BULLET TESTS MAY SOLVE MYSTERY

STATE PATROLMEN JOIN IN PROBE OF SLAYING

The science of ballistics was being depended upon this week as an aid to the solution of the mystery-assassination at Garrett on the night of June 15 of Policeman Jerry Lee.

Commonwealth's Attorney John Allen and County Attorney Harry R. Burke were joined in the probe by Major Joe Burman and Capt. Mulberry of the Kentucky Highway Patrol.

The investigation switched from Garrett, scene of the killing, to Wayland, five miles away, where a high-powered rifle of the same calibre as that with which Lee was killed was reclaimed after having disappeared. Commonwealth's Attorney Allen said. A bullet fired from the weapon will be compared with the bullet which passed through the policeman's body.

Investigators this week continued questioning of Garrett and Wayland residents but gained no information of real value, they said.

Governor Silent

Commonwealth's Attorney Allen said that he had received no reply from Governor Keen Johnson after transmitting to him by wire a copy of the Floyd fiscal court's offer of a reward of $250 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of Lee's slayer. It was expected, the official added, that the state would match the reward posted by the county.

The state officials were expected to return here after a trip to another county to check on former ownership of the rifle. The ballistics tests will be made in Louisville.

The rifle in question was returned from Mill Creek, near Wayland, to officers after it had been taken from a Wayland restaurant, a few days after the slaying of Lee.

180 REGISTER AS CANDIDATES

MIDNIGHT THURSDAY, FINAL DEADLINE, IS RULING

One hundred eighty candidates had registered at the County Clerk's office here for positions on the August primary ballot and the total was expected to go higher before midnight today (Thursday) deadline for registration.

Although candidates were jockeying for political advantage for all they were worth as the deadline approached, only three withdrawals had been made up till Thursday morning.

Some doubt was expressed here as to the actual registration deadline, some holding that Wednesday midnight marked the final date at which candidates could officially file and be within the 30 days before election rule. But officials here acted under the limit fixed at Frankfort, it was said, and filing will continue till tonight at 12.

The lucrative Jailer's office attracted 25 candidates—19 Democrats and six Republicans—for the largest field in the countywide races, but in the four Magisterial districts of the count 45 filed for Constable.

Number filed for other offices follows:

County Judge—6 Democrats and 2 Republicans; Sheriff—6 Democrats, 4 Republicans; County Attorney—3 Democrats, 2 Republicans; County Clerk—5 Democrats, 2 Republicans; Representative—5 Democrats, 1 Republican; Tax Commissioner—3 Democrats, 1 Republican; Coroner—7 Democrats, 1 Republican; Magistrate in four districts—43 Democrats, 18 Republicans.

In addition to these, there are 30 candidates for town offices at McDowell, Wayland, Wheelwright, Martin and Lackey.

FISCAL COURT EYES CLAIMS

LOAN OF $80,000 TO BE SOUGHT FROM BANKS

The Floyd fiscal court's first session of the new fiscal year began Tuesday and continued into Wednesday as the court was faced with the task of considering a long list of claims, some of which were months old.

To pay claims allowed under the 1941-42 fiscal year budget, the court Tuesday adopted a resolution authorizing the borrowing of $40,000 from the Bank Josephine and $40,000 from the First National Bank at an interest rate of four per cent. The loans are to be secured by 12-month notes against the county's revenue for the 1941-42 fiscal year.

During Tuesday's session the court, after paying Prestonsburg Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, rent on the WPA school quarters in the Odd Fellows' building here, directed that no further rent be paid for the rooms.

FOR COUNTY COURT CLERK

Z. S. (Dick) DICKERSON

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

Like many of you who will read this, I am obliged to work for a living. I work six days a week, and for this reason may not have the opportunity of meeting all of you before the election. I mention this, so that you will understand the circumstances under which I am making this race.

I do not appeal to you for your support solely on the grounds that I need the office, though my election would relieve me of heavy financial burdens. I ask your support, rather, on the grounds that I am a life-long Democrat of never-failing loyalty and am qualified to make Floyd county a good County Court Clerk.

Ask those who know me—ask about my character, my willingness to be of help to others, my understanding of the problems of others. Then decide for yourselves who most deserves the office and who will serve you best.

PROCLAMATION

Due to the large crowd expected in town tomorrow for the Fourth celebration, traffic will be seriously congested. A crowd of six or eight thousand Floyd countians living outside of Prestonsburg is anticipated. Parking space will be a problem for the police department.

In the hope of lightening this burden on the police and offering the truest hospitality and comfort to those who will be our guests for the day, it is sincerely urged that owners of cars in the city kindly leave their automobiles at home on this one glorious day.

The Council will co-operate with the national council appointed by President Roosevelt. All interested citizens are urged to attend the meeting.

Assisting Board 44 officials here in the registration were Mrs. E. H. Sowards and Mrs. Eula Branham. Board 45 officials conducted the registration at the office here for registrants in the lower section of the county but were assisted at Martin by Monroe Wicker, Dr. G. C. Collins and Gardez Dingus, at Wheelwright by Kenneth B. Deal, Herbert Smith, Curtis Blair and A. L. Hall, and at Wayland by Ira Francis, L. P. Martin and Boone Hall.

BOARD ORDERS CHANGES

IN SCHOOL PLANTS AT COW CREEK, PROGRESS

Removal of one room of the mouth of Cow Creek school to Frasure's Creek and the one-room Progress school to Bosco was authorized by the Floyd County Board of Education at its meeting Tuesday.

Reduction of space at Cow Creek was made possible, since older students of the school will go to Allen. The Progress school was eliminated with the addition of the district to Martin. The Progress building will be re-constructed on the Bosco school grounds.

All school bus drivers, with the exception of those to serve the Wheelwright - Weeksbury circuit, were employed at a salary of $50 a month, their employment to be contingent from month to month on their efficiency in bus operation. The drivers also will be required to procure certificates in First Aid before entering upon their duties with the consolidated schools in September.

Bus drivers employed are: Wayland circuit—Harold Bailey; Maytown-Garrett circuit—Rhomer Osborne for first semester, Lafayette Gayheart, second semester; Martin—Jack Allen; McDowell—Stallard Clark; Betsy Layne—John Stumbo, Mud Creek, Arnold Robinette for first semester, Edward Blankenship, second semester; Prestonsburg circuit—Alvin Taylor, Russell Laven for first semester, Otis Wright, second semester. The Wheelwright-Weeksbury drivers were not employed because of the absence of Dr. Dewey Osborne, board member from that division.

HERE FROM TEXAS

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Browning, of Amarillo, Texas, arrived Tuesday for a visit with relatives here following a Canadian trip. They left Thursday afternoon.

'Better Call Doctor,' Was Man's Advice, Woman Says

When Cecil Green flourished a revolver inside her West Prestonsburg home Sunday, Mrs. Josephine Campbell Wallen threatened to "call the law." "You'd better call a doctor," Green replied, Mrs. Wallen told relatives.

His bullet passed through the woman's thigh and imbedded itself in her other leg, Mrs. Wallen is recovering at the Prestonsburg General hospital.

Green was arrested shortly after the shooting by Deputy Sheriff Tom James, Policemen Ep Laferty, Arthur Blackburn and Albert Horn. He claimed the shooting was accidental. Officers said Green had been drinking.

Open-Air Services To Begin Sunday

First of a series of preaching services scheduled for each Sunday evening during July and August will be held Sunday night on the grounds of Prestonsburg high school. The service will begin at 7 p. m., with old-fashioned hymn-singing, and will end with a sermon at 8 p. m.

Each minister in Prestonsburg will be asked to preach at different times during July and August. The Rev. Campbell Jeffries will speak Sunday evening. This community worship period is being sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Prestonsburg.

BIRTH OF DAUGHTER

Announcement is made of the birth on June 24 at Huntington Memorial hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Riffe, Prestonsburg, of a daughter, their second child. The babe has been christened Grayce Lou.

Leslie Will Win For County Clerk

EDWARD B. LESLIE is Qualified. He is Young, Able, Efficient, Courteous, Accommodating and Deserving. This is his first time to ask for the office.

When elected, he will not try to become a rich man out of the office, but will receive for his services only the amount allowed by law. He is vigorously opposed to any man who uses a public office to make a fortune at the expense of the Taxpayers. He believes that no man should ask the people for a "deed" to an office. Do you, as a Citizen, believe that there is only one man qualified for the Clerk's Office? Don't you think that there are many people in Floyd County who are well qualified to hold office if given an opportunity?

You Fathers and Mothers are making many sacrifices in order to educate your children. Some day they will be asking for their first job just as Edward B. Leslie is asking for this office for the first time. Are we going to give jobs only to those who are rich and powerful? Are we going to elect people to office and if they accumulate a fortune then say, "Well, that man can't be defeated because he has too much money."

As Citizens, Taxpayers and Voters, let's be fair and face the facts. Do we believe that we should keep a man in office for a lifetime when there are others just as well or better qualified? Let's not deceive ourselves. We have a secret ballot. The citizen has the privilege of voting as he pleases. He does not have to fear anyone. This is America—not Germany. We, as Free Voters, have a right to change our public officials. Don't you think it's TIME for a CHANGE in the County Court Clerk's Office? No man is so rich or so powerful that he cannot lose. In a DEMOCRACY it is the PEOPLE themselves who have the Real Power and on August 2 they will use this power to nominate EDWARD B. LESLIE for COUNTY COURT CLERK.

MINERS TOLD TO IGNORE WORK SIGNS

VACATION PERIOD IN THIS SECTION BEGINS TODAY

United Mine Workers of America throughout this section went on vacation Thursday morning in the face of work signs posted by operators, it was said here.

The workers were instructed by union officials to ignore work signs. Sam Caddy, Lexington, president of District 30, U.M.W.A., said Monday that the matter of vacations for miners "is no longer being discussed as an issue" in contract negotiations.

The vacation period ends July 8, but unless the Southern operators sign the proposed two-year contract on or before July 7, work will not be resumed. Only the Harlan field has refused to accede to union demands in completing contract negotiations, and operators of that section were in a parley at Lexington with union officials Thursday, it was said here.

In the Hazard field miners warned they would be subject to contract penalties of $2 a day for every day they did not work when "work signs" were posted.

"As far as we are concerned," said J. R. Hurt, superintendent of the Sandy Valley Coal Company at Water Gap, near here, "we are still working under the old contract, plus wage increases demanded." He added that the agreement reached, April 30, between union officials and the Southern operators, under which work was resumed in this field, specified in the 1939 contract which expired March 31 is to remain in effect with the exception of wage tonnage rate increases, with vacation period provided.

ARRIVE FOR VISIT

Mrs. Walter Vanlandingham, Miss Joy Gibson and Grover Howard, son of Mrs. Vanlandingham, arrived this week from Miami, Fla., for a month's visit with Mrs. Josie D. Harkins. En route, they visited her son, Walter L. Harkins, at Galveston, Texas, and Vanlandingham's daughter and in Houston and Galveston.

To the Democratic Voters Of Floyd County

After consulting with a host of my friends in dear, old Floyd county, I became a candidate seeking the nomination for Jailer of Floyd county. Being a poor man and having a strong ambition to serve the people of Floyd county as a public officer, I ran two years ago for Circuit Court Clerk and lost by a small margin, I feel by so many of my friends requesting me to be a candidate this year if I can win in the August primary I can win in November.

So, kind friends, while you journey through dangers of life and its unseen future, I hope and sincerely trust that a kind providence may always smile upon you. None of us know when nor where we may need assistance. But if fortune has been more kind to you than to me, please help me all you can to cast a ray of sunshine on my sad and gloomy pathway. Your aid will be thankfully received and wisely used so that I will be self-supporting and not a burden on my fellowman. So when you come out on August 2 to vote, please let your good conscience direct you how you should vote.
Your friend in need,
BILL SHEPHERD for Jailer

FOR JAILER

We are authorized to announce UNCLE GEORGE MEADE of Amba, Ky., as a candidate for JAILER OF FLOYD COUNTY subject to the action of the Democratic party at the August, 1941 primary.

A man who has braved the battles of life for his friends, and Democracy, and who has never asked for public favor.

I now ask my relatives and many friends to support me in this race for jailer of Floyd county. A man who is just and deserving. I am taking this opportunity to thank you for the many past favors, and for your vote on August 2, which I am sure you will contribute.

How well I succeeded, you people of this county know best. If elected again, I promise you exactly the same kind of honest, efficient, sympathetic service in behalf of you taxpayers.

I will not only visit your home or place of business and take your list, but I will also work conscientiously with the board of supervisors in making the assessment adjustments.

WOODROW BURCHETT

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I hereby announce my candidacy for the Republican nomination for the office of Sheriff of Floyd county.

During the World War I served my country as a soldier in France, have mined coal for five years, and during the past three and one-half years I have worked for the present Sheriff as deputy. During this time there have been a great many homicides in Floyd county, and so far we have caught, or assisted in catching, every man wanted on a warrant for the killing of his fellow man. My record is open for your inspection.

Nominate me and I will win in November. Your vote and influence will be appreciated. A fair deal to every one is my promise to the peo-

To the Unions of Floyd County:

Having been a coal digger in the past and a day laborer, and sympathizing with any man who makes his living by daily toll, I have been interested upon learning recently that the various hospitals have agreed to raise your dues from $1.50 to $2.00, which is 33 1-3 per cent increase—very large increase when you think about it.

It seems to me that it would be wise for the various Unions to have their dues for hospitalization checked off by the companies and paid over to their treasurer and deposited in some bank in a common fund, and when hospitalization is necessary, permit the miner or whoever he may be, to choose his own hospital and, when discharged, the treasurer would draw a check and pay the bill. This system would eliminate a continued fight in your camp as to where you should go and will eliminate a lot of dissension.

I merely write this article, that you may think it over; and if there is anything good in it, work out some plan for your own safety and we're fare.

THE NATION'S NEEDS FIRST

"CALL upon all loyal citizens to place the nation's needs first in mind and action . . . From this day until the emergency shall have passed, that is the pillar of cloud by day, the pillar of fire by night, which the American people must steadfastly follow. By this standard every act, every thought, must be judged—"the nation's needs first."

It is 24 years since the nation was called upon to think and to act so. The tumultuous twenties followed, with every man out for himself and the devil take the hindmost—with the result that the devil came perilously near getting us all. The tremulous thirties followed that, a period of bruised and bitter effort to put Humpty Dumpty together again. Now the fighting forties have roared in upon us.

It is just possible that if there had been, in the twenties, a little more thought of "the nation's needs first," the thirties would not have been so terrible. It is just possible that had the thirties known a little more of such a thought, we would have recovered faster.

Now the dark shadow of war, falling across the world and ever nearer to our own homeland, dictates with inexorable force the single policy of salvation, "The nation's needs first." What we would not do because it was wise and right, we must do now because it is our only hope of preserving all that is good in our political and social order.

Does a shipbuilder or airplane mechanic pause in his work and ask, "Can't I get a little more out of this?" The American people want him to get justice, but always—the nation's needs first.

Does a manufacturer hesitate to "farm out" much of a fat government contract, is he so reluctant to expand facilities or inclined to haggle over a profit? The American people want him to get justice, but always—the nation's needs first.

Business as usual, life as usual, these are set behind us. There is no longer any salvation, even for the most selfish, except in placing the nation's needs first in mind and action.

We used to believe that if every man looked out for his own, the common welfare would somehow take care of itself. If that ever was true, it is not true now. Today we must think of "all of us" before "myself." We all fall as individuals if our way of life fails.

Judge yourself long before others have the opportunity to judge you.

Measure every thought and act by that iron measuring rod: "The Nation's Needs First."—Ashland Daily Independent.

THE MOUNTAIN PREACHER

Perhaps in no other region has the preacher had quite so much to do with preserving the elements of culture and civilization as here in the mountains of Kentucky. Through the long years of separation from the education and developments of the Eastern colonies and the Mther Cuntry, while there were yet no mails, no newspapers, no telegraphs or telephones and when schools, such as there were, were out of the reach of many families, the preacher, or circuit rider, as he was called, was to the widely scattered frontiersmen a kind of herald, bringing when he came, some news of events in other sections of the hills and beyond their borders, like the faint echoes of places unreal and visionary. He then was looked to for advice and information of various kind, and his views as to the near future, were sought by the people of all different classes. His sermons, crude and faulty as they often were, being attempts at imitation on English sermons and speeches, carried on through those stormy periods the best that was then extant in the language and philosophy of the hills. To him mountaineers of several generations owed much fr their gifts of logic and speaking. Though often mixed with qualities that were only local, yet there were elements of classic expprsion and signs of the great oratory that played a great part in English and Irish history—echoes of Elizabethan English.

Investigation seems to prove that the early preachers of the mountains long before he building of railroads were not the inferior type some have thought. One who once lived near the Cumberland Falls was a clerk in a regiment of Kentucky Volunteer Infantry that fought with honor at Vicksburg in the Civil war and another was Lieutenant Colonel in the same regiment. Later on William E. Barton, the father of Bruce Barton, preached and taught school in a thinly settled point in Knox county. He became famous as author, served many years as pastor of a Chicago church, and taught in Vanderbilt University for a time, e could not begin to name the many speakers of talent who debated and argued with much eloquence their various doctrines back through the years that preceded the founding of colleges. One we, remembering, will add. As a young man, he began preaching in the rural churches of his country. His study later included courses in Columbia University, Harvard, Leipsic, Germany and Rome, Italy; and he served as pastor of a large church in Cleveland, O., for years. Today's mountain preachers, we hope, also are accomplishing even more than they know of for the section known as the "mountains."—The Corbin Tribune.

TO THE WOMEN OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I cannot come to you individually and ask you to vote for my husband, Virgil Osmer Turner, for County Attorney because I am an invalid. So I am writing in The Times answers to the questions I think you would ask me were I able to come to see you.

WHO IS HE?

He is a native of Floyd county, 33 years old, a son of Jack Turner, deceased, and of Laura Belle Allen, to whom many of you must have gone to school. He is a grandson of Jobe Turner and of "Uncle Newt" Allen and a great-grandson of Judge George May, the minister who used to ride circuit throughout this and adjoining counties. He is in good health and to do the work of the office. This is the first time he has been called upon for a public office.

QUALIFIED?

He is a graduate of Berea College. He has a Master's Degree in Political Science and Law from the University of Kentucky. He studied law at the University of Kentucky and Duke University Law School, paying his way through school by working and by a scholarship. He was admitted to the Kentucky Bar in 1938. He has been principal of the Maytown high school for five years and from that position has gained a widened understanding of the people of the county, their problems and needs. Much of the work of the County Attorney has to do with the handling of children who have committed crimes. For this work he specialized in school and has followed this study by working with children as school principal. Mothers, if your child comes before him, this training will help him to deal out justice and to return your child to his proper place in life.

WHY DOES HE SEEK THIS OFFICE?

He spent years in school preparing for just such a position. Government and its problems, people and their welfare have been his chief interests. The office of County Attorney is one wherein he can use his training to defend the rights of all the people, help the farmer, the laborer, the teacher, and all who want justice done.

HE IS NOT A VETERAN.

He was a small child when the last war was fought. But if he is called upon to fight for our country, as he may soon be, he will regard his service as a simple duty. We believe, AS YOU MUST, that officers must be chosen on a basis of fitness and ability if we are to have a country worth going to war to defend.

WHAT CAN WE EXPECT OF HIM IF HE IS ELECTED?

Fairness, consideration, justice, courtesy, complete honesty, intelligent and capable attention to the duties of the office. Mothers, if he is elected County Attorney you can expect that a case involving your child will be given fair and expert attention. Which of you would require more?

MRS. VIRGIL OSMER TURNER (Pol. adv.)

TIDBITS OF KENTUCKY FOLKLORE

EARLY RISING

OUR LIVES have become so complex that regular hours for everybody are no longer possible or advisable. But when most of us were farmer folk or very closely allied to them, things were different. Consequently what was the standard for a community became almost as severe as the laws of the Medes and Persians. To deviate very much from this standard meant that one was deliberately lazy.

The matter of early rising became almost a fetish. Just what was or is the correct time to rise I have never known. But the idea of getting up before the sun, even in the long days of summer, seems to have been the least that one could do. To rise, like the woman in the Proverbs, "While it is yet night," seemed to be most virtuous. Some of our neighbors regarded this in the same light as ringing the farm dinner bell one hour earlier than any one else. You could get up any time after three o'clock in the morning and see the lights on in the cottages, where the woman of the house was cooking breakfast, while out at the barn the glow showed that the man of the house was feeding the stock and milking the cows. When I taught my first school, I boarded with a farm family that always ate both breakfast and supper by lamplight. The 4.05 train used to pass while we were at breakfast. I do not know to this day when the housewife slept, for she was up washing dishes when I went to sleep and up with breakfast prepared when I awoke. The neighborhood seemed to demand this killing routine, and my landlady and landlord would have broken statute laws more quickly than neighborhood customs.

The thing that always amused and somewhat angered me when I was a farm boy was that we got up just as early when there was nothing to do as when the farm needed our every attention. On Sunday morning, when we could have had a beauty nap of several hours in length, we were roused out of our warm beds to feed the stock and eat breakfast just as if it were a morning that would see us starting with a load of tobacco to the county seat or a morning when hog-killing was the order of the day. We boys always declared that our fathers got us up earlier on the mornings after we had been to a party or had called on our girls up the creek and had thus got home late.

The strength of such social customs as early rising is much greater than that of mere superstitions. I have never known a superstition that was believed by a whole neighborhood; some skeptic would laugh at it and live to tell the story. But hundreds of these same brave souls were afraid to dare social custom by staying in bed after sunrise, or serving any kind of breakfast except the standardized one of the community or having meals at times other than at the foreordained and predestinated hours. A dinner served in the evening would have branded the woman doing such a rash thing as either affected by Northern novels or as showing signs of mental decay. It just was not done in respectable families.

Former Floyd Man Dies In Ashland In 90th Year

Wilson Hayes, 89 years old, former Floyd county resident, died Friday night at the home of his son, Detective Claude Hayes, of the Ashland police department. Death followed an illness of a week.

The body was taken to Jones Fork where funeral rites were conducted at the graveside in the Hayes cemetery Sunday.

Letter From London Thanks Red Cross For Its Aid

Floyd Chapter, American Red Cross, is in receipt of the following letter from the Woman's Voluntary Services for Civil Defence, London, England, expressing the organization's appreciation for the Chapter's contributions toward the relief of those who have suffered at the hands of the German Luftwaffe:

As chairman of the WVS, I want to thank every member of your Chapter for the wonderful contributions you have sent us, for the help this has been to everyone who has suffered.

The gifts received have made it possible to assist people who have lost everything in the bombing of their homes, people who have not only lost their possessions but often members of their family as well.

While canteens given by you feed those who have been bombed, war nurseries which take in small children suffering from enemy action have been started because your Junior Branches have sent us donations. Clothing you make is issued to persons as they emerge from the horrors of being bombed. I wonder if you realize how much the fact that each individual member of you has shown self-sacrifice and understanding in your gift has helped to strengthen the courage and the determination of the recipients of what you have sent.

Every man, woman and child in this country is playing a definite part in the battle which is now raging and it is because of your help and sympathy that battle strain is less acute.

It is for this reason that as chairman of WVS, acting for the American Red Cross in matters of civilian relief in this country I thank you both on behalf of those who benefit by your generosity and of our members who have the job of handling your gifts.

at the age of 17 years and served all through the War for Independence, receiving from Virginia at different times warrants for land grants for services in the continental lines. In 1783 he was given a land grant of several hundreds of acres of land extending into what is now Eastern Kentucky for continental services until close of the war.

In 1799 Col. David Morgan, accompanied by his son, William, and his daughter, Mary and her husband, Gen. Alexander Lackey, came to Floyd county, Ky., from Patrick county, Va. Col. David Morgan was a younger brother of Gen. Daniel Morgan and served all through the Revolution, also fought in the French and Indian War with Washington, was in Arnold's expedition against Quebec in 1775-6, gained distinction at Saratoga under Gates in 1777, and who was made Brigadier General in 1780 and made history at the battle of Cowpens, S. C., in 1781. This battle was said to have been the most brilliant American victory of the war.

WHO WILL IT BE FOR SHERIFF?

Fellow taxpayers and Floyd countians, Kentucky is famed for its horse races, while Floyd county is noted for its political races. But this year in Floyd county we have a political race which resembles in a great many respects our Kentucky Horse Races.

The race referred to is the one for Sheriff between "Honest Long John" Stephens and Dr. W. L. Stumbo. In this particular race we see "Trainer" Bev Sturgill grooming his "Jockey," W. L. Stumbo, for the all-important office of Sheriff of Floyd county—while on the other hand, we see "Honest John," our former County School Superintendent, who has a clean record-book, pleading with the taxpayers of Floyd county to BEWARE OF "TRAINER BEV" AND "JOCKEY WALK."

Now, fellow taxpayers of Floyd county, with a little retrospection you can recall one of the worst political SCANDALS that ever occurred in our good county. But "Uncle Sam" was too big for the "Boys." He was so big that he gave no heed to Memorials and Petty Petitions, but suspended "Trainer Bev's" "Jockey" for "HOLDING" in the "Home Stretch." But during all this, where was "Honest Long John?" He was using his time and talent, teaching the younger generation of our county "readin', 'ritin' and 'rithmetic" and how to become better citizens.

Taxpayers, John Stephens has never given any of you bitter pills to "swallow" either politically or medically, and he has NO POLITICAL SCARS.

So, the question is—WHO WILL IT BE FOR SHERIFF? Let's NOMINATE John Stephens, who served us successfully once upon a time, as County Superintendent. Now, fellow Democrats and Taxpayers, on August 2, by voting for Honest John let's show "Trainer" Bev Sturgill, "Jockey" W. L. Stumbo, and "Trailer" Taylor our party is sick of "MOTH-EATEN" $1.98 TREASURIES, DOMINATED FISCAL COURTS, STUFFED BALLOT BOXES AND SUPERFLUOUS COUNTY CLAIMS.

So, FORWARD MARCH with John Stephens as the NOMINEE AUGUST 2, and finally in November, the winner and our next Sheriff. (Pol. adv.)

PROCLAMATION

TO THE CITIZENS OF PRESTONSBURG AND FLOYD COUNTY:

YOU ARE hereby requested to forsake other activities of the day to spend a few minutes with the President of the United States, and other loyal citizens, to rededicate ourselves to the real meaning of the Fourth of July. The Liberty that this country has enjoyed since the day of its liberation from a foreign power, when it was proclaimed to the world in 1776 that every American citizen was at liberty to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, with equality and justice to all.

May this nation continue to enjoy that liberty. And we will continue as long as a drop of blood flows through our veins regardless of any foreign potentate.

President Roosevelt will address the nation at 4 p. m., (EST) after which the United States Marine Band at Washington will play the national anthem.

Every citizen is requested to listen to this broadcast and rededicate himself to the real meaning of our liberty.

E. P. ARNOLD, Mayor

TRAVEL BULLETIN TODAY'S ROADS

Prepared By Eastern Kentucky Automobile Club

THE NATION'S CAPITAL

Washington, already one of the nation's leading travel objectives, will have two outstanding new attractions for the great army of tourists that will flock to the city on the Potomac this summer.

The memorial to Thomas Jefferson, on the banks of the tidal basin—that mirror-like body of water which many tourists remember as it is in the springtime, fringed with Japanese cherry blossoms—will not be completed until early in the summer or early autumn, but its classic design will provide a new landmark even during the present season, and will be readily visible to visitors going to and from Washington's other hundred and one attractions.

The new National Gallery of Art already has opened its doors to the public, and the public is proving its appreciation for the millions of dollars worth of art treasures housed in the rose-tinted Tennessee marble structure by taking advantage of every hour that the gallery is open to go inside and marvel at the remarkable color and detail of the Venetian school, the lavish use of gold by the earliest Italian painters, and all major highlights of the development of painting down through the centuries.

And for the frequently foot-weary tourists, the designers of the National Art Gallery (sometimes referred to as the Mellon Gallery), felt that art was to be "absorbed," rather than gawked at in passing, so comfortable settees have been provided throughout the Gallery so that visitors may be seated and drink in the details of their favorite masters.

Dedication of the Mellon Gallery on March 17 this year by President Roosevelt consummated a plan formulated by the late Andrew W. Mellon, former secretary of the treasury during the years he spent in Washington in his government post, and later announced by him in a letter to President Roosevelt in December, 1936.

In his letter, Mr. Mellon offered to build and give to the nation an art gallery, stipulating that it should not bear his name. The gift was to include his lifetime collections of paintings and sculpture, which he hoped would become the nucleus of a great national collection. The gift was accepted by act of Congress of March 24, 1937, and a site for the building along Constitution Avenue and the Mall was provided.

Some idea of the size of the building may be gathered from the fact that it is 785 feet long (the United States Capitol is 751 feet in length), and required 800 carloads of hard surface, rose-white Tennessee marble in its construction—in addition of course, to many carloads of other stone. The marble used in the building represents one of the most extensive applications of this material to any single building in the world.

"BEAR YE ONE ANOTHER'S BURDENS"

"He Cometh Forth as a Flower . . . And Withereth Like the C"

One of the richest things I learned by my World War experience and service was the complete realization of the full meaning of the above command—"Bear Ye One Another's Burdens." As precious as drinking water was on the battlefield, it was a source of genuine consolation to me throughout those nine long, weary months I spent in hospitals, receiving treatment for my wound, to know that in the midst of all that awful shell, rifle, and machine gun fire, I had stopped on my way to a first aid station and turned to the parched lips of a wounded and dying comrade, my canteen and last drop of water.

Two fine young men are now opposing me in this, my last call for a cool drink of water of human kindness—votes. Yes, I'm wounded and on the battlefield, my burning desire to honorably go forward need to be quenched, but alas, though, these two neighbors approach with a canteen filled with "Bitters" instead, and I'm offered that. I hold no ill-will toward either of them though. They have the same right to run for County Attorney that I have. That's why I was on the battlefield—to preserve that right for them. But boys, if our situations were reversed and you were Joe P. and I was Woodrow or Virgil either, I would still repeat that little act of kindness over again. I'd come along and find you wounded—wounded physically and financially, and I'd stop and out of the fullness of my heart I'd wet your parched throat with the last drop of my water and take chances on finding more.

Ever since my World War days I've carried this kind of a heart in my bosom, and I call to witness this statement a man who is now calling on you, my voter friends, daily, trying to get you to vote against me. That man is Troy B. Sturgill, but I can also forgive him, because he has never seen a comrade with pale, pink blood bubbling out of a bullet hole in his chest as he gasped faintly, "water, water." If Troy's heart had been touched with a few experiences like this he could understand why, when he came to me a few years ago with a sad story of how his brother John had mortgaged his home trying to save the eyesight of that fine son of his, and was about to lose his home, that I take him in my car and drive all night to Frankfort and return, releasing Governor Laffoon from his mortgage to me of a good job and getting it for John Troy, I'll forgive you, even though my home is under mortgage because of the sickness of my son, see, Troy, you just haven't had the pleasure of softening up your heart, but Troy, won't you be good enough to actually tell these good folks that, Joe P. is a fairly good fellow? You see, Troy, you owe it to you or John to just give you the job, I hope when you come in at night after spending day fighting me, that you don't have any trouble sleeping. Don't let it bother you too much. Troy, if you defeat me it only means that something with which you touched my heart for me, happen to me. You told me, you remember, that you didn't go to Frankfort that night and get the job, John that he would lose his home. That's why I happen to me, Troy, if you defeat me in this election, Don't you think, Troy, you'd better change your mind and give me one with "water" in it and take the "Bitters" in it back? "Bear Ye One Another's Burdens."

Friends, I hope I've not tired you with my long oration. I do want your vote and if you can't vote for me this time, I'd like to have your good wishes and personal friendship. I promise you all that I'll give you four years of the very best there is in me. After all, the job of the lawyer for the county is a big job. A man who guard the rights of the county in all its civil matters, ought to be a "tolerably" good lawyer, and 23 years of actual law practice, I believe I can well give you satisfactory service. I'll do my best for you if you will give me the job and I'll swear all either of my opponents can do. I leave it to you whether or not I am QUALIFIED, EXPERIENCED, LOYAL, DESERVING AND ACCOMMODATING. ALWAYS.

Faithfully,

Joe P. TACKETT

Luxury Levies High In New Defense Tax Bill

Washington—Designed to reduce consumer buying power and thus help to avert inflation, the framework of the administration's $3,504,000,000 defense tax bill was completed Thursday by the House Ways and Means Committee.

Most of the record-breaking tax money will come from families whose incomes range from $3,000 and $10,000. Taxes in these brackets are doubled and trebled, House wives, the so-called biggest spenders in America, will find stiff taxes on nearly everything they buy to ease the burdens of housekeeping—from electric coffee percolators to matches.

Lipsticks for daughter and mother, candy and soda pop for the children, dad's typewriter at his office, his golf clubs, his stenographer's chewing gum, her boy friend's moaning saxophone, the bride's engagement and wedding ring, and the honeymoon luggage, all will contribute a 10 per cent ante for defense under the bill.

Representative Robert L. Dougherty, Democrat, North Carolina, Chairman, announced the legislative drafting clerks would work out the technical language of the bill and have it ready for final formal action by July 14, the committee then will report the bill for House consideration July 15, he said.

To round up the $3,500,000,000 goal, the committee today voted to increase the present capital stock tax on corporations of $1.10 on the $1,000 to $1.25, estimated to yield an additional $18,000,000; imposed a 10 per cent manufacturer's excise tax on cutlery, with an estimated yield of $6,000,000, and increased the withholding tax on nonresident aliens from 16 1/2 to 27 1/2 per cent, to yield $20,000,000.

The withholding tax is increased to prevent the employees of foreign or domestic concerns in foreign countries from evading taxes on income originating in this country. The increase of 11 per cent was considered compensatory to the new income taxes imposed on residents of the United States. Thus, a company with an agent in Africa is required to withhold 27 1/2 per cent of his pay to meet income tax in this country.

It was voted to eliminate the tentatively adopted $5-a-year occupational tax on coin vending machines, considering them silent salesmen, but retained the $25 annual tax on slot machines that pay off in cash, tokens, or merchandise, and included all pin ball contraptions, estimated to yield $5,000,000.

Federal Agents Active In Floyd County

Federal officers' raid on the home of Coet Messer, Salt Lick Creek, a few miles from Bosco, last week netted 14 gallons of moonshine whisky and made the first break into that section's illegal liquor traffic in years.

An unofficial report received here said that federal agents ferreted their way through a trapdoor and secret panel of the home to find the whisky cache. Messer was not at home when the raid was made, but his arrest was expected this week.

The source of supply, "revenooers" have been told, is on Licking river's headwaters, only a few miles across the hills from Salt Lick. The drive under way is expected to affect moonshiners as well as those who dispose of their product.

Largely because of the whiskey traffic Salt Lick's WPA-constructed highway has been traveled as much on week-ends as any highway of commensurate length in Eastern Kentucky, it was said here this week.

Prestonsburg Wins 5-4 Game Sunday At Clear Creek

Much bickering and more rain featured Prestonsburg's 5-4 defeat of Clear Creek in the Big Sandy league at Clear Creek Sunday.

Prestonsburg teed off early in the contest on England, Clear Creek starting twirler, but over the entire route was outlit, 12 blows to the locals' 11. Three of the Prestonsburg hits were a homer and two doubles from P. Butcher's bat, however, For Clear Creek, J. Castle hit a double, triple and two singles in five trips to the plate. P. Butcher had a perfect day at bat.

Chester Patton twirled the first six innings for Prestonsburg, with Ray Patton finishing the job. England was relieved by Moore on the mound for Clear Creek.
