

This Town-- That World

GOOD GUYS

The Prestonsburg football team rode in style to the Pikeville game Friday night, employees of the Sparks Brothers Bus Company chartering for them a special bus. This week, the boys go to Louisa in like fashion through the courtesy of 17 residents and business places of Prestonsburg. Next week, when they go to Raceland, the team will receive the same support.

Such loyalty to the team might justify the printing here of each contributor's name, but it strikes us that fellows who are such good sports are the type who get their pleasure out of helping the team rather than getting publicity for themselves. So... no names.

We have always felt the same way about publishing the names of contributors to the American Red Cross and other worthy movements. If a guy can't give for the joy of giving and of helping a deserving cause, and without the idea of getting his name in the paper, he might do better by keeping his money.

Maybe we're wrong. We have been known to be slightly right or left of center, on occasion. Anyway, them's our sentiments.

LONG REMEMBER

A Floyd countian who, 47 years ago, vowed he'd never visit Prestonsburg again lifted the ban long enough Friday to return, but only then through necessity. And he brought his wife and six children along—because, he said, "they might never see the place again."

A pistol case caused Jerry Gearheart, of the Left Beaver Creek section, to say a wrathful goodbye to the county seat, "way back then. While here in 1900, he was arrested and jailed for 22 days on a pistol-totin' charge. When he and his horse cleared town, at the end of that time, he vowed he'd never again raise dust here.

It was enough to make a guy sore, he says. For he wasn't totin' a real pistol; the deadly weapon was a toy, he declares.

Since that time Mr. Gearheart has led a busy life as a timberman and farmer. Never again has he been in jail—and almost never in Prestonsburg.

NOT GUILTY, SHE SAYS

A young girl, the other morning, was taken before County Judge Davidson here on an adultery charge. The judge remanded her to jail. She rode back to the house, she remonstrated. "But I ain't done nothing wrong."

"I know," agreed her attendant. "But that mean, old judge thinks it is."

GIVE 'EM THE REAL McCOY

I have a suggestion to make to the two gentlemen who will represent this county in the lower house of the General Assembly, next January, and to the gentleman in the Senate whose constituents reside in Floyd, Knott and Martin counties.

I think you gentlemen should start a move, immediately, to repeal the snake-handling law. It may be unconstitutional and then it may not; anyway, it's no good, for the reason that it will not be enforced.

Repeat it and substitute something like this:

"Be it enacted, That any dope who wants to handle poisonous snakes may do so at his own physical peril, and without hindrance from any individual or group, or any law-enforcement agency of this Commonwealth; and

"Be it enacted, That, since a reptile with an honest-to-goodness dose of poison in each fang is needed to prove the immunity of all zealous, dampfools and the like who claim super-human powers in the name of the gentle Christ, no snake common

GREENUP MAN DENIES GUILT

Though His Auto Bears License Plate of Car Stolen in This County

Recovery of a truck stolen at Allen led this week to the trail of those who, several weeks earlier, had stolen an automobile at Hi Hat and to the arrest of a Greenup county man on charges of automobile theft and knowingly receiving stolen property.

The truck, a new 1½-ton dump, stolen from Henry Porter at Allen on the night of Oct. 13, was recovered in the Big Woods section of Greenup county, where Hall was arrested, Carson and Hubert Branham, wanted as his accomplices, fled.

Deputy Sheriffs Harold Conn and J. B. Hall uncovered whereabouts of the auto taken from this county while searching for the truck. When they found the auto of Hall parked at a roadside on Straight Creek, Greenup county, Mr. Conn noticed a Floyd county license tag. He checked the number against his record of the number of the plate belonging to the auto of Eugene Meade, of Hi Hat, which was stolen last month. The tag belonged to the Meade car.

Hall was questioned here Wednesday but denied knowledge of how the Meade license plate got onto his car. He also denied having been in this county at the time the truck was stolen, although residents of Allen identified his car as the Packard seen in Allen on the day the truck was taken.

DRYS, PRUITT IN EXCHANGES

After Pike-co. Judge Adjourns Court; Entry Of Dry Vote Is Delayed

An unprecedented adjournment of the Pike county court last week brought from dry forces of the county the charge that it was a deliberate effort to delay the effective date of prohibition there, and from County Judge J. W. Pruitt the retort that the charge was a "hypocritical slur."

The county voted dry in a local option election Oct. 4. The Pike County Local Option League, in a statement signed by its chairman, Dr. A. A. Page, president of Pikeville College, charged the court's action prevented immediate recording of the prohibitionists' victory.

Liquor dealers will receive a 60-day stay to dispose of stocks after the certification of outcome of the election. That must be done in county court, which will be not earlier than December 3.

This would delay entry of the election outcome until that date, and the effective date of prohibition until January 2, 1948.

The option league statement said: "It seems this is a deliberate effort to thwart the voice of the voters. This is the first time in the history of our great county that such low and unscrupulous tactics have been resorted to by an individual."

The individual was not named.

CRASH FATAL TO FLOYD MAN

Allen Dies in Hospital, Wife, Children Injured In Knott-co. Collision

A Floyd county man was fatally injured and his wife and two children hurt late Sunday afternoon when his automobile was almost demolished by a truck near the Molly Gearheart store on Troublesome Creek, Knott county.

Otis Allen, 34-year-old Hueysville miner, died at the Stumbo Memorial hospital, Lackey, 10 hours after the crash. His skull was fractured and his leg was torn away below his knee.

The injured include Mrs. Allen and daughters, Barbara and Ellen. They suffered lacerations and abrasions and were said at the hospital to be recovering.

Mr. Allen was driving behind another auto which struck a truck and the truck, out of control of its driver, rammied the Allen car, it was said. Impact of the collision hurled body of the auto to the opposite side of the highway from the chassis, it was reported here.

Driver of the truck was unidentified here.

The victim was a native of Knott county and was employed as a miner by the Elk Horn Coal Corporation, Wayland. He is survived by his widow, four children and his mother, Mrs. Vernon Combs, of Garrett. Funeral rites were conducted Tuesday from the home of his father-in-law, Bud Handshoe, near Hueysville, the Revs. Alex Coburn and Hawk Moore officiating. Burial was under direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

HOW CHANGE OF CHARTER WOULD HELP

Is Told By Williams, Citing School Funds Floyd Would Receive

John Fred Williams, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, this week not only stated it would be to the advantage of administrators, teachers, school children and every citizen of Floyd county to vote for a Constitutional convention at the coming election—he showed why.

Floyd county, for instance, would receive $205,872.62 instead of $47,913.45 as educational equalization this year, if recommendations for distribution of 30 per cent made in the recent Griffenhagen Report were in operation instead of the present 10 per cent.

And that Griffenhagen recommendation of 30 per cent equalization fund to the schools cannot be realized, he pointed out, without revision of the state's Constitution.

This increase, Mr. Williams said, would not adversely affect the county's total allotment from the state on a per capita, or pupil, basis. Actually, under 30 per cent distribution, Floyd county, instead of receiving a total state allotment for 1947-48 of $438,638.27, would receive a total of $509,850.43.

Likewise, the Prestonsburg independent school district would profit. Thirty per cent distribution would give the district $18,785.91 rather than the $6,815.47 under the present set-up. And the total state allotment would be $35,954.15 instead of the present total of $23,893.07.

This additional money, Superintendent Williams points out, would not raise the county or district taxpayers' burden even an extra penny. It would be an additional aid to the districts needing more help from the state and would aid teachers, pupils, and education generally.

The non-partisan question of calling a convention to revise the Kentucky constitution will be voted on by the people at the November 4 general election. It is a question regarded by many as the most important state issue yet considered by the voters during this decade.

Donkey Baseball Game Ending Season of '47 Slated Here Saturday

The 1947 baseball season will definitely come to an end here Saturday afternoon on a note of high (and low) comedy as the diamond stalwarts of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Fire Department engage in a donkey baseball game for benefit of the Prestonsburg baseball team.

This donkey baseball provides that the "runners" must ride from base to base, and en route, their mounts, Santa Fe-bred burros, take some strange notions. The result is hilarious.

Game time is 2:26 p.m.

WIN LEAVES PRESTONSBURG GRID TEAM WITHIN SINGLE GAME OF CHAMPIONSHIP; UNDEFEATED LOUISA, NEXT ON SCHEDULE

A crowd upwards of 3,000 persons, one of the largest ever to witness a Big Sandy Conference football game, saw the Prestonsburg Black Cats defeat the Pikeville high school Panthers, 13 to 7, Friday night and draw into the lead in the race for Conference honors.

Only the Paintsville Tigers, last year's Conference champs, remain between Prestonsburg and the championship. Both Pikeville and Hazard, contenders for the title, have each lost a game and each has been tied. Prestonsburg has only the loss to Hazard to mar its season record.

The Black Cats won over Pikeville, the best team they have faced this year, the hard way. They came from behind to do it, they were forced to fight for every inch of ground gained and they had to meet a challenging opponent from start to finish.

The half ended with the Cats trailing Pikeville, 7 to 6. Prestonsburg scored in the first quarter on

CRAFT SHOOTS NIECE HERE

Family Quarrels, Spats Climaxed by Shooting Here Last Saturday

A series of family quarrels and altercations was climaxed on North Highland avenue here Saturday afternoon with the shotgun shooting of Miss Dorothy Minix, 23 years old, by her uncle and next-door neighbor, Robert Craft.

Although believed fatally wounded when officers arrived on the scene, the wounded girl is apparently recovering, it was said Tuesday by Dr. George P. Archer, of the Prestonsburg General Hospital staff. She suffered heavy loss of blood but rallied after receiving plasma and blood transfusions.

Officers expressed the belief that the shotgun was loaded either with slugs or buckshot. The girl was struck by three pellets from a single blast of the gun, fired, it was said, from a window of Craft's home as Miss Minix stood in the yard of her mother's home, approximately 50 feet away.

One shot struck her in her cheek, ranged upward and emerged near the middle of her forehead. Another entered the top of the forehead, creased the top of her skull for several inches. This shot cracked but did not depress the skull, Dr. Archer said. A third passed through her arm, near the shoulder.

Craft was quoted by Chief of Police Ep Laferty and Sheriff Troy B. Sturgill, who arrested him at his home, shortly after the shot was fired, as saying Miss Minix and others of her family had beaten him on the preceding night. It was also said that she and Craft's wife had fought, shortly before the shooting.

The wounded girl is a daughter of Mrs. Minnie Craft Minix and of the late Robert Minix. Craft was still in jail Tuesday.

Surviving are six sons and daughters, John and Virginia Davis, both of Gauley Bridge, Alonzo Davis, Carbondale, W. Va., Alex Davis, Betsy Layne, Mrs. Cecil Roberts, Wilmington, Del., and Mrs. Walter Corley, Denver Colorado.

Funeral rites were conducted by the Revs. Isaac Stratton and Carl Layne. Burial in the Maynard cemetery was directed by the Arnold Funeral Home.

T.B. MEETING SLATED NOV. 1

Association To Name Officers, Lay Plans For Its Future Work

Annual meeting of the Floyd County Tuberculosis Association will be held at the courthouse here Saturday, Nov. 1 at 1:30 p.m., it was announced this week.

Election of officers and the formulation of plans for the coming year will comprise the principal work of the meetings.

Pointing to the fact that 30 deaths from tuberculosis were reported in this county from July 1, 1946 to July 1, 1947, Dr. Marvin Ransdell, director of the Floyd County Health Department, said the lack of interest in the fight on the disease is amazing. "A dozen persons out of the 50-odd thousands in the county is a large crowd for us to get out for these meetings," he said.

See editorial, "Thirty Deaths Are Not Horrifying," in this edition.

The big decision to be made by the Association this year is to adopt or reject a plan for a fulltime nurse for tuberculosis work in this county. Floyd and McCracken counties have been designated demonstration counties and each is eligible to aid of $800 a year toward the salary of such a nurse, leaving approximately $1,800 to be raised in each county.

Seal sales made possible the purchase of the x-ray used for chest examinations by the health department here, and leaders of the tuberculosis fight express the belief that, with full co-operation from the citizens of the county, sales in sufficient volume to pay the remainder of a nurse's salary can be made each year.

If fulltime nurse work in this and McCracken counties over a three-year period yields favorable results, the U.S. Public Health Service will spend heavily in the Kentucky tuberculosis fight, it is said.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lena Hopkins, and three children, Betty Louise, Edith Irene and Ishmael, Jr., three brothers and two sisters, Leonard and Paul Hopkins, of Indiana, Irvin Hopkins, of the army, Mrs. Lacey Howard, of Greenup, and Mrs. Jonathan Powers, of Indiana.

Says Drift Champion Of Beaver Valley Loop

That story last week of Wayland's superiority in Beaver Valley league baseball was promptly challenged by Tracy Blackburn, manager-catcher of the Drift team.

According to Blackburn, his team defeated Maytown in a post-season series for the right to meet the winner of the Wayland-Garrett series. And Drift, he says, was "arin' to go, but Wayland wasn't."

So, continues Mr. Blackburn, he appealed to J. W. Hall, of Martin, president of the league, and Mr. Martin ruled that Drift is the rightful league champion.

KENTUCKY ON THE MARCH

By EWING GALLOWAY

Five hundred thousand cattle at an average of $125 a head add up to $2,500,000. Quite a lot of sponduity, even in times when billions make only single-column headlines, isn't it? And Kentucky farmers are missing an opportunity to add that much to their annual income by failing to avail themselves of their opportunity to make their grass land produce all the livestock, particularly beef cattle, that it could produce.

On a recent trip of 600 miles thru 28 counties, I saw fewer beef cattle and pasture than we have in one magisterial district, in Henderson county. Eight of the counties are in the rich bluegrass region, six are in the mountains of north-eastern Kentucky, the rest are just average counties. In some of the poorest cattle country in the southwest it takes a square mile to sustain one cow. In the hilliest counties in Kentucky four acres will produce a beef animal in a year of average rainfall. In the bluegrass districts an acre and a half will do the trick.

With 300 acres of bluegrass I keep around 200 brood cows, calves and yearlings and in good years like 1947 I could handle 100 more without overgrazing the land. Mixed pastures will produce about half as much beef.

Most farmers with 100 acres could keep 10 good beef cows and market eight to 10 yearlings a year with hardly any labor, and the manure would fertilize their land every day the cattle grazed on it.

I know a farmer who says he would raise cattle even if they didn't yield him any profit at all when he marketed them, because that is the best way to maintain the fertility of his crop land.

In this corner of the state most cattle and sheep raisers depend mainly on redtop and lespedeza, the redtop for year-round grazing, the lespedeza to fatten the animals in September and October. Thus far, there are only about 50 bluegrass pastures in each of our three main cattle counties—Henderson, Daviess and Union.

When our county agricultural agent, H. R. Jackson, came here 13 years ago, Henderson county had less than 50 beef herds. Today there are 325 herds. The number of brood cows per farm range from six to 10. Jackson made us see our opportunity to make money with cattle.

Cattle breeders tell me the best way to get good heifers for breeding is to have them shipped in from the west, farmers grouping together and dividing carloads between themselves. It is all right to buy heifers from neighbors with good grade cows and purebred sires, when they are available.

Sixty-two million five hundred thousand smackers! Yep, that's a lot of money for Kentucky farmers to let get away from them!

90th Birth Anniversary Observed by Mr. Dingus

Members of Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church honored its oldest member, William Dingus, Tuesday evening in the parlors of the church with a party celebrating his 90th birth anniversary. At 8 o'clock when Mr. Dingus arrived, the group began singing, "Happy Birthday." He was completely but happily surprised. He was seated in a new lounge chair which was a gift from a large number of his church friends. In well-chosen words he expressed his deepest appreciation for the gift and the party that had been planned in his honor. Other gifts were presented to him from other guests. An informal program of songs and verse was enjoyed by the group which joined in the singing of favorite hymns of Mr. Dingus. He sang "Amazing Grace" and recited three poems he had learned when a young man. He remarked that his residence in Prestonsburg of more than 50 years had made for him many dear friends. At a beautifully decorated table covered with its centerpiece of bronze dahlias and marigolds in a blue pottery bowl, Mrs. H. C. Francis and Mrs. Jo M. Davidson poured punch. Guests enjoying this unusual birthday party were Mrs. Jo M. Davidson, Mrs. H. C. Francis, Mrs. Olga M. Latta, Mrs.

"Such action," the statement continued, "is not democratic and we hope it will serve as a warning in the future to our good citizens to be more careful in the selection of their public officials."

"It is tragic and dangerous for self-government when the normal functioning of our whole people—more than 75,000 of them—can be disrupted by such tactics."

The statement added that "This and other actions by the wets will be fought every step of the way until . . . Pike county is declared dry and the liquor traffic driven from our midst."

Pruitt asserted that the court was adjourned to allow him time to deal with a docket of some 100 cases in the quarterly court and he described the suspension as "routine."

Pruitt had served as county judge previously from 1926 to 1930 when, he said, "our jail was full all the time—sometimes we had as many as 200 cases—for infractions of prohibition."

Asked whether there were legal means to compel the recording of the vote without delay, he declined comment.

Why Floyd County Will Vote Straight Democratic Ticket

I. LABOR will vote Democratic:

Because the Republicans are shouting their approval of the TAIT-HARTLEY bill and are using this as their main issue to try to defeat the friends of labor, the Democratic nominees.

II. TEACHERS will vote Democratic:

Because Eldon Dummit has been praising Willis and his administration of broken promises. Every appropriation for teachers and the schools during the Willis administration was passed by a Democratic General Assembly over the protests of the Governor. The Republican administration has not shown any friendship toward the schools or teachers. How many have forgotten Willis telling the teachers to go home, accept their meager pay, and live within their income?

III. VETERANS will vote Democratic:

Because Willis did not see fit to exempt them from income tax on service pay. He vetoed a bill passed by a Democratic General Assembly which was designed to give this exemption.

IV. FARMERS will vote Democratic:

Because they know the Democratic nominee is a farmer and has continued to fight the battles of the farmer as a State Senator and Congressman. The people of Kentucky and Floyd county are not interested in a government for a chosen few. They are interested in a democracy where all will share alike. They believe in a constructive and well-planned program which is designed to do the best for all the people. They are not interested in a program planned and shouted over the state only for the purpose of influencing votes.

attack failed, deep in enemy territory, on a fumble. But the persistent attack of the winners was not to be denied. After the ball had been advanced on straight running plays to the shadows of the Pikeville goalposts, Porter, Prestonsburg quarterback, went over on a sneak play. Mayo skirted end to add the extra point.

The game was something of a rough house, but the Cats, in the proverbial pink, emerged without serious injury. Branham played his best game of the year in the backfield, and had an able running-mate in Mayo. Bradley stood out at guard and Spradlin played his usual powerful, aggressive game at tackle. The work of Charles Nessler, a first-year man, at center also drew high praise from Coach Eibner.

Principal weakness of the Cat attack lay in the fact that there was little or no downfield blocking done during the evening. The defensive weakness continues to be against passes, though Pikeville contrived to complete only one toss during the game.

Friday afternoon, the Black Cats meet the undefeated Louisa Bulldogs there. This is a non-Conference tilt, but Prestonsburg is as anxious to win it as any played this year.

Of the outcome of the Louisa game Coach Eibner is far from optimistic. "They can write the score," he moaned. "Louisa can beat us on passes. We have a pass defense, but the boys can't work it."

of what they term religious rites." After you get that boiled down into legal phraseology, boys, start a-ranting. Get the bill passed . . . Oh, yes, one thing more that has occurred to me: Write into the bill, somewhere, a clause to the effect that any person who dies of the bite of a snake used in such oracles shall in no case be buried at public expense.

GEE!—GOSH!—T-THANKS!
There is balm in Gilead. Forsyth, every dark cloud does have its silvery lining. This week I received from a Williamson, W. Va., reader-friend a note that has such a bit of sweetness about it that I am printing it here:
"Dear Mr. Editor:
"I think your column of barbs, grunts and groans merits some kind of an award. Not having any caviar or champagne, am forwarding you one quart wild honey, the makers of which possessed a lot of 'stingers.' Suggest you place in front of you when eating it some hot biscuits, country butter and fresh sausage, letting your belt out just one notch.
"UNCLE ANDY."

PLAY—OR ELSE!
Several years ago, when he was State Senator from this district, Henry D. Fitzpatrick, of Prestonsburg, created a sensation with his introduction of a bill which would have tied a string to the appropriations bill for that session. This "rider" would have required the University of Kentucky to play Centre, Mr. Fitzpatrick's alma mater, on the gridiron before state funds were made available to U.K.
The bill did not pass. But now, years later, comes word to the effect that the Alabama State Senate has tied the same kind of string on its appropriations bill, and that it has stayed tied. It ordered Alabama and Auburn to play football next year or do without state funds.

Maybe a resumption of the Kentucky-Centre grid rivalry is what is needed to bring back men of the McMillan-Roberts ilk to the Centre campus, and we'd be all for a meeting of the two teams each year. But the Legislature shouldn't have to get itself cursed, getting the meeting arranged.

DOUBLE COMPLAINT
We have a question to ask in behalf of the town and the people of Prestonsburg.
Just why in the mischief does the State Highway Department or whoever is responsible for these markers showing the distances on U.S. 23 say, on signs at Paintsville, "40 Miles to Pikeville," and at Pikeville say, "40 Miles to Paintsville?"

Why not mention Prestonsburg? The stranger to this valley is given the impression at Paintsville that Pikeville is the first port o' call of importance farther upriver; and that Paintsville is the only place worthwhile after leaving Pikeville, traveling in the other direction.

This is a bit of discrimination that is so rank it stinks.

And while we are about it, we would like to remind the telephone system of a little matter. If you or I are in Louisville or Lexington and a call from Prestonsburg is made to us, and we are paged in a hotel, do you think the bellhop will be saying, "Prestonsburg calling Mr. Doakes"? Not on your life—he'll be saying, "Paintsville calling."

Prestonsburg may not need advertising as much as its neighbors. But it does demand its rightful share of recognition.

T. Y. Martin and Willie Johnson, of Banner, and Norman Martin and Alvin Taylor, of Prestonsburg, attended the races in Lexington this week.

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to all the many friends and relatives who so faithfully aided us upon the death and during the funeral of our loved one, Major William E. Sutton; to the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars for their participation at the funeral and to the Reverend Rucker for his prayers and words of comfort and to the Ryan Funeral Home for its efficient and sympathetic service. Our burden has been almost more than we could carry and we are indeed grateful for the many floral offerings and for every kind word spoken.—Mrs. William E. Sutton and Vicki, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sutton, Ruby and Helen.

Farm Editor Devotes Full Page to a Plea For New Constitution

"I for one am tired of having Kentucky rated the 47th state, or a backward state at all," says Samuel R. Guard, editor of "Breeder's Gazette," in his plea for "A New Constitution for Kentucky."

In a full-page article in the October issue of "The Kentucky Farmer," Mr. Guard points out that it has been 56 years since Kentucky has had a constitutional convention. "Fast have been the changes in that time—two world wars, the automobile, the radio, the atomic bomb."

"In anything Kentucky has the resources, the soil, the climate, the geographical position, the tradition, and most of the people, the human stuff, to stand among the No. 1 states of the nation. Let us now write a modern Constitution that will enable us to stand among the most progressive, forward-looking, high-purposed, leaderly, achieving states of the United States."

Mr. Guard's article is prompted by the non-partisan question to be voted on in the forthcoming election:

"Are you in favor of the calling of a Constitutional Convention for the purpose of revising or amending the present constitution of Kentucky, and such amendments as may have been made to the same?"

To call a Constitutional Convention it will require a fourth of the state's qualified voters or approximately 160,000 people to vote "Yes" on November 4, the article points out.

The campaign committee for a Kentucky Constitutional Convention has maintained that Kentucky's "out-of-date" Constitution will not permit school funds to be distributed fairly; education to be taken out of politics. It has further stated that "Kentucky voters lost $500,000 every year through inefficient election methods."

Woman's Club Seeks Seal Sale Leader

The Prestonsburg Woman's Club held its regular monthly meeting Thursday, last week, in the basement of the Methodist Church. Mrs. A. C. Harlowe and Mrs. M. Robert Regan acted as hostesses. The club president, Miss Alice Harris, presided over the meeting and after the call to order led the club in the "Salute to the Flag" and the "Club Woman's Creed." The entire club sang a few selections, accompanied by Mrs. Palmer L. Hall, Mrs. J. D. Mayo urged that some member of the club accept the position of chairman of the sale of Tuberculosis Seals, since Mrs. A. C. Harlowe had resigned after about 20 years' successful service. The matter was left undecided.

Miss Harris gave a brief report of the Seventh district meeting held at Wheelwright, Sept. 27. Mrs. John G. Archer, substituting for the chairman of the Membership committee, presented the following names for membership: Mesdames J. R. Jesse, Eugene Foley, Edward May, and Darwin Patton. They were unanimously accepted. At the conclusion of the business discussion Mrs. Winnie F. Johns took charge and led a program on "The Garden."

She presented a group of girls from the high school glee club who sang, "In My Garden," under the direction of Mrs. Palmer L. Hall. She then introduced Robert Shepherd, high school Agriculture teacher, who talked to the club about different phases of gardening. He stressed the fact that more people should have gardens and those who do should have specific plans for them so as to derive the maximum good from any plot of ground. He stated that for every home garden just that much more could be sent to starving Europeans. In conclusion, Mr. Shepherd held an open discussion in which he answered many questions asked by the members.

At the end of the program the hostesses served refreshments to the following members: Mesdames Winnie F. Johns, Palmer L. Hall, Virgil Webb, N. L. May, J. D. Mayo, J. P. Sammons, J. H. Keenan, John G. Archer, and Miss Alice Harris.

Next regular meeting will be held Nov. 6 at the home of Mrs. R. J. Wallace.

Enlistments Wanted For European Duty

Information has been released by Sgt. Chas. J. James, recruiting officer of the U.S. Army and Air Force Recruiting Service, that enlistments and re-enlistments in the regular army for initial assignment to the European Command, including the Mediterranean theatre, are authorized for personnel of the following categories:

Men from civil life who have had prior service in any of the armed forces, either army, navy, Marine Corps, or coast guard; men whose current enlistments are terminating and who desire to re-enlist immediately for initial assignment to the European Command; men who are eligible and desire immediate discharge under governing army regulations for the purpose of re-enlistment for initial assignment to the European Command.

Applicants taking advantage of existing vacancies will enlist "European Command Unassigned," for periods of three, four or five years. Individuals applying under the provisions of War Department pamphlet 12-16 whose prior service qualifies them for enlistment in the air forces only will not be considered for enlistment.

Enlistments and re-enlistments for assignment to the European Command are to fill shortages and are limited to white applicants for the third enlisted grade or below.

MEDICAL MIRACLE

Today Your Pharmacist Drops A Few Facts About... SALICYLIC ACID

A mistaken theory opened a new field of diseases to medicine when Hermann Kober, of the University of Leipzig, insisted that Salicylic Acid would change to a harmless form of carbonic acid in the body and cure Typhus, Tuberculosis, Croup and most other diseases. The Salicylic Acid did not change in the body. Instead of a cure for all diseases, it turned out to be an unsurpassed fever fighter and rheumatism remedy.

Ten Little Servants

Ten little servants, waiting in a line,
Call one to do the wash—and still you have nine!

Nine little servants, working long and late,
Ask one to cook your meals—and still you have eight!

Eight little servants—working like eleven!
Call on one to clean for you, and still you have seven!

Seven little servants—you don't need candlesticks
When this one lights the house for you—and still you have six!

Six little servants, electrically-alive,
This one sews a handy seam—and still you have five!

Five little servants to help with every chore;
One can iron all the shirts—and still you have four!

Four little servants—such activity!
One breathes a little breeze—and still you have three!

Three little servants—if you're feeling blue,
One will entertain you—and still you have two!

Two little servants, whose work is never done!
One keeps the food fresh, and thinks it's rather fun—

One tells the proper time from sun to setting sun.
(Dependable electric service makes these servants run—
And saves you lots of elbow grease. Suppose you had none?)

Yes, electricity is always ready to take the work out of housework. And it costs so little! Matter of fact, if yours is the average family, you're getting twice as much electricity for your money as you did 20 years ago. What other item in your budget does so much for so little?

DU PONT HOUSE PAINT CLEANS ITSELF!

Your house keeps its freshly painted look when finished with Du Pont House Paint. Dirt and grime can't become embedded—rains just wash them away!

SELF-CLEANING Du Pont House Paint is so formulated that, as time goes by, a microscopically fine white powder forms on the surface. Heavy rains wash the powder away, taking dust and dirt with it, and leaving the surface clean and white again. Excessive accumulations of dirt (particularly in sooty industrial communities or in heavily shaded locations) may delay or interfere with this process. Because this "self-cleaning" is gradual, the wearing qualities of the paint film are not abnormally affected.

SELF-CLEANING Du Pont House Paint is as durable as it is beautiful... protects against rust, rot, and decay... gives lasting beauty and protection. Costs no more than ordinary paints—saves repainting bills! Call on a reliable painter for your painting jobs, and ask him to use Du Pont House Paint!

To the Citizens of Prestonsburg:

To merit the support of the people of this community, we submit some of the things we think Prestonsburg needs in the matter of good government, without waste and for all the people:

1. A revised garbage collection program that will dispose of your garbage regularly, good-naturedly and without imposing a hardship on any individual.
2. Your streets kept clean by machinery. That means ALL your streets, not just a chosen few.
3. City streets and sidewalks repaired where needed. This work to be done WHEN needed, not just before election time.
4. Sewers to be installed or extended where needed. The success of the City Water System depends upon an adequate sewer system. The City Water System is a community project; therefore, every street should receive the benefits it could and should give.
5. A playground for the children of Prestonsburg and also for West Prestonsburg. This is a matter many good citizens and various civic clubs have long been interested in, and we feel that, with the city government leading such a movement, it is not at all impossible. To help this cause, we will donate our salaries until the cost of playground equipment is paid.
6. An adequate but not over-large Police Force, to give the people the full protection of the law—not to furnish somebody a job at the taxpayers' expense.
7. Elimination of parking meters not needed to remove traffic problems. This community, to grow and hold the goodwill of others in Floyd county and the visitor from a farther distance, should not attempt to repudiate the hospitality for which Kentucky is famous by charging folks for the right to park. Prestonsburg should be, and can be through proper management, self-supporting, and does not need to profit from the visitor within our gates. Our business men, even the churches and schools, depend much on the goodwill of folks who live outside Prestonsburg. Our program will be one to make friends, not enemies.
8. Regular publication of a full and complete financial report, so that you will know exactly what is being done with your money. Not since 1945 has such an audit been published.
9. Elimination of unnecessary expenses in Prestonsburg—such cut in expenses to help us carry out an honest and just program for every individual in the city.
10. Elimination of the present Police Station. We have a City Hall, already paid for, and it is large enough to accommodate the Police Station.
11. Install more street lights.
12. Fuller co-operation with the movement for a Public Library in Prestonsburg.

This platform we submit, inviting you to join us in making our fight November 4. YOU HELP US—WE CAN HELP YOU!

Despite any rumors to the contrary, the BEEHIVE TICKET is as one man, and each of us has signed his name to this statement of what we propose to do, working together and with the people.

Each member of the Beehive Ticket will cooperate with our present Mayor, E. P. Arnold.

College To Sponsor Series of Concerts

This year Pikeville College will present six concerts by internationally famous musicians, instead of four as in the past, President A. A. Page announced this week.

The first of these fall concerts will feature Marguerite McClelland, rising young soprano who was runner-up in the 1946 Atlantic City beauty pageant, on Thursday, Oct. 22, at 8:15 p.m., in Wickham Chapel.

Miss McClelland, a native of Memphis, won a scholarship to Louisiana State University on her graduation from high school. There she studied under the famous basso, Pasquale Amato, and sang the leads in many productions, including the University's 1946 aquacade which was played up in a four-page story in Life magazine. Soon after winning the title of "Miss Louisiana, 1946," she won top vocal honors and a $2,000 scholarship at Atlantic City. In New York she continued her voice study under Paul Althouse, former leading tenor of the Metropolitan Opera.

Jacques Abram, pianist who will broadcast as soloist with the New York Philharmonic on November 16, will be in Pikeville on Nov. 4. Abram hails from Texas and has studied at the Curtis Institute and the Juillard Graduate School of Music. His Carnegie Hall debut in 1936 has been followed by successes with the leading symphony orchestras and over the radio.

Frank Wennerholm will make his Pikeville appearance Jan. 22. The handsome six-foot baritone came to the United States in April, 1946, from Sweden, whither he had been forced to flee when the Nazis overran his own country, Denmark. In Sweden he sang at the Royal Opera House, gave concerts, and was heard over the radio.

U.-K. Sets Dates For Contests in Speech, Music

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 20 (Spl.)—The University of Kentucky Extension Department this week announced the registration of entries for the 28th annual program of Kentucky high school activities in speech and music is now open and will continue until after the first of the year.

Schools of Floyd county intending to participate in the regional and state festivals must notify the Extension department and the deadline for registration in speech events has been set as Jan. 15. Another month will be allowed for enrollment in music events, the deadline being Feb. 15.

Regional contests will be held between these dates and the two weeks before the state festivals. Prof. Louis Clifton, U.-K. Extension director, said. District contests in debate and discussion must be completed by Feb. 7 and regional music festivals are to be held prior to April 10. State contests in debate and discussion are scheduled for Lexington Feb. 18-21 on the subject, "Resolved: That the Federal Government Should Enact Legislation Requiring the Arbitration of Labor Disputes and the Compulsory Acceptance of Its Decisions."

Kentucky's Constitution will be the theme for the annual high school discussion contest and, as an innovation this year, students will hold a mock Constitutional Convention instead of the usual Junior Legislature. District festivities in oratory, declamation, poetry reading, radio speaking and extemporaneous speaking will be concluded by March 27 and the state speech festival, for events other than debate and discussion, will convene at U.-K. on April 9-10.

Regional music festivals will end by April 10 and the vocal-piano section of the 24th annual Kentucky High School Music Festival will take place April 29-30. Bands, orchestras, instrumental ensembles and solos will compete for state honors in a second section of the festival at U.-K. on May 13, 14 and 15.

Clements' Program of Real Help to Schools --or Desperate Dummit's Promises?

THE GREAT OL' PROMISERS—Promises won't pay our teachers, build up our schools and teach our children. Kentuckians know to their sorrow there is no value to a promise made by a man who has completely reversed himself in two months!

The present Republican nominee for Governor has changed his mind so many times on the stump in the last few months that no one understands what he really proposes to do for education—if anything. For this reason they are now calling him Tweedledee Tweedle-Dummit.

THE GREAT NEED—Our children are Kentucky's greatest asset. They must be taught by well-trained and adequately-paid teachers. They must ride in buses that are safe, to buildings which are the best our citizens can afford. They have been kept waiting too long for decent equipment—while money piled up in the State Treasury and Republican stubbornness blocked action.

THE GREAT OPPORTUNITY—The Democratic program for the improvement of education in Kentucky is plain-spoken and straightforward—honest and consistent. In his opening campaign speech, at Morehead, Congressman Earle Clements, the Democratic nominee for Governor, said:

"The Republican nominee has frequently declared he was opposed to using any part of the unincumbered surplus in the State Treasury for the payment of teachers' salaries—retroactive to the beginning of the present school year. The Republican candidate may or may not change his views. We shall not."

Why take a chance on more worthless promises?

Thirty Deaths Are Not Horrifying

SLOW DEATH isn't so horrifying? Is it?

It couldn't be. Otherwise, we would be doing something about it. Otherwise, we would feel such mounting horror that every man and woman of us would do something—anything!—to halt the fearful threat at our doors.

If it were death from infantile paralysis or spinal meningitis or some other disease that swoops dramatically down to snatch from us loved ones who, only a few short hours or days ago, were healthy and delightfully alive, the full sense of horror would be ours.

But tuberculosis doesn't work that way. In widely segregated homes there are isolated cases. At first, the malady is only seldom recognizable either to the sufferer or others. Follows the loss of weight, the spasms of coughing, the awful death that creeps by inches, inexorably to demand full satisfaction.

Within a year, 30 residents of Floyd county died slowly in towns, up the creeks, in hospitals, in sanatoria. Week by week this newspaper reported the great but undramatic toll . . . a toll of humanity which, nevertheless, was truly awesome.

If those 30 had died within a few weeks, in one or two communities, we all would have been properly impressed. But the slow death, stretched over weeks, over the miles, insidiously crept up on us, unimaginative souls, stalked us so tediously that none of us became frightened.

Thus has tuberculosis infiltrated our communities as successfully as any foreignism or any wartime enemy, without disturbing the defenders to action.

The Floyd County Tuberculosis Association has done a fair measure of good work. But it cannot ever achieve its major aims unless the rank and file of the people become aware of the threat tuberculosis presents to persons of all ages, in every walk of life.

As of this year—while persons were dying, being drawn to the grave by inches—the County Tuberculosis Association could not get as many as a dozen of all the thousands of persons in this county to meet to plan further work and to carry on drives for funds. This, despite the fact that every person who buys as much as $2 worth of Tuberculosis Seals has a right to vote in the Association's affairs as much as even an official of the Association.

Floyd is one of the two Kentucky counties designated by the State Tuberculosis Association as demonstration counties for an experiment in intensive work toward the curb and eventual eradication of the White Plague. Under this plan the state association will pay one-third the salary of a fulltime nurse, or up to $800 a year, with the county association paying the remainder, or about $1,800. This is a three-year plan and if the results at the end of that time justify such support, it has been authoritatively said, the U.S. Public Health Service will pour money into Kentucky in an all-out drive on tuberculosis.

It should be explained, too, that the county association itself retains a larger share of funds raised locally through Seal sales than are retained by any other group in similar public health endeavor. If the people of this county, for example, buy $1,500 worth of Seals, the Floyd County Tuberculosis Association retains, for work in this county, fully 75 per cent of that amount.

Last year, there were 30 known funerals resulting from the ravages of tuberculosis, as deadly a killer as ever stalked humankind. There doubtless were some whose deaths were unreported. Next year, many more may die. Those who have died had their contacts; there is no way to meet the foe without public interest and the public support necessary to employ a nurse spending all her time in seeking out the sick of tuberculosis, all their contacts, all the breeding places of the disease.

That is only a small part of the story. What the people of Floyd county, particularly the leaders and Floyd county parents, do this year will write another chapter for next year and the years to come.
