WE UNFORTUNATES

There died, within the week, two of the animal kingdom whose life-stories put many of us humans to shame.

In Cincinnati, Susie the gorilla, beloved of thousands of children, and in Lexington Man o' War, noblest of thoroughbreds, died.

Susie, arch type of the Abyssal Brute, native of the wildest jungle of Darkest Africa, and "Big Red," born to the velvet-green of Kentucky bluegrass pastures—both soulless creatures, but perfect physical specimens whose demeanor lifted them from the lower class of animals, the one belying the fierce nature of her species, the other adding to the admiration for his.

But Susie and Man o' War were better cared for than most humans. Both were trained to enact the superior roles they so well played. Susie was not turned loose with other gorillas to revert to type and prey on humankind. Man o' War was not freed to run with the wild horses of the West and shun mankind as his enemy. They were not victims of the criminal negligence humans are guilty of when they turn their children loose to become little but growing savages.

How fortunate were these dumb animals! And how unfortunate are many of us who are believed to be not so dumb!

BUSHEL OF TOENAILS

Now that the city election is water over the dam, this can be published without the writer, George Brown, or The Times being accused of propagandizing the voters:

"The condition of the sidewalks on Third street reminds me of a story my grandfather told of back in the old days down on Miller's Creek in Johnson county. All the young fellows and girls, too, went barefoot to night meetin'."

"He and his best girl and a large crowd were going down a certain hollow with pine torches for light, with his gal holding to his arm. What with other conditions that sort of flustered him, he forgot about the numerous sharp rocks sticking up in the road. All of a sudden, he felt a tingling sensation, and a look of agony spread over his face. About this time he heard something hit in the leaves over the bank and upon investigation this proved to be his toe nail, together with about a gallon of other toe nails from other victims—all caused by that same wicked rock."

"Now, I don't mean to exaggerate, but it has been argued that if folks went barefoot, these days, there would be bushels of toe nails on Third street."

SMOKE DREAMS

I have been bilked, taken, rooked and, sometimes, almost ruined in years past by backing my judgment with coin of the realm. But not till this election came along had I ever been dreamed out of anything. This is the story:

"Sawloggin' Doug" Hays came to this office at a time when folks were predicting a tight squeeze for Earle C. Clements in his race for Governor, and he told of dreaming, the night before, that the aforesaid Clements would win by exactly 75,542 votes.

Well, I recalled something about old men dreaming dreams. I glimpsed a vision of collecting.

Senator Hays is smoking my cigars.

HEAVY VOTING MARKS RACES FOR COUNCIL

In Four Floyd Towns; Administration Forces Lose Here, at Wayland

Administration forces in two Floyd county city council elections suffered upsets in Tuesday's balloting which saw interest in local races in four towns relegate the state ticket to seats in the second row.

In Prestonsburg the Beehive ticket elected six of eight Councilmen, with the Victory ticket representing the present city administration winning both Ward 2 Council posts. The Beehive ticket elected all four of its candidates in Ward 1—Ray Howard, Winston Ford, James E. Goble and Eddie Worland. In Ward 2, Sam Hatcher and Byron Nunney won on the Victory ticket, and in Depot (Ward 3), Russell Horn and William C. Allen, Beehive candidates, won without opposition.

The second change in council membership was made at Wayland where the entire Pick & Shovel, UMWA-supported ticket, elected all its five candidates, Jay Snyder, Hager Taylor, Joe Gibson, Leck Stewart and Garv's Turner.

In Wheelwright it was a clear-cut administration victory, with K. B. Deal, H. M. Wilkinson, Sr., Dr. J. W. Bailey, Jake Petrey and C. B. Hanger easily winning for the People's ticket.

The New Deal ticket at Martin made a clean sweep of the election, with Lawrence Keathley, Ballard Fleming, Gardez Dingus, John Billiter and W. S. Frazier the winners. The vote in each town:

Prestonsburg
Ward 1—(Beehive ticket) Ray Howard 263, Winston Ford, 259, James E. Goble, 257, Edward Worland, 239; (Victory ticket) Thomas Hereford, 225, Herbert Salisbury 221, Ciabe Bingham 220, Frank H. Layne, 205.
Ward 2—(Victory ticket) Sam Hatcher 161, Byron Nunney 144; (Beehive ticket) Ray Collins 109, Otis Cooley 86.

Ward 3—(Beehive ticket, unopposed) Russell Horn 97, William C. Allen 94.

BOARD VOTES FIELD LEASE

To Install Lights And Fence Football Field for Team Here

The Prestonsburg Black Cats next year will return to their old grid-iron, but the old place will not be the same.

The City Board of Education voted Wednesday night to lease the field owned by Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Webb which, until this year, has for a dozen years or more been the scene of all the Cats' home football battles. More than that, the Board took definite steps toward awarding a contract for installation of a lighting system and for enclosing the field by fence.

This announcement was made by Dr. O. T. Stephens, chairman of the Board, who said that the work to be done at the field will also include the installation of seats or stands to accommodate the larger crowds gathering for night football.

Cost of the undertaking will be $8,000, it was estimated. Fencing for the field will be procured from the War Assets Administration at a price greatly reduced below the current retail market.

To enable the Board to incur expense of lighting and fencing the field, owners of the property are making it available to the school, rent-free until the season of 1950. It is held that, with 12 home football games scheduled for the next two seasons, cost of equipping the field will be amortized by that time.

Plans are being studied for laying out the field to run north and south, instead of east and west as in other years, so that greater parking space will be available. Additional space at the north end of the field will be made available by the Webb's; it was said. The lighting system will be such, according to present plans, that both night high school baseball and softball can be played.

Success of the Prestonsburg grid team under the tutelage of Coach John R. Eibner contributed heavily to the decision of the Board to incur the expense necessary to blacken a playing field for the Black Cats. The Board has made Mr. Eibner an attractive offer under a long-term contract, and formation of an athletic association here, also interested in retaining the services of Eibner, is being studied.

To Conduct Study Over Week-End

Posse Seeks Man After Deputies Shot

GUNMAN VOWS WILL NOT BE TAKEN ALIVE

Walter England Shoots Craft, Compton; Both Expected To Recover

A posse of a dozen or more officers was scouring the Buck's Branch and Stephens Branch sections of the county tonight (Thursday), searching for Walter England who, late this afternoon, shot and wounded Deputy Sheriffs Ed Craft and Scott Compton.

Craft, with bullet wounds in his arm and back, was seriously wounded but is expected to recover, it was said at the Beaver Valley hospital. Compton received a flesh wound in his thigh.

The shooting took place, it was said, at the home of Arthur Crisp, on Buck's Branch, when the two deputies, Policeman Allen Stone, of Martin, and D. Harvey went there to execute shooting and wounding and child desertion warrants sworn out here, earlier in the day, for England, a former Stephens Branch miner, by his wife.

Deputy Sheriff Craft told County Judge Alex L. Davidson at the hospital that when England came to the door of the Crisp home and was informed of the warrants he suddenly whipped out a revolver and began firing. In the ensuing gun battle, 12 to 15 shots were fired at England, both Craft and Compton joining in the shooting after they were wounded.

"You'll never take me alive!" England screamed, vowing he would kill "every one of you," according to Craft. The latter added that he shouted to the other officers to withhold their fire, that they might shoot children of the Crisp family inside the house.

Posting Harvey as guard on the house, Policeman Stone then hurried the wounded officers to the hospital at Martin. As darkness fell, Harvey was quoted as saying, lights inside the house suddenly went out and England emerged through a window. Harvey emptied his revolver at the fleeing man and expressed the belief England was hit.

Sheriff Troy B. Sturgill and deputies left here, armed with a tear gas gun to dislodge England from the building, and were joined by state patrolmen and other officers over the county. When they arrived on the scene they found that England had fled.

The shooting and wounding warrant followed appearance of England on Stephens Branch Wednesday night when he allegedly fired into the home of his father-in-law, Jim Manuel, a bullet grazing Manuel's foot.

THIEF LOOTS LUNCH ROOM

FBI Takes Fingerprints As Part of Foodstuffs Federal Contribution

A Federal Bureau of Investigation agent was called here Wednesday to take fingerprints on articles in the Prestonsburg grade school lunch room after the room had been entered during the preceding night and foodstuffs taken.

Some of the foodstuffs taken, it was said, were contributions of the federal government. Missing are three or four cans of lard, a quantity of sugar and canned goods. Entrance to the building was effected through a window.

Chief of Police Epp Laferty and County Attorney W. W. Burchett searched the home of Dewey Osborne here, with Osborne's permission, but did not find any of the missing items.

Mrs. M. Robert Regan spent the week-end with her parents at Falcon, Ky.

Auxier Man Succumbs At P'Burg Hospital

James Roe McCoy, 65-year-old Auxier farmer, died Wednesday at the Prestonsburg General hospital, a victim of dropsy after an illness of 10 months.

He was a native of this county, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCoy. His wife preceded him in death. Surviving are one son, Bill Martin McCoy, of Auxier, and one sister, Maggie McCoy, of Ohio.

Funeral rites were conducted at Auxier today (Thursday) and burial there was under direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

FIRM HONORS 11 EMPLOYEES

Officials Credit Them With Safety Record And Record Insurance Rate

The new Workmen's Compensation rate set for the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company is the lowest for any coal company in this field and is believed to be the lowest enjoyed by any coal mining firm in the nation, it was said by company officials at a dinner given, Wednesday evening of last week, for the company's supervisory force.

David L. Francis, president, and G. J. Stallings, vice-president, gave full credit for the company's splendid safety record and the resultant low compensation rate to the foremen and the men working with them.

For their record of supervising workmen over a period of 12 months without a lost-time accident, 11 foremen were presented safety lamps with the recipient's name engraved on the award. These foremen are Allen Whittaker, Garland McComas, Virgil Howard, Don Preston, Dawson Bussey, Dow Webb, M. E. Thompson, Ervin Ramey, Jim Hall, Frank Musie and Tandy Bartley.

The dinner, attended by approximately 60, was served in the David Community Church by the Woman's Club.

CONTEST DRY WIN IN PIKE

Wets' Suit Alleges Results Fraudulent; Six Counts Are Listed

Pikeville, Ky., Nov. 4—The local option election in Pike county Oct. 4, recorded as a victory for prohibition, was challenged as "fraudulent" today in a circuit court suit.

Attorneys F. M. Burke and J. E. Sanders, of Pikeville, filed the legal action in behalf of Luther Johnson, William R. Thacker and Sam Caudill.

Johnson and Caudill are Pikeville liquor dealers.

The dries' victory, by a margin of 910 votes, was certified by County Judge J. W. Pruitt only yesterday, the court having been adjourned since Oct. 4.

Today's suit listed six allegations of fraud:

1. That 1,249 persons in 20 precincts had voted their ballots openly, in the presence of election officials and others.

2. That 1,024 persons voted in the same manner in the rest of the county's 99 precincts.

3. That 628 non-residents of the county voted. (Of the 644 who allegedly voted in this manner in nine precincts were identified by name.)

4. That only 84 persons legally voted in precinct No. 7 (in eastern Pike county, near Freeburn), according to the stubs on the ballot book, but the precinct certified 130 ballots cast, and 135 ballots had been torn from the book.

The petitioners said there were no names on 48 stubs.

5. That 890 persons, including 426 convicted felons and not pardoned, and the others either not registered or not old enough to cast ballots, had voted in the election.

And lastly, the complainants charged that by statute no election should have been permitted within three years of a previous election on the liquor issue in the county, in Sept. 1946.

FRADY HEADS TUTOR UNION

County Federation Picks Officers, Gets Charter At Meeting at Martin

Formal organization of the Floyd County Federation of Teachers, an affiliate of the Kentucky Federation of Teachers, was effected at a meeting at Martin Monday night, with the receipt of the federation charter and the election of officers.

Claude Frady, Garrett high school coach and moving spirit in the movement, was named president. The three vice-presidents, all athletic coaches, are Estill Hall, McDowell, Donald Music, Auxier, and John D. Campbell, Wayland, Mrs. Ogdin Stewart, of the Auxier school faculty, was elected financial secretary, and Miss Linda Stephens, of Prestonsburg high school, secretary and corresponding secretary.

The federation now has a membership of approximately 75. Its application for a charter bore the names of 46 teachers, the largest number to be filed with a charter application from any Kentucky county.

The charter was presented at Monday night's meeting by Patrick Kirwin, president of the Kentucky Federation of Teachers, who spoke on the purpose of the teacher organization, stressing the economic status of teachers.

Plans are being made, it was announced, to send representatives to the state convention, Federation of Teachers, in Louisville, Nov. 14-15. Next meeting of the group will be held at Martin, Nov. 17 at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Lee Hall, of Auxier, was here Monday, shopping.

Cats Take to Air; Result--The Opposition Blows Up

Prestonsburg's Black Cats took to the air in setting up its touchdown plays last Friday afternoon against Raceland High, for the first time this season, and they did it so successfully the opposition blew up.

After the initial Prestonsburg touchdown early in the second quarter, Raceland showed little vim and by the end of the game was plainly demoralized. Prestonsburg won, 26 to 0.

The first marker came after a pass from Porter to Vaughan on a "sleeper" play had taken the ball to the Raceland two-yard stripe. From there Branham went off guard on the next play to score. Mayo converted on his specialized end run.

Again in the same quarter, Porter began hitting Vaughan with passes. This worked the ball down to the 12, from where Porter shot a pass to Burchett standing in the end zone. A line smash failed to add the extra point.

The third touchdown came in the third quarter when a Raceland back, attempting to pass in the face of a stiff wind, saw his heave come to rest in the arms of Bradley. Cat left guard, Bradley scampered 50 yards to score. A pass to Burchett annexed the extra point.

To wind up the scoring, the Cats

GILLIAM DIES OF GAS BURNS

Firecracker Tossed Near Gasoline Tank Causes Fatal Blast

The test of a firecracker used in training young dogs resulted in the explosion Sunday of a tank of gasoline on Harmon's Branch, Pike county, and the death 16 hours later of John Robert Gilliam, 21-year-old World War II veteran and native of Betsy Layne.

The veteran tossed a firecracker which he was using in lieu of a gun near a gasoline tank. In the resultant explosion he was sprayed by flaming liquid and ran approximately 200 yards to a stream. He walked to his home, a quarter-mile distant, but soon afterward was taken to the Methodist hospital, Pikeville, suffering from second degree burns. Pneumonia later developed.

Gilliam, a veteran of the fighting in the Pacific war theatre, was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Gilliam, formerly of Betsy Layne. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Orlean Price Gilliam, his parents, four brothers and three sisters, James Gilliam, of Mossy Bottom, Charles E. Gilliam, of the army, en route to Germany, Cecil Gilliam, stationed with the army on Guam, Leo, of Mossy Bottom, Misses Tiny Beth, Edith Ann and Jacqueline Gilliam, all at home.

Funeral rites were conducted Wednesday from the Gilliam residence and burial was made in the Ratliff cemetery at Coal Run, the Baker & Preston Funeral Home directing.

VOTE RECOUNT IS EXPECTED

Tabulation for Haymond Fails To Jibe with Stub Book in Wayland Election

The possibility exists that a recount of the vote in Haymond precinct may change the complexion of Wayland city election returns, it was said Wednesday afternoon at the office of County Clerk Jarvis Allen.

It was explained that Haymond returns were counted Tuesday night and the vote certified by the election commissioners. The vote as certified showed that the total vote of the two local candidates on the opposing tickets was 37, with three ballots spoiled. Later, investigation disclosed that only 95 ballots had been used from the ballot book.

Only two votes, according to the count, separated Willard Castle, high man on the losing administration ticket, from Leck Stewart, low man on the winning slate. Others on the losing ticket were close up.

To gain a recount, the losers must file a petition in circuit court, it was said.

JUDGE SIGNS DRY ORDER

Prohibition Effective Jan. 2 Unless Appeal Filed by Wet Forces

Pike County Judge J. W. Pruitt signed an order Monday certifying the dry victory in the October 4 local option election and automatically making prohibition effective in Pike county in 60 days unless there is court action challenging validity of the election.

The county court convened after a month's recess which the Local Option League charged was done to delay the effective date when liquor sales would become legal.

This charge was called by Pruitt a "hypocritical slur on his court." He contended the adjournment was routine and was to allow him time to deal with a docket of some 100 cases in the quarterly court.

At the time the court adjourned, Judge Pruitt was quoted as saying: "It's far better to have legal sale. The return of prohibition will mean a bootlegger on every corner and a moonshine still in every hollow."

A statutory period of 60 days is permitted after recording of the election results to allow dealers to dispose of their stocks. That period will be up January 2, next. Pike county is the last wet spot in Eastern Kentucky.

Junior Red Cross To Launch Drive In Floyd, Nov. 17

The Floyd county Junior Red Cross drive will begin Monday, Nov. 17, and continue through remainder of the month. It was announced this week by Mrs. Ella Noel White, executive secretary of Floyd Red Cross Chapter.

Co-operation of teachers and pupils of every school will be sought in the drive, which precedes the regular Red Cross rolloccal campaign.

Mrs. Wayne Bradley, of Prestonsburg, chairman of the drive, said that Anna Mae Christian, chief counsellor for the Junior Red Cross, will assist in getting the drive underway.

MAJORITY HITS 91,000 COUNT OVER DUMMIT

Floyd County Polls Big Democratic Lead; Charter Change Loses

A majority of 100,000 votes for their gubernatorial candidate, Congressman Earle C. Clements, of Morgantown, over Attorney General Eldon S. Dummit, Lexington, Republican, was envisioned by Kentucky Democrats as the Clements lead hit the 91,000 mark this morning, with more than 400 precincts yet to be counted.

Swept into office, along with Clements, by the Democratic tidal wave of votes was the entire Democratic state ticket. In every Congressional district of the state, except the Ninth, Democrats held the lead. Even the Third, which includes Louisville, gave Clements a majority of better than 6,000 votes, in contrast to pre-election predictions that the district would give Dummit a handsome majority.

The local picture differed none from the statewide picture—it depicted a sweeping Democratic victory. Out of 9,199 votes cast in Floyd county, Clements polled 6,748 to Dummit's 2,447. W. A. Sandefur, Socialist, received a total of four votes.

In the race for State Senator, Doug Hays, Democratic incumbent, defeated his McDowell neighbor, Foster Meade, Republican, by a district-wide majority reported at 7,271 votes. His Floyd county majority was 4,438 and he carried Knott county by 3,402 votes. Meade's majority in Martin, third county of the district, was 589.

Henry C. Hale, of Blue River, and John Milton Stumbo, of McDowell, Democratic candidates for Representative from the county's two legislative districts, won easily. Hale polled 3,717 votes to 1,087 for Elmer Bowe, Wayland Republican. Stumbo received a total of 2,844 votes to 1,200 for Charles R. Newman, Republican, of Hi Hat.

Although the county voted for a Constitutional convention, 1890 to 1443, the move lost heavily over the state.

Four write-in ballots for William E. Callihan, of Prestonsburg, were counted against Brady Shepherd, Democrat, who was without opposition for the unexpired term of Allen Stone, of Bevinsville, who resigned his office as Coroner.

George Glenn Hatcher, native Floyd countyman, polled the biggest majority on the state ticket in his race for Secretary of State. He led his Republican opponent, E. E. Hughes, in this county, 6,586 to 2,058. Floyd results in other state races: For Lieutenant-Governor: Lawrence W. Wetherby (D), 6,359; Orville M. Howard (R), 2,171.

FAKIRS 'TAKE' T.B. SUFFERERS

Two from State Sell 'Lung Remedy,' Draw Federal Convictions

Two Kentuckians who during the last five years have sold an estimated $15,000 worth of a worthless "lung remedy" have been convicted in federal court on a charge of using the mails to defraud, it was announced last week by N. H. D. West Virginia state health commissioner.

The two men, Dr. Dyer and his partner, their product in Kentucky, West Virginia and West Virginia. He explained that, while as far as is known, the drug they used is harmless, the danger lies in the fact that it gives a tuberculosis patient a feeling of false security. The patient in such cases neglects proper treatment by his physician, endangering not only his own health and life but also the health of his associates.

The West Virginia health commissioner warned against the use of such nostrums, even if they are harmless.

1948 Farming Season, Ho!—
And Hoe Is Little Needed

More about farming without a hoe—or are you interested? Harry Bolser, writing from Henderson for The Courier-Journal, tells the story: Henderson county's bottom-land farmers are dealing death to crop-strangling weeds with the new "wonder chemical," 2-4-D.

If you don't believe it, ask any Henderson farmer who owns bottom-land corn and who has been waging a losing battle annually against weeds.

Four of those farmers made some startling revelations here during a field tour and a panel discussion of results in experiments with 2-4-D in corn fields.

Approximately 100 farmers from the Green and Ohio rivers sections and agricultural experts from the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture got some first-hand information on how the fight against the bottom-land weed scourge turned in favor of the grower early last summer.

Henderson County Farm Agent H. R. Jackson, who mapped an extensive tour of bottom-land acreage where 2-4-D was used extensively early last summer, was forced by rain to cut short the program. However, about 20 farmers braved mud and water. They visited some corn acreage in the Horse Shoe Bend River section, near here, and examined several test fields.

They saw a plot of corn grown on the rich bottom land that virtually was destroyed by weeds. Adjacent was a corn plot that had been sprayed with 2-4-D. The stalks were weed-free and were standing erect. The yield, according to the Henderson county farm agent, was increased from 10 bushels an acre to as high as 20 and 30 bushels.

Jackson said the new weed-killing chemical first was used in this county last June 18. Until that first experiment, bottom-land farmers were "working themselves to bones" trying to hold off the weeds long enough to get their corn crops "laid by." They were losing thousands of bushels of corn annually to the straggling weeds.

During the panel discussion, Joe King, who planted an extensive corn acreage in the Horse Shoe Bend section, was asked by Jackson if the chemical worked on his crop.

"It certainly did," replied King. "If it had not worked I would not be here today. I would be in Hopkinsville (Western State Hospital for the insane)."

The crowd in the Soaper Tobacco Warehouse where the discussion was held, roared when King remarked: "And I don't intend ever to hoe any more corn. In fact, I've made kindling out of all my hoe handles."

King said he used a pint of 2-4-D in four and a half gallons of water per acre.

In opening the discussion, Jackson spoke of 2-4-D as "heralding a new day in the corn growing belt of Kentucky, Indiana, and Illinois." He explained that bottom-land farmers here have proved that 2-4-D will kill weeds, and not corn.

He said the spray was used on 14,000 acres of Henderson county bottom land corn this year and "the results have been outstanding."

Two-4-D, Jackson told the gathering, has been found to be particularly effective in killing "giant horse weeds," described as probably the greatest menace to bottom-land corn; cockle burrs, and hog weed.

Thick vines which strangle corn were dead the next morning after a 2-4-D spraying, according to Jackson.

Harold Blakeman said he sprayed his entire corn crop—500 acres.

"At the time we first used 2-4-D we didn't know whether it would kill the corn or the weeds," said Blakeman, "but I figured it couldn't cut the crop any more than the weeds, so I shot the weeds. Until that time we were hoeing and every time we hoed it rained and weeds seemed to grow thicker and higher."

Blakeman said he sprayed his field once with the new chemical and wiped out the weeds. In 1946 his bottom land produced from 30 to 40 bushels of corn an acre. This year's average was 50 bushels an acre on the same ground, but under somewhat adverse growing conditions compared with 1946.

John Pfington, another bottom-land farmer, thinks so much of 2-4-D that he believes all you have to do is, "just show a horse weed 2-4-D and it passes out." He explained that the average cost of hoeing corn is $4 an acre and spraying with 2-4-D costs only $1 an acre.

Jackson explained that the weed-killing chemical still is in the experimental stage and warned farmers to be careful in applying it. Farmers here have experimented only on corn.

However, C. B. Smith, who owns 850 acres of river corn land, said he sprayed 2-4-D down the side of a soybean field and no damage resulted to the bean plants.

Jackson warned, however, that a report from Texas revealed 2-4-D was said to have killed cotton 12 miles away when the chemical was sprayed from an airplane. He said he mentioned that as a warning to farmers to use the chemical only on crops which experiments have shown it will not hurt.

Heretofore, explained Smith, it has been difficult for a farmer to follow soybeans on a corn field because of the heavy weed growth following the corn harvest. Now the fields will be weed free, he said.

Smith estimated that he alone saved between $5,000 and $6,000 this year by spraying with 2-4-D.

Dr. L. M. Josephson, Kentucky College of Agriculture research specialist in corn, warned the farmers that "2-4-D is not a substitute for cultivation entirely," and added, "There are a lot of things we still have to know about it. And we still have to learn just how to use it."

He told the farmers that in College of Agriculture experiments with the weed killer there was noted some injury "down in the leaf world" of the stalk when the corn was sprayed too early with 2-4-D. No damage resulted when the corn was sprayed near the tasseling state but the weeds in the plot were killed, he said.

Josephson also said some work has been done with "pre-emergence" spraying, or spraying before corn has come through the ground.

College of Agriculture chemists here for the discussion warned farmers that 2-4-D has worked effectively on corn, but that it has not been used on other crops.

BOYD PREPAY PLAN OKEHEH

Is First Medical Plan On County-Wide Basis Set Up in Kentucky

Kentucky's first voluntary prepay medical plan to be set up on a county-wide basis, was approved Friday for Boyd county by the State Board of Health.

It will probably "set a pattern for the rest of the state," Dr. P. E. Blackerby, state health commissioner, said.

The board approved the incorporation of Medical Service, Inc., a non-profit corporation. Its physician-members will supply up to $150 worth of surgical, obstetrical, anesthesia, and x-ray and radium benefits to subscribers annually.

Dr. Blackerby said 24 of the 32 physicians in Boyd county have voted to join the service. Six physicians from Ashland and one from Catlettsburg, are the incorporators.

Greenup county doctors probably will form a similar service, and physicians in Pike county also are planning one, Dr. Blackerby told the board. In Boyd county and elsewhere the plans can be extended to adjoining counties "any time they get 50 per cent or more of the doctors in these counties to join," he said. Subscribers are not confined to any single county.

It was understood the plan will cost subscribers $1 monthly for a single person and $2 for a family, though Dr. Blackerby said he hadn't been informed officially.

Incorporators of the Boyd county service are Drs. George M. Bell, Oliver H. Fearing, H. E. Martin, Leslie D. Urban, Walter F. Williams, and Leslie H. Winans, of Ashland; and Dr. E. W. Garred, Catlettsburg.

"The Ashland plan is modeled on one already working in Huntington, W. Va., he added. It is limited to "surgical services." These include "operative and cutting procedures, . . . treatment of all fractures and dislocations . . . anesthesia . . . obstetrical service in the home or hospital, and x-ray and radium therapy." Blackerby said it will cover visits to doctors' offices.

It will not cover medical costs because its doctors "would be swamped before they got started," Blackerby said. He told the board Huntington Medical Care, Inc., took in $60,000 and paid out $48,000 in benefits its first six months. Only after such a service builds up a good surplus can it afford to pay "medical" benefits as well, he added.

Under the Boyd county plan, a subscriber must pay half the difference if his doctor's surgical bill runs more than $150 a year.

Only persons already subscribers to Blue Cross Hospital Service may join the new service. Lane Tyne, Kentucky Blue Cross director, said about 15,000 persons in Boyd county are Blue Cross subscribers.

"The Boyd county plan differs from one considered recently by the Kentucky Medical Association in that it is open to anyone, regardless of income. The state association discussed a plan of benefits only to persons earning below a certain income.

Kentucky Children, Inc., Begins County Organization

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 3 (Spl.)—H. Fred Willkie, president of Kentucky Children, Inc., today announced the appointment of chairmen for county committees to represent the child welfare organization in five counties. Kentucky Children, Inc., plans to organize a committee of representatives in every county in Kentucky as well as a state-wide Speakers' Bureau, Willkie said.

The five county committee chairmen named are Finley Tynes, Shelbyville for Shelby county; Dathne Hadden, Lawrenceburg, Anderson county; Mrs. Marcus Phelps, Leitchfield, Grayson county; Mrs. T. E. Sparks, chairman, and Mrs. Paul Wickliffe, co-chairman, Central City, Muhlenberg county; Russell Corneette, Hopkinsville, Hopkins county; Mrs. John Kirtley, chairman, and Col. Vernie Bidwell, co-chairman, Owensboro, Daviess county, and Mrs. Virgil Kinna'rd, Lancaster, Garrard county.

Kentucky Children, Inc., is a non-profit organization set up to help meet the health, welfare, educational and recreational needs of all the children of Kentucky. It operates, through volunteers, as a fund raising and distributing agency helping approved child welfare agencies in the state, supplementing their activities.

In addition to the county committees now being set up, Kentucky Children, Inc., includes four permanent operating committees. Its Research Committee, headed by Dr. John V. Taylor, president of the University of Louisville, secures data necessary for the operation of the corporation. The Accrediting Committee, headed by Dr. H. L. Donovan, president of the University of Kentucky, establishes standards for child welfare organizations applying for aid and determines to what degree they need assistance. The Budget Committee, with C. J. Deusch, Louisville business executive as chairman, receives from member groups requests for funds. It passes, increases or decreases such requests in accordance with funds available, amount of funds required and need. The Executive Committee, headed by H. Fred Willkie, Louisville industrialist, takes final action on recommendation of all committees. All committee members of Kentucky Children, Inc., are volunteers—active people throughout the state.

Kentucky Children, Inc., its officials said, resulted directly from the extreme need for improvement of child welfare and the increasing pressure for funds by welfare groups. Indirectly, it developed from the work of the Post-war Planning Committee of Kentucky.

"The whole aim of Kentucky Children, Inc.," according to its Executive Committee, "is to help the state take care of its own child welfare needs."

Believing that boys' clubs, teenage canteens, recreational and educational projects reduce juvenile delinquency and help mold young people into good citizens, the organization proposes to help communities set up such projects. It makes an initial contribution and then the community is responsible for their upkeep and continuance.

In the field of education, Kentucky Children, Inc., plans to aid children served by such settlement schools as Annville Institute in Jackson county; Buckhorn school in Perry county; Red Bird school in Bell county; and Pine Mountain Settlement School in Harlan county. It also offers scholarship aids for needy students who wish to attend any of the Kentucky colleges accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Since public library service is available to only one-third of Kentucky's population, Kentucky Children, Inc., has approved aid in the way of traveling libraries or "Bookmobiles" to carry reading materials to children in counties without library service.

To carry out its program to aid the children of the state, Kentucky Children, Inc., officials say, will require $500,000 for the first year.

OF INTEREST TO VETERANS

AUTOS FOR AMPUTEES GO TO 2,207 IN 3 STATES

A total of 2,207 disabled veterans of World War II in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky had received automotive vehicles at government expense by October 1 under the "autos for Amputees" law, Veterans Administration Tri-State Branch office in Columbus, O., reported recently.

Total cost was $3,507,619, or an average of $1,589 per vehicle. The state totals included: Ohio, 971 vehicles, $1,545,105; Michigan, 846 vehicles, $1,342,767; Kentucky, 390 vehicles, $619,746.

The law provides an automobile or other conveyance at a cost not to exceed $1,600 for any World War II veteran who lost, or lost the use of, one or both legs at or above the ankle as the result of service-incurred injuries.

Disabled veterans have until June 30, 1948, in which to apply for automotive vehicles at government expense under the present law. Application forms are available at all VA offices.

VOLPE, ACTING MEDICAL HEAD FOR VA IN AREA

Dr. Peter A. Volpe, of Worthington, Ohio, has been designated as acting medical director for the Veterans Administration in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky, it was announced this week by Ralph H. Stone, administrator of the VA's tri-state branch office in Columbus, O.

Dr. Volpe, who is chief of Physical Medicine Rehabilitation for VA in the three states, was named acting medical director upon the transfer of the director, Dr. Clyde H. Francis, to the VA's Denver, Colorado, Branch Office, where he will serve in the same capacity. Dr. Francis has been with the Columbus Branch Office the past 15 months.

Dr. Volpe practiced in Columbus for 10 years. He was seriously wounded in action during World War II, in which he was a medical corps major.

IN-JOB TRAINING FOR DISABLED VETS RISES

A 13 per cent increase during the past six months in the number of disabled veterans in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky taking on-the-job training under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act (Public Law 16) was reported this week by the Veterans Administration Branch Office in Columbus, Ohio.

VA said 15,208 disabled veterans were enrolled in job-training courses in the three states on October 1, compared with 13,419 last April 1.

The increase showed a variance in each of the three states. In Kentucky, a 34 per cent increase was reported, with 1,663 disabled veterans enrolled in job-training courses October 1, compared with 1,237 last April 1. The number in training in Ohio on October 1 was 8,758, or 14 per cent greater than the 7,677 in training last April 1. A six per cent increase was noted in Michigan, with 4,787 in training October 1 and 4,505 on last April 1.

Approximately 2,400 disabled veterans in the three states now are awaiting assignment to job-training facilities, including 1,500 in Ohio, 550 in Michigan and 350 in Kentucky. Employers who are willing to accept disabled veterans as trainees are urged to contact the nearest VA office.

Hazard-Jenkins Buses Stopped by Strike

A strike by about 30 drivers for the Hazard-Jenkins bus line, called Saturday reportedly in demand for more pay, leaves residents along the 58-mile route without a means of public transportation.

Louisville & Nashville trains were running between Jenkins and Fleming, six miles away, but only taxicab service was available to Neon, Seco, Whitesburg, and points beyond.

No comment was available from either company or bus-driver spokesmen.

SHEDS DIRT...STAYS WHITE...

DU PONT HOUSE PAINT CLEANS ITSELF!

Outside surfaces stay fresh and clean-looking when finished with Du Pont House Paint. Dirt and grime can't get a grip—rains just wash them away!

SELF-CLEANING Du Pont House Paint is so formulated that, as time goes by, a microscopically fine white powder forms on the surface. Heavy rains wash the powder away, taking dust and dirt with it, and leaving the surface clean and white again. Excessive accumulations of dirt (particularly in sooty industrial communities or in heavily shaded locations) may delay or interfere with this process. Because this "self-cleaning" is gradual, the wearing qualities of the paint film are not abnormally affected. SELF-CLEANING Du Pont House Paint is as durable as it is beautiful. . . protects against rust, rot, and decay . . . gives lasting beauty and protection. Costs no more than ordinary paints—saves re-painting bills! Call on a reliable painter for your painting jobs, and ask him to use Du Pont House Paint!

"Total receipts, disbursements, total spent on rural highways and state construction, total value of contracts awarded and total value of work completed" for 1947 are indicated in summing up of eight years of department activities as the greatest of them all. Copies of the report have been filed with Governor Smeon Willis and Highway Commissioner J. Stephen Watkins.

"With the large cash balance available at March 31, 1947 (stated elsewhere in the report as being $21,794,894.50) and the value of contracts awarded but not completed, next year should exceed even 1947," the report says. Increases in receipts for 1947 over 1946 are notable. Receipts for 1947 are given as $31,994,459.23 as against 1946 receipts of $19,967,245.56. Highest year of the eight included was 1942 when the department received $24,376,645.65 from all sources.

"The so-called 'Good Roads Amendment' adopted in 1945 under which all license fees and motor vehicle usage taxes were appropriated to the state road fund was responsible for the large part of the increase," according to the report. The tabulation for 1947 shows that the usage tax delivered $2,275,188.64 in new revenue to the fund; an additional $480,015 came from operators' licenses and $2,263 was added in the form of penalties on truck weight and mileage taxes.

"Several significant changes . . ." were noted by the report in the administration of the department. "The cost of the commissioners' and advisory commissioners' offices have been materially reduced . . . in relation to the total cost of administration." Percentage schedules carried in the report show that highest cost of the commissioner's office was in 1943 when $65,546.50 was expended with the lowest cost recorded in 1946 when $19,788.29 was spent for that office.

"Abolishment of the Advisory Commission in 1944 and other economies in the office of the Commissioner in later years enabled the department to expand into other activities without exceeding the statutory limit ($600,000 annually) of administrative expenses," the report indicates.

"The refund of gasoline excise taxes to farmers went into effect July 1, 1946. During the first year the law was in force, the department disbursed in refunds . . . a total of $207,071.04." Twenty counties are recorded as having made no application for refunds while in 19 counties individual refunds exceeded $3,000. Highest was Christian with $14,932.19 in refunds, Henderson with $14,906.18 and Davies with $12,471.13. Eight individuals are recorded as having obtained in excess of $500 in refunds, six in excess of $400, 15 in excess of $300, with over 5,000 other individuals obtaining from $25 to $300 each.

Revival meeting will begin at the Freewill Baptist Church, West Prestonsburg, Sunday night, Nov. 9. The Rev. Scott Castle, of Paintsville, will conduct the services. Everybody welcome. A special invitation to all churches.

St. Luke, 11:31—The queen of the south shall rise up in judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them. For she came from the utmost part of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon and behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

St. Luke, 11:52—Woe unto you lawyers. For ye have taken away the key of knowledge. Ye entered not in yourselves and them that were entering in you hindered.

St. Luke, 11:49-50-51—Therefore also send the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles and some of them they shall slay and persecute.

That the blood of the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world may be required of this generation.

From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias which perished between the altar and the temple, verily, I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation.

With a heart full of love for God and our fellowman I call on all the blood-washed band of a crucified and risen Lord to earnestly pray to God to change the name of bloody Floyd county to a land that flows with milk and honey.

A widow and Gold Star Mother who prays such a prayer day and night. Please take warning.

Sincerely and in deep sorrow,

KENTUCKY ON THE MARCH

By EWING GALLOWAY

Nearly every time I drive over our bluegrass pastures in autumn and see Hereford cattle fattening on Korean lespeze that grows in the grass, I think of Charles M. Meacham, Jr., of Union county, because it was Mr. Meacham who did more than any other individual to popularize that wonderful legume in the Pennyrile district.

The Kentucky Experiment Station and a committee of Union county farmers honored Mr. Meacham a dozen years ago with a Master Farmer's plaque, agriculture's distinguished service medal, for bringing lespeze to that county, and the honor was more than deserved. His first large crop of seed was highly profitable, selling at around 50 cents a pound. But the price tumbled the very next year, because nearly every farmer who bought seed from Meacham harvested seed for himself. But the drop in price did not affect seriously the production of lespeze seed. It was profitable at less than 10 cents a pound.

In three or four years more than 50 per cent of the farmest in West Kentucky were growing lespeze for pasture, for hay, or for seed. All were growing it for the nitrogen it put into their soil.

Now Korean lespeze is grown all over Kentucky and many of my neighbors say it is the greatest blessing to agriculture that has come our way in the last 50 years. It furnishes at least 35 per cent of the state's hay crop. On ridge land, where red clover is hit or miss, one year to Korean lespeze usually doubles the yield of corn the following year. Lespeze doesn't miss, even on land that has not been sweetened with lime.

In West Kentucky the most popular mixed pasture is lespeze and redtop. Nearly everybody sows it with red clover to put nitrogen in spots where the clover misses. Lespeze matures later than clover, so it does not help the hay crop much.

To build up second bottom land in one year for two corn crops I sow 10 pounds of lespeze with 10 pounds of sweet clover and turn under the rank yield of green stuff in the fall for green fertilizer, sow barley for a winter cattle pasture, then plow under the barley in the spring for more green fertilizer, and plant my corn. This rotation improves the land over the stretch, whereas red clover followed by corn calls for a four-year rotation.

This year Kentucky has more livestock than any other state south of the Ohio river and east of the Mississippi, and lespeze is largely responsible for this achievement. We have 1,502,000 head of cattle, 1,414,000 hogs, 787,000 sheep and we are marching on to higher records as we sow more and more lespeze.

Hang on to your Savings Bonds.
