Forest Fires

Lexington, Ky.—Careless smokers and debris burners still lead the list of forest-fire causes, says about 80 per cent of all Kentucky forest fires in 1956 were attributable to smokers and debris burners, Newman said.
Lightning caused an estimated two per cent, Newman continued, of all the forest fires that burned 50,000-plus acres in the state in 1956.
Intentional woods-burning (incendiarism or arson) contributed heavily to the 1956 burned-forest total, Newman said. About 10,000 acres were burned by arsonists during the year.
The State Division of Forestry is responsible for fire protection in the state, and in 1956 covered about 5,870,000 acres. However, this is only about two-thirds of the actual forested acreage, Newman pointed out, showing that Kentucky needs state-wide protection of all forests.
Western Kentucky counties had the heaviest burn percentage. In Crittenden, Hopkins and Muhlenberg counties more than 3 per cent of the forest land burned over. Perry topped the eastern counties with 2.9 per cent.

Famed Sculptor's Work Displayed In Old Capitol

By Charles F. Hinch
Secretary-Treasurer, Kentucky Historical Society

Thanks to the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Strother D. Mitchell (Lexington), Mrs. Fannie Bullock, Mrs. Julia Gill Barnard (Washington D. C.), Mrs. John Taylor, Dorothy Hart Drew, Charles L. Epperson (Winchester), and Morgan Van Metre, the state has on display in the Old Capitol the finest Joel T. Hart collection in the world. Most of the valuable items were inherited by the late Mrs. Strother D. Mitchell, a great niece of the artist.
Joel T. Hart is Kentucky's most outstanding sculptor. He was born near Winchester in 1810, the son of parents of standing in the community. Shortly after the boy's birth, however, as a consequence, his parents were unable to send the bright lad to school for more than a few months of formal education.
Forced to earn a living when quite young, Hart worked as a stone mason, helping construct stone walls and chimneys. At 21 he went to work in Pruden's Marble Yard in Lexington. He began also a life-long study of sculpture.
By 1849 he had learned his profession well enough to establish a studio in Florence, Italy, close to the old masters. There he died in 1877, after completing his masterpiece, "Woman Triumphant," a life-size female nude, based on the composite features. It is said, of over 150 life models "sitting" over a period of 25 years. This remarkable piece of statuary was purchased by a group of Lexington ladies and placed in the Fayette county courthouse, where it was destroyed by fire in 1897.
Hart never married. According to most accounts, he fell in love with Mary Smithers of Lexington when he was a common laborer. It may be that she was in love with someone else but that Hart was never financially able to ask her hand in marriage. The secret was closely guarded by Mary Smithers, who kept, however, among her intimate effects, a poem by the sculptor entitled, "To Mary Parson." Her kept among his belongings, her picture, now owned by the Society.
He was buried in Florence near his friend, English poetess Elizabeth Barrett Browning. In 1885 the Kentucky Legislature appropriated funds to have Hart's remains removed to the Frankfort Cemetery in the State capital. He was reinterred, June 1887.

TO CLASSIFY COALS
To make easier the exchange of information between nations a new system of classifying various types of coal has been set up by the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe. The system will classify coals by color, indicating volatile content, calorific value and caking and coking properties.
Coal output of the five leading commercial companies and the four leading steel firms was more than 131.5 million tons, or more than 26 per cent of the 1956 total of 500 million tons.

The $64,000 Question

Gorman Collins, the Republican candidate for County Judge, wants to engage in a question and answer campaign. The following list of questions and answers was taken from an actual case against a former deputy sheriff on trial in the Floyd Circuit Court on a charge of accepting a bribe. This is an actual court record of a trial on November 26, 1956.

TESTIMONY OF WITNESS NO. 1:

"Q-15 Go ahead.

A- We came down to _____ place, more or less a bootlegging joint, and we went in the back; we had a little room in the back where she sold beer and stuff, and he told us that he wanted to explain what protection we would get and that Gorman Collins sent him out and he told us if we didn't believe he was the kind of man he was saying he was, and we all decided that he was all right."

"Q-25 Did you get what was promised you, protection?"

A- Yes, sir. I never was bothered by the county sheriff."

"Q-114 I want to ask you one further question. You tell the jury that as you went along bootlegging there, on the way, a year or a little over a year, or something like that without being bothered. What happened there? Did you finally quit bootlegging or what happened?"

A- No, I was still in the business. Something went wrong some way, _____, he told me that said _____."

TESTIMONY OF WITNESS NO. 2:

"Q-17 What did he say to you?"

A- He wanted to know if I wanted in on the pay-off and I commenced talking to him and I told him I did not understand it, and he told me then that Mr. Collins had them out collecting for him; that it wasn't going to him but was going to Mr. Collins and he told me, he said: "Looks like you can pay as much as $10.00 a week and sell on and if you don't, you will have to quit," and he said: "If you pay as much as $10.00 a week you can sell on and if you don't, you will have to quit."

"Q-20 Now, did you get that protection?"

A- Well, I got it up until the first Monday after Christmas.

"Q-21 Did something happen then?"

A- The man that was collecting, he said he wouldn't be around anymore.

"Q-29 Did you pay _____?"

A- Yes, sir. He said he would put my name down to Mr. Collins would know who it was coming from."

TESTIMONY OF WITNESS NO. 3:

"Q-3 Tell the jury what connections you had along that line, if any.

A- Well, I paid the defendant $20.00 a week to operate my place of business at East Point.

"Q-9 Why did you pay him $20.00 a week?"

A- Well, he just said it would furnish protection from the sheriff's force.

"Q-10 Well, did it?"

A- Well, I never was bothered by the sheriff's force after that.

"Q-11 Was that in Floyd county, Kentucky?"

A- Yes, sir."

TESTIMONY OF WITNESS NO. 4:

"Q-7 What was the line of his conversation?"

A- The only time that he ever had any conversation was the first time and he just told me if I stayed in business I would have to pay off, and the other times was when I would stop and buy gas off of him."

It is in order for Mr. Collins to answer these questions for the people of this county:

1. Who hired the attorneys to defend this former deputy?
2. How were these lawyers paid?
3. Why did you, Mr. Collins, advise with this man and consult with him and his attorneys during this trial?
4. Why would you be interested in this man if he had made false statements about you?
5. Where did the money come from that was used to defend a deputy for killing a man on the streets of Prestonsburg?

When you were a candidate for sheriff, Mr. Collins, you said this in the Floyd County Times on September 10, 1953.

"The taxpayers of this county have been paying a big price for the results they have been getting. The Sheriff's office pays enough money in fees for collecting taxes and fees for all other services that it performs to be able to maintain a good force of officers and pay them a fair salary. It pays enough to give the people good law enforcement and still be able to turn money back into the county treasury."

1. How much money have you turned back into the County Treasury?
2. How much did the Sheriff's office cost you?
3. How did you get this money back?

The past Grand Jury in its report dated September 27, 1957, had this to say about the way you conducted your office.

"We have questioned some 225 witnesses and returned approximately 142 indictments and during our investigations we questioned numerous witnesses, including deputy sheriffs and find that there is still a great deal of law violations and bootlegging going on in Floyd county. During our investigation we discovered that the Sheriff of Floyd county has in his possession a large quantity of alcohol beverages and we believe that since the law requires an officer to execute a search warrant to seize and take possession of the articles found and deliver them unto the Court, issuing the search warrant and this failing to have done, we feel that this Court should see that the said liquor and beer is legally disposed of."

What is your answer to this charge by the Grand Jury?

The people want to know, Mr. Collins. They are looking for your answers to these questions,

Pikeville Office Observes First Anniversary

On the anniversary of its first year in Pikeville, the Social Security Administration District Office is reminding area residents that they may lose many benefits through failure to acquaint themselves with requirements of the program.

This holds true despite the fact that the district office, which has served the six-county area of Floyd, Pike, Johnson, Martin and Magoffin counties, Kentucky, and Buchanan county, Virginia, since October 15, 1956, each month pays out approximately $400,000 in benefits to some 10,000 residents according to Thomas B. Thompson, district manager.

Considerable additional services are being afforded through the office since July 1, when the staff of 8 began administering the disability benefits program for people over 50. First payments in that program went out in August, although the office has been accepting disability claims since late last year.

In addition to the district office, contact stations are maintained at Prestonsburg, Wayland, Reedy, Inez, Paintsville and Salyersville, and at Grundy in Buchanan county, Virginia. These stations are visited regularly for the benefit of those unable to come to the district office because of disability or lack of transportation.

One of the biggest problems presently confronting the Pikeville office is the misunderstanding that exists regarding the requirements for disability benefits. In addition to a work test that must be met by all applicants under this provision of the law, a worker must be so severely disabled that he is unable to perform ANY regular, substantial gainful work. Thus a disability which simply prevents a worker from continuing in the work to which he is accustomed, is not necessarily sufficient to qualify him for benefits.

A surprisingly large number of workers fail to get full credit by neglecting to obtain a social security card, or in the case of a newly married woman, failing to have the record changed to show her new married name.

Monthly payments are available to an insured worker when he retires at any time after reaching 65, and his wife also may receive payments upon attainment of age 62, even though she never had a social security number.

If an insured worker leaves no widow or children who could ever qualify for benefit payments, monthly benefits may be paid to an aged dependent parent.

If an insured worker leaves a widow and minor children, the widow may be paid benefits for each child under the age of 18 until the child reaches majority. In addition, monthly benefits may now be paid to the disabled adult children or retired or deceased workers in many instances.

Social security officials sum it up this way: If you are not well acquainted with the requirements, qualifications, benefits or other details of the program, you should obtain pamphlets provided by the Social Security Administration to explain all phases of the program.

"If you don't make application for benefits to which you are entitled, you are cheating yourself," they point out.
