

This Town-- That World

THAT'S TELLIN' 'EM, BROTHER! Out in Omaha, Neb., there lives a kindred spirit whose acquaintance I devoutly crave. Here's what he wrote the City Clerk of Omaha, as a companion-piece to a dollar bill he sent along in payment of an overparking fine:

"As witnessed on reverse side of the inclosed dunn, Meter 512 was and probably still is out of order.

"You declare me a nuisance. Well, I declare Meter 512 and Officer 132 a nuisance. I parked at 10 a.m.—put a nickel in the machine—it wouldn't trip. Put two pennies in—still it wouldn't work.

Returned at 10:30 a.m., put another nickel in, in the presence of witnesses—still wouldn't work.

"If I had your advantage of positive means of collection, I would request a fee to cover 9 cents' over-collection, injury to hands from huffing meter, three cents' postage relating the horrible details, 10 minutes' time rounding up witnesses and 45 cents for a bourbon and tap water to unjangle nerves."

PLEASE SPECIFY SIZE

The advertisement is in one of those slick-paper magazines which caters to the sedate fairside reader, and so this family newspaper feels constrained to pass it along to its readers. It runs:

"Adjustable, rus'-proof grippers. On in a jiffy. Quite a deal for shower gifts. Parents will love you. Two sizes: pint and half-pint."

Sure, that ad's about diapers. But you didn't know—now, did you?—that the advertiser (address, Culver City, Calif.)—Pee Wee Hoose.

SUDS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR CUDS

And one of my more sedate friends sends along a clipping to prove something or other—what, I haven't yet got around to figuring out. You take it and see what you can do with it.

"Dairymen at the University of Wisconsin Farm and Home Show pooh-poohed claims that a beer-drinking English milk cow produced 41,952 pounds of milk in 329 days and declared they'd continue to feed alfalfa, silage and grain.

"It's different, though, with bulls. A couple of slugs of gin or bourbon will do wonders for a listless, sleepy-eyed bull," one veteran cattleman commented. "But give 'em too much and you'd better run for the barn."

ACCUSED MAN JAILED HERE

Gibson, Whose $10,000 Bond Forfeited, Taken Last Week in Letcher-co.

Dewey Gibson, whose $10,000 bond was forfeited at the January term of circuit court here when he failed to appear for his trial in the murder on Left Beaver Creek of Taylor Blackburn, was returned to jail here Sunday from Letcher county by Deputy Sheriff J. B. Hall.

Gibson was reported upon his failure to appear for trial as having been injured and unable to come here. Later, when officers searched for him, he was missing. He was arrested last week by Letcher county officers and held for return here. He was working as a miner when captured, Deputy Sheriff Hall said.

Gibson's sureties were W. B. Boyd, Hais Harris, Robert Harris and Wade Holbrook.

WIDOW ASKS SECOND TRIAL

After Jury Verdict Allows Only $5,000 In Husband's Death

Awarded damages totaling only one-tenth of the $50,000 for which she had sued in the death of her husband, Mrs. Ida Acree, widow of Howard Acree, of Eastern, filed motion for a new trial Friday following the jury's verdict in the Floyd circuit court.

The jury after several hours' deliberation divided the $5,000 damages allowed the widow between five defendants, as follows:

Feuchtenberger Bakery Co., $1,583.33; Dr. G. C. Collins, $1,583.33; Ethel Collins Wills, $1,583.34; Elbert Clark and Bert Hall, $125 each.

Including the plaintiff's attorneys, 14 lawyers were involved in the hearing of the case. Evidence produced during the trial showed that Acree was fatally injured while walking alongside the highway at Eastern; that the bakery truck driven by Bert Hall and the automobile of Mrs. Wills, driven by Elbert Clark, collided and that the auto struck Acree. Clark contended that Dr. Collins, father of Mrs. Wills, gave him keys to her car and sent him to Lacey after materials for his use and that the tragedy occurred while he was on this mission.

THEATRE FIRE IMPERILS 200

Projection Room Blaze At Hi Hat Causes Loss Placed at $15-20,000

A theatre crowd estimated at 200 persons was evacuated without injury last Wednesday night as the Hi Hat Theatre at Hi Hat, Left Beaver Creek, went up in flames.

The blaze, which was said to have started in the projection room during the showing of a film, caused damage ranging from $15,000 to $20,000, it was said here this morning. The loss included the frame theatre building, seats and projection and sound equipment which was practically new. There was no insurance, it was said.

The theatre was owned by Harmon Snyder and his brother-in-law, Orville Stephens. Mr. Snyder, who also owns theatres at Weeksburg and Ligon, was at the Weeksburg theatre at the time of the fire. Stephens was in charge of the Hi Hat theatre.

Hi Hat has no firefighting facilities, and the blaze was such that emergency equipment at the theatre could not cope with the flames, according to the report reaching here.

LARGE CROWD HEARS BRYANT

At Dinner Here Honoring Grid, Basketball Teams; Says Grid Training Vital

A crowd taxing the capacity of the recreation rooms of the Methodist Church heard Paul "Bear" Bryant, head coach of the University of Kentucky Wildcats, last Thursday evening bear striking witness to the need Kentucky has for more football and the need youth has for the sport.

Coach Bryant, guest-speaker at the Kiwanis-sponsored banquet honoring the Prestonsburg high school football and basketball teams and their coach, John R. Eibner, extolled the Prestonsburg athletic record, cited the excellence of Coach Eibner's work here and mentioned, in particular, Charles Graham Porter and Howard Burchett, outstanding gridiron prospects who will come under his tutelage at the University next fall.

Bryant declared his team wants more Kentucky boys, but pointed out that the state has the smallest number of football teams of any state in the union, and, hence, the smallest home supply of material. Before the war, Kentucky had, all told, 59 football teams and now has only 100. At the same time, Tennessee has 450, Pennsylvania 800, and so on, he said.

The Kentucky coach, recognized as one of the nation's ablest, and an engaging after-dinner speaker, stressed the value of football in the physical training and moral discipline of the player, fitting him for the bigger game of life.

Coach Eibner introduced each of his grid and basketball players. Chalmer Frazier, superintendent of Prestonsburg schools, acted as toastmaster. The music program consisted of numbers by the high school girls' trio and the high school quartet.

SEVEN HURT, ONE MAY DIE FROM BLASTS

Mud Creek Explosion Burns Five Miners; Dwale Man Maimed

One Floyd county man may die of burns, another is maimed and blinded and five others are burned and otherwise injured as the result of explosions in two Floyd mines within the last few days.

Explosion of a "dead shot" in a truck mine he was operating at Dwale blinded Oliver Porter, 41, of Dwale, and blew away one of his hands, early last Friday morning.

A "blown out" shot in a truck mine of the J. M. Hall Coal Company at Beaver, on Mud Creek, created an explosion Tuesday morning which burned five men, one probably fatally and two others seriously.

In a serious condition, and given only a "fifty-fifty" chance of recovery at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, is 64-year-old Henry Hamilton, of Mud Creek. Others burned in the Beaver explosion, all of whom are at the Martin hospital, are: Willie Mitchell, 20, and Bert Hamilton, 40, both expected to recover, barring complications; George Tackett, 46, and Ezra Tackett, 66, conditions of both less serious.

Nine men were working in the Mud Creek mine when the explosion occurred, four escaping without injury. They dragged the injured approximately 200 feet to safety.

Eddie Rowe, inspector with the State Department of Mines, said his department's investigation disclosed that 11 shots were being fired, eight with permissible powder and three with pellet powder. Eight shots, he said, fired, then the ninth and the explosion. The report, it was said, ascribed the blast to a "blown-out" shot from pellet powder with coal dust stemming.

The explosion in the Dwale truck mine came as Oliver Porter, accompanied by his two sons, was clearing debris over a shot which was known not to have fired on the preceding evening. His pick, it was said, detonated a dynamite cap. The resultant explosion blew away one hand, mangled the other and rendered him sightless. Dr. R. M. Sirkle, of the Beaver Valley hospital staff, said Wednesday he will recover but that he may be permanently blinded.

Porter's 18-year-old son, Jimmy, was hospitalized but had returned home Wednesday without doctors' permission. His eyes were injured by flying bits of coal, it was said.

Stephens and Hill Seek Radio Permit

The Federal Communications Commission, Washington, D. C., last Friday informed The Times that the Kentucky Mountain Broadcasting Company, which last week filed application for permit to construct a radio station here, is a partnership composed of D. C. Stephens and Circuit Judge E. P. Hill, Jr., both of Prestonsburg.

The station, as planned, would be 1,000-watt power on 900 kilocycles for daytime broadcast only.

Dr. J. C. Preston, of Pikeville, has sold his one-fourth interest in the Beaver Valley hospital at Martin to Dr. R. M. Sirkle, Prestonsburg, and Dr. Claude Allen, Langley, with whom he has been associated in operation of the institution for the last few years, it was announced this week.

The three owners of the hospital—Drs. Allen and Sirkle and Charles Moore—recently incorporated the business under the firm name of the Beaver Valley Hospital, Inc., with a capitalization of $50,000.

Dr. Preston, though returning to his practise in Pikeville, remains a member of the Martin hospital staff, it was said.

Dr. O. G. Pennington and sister, Mrs. Marie Pennington Turley, have returned here. Their father is visiting them.

Police Here Arrest 3 Alleged Bootleggers

Prestonsburg was clearer of bootleggers this week by three and the usual walk "around the corner" for a drink was reported as having turned into something of a hunt.

Booked by police on charges of bootlegging this week were Robert Sizemore, Mack Nelson and Ray Adams, all of whom posted $500 bonds.

Police here also reported that efforts of U.S. District Attorney C. P. Stephens to clear property in which he is interested of presence of bootlegging is a complete success. All suspected tenants have vacated, they said.

VFW ELEVEN ACCEPTS BID

To State Tournament; Ramblers Also To Play In Wheelwright Tourney

Prestonsburg's VFW Ramblers have accepted an invitation to represent the 15th Region in the state VFW tournament in Louisville, March 11, 12 and 13, Jimmy Roark, manager, announced this week.

Roark at the same time said the team will take part in the Gold Medal tournament starting at the Wheelwright high school gym, Sunday afternoon, under sponsorship of the Wheelwright independent basketball team. Other teams to compete in the four-day tourney there through March 2 are Pikeville, Paintsville, Harold, Elkhorn City, Virgie, Shelby and Wheelwright.

The Ramblers take to Louisville for the tournament a regular playing season record of 18 won and five lost, with the margin of loss in the five defeats totaling 11 points. The only team in this section to defeat the Ramblers was Wayland, a five team three times in tight games. Their other losses were to the House of David by four points and to the Sioux Warriors here Sunday night by one point.

The Wheelwright tournament begins Sunday afternoon at 2. The finals will be played Tuesday night. Presentation of trophies concluding the meet will be made by E. R. Price, general superintendent, Inland Steel Company, it was announced.

In the game here Sunday night with the Sioux Warriors, Capelli led the Ramblers with 14 markers, the Blackburn brothers, Adrian and Tommy, followed in scoring with 13 and 12 points, respectively. Bill Damron was next with nine points, Bill Sturgill and Roby Marcum scoring eight each and Roark adding four. E. Blacksmith, of the winners, added 37 more points to his huge season total for the winners.

TO MEET MONDAY

Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet Monday evening at 7:30 at the Methodist Church, with Mrs. O. T. Stephens leading the devotional program.

Red Cross Services in Floyd County Told as Volunteer Workers Prepared For Annual Drive Starting Monday

As a volunteer organization of workers stood poised for next Monday's opening of the Red Cross fund drive in this county, Marshall Davidson, publicity director of the drive in the county, answered an old question—"What has the Red Cross done for us?"

One item to which he pointed was a matter of $26,000 spent within the last 10 years in Floyd county for flood relief alone.

Within the past year, more than $2,000 was spent by Floyd Chapter of the Red Cross in giving aid to victims of Floyd county fires.

During the last five years, the war years, the home chapter was a strong link in that vital chain of communication between the boys in service and their loved ones at home. Letters, telegrams, emergency furloughs arranged, investigations made, money loaned servicemen, money loaned veterans to get them past a tight spot—these and a myriad other services were all in the Red Cross day's work.

Those war years, the Red Cross, it was pointed out, snipped red tape or waded through it to get help for servicemen and their folks back home. And the daily round of duties continues in peace. Last year, Floyd Chapter helped 72 soldiers and sail-

Four Floyd County Men Are Monoxide Victims

Bodies of four Betsy Layne men were removed this morning (Thursday) from the truck mine of the Southern Elkhorn Coal Company, two miles south of Boldman, in Pike county, 18 hours or more after the four had suffocated in the monoxide-filled mine entry.

The dead are: Archie B. Layne, 33, son of Melvin Layne, and owner of an interest in the mine.

Raymond Goble, 28, son of Mrs. Mayme Goble.

Eugene Blackburn, 24, son of John Blackburn.

George Moles, Jr., 25, single, son of George Moles, Sr.

All four were World War II veterans.

The tragedy was discovered this morning when wives of two of the men appeared at the mine, anxious because their husbands had not returned home. Eddie Rowe, inspector, State Department of Mines and Minerals, was passing the mine location at the time and investigated.

Looking inside, he could see two of the bodies. The other two were found approximately 20 feet farther inside. Rowe removed the bodies from the mine.

Harry Thomas, chief of the Department of Mines, said this afternoon that the subsequent probe revealed that only Goble, Blackburn and Moles were working when they

EVENLY MATCHED TEAMS TO INAUGURATE 58TH DISTRICT NET TOURNAMENT HERE; RUDD AND CASTLE ARE NAMED OFFICIALS

Next Thursday night at 8, two evenly matched fives representing Martin and Betsy Layne high schools will open in Prestonsburg high school gymnasium the annual 58th district high school basketball tournament, featuring Floyd county teams exclusively in the round robin looking toward a state championship in the Armory at Louisville later in the month.

Although season records rank those neighbors and oldtime rivals, Wayland and Garrett, as the county's foremost fives, one of the two will never reach the finals. For they are together in the upper bracket and the draw throws them at each other Friday afternoon.

In the lower bracket Wheelwright and Prestonsburg are liked, but they meet Friday night, and so one of these is destined to sit out remainder of the dance.

Scattered among these four teams are five others—Auxier, Maytown, McDowell, Martin and Betsy Layne—and among these may be found a dope upsetter.

Officials for the tournament, Donald Music, Auxier coach and tournament manager, announced, will be Mark Rudd, of Hazard, and Floyd Castle, Jr., of Pikeville.

Handsome trophies to be awarded on conclusion of the three-day meet are on display here in the Dickerson Drug Store window. Although Auxier high school is host to the tourney, the meet was moved to the larger and more accessible Prestonsburg gymnasium.

HINDMAN FIVE LAST ON CARD

Prestonsburg's Black Cats will play their last scheduled basketball game of the season here Friday night with Pearl Combs' powerful Hindman five furnishing the opposition.

During the last week the Cats picked up two victories, the last here Tuesday night over the Paintsville Tigers, while losing one. Friday night, they visited Martin and tasted 55-41 revenge for the pasting Martin handed them here, two weeks ago. Monday night, they lost, 46-37, to Wheelwright, the team they meet in their first game of the 58th district tournament here next Friday.

Then they atoned for this Tuesday night in a low-scoring but hard-fought game with visiting Paintsville, considered one of the stronger teams of the section. The Cats took an early lead and were never headed, although the score was knotted several times during the game. The gap between the two teams was never more than five points, and at the half Prestonsburg led, 19 to 17. Paintsville's last-gasp rally to snatch the game out of the fire was blocked by an error on the part of the Tiger coach as he substituted a player, then pulled him for another player before a play was made. It wound up with Prestonsburg on top, 29 to 28.

For the district tournament Henry Lewis Mayo, whose absence from the line-up has materially weakened the Cats for several weeks, will be ready, it was said. He suffered a severe wrist injury in the game at Carr Creek.

Revival Services Here Draw Large Crowds

The revival now in progress at the Pilgrim Holiness Church here is taking on momentum as larger crowds come in each night, the pastor, the Rev. R. L. Beeks, said Wednesday.

"The Pilgrimages"—Charles York and Norman Keller—are the singers and musicians. This is a return trip for the Pilgrimages as many expressed the wish to hear again their inspiring singing. The Rev. Thomas Shirk is the evangelist. His messages are being well received and enjoyed from night to night.

An invitation is extended to the public by the pastor and evangelistic party to the church.

HAYS PLANS SECOND BILL

New Legislation Would Provide State Stores In New Wet Territory

With the local option bill enacted by the Legislature becoming law last Thursday midnight without Governor Clement's signature, Senator Doug Hays, of McDowell, announced in Frankfort, the same day, that he will introduce a bill this week to provide for state whiskey stores in dry territory voting wet in future local option elections.

Senator Hays said the bill is being written by the Statutes Revision Commission.

The bill will be a substitute for his earlier measure to create a state monopoly for the wholesale and retail sale of whiskey, Senator Hays said. This bill was reported without committee expression last week. Senator Hays then moved that it be given first reading. His motion received only 11 affirmative votes, less than the constitutional majority of 20. The bill was sent back to committee by voice vote.

Senator Hays said his new bill would not disturb private wholesalers and retailers now selling whiskey in the 27 wet counties. But, he added, when territory in the 93 dry counties votes wet in the future, the state would establish retail stores and private retailers will not be allowed to compete.

Profits from the state stores, Senator Hays said, would be divided between the state, the county and the city in which the store is located. The ratio of division has not been worked out, he added.

Senator Hays said he foresees that several cities will vote wet under the local-option bill that became law at midnight last Thursday. This was the bill to allow cities of the first four classes to hold local option elections independently of the rest of the county. Heretofore, elections have been held on a county-wide basis.

"After a few of these state stores are opened and the people see how well they work," Senator Hays said, "I believe they will demand state stores for all the wet territory in Kentucky. There is just one way to control whiskey, in my opinion, and that is the state to sell it under the stiffest regulations that can be laid down."

His new bill, Senator Hays said, also will provide for one state wholesale house to supply the retail stores.

Barke To Open Lab For Testing of Coal

Equipment of the Prestonsburg Coal Testing Laboratory was being installed in the Porter building at the junction of the Mayo Trail and the Auxier road, near Cliff, this week, and the laboratory will be opened by March 1, George Burke, manager, announced.

Mr. Burke has resigned his post as coal preparation engineer for the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company at David, to take active charge of the laboratory. He will have as his assistant Greeley Hicks, who has been associated with him in Princess Elkhorn's laboratory since its opening. Mr. Burke has been preparation engineer at David since 1941 and before that was with the Island Creek Coal Company at Holden, W. Va., for six years in coal preparation work.

The laboratory to be opened next week will have all equipment necessary for proximate analyses of coal and will serve all coal producers of the section. Its services will determine ash, sulphur, fixed carbon, moisture, fusion and B.T.U. content of coal.

ACTION MAY ASSURE DAM COMPLETION

Attorneys Check Titles To Lands on Johns Cr.; $2,071,000 Suggested

Completion of the Johns Creek flood control dam at Dewey, this county, was virtually assured Tuesday as the House Appropriations committee approved an allocation of $2,071,000 for the project now well under construction.

Congressional approval of the appropriations bill which includes the Floyd county project will be sought by May, and if voted by Congress and oked by President Truman will make available on July 1 sufficient funds for completion of the dam.

Little danger of adverse action by Congress is seen, since the body itself last year restored the Johns Creek project to the appropriations bill after it had been lopped off in committee. At that time, Congressional leaders assured Congressman W. Howes Meade that Congress was ready to help if the people of this section would make their desires known.

If the full $2,071,000 allocation is made, the Congress will have appropriated a total of $5,216,000, covering entire cost of the big earth-fill dam which is designed to reduce floods on the Big Sandy and Ohio rivers.

For the past few weeks, attorneys have been here making abstracts of titles to lands in the Dewey reservoir area. This is a necessary work preliminary to purchase of lands by the federal government, it is explained.

Other flood control projects included in the appropriations bill of $22,000,000 approved by the committee are:

An $80,000 item to complete the $340,000 Taylorsville project, an 8,100-foot levee in Spencer county; $20,000 for a floodwall to be built at Hawesville; Wolf Creek reservoir, $12,400,000 for dam and power plant construction on the Cumberland river, near Jamestown—a cut of about $7,500,000 from the Budget Bureau's recommendation; Covington floodwall; $908,000, a $400,000 reduction from the budget recommendation; Newport floodwall; $1,800,000, which will carry the project to about 70 per cent completion by June 30, 1949; Louisville floodwall; $3,500,000, a $1,000,000 reduction from the budget recommendation.

CONLEY GETS LIFE IN PEN

Johnson Man, Held Here For Safekeeping, Draws Term in Murder of Blair

A verdict of life imprisonment was returned by the Conley trial jury this morning.

A jury in the Johnson circuit court today (Thursday) was pondering the fate of Forrest Dean Conley, 22-year-old slayer of his step-brother, Jasper Blair, after a trial which commanded the interest of hundreds of Paintsville residents.

Conley was returned last week from Paintsville from the Floyd county jail where he was brought after other prisoners for safekeeping repairs were being made in the city jail at Paintsville.

Blair was shot seven times entered the American Legion at Paintsville, Jan. 23. Conley, in dungarees and a white shirt, open at the collar, appeared nervous as he testified in his behalf Wednesday.

He insisted that he had shot Blair in self-defense, only after Blair threatened twice to kill him with a knife. Under questioning by his attorney, Edward L. Allen, of Prestonsburg, Conley told of events leading up to the shooting.

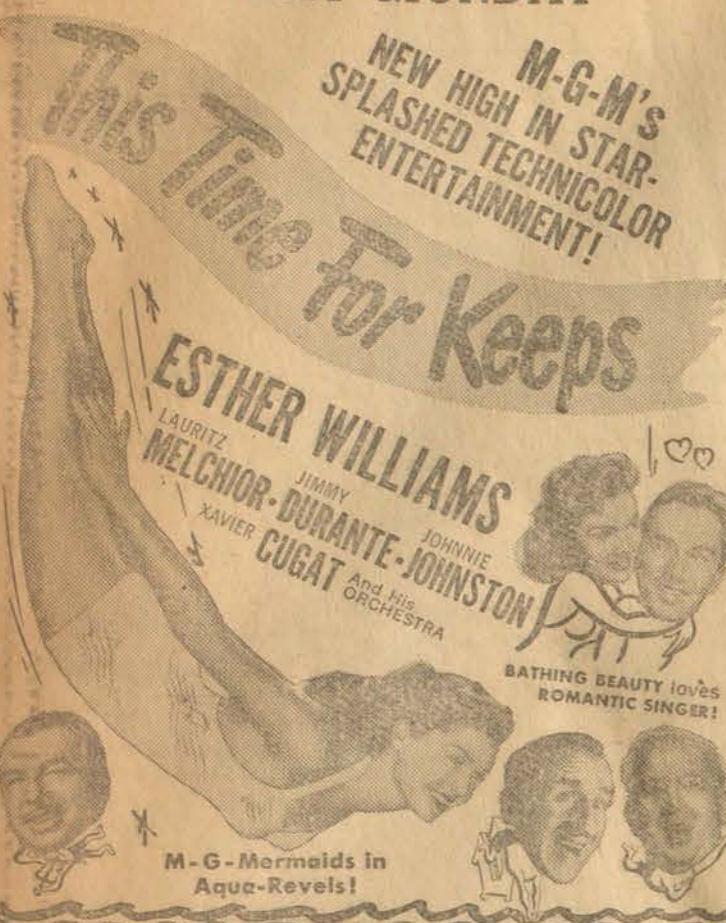

He said he and Blair and several other men had been playing cards at the Legion home during the afternoon of Jan. 23. Blair lost, the

With Two Others

Fourteen-year-old Crawford Casebolt, Ford's Branch, Pike county, was in custody in Lexington, Neb., Tuesday after running away from Boys Town last week.

Casebolt was admitted to Boys Town last fall after his life sentence on a robbery charge, given him at Pikeville, was remitted. The case attracted wide attention because of the offender's age.

A charge of being a juvenile delinquent was filed against Casebolt Tuesday after he and two companions, also from Boys Town, were arrested at near-by Gothenburg, Neb.

County Attorney John Neff, of Dawson county, Neb., said juvenile-delinquency charges were filed against all three boys in connection with the theft of a car. After a hearing before County Judge M. O. Bates the companions—James Fritter, 15, Miami, and Charles Stakelin, 15, Cynthia, Ky.—were ordered to the Boys' Training School, Kearney, Neb. Casebolt's case was continued until a parole officer arrives.

VETERANS' NOTES

Veterans may authorize the Veterans Administration to deduct National Service Life Insurance premiums from their disability compensation or officer retirement benefits which are paid by VA.

Insurance officials at the VA's Ohio-Michigan-Kentucky Branch Office in Columbus, O., explained that the deduction provision affords veterans receiving such benefits a simple and safe method of paying insurance premiums. The amount of the benefits must be sufficient to cover the monthly premiums.

Increased subsistence allowances for student veterans taking full-time educational courses will be reflected in checks payable on or shortly after May 1, Veterans Administration emphasized this week.

Mrs. Wellman Victim
At Home of Daughter

Mrs. Frances Wellman, 82 years old, widow of John Wellman, died Friday at the home in Martin of her daughter, Mrs. Jake Derossett.

She was a native of Breathitt county and had resided with her daughter at Martin for the last few years. She had many friends there, and was widely related in Breathitt county. Surviving her are four daughters, Mrs. Derossett, Mrs. Kellis Allen, Williamson, W. Va., Mrs. George Hurley, Cincinnati, O., Mrs. Fred Webb, Richmond, Va., and Mrs. L. I. Corden, Lynchburg, Virginia. One brother, G. D. Wooten, Williamson, W. Va., also survives.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday from the Church of Christ, Martin, and burial was made in the Frazier cemetery under direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

endant said, and asked Conley for $2 which Conley owed him. Conley said he didn't have the money and an argument followed. He said Blair threatened to "cut his head off." Conley said Blair returned later and as he entered the Legion home with a knife in his hand he said: "This is it."

A prosecution witness called to the stand Tuesday, Bill Conley (no relation to the defendant), testified that Conley, not Blair, had made the remark. However, Conley insisted that the victim had said it.

Conley said he had "emptied his gun" at Blair only in fear of his life as Commonwealth's Attorney J. B. Clarke rigorously cross-examined the defendant.

Three other witnesses were called by the defense, including Patrolman Proctor Hannah who made the arrest shortly after the shooting. The officer said he took a .38-calibre pistol, containing six shells, from Conley.

The Commonwealth has maintained that Conley sent a companion, Reece Ratcliff, to bring Blair back to the Legion home after the card game and that Conley shot Blair as he entered the lobby.

Ratcliff, 24, his father, Press Ratcliff, 45, the victim's step-mother, Mrs. Lillian Dean Blair, and Reuben Webb, Conley's brother-in-law, all are charged with murder in the slaying.

In his opening remarks to the jury, seated after a 43-member panel had been interviewed, Clark demanded the death penalty.

Nurse Tells of Meeting Soldier from County, One of Her Rescuers

A 52-year-old missionary nurse of the Methodist Church, now in Korea with the War Department to work with the military government in getting nursing education started there again, writes of her recent meeting in Korea with T/4 Frank Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Perry, of Prestonsburg, who took part in the liberation of the nurse and other Americans from the Los Banos prison camp during the war.

The nurse, M. Elston Rowland, writes, in part:

"Your son, Frank, was driving the bus that came by the hotel where I live, and he was always so courteous and kind to his passengers and always had such a happy smile that one day I asked him how long he had been in the service... and soon learned that he was on one of the amphibious tractors that came into our camp at Los Banos to rescue us from behind the Japanese lines. I almost hugged the boy right in the middle of the street. I don't think anyone except those who had the experience can begin to understand how we feel towards those boys who risked their lives to save us from starvation and possible massacre by the Japanese machine guns. Some of our group had died by starvation and all of us were pretty weak when they came to get us. So those boys who suddenly dropped from the sky that never-to-be-forgotten morning and those who rolled in on the tractors a few minutes later to get us were truly God-sent. We can never adequately express our gratitude.

"Frank is a lovely boy and he wants me to tell you he is not drinking any more and I understand he has influenced several of his buddies not to drink..."

Mayor E. P. Arnold and Brady Shepherd were business visitors in Huntington Monday.

We Might Break Clear

THE recent news-story in The Times of the Krebs plan for synthetic fuel production may have created false hopes for this section. The fact of the matter is, if we are not misinformed, neither Floyd county nor any other county in Eastern Kentucky has a Chinaman's chance of being the site of one of these big plants, as matters now stand.

The "matters" referred to are contained in one word, "transportation."

A news-story printed in the daily newspapers, and only a few days ago reaching this desk, points out that while the program proposed would provide for the construction of 75 to 100 plants over a 10-year period, the plants must be not only near coal but also near large quantities of water and first class transportation.

We have the coal. We have a railroad that has rendered the section good service, within the limits of its capabilities. But, it is explained, first class transportation means more than one form of transportation: it means rail, highway and water transportation.

And water transportation

we do not have. One railroad and one main highway, it is considered certain, will be regarded as inadequate when time comes for location of these plants if the program gets beyond the planning stage.

With the best coal in the world for synthetic oil and gasoline production, Floyd county and Eastern Kentucky are, for the present, too hemmed in — lack of transportation facilities for the federal government to invest heavily in such a plant here.

But the section could break its bonds within the next 10 years, well before the synthetic fuel program is completed. And so there is hope. The bonds will be broken when, and if, the Big Sandy river is canalized.

Any Change Will Be An Improvement

APPARENTLY, no immediate change in the method of handling Kentucky's rural highways is contemplated by Governor Earle C. Clements.

We had hoped a change would be made. Any departure from the record of failure compiled over the years by the present system would have been a welcome relief.

Although this newspaper has maintained that handling of state rural road funds by the fiscal courts of the several counties is desirable, it is not inclined to predict failure for that other plan which would place the whole road matter with the state.

Rural roads can be built by the state, if the Administration in power chooses to build them. If the state will stick to road-building and eschew the business of political fence-building, the big job ahead is not too great.

Whatever the success attained by any change made now or later, it will be better than the system now in effect; whatever its failures, they cannot be more dismal than the state-and-county cooperative system which features much talk, little action and everybody passing the buck.

The Times favored direct control of rural highway building by the counties, with careful planning and trained supervision, because it has always felt that the governmental unit closest home knows more of home needs, can get most done for the least money and is more directly responsible to its people than the state administration.

But it may be that we have seen the entire matter only from the Floyd county angle. Here we have been impressed by the fiscal court's interest in rural roads. Maybe there are fiscal courts in other counties that would have abused their new-given power.

But there is no maybe about this—the fiscal court that did so fail its own people would be in range and directly in line with the wrath of the voters who put them in office.

Nine Schools, Residents Here Give March of Dimes $518; Report Incomplete

Although complete figures on the success or failure of the March of Dimes in this county are unavailable, returns from nine schools and contributions from business men and women of this community, made direct to Miss Alice Harris, local chairman and president of the Prestonsburg Woman's Club, total $518.37.

While he had no actual figures at hand, Noble Hobbs, county chairman of the drive, said he believes the total will not exceed half the quota. Upon contributions of miners success of the fund-raising campaign largely depends, it was said.

Here, Miss Harris enlisted the aid of the Woman's Club which contributed $10 as prizes to the four pupils soliciting the largest total in contributions. In the grade school, which raised $200.37, Julia Mayo May won the $3 first prize and Joe David Harkins second prize of $2. First and second prizes in the same amounts were won in Prestonsburg high school by Daryn Shepherd and Lucille Cartmel. High school pupils solicited a total of $92.34. To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dickerson Miss Harris is presenting theatre tickets for displaying the March of Dimes "bank" drawing the greatest contribution locally, and she also is giving presents to Mrs. Alma Keenon and Mrs. Goble Branham for their assistance in the drive here.

Also contributed to Miss Harris by Prestonsburg residents was a total of $130.88.

Other school contributions sent the Prestonsburg chairman follow: Bosco, $20.68; Spurlock, $7; Auxler, $47.10; Cliff, $3; Middle Creek, $3; Brandy Keg, $6.50; West Prestonsburg, $7.50.

INEXPERT ADVICE

If my ability to re-stock Floyd waters with fish is no better than my ability to depopulate said waters with rod and reel, I would be more discreet if I held my peace. But, as they say with tongue in cheek, it's a free country...

What I have in mind is this: The Floyd County Fish & Game Club in its re-stocking program this year should add fish to Johns Creek rather than to the Big Sandy, since the completion of the Dewey dam now appears to be a certainty.

If the club does this, and places a special officer in the Johns Creek area to give the fish full protection, the Johns Creek reservoir will be well-stocked and ready for fishing when the dam across the valley is completed and the lake is formed.

You might say, the fish will go out Johns Creek into the Big Sandy. That's not likely, but if they did it wouldn't be fatal. That's where we've been trying to get 'em all these years, anyway. Then, again, you might say, the fish will be in the Big Sandy in the lower edge of the county or in Johnson county. That's not certain, either, for they are more inclined to travel upstream than down, if I don't forget my well-worn pocket manual on the habits of bass.

In all seriousness, this is a phase of the club's work that should be given more than passing thought. Personally, I'm interested in flood control. That dam, I trust, will be a big help in that department. But, being a poor, selfish dope who won't let a little thing like a fish discourage me, I'm just a little more inclined to welcome the fishing possibilities over on Johns Creek than I am the other benefits.

And I don't want to wait, along with hundreds of others, three years after the lake is formed for good fishing we should have as soon as the lake will float a boat.

Vincent Dies Monday After Half a Century As Democratic Leader

Gillis Vincent, for more than half a century a Democratic leader in Edmonson county, and father of 10 sons who have achieved prominence as public officials and in business and the professions, died at his home in Brownsville, Ky., Monday.

One of his sons is Haskell H. Vincent, Huntington, W. Va., coal operator, and former principal of Martin high school.

For 50 years he had been chairman of the Democratic county committee in predominantly Republican Edmonson county, and several times was elected to public office. He had served as county clerk, sheriff, tax commissioner, and postmaster.

Until his retirement a few years ago he had been for many years connected with the Brownsville Deposit Bank, of which he was cashier. He was also a farmer and landowner.

Gillis Vincent was a cousin of the late United States Senator Marvel Mills Logan.

Mrs. Gillis Vincent, the former Calvernia Willis, died about 10 years ago. They had been married 52 years.

While their 10 sons have all achieved prominence individually, they are unique collectively in that they are members of the famous Ten Brothers Corporation of Kentucky, formed by them in 1935 to promote "mutual aid and assistance" of the family.

The sons are Beverly Mills Vincent, Brownsville, former United States representative from the Second Kentucky district, former attorney general of Kentucky, and former State Senator; Roscoe Vincent, Warren county, former assistant United States attorney general; Conrad Vincent, Corinth banker; Elbert Vincent, Providence, R. I., teacher; Patrick Vincent, Ashland, former Boyd county judge and state representative; Raymond Vincent, Covington, commonwealth's attorney of the 15th judicial district; Clyde Vincent and Howell Vincent, Covington attorneys; Haskell Vincent, West Virginia coal-mine operator, and Paul Vincent, Brownsville.

KEA TO PUSH FOR $2,400

As Average Salary For State Teachers; Look for New Revenue

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 23—The Kentucky Education Association wants an average salary of $2,400 a year for public school teachers. And it's seeking also extension of the minimum school term to nine months.

This was announced yesterday by John W. Brooker, the Association's public relations director, in discussing the Association's plan for urging new forms of state revenue for education.

Presidents and secretaries of the 11 educational districts have been asked by K.E.A. President Heman McGuire to meet Wednesday in the office of Boswell B. Hodgkin, state superintendent of Public Instruction, at Frankfort. Possible new sources of state revenue for education are to be discussed.

Slated for discussion, Brooker said, are the pari-mutuel tax measure and the bill to raise the cigarette tax one cent. Most of the revenue under both bills would go toward teachers' pay.

DINNER HOSTESS
Mrs. C. L. Hutsinpiller entertained to dinner Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Cope, Toronto, Canada, Mayor and Mrs. E. P. Arnold, Mrs. Mary D. Allen, Dr. C. L. Hutsinpiller and Miss Mary Catherine Hutsinpiller.

It's a man's life!

Do you know whether you've got what it takes when the chips are down?

There's one good way to find out just how much of a man you are. Enlist in the U. S. Army as a combat soldier. That's tops. That's the spearhead—the sharp cutting edge of the Army's manpower.

The world's best training for manhood is in the Infantry, Artillery and Armored Cavalry. Once you've made the grade in those hard-hitting services you'll know what you've got. You'll have firm confidence in your own abilities.

It's a proud feeling to be able to say "I'm a U. S. Army Soldier." There's no more honored title than that. It stands for the finest fighting man on earth.

The work of a combat soldier isn't easy or soft. But it's vitally important to the peace and security of America. There's satisfaction in it. There's good pay—better than in most civilian jobs. There's the opportunity for excellent training in a wide variety of valuable trades and skills. And there are other things money can't buy—such as rugged, clear-eyed health and the lasting comradeship of real men.

If you're 18 to 34 years old (17 with parents' consent), physically sound and mentally keen—if you'd like to prove to yourself that you measure up as a man—talk it over at your nearest U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station today!

Mrs. Hall's Statement

Dear Editor:
I am enclosing a letter from our Nation's Prayer Tabernacle that was praying a special prayer for God's will to be done on Feb. 13, 1948 in a trial in circuit court for writing a letter (to Lee Frasure). I wrote the letter with divine guidance. I wrote it on a Bible. I wrote it with a blood-stained fountain pen taken from the pocket of my late husband, Levi Hall, Chief of Police of McDowell, who was murdered Aug. 22, 1937, by a man in a drunken rage. Four so-called preachers testified against me.

By the help of God and records of our nation, my Bible and personal appearance, I received a verdict of not guilty of any damage to any one by the letter writing. I wish for all God-fearing men and ladies of our nation to read the 18th chapter of St. Luke, the 4th chapter, 25th verse, 12th chapter Revelation and 4th and 5th chapter of Judges and then compare it with my record as a true Christian mother, widowed by murder, and a Gold Star mother of our nation. Thanking God first and all who prayed a prayer or helped in any way to see where there is right there is might.

Sincerely,
EVA MEADE HALL,
East McDowell, Ky.

Dear Friend:

Words cannot express our gratitude for your gift recently received. We continuously thank God for friends like you who always seem to help when it is needed most.

We have had many tests in the past months, but we have seen once more that, "All things work together for good to them that love God." We know that your prayers and help have been a definite factor in our victories.

Our prayer is that God will abundantly bless you in the coming months, and of course we expect you to keep praying for us that we may continue to be a blessing to others.

Yours in His service,
MRS. E. HOWARD CADLE

Heart Attack Fatal To Marston Lawson

Stricken by a heart attack, Wednesday of last week, while in a field near his home at Drift, Marston L. Lawson, 67 years old, well-known Left Beaver Creek man, died a few minutes later.

Mr. Lawson was a native of this county and had many friends throughout this section. He formerly engaged in mine work and later as a farmer. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Minnie Lawson, and one son, Richard Lawson, Dayton, Ky.

Funeral rites were conducted Saturday at Drift, the Revs. M. C. Wright, Troy Nickells, McKinley Moore, Mitchell Chaffins, Thomas Mosley, Proctor Hays and Mack McCloskey officiating. Burial, directed by the Arnold Funeral Home, was at Drift.

Let's Protect Our Children

Several hundreds of school children are being transported daily by bus to the different consolidated schools throughout the county. School authorities are making every effort to do this job with efficiency and safety for all concerned.

To continue doing this job well requires the cooperation of all highway users. Within the past months several instances of flagrant violations of traffic rules regarding school buses have been reported, thus endangering the lives of hundreds of school children.

Up to now we have had very few school bus casualties. Let us keep it that way. This can be done only by strict observance of traffic regulations regarding school buses. Let's not have it reported again that five children narrowly escaped death all because of negligence on the part of a highway user.

All drivers on the highway are asked to observe the specific traffic regulation regarding school buses: "No Driver Is Allowed to Pass a School Bus While Loading or Unloading School Children." All school bus drivers have been instructed to take the license tag number of those who violate this regulation and turn same in to the proper law enforcement officials.

All highway patrolmen, county law enforcement officials and civic-minded citizens are urged to be on the lookout for such violations. Let's not allow a single violator to escape prosecution.

It's the first of the Futuramic cars... introducing the first of the eagerly awaited new "postwar" Bodies by Fisher. It's Oldsmobile's Golden Anniversary model—and carries to a new high the Oldsmobile tradition of smartness! When you see this Futuramic Oldsmobile, you'll realize what important news it brings. There's style news in its clean, flowing Futuramic lines—its modern simplicity inside and out. There's safety news in the greater visibility provided by the new, low hood design curved windshield, and extra size windows.

There's welcome news for passengers, too, in the lower, wider, roomier Futuramic body. And there's good news underneath the hood—a new high-compression head which adds extra horsepower to Oldsmobile's famous 8-cylinder engine.

Naturally, this brand new 1948 model offers Oldsmobile's fully proved Futuramic feature—GM Hydra-Matic Drive*. Here's driving at its ultra-modern best. No clutch pushing—no gear shifting—just "step on the gas and go!" You go smoothly... comfortably... with thrilling performance... the Futuramic, Hydra-Matic way.

See the Futuramic Oldsmobile "98"—the colorful new Dynamic Oldsmobile "60" and "70"—on display in our showroom.

SHEDS DIRT...STAYS WHITE...

DU PONT HOUSE PAINT
CLEANS ITSELF!

Outside surfaces stay fresh and clean-looking when finished with Du Pont House Paint. Dirt and grime can't get a grip—rains just wash them away!

SELF-CLEANING Du Pont House Paint is so formulated that, as time goes by, a microscopically fine white powder forms on the surface. Heavy rains wash the powder away, taking dust and dirt with it, and leaving the surface clean and white again. Excessive accumulations of dirt (particularly in sooty industrial communities or in heavily shaded locations) may delay or interfere with this process. Because this "self-cleaning" is gradual, the wearing qualities of the paint film are not abnormally affected.

SELF-CLEANING Du Pont House Paint is as durable as it is beautiful... protects against rust, rot, and decay... gives lasting beauty and protection. Costs no more than ordinary paints—saves re-painting bills! Call on a reliable painter for your painting jobs, and ask him to use Du Pont House Paint!

DU PONT SLIP-RETARDANT SELF-POLISHING WAX

No rubbing or buffing. Dries to a smooth even lustre. Safety tested. PT. 59¢

Honor certificates will be issued to members of the Methodist Sunday School who have attended Sunday School the five Sundays in February. The interesting feature about the certificates is contained in a line which states, "It is possible for a certificate of this character to be issued only three times in one hundred years."

Where would you look for a lonely farm?

CITY folks used to think farm life was a lonely life.

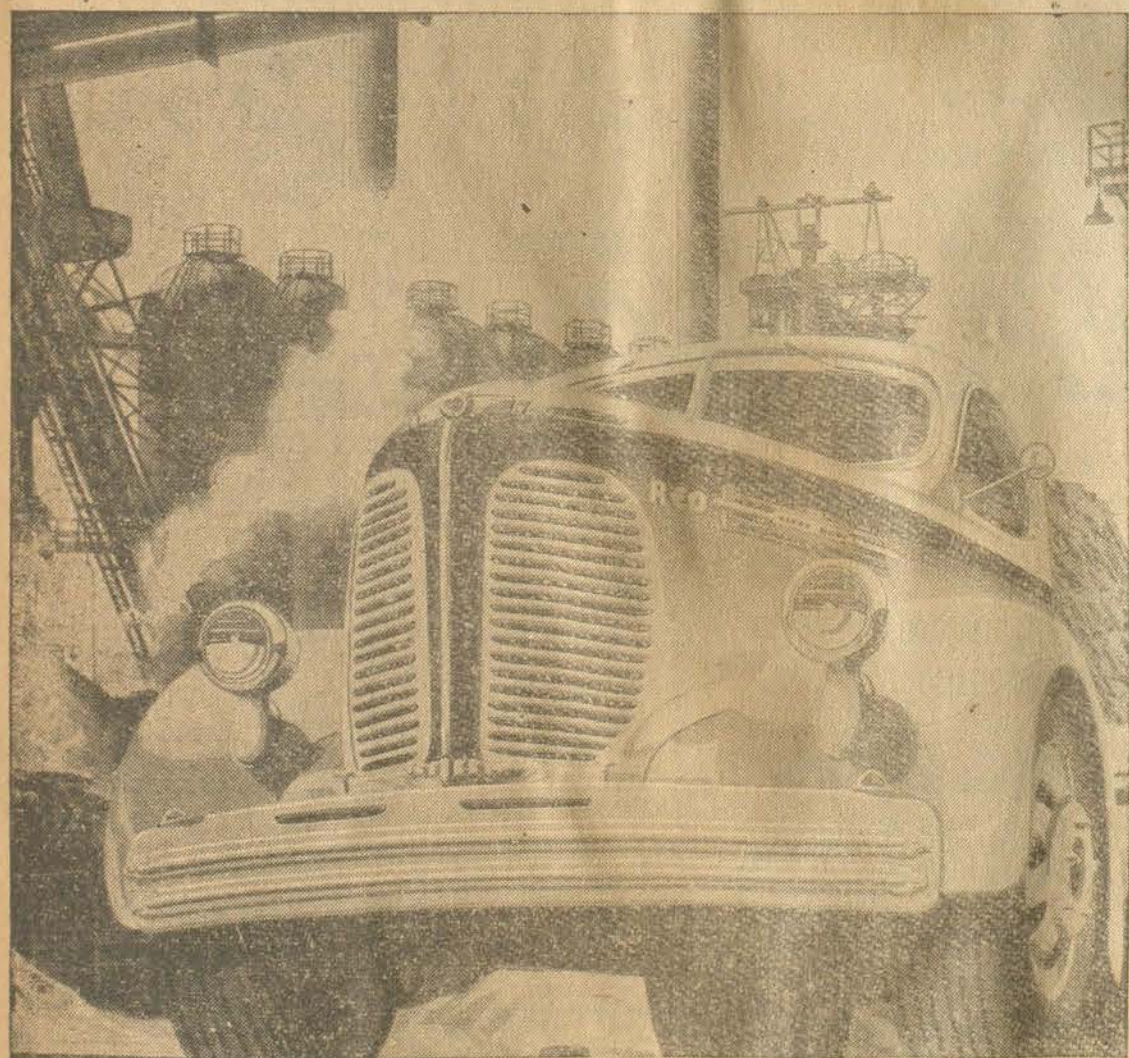

Today, automobiles, telephones, and—above all—electricity, have nearly ended loneliness on the farm. Electricity turns dark into day, pumps water, milks cows, grinds feed—does dozens of other chores—brings entertainment and market reports.

Who brought electricity to farms? The business-managed, self-supporting electric companies began the job some 60 years ago. They did the pioneering... developed new methods and equipment... learned to meet the problems of weather and distance... and continued to bring better and cheaper electric service to more and more farms.

For years this company has had a liberal rural extension policy. We will build electric lines to supply power to practically any farmer or group of farmers within the area we serve. We pay all the costs of making these line extensions and deliver electricity to farmers at the same low electric rates that are paid by city customers. In some instances rural customers pay a moderate increase in the minimum charge.

Electricity does all the chores around a farm, better and cheaper—at the same time it frees manpower and increases farm profits.
