INLAND STEEL TO MATCH BASE PAY

OF EMPLOYEES CALLED TO SERVICE

The Inland Steel Company on Sept. 20 issued the following statement of policy which it will follow with respect to all its employees who are selected for military training under the military conscription bill:

"During the next few months a number of our employes will be called for one year's military training either in the National Guard or under the selective draft law. Many employes have obligations of such a nature that the regular pay of enlisted men during that period of training may involve substantial sacrifices.

"As to men subject to first call in the National Guard or under the selective draft law, it is the intention of the company to supplement the income of such employes by a monthly payment of an amount equal to the base service pay.

"During the same period the company will maintain in effect the Group Life Insurance which employes may have at the time of their enlistment.

"During the year that the employes will be training in military service, they will retain their seniority."

This generous and patriotic action on the part of the Inland Steel Company applies to all its employes at the steel plant, iron ore mines, limestone operation and the Wheelwright coal mine and includes the employes of all subsidiaries.

Inland is believed to be the first of the country's industrial firms to take this action.

This Town-- That World

A-BEGGIN' WE GO

The Boy Scouts, after weathering stormy financial waters, have succeeded in completing their cabin here. They now need some chairs, settees, sofas, what-have-you. No, the boys are not begging—they're not asking you to buy for them new furniture or to give them anything you could use. They merely ask that you think of them when you have out-dated chairs and the like, or items of the sort that are in disrepair but which they could put into use.

They're good scouts. They're not begging. We're doing their begging for them.

NEWSPAPER APPRECIATION WEEK—this week

Just to turn the tables on you, we're not asking for appreciation. Instead, we're telling you that we're doing the appreciating. We appreciate Floyd county, the state of Kentucky and the United States of which we hope we are a part. We also appreciate all our friends—and, maybe, a lot of people who don't give a whoop in hades about us.

NEWSPAPER APPRECIATION WEEK OBSERVED

THE TIMES is in receipt of the following note from "Wheelwright Pullback," which we print here, this glad Newspaper Appreciation Week:

"It seems very strange to me that you'll label your paper FLOYD COUNTY Times, and then devote most of your space to Prestonsburg alone. I refer especially to your paper of Sept. 26, 1940, in which Prestonsburg football

Justice Promises Help On Melvin Highway

Discussion of the Melvin-Weeksbury road claimed the attention of the Floyd County Good Roads Association at its meeting Friday at Wheelwright Junction.

Highway Commissioner Zach Justice, Pikeville, told the gathering he hoped to start work on the road within 10 days. Grade work and application of creek gravel to the stretch of road is the only improvement possible at this time, Mr. Justice said.

County Judge E. P. Hill and County Attorney Forrest D. Short promised the county will furnish trucks and place the gravel if the state will supply a shovel and operator on this work.

Delay in re-construction of the route, it was explained, resulted from its incorporation, along with the entire Left Beaver highway, in the federal feeder system which requires 60-foot right-of-way. The Melvin-Weeksbury right-of-way is only 40 feet wide, and either side of this right-of-way is lined with residences and other buildings.

Other speakers at the meeting were Police Judge E. A. Rickard, Representative Edward B. Leslie and Wayne Ratliff, head of the Wheelwright schools.

RED CROSS HEAD NAMED

MRS. HEINZE LEADS FUND DRIVE IN FLOYD

Mrs. F. L. Heinze, Prestonsburg, has resumed active duties of Red Cross Roll Call chairman for Floyd county, it was announced this week.

For the past two years, because of the illness of Mr. Heinze, Mrs. Heinze found it necessary to pass some of the duties of the office of chairman to others.

Kentucky's Red Cross membership last year was 91,098, an increase of 11,490 over the previous year and the highest enrollment since the World War.

Plans for Red Cross participation in national defense activities will highlight six regional conferences to be held in Kentucky this month and next.

In a recent message to Roll Call workers, Norman H. Davis, chairman of the American National Red Cross, spoke of the splendid achievements of the more than 3,700 chapters in the last Roll Call and at the same time emphasized the increased responsibilities of the Red Cross due to the

$150,000 FUND PROMISED

BIG SANDY CO-OP REACHES STATUS OF ACTUAL WORK

Assured last week an appropriation of $150,000 by the Rural Electrification Administration for its work in Floyd, Johnson and Pike counties, subject to the co-operative representing rural homes in the three counties procuring as consumers at least four persons per mile of line to be constructed in the three counties, the Big Sandy Rural Electric Co-Operative Corporation moved forward this week in action designed to give rural homes in the sections affected electrification at a minimum of delay.

The Channabury Engineering Company, Louisville, will begin staking the survey of REA power lines Monday. Opening of an office here will be occupied by the superintendent, clerk and board of directors of the co-operative.

Actual construction of power lines on Abbott Creek, Right Fork of Middle Creek, Bull Creek, Cow Creek, Arkansas Creek, Prater Creek, Little and Big Mud Creeks and at Emma is expected to be under way by mid-October.

Other sections of the county are expected to be served by REA as residents indicate their desire to receive electric service by signing as users of power.

An agreement reached last week at a hearing held before the Public Service Commission, Frankfort, reduces to a minimum, it was said, conflict of interests in the county between the power company and the REA co-operative.

PLANS MADE FOR FAIR

PRMIUM MONEY EXCEEDS 1939 PRIZE LIST

All was being placed in readiness this week for the Floyd County Fair here, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 17-19.

Prize money already guaranteed to exhibitors exceeds that of last year's fair, and the premium fund is still mounting.

A meeting of citizens and business men interested in the county exhibit of agricultural and industrial achievement Monday evening arrived at definite plans for the fair.

In addition to the exhibits of last year's fair, declared one of the best ever held in the Big Sandy region, this year's exhibits will include those of business firms of the section, a high school float exhibit, a dog show, horseshoe pitching contest, a marble-shooting contest and a football game on Saturday afternoon.

Add to these all the diversified exhibits of the 1939 fair, and all these multiplied by increased interest in the affair, and you have the best things to be shown in Floyd county.

During the fair, no less than 20,000 persons are expected to visit Prestonsburg.

PLANS FOR DEVELOPMENT OF AIRPORTS, ANNOUNCED

ONLY FLOYD TOWN LISTED IS WAYLAND, AS PRESTONSBURG FAILS TO OBTAIN SITE

Plans were announced Saturday for development of 89 airports in Kentucky under the Civil Aeronautics Board of the national defense program, if and when Congress makes funds available.

Wayland is the only Floyd county town listed for airport development. Tentatively scheduled for expenditure there is $30,000.

Prestonsburg was not included in the program because efforts to procure an option on a site in this vicinity failed.

Other projects in this section and the estimated cost for development of each:

Hazard, $30,000; Hellier, $30,000; Jackson, $75,000; Jenkins, $75,000; Louisa, $30,000; McVey, $30,000; Paintsville, $180,000; Pikeville, $180,000; Ashland, $180,000.

Three months ago, Congressman A. J. May outlined plans for airport development either in this vicinity or in the Mayo Trail a few miles above Allen. The Prestonsburg Co-Operative

THREE PENNED FOR SLAYINGS

NEWSOME, DILLOW AND TAYLOR SENTENCED

Two of the three men charged with murder in the Ligon mine local slaying in which Creed and Taulbee Newsome were slain were convicted during the last three days of the last week by juries of the Floyd circuit court.

Caleb Newsome, president of the local at the time of the affray was given a 21-year penitentiary term for the killing of Taulbee Newsome. The verdict was made last Thursday, and Saturday William Dillow, member of the local, drew a three-year term upon his conviction in the slaying of Creed Newsome.

Trial of Clyde Taylor, accused of the club-slaying of Tillman Holbrook on Jack's Creek, ended last Wednesday in his conviction and a 21-year term.

In the Newsome trial the Commonwealth produced testimony claiming that, after Creed and Taulbee Newsome had objected to trial in the local with Caleb Newsome presiding, the latter declared, "By G—, I am going to try you," moved for his revolver and started walking toward Taulbee. Some of the witnesses testified he fired the first shot; all Commonwealth testimony declares he drew first.

The defendant claimed he walked toward Taulbee Newsome to get Taulbee's gun and thus prevent the latter from firing. The defense contended that he had turned his back to Taulbee when Taulbee fired, wounding him. Newsome stated he did not fire until after he had fallen.

DRAFT SET-UP UNDER WAY

COUNTY'S TEACHERS MAY ASSIST IN REGISTRATION

Preparations continued this week for the registration for possible military service of Floyd county's entire male population from the ages of 21 to 35 years inclusive, on Wednesday, October 16.

Acting under orders of Governor Keen Johnson and the Adjutant General's office, County Clerk A. B. Meade was enlisting the aid of patriotic residents of the county's 53 voting precincts to register those within the draft age.

At least three members are needed on the registration board in each precinct, and in some additional help will be necessary. Governor Johnson last week authorized Mr. Meade to enlist such additional help as may be needed. Not only qualified election officers but also teachers and women may compose the precinct registration boards.

Quick, legible registration of potential draftees is necessary. All the

Wayland Negroes Held In Death Of Knott Tot

Struck by an auto containing three Wayland negroes Saturday afternoon shortly after three o'clock as she was crossing highway 80 near Mousie, on Jones Fork, Betty Sue Campbell, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Turner Campbell, of Mousie, died en route to the Stumbo Memorial hospital, Lackey.

The negroes, whose names were unavailable to THE TIMES, were taken to the Knott county jail at Hindman, where this week all were fined $250 and given jail sentences of six months on a liquor charge. The driver is being held on a manslaughter charge.

According to reports the child was struck as she was crossing the road near the home to a building which was being erected by her father.

The little victim was a niece of Mrs. Monroe Wicker and Mrs. T. J. Allen, of Martin, and Mrs. Jesse Lowe, Prestonsburg.

Surviving besides the parents are five brothers, John, Samuel, Orville, Thomas Chandler and Frederick; four sisters, Kathleen, Goldia, Nina Jean and Neba, all at home.

Funeral services were conducted from the home Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, with the Revs. Clabe Mosley and Earl Howard officiating. Burial was made in the family cemetery at Mousie, under the direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

COURT RAPS PERJURERS

ASKS GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE CONDITION

A judicial "blitzkrieg" on perjury was started last week by the Floyd circuit court's grand jury, at the behest of Circuit Judge Henry Stephens, Jr., in the last three days of the jury's nine-day session.

"Mass" indictments of 12 persons as alleged perjurers was made, and 11 of the 12 were placed under $5,000 bond each. Bond of $2,000 was asked for release of the other defendant.

After examining 316 witnesses, the grand jury returned a total of 137 true bills.

Final report of the jury, signed by S. E. Allen, foreman, expressed the opinion that crime conditions remain unimproved in the county and that the period of nine days in which to investigate law violations committed in the county is inadequate.

Increasing manufacture and sale of moonshine whisky and reported expenditure of school funds for purposes other than school needs were listed as offenses which the grand jury had not the time for thorough investigation.

The report reads, in part: "We would further report that there is an increasing amount of moonshine liquor being manufactured and sold in Floyd county and that the grand jury in its limited time was unable to secure subpoenas for such violations committed . . .

"During the last days of our deliberations as a grand jury, it has come to our attention that the governing

15,000 TONS, LIME GOAL

NEW HEIGHTS SEEN FOR FARMERS IN PROGRAM

The County Agent's office is urging all farmers this week to file their applications for lime and phosphate. It is desired to make all deliveries during the early fall months while all roads are in good condition.

County Agent S. L. Isbell and the committee for the AAA program have set a goal of 15,000 tons of lime and 400 tons of phosphate. Applications already filed and inquiries made indicate that the goal will be reached or exceeded. Orders are coming in to the County Agent's office at the rate of two carloads per day.

Two hundred eleven tons of lime have been received to date and distributed in the following communities:

161 tons for Prestonsburg and vicinity, including Abbott Creek, Johns Creek, Middle Creek, right and left forks.

UTILITY DEAL COMPLETED BY TOWN

UTILITY COMMISSION 'SQUARE DEAL' PROMISED

Long-pending, the transaction by which the Prestonsburg Water Company was transferred to the town for operation as a municipal enterprise from the hands of E. S. Mayes, Springfield, Ky., was completed Tuesday, last week, in Louisville.

The town paid $117,000 for the water system. Funds for the purchase were realized through a bond issue of $125,000, for which Granberry & Company, Louisville, paid $127,298.60. The bonds are marked for maturity in 30 years, bearing interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum.

Granberry & Company's contract with the "old" city council in connection with the transaction provided that the Louisville firm must be paid 6 per cent of the actual purchase price of the system.

Consummation of the deal followed its approval by the Public Service Commission in Frankfort. Attending the Commission hearing from Prestonsburg were City Attorney J. D. Harkins, Jr., and City Clerk Burl Spurlock. These two officials, City Treasurer James Morell, Jr., and Joe Hobson, of the City Utility Commission, were present in Louisville for the formal transfer of the water properties to the town.

Meeting last Wednesday evening, the City Utility Commission composed of three members drew for terms which each member will serve. Atty. Joe Hobson will serve six years and was named chairman of the commission. F. C. Hall, cashier of The First National Bank here, will remain on the Commission for four years and was named secretary. G. A. Culbertson, head of H. E. Hughes & Company, is the third member and will serve for two years. Their successors will be named by the City Council in office at the time their tenure of office ends, with the approval of the bondholders or their trustee.

The Utilities Commission announced last week that it hoped to give Prestonsburg a just and business-like administration of this municipal enterprise and promised adjustments of meritorious complaints filed by water consumers. If necessary, it was stated, check meter readers will be provided.

Operation of the water system now is in the hands of the Utility Commission. Former employes of the Prestonsburg Water Company retain their connection with the operation of the business.

BILL HENRY SAYS:

ONE MONTH, four short weeks, in which to make up our minds whether it will be Roosevelt or Willkie. There is no man living who can foretell the future... we can all make a guess and the other fellow's guess is as good as mine. There is, however, a big difference in the way some of us come to our conclusions. There is the man, for instance, who approaches another and suggests a discussion of opinions, and who becomes very vehement in his denunciation of every one who disagrees with him. In our world of today no one except a fool would make the statement, "I know what tomorrow will bring," but the man is wise who will reckon the morrow with the past when considering men like Hitler, Mussolini, Stalin and Konoje. In November we will be called upon, not to decide whether we are Democrats or Republicans, not to settle a personal feud between two men on the issue as to whether private companies shall have a monopoly or if there shall be more TVA's, not to decide whether we prefer the Democrats or Republicans as political patronage dispensers during the next four years, and to give a hang whether Mr. Willkie has more hair on top of his head than Mr. Roosevelt, but we are to decide whether we are willing to gamble with a complete change of administrative heads while a literal hell is unleashed on our doorstep.

Promises come easy with a candidate when he is asking you to place him in office and it is impossible to dispute the sincerity of any man until after you have tried him, unless, of course, he has been in public office previously. It is possible though to use a few of our brain cells and put two and two together in summing up what could happen with reference to the office of President of the United States in as much as the President acts only in an advisory capacity. There are many so-called isolationists, old-timers in Congress, who are waiting for a chance to take advantage of a leader who might not be fa-

Floyd County Chanters Feature Festival At Quicksand

Quicksand, Ky.—They came, they sang and they conquered—"the Floyd County Chanters," led by Mrs. Edith James, chanting their mournful foot-washing songs in a feature of the 14th annual Robinson Harvest Festival and Agricultural Fair here, September 26, highlighting the two-day festival. A hundred or more youths from the mountain sections and mountain educational institutions took part in staging frolicking folk games; boys and girls from Homeplace Settlement School danced "sugar on the floor" and other folk dances.

The chanting, folk dancing and ballad singing had the "outsiders" gasping in astonishment, and one frequently heard the remark, "I have never witnessed anything like it... I wish everyone could see and hear them." Among the most interested spectators in the crowd of several hundred were four members of the station's board of directors, Dr. Thomas P. Cooper, acting president of the University of Kentucky, Judge E. C. O'Rear, Frankfort; C. N. Manning and T. W. Rainey, Lexington.

IT'S BEST TO BE DEAD SURE

A lot of automobile accidents are caused by drivers who misjudge distance in passing. Such accidents usually are serious, because the cars involved are traveling at high speed. Always be sure you have plenty of room ahead before going around another car. If you are driving 50 miles an hour and you try to pass a car going 40 miles an hour it is the same as passing a row of automobiles, parked bumper to bumper, 600 feet long! In passing be dead sure the road ahead is clear. It's better to be dead sure than dead! "Better to lose a minute and save a life than to save a minute and lose a life."

Briar Buck's Scratches

The views expressed in this column are those of the writer, and not necessarily those of The Times.

WHY WORRY?

If Japan should wipe out every ignorant "chink" in China, occupy the whole of French Indo-China, and completely take over every swampy island in the Philippine group, I wouldn't care a tinker's dam. I don't have one cent invested in any of those places. I have no relations there who would be in danger. And the noise would be too far away to bother my sleep. Therefore, from a purely selfish point of view, I can see no sense in Uncle Sam rearing on his hind legs and picking a fight out of those little yellow devils just to please a few Wall Street investors.

THE "DRAW" IS FASTER

We noticed in Sunday's Courier-Journal that a new speed record for trying murder cases had been set in this county—two trials in one afternoon. That's almost as fast as the killings!

PERFECTLY SAFE

Now that October has made its appearance, I suppose we would be safe in saying that winter will soon be here. Haw, Haw, Haw—wasn't that funny!

"Ott" Archer, another one of them Dam Project fellers, says he can always tell when quittin' time comes—his tongue gets tired!

NEW GAME WARDEN

Ed Burke, Mr. Warden to you, has already earned his salary for two or three months ahead. Not only has he been taking the fish traps out of the river, but he also has visited a few homes, where traps were stored away, and destroyed the unfair fish catchers.

That's progress—and with our help he can do even more!

Expected to be called upon by the Democratic National Committee to make addresses in the interest of the party in Kentucky and near-by states is Fred Francis, Prestonsburg attorney, who last week received a letter from Edward J. Flynn, chairman of the committee.

THE TIMES ENDORSES

1. Immediate completion of the Left Beaver, Middle Creek and Johns Creek road.
2. Consideration by officials of human needs, not the need for political influence.
3. Completion of all Farm-to-Market roads, by W. P. A. labor if possible, maintenance of these routes by the state rural road fund.
4. A trade-at-home policy followed by merchants and customers alike.
5. Full co-operation with all county and city officials, insisting that lawmakers and enforcement officers themselves obey the law to the letter.
6. Continuance of the Floyd county health department and the county agricultural agent work.

MORE BREATHITT COUNTIANS NEEDED

The Good Earth—it must all be in Floyd county! Unless we are misinformed, eighty-nine towns and cities of Kentucky may share in the distribution of as many airports because they found locations for such projects offered by the Civil Aeronautics Board under the national defense program.

But Prestonsburg and vicinity are not mentioned—because, we are told, the community had no land available at a reasonable price for such purposes.

Pikeville, Paintsville—both are to benefit from airport construction which will cost an estimated $180,000, each.

And there stood old Prestonsburg! Lot's wife stood as a pillar of salt because she looked backward. An automobile driver died on the railroad tracks because he didn't look forward.

What is Prestonsburg and Floyd county to do as Opportunity knocks, as the nation girds itself for defense? Will the town and county be satisfied with a minor development at Wayland only? Will Prestonsburg be unashamed as Wayland wins a reward for co-operation while the county-seat gets its "just desserts" for failing to co-operate?

It is not too late. There is yet a chance for the community to shake off its lethargy. The plan, as explained by Congressman May, remains in its tentative stages. It is up to us.

The Good Earth—God bless it! And God help us all if we think our own piece of it above our nation, our own locality and their defense and progress!

MOVE TO PIKEVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Little moved Friday from Prestonsburg to Pikeville where they are taking up permanent residence. Mr. Little has been long employed in the Anderson Department Store as manager. He is taking a position in an Anderson store in Pikeville. Mrs. Little is the daughter of the late John Huff, of Hueysville. This family was given prominent mention in Judge Charles Kerr's History of Kentucky.

Dan Kenner, Todd county negro farmer, recently added 111 acres to his farm, making a total of 300 acres in production.

Garrard county farmers have laid in supplies to cure tobacco by artificial heat.

on charges of perjury, THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES would hail as a step nearer realistic law-and-order the demand made by Circuit Judge Stephens that those "spillers of tall tales" be placed under grand jury scrutiny.

Though circumscribed by the laws of libel, THE TIMES is confident it could justly accuse an hundred more citizens of this county with swearing falsely within the last few years in order to save from the hands of justice defendants in murder trials and other cases in which major offenses had been charged.

THE TIMES lauds action against those whom the court believes guilty of perjury for several reasons.

First, perjury makes justice impossible. One defendant may escape due punishment, while another, innocent, is punished.

Second, a perjurer is as dangerous as a murderer. The slayer may take your life. But the perjurer may take not only your good name but also the good names of all those whom you hold dear.

Third, the perjurer makes of courts of justice a mockery when uncurbed. He may accuse the innocent, protect the guilty, and thus "pour down a rat-hole" all the public funds spent in trial of such cases. And so, ad infinitum . . .

Floyd county minus its perjurers, its pistol-toters, would be a county afflicted by few major crimes.

OUTLAW THE FERRETS

Why the Kentucky Legislature has not outlawed ferrets throughout the state, we do not know.

Searching the subconscious, we recall something about ferrets being necessary "varmints" in order to rid premises of rats.

Now, rats are a vermin that some kind of "varmint" should be able to eradicate. There's the human varmint as represented by us folks in towns over-run by rats. But town folks don't resort to ferrets to rid themselves of the rat plague.

It is strange, this fact that farms should harbor ferrets, while towns where rats are far more numerous get along without them.

The fact is, Conservation Officer Ed Burke and every citizen interested in that part of wildlife conservation that embraces the rabbit tribe have a compelling duty to face in the prosecution of those who harbor and use ferrets in the hunting of rabbits.

Mr. Burke also warns Floyd countians against "jumping the season" on rabbits and other game. Some blame repeating shotguns for the paucity of rabbits. But what about Kansas and other states where rabbit drives are conducted annually? They have shotguns out there, yet fail to keep the rabbit population within bounds.

Here in Floyd county, with good cover, splendid feeding grounds and dens, rabbits are sparse in hunting season. That's because some of our alleged sportsmen kill rabbits out of season; but the main cause is, they take sacks out into the fields and hills to hold the catch and let the ferrets run out of their holes every rabbit that is to be found.

These ferrets are another thing this state can get along "without." And the General Assembly should get "hep" to the situation, some time.

W'WRIGHT TIE IS DISPUTED

WIN FOR SCHOOL CLAIMED IN GAME

Special to The Times

Wheelwright, Ky., Sept. 30—Though the game goes into the record books as a 13-13 tie, you'll never convince local fans that their team didn't defeat St. Charles, Va., here Saturday afternoon.

The officials are being scored a "boner," since they denied one Wheelwright extra point when the ball was carried across the goal line, then fumbled.

Early in the first quarter, Cordell, Wheelwright's powerhouse fullback, scored on a 55-yard end run, Bowe plunging through the line for the extra point. In the second quarter Martin scored the team's second marker on a pass from Skiles.

St. Charles' first score came in the second period on a short line buck. The attempt for extra point failed. Starting on the second half, the visitors' kick-off was short and they recovered, then marched down the field for a touchdown and extra point.

Wheelwright's team outgained the opposition by a wide margin, in both its running and passing attack. The punting was good on both sides, Cordell outdistancing the St. Charles kicker by a slight margin. "Jim Day" Mosley, Wheelwright center, spent a large part of the afternoon in the St. Charles backfield and climaxed his work by blocking a punt with his nose. Martin, quarterback and captain, was a power in the Wheelwright running attack, in the second half making four first downs in as many tries. Manley, end, was a mainstay on defense.

A large crowd saw the game. Officials were Roark (Prestonsburg), Shuey (Pt. Wayne, Ind.), and Malone (Grayson).

Dawahare, backfield prospect, who has been out for three weeks with a broken arch, and Smith, first string guard, who also has been on the hospital list, are both out for practise again.

Pike County Woman

Funeral rites were conducted from the home last Thursday, with the Revs. Martin Banks and Jesse Hampton officiating. Burial was made in the family cemetery at Hartley, with the Ryan Funeral Home directing.

Local Company 'Hits' Strong Gas Well

The Spears lease on Home Branch of Buffalo, Johns Creek, Monday yielded a "local" company composed of Circuit Judge Henry Stephens, Jr., Commonwealth's Attorney John Allen, County Clerk A. B. Meade and Lawrence Keathley its second strong gas well within the last three months. The well was gauged at 1,650,000 cubic feet in the Big Lime, and no acidizing necessary. It is within 2,600 feet of the first well drilled in by the group on Home Branch, three months ago. Well No. 1 registered approximately the same volume but was acidized.

BLACKCATS BOW TO FLEMING

START IS GOOD, ENDING, SAD, ON GRIDIRON

After scoring two touchdowns within the first four minutes of play Saturday night under the arc-lights at Fleming, the Prestonsburg Blackcats folded, both offensively and defensively, finally losing out under the most distressing circumstances, 13-12.

The distressing conditions, according to reports filtering back into Prestonsburg via fans who claim to have been eyewitnesses, include alleged intimidation of the Prestonsburg players. These reports say Fleming fans got out of control at the half, threatened certain Prestonsburg players and pelted some of them with rocks. Coach Hyden had "nothing to say" about the matter.

More distressing yet was the injury of Blackburn, stellar lineman, who was out of the game from midway the second quarter. He will be able to play, if his presence is necessary, in the Belfry-Prestonsburg game at Belfry Friday afternoon, Coach Hyden said Wednesday.

It looked like a romp for the Blackcats in that first half at Fleming as Hunter and Salisbury alternated on power plays in the first two minutes of the contest to drive 50 yards in four plays for a touchdown Hunter scoring. To make the outlook all the brighter, Bailey, burly Prestonsburg lineman kicked off over the Fleming goal line and Prestonsburg covered for another t.d., a minute or so later. Both tries for extra point were unsuccessful.

Then, in the closing minutes of the second quarter, Venters received a 50-yard pass and scampered for Fleming's first touchdown. The extra point was made. Fleming's second marker was chalked up after Prestonsburg had held for downs and Salisbury's kick from behind his own goal line was blocked by Venters who also covered the t.d.

Hunter, as usual, was a power on the offensive for Prestonsburg and his defensive play was outstanding. Salisbury, aside from his to-be-expected excellence in the kicking department, ably assisted him on the offensive. Big Sid Bailey played the best game of his high school career in the line.

Herald, who, during practise last week suffered a slashed knee from a whisky bottle somebody in his more drunken moments had carelessly left behind, was at the quarterback position but was used mainly as a blocking back.

Venters sparked the Fleming attack. Coach Hyden described him as one of the best backfield men he had seen.

FROM ASHLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Goodman, of Ashland, are visiting Mrs. Goodman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Parsley, here this week.

HUEYSVILLE

A birthday party was given in honor of Loraine Adkins, aged five, Saturday at the home of Sam Collins. Among those who attended were Benjie Collins and family, of Martin.

A few residents of this place attended church Sunday at Lackey for the Freewill Association, also others at Snaggy Association of the United Baptist Church.

Rev. Henry Parsons, of Betsy Layne, has been conducting church services here for the past few evenings.

This week marked the beginning of preparations to complete the Salt Lick road. Maybe, when this road is completed, a few more motorists will utter thanks and a few less curses, that the WPA usually gets, will be heard.

Floyd county's airport may be at Wayland. Let's drive it home once more, Mr. Editor, this county can't lay down and say, "Let them do it." For a part of the citizens must stand ready and willing to assist in some way.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hopson and son, James David, have been spending their vacation at different points in West Virginia, visiting relatives.

Funeral services for Wash Miller, prominent Middle Creek farmer who succumbed to a heart attack at the Prestonsburg General hospital Sept. 22, were conducted from the home Tuesday of last week, with the Revs. Alex Stephens and Roscoe Lemaster officiating. Burial was made near his home.

The victim, who was 57 years old, had been suffering from high blood pressure for the past year, and was admitted to the hospital about a week before his death. He had been a member of the United Baptist Church for 19 years.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Jane Risner Miller; four sons, Thomas Miller, Garrett; Jack Miller, a student at Eastern State Teachers' College, Richmond; Fred and Amos Miller, of Magoffin county; five daughters, Mrs. Bill Shepherd, Lancer; Mrs. James Whitaker, Mrs. Sess Moore and Mrs. James Owens, all of Colie, and Mrs. Joe McKenzie, of Magoffin county; one sister, Mrs. Kate Holbrook, McGuffey, O., and one brother.

Court Raps Perjurors

authorities of the present school system in Floyd county had spent school funds for purposes other than school needs; but, due to the limitation of time, we were unable to make an investigation of these charges and we recommend that said matter be continued for investigation by future grand juries."

The jury added that "We believe that public officials should be very careful in the handling and spending of public funds."

All public buildings were found in a "well-kept and good condition," except that part of the courthouse devoted to the county courtroom, repair of which was urgently advised. The Sheriff, other officers and reporters whose duties included aid to the grand jury in its work were lauded for their co-operation.

The 12 named on perjury charges are:

Bill Hall, Jim Manns, James Sanders, Theron Thacker, C. D. Ford, Bridgett Kelly, Ballard Johnson, Perry Green, Jack Manns, Leander Manns, Aaron Allen and A. H. Green. All except Hall, whose bond was placed at $2,000, were required to execute $5,000 for their release.

FLOYD MAN, 66, ARRESTED IN 43-YEAR-OLD SLAYING

NEIGHBOR REPORTS ESTEP TO WEST VIRGINIA AUTHORITIES

A 66-year-old Floyd countian who served in the Spanish-American War was charged at Williamson, W. Va., Wednesday with a slaying that occurred in 1897. Lafe B. Chafin, Mingo county prosecutor, said that George Estep, of near Printer, "talked freely" of the forty-three-year-old fatal shooting of Green "Bock" Brewster.

Estep was arrested at his home by Deputy Sheriffs Hicks, of this county, and Henry Reid and J. L. Akers, of Mingo county, and readily agreed to accompany the West Virginia officers back across the state line.

The long-forgotten slaying was revived, said Chafin, when a neighbor of Estep wrote to him several weeks ago and the letter started him digging into court files.

20 From County At Mayo School

The number of students enrolled in the Mayo State Vocational School has been noticeably increased over that of last year. Out of a total of 112, Floyd county has the following enrolled:

Carsey V. Kidd, Harold; Roy Allen, Hueysville; Delbert Slone, Garrett; Herschell W. Begley, Langley; Dewey Allen, Prestonsburg; William Burchett, Prestonsburg; Carl Cecil Subleit, Lackey; Joe Taylor Begley, Langley; Anna Jean Bingham, Prestonsburg; Albert Hammond, Prestonsburg; William May, Garrett; Charles Holbrook, West Prestonsburg; Clarence Holbrook, West Prestonsburg; Gordno Rice, Prestonsburg; Woodrow Spradlin, Prestonsburg; Paul Daniels, Auxier; Daniel Wreman, Auxier; Woodrow Allen, Langley; Carl Wise, Wayland; Ward Hall, Prestonsburg.

"It seems that Estep had some difficulty with a neighbor recently," Chafin recalled, "and the neighbor quoted Estep as saying 'I once killed a man in Mingo county.'"

Brewster was shot to death in June, 1897, two years after Mingo county was formed.

Estep fled into Kentucky, Chafin said, leaving behind a young wife and child who never knew what became of him.

Chafin quoted Estep as saying that he enlisted for service in the Spanish-American War under the name of "Milton Pickles." He later married again and became the father of 13 children, the prosecutor added.

The case will be presented to the Mingo county grand jury October 7, Chafin said.

PRESTONSBURG IN 1910--WITH HITCH-

The camera looked down on Prestonsburg "from behind" in this picture, taken 10 years after the Prestonsburg shown on this page last week was photographed.

Familiar landmarks are that steeped building at the left, the Presbyterian Church (but the "country lane" that ran past it is now a paved street), and that arched bit of white left background, the old bridge of the days when folks came to Prestonsburg only by train if they didn't want to walk or straddle a hoss.

A SHOPPERS' PARADISE . . .

It will be Fall and no mistake about it the next time you make a shopping tour—the merchants of Prestonsburg are prepared as never before to meet your requirements. Their windows sparkling with the newest styles and fall colors take window shopping out of the routine into a gala affair.

If it is a new coat . . . your own taste is the only limitation in the array of the new Autumn numbers. The collection includes camel's hair and tweeds in abundance.

And Autumn means suit-weather for weeks on end. No other costume is so smartly keyed to the brisk feeling of this season as an elegant Fall suit.

What will you have in millinery? Whatever exciting Fall millinery trend you prefer it's sure to await you here.

If it's something new in men's apparel—if it's according to the dictates of fashion and good taste, the merchants of Prestonsburg have it.

For the young man—freshman, sophomore, junior, senior—whatever his status there is a fall outfit for him that's a "Pip."

The young lady really comes into her own in Junior Misses styles this season and there is something especially enchanting in the way of new evening frocks ready to step out blithely at a moment's notice.

If you want to brighten up the corner of the home with the very latest in a new dining room suite, bed room suite, . . . odd chair—in fact to furnish a new home complete or re-furnish the old—you'll find it in Prestonsburg.

SHIKE'S POKES

(Views expressed in this column are those of the writer and not necessarily those of The Times.)

The "Gallup Poll" keeps galloping along. Does anybody know what happened to the Fortune Poll? W. Winchell explained what happened to it. Sad but true.

Wonder what's happened to Brad Boyd? The Loud Speaker truck didn't take him off, did it?

Ben H. Says that Herb and Edd are now Coal Operators—"The Big Dirt Elkhorn." He says Herb is the Mine Foreman and Edd the store manager and office man.

Conspicuous by their presence at the Warco coon chase—Henry Campbell, Wayland; Roe Turner and Hob Stumbo, Minnie; Frank Neesley, Prestonsburg; Clark May—nealing he will register for the draft; Oscar P. Bond with his artillery; all types, models and colors of coon hounds—in fact, so wide was the range of coon hounds that "Cob" Turner almost entered one race. Conspicuous by his absence: Sam Isbell, the trick-shot artist.

Cecil Wessel is a hero in my book—he almost got his German. I'm just sorry he didn't.

Ted still griping about something I said. Ho, hum! Some fellows being sore over "mistaken identity."

I'm just wondering if the Fortune Magazine will publish their straw vote poll like Winchell says it is or will it go under like the Literary Digest?

Wayne—griping, too—but that's natural.

Saw the Squire out last week—without his baseball suit.

Harmon T. has been aptly named the "Flying Red Horse." It is claimed that he outran a taxi from Drift to Martin—afoot, too!

The "Green Hornet" will be given a regular braking job after two more lessons. He learns fast and is a whiz at putting on wrecks. He carries a "Jumper" in each car.

Levi reports that Clarence could win any jitterbug contest with the steps he was using about 11 o'clock the other night to keep the baby quiet.

The "Chunk" took a fishing trip last week-end. We haven't any definite reports—but it must have been a success. He stayed 24 hours and was using "grubs" for bait.

SHERIFF'S SALE

By virtue of a judgment directed to me, which issued from the Clerk's office of the Floyd Circuit Court, in favor of Irene Bralley and against J. P. Price, I or one of my deputies will, on Monday, October 7, 1940, at 1 o'clock p. m., at Bruce Wiley's Garage, Martin, Ky., expose to public sale to the highest and best bidder, on a credit of three months, with bond of approved surety, the following described property, viz:

One 1937 Model Chrysler Sedan Automobile, Model C-16. Amount to be made by said sale is $120.00, interest and cost.

This the 12th day of September, 1940.

KIDNEY STAGNATION IS WORSE THAN CONSTIPATION!

Because We Treat Constipation at the Onset, While We Neglect Our Kidneys Indefinitely.

No other organ in your body is of more importance than your kidneys. For in your kidneys there are nine million tubes which must work day and night to filter the fluids and keep the system free from wastes, acids, poisons which, if permitted to remain, may cause serious kidney and bladder troubles.

It is no wonder then that Nature often calls for help to clean out the kidneys. So if you are troubled with Getting-Up-Nights, Leg Pains, Backache, Nervous Headache, Dizziness or Loss of Energy, due to functional kidney disorders, try KIDANS, the famous kidney remedy, which aids Nature to flush out the kidneys, to filter all wastes, to prevent kidney stagnation.

KIDANS is Safe and Reliable. Thousands report entire satisfaction. Taken according to directions, KIDANS will give splendid results. Try KIDANS. Buy it at our Special Price Offer on two boxes. Use one box. If not satisfied, return unopened box and GET YOUR MONEY BACK.

If your local druggist cannot supply you, send $1.00 to The Kidans Company, Atlanta, Georgia, for two full-size boxes on a money-back guarantee.

They are accusing me and Orville of being awfully bad to lose things. We even lost a 50 ton railroad car, the other night.

Reports come from the Hardware in Martin that The Briarback was lost the other morning until Gardez heard him snoring.

I just wonder if Martin Hunter wants any more of them "purple fall bean" seed. They must be some growers—he reports that they almost choked his corn to death.

The little Abner of Drift, Ky.—Jim Sammons.

T. H. Fife, of The Pike County News, should have been a G-man. He is ferreting out the "German Sympathizers" in this section. More power to you—my friend.

One of the highwaymen up on Left Beaver reported that he was really surprised at the amount of traffic on Left Beaver. He says you can block the road for 10 minutes and you have a string of cars and trucks out of sight in either direction.

Mary says that she can't even keep a little medicine around the house when Porter, Roy and Ben are around.

Chick reports that the badge he was wearing didn't mean anything, that he was of the opinion "Two Good Terms Deserve Another."

Hedge will freeze to death this winter if he doesn't stop losing his clothes.

Lum thinks a lot of me—he even writes me on flour "pokes." Beef-Head reports that he was putting up some pitiful begging, early Sunday morning.

That Wheelwright football team is coming right along. For a first-year team—they have plenty on the ball.

Guy Taylor is out looking for a radio program to advertise his dairy. Seems as though he is in business in a big way.

Aside to Woodrow H.—that's an awful long walk on a dark and cold night.

The showing of the movie, "Boom-Town," really made a boom-town out of Martin over the week-end.

Wayne and Dan with them safety hats and them so short—reminds one of terrapins hunting water.

If "Salad's" newspaper business keeps picking up he will have to rent Esaw's bicycle.

Walter Winchell in debunking the political propaganda has no peer in my estimation—ten words spoken by him makes Frank Kent and "Poggun" Lawrence look like an accident going somewhere to happen.

Well, from the looks of things them little slit-eyed yellow fellows are itching for a scrap—scrap iron. We have learned our lesson about appeasement from France—so let's put them in their place. We all know they can't fight—they have been trying to whip China with a mechanized army for three years and they haven't succeeded and all the Chinese have to fight with is bamboo poles. Hitler only wants them to draw our attention so we won't aid Britain so much. We will just let the Beaver Creek boys go over and clean up the mess—that's all it would take—and, by the way, it has been over 60 days since Hitler said he only wanted one more month to finish Great Britain. I still stick to my story that Great Britain will be the eventual winner. Those news-reels of Hitler rubbing his neck when he is speaking to his people—maybe he knows the noose is near. Wonder what's happened to Lindbergh? He must be out campaigning.

Another new member of the midnight bottle warmers' club is Joe Howell.

Things that were conspicuous by their absence in Martin Sunday morning were the "barber shop quartette" and the Hardware steps "round robin."

Wanted—one carload of cats and, to quote "Cob" Turner, they are sorely needed in Texas, California and Yonkers, N. Y. For particulars apply to Cob.

Walter Messinger says that, since they have gone to making hose out of coal, the loaders will be drawing for "the pair" instead of the ton before long.

Fred Cochrane has gone into the store business—but he will never get rich, for his hand is too small to weigh much.

Then pains that the R.E.A. is giving the Kentucky West Virginia Power Company that "Erier Buck" spoke about is just the plain "belly-ache" in my language. More power to the R.E.A.

Here's hoping that railroad up Middle Creek materializes.

Sam Fraley has got his other rib back—here's hoping all your troubles will be "little ones."

team was given an elaborate write-up on the front page after losing to Ashland, 31-0, while Wheelwright was barely mentioned on page 8 after playing a much better team than Ashland (Fleming was rated in C.J. as the fifth best team in the state) and holding them to only 12 points in the first game ever played by a Floyd county team other than P'burg.

Then, just to make these "greetings of the season" complete and ourselves also carry out the "men-of-good-will" idea, I'm taking the liberty of having a word or two to say about this matter, towitless:

Since you speak of Page 1 as being just too, too devoted to Prestonsburg, let's take a squint at the page and see how right or wrong you are. In that space are an even dozen news-stories and the courthouse news. This courthouse news surely can't be classed as Prestonsburg news, so we'll skip it in these figures. And of the 12 other stories exactly THREE are Prestonsburg "items"—unless you want to call the story about the County Fair something about Prestonsburg.

You're also wrong about Wheelwright being the only Floyd county school, other than Prestonsburg, to have football on its athletic program. If memory serves me right, Martin played football for two seasons.

That being disposed of, my dear young gridster, let me tell you why THE FLOYD County Times did not have the story of your splendid showing against Fleming that would have taken as much space and occupied as prominent a position as did the Prestonsburg-Ashland story. First of all your coach (one of my best friends) did not supply the details to us. And we—oh, unhappy us!—just can't be omniscient and know these things ourselves. Next, a story, well-written and giving your line-up, arrived too late for publication. Lastly, that story about your game happened to fit a hole on Page 8—and, if you know make-up men, you can guess the rest.

Brother, I'm a Beaver Creeker myself; and, while your interest in your team naturally is more intense than mine, I'm going to claim for myself, right here, a deeper and a more abiding interest in the county outside of Prestonsburg than you have.

No, I'm not sore, and I don't think you're deeply offended. I think we'll get along better, all the time. I believe you'll find THE FLOYD County Times stringing right along with you as far as you will let it.

In conclusion, I'm going to risk drawing down your wrath again by reminding you that, if Wheelwright were the FLOYD county town that THE FLOYD County Times is, everybody, except Pike countians, would be happier.

GOD BLESS AMERICA— WE NEED HIM

Yeah, I suppose THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES lacks that broad outlook sported by the dailies. (Maybe that's why we're weakly.)

But THE TIMES casts aside all that doctrine of "free speech-free press" in its praise of radio station WCKY, Cincinnati, for refusing Earl Browder, Communist, time over that station to spew a nationwide broadcast of un-American doctrine.

Free speech and a free press, my eye! Turn our newspapers and our radio stations over to Earl Browder, Adolph Hitler and their like—and see where that splendid tradition of freedom goes!

WCKY not only did not grant Comrade Browder, who admits that he takes orders from Moscow, free time over its station. It refused to take pay for the time he will waste for it.

"The Communist party," says L. B. Wilson, owner of the station, "has not enough money, nor can it ever have enough, to buy one minute of time on WCKY for use in endeavoring to insinuate anti-American doctrine into American minds."

Those radiophones which have chosen to let precedent rule them, which have been bound down by the golden rule of "Free Speech, Free Press," while that very rule has been turned against them as an evil fetish—they will let Earl Browder, Stalin's disciple now under conviction for passport fraud, aid and comfort America's enemies over the airlines on October 10—less than a week before all the millions of America's youth are registered for military service to defend this land and all its institutions against anything Earl Browder & Company would inflict upon us.

What irony! And what fools we mortals be!

present world conditions. "As a result of our last Roll Call we have been able to raise our membership to 7,100,000, the highest in the peace-time history of the Red Cross," he said.

"We have been equally successful in raising a war relief fund of $20,000,000."

"We are now making plans for the next Roll Call," said Mr. Davis. "Once more we face grave responsibilities. Services to our own people must be greatly expanded."

"To meet the rapidly growing needs of our national defense:

"We are enlarging our services for the men of an increased army and navy.

"We must materially increase the enrollment of Red Cross nurses.

"We must train hundreds of thousands of additional First Aiders to meet the needs growing out of the new national defense program, as well as the everyday demands for this service.

"We must be prepared to train many thousands more women in home hygiene and care of the sick, in order to be ready for any emergency.

"We must mobilize the strength of a great army of willing volunteers dedicated to unselfish service to others.

"We must point the way to an increased program of service for eight million eager Juniors.

"It is only through Roll Call that our chapters and the national organization can finance this increasing program. With this responsibility in view, we must not be satisfied with setting any national goal for membership short of enrolling every American under the banner of the Red Cross in the coming Roll Call."

Ramone S. Eaton, Eastern Area director of the Roll Call, will discuss Red Cross preparedness for national defense at the regional conferences in Kentucky.

Representatives from the State's 138 chapters are expected to attend the meetings which were begun September 30 at Henderson and will end October 15 at Fulton. Other conference sites and dates: Bowling Green, October 1; Shelbyville, October 3; Mt. Sterling, October 4. A conference also will be held at Somerset at a date to be announced later.

Two eyewitnesses testified for the Commonwealth that they saw Dillow fire as Creed Newsome watched the impending trouble between Caleb and Taulbee Newsome. Creed Newsome fell with a bullet wound behind his ear. Dillow admitted that he drew his revolver but denied firing. Dillow contended his revolver was of 38 calibre and it was established that Creed Newsome was killed by a 32-calibre bullet. Dillow's revolver was not produced in court, however.

Trial of Alvis Newsome, also charged with murder in the same killing, was continued till January 17.

Another development in the case was the indictment last week of Noah Newsome and Hatler Akers, charged with aiding and assisting in the slaying of the Newsomes.

Trial of Lincoln Gibson, charged with murder in the slaying of his brother of Middle Creek, was slated for today (Thursday). Hearing of testimony in the trial of Bordie Amburgy in the killing of two at Wheelwright, a few weeks ago, was being concluded Wednesday as THE TIMES was published.

Donald Nettles was acquitted Friday following hearing on a charge of detaining a woman.

Colonel May was convicted Monday of child desertion and given a one-year pen term. The murder charge against Ray Powell in the slaying of Sherman Hunt at Tram was dismissed on the grounds that evidence was insufficient to convict. Trial of Jake Salisbury was continued till January 18.
