

LACK FUNDS FOR COURT BUILDING; TO ASK PWA AID

Lowest Bid Received on Addition and Repair Work $162,260.60; Caudill, Short on Committee

NO MACHINERY BOUGHT

With $162,260.60 the lowest bid received on the construction of an addition to the Floyd county courthouse and the repair of damage done to the structure by fire this year, the fiscal court, finding itself without funds necessary to finance the building program, moved Monday to negotiate for a Public Works Administration loan.

Circuit Judge John W. Caudill and County Attorney Forrest D. Short were named as a committee to go to Washington and enlist the aid of Congressman A. J. May in seeking to effect the loan.

Shortly after the fire which damaged the roof and interior of the courthouse, officials were notified by Senator Alben W. Barkley, at that time, no PWA funds were available. Possibilities of procuring funds from this source are considered brighter now, however.

If these funds are unavailable, it is planned to go ahead with repairs on the building, postponing for the present the proposed addition to the courthouse. County officials had hoped Governor Chandler would include in his call for a special Legislative session a bill which would permit the county to divert the sales tax money in possession of the county to the courthouse fund. The session is not likely to be called until September, however, and it is not certain that the bill would be included in the call.

The low bid was made by B. T. Peasire, of Teaberry, this county. Other bids were filed by "outside" concerns, and the highest of these was $198,000. For plumbing and heating equipment R. H. Holtzworth filed a bid of $13,950.00. The West Virginia Seating Company filed a bid of $2,153.76 for equipment. In a night session Monday the fiscal court concluded business to be transacted at the meeting. Edgar W. Archer and Levi J. Dean, architects, were paid $1,637.88 for plans and other work done in preparing for the courthouse construction and repair. Their plans will be used in repair of the roof and interior, if it is found impossible to build the addition, it was said.

Though several representatives of road machinery firms appeared before the court, no machinery was purchased.

DEPUTY QUILTS BETSY LAYNE

Deputy Sheriff Elson Kendrick, who has been at Betsy Layne for the last 16 months as officer, Monday resigned as officer there. He remains as a deputy, however. Deputy Sheriff R. R. Allen has also resigned, it is announced at the Sheriff's office.

To Seek Construction Here Of School and Library Buildings

If efforts being made locally are successful, not only a library building but also a graded school will be constructed in Prestonsburg within the next few months under the auspices of the Works Progress Administration.

Congressman A. J. May, in Prestonsburg last week, conferred with members of the city board of education with a view to procuring WPA assistance in the construction of a modern brick building to supplant the outmoded graded school structure here. Members of the board expressed keen interest in the undertaking, and are expected soon to submit to the district WPA office at their needs in this same time. Congressman May is expected to assist in procuring funds in Washington, it was said, so that amount of the sponsor's contribution may be definitely ascertained.

OLD-TIME HYMN IS FESTIVAL FEATURE

Floyd County Singers Render Time-Honored "Chorus" As Originally Sung

Floyd county singers at the fifth annual Folk Song Festival held Sunday, showed not only fellow-Kentuckians but also visitors from other states, including students in the world of music how the "old-time" hymn was sung in all its rugged, pristine beauty. They proved that this section is unique in that it has preserved, down through the generations, the earliest hymns based on the Georgian Chant.

The singers were from the music project here of the WPA which is under the direction of Mrs. Edith Fitzpatrick James, widely known singer. Singers from the local music branch of the WPA were Sam Laferty, Hohn Hyden, Jay Salyers and Theodore Holbrook. They were joined by Mrs. James A. Cox Hyden, Tom James and Mel Holbrook.

Mrs. James' rendition of a was-sail song in homespun costume, was a feature of the festival, evoking an enthusiastic reception for the singer.

The festival was held at the "Tripsin" WPA cabin-home of Jean Thomas, founder of the American Folk Song Society. It was conducted this year, however, under the auspices of the music branch of the WPA.

Mrs. Sallie Clifton Fires Revolver Bullet Through Chest; Ill Health Blamed

Ill health, relatives said, caused Mrs. Sallie Clifton, 56-year-old Prestonsburg woman, Saturday morning at 11:45 o'clock to fire a bullet into her chest from a .41-caliber revolver. She died at 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Golden Rule hospital, Paintsville. Mrs. Clifton, shortly before Christmas last year, suffered a paralytic stroke and had for several months been despondent, her husband, James Clifton, said. Mr. Clifton had secreted his revolver in his barn, but his wife, finding the door locked, is said to have torn loose a plank and procured the weapon. Returning to the house, she seated herself in a favorite chair and fired a bullet into her chest, above the heart. Relatives said she left no note and made no statement explaining the motive for the deed.

A member of the Freewill Baptist Church for many years, Mrs. Clifton was a woman of excellent character. She was a daughter of the late J. E. Dillon. FLYER PANCAKES, AVERTS TRAGEDY

Quick thinking on the part of a youthful aviator Saturday afternoon saved his own life and those of his two passengers, a woman and a man, both of Wayland.

The passengers, Mrs. Elmer Bowe and Jim Noble, and the air pilot, a man named Hunkler, escaped with slight scratches and bruises as the plane crashed in the street in front of the home of Dr. M. V. Wicker at Wayland. After taking off in the Martin bottom, a few hundred yards above Wayland, the engine of the plane "conked" at a height of approximately 100 feet while directly over the town. The pilot contrived to maneuver the plane over the street and to make a "pancake" landing.

HEAD OF BETSY LAYNE MINERS' UNION WOUNDED

Machine Operator Jailed Here After Shooting Pinson During Union Meeting Saturday

BURNETT THREATENED

A mine local union was near disruption in this county early this week, following the shooting of Robert Pinson, 45 years old, president of the local, at the hands of a member of the organization.

Pinson was shot early Saturday afternoon while the Betsy Layne local, United Mine Workers of America, were in regular session at the U. M. W. A. hall in Betsy Layne hollow. Harrison Burnett, a coal-cutting machine operator, was arrested and is in jail here, charged with the shooting.

Pinson, in the Methodist hospital, Pikeville, suffering from the effects of a .32-20 revolver bullet which entered his body above his hip and emerged from the other side of his body, is expected to die.

Burnett, it is said, had been arraigned before the local, threatened with being ejected from the organization because of an alleged infringement of labor rules. When the local met Saturday, it was told here, Burnett and the head of the local retired from the main hall to an adjoining room to discuss their differences. As the pair re-entered the hall the trouble began.

Burnett claimed Pinson suddenly attacked him from behind and that he jerked his revolver, thrust it under his arm and fired in self-defense. Friends of the mine union head claim that Pinson was shot without provocation. On the other hand, certain of those in the hall concurred with Burnett in telling of the affair.

John L. Stone, a member of the local, detained Burnett until Deputy Sheriff Elson Kendrick and John A. Hall arrive and took charge of him. Threats were made against Burnett by a number of mine workers, it was said, but the officers removed him to the county jail here without difficulty.

Veterans' Bonus Bonds Arrive at Postoffice Here Monday Morning

Approximately 650 Floyd county veterans Monday began receipt of between three hundred thousand and three hundred and fifty thousand dollars in adjusted service bonds, it is estimated.

Distribution of these bonds is being made at the various Floyd county postoffices, depending upon date of their arrival from the Federal Reserve Bank at Cleveland.

The bonds, in denominations of $50 each with a treasury check for the odd amount are being mailed to the veterans in registered letters requiring a return receipt. Bonds will not be delivered to anyone except the veteran in person and his receipt taken for same. Neither will the bonds be forwarded to another address. If the veteran has died or moved out of the postoffice's jurisdiction, the bonds will be returned after 30 days to the reserve bank to await another claim.

Veterans desiring to cash their bonds are instructed to present themselves, properly identified, to their postmaster to have their bonds corrected for payment. The bonds will then be dispatched, under registered mail to the postoffice in Louisville, which has been designated as the paying center for this section. Treasury check will then be mailed to the veteran by ordinary mail from the Louisville postoffice. Veterans are warned not to endorse checks or bonds in any way before appearing before their postmaster for identification.

All bonds or any number of them may be cashed and the balance held as the owner desires. Bonds held will bear interest of 3 per cent annually and are exempt from taxation.

HAVE A CIGAR: When is an order not an order? Ask H. C. Francis, Prestonsburg merchant. Mr. Francis, from time to time, has been placing small orders with a Tampa, Fla., cigar firm. Not from the standpoint of a dealer, just as a cigar smoker. Recently, however, his status was mysteriously changed. He suddenly found himself the possessor of 500 cigars.

What had happened was this: A few days earlier, Mr. Francis had received from the cigar manufacturer a circular letter, containing a "special offer." He threw it in a wastebasket in the postoffice lobby and forgot about it. Somebody—and Mr. Francis and the cigar company both would like to know who "somebody" is—fished the circular out of the wastebasket, filled in Mr. Francis' name and order for 500 cigars. And the order requested that the company ship 500 cigars every 10 weeks until further notice.

WHEELS OF MISFORTUNE

Those officials who took part in the move to halt gambling operations at the carnival which recently appeared here and at Melvin deserve praise not only because they sought to enforce the law but because they also practised the principles of fair play.

They did not show the partiality in evidence when officials arrest or cause the arrest of some little "one-gallus guy" for poker playing over the river bank or in some back room and at the same time permitting traveling shows to operate gambling machines openly and with impunity.

The only defense that machine-operators have is: playing their machines is not gambling—it's simply giving your money away.

This county can well do without these "carnival" troupes. They bring nothing worthwhile into the county. They take thousands of dollars with them when they leave. Disease may follow in their wake. And they leave behind nothing but a financial headache to business in general.

Why welcome these "wheels of misfortune," then turn upon some youngster here at home and prosecute him for taking part in a dime-limit poker game in which the boys have at least a chance?

ENFORCE THIS LAW

Kentucky now has a law which, if enforced, will go far to curb motorist's crime wave.

This is the recently-enacted law providing for revoking of the driver's license of any person convicted of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

In a few scattered instances the law has been enforced. There are hundreds of instances weekly in which it should be enforced.

This law must not be relegated to the status of Kentucky's pistol law. Kentucky motorists who believe and practise sober, careful driving must not do as the state's population that can go in shirt-sleeves and without "hardware" has done. They must insist that the officials put this law into effect. Friendship, political "pull," station in life—nothing should deter the courts in making this law a curb to drunken, reckless driving and thus a protection to those, both motorists and pedestrians, who see and think clearly and therefore wish to live and let others live.

No crime wave has yet been stopped without fearless, unbiased enforcement of law. Motorist's crime wave, in which the weapons are gasoline-propelled engines of destruction, from which a ghastly toll in human life and suffering mounts and mounts, will not be stopped without the same measures.

WAYLAND MAN IS SERIOUSLY HURT

As Autos Crash Sunday Morning on Lackey-Hindman Highway; John Walls in Hospital

John Walls, of Wayland, is in the Paintsville hospital, critically injured as the result of a head-on collision of his auto with another car on the Lackey-Hindman highway Sunday morning near the home of Harry Stone, seven miles from Lackey. He was partially scalped and is believed to have sustained a skull fracture in addition to other injuries.

Occupants of the other auto, which is said to have been driven by Fred Stone, son of Ballard Stone, Knott circuit court clerk, escaped serious injury. Both autos were badly wrecked.

Fog, dust and fast driving were undoubtedly given as having caused the crash.

MRS. CONN DIES OF CANCER

Mrs. Elizabeth Conn, 74 years old, wife of Ira Conn, died Saturday at her home on Prater Creek after a year's illness of cancer.

Mrs. Conn's first husband, Nathaniel Smith, preceded her in death several years ago, and she later was married to the husband who survives. She leaves four daughters and three sons: Willie, John, James Dolie, Anna, Vick and Laura; also one brother, Park Conn.

A devout member of the Christian Church, the deceased was one of her community's best women. The funeral was conducted Monday at the graveside in the Rice cemetery at Danm, the Revs. C. L. Neff and Isaac Stratton officiating.

Promising a Kiss for Everybody

Miss Grace Wick announced her candidacy for mayor of Portland, Ore. Last year, attired in "scanties" and a barrel, she paraded through the streets of the city protesting against her inability to find work.

THE SIGN LANGUAGE

The story is current around Rockford, Ill., that a teacher with a record of long years of service in the schools was driving her car in Rockford when the traffic cop raised his arm in a vain attempt to halt her progress. By means of repeated blasts on his whistle he finally halted her a half a block from the scene of her misdemeanor.

"Don't you know," he inquired, politely but severely, "what it means when I raise my hand?" "I ought to," she answered, "I've taught school long enough."

HOME BUDGETING

"Could I have a little money for shopping today, dear?"

PRESTONSBURG IN WIN OVER DRIFT

Prestonsburg's young baseball team that was relegated by many fans, before the season started, to the cellar Sunday defeated Drift, one of the Big Sandy league's strongest teams 7 to 4, behind Collins' pitching and timely hitting.

Errors robbed Collins of his record consecutive shut-out.

No Balance . . . No Beer!

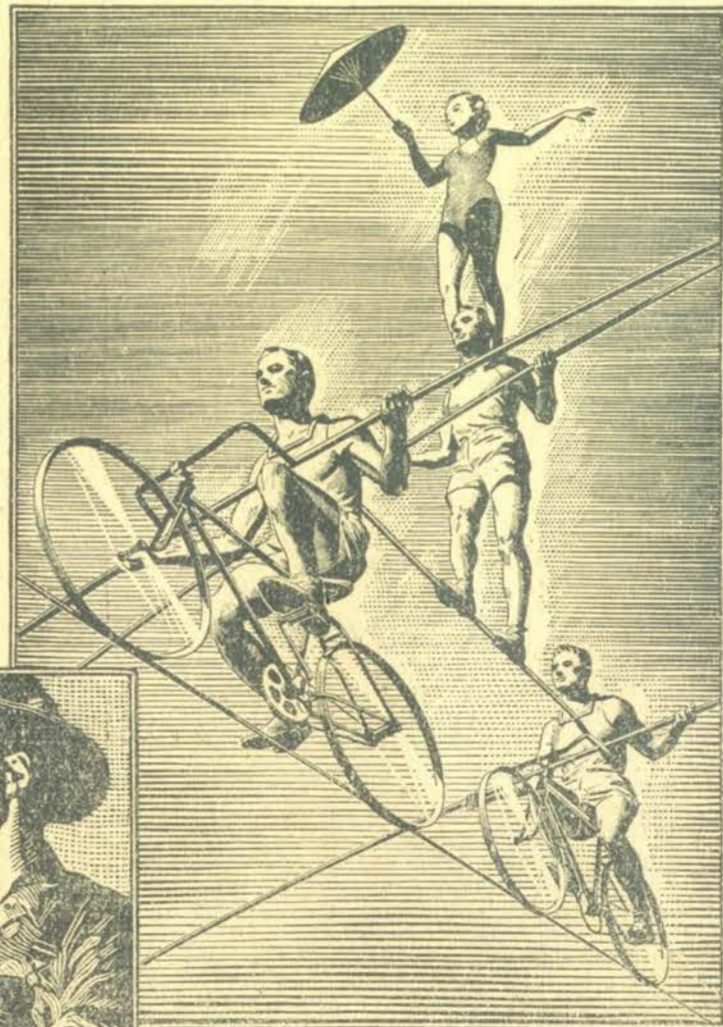

Brewing, like cake-making and biscuit-baking, is really a matter of knowing how to balance the ingredients. It's just too bad for the beer, the cake or the biscuits if the ingredients are out of balance. It takes skill and experience to bake cakes or biscuits that guests rave about. It takes skill and experience to make Budweiser—the beer that guests rave about. Of course, the Budweiser process is exclusively ours. If it were not, there would be lots of beers like Budweiser. As it is, only Budweiser tastes like Budweiser.

Budweiser's Imported Saazer hops cost six times as much as the finest domestic hops with which they are blended. Budweiser's Saazer hops are rich in the flavors and fragrances necessary to give skillfully brewed beer a plus in taste and bouquet.

Budweiser gets the best of each year's barley crop. Wherever the best barley grows in a season, the Home of Budweiser goes after it . . . and pays premium prices. No barley accepted until our laboratory has analyzed and germinated every sample.

CONVICT PIKE MAN OF COUNTERFEITING

What federal officials termed a telling blow to a counterfeiting ring, operating throughout Eastern Kentucky, Southern Ohio, parts of Virginia and Florida was struck Thursday, last week, with conviction in federal district court at Lexington of Ben Roberts, 45, of Pike county.

The defendant was found guilty of conspiracy to pass counterfeit money, passing a counterfeit $10 bill on G. P. Hays, Mt. Sterling filling station operator on November 11, 1933, and passing a similar bill next day on Roosevelt Terry.

Fred Bartley, 25, who Monday pleaded guilty to a charge of being Roberts' accomplice, was a principal witness for the prosecution.

Scoundrels were pronounced by Judge H. Church Ford on Roberts and 57 other persons who were convicted or pleaded guilty to charges at the Lexington court.

Federal Spending Equals Total Income of Farms

Estimated expenditures in running the Federal Government for the year 1936 are about eight billions of dollars. Estimated gross income from farm production in 1935 was a little more than eight billions of dollars. In other words total value of what all the farms in the United States produced last year would barely be enough to pay Government expenses this year. To put it still another way, a farm population of more than thirty-two millions of persons produced just about enough to equal the Federal Administration's spending for one hundred and twenty-seven millions of persons.

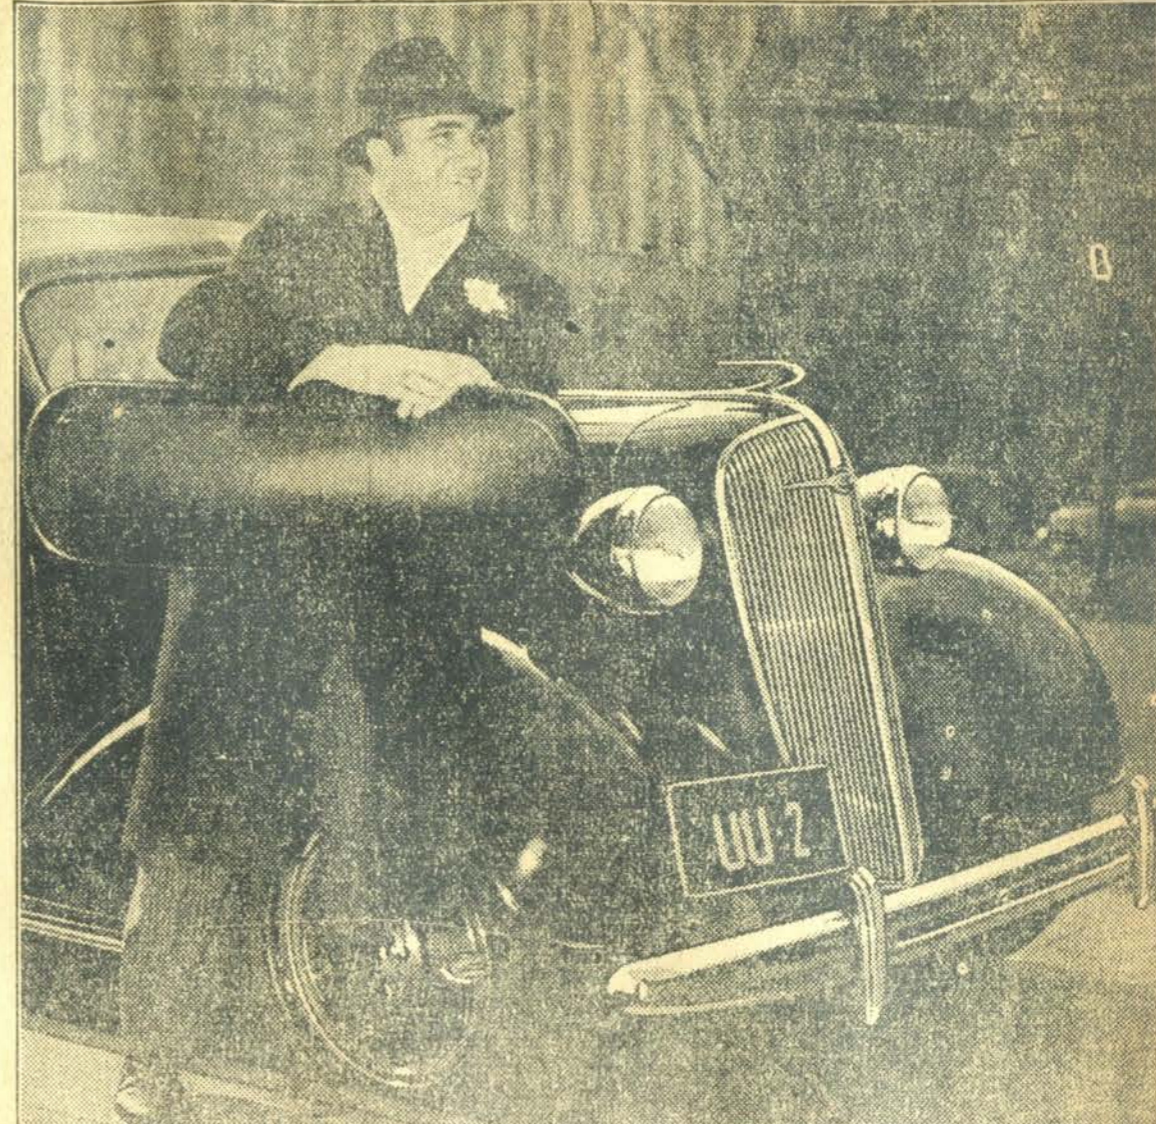

Spending in Washington continues to increase. The Treasury statement for the fiscal year, up to May 22, shows an increase of more than fifty-nine millions in outgo as compared with the same period last year. During that period of a little less than eleven months the Government received in excess of a quarter of a billion dollars more from taxes than it did last year. The year's deficit to May 22 was more than 2,880 millions. The Administration still is living recklessly beyond its means.

Where Is Report?
More than a month ago Representative McLeod of Michigan demanded that Harry Hopkins make public a report written by Gen. Hugh Johnson when the General relinquished his job as New York Works Progress administrator. It is known that the report contains startling facts about the manner in which relief billions are being spent. McLeod's resolution has had no attention.

Rubinoff Holds World Record for Broadcasting

Rubinoff and his violin—and Chevrolet—are a combination that few, if any, radio listeners in the United States have not received in their homes via the air. The famous violinist and his Stradivarius, stars of the Chevrolet Musical Moments programs, have the distinction of going on the air from more broadcasting stations than any other program in the history of radio. Three hundred and seventy-eight stations broadcast Rubinoff three times a week, a total of 1134 fifteen-minute programs. That figures out at 283 hours, and if one week's programs were broadcast one after the other, day and night, it would require 11 days. The illustration shows Rubinoff, carrying his precious violin, posing with his car after a special appearance at Detroit.

The Supreme Court of the District of Columbia looked the committee's proposition over and decided it was not a good swap.

Bedspreads Welcome Delicate Lilac Motif

PATTERN 1152

Dark and light lilacs, tied with a flourish into the loveliest of floral sprays, is far and away the nicest—and enstiel—flowery touch one can give a bedroom. Even an amateur will find the large spray easy to embroider on a bedspread with four smaller sprays on the bolster, or scarf ends. The flowers are entirely formed of lazy-daisy stitch and French knots, the leaves of blanket stitch—the rest is in outline. With cotton or rayon floss the designs are seemingly done in no time, in shades of lilac, orchid, or palest yellow.

Pattern 1152 comes to you with a transfer pattern of a motif 18 by 21 inches and two reverse motifs 4 by 5 1/2 inches. Color suggestions; illustrations of all stitches needed; material requirements.

Football Apparently Much Older Than We Suspected

A sports writer has discovered that the Chinese are rapidly mastering Association football. He's a bit late, really. BRISBANE THIS WEEK

One Big Shot Convicted The Many Laugh Roman Triumph, New Style Storms, Floods, Twisters

The kind of "justice" supposed to "terrify" crime in this country is very amusing justice: confined to the national government. Murderers, kidnapers and other racketeers are jailed, not for their crimes against society, but for failure to pay income tax. The felon is jailed for failure to divide his criminal earnings with his government.

Arthur Brisbane

A change from this program is due to Special Prosecutor Dewey, who, before Supreme Court Justice McCook, in New York city, has convicted a "topnotch racketeer," as Mr. Dewey calls him—Charles ("Lucky") Luciano. He and eight vice-ring associates are convicted on 62 counts, that may entail prison sentences of 1,240 years for "Lucky" and each associate.

This is an actual conviction for crime, not for tax-dodging.

In this world, many laugh and a few do things. Fulton said he would run a boat up the Hudson river by steam; crowds gathered to laugh.

When it was suggested early in this century that men would soon fly, successfully, millions laughed.

Had it been suggested that an army officer would cross the continent "flying blind" in a hooded cabin, seeing nothing, guided by a scientific "radio beam," the laughs would have been louder; but that is what Major Eaker, of the army air corps, has just done. If you should say now that giant ships will fly around this earth, up in the stratosphere, above clouds and storms, carrying thousands of passengers, dropping them at their various destinations in smaller ships, "around the world in 48 hours or less," there would be more laughter but it would be foolish laughter. What men can imagine they can do, and more.

General Badoglio, who was sent by Mussolini to take over Ethiopia, and did so, celebrated his triumph in Rome, Mussolini and the Italian king, now emperor of Ethiopia, assisting.

The triumphant general, named viceroy of Ethiopia by Mussolini, who surprised the world with the swiftness of his conquest, led his troops, burned by the tropical sun, under the victory arch of Constantine to the tomb of the unknown soldier of the big war.

"Storms kill nine in Oklahoma and Kansas; tornadoes, floods and lightning cause havoc," so runs the headline, and so other headlines have been running for months past. Hall ruins crops; lightning bolts kill three; "twisters," those powerful, revolving windstorms, lift up and knock down little houses.

The sultan of Sulu is dead on the Island of Jolo, now only sultan in name. Once, as spiritual and temporal head, he ruled all the Mohammedans of the Sulu archipelago.

The death of this former ruler, Jamalul Kiram, recalls an interesting incident following the Spanish war. Jamalul, good Mohammedan, did not think he should deal with this nation, on account of its religion. He was soothed by an official statement that the United States had no official religion whatever.

The Black Legion, latest secret murder organization, tells candidates: "You cannot join unless you are a native-born, white, Protestant gentile; willing to proceed against negroes, Catholics and Jews." To "proceed against" means to murder.

The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, a Protestant organization, says it is shameful for the Black Legion to use the word "Protestant," and blasphemous to use the name "God Almighty."

Sir Samuel Hoare had to leave the British cabinet because he opposed the foolishness of sending a great British fleet into the Mediterranean to protect Haile Selassie, not protecting him in the least.

Now, Sir Samuel Hoare is back in the British cabinet, "the king pleased to appoint him." This means, probably, that the futile League of Nations' "sanctions" effort to coerce Mussolini will be dropped. Many things are easier than coercing Mussolini.

Why do Americans swallow eagerly anything in the way of foreign-made goods, especially if they come from the friendly British islands?

British merchants advertise proudly "Made in Great Britain." Every Englishman urges "Buy British." Americans seem proud if they can advertise "Made in England" or "Made in France." Perhaps our goods are inferior but every American makes his money here—why not back our own people?

More killing, bombing, shooting in Palestine, Arabs refusing to discontinue strikes and killings, even at the request of their own leaders.

What Irvin S. Cobb Thinks about

Political Conventions.

HOLLYWOOD, CALIF.—

This month, being engaged in the somewhat responsible task of filling the most important office in the world, the accredited representatives of two great parties will discharge these duties by acting as though, shortly before they were born, their respective mothers had been horribly frightened by an intoxicated toad.

At Cleveland, if the delegates for Zookus fail to behave like howling dervishes for at least forty minutes following the mention of his name, they're traitors to a sacred trust. And if the delegates for Gookus don't carry on longer and louder and crazier than the Zookus bunch did, they'll never again dare lift their shamed heads.

The setup will be different at Philadelphia, the cradle of liberty, although occupied at times by some funny foundlings. There, when the chosen mouthpiece offers a candidate whose second nomination has been certain ever since his first nomination, every patriot on the floor must be thrown by the astounding shock into a happy delirium, lasting until his legs give out, his larynx splits and he can't think of any more hysterical symptoms.

The Seattle Lochinvar.

LATEST news from the hospital is that America's boy-sweetheart—the young Lochinvar out of Seattle—is suffering from overwork. A large number of traffic cops around Washington are reported to be in the same fix. The barkeepers haven't sent in their casualty list yet.

One of the big circuses is certainly overlooking a gorgeous chance. Think of the sensation—alone in a steel-barred arena—Clyde Beatty with Zion-check.

Black Masked Bigots

INTO a sour soup-stock of religious and racial hatred, stir a mess of high-sounding titles, blood-curdling oaths and foolish regalia, and you've got a mixture with an irresistible appeal to parties whose average hat size is six and an eighth and whose souls are aslosh in the bilge-water of bigotry. Presently they're adding miscellaneous murder to their mummery, as in Michigan, where sundry gallant heroes seem about due to suffer prolonged attacks of short-haired paleness, which is a disease brought on by wearing a close hair-cut behind some high stone walls.

They say such organized intolerance-epidemics come in waves, but did you ever notice that we never have any of these waves when America is at war? Then nobody objects to putting Catholics or Jews or negroes in the firing line. Nobody questions their patriotism or their fitness to defend the nation's flag, and, after awhile, peace comes, and all of a sudden a lot of folks discover that those of certain creeds and a certain color are unworthy to be classed as citizens or even as human beings.

RECENTLY in outlining the political high spots scheduled for the next four weeks, the writer failed to mention the Liberty League.

The Liberty League will not hold a convention, but will have tea on the Du Pont lawn. There may be speeches and perhaps a snappy prayer by the rector of the Church of S. S. Midas and Croesus, but Al Smith will positively not speak, having already learned the bitter lesson that a fellow can pick an awfully bad spot to make an awfully good speech in.

And as for trying to keep a brown derby and a silk topper alternately bouncing off a single dome—well, in the future, I predict, he'll leave that sort of thing to professional jugglers. Even so, Al Smith is better qualified than some for wearing two hats at once, having at least twice as many brains as you'd find under the average politician's headpiece.

Sacrifices to Science.

I LOVE dogs and admire them for traits which so many human beings lack. So, because some of us joined a movement to save impounded dogs from possible mutilation and torture at the hands of unauthorized agencies and guarantee them a swift merciful death a large number of folks seem to think we're vivisectionists.

For one, I'm against weird experiment upon dumb brutes in the often abused name of science. When I read that some gifted exhibitionist swapped the vital organs of a pelican and a hound pup, so that the pelican went out in the back yard and barked himself to death at the moon and the pup choked trying to carry half a bushel of fish in his lower jaw, I fail to see where the cause of medicine has been advanced. But since the war on disease demands the sacrifice of certain creatures that mankind may be benefited, I'd rather that every white rat in America should have the bubonic plague twice than that my grandbabies should have it once.

All Around the House

Fruit juices and ginger ale may be frozen into cubes in a mechanical refrigerator and used for iced drinks.

Before polishing mahogany furniture wash well with warm water and white soap and dry thoroughly.

A tablespoon of lemon juice added to the egg in which fish is dipped before frying gives it a delicious flavor.

If cherries or berries are rolled in flour before putting them into the pie crust the juice will be thickened and will not run out.

Rhubarb may be diced, put in covered baking pans, sprinkled with sugar and cooked in a moderate oven until done. Cooked in this way its color is retained.

The ribs of an old umbrella may be used as stakes to the plants to. They are not conspicuous in a garden.

Squeeze into a tumbler the juice of half a lemon and fill with grape juice. Served cold this makes a delicious drink.

When making cinnamon toast cut bananas in thin slices, arrange on toast, sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon and brown under the broiler.

PASSING INSTITUTIONS— DRESSES, BREECHES, PANTS

The Romans made a big to-do over a boy's becoming a man, but the boy himself probably got no bigger kick out of the experience than did the boys of my generation when they "put on" long pants, galluses, and shirts. Age-old custom had decreed, with the finality of a Mrs. Post, that long trousers or pants were to become a part of the boy's life about the time he lost the power of calling hogs on any musical scale except the Chinese. Other indications of the approaching end of an era were the boy's efforts to black the toes AND heels of his shoes without showing partiality to the toes; efforts to shave, in secret, with Father's Wade and Butcher razor, often with disastrous and even bloody results; efforts to summon courage to ask Father for the old family buggy and the old family nag some Sunday afternoon to "buggy ride the girls. The long-coveted shirt, pants and galluses rather crowned the other signs that Nature was nutely giving, that boyhood in its earlier stages, was passing away. The detested bodice and breeches were laid away; henceforth the lad was to be a man, capable of lifting under a handstick, of doing a man's share of work in the field, of spitting tobacco instead of merely dropping plants for others to set. It was not always so pleasant an experience as one had anticipated. For instance, if the senior court, otherwise the big boys, felt that you were not big enough to be dressed like a man, then you had to prove your manhood by beating up two or three of your own size or a little larger. But that was not bad in comparison with having to wear bodices and breeches a whole season beyond the gosling age. I doubt whether I can ever again have the contempt for a person I felt for a boy friend of mine who wore breeches until he was all of 16. The very idea of a boy with a settled voice, even with permission to drive his father's buggy, walking around in decent company in the garb of a little fellow! Even yet I feel a sort of creep come over me, a feeling of profound pity for such a boy.

But now it is all changed. Boys no longer mark distinctive periods of their lives by acquiring new types of clothing. I have seen mere infants, not old enough in the old-day code to wear breeches, strutting around in longies. And knickers, that oddity that cannot be classified as pants or breeches, knows no age limit: little fellows wear them, unmayll with one leg longer than the other or both legs nearly reaching the shoes; young bucks try to look chic and sporty in them; and even old men, with a too-bulging waist line, blossom out in golf knickers and make blots on the green, big, roundish blots with tapering supports. It is a degenerate age; just when we got ourselves thoroughly encased in long trousers, here comes along a style that destroys all distinction and keeps us from knowing a fellow by his dress. Ability to call hogs has nothing to do with clothing now, no more than does blacking one's shoe heels. It is all too democratic, too leveling; not like the old-times, when all the Gaul of boyhood was divided into three parts.

DOG LOST HEAD, LOST BALANCE, THEN LOST TAIL

Ray "Tuffy" Griffith's motorcycle-riding dog "Mike," while out riding on the vehicle behind Tuffy last Sunday on Third street lost his head, lost his balance then turned right around and lost his tail. And if he had any, probably lost his religion.

Tuffy, who has been in many "corner" in his career as a champion "fist flinging fighter," has spent many weeks and many gallons of gasoline teaching Mike to ride behind him on the motorcycle.

The dog, part-breed German police, "tail-dived" into the drive sprocket and chain on the motorcycle and in some manner maneuvered his caudal appendage so that forward action of the motor-propelled vehicle severed the appendage near the spot where Mike used to sit on the tandem.

So Mike will have to go back to the "horse and-buggy days," because his "waggin' days" are over.—Paintsville News.

THE MOTORIST'S PRAYER

"Grant me a steady hand and watchful eye, that no man shall be hurt when I pass by," starts The Motorist's Prayer. The prayer first appeared in the London Church Times. The prayer is a reminder that good driving is a Christian obligation. It follows:

Grant me a steady hand and watchful eye,
That no man shall be hurt when I pass by.

Thou gavest life, and I pray no act of mine
May take away or mar that gift of thine.

Shelter those, dear Lord, who bear me company,
From the evils of fire and all calamity.

Teach me to use my car for others' need,
Nor miss through love of speed
The beauties of thy world; that thus I may,
With joy and courtesy go my way.

America

is giving overwhelming preference to Chevrolet because it's

The only complete low-priced car

MORE than 800,000 new 1936 Chevrolets have been built and sold—more than four-fifths of a million since announcement day—the largest volume of business that Chevrolet has enjoyed in any comparable period in its entire history.

Record-breaking sales always indicate record-breaking value, and that is why we are printing these figures. They are important, not because they establish a record, but because they carry the following message to all people who have yet to buy their 1936 cars.

America is choosing Chevrolet because America is convinced that Chevrolet represents the most motor car for the least money.

"The most motor car," because it's the only low-priced car with such vitally important features as New Perfected Hydraulic Brakes and Solid Steel one-piece Turret Top for greatest safety; Improved Gliding Knee-Action Ride*, Shockproof Steering* and Genuine Fisher No Draft Ventilation for greatest comfort; and a powerful High-Compression Valve-in-Head Engine for the most efficient all-round performance.

And "the least money," because Chevrolet's low purchase price, low operating costs and low maintenance costs make it the most economical of all cars to own.

America is saying these splendid things about Chevrolet with actual buying orders! Follow America's judgment. Place your order for a new 1936 Chevrolet—the only complete low-priced car!

FUNDS NEEDED FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

Louisville, Ky., May 26—The Kentucky Society for Crippled Children, the volunteer organization which started the movement to provide some care for needy afflicted children, is sending out an annual appeal for funds to supplement the state appropriation to the Kentucky Crippled Children Commission for carrying on this work.

For two years the Society has sponsored an Easter sale of Seals, but is not again using this method of raising funds on account of a promise made last year that no intensive campaign would be conducted in 1936 if the Kentucky Crippled Children Commission should receive supplementary aid from the federal government under the provisions of the Social Security Act.

When the Social Security Act began to function this spring the plan of handling crippled children work in Kentucky was one of the first three in the entire country approved by the Children's Bureau. Consequently, the Commission is now eligible to receive funds from Washington, the purpose of the act being to extend present facilities for the care of crippled children.

However, the General Assembly in its budget session gave the Kentucky Crippled Children Commission a thirty per cent cut in its appropriation or a reduction of $70,000 for the two-year period beginning July 1. Such a drastic cut has blasted the Commission's hope of using the federal funds to extend facilities for the care of crippled children in the state. It means that instead of holding more clinics and treating more handicapped children the Commission will have to struggle to maintain its present standard and hold the number of free clinics planned for the coming year, according to the statement of Miss Marian Williamson, Director.

During 1935 the Commission held 22 clinics (exclusive of weekly and monthly clinics in the three hospital centers, Ashland, Louisville and Lexington) and examined 2,000 crippled children. Many of these cases in need of treatment must remain on the waiting list unless clubs and individuals will respond liberally to the appeal for memberships mailed this month to all former contributors and members of the Kentucky Society for Crippled Children.

STARK NOTE

Jimmie was absent from school one day. The next morning he carried the following excuse to his teacher: "Please excuse Jimmie for being absent—he has a new baby brother. It was not his fault."

"Why, Bobby, you selfish little boy! Why didn't you give your sister a piece of your apple?"
"I gave her the seeds. She can plant them and have a whole orchard."

HOLD THE PRESSES

Years ago an unsung editor defined news for a cub reporter with this new classic gem: "When a dog bites a man, it is not news. But when a man bites a dog—that, my boy, is hot news."

Ever since all editors have related this advice to cub reporters, we understand, an Eastern city editor held the number of free clinics sent him out to gather news.

Nothing was heard from the youth for several hours. Then, just as the paper was going to press, he phoned in:

"Chief, I've got it! We'll spoon the town! A fire hydrant just broke and wet a dog!"

CHURCH SCHOOL BEGINS JUNE 29

The annual union vacation church school, which is becoming a regular feature of the Christian training program in Prestonsburg, will be held for two weeks, beginning June 29.

All boys and girls of the community between the ages of four and 18 are invited to attend.

There will be special training in Bible work and practical Christian living. In addition, various handicrafts are to be taught; there will be music and recreational periods, as in former years.

In no other avenue of Christian training are boys and girls brought together with the religious motive for a like period of time. It is pointed out, Sunday Schools last only an hour; young peoples' societies for less time. Christian parents are urged, therefore, to take advantage of this privilege being afforded by the co-operating churches of Prestonsburg.

Any man or woman, or young person who desires to help the work of the school and wants to volunteer to have a part in this opportunity to serve Christ and His Kingdom is requested to notify Robert A. Potter, dean, or any of the ministers of the several churches.

The tentative schedule follows:

BUYS POND CREEK MINES OF FORDSON

New Pike County Firm Will Recognize United Mine Workers of America

(Pike County News)

Sale of the vast holdings of the Fordson Coal Company on Pond Creek was announced Friday as the operation closed down for a period which, it is reported, will not exceed 30 days. The Tierney interests, who have been operating in this section for a number of years, acquired the property.

During the time required for the Fordson company to wind up its affairs and for the new company to prepare to take charge operation of the mines will be suspended.

When the mines are reopened within the next 30 days they will be operated under the union scale of wages now prevailing at other mines in the Williamson field.

Although they will be without employment for probably 30 days employees will not be required to give up their homes. The power house will be operated during the suspension to provide light and water.

Unofficial announcement has been made that L. C. Skeen will be retained in the capacity of general superintendent and that there will be few if any changes in the office force, superintendents, foremen and other salaried employees.

The Tierney interests, have or will have a new corporation to be known as the Eastern Coal Co., under which name the business will be conducted.

CHEVROLET SALES TAX BOOM RECORDS OF 1929

Records that have stood ever since 1929, when the automotive industry enjoyed the greatest year in its history are being surpassed in 1936, according to an analysis of Chevrolet sales records announced by M. E. Coyle, president and general manager.

Although the total sales for the industry as a whole are running behind the peak year record, Mr. Coyle pointed out that in three successive months, March, April and May, Chevrolet's sales have exceeded the 1929 records for these months, and set a new high record for any three months' period in the history of the company.

On the basis of present prospects, Mr. Coyle said, Chevrolet dealers should have 610,000 retail sales to their credit at the end of the five months' peak selling period from March 1 through July 31, as compared with 540,000 units sold in the corresponding period in the company's best previous year, 1929.

SEE MORE TONNAGE AT INLAND STEEL

An announcement which indicates more work for the miners of this section was made recently by E. R. Price, superintendent of the Wheelwright operation of the Inland Steel Company.

Mr. Price announced that the Indianola, Pa., operations of the company have been leased to the Republic Steel Company, thus cutting off the company's source of coal from this mine.

The Inland Steel mine at Wheelwright, so far as can be learned here, is the only "captive" mine operating today in the United States which recognizes union labor. With the supply from the Indianola cut off, Mr. Price states that additional tonnage will probably be produced at the Wheelwright mine.
