

WELCOME, BROTHER!
The first edition of The Hopkins County Times, a weekly newspaper, was published last week and arrived at our office via the exchange route. T. W. McConnell is editor and publisher of the paper, and Mack Sisk is general manager.

We welcome the newest addition to Kentucky's family of the Fourth Estate (realm of the writing brothers by one of its most respectable names), congratulate those who fathered it and wish them many happy returns!

FILLER MATERIAL
National Newspaper Week is edging this way again. That's when, you will recall, our press associations ask every editor in the land to pop his buttons boasting about all the good things he and his sheet have done for their community. It doesn't say anything here about us mentioning any of the good things our communities have done for us, but I suppose that was an oversight or something.

Anyway, I'm not going to jump out, yell "Boo!" and throw the whole book of my achievements at you. I propose to ease up on you with this Newspaper Week stuff.

Having not an idea in the world (which includes my head), I turn to the record of what the National Conference of Editorial Writers not long ago set down, with tongues in cheeks, as standards for editors. This is what that pirate crew wrote:

1. There are standards for editors. The average editor must have had some slight preparation for his job. He must have made Phi Beta Kappa in college and edited the Harvard (or at least Yale) Law Review.

2. He must have mastered all the "Great Books" including Aristotle and Aquinas, but he must not have lost his youthful ability to turn out a funny piece, say, on the "short view of the long skirt and the long view of the short skirt."

3. He need not have been a judge, but he must have acquired a knowledge of law and court procedure which would come only from 10 years of general practice at the bar. It is not necessary that he should have been Secretary of State, but it is mandatory that he should have lived a total of not less than 150 years in India, Europe, South America, Russia, Palestine and China--with side trips to the Solomon Islands and the Aleutians.

4. He must have served a term as city manager, and it would help if he had served one in prison. It is not required that he be a scientist, but it will be sufficient if he has a working knowledge of nuclear physics based on a thorough understanding of Einstein's general theory of relativity and the late Dr. Planck's quantum theory.

5. Politics, tariffs and taxation must hold no secrets for him. He must be able to watch the world making a fool of itself daily without having his faith shaken that he can change all that with a couple of hundred well-worn words tomorrow.

6. His mind must be able to reduce an extremely complicated set of facts to a simple, logical and entertaining conclusion. He must be a sentimental realist and a cynical crusader. He must have the mind of Machiavelli, the style of Swift, and the heart of a sweet girl graduate.

7. And finally, he must have an uncontrollable hankering to trade his accomplishments for considerably less money than he could make at any other profession.

Frankfort, Ky. — State Highway Commissioner Garrett L. Withers issued a second warning yesterday against political campaign posters being erected on highway rights-of-way. He ordered the department's district engineers to see that all posters and cards are removed.

Reeds' Mine Manager In St. Mary's; Four At Martin Hospital

Four Floyd county men are in the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, and a fifth is in St. Mary's hospital, Huntington, as a result of auto wrecks within the past week.

Mark Reed, of Drift, general manager of coal mines of the Reed interests, suffered injured vertebrae last Thursday when his jeep overturned on Wilson Creek, near Maytown. He was taken to the Huntington hospital Saturday and is in a cast but is expected to be returned home within a few days.

Injured in what was described as the wreck of a taxicab at Lancer early Wednesday evening were four men. Burnis Flanery, 23, of Martin, was most seriously hurt with fractured ribs and a head injury. Others hospitalized were Lonzo Howell, Langley, Howard Stanford, Lancer, and Earl DeMurray, Paintsville. Driver of the cab, whose name was given as Pat Bentley, of Wayland, was said to have escaped injury.

Omar Matthews, of Beaver, was jailed here Saturday night on a drunk driving charge after his car had collided with another near the home of Magistrate John May, near Maytown. A man whose name was given as Cotton was slightly injured.

JAILER'S FIND FOILS BREAK

Two Confess Part In Jail Delivery, Hall Implicated

A routine checkup of prisoners' quarters in the county jail here early Saturday night by Jailer Everette Collins probably averted a wholesale jail delivery at a time when the jail had as inmates several men who had been convicted of, or were accused of, murder.

Bricks had been removed from a wall in the top floor of the jail, directly above the kitchen, and Jailer Collins found that the work toward a break had been concealed by a bed being shifted and the mattress pulled up over the hole.

Joe Cook and Jimmy Dials, of Wheelwright, who were jailed recently on a grand larceny charge, confessed to the attempted break, Jailer Collins said. He added that some of the prisoners implicated Jackie Hall who faced trial under the Habitual Criminal Act.

Among the prisoners held in jail at the time was Bertee Hall, who last week was denied bond in the fatal beating and kicking on Mud Creek of 79-year-old John Frasure. Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill said this morning (Thursday) that he plans to enter an order directing the removal of Bertee Hall to the Clark county jail at Winchester for safekeeping.

Jailer Collins said he received a mysterious telephone call this week with a male voice warning, "If you know what's good for you, you'll turn Jackie Hall loose."

A metal plate from a slam box and a piece of window pane were used in picking the masonry away inside the jail, it was said. Only the bricks in the outer wall remained between the prisoners and an opening to the outside.

Four prisoners who have been serving murder terms at LaGrange and who had been returned here as witnesses in court trials were in the jail at the time but none of these was mentioned as having part in the delivery plot.

Robert Blevins Dies At 96 at Weeksbury; Rites at Paintsville

Robert Blevins, one of the section's oldest men, died Wednesday afternoon at the age of 96 at the home in Weeksbury of his grandson, Ralph Blevins, following an illness of three weeks.

Born Feb. 24, 1852 at Staffordsville, Johnson county, he was a son of Lewis and Polly Ann Meade Blevins. He had resided at Weeksbury for the last 20 years and was a retired farmer. Mr. Blevins had been for many years a devout member of the Regular Baptist Church. His wife died 20 years ago.

Surviving him are five sons, Ben, of West Virginia, Dick, of Van Lear, Floyd, of Tram, Dock, of Weeksbury, and Harrison, of Springfield, O.; two brothers, Elisha Blevins, Johnson county jailer, and George Blevins, both of Paintsville, and one sister, Mrs. Cynthia Dials, of Hager Hill. He also leaves 32 grandchildren, 62 great-grandchildren and 54 great-great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held at 2 p.m., Friday from the home in Paintsville of George Blevins and burial will be made in the Preston cemetery, the Baker Funeral Home directing.

Sturgill Greets Truman; Stassen Scheduled Here

BOTH PARTIES BID FOR VOTES IN EASTERN KY.

President's Special To Stop in Ashland; Stassen Aids Meade

Both major political parties are making early bids for Eastern Kentucky support in the approaching election, with President Truman's special train coming, Friday of this week, as far into this section as Ashland and with Harold E. Stassen, unsuccessful candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination, coming here with Representative W. Howes Meade for a political rally next Monday afternoon at the courthouse.

Floyd Sheriff Troy B. Sturgill, assistant Kentucky Democratic campaign chairman, has been designated to meet the Presidential special as it enters Kentucky at Henderson and to take charge of arrangements and introduction of the President at brief stops en route to Louisville where the President will deliver a major address. Mr. Sturgill left Tuesday for state campaign headquarters, preparatory to assuming his duties in escorting Mr. Truman to Louisville.

The appearance in Prestonsburg of Mr. Stassen, three times Governor of Minnesota and now president of the University of Pennsylvania, will mark the opening of Congressman Meade's campaign for re-election.

Republican headquarters announced a motorcade of 300 automobiles extending a distance of five miles will accompany Mr. Stassen here and elsewhere through this section. Three brass bands will help whoop it up.

In Ashland President Truman will stop at 2:05 p.m., Friday for 20 minutes, and deliver a brief address and be greeted by party leaders.

ELKHORN COAL CASE IN COURT

Koontz Claims Stock He and Late Brother Bought Controls Firm

The West Virginia Supreme Court was asked Tuesday to determine control of the Elk Horn Coal Corporation.

The firm, which once owned 200,000 acres of coal lands in Kentucky and West Virginia and which operates mines in Floyd and other Eastern Kentucky counties, has been in the hands of receivers since 1940. It had been reorganized in federal bankruptcy proceedings in 1936.

Attorneys argued before the court Tuesday the legality of the purchase by Arthur B. Koontz, Charleston attorney, and his late brother, Patrick D. Koontz, of 98,000 voting trust certificates which carry substantial control of the corporation.

A committee of stockholders challenged the purchase, made in 1941 and 1944, on the ground that the Koontz brothers were attorneys for the receivers of the corporation.

The Ohio county circuit court ordered the sales set aside on the ground that the Koontz purchases were made by other persons for them, and that this situation was not disclosed.

Koontz contended Tuesday that the purchases were made in good faith for the benefit of the company, and that all parties directly concerned knew that he and his brother were getting the certificates.

He said the present action was brought by persons who had become stockholders since the sales were made, and since the financial condition of the corporation had improved substantially.

"At a time when there was no market for Elk Horn trust certificates, and the survival of the receivership was touch and go," he continued, "the Koontz purchased the certificates, not for their intrinsic worth or value, which was nothing at the time, but for the purpose of continuing the plan of control agreed upon in the reorganization, and for which Arthur B. Koontz was under obligation to the creditors. It also appeared to be conducive to the good of Elk Horn and all persons interested therein."

The committee of stockholders argued differently. "It clearly appears," the committee's attorney said in a brief, "that

Bodies of Reynolds, Moore Arrive in U.S.

Among the bodies of 101 Kentucky war dead arriving last week from Manila and Saipan were those of Cpl. John R. Reynolds, son of Ex-Magistrate W. J. Reynolds, of Martin, and Pvt. Palmer Moore, of Gearheart. The funeral ship was the transport, Sergeant E. Crain.

Month's Illness Claims Mrs. Juda M. Newman, Resident of Mud Creek

Acute illness of one month claimed Mrs. Juda Martin Newman, 64, of Grethel, who died at 1 p.m., Saturday at the Methodist hospital, Pikeville.

Mrs. Newman was a daughter of the late Simpson B. and Mary Akers Martin, and was a life-long member of the Mud Creek section. She was preceded in death by her husband, James Newman, who was killed by a truck on a logging job in 1912.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Lizzie Frasure and Mrs. Verdie Akers, three sons, Ernest, Robert and Thurman Newman, all of Grethel, one sister, Mrs. Kathleen Newman, of Grethel, and by six brothers, Alex, Jacob, John, Hiram, all of Grethel, Andy, of Allen, and Joe Martin, Betsy Layne.

Funeral rites at the graveside Tuesday were conducted by the Revs. Milford Adams, J.B. Hamilton, Evan Hamilton and Jonah Isaacs. Burial in the S. B. Martin cemetery at Galveston was directed by the Baker Funeral Home.

Court Again to Consider Pay Suit on Oct. 15

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 29—The special Court of Appeals will meet here Oct. 15 to consider a petition that it reverse its approval of expense allowances for Kentucky judges.

Special Chief Justice Joseph J. Leary, announcing this, added that Hubert Meredith, who filed the petition, also requested oral arguments. Leary said the court will pass on the argument motion when it meets.

Allowances of $100 a month for circuit judges and $150 for members of the Court of Appeals were granted by the 1948 General Assembly. The pending suit was filed to test validity of the grant.

Louisa Gets Permit To Buy Waterworks

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 29—The city of Louisa was authorized today to purchase the assets of the privately owned Louisa Water Company. The company is a subsidiary of the Northeastern Water Company, a Delaware corporation. The city plans to issue bonds totaling $129,000 to buy the stock and make some improvements, it was announced.

The other Big Sandy towns of Paintsville, Pikeville and Prestonsburg already own and operate their waterworks as a municipal enterprise.

Wheelwright Resident, Native of Hungary, Victim of Cancer

Louis Besenisi, 65, Wheelwright, succumbed to cancer of the liver, September 22, at Our Lady of the Way hospital, Martin.

There are no known survivors. Mr. Besenisi, a native of Hungary, emigrated to this county 20 years ago. Funeral services were held at 10:15 a.m., Saturday in the Wheelwright Community Church by the Rev. George W. Nerbonne, assisted by the Rev. Joseph Wimmers, Paintsville.

The deceased was taken to Van Lear for burial under direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

Slate Fourth Parley In Attempt to Write Gas Workers' Pact

"Some progress but still short of a new contract" was the report made Friday upon the conclusion of the third bargaining session held here between the contract committee of the Oil Workers International Union and Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company officials.

Major items of the contract which remain to be settled were listed by a union spokesman as:

The no-strike clause, union shop, absent time, vacations, scheduled hours, severance pay and, finally, the matter of wages.

Negotiations will be resumed October 4, it was said.

LANCER BABE VICTIM

Paul Denver Goble, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Goble, of Lancer, died at the home of his parents Saturday following a short illness at the age of one month.

Surviving, besides the parents, are three brothers, Freddie Arthur, Kenneth Ray and Billie Raymond, one sister, Mary Ann.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday, the Rev. C. F. Conn officiating, and burial in the Charlie Harris cemetery on Brandy Keg was under direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

Floyd County's Health Better Than 'Tol'able' During 1947, Vital Statistics Report Says

Maybe it's that pure mountain air swirling down off the knob-tips; maybe it's because we're livin' right—whatever it is, Floyd county's death rate of 7.3 persons per 1,000 population was among the lowest in the state last year.

And neighboring Knott's was the very lowest—a splendid 4.3 per 1,000. By contrast, the state's death rate as a whole was 10.1 per thousand.

So saith the vital statistics report for 1947 included in the Bulletin of the Kentucky Department of Health, recently released.

While the possibility exists that vital statistics reports in some counties are far from complete, not such is the case in Floyd county where every effort is being made to have every birth and death recorded.

Speaking of births, Floyd county wasn't doing too badly in that department last year. There were 1,855 babies born in 1947 for a birth rate of 37.6 per 1,000 population, as compared to the state's 23.6. Leslie county, incidentally, had the highest birth rate with 45.9 and Christian county the lowest (outside Hopkinsville) with 12.2.

The boys led the girls in this county's birth race, 946 to 922. There were 47 sets of twins born in Floyd during the year, but no triplets. Nearby Lawrence ranked high in the matter of triplets, however, with three sets.

A total of 366 persons died in this county last year, the report shows. Heart disease again was the great killer, with 64 persons recorded as its victims. Pneumonia of all types was next, claiming 32 victims. Cancer claimed 20 and respiratory diseases, 30.

Not one Floyd countian died of typhoid, once a great killer in this section.

Nine Floyd county deaths were attributed to homicide (Louisville—excuse us!—had 59). The county had five suicides and accidental deaths, as follows: railway, 4; motor vehicles, 20; mines, 14; burns, 5; suffocation, 6; drowning, 1; firearms, 4; falls, 3; electric current, 3.

Deaths occurred as follows in this county from a variety of diseases: Meningitis, 1; whooping cough, 8; diphtheria, 2; syphilis, 2; influenza, 5; measles, 1; diabetes, 6; intracranial lesions of circulatory origin, 24; diarrhea, 3; appendicitis, 3; nephritis, 16.

A crowd of 1,200 persons braved last Friday night's chilly weather to see A. B. "Happy" Chandler, commissioner of baseball, throw out the first ball and to hear his address in the dedication of Lions Field, Wayland's new athletic park.

Although Wheelwright of the Mountaineer League and Wayland of the Big Sandy loop were represented in their game by some of the section's best ball players, it was "Happy" Chandler who was the star. He threw out the first ball. He thrilled the crowd with a speech full of praise for Wayland, its Lions Club and its citizens for lighting and equipping such an athletic field. He spread the old Chandler charm and sang "My Old Kentucky Home"—appropriately enough, at home plate. He obliged a mob of autograph-seekers.

"I am elated and amazed upon finding a small town such as Wayland doing such a fine job," he said. The commissioner said he found the park, its seating arrangements and lighting system superior to most he had found in class D leagues.

After all this, Wayland's team struggled to make a good showing on this Big Night but was over-anxious,

The boys fumbled away their chances of victory and Wheelwright won, 8 to 3.

Master of ceremonies at the dedication of the $20,000 park was Fred Bullard, of Hazard, deputy district governor of Lions Clubs. Mr. Bullard was introduced by Frank Harmon, past president of the Wayland Lions Club and a leader in the athletic program there which not only has seen the field lighted for both football and baseball but also the employment of a fulltime football coach and establishing of football as a fixture in the athletic program of Wayland high school.

Protest Mine Strike At Jenkins Idles 300

Jenkins, Ky., Sept. 29—Three hundred men are idle in a protest strike at the Van Lear mines of the Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Company of Kentucky, it is reported here.

A spokesman for the company said the men protested against the hiring of a contractor to clean out a ditch adjacent to the mine property.

The company man said he did not know what objections the men had to the contractor. Union officials could not be reached immediately for comment.

TO DEDICATE CHURCH HERE

Four Former Pastors To Take Part Sunday In Baptist Exercises

Four former pastors and the present pastor will take part Sunday in the dedication of the new Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church building on First avenue here.

The invocation will be asked by the Rev. M. Robert Regan; a brief history of the church, by the Rev. A. C. Harlowe; the Scripture reading and dedication prayer, by Dr. George W. Redding, and the sermon by Dr. Josef Nordenhaug.

"Looking Forward" will be the topic of the present pastor, the Rev. L. W. Benedict, under whose leadership the church was erected, supplanting the brick building which was destroyed by fire, several years ago, at the corner of Court and Broadway.

The benediction will be said by the Rev. Wm. Dings, oldest member of the congregation.

The dedicatory exercises are expected to be attended by one of the largest gatherings in the history of the church.

GAME AREA HOPES RISE

For Johns Cr. Section As Pike Group Decides Flatwoods Sale Needed

Hope that a fish-and-game preserve will be established in the Johns Creek valley rose this week as it was announced in Pikeville that Pike county sportsmen will not oppose plans of the state to dispose of more than 2,000 acres of land purchased 10 years ago for such a preserve in Pike county.

George Wells, a director of the Pike County Game & Fish Association, announced the position taken by Pike sportsmen after it had become apparent that strip mining will render useless as a preserve the acreage in Pike which is known as the Flatwoods Wildlife Restoration Unit. He said the federal government has "washed its hands of Flatwoods."

Mr. Wells quoted Harold Alexander, federal coordinator of game parks, as saying that if a suitable area is made available a federal preserve will be established. Such an area, it was said, must comprise a minimum of 10,000 acres.

The possibility exists that the Pike game club will buy the Flatwoods area from the state. If the state sells the acreage to outside interests, the only proceeds remaining in Kentucky will be the state's one-fourth

Mrs. Dora Belle Wallen Dies at Home Sunday; Is Victim of Stroke

Mrs. Dora Belle Wallen, 71 years old, was the victim of a stroke at 12:15 p.m., Sunday at her home at Lancer.

She was the wife of Ham Wallen, well-known Floyd county man, and a sister of Elbert Collins, former Prestonsburg grocer.

Also surviving are two sons, Chester, of Ohio, and Willis Wallen, Prestonsburg, two daughters, Grace B. Chaney, Pike county, and Virginia Mae Puckett, of Ohio, three other brothers, Epp Collins, of Ohio, Thomas and Erwyn Collins, Wayland, and two sisters, Tony Hopper and Mindie Collins, Wayland.

Funeral rites were held Tuesday at Wayland where burial was made under direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

JURY CLEARS HAROLD CONN HERE, FRIDAY

Jackie Hall Pleads Guilty; England Gets Term in Craft Shooting

Jackie Hall's penchant for stealing and for dealing in stolen goods was frustrated Tuesday by a jury of the Floyd circuit court when he entered a plea of guilty to knowingly receiving stolen property.

A loser in three previous bouts with the law, he was on trial under the Habitual Criminal Act, and his sentence was life in the penitentiary.

One other charge against him was dismissed, but it is probable the court has not seen the last of him. He has implicated several persons in the Raymond Turner store robbery at Drift, and, if not a defendant, will probably be taken to Logan and Mingo counties, West Virginia, as a witness.

Third trial of Deputy Sheriff Harold Conn, charged with murder in the slaying in January, 1947 of Arthur Hall at Boldman, resulted last Friday in his acquittal. Conn had earlier stood trial in the Floyd circuit court and on a change of venue in the Magoffin circuit court.

The defense was strengthened by testimony of Mr. and Mrs. Liberty Duval and Jeannette Caldwell to the effect that Archie Hall, a brother of Arthur Hall, came to a home where they were attending a party and told of his brother's death. They testified he was crying and that he explained Arthur had snatched his revolver at Conn, whereupon the officer fired.

The Commonwealth contended Hall was shot when offering no threat to Conn's life and after Conn and other officers had made a second trip to the place of business operated at Boldman by B. H. Toler, with Conn bent on arresting Hall. Defense testimony, including that of Conn, claimed the shooting took place only when Hall attempted to shoot the officer.

Walter England entered a plea of guilty Wednesday to the shooting and wounding on Buck's Branch, near Martin, of Ed Craft, and was given a 10-year pen term. Craft, now a member of the state police force, was a deputy sheriff when he was shot by England.

Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill announced a few days ago, the liquor case defendants convicted in his court will be placed under peace bond. This action, he explained, is being taken to prevent resumption of further liquor activities by those who otherwise would be undeterred by a fine and jail sentence.

Four persons have been convicted, within the week, in liquor trials. These and their fines and jail terms are: Edward Cravens, $100 and 60 days; Pearl Henry, $100 and 30 days; George Pismus, $100 and 30 days each in two cases; Leck Blackburn, $20 and 30 days.

TO BUILD LINE TO QUICKSAND

United Fuel Prepares For Area Development; New Strike in Magoffin

The Quicksand section of Breathitt county and possibly a section between that area and the big Magoffin county gas field is expected undergo heavy development by companies, it was said here, week as contractors for the United Fuel Gas Company prepared to begin the construction of a pipe line from its Warco construction station to Quicksand.

The United Carbon Company was said, has extensive acreage that section and a few pay have already been drilled. One of the most recent, and one of the strikes in the Magoffin field, made a few days ago by the Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company on Oakley, near Royalton, which only a few miles from Quicksand. The well gauged 19,800,000 cubic feet in the Big S'ix formation.

The Pipe Line Construction Company has the contract on the line from Warco to Quicksand, and the job is not expected to be completed before January 1. Cutting of right-of-way and hauling of pipe was under way this week.

Funeral Rites Saturday For Cpl. James W. Hurd, Killed in Philippines

Funeral services for Cpl. James W. Hurd, 27, were conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday from the home at Banner with the Revs. C. F. Conn, Bert Conn and Isaac Stratton officiating. Cpl. Hurd, who entered the service of his country on Feb. 29, 1942, was killed at Leyte in the Philippines Oct. 21, 1944, while serving with the 32nd Infantry Medical Detachment. Burial took place in the family cemetery on Prater Creek under direction of the Ryan Funeral Home. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Virginia Hurd, of Detroit, his mother, Mrs. Willa Hurd Sammons, two sisters, Miss Mavis Hurd and Mrs. Herman Robinson, and two brothers, Graham D. and Jack E. Hurd, all at home.

Mine Workers' Trial For Banding Delayed

Madisonville, Ky., Sept. 29—Court officials said yesterday the trial of several United Mine Workers on charges of banding and confederating will not be held at this term of court. Commonwealth's Attorney Alvin Lisansky said no witnesses have been summoned for this term of court in the 2½-year-old case. He said he is negotiating with attorneys for the defendants for a settlement without trial. Ed J. Morgan, president of U.M.W. District 23, and 16 union members were indicted on charges in May, 1946, following mass picketing at several independent Hopkins county coal mines during a nationwide coal strike.

SPORTS AFIELD

By TED KESTING
Among the few places left in this country where you can entirely escape from the noise and confusion of modern living are our national forests and parks west of the Great Plains. The total area of our western public lands runs about 4,000,000,000 acres, and probably half of this is pack trip territory, reached only by saddle travel. There you almost certainly will be riding a western horse, and according to outdoor writer Arthur Carhart, these animals are not like your bridle path horse.

The average saddle horse for trail use is a product of blending strains that have proven highly serviceable for this kind of work. He will be about 1,000 pounds in weight, deep-chested, close-coupled, stout-legged and possessed of a lot of trail experience. Your corral boss or head guide will introduce you to the horse you'll ride. On first meeting, don't try to make it old home week. That horse is sizing you up just as certainly as you are appraising him.

There are a good many reasons for you to take care of your horse during the trip. It's part of the business of saddle travel; a traditional responsibility. It's a portion of the lore and the memory found on a trail trip. If you are totally green about handling saddle tackle, your guide will help you get the hang of it.

Perhaps the outstanding difference between managing other horses and the western pony lies in the way they are guided. Well trained western horses "neck rein." With the reins in your left hand, and the straps lying along either side of the horse's neck, move your hand over toward the side which faces the way you want the horse to go. A knowing horse will move away from the rein applying slight pressure. You'll upset a western horse if you start dragging on the rein to pull him toward the side you are tugging.

On the trail the gait is easy. You don't post in a western saddle. You sit on it and ease just a little with the feet solidly in the stirrups. Let your pony handle his own feet. Over rough terrain, give him his head. He knows best. After you've lived with him awhile, you'll find yourself in partnership with a four-legged outdoorsman that is worth knowing.

NORMAN ALLEN Sworn to and subscribed before me this 30 day of September, 1948 (SEAL) W. W. COOLEY (My commission expires April 7, 1950.)

Services at the home were conducted Monday for the 22-month-old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Lawson, Garrett, by the Rev. Alex Coburn. The babe, suffering an illness since birth, died Saturday at the Stumbo Memorial hospital, Lackey. Burial in the Tom Martin cemetery, near Garrett, was directed by the Ryan Funeral Home.

THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES, published weekly at Prestonsburg, Ky., for Sept. 30, 1948. State of Kentucky County of Floyd, ss: Before me, a notary public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared Norman Allen, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the editor of The Floyd County Times, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management (and if a daily, weekly, semiweekly or triweekly newspaper, the circulation), etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the act of August 24, 1912, as amended by the acts of March 3, 1933, and July 2, 1946 (Section 537, Postal Laws and Regulations), printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

Perhaps the outstanding difference between managing other horses and the western pony lies in the way they are guided. Well trained western horses "neck rein." With the reins in your left hand, and the straps lying along either side of the horse's neck, move your hand over toward the side which faces the way you want the horse to go. A knowing horse will move away from the rein applying slight pressure. You'll upset a western horse if you start dragging on the rein to pull him toward the side you are tugging.

On the trail the gait is easy. You don't post in a western saddle. You sit on it and ease just a little with the feet solidly in the stirrups. Let your pony handle his own feet. Over rough terrain, give him his head. He knows best. After you've lived with him awhile, you'll find yourself in partnership with a four-legged outdoorsman that is worth knowing.

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are: Publisher—Prestonsburg Publishing Co., Prestonsburg, Ky. Editor—Norman Allen, Prestonsburg, Ky. Business manager—Norman Allen, Prestonsburg, Ky.

2. ## Grant Weddington, Well-Known Resident Of Banner, Succumbs

Grant Weddington, 82 years old, member of a prominent Floyd county family and retired farmer, died Sunday at his home at Banner. Death was attributed to the infirmities of age.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Nannie Weddington, three sons, Grant, Jr., of Michigan, John and Alex Weddington, of Banner, and seven daughters, Mrs. E. L. Akers, Mrs. Grace Hewitt, Jessie Weddington, all of Banner, Mrs. Kate Conn, of Michigan, Lucy Hane Giles, of Georgetown, and Maxie Gignous and Inez Weddington, both of Baltimore, Md.

Funeral rites were held at 11 a.m. Wednesday at the home, the Revs. Isaac Stratton and Bert Conn officiating. Burial in the family cemetery was directed by the Arnold Funeral Home.

The liquor charge against M. V. Click was dismissed this week on demurrer. It was explained that the indictment was returned for an alleged offense committed before the county was voted dry and that the law governing provided for possession of three gallons of whiskey, with reputation for such violation figuring in the chances for conviction.

Trial of Ralph and Don Boyd, accused of attempting to burn the home of Deputy Sheriff Harold Conn, was continued till Jan. 6. Continued till Jan. 7 was the voluntary manslaughter trial of George Holbrook. Case of Homer Parsons, charged with shooting into a motor vehicle, will not be called for trial till January 12.

The grand jury re-convened Wednesday for concluding days of its usual nine-day term. The jury had returned no indictments as of Thursday morning.

In the interest of better schools for you we are entering the race for membership on the Prestonsburg City Board of Education. Our only obligation will be to you boys and girls. Please ask your parents and friends to help us.

At the close of the installation the retiring worthy matron, Marjorie Sammons, was presented a past matron's pin by Lucille Bingham. She also received many other beautiful gifts, as did the past patron, Ira Castle. The outgoing officers each received an appropriate gift from Mrs. Sammons and at the close of the chapter she served refreshments.

ASKS CANCELLATION
Russell Coach George T. Foehr, following their loss to Prestonsburg Friday, wrote Coach Benedett Tuesday requesting the cancellation of next season's game between the two teams. The teams, under contract on game-and-game basis, are scheduled to meet here Sept. 4, 1949. He wishes release in order to play all of Russell's fellow-member teams in the E.K.C., Coach Foehr stated.

Coach Benedett and Chalmer H. Frazier, superintendent of city schools, said yesterday that they are in no position to grant the request at this time.

Hi-Ho, Mister!

I been peddling flour since I was knee high to a grasshopper. And I never seen the buyer yet who wouldn't swap advertising for a nickel a barrel. But if you think a nickel's worth more than the flavor you get in Silver Mist biscuits, one of us is crazy. Why don't you let Pa say which one? Sure, he's a grouchy old cuss, but he likes biscuits. Silver Mist biscuits, that is. Because Silver Mist Flour's got what it takes to make biscuits taste good. Flavor. Good-tasting flavor. You can't tell the difference by looking at Silver Mist. Looks ordinary, like most flours, except the sorry ones. Silver Mist just tastes better, when you bake biscuits or pie or cake. Bread and rolls, too, for that matter. Nothing fancy, just good flour. Dog-gone good flour, folks tell me. But maybe that's because they believe what I tell them.

OF INTEREST TO VETERANS

Student veterans whose dependency status changed during the summer vacation are reminded by Veterans Administration to submit proof of additional dependency as soon as possible to the appropriate VA regional office in which the records are filed.

Veterans with dependents, who are studying full or part-time in schools and colleges under the G.I. Bill, are eligible for additional subsistence payments because of the dependents.

However, legal proof, such as certified copies of public records of birth, baptism, marriage, divorce or other evidence must be in their VA training file in order to qualify.

Single veterans studying under the G.I. Bill are eligible for monthly subsistence allowances up to $75. Veterans with one dependent may receive $105 per month and veterans with two or more dependents, $120.

Veterans should submit evidence of dependency at once, rather than wait until enrolling for the fall semester in order to insure receiving prompt payments of subsistence at the higher rates.

World War II veterans still may reinstate their National Service Life Insurance, Veterans Administration branch office officials in Columbus, Ohio, explained this week.

Some veterans are under the impression they can no longer obtain this government insurance. World War II veterans who can pass a physical examination may reinstate their lapsed insurance at any time.

The deadline for reinstating NSLI without a physical examination was July 31, 1948, VA explained. Prior to the deadline, a veteran could reinstate lapsed insurance by certifying that his health was as good as it was when the policy lapsed.

This deadline confused some veterans, who feel they cannot reinstate lapsed insurance since the deadline was passed. Veterans may reinstate their insurance at any time by passing a physical examination. If the policy has lapsed less than three months, it still may be reinstated without taking a physical examination.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. Will VA pay for the medical care of my dependents?

A. No. Under existing laws, only eligible veterans are entitled to VA medical care.

Q. May I complete my last year of grade school and take a commercial course under the G.I. Bill?

A. Yes.

Q. I intend to be a bartender and would like to know if I can take a course in bartending under the G.I. Bill?

A. First, you must submit to VA complete justification that the course is in connection with your present or contemplated business or occupation. Then you must receive VA approval before you start training.

Teachers' Federation Holds First Meeting Here Sat Afternoon

The Floyd County Federation of Teachers held its first meeting of the term Saturday afternoon, Sept. 11, at the Prestonsburg grade school building.

While we got off to a good start last year and a few things were accomplished, we hope to go ever farther this year. The sick-leave which the teachers are enjoying for the first time this year is a direct outgrowth of organization. However, to accomplish all our aims for the betterment of our schools and profession we need the support of all members. Thus, we urge every member to be present at our next meeting at the Martin school building October 5 at 7 p.m.

Everyone is cordially invited to come and find out for themselves the purpose, hopes and aims of the Floyd County Federation of Teachers.

KENTUCKY ON THE MARCH

By EWING GALLOWAY

We'll call the guy Duke Hodd. The name is fictitious. Has to be, because there are tens of thousands of Duke Hodds in the United States. They are people who drive cars after taking two or more drinks. And we must not overlook the Annie Hodds, women who drive when tight. Off-hand, one might say there are one-fifth as many women as men who drive when tipsy.

But let's get back to Duke Hodd. Ordinarily, he is a law-abiding man. Earns an honest living, is well respected by neighbors and friends. The possibility of killing somebody never entered his head.

Duke drives to town with friends—a town where drinks are sold. After stopping for a week's supply of store goods, the men go to a bar and one of them buys a round of drinks.

There are a few minutes of pleasant conversation. The little group is joined by more men and there is a second round. And a third and a fourth. The barkeep sees the men getting woozy, but he is there to make money for the proprietor, which may be an individual or a club deeply interested in civic betterment. That he is making possible killers out of the men to whom he is serving too many drinks never occurs to the barkeep.

Well, Duke Hodd and his friends get into the car, with Duke at the steering wheel. Duke sees two or three street lamps where there's only one, but he refuses to admit to himself that he is too drunk to drive.

Before the Hodd party has gone a mile there is a head-on crash. A child is killed, its mother crippled for a year, the father, as often happens to persons at the steering wheel, suffered bruises and contusions only.

The state highway police were soon at the scene of the accident. They learned readily that Hodd and his friends were intoxicated. The tippy boys were not hurt seriously. They were taken to the police station and booked for drunken driving. Putting a manslaughter charge against them was deferred until the evidence was heard next day.

The father was the only eyewitness who could testify for the prosecution. The mother, of course, was in a hospital. The father was stunned out of his wits, overwhelmed with grief. So his testimony was a bit jumbled. Hodd and his friends were very good witnesses for themselves, but they said enough to get what might be called an even break with the prosecution. Some of their friends came to their defense with good character references.

Yes, this was a Kentucky case. And under our traffic law the minimum penalty for driving while intoxicated is $102.50.

Duke Hodd paid his fine, 30 per cent of which went to the city prosecutor if the case was tried in police court, or 25 per cent to the county attorney if the trial was in county court or before a justice of the peace. The law was vindicated! Or was it?

A child was robbed of its life. A woman was crippled for a year. The same fate or worse may be in store for persons reading this column, because, according to the National Safety Council, one out of every five drivers in fatal crashes last year had been drinking.

I think that if I were in the next Kentucky Legislature I would work for the passage of a stiffer penalty for drunken driving—mandatory 90 days in jail in addition to the present money penalty. And I'd try to reach barkeeps selling to persons already groggy. This latter offense should merit six months in jail.

Two-thirds of northern Ontario is underlain by the oldest rock formation known to man.

RUPTURE SHIELD EXPERT HERE

H. M. SHEVNAN, widely known expert of Chicago, will personally be at the Pritchard Hotel, Huntington, Friday and Saturday only, Oct. 8 and 9, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Mr. Shevnan says: The Zoetic Shield is a tremendous improvement over all former methods, effecting immediate results. It will not only hold the rupture perfectly no matter the size or location but it will increase the circulation, strengthen weakened parts, and thereby close the opening in ten days on the average case, regardless of heavy lifting, straining or any position the body may assume. A nationally known scientific method. No under straps or cumbersome arrangements and absolutely no medicines or medical treatments.

Mr. Shevnan will be glad to demonstrate without charge. 6509 N. Artesian Ave., Chicago 45. Large incisional hernia or rupture following surgical operation especially solicited.

Low-Cost
High-Pay
Farming

FOUR-LEAF Powdered Rock Phosphate supplies low-cost phosphorus for bigger crops and richer pastures. Because this non-acid phosphate can't burn any seed or plant... because it doesn't leach out, but remains in the soil until dissolved by the growing plants' own root acids... you can apply enough to make your soil phosphorus rich for years ahead with one labor-saving application. This is the low-cost, high-pay way to farm! Investigate!

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

Milwaukee, Wis.—The Rev. Otto Neumann didn't need much rehearsal when he officiated at the wedding of his daughter, Harriet. It was the tenth time he had married one of his daughters. The other nine girls in the family were in Harriet's wedding party.

Mrs. Dewey Cozer and son, Junior, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Gibson, of West Prestonsburg. Mrs. Cozer is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson. After a two-months' visit with her parents, she will return to her home in Mesch, Michigan. This is her first visit home since she went to Michigan.

Lexington, Ky., (Sp.)—Fall semester enrollment at the University of Kentucky surpassed official expectations to reach a total of 7,660 at the conclusion of the third day of registration work last Wednesday, Sept. 22. U.K. authorities previously had estimated the number of students would range between 7,000 and 7,500. Included in the near-record total, less than 200 short of last fall's all-time mark of 7,840, are 225 at the College of Pharmacy in Louisville and 152 at the Northern Extension Center in Covington, according to last reports.

The Koontzes acquired the 98,000 voting trust certificates, carrying practical control of Elk Horn, by means of a scheme, fraudulently conceived, carefully concealed, and deliberately executed.

"They capitalized upon the confidential and peculiar knowledge gained by them as counsel for the receivership, which knowledge had been secreted from the Receivership Court and jealously concealed from others. Through self-interest Koontz attempted to appropriate unto himself the property which in justice should have gone to those who put their trust in him."

The certificates were purchased at several sales from the estate of the late C. W. Watson, Fairmont coal operator. They were issued to him, along with 20,000 to Arthur Koontz, to centralize control of the firm during its reorganization in 1937.

Foxhunters Complete Plans For Three-Day Field Trials

Preparations were announced as completed this week by the Big Sandy Fox Hunters Association for a three-day field trials event to be staged in neighboring Johnson county November 3, 9 and 10.

"This is the first time a trial of this kind has been attempted in this section," stated Lonnie Herald, director of the Floyd county group, "and we expect over 1,000 fellow fox hunters from other counties to attend." The entire facilities of one hotel have been reserved for the sportsmen and visitors. The Paintsville Stockyards has granted the use of their building and premises for quartering the hounds.

The association, comprising the four Eastern Kentucky counties of Floyd, Knott, Johnson and Magoffin, in voting the location decided the terrain of Johnson county best suited for the event.

The officiating will be handled by 10 capable judges. Edd Pritchard, Ashland, is designated as judge of the Bench Show planned for the third night of the trials. The master of the hounds will be Clyde Kazez, Louisa.

Beautiful trophies will be awarded for the best dogs.

Preparations have entailed the expenditure of over $700 to insure success of the event. Mr. Herald told The Times. All entrants must be registered at Paintsville before or on Nov. 7. Anyone wishing further information may contact Roy Cook, Wayland, or Lonnie Herald, Emma, Ky.

Governor Proclaims Fire Prevention Week

Frankfort, Ky.—Governor Earle C. Clements has proclaimed October 3-9 "Fire Prevention Week in Kentucky." He requested co-operation in reducing fires. They took 200 lives and caused a $11,000,000 loss in this state the past year, he explained.

Coon, Possum Hunting In November Approved

Frankfort, Ky., (Sp.)—Hunting of coons and possums during November with dogs was authorized by the State Game and Fish Commission recently. Game Commissioner Earl Wallace explained no firearms will be legal in this sport until December and January.

WAYLAND HI IN SECOND TIE

Score Ended at 6-6 With Jenkins Saturday; Wasps Meet Belfry

The fast improving Wayland Wasps high school football eleven missed victory by bare seconds over the Jenkins High Cavaliers in tying them, 6-6, at Wayland Saturday night. The Wasps knotted the Paintsville Tigers by the same score earlier in the season. This gives the Beaver Creek boys two ties against two defeats with prospects brighter for the remainder of the season, loyal fans avow.

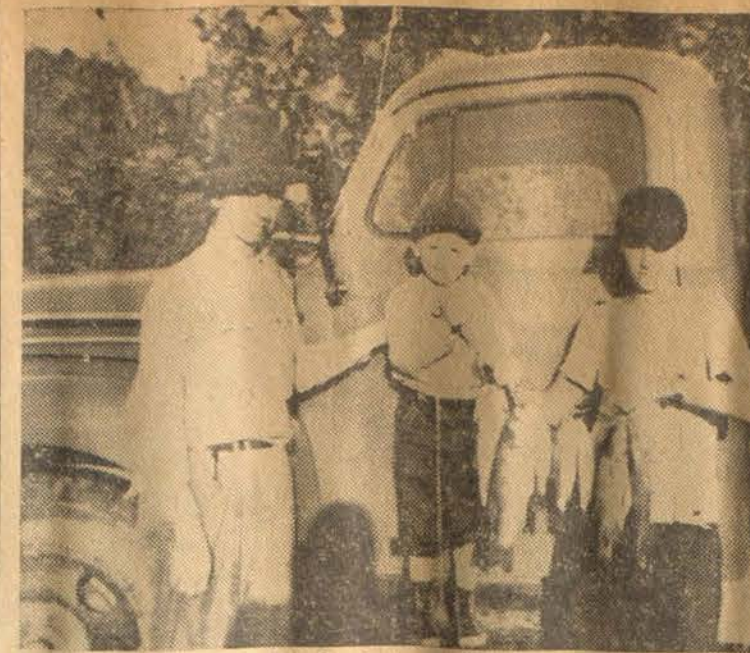

Homefolks saw Wayland take the lead on fullback Doug Castle's 40-yard touchdown gallop around right end and hold the score at 6-0 until the last 15 seconds of play. Wayland's attempt to punt was blocked on their six-yard line, the ball fell into the end zone with Jenkins recovering to tie the score.

The Wasps meet Belfry this weekend in Pike county. Although Belfry pronounced Paintsville recently 47-0 the Wayland footballers expect to match the Pirates toe to toe!

Other games in adjacent gridirons saw Hazard smother Paintsville 50-0; Louisa take down Catletsburg with aerial attacks 19-13; Whitesburg romp Pikeville 25-0; newcomer Elkhorn City run away from Olive Hill 33-0, and Everts nose out their neighbor Harlan 13-12.

The nation's smallest park, in Salem, Ore., contains 1 Sequoia tree.

Hand Me Mah Fishin' Pole!

There are bass in the Big Sandy, too—and some guys catch 'em.

were snagged between East Point and Van Lear.

CONFERENCE MEET CALLED

BSC To Elect Officers; To Discuss Basketball And Football Plans

Election of officers and a discussion on football field equipment will feature the annual meeting of the Big Sandy Conference, set for Sunday, October 2, at Pikeville.

Conference President John W. Trivette has called the session for 2 p.m., at Pikeville high school.

All member schools, whether football or basketball, should send representatives, Trivette said, because matters of interest to coaches of both sports are to come before the meeting.

Commenting on gridiron facilities, Trivette called attention to the fact that some schools have not maintained restraining fences about the playing field. This lack works a hardship on officials and fans, as well as the players, he said.

The league president also indicated that the annual Conference basketball tournament will come in for some discussion. It is possible that a date and site for the event will be selected, he said.

GOLF FINALS SET SUNDAY

Beaver Valley Champ To Be Determined At Allen Course

Finals of the Beaver Valley Golf and Country Club tournament will be held Sunday at Allen, announced Carl Corbin, chairman of the tournament committee. The play will be composed of three flights with prizes being awarded to the winners of each.

The first flight of the club championship finds Ray Fraley, Wayland, who clipped the greens for a low 66 for the 18-hole playoff, meeting Willard Adkins, Allen, who came up with a 67. Adkins won over Bob Francis, Prestonsburg, while Fraley came into the last set by default over John Hampton who failed to appear for their last qualifying round, said Corbin.

Carl Ray Fraley, Wayland, and Robert Hughes, Prestonsburg, were scheduled to meet in a last qualifying round before tomorrow (Friday) and S. C. Berkeley, who drew a bye, will meet the winner in the second flight of the finals.

The third flight will match the winners of the two other playoff matches now in progress. In these rounds Henry Porter meets his neighbor W. A. Malone and Ambrose Mandt crosses clubs with his brother-in-law, L. B. Brashear.

This is the first year the golf club has been in full swing since the war. Chairman Corbin told The Times, and has made great strides under Ambrose Mandt as club president. The club, first in Floyd county and second in the Big Sandy valley, was organized in 1932.

"FATHER'S DAY" GAME

The Prestonsburg Blackcats next home game on Oct. 8, has been designated as "Father's Day." They tangle with the Jenkins Cavaliers under the lights on the new field.

Blackcats Meet St. Xavier In Louisville Friday Nite

Prestonsburg Coach Blue As Handicapped Team Fails To Respond

Reviewing the performance of his Blackcat football squad thus far this season in a pre-game analysis prior to meeting St. Xavier in Louisville tomorrow (Friday) night Coach Ted Benedett stated today that the team as a whole was sluggish, lagging and not developing as it should. "This is potentially a better team than average ball club but the boys have shown a lack of desire and intestinal fortitude to play to the best of their ability."

"They played well enough in front of the hometown spectators in the first game of the season against Whitesburg—in fact, better than expected for a green team going under its initial fire. They used only five plays and showed a powerfully fast and capable opponent all over the field without even bothering to punt themselves out of danger." Benedett charged that his Cats affected this 13-0 victory with power to spare and showed it all too plainly by failing to extend themselves as good football players should.

"In their second encounter against Everts they started out performing like the ball club that they are capable of being," he continued. "These boys drew first blood in their favor by scoring in the first three minutes of play against the Harlan countians and then—phoo-o-oo!—immediately they folded like the well-known punctured balloon and remained flattened as far as defensive work was concerned throughout the remainder of the game. Instead of Cats they looked like a bunch of little lost kittens while the Everts interference romped through the secondary defenses playing hide-and-seek with each other for want of better competition."

"Acted like a bunch of quitters," Benedett said. "They score a touchdown and then quit, seemingly satisfied on some sort of supposed past glory and expect to win the game while standing upright amid field sleep on their feet!"

"At Russell my boys showed improvement for the first three quarters. At the end of the third quarter Prestonsburg was ahead of Russell, 33-9. The opposing team's touchdown was the fruit of a first quarter fumble. It's possible to overlook that, but—in the last quarter the usual case of sleeping sickness overtook the boys and Russell smashed over two touchdowns. One of them was the outright gift from a second fumble."

"If this game had lasted a little longer at the rate Russell was going . . ." Coach Benedett finished his summation by sadly shaking his head at his thoughts of the possible outcome.

The Blackcats, rated by some sources as 34th in state competition this week have been working overtime in their preparation to face the 10th place Louisville team. Both are out to improve their standings.

"Our lack of reserves not only hurts in game play against a team like St. X," said the coach, "but it fails to supply enough competition in the squad so necessary in developing players in practice." Adding to this dire situation, the Cats suffered the loss of triple-threat "Set" Branham, backfield ace, who was ruled ineligible after Saturday, September 25.

"Our showing against St. Xavier's Tigers depends on whether the boys want to play football or go on a sight-seeing tour!" And Coach Benedett was still sadly shaking his head.

Cats Lick Russell 33-22 With Branham Playing Last Performance

Resurrecting themselves from the disastrous "Battle of Everts" and sharpening their claws for the coming encounter with strongly favored St. Xavier the Prestonsburg high school Blackcats scratched out a 33-22 victory last Friday night over Russell in the railroad town's Sportsman's Park.

Opening minutes of play were a see-saw affair until "Set" Branham, playing a farewell performance for the red-and-gray Prestonsburgers, entered the game to spark his teammates into action. Branham broke away on a 40-yard touchdown jaunt and collected the extra point for the first scoring in the game. Russell, taking possession of the ball from a Blackcat fumble, came back upfield and knotted the tally at 7-7 for the first quarter.

A 35-yard pass from half-back Branham to big end Paul Harmon who stepped five yards to pay dirt put Prestonsburg back into the lead, 13-7, in the second quarter.

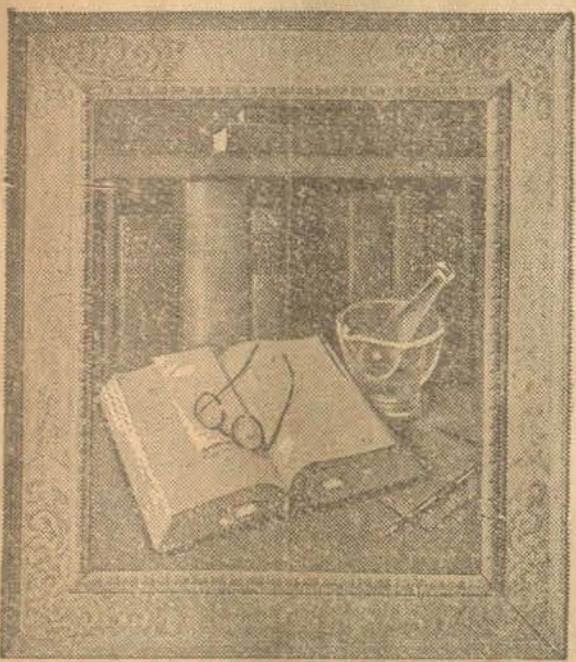

The third quarter found Russell scoring a safety for two points while Boyd, Blackcat back who found his feet exceptionally fleet, scattered two touchdowns runs of 65 yards each and another touchdown spanning 70 yards.

In the fourth quarter and the last stanza of the game Prestonsburg, more or less, ceased firing while the Russell Maroons railroaded in high steam and highballed to two touchdowns and an extra point. One touchdown resulted from a second Blackcat fumble.

Preparing this week for the "Terrible Tigers of St. X," Coach Benedett shifted tackle Mike Horn into the backfield vacancy left by "Set" Branham. Although Horn is naturally handicapped in performance by the transition from his berth in line play where he made all-conference tackle last year to the backfield position, Benedett stated after observing him practice, "Big Mike Horn is trying hard, learning fast and shows definite promise of developing into a consistent ground gainer."

INTEREST IN LUNCHROOM IS MANIFESTED

People of Martin and vicinity are showing great interest in the school lunchroom, which is being sponsored largely by the Martin Parent-Teachers Association. Many individuals and business concerns have contributed financially and many individuals have contributed their services. Our hot lunch program, which is now well under way, has proven very successful. A nourishing, well-balanced lunch is being served each student at a negligible cost and a great majority of the children are taking advantage of this facility.

All parents living in the Martin consolidated school district are urged to take part in the activities of the P.-T.A., and thereby show their appreciation for the good work being done.

First regular meeting of the Martin Parent-Teacher Association will be held Oct. 6 at 7:30 p.m., in the school auditorium. Entertainment will be furnished and refreshments will be served.

ALTON CRISP, Chairman, Booster Committee

Thin fillets of fish do not need to be turned during broiling. They may be topped with a cheese-and-parmesan flavored cream sauce just before serving.

You can save sheets by not using them to bundle your laundry in. It will be cheaper in the long run to use a laundry bag for that purpose.

Father's Favorite BISCUITS

Made with

SNOW FLOUR

For better biscuits, pies, cakes and rolls, bake with Snow Flour. Milled from pure soft winter wheat. Snow Flour has a superior flavor that makes even your best baked goods taste better!

A Product of LOUDONVILLE MILLING CO.

Father's Favorite SNOW BISCUITS

2-1/2 c. sifted Snow Flour
4 tsp. tartaric or phosphate baking powder

1/2 tsp. salt
4 tsp. fat
2/3 c. milk

Measure and sift dry ingredients into a bowl. Cut or work in fat until the mixture has a coarse granular appearance. Add liquid and combine thoroughly. Turn dough out on lightly floured board, gather up into a ball and knead lightly until the dough appears somewhat smooth. Roll to one-half inch thickness. Dip cutter into flour. Cut biscuits and place upon ungreased baking sheet. If crusty biscuits are desired place about one inch apart, otherwise biscuits may touch each other. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) for about 10 minutes.

WAYLAND

(Last week's correspondence)
Mrs. Bill Parsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Daniels, and son, Jimmy, of Fairmont, W. Va., spent the night Sept. 16 with her parents.
A Pep Rally was held in the Wayland ball park in anticipation of the Saturday night football game on Thursday. It was well attended and very peppy.
The special train of the president of the C. & O. arrived here Thursday night. The coaches were taken on up Beaver by a "dinky" engine Friday. It is presumed that this was in inspection tour of the now almost-completed new railroad.
Mr. and Mrs. George Tufts were Saturday night guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Tufts.
We are very sorry to hear of the death of one of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Martin's twin sons, who were born Sept. 3.

The second game of a three-game series of baseball between Harold and Wayland was played Friday before a capacity crowd. The game ended disastrously for Wayland in the tenth inning. The score was 11 to 8 in favor of Harold.
Wayland met Harlan here in its third football game of the season. The game was well attended. Wayland lost, 14 to 0.
Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Triplett were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Noe, Sunday.
The Woman's Society of Christian Service met on Tuesday. The hostess for this meeting was Mrs. Floyd Copley. Mrs. J. T. Fraley led the program.
Toby Wells was home for the week-end from Pikeville Academy.
The Lions Club is now sponsoring the remodeling of the gym. New shower and rest rooms are being added and the seating capacity will be increased. It is reported that the County Board of Education is giving some financial assistance.
Helen Angel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Angel, of Asheville, N.C., was a visitor here last week. It is reported that they are moving to Cumberland, Ky.
The Woman's Society of Christian Service now has the food concession at the Wayland ball park. They are doing very nicely. The project they are now working on is the raising of funds for the building of a basement in the Methodist Church.
We are very sorry to hear that Mrs. Hester DeCoursey is in St. Mary's hospital, Huntington, W. Va. We wish her a speedy recovery.
Mike Castle was Daniel Bradley's overnight guest on Friday and Daniel Mike's overnight guest on Saturday.
Alan Wrightson and Harry Craft, who attend the University of Kentucky, and Eddie Craft, who attends Caney Junior College, were home for the week-end.
Mr. and Mrs. Noah Howard attended the funeral of Mrs. Howard's uncle, R. E. Chase, of Clintwood, Virginia.
Mr. and Mrs. Perry Prater, of Shreveport, La., were welcomed back home by a host of friends and relatives after an absence of 22 years. Mrs. Prater is a sister of Mrs. Harler Kenny and a sister-in-law of Mrs. Jay Turner. Mr. and Mrs. Prater also visited his brother, Dan Prater. On Sunday they attended a family "get-together" at the home of Mrs. Prater's brother, Joe Turner, of McDowell.
Buck Gibson and his bride, from from North Carolina, were visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gibson, recently.
Mr. and Mrs. Ivory Caudill and parents were sight-seeing at Kite Sunday.
John Holden, father of Mrs. Richard Quisenberry, was returned to South Pittsburg, Tenn.
Patty Ann Anderson, of Prestonsburg, was visiting her aunt, Mrs. Ira Castle, Sunday.
Mrs. Cy Martin, cousin of Edgar Dale, of Sharpsburg, Ky., and his two nieces, Mrs. Brice Dunaway, also of Sharpsburg, and Mrs. Starlin Saunders, of Carlisle, are house-guests of the Dales.
Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Jordan, of Christiansburg, Va., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jordan this week-end.
Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Allen, of Wheelwright, were guests of the Arthur Haywoods Sunday.
Mrs. Ruth Jones and Mrs. Glenn Harold Hall shopped in Pikeville last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Bentley picnicked at the "Breaks o' Sandy" Sunday.
Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Dale and Mrs. Ralph Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Polly visited their sons, D. V. Dale, Delno and Eddy Ray Polly, at Millersburg Military Academy this week-end.
We are glad to report that Mrs. Judy Nickles, who has been in a hospital, is now home.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Faulk, a daughter, at the Paintsville hospital. Mother and babe are doing well.
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hobbs visited Mrs. Hobbs' grandmother on Left Beaver Creek Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Castle and children, Mrs. Jay Joyce and Butch were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Castle.
Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Castle, Mrs. James Williams and Mrs. Mance Weaver were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jay Joyce of Beckley, W. Va., Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Jay Joyce and Butch returned here with them.
Alice Ann Howard returned to Bristol, Va., Wednesday, to enter school.
Helen Angel and Uka Hayes were week-end guests of Mary Lois Castle.
Eleanor Fair Castle returned to the University of Kentucky where she is a senior, studying to become a laboratory technician.
Will Craft, who was injured in Saturday night's football game, is now home from the hospital.
Mrs. Dave Cooley has resigned her teaching position to help out at the Stumbo Memorial hospital.
Mrs. J. C. Wells and Mrs. George Evans were shopping in Martin last week.
George Evans and Thomas Hatcher were business visitors in Huntington Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Cooley and John Franklin spent the week-end in Huntington, guests of Mrs. John Mandt.
Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Terry and Mrs. Tom Hatcher and children were shopping in Pikeville Saturday.
We take this opportunity to welcome our new Methodist minister, the Rev. T. H. Pickerrill, and Mrs. Pickerrill, of Elkton, Ky. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Meeks, and their infant son are visiting them here. They will return to their home in Louisville Saturday, Sept. 25.

PUPILS OF DAVID SCHOOL VISIT FREEDOM TRAIN

Pupils of David school enjoyed their trip to Huntington, W. Va., last Sunday to visit the Freedom Train, very much. This was the first school to arrive in Huntington. Leaving David at 6 a.m., they arrived in Huntington at 9:20 a.m. The 52 boys and girls, along with their teachers, Mr. Conley, Mrs. Hager and Mrs. Stephens, marched up the gang plank in single file to view the documents and exhibits of our American heritage which included a letter by Christopher Columbus on the discovery of America (1492), the log of the U.S.S. Missouri, Japanese surrender of 1945.

We, the student body, wish to thank the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company for this grand privilege afforded us, and we pledge to uphold this heritage of freedom for ourselves and for all mankind. We are glad to be Americans—free Americans—for we know even with the precious cost of freedom the way of free men is best.
