

This Town-- That World

AD ABSURDUM The proposal that Congress force newspapers to charge more for advertising space in order to cut down on the size of ads and thus save newsprint might work. Your wife could cut down on your consumption of eggs, too, if she would overdo them with salt. Wonder what they'll figure out for radio advertising which doesn't use newsprint—reduce the hours to 30 minutes?

We have been asked to explain, and we gladly do so, that the Ernest Boyd reported in this paper, a few weeks ago, as having been arrested for drunkenness and resisting arrest is not the Ernest Boyd who lives on Mare Creek.

These names, what a bother! There was a time when a Mr. Norman Allen visited Prestonsburg and had himself a time, announcing his intention of robbing both banks, attempting to drive away with a new car without making a satisfactory deposit therefor, and winding up in the noseogew. I printed the story, repeating the name frequently and giving no explanation whatever as to this Norman Allen's identity till the yarn was done. Then I carefully explained that this Norman Allen was not connected with The Floyd County Times.

That would have done it, but darned if Henry Arrowood, then editor of The Paintsville Herald, didn't reprint the story and, deliberately and with malice aforethought, leave off that last paragraph!

Some pixilated individual on one of the Lexington papers has had various and sundry fishermen over the state tearing their hair, if any. This newspaper printed a picture of a 73-foot catfish which, it said, washed up from the Kentucky river. Size of the fish was proved by the picture of a man printed alongside it, and he was just about as tall as the cat's whisker was long.

Not till it was noted that date of the paper was April 1 did the boys around here get settled down to work again.

LOOKING BACKWARD Times do change. We are living in a wonderful age. There are the ephemeral things, and then there are those which last over the years.

These are some of the thoughts which arise as we peruse a copy of The Washington Herald published on October 5, 1908 which Herbert Prater found stashed away recently.

20-YEAR CLUB STAGES PARTY County's Teaching Vets Don Cos'tumes for Play, Annual Meeting Feature

Floyd county's teaching veterans kicked up their heels as they donned yesterday costumes for the annual meeting at Maytown high school last Friday of the Twenty-Year Teachers' Club.

After the dinner, which was held in the school's new lunchroom, the teachers, most of whom were—depending on their sex—garbed in sunbonnets, frilly dresses, dainty fans, hard straw hats and flowing whiskers, held a Gay 90's party, staging a play, enjoying childhood games and prancing through the Virginia Reel.

Paris Conley, county attendance officer, was elected president of the club, succeeding Mrs. Grace L. Conley, of Bonanza, and George L. Moore, principal of the McDowell consolidated school, was named vice-president. Mrs. Betty Stephens, dean of the group, was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Stephens, who has been a teacher 40 years, avowed she's "good for 40 more."

Declared star of the playlet staged by the teachers was County Superintendent Palmer L. Hall who enacted the ingenue role of Clementine in Amazon fashion, his heavy whiskers showing through a heavy application of rouge.

FLOYD BANDS TO COMPETE

In Pikeville Music Fest; Six Eastern Ky. Counties To Send Representatives

Approximately 400 Floyd county high-school students from seven schools are entered in the Pikeville Regional Music Festival, beginning today (Thursday) at Pikeville Junior College.

Betsy Layne, McDowell, Prestonsburg and Wheelwright high school bands, and choruses from Martin, Prestonsburg, Wheelwright and Betsy Layne make up most of the Floyd representation. Dr. A. A. Page, college president, said. In addition, 37 vocal and instrumental soloists and 18 other groups from Floyd county are scheduled to take part in the festival.

Six other Eastern Kentucky counties—Pike, Martin, Johnson, Magoffin, Harlan and Perry—are represented among the 218 individual and group entries. Included are 12 bands and 21 choruses.

About half the entrants are registered for the state music festival at Lexington later, and will be competing for eligibility for it. The others, wishing only the evaluation and criticism they will receive at the regional festival, have entered on a "local" basis.

Winners of the highest rating, "superior," as well as some ranked "excellent," will if properly registered be eligible for the Lexington meet, the announcement said.

Judges for the Pikeville festival are Ford Montgomery, piano; J. William Worrel, other instrumental solos and groups, and Mildred Lewis, vocal entries. All are members of the University of Kentucky music

STRIKES HIT WIRE SERVICE

Western Union Out, Long Distance Calls Made in Emergencies

"Due to the strike no calls are being accepted except emergency calls," said long distance. "This stock reply of the operator was fast becoming familiar to telephone users today as the strike-effects of the telephone walk-out deepened. Headlines over the nation were of that mild nature that said the walk-out had little effect on phone service. All-out picketing was being withheld over the nation, although it was beginning to appear in some cities.

But by Wednesday the familiar reply of the operator that only emergency calls were being accepted jolted the man on the street into the realization that an all-pervading disruption of long-distance telephone service was on. Local calls remain normal where the dial system was in operation, as in Prestonsburg and other places.

When telephone service collapsed under the strike this week down under it went the telegraphic service, for Western Union Telegraph Company, strike-bound since last Thursday, had allowed its service to be taken over by the telephone companies.

Today Western Union in Prestonsburg does not respond to a local dial call and the long-distance operator repeats monotonously, "No calls accepted except emergency calls."

Jury Files 4 Indictments Against John Smith Hall

TWO MURDER BILLS VOTED DURING WEEK

One Indictment Names Hall Habitual Criminal; His Wife Also Indicted

John Smith Hall, Branham's Creek farmer, faces trial in circuit court here April 24 on four counts in connection with alleged mistreatment of Allifair Shoffer who was found by three county officials last January 24, hidden away in Hall's barn.

Among the four indictments against Hall is one charging him as an habitual criminal. This bill cites two previous convictions—one in Pike county for a four-year pen term on a forgery county, the other in the Floyd circuit court for a two-year term on a charge of shooting and wounding. His conviction under this indictment would automatically mean for him a life sentence.

Hall alone was indicted on charges of assault and battery, rape and as an habitual criminal. He was indicted with his wife, Mae, and Alvin Hall on a count of unlawful imprisonment.

Miss Shoffer appeared before the grand jury, Monday. Witnesses listed on the indictment were the girl, Sheriff A. B. Meade, County Judge Henry Stumbo and Dr. R. M. Sirkle.

Although only 17 indictments were reported to Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill before court was adjourned Tuesday afternoon so that attorneys could attend the State Bar Association meeting in Louisville, two of these were for wilful murder, two others were in connection with a shooting and robbery, and the others were major offenses. The grand jury was on vacation Wednesday, but returned today (Thursday) to resume work.

Indicted on murder counts were John Wesley Hibbins for the slaying of Fuller Thompson at Betsy Layne, and White Smallwood for the fatal shooting at Bevinville of 15-year-old Helen Johnson.

J. R. Camicia, secretary of the Princess-Elkhorn Coal Company at David, was named foreman of the grand jury by Judge Hill. The grand jury was quickly empaneled, despite the fact that several of those summoned for duty were business men who pleaded pressing business. Empaneled the petit jury was a more difficult matter, and additional names were drawn from the jury wheel.

Other indictments returned by the grand jury:

Calvin Lewis and Russell Gunnell, armed robbery and shooting and wounding of Wayne Scaif at Mare Creek; James E. Fitchand John M. Gibson, breaking and entering store of Gorman Collins at Lackey; Flora Isaacs, shooting and wounding Charley Hall at Jack's Creek; Robert Eugene Webb, grand larceny and operating an auto without license; Abel Hamilton, Archie Parsons, Bun Arnold, Austin Lloyd Prater and Ellis Ward, each for child desertion; Frank Bryant, grand larceny.

Speaking briefly to the juries Monday morning, Judge Hill said, "I believe you will make your load and mine lighter by trying cases on the law and evidence. There have been times when I thought a good talking to a law-violator would do, but I have changed my mind. I think that if a man sticks a pistol in his pocket, then goes out and commits a robbery or some other crime, we should lay the lash to him."

To the grand jury directly he said, "If any one comes before you and tells you they're trying to raise a little garden and their neighbors' dogs are tearing it up, or killing their livestock, if you can learn the owners' names, indict them."

Judge Hill also cited the pistol law, drunk driving and the setting of forest fires for special grand jury attention.

Two convictions were had in the first days of court. Will Reynolds was given a one-year term for child desertion, and Warren G. Hall was fined $250 on his guilty plea to a charge of assault and battery.

JOHNSON DIES IN CAR WRECK

Former Dock Resident's Car Collides with Truck Friday at Hillsdale, Ind.

John Johnson, 39 years old, Largo, Ind., formerly of Dock, last Friday became the third native of this section to meet death on an out-of-state highway within a fortnight.

He died three hours after his auto had crashed into a truck and semi-trailer, a mile outside Hillsdale, Indiana. James J. Logan, 25, Huntington, Ind., a passenger in the car, was instantly killed.

Killed at Alger, O., on the preceding Friday were Smith, Junior Hicks, of Goodloe, and Cpl. Gallen Howard, a native of Knott county.

Driver of the truck said he was driving west when the auto, a 1951 Pontiac shot around a curve at high speed and headed toward him on his side of the road. The right front of Johnson's auto smashed into the right front portion of the truck. Front wheels of the truck ran up over the auto which spun from beneath it and went hurtling 200 feet along a ditch.

Both occupants of the auto were thrown free of the wreckage. Logan was practically cut in two at the waist. Dr. L. W. Yoder, coroner, said the wreck may have been caused by high speed on the curve or by the car sliding on wet pavement and going out of control.

Johnson was a son of the late Harrison Johnson and Mrs. Pearl Frazier Johnson, of Dock. He was married here June 19, 1942 to Miss Rose Thompson and, employed as a

MARTIN READY FOR PAGEANT

Only Rain, Severe Cold To Hinder Presentation Of Eastertime Pageant

Final preparations for the presentation near Martin, Easter Sunday afternoon, of that community's Passion Pageant were near completion today, and only rain or severely cold weather will delay this, the state's most pretentious Easter observance, it was announced.

In the event of such inclement weather, the pageant will be staged on May 4.

A cast of upwards of 400 characters will present the pageant, an original adapted from the Bible. Pete Grigsby, Jr., will enact the role of Jesus; Sallie Shannon and Dean Peters, those of Mary and Joseph.

Although the great volume of work necessary to set the stage for the pageant and to costume the cast has been done on the proverbial shoestring, even the imitation palm trees are realistic and men of the community have worked out a plan for having water in the Sea of Galilee.

Unarmed Man, Badly Shot, Chases Gunman, 2 Others

Unarmed, alone and with only one hand to use, a Floyd county merchant in a wild burst of rage gave chase to two men and a boy late last Thursday night after one of the trio had fired a bullet into his chest, barely missing his heart.

The wounded man, Wayne Scaif, 64, of Mare Creek, will recover, though seriously wounded, it was said at the Methodist hospital, Pikeville.

In jail here and named in indictments charging them with armed robbery and shooting and wounding with intent to kill are Russell Gunnells, 22, and Calvin Lewis, 23. Fifteen-year-old Okie Lee Gunnells, an admitted accomplice of the two men, was in jail Wednesday morning, with $5,000 bond asked for his release until his hearing in juvenile court, April 28.

The boy in a signed statement before County Judge Henry Stumbo last Friday named Calvin Lewis as the gunman. Later, testifying before the grand jury, he said he did not know who fired the shot since he was standing watch outside the store at the time.

Calvin Lewis named Russell Gunnells, uncle of Okie Lee, as the person who fired the shot. Gunnells

The pre-induction call for 39 men scheduled for April 10, has been changed until April 14, according to the local draft board. No change in the number called for pre-induction examinations was made for that date, it was said.

STEEL STRIKE IDLES MINERS

Lake Shipments Will Not Ease Situation, Is Belief; 8,000 Idled Wednesday

With the seizure of the steel plants by the government due to the walk-out of steel workers Wednesday, effects on the coal industry of Big Sandy may not be so great but advices from operators and others indicate a greater repercussion ahead.

Three-fourths or more of the mines are idle and the shut-downs will increase as the week advances to a close. Wednesday morning some 8,000 miners in Big Sandy were idle and the climb was upward, Thursday. Some of the first to close were Inland Steel, Republic Steel and Consolidation, Inland Steel and Republic operations alone account for approximately 1,700 idle miners.

Steel strike or not the mines of Big Sandy were already in the doldrums. Several of the smaller operations were down to two and three days weekly. Stephens Elkhorn of Manton worked two days last week and indications were that only two days would be worked this week. As expressed by a source, "It is strictly a buyer's market."

Some block coal from Floyd goes to Iowa for domestic consumption.

BIDS ASKED ON 3 ROADS

Bituminous Surface Asked for 2 Routes, Seal-Top for Third

Contractors have been invited by the State Department of Highways to bid on three construction projects in Floyd county. Bids will be opened April 25.

Projects planned are: The Prestonsburg - Salyersville Road from the end of the concrete on Duncan street near Prestonsburg and extending two and eight-tenths miles toward Salyersville would be covered with a bituminous surface.

The second project would cover with a bituminous surface the road up the left fork of Middle Creek from about four miles south of Ky. 114 to David. Construction could affect three and three-tenths miles of the road.

Third of the jobs will be seal-topping of the Martin-Wheelwright road, beginning three miles north of Clear Creek and extending 7 1/2 miles to Wheelwright Junction.

Organized by a group of citizens at the courthouse Saturday morning, the Floyd County Good Government Taxpayers' League elected officers, adopted a constitution and set itself up in business, ready for work, all in one meeting.

Dr. Edward B. Leslie, who recently resumed dental practice here after army service, was elected president of the League. Joe H. Cooley, of Prestonsburg, the other officer, was elected secretary-treasurer.

The board of directors, named to serve one year, is composed of Wayne Stumbo, of Minnie, John Warrick, Prestonsburg, Henry P. Scaif, Mare Creek, Polk Saunders, Cliff, and Jeff Derossett, Prestonsburg.

The meeting was addressed briefly by Dr. Leslie and McKinley Hopkins, the latter of Harold Membership dues were set at $1 a year.

Preamble of the constitution describes the aims of the League as:

1. To stimulate an active interest in the fiscal affairs of the government of Floyd county.

2. To foster and perpetuate the principles of economical and efficient administration of county offices.

3. To combat waste, inefficiency and maladministration.

4. To suppress and abolish corrupt practices in the election of government officials.

Shunning political affiliation but avowing its interest in clean politics, the League's constitution provides that the organization shall not support or endorse the candidacy of any person for public office and that each member of the League shall contribute his services on each regular primary or general election day for the purpose of observing and thwarting corrupt election practices.

Only a fair gathering of taxpayers attended the organization meeting. Among those present and taking an interested part in the proceedings were E. B. Brown, Claybourne Stephens, W. G. Biggers and Mayor Curtis Clark of Prestonsburg.

SPEED CURBS SOUGHT HERE

State Being Petitioned To Take Action; Repair Of Streets Here Asked

Disturbed by high speeds at which motor vehicles are driven through their section of Prestonsburg and by a number of highway accidents, residents of the Porter Addition and the Patton street section appeared before the City Council Monday night to ask location of two traffic lights and cutting of the speed limit to 30 miles.

Told by Mayor Curtis Clark that the thoroughfare is under control of the State Highway Commission, and that speed regulations on it cannot be fixed by the city, residents of the lower section of town, beginning in the vicinity of Patton street, are circulating a petition asking the Commission for speed control.

Clark said the two traffic lights have been on order for the last three months, to be placed at the intersection of North Lake Drive (the Mayo Trail) and Patton street and at the B. M. Thompson restaurant.

The Council meeting drew an unusually large gathering. Another delegation composed of members of the Kiwanis Club and the Chamber of Commerce asked the Council to resurface Prestonsburg's streets and repair the sidewalks. The Mayor said he and Homer Salisbury last week made a survey of city streets and sidewalks and had written the University of Kentucky for advice on the best materials to be used and the cost of such an undertaking.

Third street returned this week to two-way traffic, but it was pointed out that this convenience for motorists depends on their cooperation in parking on one side of the street. If parking is not voluntarily restricted to one side of the street, traffic again will be restricted to one way, it was said by Mayor Clark.

Mrs. H. R. Highbaugh, of Harlan, was a houseguest of Rev. and Mrs. G. M. Haggard last week.

'Governor's Day' Proclaimed In Honor of Youth Executive

Kentucky's new Youth Governor, Franklin D. Conley, receives congratulations of Mayor Curtis Clark as Miss Bonnie Wells, Conley's campaign manager, looks on.

Prestonsburg high school demonstrated Monday that the returning hero need not be a star athlete, bearing home fresh-won laurels from a hard-fought field.

It turned out, en masse, band triumphantly blaring, to honor one of its students, 18-year-old Franklin D. Conley, who last Saturday was elected Governor of the Kentucky Youth Assembly.

And Mayor Curtis Clark, of Prestonsburg, did his part in according young Conley full honors. He proclaimed the day Governor's Day and in the parade around the town occupied an open-top convertible with the new Youth Governor and his campaign manager, Miss Bonnie Wells. The parade was vanned by Chief of Police Laferty, followed by the fire department's truck, then the high school band and the Youth Governor's car.

The new Youth Governor, who got a belated start in school because of a serious illness but who made up quickly for all lost time with an outstanding scholastic performance and who is widely known as a schoolboy orator, lost the Governor's race last year by 10 votes to David Eberhard, of Louisville. Last Saturday, in a three-man race for the top post in the youth organization, he defeated Bill Schmidt, Florence, Ky., by 20 votes. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conley, of Hager Hill and Prestonsburg.

Saturday's balloting marked the end of three days of vigorous campaigning by the 500-odd youngsters in behalf of candidates of their choice. Political rallies were held. (See Story No. 2, Page 7)

RICHMOND'S

PRESTONSBURG, KY.

Dear Editor:

I was very thankful to see in your paper the announcement of the procedure demonstration of all Circuit Judges and lawyers to meet in Louisville, April 9-12.

I am writing the American Bar Association and also writing Amos Ebbel, of the executive council, and sending him a copy of all my articles I put out in favor of Judge Bert T. Combs (in 1951).

I am very thankful to God. I have approval of wise men that I am doing a good work, and I called attention to every Circuit Judge in Kentucky to the love of God and country.

The first Circuit Judge mentioned in the Bible was in answer to a woman with a troubled spirit. I have received undue injustice by leaders of church and state in Floyd county and I sent my challenge to God-fearing men to carry it around the world.

My articles met approval of victory Prayer Line Circle, International Sunday School League, U. S. Senator Earle C. Clements, Governor Lawrence W. Wetherby, State Representative E. H. Stumbo, and many, many army chaplains.

This is warning again to Floyd county authority that I am disturbed and offended and God is not pleased and I fully explained in my challenge. If my Bible is right I know I am right, and I have prayed and studied my Bible until I can rightly divide the word of truth.

I cannot help being the first-born and a woman with a platform a steadfast man needs in these perilous times.

Hoping this stirs up seven men of honest report full of Holy Ghost and wisdom to come to my rescue. Sincerely and prayerfully,

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

SAYS OFFICIALS MADE "ABOUT-FACE"

Editor, Floyd County Times:

It was reported in The Floyd County Times last week that the fiscal court had not only concurred in the appointment of a commonwealth detective for four years but had raised the salary of this office from $150 per month to $250 per month. This was done despite the fact that during the 1952 Legislature the fiscal court and other county officials closely connected with the fiscal court put out a great deal of effort to write up and have Representative Ted Stumbo and myself sponsor a bill for the fiscal court to concur in the appointment and salary of this position.

Those county officials I have mentioned assured Representative Stumbo and myself that the office of commonwealth's detective was not needed in Floyd county, since Floyd county had the Sheriff, numerous deputies and constables to enforce law violations and investigate crime in Floyd county, and they pointed out that Pike county with power to appoint a detective had never felt the need to do so. These officials assured their legislative representatives that the bill would provide a saving to the taxpayers which could be used in the construction of more roads.

These county officials were so interested in passing this bill that they came to Frankfort and actively worked for the passage of the bill. You will remember that The Floyd County Times in an editorial recommended that the commonwealth detective bill should be entirely repealed.

But, now that this bill has passed the Assembly and will become law, these officials have done a complete about-face and concurred in the appointment of a commonwealth detective and gone so far as to raise the salary of this office.

While I had and have no hard feelings of any kind or nature against our present commonwealth attorney or commonwealth detective, I co-sponsored this bill, believing it was a good bill for the reasons given me by the county officials, and I did so because I honestly felt that it would save the people of Floyd county badly needed money which could have been put to much better use. This interest in the people of Floyd county and their welfare has been the only influence which has ever affected my vote in the three terms as state Representative.

I admire and respect the courageous stand taken by J. E. "Speed" Harris who stood firmly in opposition to the action by the fiscal court.

Now that the fiscal court has been jogged into taking this action, it would appear that Representative Stumbo and myself were the only ones interested in restricting the office of commonwealth detective, when in truth we would not have introduced this bill at all except upon recommendation by these county officials.

The questions which come to my mind, as I am sure they come to the mind of the taxpayers and good citizens of Floyd county are:

1. Why did the fiscal court and the county officials connected with the court so quickly change their positions in this matter?
  2. What influence or pressure was exerted on them to bring about this concurrence in a commonwealth detective with a raise in salary?
- HENRY C. HALE.

Prestonsburg Boys Repeat As Winners Of Casting Meets

Out of casting contests held in eight of the county's high schools, David Allen, of Prestonsburg, holds first place with a score of 95 for a place in the district casting contest, winner of which will represent the Seventh conservation district in the state tournament at the Kentucky state fair.

Johnny Cook, of Prestonsburg, had no competition in the junior division, those under 14 years of age. He cast a score of 93 here. He and David Allen won the state casting championships at the state fair last fall in their respective divisions.

The district contest will be held at Allen at a date later to be announced, Bernard Baldridge, conservation officer, said this week.

Top scores posted by youths over 14 years of age in other schools follow:

Buddy Hyden, Maytown, 93; Bill Holbrook, Martin, 89; Rodney Souleyette, Wayland, 87; Don Stumbo, McDowell, 70; Grover Davidson, Drift, 70; Hurley Johnson, Wheelwright, 69; Archie B. Howell, Betsy Layne, 63. The Garrett school contest has not yet been held.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all who were so kind during the last illness and upon the death of our mother and sister, Mrs. Fanny Martin May, and would especially thank the Allen choir, the friends who sent flowers and the Revs. Isaac Stratton and M. N. Dehaven for their comforting words.—The Family.

The League Can Do Good

THE TIMES can see no objection to a Floyd County Taxpayers' League.

Workers have their unions, officials have their associations—the people who pay the bill are entitled to their own organization.

Whatever weaknesses may develop in the League are not inherent in the concept of organization of the people. These will grow out of the weaknesses of individuals.

This Taxpayers' League can make the wishes of the people known to officials, and so work with those elected to serve them.

It can as of now serve notice that no official will be permitted to receive a salary in excess of the Constitutional limit. It can, quietly and without fanfare, and without creating a general air of hostility, let officials know what is expected of them, with the assurance that no less will be acceptable.

Its work should be done without prejudice or bitterness. There should be no loose talk to cast suspicion on any official. To do so will cripple the League's effectiveness, for the ordinary voter will suspect that politics linger in the background and that somebody is seeking to discredit a possible opponent in a future election without going to the trouble of getting down to cases.

Possibly the most valuable contribution the League can make is to hold future official salaries within the Constitutional limit. This will make these jobs less attractive, certainly not so attractive that a candidate can afford to gamble twenty thousand dollars on an office which legally would pay less than $30,000 for four years' work. And that would eliminate wholesale vote-buying and political chicanery.

And that would be sump'n!

Portland cement mills in 1951 used 8,300,000 tons of bituminous coal as compared with 7,900,000 tons in 1950.

William E. Cottrell, Former Floyd Resident, Dies at Vets' Hospital

William Edward Cottrell, 61 years old, of Bronston, Ky., formerly of Langley, died at 7 p.m., Friday at Veterans hospital, Huntington, W. Va., following a long illness. He had been a patient at the hospital for the past 10 days.

MISS ISAACS IS ACQUITTED

Mother of Three Pleads Hysteria as Her Defense To Infanticidal Charge

Attorney Dan Martin of Hindman pleaded a hysterical condition for his client, Pearlle Isaacs, when she buried either alive or dead her newborn babe on the head of Right Beaver Creek, near Hall, Ky., and so succeeded in getting an acquittal verdict for her last week in the Knott circuit court.

Pearlle was sitting at the defense conference table as the jury filed back into the courtroom with the verdict. With her elbows resting on the table and her hand on each side of her face, she heard the verdict read, and without emotion she arose and strode from the courtroom.

The first and chief witness for the Commonwealth, Galvesta Johnson, stated that she together with her five children, occupied two rooms in the same house with Pearlle; that Pearlle and her three children occupied the other three rooms of the home. She stated that on the morning of July 18, 1951, Pearlle arose early and cooked breakfast for her children and went into the garden and a little later was discovered back in the house in her bed. She said she, sensing something wrong, asked Pearlle where the baby was, that Pearlle first said there wasn't any baby, then stated it was out in the orchard. Mrs. Johnson then said she went out into the garden and found the baby hidden in the weeds in a meal sack with rocks on it. On cross-examination by Atty. Martin, Mrs. Johnson admitted that Pearlle was in bed several days and appeared dazed.

When Pearlle took the witness chair in her own behalf, she admitted she was expecting the baby but not for at least another month. She admitted the illegitimacy of her other three children and that she had never been married. She told of how she had worked to support and school her three children with aid from the children's welfare department and of the love she bore for them.

At this point in her story she seemed moved and showed the first emotion of the trial. She then related how she had cooked breakfast and fed her children before going into the garden to pick beans; that while picking beans she became sick and pains ran through her back and head and that she "blacked out." It was three or four days, she said, before she remembered anything else. Her mother, father and other members of her family verified her statement as to her confinement in bed for several days and her state of insanity of three or four days following the incident.

They told of how Pearlle had been barefooted on that occasion and how they had easily traced her course from the garden back to the house by her footprints and her loss of blood. Further, they recalled that she had made a zigzag path back to the house and climbed a steep bank instead of taking a shorter and more direct path.

Ten-year-old Hiram Isaacs, who is small for his age, told the jury that he spent most of his time at the home of his sister, Pearlle; that he was there the night before and on the morning when Pearlle returned from the garden; that the first he learned of the baby was when Galvesta Johnson came from outside and entered her room and washed and changed clothes and then told him and one of her own sons to go with her and she'd show them where the baby was. He then related that she stood in the garden and pointed over into the weeds where the baby was hidden and said, "It is over in there." He said Pearlle had been barefooted that morning, but that shoe tracks led from where the baby was born over where it was hidden. These same shoe tracks were testified to by members of the defendant's family who also stated Pearlle was barefooted.

The last witness to be called by the defense was Dr. C. M. Akers. In answer to several hypothetical questions by Atty. Martin, he stated it was quite possible that the defendant may have become hysterical and lost control of herself under the circumstances, and remained in a state of mental and physical helplessness for three or four days.

Under cross examination of Commonwealth's Attorney Afton M. Smith, Dr. Akers said he would not state that an unsoundness of mind or insanity was a probable result of what occurred, but it would be more correct to say an hysterical condition would probably follow. Under further questioning by Mr. Smith he stated that he had never treated the defendant nor examined her and was basing his answers on hypothetical questions asked of him.

This case was the climax to the criminal term of the Knott circuit court which removed almost the last major case from the docket, of Circuit Judge John Chris Cornett.

TO THE PEOPLE OF FLOYD COUNTY:

In last week's issue of The Times, the Hon. J. E. Speed Harris announced that he was going to resign on July 15th because of burdens on the county treasury which he said, and I quote, "If you will check the records you will find that I have protested them all." And since he devoted three-fourths of his article in trying to run the Commonwealth's Attorney's office I have accepted his invitation to check his records, just to see if he is actually as sincere a man as he makes you believe.

Between Jan. 17, 1951, and Jan. 25, 1952, in the short space of 12 months his family drew out of the county treasury $3,642.85 which is itemized in the fiscal court's claims book to prove they received the money. Their names are signed in their own handwriting in the book in the Clerk's office for the eyes of every taxpayer to see. At the same time and in the same short space of 12 months they received out of the state treasury from money sent in from this county the sum of $1,844.25. In other words he and his family in just 12 months' time received a total of $5,487.20 from a check of his records, which is indeed a tidy sum for just one family but yet not so small but what the people can draw their own conclusions.

On Feb. 8, 1950, in office only a month, he seconded a motion to pay all telephone bills of the public officials except the Commonwealth's Attorney. And to cap it all, on April 4, 1950, in office only three months, he on page 5 of fiscal court Order Book No. 6, seconded the motion to unanimously order the salaries raised by the previous fiscal court to be approved and adopted and for each to receive $7,200.

On July 5, 1950, on page 19 he signed the order hiring a detective at a salary of $3,000 per year, and the record shows he did not protest or vote no. On Jan. 29, 1951, he made the motion to place in the County Attorney's office a person to help him at a salary of $90 per month, page 60.

On October 20, 1951, he voted for another person to be placed in the County Attorney's office to help him at the same salary to be effective 10 days before on October 13, 1951 when the whole county knows that she worked instead in the Democratic headquarters from October 15, 1951 to after the November election, on money paid in by Republican taxpayers.

On Jan. 21, 1951, page 64, claim No. 11,784, the Harris Lumber Company, owned by him, was paid $52.70 for lumber. He signed for the money in his own handwriting. On July 13, 1951, he signed in his own hand for $1,000.71 for lumber sold to the county.

K.R.S. 61.210, "No Justice of the Peace, while a member of the fiscal court, shall directly or indirectly furnish for compensation any material to the county, and any Justice of the Peace who violates this provision shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars or be imprisoned in the county jail not less than ten nor more than forty days, or both, and shall forfeit his office."

The record shows that he has voted for every official in this courthouse to have an assistant, but when the Commonwealth's Attorney exercises the right the law gives him, in naming himself an assistant to aid and assist him in the prosecution of the growing and alarming crime in this county, then he raises a howl, registering his first protest, and threatens to resign.

In ancient times a ruler gave a great banquet, and amid the revelry, a hand appeared on the wall and wrote, "The days of thy kingdom are numbered." Mr. Harris, the grand jury may ask for your resignation before July 15, 1952, for the great majority of the honest, hard-working taxpayers who have eyes to see, ears to hear and a mind to understand, know that you are saying in the wilderness, that "Your voice is Jacob's, but your hand is the hand of Esau."

In that newspaper of 43 years ago there was not a radio or television ad, for these now-commonplace things had not been invented. Victor talking machines and Columbia phonographs (it doesn't explain here the difference between a talking machine and a phonograph) had a place in the ad columns, and Harper's Brain Food, a headache remedy, took the place of the present-day aspirin, etcetera. One firm used all of two inches to advertise a model T Ford (24-horsepower, "a revelation") for $850.

The President was having his trouble with internal revenue collectors then too. Roosevelt (T. R.) was reported about to swing the Big Stick on Archie D. Sanders, collector at Rochester, John A. Merritt, collector of customs at Niagara Falls, and Hamilton Fish, assistant U. S. treasurer in the city of New York. Ah, me!

And, says another news-story, President Roosevelt was called a despot. Doesn't this sound more recent than 43 years ago?—"The prostitution of the power of his office to force the nomination and election of his favorite is repugnant to the character and genius of American institutions, and if not rebuked by American citizens at the polls, despotism is but a step away." Just in case you didn't know, two gentlemen named William Howard Taft and William Jennings Bryan were the Presidential candidates that year.

And Judge Taft's backers were busy defending his religious views. He was a Unitarian (and it was subsequently learned, incidentally, that his religious views didn't cause him to betray his country).

The airplane, a new-fangled contraption which many considered a passing fad, had its place in that old newspaper. There was a picture, for instance, of an Englishman equipped with wings which he hoped would transport him through the air with the greatest of ease. And Frederic J. Haskin (who is better known to modern-day readers for his syndicated question-and-answer column) had a series of articles running in The Herald entitled, "The Age of Flight," and in one paragraph he predicted the government would demand of its "ironclads in the clouds" planes which will reach a speed of 40 miles an hour, carry at least two persons and fuel enough for a 125-mile trip!

Back then they were arguing over the merits of pasteurized and raw milk, and some of the boys were getting pretty hot under the collar about it.

The baseball season was nearing its close as that edition of The Herald was printed. Detroit was six percentage points ahead of Cleveland in the American League, and the Chicago Cubs had a five-point edge over Pittsburgh. A sports page photo shows the Cubs' lineup of the day including such men as Kling the old catcher, Evers, Tinker, Chance (who also was manager), "Three-Fingered" Brown, Zimmerman and others. And to prove that times do change, and how, The Herald referred to theumps in one game as Messrs. O'Day and Riegler. Gentleman—hah!

The heat value of one ton of bituminous coal equals that of 4 1/2 barrels of crude petroleum.

Elizabeth Ann Jones, a babe of three months, died April 7 at the home of a relative, at Hunter. She was the daughter of Raymond and Betty Joe Jones and pneumonia was given as the cause of death.

Besides the parents, she is survived by Bobby Ray, Judy Gale and Ronald Lee, brothers and a sister, all of Morehead. Funeral rites were conducted Wednesday, April 9, at Hunter and burial was in the cemetery there under direction of Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

In Oldham county, a large number of fields of alfalfa were killed during the winter.

UNION IS SUED FOR $305,500

Two Companies, Five Individuals Allege Damages in Leslie

Hyden, Ky., April 5—Suits totaling $305,500 were filed late today against the United Mine Workers by five individuals and two coal companies who charged they suffered damages during a three-day demonstration at two non-union mines.

The individuals said they suffered personal injuries, humiliation, and abuse. The companies charged loss of business resulting from a lingering damage to their reputation.

Approximately 200 miners from unions in surrounding counties were used when the U.M.W. set up pickets late in February in an attempt to crack the resistance to organization in Clay and Leslie counties.

They are the only two counties in Southeastern Kentucky's coal fields holding out against unionization.

The U.M.W. called off the demonstration after three days, charging the Kentucky state police were used as a strike-breaking force.

Two of Leslie county's largest mines, the Citation Coal Company and the New Hyden Coal Company, were chosen by the U.M.W. for its demonstration. Organizers had been touring the two-county area for several weeks before the pickets were called in. Violence and threats of violence had marked that action, too. Organizers said they were arrested on trumped-up charges and were made targets of gunmen shooting from ambush.

Defendants in the suit filed today in Leslie circuit court were, in addition to the U.M.W., 15 men listed as officials, organizers or pickets. They include International Representative Tom Raney.

The biggest individual suit was filed by Estill Deaton, superintendent of the New Hyden Coal Company. His suit charged he was assaulted viciously "with such force and violence that the bones of the plaintiff's face and head were broken, his teeth loosened and knocked out, and his body and limbs bruised." He asked damages of $105,500.

Gus Sizemore, a 72-year-old resident of Hyden who said he "just happened by" during the demonstration, asked $30,000, alleging he was jerked from his automobile with such violence that his shoulder and arm were severely twisted and injured.

Clay M. Bishop, a Manchester attorney and part owner of the New Hyden company, said his automobile was stopped and he was prevented from going to his place of business by mob action. He charged he was subjected to a prolonged tirade in which he was "elbowed, shoved, assaulted, intimidated, and caused to suffer painful alarm." He sued for $30,000.

Church Choir To Sing Cantata Sunday Eve

He claimed the others told him to keep watch outside the store and that Lewis and Russell Gunnells broke into the building. After Calvin Lewis had shot Scalf "with a bright color revolver with black handles" this statement continues, the boy ran after the fleeing pair, overtaking them about 100 yards above the store.

Lewis was first arrested by Constable George Hall, Jr., and other officers. The other two were taken later. All were found at home, in bed.

CATS TO PLAY LOUISA TEAM

Contest Here Friday First for Grid Teams During Spring Training

A green Prestonsburg Black Cat football squad was beginning to shape up like a football team this week, only a matter of days before Friday afternoon's practise game here with the Louisa Bulldogs.

The game this week and a night game here on the following Friday will end spring practise for the Cats, Coach Doc Ferrell said.

Graduation this year will deplete the Cats' ranks, leaving only nine lettermen back for the regular campaign next fall. Except for inexperience, however, the team has prospects.

The Cats will run from the split-T this year, instead of the regular T formation employed by Ferrell during his successful coaching stay here. Lettermen remaining in the backfield are Delmar Hughes, all-state quarterback, and J. R. Dixon. Some good-looking backfield prospects are "Jeep" Alexander, Chester Shepherd, freshman halfback, Danny Chaffin, a senior, and Lowell Hughes, younger brother of Delmar Hughes, and a freshman.

Veterans back for the line are John Gordon Goble, Tow Spradlin, Roxie Grigsby, Conrad Newsome, Johnny Hill, Whitley Harris and Bobby Daniels. Likely-looking youngsters at the end positions are Marshall Woods and the Ousley brothers. Johnny Hill is a regular end from last year's Conference championship eleven.

Ahead—the Nicest Miles in the World!

Well, the day has come! You have your beautiful Golden Anniversary Cadillac—and are off on that cross-country journey you've so eagerly awaited.

You're full of hope and anticipation—but almost afraid it's too good to be true. Can any car perform and handle the way people say this one does?

You come to the end of the street that opens into the cross-town thoroughfare—and the big, easy-acting brakes settle you down to the softest, smoothest stop you ever experienced in all your life.

You touch the throttle, and the great engine starts you out like the flight of an arrow—smoothly and swiftly and quietly.

Almost before you know it, a light turns red—and, once again, that easy, velvety stop. And then the green—and again that swift, eager move into action.

Stop and go—red and green... and pretty soon it dawns upon you that you never dreamed of driving a car that handled and performed like this.

Wonderful in city traffic—no doubt about it!

And then the cars thin out about you—the traffic lights stretch farther and farther apart—and you find yourself on the open road.

Instinctively, your foot goes down on the throttle; but, quickly, it eases up again. For you find yourself really rolling in a couple of hundred feet! So you do a little experimenting until you find the spot where the accelerator belongs for sane and sensible driving—and then you settle back and relax.

You scarcely seem to be moving at all. You handle the wheel with the weight of your hand. You're comfortable—resting—at peace with the highway! The sun rises higher and the road beckons on.

"Where did we plan on stopping tonight?"

"Better take a look at the map and see what's on down the line. We're going to get a lot farther than I ever dreamed we could!"

Yes, it's true what they say about Cadillac. Better come in and see it—and drive it—while you're in the mood!

Here the mid-west farmer attacks it out door and its huge size makes the cleaning of snow from it easier. This market, though its relatively insignificant, spring being near anyway, but the steel strike would destroy that by a chain of events beginning at the mines. Here the coal, in being processed, is reduced to certain grades. There is stoker and egg for instance. The market being dull for egg, it is ground into stoker for the steel plants. But if the steel companies do not buy this, the mining of block will have to cease.

Opening of the shipping season on the Great Lakes is not likely to ease the coal situation in the Big Sandy area, according to H. S. Homan, executive secretary of the Big Sandy Coal Operators Association.

Normally, the opening of the Lake docks presages an increased production in this area for Lake shipment. But as many of the big coal-and-iron freighters are owned by steel companies, these are expected to stop sailing. These freighters, to make a profit, have to carry loads both ways. They bring iron ore eastward and fill their holds with coal for the westward trip. With no ore being brought in by the steel companies, little, if any, coal is likely to be carried.

Students' Essays Tell Views on P'Burg Needs As Clean-Up Is Planned

Prestonsburg plans a clean-up within the next few weeks, with the Chamber of Commerce heading the work, and the youngsters of Prestonsburg high school have put down on paper what needs cleaning up hereabouts.

They submitted essays, a few days ago, of 300 words, and judges this week were determining the winner of the contest. The prize will be an award of $5.

The boys and girls have been quite frank in expressing their opinion of things, and excerpts from these essays will be the basis on which the clean-up work will be planned.

CHRYSLER FirePower is so much more than HORSEPOWER

- + It's worth remembering that today's Chrysler V-8 is not a "warmed-over" engine, but basically brand new... the first truly new type engine of modern times. It does, indeed, open new horsepower potentials, but what it can mean to you goes way beyond just that...
- + FirePower is also a better-built engine throughout. It doesn't require premium fuel. It runs with less waste, less heat, less wear, less carbon deposit than other type engines can do. More of your gasoline's energy is turned into actual road power, greater reserve for passing and top speeds when needed...
- + FirePower gives your gasoline a better place to work... the first hemispherical combustion chamber in a stock-car engine. It makes possible more power from every drop of gas. You feel it the minute you open up a Chrysler, in greater accelerating power than you've ever had at your command...
- + Why not drive this revolutionary new-type engine, and feel its wonderful difference for yourself? Let your Chrysler dealer show you how much more than horsepower your money can buy in the engine Chrysler has designed from scratch to do an engine's job better, longer, and more efficiently than previous engines can hope to do!

Game, Fish Division Was Million-Dollar Operation Last Year

Frankfort, Ky., April 7 (Spl.) — Kentucky's Game and Fish Division is more than a $1,000,000 annual operation with total receipts for last fiscal year of $1,113,188 and an outlay of $1,147,954 for its expanded program, it was reported today by State Auditor T. Herbert Tinsley to Gov. Lawrence W. Wetherby.

Tinsley reported further that the Division was left with a fund balance of more than $203,000—or a decrease of approximately $34,000 under the previous year's balance.

The Auditor reported that enforcement activities were on a stepped-up basis, with 103,529 licenses being checked for the year. There were 2,396 arrests made for violation of game and fish laws and 1,918 convictions obtained.

"This is a good record, indicating loyalty to service," observed Tinsley. "The percentage of convictions—eighty per cent in 1951 and eighty-one per cent in 1950—is commendable. The number of cases lost does not necessarily reflect in the same degree upon the judgment of arresting officers. In some situations, the leniency of the court is an important factor."

In addition, Tinsley reported distribution of 65,525 quail had been made during the year, compared with 59,614 in 1950.

Construction Begins At Dewey Lake Scout Camp

Construction of the Scout camp in Dewey reservoir area was begun last week as the initial phase of the campaign for camp development brought in a total of $35,000 in cash, materials and the sponsorship of projects.

The improvement of a road constructed last fall was the first project undertaken, through the help and leadership of B. F. Reed and the Turner Elkhorn Coal Company. A water well is now being drilled, and a water system to supply a storage capacity of 10,000 gallons and water for 200 campers a day is being installed by the Southeast Coal Company and Harry Laviers, Paintsville. The cost of the water system is estimated at $3,500.

Banks, industries and individuals of Eastern Kentucky have donated a total of $12,730.40 in cash to apply on the construction of a main lodge and dining hall, which will be completed by June 15, according to terms of a contract drafted by J. T. Parker, chairman of the Construction committee for the camp.

At a meeting of the Camp Development committee held in Pikeville recently, with E. R. Price as chairman, it was agreed that sufficient cash, materials and projects are available to make possible the completion of the most essential camp facilities for use during the coming season. Many civic clubs throughout the 15 counties of the Council, including Rotary, Kiwanis, and Lions, have agreed to build and equip troop campsites which will consist of tent platforms, tents, cots, toilet facilities, and water, to accommodate an average of 16 campers and leaders for each troop. Ten troop sites are being prepared for use this summer at average cost of $800 per site. Among the civic clubs which are sponsoring sites are the following: Pikeville Rotary Club, Pikeville Kiwanis Club, Hazard Lions Club, Prestonsburg Kiwanis Club, Paintsville Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs, Beaver Valley Kiwanis Club at Wheelwright, Haysi Kiwanis Club and Jenkins Kiwanis Club.

Other projects being sponsored for the new camp, in addition to the road, main lodge and dining hall, water system and troop sites, include an equipment storage building and work shop, which will be sponsored by the employees of Inland Steel Company, Wheelwright; a health building sponsored by the doctors of the Council area, who have donated $1,140, and a chapel for religious worship.

Three Floyd Students Booked for Festival

Pikeville, Ky., April 1 (Spl.)—Three Floyd county students are members of a group from Pikeville Junior College which will attend the Kentucky Folk Festival at Lexington, April 4 and 5. Dr. A. A. Page, college president, said this week.

The festival, whose serious purpose is "to make Kentuckians aware of their own heritage in the folk arts," will feature folk songs, tales, arts and crafts and musical games. "Non-commercial and non-competitive, it is neither an exhibition nor a contest," its sponsors say.

The Floyd county students, members of the Pikeville College Folk Dance Club, are Coyet Bolen and James Duff, of Garrett, and Paul Hager, of Auxier.

Public Assistance Set For Hospital Patients

Frankfort, Ky., April 7 (Spl.) — Public assistance may be granted patients in public medical institutions under new amendments to Kentucky's public assistance laws, it was pointed out today by Aaron Paul, state director of Public Assistance.

The changes, however, do not permit persons in institutions for tuberculosis or mental illnesses to participate.

Paul pointed out that each private institution or public medical institution that accepts or has facilities available to public assistance recipients must "comply with reasonable standards established by the Department . . . to promote the health and welfare of residents." The amendment brings Kentucky's law into line with federal requirements.

In 1949 a survey disclosed that there were twenty-three private non-profit institutions and more than eighty private profit institutions caring for some 1,600 potentially eligible recipients.
