

PICTURE OF A MAN WRITING A COLUMN WHEN HE HAS NOTHING MUCH TO SAY

Well, somebody might expect it... somebody might. So... Well, what the heck let's get going on something... but just what, slave-driver?

Let's see. There's that very nice Courier-Journal editorial about our good neighbor, Paintsville, and its young Mayor, J. B. Wells. Intended to reprint that, but lost it. May be somewhere around. Could be, from the looks of this desk... Who said that? ... Anyway, I can say such popularity must be deserved. But I do contend, and I believe J. B. Wells would agree, that the people of Paintsville should have the lion's share of the credit. It's true, they would have lagged back if they hadn't had a leader such as Wells, but Brother Wells would have been a voice in the wilderness, too, if he hadn't had somebody tumlin' in on his wave-length. I refer to the people who voted those big bond issues to make those improvements possible—the property-owners who back things up with what is less crudely known as coin of the realm... And it strikes me Paintsville property-owners have been paying higher taxes for two or three years now... Too, I remember how some of us squawked when the City Council here upped and bought the gas company and then the water company. "Chipes!" they yelled—"look what a profit they're giving on that deal," or words to that effect... And look how both deals are paying off. If Prestonsburg and Martin could pull a dozen gas and water deals, they would be a dozen times better off... Paintsville is daring to do things... even go in debt.

But this thing gets serious. Which proves I haven't any real material for this column which doesn't pretend to shape opinion, blaze any trails, shake anybody out of hibernation or do anything else much... Let's see. There's the weather. Wish I could catch up with that prognosticator who dashed off—tra-la-la-la!—that piece, the other day about us folks being sure of having an early spring. I'd like to take a dead fish—if I could catch the fish first—and wrap it up in this stuff that passes for snow in Prestonsburg streets, and wrap him across the back with it... Reminds me, they should put up a sign, days like this, down at the Court street traffic light, marking where it's safe to put in and ford the water...

MARTIN QUILTS AS CONSTABLE

Resignation Made Here As Court Trials Loom; Ousley Named to Post

With trial on a variety of grand jury indictments looming, Constable Adam Martin, of the Second Magisterial district, resigned his office Saturday.

His offer to quit the office was extended in a move to avoid trial, and the Commonwealth dismissed three indictments against him. The indictments accused him of malfeasance in office, shooting into an automobile and drunkenness while in the discharge of his official duties. Commonwealth's Attorney Bert T. Combs explained that the decision to dismiss the cases against the officer in return for his resignation came after he had consulted with officials and when it became highly doubtful convictions could have been obtained against Martin. Doubt of conviction arose, it was said from the fact that one of the chief witnesses against Martin is a known bootlegger.

County Judge Henry Stumbo appointed Ousley, of Langley, to succeed Martin. He said the appointment of Ousley, who has been a deputy sheriff, was made on the recommendation of Magistrate M. C. Wright, of the Second district. "There were others wanting the office, but I could not ignore the Magistrate's recommendation in the matter," Judge Stumbo said.

MOTION POSES NEW QUESTION

Counsel for Slayer Challenge Trial Jury As No Negroes Named

The first jury challenge of its kind ever to enter the records of the Floyd circuit court won for Will Smith, negro, a continuance of his murder trial Friday till April 16.

Smith's attorneys, Tackett & Tackett filed with Circuit Judge Edw. P. Hill their claim that the fact that the entire jury panel is composed of white persons denied Smith trial by a jury of his peers and thus violated his Constitutional rights.

Judge Hill directed postponement of the trial before concluding the reading of the attorneys' motion for continuance. He commented that rights of the prisoner have been decided by the Supreme court, and that at the beginning of the year he had directed the county jury commissioners to place in the jury drum names of negro property-owners.

Smith's attorneys pointed out that, despite the fact there are approximately 5,000 negroes in Floyd county and that many of these own property, there is not a juror of that race in the panel.

A similar question was posed several years ago by Bert T. Combs, now Commonwealth's Attorney, but his demand for negro representation on the jury did not reach the records, since the case was continued without that formality.

Smith is charged with the slaying at Wheelwright of Ed Hall, also colored.

GROUP PLANS CAPITAL VISIT

To Urge New Rating For Floyd Hospital; Surplus Allocated

The fiscal court at its meeting Monday named County Judge Henry Stumbo and County Attorney W. W. Burchett to accompany a delegation of citizens to Washington state to work toward improvement of the priority rating of the Floyd county War Memorial hospital.

The hospital at this time has a "B" rating but the fact that some Kentucky counties previously given an "A" rating have failed to qualify for hospital aid under the Hill-Burton Act may enable Floyd county to move up on the priority list, the court was told.

Judge Stumbo said the trip to Washington will be made as soon as a date favorable to Senators Chapman and Clements and Congressman Perkins is made.

Congressman Perkins recently wrote County Attorney Burchett he is contacting officials in Washington in an effort to have the Floyd hospital rated an emergency project so that an early beginning may be made toward its construction. A possible shortage of steel and other materials is feared if work is not begun soon.

End of the 20-cent road and bridge bond levy promised Floyd county voters by officials during the campaign for the hospital bond issue not only has come—the fund had a surplus of $20,000 when the old bridge and road debt was paid in full. The fiscal court Monday transferred that amount to the general fund.

With a cash balance in the county treasury of $22,000 which

10-YEAR TERM GIVEN SCOTT IN SLAYING

Jury Scouts Claim Of Defendant That Killing Accidental

Ernest Scott, the Garrett man who claimed the death of Virgil Coburn was caused by an accidental revolver shot, was convicted of manslaughter here Tuesday by a Floyd circuit court jury and was given a sentence of 10 years in the state reformatory.

It was said by court attaches Wednesday that the convicted man will not seek an appeal from the sentence.

Scott contended he procured the death weapon from Hi Fitch who was inside the restaurant operated by Jack Allen at Garrett, and that he did so to keep Fitch from shooting Coburn. He said he followed Coburn outside the restaurant, and that Coburn grappled with him for possession of the revolver. During the tussle the fatal shot was fired, he contended.

Commonwealth witnesses testified, however, that other shots in addition to the fatal shot were fired. From this testimony the prosecution argued there could have been no accidental shooting. Those inside the restaurant testified they did not witness the firing of the shots.

The defense established the fact that Scott took the wounded man to the nearby Lackey hospital in his automobile.

The murder trial of Billie Hughes was continued last Friday till April 11 when the defendant's attorney, Edward L. Allen, became ill. At the time the continuance order was made a jury was being empaneled for trial of the case which has gone through two previous trials.

REPORTS 129 INDICTMENTS

Files 50 True Bills In Last Three Days; 2 Officers Indicted

Concluding the last three days of its work which stretched altogether over nine days, the grand jury reported in a comparatively brief statement of three paragraphs Saturday to Circuit Judge Edw. P. Hill that from its examination of 157 witnesses it had returned 129 true bills. Exactly 50 of these were filed during last week's three-day session.

One of these new indictments accused Ethel Wallen of shooting and wounding Lawrence Moore. Another woman, Roberta Cade, was indicted of cutting and wounding. Her victim was listed as Myrtle Justice.

Two other indictments accused officers of false arrest and/or false imprisonment. Deputy Constable Lonnie Neeley was named in both bills, one alleging he falsely arrested and imprisoned a Stamper girl at Wayland; the other accusing him and John Hall of false arrest or imprisonment of Banner Burchett, who claimed they searched his car without a search warrant.

A child desertion indictment named both parents Stanley and Lillian Hatcher, accusing them of abandoning their six children, aged 11 to 1. Billie Hughes, Billie Day and Adron Rector were accused in separate indictments of breaking and entering the Utilities Elkhorn Coal Company store and of knowingly receiving property stolen from that store. A grand larceny indictment accused Arthur Smith of taking a Bible, wrench and tools from the auto of John Hall.

Other major indictments follow: Nelson Prater, seduction under promise of marriage; Elzie Ratliff, child desertion and failure to comply with orders of the court to support; Hershall Hall, child desertion; Eugene Campbell, child desertion and failure to comply with orders of the court to support; Brady Henderson, child desertion; Bonnie Howell, obtaining money under false pretense; Frank Clark, unlawful conversion of property; Polly Lafferty, Nannie Davis and Mose Patton, failure to support destitute parent.

Fred Osborn and Wade Holbrook, unlawful possession of whiskey for beverage purposes; Fred Osborn, detaining a woman against her will; Verlie Rose and Willie Tackett, adultery and fornication; George Oscar Blackburn, obtaining money under false pretense; John Hamilton and Lizzie Tackett, adultery and fornication; Robert Newsome, Caudill Stanley, Virgie Tuttle, Carl Stephens and Hallie Stephens, each for child desertion.

SCHOOLS LACK NEEDED SPACE

127 Tracts of Land Average Less Than Eight-Tenths Acre

The Floyd County Board of Education owns 127 separate tracts of land for school purposes, but few of these are of the area needed and being more and more demanded by state education authorities, said County Superintendent Palmer L. Hall this week.

Mr. Hall released this and other information on school holdings after the data had been prepared for Tax Commissioner Olive Akers as required by new state law.

The area of the 127 tracts totals only 99.29 acres, or an average of less than 8 of an acre per tract. The Superintendent said he and also his predecessor, Town Hall, had sought to buy an area of not less than three-fourths of an acre for any school, and an acre and up if possible. One school, that at Ivel, is located on a plot of only .07 of an acre.

The information given Mr. Akers shows that the school system owns 163 buildings including school structures, gymnasiums, and principals' homes. It owns two tracts, one here, the other at Ligon, on which buildings have not been erected.

DEVELOPMENT BOARD SAYS EAST KENTUCKY LAGS IN PRESENTING ITS POTENTIALITIES; URGES LISTING OF AREA MANUFACTURERS

(Special to The Times)

Frankfort, Feb. 1—Only 37 manufacturers in the eight Eastern Kentucky counties have listed their plants for the Kentucky Industrial Directory for 1951-52, said an official of the Agricultural and Industrial Development Board, Frankfort.

The information needed is (1) The name of the manufacturer or plant, (2) The products manufactured, (3) The current employment showing men and women separately, and (4) The name of the supervisor of operations or plant manager.

George W. Hubley, Jr., executive director of the Agricultural and Industrial Development Board, stated today that the Board hopes to put the new Industrial Directory in final form for publication within a short time. Hubley said this will represent an important tool in an

School Merger Questions Answered by High Court

If the independent Prestonsburg school district were to merge with the county district, what would happen to the membership of the Board in control of the consolidated properties? Would the members of the City Board become members of the County Board and so remain until their terms of office expired?

Those are questions which have been asked and discussed here since consolidation was urged here, several months ago. And this week the Court of Appeals answered the questions, in part. The answers as given by the appellate court follow in its opinion approving consolidation of the Larue county and Hodgenville school districts.

When the city and county school boards voted to merge the districts, an agreement was entered whereby the five members of the county board would continue to serve, along with two members of the city board, Morgan Marcum and G. H. Patterson. The other three city members

Former P'burg Woman To Run for State Office Now Held by Husband

Validity of the seven-member new board was attacked. Appellate Court said there are two ways for school districts to merge: 1. By local agreement, and 2. By order of the State Board of Education.

When the State Board compels two districts to consolidate, it sets the terms of the members of the board that will govern the consolidation.

Nothing in the law prohibits two city members from serving on a new board that administers the affairs of a consolidation, the high court said. It pointed out, however, that when the terms of the two city members expire they must leave the board, which then will continue as a five-member agency as set out by law.

Admits None Beaten, Shot

Laburnum Corporation Head Cross-Examined By Unions' Attorney

The president of Laburnum Construction Corporation admitted Monday that none of his employees was "beat up" or "shot at" during a work stoppage in July, 1949, in Kentucky.

A Hamilton Bryan made the statement under cross examination by James Mullen, counsel for three labor groups being sued for $500,000 damages by the Richmond construction firm in Richmond (Va.) city.

Laburnum charges the work stoppage in Breathitt county, Ky., was caused by the United Construction workers affiliated with the United Mine Workers of America; District 50 of the UMW; and the UGW.

Asking Bryan about his charges that a crowd of men interfered with Laburnum employees said by Bryan to be members of an AFL Local, Mullen posed this question: "In other words, it was all talk and no action?"

Bryan replied: "Well, I guess you just don't understand."

Pike-Co. Slayer Is Baptized Day before His Sentencing

Sunday and Monday were momentous days in the life of Millard Cochran, 59-year-old Pike county man who recently shot and killed his wife, Cynthia, 51, and his son, Chester, 19.

Sunday he made solemn preparation for the life hereafter through church baptism. Monday, his remaining days on earth were attended to by Judge E. D. Stephenson, of the Pike circuit court. The jurist sentenced him to two life terms in the penitentiary for murder, and on top of that he was given a 21-year term for shooting and wounding his son, Sturgill, 23.

It was the morning of January 8 when Cochran drew his "squeeze" pistol and started shooting during a family quarrel at his home near Fern Creek.

When he had finished firing, his wife, Cynthia, and their second son, Chester, 19, were dead. The eldest son, Sturgill, 23, was wounded seriously. A daughter, Sarah, 14, was nicked by a bullet. Sturgill still is in a critical condition in a hospital at Grundy, Va., a dozen or so miles from the scene of the shooting.

"A lot of times," Cochran told the court Monday, "I get sick in my head and then I don't know anything."

Valley Towns Wait Anxiously As Crest Still Hours Distant

Mrs. George Glenn Hatcher announced Saturday, January 27, her intention to seek the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State and succeed her husband in that office.

The Constitution prohibits Hatcher from succeeding himself. He said he has not decided what state office he might run for in this year's elections.

Hatcher quickly endorsed his wife's candidacy. Mrs. Hatcher, an attractive brunette, is the first candidate to announce publicly for Secretary of State. Democrats of Kentucky need women candidates, she said, adding that the Secretary of State's office "is the proper office for a woman to aspire and hold."

STEADY RAIN SPEEDS THAW; STREAMS RISE

A steady fall of rain onto Monday night's snow threatened today (Thursday) to turn the Big Sandy valley's part of the nation-wide "deep freeze" into a flood.

Greatest hope of flood relief lay this morning in the rain stopping with another freeze, and that may result in paralysis of all highway transportation.

Both Left and Right Beavers raged high this morning, and reports received here said that parts of both McDowell and Wayland were flooded. The McDowell school was closed. At Martin it was said Beaver Creek is not expected to reach its crest till late this afternoon.

All county streams were spreading out of their banks, and both Middle Creek and Abbott Creek covered bottomland. Middle Creek poured out into the Big Sandy so turbulent that the smaller stream had no backwater whatever.

The Pikeville weather bureau said the river there rose 12 feet Wednesday night but that it is not expected to exceed the 25-foot stage. Flood stage there is 35 feet. Even with freezing weather, the Big Sandy is expected to rise here till some time Friday morning.

Downriver at Paintsville the situation "was more serious than at another Big Sandy town. There the Big Sandy rose 13 feet during Wednesday night and a 40-foot rise was predicted. Hager Hill, West Van Lear and the Southside and Bridgeford additions to Paintsville were without gas service. Mayor J. B. Wells was contemplating declaration of a state of emergency, with Red Cross help to be asked.

Water stopped traffic between Paintsville and Salversville. U.S. 23 was blocked by a earth slide near the home of Clerk DuRan Moore, a short distance above the Ball Alley limits of Prestonsburg. FIVE FEET—
AND $100,000

THE TIMES cannot shed its doubt of the accuracy of those damage figures quoted to County Attorney W. W. Burchett by a United Fuel Gas Company official in reply to a plea for utilities' help toward getting the impoundment of five feet more water behind Dewey Dam.

Surely this figure relates to ten feet, not five. Even the U. S. Corps of Engineers never went half that high on five feet.

If the estimate is accurate, we may as well here and now forget this additional water which so many thousands would enjoy. The Corps of Engineers will not spend more funds on the reservoir at this time when all the nation's energies and resources are needed for the national defense. The only hope the people have entertained since being told that is that the damage would be so negligible the two gas companies having holdings in the reservoir area would forego any claims for damages by five feet more water.

We have no quarrel with the utility company. It is the company's property, and it should know whereof it speaks. But we wonder why the five or six feet of water impounded over a period of two weeks last year as a mosquito-control measure didn't damage the property. And we wonder why men native to the section acquainted with the lake and the company's holdings see no damage.

This extra water is asked only during the months from April till November. That period does not include the flood season when more storage facilities behind the dam might be needed.

The improvement would give thousands of persons of all ages and all walks of life elbow room in the upper reaches of the lake and space in which to find recreation, leisure and rest away from the lower lake where the "traffic" always will be heavy.

Surely the company will review its first estimate, with the idea of ascertaining if there is not, after all, some way to help the public which is helpless in this case. Certainly there is a sound reason for such action.

The jury in the trial of Butler Salisbury, charged with shooting and wounding Jake Salisbury at Harold, was dismissed last Thursday as hopelessly dissatisfied. Friday, Beckman Hunter and James Price, both of Martin, were convicted of breaking and entering a store, and each was given a one-year penitentiary term.

The one-year term given Charles E. Rice for child desertion was probed by Circuit Judge Edw. P. Hill. The probation period is for five years and its terms include provisions that he support his family and be a law-abiding citizen.

Other convictions during the week were those of Edd Amburgey, who was fined $100 and given a 30-day jail term for unlawful traffic in alcoholic beverages, and Bill Williams, whose fine for drunkenness was $10.

Other court actions were: T. W. Stephens, charged with child desertion, $1,000 bond forfeited when he failed to appear for trial Jan. 27; Charles Pigg, child desertion, dismissed for lack of prosecution; Robert Harris, seduction, dismissed, insufficient proof; Lora Carver, possessing beer, dismissed, lack of jurisdiction.

The motion of Speck Blackburn for a new trial on his beer possession case was overruled, and he is said to plan an appeal.

Staley May Lose Eye, Result of Truck Wreck

Mike H. Staley, well-known Lackey man, is in a Huntington, W. Va., hospital where an attempt is being made to save his left eye which was badly cut Monday noon when his truck was forced from the highway at Lackey over a 30-foot embankment onto the railway tracks.

Mr. Staley's glasses were broken in the smash-up, resulting in the eye injury. His other hurts are negligible. It was said a jeep pulled from behind a bus and struck Staley's truck.

Farm NEWS and VIEWS

TOBACCO PLANT-BED MANAGEMENT

Plenty of healthy, vigorous stocky plants should be ready for early transplanting if high quality tobacco is to be produced. Enough plant-bed area should be prepared to provide the plants needed for the entire crop at two beddings. The usually pulled from beds are usually free from mosaic, but at each successive planting there are likely to be more plants carrying mosaic, which of course causes more disease in the field. Vigorous, stocky plants are a real help in getting a good stand.

Select fertile, well-drained land for the bed, preferably with a slight southern or eastern slope, free from shade, especially in the forenoon. This is helpful in preventing blue mold. Use a new site for the plant bed each year, a great help in avoiding black root rot and blue mold. Be sure that the site is free from burnettles and ground cherries, as these may carry mosaic.

Disease resistant varieties whose tobacco is to be grown on land that has grown tobacco in recent years, choose a variety resistant to black root such as Ky. 16, Ky. 41-A.

Provide 50 to 75 feet of bed 12 feet wide for each acre of bed 12 feet wide to be grown, and at least 200 feet of bed 12 feet wide for each acre of dark tobacco.

Before steaming or burning, prepare the seedbed thoroughly so that only a very light raking will be necessary before sowing the seed. Deep stirring may result in a weedy bed.

Fertilize a steamed bed with a complete fertilizer such as 6-8-6 or 4-8-4, at the rate of not more than 40 pounds for each 100 feet of bed 12 feet wide, and rake in lightly. A low-potash fertilizer such as 4-12-0, is preferable for a heavily burned bed. Caution: Heavy fertilizing of plant beds may put too much soluble salts in the soil, which in dry weather causes the plants to yellow and die.

Sow 2 or 3 level teaspoons of cleaned and tested seed to 100 feet of bed 9 or 12 feet wide. Seeding may be done as soon as weather permits, which is usually the last half of February, or March. Perhaps the most favorable time for seeding is from the first to the middle of March in southern and western Kentucky, and from March 10 to March 30 in central and northern Kentucky. It is a mistake to work the ground when it is wet in order to the seed early.

To distribute the seed evenly, mix it with screened wood ashes; fine sand, or commercial fertilizer. Going over the bed several times, sowing part of the seed each time, assures even distribution.

It wasn't the first time the old man had been in trouble. Once, when he was 13, he shot and killed his brother. And he had to spend several years in the Kentucky Houses of Reform at Greendale. He shot his brother, he said, when they argued over a paw paw.

Now, I've just finished reading Drew Pearson's column quoting Red China to the effect that American soldiers aren't fighting worth a hang in Korea, are getting chased around by inferior forces of Communies, etcetera. I dunno what's true in Korea and what isn't, but just let the Reds go on thinking things. Then let the American soldier decide he's mad at somebody, and have a peek at what the Reds say after that's over. . . . The trouble with this war, or whatever it is, we haven't got a battle cry yet. Always before it was something: "Remember the Maine!" "Remember Pearl Harbor!" and so on—something we could work up a hate with, and get going. . . . If we're going to fight a war, it's time Uncle Sam called in the newspaper boys, the ad writers, the phrase-makers, etcetera, handed them some pencils or typewriters and told them to get busy with a good, old war-whoop that won't sound fishy to the people and still be printable.

With that, we halt. There is just a chance somebody might drop in here and tell me a stale joke I'd feel like perpetrating on whoever has read this far.

Following Bryan to the stand on the sixth day of the trial in Richmond Circuit Court were a number of Laburnum witnesses, including: Frank Dixon, of Buechel, Ky., International representative of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, AFL; Weaver P. Freeman, Louisville, Ky., another AFL carpenter official; Henry Starr, of Paintsville, Ky., treasurer of an AFL carpenters local; and Bert E. Preston, of near Paintsville, business agent of the AFL carpenters local.

Dixon testified that UCW and AFL are in direct competition on the construction jobs. He said that on the Laburnum job in Breathitt, AFL signed a contract for the job and "out of a blue sky" UCW told the men to get off the job or join the UCW.

At a meeting August 2, 1949, in Salyersville, Freeman said he told Bryan "under no conditions" would he send his membership back to work where he wouldn't go himself. He said under cross examination that he's been fighting the UCW about two or three years.

Starr said in a deposition that about 50 or 75 men came on the job on July 26, 1949, "two of them with their guns sticking under their belts."

heart quiz

Can worry damage the heart?

No. Worry may produce a symptom such as palpitation, but not heart disease. If you already have heart disease, worry can make it worse.

Does overweight cause heart disease?

No. If you have high blood pressure or heart disease, overweight will put an extra strain on the heart and blood vessels and may cause further damage.

Should blood pressure be same at 50 as 30?

No special rise in blood pressure can now be seen. It is normal, however, for your blood pressure to vary with your activities and emotions.

Can heart disease be cured?

A few types of heart disease can now be cured by drugs and surgery. Other types can be controlled by reducing the strain on the heart.

Mrs. Hatcher is a native of Floyd county. She is a graduate of Prestonsburg high school and attended Georgetown College and the Mayo State Vocational School.

A schoolteacher, she once served as deputy county clerk of Floyd county and worked for the Big Sandy Rural Electric Co-operative. She is "Lorraine" in her friends.

True to the feminine tradition, Mrs. Hatcher declined to state her age, but she said with a big smile, "I'm perilously close to 30."

Hatcher was defeated by former Governor Earle C. Clements in last August's Democratic United States Senate primary. He is said to be considering running for Governor, lieutenant-governor, or superintendent of public instruction.

The secretary of state now is paid $5,000. Starting in January, 1952, the pay will be $6,000 a year.

ment information can be channeled to them.

Among other businesses listed as manufacturers are bakeries and ice cream manufacturers, job printing plants, publishers, machine shops actually manufacturing machinery, tanneries and leather products manufacturers. Many small manufacturers of handicraft goods such as potteries and furniture can profit by this, too.

The 1949 Industrial Directory, published jointly by the State Development Board and the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, shows 96 manufacturers in the counties of the Seventh Congressional district, and it is likely that the number of plants has increased in the past two years. "Eastern Kentucky needs new industry and increased business for present industries, and, listing in the new Industrial Directory can be of great help, both in finding markets for goods presently produced and in encouraging new related industries," today's statement concluded.

'MISSING CARS'
COST SCHOOLS

Revenue Dept. Claims
Few Over Half Cars
Assessed for Taxes

School districts in Kentucky probably are losing more than two million dollars a year in local revenue because of non-assessment of motor vehicles.

This was indicated by a study recently completed by the Department of Revenue. The survey compared assessment and registration of motor vehicles.

As of June 30, 1949, passenger cars, trucks, and motorcycles registered in the state totaled 607,132. However, one day later, when property was listed for assessment, only 321,066 motor vehicles were listed. (This and the following figures do not include several hundred vehicles belonging to franchise operators.) This means that less than 53 per cent of the registered vehicles were assessed. These vehicles were assessed at a total value of $166,515,124—an average of $518.63.

Floyd county ranks 89th in the state with an average assessment value of $369.55. Clay and Leslie ranked one-two, respectively, with values of $1,017 and $1,015.42.

There was no property tax paid on about 286,066 vehicles. Had these vehicles been assessed at the same value of $518.63 it would have added $148,000,000 to the assessment rolls. Figured at an average school tax of $1.45 this would have meant an additional $2,146,000 income to the school districts of the state. At the same time it would have added about $1,000,000 to the income of the counties. This, it was pointed out, would have gone a long way in easing the financial problems of the schools and counties.

How big the problem is may be seen from this comparison: The taxable value of the vehicles which have not been assessed is more than the real estate assessment made by the tax commissioner in 43 Kentucky counties put together. The revenue loss on vehicles for the state alone is equal to all the state tax on all real estate in Kentucky except franchise property.

The Funk report quoted Gaines P. Wilson, vice-president of the R. B. Tyler Company, as saying that, in his opinion, in all probability, Mrs. Pace, Burkesville, was a motivating force behind several, if not all, of the suits.

Mrs. Pace, in private life, is president of the Cumberland Construction Company, Burkesville, road contractor. In public life she is Republican national committeewoman for Kentucky. She was co-manager of Dawson's campaign for the United States Senate last year, in which he was defeated by Senator Earle C. Clements, then the Governor.

Dawson's first charge of a corrupt deal between Bogie Equipment Company and the Highway Department was made in a campaign speech in Lexington four days before the election.

The grand jury's report was written in such broad, general terms that the name of no person was mentioned, and none of the lawsuits was identified by title. Persons familiar with the situation, however, would have no trouble in identifying any of the matters discussed.

The jury concluded that the evidence before it at this, the January term of court, does not "warrant or justify" a specific reference to the same subject to the grand jury at the April term. And then the jury qualified its conclusion with this phrase:

"...knowing, as we do, that the matter will remain always the subject of future investigations should the disclosure of competent evidence or further developments so indicate."

NO EVIDENCE, SAY PROBERS

Grand Jurors Clear
Highway Department Of Corruption Taint

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 26.—The Franklin county grand jury reported this afternoon it found no evidence of corruption in the State Highway Department.

In its final report to Judge William B. Ardery, after a month's investigation, the jury added:

1. That one witness testified his examination of highway records showed no road or equipment contract had been let other than to the lowest and best bidder.

2. That it found no evidence linking any state official or employee with the $6,000 admittedly paid by Tom Catlett, president of Bogie Equipment Company, Lexington, to the late W. S. "Scoop" Sherwood, Frankfort lobbyist, on February 18, 1949.

Informed of the report, John A. Keck, commissioner of highways, said:

"I'm awfully glad to hear it. I knew that this grand jury or any other fair and impartial investigating group, could come up with no other report. To my knowledge, nothing that has transpired in the highway department has been tainted with wrong-doing."

Shortly after the jury reported, Attorney General A. E. Funk released the report of his own investigating committee of Assistant Attorney General Squire N. Williams, Jr., and Armand Angelucci, and State Police Sgt. James Hughes.

Funk assigned his committee to the probe in December, after four civil suits were filed, three by former Attorney General Hubert Meredith, Owensboro, and one by Charles I. Dawson, Louisville, former federal-district judge. The suits charged a wide range of corruption in the Highway Department.

Informed tonight of the jury report, Dawson said:

"I fully expected that kind of a report from the grand jury. However, the report will neither change the facts nor my determination to develop the facts."

While legal action has transpired only in Dawson's suit, both the jury and Funk committee were charged to investigate all four civil suits for criminal blame.

Dawson's suit is based on the charge that the Bogie firm paid $6,000 to Keck or his agent for preferred treatment on equipment bids. Meredith's suits charge:

1. That Keck conspired with R. B. Tyler Company, Louisville, and Kiser Construction Company, Olive Hill, to rig road bids with political kick-backs at two lettings in 1949.

2. That Keck owns an interest in, and shares in the profits of, Davis & Shelton, road contractors, at Sandy Hook.

The report of Funk's committee is a summary of what various people connected with the suits said when they were interviewed by the three investigators. On the whole, those interviewed denied knowledge of the charges made by Dawson and Meredith.

Previously, the Funk report had been given to James P. Hanrahan, Commonwealth's Attorney, for whatever value it might be for the grand jury. Of the Funk report, the grand jury stated:

"The committee appears to have performed their task as well as they were able."

The Funk report quoted Gaines P. Wilson, vice-president of the R. B. Tyler Company, as saying that, in his opinion, in all probability, Mrs. Pace, Burkesville, was a motivating force behind several, if not all, of the suits.

Mrs. Pace, in private life, is president of the Cumberland Construction Company, Burkesville, road contractor. In public life she is Republican national committeewoman for Kentucky. To Offer 52-Week Series
Of Radio Dramatizations

A 52-week dramatization of stories from the Bible will be heard by radio-listeners in Floyd and surrounding counties, beginning Sunday, February 11, the first Sunday of the Lenten season.

Entitled "Living Pages from the Book of Life," the half-hour program will be heard over WLSI in Pikeville at 1:00 p. m., and over WSIP in Paintsville at 2:30 p. m. every Sunday, presented as a public service by the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company and Mallory Stores, Inc., both of David, for their employees, customers and friends.

Initial offering in the series is entitled "A Child in the Temple." This is the familiar and much-loved story of Jesus, as a boy of 12, lingering behind in Jerusalem after the Passover to debate the law with the learned doctors in the temple. On succeeding weeks listeners will hear the stories of the baptism of Jesus by his cousin John, the martyrdom of John, Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem on the first Palm Sunday, the Last Supper, the Crucifixion, and on Easter Sunday, March 25, the Resurrection.

Featuring the internationally famous Sunday Players, the half-hour programs are embellished with music and explanatory narrative to bring these age-old stories vividly to life.

According to David L. Francis, president of the coal company, transcripts of the programs will be made available without cost on a rotating basis to local Sunday schools, civic groups and any others who wish to take advantage of this opportunity to use the dramatizations for Bible study.

Vincent To Make Race for Governor

Howell W. Vincent, youngest of the Ten Brothers from Brownsville, Ky., has announced he will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

Vincent, 40, is a Covington attorney and Kenton county Democratic leader. He said his aim would be "to defeat the Clements-Wetherby machine."

The Ten Brothers Corporation of Kentucky was formed in 1935 by the sons of Willis F. Vincent, Edmonson county Democratic leader for half a century. One of the sons is Haskell H. Vincent, formerly of Martin, now of Charleston, W. Va. The corporation was formed to promote "mutual aid and assistance" of the family. The elder Vincent died three years ago at 83 and two of his sons also have died.

Vincent was chairman of the Kenton county Democratic campaign committees in 1948 and 1949. He is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and the U. of K. Law School.

He practiced in Bowling Green seven years before going to Covington in 1942. He has five children and lives in a Covington suburb, Park Hills.

Other brothers include Patrick Vincent, former Boyd County judge; Raymond Vincent, Commonwealth's attorney at Williamstown, and Conrad Vincent, Corinth banker.

Three other men have announced for the gubernatorial nomination. They are Ben Kilgore, Franklin, U. S. Representative Joe B. Bates, Greenup, and Jesse N. Cecil, Louisville.

Lieutenant Governor Lawrence W. Wetherby also is expected to be a candidate.

Nothing Better Than Good Food, Says Ohio Man

If a man isn't able to eat the foods he likes he's in mighty sorry shape—imagine going through life without being able to enjoy a fine big platter of bacon and eggs. That is the way Joseph N. Damillot, 3414 E. 5th Street, Dayton, Ohio, used to be, but since he has been taking HADACOL, he says he feels just fine and is able to enjoy lots and lots of fine foods. Mr. Damillot found that taking HADACOL helped his system overcome a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron.

Here is Mr. Damillot's statement: "My first bottle of HADACOL convinced me that HADACOL was what I needed for the gas on my stomach at nights. I could not keep food on my stomach, but after the first bottle I was going great. Now I eat bacon and eggs, and other foods that never would stay with me. I also can sleep well at nights. Thanks to HADACOL, I will never be without it, and can recommend it to all who suffer with the above ailments that I had. I know because I have suffered for quite some time."

A. J. MAY, GUEST SPEAKER, TELLS GROUP AMERICA MUST UNITE TO PRESERVE PEACE

"Faith in God and in the justness of our cause" was urged by ex-Congressman A. J. May, as he spoke informally on "Current International Relations" at a meeting of the Lackey-Garrett Woman's Club last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Harry Sherman.

"We must have the faith of Daniel if we hope to succeed in the present crisis," asserted Mr. May. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Ralph Gardner, who, as chairman of Foreign Relations Committee, sponsored the program.

Mr. May listed among several reasons for our losing the peace at the close of the last conflict the demobilization of our armed forces and urged that we not make the mistake now of bringing our troops home, thus leaving the natural resources as well as the people of occupied countries open for invasion by an aggressor.

He also expressed his belief that there should be more restriction put upon the press during the present international situation.

In conclusion Mr. May emphasized, "America must be united with all political, religious, and racial barriers down, as in the Kentucky motto, 'United We Stand, Divided We Fall.'" the Railroads RESPECT... the Labor Unions seek to REPUDIATE this agreement!

At various states in the present dispute with the brotherhoods of railroad operating employees... the railroads agreed to arbitrate. The union leaders refused. ... the railroads accepted the recommendations of President Truman's Emergency Board. The union leaders refused. ... the railroads accepted the White House proposal of August 19, 1950. The union leaders refused. Finally an Agreement was signed at the White House on December 21, 1950. Now the union leaders seek to repudiate the Agreement. The railroads stand ready to put the terms of this Agreement into effect immediately, with back pay at the rates and date indicated. The Agreement is given in full below.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT Washington, D. C. December 21, 1950 1. Establish 40 hour week for yardmen with increase of 23 cents effective October 1, 1950, and additional 2 cents effective January 1, 1951. 2. Effective with the first pay roll period after 30 days from the date of execution of the formal agreement, yardmen required by the carrier to work on the 7th day to be paid overtime rates except engineers who shall receive straight time rates for the 7th day. This does not create guarantees where they do not now exist. On and after October 1, 1951, three months' notice to be given of desire to go on 40 hour week. Provide for consideration of availability of manpower and 4 cents per hour if and when the 40 hour week actually becomes effective. 3. Settle rules for 40 hour week and 6 day week. 4. Grant yard conductors and brakemen other rules such as daily earnings minimum, car retarder operators and footboard yardmasters as recommended by Emergency Board No. 81. 5. Settle following rules: Initial Terminal Delay (Conductors and Trainmen) Interdivisional Runs Pooling Caboose (Conductors and Trainmen) Reporting for Duty More than One Class of Service Switching Limits Air Hose (Conductors and Trainmen) Western Differential and Double Header and Tonnage Limitation (Conductors and Trainmen, all Territories) 6. Road men to receive 5 cents per hour increase effective October 1, 1950 and additional 5 cents per hour increase effective January 1, 1951. 7. Quarterly adjustment of wages on basis of cost of living index (1 point to equal 1¢ per hour. First adjustment April 1, 1951. Base to be 176). 8. Agreement embodying principles applicable to yardmasters to be entered into for benefit of yardmasters. 9. Effective October 1, 1950, the basic hours of dining car stewards shall be reduced from 225 to 205 hours per month; no penalty overtime to accrue until 240 hours have been worked, the hours between 205 and 240 to be paid for at the pro rata rate. Effective February 1, 1951, overtime at time and one-half shall accrue after 220 hours have been worked. The basic monthly salary to be paid for the 205-hour month shall be the same as that now paid for the 225-hour month. Except that four dollars and ten cents ($4.10) shall be added to the present monthly rate effective January 1, 1951. 10. In consideration of above, this agreement to be effective until October 1, 1953, and thereafter until changed or modified under provisions of Railway Labor Act. Moratorium on proposals for changes in wages or rules until October 1, 1953, as follows: No proposals for changes in rates of pay, rules or working conditions will be initiated or progressed by the employees against any carrier or by any carrier against its employees, parties hereto, within a period of three years from October 1, 1950, except such proposals for changes in rules or working conditions which may have been initiated prior to June 1, 1950. Provided, however, that if as the result of government wage stabilization policy, workers generally have been permitted to receive so-called annual improvement increases, the parties may meet with Doctor Steelman on or after July 1, 1952, to discuss whether or not further wage adjustments for employees covered by this agreement are justified, in addition to increases received under the cost of living formula. At the request of either party for such a meeting Doctor Steelman shall fix the time and place for such meeting. Doctor Steelman and the parties may secure information from the wage stabilization authorities or other government agencies. If the parties are unable to agree at such conferences whether or not further wage adjustments are justified they shall ask the President of the United States to appoint a referee who shall sit with them and consider all pertinent information, and decide promptly whether further wage increases are justified and, if so, what such increases should be, and the effective date thereof. The carrier representatives shall have one vote and the employee representatives shall have one vote and the referee shall have one vote. 11. If the parties cannot agree on details of agreement or rules they shall be submitted to John R. Steelman for final decision. The usual protections for arbitrators, miscellaneous rates, special allowances, and existing money differentials above existing standard daily rates will be included in the formal agreement.  The foregoing will not debar management and committees on individual railroads from mutually agreeing upon changes in agreement. NEW Super Duper PLUS VERSUS CROWN EXTRA CROWN

Proved dependability that makes them the MOST POPULAR Motor-fuels

MOTORS, being unable to read, are unimpressed by the claims being made for some gasolines these days. They can perform only on the quality that is actually in the gasoline.

The engines in most of the new model cars require higher anti-knock motor fuel than heretofore. To meet this need, Crown and Crown Extra Gasolines have additional anti-knock power. Along with higher octane, they also possess other essential qualities . . . They are made in seasonal grades, assuring thorough vaporization, and protecting against vapor-lock, and contain a special solvent to minimize gum deposits.

We have never found it necessary to make exaggerated claims for Crown and Crown Extra. We sell them for exactly what they are . . . dependable motor fuels possessing the all-round qualities which make them leaders in their respective fields.

WASPS PLAY GREAT GAME

In Louisville Tourney, Tho Last-Second Loser To Manual, 56 to 55

A high school of Louisville won the Louisville Invitational last week-end, and as a result this week climbed to the top of the Litratings, but to get past Wayland, the Eastern Kentucky entry in the meet, the champs played in the very first round probably the longest 32 minutes they'll ever spend as a team.

For the Big Red of Louisville was behind the 18th-rated Wayland almost all the entire fourth quarter, and but for the fickle fortunes of basketball would have gone down in that opening encounter. As it was, they edged "Copper" John Campbell's fighting Wasps, 56-55, in a struggle as nerve-tangling as a major net tourney has seen.

With only five seconds left in the game, Manual got the ball out of bounds. Then followed an unusual situation. Manual's Dave Smith threw the ball across the floor wildly. It touched nobody and so went back to Manual, still out of bounds. Meanwhile, the referee apparently had not signalled time-in when Smith took the ball, and so the clock had not moved forward a second.

On the second try on the out-of-bounds play, Smith passed to Whitehouse and the guard drove in for a fielder to tie up the game. While he was doing this he was fouled by Hopper, and the extra point was made, clinching the game.

Manual was off to a 13-8 lead at the end of the first quarter, and held a 29-25 lead at halftime. The Crimson held onto its lead, 42-40, to start the final hectic quarter.

The Wayland-Manual line-up: Wayland (55) fg. ft. Griffith (f.) 3 1 Fraley (f.) 4 1 Hopper (c.) 3 5 D. Haywood (g.) 9 0 E. Haywood (g.) 5 2 Roberts (g.) 1 0 Branham (g.) 3 2

Totals 19 17 Manual (56) fg. ft. Watkins (f.) 3 1 Thacker (f.) 4 0 G. Jones (f.) 3 2 Moffett (f.) 0 0 Grawemeyer (c.) 2 1 Whitehouse (g.) 6 8 Smith (g.) 6 2

Totals 21 14 Free throws missed: Griffith (3), Fraley (2), Hopper (3), J. E. Haywood (3), Watkins, Moffett, Thacker (2), G. Jones, Grawemeyer, Whitehouse (4), Smith (2).

FLASH LICKS MEADE EASILY IN FINAL TILT

A crowd which fairly filled Prestonsburg high school gymnasium saw the Purple Flash of Martin high school last Saturday night, for the second consecutive time, win the Big Sandy Conference basketball crown.

Denzil Halbert's speedy crew of sharpshooters this time copped the top Conference honors in rather easy fashion, defeating by a 53-38 score Meade Memorial, the team which on the preceding evening had eliminated a strong Betsy Layne five and which had held Martin to a two-point victory in the sectional finals at Oil Springs. At the half Martin held only a five-point edge, and the Johnson countians still were in the game to start the last quarter, but three quick field goals broke Meade's back early in the last stanza.

In the semi-finals Friday night, Martin ousted Virgie, the southern section runner-up, 61 to 45, and Meade defeated Betsy Layne, 60 to 51, in an upset.

The Big Sandy Conference champs are, with the exception of an early-season loss to Wayland, undefeated, and this loss they later avenged.

Winner and runner-up trophies were awarded the two finalists by Oren Teator, president of the Big Sandy conference. There was no all-tournament team named, and in lieu of that each member of the Martin team received a miniature gold basketball.

In recognition of his services as secretary of the Big Sandy Conference for the last 15 years, D. W. Howard, principal of Betsy Layne high school, was presented a gold wrist watch.

Tournament games played here: Meade Pos. Betsy Layne P. Butcher (14) F. Clark (5) P. Walters (10) F. Wallace (4) Cantrell (9) F. Crum (26) Wallen (19) G. D. Crum (9) H. Butcher (8) G. May

COACHES VOTE FLOYD STAR THIS AREA'S BEST PLAYER

Here's a good question for basketball fans of this section: "Whom do you consider the best basketball player in this area today?"

Compare your answer with that which 96 per cent of the net coaches of Eastern Kentucky gave to the same question when it was handed them in a recent poll conducted by Gordon Moore, Prestonsburg. That overwhelming opinion consensus replied, "Frankie Crum, of Betsy Layne." And several coaches added that Crum is possibly the all-time greatest in the history of Eastern Kentucky basketball.

When asked, "How would you rate him with Pikeville's all-time great Dickie Prater and Meade Memorial's Albert White?" the majority of replies favored Crum because he was a better all-around defensive player, ball-handler and rebounder.

What has Crum done to draw this praise? Thus far in 23 games he has hooped 610 points for a nifty 26.5 average. With eight season games remaining and then the tournament he may go above 900.

Crum, who stands 6 feet, 2 inches tall and weighs 175 pounds, is destined to be the champion point-maker for any one season for an Eastern Kentucky team before he finishes his high school career. The popular senior is playing his fourth year as a starter and may have inherited his uncanny shooting from his dad, Palmer Crum, who made the all-state cage team in 1932 when Betsy Layne made the state tournament trek to Lexington. Asire from being a star first baseman on the baseball team, he has made the all-tournament team of every tournament he has appeared in and was also named on the all-state baseball team in the state high school baseball tournament in Louisville last May.

Crum has the reputation of being unstoppable. His average of 21 points in 27 games last year is proof enough that he is master of all defensive set-ups.

Apparently the fact Eastern Kentucky teams have watched him for three previous seasons hasn't hurt his effectiveness. If he can get the ball he can score. Only twice this season has he gone under 20 points—16 against Pikeville Academy and 11 against Martin—when he should have been in bed with a severe cold. He has topped the 30 mark four times with the victims being Garrett, Belfry, Catlettsburg and Fleming.

His coach, Ted Akers, a Western product, says, "Crum is the finest team man on the squad and often passes off when he should shoot. On our shot chart records he has hit 48 per cent for the season, with 29 per cent the lowest and 79 per cent the highest."

State Tourney Fans
Should Get Ducats,
Rooms Immediately

Followers of the hardwood sport who plan to attend the state high school basketball tournament at Lexington March 15-17 are advised to order their tickets and obtain room reservations immediately. That was the word this week from Ed Wilder, secretary of the Lexington Chamber of Commerce which is actively promoting the tournament.

Sale of ticket books good for all seven sessions of the tourney is proceeding rapidly, but approximately 5,500 seats remain. These include about 3,000 sidecourt seats priced at $10 and approximately 2,500 end-zone seats priced at $8. Tickets for single tournament sessions will not go on sale until March 1.

Ticket orders should be addressed to: Ticket Department, Graves-Cox Company, 126 West Main, Lexington. Checks or money orders should be payable to Paul Nickell and 25 cents should be added to the total of each order to cover cost of mailing.

Room reservations for the tournament dates may be obtained by writing the Lexington Chamber of Commerce, 152 East High Street. All hotels and motor courts are filled but plenty of rooms still are available in tourist homes and private residences. Checks need not be sent with the room request.

The 1951 tournament will be staged at the University of Kentucky's new Memorial Coliseum which has a seating capacity of 12,000. The title affair was returned to Lexington this year after several years during which it was held at Louisville's Jefferson County Armory.

Due to a favorable season and by following a definite spraying program, Johnson county farmers grew higher quality and quantity of apples than ever before.

Oscar Jones, of Whitley county, ordered 6,000 short-leaf pines for reforestation.

Paul Fry, of Shelby county, made an average of $45.41 on 136 ewes.

Income last year from dairy products in Monroe county was up 30 per cent over 1949, and it is expected to be increased a fifth this year.

More than 1,500 dogs in Woodford county were licensed in 1950 and about 400 destroyed, according to the Sheep Growers Association.

The number of electrified homes on farms and in towns in Madison county has increased from 186 in 1946 to 1,818 in 1950.

Long-term Investment that pays daily dividends

THESE days thoughtful people turn their minds to the durability of things they purchase.

But it's rare when doing your duty turns out to be the best way to satisfy your heart's desire.

That's what's so marvelous about this '51 Buick. If you picked a car just for the lift it gives you—your pride in its power—or its generous comfort—you couldn't make a better choice.

But make note of this:

That gleaming new push-bar forefront, which greets your eye with flashing beauty, contains 25 grille bars made of stamped steel, individually mounted to "give" and come back unharmed. Combined with a massive, wrap-around bumper, fortified by two stalwart "bumper bombs" and two added uprights, it gives unsurpassed protection.

Springs of stout spiraled steel on all four wheels let your wheels curtsy over bumps, while you ride level as a lance. But they also need no servicing, and breakage is virtually unknown.

Buick's great-powered engine is a Fireball, wondrously lively and eager at the mere touch of your toe—but it also wrings extra power from every drop of fuel, and has the mechanical perfection that comes only from years of experience with this basic design.

Dynaflow Drive gives you effortless smoothness of control—but it also eliminates clutch repair bills, saves tires, eases strain on the whole driving mechanism, from engine to differential.

The road-steady gait of a Buick assures relaxed security—and is also evidence that you have a durable, deep-silled, X-braced frame beneath you. However you check it, you'll discover this: The things that make you very for a Buick on first acquaintance, are the very same things that make Buick such a smart long-time buy.

Better see your Buick dealer—soon.

Standard equipment, accessories and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice.

PAINT & SUPPLIES

Paint Early This Year

There's a reason for that advise. Government defense demands may later create a serious shortage of outside white paint, so we are told by manufacturer's representatives.

We have a good supply of all kinds of paint, including Outside White. That is the situation—NOW. Later, conditions may change.
