Board Ok's Shifts of Personnel

Newsome Becomes Betsy Layne Coach For Coming Season

Significant changes in the staffing of three schools were effected at Saturday's meeting of the Floyd County Board of Education when teachers were employed for the 1975-'76 school term.

Most of the changes took place at Betsy Layne. Tommy Boyd, veteran basketball coach, was named athletic director and classroom teacher. The coaching position was filled by the appointment of William Newsome, former net coach at Pikeville High School.

Forrest Curry was moved from the principalship of the John M. Stumbo Elementary School at Grethel to become assistant principal at Betsy Layne and assistant director of the Head Start program in the county school system. Gary Newman, who has been assistant principal at Betsy Layne, was named principal of the John M. Stumbo school.

Denzil Halbert, who last year was athletic director at Allen Central High school, was named visiting teacher with the school board's attendance department. (See Story No. 6, Page 4)

Leslie To Join War II Mates In Ship Crew's Second Reunion

Ex-Sheriff Frank Leslie, of Emma, will leave today (Wednesday) on a "sentimental journey" to San Diego, Calif., where he and other survivors of the 1300-man crew of the World War II heavy cruiser, the USS Salt Lake City, will hold a reunion.

To those at the reunion who will recall the years of the Salt Lake City, Pacific adventures, from Pearl Harbor to the Japanese surrender, the Floyd countian will be known as Boatswain First Class Leslie.

The first reunion of the Salt Lake City's personnel, which Mr. Leslie did not attend, was held last year, and 90 crewman reported. They hope a greater number will be in San Diego for this year's meeting, which will begin tomorrow (Thursday) and continue through Sunday.

The former Floyd sheriff recalls that he was perhaps the last Floyd countian to see Walter Karr Bowling, this county's first war casualty, alive. The two had (See Story No. 3, Page 4)

Fiscal Court Votes To Sue On Park Site

The Floyd fiscal court at its meeting last week voted condemnation of two tracts of land to provide a site planned for a mini-park at the mouth of Sizemore on KY 122, Left Beaver Creek.

One tract of 3.63 acres is owned by Ealesine Stumbo Vanderpool, the other, which is 90 by 100 feet, is owned by the Wentz Stumbo heirs.

Also slated for condemnation is right-of-way for an additional 10 feet of the road across the property of Alonzo and Elsie Lafferty on Bull Creek.

After a discussion of the solid waste program in the county, the court voted to call for payment to the Galton Manufacturing Company of $28,796.42 for the bulldozer use at the county landfill on Turkey Creek. The payment is to be made from the Coal Producing Development Fund representing monies due the county on the coal severance tax.

The poll officials serving at the recent primary election were paid the base $15, plus mileage for some who brought ballot boxes were from outlying precincts.

Unloaded 'Evidence' Results in Arrest

An attempt to dispose of a "hot" tire last Monday night resulted in the arrest here of a man and his wife on a charge of theft by unlawful taking.

City Policeman Ralph Thornsbury said as he, Commonwealth's Detective Doug Lewis and City Policeman Trusty were following a van which they observed on Highland Avenue at a late hour, "the door opened and something came out."

The officers stopped the van to investigate and upon recovery of the discarded object found it to be a new tire and rim. It was later identified as belonging to a truck on the lot of Muscarel-Hughes Chevrolet-Buick here.

William O. and Kathy Tapp were booked at the county jail by the officers and later executed bond.

"If they hadn't tried to get rid of the tire we would have never suspected anything," Thornsbury said.

Monday night, Policeman Thornsbury and Trusty arrested Robert Wolfe and charged him with third degree burglary after Wolfe was observed by Policeman Trusty's brother entering WPRT radio station through a window. Nothing was taken from the building in the incident.

Others booked at the county jail over the past week, charges against each and arresting officers follow:

Paul D. Crider, reckless driving and eluding a police officer, by Deputy Sheriff Craig Kilgore and Park Ranger Haley; Guy W. Scott, indecent exposure and harassment, by City Policeman Darrel Conley; John Williamson, criminal mischief, by State Trooper Williamson; Allen Ousley, assault in the second degree, by State Trooper Williamson. ## Animal Shelter Needs Planning, City Mgr. Says

The city of Prestonsburg is scheduled to receive $38,000 soon for the founding and operation of an animal shelter, and this news, city Manager Curtis Clark appealed to residents of the county for their interest and help in effecting proper use of the money.

The fund is the result of a bequest made by a London, Ky. woman.

The city manager pointed out that for a successful program to afford humane treatment of small animals, such as dogs and cats, to be implemented a shelter must be built, a veterinarian and personnel employed for operation of the shelter. He also pointed out that a manager and a board of directors must be appointed. These must be capable of organizing the undertaking.

"Won't you call the City Clerk's office (669-2355) and give your name and address, no matter where you live in the county, if you can or will help in this project?" Clark asked in an advertisement seeking public cooperation.

He said that as soon as a sufficient number of persons show an interest in the operation of such a shelter for stray, unwanted or sick animals a public meeting for the planning of the project will be called.

Miss Kentucky Pageant Contestant

Melissa Lee Lafferty, of Allen, will represent Floyd county in the 1975 Miss Kentucky Pageant. The daughter of Bennie Lynn and Gwendolyn Lafferty, she attends Prestonsburg High School. Miss Lafferty, 17, will play the organ in the talent competition. The Miss Kentucky Pageant will be held June 26, 27, 28 at the Macaulay Theatre, 315 West Broadway, in Louisville. ## 2 Floyd Groups Fight Pike Fire

Five fire departments, including those of Prestonsburg and Betsy Layne, fought the blaze which early last Friday night claimed the life of one man and destroyed a dozen units of the 50-unit Modern Villa motel in the southern section of Pikeville.

The victim was identified as Donald Huffman, about 40, of Pikeville, in whose motel room the fire apparently originated, possibly from a cigarette.

Pike Coroner Bradley said the body was identified by members of the vic-

Engineers' Recreation Area Gets Heavy Use by Public

Next time you see a station wagon loaded with fishing gear, picnic baskets, children and a dog heading in the direction of Dewey Lake and Jenny Wiley State Park, it may not be stopping at the state park at all. Because, nowadays, a large recreation area, constructed by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers directly below the base of Dewey Dam, is attracting huge crowds all by itself.

The park was opened in 1972 after an access road to the area was constructed, and visitors to the area have multiplied steadily as more and more recreational facilities and equipment have been added. Before construction of the access road, the only way to reach or leave the area of the present park was by descending—and, much worse, ascending—165 of the steepest steps to be found anywhere.

Now, a black top road winds gently down a hill to 25 acres of beautifully landscaped bottomland and a play and relaxation area that offers, as Dean Murray, Dewey Reservoir manager said, "some kind of attraction for just about everyone." A full-size, two-goal basketball court, baseball diamond, tennis (or volleyball or badminton) court and $15,000 worth of playground equipment offer the more active visitor plenty opportunity to work off some energy while the relaxation seeker can take advantage of the 50 picnic tables and grills provided by the Corps and eat barbecued hamburgers or hot dogs or, maybe, a "store-bought" chicken hot to the sound of the lake's tailwaters rushing through the nearby spillway. For the fisherman, a cross-section of about every variety of stream and lake fish in the area can be caught in the spillway or farther downstream in Johns' Creek. As Mr. Murray said, "Dad can fish, Mom can sunbathe, and the kids can play, all in the same general area."

Marked, blacktop parking spaces are provided for 46 vehicles. Murray said, "We've started adding new spaces, due to the demand." The "demand" has become so great on recent week-ends that many cars have been turned away. According to Murray, last Sunday was probably the biggest day yet. "In an hour's time we had to turn away 150 vehicles from the area," Murray said.

"We're getting mostly family-type groups," according to Murray, "and they're coming not only from the surrounding counties. You'd be surprised at the number of cars we get from places like Kermit, Logan and Huntington, W. Va. and Grundy, Virginia."

Although he could offer no cost estimate on the area, Murray pointed out that the building which houses the bathroom facilities and the associated sewage treatment cost the Corps $50,000 alone. "Add to that the playground equipment, the dusk-till-dawn lights, (See Story No. 4, Page 4)

Martin Says Report Of Suit Was Incorrect

Dicky Martin, of Garrett, said last week that The Times was incorrect in its recent story relating to his damage suit against county officials. He says he did not execute bond, as was noted on the jail record, but was released on writ of habeas corpus. He also says that the court did not order him to remove obstructions from the road in question. (See Story No. 4, Page 4)

Board Names Teachers for 1975-'76

Loss of attendance and per capita funds has resulted, as predicted, in a lower number of teachers for Floyd county's schools, next school year, but the number of those not employed by the Floyd County Board of Education last Saturday is no more than 10, and this number may be reduced by the opening of the new school term, it was said. All those who were not hired are not on continuing contract.

The list of teachers employed follows: ALLEN ELEMENTARY—Lewis Campbell, principal; Mildred Salisbury, librarian; Emily Allen, Danese Amburgey, Glenda Blackburn, Emogene Caldwell, Phyllis Craft, Frank Gray, Jimmy D. Gray, Florene Harris, Elbie Hicks, Lois P. Martin, Ada Osborne, Betty Plannery.

Water, Gas Ordinance Annulled

City Council Voids Rebate to Consumer In Effect Since '65

Principal business of last Thursday's City Council meeting was the repeal of the 1965 ordinance governing water, gas and sewer service.

Repeal of the ordinance was asked by Bill Harvey Howard, superintendent of the Municipal Water, Gas and Sewer System, who pointed out that the ordinance requires a rebate of 75 pct. of the water bill and 30 pct. on gas to a consumer who constructs his own line until the consumer is reimbursed for his or her construction cost.

Mr. Howard said the city has neither gas nor water to provide service to new customers outside the city limits, that such service improves the property of the consumer and that repeal of the rebate is justified. He pointed out as a hypothetical example that if the city might be required to do under the ordinance at a cost that the city limits extend to the top of the mountain at the head of Trimble Branch and if only one home were built at the top, the mountain and connecting line provided by the owner, the city would be obligated to supply water at only 25 per cent the rate normally charged until the owner's cost of line construction was recovered.

The repeal of the ordinance mainly affects areas outside Prestonsburg and it does not affect consumers who have already contracted and received services under provisions of the old ordinance.

City Attorney Joe Hobson said a new ordinance will be drafted soon.

The water and gas system office recently received from the Elaine Hall building on Lake Drive to the Fire Department building in the Mayo Addition. The move was made after Mr. Hall had announced plans to use the room occupied by the office for his own purposes. The office in the Fire Department building was remodeled by CEP employees using materials purchased by the water and gas system and central heat and air-conditioning have been added.

This Town... That World

Such a day! Low hanging clouds, a cold sort of drizzle... but think how happy all the ducks are.

WHO CARES?

The truth of the matter is, such days fall far down the list as much as the old saying might indicate. Despite the failure of an umbrella to keep out the rain as expected and a dog that wanted to feast on my left hind-leg, I got the feeling during a walk this morning that the scenery about—fog around distant hillsides, dark hollows trickling down toward the open valley, and the crackle mountain—must not be unlike the Scottish Highlands. Mind you, I have been no nearer the aforesaid Highlands than Washington, D. C., and my knowledge of same comes from a picture of wild, untamed scenery I once saw in a book. But the pleasant feeling lingers that all this around us must be like that particular part of the Old Country from which many of our progenitors came.

But who cares a hot, mon, how I feel about the matter? (See Story No. 2, Page 4)

PCC Service Program Lists Summer Classes

A course in yoga "hatha" will be taught at Prestonsburg Community College through the Community Service Program by Mrs. Kathy McCarvitt. This class is open to the beginning student and also to those who have had some yoga experience.

Meeting eight consecutive Mondays beginning June 23, at 7 p.m. in Room 155, Johnson Administration Building, the class will focus on postures, breathing techniques and relaxation techniques. Some attention will be given yoga philosophy, concentration techniques and the concept of meditation.

Mrs. McCarvitt and her husband presently live at Sitka, Kentucky, having recently moved there from Pittsburgh. She has had two years of formal instruction at the Center for Human Development in Pittsburgh.

The class will be limited to 20 participants. The Community Service Program also is offering a course in Prepared Childbirth, which will be taught by Mrs. Jean Rosenberg. This course will offer training for husbands and wives in techniques of prepared childbirth, including conditioning exercises and discussions on the process of labor and delivery. Beginning Wednesday, June 18, at 7:30 p.m., the class will meet at the home of Mrs. Rosenberg, 19 Burchett Street, Prestonsburg, and will meet for six consecutive Wednesday evening sessions.

Summer karate classes will be offered at the college, beginning June 7.

Piano lessons will be taught by Mrs. Nancy Masino at the college, beginning June 23.

For information on any of these courses, write the Office of Community Services at the college or phone 886-3863, extension 208.

Goins' To Appear At Area Festivals

The Goins Brothers Bluegrass group of Prestonsburg, currently playing the national Bluegrass Festival circuit, will perform this week-end along with some of the country's best groups, at Merrimac, West Virginia, near Williamson.

The festival, which runs Friday through Sunday will also feature such performers as Don Roush, Bill Harrell, Ralph Stanley and the Clinch Mountain Boys and Bill Monroe. Location of the festival is five miles out of Williamson on Route 49.

The 5th Annual Goins Brothers Bluegrass festival will be held the next week, Thursday through Sunday, June 19-22, at Lake Stevens Park near Beckley, West Virginia. Featured groups will include Ralph Stanley Larry Sparks, The Osborne Brothers, Jimmy Martin, Hyle Brown and several others. Lake Stevens can be reached by taking Rt. 3 out of Beckley.

ALS WELL THAT ENDS

What was feared to be tragically turned out last week to be merely mortal trouble, bane of modern fishermen, and at least one fisherman's wife. When a man and wife who were expected to return from a night's fishing on Dewey Lake early Saturday morning failed to appear, the Floyd County Emergency and Rescue Squad was called to investigate. Members of the squad responded to the call promptly, and in about an hour located the couple unhappy but well except for an ailing motor.

Heads Nuclear Plant

Fourteen years ago when he left the U. S. Air Force, Guy R. (Randy) Horn, of this county, began his association with the Cooper nuclear plant, near Auburn, Nebraska, as a truckdriver. Today, he is the manager of the plant. Mr. Horn, who is a son of Marie Vance, of the Middle Creek road, made a study of nuclear fission during his Air Force service. His advancement at the Nebraska plant has been steady over the years, and his appointment as manager was announced recently. He, his wife, Janice, and two daughters reside in Auburn.

Let Men Work at This Job

As the state of Kentucky and federal agencies undertake an attack on unemployment through public financing of jobs, they should seriously consider, as County Judge Henry Stumbo suggested recently, to return to the work methods which require men and not chemicals and machines.

We would encourage such consideration when the clearing of highway rights-of-way is undertaken.

The current method of killing bushes, weeds and other vegetation by the spraying of herbicides not only removes from employment several thousand men who need jobs but it also makes of the Kentucky slogan, "Keep Kentucky Green," a sad farce.

Besides the esthetic damage done to otherwise inviting roadides, it is known that certain herbicides are fatal to birds and perhaps other wildlife with which they come in direct contact. Some species of birds are already threatened with extinction by chemicals which destroy the reproductive process. And there is a growing suspicion that the damage to human health and life from the promiscuous use of herbicides and insecticides is greater than is yet known or admitted.

It is not only the highway crews that do damage in this way. Rights-of-way for communications and fuel lines are cleared in similar fashion.

It's a cheap method, for the moment. What the cost may be later will perhaps not be known till later.

The roads in clearing crews were referred to, when they were used several years ago without some contempt, as "weed-cutters." But it was honorable work, and they killed nothing they didn't set out to kill. No bird-song was stilled and no roadside browned by chemicals.

Offers Plan for Organized Baseball in This Area

It is time for all of us to be neighbors so that we will have national recognition. We all know there's plenty coal to get and we need other things for everybody to get together and be recognized.

I have a plan that I think will get us on our way. As many of us in Eastern Kentucky know, any major league baseball team will sponsor a ball team and guarantee they won't lose any money at the end of the season. All they require of the people who head the ball team is a ball park with lights. They call these leagues an all-rookie league.

Why couldn't there be an all-rookie league formed in Eastern Kentucky? Places such as Pikeville, Hazard, Harlan, Jenkins, Prestonsburg, Hindman, Paintsville and Middleboro could have a six or eight-team league. I am pretty sure the coal people would be glad to build a ball field to give our young people a chance to try professional baseball and give all the people a place to go for entertainment. The teams would be named for the town which sponsors them, such as the Pikeville Dodgers, Prestonsburg Yanks, Hindman A's, etc.

I am ready and willing to help get this started for our people in Eastern Kentucky. The major league clubs will furnish the managers, players and uniforms. If anyone would like to call me, call 806-378-2833 or write me at Ary, Ky. 41712.

Martin Judge Ousts Sheff

In neighboring Johnson county last week Paintsville Mayor John Chandler resigned, and in Martin county the sheriff was removed from office by order of the county judge.

Mayor Chandler announced his decision to quit the office following a lengthy discussion of a one per cent occupational tax which Chandler had proposed as a possible answer to the city's financial problems.

After Chandler had pointed out that a study of salaries paid city employees in the region showed that Paintsville's were the lowest paid in the area, the City Council voted a 10 per cent pay raise, but there was no motion on the occupational tax. After the pay increase was voted, Mayor Chandler announced his resignation, effective at the close of the meeting, adding that he would not "run a city with a deficit budget."

Later, the occupational tax squeezed through by a 3-2 vote, but Chandler's resignation stood Mayor Pro-Tem Jim Tom Newman was acting as mayor last week.

In Martin county Sheriff Sam Moore was ousted last Tuesday by County Judge Ray Fields after Moore had failed to post bond as required by state law. Judge Fields said the law requires sheriffs to post bond by June 1, and that he had contacted the attorney general's office which told him there was no alternative to ouster.

Sheriff Moore was expected to appeal the judge's action.

'Election' Pokes Up Its Head

Letters from those who have left Floyd county appear fairly often in The Times. Uniformly they are full of praise for the paper and the changes they found in Prestonsburg and Floyd county upon visiting. Until very recently, we have been members of your fan club from abroad.

We cannot expect one who has never left to understand the anticipation and joy that attend the coming of the "Po" on Thursday or Friday, depending upon location of the recipient. Highlights of The Times that we especially enjoy are: The social dining of the Paul and Allen's clarification of names involved in lawsuits; people who will no longer be responsible for debts incurred by anyone other than themselves; and, with the exception of a few "fishy" sounding stories, the editor's column, "This Town, That World."

Several weeks ago, we were relieved to read that the "pokes" of Floyd county was at long last to be placed under the care and direction of an able official. We, at the earliest moment, forwarded our absentee ballots to the poke election headquarters. Since that time we have been plagued with a dearth of information about this most important race. Owing to distance, and uninformed letters, The Times has been our only link with the campaign. It is indeed a trial to plod along week after week thirsting for knowledge of the poke warden race.

Then, come Thursday or Friday, depending (which has already been explained) we tear open our plain brown wrappers, and find to our dismay that no poke official has as yet taken office in the fair county of Pike.

We beg you to show a little consideration to those from afar who love and respect poke, and get on with this confounded election.

Impatiently yours,
GINNY OKOPSKI

Praises Young Singers

I just want to say, "hurrah" for our young people who are singing and giving the Lord the praise. If you were not at the Martin Free Will Baptist Church on Saturday night at the singing convention, you really missed a blessing. One young group from Pikeville, one from Bull Creek, one from Dwayne and another from Ohio.

We really appreciate our young people at church that are singing for the Lord, too—the Harmonizers and many other young people at the church.

ALLEY FORK COOK-OUT

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Buddy Baldrige hosted Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neil Allen to a cook-out at their home on Alley Fork of Little Paint Creek, Sunday night. A sumptuous meal followed by homemade pineapple ice cream was enjoyed although at least one member of the party had to deep breathe for about ten minutes to keep from smotherin'.

Ten Years Ago

(June 10, 1965)

Preparations are being made for the Floyd County Homecoming which begins Friday and continues on into Sunday. Mrs. Fanny Jarrell was presented a silver tray May 27 at May Lodge by members of the faculty of Prestonsburg grade school upon her retirement after 45 years teaching. School Principal Lloyd Stumbo, who is transferring to McDowell, was likewise honored. Ray Howard, of Prestonsburg, returned Saturday to membership on the Floyd County Board of Education by vote of the board, filling the vacancy created by the resignation of Bill Wells. Roger Lee Goble, 24-year-old man, died Sunday at Methodist hospital, Pikeville, of injuries sustained in the wreck of his auto Saturday night near Betsy Layne.

Wayne Smiley, Prestonsburg, was the recipient recently of the annual Morehead State College Ross Anderson Scholarship. There died: Jesse James Meade Eades, 85, Friday at his home at Hite; Burrell Cox, 91, of Hunter, June 8 at Huntington, West Virginia.

Twenty Years Ago

(June 9, 1955)

Floyd county will open next Monday for the first time in its history a school for the training of retarded children. The class, to be held at Martin, will be taught by Mrs. Joe Bagley, of Boldman. The second round of serum for the prevention of polio will be given to Floyd county children of the first and second grades in school beginning next Tuesday, it was announced Wednesday by M. V. Clark, administrator of the Floyd County Health Department.

The city council voted Monday night to discontinue the use of parking stickers, effective July 1, and to buy 100 new parking meters. A year after beginning work with the Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS), Bill Dudley, McTone, native of Prestonsburg and son of Mrs. Cora McTone, of Wheelwright, is on the permanent staff and is a designer of sets for the television shows "Omnibus" and "The Best of Broadway."

400 Floyd countyans were in the record campaign-opening crowd of an estimated 12,000 persons who gathered in Shelbyville last Thursday night for the opening campaign address of Judge Bert T. Combs. Born to Mr. and Mrs. James E. Allen, son, Neil, June 1st at the Prestonsburg General Hospital.

There died: Mrs. Lottie Akers Howell, 38, of Dale, last Thursday at the Prestonsburg General Hospital; David C. ### Thirty Years Ago

(June 7, 1945)

The town of Allen occupies an unusual position, its treasurer-clerk-tax collector, said this week—it owes nobody, and nobody, no even a taxpayer, owes it a penny. Reported as liberated from enemy prison camps are Cpl. Shirley Lewis, of Betsy Layne; Pfc. Austin Caudill, of Eden, and Pfc. Dingus Lewis, formerly of Prestonsburg. The Big Sand Baseball league was organized here Monday evening with W. B. Malone as president, W. C. Rimmer as vice-president and Fred Dickerson as secretary-treasurer. Prof. W. M. Caudill, onetime superintendent of Prestonsburg schools, has resigned his chair on the faculty of Murray State College to become president of Campbellsville Junior College.

Capt. Paul E. Hayes of Fed. has been awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious achievement as squadron armament officer of B-24 liberator group in England. Samuel R. Hatcher, of Allen, who the age of 13 was the youngest student ever to matriculate at Centre College, is a major in command of an engineer unit in the European theatre of war. Sgt. Doug Fitzpatrick has received his Army Air Force discharge after 129 missions with the air transport command in the Pacific war theatre. Second Lieut. Mary Cory was graduated May 16 from the Ft. Knox basic program for Army nurses. Nick Everidge, 35, was fatally killed Monday morning when struck by a train. Donald Thacker, 16, of Shebana, was killed Monday at Wheelwright when crushed in the treads of a bulldozer being used in construction of a golf course. Married: Miss Lillian Wells, of Prestonsburg, and Sgt. Carl T. Watson, formerly of Auxier, here June 1. Born: to Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Herald, of Gov. Creek, May 30, a daughter, Dianne. There died: Mrs. Willie Salyers Allen, 81, Thursday at West Prestonsburg; Mrs. Susie Mullins, 37, of Arkansas Creek, Sunday at a Martin hospital; Henry LaViers, 83, coal industry pioneer in this field, last Thursday at Paintsville; Mrs. Garfield Music, suddenly last Thursday near Bonanza.

Forty Years Ago

The tippie, powerhouse and shophouse of the Sandy Valley Coal Company at Water Gap was destroyed by fire Thursday morning at an estimated loss of $35,000. Two liars in the county jail led a mullin in the Floyd County jail Wednesday, but order was restored soon after the arrival of Judge B. L. Surgill. The Floyd County Board of Education awarded contracts for construction of 11 schools and school additions on bids approximating $14,500.

A demonstration featuring the burial of the "Yellow Dog" in effigy was staged at Maytown Sunday afternoon by members of the International Association of Oil Field, Gas and Refinery Workers and the United Mine Workers. Dr. Julian C. Harlowe, of Prestonsburg, was graduated Tuesday from the School of Dentistry, University of Louisville, with highest honors in a class of 32. There died: Mrs. Mary Hicks, 58, May 26 at Maytown; Mrs. Florie Lyons, 36, Friday at a Martin hospital; Mrs. Carnie Carroll, 32, at a Martin hospital; Joe Pentick, of New Kensington, Pennsylvania, employee of the Golden Valley Shows, Sunday at Martin.

ment, and Gene Frasure, former coach, will succeed Halbert at Allen Central as athletic director.

After a lengthy discussion, the board of education voted to require its depositary to pay 5 1/2 per cent interest on its monthly deposit balances, and on the recommendation of Supt. Charles Clark agreed to renew the depositary contract with the First National Bank here for one year.

It was explained that the interest requirement results from the large balance in the general fund, as compared with the "hand-to-mouth" financing situation which existed a few years ago when the Finance Department, State Department of Education, sent only two checks a year to the local board, necessitating the borrowing of money to meet payroll requirements. Asst. Supt. Ray Brackett was named treasurer of the board, a post formerly held by an official of the bank where the funds were deposited.

The board declared an emergency exists in reference to the need of a contract for work which will prevent washing of dirt from the board parking lot and grounds here onto Second street, and it asked the Division of Buildings and grounds to appraise the initial step (a B.C.) toward backflopping and draining the lot.

Supt. Clark also was authorized to file a BG-1 for installation of an air filter in the woodworking department of the Garth Vocational School. Cost of the work is estimated from $20,000 to $25,000.

The board heard at its meeting a report from Lawton Allen, C.P.A., who praised the excellence of the school system records, complimenting, particularly, Wanda Hamilton, head bookkeeper, and Ray Brackett, assistant superintendent and finance officer.

Saturday, June 21 was set as the special "clean-up" meeting of the board to end the current fiscal year's work and prepare for the new which will begin on July 1.

The Salt Lake City men are proud of its record. Mr. Leslie recalls that the ship took the first U. S. offensive action of the war in the bombardment of Jap-held Wigo atoll in the Marshalls. He and his mates will recall the escort role their cruiser played when Doorkite led his bomber raid on the Japanese island, the rescue of survivors from the aircraft carrier WASP which was torpedoed a thousand yards away, of covering the "Trooper" attack on the Japanese island, the first American land offensive.

The battle "Itinerary" of the Salt Lake City from February, 1942 to May, 1945 included such places as Savo Island, the Komandorskes in the Aleutians, Tarawa, the Marshall Islands, Eniwetok, Saipan, Iwo Jima and Okinawa. During that time the cruiser participated in the escort of four cruisers and destroyers, 11 cargo vessels and 12 planes and participated in 29 bombardments of Japanese-held islands.

Prestonsburg Fire Chief Tom Blackburn said that except for the services of three Kentucky Department of Highways tanker trucks, the firefighters would have been unable to save any portion of the motel. These wheeled to the scene 7,000 gallons each per load. The motel is on US 23, approximately a mile south of the Pikeville city limits, and fire hydrants have not been placed there.

In addition to the Floyd county firefighters, the departments of Pikeville, Elkhorn City and Mullins were involved in bringing the blaze under control.

Coal Firm Agrees To Pay Damages

Frankfort, Ky.—Two coal firms have agreed to pay $2,000 each and undertake water pollution control measures as a result of action taken by the Kentucky Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection.

In an agreed order, Chapparral Coal Corporation, of Virgie, agreed to pay $2,000 as damages to the state. Chapparral further agreed to a constant monitoring program to insure no more water damage, including designating a person to check all disposal pumps, lines, processes and emergency ponds at least twice during each work shift. Under the terms of the agreement, no water will be discharged prior to being diverted into ponds or other devices for treatment.

The department had charged Chapparral Coal Corporation with violating state water quality standards and with failing to notify the department of spills that contaminated a nearby stream, as required by law. The department said that on two occasions last November and December coal fines from a coal preparation plant operated by Chapparral spilled into the Levisa Fork and blackened that stream. The agreed order recognized that the firm has undertaken extensive water pollution abatement control measures.

South-East Coal Company, of Irvin, was the second firm to agree to pay damage to the state. The company was charged with violating state water quality standards and failing to notify the department of a spill of contaminated water. The department maintained the spill, which occurred in late January, contaminated the Kentucky River and caused downstream water treatment plants to cease operation until the contaminated water had passed. The company has also agreed to begin a 24-hour monitoring program designed to prevent future spills.

Wins Golden Horseshoe

Michael Skeens, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Skeens, of Barbourville, W. Va., was recently awarded the Golden Horseshoe Award of West Virginia and was made a member of the National Junior Honor Society.

In a May 16 ceremony in the House of Delegates chambers at the state capital in Charleston, he was "dubbed" a Knight of the Golden Horseshoe by State School Superintendent Daniel B. Taylor. He was one of 220 winners throughout the state from more than 30,000 eighth grade students who were tested on their knowledge of West Virginia history. The four students in each county scoring the highest on this test are awarded the Golden Horseshoe Award.

On May 20 he was inducted as a member of the Village Chapter of the National Junior Honor Society at Barbourville Junior High School. He is an eighth grade student at Barbourville Junior High School, where he is an honor student, a member of the golf team, and a former DAR Award winner. He is the grandson of Magistrate and Mrs. Dewey Roberts, of Harrod.

Artist To Exhibit Works at Pikeville

Pikeville, Ky.—The public has been invited to join members of the Pikeville Arts and Crafts Association in welcoming artist Russell May to that area. Mr. May, a long-time resident of Prestonsburg, has traveled extensively throughout the U.S. and Europe, polishing and refining his techniques. He works in oil and has marketed his paintings for years. Recently he has expanded his business to include prints of his most popular works.

This month's meeting will be on June 17, beginning at 7:30 p.m. at the Center for Arts and History on College street. Pikeville, Mr. May will be present before and after the program to exhibit and sell his currently available work. The Prestonsburg artist will take members, step by step, into the world of the professional artist by showing what is involved in applying paint to canvas. Members are urged to bring guests to the meeting.

VISITING PARENTS. Dr. Z. S. Dickerson, Jr., Mrs. Dickerson and daughter, Margaret Ann, of Harrisonburg, Va., arrived here Monday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. S. Dickerson.

DAUGHTER BORN. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Arnold Mann, Alexandria, Va., announce the birth of their first child, a daughter, June 2 at Alexandria. She has been named Laura Elizabeth.

HERE FOR WEEK-END. Mrs. Thelma Meade and son, Ricky, of Ashland, spent the week-end here visiting relatives and friends, returning home Sunday.

Martin-Bierie

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Martin, of Prestonsburg, announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Arlene Rose, to Second Lt. Richard Thomas Bierie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bierie, of Hampton, Virginia.

The wedding will take place at Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church on June 28 at 2:30 p.m. The gracious custom of open church will be observed.

KENTUCKY SOCIETY MEETS. The Kentucky Society, Dames of the Court of Honor, met June 4 at the University Inn in Lexington, with the state president, Mrs. Sallye L. Clark, presiding. Mrs. Harold K. Scott, chaplain, conducted the ritualistic service, followed by "Noblesse Oblige," read by Mrs. Ewell H. Gibson. Due to the illness of the secretary, Mrs. Wm. H. McMurtry, Mrs. A. B. Hall recorded the minutes. Mrs. Clark reported on the National Meeting held at Woodstock, Vermont in October, 1974. Contributions were made to Colorado Mt. School, Cape May and National Scholarship Fund. Michael Parish, organist at the Presbyterian Church in Lexington, was presented by Mrs. Hall. He spoke on the "Beauty of Church Music." Mrs. Alex Beattie, Louisville, was accepted as a new member. Attending the meeting from here were Mrs. Sallye L. Clark and Mrs. Everett H. Sowards.

ATTENDED WEDDING IN HUNTINGTON. Mr. and Mrs. Hal Kawaja and Miss Mary Ann Kawaja and friend attended the wedding of Mrs. Linda Verbage Cooper and Mr. Touffie Louis Kassab, June 7, in the Holy Spirit Orthodox Church in Huntington, W. Va. They were guests at the reception at the French Tavern following the ceremony.

HONORED ON BIRTHDAY. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baird, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baird, III, and daughters, Virginia Kirk and Elizabeth Ann, of Pikeville, were hosts to dinner at May Lodge Sunday, honoring Mrs. E. D. Roberts on her birthday. Mr. Roberts was also a guest. She was presented gifts at her home, later in the afternoon.

RETURN FROM OREGON. Mrs. Joe Buchanan returned home Sunday night from a 10-day visit with her brother, Dr. Lucien B. Burke, and family in Portland, Oregon. Her mother, Mrs. Grace L. Burke, who accompanied her there, remained for a longer visit. She was met at the Blue Grass Airport, Lexington, by her daughter, Sarah Buchanan, who accompanied her home.

Stickler-Guion Vows Said Here

The wedding of Miss Mary Katherine Stickler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stickler, of Drift, Ky., and Mrs. David A. Guion, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Guion, of Russellville, Ky., was solemnized on May 17 at 3 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church of Prestonsburg.

The Rev. William Thomas performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with spiral candelabra and greenery. A small floral arrangement graced the organ.

Mrs. Chalmers H. Frazier, of Prestonsburg, provided a program of nuptial music which included the traditional wedding marches for the processional and recessional, and accompanied the wedding soloist, Mrs. David Hatchett, of Russellville, who sang "O, Promise Me" and "Because."

The bride escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, wore a designer gown of ivory imported organza, enhanced with charmingly lace, crystal ruching and seed pearls. The high neckline, cardinal sleeves with tight cuffs, empire waist and A-line silhouette added to the beauty of the lovely attached chapel train. Her profile headpiece was sparkled with pearls and held her floor-length mantilla veil strewn with charmingly. She carried a cascading bouquet of gardenias and white sweetheart roses to complete the radiant picture.

The maid of honor, Miss Teresa Ann Martin, of Drift, Ky., was attired in a cornflower blue and green floral print on a pale blue background of silk organza over blue tulle. The gown was fashioned with an oval neckline and short cap sleeves. The wide blue cummerbund was caught in the back and ended with long blue streamers. She wore a matching blue, wide-brimmed picture hat, short white gloves, and white shoes, and carried three white roses buds with long white streamers.

Miss Stickler chose as her bridesmaids, Jeanna Barnard, of Eustis, Russellville, Madona Spradlin, of Pikeville, Ky., Nancy Reed, of Drift, Ky., and Susie Smith, of Bardonia, Ky. They wore gowns and headpieces identical to that of the maid of honor and each carried a single white rosebud. The flower girl, Sharon Fugate of Drift, cousin of the bride, wore an identical ensemble also. William Guion served as best man for his son, Usher, were Kenneth Whitley and Drexel Herndon of Russellville, who also served as taper lighters; James Nicks, of Bowling Green, and Eddie Stickler, brother of the bride, who also laid the aisle cloth. The ringbearer was Todd Harkleroad, of Russellville.

The mother of the bride wore a floor-length dress of mint green, fashioned with an empire waistline, oval neckline and short sleeves. She wore white accessories and a corsage of white orchids. The groom's mother chose a floor-length periwinkle blue chiffon gown and silver accessories. A white cymbidium orchid was attached to her handbag.

The reception was held immediately after the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church. The long refreshment table was covered with lace-edged white linens. A three-tiered pale blue wedding cake accented with white roses buds and topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the table and was flanked by spring bouquets and crystal candelabra holding antique ivory candles. Greenery led to crystal punch bowls at either end. Mrs. B. A. Reed, Mrs. Hugo Miller and Mrs. Glen Burton, all of Drift, and Mrs. Clarence Diersing, of Louisville, the bride's great aunt, presided. Also assisting with refreshments were Mrs. James Reed, Mrs. William Hoffman, Mrs. Clarence Cahill, Mrs. Harry Martin all of Drift, and Miss Bureta Gearheart, of Prestonsburg.

Kim Miller, of Drift, presided at the bride's register in the church vestibule. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Guion, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McCortick, Mr. and Mrs. Don Horton, Dr. and Mrs. Bill Webb, Dr. and Mrs. N. R. Harkleroad, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carner, Kayonnie Webb, Julie Webb, Kim Harkleroad, Rodney Harkleroad, Jim Carner, Lisa Hatchett and sisters of the groom, Jane and Susan Guion all of Russellville, Julie Guion and Andy Guion of Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Johnston, of Princeton, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnstone and Sarah Johnstone, of Berea, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shelton, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Diersing and Mrs. Nell Bell, all of Louisville, Ky.; Suzanne Berry of Paducah, Ky.; Eloise Spradlin, Pikeville, Ky.; Edward Stickler of Dearborn Heights, Michigan; and Craig Turner of Frazer, Michigan.

The bride is a graduate of McDowell High School, and Mr. Guion is a graduate of Russellville High School. Both will graduate from the University of Kentucky next spring with degrees in pharmacy. They are residing at 1825 Liberty Road, Lexington.

The rehearsal dinner, held at the Highland House, Paintsville, was given by the groom's parents. The wedding director was Mrs. R. W. Ankrum, of Prestonsburg. A pre-nuptial shower in honor of the bride was given by Mrs. Harry Martin at her home in Drift.

We Need Help

Persons in Prestonsburg or Floyd county who would like to teach and enforce the practices of humaneness toward animals and provide facilities for preventing the suffering and abuse of lost or unwanted animals are asked to contact the City Clerk.

To accomplish this aim, an animal shelter must be built, a veterinarian and proper personnel employed to pick up stray, unwanted or sick animals. The City of Prestonsburg will soon receive about $38,000 from the estate of a person who wanted to see such a shelter built in this vicinity. A board of directors and a manager must be appointed, capable of organizing such an undertaking. Won't you call the City Clerk's Office, telephone number 886-2535 and give your name and address, no matter where you live in the County, if you can or will help in this project.

Just as soon as enough persons show an interest in this humane venture to assure its success, you will be notified of a public meeting to form plans. This meeting will discuss the small animals such as dogs, cats, etc. and will help control the birth rate of these animals. This could be one of the most rewarding decisions you have ever made. CURTIS CLARK, City Manager, City of Prestonsburg.

Little Baseballers Draw Big Crowds

The area's tiniest baseball players, the five and six-year-olds of the local farm league, have been attracting sizeable crowds at their games on the Prestonsburg Community College campus. Here, members of the Cardinals team warm-up before a game with a little batting practice.

Ducklings, A Tourist Attraction In Themselves

These young ducks, under the watchful eye of mother and two drakes, are an added attraction for visitors to the Jenny Wiley State Park boat dock. Bill Pettrey, park employee, feeds the ducklings and their elders regularly and a shout from him never fails to bring every duck within earshot paddling in high gear.

22-Ounce Baby Born At Martin Hospital

A baby born at Our Lady of the Way Hospital, Martin, last Sunday is attracting more attention than usual. The infant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Darling, of Wheelwright, weighed only 1 pound, 6 ounces, and is the smallest to be born at the hospital and survive. Although born three and a half months prematurely, the baby was apparently doing well, Tuesday. The Darlings have four other children.

Major League Draft May Cost Local Team

Post 117 American Legion baseball opened a 45-game schedule last week under the guidance of Manager Steve Butcher. Assessing this year's squad, Butcher is pleased from at least one point—turnout. Twenty-eight boys answered the call for practice last Monday. Last season only 15 showed up for tryouts. New additions to the squad which pleased Butcher are catcher Paul David Brown, who played for Paintsville High School this year, and Greg Bryant, a right-handed pitcher from Sheldon Clark High. At the moment Butcher's major concern is the future status of his returning shortstop, Rob Herrick, of Prestonsburg. Herrick is being closely scouted by the major leagues and there's a good possibility he will be called in next month's major league draft. Herrick was worked out by Cincinnati last Saturday at Riverfront Stadium.

ROPES Region 11 Honors Ramey

DRIFT NEWS

Attending the ROPES board of directors meeting were, from left, Charles Clark, chairman of the board and superintendent of Floyd county schools; Dr. John Claunch, president of the Kentucky Council on Economic Education, and Reo Johns, executive director of ROPES.

Directors and staff members of ROPES Region 11, meeting here May 30, presented a plaque to retiring board member George L. Ramey in appreciation of his services. Mr. Ramey has represented the Department of Education on the ROPES board since its establishment in 1972. Dr. Curtis Phipps, director of the Division of Guidance Services, Department of Education, will replace Mr. Ramey.

Reo Johns, executive director, discussed regional workshops, including the Alcohol and Drug Abuse Education workshop to be held at Prestonsburg Community College, June 25 and 26; the Due Process and Discipline workshop to be held July 18 at a location to be announced later, and the cabinet meeting to be held in the ROPES office on June 4.

Board members also heard reports on regional program activities by Region 11 staff members, Bronelle Skaggs, Shirley Beard and Larry Jervis.

Arnold Guess, deputy director of the Division of Administration and Finance, State Department of Education, appeared before the board to discuss the equalization bill. Guess told the board that the bill will provide for equalization of leeway money, a shift from local to state taxes on real estate, and full state funding of the foundation program. In addition, Guess told the board, the bill would eliminate the required local effort and repeal the House bill commonly called "the rollback bill." He stressed that the equalization bill would not increase state control of education.

Although the bill has met with opposition in some sections of the state, the ROPES board voted unanimously to endorse it.

Also appearing before the board were: Joe Billy Mansfield, commissioner of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association. Mr. Mansfield, speaking in support of regional basketball clinics, told the board that the Association is trying to alleviate the shortage of good referees by holding training programs for officials. These training programs will be conducted in each region by the assigning secretary or someone else who has been trained to conduct them and will consist of five three-hour sessions. Mansfield stressed that the training sessions will teach not only the mechanics of officiating, but the means of judgement.

2. Ted Cook, director of the Adult Basic Education Unit, State Department of Education. Mr. Cook discussed the possibility of a regional adult basic education program to supplement adult programs already in operation in the Region. The regional program would differ from those presently operated in the region by employing teachers to teach adults in their own homes. Personnel involved in the program will be a regional consultant and two teachers for each school district. The board authorized the ROPES staff to make application to have this program funded for the region.

3. Dr. John Claunch, president of the Kentucky Council on Economic Education. Dr. Claunch told the board, "If we continue to allow the same rate of increase in the government's involvement in redistributing money, 67 pct. of every dollar will go into the government's pocket and control in 25 years." Dr. Claunch advocated economic education as a means of preventing this. He stressed that it is better to have the whole school concerned about economic education than to have one organized course.

In other action, the board voted unanimously to adopt a resolution commending Governor Carroll for his interest in education and his increase in the amount of funds available for secondary and elementary education and approved Herald Whitaker, superintendent-elect of Magoffin county schools, to replace retiring superintendent, Creed Arnett.

SPONSORS NEW CLUB
The Drift Woman's Club welcomed the Martin Woman's Club into the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs with a dinner party, June 5, at the clubhouse. Mrs. Clarence Cahill, president, presided at the meeting. She said it was an honor for the Drift Club to sponsor the Martin Woman's Club and wished them success. Greetings were read from Mrs. Forrest Frazier, governor of the Seventh District, Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Frazier was unable to be present, due to illness. Mrs. William Hoffman, past governor of the Seventh district, installed the following officers of the new club:

President, Mrs. R. K. Barnett, vice president, Mrs. Ronald Reynolds, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Allen Shelton, recording secretary, Mrs. Walter Bartram, treasurer, Mrs. Hubert Frye.

The following were present: Mrs. McDouglas Whickers, Mrs. Phyllis Gearheart, Mrs. Raymond Griffith, Jr., Mrs. Allen Shelton, Mrs. R. K. Barnett, Mrs. Ronald Reynolds, Mrs. Walter Bartram, Mrs. C. J. Cahill, Mrs. William L. Reed, Mrs. Lloyd Stumbo, Mrs. Shirley Reed, Mrs. William Hoffman, and Miss Ruby Akers.

Unemployment Increase Less than Earlier

FRANKFORT, Ky. — Although unemployment in Kentucky continues to rise, the rate of increase is not as large as it has been in previous months.

April's unemployment rate was 7.6 per cent of the labor force, compared to 7.4 per cent in March. There are 108,800 unemployed Kentuckians, according to Bob MacDonald, chief statistician for the Bureau for Manpower Services, Department for Human Resources (DHR).

Compared with April of last year, unemployment has increased by $2,000 and the rate of unemployment has grown from 4.4 per cent in April of 1974 to 7.6 this year.

April's rate of 7.6 per cent compares to the national, non-seasonally unadjusted rate of 6.9 per cent, leaving Kentucky one per cent below the national rate.

MacDonald attributed the continued increase in unemployment to an increase in the number of people being laid off, especially in manufacturing, and to the fact that those laid off in the past are not going back to work. He was, however, encouraged by the fact that the April increase was less than that of previous months.

Harris, IRS Employee

Ross Harris, a native of Floyd county, has been selected as an attorney (estate tax) with the Internal Revenue Service at Louisville, effective June 22.

A graduate of Wheelwright high school, Mr. Harris received his B.A. degree in Political Science from Eastern Kentucky University and a Juris Doctor Degree from the University of Kentucky in 1974. He was admitted to the Kentucky Bar on May 6, 1975. While a student he was a member of the American Bar Association (student division), Student Bar Association, and the Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity. He has been employed for the past three years by the Lexington Blue Grass Army Depot at Lexington.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Harris, of West Prestonsburg, and is married to the former Sharon Kaye Sammons, of Bypro. They have one child, Tanya Leigh.

Development Clubs Win Awards

The Floyd County Community Development awards banquet was held June 6 at the Prestonsburg High School cafeteria.

This year, community development clubs were entered in three divisions: Abbott Creek was entered in the farm category, a first for the county in this division; Clubs enrolled in the village category were Auxier, West Prestonsburg, Wheelwright, Wheelwright, a junior development club, first for the county as well as the Northeast Area, rural non-farm—Prater Creek, Tram and Weeksbury, farm—Abbott Creek County winners were Wheelwright, Weeksbury and Abbott Creek.

Development clubs were cited for their work.

Wheelwright conducted a spring and fall clean-up campaign, mowing grass, whitewashing trees in keeping the community park attractive, conducted book drive and donated money to the community library which was established last year. Members worked on establishing a credit union.

West Prestonsburg Club members made quilts, handcraft items, working with the Rescue Squad in Operation Santa Claus, provided gifts for underprivileged children. The club also assisted the Community Action Program in distributing garden seed to low-income families.

Prater Creek, organized last month, conducted a clean-up campaign as its first project, and sponsored a chicken supper June 14 at the Prater Grade School.

Tram members worked on road improvement and repairing the bridge leading into the community.

Weeksbury Development Club was cited for its work in conducting 12 educational programs, sewing classes, and Operation Santa Claus, in which toys and clothes were collected for the needy. A Christmas party held at the Community Center for about 350 children. They also have a Senior Citizen Club which meets in its community center. The club worked with the County Extension Service in signing up families interested in raising and purchasing broccoli plants.

Abbott Creek had a busy year since organization last August, expanding school library facilities, building bookshelves, fencing the school yard, erecting basketball goals with the help of men from the Concentrated Employment Program. The club hosted a Christmas supper for 34 members and two honor guests, and a homemaker club was established.

At the banquet the Pledge to the flag was led by Sarita Bentley, of Girl Scout Troop No. 864. Entertainment was provided by Jimmy Compton, Jim Clark, Greg Hall and Steven Rice, members of the Betsy Layne 4-H Club. Recognition and presentation of county awards were made by Edward Nairn, president, Prestonsburg-Floyd County Chamber of Commerce. Curtis Clark, Prestonsburg city manager, served as master of ceremonies. Bill Schweitzer, secretary of the Northeast Kentucky Community Development Association, was the speaker. The banquet was sponsored by the First National Bank, the Prestonsburg-Floyd County Chamber of Commerce, and the Big Sandy R.E.C.C.

By LARRY BURKE

The story is told of the great conductor Sir Michael Costa. Once he was rehearsing a great orchestra of hundreds of musicians. The orchestra was filling the auditorium with thunderous music. The drums, the cymbals, the cornets, the string instruments all combining to make splendid harmony.

"Stop!" he shouted. All fell silent to see what Sir Michael wanted. "Where is the piccolo?" he asked. In that immense and powerful orchestra one man had been silent.

Sir Michael had missed that tiny note and the rehearsal was imperfect.

This incident has a great lesson for all of us. In the mighty chorus of life, we too are missed if we become silent. Every man has a place, a part, whatever that part may be.

A Wayward Son of the Hills

By GEORGE L. MOORE

There was no other boy in the Pine Grove rural school like Timmie Jones. He entered the school when he was eight and during his sojourn of four years scarcely a day passed that he did not cause a minor disturbance or uproar in the school.

He was frail of stature, with high cheekbones, small, deep-set eyes and a long, narrow forehead. He would always say and do the unusual. The teacher would constantly keep reminding "Timmie, sit down, Timmie, quit that whispering... Timmie, throw that apple outside."

In order to keep Timmie quiet while a class was reciting, the teacher would sometimes ask him to demonstrate the correct posture that a pupil should have at his desk. Timmie liked to do things like that and would set up as straight as a Prussian soldier at his desk for a long period of time. When he happened to relax, the teacher would say, "You are slumping, Timmie." Whereupon, he would resume his rigid position.

After the afternoon recess on Friday, the remainder of the day was used for the children to recite poetry, tell stories or do other things. Timmie did other things. The teacher would sometimes ask him to demonstrate the actions of Dick Segrave's mule after it had been released from a hard day's work. To those who are not wise in the ways of mules, I might explain that the first thing that a mule does when it is released from working in the afternoon is to lie down and roll in the dirt. If the animal happens to turn completely over in the rolling process, he is said to be worth a hundred dollars.

When Timmie went into his act, it was the highlight of the entertainment of the evening. They would sweep off a clean place on the floor. Timmie would begin the preliminary movements that a mule makes in lying down. Finally he would stretch prostrate on the floor and begin to roll and kick and toss his head from side to side. Although he used all his energy, he could not turn completely over despite his best effort. However, when one last desperate effort and a mighty heave he did turn completely over. Some boy would then call out, "Boys, he's worth a hundred dollars." This was the signal for a broad grin to spread over Timmie's face as he slowly rose from the floor in a state of exhaustion.

This was during the period that the rural people called Hoover Times. Most people were hard put to obtain the necessities of life. Timmie's father, as did many others, had a hard time keeping the wolf from the door. As a last resort, the Red Cross came to the rescue. From that day on there was always a soft spot in Timmie's heart for the Red Cross.

It did not help matters economically that Timmie had learned to smoke and chew by the time he was weaned. There were two things that he could not do without—Strater's Natural Leaf for chewing and Prince Albert for smoking. From the tin of Prince Albert he rolled his own. The finished cigarette was shaped like a chicken's bill at the end. When Timmie graduated from Prince Albert to Camels it became increasingly more difficult to secure the necessary funds. His father had taken temporary employment in Olive Hill, some six miles away. One day Timmie told his mother that he was going to town to visit his father. He had been gone about three hours when his mother looked out the window and saw him running toward the house at top speed. He fell in the front door, completely exhausted. He said, "Ma grab the baby and run. Pap is dying with a heart attack." After his mother was out of sight, he gathered up three chickens and headed for the store to replace his supply of smoking tobacco.

On another occasion he slipped away from the house with two frying chickens in a short time his father missed him and set out in pursuit. Timmie had stopped at the Pine Grove school to play a game of Round Town with the school children. It was here that his father caught up with him.

In order to make absolutely sure that Timmie did not escape, his father had brought along a rope plowline with which to tie him. In the meantime, the chickens, feet tied, had flopped back some distance under the schoolhouse floor. His father tied the rope around Timmie's ankle and sent him under the floor to retrieve the chickens. Timmie called from under the floor and said, "Give me a little more slack, Pap." He then untied the rope from his ankle and hopped it over a nearby snag. He gathered the chickens gently, holding them by the neck to prevent their squawking, emerged from beneath the opposite side of the floor and resumed his journey to the store. His father thought it was taking too long to get the chickens. He tugged at the rope with no results. Finally he gave a sharp pull and said, "Come out from under there, Timmie, or I'll pull yore leg off." He stooped over and looked under the building. Timmie had disappeared, and so had the chickens.

Another time, his mother sent him to Olive Hill to sell a bushel of fall beans. His mother said to him, "Now, Timmie, I want you to get back here with a dollar for these beans." "Ma," he said, "you know you can depend on me." As he came into town, he passed the brickyard. The people who worked there lived on a hill overlooking the plant. The first man he encountered purchased the beans from him for one dollar. He instructed him to deliver the beans to his house on the hill. The next man he met, he sold the beans to him. He kept on in this manner until he had sold the beans six times to six different people. After he had made his last sale, he started on his homeward journey but he still had the beans in his possession. He said that he wanted to be fair about the matter and treat all his customers alike. So, on his return journey, he dumped the beans from the bridge into Tygart Creek. He gave his mother one dollar and kept five for himself.

It was at this time that a new group of religious people came to the Pleasant Hill community Rural people called them "The Tongues," because they spoke in unknown tongues at some period during the services. They attracted huge crowds and had many joiners. One night, when the invitation was made, Timmie came to the altar. It was their custom to pray in unison but Timmie's high-rasping voice could be heard above all the rest as he repeatedly called upon the Lord to bless the Red Cross. After all others had ceased Timmie continued for a moment and finally concluded by saying, "Now, Lord, whatever you do, be sure—don't forget the Red Cross!"

Cartoon with speech bubbles: I DON'T MIND SPENDING THE MONEY IF THEY CAN PROVE ITS TOTALLY NECESSARY. I ALWAYS THOUGHT ALL IT WOULD TAKE IS A COUPLE OF LAWS. HOW CLEAN MUST WE MAKE THE AIR - RARIFIED? DON'T WE ALL BREATHE OUT IMPURE AIR? THE REGULATORS MUST THINK WE DON'T GIVE A HANG ABOUT WHAT IT ALL COSTS. CAN'T WE GET CLEAN AIR WITHOUT SPENDING BILLIONS? THEY SHOULD SEE MY BUDGET. MY OVEN SMOKES - IS THAT POLLUTION? I WONDER IF THE GUYS IN THE CAPITOL KNOW HOW WE FEEL ABOUT THESE COSTS?

CLEAN AIR...SURE. But how clean, and at what cost? We all want clean air and water. But cleaning them up requires more than just legislation. It requires spending a lot of money. Billions! And you and we, as consumers, have to pay for it. Fact is, we're both paying for it right now—today—in nearly every product we buy. When a chemical company, steel mill or auto maker has to invest in pollution control equipment it becomes a part of their cost of doing business, and increases the price of their products. The same is true of our product, electricity. The cost of installation, and operation, of equipment for pollution control becomes part of your cost of electricity. That's why we're eternally questioning the need, the method and degree of pollution controls. It's a good bet no one ever bothered to tell you what cleaning up the air will cost you. Let's consider what it would cost to perform only one function: removing sulfur dioxide the way the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) suggests electric utilities do it. If we, at just the newest plant in our American Electric Power System, were to install scrubbers to meet clean air standards it would cost $260,000,000. Plus $91,000,000 a year... year after year... to operate them. And that's just one plant. Encouraged by EPA, electric utilities have installed or committed to install 101 scrubbers. What will the cost be? Hold onto your bankbook... 3 1/2 billion. Plus $1,125,000,000 a year... year after year... to operate them! If you have difficulty measuring that amount think of it this way: if the first 3 1/2 billion were in one dollar bills, it would make a line long enough to encircle the entire earth over 13 times. In terms of your bill you'd face this potential: some experts estimate scrubbers would increase the cost of electricity as much as 30%. That would be a terrible waste of your money when there is a proven, more effective, less expensive way to maintain the clean air standards. One problem. Unless the Clean Air Act is amended we don't have the flexibility to use the less expensive method. If you want the savings, why not write your congressman. He wants to know how you feel.

Waste—a Contemporary Problem

Frankfort, Ky.—Cavemen threw bones and other leftovers in a pile outside their caves. The Vikings, when on their ships, simply dumped their refuse overboard. Pilgrims slopped garbage out their back doors. Today, people can't get rid of their rubbish so easily.

What happens to garbage now depends on whether it's a solid, liquid or gas waste. A gas waste is easily definable, but defining the difference between solid and liquid wastes is a problem.

At a recent public hearing on the new solid waste regulation proposed by the state, the question of clarifying the definitions was posed to the solid waste division in the Kentucky Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection.

The hearing covered a regulation proposing several changes, including landfill compliance schedules, permit denial criteria, an additional information requirement for permit renewal and requirements for closing a landfill.

The most discussed change, however, was a section on financial responsibility, which requires permit applicants to post bond with the state treasury for the landfill operation.

After the meeting, Jim McDonald, solid waste disposal specialist for the Louisville and Jefferson County Health Department, suggested some ways of improving the proposed regulation. McDonald, who arrived late, also cited some of the problems with Jefferson County's Lees Lane landfill as justification for more severe state landfill rules.

The state environmental protection department has ordered the owner of Lees Lane landfill to begin immediate corrective actions, following an investigation into the causes of a dangerous gas leak. Several families living nearby were forced to evacuate their homes.

McDonald also said that the proposed definition of a landfill appears to be ambiguous since it doesn't specify what types of material can be accepted in sanitary landfills.

It's difficult to categorize many industrial wastes as either solid or liquid, since some of them may combine to form a goo. Therefore, McDonald recommended a firmer definition of solid and liquid wastes based on flow rates and percentages of liquid.

Other types of landfills which McDonald feels should be covered under the solid waste regulation are industrial, demolition, hazardous wastes and other method landfills.

McDonald also suggested—Processing of applications for landfill permits through the local health department, which may be more aware of local problems.

—Increasing bonds for landfill operators to a minimum of $2,500 per landfill acre, instead of the proposed $5,000 per landfill site plus $500 per acre.

—Requiring the bonds to be held for a minimum of 10 years instead of the two-year minimum proposed by the state.

—Requiring landfill preventions for gas leaks and water drainage.

Veterans Must Act Quickly To Receive Educational Help

Veterans who plan to attend school for the first time under the GI Bill this summer or fall must act promptly if they want advance payment of educational checks.

The VA says a veteran who plans to enter school should first make certain he has a certificate of eligibility. This may be obtained from the nearest VA office. The certificate must be presented to the school of the veteran's choice. The school, if it accepts the veteran, will forward it and the enrollment certification on the reverse side to the VA.

Officials explained if the agency receives this information at least 30 days before registration, veterans who train half time or more may pick up their first check when they register. The first check will cover training allowances for the first two months, or one month and a portion of a month, depending on the registration date.

Under current rates, a single veteran in school full time receives $270 monthly. Veterans with one dependent draw $321; two dependents, $366; and with three or more dependents, an additional $22 is added for each dependent over two. Half time rates are $135 monthly for a single veteran; with one dependent, $160; and for two dependents, $182. Veterans with three or more dependents receive an additional $11 monthly for each dependent.

The U. S. Department of Labor's Job Corps prepares young men and women from disadvantaged background for productive employment.

WOMAN CLIMBER IS GLAD MT. EVEREST ISN'T HIGHER
TOKYO.—Junko Tabei, a 35-year-old Japanese who became the first woman to climb Mt. Everest, said her first thought upon reaching the top of the world's highest peak was "Thank goodness, I don't have to go any higher."
Mrs. Tabei and her Sherpa guide, Ang Tsering, scaled the peak May 16. The expedition is expected to reach Katmandu, Nepal, about May 28.

Consumer Comments

It's not your fault if you don't understand a subject. But you had better find out about it before July 1, 1975, when Kentucky's no-fault automobile insurance law goes into effect.

In the past, injured consumers waited days, weeks, months and even years to receive compensation. As of July 1st, under no-fault insurance you will no longer have to prove the other driver is at fault and then try to recover compensation for your injuries from that driver's insurance company.

The new law provides immediate payment of consumers' out-of-pocket losses up to $10,000. The benefits will be paid by the company insuring the automobile in which the injured person was riding, no matter whose fault the accident is.

If you are seriously injured if your medical rehabilitation expenses exceed $1,000 or if there has been permanent disfigurement or loss of body member or function, you receive your basic no-fault benefits and still have the right to seek additional damages from a negligent driver.

Kentucky's new no-fault law requires you to have and carry basic auto liability protection of $10,000-$20,000 for injuries and $5,000 for property damage, plus a minimum of $10,000 basic no-fault benefits for each person. Get those figures? If you didn't, or if you need a further explanation of no-fault, contact your insurance company or the Kentucky Department of Insurance.

By the way, if you're a pedestrian and think this doesn't apply to you, you're wrong. If you, as a pedestrian, are injured in an automobile accident, the company insuring the automobile makes the payment. If the driver cannot be identified or does not carry insurance, your insurance company will pay.

If you already have an automobile liability policy, it will automatically be changed to provide no-fault, contact your insurance company to include the basic no-fault personal injury coverage.

However, anyone may reject this plan and maintain the present system of injury compensation, including proving fault. If you decide to reject no-fault, your rejection must be in writing and on a form you may obtain from your insurance company.

But if all members of your family do accept no-fault protection, you will receive a 10 per cent reduction in your liability rates.

Remember, though, that no-fault insurance applies only to personal injury and not to property damage or collision. Wrecked vehicles will be handled exactly as they are handled today.

For more information on consumer complaint, contact the Attorney General's Division of Consumer Protection. Kentucky consumers may call toll-free on the consumer hotline by dialing 1-800-372-2960. Consumers should write to the Attorney General's Division of Consumer Protection, The Capitol, Room 34, Frankfort, Ky. 40601.

No Sales Tax For Local Gov'ts

FRANKFORT, Ky.—Gov. Julian Carroll today submitted to the Kentucky General Assembly's Administrative Reorganization Review Subcommittee an emergency regulation for the Department of Revenue that exempts from the Sales and Use Tax all purchases made by cities, counties and other local governmental units.

The exemption includes utility service.

Gov. Carroll's primary reason for approving the regulation granting the blanket exemption to cities, counties and other local government units is to afford them some financial assistance, particularly badly needed now because of the soaring costs of utilities.

The governor is also concerned about the competitive advantage over Kentucky retailers heretofore enjoyed by out-of-state retailers who can make tax free sales of items of personal property to these city and county governments. This regulation will take away that out-of-state disadvantage.

A similar regulation was submitted for the legislative panel's approval on Jan. 29 but two of the three members of the subcommittee objected to a $500 limitation that was part of the proposal. The current proposal has no such limitation and the governor anticipates the subcommittee's approval.

Memories of Dad

In remembrance of our dad, Stallard Stevens, who passed away July 15, 1973.

MEMORIES OF DAD

It was only two years ago our dad passed away. Although he's gone his memories are here to stay.

Before his going away he suffered much pain. But we knew our loss would be Heaven's gain.

Some Day You Too Might Walk Paths of Pioneer Jenny Wiley

By HELEN PRICE STACY

No one would ever walk in the actual footsteps of pioneer heroine Jenny Wiley, for she experienced much cruelty and heartache, but it may one day be possible to retrace paths taken by Jenny during her capture by and escape from Indians.

The entire trail, as proposed, would be 200 miles long and follow sectors plainly visible on high ridges, untouched in part by progress.

Even historians have difficulty believing that Jenny Sellards Wiley, wife of Thomas Wiley, made the long walk, endured the hardships and heartache and persevered to enjoy a new home in what later would be Johnson county.

A slow rain was falling that autumn evening around 1789 and it muffled any noise made by approaching Indians. Jenny was at her home, her four children and a young brother around her.

Expecting her fifth child and with the baby in her arms, Jenny and her captors began the long walk that would take her from Walkers Creek, Va. through much of Eastern Kentucky. Three days after starting, Jenny saw her youngest child killed.

Months later, Jenny found a moment to slip away from her captors and, still traveling under extreme hardship, managed to make her way to freedom.

It was in offices of FIVECO Area Development District that the project to mark the Jenny Wiley Trail took shape.

The late William Elsey Connelley, a noted historian, did extensive research on Jenny Wiley. He gave credence to her endurance only because he knew the iron will and fortitude of pioneers in efforts to survive.

Should the trail be cleared and marked as envisioned, it would include Jenny Wiley State Resort Park near Prestonsburg, though historians claim the pioneer woman did not actually travel there. It would, however, be appropriate to include the beautiful park named in her honor.

Some day, hikers and horseback travelers might make the state park a place to rest and eat before continuing the trail. In the summertime, travelers might also camp for a few days, enjoy fine food in May Lodge dining room and a musical from the stage of the Jenny Wiley Summer Music Theatre.

For today's travelers on Mountain Parkway and other highways leading to the park in Floyd county, the musical "Godspelt" opens June 16 and continues through June 22, then plays each Friday from June 27 through Aug. 15. Other musicals are scheduled throughout the season with tickets and information available from the theater, Box 22, Prestonsburg, Ky. 41653.

Funeral rites were conducted Monday at Faith Bible Church by the Rev. Bob Martin. Burial was made in the Stratton cemetery at Stanville under direction of Merion Funeral Chapel.

Mrs. Shirley J. Williams

Funeral rites for Mrs. Shirley Jones Williams, 29, who died Sunday at her home in Chillicothe, O., after an extended illness, will be held at 10 o'clock this morning (Wednesday) at the Lemerick Grange in Jackson, O., the Rev. Taylor Hall officiating.

A native of Pikeville, Mrs. Williams was a daughter of the late Matt and Ella White Jones, former residents of McDowell. She was the widow of Bonnie Williams who died in 1971.

Survivors include four brothers, Hershel Jones, of South Gate, Mich., Virgil Jones, of Lincoln Park, Mich., Vernon Jones, of Dallas, Texas, Bradley Jones, of Chillicothe, O., two sisters, Mrs. Marie Honeycutt, in Maryland, and Mrs. Bernice Johnson, in Illinois.

Burial will be made in the McCune cemetery in Jackson, Ohio.

Consumer Comments

By ED W. HANCOCK
(Attorney General)

"We have to pay for something we did not receive!" a consumer from Paducah wrote to our office. Under existing law, he does.

He signed a contract, agreeing to pay about $80 a month for a school course for his son. The first payment was made to the school and the subsequent payments were payable to the finance company, to whom the contract had been assigned (sold).

According to the consumer, the son was soon informed that the school was closed and that all persons connected with the school had left the Commonwealth. Not only that, but the finance company was insisting on monthly payments, even though the school no longer existed and the son would never receive one bit of instruction.

This is a classic example of the problem of a legal doctrine called "holder-in-due-course." Many consumers have learned about it the hard way, by purchasing goods or services on credit, finding those goods or services defective, yet having to pay the lending institution anyway.

When consumers purchase goods or services on credit, the note or contract they sign with the seller is usually sold to a lending institution such as a bank or finance company.

In the vast majority of these cases, the contract contains a "waiver of defense" clause, which says that the consumer has no defenses against paying the lending institution, even if an item is defective or if a service was not performed.

A lending institution which buys such a contract then becomes a "holder-in-due-course," holding your contract and requiring you to pay. Most consumers do not understand the "holder-in-due-course" doctrine and many suffer because of it.

The Consumers' Advisory Council is considering legislation that would change this situation. A public hearing on the subject will be held Tuesday, June 17, in the Senate Chambers, at the Capitol Building, Frankfort. If you are interested in learning more about the "holder-in-due-course" doctrine, or if you wish to present your views on the subject, please come to the public hearing, beginning at 10 a.m.

In the meantime, remember that any time you sign a contract that has the words "consumer waives any defenses" (or any similar language) anywhere on the front or back of a contract, the contract may be sold to a holder-in-due-course, and you are, in effect, borrowing money from a financial institution and turning your cash over to the seller.

If you have a consumer complaint contact the Attorney General's Division of Consumer Protection. Kentucky consumers may call toll-free on the consumer hotline: 1-800-372-1960. Or you may write to: Attorney General's Division of Consumer Protection, The Capitol, Room 34, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601.

Organized at Martin

The first meeting of the newly organized Martin Woman's Club was held May 1 at Frazer's Restaurant in Martin. Mrs. Anna Hoffman and Miss Ruby Akers, of the Drift Woman's Club, which is sponsoring the Martin Club, presided over the meeting and were on hand to answer questions regarding the organization of the new club.

Immediately following Mrs. Hoffman's and Miss Akers' discussion officers were elected for the club year 1975. The officers are:

Mrs. Freda Barnett, president; Mrs. Lynn Reynolds, vice-president; Mrs. Linda Bartrum, recording secretary; Mrs. Glenda Frye, treasurer.

The remaining charter members of the club Miss Phyllis Gearheart, Mrs. Shirley Dingus, Mrs. Thomasine White, Mrs. Donna Griffith, Mrs. Linda Turner, Mrs. Ruthie Shelton and Mrs. Charlotte Hall. Others guests attending the club meeting were Miss Nancy Sue Dingus and Mrs. Eunice Hall.

The club members will put their first project into action Saturday, June 6, by having a rummage sale on the lot beside the Federated Bargain Store in Martin.

Boy Scout Council Is Ready For Summertime Activities

Cub Scout day camp, week-long camping for Scouts, and trips to high adventure bases for older Scouts and Explorers are on the calendar for members of the Lonesome Pine Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Arthur Leach, of Prestonsburg, Council camping chairman, explains that most Scouting units have outdoor experiences scheduled year-round, but the heaviest schedule of activities comes during the summer months.

"We are ready to serve four to five hundred Scouts, Explorers, and adult leaders during the next three months. There is no substitute for the type of program that Cub Scout packs, Scout troops, and Explorer posts can get from the outdoor program offered by the Lonesome Pine Council," Leach said.

The traditional summer camp of the Lonesome Pine Council will open June 22 and will give Scouts and their troops a week-long program. Some troops conduct their own week-long camps in other areas of the country. Camp Shawnee located in the German area of Dewey Lake, will be operated all summer by the Lonesome Pine Council. The first three weeks of camping, June 22-July 12, are reserved for Scout troops and other Scout-age boys who have and will make reservations for their week-long camping experience. The final three weeks of camp, July 13-August 2, are set aside for special camping including low-income non-Scouts and handicapped boys, although one troop of deaf boys has already made reservations to camp during the first week of camp operation.

Leach said that Robert M. Watkins, of Martin, has been selected as camping director and that Mr. Watkins has recruited an outstanding staff of local adults and older Scouts who will work together to provide the campers with exciting programs of swimming and other aquatic activities, Scout program skills, rifle marksmanship, archery, and athletics.

Many Cub Scout packs throughout the Lonesome Pine Council conduct day camps featuring a broad selection of activities related to the Cub Scout program. Scheduling of these camps is up to each pack.

High-adventure bases for older Scouts and Explorers are located in a number of areas to offer hiking, camping, white-water canoeing, and many other activities that offer a challenge to young men and women. The council has reserved space at the Wisconsin National Canoe Base for older Scouts and Explorers who are interested in spending a week canoeing in the lake area of northern Wisconsin. The dates of this expedition are August 6-17. To be eligible to participate, a boy must be at least 14 years of age and in good health. The Wisconsin National Canoe Base is located on White Sand Lake at Bolder Junction, Wisconsin. The expedition from our council will also spend two days touring museums and other points of interest in Chicago on their return trip.

Those who may be interested in any of the summer activities which have been mentioned may obtain more information by contacting Lonesome Pine Council at P. O. Box 110, Pikeville, Ky. 41501 or by telephoning 606-437-6209.

Mrs. Frazier Installs New Club Officers

Wayland, Ky.—In a candlelight ceremony the incoming officers of the Lackey Garrett Wayland Woman's Club were installed May 17 in the recreation room of the Masonic Lodge at Wayland by Mrs. Forrest T. Frazier, Seventh district governor of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs.

Officers for the coming year are: Mrs. J. C. Wells, president; Mrs. James A. Duff, first vice-president; Mrs. Bobby Joe Castle, second vice-president; Mrs. James E. Martin, recording secretary; Mrs. Otto Martin, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Don Hughes, treasurer.

Mrs. Anna Hoffman, of Drift, a past Seventh district governor, gave a resume of the recent KFWC Meeting in Louisville, where she had served on the Credentials committee. Mrs. J. C. Wells, club president, spoke briefly of her attendance at the state meeting and then thanked all who had assisted her during the past year in her capacity as president. She then called on Miss Jennifer Lou Mullins to model the dress ensemble which she had previously modeled as an entry in the district contests earlier this spring at Prestonsburg, at which time she won second place in the student category. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mullins, of Garret.

Mrs. Frazier thanked the clubmembers for their cooperation in the various district activities since she had been in office. She then installed the officers of the Wayland club.

Prior to the installation, breakfast was served to the following: Mrs. Forrest T. Frazier, Magoffin County Woman's Club and Seventh district governor, Salyersville, Mrs. William Hoffman, past Seventh district governor, Drift, Miss Ruby Akers, Drift; Mrs. Patty Collins, Lackey, Mrs. Patsy Patton, and Jennifer Lou Mullins, guests. Wayland clubmembers at the breakfast included Mrs. Arthur Haywood, Mrs. Stanley Bamer, Mrs. John Reed, Mrs. J. T. Spillman, Mrs. E. E. D'Coursey, Mrs. Earl Castle, Mrs. Mervil Dixon, Mrs. James E. Martin, Mrs. James A. Duff, Mrs. Lucy Sturgill, Mrs. Felix Coburn, Mrs. Marcellous Dunfee, Mrs. Jack Stevens, Mrs. Eugene Mullins, Mrs. M. M. Collins, Mrs. Don Hughes, Mrs. J. C. Wells and Mrs. Otto Martin.

Propose Regulation Changes For Water Quality Control

By JENNY PULLIAM
Frankfort, Ky.—Changes in five regulations, proposed by the state water pollution agency, were discussed at recent public hearings held in Frankfort by the division of water quality in the Kentucky Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection.

Only one of the regulations—the minimum degree of treatment regulation—is completely new. Two regulations—the emergency episode and the permit regulations—have been modified. Two regulations which deal with stream classification and treatment technology and the water quality criteria regulations remain basically unchanged.

The stream classification and treatment technology regulation was the most debated.

Dean Hill Rivkin, an attorney from the Appalachian Research and Defense Fund of Kentucky, Inc., argued that the regulation isn't in step with federal water quality guidelines and state water pollution laws. He said that water quality standards should be applied on a broad definitional concept of state authority.

The new regulation controlling minimum degree of treatment sets out operational definitions of secondary sewage treatment and advanced sewage treatment.

The new regulation defines secondary treatment as the minimum allowed for biodegradable wastes and defines it arithmetically. The regulation also requires persons currently permitted to discharge biodegradable wastes to reapply for a permit by Jan. 1, 1976.

The revised emergency episode regulation requires waste treatment plants to report accidental spills and emergency bypasses to the environmental agency. New penalties for not reporting are contained in the revised regulation.

The other revised regulation requires a permit for building and operating a sewage system. The new version specifies additional information to be included on the permit application submitted to the division of water quality for evaluation.

The water quality criteria regulation provides water quality standards and sets forth a use classification system.

Miss Rose Graduates With High Distinction

Marilyn Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Rose, of Prestonsburg, was graduated June 1 from Transylvania University in Lexington. Miss Rose received degrees in music education and theatre education, and graduated with high distinction. She was awarded departmental honors in music and her grade point for the senior year was 4.0.

Miss Rose was recently given the Transylvania Choir Award for the outstanding choir member. She sang in the choir, the Chorus of the Student Madrigals, and has been soloist and assistant conductor for all three organizations.

Named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities this year, and vice-president of Lampas, the Transylvania leadership honorary, she was a member of Phi Mu Fraternity, was on three committees of the Student Government Association, and was president of the Musicians' Guild. She was a feature writer and center events editor for the school's weekly newspaper, The Rambler.

In the fall, Miss Rose will begin work on her Master of Music degree in choral music at the University of Illinois.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to express my appreciation to the many people who were so kind during the illness and upon the recent death of my beloved wife, Jerilleen Ritchie. A special thanks to the doctors and nurses of McDowell ARH and friends at Minnie and Harold. Thank you all. PAUL RITCHEE

Announce Services

On the third Saturday night in June, at 7 o'clock there will be a feet washing at Tom's Creek Free Will Baptist Church at Ivel, Ky. The Rev. Bill Campbell will be bringing the message. Everyone is invited, so please come and bring someone with you. On the next day, which is Sunday, we are having a homecoming and Bro. Campbell will be bringing the message on Sunday, and dinner will be served on the ground.

REV. JAMES HARMON, Pastor

Husband, Wife Among Floyd Grads

Freddie Hall (top photo) helps fifth-graders with a reading problem, while Mrs. Hall (lower left) works with a pupil. At lower right, Allen Duane Halbert.

Three Floyd county students were among 175 Berea College seniors who received degrees at Berea College's recent 120th annual commencement exercises in Indian Fort Theater. A fourth will complete requirements for the degree in September. The graduates are: Allen Duane Halbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Denzil Halbert of Martin, and a 1971 graduate of Martin High School, Deborah Moore Hall, wife of Freddie Hall and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moore of Preece, a graduate of McDowell High School. Freddie C. Hall, son of Mrs. Helen Hall, of B. Hat, also a graduate of McDowell.

Marsha Austin Gologah, wife of Adnan Gologah and the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Clifford Austin, of Route 1, Prestonsburg, will complete her work for the degree in September. Mr. Halbert, a chemistry major and honor student, has been president of the campus affiliate of the American Chemical Society and held student labor assignments as laboratory assistant in the chemistry and biology laboratories. He is the husband of Mrs. Denise Ison Halbert.

The Halls were one of two married couples at Berea who both completed their student teaching assignments this spring at the Berea Community School. Mr. Hall, an elementary education major, has had teaching assignments at both the primary and intermediate levels and is eligible for the provisional elementary certificate. Mrs. Hall, an art major, taught art in the school and receives the certificate for teaching high school art. Both worked in the library for their student labor assignments.

Mrs. Gologah also is an art major, played flute in the college band and has won several awards for ceramics. She also was selected for a study seminar tour to India conducted for students from Berea and three other Kentucky colleges by the U.S. Department of State in 1974.

A Disturbing Book

PSYCHOPATHS. By Alan Harrington. Simon and Schuster, $1.95. As reviewed by Leo Weddle, associate professor, Division of Social Sciences, Prestonsburg Community College.

American society has undergone a frightening metamorphosis. No longer is it safe for the "good guys"—law-abiding, conscientious citizens who still believe, in varying degrees, in the Golden Rule, that "honesty is the best policy," and that good is preferable to evil. This, alas, is the premise upon which Alan Harrington predicated his book, Psychopaths. He defines a psychopath as one who suffers no sense of guilt for his actions, and who is quick to sense vulnerability in those around him. The book is disturbing because Harrington maintains that this kind of personality is not a rarity, but is, in fact, becoming more and more common in all segments of society. He cites the area of politics, for example, and suggests that this type of personality is ideally suited to the rigors of high level public office. One of the case histories in the book is of a man who is president of one of the country's most extensive business conglomerates, whose lack of concern for, and his cruelty toward, his associates, leads to illness and suicide. Mr. Harrington contends that the internal pressures of American society have produced this new generation of psychopaths, and that our best defense lies in an awareness of this social phenomenon.

Energy Office To Assist Industries Facing Cut-Off

Frankfort, Ky. — The Kentucky Energy Office will provide assistance in obtaining substitute fuel for those industries facing curtailments in natural gas supplies, according to John Stapleton, director of the energy office.

Last week's announcement by Columbia Gas of Kentucky stating that no natural gas would be available to industrial customers next winter was "bad news but not unexpected because of the experiences with shortages last year," Stapleton said.

"As in previous situations," he continued, "we will do everything we can to minimize impact and avoid loss of jobs."

Columbia Gas's announcement came as a result of notification by its wholesale supplier, Columbia Gas Transmission Corp., to anticipate a 28 per cent curtailment in supplies beginning Nov. 1. This is based on a normal winter and the percentage could change with abnormally warm or cold weather.

It compares with an average 20 per cent curtailment last winter, which resulted in up to 85 per cent cutbacks for large volume industrial users.

Columbia Gas has requested permission from the Kentucky Public Service Commission to immediately reduce gas deliveries to all industrial customers and to 110 commercial customers throughout the state.

State energy officials are currently surveying affected industries to make a complete analysis of the impact of these curtailments.

Stapleton noted that many firms had already made provisions for curtailment.

Scout Camporee Winners Listed

Nearly 350 Scouts and their leaders from throughout the Lonesome Pine Council assembled at Breaks Interstate Park, May 16-17-18, for a week-end of competition and fun. Forty-five patrols comprising 22 troops participated. Each participating patrol was recognized for its achievement at the camporee. Scoring was based both upon scores earned in the eight competitive events and points earned during campsite inspections.

Six Presidential ribbons, the highest award made, were given to patrols scoring more than 100 points. Patrols earning Presidential ribbons were the Eagle patrol of Troop 328, Ashcamp, Ky., which scored the highest of any patrol in the camporee, Bobcat patrol, Troop 81, Millard, Ky.; Rattlesnake patrol, Troop 4, Big Stone Gap, Va.; Hawk patrol, Troop 142, David, Ky.; Moose patrol, Troop 12, Pikeville, Ky.; Indian Patrol, Troop 9, Whitesburg, Ky.

All of the other participating patrols were awarded a blue proficient camporee ribbon, a red standard camporee ribbon, or a yellow participating camporee ribbon.

Floyd patrols and the ribbons they won were:

Troop 24, Maytown, Cougar patrol, red; Troop 32, Prestonsburg, Flaming Arrow patrol, blue, and Rattlesnake patrol, blue.
