

This Town-- That World

CAN THIS BE REAL? This lake just across the hill from Prestonsburg is, for all its tragic meaning to those who lived on Johns Creek, the prettiest thing ever. A gem in a sylvan setting, it is unsurpassed for beauty by no lake I have ever seen, and, brother, I have seen several, around and about, while trying to catch a fish or so.

SO-WE "WIDE" I am pleased, no end, to report I have a new ally at my house in my zanyness over a bit of recreation on the water. Our son, now 2, is forming sentences of a sort, and I do believe he has the soundest ideas of anybody in the family (excepting the old man). For instance, this

Farmers and Scientists Believe Rainmakers "Too Successful"

Farmers who may be squinting heavenward, next month or the next, hoping to glimpse a promise or rain, have been viewing the elements with apprehension for another reason. There has been too much rain here—two solid weeks of it, rain every day—and farming was "behind. Recent high waters destroyed many river bank crops and rain has hampered their replanting. Farm-lands which have not yet been plowed until this week were too wet to plow, and where crops and gardens were growing the weeds were growing faster.

ONE Look

Yes, a look will show you why it's Ford for Fashion, again for '50! Once again Ford's smart, modern styling earned it the New York Fashion Academy's coveted medal as "Fashion Car of the Year." No other car at any price has received such an honor 2 years running.

"It's the Fashion Car of the Year!"
"And it costs so little to buy"

ONE Listen

You can hardly hear the '50 Ford's powerful V-8 engine. For with all its road-mastering power it never raises its voice. Your ride is quiet, too, because "sound-conditioning" throughout Ford's roomy and sturdy "Life-guard" Body keeps noise out!

"It's so quiet!"
"You can hardly hear it run!"
"And you go so far for so little money!"

ONE Ride

A "Test Drive" and you will learn Ford's quality firsthand! You'll marvel at the performance of the 100-h.p. V-8, or its companion-in-quality, the 95-h.p. Six... the comfort of its "Mid Ship" Ride. You'll feel the safety of Ford's 35% easier-acting King-Size Brakes. And after you've come to know this car, you'll thrill to its complete economy—low first cost, great gas mileage, low upkeep and high resale value. You'll recognize that Ford's the "Big Economy Package" of the low-price field.

THE WORD IS MUM

Curtley Conley and his father-in-law, John Wicker, over in Knott county, aren't on speaking terms, and this state of affairs appears to have saved them and perhaps others from spending terms in durance vile.

The Hindman News tells the story of family turmoil and strife during which Conley, by his own admission, whipped Wicker "and gave him a good one" because, he averred, Wicker "swore a lie on him and he thought he needed it." That got Conley in court.

So the son-in-law goes after the Little Woman's father with a writ of his own swearing. Upshot of the matter was, both men were held under peace warrants. Whereupon Wicker brings in other members of the Conley family, swearing out peace warrants for Bill and Dovey Conley, parents of his son-in-law.

And there they were. Nobody able to execute bond. An indefinite stay in jail threatened for all concerned. So, after considerable wrangling about, hemming and hawing and such, they got down to signing an agreement which would at least permit everybody to go home.

Curtley Conley and father, of the one part, signed an agreement never to speak to John Wicker again, and the aforesaid Wicker, of the other part, likewise agreed not to speak to them. But Wicker and Mrs. Conley, who are members of the same church, are to be permitted to speak to each other and discuss their church.

Speaking of politics,—as who isn't?—this guy Pepper never had a chance in Florida. "Red" Pepper wasn't wanted and if they had called him "Black" Pepper he wouldn't have been on the ballot.

In 1949 there were well over 14,000 cutting machines used in this country's bituminous coal mines.

A good potential market is seen for bituminous coal, with the mechanical stoker feeder; for using it, is the flue-curing of tobacco by a direct firing process.

Left Beaver Creek Scene of Two Raids By County Officers

Raids on Left Beaver Creek by deputy sheriffs and deputy constables proved the major activity on the Floyd county liquor front.

Armed with search warrants issued by Magistrate Ellis Martin, of Drift, officers confiscated 37 half-pints of whiskey, some beer and wine on a raid on Ella Blair, on Abner Fork, near Melvin, and a gallon of moonshine whiskey on the premises of Eli Johnson on the head of Skull, above Weeksbury. Mrs. Blair executed bond, Johnson came to jail.

Officers figuring in the two raids were Constable John E. Caudill, Deputy Sheriff Willie Johnson, Deputy Constables Green Johnson, Cain Blackburn and Ernoch Hatfield. Bill Mullett was jailed here Saturday by Deputies Johnson and Hatfield and booked for possession of whiskey. The same day, Jack Salisbury was listed at the jail by Deputy Constable Bill P. Wills on charges of drunken driving and possession of liquor.

Bituminous coal mining is twice as safe as it was forty years ago, considering man-hours worked, and is four times safer in terms of tonnage produced.

For each ton of coal taken out of the ground during U. S. history, there remain 104 tons still in the ground.

The modern bituminous coal mine is really an underground mass production factory, including rapid transit of the coal to the surface.

across the river in West Virginia. The Barfilete Fork of equally dim origin seems to have been a tributary of Paint Lick (Big Paint) Creek.

The 1818 map improves on the Frenchman's work in the matter of names from the modern point of view. Munsell lists Lick Creek, Mill Creek and Georges Creek in what is now Lawrence county, Tom's Creek and Big Paint in the present Johnson, and in the boundaries of the present-day Floyd he placed Abbott Creek, Middle Creek, Bull and Cow Creeks, Mare Creek and Mud Creek. Beaver Creek is listed, but Left Beaver Creek was identified as Mereans Fork. On Right Beaver are mentioned Rock Fork, Martin's Fork and Funcheon Camp.

First mention of the Levisa fork is made where the right and left forks join to make the main stream, above Shelby, and at that it is spelled "Leuisa."

On this map Prestonsburg is the only town named, except Callettsburg at the mouth of the river.

A Beauty directs beauty contests—Here, center, is Miss Betty Jean Martin of McDowell, executive director of the 15 county-wide beauty contests being staged in Eastern Kentucky for selection of a queen for the Floyd County Sesquicentennial Celebration to be held in Prestonsburg July 1, 2, 3, and 4. At the left, beside the pretty 18-year-old University of Kentucky graduate, is Robert S. Wellman, Prestonsburg attorney and member of the city's Junior Chamber of Commerce which is sponsoring the contests. At the right is Paul E. Hayes, also an attorney of Prestonsburg, a Jaycee, and Wellman's law partner. Both young attorneys are former teachers at Wheelwright high school and both are graduates of the U. K. College of law. Wellman's parents now reside in Morehead and Hayes is from Hi Hat.

AREA BEAUTIES TO COME HERE

Representing Respective Counties in Competition To Name Beauty Queen

By JACK C. YORK

Eighteen-year-old Betty Jean Martin, a this-year's graduate of the University of Kentucky, was today (Thursday) deep in the job of directing some 15 beauty contests which will result in the selection of a queen for the Floyd County Sesquicentennial Celebration to be held here July 1, 2, 3 and 4.

Pretty enough herself to win beauty contests, Miss Martin was assigned by the Sesquicentennial Celebration's general committee to direct organization in all the 15 counties which, 150 years ago, made up the original Floyd county.

Since starting work this past week, Miss Martin has already arranged for contests to be held at Hindman, Knott county; Hazard, Perry county; Paintsville, Johnson county; and Inez, Martin county.

In Hindman the contest will be held in the Hicks theater. Miss Charlotte Smith was named by Miss Martin to have charge there, aided by Ora Lee Frango, president of the Hindman Woman's Club.

First entrant for "Princess of Knott County" was Miss Geraldine Stone, of Hindman.

John Potisek, editor of the Hazard Herald, and L. O. Davis, manager of the Virginia Theater there, will be in charge of the contest for Perry county. Girls may sign up for that contest at Don's Drug Store, the Virginia Theater, the Family Theater, The Herald, and at Radio Station WKIC in Hazard.

At Paintsville, Ky., the contest for Johnson county will be held in the Sipp Theater at 7 p.m., Tuesday, June 27. In charge of that contest are Mrs. John Wheeler, editor and publisher of The Paintsville Herald, and W. T. Cain, Jr., owner of the Sipp Theater. In Paintsville, beauty contestants may sign up at the Sipp Theater or the offices of The Paintsville Herald.

The Martin county contest will be staged in the Fred Fairchild theater at Inez, Ky. Miss Martin has announced that Mrs. H. G. Newberry, of Inez, will have charge of the contest there.

In Magoffin county the Salyersville Kiwanis Club will sponsor the beauty contest to be held there June 27. Albert K. Moore, editor of The Salyersville Independent, is aiding in promoting the contest in Salyersville.

Over in West Liberty, Morgan county, they are planning on a real "Beauty and Beast" contest. For there, in connection with their selection of a Morgan county Princess, members of the Kiwanis Club of West Liberty will also stage a "frog derby" next week. W. Major Gardner and J. B. Nickell have charge of the Morgan county competition.

In Sandy Hook, Elliott county, the beauty contest will be staged in the Sandy Theater June 23. In addition to The Elliott County News those who are helping to promote the contest there are Johnnie Redwine and Miss Ruth Keck.

The Trail Theatre, managed by Tom Maxedon, will stage the beauty contest for Morehead, Rowan county, on June 27. Editor W. E. Crutcher of The Rowan County News is aiding with details.

Malcolm H. Holliday, editor of The Jackson Times, along with Crawford Akins, manager of the Jaxon Theater, will be in charge of the Breathitt county contest which will be held in Jackson, Ky. Aiding them is Phil Smith, secretary of the Kiwanis Club, Jackson.

Arnold R. We, County Superintendent of Schools, along with Burt Baumgardner, manager of the Wolfe Theater, will help stage the contest in Campton, Wolfe county. Mrs. Reva Howard, president of the Campton Woman's Club, is helping with that contest, along with Mr. Holliday, editor of The Jackson Times, and other Holliday publications of that area.

Meanwhile, Miss Martin continues touring the 15-county area, arranging for other contests for the selection of princesses of the various sections.

When selected by their respective counties, these princesses will compete in a huge finals contest for the naming of queen of the Floyd County Sesquicentennial Celebration, which will be held in Prestonsburg, Saturday, July 1, opening day of the four-day festivities.

Along with the Sesquicentennial Queen, a King of the Beards will be chosen to act as consort royal to her majesty. Crops of whiskers are now being cultivated by males throughout the original Floyd county area.

Winner in the finals contest will be selected according to rules laid down by the American Beauty Pageant held each year in Atlantic City.

One of the prizes which will be bestowed upon the Sesquicentennial Queen will be a trip to Louisville, Ky., where she will compete with other beauty queens from all over the state for the title of "Miss Kentucky" winner of which will go to the national contest in Atlantic City.

Young People of Church Decorate Graves, Conduct Memorial Day Services

Water Gap, Ky., June 9 (Sp.)—Memorial Day week-ends, the one preceding the holiday and the one following, found the Young People's Christian Association of the Trimble Chapel at the forks of Bull Creek very active in holding memorial services at gravesides, it was reported this week.

On Sunday, May 28, the young people visited graves which included those of Sgt. Taubee McGuire, Pvt. Russell Robinson, Pvt. Alvin Nelson, Pvt. Floyd Lafferty, Pvt. Orville Scutchfield, Staff Sgt. Junior Roark and Pvt. Goodman. Each grave was decorated with two American flags and a wreath of flowers which were made by the YPCA members and their parents. The Reverends Wayne Blanton, Beckham Scutchfield, Burnis McGuire and Eris McGuire conducted the services and songs were sung by the Young People's Christian Association choir.

Sunday, June 4, found the young folks visiting graves of the Holbrook cemetery on Middle Creek, among them the graves of Pvt. Henry Lewis Holbrook, of World War II, and Pvt. Joe Holbrook, of World War I. Frank Derossett conducted the services with the choir again providing a song service.

The YPCA holds its regular meetings at 7:30 p.m. on Friday of each week and extends a cordial welcome to all to attend, announced DeGarmo Derossett, president of the group. Other officers are Lucille Derossett, vice-president; Mildred Jarvis, treasurer; Loma Derossett, secretary. Members of the program committee are Fred Jarrell, Jr., Ruth Ann McGuire and Eryant Derossett. The sponsor of the YPCA is Mrs. Loma Derossett.

Mrs. Russell Kendrick had as dinner guests on Sunday, June 4, Douglas Garrett, Lucille Derossett, Elizabeth Leake, James Roy Ramey, James McGuire, Mildred Jarvis, DeGarmo Derossett, Betty Ramey, Bryant Derossett, Ruth Ann McGuire, Fred Jarrell, Jr., Gerald Derossett, Addie Warrick, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Garrett, and her father, Seymour Garrett. After dinner, the guests visited the Dewey dam.

County Buys Shovel For Highway Work

Purchase of two items of road machinery was made by the fiscal court at its meeting here Monday for a total of $9,800.

The machinery, purchased from the Mullins Tractor Company, includes an HD tractor shovel and a Model E Carco winch. The county made a down payment of $1,500 on the order.

pany income being set aside each month for plant depreciation starting January 1, 1950.

4. A general wage increase.

5. An increase in the minimum pension for company employees in November, 1949.

6. Shortening of employe working hours as a result of bargaining negotiations during May, 1950.

Southern Bell's previous three higher rate requests also were predicated on rising costs of operation. The first two rate increases, in January and July of 1947, totaled $2,061,000. The Public Service Commission approved $1,626,100 and disallowed $434,900. The latter amount was refunded to customers.

The third request in July, 1948, totaled $2,065,000. All of this was disallowed by the Public Service Commission, but Franklin Circuit Judge William B. Ardrey reversed the decision and sent the case back for further study. The Court of Appeals declined to review the case when Public Service Commission attorneys failed to file an appeal from Judge Ardrey's decision within the legal 60-day limit.

The status of the third case still is in question. Southern Bell, which has been collecting the extra $2,065,000 a year since mid-1948, contends it won a clear-cut right to charge the higher rates under the court decisions.

The Public Service Commission takes the position that the case is back in its hands, where Judge Ardrey returned it after dissolving the P.S.C. order denying the increase. Further hearings on the third rate-raise request may be scheduled. It is possible that this fourth request and the third case may be combined and heard jointly.

Southern Bell says its latest rate request will increase its income $2,691,000 a year, but the company will get only about $1,600,000 of the increase. The rest will go for state and U.S. income taxes.

The increase amounts to about 12 per cent over all. Residential rates will be from 25 to 85 cents a month higher. Business charges will be $1.25 to $2 a month more. In addition, intrastate toll calls up to 96 miles will cost 5 cents more. For greater distances, the charges will run 10 cents more than at present.

Mrs. Bradley Dies On Operating Table Of Lackey Hospital

Mrs. Marie Bradley, of Hueysville, 31-year-old mother of five, died Sunday on the operating table of the Stumbo Memorial hospital, Lackey, where she underwent surgery for gallstones.

Her son, Ashland Bradley, Jr., had undergone a tonsillectomy at the same hospital, the same day. She had been in ill health for the last two years.

Mrs. Bradley was a daughter of the late Johnny Taylor and of Mrs. Lillian Sexton Taylor, of Cadmus, Lawrence county. She was a member of the Regular Baptist Church.

Surviving are her husband, Ashland Bradley, three sons and two daughters, Ashland, Jr., Rayburn, Gary, Fay and Janet, all of Hueysville; her mother, four brothers, Harold, in the army, Tokyo, Japan, Johnny B., Plymouth, O., Denver, George, Charlotte and Martha Sue, all of Cadmus, Ky.

The funeral was held Wednesday from the Bradley residence, the Revs. M. C. Wright, Banner Manns, A. J. Moore, Billy Moore and Alex Coburn officiating. Burial in the James Allen cemetery, near Hueysville, was directed by the Arnold & Hall Funeral Home.

The surface "preparation" plant for cleaning, washing and sizing newly mined fuel is as symbolic to bituminous coal mining as the blast furnace is to a steel mill.

About 32,000, or 7 per cent of the American bituminous coal miners during 1948 were engaged in surface mining and accounted for 23 per cent of the total output.

OPEN HOUSE AT DEWEY DAM AS U. S. ENGINEERS OBSERVE THEIR 175TH ANNIVERSARY

Tomorrow (Friday), the Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, will observe its 175th anniversary, and Dewey Dam, the lone Big Sandy project now under the engineers' active supervision, will be open to the public for inspection during the afternoon as a part of the observance of the occasion planned throughout the Huntington district.

Another part of the observance at the dam will be the awarding of a 10-Year Service Emblem to Roy E. Moore, reservoir manager.

Ceremonies in honor of the occasion are being planned by Col. D. T. Johnson, district engineer. These agencies contemplate the presentation of 551 service emblem awards to civilian workers in the Huntington district for the completion of 10, 20 and 30 years of service in the Department of the Army, and open house to the public at the major corps of Engineers installations over the district.

In 1936, the Corps was given the responsibility of controlling floods on a nation-wide basis. Today, the Engineers, at the direction of Congress, are hard at work on the most comprehensive plan for long-range, inter-basin plan for flood control in history. Under the plan, some 200 of the country's major water sheds will be protected from serious flood damage and the waters put to work for the benefit of the American people.

In the Huntington district there are 39 flood control reservoirs, 61 flood walls and 5 channel improvement projects which have been authorized by congress. To date 18 of the reservoirs (including 14 on tributaries of the Muskingum River, Ohio; Bluestone on New River, West Virginia; Delaware on the Olentangy River, Ohio; Burr Oak on Sunday Creek, Ohio; and Dewey on Johns Creek, Kentucky, have been completed and in operation; and two, Dillon on Licking River, Ohio, and Sutton on Elk River, West Virginia, are under construction; five flood wall projects, at Pakersburg, Huntington, and Ceredo-Kenova, West Virginia, and Ironton and Portsmouth-New Boston, Ohio, have been completed; and three, at Point Pleasant, West Virginia, and Ashland and Maysville, Kentucky, are under construction. In addition, 18 locks and dams on the Ohio River and three on the Kanawha River are operated and maintained for navigation and 21 locks and dams on the Muskingum, Little Kanawha and Big Sandy Rivers are operated as required.

State Sets Bond Total, But Pays Premium Only

Frankfort, Ky., June 14—The State pays the premium only on the total amount of bond it approves for a sheriff, Assistant Attorney General M. B. Holfield said in an opinion given to the State Finance Department in a Hopkins County case. Pierce Holton of the Finance Department wrote that the State fixed at $15,000 the bond necessary for the Hopkins Sheriff to protect States taxes he collects. The Hopkins county sheriff took out a $32,000 bond, Holton stated.

CO-OP LEADER LISTS PRIZES

To Be Awarded Here At Annual Meeting On July 6 and 7th

Big prizes and a chance to compete for bigger ones—that is the opportunity which members of the Big Sandy Rural Electric Co-Op will have if they attend their annual meeting at Prestonsburg on July 6 and 7, and compete with their fellow-members.

The Co-Op's manager, D. J. Gambill, said four major contests—beauty, cake baking, gospel quartet singing and tractor driving, will be held at this year's meeting. He listed prizes in each contest as follows:

Beauty—First, large trophy cup and ribbon; second, portable radio and ribbon.
Cake baking—First, $25; second, $10; third, $5.
Gospel quartet—First, $10; second, $5.

Tractor driving—Cash or merchandise. (Only 4-H boys may enter.)
Winners of these contests may compete for statewide championships and bigger prizes. Beauty winners will compete at the State Fair, State beauty winner may compete in a four-state contest for a chance to try for the national title, "Miss U.S. REA," at the national convention at Cleveland in March, 1951.

Besides the prizes given in these contests, co-op members will have a chance at the big electrical appliances—range, refrigerator, home freezer, water heater, mixer, toaster, coffee maker, 12-inch oscillating fan and hand iron—to be given away on the last day of the meeting, which is an established feature of this co-op's annual meetings. In addition, several "surprise prizes" will be given in contests to be announced at the meeting.

"Special events will also be held for our friends in town on the night of the 6th, and we want them to feel free to enjoy this meeting with us," Mr. Gambill said.

This year's meeting is part of the Annual Meeting and Electric Farm Show Caravan being made available to 21 Kentucky electric co-ops on a self-paying basis in cooperation with the state association of electric co-ops. Approximately $30,000 in prizes will be given at the 21 meetings this year.

Bank Here To Send Two To Banking School

Louisville, Ky., June 8 (Spl.)—Adrian Collins and Miss Burieta Gearheart, assistant cashier and bookkeeper, respectively of The Bank Josephine, Prestonsburg, will attend the Kentucky School of Bankers, sponsored by the Kentucky Bankers Association, at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, June 12-16.
Registration at the school is limited to junior officers and key personnel of banks who will come to Lexington from all parts of the state. They will study courses including Bank Operations, Bank Equipment and Uses, Farm Credit Appraisal, Business Credit, Basic Business Law, Economics and Public Relations.

"Hall, who carried Johnson, was second to Perkins in Magoffin and Martin, fourth in Floyd and last in Knott, Letcher, Perry, and Pike, Hill was second in Knott, Pike, Floyd, and Johnson. He ran third in Magoffin and Martin and fourth in Perry and Letcher.
"Perkins polled 7,976 to 4,729 for Hill, 3,386 for Coldiron, 3,335 for Hall, and 3,996 for Hays.
"If one assumes that 1948 backers of Hall, Hill, and Coldiron will support Hall, and that Hays can persuade his to back Perkins, the closeness of the impending contest becomes apparent.

"Of course the assumption is subject to error for many reasons. One of the foremost factors is the role of the United Mine Workers, which plays a dominant part in politics in the area.

"In 1948, U.M.W. support largely was split among five candidates. It remains to be seen whether the U.M.W.'s chagrin at the failure of the 1950 legislature to enact a mine-safety code will react against Perkins and his administration support.

"On the other hand, since 1948 there has been a political realignment in the Seventh which should have strengthened Clements' position on the ballot with Perkins.

Printer Man's Death Follows Operation To Amputate Leg

J. M. Meade, 73 years old, of Printer, retired sawmill worker and farmer, died Saturday soon after his leg was amputated at Our Lady of the Way hospital in an effort to halt a gangrenous condition caused by diabetes. He had been ill for several months.

A son of the late J. P. (John Printer) Meade, well-known Floyd county citizen for whom Printer post-office was named, and the late Mrs. Sarah Meade, he was born and reared on Left Beaver Creek. He had been a member of the Church of Christ for the last 25 years and was one of the community's best citizens.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Amanda Meade, three sons, Robert, Joe and Bill Meade, all of Printer, three daughters, Mrs. Sallie Hall, Weeksburg, Mrs. Allie Carroll and Margaret Meade, both of Printer; one brother, A. L. Meade, of Blue Moon, and one sister, Mrs. Kate Elliott, Printer.

The funeral was conducted Sunday from the residence, the Revs. T. F. Meade and Henry Parsons officiating. Burial in the Spurlock cemetery was under direction of the Arnold & Hall Funeral Home.

Hite Woman Victim Of Sudden Attack At Age of 81 Years

Mrs. Dollie Oriana Dings, 81 years old, wife of Phillip (Boy) Dings, well-known Hite resident, died suddenly at her home at 8:15 Wednesday morning, victim of a heart attack. Mrs. Dings had apparently been in her usual health and the fatal seizure came without warning.

Member of one of the county's oldest families, and a native of the community where she died, Mrs. Dings was a daughter of the late Thomas and Louisa Dings Osborne. The circle of her friends was as wide as her extensive relationship.

Surviving, besides her husband, are six sons and one daughter, W. E. Lacey, Russell and Wes Dings, all of Hite, Ray Dings, Mare Creek, Clyde Dings, Martin, and Mrs. L. E. Crisp, of Hite. She also leaves two brothers and one sister, the Rev. S. D. Osborne, Martin, T. T. Osborne, Clarksville, O., and Mrs. S. P. Osborne, Hite.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the auditorium of Martin high school, and burial will be made in the family cemetery at Hite under direction of the Ryan Funeral Home, Elders Day, Maxfield, Patton, Wallace and Allen will officiate at the funeral.

Big Sandy Engineers Meet at Pikeville

Directors of the Big Sandy Chapter, Kentucky Society of Professional Engineers, met Friday evening at the office of O. S. Batten, Pikeville, with Carl Corbin, Prestonsburg, president of the chapter, presiding.

In a general discussion of membership it was held that any engineer in temporary residence in this area and having membership in a neighboring state society should be eligible to membership in the Kentucky Society of Professional Engineers. Those making regular residence in the area served by the chapter would be required to establish membership in the Society.

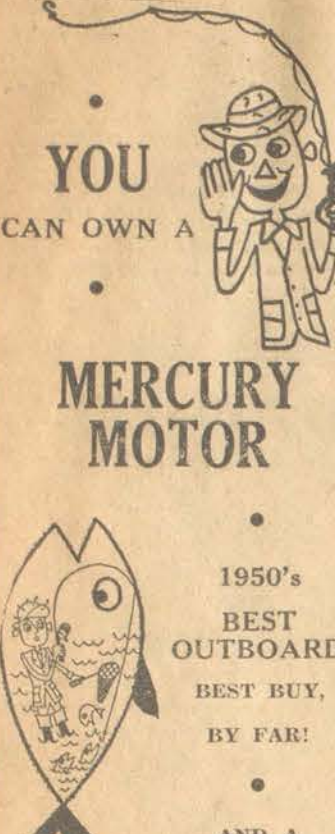

Six bi-monthly meetings a year for the Society was voted by a majority of those present. Attending the meeting were those officers and directors of the chapter: Mr. Corbin, Mr. Batten, B. P. Bogardus, H. L. Fiedler, C. P. Howard, C. D. Roberts, C. T. Warwick.

Carbon (coke) is required in the smelting of iron ore, and therefore much of the nation's coking activities are as adjuncts to the manufacture of basic steel. The rest is done largely by merchant coke plants which sell fuel coke, as for foundries, household fuel, city heating gas, and the crude coal tar substances which are fabricated into thousands of familiar items.

here, Miss Chessie Irene Wright, Pikeville, daughter of Mrs. B. F.
Wright and the late B. F. Wright, was united in marriage to Mr. William Wayne Cornett, of Marion, Virginia. The altar was flanked with tall baskets of white gladioli and greenery with wrought iron candelabrae holding white cathedral candles at either end. A musicale of bridal music was given by Mrs.
Chalmers Frazier followed by a solo,
"I Love You Truly," by Franklin
Moore. The bride wore a combination blue and white suit with white accessories and carried a bouquet of pink roses. She was given in marriage by her brother, Joe Wright. The maid of honor, Mrs.
Edith Wright, sister of the bride, wore a white and green print silk dress with white accessories and wore a shoulder corsage of garden-ias. Victor Wright, a brother of the bride, served as best man.

Following the ceremony the couple left for Virginia Beach, Va., where they will spend their honeymoon.
They will reside in Louisa where Mr.
Cornett is employed. Both were graduated from Berea College. At-

Permit for Jenny Wiley To Wed Was Found Here

By R. LEE STEWART

(The newspaper story Mr. Stewart here refers to was originally published by The Floyd County Times—Editor.)

Floyd county, founded in 1800, will observe, with fitting ceremonies, its sesquicentennial from July 1 through the 4th. Rowan and most of the counties of Northeastern Kentucky were a part of the original Floyd.

In going through my newspaper clippings the other day I ran across some interesting history about Jenny Wiley, whose name is linked throughout early Kentucky history. The item is from a Morehead paper, published in 1927. It reads:

"After surviving 117 years (now 140 years) since it was issued and lying in the obscurity of dusty files for all these years, a marriage license, believed at first to be that of Jenny Wiley, but more definitely identified as that of her daughter, was recently found in the office of the county clerk.

"This paper, yellowed with age, upon which are the markings of a "goosequill" pen, is closely connected with one of the most historical episodes in Kentucky history—that of Jenny Wiley, the pioneer woman who was captured by the Indians and wrote a chapter in American history with her perilous flight from her captors.

"The marriage bond plainly states that a marriage is shortly intended and solemnized between the Williamson and Jenny Wiley. This gave rise to the belief that the woman referred to was the Jenny Wiley of historical fame, but the date of the marriage—1810—makes it plain that this was probably her daughter.

"Be that as it may, the recently discovered documents bear on their yellowed pages things of special interest to Eastern Kentuckians, through which Jenny Wiley roamed with the Indians and through which she fled. Her descendants number many outstanding Kentuckians and West Virginians."

Thomas Wiley's consent to his daughter's marriage addressed to William J. Mayo, clerk of the Floyd county court, reads:

"To Mr. Mayhoe, clerk sur. I would request the favor of you that you would grant license of marriage as all parties are satisfied to the same covenant of merriage between Richard Williamson and Jane Wiley, Given under my hand, Thomas Wiley. Attest: Hezekiah Wiley and Shadrach Ward."

The yellowed marriage bond, executed in the presence of the clerk and signed by Richard Williamson and Shadrach Ward, follows:

"Know all men by these presents—that we, Richard Williamson and Shadrach Ward of Floyd county are held and firmly bound unto the Commonwealth of Kentucky in the penal sum of fifty pounds for the payment whereof we bind ourselves, our heirs, and firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this 9th day of October, 1810.

"The condition of the above obligation is such that, whereas there is marriage shortly intended to be had and solemnized between the above bound Richard Williamson and Jenny Wiley, of the county aforesaid. If therefore there shall be unlawful cause to obstruct the said marriage then the above obligation to be void, else to remain in full force and virtue."

The Jenny Wiley of legendary renown was a daughter of Hezekiah Sellards. She married Thomas Wiley, and one of her sisters married John Borders, a British soldier who surrendered with Cornwallis at Yorktown, then came to the Big Sandy and became the progenitor of the large Borders family of this section.

Jenny Wiley was married in 1779.
When captured by the Indians she had four children which were killed by the Indians. She bore another child a few weeks after her capture, which was also destroyed by the Redskins. She remained a captive for over 11 months, but one day during a rain storm made her escape, and her way to a fort near Johns Creek on the Levisa fork of Big Sandy river, with the Indians in close pursuit.

She died in 1831 after having reared a family of many children.

School's Ban of Wife Called "Unreasonable"

Frankfort, Ky., June 13—It's "arbitrary and unreasonable" to bar a girl from school because she gets married, so said Assistant Attorney General John B. Browning in an opinion today. He added, however, he could find no Kentucky statutes covering such a case.

The opinion went to D. C. Qualls, Lawrenceburg. He wrote that his 16-year-old daughter was barred because she got married in her junior year at high school.

Floyd County Times

Official Organ for Floyd County, Ky.
Published Every Thursday by Prestonsburg Publishing Co.

Entered as second class matter June 18, 1927, at the postoffice at Prestonsburg, Ky., under the act of March 3, 1879.

THIS IS OUR STORY

FLOYD countians—that is to say, residents of all that huge 16-county area which comprised the original Floyd county—will have the opportunity, beginning July 1, to show the rest of Kentucky and observers in other states that they can achieve a civic success as signal as any other cestion can attain.

July 1 marks the beginning of the original Floyd's Sesquicentennial Celebration in Prestonsburg, the county seat of the Floyd county of 150 years ago. And what the leaders of all the counties which, back then, composed this county do will be told by the press and radio of a large section of the county.

We have been wanting "favorable" publicity. Here's our chance. Pre-Sesquicentennial publicity already has brought Floyd county to the respectful attention of thousands of newspaper readers and radio listeners. That publicity has promised much. Let us not fail. Succeeding, we shall prove that we in 150 years have made progress, have founded our culture soundly and, for all our years, are active.

We shall thus write our own story, our own "favorable" publicity.

Confederate Flag Flying Over Capitol 1st Time Since '62

Frankfort, Ky., June 10—The flag of the Confederacy flies now over the old State Capitol here for the first time since 1862.

The flag-hoisting was sponsored for Confederate Memorial Day by the Confederate Club of Kentucky, through its governor, Col. George Fowler, Frankfort.

The Confederate Flag last flew over the old Capitol in November, 1862. Power said, when Bragg's Southern forces invaded Kentucky and Confederate Governor Hawes was inaugurated here, it was hauled down a month later, a few days before the Southern defeat at the Battle of Perryville.

Volatile matter in bituminous coal represents that complex of gases and vapors consumed in the burning process in efficient combustion.

For Father's Day

Just before Father's Day, 11 years ago, Frank Music, a Floyd county soldier, wrote from his post in the Zonal Zone to his Dad, Frank Music is now dead. What he wrote follows:

Dear Dad,
Here is a little poem which I wrote a few nights ago, as I was sitting at my desk, thinking of the one who to me is the greatest man in the world. I am sorry that I have not the golden pen of the old Masters, so that I could write an ode worthy of the subject, but I did my best. Some day when I have more experience at writing, I hope to write a poem that will capture the strong, indomitable, starkly honest soul that lives within your body. Now the poem:

MY FATHER

Today I'm mighty sorry
For the fellows who have not Upon their list of assets
A father like I've got.

A dad whose every action
Is a lesson tried and true,
Who lives himself the many things
He thinks his son should do.

And when the Lord gets ready
For people here on earth,
We'll all be lined up, front to rear,
According to our worth;

Then when the pearly gates swing
Wide
For fathers good and true,
I'll bet you anything My Dad
Will be the first one through.

t-pd. FRANK

I frankly admit, I was for the legal sale of liquor in Martin. That position was taken as a private citizen because I honestly believe it was the better method of handling whiskey.

Now that you have returned a dry majority, however, I am anxious that Martin be dry in more than name. I intend to do my level best to rid the community of bootlegging, and in this undertaking I ask the assistance of all opposed to liquor.

I ask the dry forces and each church in Martin to organize a committee to work with me, to the end that this town cease to be known as a bootlegging center and a place where the liquor laws are violated daily.

Let us do more than talk. I assure you, I will do my part.

Possessor of Unstamped Cigarettes In State Must Pay Tax After Today

Possession of unstamped cigarettes in Kentucky requires an occupational license of $25 per year, David K. Walker, director of the Division of Excise Taxation, Department of Revenue, announced.

Senate Bill No. 283, which becomes effective today (Thursday, June 15), places a use tax on cigarettes shipped into the state without having state tax stamps placed on them.

Subsection 1 of Kentucky Revised Statutes 137.050 defines "possession" as including "possession for purposes of sale, gift or use within the state after the interstate journey is ended."

The new law supplements, at state level, the Jenkins Act passed by Congress covering interstate shipments of cigarettes to avoid state tax.

The Department holds that persons receiving unstamped cigarettes from any source are liable for the tax. This would also include gifts or sale of cigarettes to employees by manufacturers of dealers.

But it does not cover possession of cigarettes by manufacturers, wholesalers or retailers or interstate shipments en route through the state while in possession of transportation agencies.

Heat losses may be as high as 50 per cent in badly managed combustion, and as low as 10 per cent in large plants which are very efficient.

State To Build Highway To Breaks of Sandy

The State Highway Department will award a contract in June for construction of the Kentucky section of the Breaks of Sandy highway.

The new road will extend three miles from Elkhorn City through the Breaks area of Pike county, a wild gorge formed by the Big Sandy river. It will join a highway to be built by Virginia from Haysi, Va., 14 miles to the Kentucky state line.

Announcement of plans for construction of the long-sought road was made recently at the Dorton high school commencement exercises by Governor Earle C. Clements.

Clements said the Breaks of Sandy Association, headed by Pikeville businessman K. J. Day, largely was responsible for Virginia's participation. He said he had learned that Virginia started action on its part of the highway immediately after the Pike county delegation visited Richmond.

The Pike county group was established with the aim of eventually making the Breaks area a national park. Plans for this project have been discussed with one of the original promoters of Cumberland National Park, Dr. Robert L. Kincaid.

Kincaid, president of Lincoln Memorial University at Harrogate, Tenn., predicted the section could become one of the best-known resort areas in the country, "worth untold millions of dollars."

Chemical Gives Shot in Leg To Lagging Old Gas Horses; 'Sa Fact! Buggy Bounces!

BY HAL METZGER
(Automobile editor, The Cincinnati Enquirer)

YA SAY YA GOT an old car; ya say it won't pull the hat off your head; ya say it uses as much oil as gas and more gas than it should. Tell ya what I'm gonna do!

I'm gonna introduce ya to Pal Auto Doctor, a chemical product made by Jack Spiegel, 1508 Northwood Dr., who runs a chemical company at 20 E. Front St., and who claims his product will cure all of your automobile's problems.

True, this sounds like the spiel of an old herb medicine salesman, for Mr. Spiegel's claims sound as fantastic as those of the street corner physicians who could "cure" your ailments in one easy $1 treatment. But the difference is that Mr. Spiegel's claims are backed by 175 testimonials from persons on whose automobiles he has used his chemical in the 18 months he has tested it.

HERE'S AN EXAMPLE from Sam Cole, mechanic at Avondale Dairy who has been working on automobiles since 1905 when the rage was the onc lunker:

"When Mr. Spiegel first told me what his product would do, I thought someone was crazy. Now that I've seen it work for 2,500 miles in a 1937 Oldsmobile, I'd get on a witness stand and swear every one of the claims he made have been borne out.

"We never cleaned the spark plugs or reset the gaps or did anything to it. At first you couldn't notice much difference, but the farther it went the better it got. That '37 Olds will pull Ravine Street hill in high from a dead stop at McMicken Avenue—something it wouldn't do when it was new."

THAT'S AN EXAMPLE of the testimonials Mr. Spiegel's product has gotten. Most of them are from mechanics like Mr. Cole.

Take Charlie Keck, Service Manager at Shillito's Garage, for another example. He saw it put into an old model Plymouth in which the compression was up and down, never the same. After it was used a little while with Pal Auto Doctor the compression evened out at 70, Mr. Keck said, and gas mileage was increased from 14 to 17 miles. He has it in his own car and he says it "definitely has made it run better." He still is checking the results. Mr. Keck has been in the automobile business for 25 years. Six of the mechanics at Shillito's are checking it in their cars also.

AND THEN there is my own testimonial. I put some in my 1936 Ford and since then, the auto's been driven less than 50 miles. It's a better automobile than it was, no doubt about that, but Mr. Spiegel claims I haven't even begun to see the results.

He says that at about 100 miles I'll have to change the setting of the carburetor because it will cut down gas consumption and the present setting will flood the carburetor.

He told me there have been no failures in 175 cars tested. He says the life expectancy of one shot of

"I Do"

IT MAY HAVE BEEN but a decade ago, or it may have been far back in the "Twenties" . . . but sometime, somewhere, a young man stood in the soft light of a Junetime morning and repeated the words—"I do."

Since that time, he has fought—without interruption—for the place in the world he wants his family to occupy.

And it well may be that, out of the struggle, he has lost just a bit of the sentiment that used to abide in his heart—for success is a jealous master and exacts great servitude.

But not when the Junetime comes—and, with it, that anniversary of another June!

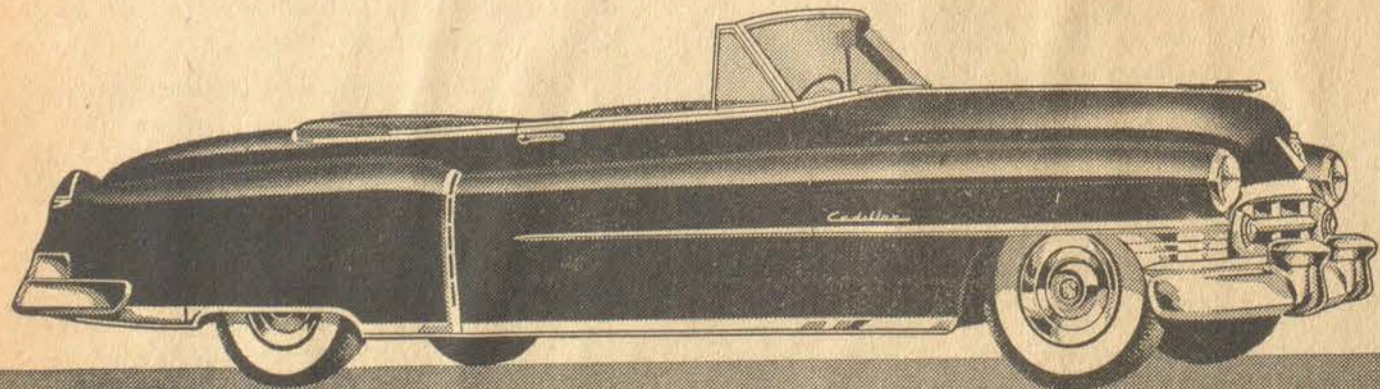

Then the work-a-day world, with its many tasks, is cast abruptly aside; and sentiment—pure and simple—rules in his heart once more.

And, because there are so many thousands of him, doorbells are ringing this June throughout America . . . and smiling boys in uniform stand, hats in hand, to deliver the proofs of remembrance. And along with the beautiful flowers, and the boxes of candy, and the countless other gifts, some of those brides of other Junes will receive the titles to new Cadillacs.

And, for them, there will be no other June like this—save one alone.

As your Cadillac dealer in this community—we've had long practice in the art of keeping secrets. Why not come see us today? You can trust us not to tell!

FLOYD STUDENTS AMONG RECORDED LARGEST NUMBER OF UK GRADS; 71 FROM THIS AREA

Lexington, Ky., June 10 (Spl.)—Degrees were granted to 1,579 students at the University of Kentucky's 83rd annual commencement held last week in the school's new Memorial Coliseum. The number included 10 from Floyd county who were among the 71 UK graduates listed from eastern Kentucky.

John Sherman Cooper, special consultant to Secretary of State Acheson, delivered the commencement address to the record-breaking number of graduates, more than 300 greater than the previous high of 1,270 established last year.

Dr. Lee Sprowles, U.K. registrar, said the 1950 class includes students from 113 Kentucky counties, 30 other states, the District of Columbia, and eight foreign countries. Nine doctorates, 144 masters, and 1,426 bachelors degree were awarded. Dr. Sprowles reported. Students who completed requirements for degrees at the end of the first semester in February are included in the year-end total.

In addition, honorary degrees were awarded Dr. Hardin Craig, professor of English at the University of Missouri; the commencement speaker, Cooper; Alexander Bonnyman, Knoxville mining executive. Dr. Henry H. Hill, president of Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn.; Dr. J. D. Williams, chancellor of the University of Mississippi; and Dr. W. E. Wrather, Washington, D. C., director of the U.S. Geological Survey.

Degrees awarded in each of U.K.'s colleges are as follows: Arts and Sciences, 331; Agriculture and Home Economics, 200; Engineering, 331; Law, 61; Education, 170; Commerce, 238; Pharmacy, 95; Graduate School, 153. Receiving degrees as master of arts in education were Floyd county Henry Martin, of Eastern, and former resident of Floyd, Wallace Hall, now of Lexington.

Floyd county students who received bachelor degrees were Barbara Mandt, Manton; Paul Jordan, Garrett; Owney Hall, Emma Patrick, Albert Gross and John Heinze, all of Prestonsburg; Raymond Martin, Wayland; Betty Martin, McDowell.

Students of nearby counties who received master's degrees are: master of science in agriculture—Cecil Conley, of Tomahawk, Martin county; Ray Hogg, Mayking, Letcher county; Master of Science—Beryl Franklin, Whitesburg; Elizabeth Napier, Hazard; master of arts in education—Reed Owens, Praise (Elkhorn City).

Listed by counties, other students who received bachelor degrees were: KNOTT—Morris Amburgy, Hindman.

JOHNSON — Francis Stapleton, Flat Gap; Clarence Bayes, Glenn Bayes and Wendell Bayes, all of Oil Springs; Emma Steele, James Eddleman and Hobart Conley, Jr., all of Paintsville.

MAGOFFIN — Ralph Carpenter and Bruce Stephens, Jr., Royaltown; James Adams, Flat Fork; Woodrow Miller, Waldo; David Patrick, Salyersville; Orville Arnett, Sublett; Benjamin Mann, Bloomington.

PERRY—Howard Hurst, Eugene Stevens, Jack Begley, Ruth Combs, Garland Townes and Eva Seale, Hazard; Charles Johnson and James Combs, Vico; Fred Cornett and Wilma Minlard, Daisy; Virgil Clark, Lohair; Paul Colwell, Yerkes; Opal Owen, Glowmar.

PIKE—Lew Friend, Gladys Elswick, Mary Crum, Paul Hylton and Joe Thompson, Pikeville; Daniel Coleman and Richard Coleman, Alex, John Milkovich, Stone James Dotson, Belfry.

LETCHER — Herschel Cox and Paul Riddle, McRoberts; Ray Crawford, Joseph Banks, Burtis Franklin, Lawrence Taylor and Jack Lewis, all of Whitesburg; Edd Hogg, Mayking; L. C. McCloud, Jenkins; Benton Wright, Neon.

MARTIN — James Stepp, Frieda Fair and Raymond Smith, Inez.

LAWRENCE — Russell Wells, Blaine; Edwin Rice, Louisa.

BREATHITT — Benjamin Sewell, Sewell; Eugene Spencer and Robert Stamper, Jackson; Mayme Joseph, Keck.

ELLIOTT—Morris Greene, Greene; William King, Sandy Hook.

A master of science degree was awarded posthumously to Louis Ockerman, who was a Lexington student.

Si Lin Pan, of Hopi China, and Marcel Michel Pontenille, Belgium, received master of science degrees. Jui Sheng Hsieh, Kweichow, China, received a master of science in mechanical engineering. Mei Sueh Tsai, Chinese girl of Lexington, was one of four awarded a master of science degree in home economics. Two Canadian students, Meba McCloud, of Ontario, and Robert Buck, of Alberta, received master of arts degrees.

Department of Revenue May Discontinue Mailing Of Income Tax Forms

The Kentucky Department of Revenue may, as an economy measure, discontinue mailing of individual income tax forms, it has been announced.

Heber Johnson, director of the income-tax division, who announced the proposed move, said only about 18 per cent of the forms mailed to individuals actually are returned. Apparently when the taxpayer is ready to make out his return he has either lost his original form or has found it more convenient to use a blank furnished by his employer or accountant.

Blanks have been and will continue to be available at Revenue Department field offices, County Clerk's offices, banks and trust companies, and at industrial and business firms for their own employees. Individual forms also will continue to be mailed on request.

A survey of the department's operation shows that discontinuing forms would save more than $15,000 a year in this division.

The forms for next year are being simplified and will be more in line with the Federal form, Johnson added.

Deficit for 11 Months Is $3,230,012,100.94

The Government went into the red $3,230,012,100.94 during the first 11 months of this fiscal year, according to releases from Washington.

It is expected that the deficit for the 1950 fiscal year will reach, and possibly exceed, $5 billion next month, the same sources predicted.

A Treasury statement showed that through May 31 the Government had taken in $32,640,923,823.56, and spent $35,870,935,924.50.

The situation was different on May 31 of last year. At that time the Treasury had a surplus of $1,000,643,205.38.

Bituminous Coal Research, Inc., the industry's cooperative research agency, has some fifty research projects under way.

Potatoes did not "catch on" readily in Europe until famines proved their food value.

Nature created coal as a complex substance of varied and variable chemical constituency, yet most of its embodiment is carbon.

Any fuel, whether coal, oil, or natural gas will smoke while burning if there is not enough air (Oxygen) to support good combustion.

Marie Antoinette helped popularize the potato in France by wearing 'blossoms'.

Why Increased Telephone Rates Are Necessary in Kentucky

Present rates, based on costs of two years ago, are not sufficient for good and improving service under the much higher costs of today

Southern Bell's rates in Kentucky are based on the costs of providing telephone service up to March 31, 1948. Since then our costs have increased substantially—cost increases that were not considered in setting today's rates.

Our Costs Have Risen Sharply Since 1948 Rate Increase

Southern Bell's wage costs in Kentucky went up $926,000 annually as a result of a general wage increase in February 1949.

Employee pension costs went up in November 1949. Social Security rates went up in January 1949. The Kentucky income tax went up in January 1950. Wage costs are going up further as a result of a shortening of wage schedules in May 1950.

From 1939 through 1949, wage increases added $6,900,000 annually to our wage costs in Kentucky. The annual revenue from rate increases since 1939 is failing to cover this one item alone—failing by $2,700,000 per year—to say nothing of other cost increases.

Facilities to Improve and Expand Service Cost Large Sums of Money

The cost of improving and expanding telephone service has risen drastically. Present subscriber rates are based on our investment on March 31, 1948, when that investment averaged $204 per telephone, but facilities for each telephone added since that date have cost $325 per telephone. Subscriber rates intended to provide only a reasonable return for a $204 telephone are, of course, too low for a $325 telephone, leaving an investment of $121 per telephone for which present rates provide no return at all.

Each added telephone increases the value of the service to existing subscribers because they can reach and be reached by more people. Since 1945 we have added 116,000 telephones in Kentucky. Adding these telephones, and improving the service in other ways, has cost $39,500,000 in new facilities.

Good Telephone Service Essential to Progress in Kentucky

A constantly improving and expanding telephone service is essential to the progress and development of fast-growing Kentucky. To meet the telephone needs in the cities, towns and rural areas of the State, Southern Bell is now constructing new facilities in Kentucky at the rate of about $10,000,000 a year—and continued construction at this high level will be needed in each of the next few years.

The money to pay for new facilities does not come from subscribers' payment of their bills. These monthly receipts cover only wages, taxes, maintenance and other day-to-day costs. Capital for new facilities must come from people who can be persuaded to invest their money in the telephone business.

Present Earnings Are Inadequate to Attract Needed Capital

Southern Bell's earnings in Kentucky today are too low to persuade people with savings to supply the additional capital required to meet the State's full telephone service needs. In the postwar period of insufficient earnings, the capital for our construction has been obtained up to now because of investors' faith in the soundness and fairness of Kentucky and its institutions. However, actual earnings and not hoped for earnings must of necessity be the basis of raising capital for future construction.

That is why it is essential to good telephone service that earnings be improved by revising our present inadequate rates.

Kentucky telephone rates have advanced only about a third as much as the overall cost of living. Under the new rates, telephone service will continue to improve and will continue to be one of today's biggest bargains.

Reffett-Kotterman Vows To Be Said on June 18

Mr. and Mrs. Whitten Reffett, Route 1, Kewanna, Indiana, former Floyd county residents, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Lottie Joyce, to Cletus Kotterman, son of Mrs. Leon Kotterman, Route 1, Denver, Indiana. The wedding will take place June 18, at 1:30 p.m., at the Fulton Baptist Church.

Miss Reffett is a Grass Creek high school graduate and is employed as a bookkeeper at Baxter's Drug Store, Rochester, Indiana. She is a member of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority. Her fiancé was graduated from Macy high school and the School of Engineering at the University of Texas, Austin. He is employed as an engineer with the Armstrong Associates at Warsaw, Indiana.

SMILE

I know there's lots of things I might have learned but never did. I know there's lot of ignorance of which I might be rid. I know there's a lot of things I've lost, but one thing did I gain, No matter what the cause may be I've learned to laugh at pain.

For pain will come, and pain will go, but what's the use to fret? The wee is worse if you retreat than if it should be met. Perhaps you're tired, of course you are; and maybe you're all in. But just the same you aren't licked as long as you can grin.

Sure I've got a life to live, I'll do the best I can, I'll take the burdens as they come and bear them like a man. I will not wince nor cry aloud, but struggle on a while. And when I come to cash my checks, I'll do it with a smile.

KENTUCKY ON THE MARCH BY EWING GALLOWAY

It has been a life-long habit of mine to look for motives that impel men and women I have known in public life. I try, to paraphrase the title of a popular book, to find out "what makes Sammy run." If I learn whether it is passion for personal power, financial gain, public applause or sheer love of public service, I can better understand what keeps Sammy on the move.

From the first time I met him more than three years ago, I have studied Harry W. Schacter, president of the Committee for Kentucky, during the six years of its epochal existence. I have tried to find out everything that might make Harry run, and I can say that the impelling motive was doing what Schacter believed to be a much-needed service to the people of Kentucky. That explains my satisfaction in working with him, and, which is far more important, the success of the Committee's great undertaking.

I asked Mr. Schacter to write me a farewell note for this column, and here it is:

"I want to pay a special tribute to you, as one of the stalwarts of the Committee, for the zeal and devotion which you brought to the writing of your weekly column. Your basic common sense made your column so widely accepted throughout the State that the Certificate of Merit awarded you at the K.P.A. dinner last month was more than earned. I am very happy in the thought that you will carry on your column on your own. Kentucky has need of your wisdom.

"Because this is the Committee's 'swan song,' I would like the privilege of a personal word. These last six years have been for me the most difficult, the most-trying, yet the most rewarding years of my entire life. I came to Kentucky about 23 years ago, starting from absolute scratch. Kentucky had been very good to me, and I had often wondered whether it would be possible for me to express in service to Kentucky my gratitude for the opportunity she offered me. That opportunity came through the Committee for Kentucky, and I was grateful for it.

"It has been truly a privilege for me to have been of some service to the people of Kentucky through this great adventure in social progress. To know that Kentucky is on the march, and to feel that I have had a small part in bringing this about, will be a cause of the deepest satisfaction to me for the rest of my life.

"It is my fervent prayer that Kentucky will keep marching into the future to better days."

Health Officer Urges Floyd County Owners To Immunize Dogs

Control and prevention of rabies is a community problem and one which requires full community co-operation. There have been a great many false theories about the cause and cure of rabies as, for example, the use of the mad stone and the idea that most dogs went mad during "dog days" in July and August. Actually statistics show that animals catch rabies and bite people during all seasons of the year, but the incidence is higher in early spring and fall. The most important point to remember, however, is that rabies can be prevented. One big step in this direction is the annual injection of animals with a vaccine to build up their resistance to the disease.

Dr. Marvin Ransdell, county health officer, urged all dog owners in Floyd county to have their pets immunized early this year. Although other animals, such as horses, cows and cats, may be infected by the rabies virus, dogs are still the most common carrier of the disease.

It is important that wounds of such an animal be suspected of having rabies should be treated at once. Simple first aid or mild antiseptics should never be relied on. A physician should be called immediately. The doctor should then notify the police who, in turn, should inform the dog's owner that the animal must be placed in confinement for observation. If, at the end of two weeks, the dog is still alive and well the danger of rabies is practically past, since the disease is 100 per cent fatal to animals within seven to 10 days after symptoms appear.

However, should the dog die, the head should be removed and sent by express to the laboratory of the State Department of Health, 620 S. Third Street, Louisville, Ky., for examination. Should the dog be found to have rabies, your physician will be notified and will determine the necessity of starting the Pasteur treatment.

Some 4,000,000 tons of coke are ordinarily used during a year for home heating.

One ton of bituminous coking coal which is carbonized yields approximately 1,400 pounds of coke, 11,000 cubic feet of gas, 7.8 gallons of tar, 2.8 gallons of light oils, and lesser amounts of other crude substances so basic to chemical processing industries.

Arsenic sprays are the most harmful to bees of all insecticides.

Unremarried Widows Of World War II Vets Eligible for GI Loans

Columbus, O., June 12 (Spl.)—Unremarried widows of veterans who died as the result of service in World War II are made eligible for GI home, farm and business loans under the terms of instructions issued by the Veterans Administration to its field offices. This was announced here recently to Kentucky and Ohio newspapers.

Such unremarried widows become eligible for VA-guaranteed loans as the result of one of several amendments to the GI loan provisions contained in the recently enacted housing act of 1950.

Eligibility requirements for such widows to receive GI loan guarantees in general parallel those governing death compensation payable to widows of World War II veterans.

The veteran must have served in the armed forces at some period between September 16, 1940 and July 25, 1947, and his death must have been a result of service while on duty, or from service-connected causes following discharge under conditions other than dishonorable. Another condition is that the widow must not have remarried following the veteran's death.

Widows who are eligible for GI loan benefits because of their own service in the armed forces receive no additional benefits as widows.

GI loans for home, farm or business purposes are made by private lending institutions, with VA guaranteeing the lender against loss on a portion of the loan.

One of the recent amendments authorizes VA to make direct loans to eligible for home purchases after July 19, 1950, in localities where mortgage financing at 4 per cent interest is not available.

A bed of coal nine feet thick probably represents what eons ago was a deeply buried peat bog about 36 feet thick.

James Watt's invention of the practical condensing steam engine proved itself in early coal mining in England. It pumped water out of the mine, raised coal up the mine shaft, and drove the mechanical fan for ventilating the mine.

ORDERS THAT LIQUOR SALES BE HELD UP

Contest Ruling May Be Handed Down Friday By Judge Stewart

Special Judge J. Frank Stewart recently sustained a motion to hold up sale of alcoholic beverages at Elkhorn City pending the outcome of a contest of the local option election held here last March 27.

The motion was made in Pike circuit court by counsel for the contestants, A. B. Parsons, John Ford and William Rowe, Sr., suing as registered voters of Elkhorn City. The men charged that wet forces won the election through illegal voting.

Elkhorn City was scheduled to become officially wet, June 3.

So far only two men, Fon Deskins and Ted Deskins, have published a notice of intention to apply for a retail package liquor license.

Not more than three or four liquor stores are expected to be permitted the community, on the basis of population.

In their contest, the three Elkhorn City voters charge that the wet majority was obtained:

1. By persons voting openly before election officers and others.
2. By persons who did not reside in the precincts in which they voted.
3. By persons not qualified to vote.
4. By underage persons.
5. By persons who accepted money or "other valuable considerations" for their vote.

Tabulation of the election was 293 votes for sale of alcoholic beverages and 282 against.

At Frankfort, Mrs. Loré Belle Reeve, secretary of the State Alcoholic Beverage Control Board, said no one in Elkhorn City has applied for a state license to sell whiskey and beer.

Bituminous coal exists in diverse varieties, but in general it is 45 to 80 per cent fixed carbon and 15 to 40 per cent volatile matter.

Residents of Cliff are happy to have Tobe Nichols and family, of Lancer, to move to this community. Mrs. W. T. Best, of Harrodsburg, is visiting her son, Jack Best, for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Best and son, Stephen Lee, motored to Dewey Dam Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Taubee Derossert and Athelene Hereford, of Little Paint, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Stephens.

Russell Parsons, who is spending the summer here, spent the weekend with homefolks at Allen.

In the two foremost bituminous coal states, West Virginia and Pennsylvania, the coal averages 5 feet in thickness.

Jest Among Us

By JACK WILD

A little story told by Dr. Daniel A. Poling, principal speaker at the dedication of the University of Kentucky's majestic new Memorial Coliseum, is worth repeating:

"One Friday afternoon in March, 1943, I flew into the great base at Natal, Brazil, from Dakar on the west coast of Africa. In the senior chaplain I found an old friend, the Rev. Samuel Overstreet, of Massachusetts. Presently I asked him if he could drive me to Natal City—I needed a replacement for the leather wrist band of my watch. The chaplain shook his head and said, 'Sorry, but tonight I'm conducting the Jewish service for the Roman Catholic chaplain.'"

"He smiled at my startled expression and explained that, there being no resident rabbi on the base, he and Chaplain Ryan had organized the Sabbath service for 72 Jewish servicemen and that alternating they brought the spiritual message in this service. The men themselves adapted, arranged, and followed their ritual. An R.A.F. pilot was the cantor.

"'Sorry,' said Sam Overstreet, 'but I'm sure you will understand. This was Ryan's night but he is ill and so I am taking his place.' And then I replied, 'Certainly, I understand. But I am no longer interested in a trip to Natal, I am going to stay right here and watch a Baptist preacher from New England conduct a Jewish service for a Roman Catholic chaplain!'"

I guess Edwin Scott Smith, of Elkton, must be about the healthiest young fellow that never played hookey from school. Edwin went to Thorn Hill Elementary School for eight years. No absences. He went to Elkton high school for four years. No absences. He went to the Naval Training Center at Bainbridge, Md., for six months. No absences. He went to the University of Kentucky for four years. No absences. That adds up to about 3,000 days of school without a day missed. Last Friday (June 2) the 23-year-old scholar received the Civil Engineering degree from the University, completing his work with about a B average. For a year and a half he has worked part-time for the State Highway Department, and he plans to continue in this work. During the four years he attended U.K., he commuted daily from Frankfort, a distance of 28 miles, traveling altogether around 50,000 miles. In all his life Edwin has never been sick enough to stay home from school, and as for playing hookey—well, he just doesn't believe in it.

IN MEMORIAM

My parents were both Christians Before they went away; And now they've gone to heaven, Their bodies beneath the clay. They said before they left us For all of us to pray That we could be together On that great judgment day.

The prettiest flowers they said for them Was to see us children saved, And not the ones they could not see Placed on their silent graves.

"Was such a sweet example They laid before us them, We can't forget the counsel—I'm sure it dwells within.

They told us of a Saviour And how He hung and bled "You should love Him, children." These words so sweet, they said, They were so kind and gentle While here on earth below; Their footprints we must follow If to heaven we may go.

I'm glad I accepted Jesus Before they went away, And now I'm filled with gladness On Decoration Day. That in my life they saw a change, 'Tis sweet for me to know That on that judgment morning To heaven I shall go.

I'll meet with Dad and Mother And clasp their hands once more, And there I'll praise King Jesus On that celestial shore. So sweet to be together And never to part again, I'll be with all my loved ones And Jesus Christ my King.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Jones visited Saturday with Russell Hibbs, who is seriously ill at the Hazard hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Delver Hall, of McDowell, and Mr. and Mrs. Rae Turner were fishing at Cherokee Lake over the week-end.

Mrs. Ann Damron was a visitor in Pike county over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Porter and son, Freddie, are visiting relatives in North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Jones were visitors in Pikeville Sunday. They were accompanied home by their little nephew, Douglas.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Fugate and children visited relatives in Louisville over the week-end.

Mesdames F. T. Jones and Howard Sticker were co-hostesses to a stork shower given in honor of Mrs. Don Hewlett Thursday night. Delicious refreshments were served to about 20 guests. Many nice gifts were received. Prizes were won by Mrs. Bill Howard, Mrs. Lois Warren, Mrs. Ralph Davis, Mrs. Ruby Jane Paek, Mrs. Tom Duty and Miss Janet Gazay.

Miss Christine Hewlett has returned from a week's visit in Ashland and Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Pendry were called to Canton, O., last week by the death of her sister.

Mrs. Charlie Stout and son, Jimmy, and daughter, Fay, have returned from Hazard where they have been visiting relatives.

The fuel gas industry had its inception in coal, and grew up from the coking of coal.

Two P'burg Students Receive Commissions

Lexington, Ky., June 12 (Spl.)—Two University of Kentucky students from Prestonsburg have been awarded reserve commissions in the U.S. army.

They are Eddie E. Tackett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe P. Tackett, and Glenn B. Burchett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom W. Burchett.

Both students are graduates of Prestonsburg high school and are now juniors in the U.K. College of Arts and Sciences. Both received commissions in the infantry.

By ranks of coal are meant the different qualities ranging from lignite to bituminous to anthracite. Peat and brown coals are the youngest in geologic age.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to those who aided in the caring of the deceased and beloved son and brother, Manis Pitts, and to the donors of flowers. We would not forget to include his special friend, Billy Bradley, of Mishawaka, Ind., who had spent much of his time in company with Manis, the past year or more, and advise that he take heed and live a different and more careful life.

We also thank the Fred H. Bubb Funeral Chapel, Mishawaka, Ind., and the Arnold Funeral Home, Prestonsburg, for their efficient services, and would thank the Revs. M. C. Wright, Alex Stephens, Paris Music and Wm. Flanery for their consoling words.—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Pitts and Children.

The U. S. produced 27 per cent of the world's coal in 1949, as compared with 43 per cent in the years of World War I.

HERE'S WHY HUDSONS STAY YOUNG SO LONG

Low upkeep costs and longer car life, due to extra-sturdy construction that protects against road shock and strain.

Added resale value in luxurious worsted wool or nylon interiors with crackproof, scuffproof Dura-fab trim.

Quiet, steady going in an all-welded, single-unit Monobilt body-and-frame* with exclusive recessed floor.

Hudson's traditionally brilliant performance with oversized, high-compression engine.

Marvelously smooth power from the only engine precisely balanced as a unit.

Unusual security from the only hydraulic brakes with a reserve mechanical system on same pedal.

Exceptional protection with box-section steel girders completely surrounding the passenger compartment—a Hudson exclusive.

"Like-new" performance over thousands of extra miles because Hudson uses more costly metal alloys.

Minimum wear and repair over long engine life because of chromium-plated engine block—toughest in the industry!

Increased economy and lengthened engine life from the industry's only pinned-in-position piston rings.

Hudson's styling and beauty will be "like new" for years to come... and these sturdiness features keep Hudsons "like new" in action, too!

What you see above only high-spots the great line-up of sturdiness features that keep Hudson young in looks and in action.

We invite you to discover for yourself the important advantages Hudson offers in addition to these long-life features. Hudson's recessed floor ("step-down" design) results in true streamlining, magnificent beauty. It provides the most room in any automobile at any price! It brings you the best and safest ride ever known!

Won't you come in—see and drive the car that stays young—the car with so many important advantages that it is among the leaders in resale value, coast to coast, as shown by Official Used Car Guide Books!

EIGHTY FLOYD COUNTIANS NAMED AT PIKEVILLE IN RECORD-BREAKING SUMMER ENROLLMENT

Special to The Times
Pikeville, Ky., June 13 — Eighty Floyd county men and women were registered in the record-breaking summer-school enrollment at Pikeville College last week, President A. A. Page of the college has announced.

The enrollment of 256 for the first summer session is larger than that for any previous summer term in the school's history.

Nine-tenths of the number are present or prospective teachers and are enrolled in the courses in education which lead to the provisional elementary teachers' certificate, Dr. Page said.

Seventy-one of the Floyd county group, including 62 women, are registered in the teachers' course. Of the others, five are business administration students, and four are taking the general course of study, which prepares for further work in a senior college.

Twenty-five veterans, including four Floyd Countians, attending college under the provisions of the G. I. Bill, are among the 72 men in the student group. There are 184 women.

Eight Floyd county students are among the 36 expected to graduate at the summer commencement Aug. 4, Dr. Page said.

Floyd county's 80 students are second in number in the Pikeville summer school only to the group of 123 from Pike county. There are 16 from Johnson, 13 from Martin, eleven from Letcher and one from Magoffin county.

Four West Virginians, one each from the states of Virginia and Pennsylvania, and one Cuban student complete the list. The Cuban is Alfredo Caballero, of Pina, Cuba.

Before this year, the largest group of summer-school students enrolled at Pikeville College was 254, Dr. Page said. This record was set at the first summer term in 1947.

The 14 men and 66 young women from Floyd county who have registered at Pikeville this summer are Bertee Adkins, Harold; C. L. Akers, Grethel; Maye Akers, Harold; Ollie M. ## HOW'S YOUR HEALTH TODAY?

Milk-borne diseases are on the decline due to concerted community efforts to keep the milk supply safe. Pasteurization—the most effective single measure for insuring safe milk — has become widespread throughout our state, says a juicy stem of health news released this week for the month of June—National Dairy Month.

Since the major proportion of all milk-borne diseases has been shown to be the result of unpasteurized milk, this is an important advance. Many communities require pasteurization of all market milk. However, there are localities where pasteurization is not required. In those areas and in rural homes, people can safeguard their health and insure a safe milk supply by heat treating their raw milk.

Heat treatment kills the germs of such milk-borne diseases as typhoid fever, dysentery, diphtheria and undulant fever. Heat treatment, or home pasteurization, is a simple and inexpensive procedure. For the best methods to use in heat treating milk in the home, consult the Floyd County Health Unit, the State Department of Health advises.

Herd's health dairy cows are also of basic importance to the maintenance of a safe milk supply. Cooperation of dairy farmers in Kentucky is necessary for the control of diseases communicable from cattle to men, such as bovine tuberculosis and brucellosis, or Bang's disease, the cause of undulant fever.

In addition to the responsibility of the farmer, the consumer, too, has certain responsibilities for the maintenance of a safe milk supply. By demanding and using only pasteurized milk and by caring properly for the milk after it has been purchased, he can help protect his own health and that of his family.

If a consumer is careless, he may nullify all the various safety measures which have been employed to safeguard the milk until it reaches him.

Efficiency in the utilization of bituminous coal by the electric utilities has increased significantly. In 1913, a ton of coal produced an average of 498 kilowatt-hours of electricity; in 1949 it produced 1,600 kilowatt-hours.

Sweden has protested to Czechoslovakia against alleged torturing in a Prague prison of M. Holger Hjelm, Swedish company director, sentenced recently to three years' hard labor for sabotage.

Further information, bidding proposals, et cetera, will be furnished upon application to the Frankfort office. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THE UNION'S SIDE
Editor, The Times:

This is a letter to try and give our side of the layoffs at David mines, and to answer the so-called citizen's letter of June 8.

This particular company has never got over the licking they took when they had to sign this contract and pay up all back welfare payments.

They still hold a grudge and are doing everything they possibly can to cause confusion among the employees.

They continuously send out big, long propaganda letters, and are continuously doing things against the contract which they signed, such as letting their supervising force do union labor, working some men 45 minutes more than contract calls for, and don't pay time and one-half for it, either.

They have been running the tippie 9 1/4 hours on the first shift, which is against the contract. Tom English, the company adviser, agreed to work the tippie 7 1/4 hours but company management wouldn't accept his advice.

We are not trying to restrict the use of their equipment. They can work their tippie one, two or three 7 1/4-hour shifts. But they choose to work only two, which is the reason they can't prepare all the coal they run in three shifts.

I am in the layoff that was made June 9 and if it is in line with contract, I am well satisfied. And I am more than satisfied with our district officers.

I would like to ask the Citizen why he didn't sign his or her name. Could it be that there were a lot of lies in the letter?

A Union Man—
HUBERT PUCKETT

The quantities are intended to indicate the approximate volume of the proposed work. See bid form for final computed estimates. Alternate bids on bituminous surfacing types will be received, if the Department so elects and includes a provision for alternates in the bid form.

NOTE: A PURCHASE CHARGE OF $10.00 WILL BE MADE FOR EACH PROPOSAL. REMITTANCE MUST ACCOMPANY REQUESTS FOR THE PROPOSED FORMS. REFUNDS WILL NOT BE MADE FOR ANY REASON.

Sealed bids will be received by the Department of Highways at its office, Frankfort, Ky., until 10 a.m., Central Daylight Saving Time, on the 23rd day of June, 1950, at which time bids will be publicly opened and read for the improvement of:

Floyd County, RS 36-356 The Wayland-Sizemore Creek Road from end of bituminous surface in Wayland extending northeast, 2.35 miles. Reconstruction and traffic bound surface.

Floyd County, RS 36-236 The Stephens Branch-Alum Lick Road from end of improved section, approximately 1.5 miles west of Ky. 80, 1.0 mile south of Martin to Ky. 404, 6.35 miles. Reconstruction and traffic-bound surface.

Present coffee prices in Nicaragua are about double the best of recent years.

Medical Ass'n Official Speaker at Meeting Of Medical Society

Robert C. Poissall, Louisville, field secretary, Kentucky State Medical Association, was guest-speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Floyd County Medical Society last Wednesday at Our Lady of the Way hospital, Martin.

Members attending the dinner meeting were Drs. C. L. Allen, R. M. Sirkle, H. R. Stratton and D. L. Deal, all of Martin, M. V. Wicker, Wayland, H. L. Ray, Lackey, and George P. Archer, Prestonsburg.

The Floyd County Medical Society, which has undergone reactivation, meets on the first Wednesday of each month.

Almost everybody has a good word for the immensely popular Pontiac. The most enthusiastic spokesmen are those who own this great car. The facts behind this admiration of Pontiac are very simple—

Pontiac is America's lowest-priced Straight Eight. Pontiac is the lowest-priced car with GM Hydra-Matic Drive. Pontiac is the most beautiful thing on wheels. And Pontiac is famed everywhere for its dependability and economy.

Those are the facts, and they are impressive. But they are a lot more impressive to the person behind the wheel of a Pontiac. He knows for sure that dollar for dollar, you can't beat a Pontiac!

Pikeville, Ky., June 14 (Spl.)—Conservation of the natural resources of Eastern Kentucky is stressed in a conservation-education program being presented this week to a group of public school teachers enrolled at Pikeville College, President A. A. Page, of the college, announced.

State and federal conservation experts are taking part in a series of talks and demonstrations which began Monday as a part of the college's course in nature study and conservation, Dr. Page said. Other groups of students also are attending some of the meetings, which will continue for five days, he added.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Taylor, Supervisor of Conservation Education in the State Department of Education at Frankfort, is in charge of the program. Representatives of the Regional Soil Conservation office of the U. S., and the Division of Game and Fish and the Division of Forestry of Kentucky are among the leaders.

The prevention of forest fires and the erosion, the protection of wildlife, and restocking fishing streams are among the problems scheduled for discussion during the week.
