I'm following that line of reason-

About people below par it is safe wit: to put the ratio in reverse. Like a steam engine fired with inferior coal, a person who eats low-grade food doesn't perform well.

Thirty years ago I was talking with James Derieux about the kind of South Carolinians who elected Cole Blease Governor, then Senator, Derieux was a newspaper reporter on tour with Blease, who appealed to the most primitive prejudices of the state's backward voters.

"These people are what they are because they cat the very commonest grade of food," said Derieux. Back-country people and none too well enlightened, but basically as good as you and me. They live on of said creek to opposite the corn pone, salt pork, grits sorghum and grits. The same grub practically every meal 365 days in the year, That they should be morose, hightempered, quick to respond to a demagogue, is perfectly natural."

Which brings us around to the low quality of food served in a large majority of eating places in Kentucky. I haven't seen Duncan Hines' list of good Kentucky eating houses, but Cost of advertising, $13.50 I'll bet you it is nothing to brag about. If every Kentucky town of over 2,500 population had a restaurant on the Hines list, the state would be a far more popular place for strangers to come to.

What's more, one good eating place in every town would not only prosper, but would force all other restaurants and quick-lunch rooms to raise their standards. The result would be healthier, happier Kentuckians capable of doing more and better work, making more money for themselves and taking a livelier interest in public affairs.

I have been eating in restaurants good deal for 40 years, and I have never known a good one, well managed, to fail. Serving good grub is the surest way of making money that I know of

If I were 20 years younger I would start a restaurant myself. And, of course, I'd begin by hiring good cooks, not by promoting dishwashers or bus boys because I could get them cheap.

PALMER L. HALL, Supt

TO THE PEOPLE OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I agree with my opponent-Floyd county is paying its way out of debt.

But this is a job that was started longer than four years ago. And no one man can claim credit for the improvement in the county's financial condition.

I am now in my tenth year as Magistrate from District No. 3 of this county, and I have seen this debt reduced during the administrations of two County Judges, 1, as a member of the fiscal court, have worked as faithfully as any official in this county, to see that debt cleared away as rapidly as possible.

These are the figures, to go back a few years:

On June 30, 1939, the county debt stood at $817,227.27. By June 30, 1944, my first five years in office, the debt was cut to $778,976.97. On June 30, last year-four years later-the debt was down to $574,881.56.

The county also has $90,000 worth of bonds which it holds to pay on this debt. It should be noted, however, that all of these bonds were purchased during the administration of Edward P. Hill as County Judge. In 1942, $50,000 worth of bonds were bought; in 1943, $30,000, and in 1944, $10,000, making a total of $90,000 the county has today.

Also in the bank, to be paid on this debt, is at this time exactly $138,262.60.

All this is good. Nobody is more proud of this record than I, but I do not claim credit for making this possible. In fact, the credit belongs to no one individual.

It is a policy necessary to the county's sound credit and good name, and if elected County Judge I will not depart from it.

As a member of the fiscal court I have not, in my desire to get things done for my district, ever forgotten that I am a Floyd county man and that all Floyd county deserves whatever I could do for it. So, as the opportunity arose for other parts of the county to benefit, I have voted

As a candidate for County Judge I have no promises of miracles to make to the people. I do not want to make such promises, knowing I cannot fulfill them, and then have to face the people later, knowing they know I made false promises.

I can promise you, however, with complete honesty, that as County Judge I will work hard for all of Floyd county and for all its citizens in every walk of life. I will attend to the business of being your Judge, with no private axes to grind, no old scores to settle.

As to the Fiscal Court and the conduct of the county's financial affairs, I promise that all sessions of the court will be held in the County Courtroom, with the doors open to every citizen, so that the people may hear and see for themselves how I and the county's four Magistrates talk and vote in the handling of their money and in disposing of their requests for improvements. This, as I see it, is an obligation on the part of our officials-to let the people themselves in on their own business.

My opponent and I have no personal quarrel, now or ever. I accept his statement that the race for County Judge should be settled on our own merits. If it should be decided otherwise, the people would make a bad decision, and I consider the people as a whole-laboring man, the farmer, the teacher and the professional man-bigger than any one candidate

Lam convinced I can and will make Floyd county a County Judge capable of serving all the people efficiently and faithfully, and, so convinced, I ask your support in the coming Democratic primary.

Your friend,

HENRY STUMBO

DIVINITY OF CHRIST

St. John, 1st chap., 29th verse: The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him and saith, Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away e sin of the world." 32nd verse: And John bore record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven, like a dove and it abode upon him." 33rd verse: "And I knew him not but he that sent me to baptize with water the same said unto me upon whom shalt thou see the spirit descending and remaining on him is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost." 34th verse: "And I saw and bore record that this is the Son of God." St. John, 3rd chap., 5th verse: "Jesus answered, verily, verily I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and the spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God." 6th verse: "That which is born of flesh is flesh and that which is born of the spirit is spirit." 7th verse: "Marvel not that I said unto thee. Ye must be born again." 9th verse: "Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?" 10th verse: Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?"

Now I think this is proof enough for any Bible reader to know a few things before he tries to teach and rule others.

In the year 1939 I had a heavenly command to warn other nations of approaching danger and the churches of false doctrine, and the town of McDowell of the works of darkness, Since that time I have been hard fought and persecuted, overcome with strong powers. Because of authority. I have received both losses and gains. I have never failed to obey God rather than man. I pray day and night for God's will to be done on earth as it is in heaven. Jesus acknowledged his earthly mother in his dying hour. St. John, 19th chap., 26th verse; "When Jesus therefore saw his mother and the disciples standing by whom he loved he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son." 27th verse: "Then saith he to the disciple and from that hour that disciple took her unto him own home.'

Now my beloved son, Sgt. Roy Hall, left a record-nation, take care of my mother. And I know Ged is not pleased with the way the leaders of church and state in authority in Floyd county, especially in the town of McDowell, have left the old anrient landmark and entered into the fields of the fatherless. Prov. 14th chap,, 12th verse; There is a way that seemeth right unto a man but the end thereof are the ways of

ALEX L. DAVIDSON FOR COUNTY JUDGE

I promised the people of Floyd county, four years ago, that if they would elect me County Judge I would do the very best job I could, and that promise I have made every effort to keep.

I make you the same promise again, and I feel that with the experience of these four years behind me I will be better qualified to handle the office than before.

Now, I do not mean to say I have been perfect in every respect as County Judge. I have made mistakes, many mistakes, and I am the first to admit that I have. But I have tried my very best AND WHATEVER MIS-TAKES I HAVE MADE WERE HONEST MISTAKES. No man is perfect; no man can be all things to all men, and the voters of this county know this as well as I do.

I also admit many things have been needed by Floyd county that have not been done, but I think the people should have the facts about this matter, so they will understand exactly why we have fallen short in some respects. Several years ago, an indebtedness of nearly a million dollars was piled up against this county. Because of that, there must be paid, each year, interest and principal on that indebtedness. After taking care of the bonds as they come due, with interest, there is comparatively little left with which to do the many things that should be done.

Each year I have been in office, we have met our debt obligations as they came due, and I assure you, every year I am your County Judge these debts will be paid until this county is debt-free.

Right now, Floyd county has over $300,000 in the bank, placed there in a sinking fund against this county debt. With sound business handling of the county's financial affairs, this debt will be paid within another four years. Many of the bonds against the county, now drawing heavy interest, could be retired at this time but, unfortunately for us, they are not callable.

All this I point out to show why the individual needs of communities in the county-roads, bridges and other improvements-cannot be available immediately, no matter how much you or I may want them.

Permit me to add: I intend to run a clean race during this campaign. I have no ill word to speak of any opposition I may have. I want the people simply to know the facts and to consider me as their servant strictly on my merits. I promise you courteous and faithful service and an honest administration. Did I seek your support on any other grounds, I would not merit your votes.

Your friend,

(Pol. adv.)

ALEX L. DAVIDSON
