COLE IS GIVEN LIFE IN PEN FRI. 13TH

2 MURDER TRIALS IN AFTERNOON, HELD RECORD

Within four and a half hours of the afternoon of Friday the 13th, two murder cases were heard in the Floyd circuit court and one of the two defendants received a life term in the penitentiary.

Empaneling of a jury in the trial of George Goodson, charged with the slaying of D. Thomas at Estill, began at 1:40 p. m. He was acquitted. Then a jury was empaneled for the trial of Simon Cole in the club-slaying of John Smith. Testimony was heard, the case argued. The jury gave a life term verdict. Court was adjourned at 6:15.

Thus a record for murder trials here was established, court attaches said.

Goodson's case was one of plain self-defense, County Attorney Forrest D. Short, who represented the Commonwealth in the absence of Commonwealth's Attorney John Allen, said. Testimony showed that when he and his wife returned to their home at Estill from Garrett they found Thomas and others engaged in a drinking bout. A dispute followed Goodson's request that the visitors leave. Thomas slashed Mrs. Goodson across the abdomen with a knife, and when her husband rushed to her assistance, Thomas cut him several times. Goodson choked him to death.

In the trial of Cole the Commonwealth produced evidence showing that Smith, a man about 65 years old, was sitting when assaulted by Cole. As Surviving her are two sons, Willie and Simon Minters, Queen Ridge, Va.; five daughters, Mrs. Ella Meade, Mrs. M. M. Meade, Miss Minnie Minters, Mrs. Jane Coburn, Mrs. Lillie Payne, all of Estill.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday from the graveside in the Wellman cemetery, Louisa, the Rev. Bill String officiating. Burial was made under the direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

This Town-- That World

TO WALTER WINCHELL:

That yarn you printed in last Thursday's daily newspapers—the one about the two old gentlemen on the deaf side who were discussing the son of the bishop—it was printed in THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES exactly a week earlier.

WALTER ("CALL ME JOB") PRICE

"What troubles did Job have that I haven't got?" Coach Walter Price, of Wheelwright high school, wants to know.

Just as he thought he was ready to send his team in good condition against St. Charles, Va., for its very first game of football, disaster struck.

First of all Thomas Layne, Jr., first-string center, was badly cut on his arms in an auto wreck near Pikeville, last week-end.

Then Clyde Smith, Price's best guard, accidentally discharged a .22 rifle. Missing is one toe.

And, to round out the list of Job-like afflictions, Wilkinson, one of Price's best backfield hopefuls, turns up with a flock of bolts.

But what would you expect, Walter, of a team with three (now two) left-handed centers?

DESCRIPTIVE GENIUS

Asked how he knew the defendant was drunk, the negro witness replied, "Why, sub, he was toad-frog high and doin' a terraphy crawl!"

Fire Protective Group Will Meet Friday At Paintsville

E. H. Price, chief fire warden of the Big Sandy Fire Protective Association, has announced a meeting of association members to be held at the courthouse at Paintsville Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Ways and means of increasing the paying membership of the association, and methods of improving the efficiency of the fire protection will be discussed. A board of directors to represent the members and to assist the state division of forestry in organization will be elected.

Price stated that this meeting would have an important bearing on the future of forest fire protection in Floyd, Johnson, Martin and Lawrence counties, and urged that each of the 127 members of the association make a special effort to attend. The Kentucky division of forestry will be represented by Director K. G. McConnell and Assistant Director H. B. Newland, both of Frankfort, and District Forester H. W. Berckman, of Putney, Ky.

SAVINGS SEEN THRU LOANS

AS FLOYD COURT EYES DEBTS OF COUNTY

Continuing what officials termed an effort to save the county money in the payment of fiscal court warrants, the fiscal court Monday authorized the borrowing of $30,000 from the Bank Josephine, at 4 per cent interest per annum, the loan secured by a pledge of 1940-41 general fund revenues.

This loan, following that of $50,000, effected through the State National Bank, Maysville, at the same rate of interest and secured in the same way. Notes executed to the two banks are due March 15, next year.

At the same meeting the court accepted the offer of the State Finance Company to provide amortization of the county's floating indebtedness of $33,859.44 by means of the sale of $50,000 worth of bonds.

The floating indebtedness, now costing the county 6 per cent interest, is to be paid by the sale of 4 2-3 per cent bonds, the finance company proposed, guaranteeing at the same time that the bonds will sell at public sale for not less than par. The finance company agreed to bear all expenses incident to the undertaking, whether it is completed or not.

Garrett Man Dies At Lakeland

George Whit, Jr., of Garrett, inmate of the Central State hospital, Lakeland, died Saturday of tuberculosis at the age of 27 years.

Surviving him are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Whit, Sr., Garrett, and several brothers and sisters. The body was returned to Garrett Tuesday for burial. Funeral rites were conducted by the Rev. Alex Coburn and others and interment was made at Garrett.

SANDY LEAGUE IN PLAY-OFF

UNUSUAL RULING ELIMINATES W'WRIGHT

Play-off arrangements made last month by the Big Sandy Baseball League, left at least one of the four leading teams in the loop out of the "elimination contests" by which the league championship will be decided.

The play-offs start Sunday. Wheelwright, season-long leader, is out, because it lost last Sunday in its season-ending game, and because league representatives voted at their August meeting that only those teams winning the final game would enter the play-off.

That leaves Prestonsburg, Wayland, Clear Creek and Van Lear to battle it out.

Prestonsburg entertains Wayland here Sunday. Van Lear is being visited on the same day by Clear Creek, which dashed all Wheelwright's hopes last Sunday by Kit Stumbo's home run smash.

The finals will be played here Sunday, September 29.

Attending Monday night's league meeting at Pikeville were Wm. Haggans, Mitchell Preston, J. E. Allen and Harry W. Sandige, of Prestonsburg.

COUNTY GIVES HOME FOR BED

Floyd county this week provided a home for a patient at the King's Daughters' hospital, Ashland, that accommodations might be made there for 15-year-old Reba Carter, Langley, who is a cripple as a result of burns suffered last May when struck by lightning.

Young Miss Carter, described by Dr. Marvin Ransdell, director of the Floyd county health department as "one of the most pitiful cases I have ever seen," has been a patient at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, since the day she was burned. As the burns healed, seared muscles twisted her legs. The need for care under the Kentucky Crippled Children's Commission was immediately apparent, but there was no room in the Ashland hospital.

At the same time, Wayne Morgan, 18, of Salisbury, who has suffered for the last two years from osteomyelitis, was convalescent at the Ashland hospital. Physicians had said he could return home, four months ago—but, an orphan, he had no home.

Solution to the problem thus presented was reached when the county appropriated $12 a month for a home for young Morgan, thus providing a hospital bed for Miss Carter.

Greenup Circuit Clerk, Native of P'burg, Is Claimed

John B. Setser, 44, Greenup county circuit court clerk and native of Prestonsburg, succumbed to a heart attack at his home at Gray's Branch, six miles from Greenup, early last Friday afternoon. He had been in ill health for more than 18 months and had been treated at several hospitals for a severe ear infection. On the Monday before his death he was stricken seriously ill, and attending physicians had ordered him to remain in bed.

Mr. Setser was born in Prestonsburg in 1896, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Setser, and at the age of 14 he moved to Greenup county with his parents. During the World War he served with a machine gun company. Prior to his election in 1933 as circuit court clerk, the office which he held until his death, he was employed by the C. & O. railway at Russell.

Surviving are his parents, of Greenup county; his widow, Mrs. Ruby Setser, Riggs, Ky., and William Setser, Gray's Branch; one sister, Mrs. Mary Porter, Russell.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon from the Brick Union Church, near his home, and burial was made in the church cemetery. The victim was accorded full military honors by the Howard Thomas Post, American Legion, of which he was a member.

MAYOR HITS AT COUNCIL

SAYS 'DILLY-DALLYING' OFFERS THREAT TO OFFICIALS

In addition to transacting municipal business on their own part, members of the City Council Monday evening took a verbal spanking at the hands of Mayor E. P. Arnold, who alleged that the Council was guilty of "dilly-dallying."

"You fellows," said the Mayor, "were elected on a progressive ticket on your own promise to clean the slate and give the people a real administration. You have been dilly-dallying on certain issues and I'm telling you now, if you don't snap out of it you won't be any better than the men whose places you took."

The Council heard representatives of fire-fighting equipment companies discuss their wares and inspected a complete fire truck. It was then suggested that the salesmen leave bids which will be opened if and when the water company deal is consummated.

Temporarily thwarted in its recent attempt to move the taxis from their old parking place across from the bus station to a point below the traffic light on the Mayo Trail, the Council again ordered their removal to the new location.

The long-pending legal action against the estate of Cal Clarke was settled for $1,056, Curtis Clarke agreeing to pay in city warrants or cash the amount fixed.

Oliver Blackburn was hired on trial to succeed George Harris as street cleaner.

Mother of Floyd Women Dies in Pike County

Mrs. Crecy Hunt, 89, of Pike county, mother of Mrs. Maggie Robinson, Wayland, and Mrs. Anna Spencer, East Point, died at the home of her son, I. C. Hurt, Regina, Sunday of last week, after an illness of four months.

She was a native of Washington county, Virginia, and had been living in Pike county for the past 30 years. She was a member of the Church of Christ.

Funeral services were held Monday, last week, at the home of her son at Regina, and burial was made in the Rasnick cemetery there.

Daughter of Former Floyd Residents Succumbs

Betty Jean Owens, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Owens, of Kopperston, W. Va., former Floyd county residents, died at the home of her parents Tuesday of last week, after suffering for the past three years from cancer.

Surviving besides her parents are her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tennie Cecil, of Banner.

Funeral services were conducted from the home of her grandparents at Banner last Tuesday, with the Revs. Isaac Stratton and S. G. Rice officiating. Burial was made in the Gunnells cemetery at Banner, under the direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

DRAFT PLANS ARE TOLD

COUNTY CLERKS SEE BUSY DAY AHEAD FOR OCT. 16

County Court Clerks of Kentucky counties anticipate a lot of work in preparation for the elections, but this year they have not only an election but also registration for the draft to handle.

County Clerk A. B. Meade received here this week from Brigadier-General John A. Polin notification of what he may expect on the 16th of next month.

For that day, he and other county officials will be expected to have sufficient registrars at every voting precinct in the county to register every male citizen of the county who is between the ages of 21 and 35, during that day only.

FLOYD MAY SEND 185 DRAFTEES

According to War Department figures 185 men may be expected to be drafted from Floyd county this year. These figures are those of THE TIMES, based on the War Department's formula for arriving at the number to be called from a given community.

That formula is: Take 14 per cent of the total population, then divide by 40.

Every volunteer, however, cuts the draft quota by one.

Kentucky is expected to register 245,000 men. Twenty-three years ago, this state established a notable record in putting the draft machinery into motion, General Polin said.

Former Floyd Resident Dies At Paintsville Following Stroke

Funeral services for Willis Hondel, 42, Paintsville, who was a Floyd county resident for several years, were conducted from the Freewill Baptist Church at Paintsville Wednesday of last week and burial was made in the Wells cemetery there. He died at the Paintsville hospital Monday morning, after suffering a paralytic stroke the previous afternoon.

The victim was stricken just below Prestonsburg when he and his family were returning to Paintsville after spending Sunday with friends and relatives on Beaver Creek. He was rushed to the hospital and died without regaining consciousness.

Mr. Hondel was a native of Pennsylvania and several years ago he came to this section, where he worked with his brother, the late Floyd Hondel, who was a contractor in the oil and gas fields.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Madge Martin Hondel, and three children, all of Paintsville, and two sisters.

Dallas M. Holley underwent an operation at a Charleston, W. Va., hospital early Sunday morning.

Pneumonia Claims Savage Ousley, Of Hippo

Savage Ousley, 27, farmer of Hippo, died at his home Sunday after a brief illness of double pneumonia.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Verlie Ousley; two children, Forrest and Ronald Ousley; four brothers, Ambrose, Zeb, Mitchell and Shirley Ousley; three sisters, Mrs. Lula Brown, Mrs. Susan Rowe and Mrs. Lawrence Thornsbury, all of Hippo.

Funeral services were conducted from the home Monday afternoon, with the Rev. M. C. Wright officiating. Burial was made in the family cemetery, with the Ryan Funeral Home in charge.

POLIO CASE REPORTED

DIPHTHERIA, TYPHOID STRIKE FLOYD SECTIONS

First infantile paralysis case to be reported to the Floyd county health department since last year's epidemic is that of Lester Bays, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Bays, of Myrtle. The boy, stricken two weeks ago, is convalescing. No evidence of paralysis is noted.

Though Boyd and adjoining counties have suffered severe outbreaks of polio this year, Floyd county has enjoyed comparative security. One case was reported last week from Paintsville where a kindergarten child became ill of the malady.

Two Maytown children — Mildred five-year-old daughter of C. S. Reffitt, and John Vernon, 5 son of the Rev. C. C. Newsome—were stricken with diphtheria, a few days ago. Three cases of typhoid also are reported: Garland Martin, of Northern; Ernest Hall and Pete Nunnery, of Mare Creek.

An epidemic of rabies among dogs has developed in the vicinity of Bevinville during the last two weeks, Dr. Ransdell said. More than 30 residents of that section are taking anti-rabies treatment.

MITCHELL DIES OF INJURIES

PIKE WRECK HURTS FATAL TO MINE FOREMAN

Injuries received when his automobile overturned near Pikeville early Sunday afternoon proved fatal to Robert Lee Mitchell, Jr., 22, mine foreman at the Inland Steel Company at Wheelwright, at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, at 8:30 Monday night. Death was attributed to internal injuries.

According to reports reaching here the young victim, who had bought a new car only a short time before, was on his way to Pikeville when the accident occurred. With him at the time were his nephew, Thomas Layne, Jr., and another relative, neither of whom was injured seriously. Mitchell's back and abdomen were crushed.

He was the son of the late Robert Lee Mitchell, who died several years ago, and Mrs. Linda Reynolds Mitchell, of Halo, Jack's Creek, who survives and with whom he made his home.

Also surviving are six brothers, Ezra Mitchell, Wheelwright; Trimble Mitchell, Drift; Mose and Hiram Mitchell, Melvin; Dewey and Ellis Mitchell, Ligon; six sisters, Mrs. Marie Burke, Mrs. Thomas Layne and Mrs. Lillie Thompson, all of Wheelwright; Mrs. Fannie Smallwood and Mrs. Noah Akers, both of Ligon, and Mrs. Nannie Ellis, Cincinnati, O.; three half-brothers, Dock Tackett, Wheelwright, and Bill and Alfred Tackett, both of Teaberry.

Seekers of Employment Should Investigate, Says Fields

R. F. Fields, manager of the area
office of the Kentucky State Employment Service at Pikeville, covering the counties of Floyd, Morgan, Magoffin, Johnson, Martin and Pike, announces that he has been requested by State Employment Service officials to urge residents of these counties, who are seeking employment, to do some investigating before making long, expensive job-hunting trips.

Fields has been informed that thousands of workers have been migrating across the country because they misunderstood news or heeded false rumors. Such disappointed workers have read about huge industries starting and large contracts being awarded, and without definite information have jumped into their autos, and, in many cases, have driven hundreds of miles to the site of an industry, only to find that they have made a useless trip.
They fail to realize that in most cases laborers living in the vicinity of industrial plants are ample in number to fill all openings in the common labor group, Mr. Fields said. There are openings for highly skilled workers in the war industries, but they, too, should receive definite information as to the location of job openings before making expensive trips. All of these job seekers may receive definite information as to work openings for the cost of a postal card directed to the office of the Kentucky State Employment Service serving their county.

UNEDUCATED

Those dressed-up dandies, who come in here C.O.D. and go out in a hurry, apparently think we are all suckers
for the schemes of the city slicker.
But, hell, we mountain people ain't ignorant—we're just uneducated!

THE NAKED TRUTH!

Some rude fellow intimated that if this column didn't begin to clothe some of the naked truths it's been printing, that yours truly might wake up one sunny day with a broken neck, or some other such minor ailment, which would impede future issues.

Gosh, wouldn't that be terrible on my reading public!

FAVORABLE PUBLICITY

From this lofty but tilted terrain it seems to me that P'burg's numerous business and fraternal organizations are missing a good opportunity of getting some favorable publicity for themselves and the town, as well as neglecting one of its deserving sons.

Why don't some of them invite W.
H. (Bill) May to speak before one of their various gatherings? After all, this is the only town in Kentucky which can claim the present Commissioner of Agriculture as its "favorite son."

THE AMERICAN WAY

One fine trait of the American people is easily recognizable in every little town that has water, gas, or electric service. The trait is generosity—they are big-hearted to a fault. Every time their bills jump a notch the people smile; when the bills double or triple themselves, everybody applauds; and when the bill goes 'way up, the good Americans literally scream!

Ah, it is a pleasure living in America! Just ask the meter-man, or collector!

POP & STUFF

The R.E.A. work being done in the county seems to be giving the power company some severe abdominal pains
... Another FDR asset: He doesn't neglect even the hillside farmers ...
Similes: patriotic as a man over forty-five; hopeful as a Republican; busy as "Bill Henry" ... Eavesdropping a constable: "I don't mean to throw off on anyone, but there isn't a man on my force who has to roll his own (cigaretts)." ... Oh, boy! ... More similes: Scarce as a German sympathizer; permanent as K-W. Va. Gas Company's new building ... Horse sense: Confidence is the job half done
... Well, Martin finally lost a ball game. I knew their luck couldn't last forever. Ho hum!

SHIKE'S POKES

(Views expressed in this column are those of the writer and not necessarily those of The Times.)

Wayne had to call off his contest, too—the one over the "Campaign Manager," because his opponent didn't show up. I'm afraid to take sides in this contest—but, boys, it's a honey! No holds barred.

They are accusing "Chub" of joining the Jehovah's Witnesses outfit when Mitch was preaching, but, personally, I don't believe it. "Chub" is a good American—and he didn't join this "Snake Cult" either. I know he is afraid of snakes, for he keeps an "antidote."

Someone reported that the "Willkie Loudspeaker" made 300 votes for Willkie in Wheelwright. I know a fellow who is carrying $1,000 cash to bet that Willkie doesn't get 300 votes there. If you are interested, just contact "Shikepoke" and I'll take you to this fellow. He's a Floyd county citizen.

Hitler had better start "drawing in his ears," or he will get 'em knocked off—the Drift boys are going in gangs to enlist in the army and navy. It might not be patriotic according to some, but I think so, and if we could have had the "draft bill" 10 years ago, fellows of my class would have been trained soldiers now—while, the way it is, we'll have to go as "greenhorns." I say that anyone not willing to fight for the good, ole U.S.A., should be deported.

One of the "Dumbest Statements" that any man can make is to call FDR a dictator—for, remember, if you even whisper a word against a Dictator you face a "firing squad."

Just as soon as Mr. Willkie met with his "advisers" from the 22 states and gave out a statement denouncing the destroyer deal with Britain—New York financial circles friendliest for Mr. Willkie showed dismay and the betting odds on FDR's re-election jumped from 7-5 up to 10-5, with few "takers."

We need more Congressmen with the spunk of B. M. Vincent. A few more Vincents and the Fish's would be hooked—like any sucker.

Estill G. came out to work last week with his head looking like "a Christmas stocking full of oranges." Sez a bee stung him.

My hat is off to Mr. R. L., of Louisville, Ky.—he expressed my sentiments to a "T" in Sunday's Courier-Journal: "Well, looks like you are up against a tough proposition in trying to wake up the dead. It would appear that in a short two centuries the people of North America, and particularly those inhabiting the United States, have degenerated into the damndest bunch of yellow-bellied, white-livered, sniveling, half-dead cowards that it's possible to encounter in one group in any one place. I never thought that such a boastful, belligerent-acting people could actually turn about so completely when things began to look promising for a good fight—in other words, looks like we bluff easily. There is no good reason why this country can't at once stop all dawdling and send ships, planes, and what have you, to England to aid in the most humane, large-scale rat-extermination this world has ever heard of. If the populace of this country has a drop of what it takes to make a man, they will insist upon immediate and complete aid to Great Britain. Come on, let's go, or are you going to be bluffed by the two of the greatest, loud-mouthed, inhuman bluffers that ever lived? If you listen to

Meeting the Challenge of the Times

As our nation looks to its defenses, speed is the order of the day. And vital to the quickened tempo of industry and national activity is the country's telephone service. From sea to sea, in every corner of the land, it must function smoothly, quickly, regardless of the added burden it is called upon to bear. In the nine southern states served by Southern Bell, more than twenty-one thousand skilled telephone workers, with years of experience in meeting emergencies, are keenly conscious of the important part they play in the national defense program. They accept this new and challenging responsibility with full confidence, for they are prepared—organized, trained, and equipped—to meet the test of the times. Southern Bell and the entire Bell System are in high gear. They are meeting the nation's needs today. They are ready to meet those of tomorrow.—Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, Incorporated.

Buick SPECIAL 6-passenger 4-door Sedan, $1052 delivered at Flint, Mich. Wheel shields and white sidewall tires, extra.*

AS surely as the new Buick FIREBALL* straight-eight engine sets the performance pace for the coming season, the graceful silhouette of the new Buick SPECIAL and CENTURY cuts the automotive style pattern for another half decade.

The reason is not alone the grace of its Buick-created lines, nor the appearance of solid substance in action that gives this honey the look of a speedster straining at its leash.

It is the practical quality of great room enclosed in sleek and flowing lines—more room for legs, for elbows, for heads, more room for entrance and more room for carrying luggage—that makes this the silhouette the cars of the future will seek to achieve.

Why wait for that—when in this Buick you travel in a car that, like time and tide, obviously isn't waiting for any man?

*According to the Encyclopaedia Britannica, a super meteor which travels with a series of explosions like the shock waves of a great projectile is called a "FIREBALL."

Buick prices begin at $935 for the Business Coupe delivered at Flint, Mich.

Lindbergh, and his type, we will be saluting Hitler or else be brutally murdered in a year or so, anyway; so we might as well take what is to come, on our own terms, AND HOW!"

Local Unions of this section have been receiving petitions from the National Council for Prevention of War—wanting us to petition our Congressmen against the Draft Bill. They are barking up the wrong tree, for we are in favor of the Draft Bill—and I'll bet Hitler or Il Duce is paying for the above propaganda.

You haven't been to Wayland unless you've seen Henry Campbell, Bob Hicks and Chas. DeCoursey—where's Noble?

Clarence is driving around in a Chevrolet coupe—just like he owns it.

Dewey is having a hard time keeping his brakemen in whistles—he even threatened to bring out his fox horn for Eckle.

A majority of those Congressmen who voted against the draft bill won't be back for the next Congress.

Ken Myers says that he wasn't cut out for mining.

YOSEMITE COLORFUL IN AUTUMN
Yosemite has four distinct seasons, each with a charm all its own. But those who know the park best prefer to visit it in the fall when there is a friendly "woody" feeling about Yosemite that is irresistible.

Nature is indeed generous to this Sierra wonderland in autumn. She paints the oaks, maples, aspens and dogwood in flaming tints of red, yellow and orange, transforming the entire area into a magic woodland.

From such a height as Glacier Point, Yosemite Valley is a bowl of color—color that is intensified by the contrasting whiteness of the towering granite cliffs which surround it on every side.

A saunter in the woods at this time of the year with the scent of pines and burning leaves intermingled becomes a never-to-be-forgotten adventure. Deer stare curiously from cool glades; squirrels and chipmunks gather acorns, while bluejays scold and thieve; water ouzels dart through the waterfalls to their nests behind; heavy-paunched bears lumber through the brush, while high overhead woodpeckers hammer out staccato melodies.

Along quiet streams the willows and cottonwoods bend down to see their own brilliant reflections. In the meadows the bright crimson of the dogwood vies with the deeper maroon of the azalea, and giant valley oaks turn to gold.

High up on the talus slopes flashes of bright yellow betray the big-leaved maples, while above and beyond the rim of Yosemite Valley whole groves of quaking aspen turn out in crimson and gold, their tiny leaves shimmering like sequins in the sun. It is a joy just to be alive in the midst of such glorious woodland beauty, at peace with the world in a world apart.

For recreation—there is golf, tennis, badminton, horseback riding, archery, hiking—everything to make an autumn outing in Yosemite one of the grandest holidays of all.

Do Callers-Up Get You Down?

THE telephone bell should be a happy sound, a welcome invitation to a sociable chat. But it may be more worrisome than welcome when it demands a dash down the stairs— which it does if you have only one telephone and happen to be upstairs when it rings.

Why go on putting up with calls that get you down? For a very few pennies a day you can have an upstairs extension telephone which will save you those troublesome trips and give a lot of added protection, besides.

Call the telephone office today and let us tell you how little it costs to enjoy the many benefits of an extension telephone.

BILL HENRY SAYS:

I RECKON I am like a lot of other people—unable to recognize the value of the daily friendly greeting of an old friend until after that friend is gone. For months when passing by the corner of Second and Court streets I received a cheerful greeting from an elderly man. On the surface in was just another "pleasant morning to you, sir," but deep inside me, I realized his catching smile and a few words had become a habit I looked forward to. Somehow the early morning sun seemed to shine brighter and, in the afternoons, when my feet became weary the wave of his hand and his Irish grin sped me on. Occasionally he was not there . . . I passed on with a glance at the rock wall where he always sat and, I thought, "He'll be back on the morrow." He did come back, time after time, until, in the latter part of August, one week went by when word came that he would never return. He had been called to the place where everyone has a friendly greeting for his neighbor.

My friend was Pat Coyer, one of Floyd county's best-loved citizens. He had been ill a long time but few knew of it, except, perhaps, his family. It was something casual observation would not reveal and Pat was never the one to pass his troubles on. Instead, with a body oft-times racked with pain, the twinkle in his eye never faltered. I know now that Pat Coyer was only waiting . . . yet he could still smile. I hope I shall never forget—I don't believe I will.

WHEN MAN ceases to try to help himself he is doomed to a miserable existence. Just how much success his own efforts are responsible for is beside the point. What does matter is that he is trying. A favorable public opinion immediately reacts to give a helping hand. Contrast this with the man who meekly accepts a condition and by his inactivity broadcasts his intention to do nothing about it. He will soon receive nothing but contempt—a few crusts of bread will be grudgingly given. Whether it is one individual or a group, the result is the same.

Recently a group of people, some connected with the WPA, others who had been and some who want to be, met in the courthouse and discussed ways and means of obtaining more projects. An organization is supposed to have been formed, yet after three meetings it has no name, no officers except a chairman and secretary. The group consists mostly of people from Prestonsburg, whereas, if those behind the movement are sincere the entire county should be represented. A county-wide organization could help their individual members to a better way of life. It would be possible for committees in each section of the county to work in co-operation with the fiscal court and the certifying agent. Each committee could make a survey of its district, find out just who is in need and they could also help to eliminate chiselers. There are 53 precincts . . . a pie supper or something similar held simultaneously in these 53 districts could easily raise not less than $250—less than $5 for each district.

Nothing has been accomplished except to beg $80 from the fiscal court, though it has been six weeks since the organization was formed. A little enthusiasm, a will to do something for themselves, could have done so much more . . . a generous public would have responded . . . smiles would have been broader, heads held high.

The present chairman and secretary of the organization are "outsiders" in a sense that they have been able to struggle along on their own efforts. Organizations have been wrecked, the best intentions scattered to the winds, by permitting outsiders to take a hand in its direction as officers or otherwise. Surely there are men and women in the group who not only are capable leaders but who are ambitious enough to carry on a program of rehabilitation. Whether the present officers have good intentions or not is a minor detail, most important is what the general public may think.

COLE GIVEN LIFE IN PEN

Smith arose and backed away, this testimony continued, Cole struck him on the head, and as the aged man lay, face down in the mud, his assailant continued to strike him.

Cole contended that he was en route to his cornfield and that when he suddenly came upon Smith the latter drew his knife. The defendant said he struck the other in self-defense.

The Commonwealth, in rebuttal, showed, however, that the path which Cole followed to the mouth of Cole branch where he found Smith does not lead to his field. Prosecution testimony also claimed that Cole went to the home of Herman Wright, shortly after the attack on Smith, and said, "No d— man can beat my wife up and get away with it."

Cole was represented by Atty. Dave Hatcher.

Circuit Judge Stephens said this week he had instructed the grand jury to peruse records in the County Court Clerk's office when it re-convenes next Wednesday and to indict all persons who have voted within the two years during which they were disfranchised upon their conviction of carrying a concealed deadly weapon.

Judge Stephens also cracked down on three Left Beaver residents whom he suspected of perjury in the trial of a seduction case last week. Two men were placed under $2,500 bond and a young woman under $500 bond to answer to the grand jury.

TARDINESS COSTLY

Witnesses failing to appear in court are having tough going.

Tuesday, when Dammer Gayheart, of Left Beaver Creek, made a belated appearance and failed to give a satisfactory explanation of his absence, Judge Stephens informed him that he would not be allowed the usual fees as a Commonwealth witness.

"That's good," the Judge heard Gayheart remark as he walked back to take his seat. And so the tardy witness was called back.

"I've changed my mind," Judge Stephens informed him. "I've decided to fine you $30 and give you 30 hours in jail. Is that any better?"

The Green Bradley murder trial was slated for Wednesday. His brother, Lewis Bradley, also accused with him of the slaying 15 years ago of Leck Conley, has not been arrested.

Other major cases heard since THE TIMES was last published, and verdicts given, follow:

Wallace Stone, child desertion, five years; Woodrow Caldwell, petit larceny, 12 months in jail; Willard Stanley, seduction, three years; Roby Osborne, selling liquor, $50 and 10 days in jail; Junior Benner, shooting and wounding, acquitted; Arnold Calhoun, Jerry Mullins and Earl Newsome, robbery of Junior Benner at the time Mullins was shot, two years each; Lucien Stone, deserting a pregnant wife, acquitted; Roby Harmon, child desertion, acquitted; Clifton Walters, child desertion, two years; Roscoe Howard, of Magoffin county, improper driving, $100, and for carrying a concealed deadly weapon, $100 and 40 days in jail; Virginia Johnson, grand larceny, acquitted; Madison Prater, cutting and wounding, $50; Bob Stone, obstructing public justice, $50; Hawley Robinson, shooting at without wounding, $50; George Estep, selling or concealing mortgaged personal property, one year; Berlin Young, shooting and wounding, two years; Wayne Hall, cutting and wounding, $75; Dempsey Hall, storehousebreaking, acquitted.

OUR LINE OF DEFENSE

F. D. Ward, the man who came to Prestonsburg to sell papers and promptly drew our sympathy, but who now is a fixture here in that very business and at the same time oft-times pities me in my efforts to meet the weekly payroll, tells the true story of that certain Prestonsburg professional man and that certain local merchant who were out with their shotguns on a recent late afternoon, looking skyward as "bull-bats" and an airplane skimmed the blue over Prestonsburg. When asked what they were about, the p.m. and the l.m. informed our informant that "None of them gold-darned parachute troopers are going to light on Prestonsburg without us takin' a crack at 'em."

THE ABSENT-MINDED PROFESSOR

Ray Stephens and his missus are still laughing about how I lost my wife and youngest son at the show, 't'other night. Ray and I, as we went inside, got interested in the coming World Series and when I caught a glimpse of the woman, just ahead, turning off to the left to a seat, I followed suit. It seemed kinda funny, at the time, that Ray should push around me and seat himself between me and my wife, not to mention his low-voiced conversation with her.

After a few minutes, the youngster she was holding became impatient. Ray reached over and relieved her of the child, and I, bent on caring for my own, promptly relieved him of his burden.

All this happened while I was concentrating on the news-reel. And all remained quiet for several minutes. Then Ray leaned over and whispered, "Whose boy you got there?" And I replied, "Mine."

When he let out a subdued snort, the blinding revelation flashed on me that I had deserted my own brood and at the same time was well on the way to becoming a kidnaper.
