

FUGIT, TEMPUS!

A nice, snowy January morning on which to begin shedding sweetness and sunshine, 'round and about. For no sensible reason whatever, it reminds me of the January night when four of us, a year or so ago, were wishing time would get a wiggle on and hurry along the fishing season. And every one of us at, or near, the age when sensible men would be wanting to slow down the passing of time.

BAG LIMIT—HEE-HEE!

There is the one a preacher-friend passed on to me which has to do with a Southerner's troubles with his cows. The critters just weren't giving any milk. A neighbor suggested maybe they were wading in the water to keep cool and that fish (suckers, no doubt) were robbing them of their milk.

Against that possibility the farmer attached a flock of fish hooks to the teats of his cows' udders and sent them on their way. Next night, the cows failed to show up at all. Worried, the farmer hurried off to the river. There the cows stood, belly deep, and their owner could easily see they were worried about something.

Wading out to where they stood, the farmer quickly found the trouble. Each cow had hooked a bunch of fish and each had more than her bag limit!

Now comes it to my attention that the New Twentieth Century Dictionary (unabridged) does not list the word, "hill," for definition. It carefully explains that a hillside is "the side of a hill," but it still doesn't explain what that is the side of. One of my associates remarked that that is just another example of discrimination against the hill section.

TALE OF WOE

My old friend from West Prestonsburg—guess who?—was sorter down in the mouth, the other night. He towed as how he was a complete failure at this business of giving advice. It was sad, and if you could have heard him tell it you would agree with me.

"The man was mighty discouraged," I tell you," he said, "when he asked me for advice. Said he was

STROKE FATAL
TO MR. MAY

Clark May, Brother
Of A. J. May, Dies
At Alpharetta Home

A paralytic stroke suffered a week earlier claimed the life of B. L. C. (Clark) May, prominent Floyd county man, at his home at Alpharetta Tuesday at 1:30 a. m. Mr. May was 82 years old.

Mr. May was stricken, Jan. 2, but improvement noted in his condition had given relatives and friends hope that he would recover.

One of the county's best-known and most widely related men, he was a native of Langley and was a son of the late John and Darcus Conley May. He was born Nov. 14, 1869. He was first married to Miss Amanda Allen, and after her death to Miss Dollie Pratt, who also preceded him in death.

Mr. May was a prosperous farmer and in earlier life engaged in timbering. He was a member of the Methodist Church. One of his most outstanding characteristics was his intense loyalty to friends as well as to relatives. For each of his children he built a home on his large farm.

His surviving children are John E. May, Laurel, Miss. W. H., Jack, Miles and Ollie May, Mrs. Ellen Patton, Mrs. Alva Flanery and Mrs. Alice Hayes.

One brother, Ex-Congressman A. J. May, of Prestonsburg, also survives.

Funeral rites were conducted this morning (Thursday) at 10 o'clock from the Maytown Methodist Church, the Rev. Isaac Stratton officiating. Burial in the family cemetery was directed by the Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

Former School Head's
Trial for Conversion
Docketed, Jan. 18th

Leon Cook entered a plea of not guilty this morning, a few hours after his arrival at the county jail. He executed $2,000, bond, with J. R. Hurt and Fred Dickerson as sureties. His trial was docketed for Jan. 18.

District Detective Alex L. Davidson and Prestonsburg Policeman Amos Gray were scheduled to arrive here Wednesday night from Odessa, Texas with Leon Cook, former school principal here, a prisoner to face a conversion charge in the Floyd circuit court.

The prisoner is accused of embezzling approximately $1,175 of the funds he handled for pupils for the purchase of textbooks, class rings and other supplies.

The shortage was discovered after he failed to return to Prestonsburg after a few days' school vacation last spring, and the indictment was returned in September.

It was learned here this week that Cook had been sending payments of upwards of $60 each here to pay on the shortage.

Commonwealth's Attorney Burnis Martin, who sent the Floyd officers to Texas, indicated an early trial will be sought.

The installation ceremonies were marked by a banquet at the grade school cafeteria.

Mr. Moore, who is editor of The Salyersville Independent, listed the leaders who have appeared on the scene in every time of stress, and emphasized the great need in this country of leadership from "men of ability, vision, and willingness to accept the teachings of the Babe of Bethlehem."

THURSDAY

FLOYD TAKES ACTIVE PART IN ASSEMBLY

Hays, Sturgill Named;
Hale, Stumbo Present
First Bill of Session

State Senator Doug Hays, of McDowell, was elected Senate Democratic caucus chairman; Ex-Sheriff Troy B. Sturgill was elected chief clerk of the Senate, and Floyd county Representatives Henry C. Hale and E. H. (Ted) Stumbo introduced the first bill offered in the House—yes, Floyd county was in the thick of things as the General Assembly got under way Tuesday for its 1952 session.

Senator Hays returns to his old post in the Senate. He has been Senator from this district since 1944.

For Mr. Sturgill the Senate clerkship was a new job, though he has served one term as Circuit Court Clerk in this county and was Sheriff six years.

The bill introduced by Hale, a House veteran, and Stumbo, a freshman Representative, provides that a duplicate of lost or destroyed fishing or hunting licenses may be issued by the County Clerk for a fee of 25 cents.

Senator Richard P. Moloney was re-elected majority floor leader, and Senator Louis Cox was again named president pro-tem of the Senate. Senate Republicans elected Senator Freeman L. Robinson and Senator Homer E. Losey floor leader and caucus chairman, respectively.

In the House Charles W. Burnley was elected speaker; Harry King Lowman, Ashland, majority leader; Alex H. Calvert, caucus chairman; J. Ervin Sanders, Pikeville, clerk. That was on the Democratic side. The G.O.P. named James W. Lambert minority floor leader, Charles W. Wirsch as caucus chairman, and Egbert V. Taylor, Republican whip.

CIRCUIT CLERK

Cooley Tenure Longest
In Clerk's Office; Hill
And Martin Take Office

As officials of the Floyd circuit court began new terms of office this week W. W. Cooley entered the longest tenure of the office of Circuit Court Clerk ever held by a Floyd countian.

He began his third term on taking the oath of office before County Judge Henry Stumbo, Jan. 4. The longest previous tenure was 12 years. The longest tenure of office for a Floyd countian was that of Greenville Davidson, who held the office of County Court Clerk 28 years.

Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill took the oath of office Monday for his second term, with W. W. Cooley administering the oath, and Judge Hill in turn inducted Burnis Martin for the full six-year term as Commonwealth's Attorney.

Mr. Martin had been Commonwealth's Attorney since his nomination on the Democratic ticket, last August. He was appointed to fill out the vacancy created by the resignation of Bert T. Combs to accept appointment to the Appellate Court bench.

ALLEN YOUTH WHO SOUGHT TO JOIN
BROTHER IN ARMY DIES OF WOUNDS
RECEIVED LAST OCTOBER IN KOREA

Pfc. Roy (Cricket) Clifton, the Allen youth who, missing the companionship of his brother who was in uniform, would not be denied a place in the U. S. army, died Monday in an army hospital at Camp Atterbury, Ind., of wounds he received in Korea.

Shrapnel wounds in his legs and back caused his death, it was said, although his condition only a few days earlier had indicated his recovery.

After his triplett-brother Ray had entered the army, Roy made repeated attempts to enlist. Finally, he submitted to an operation and was accepted. But their reunion was deferred; Ray was returning, wounded, to this country as Roy was going overseas.

Roy was wounded Oct. 28 and was returned to the United States, Dec.

Davidson To Await
New County Budget
For Pay of Salary

Former County Judge Alex L. Davidson, of Prestonsburg, who became district detective Monday on appointment by Commonwealth's Attorney Burnis Martin, said he would wait on the 1952 county budget which becomes effective July 1 for his pay when told the current budget had not provided a salary for the office.

The office pays $150 a month. Mr. Martin said Davidson will act more in the capacity of an assistant to him in gathering evidence and preparing cases for trial than as a detective.

The first task to which he was set was that of checking the tax lists to ascertain if all members of the grand jury were listed as taxpayers. The result was that one woman-jury disqualified, and the grand jury on its second day did over again the work begun.

The prosecutor explained that Mr. Davidson, acting as an assistant, will help by getting sworn statements from witnesses to crimes and do other detailed work necessary before a case comes to trial. Many cases, he explained, heretofore have been brought for the first time to the Commonwealth's Attorney's attention only when they were called for trial, and so the prosecutor has been placed at a disadvantage.

NAME HARMAN
FIRM OFFICIAL

Floyd Man To Become
Secretary-Treasurer;
Camicia Is Promoted

David L. Francis, president of the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company, with central offices in Huntington, W. Va., announced this week the retirement of Mrs. James E. Hart, who has been secretary and treasurer of the company since it was founded in 1940.

At the same time he announced that Russell Harman, auditor for the company with offices at David, will succeed Mrs. Hart as secretary-treasurer of the company, effective March 1. Mr. Harman will transfer his residence to Huntington at that time.

Mr. Harman will also become secretary and treasurer of the Powellton Coal Company, Mallory Stores, Inc., and the Princess Elkhorn Sales Company—all affiliates of the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company.

It was also announced by Wm. Crawford, general manager of the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company, that James R. Camicia will be promoted to the position of auditor to succeed Mr. Harman.

Mr. Harman, the son of the late Taulbee Harman, and Mrs. Harman, was born at Auxier. He attended the Floyd county schools, graduating from Prestonsburg high school where he played football and basketball. He later attended Morehead State College and Bowling Green Business University.

After teaching four years in the schools of this county, he was employed in 1936 in the accounting department of the Mallory Coal Company, Mallory, W. Va. In 1941, when the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company was organized at David, he was promoted to the position of auditor of the new firm. This position he has held until his recent promotion.

A member and former vice-president of the Prestonsburg Kiwanis Club, he has also been active in county politics and in furthering the scope and activity of Boy Scout and Girl Scout work in the community. He is also secretary and treasurer and a trustee of the Princess Community Association, a non-profit organization which operates the Princess Theatre, supports the David Community Church and does other religious and charitable work throughout this area. He is a trustee of the David grade school.

Mr. Harman has for the past two years been a director of the National Association of Foremen and is also the newly-elected president of the Princess Elkhorn chapter of the association. He is a member of the Masonic lodge. Mr. and Mrs. Harman and their three children, Roslyn, William and Elizabeth Ann, will take up their residence in Huntington in the near future, it was said this week.

John Johnson, 54 years old,
of Korea, Menifee county, former resident of Melvin, who was killed last week in a fall over a 150-foot precipice near his home, was buried
Saturday at Minnie.

Johnson was killed while co-hunting with his brother-in-law, William Turner, of Minnie, Wednesday night of last week in the Igo Ridge section of Menifee county. As the dogs took up the chase the two followed. A few minutes before the tragedy, Johnson warned Turner of the danger of cliffs. Suddenly Johnson disappeared into the darkness.

Turner made his way to the nearest home, and from there began a search through the canyon-like region. He did not find his hunting companion until about 1 o'clock the next morning, almost four hours after the tragedy. Turner carried the battered body a mile to a highway and from there the victim was taken by jeep to a West Liberty funeral home.

The victim, who had resided in Menifee county several years, is survived by his widow, four sons and two daughters.

The 1952 motor vehicle license stickers are now on sale at the office of County Clerk DuRan Moore. Kentucky is one of 21 states using the wartime windshield sticker license this year to conserve metal for defense. The 1951 metal plates must remain on the vehicle during 1952.

Vehicle operators must have the new stickers by March 1, Mr. Moore said. He reminded motorists to bring their 1951 certificates along when they come for their new licenses; also to be sure and follow directions on the glassine envelopes for applying the new license stickers to their windshields.

JURORS' DUTY
CITED BY HILL
HERE, MONDAY

Dope, Unlicensed Dogs
Mentioned for Probe
By Floyd Grand Jury

Reminding jurors that "there never has been a time in the history of our country when it was more important to take our duty seriously," Circuit Judge Edw. P. Hill opened the first court session of his second term as judge here Monday with a call for strict adherence to duty, however unpleasant the task may be.

"We are not to try cases on sympathy—we are not to think on the hardships which may be imposed on the families of the accused," he said. "It is our duty to try these cases impartially. . . . I would recommend that we enforce the laws of our country as our contribution to good government."

Although touching on most offenses, Judge Hill singled out the carrying of concealed deadly weapons, drunk driving, the traffic in narcotics, punch boards and the Kentucky dog law for particular attention.

Of dope-handling he told the jurors of reports he had received to the effect that "a few individuals here who will not work are trying to build up a business by getting others in the dope habit." He said he had been told "dope pills" have been smuggled into the county jail.

Voicing recognition of the fact that the dog license law is an unpopular subject in this section, he hit, however, at the large number of stray dogs which are permitted to run at large, unlicensed, destroying gardens, on occasion killing livestock and causing a health hazard from rabies. "We have a lot more dogs than we have hogs," he commented. "I like a dog, have one myself, but I contend that a dog worth keeping is worth licensing and caring for."

ENGLAND DIES
AFTER WRECK

Floyd Men Figure
In Highway Tragedy
Near Michigan City

Funeral of James England, 26 years old, who was fatally injured in an auto wreck near Monroe, Mich., Jan. 1, was held Saturday morning from the auditorium of McDowell high school.

England, a son of the late Tom England and of Mrs. Ann England Tackett, veteran Floyd teacher, died at 11:30 p. m., Jan. 3 of head injuries. Dempsey Hall, of McDowell, who was said to have been the driver of the car in which he and England were returning from this county after the holidays to Detroit to work, escaped with minor hurts. The auto slid on an icy road and was rammed by a truck, it was said.

Surviving, besides England's mother, are two brothers, Clarence and Clifford, both of McDowell, and one sister, Mrs. Lude O'Dell, of Detroit. The funeral was conducted by the Revs. McKinley Moore, E. H. Howard, Mitchell Chaffins and Troy Nickles. Burial in the Lucy Hall cemetery was directed by the Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

Volunteers Sought To Stage
'Mothers' March' on Polio

Jesse Elliott, Betsy Layne, chairman of the Floyd county March of Dimes, this week issued a call for volunteers to help put over the Mothers' March on Polio which will take place throughout the county on the evening of January 31 as an impressive climax to the drive for funds.

"While our organizational plans are fairly complete," Mr. Elliott said, "we now must secure that all-important corps of workers—the 'contact mothers'—who during the hour-long drive will visit every home where the lighted porch or the lighted front window will show that the occupants are ready to join in the fight against infantile paralysis."

Ray Howard, Prestonsburg community chairman, announced that the Prestonsburg Woman's Club has assumed full responsibility for the Mothers' March here.

Mr. Elliott said the county had been divided into areas, districts and sections and that each "contact mother" would be responsible for visiting approximately eight to ten houses in her vicinity to collect funds for this special March of Dimes activity.

"The 'contact mothers,'" he added, "form the mainspring of this event which will climax the 1952 March of Dimes. The efforts of hundreds of these fine women will be essential to the success of the drive. Knowing the people of Floyd county, I feel sure that the response will be equal to the need."

Volunteers are asked to contact Mr. Elliott at once.

"This year, as never before, we must put the March of Dimes over. Polio has hit the nation severely during the past four years, and costs of treatment have soared," Mr. Elliott pointed out. "Consequently, in the interest of our local boys and girls, I urge every mother who can possibly spare that one hour the night of January 31, to join the Mothers' March and give a helping hand to those who cannot help themselves."

We Fail To Find the Flaw

THE TIMES has given much thought to Senator Doug Hays' bill which would place the legal sale of liquor solely in the hands of the state, and it fails to discover the obnoxious features in it which the dries claim to have found.

To begin with, the bill, as introduced by the Floyd county Senator last year, did not meddle with the state's local option laws. It did not provide for the sale of intoxicants by the state, everywhere in Kentucky; it did not violate any dry territory. Instead, it merely provided that liquor be sold, wherever it was sold legally, from state stores, with all the proceeds going to the commonwealth and none into private hands.

Perhaps it is but natural that religious groups and dry forces find abhorrent the mere thought of the state being in the liquor business. But it is a business which must be viewed realistically. Kentucky already is interested in the revenues which liquor brings in, and as matters now stand it isn't too greatly interested in strict enforcement.

With the state handling all liquor legally sold, and all the sales going into the state treasury, the full weight of state government, including the power, present or potential, of the state police would be thrown into the job of stopping bootlegging, just as the federal government goes out after moonshiners because they are not paying taxes on the whiskey they produce.

So it would appear that, with the state having a very real financial interest in the matter, the law against illegal traffic in intoxicants would become a thing with teeth in it instead of a vexation to local authorities and citizens who believe that laws are made to be observed and enforced.

The Times does not want to see Floyd county "wet." We make that plain. But it can see no harm in the liquor business being taken out of the hands of profit-hungry individuals in those counties already wet and placed under state management and control. Certainly, if there is any one thing that would make a wet vote of a dry one it would be lax enforcement, widespread bootlegging, official graft and a general scoffing at the law.

Those whiskey people now in Frankfort, girded for the fight against the Hays bill, are very realistic. They are against this legislation, because they fear there will be fewer whiskey outlets, legal or illegal, in Kentucky and that as a consequence less whiskey will be sold. Let those opposed to whiskey on higher grounds be equally practical about the matter.

Why Not a Camp Here?

THE Division of Game and Fish announces that a new Junior Conservation Club will be established on the shores of Lake Cumberland—or, if you will, Wolf Creek Lake.

That is in the Ninth conservation district, where a similar camp already exists on Dale Hollow Lake, a mere fifty miles away. Meanwhile, Eastern Kentucky is without a junior conservation camp, despite the fact that the Division of Game and Fish had, ever since the impoundment of Dewey Lake, an ideal location for a camp overlooking this body of water.

The Dale Hollow camp will be discontinued, we are told, with the founding of the Cumberland Lake camp, but that does not eliminate the need for a camp on Dewey which would be from 150 to 200 miles nearer home for hundreds of boys of this part of the state.

CLUB BUDGETS

To Be Spent in '52,

No. 1 Item in Plans

The Floyd County Fish & Game Club at its meeting at the courthouse here, Monday evening, approved a budget which envisions an outlay this year of $2,125 to carry on its usual activities.

Biggest item of the budget was 600 for quail-raising. The club was told that J. C. Moore, of McDowell, game committeeman, agreed to rear all the quail provided by the club or the Division of Game & Fish for 50 cents a head.

Into a fund for future construction went $500. For a continuance of its work with Junior Conservation Club boys $300 was appropriated. Other items in the budget are: $200 for the purchase of game, $200 for the purchase of seed for farmers to provide food for birds released in the county; $150 for miscellaneous expenses, $125 for door prizes to be given at meetings, and $50 for the annual fishing contest.

Prizes will be given at the end of this year for the largest fish caught in the four divisions, smallmouth bass, largemouth, walleye and crappie.

It was announced at the meeting that the 20½-inch smallmouth bass caught by Savate Cooley, of Langley, in Dewey Lake had won for him first prize in the bass division of the 1951 fishing contest sponsored by the club. Winner of the walleye division was Lum Mitchell, of Ligon, with a 23-inch fish caught at Elk-horn City. All bass entered in the contest came from Dewey Lake.

The club's next meeting will be held at Maytown high school, February 4.

Dials, Buddies Snatch Tanks from Reds' Hands

Member of a tank retriever crew in Korea is Pfc. Clarence Fred Dials, 20, son of Mrs. Laura Dials, of Lancer.

How Dials and his crew operated in the rescue of a flame thrower tank which was put out of action by Red artillery fire was described by their leader, Lt. Richard Morris, of Champaign, Illinois:

"My men snatched this tank from under the nose of Red guns," Morris said. "They went along with the tank force and when the tank was knocked out, they went into action."

He told how the three men braved antitank, mortar and small arms fire to get the tank out. "They had to go under the tank's belly and hook tow cables and bars first," he said. "Then they had to pull back to our lines—under fire." The tank was still burning furiously when the men reached the friendly line.

"We've saved every one of our knocked out tanks," Morris proudly stated. "Many are in action against the Communists today."

LAKE GROUP

Organization Effected
On Sectional Basis; 31
In Four Counties Join

Organization of the Dewey Lake Sportsmen's Club has been effected on a sectional rather than on a local basis, its first president, Frank H. Layne, of Prestonsburg, said this week.

Charles Wright, of Praise, Pike county, was elected secretary of the organization at a recent meeting held at the Lake View Restaurant, and vice-presidents were named for each of the counties of this section which were represented at the organization meeting. These are: Woodrow Greenwade, Prestonsburg, for Floyd county; Carl Maynard, Pike county; Howard Sparks Johnson county; Jack Richmond, Martin county.

As other counties enter the club they will be represented likewise, it was said.

The meeting was attended by 54, and of these 31 became members.

It was explained at the meeting that the club, restricting its activities solely to Dewey Lake and the reservoir area, is not intended to conflict with the activities of any other sportsmen's group in Floyd or any other county of the section but is to work for the improvement of the lake as a fishing and recreation spot, sponsor the development of a game preserve in the area, seek a minimum of five feet greater depth for the lake and promote understanding and good fellowship between all taking advantage of the facilities of the lake.

The Division of Game & Fish, it was pointed out, already has a lease on a large acreage in the area for a game preserve, and the club hopes to induce the Division to put that area to the use for which it was leased. While game inside the preserve would be strictly protected, it would serve to stock adjacent territory by the spill-over of game as it multiplied beyond the accommodations of the preserve. This is a restocking method now widely in use and hitherto used on a smaller scale in this county by the Floyd County Fish & Game Club.

The marriage of Miss Norma Jean Dorton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Dorton, Sr., of Paintsville, and Mr. Henry Lewis Mayo, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lewis Mayo, of Prestonsburg, was solemnized at 3:30 o'clock, December 25, in the First Methodist Church, Paintsville.

Rev. C. W. Krebs, pastor of the church, performed the single ring service.

Woodwardia fern, balsam, smilax, and huckleberry formed the background of greenery for two large baskets of gladioli, chrysanthemums, and carnations and four seven-branch candelabrae holding lighted white tapers. The pews were marked with white satin streamers tied with gardenias, and white tapers were used with greenery in the windows.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Martha Belle Preston, Mrs. Harry McKenzie, Jr., soloist, sang, "Because," and "Serenade."

The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father who gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of white chantilly lace of ballerina length. The bodice was styled with long, fitted sleeves and featured a round neckline of illusion edged with sequins. Her Juliet cap was adorned with a short veil and sequins. On a white prayer book, she carried a white orchid with long white satin streamers tied with stephanotis.

Miss Carol Jean Dorton, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor in a shrimp net and lace ballerina-length dress. Her hat was a band of net, and she carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a gardenia tied with white streamers.

Miss Judith Ann Dorton, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed in white organdy and her hat was of pink carnations. She carried a white basket filled with rose petals. Master Dennis Trigg Dorton, nephew of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Mr. James S. Mayo, of Prestonsburg, served his brother as best man. The ushers were Harry T. Cooper, of Paintsville, James May and Clifford Latta, cousins of the groom, and Bill Goebel, Jr., all of Prestonsburg.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Dorton, mother of the bride, chose for her daughter's wedding a gun-metal gray-suit dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Mayo, the groom's mother, wore a flame dress with silver sequin trim. Her accessories were black, and she wore a corsage of white rosebuds.

Mrs. Mayo was graduated from Paintsville high school and received her degree from Sullins College in Bristol, Va. She has been employed for the past year at the Second National Bank, Paintsville.

Martin Flash Wins 2 High-Score Tilts; Play Cats, Saturday

The Martin Purple Flash, runner-up to Carr Creek in the Hazard invitational, resumed Floyd county play last week to chalk up two wins and hit the form which boded trouble for future opposition.

Headed by Grigsby, who returned to the guard position after Tackett recovered from a knee operation and took over his post at center, sending Click back to forward, the Martin team was extended to edge the Betsy Layne Bobcats, 73-68, at Betsy Layne Friday night. Grigsby hit the hoops for 29 points and Tackett scored 18. Fannin led the Betsy Layne attack with 24 markers.

The Flash had easier sailing at home on the following evening when they defeated McDowell, 67 to 45 after overcoming a 14-9 lead taken by the visitors in the initial quarter. Again Grigsby and Tackett were the big guns for Martin with 23 and 18 points, respectively. Frasure led the McDowell scoring with 13 points.

Two Martin regulars who had been idled by scholastic difficulties will be eligible for Friday night's game at home against Carr Creek Saturday night, the Flash plays the Prestonsburg Black Cats here.

Black Cats Extend Garrett Five Here; Inez Is Easy Winner

Prestonsburg's Black Cats, whose basketball performances are somewhat at variance with their feats on the gridiron, came near to providing one of the season's biggest upsets here last week when they had the powerful Garrett Black Devils almost on the ropes. But they didn't quite make it, and Garrett came through with a 43-41 victory.

Friday night, the Cats were not up to another essay at the giant-killing role, and so they lost to the prowling Inez Indians, 57 to 43.

Inability of his boys to hit their scoring stride has forced Prestonsburg Coach Bill Damron to send his team out to play a slow, deliberate game, and this has puzzled other fast-breaking fives.

Saturday night, the Cats play hosts to the high-scoring Martin high school team.

Judge Hill pointed out that this could be a sheep-growing county if the dog law were enforced, and he called on the grand jury to look into its enforcement.

Arthur Sturgill, of Prestonsburg, was named foreman of the grand jury.

During the early part of Monday morning's session Judge Hill administered the oath of office to Alex L. Davidson as district detective and Glenn Burchett, R. D. Spurlock and M. M. Hicks as jury commissioners.

The court session began with only one murder case docketed for trial—that of Willard Hughes. Another such case, that of Milt Hunt, who is expected to be indicted for the slaying of Jake Sallsbury, may be heard at this term. It is a new law for murder trials in Floyd county and one of the lowest in Eastern Kentucky history.

a failure, doin' no good at all, out of work and the prospects poor. I buckled him up with a few choice proverbs and old Ed'ards sayin's, and sent him on his way with a parting admonition to not worry, to keep a stiff upper lip and keep pluggin'.

"I thought I had done the job up brown, and went along for a month or so in that happy frame of mind. Finally, one morning, my friend hove in sight, and I greeted him like a long-lost brother, I was so anxious to hear him tell me how much my advice had been worth to him.

"How's tricks?" I sang out as he drew up. Then he proceeded to tell me what I didn't want to hear:

"No good, my friend, no good at all I tried to quit worryin' and let things take their course, and I worked manfully at it, I tell you. But, brother, I'm a failure, I still ain't got nothin'—no money and no job. And, worst of all is, my wife says I jist ain't no 'count and that if I was yeast I wouldn't work in a barrel of home-brew!"

My friend says that, henceforth, if anybody wants advice they are directed to the nearest lawyer.

Her lecture was followed by the showing of a film by Mrs. Wayne Ratliff of the discovery of tuberculosis in an individual and its proper treatment and eventual cure. During December, the month in which the drive is conducted nationally to raise funds to fight tuberculosis, Mrs. Mayo called on the clubwomen to support the local drive in every way possible.

The club voted to ask the Town Council to pass a resolution against the use or sale of narcotics to minors; to adopt plan No. 2 as laid out by the Kentucky Heart Fund drive; and to set aside February 18 to 24 as Family Week in Wheelwright in an effort to carry out the national slogan, "The family that plays together, prays together and stays together."

After the business meeting a social hour was held in the clubroom.

Washday is little-girl-play with an ELECTRIC CLOTHES DRYER

With an electric dryer you toss clothes in; set a dial... and that's all! They come out as you want 'em: damp-dried ready for ironing, fluff-dry to wear or store away.

Imagine! No carrying big heavy baskets of wet wash out to the yard. No stretch-and-bend routine with pins and clotheslines. No dashing out to drag things in when sudden rains come up...

Drying clothes electrically is so easy a 6-year-old can do it, as our friend Nan Troxell here so often does.

So why break your back? Why gamble with the weather? An electric clothes dryer does a better job faster, for just a few pennies a wash.

Ask your dealer for a demonstration. You owe it to yourself.
