This Town-- That World

FLY AS THE WILD GOOSE FLIES

All day long Saturday, the wild geese streamed across the sky, headed south. Besides reminding me that winter is just around the nearest corner, this recalled a remark George Hereford made when we were mildly razing him about his Florida jaunts, each winter. We opined it must be nice to have a job a-body could work at during the warm months, then when cold weather approached drop the whole shebang and scuttle off for a winter's fishing in the sunshine.

"Any goof oughta have as much sense as a goose," opined George.

THE FLAG FLIES-- SOMETIMES

Once we had a large American flag, complete with pole, around these premises. Every morning, it was a sort of ritual for some of the gang to haul it forth and plant it on the sidewalk. That was during the war, when we were all so patriotic.

Now, I don't know where the flag is. Last time I saw it, it had gathered a quantity of dust. Maybe we loaned it to somebody, or the pole got broken. I dunno.

This we mention, just to remind you all that, like ourselves, the common brand of patriotism is more or less of a trumped-up business, an occasional enthusiasm which doesn't last very long and which isn't a part of our daily lives. Think back on the war years, and you'll recall other instances when we rallied round in grand style, and then after the war was over sat back on our hands.

This flag of ours belongs over a voting-place, Nov. 4. In fact, we think a flag should be flown proudly over every place where Americans perform the patriotic duty of voting. We make the eagle scream on July 4--certainly a day to remember--but the only eagle a lot of us think

2 SOLDIERS ARE VICTIMS

Gibson Killed in Korea, Whittaker Wreck Victim; 2 Are Reported Wounded

Relatives in this county learned Wednesday that two Floyd county soldiers have lost their lives, one a victim of the fighting in Korea, the other of a motor vehicle accident in this county.

Lizzie Gibson, of Prestonsburg was notified by the War Department that her son, Henry E. Gibson, was killed in action in Korea, Oct. 14.

Cpl. Carl Whittaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Meniffee Whittaker, of Abbott Creek, was killed Tuesday in a motor wreck near White Sand Proving Grounds, Las Cruces, New Mexico. He was a veteran of the war in Korea, where he was wounded. He had served one army enlistment period and after a furlough home had re-enlisted.

Young Gibson is survived by his mother and three brothers, one of whom, Donald, recently embarked for Korea.

Surviving Cpl. Whittaker, in addition to his parents, are five brothers and two sisters: Clevis and Edgill Whittaker, Marion, Ohio; Douglas Whittaker and Mrs. Thelma Ratliff, both of Indiana, Raymond Whittaker, of Ohio, and Mrs. Elma Dotson, of Clifff.

Body of Whittaker will be returned to the Carter and Callahan Funeral Home here, then taken to the home of the parents on Abbott Creek. Burial will be made there.

Two Floyd county soldiers have been wounded. These are: Cpl. Hershel Conn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conn, of Dana, and Clive Case, of Jump.

SCHOOL FIELD EVENT SLATED FOR SATURDAY

Floyd Sectional Winners To Compete for Awards; Meet, Fourth To Be Held

School officials were hoping this week for a continuation of October's bright, blue weather as they were completing arrangements for the staging at the playground here Saturday of the fourth annual Floyd county rural school field day, largest event of its kind in Kentucky.

The program for the day will begin at 8 a. m., and will continue throughout the day, it was said Wednesday by Otis Spurlock, rural school supervisor who is in charge of this year's event. He will be assisted in handling the several contests by teachers from various schools and by employees of the Board of Education.

Winners of the sectional meets held recently will come here for the field day, and these will represent practically all the 114 rural schools of the county. Added to the throng of children will be a crowd of hundreds of relatives and friends.

Events scheduled for the day are: Volleyball, horseshoes, standing broad jump, running broad jump, 50-yard dash, 75-yard dash, running relays.

The day's activities will be broad-

NEW DISTRICT IS ORGANIZED

For Scouting, Covering Three Counties; Named For Pioneer Heroine

Consolidation of Floyd, Johnson and Magoffin counties into one Scout district was effected at the district Scout meeting here, Tuesday night, and the area was named the Jenny Wiley district in honor of the pioneer woman whose escape from the Indians has made of her an almost legendary figure.

Martin county will be added to the Jenny Wiley district as Scouting's developed there, it was said.

Liberty Bell doorknob hangers to remind voters to do their duty as citizens, Nov. 4, were distributed to the various troops, and Dr. C. L. Tutsiniller, Prestonsburg, outlined the get-out-the-vote plans for Scouts.

Eighty Boy Scouts and 23 leaders took part in the fall camporee, Friday night and Saturday, at the new Dewey Lake Scout camp. Troops competed on patrol organizations, camping and Scoutcraft. Represented at the camporee were Allen troop, Wheelwright troop 302, Price troop 37, Betsy Layne troop 15, David troop 143, Prestonsburg troop 20 and 21 and the Porter Addition troop.

WOMEN MEET TO JOIN FIGHT

In Current Campaign; Club Elects Officers; Party Rally Scheduled

Floyd county Democratic women will get into the thick of the current political campaign, it was said after Mrs. E. D. Stephens, Pikeville, organized the Floyd county Women's Democratic Club here Tuesday night as a part of the state women's organization.

Officers elected at the meeting are:

Mrs. Gilva C. Spurlin, Prestonsburg, president; Mrs. Oina S. Hamilton, Prestonsburg, first vice-president; Mrs. Madeline H. Heinrich, McDowell, second vice-president; Mrs. Amanda Sutton, Langley, third vice-president; Mrs. Gladys S. Allen, Prestonsburg, secretary; Mrs. Kathleen C. Moore, Prestonsburg, treasurer; Mrs. Beatrice A. Collins, Lackey, auditor.

Action on the Democratic front quickened in the county this week as preparations were made for the appearance here Saturday at 11 a. m., of Senator Thomas R. Underwood and Congressman Carl D. Perkins in addresses at the courthouse and for a Democratic rally at the Pike County Old Country Club Saturday night under sponsorship of Seventh district Young Democratic Clubs.

Sportsmen of the section plan a meeting with Senators Underwood and Clements and Congressman Perkins at the Dewey Lake Restaurant Sunday afternoon at 1 to further the move for deepening of the lake.

GRAND MASTER

DR. ROBERT M. SIRKLE

SIRKLE HEADS KY. MASONRY

Floyd Doctor Advances To Post of Grand Master; Appointments Announced

Dr. R. M. Sirkle, of Prestonsburg, was installed today (Thursday) as grand master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky Masons, and thus became the first resident of the Big Sandy valley ever to hold that post.

Dr. Sirkle, who during the past year has been deputy grand master, succeeds J. Heber Lewis, of Burnside, Ky. The Floyd county man was advanced to the office of grand master on Wednesday.

His installation came at the closing session of the 152nd annual meeting of the Grand Lodge, which convened in Louisville. Dr. Sirkle in 1954 will be in line for the office of Potentate of the Shrine.

L. B. Jesse, of Weeksburg, was elected deputy grand master of District 33 which is composed of Floyd, Johnson, Pike and Martin counties. As head of the Grand Lodge, Dr. Sirkle becomes the titular leader of 88,769 Masons in Kentucky.

Meeting in Louisville this week also were the Grand Chapter of Kentucky, Royal Arch Masons, and the Grand Council of Kentucky, Royal and Select Masters. Robert Austin, of Paducah, was succeeded as grand master of the Council by James Trimble, of Ashland.

Second section of the Master Mason's degree was conferred Tuesday by the degree team of Zebulon Lodge No. 273 for Grand Lodge visitors in Louisville.

Opal Kidd McKinney, 37, Dies of Long Illness; Burial on Toler Creek

Opal Kidd McKinney, 37, of Amba, died at her home at 12:10 a. m., Sunday, Oct. 19, after an illness of 10 months. A stroke was given as the cause of death. She was a native of this county and had resided at Amba for 27 years.

She was a daughter of Andy and Rhoda McKinney Kidd and married Orville McKinney, who survives, in 1928.

Also surviving besides her husband are two sons, Charles and Carl McKinney, at home. Surviving daughters are: Sylvia, Juanita, Avonelle and Donna Sue, at home. A brother, Charlie Kidd, of Osborne, and a sister, Mrs. Charley McKinney, also of Osborne, survive.

Funeral rites were conducted at 2 p. m., Tuesday, Oct. 21, at the home of Charley Kidd, the Rev. Green Blankenship officiating. Burial was in the Spears cemetery on Toler Creek under direction of the Baker Funeral Home of Pikeville.

Crisp Infant Is Victim Of Monoxide Poisoning In Munith, Michigan

Sandra Gale Crisp, age 2 years, of Munith, Michigan, died Friday, October 17, the victim of carbon monoxide poisoning. She was the daughter of Billy J. and Catherine Crisp, formerly of Martin.

The cause of death was determined by an autopsy in Michigan and it was said a coal burner was the agency that brought about the tragedy.

Surviving besides the parents is one brother, Dennis Crisp at home. Funeral rites were conducted

SANDY BOWL ELEVENS WIN

Prestonsburg, Lynch Maintain Win String; To Meet, November 13

Football fans of this section are assured a hotly contested game when Prestonsburg and Lynch meet in the Big Sandy Bowl game at Paintsville, Thursday night, November 13.

Both teams continued their winning ways last week-end as Prestonsburg romped over Louisa, 40-0, and Lynch shut out Bell County, 30-0. Lynch now boasts seven wins without a defeat while Prestonsburg has only a one-point loss to mar a perfect record.

Prestonsburg features a strong passing game led by Delmar Hughes, all-state quarterback, while Lynch boasts a powerful running attack led by Randy Mills. Barring an unexpected upset to either team, both are expected to finish in the first ten in the state ratings.

A bowl game will not be a new experience to either team, since Lynch appeared in the Tobacco Bowl at Mayfield last year and Prestonsburg was a participant in the Recreation Bowl at Mt. Sterling the last two years.

Four thousand tickets have been placed on sale at Paintsville, Prestonsburg and Lynch. Mrs. Clinton Tatum, president of the Junior Women's League of Paintsville, sponsor of the game, said arrangements are being completed for the contest. She announced that trophies will be presented to both teams as well as to the outstanding individual player.

CLUB LEADERS WILL BE HERE

For District Meeting Nov 1; GFWC and State Will Be Represented

An official of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and representatives of the 16 clubs from this area will attend the 34th annual meeting of Seventh district Women's Clubs here, Nov. 1, it was announced this week.

The district meet will be held at the grade school auditorium, beginning at 9:30 a. m., with Mrs. O. J. Williams, Betsy Layne, district governor, presiding. Registration will begin at 9. Mrs. Williams said an interesting and varied program has been planned for the event.

The General Federation will be represented by Miss Chloe Gifford, Lexington, third vice-president. Kentucky Federation officers who will attend the convention are: Mrs. I. D. Thompson, Monticello, president; Mrs. Jesse K. Lewis, Lexington, second vice-president; Mrs. Howard F. Barry, Ft. Thomas, past president; Mrs. Francis Pennington, Ashland, corresponding secretary; Miss Clara Shaw, Jenkins, treasurer; Mrs. Eldred E. Adams, Louisa, and Mrs. Green Rose, Jackson, state chairwoman.

Delegations from the following clubs are expected here for the meeting: Betsy Layne, David, Lackey-Garrett, Hindman, Jenkins, Woman's Clubs, Jenkin Civic Club and Jenkin Junior Woman's Club, Maytown, Allen-Martin, Pikeville, Prestonsburg Junior Woman's Club, Wayland Junior Woman's Club, Wheelwright and Whitesburg.

VISITING HERE

Mrs. R. A. Johnson, of Owenton, is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Marvin Ransdell, and Dr. Ransdell on Broadway.

Drouth Has Floyd Tinder-Dry; Five Fires Damage Woodlands

Floyd county is suffering the effects of the worst drouth to hit this section since 1930, and that includes the crop-damaging dry spell which beset farmers during this year's growing season.

The current drouth is, in effect, a continuation of that which was so keenly felt during the summer, for only a few local rains during August relieved the situation. Now, the water supply is uncomfortably low.

In the southern part of the county, farmers are hauling water for their needs and for livestock. Even the family wash-day is being skipped and rural families are patronizing laundries.

Two schools in the county have closed because of the water shortage, and in many others water is being carried in pails long distances. County Superintendent Virgil O. Turner said. These schools are in rural sections where an adequate

Mine Shutdown Is Solid

Martin Family Overcome By Heater-Fumes in Night

Randall Stith, his wife Billy Jean and two children, age two years and six weeks, were overcome by fumes, presumably from a bathroom heater in their Martin home Tuesday night.

The family had retired and some time in the night Mr. Stith was awakened by the baby's cries. He succeeded in getting the family out of the house before all except the infant child collapsed. A niece living nearby heard the cries of the baby and called for aid.

They have been released from Our Lady of the Way hospital.

AUTO WRECK CLAIMS THREE

Bodies of 3 Returned From Ohio and Michigan To County for Burial

Three Floyd county men met death within the week in tragedies on out-of-state highways, and a fourth was injured.

The dead are: John D. Robinson, 33, his brother-in-law, Charlie Blanton, 44, both of Printer, and Frank Boyd, 48, of Munith, Mich., formerly of Arkansas Creek.

Robinson and Blanton met death Saturday in the same accident at Waynesfield, Ohio, as they were en route to their homes in this county from St. Mary's, Ohio, where they were employees of the Goodyear Rubber Company. Robinson's auto, which he had purchased the same day, left a curve and turned over three times.

Boyd was instantly killed last Thursday when his car left the road and crashed into a tree as he was driving to work on a farm near Munith. A boy named Mays, who was riding with him, also was killed.

The three men from this county who were killed died of head injuries. Robinson was thrown clear of the wreckage of his car and landed, head-first, on the paved highway. He died instantly. His brother-in-law, Blanton, succumbed six hours later in Memorial hospital, Lima, O. Reuben Robinson, brother of John

Floyd Xmas Seal Workers Hold Church Meet Here; 107 Worker Hours Pledged

Workers in the Floyd county Christmas Seal Sale held on all-day workshop meeting in the Methodist church, Oct. 16. It was under the direction of J. Irvin Nichols, executive-secretary of the Kentucky Tuberculosis Association.

A total of 107 hours of work has been pledged so far by voluntary workers in the annual drive and a new prospect list of seal patrons for 1952 have been added to the files.

Accompanying Mr. Nichols was his wife and Thomas Sommers who assisted in coaching the workers on record-keeping. Those attending were Mesdames A. H. Mandt, president, A. C. Harlowe, Russell Shaw, J. H. Keenon, J. B. Clarke, Scott Harkins, W. V. Bunting, J. D. Mayo, Gerstle Haggard, Dove Vaughn, Cecil Kendrick, Grover Lowe and James Donahue.

TUGGLE, CLARK TALK ISSUES

Before Crowd of 225 At Dinner; Speaker Asks Change of 'Whole Diaper'

"A change to Stevenson would be like changing a pin when a baby's whole diaper needed changing," declared Former Lieutenant-Governor Kenneth Tuggle, Barbourville, at a Republican dinner and party rally held Saturday night at the Martin Theatre building.

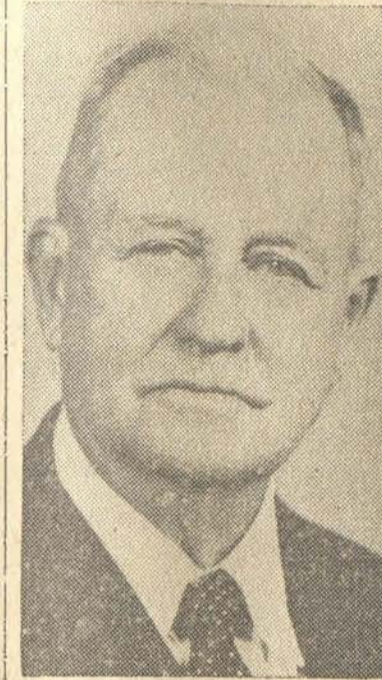

The statement was made in the course of an address criticizing Democratic policies and an Administration which Tuggle described as "the scandal-a-day administration in Washington."

Curtis Clark, Prestonsburg Mayor and Republican candidate for the Seventh district Congressional seat, preceded the former state official with an address in which he promised to work unceasingly to bring factories to Eastern Kentucky and to canalize the rivers of the district.

DEATH CLAIMS W. M. DINGUS

Former State Senator, Floyd County Attorney Oldest P'burg Resident

William Dingus, former State Senator and Floyd County Attorney, and probably Floyd county's oldest man, died at his first avenue home here shortly before noon Tuesday on his 95th birthday.

Death came after a long illness resulting from the infirmities of age. His passing ended a life which not only was long but which also was full of honest and fruitful endeavor.

Mr. Dingus was born at the Forks of Beaver Creek, near the present town of Martin, the son of James H. and Sarah Halbert Dingus. He was married February 21, 1873 to Pocahontas Layne, who preceded him in death three years ago. To this union were born six children, of whom J. S. Dingus, East Point, Mrs. Grace D. Ford, Prestonsburg, and Mrs. W. J. Newman, Holopaw, Florida, survive. Two sons and a daughter, William A., and Mrs. Nora Powers, preceded him in death.

At the age of 16 he qualified as a teacher, and he taught eight schools. After his marriage, he conducted a general store at Goodloe, moving to Prestonsburg in 1901.

Before that, however, he became interested in politics and for more than half a century he was a Republican leader in this section. In 1883 he was unanimous choice of the Republican convention for the office of State Senator from the 33rd district, and he was elected without opposition. Two years later, he was re-elected, serving through the term of Gov. W. O. Bradley.

During this time he studied law.

Dr. Gerstle M. Haggard, pastor of the Prestonsburg Methodist Church, acted as toastmaster at the $5-a-plate dinner. The crowd numbered 225 and included a number of Democrats and a sprinkling of Republicans from neighboring counties. S. C. Ferguson, Prestonsburg attorney, made an introductory talk.

Tuggle deplored the results of poor statesmanship, attributing it to the fall of the Roman empire, Turkey, Spain and in more recent years Germany and Japan. "If," he added, "America pursues her pres-

ADLAI LEADS IN POLL TAKEN BY THEATRE

Check this poll later and see how it compares as to accuracy with Dr. Gallup, Crossley, Roper, et al.

A straw vote taken at the Martin Theatre during four shows last week-end gave Governor Stevenson, the Democrat, 52.5 per cent of the 767 votes cast to 47.5 for Dwight Eisenhower, Republican, in the Presidential race.

The voting was done on printed ballots, and theatre-goers dropped their ballots into a sealed box. The balloting gave Stevenson 403 votes to 364 for Eisenhower.

One movie-goer wrote in the name of President Truman. Another elected to vote for both candidates.

VOTE FRAUD REWARDS SET

Tax League To Send Watchers to Precincts For November Election

The Floyd County Good Government Taxpayers League and one individual announced plans this week to fight corruption at the polls in the November election.

The League announced it is posting a reward of $100 to reach person convicted of violation of the Corrupt Practices Act, and Bill Petrey, Prestonsburg service station operator, posted a reward in the same amount, this to be paid for the conviction of the first person found buying or selling votes or otherwise committing election fraud.

In addition to the reward offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of election law violators, the Tax League announced it will have watchers at each voting-place, November 4. These League representatives will not bear any visible identification as such.

C. & O. Rail Inspection Tour Made Today on Big Sandy

Thirty-one track supervisors and their foremen, including those on the Big Sandy division, are vying for cash prizes as the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway's annual fall track inspection tour started at Clifton Forge, Va., Tuesday.

Aboard the special 10-car train are top officers of the company, as well as system and division maintenance-of-way officials, it was announced by C. J. Geyer of Huntington, C&O vice president in charge of construction and maintenance.

Three judges, including a system officer and two division engineers, will keep a close tally on every condition of the roadbed from Hampton Roads, Va., to Saginaw, Mich.

Backing up the judges in their visual ratings will be the mechanical brain of the C&O railway inspection car, the only car of its kind in the country. It was built in the C&O's own shops in Huntington, W. Va., and is especially designed for track inspection.

A unique feature of the railway inspection car is its delicately balanced center truck which operates sensitive recording devices within the car. A battery of pens, activated by the center truck, charts even the most minute variation in the track surface, cross level of the track or rail alignment.

In the glass-enclosed observation end of the car will be three judges and behind the judges, in tiered seats, will be track supervisors and division and system officers of the company. Bells and lights, located on a panel above the rear of the car and controlled by the car's sensitive center truck, will indicate irregularities and other surface conditions of the track.

LEWIS SPURNS WAGE BOARD'S 40-CENT CUT

Union Leaders Silent During County Visit; WSB Sets $1.50 Raise

Floyd county's coal mines were shut down, solid, this week and will probably remain so until the $1.90 pay increase allowed the miners by the new coal contract is approved by the Wage Stabilization Board or until other means of getting the men back to work are devised.

A few of the mines were down last week as the WSB delayed approval of the pay raise. But when the Board decided Saturday that a raise of $1.50 is enough the reaction was quick.

John L. Lewis, UMWA president, made it unanimous Tuesday when he spurned a request made by Harry M. Moses, president of the Bituminous Coal Operators Association, that he accept the cut, since it was a reduction ordered by the WSB, not by the operators.

Until Lewis made his statement other union leaders were silent. Sam Caddy, Lexington, president of District 30, U. M. W. A., Tom Raney, Pikeville, International Board member, and others spent Monday visiting union locals in the Beaver Creek section of this county, and they had nothing to say.

In a harshly worded letter, Lewis told Moses that:

"We have a contract. We expect your compliance with its provisions. Miners will work when you honor its provisions. If you do not like the contemptible action of the N.A.M. (National Association of Manufacturers) labor baiters and the little Harvard professor, and his quavering trio appear and ask for review and reversal. You are the sole petitioner and plaintiff."

The reference to Harvard professor was taken to mean Archibald Cox, WSB chairman and Harvard law professor.

TO DRAFT 30 FROM COUNTY

Draft Board 25, in a small room at the front of the car, a crew of computers will compare the judges' visual scores with the recorded tape from the machines, tabulate the scores on calculating machines, and post the results in the rear of the car.

After the track inspection ends on October 29, and the results have been evaluated, cash prizes will be awarded to track supervisors and track foremen who have the best maintained rights of way or whose section of roadbed shows the greatest improvement over a year ago.

Inspection from Elkhorn City to Ashland was made today (Thursday).

Next Month, Says Board; Preinduction List of 37 Is Announced This Week

Demands of the draft on Floyd countians next month will be slightly above those of the last two or three months, it was said this week by Miss Marion Salisbury, clerk of Draft Board 25.

Two calls, one on Nov. 12 and the other on Nov. 25, will call up 30 men for service. During recent months the induction calls have been about 24 per month.

A pre-induction call already has been issued for 37 men to report for examination, Oct. 27, and the same number of pre-inductees will be notified for Nov. 3. This November call will be for men previously classified 4-F, to be re-examined.

Those notified for pre-induction, Oct. 27, are: Bufford Stone, volunteer, Wheelwright; Willis Ark Howell, Harold, transferred from Port Clinton, O.; Otis Hackworth, Brain

WAYLAND

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS
 The Laekey-Garrett Woman's Club met Oct. 9, at the home of Mrs. Willard Castle, Wayland, with Miss Thelma Daniels as co-hostess. In the absence of both president and vice-president, the recording secretary, Mrs. Willard Castle, presided. Mrs. Richard Vinson, chairman of the Americanism committee, gave a detailed report on her plans for the Americanism program for the week prior to the presidential election. They include a meeting in the evening of Oct. 23 at the Wayland high school, with at least two guest-speakers on the program. An invitation to the public and special invitations to the various civic groups will be extended. Refreshments will be served. Mrs. John Feild reported that most of the money for the safety signs, which are to be placed on the highway in front of the Wayland school, has been received and the signs have been ordered. Mrs. Noah Howard and Mrs. Otto Martin presented ideas for the president's report or skit to be given at the district convention and these ideas were discussed. A meeting of the committee to prepare this skit will be held this week at the home of Mrs. Otto Martin. At the conclusion of the business meeting a dessert course was served by the hostesses to the following: Mesdames L. B. Price, Fred Wolfe, R. F. Vinson, N. D. Howard, John Feild, S. M. Martin, and Otto Martin.

Oscar Bush, Candidate

For Member of the Board of Education, Floyd County District No. 3

I want to take this opportunity to explain to the public my candidacy for member of the Floyd County Board of Education, District No. 4. I am not running in opposition to Mr. Turner, present county school superintendent, or his administration. It is my purpose to cooperate with Mr. Turner and other members of the board in improving the educational opportunities of this school district. My opposition stems from the fact that my opponent is committed to support and continue the present administration of the Betsy Layne high school which is at the center of our school district. The Betsy Layne administration has politically dominated not only the high school but the ENTIRE DISTRICT which the high school serves. The Betsy Layne administration has taken the schools away from the people and delivered them into the hands of politicians which has resulted in schools that are not a part OF the community but APART FROM the community. This offering of our children and our teachers on the altar of corrupt politics has caused the loss of many capable and progressive minded teachers who would not bow to such practices. Furthermore my candidacy is the result of the urging of interested citizens WITHIN the district, thus giving the people a voice in choosing their candidate. The candidacy of my opponent is the result of the influence of a few politicians OUTSIDE the district in league with the Betsy Layne administration, contrary to the wishes of the people of the district. I shall earnestly strive to remedy the above mentioned conditions and relieve the Betsy Layne high school of an administration that has been consistently falling below standard for several years, fostering strife, disunity, suspicion in the life of the community. Because of this state of affairs the Parent-Teacher Association has been unable to function as a community enterprise and all other community-wide activities have met with opposition from the same administration. All efforts in the past, and they have been many, have failed to bring relief and I believe this school district deserves and must have such relief. I promise as your Board member to administer the duties of my office free from political considerations and to work for the selection of teachers on the basis of character, training and merit qualifications. I promise to rescue this school district, its teachers and children from politicians and return it to its rightful owners, THE PEOPLE. Finally, as a citizen of experience and MATURITY and a former teacher in the public schools of this section of Kentucky, I solicit your support at the polls on November 4th.

Cadillac

Wonderful Way to Start the Day!

Well, there he goes, backing out into the challenge of an October morning—and there's no denying that he's off to a wonderful start.

You see, he's at the wheel of a Golden Anniversary Cadillac—and there's no greater lift to the spirits than the deep-throated whisper of a Cadillac engine.

It says inspiring things to the man at the wheel.

It tells him, first of all, that life must have gone rather nicely—to take him from where he was—to a place where he owns and enjoys a beautiful Cadillac. Pretty good precedent for a good day today!

It tells him, too—that wherever he drives in the day's activities—the Cadillac crest will pave the way for the respect of the people he encounters.

Yes—he feels pretty good as he turns into the highway, touches his toe to the sensitive throttle, and heads into the adventure of another day.

The miles go softly by... the occasional tick-tick of the electric clock reminds him that he's ahead of time for his first appointment... and he settles back—relaxed and at ease. Nice, nice going!

Many men have told us that the drive to work in a Cadillac is the finest part of the day. Their heads are clear and their minds at ease as they roll serenely along—a wonderful time to think and plan.

Of course, this is only an extra value that comes with a Cadillac: comes in addition to comfort and safety—and dependability and long life—and all the other wonderful things that make this magnificent car the Standard of the World.

Why not come in and see us—and arrange to enjoy them all yourself?

We'd be happy to see you—any time.

VOGEL-DAY FELLOWSHIP MEETS

The Methodist Men's Fellowship of the Vogel-Day Church, Harold, held their monthly meeting at the church, Friday evening, Oct. 17, at 6 o'clock. A covered dish dinner was served after which Rev. Robert L. Anderson gave a talk about the Revised Standard version of the Holy Scriptures. A business meeting was presided over by the Fellowship president, C. H. Strother. The Fellowship raised money to hire a bus for the young people who will attend the mass youth meeting at Paintsville next Saturday night. Dr. Ralph Allen, Pikeville, presented an interesting program of films showing pictures of various fishing excursions which he has taken in the United States and Canada.

Every person in Maytown is cordially invited to attend the evangelistic services which begin Sunday morning, Oct. 26, and will continue nightly at 7 o'clock throughout Nov. 2. This evangelistic program will be conducted simultaneously in all Methodist churches throughout Kentucky and Tennessee. A guest minister from Western Kentucky will be here for the meetings.

The Maytown P.-T.A. held its first meeting of the school year, Tuesday, Oct. 7. Howard Ramey acted as president in the absence of John Ison. John Crider gave the treasurer's report, reporting $449.18 in the treasury. This included $70.12 which was realized at the flower show. The members voted to give $100 to the Library and authorized Mr. Carder to pay any and all old debts.

A membership drive is to be made soon, and prizes will be awarded to the room selling most membership cards and to the room with the most parents present at the next meeting.

It is hoped that the parents will get behind the P.-T.A. this year and help to make it a success.

Those members present voted to help the band this year as their project, and money from the membership drive will go toward purchase of a saxophone for the band. This instrument is too expensive for a parent to buy alone as the approximate cost is $350. The Maytown band rates high in the county now, and it is up to the parents and teachers to hold them there.

The books given by graduates of the Maytown high school were on display in the library where the P.-T.A. met. There were 66 excellent books and $50.25 given by the graduates. Parents are urged to come out and visit the library to see the new books and observe how up-to-date the library is kept.

The Maytown Woman's Club held its monthly meeting, Oct. 16, at the home of Mrs. J. S. Tallant, at 7 p.m. The members enjoyed a buffet dinner before the business meeting. Mrs. Ed Stewart president, presided at the business meeting. She read the call of the Seventh District convention at Prestonsburg to be held Nov. 1. She also read an invitation to coffee the morning of Nov. 1 at the home of Mrs. B. F. Combs. Mrs. Stewart urged the members to have 100 percent representation. The club voted to enter the Community Betterment contest sponsored by the K.W.R.C. and Ashland Oil and Refining Company. The president gave a report on the recent flower show. The club realized $70.12 on this venture. The club concluded its library project by reporting 66 books were obtained from graduates, $59.25 was received from the graduates, and the club gave $40.75 to make $100 given to the library. The members rehearsed the skit to be given at the state convention. At the conclusion of the business meeting, Mrs. Tallant led the group in a round table discussion on "Personalities in the News." Those present were Mesdames John Ison, Raymond Hopson, Ed Stewart, David Reed, Frank Stewart, Theodore Gibson, Charles Patton, Edward Robinson Jones Tallant and James Allen.

The Maytown band mothers held their first meeting of the year in the band room Friday, Oct. 17, at 1:15 p.m. Mrs. Thomas Patrick, presided at the meeting. Mrs. James Allen told the members of the Betterment contest and it was decided to sponsor a Better Housekeeping party in the lunch room on Thursday, Oct. 23, at 7 p.m. Cards will be sent to all Band Mothers urging them to attend and bring at least three other women. Coffee and cookies will be served. Mrs. Hopson, Mrs. Patrick and Mrs. Tingue are on the Food committee. Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. James Allen, president; Mrs. Lafayette Gayheart, vice-president; Mrs. S. J. Tallant, secretary; and Mrs. Raymond Hopson, treasurer. Mrs. Hopson reported that approximately $120 is in the treasury; $45.00 being paid out recently for a drum majorette's cap. Band Mothers present were Mesdames Lay Gayheart, Lulu Martin, Osmer Turner, Charles Tingue, Howard Ramey, James Allen, Jones Tallant, Raymond Hopson, Taylor Refitt, and Amy Begley.

The many friends of the Gibson family are thankful to learn that Theodore was not seriously wounded. Mrs. Shannon Gibson received a telegram last week informing her that he had been wounded in action in Korea. Although the family hasn't received full details, they do know that he isn't hospitalized.

Mesdames Bill Ratliff, Champ Gibson and Clifford Hicks were hostesses to a household shower honoring Mrs. Miles Gibson, Jr., nee, Alta Jean Hicks, Saturday afternoon in the home economics room. Mrs. Hicks was the recipient of many useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerge Patton, Kathy and Paul, Mrs. Lucy Patton, Glenda Raye, Marcella, and son, David, were visiting in Zionsville, Indiana, last week.

Ed Sutton attended the C.I.O. convention in Louisville last week.

Those attending morning church services, Sunday, enjoyed a talk by Chalmers Prazier, of Prestonsburg. Last Sunday was Layman's Day in all the churches throughout the country.

Mrs. Sid Bailey and son, Jimmie, Augusta, Virgil and Ronda Rowe, and Lucreasie Turner spent the week-end with their sister, Mrs. Richard Wolfe, of Columbus, Ohio. They were accompanied by Mrs. Wolfe's daughter, Susan, who will visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rowe, for a while.

Jack Stone and Hillard Hicks, who are stationed with the army at Port Kox, and Ray Halbert, who is stationed at Norfolk, Va., spent the week-end at home.

Mrs. Robert L. Allen, of Wheelwright, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Stapleton. Mr. Allen and T. A. Combs are enjoying a hunting trip in New York.

Glenn Ramey and Jimmie Hopson were overnight guests of Jimmy's aunt in Prestonsburg, Saturday night.

Mrs. Henry L. May accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Chaunce Osborne to Lexington last week-end. They visited their daughters, Miss Betty May, who is a student nurse at Good Samaritan hospital, and Holly Faye Osborne, a student at the University of Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher May and daughter, Linda June, were business visitors in Lexington, Saturday.

Bill Stapleton, who has been stationed at Camp Breckenridge, is spending this week with his parents. He is enroute to Camp Belvoir, Virginia.

Joe Webb and Woodie Griffith, of Ashland, spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Webb.

Those from here attending church at the Canal Baptist church, Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. James B. Cline, Mrs. Amanda Patton, and Mrs. Julia Conley.

The Big Sandy Canal: An Issue 62 Years

(An Editorial from The Courier-Journal)

John Sherman Cooper is on familiar ground when he speaks to the people of Eastern Kentucky. A native of the mountains himself, he knows the mountain people and their needs. He speaks with old knowledge and deep concern of the threat of a declining coal market, the need for improved transportation and the opportunity for development of the area's natural resources. He is right when he points to the Big Sandy Canal proposal as an unrealized opportunity for developing and improving the economy of the mountains.

Mr. Cooper is on no less solid ground when he charges, as he did before a recent Paintsville audience, that the Democrats have neglected the development of Eastern Kentucky. Dewey Dam and Wolf Creek Dam are both located in Eastern Kentucky. Wolf Creek Dam and the resulting development of Cumberland Lake have brought untold benefit to Mr. Cooper's home county of Pulaski. Both these projects were proposed, approved and built under Democratic administrations, and largely through the efforts of Kentucky Democrats.

Mr. Cooper might also dignify his campaign by admitting that both major parties have failed to capitalize on the opportunity presented by canalization of the Big Sandy River. Proposals to deepen the Big Sandy channel, and thus enable Big Sandy coal producers to ship their coal by river barges, have been put before Congress periodically since 1890, yet successive administrations and sessions of Congress, Democratic and Republican, have failed to approve the project. As a result, Big Sandy producers must pay high freight rates in order to get their coal to market, and they often find themselves priced out of the market by nearby producers who have the advantage of Kanawha River barge transportation with its lower shipping rates.

Mr. Cooper recalls that he visited the Big Sandy area as a member of a house subcommittee investigating the canal project during the Republican 80th Congress. He should also add, however, that the 80th Congress failed to approve canalization of the Big Sandy, just as the Democratic 79th Congress had failed to approve it.

He could also point to the vigorous fight for approval of the canal made by Democratic Senator Garrett Withers the year before, or the more recent efforts of Congressman Carl Perkins. In fact, though the Congressional Record contains repeated speeches and proposals in support of the canal project by Democratic Senators Withers and Clements and Democratic Representatives Perkins, Clegg, Underwood, Bates, Gregory and Spence, it does not list any similar effort by Mr. Cooper when he was a member of the Senate.

While we regret the failure of these many efforts to achieve the much-needed canalization of the Big Sandy, it should be noted that the refusal of the recent Congress to approve the canal project was largely due to an adverse recommendation by the Army Corps of Engineers.

From 1929 to 1950 the Engineers gave the Big Sandy canal project a highly favorable recommendation, repeatedly listed it among the most economically feasible projects in the nation; that is, one offering the greatest dollar return for dollars spent. In 1950, however, the Engineers' report was unfavorable, citing the increased cost of construction and the declining market for coal as reasons for their opinion that the canal was no longer economically feasible. Representative Carl Perkins, a Democrat, demanded a rehearing and tried tirelessly to persuade the Engineers of their error. On January 24, 1951, however, the Engineers issued another report, supporting their decision of the year before and ending, at least for the immediate future, the chances of the canal project.

We believe the Engineers will find, upon careful restudy, that the canal is of tremendous value not only to the Big Sandy region, but to the entire nation, which needs the Big Sandy's coal reserve in time of critical defense demands for steel and coal production. We trust that Mr. Cooper, instead of blaming the Democrats for neglect, will join them in their future efforts to bring this needed development to Kentucky.

SOIL CONSERVATION

By L. R. JOHNSON
Soil Conservation Service

Twenty initial plans were written during the month of August. Plans were made for drainage, meadow, planting for the coming year. If each pasture seeding, wildlife and tree farmer will make plans ahead for at least one year a much better job of farming can be done.

The drainage work in the county is continuing to grow. Forrest Burdett, of Sugar Leaf neighborhood, constructed 1,200 feet of diversion channel with heavy equipment, John Allen, also of the Sugar Leaf community, constructed 700 feet of open ditch and filled in the low places where the old channel ran. After completing the drainage work the field was seeded to grass that should make fine pasture for next year.

Alex Derossett and John Wallen, of the Water Gap community, worked together in widening and straightening out approximately 300 feet of creek channel. These two farmers have a nice stand of Ky. 31 fescue and other grasses that are adapted to wet-bottom land. These bottom lands will furnish a lot of grazing and will have enough moisture to carry good growth through the dry summer months when the hillside pastures are practically bare.

Gallatin county homemakers have ordered 4,140 gladiolus bulbs for planting this year.

In Anderson county, a total of 269 tons of hay had been bought to Oct. 1 through the PMA program.

James Patterson of Harrison has produced more than 200 bushels of Kenbar barley on four acres.

The Blue Grass Homemakers Club of Kenton county bought six tricycles for use arpliances of the county.

BETSY LAYNE

The Betsy Layne Woman's Club held its regular monthly meeting Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Albert Greenwald. The program leader was Mrs. R. L. Anderson, who had as her topic, "Our Neighbors in Other Lands." This program emphasized literature, music and art in foreign lands.

Art in the Far East was discussed, with the point being made that the oriental artist strives to depict the spirit and the inner meaning of his subject. An interesting feature of this topic was the showing of a picture of an Oriental artist at work, noting his position on the floor instead of at an easel. Mrs. Anderson then discussed the fact that Brazil was represented in the National Academy of Fine Arts. Depicted was the folk music of many lands. Spanish music with its characteristic rhythm, vitality and fiery abandon; Chilean folk music with its marked contrasts; French folk music and its idealistic trend; English tunes with their theme of good cheer; Scottish folk music, illustrated by "My Heart's in the Highlands," sung by Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts; Welch music, with its simplicity and wit; the sacred hymns of Germany, illustrated by Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Hardwick; Hindu music, with its highly complex theme and Arabic influence; Hungarian folk music; Italian music, always gay; the music of Papan and its intense patriotic heredity; music of the Netherlands; Persian music, always associated with fascinating romance; typical Russian folk music, Scandinavian music, and Chinese music with its distinctive style. Mrs. Anderson concluded her program with a musical reading "My Master's Face."

Mrs. Beecher Hardwick, president, presided at the business meeting. The year books for the new club year were distributed. It was voted to enter the Community Betterment contest, sponsored by the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs in cooperation with the Ashland Oil & Refining Company. Mrs. C. H. Dickerson was named chairman, to carry out the club's plan of work connected with the contest. The call to the Seventh district annual meeting, to be held in Prestonsburg on Saturday, Nov. 1, was read. Mrs. Edward Lykins and Mrs. W. P. Howell were named delegates; Mrs. T. J. Chandler and Miss Alice Williams, alternates. Mrs. Hardwick urged all members to attend. Rules governing the district art contest were read and discussed and Mrs. Hardwick urged entries in this contest. A report on the Brownie Scout Troop was given and it was reported that Mrs. Glenn Blackburn, troop leader, had attended the recent Girl Scout leadership course at Pikeville. The regular sewing meetings have been in progress for several weeks and much progress was reported.

Mrs. Alice Williams, club representative to the fall board meeting of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, gave a brief report on the meeting, noting the address made by Mrs. R. I. G. Prout, second vice-president, General Federation of Women's Clubs. Miss Williams also reported on the plans of work outlined by the state departmental chairman. At the close of the business meeting a dessert plate was served to the following members: Mesdames Alex Davis, O. J. Williams, Glenn Blackburn, R. L. Anderson, T. J. Chandler, Lon Roberts, W. P. Howell, Beecher Hardwick, Miss Alice Williams, and the hostess, Mrs. Greenwald.

The next regular meeting will be held Thursday night, Nov. 20, at the home of Mrs. Edward Lykins, with Miss Alice Williams, program leader.

REAS NOTES

The Kentucky Association of Rural Electric Co-ops, located in Louisville, is the most outstanding and progressive state-wide organization in the United States.

During the year 1951, Kentucky led the nation in the number of new services.

Kentucky leads the nation in its member-education program.

In 1935, 3% of the farms in Kentucky were receiving central station power. In 1951, 83% of the farms in Kentucky were receiving central station power.

In 1935, the number of farms in Floyd, Johnson, Knott, Lawrence and Martin counties receiving central power was less than 1%. In 1951, through the efforts of REA, approximately 80% of the farms in this area have access to central station power.

Big Sandy RECC, along with 17 others in Kentucky, have gone together to organize THE EAST KENTUCKY COOP at Winchester to generate and transmit their own power. The tentative date set for energizing these lines is September 1, 1954.

The Extension Division of the University of Kentucky is urging farmers to use lights in their tobacco stripping rooms. The added light enables the farmer to do a better job of sorting his tobacco. Big Sandy RECC is ready and anxious to assist the farmers and County Agents in making this project a success.

Big Sandy RECC feels the farmer can have greater returns for his money if he will use electricity to brood his chickens and pigs.

SERVES AS CONSULTANT

Our Lady of the Way hospital has announced that Dr. Gene Combs, of Pikeville, is consultant radiologist at the hospital, and is not on a fulltime basis as was implied by a recent news-story published in The Times.

Daniel Boone, patron pioneer of Kentucky, is buried, along with his wife Rebecca, in Frankfort's historic cemetery.

Oldham county farmers who are feeding from trench silos report very favorably on them.

To the Older People of Floyd County: Are They Asking For a Mortgage on Your Home?

Many people have given up the old-age pensions rather than give the government a mortgage on their homes. Had it not been for the older generation Eastern Kentucky would not be developed as it is today. Certainly the younger generation would not have tried to eke out a living from our hillside farms like their fathers did.

Our fathers developed this great county. They built their homes and raised their families here. They saved for their old age. Through no fault of their own but because of today's high prices (inflation) they now find their little savings gone.

I feel we of the younger generation owe something to our elders, and I shall work to get the mortgage law repealed when you elect me to Congress.

ent course, she can expect no better."

Attacking what he termed "the Truman police action," he said the war in Korea is the third bloodiest in the history of this country and one as far from home as it is possible to get. "Poor statesmanship," he declared, "put us on an island in Berlin, surrounded by Russian territory and soldiers, lost China as an ally, demobilized the strongest nation in the world, left South Korea unarmed, and virtually invited attack by saying South Korea wasn't militarily important to us."

Pleas Mobley, Railroad Commissioner from this district, was the third speaker, and he emphasized his statement that he opposed suspension of Beaver Creek passenger train service. He entertained the crowd with the singing of familiar mountain ballads.

Pikeville Postmaster, Floyd Residents' Kin, Is Heart Seizure Victim

Milton Tackett, 59 years old, postmaster at Pikeville the last nine years, died last Thursday at his home of a heart attack.

He was stricken while attending federal court and died within half an hour. He had previously suffered a light attack.

A son of Matthew and Elvira Osborne Tackett, he was a native of the Long Fork of Shelby Creek, Pike county, and was widely related in this county. His career included work as a teacher, bookkeeper, service station owner and a term as Pike county Tax Commissioner. He resigned the county office to become postmaster.

Surviving are his widow, son and daughter, also the following brothers and sisters: Silas Tackett, of Estill, John N. Tackett, Chicago, Ill., James Tackett, Bowling Green, Ky., Mrs. Willie Tackett and Mrs. Greenbury Tackett, both of Weeks-bury.

"Set" Branham Stars In Utah's 34-7 Win

Prestonsburg's "Set" Branham was the star of a brilliant University of Utah attack which downed the previously undefeated Brigham Young University football team, 34 to 7, Oct. 11.

Branham, the scoring leader in the Skyline Conference, picked up his first of two touchdowns during the afternoon on a twisting run of 43 yards down the sidelines and another on a four-yard plunge through the BYU line. The game was played before 22,627 fans.

'If You Will Pardon Me,' Cooper Said To Ohioan, 'I'll Vote As I See Fit'

Kentuckian Had Early Brush With Taft But Now Men Are Friends

An event that occurred on the floor of the United States Senate in 1947 gives insight into the character and integrity of John Sherman Cooper, a man thousands of Kentuckians want to re-elect to the Senate this year.

Several of Cooper's early votes did not please members of his own party. Finally, Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio rose from his seat and addressed Cooper.

"Are you a Democrat or a Republican?" Taft asked. "When are you going to begin to vote with us?"

Cooper answered him in a calm voice. "If you will pardon me," the Kentuckian said, "I shall vote as I see fit; after all, I represent my people in Kentucky who have sent me here to look after their interests."

After this first brush, Cooper and Taft became friends. Although not in agreement on some issues that confronted the 80th Congress, they respected and understood each other.

He is rugged man. Voters are captivated by Cooper's friendly smile, his warm handshake, his humble self-effacement and his personal charm, yet they know that he is a rugged man, too!

For example, he was the first American delegate to the United Nations to obtain an official U.N. condemnation of the Russians for their activities in China.

As a United Nations delegate Cooper represented the United States in the discussions on the German, Yugoslav, Libyan and Chinese questions.

In 1950, he attended three meetings of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization in London and Brussels and was the adviser upon the strengthening of the defenses of the United States and the European area. This action paved the way for Dwight D. Eisenhower's SHARP command in Europe.

Champion Of Farmers
Cooper served in the United States Senate in 1947 and 1948.

JOHN SHERMAN COOPER

The Kentucky Times-Star, in formally endorsing Cooper's candidacy in the current election, pointed out that Cooper was a champion of Kentucky farmers while he was in the Senate. The newspaper said Cooper "obtained for tobacco growers—in the words of the Senate Agriculture Committee—a better break than the growers of other crops received from the federal government."

Cooper also was described by the paper as "a genuine friend of labor." The Times-Star said: "Regardless of how certain union leaders have aligned themselves in national politics, the Kentucky working man still knows John Cooper to be his friend."

The Somerset man is ranked among the top statesmen in the Republican party. He is the only Kentucky Republican in recent years to become prominent in world affairs. The late Sen. Arthur Vandenberg once said: "We need Cooper's kind of courage, wisdom and vision for the sake of the national welfare."

Served In Legislature
The earnest-speaking Cooper, member of the sixth generation of a mountain-country Republican family, was elected to the state legislature when he was 26 years old. He introduced in the Kentucky legislature an act to limit the use of injunctions in labor disputes three years before the United States Congress passed its first legislation protecting the rights of labor.

Two years after he left the legislature, Cooper was elected Pulaski county judge. He later was circuit judge and, in 1939, unsuccessfully sought his party's nomination for governor.

Cooper attended Centre College, Danville, got his bachelor's degree from Yale University and his law degree from Harvard. He played football and basketball at Centre and Yale and was captain of the Yale basketball team for two years.

Entered Army At 41
When he was 41 years old, he entered the Army as a private and served 20 months with Gen. George Patton's Third Army in Europe, being discharged in 1946 as a captain and Bronze Star medal-winner.

Immediately after the war, Cooper was placed in charge of the reorganization of the German courts in Bavaria and worked upon the repatriation of displaced persons. He received a commendation for his success in preventing the forced return to Russia of thousands of persons who did not wish to return.

Cooper was named the "Outstanding Citizen of Kentucky" in 1949 by the Kentucky Press Association and "Man of the Year" by the news staff of Radio Station WHAS. The same honors had been voted the year before to Vice President Alben W. Barkley.

Cooper served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Kentucky from 1935 to 1945. He is now a trustee of Georgetown College. He is a member of the Somerset Rotary Club, VFW and American Legion. He is a Baptist and a former member of the Baptist Educational Commission of Kentucky, and a former teacher of the Young Men's Sunday School class of the Baptist church in Somerset. (Pol. Adv.)

TO MY FRIENDS, THE VOTERS OF THE 5th EDUCATIONAL DIVISION:

In seeking your support in my race for County Board Membership I want to present you my complete views on the whole situation as I see it.

It is my sincere belief that a Board member should be above all political ties. And one who would not have to depend on the support of anyone who would expect favors for that support. The present method for Superintendents-to-be is that of getting the members HE NEEDS in the board membership and keeping them there. Everyone knows that this practice has been going on in our county for years.

I do not have a Superintendent-to-be backing my attempts to place my services at the disposal of the people whose children I want to help. Neither are there any people who would seek personal gain supporting me, because I would not accept such aid.

Shortly after I came out with my platform the County Board met and reportedly acted upon one of the objectives that I had proposed: that of paying the teachers by check. But they missed the real point, (Teachers like everyone else are entitled to their pay upon completion of their work period.) The Board meets on the following month to agree to pay teachers for the work they have done during the past month. For example: Our schools started on September 2, and the month ended on the 26th. Our present County Board met on the first Tuesday in October which fell on the 7th and agreed to pay the salaries that the Superintendent had prepared. How many of us have to wait 37 days between payday? And this says nothing about the amount paid which is too little to mention here.

I would like to ask the people of Bosco, and the parents who send their children there, one question. What made the County Board wait until this year to build the school there that you have needed for years? It seems to go back to the old political game: When a certain voting area is doubtful, in the minds of the politicians, they have always managed to put in a road or bridge in that area in order to sway the vote. You have needed a school building for a long, long time and only now are you getting it. Will the assumption now be that (you are satisfied and will cast your vote for those who have ignored you up until now?) I don't think that you, as intelligent people, will be swayed by this undermined gesture that is so obvious.

My platform is Clear and Urmistakable and will function year after year and not just upon special occasions. This I will do as long as you are willing for me to serve you and your children.

I shall offer as my platform the following proposals:

1. County Board meetings open to the public.
2. School buildings in A-1 condition.
3. Teachers' pay according to that prescribed by leading educational leaders.
4. Teachers paid upon completion of their school month and by check to the teachers themselves.
5. Immediate erection of fire escapes wherever they are needed.
6. School bus schedules that will get the children to and from school quickly and safely.
7. Cooperative planning for the creation of a centralized vocational center to which we can send our youth that usually drop out of school before they have received their diplomas. Many of our young people are unable to go on to college and need to learn some trade that will enable them to make a living after they leave school and are ready to begin their life's work.
8. Promote better health safeguards in our schools.

Furthermore, I shall seek information from you, the voters, on what you think our schools need and together we can gain all the objectives that can only be gotten through sincerity and determined effort.

YOU CAN BE SURE THAT a vote for me is a vote for the future of all the children in our county.

BIRTH ANNOUNCED

Birth of a daughter, Diana Keith, to Mr. and Mrs. Keith Alley at the Paintsville hospital on Sunday, Oct. 19, is announced. The babe is their first child. Mrs. Alley is the former Elizabeth Ann Horn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Horn, of Prestonsburg. Mr. Alley is with the armed forces in Germany.

George S. Owsley Unit 295, American Legion Auxiliary, held its regular meeting, Oct. 15, at the American Legion Post with President Florence Pack presiding. During the brief business session, it was decided to have a Halloween dance at the Garrett gym to help toward the Christmas fund.

After the business meeting, Mrs. A. H. Mandt, who was our guest for the evening, urged every one to help with the bloodmobile which is to be in Wayland, Nov. 13. Mrs. Burette Moore also gave an interesting program on "Education of War Orphans." Virginia Draughn, 10th district president and also a member of our unit, gave a report on her recent trip to Louisville to attend a conference for district presidents.

Hostesses Virginia Draughn and Nell Martin served a salad course to Mrs. Mandt and the following members: Roberta Sloan, Florence Pack, Flossie McPeck, Beulah Wanda Lawson, Ellen Hornsby, Dean Patton, Sue Francis, Patty Collins, Edna Conley, Bessie Conley, Burette Moore, Olga Trusty.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 5. Mrs. Robert Sloan has the program which is "Membership." Olga Trusty will be hostess. Shelby Draughn, owner of the Draughn Radio and TV Service, attended a television school and show in Lexington, Oct. 13, guest of a leading radio and TV parts wholesaler.

LEGION POST MEETS

George S. Owsley Post No. 295, American Legion at Garrett, has changed its regular meeting time from the 1st and 3rd Tuesday nights of each month to the 1st and 3rd Sundays at 10:30 a.m. The next regular meeting will be Sunday, Nov. 7, at 10:30 a.m., in the Legion Hall. All members are urged to attend. Members are reminded by Post Adjutant Shelby Draughn that 1953 membership dues are due Oct. 20 and payable in advance.

Maryville Pastor at Methodist Church Featuring Laymen's Meet Participation; Youth Rally To Spearhead Kickoff

The United Evangelistic Missions begin in Prestonsburg and Floyd county churches Sunday.

At the Methodist Church in Prestonsburg, the guest evangelist-minister will be the Rev. Mark M. Moore, pastor of the Methodist Church, Maryville, Tenn. Dr. Moore is a graduate of the University of Tennessee and Garrett Biblical Institute, of Chicago, and did graduate work at Northwestern University. He is a well-known pastor and author. Dr. Moore will preach his first sermon here Sunday morning.

For the Big Sandy Methodist churches, the initial meeting is a great Youth Rally at Mayo Memorial Church, Paintsville, at 7:30 Sunday night. That meeting will be but one of 22 throughout Kentucky and Tennessee, at which it is estimated that over 15,000 youths will be in attendance.

Prestonsburg and Floyd county Methodists are only a part of a program in which over 600 Methodist churches will participate, including nearly 300,000 Methodist people in Kentucky and Tennessee. An outstanding feature of the united evangelistic effort is the lay participation. Over 10,000 laymen have been enlisted to engage in what is called Personal Evangelism, in which the method of Jesus, "sending out the seventy, two by two," is inaugurated. These will make personal approaches and solicitations for Christian enlistment, a number of teams being in operation while others are at the services at the church each night of the week's meetings, Oct. 26 to Nov. 2.

The slogan of the movement is, "Give God a Chance." Leaders of the movement, according to a statement by Dr. Gerstle M. Haggard, pastor of the Methodist Church here, when the whole campaign is ended on Nov. 23, to win over 15,000 persons in commitment to Christ. This estimate is on the basis of other such efforts in recent months.

Dr. Stewart to Speak At Presbyterian Church

Dr. Claire M. Stewart, vice-president of Centre College, Danville, will be the principal speaker as the First Presbyterian Church here observes Presbyterian College Day Sunday, Oct. 26, at the morning worship service.

Dr. Stewart will have as his theme, "Facing the Future." He is an ordained minister with long years of experience in the church. He left the ministry because he believes that the youth of today needs training only Christian colleges can give, and because he felt called to help an institution meet these needs.

Presbyterian College Day is being observed in order to acquaint the congregation with the work of Presbyterian colleges in general and the two in Kentucky, Danville and Pikeville, in particular. The public is invited to attend this service.

TUNE TO WHICH HE MARCHED AS REBEL-BOY WAS FAVORITE OF FAMOUS FEUD-LEADER, HATFIELD'S DAUGHTER-IN-LAW REMEMBERS

"Devil Anse" Hatfield always wanted to hear "Dixie" played on the piano when he visited his son Tennyson and his wife, Sadie, at their Logan, W. Va., home, his daughter-in-law recalls in telling about her life with the family long after feuding with the McCoy's was over.

"He was good-natured and kind," she said. "And his wife was a mother to me. Sometimes when we went to milk together he would get mad at the cows and curse. I would stand in with him, for I wasn't afraid of him. He was extra nice to me."

"Devil Anse" must have liked his daughter-in-law that "stood in" with him, for he visited her and her husband, Sheriff Tennyson, rather often. Whenever he did there was the inevitable playing of "Dixie," for Anse was a Confederate veteran and had marched to the tune in his younger and spry days.

She recalls her father-in-law's inclination to acquire pets. He had two bears he kept as pets. One died and the other became so irascible it was necessary to kill it. He kept owls and bees and was wont to acquire strange and sundry kinds of animals and fowls as pets.

He liked to hunt wild bees. Once when he found a tree filled with honey he asked Tennyson, who was at that time Sheriff of Logan county, and Sadie to help him cut it. She remembers well that journey to the hills in 1917 to humor old Anse. It was four years before he died.

Sadie Walters married Tennyson Hatfield in 1917 at Catlettsburg. Her husband was elected Sheriff of Logan county in 1924 and served four years. Prior to that, he had served as deputy under Don Chaffins. Sadie was often in the Hatfield home, was there at their annual reunions when whole beaves were barbecued for thousands of the clan, one of them the Governor of the state. And when she is not recalling reunion "feeds" she remembers that the Hatfield table was a "standing table," where food was always bounteous.

Tennis, as his name was shortened by his intimates, and Sadie separated and she re-married Melvin Click, of this county. She and Tennis had four sons and they grew to manhood in Logan county, West Virginia and Floyd county, Kentucky. Her former husband is a factory worker in Cleveland, a long way from his native mountain haunts.

The four sons of Tennis and Sadie Hatfield are: Tennyson Samuel Hat-

Billy Grant Hatfield and mother, Sadie

field, Zach Anderson Hatfield, Henry Drewry Hatfield, who was named for former Senator and Governor Henry D. Hatfield, and Billy Grant Hatfield. All except the latter, who is employed in Detroit, are residents of Cleveland, O.

One cold night in the winter of late 1920 "Devil Anse" went to Logan to spend the night. With him was Tennis and his wife. They stayed at the Aracoma Hotel and, the rooms being too warm, they stepped down to the street for a short walk. When they came out onto the walk, Sadie noted that the old feud leader's shirt was unbuttoned. She called his attention to it and buttoned it up for him.

"Devil Anse" went home with a cold. He was sick a week, speechless in the last days. But before he lost his ability to talk he asked his daughter-in-law to cut his hair and trim his beard. "The barbers might cut my ears," he said. Before he died she was called to the dying man's bedside. But the old feudist who at one time was the most feared individual in the wilds of Logan and Pike counties was at death's door. What he had wanted to say was never known, for he could only move his lips.

When Anse died there was never such a funeral in Logan county. There were thousands, some say 5,000 people. The railway company ordered two extra coaches on the train out of Logan and these coaches, too, were jammed with humanity. "Uncle" Dyke Garrett, who had served in the ranks of the Logan Wildcats with Captain Anse, preached the funeral. He did a good job of it, too, for Anse had been converted and baptized long before.

COURT DENIES DISMISS MOVE

In Case of Thirteen Accused of Molesting Non-Union Employees

A motion to dismiss the case against 13 men charged with interfering with non-union miners was denied in federal court at Pikeville last week, and the trial was postponed till Dec. 29.

Among the defendants in the case are two former Pike county deputy sheriffs.

The federal grand jury which went into session October 13, returned 37 indictments during the day, most of them for minor liquor violations.

Among the indictments was one of five counts against John W. Moore and Algie Fonso Belcher, alleged operators of a liquor store at Elkhorn City, the one legally wet spot in Pike county.

The indictment charges them with engaging in business of a wholesale liquor dealer without exhibiting a sign as required by law, failing to keep daily records of sales of distilled spirits, and purchasing for retail, at wholesale, distilled spirits without having a basic permit.

At the opening session of court Ex-Congressman A. J. May, Prestonsburg, introduced to the court a newly licensed attorney, Hollie Conley.

At the Gallatin county fair, home-makers exhibited electrified lamps and shades they had made.

The Elkhorn and Knopps 4-H Clubs gathered about 10 bushels of yellow poplar tree seed for the state nursery, receiving $25.

MAYTOWN

BAND VISITS SCHOOLS

The Maytown band spent Monday, Oct. 13, visiting four schools: Open Fork, Johnson school, Little Paint and Spradlin Branch. The band enjoyed playing for these schools and leading them in several songs. At two of the schools, they were joined by several members of the Auxier Band. They think this is an excellent plan to show cooperation and good spirit between the schools. Mr. Elliott, Floyd county music supervisor, accompanied some songs with the Auto Harp. Mrs. Patrick, music teacher, went with the band.

The Daughters of America initiated a large group into their organization last Thursday evening. The Wheelwright Lodge helped in the initiation. After the meeting refreshments were enjoyed.

Miss Ethel Hayes, who is employed in Cincinnati, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hayes. She was accompanied by Mrs. Edith Wise and daughter, Rosemary, who live in Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonze Patton, of MacArthur, Ohio, and Mrs. Amy Green were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jim B. Click recently.

TO THE TAX LEAGUE MEMBERSHIP:

Two of your members, to-wit, Stacey Salisbury and Polk Saunders, recently called at my office in Hindman and requested that I pay back $2,400.00 which their figures showed that Floyd county paid me during the time that I served Floyd county as Commonwealth's Attorney.

This was certainly a surprise to me. Floyd county has paid the Commonwealth's Attorney for many years above and in addition to that compensation allowed to him by the Commonwealth.

Section 98 of the Constitution of Kentucky reads in part as follows:

"The compensation of the Commonwealth's Attorney shall be by salary and such percentage of fines and forfeitures as may be fixed by law, and such salary shall be uniform in so far as the same shall be paid out of the State Treasury, and not to exceed the sum of $500 per annum; but any county may make additional compensation, to be paid by said county."

Section 69.010 of Kentucky Revised Statutes, which was the statutory law during the first 4½ years that I was honored to be your Commonwealth's Attorney, reads in part as follows:

"Each Commonwealth's Attorney shall receive an annual salary of $500, to be paid out of the State Treasury, in addition thereto and in lieu of all taxed fees and perquisites he shall be allowed the sum of $4,500 per annum out of the fines and forfeitures rendered in favor of the Commonwealth in the several courts in his district to be paid monthly out of the fines and forfeitures collected and paid into the State Treasury . . . In no case shall he receive more than $5,000 out of the State Treasury for any one year, BUT THE FISCAL COURT OF ANY COUNTY MAY ALLOW THE COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY FOR THAT COUNTY ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION AS IT DEEMS PROPER, TO BE PAID AS OTHER CLAIMS AGAINST THE COUNTY ARE PAID."

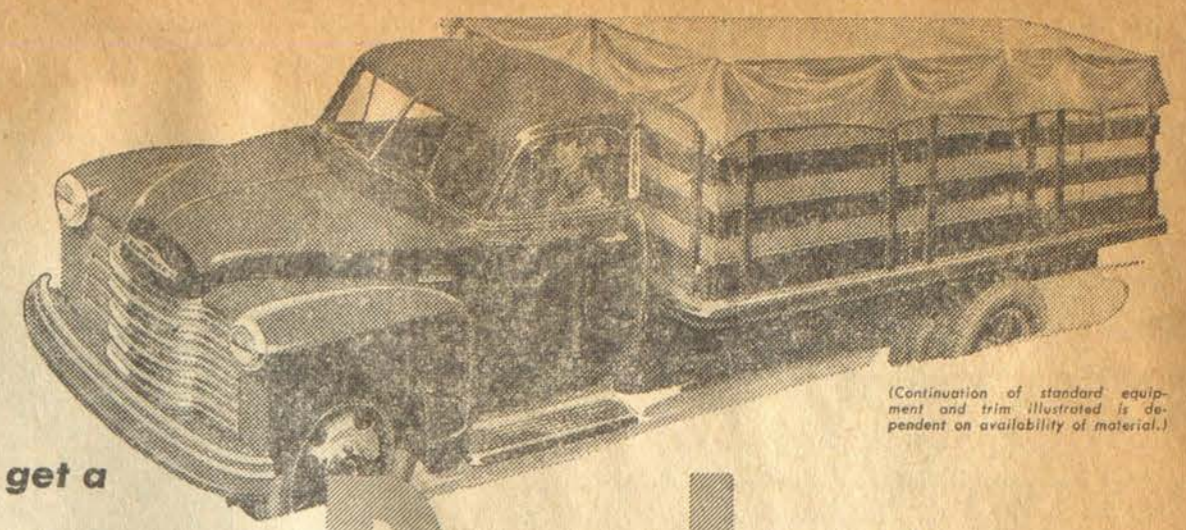

When I took office as Commonwealth's Attorney in Floyd county the Floyd fiscal court had been paying the Commonwealth's Attorney $1,500 per year under the above law.

During the first few months that I served in Floyd county as Commonwealth's Attorney the matter of paying me was discussed by me and members of the fiscal court. They were newly elected, as I was, or three of them had been re-elected. They desired to do the right thing. They felt that I should be treated as Commonwealth's Attorneys had been treated in the past. I felt the same about it. I was at your service in the investigation and prosecution of crime at all times. This I would have done at my own expense if the court had not been willing to help.

I have never desired to be unfair, or selfish, or unfaithful in any trust given to me by the people. I wanted to do justice to everyone when I was in Floyd county. You of course realize that I was required to be out certain expenses in order to adequately carry on the duties of the office. It was necessary for me to be away from home. It was necessary for me to help investigate crime, and to visit the scene of all major crimes; we had a lot of that after the war. I attended the Circuit Court and the examining courts, and at times I was called upon to attend other courts outside Floyd county in order to serve the citizens of Floyd county. I worked hard and tried to do a good job.

When I was elected County Judge, here, Knott county had been paying the Commonwealth's Attorneys $600 per year. This was cut to $300 per year. The war was on, and many people were away. There was not much crime, and not much expenses to the attorney. Some members of our Knott fiscal court wanted to cut out this payment entirely, but in view of the above cited law, and the precedent set years previous by our court, and according to my sense of fairness to the then Commonwealth's Attorney and his willingness to come into our county at any time and go into any part of the county and investigate a crime, and for the good of better law enforcement to the people, I felt that we should continue to at least pay him enough to take care of his expenses. Therefore, the fiscal court of Knott county voted to pay him $300 per year for that purpose.

During the year 1946, the first year I was Commonwealth's Attorney, and after I had served for several months, I went before the Floyd fiscal court, and suggested to them that $50.00 per month, or $600.00 per year, would reasonably take care of my expenses during the time that I was required to work for the people of Floyd county, and that if the members of the court were satisfied to allow me that amount that I would be perfectly satisfied. You see that Floyd county is nearly three times larger in population than Knott county, and ordinarily has three times as much work for the Commonwealth's Attorney to do. I didn't want any more. I wanted to be consistent with what I had stood for as Knott County Judge.

If I had asked for more, I feel sure that it would have been agreeable with your court. The members appeared to feel that I was very fair about the matter. They unanimously agreed to allow me $600 per year as above related, and did pay me from time to time by vouchers and checks out of the county treasury for four years and eleven months in the sum total of $2,950.00.

Do you honestly and sincerely believe that they did wrong, or that I did wrong?

I understand that the Floyd fiscal court is now paying $1,200.00 per year. Of course, all salaries have been raised by a Constitutional Amendment and the Legislature; it is strictly legal. The cost of living is up. He is capable and in my judgment will work hard and do a good job. He deserves it.

But the point is that the gentleman who served just before me received $1,500.00. I received, at my own request, $600.00. The gentleman for the term just after me is receiving $1,200 per year. Does this appear unfair on my part, or on the part of the members of the fiscal court who allowed that amount to me?

I am the only Commonwealth's Attorney out of the last four such that Knott county has had that said Knott county did not pay anything.

You see, my compensation wasn't raised during my term, but was actually lowered. All officers have always been allowed necessary expenses to conduct their offices. If it were otherwise, some could not have operated.

In the case of Commonwealth, et al, vs. Coleman County Attorney, 245 Ky. 673, our Court of Appeals said: "Of course a salary to him of five thousand dollars per year, and his reasonable necessary expenses can not be touched by anyone." This was a case wherein the state and a county were lawing with each other and the said County Attorney Coleman over which was entitled to the excess fees collected by the County Attorney.

In the case of Manning v. Sims, 308 Ky. 587, the Court held that the allowance of reasonable expenses incurred by public officers in the discharge of their official duties is neither a salary, compensation, nor an emolument of their office within the meaning of the (then) five thousand dollar limitation as provided by Section 246 of the Constitution.

I feel that the fiscal court of your county was both legally and morally justified in allowing and paying me as above set out. I feel that I earned every dime they paid me. I hope that others will try as hard and be as true to the faith put in them in whatever responsibility that comes to them whether they be a public official or a member of some organization formed to do good among men.

I have served as a public official for nearly 15 years. During that time I have come in contact with many public officials. I have worked with two different groups of your county officers. I have always found most officers ready to help anyone and eager to do a good job; and in what association I have had with them, I always found them honest. You know, I think honesty is the first qualification of any official, and furthermore, I don't want anyone anywhere in any position for any purpose, who is not honest, fair in his judgment, and sincere in purpose. A person in your organization, who doesn't have those qualities will do you and the people harm instead of good. I believe in upholding the right wherever you find it, as well as destroying that which is wrong.

Maybe sometimes it is just a little harder to do the job than it is to look on and tell the other fellow how it should be done. I feel sure that you can do some worthwhile work in your county. There is always room for improvement.

Good citizenship always makes for good government. I hope your work is very successful and all for the benefit of the good people of your county.

We all love and respect our great American institutions, but sometimes, some of us might be just a little too ready to jump to conclusions, and abuse our right of freedom of speech before we look into the situation and find out the truth.

Very truly yours,
JOHN CHRIS CORNETT

Something for Us All

THOSE of us who look across the hills and far away for everything good, out of the perverse nature of things and out of our own cynical natures write off the Passion Pageant which already has distinguished the town of Martin and which could make Floyd county better and more favorably known than any other part of the Commonwealth.

The tremendous possibilities of the Pageant were hinted by the great crowds which gathered on two occasions for the initial presentation of the Pageant last year. The bare statistics for that initial performance show this event drew the largest crowd, had the largest cast and more scenes than any other pageant at its outset.

Last year, the Pageant was almost entirely a one-community venture. While some of us doubted, others worked — and succeeded. This year, the community of Martin is naturally the center of interest, but surely other parts of the county will join in the continuance of a monumental work so well begun.

This work is now under way. It is a tremendous undertaking, and long months of preparation are necessary for the climactic effort of next Easter.

The value of the production is difficult to assess. Its spiritual significance, of course, comes first. The Easter story of the death, burial and resurrection of Christ is at once the inspiration and the hope of Christendom. Then there is the cultural value of the Pageant, based as it is on the Bible, the masterpiece of literary masterpieces. These values have already become so well recognized by others that Dr. H. L. Donovan, president of the University of Kentucky, has accepted an invitation to speak at the coming presentation; and the first presentation drew visitors from eight states.

Turning to the materialistic side, one could enumerate the influx of visitors which surely will result from the Pageant; the money visitors spend for food, gasoline and the like. We have long talked of tourist attractions. This is one, a great one.

The Mountain Passion Pageant Club has only recently been formed. A membership drive throughout the county will continue through November. A dollar for a membership is cheap to any public-spirited citizen who believes in promoting the good and the beautiful in Floyd county.

This is not an appeal for money for this enterprise. It, rather, is an appeal to the finer instincts of Floyd county's people.

TELLS A STORY...

Every month our employee magazine contains one or more pages of pictures of telephone employees who have been promoted to management. That speaks well of employee opportunity in the telephone business.

Management jobs at Southern Bell are filled by promotions through the ranks. Last year there were 819 promotions to supervisory positions. There were also 5,834 promotions to higher non-supervisory jobs, and 615 promotions to higher management positions.

This policy of opportunity and recognition for the individual employee means good management and better telephone service for you. Coupled with good pay, fair treatment and one of industry's best employee benefit programs, it explains why more than half of the employees we had 20 years ago are still with the Company.

Certification Complete For Ballot Printing

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 13 (Spl.)—Secretary of State Charles K. O'Connell today completed certifications to the 120 County Court Clerks of the state for printing of the general election ballots in November. The forms show five political groups represented on the ballot in this order: Democrat, Republican, Socialist Labor, Progressive and Prohibition parties. In Kentucky, names of Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates—not electors—are printed on the ballots. Electors pledged to cast the state's votes for the winning candidates meet at Frankfort early in December to cast the state's votes.

Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates whose names will appear on the Kentucky ballots are:

Democrats: Adlai E. Stevenson, Libertyville, Ill.; John J. Sparkman, Huntsville, Ala. Republicans: Dwight D. Eisenhower, New York City; Richard M. Nixon, Whittier, Calif. Socialist-Labor: Eric Hass, New York City; Stephen Emery, Jamaica, N.Y. Progressive: Vincent Hallinan, Ross, Calif.; Mrs. Charlotte Bass, New York City. Prohibition: Stuart Hamblen, Arcadia, Calif.; Dr. E. A. Holtwick, Greenville, Ill.

United States Senators:

Democrat: Thomas R. Underwood, Lexington, Republican: John Sherman Cooper, Somerset.

Representatives in Congress:

First District: Democrat: Noble J. Gregory, Republican: W. Mallam Lake, Hartford.

Interest in the coming election appears high on the part of servicemen seeking absentee ballots being received at the Secretary of State's office.

Personnel of the office now handle requests of upwards of 100 ballots a day for absentee ballots—all of which are transmitted to the County Clerk where the voter is a resident. All requests must be in the hands of County Clerks by 10 days before the November election and the ballot returned by the voter to the clerk by election day, O'Connell said.

"While the law requires absentee ballots to be handled through County Court Clerk's offices, most military personnel use the army blanks that are addressed to the Secretary of State and are then forwarded to the county clerk by this office," said Charles K. O'Connell, Secretary of State.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, The Times:

"To live democratically you must vote," say the Girl Scouts.

Do you remember the last time you voted? You had listened to all of the facts, rumors, accusations, etc., from both sides. There was a camaraderie as you stood in line with your neighbor waiting your turn. Many you hadn't seen since the election before, and you were happy that they were there too.

Then—"you're next". The doors close and you're on your own. Alone and free. Your heart gives an extra beat as you carefully study your ballot. No one could influence you further, no one could know your decision. You, just you, one single citizen, in privacy, in freedom, and with no possibility of coercion. You came out of the booth and put your ballot in the box and you felt strong and satisfied that you had had your say. At that moment you felt the strength of America. Your heart went out to those in certain lands who, if allowed a vote at all, must vote as they are told.

But you are free to vote, and to vote for the candidate of your free choice—to take part in self-government. That is the privilege of U. S. citizens. If you do not vote, you yield the right to others. The right to feel a part of America's future. There is really no feeling like it.

If this feeling has been yours in the past, it can be yours again on Nov. 2. Together we shall decide the course our country is to take and to influence other nations during the coming years. So vote—vote—that we, the Girl Scouts of America, can, truly say, "Government of the people, by the people, for the people" shall not perish from the earth. "Make Democracy live".

Girl Scouts will be available to help handicapped voters on election day. There will be definite plans published in The Times.

MIGHTIEST 4 TONS in trucking history!

GMC TRUCKS
GASOLINE—4,800 GVW to 90,000 GCW
DIESEL—19,500 GVW to 100,000 GCW
A product of General Motors

Watch the TV Football Game of the Week Every Saturday on NBC Television.

Here's the new gasoline-powered GMC Model 472-30A—the tractor that will haul more payload within the 45,000 GCW limit than any ever built, by as much as 1,200 EXTRA pounds of cargo in some cases!

Fueled and ready for the road, this revolutionary new highway tractor weighs a trim 8,000 pounds—the result of new engineering techniques, developed by GMC, which eliminate load-robbing "dead weight" from truck design.

A good example is this GMC's revolutionary new "302" valve-in-head engine—pound for pound the mightiest in truck history. It achieves a record-breaking 7.2 to 1 high-compression ratio from regular fuel, produces 145 horsepower—yet weighs as much as 500 pounds less than competitive engines!

It has all the features you want in a great truck. Standard equipment includes full air brakes and husky rear axle rated to accommodate 10,000/20 tires. Available in conventional and cab-over-engine models in a variety of wheelbases.

It's waiting—ready to haul a bigger payload than you've ever been able to put behind your tractor before!

CAMPBELL IN SIGNAL CORPS

Pfc. Marvin Campbell, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Campbell, of Prestonsburg, has joined the 24th Signal Service Battalion stationed at Fort Devens, Massachusetts.

A veteran of 19 months in Korea, Pfc. Campbell joined the army in August of 1950. Before entering the service, he attended Prestonsburg high school.

Mrs. Cook Appears On Foreign Languages Program at Morehead

Pikeville, Ky., Oct. 15 (Spl.)—Mrs. Cora T. Cook, Prestonsburg high school language teacher, took part in the second Mountain Interstate Foreign Language Conference at Morehead, Oct. 17 and 18.

Mrs. Cook addressed a seminar on the teaching of modern languages on the first afternoon of the conference. "Romance Languages Can Be Romantic," was her topic.

Five states—Kentucky, Virginia, West Virginia, Tennessee and North Carolina—were represented at the conference, according to Mrs. Beth Brady, chairman of the conference, and instructor Spanish at Pikeville Junior College.

Mrs. Mary I. Spilman, German instructor at Pikeville, also spoke at the modern-language seminar on the subject, "And Why Not for Fun?"

The "foster father" of the conference, Dr. Jonah W. D. Skiles, head of the Department of Ancient Languages of the University of Kentucky, spoke twice. He addressed the group on "The Foundations of Western Civilization," and presented a summation of the conference just before its close.

IT'S A GOOD WORLD

BY WILMAY

Our good friend, Jane Combs, writes from California that she differs with us concerning Senator Nixon. We lack her scintillating, brilliant and analytical mind, and she may be right in her conclusion. We still maintain our officials do wrong to accept money for such purposes, if only because any man alive knows strings are often attached, and if not obviously so, when requests for patronage, etc., come, what man will not lean towards those who have assisted him?

Most Washington dignitaries have done quite well by themselves, according to their own record, and who doesn't know of the gifts and contributions made some of them by various ones who receive their patronage? Such facts help explain why there is so much lying on the witness stand!

A front page of the paper, stated this week that the City Board of Education of Ashland had been notified that high school youngsters caught shoplifting would be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. That is as it should be. But what a pity when youngsters organize for minor crime to the extent that it becomes a racket. Only recently one Floyd county teacher remarked that a group from one school here once returned from a skip day thrilled with loot they had removed from the dime stores while on their trip.

And then we wonder what is wrong with youth today. And parents say, "We have to let ours go with the crowd, you know." And plenty of them are doing just that. If the crowd robs a bank at 4 in the morning we have to let ours go with them. If they jump over the fence, into a gorge below, pell-mell, like sheep, ours must keep pace with the gang, we say; otherwise, the little darlings may develop an inferiority complex, according to some experts, and that would be too bad!

It's high time parents, teachers and juvenile authorities cease being swayed by foolishness. America needs to return to the old-time mode of discipline and child-rearing in the home, in the schools and in the nation, with a little old-fashioned remedy applied now and then where it will do the most good.

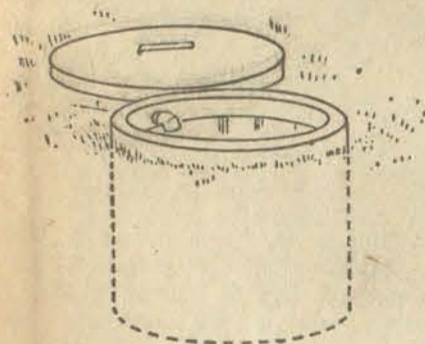

In reality, there is nothing wrong with our young folks except they are being brought up for the most part by a generation of fathers and mothers who have practically forgotten God. We have discarded former conventions and sane standards of conduct till it is a miracle that delinquency is not much higher. The only way to avoid being burned is to keep as far as possible from the fire, and instead we surround youth with temptation constantly, and the majority of parents do not even bother to set the right example of going to God's house and putting Him first.

A word concerning the Passion Pageant, which has Martin buzzing again. Board of Directors meet Sunday at 3 p.m., in the school building. Associate directors, coaches, and any one else invited to attend. Anyone wishing to take part in the 1953 performance should notify some pageant leader immediately. Most roles remain the same as those of last year. Everyone is requested to be at the hill in costume on Sunday, Nov. 2, at 2 p.m., for more pictures. Standins can serve for absentees.

Women over the county who read this column are asked to ransack their scrap bags for remnants of velvet, satin, ribbon, lace, fringe, braids and similar items that can be used by the costume makers for turbans, etc., any size or length okay. Mail them to Mrs. Wade Mahood, Martin. This kindness will be appreciated immensely. Please repeat this request to those who might respond, for it will be a big help.

Pageant postcards will be on sale before Nov. 1, with the April 19th date of the Pageant listed. Any store, high school senior group or interested persons wishing to sell them may order from Dr. Wade Mahood, at cost, $3 per 100, and sell them and retain profit. These retail for five cents each. Christmas cards will likewise be available soon, and parties selling them retain all profit. The sole purpose is not to commercialize the pageant but to advertise it, hence the pageant itself seeks no profit from the sale of these cards.

Local Committeemen Discuss Farm Plans Possible for 1953

The community committeemen of the PMA met in the local office here Saturday, Oct. 11, to discuss farm matters, chief of which was a discussion of farm practices for the next year.

Lack of interest in the preliminary farm plan discussion was evident when only 12 committeemen out of the total of 24 appeared. Left Beaver community was not represented at all. Bill Pruitt, of the Abbott Creek community, who died recently, was represented by an alternate.

Alex Spradlin, secretary of the PMA, pointed out that the farm plans for 1953 are not made in the office here but are formulated on the farm between the farmer and his local committeeman. "The ultimate decision as to the practices to be followed is a matter for the farmer to decide," he added.

Study of the Kentucky 1953 ACP Handbook Outline here will be followed by the local committeemen contacting individual farmers on the next year's plans.

GRETHEL

(Last week's correspondence)

Walter Frasure and family, of Columbus, O., Sallie Frasure, of Ashland, and Armina Hall, of Rush, visited Fred and Rutha Tackett here last week-end. They all visited the Breaks and saw the grave of the unknown soldier, and also the grave of Richard Potter who has been buried there since Dec. 29, 1882. He was born Feb. 14, 1792, the only known body buried in the Breaks.

Fred and Rutha Tackett attended church on the head of Mud Creek. A large crowd was present.

Floyd Morehead Students To Complete in January

Four Floyd county students at Morehead State College expect to finish their work for degrees in January, it was announced by Linus A. Fair, college registrar. Miss Corinne Allen and Miss Geraldine Allen, both of Eastern have applied for Bachelor of Arts degrees in Elementary Education. Charles Porter, Prestonsburg, has applied for the same degree in Physical Education. Clifton Steele, Harold, has made application for the Bachelor of Science degree in the field of Commerce.

Miss Mary Lou Parker, Prestonsburg, was recently elected Student Council treasurer at the college. The position is an important one left open by the failure of the previous treasurer to return to school. Miss Parker is a sophomore, majoring in Commerce. In the same election, Frank Taylor, of Martin, was elected president of the sophomore class.

Two Here Selected To State Committee In Clark Anniversary

Chalmer H. Frazier, superintendent of Prestonsburg schools, and Miss Charlotte Salisbury, also of Prestonsburg, have been appointed to the state-wide committee for the celebration of the George Rogers Clark Bicentennial Anniversary. They will serve as co-ordinators for the programs that will be held during the week of November 19 by the organizations in this county.

Many citizens of Kentucky joined in a movement to celebrate the 200th anniversary of Clark's birth. This movement was given state recognition when the Kentucky Legislature, in the last assembly, passed a resolution which directed Governor Wetherby to proclaim the George Rogers Clark Bicentennial Memorial Week including November 19, and to appoint a committee to plan and execute a program to memorialize the greatest of all Kentucky pioneers.

Statewide organizations, and their local affiliates in this county, such as Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions, Woman's clubs, patriotic groups, Parent-Teachers, and the schools, will join in commemoration programs during the week.

In Perry county, 35,000 pounds of fescue seed were sold to about 1,700 farmers in August and September.

MARTIN

(Last week's correspondence)

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Skeans and baby daughter, Linda Kay, of Fort Knox, have returned there after spending a week here with his mother and her mother at Hi Hat.

T/Sgt. and Mrs. Paul Billter and children were visiting his uncle, John Billter, here Sunday. Mrs. Billter is from Germany. They will live in Kentucky upon his discharge from service. After his furlough he will return to Alabama for the remainder of his army service.

S/Sgt. Billy Howard spent the week-end at home from Fort Knox where he is stationed. He had as a guest, Cpl. Howard McGlothen, of Charleston, W. Va., also stationed at Fort Knox.

The ladies of the Elliott Bible Class are progressing nicely with their sewing, making pillow cases and all sorts of linens for their coming bazaar, Nov. 22. It will be held at Jewell Hardware.

Mrs. Ida Adams, of Wharton, W. Va., was visiting friends and relatives in Martin this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Barnett were visiting his sister, Mrs. Maude Higgins, in Lexington, over the week-end. She is a patient there.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Turner, of Lexington, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Turner and other relatives here this week.

Mrs. Wm. Dingus has returned to her home here after spending a week in Columbus, O., visiting relatives. Sunday, Mrs. Dingus celebrated her birthday. Her daughter, Miss Blanche Dingus, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Furman Dingus and Mrs. R. J. Dingus gave a surprise dinner for her at her home. It was a family get-together. The following members of her family were present:

Wm. Dingus, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Reynolds, Sr., P. M. Dingus, of Hite, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dingus, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Dingus, Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Breeding, Whitesburg, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Dingus, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Furman Dingus, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Dingus, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Patrick, Columbus, O., Miss Blanche Dingus, Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacDavid, Virginia Sue MacDavid, Nancy Sue MacDavid, Merrill Salveys, Jewell Breeding, Evalde Whitaker, both of Whitesburg, Jack Dingus, Joy Deane Fraley, Florence Dingus, Billy Dingus, Charles Doug Dingus, Vivian Leigh Dingus, Phyllis Grace Dingus, Phillip Arthur Dingus, and Darrell Patrick, of Columbus, Ohio.

Jack Dingus left by car for Fort Sill, Okla., to get his brother, LeMayne Dingus, who is stationed there. Pvt. Tommy Hampton will also come home with time.

The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company gave a private dinner for Walter Gilson upon his retirement from service recently. They presented him a rod and reel. Mr. and Mrs. Gilson will leave soon for an extended trip to the West Coast, California and other points.

The Altar Society held its first meeting in Martin this year. After the business was taken care of, a Bible discussion class was held. The meeting was closed with the hostesses, Mrs. Virgil Peters and Mrs. Betty Preflatish, serving pumpkin pie and whipped cream. Members attending were the moderator, Rev. George W. Nerbonne, Mrs. Virginia Brashear, Mrs. A. H. Mandt, Mrs. Sophia Cahill, Mrs. Walter Gilson, Mrs. J. Crowley, Mrs. Mary Dermont, Mrs. Virgil Peters and Betty Preflatish.

Mrs. Ruth Fox has returned to her home in Troy, Ohio, after a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Patrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Jenkins and children, of Kopperston, W. Va., have been visiting here. Her mother, Mrs. S. J. Roberts, accompanied them home for a short visit.

John H. Osborne is seriously ill in the Beaver Valley hospital here after undergoing an appendectomy there last Wednesday. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery. Jack Tackett was in Louisville this week for a physical check-up.

Mrs. Judy Pride has returned to her home in Charleston, W. Va., after spending a few weeks here with her daughter, Mrs. Estill Newsome. Mrs. Newsome has almost completely recovered from a recent operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ratliff left Saturday for Lima, O., to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Ratliff. They were called there due to the illness of their small granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Mandt spent the week-end in Lexington. Mrs. Mandt was to attend a Crippled Children's meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Brashear were visiting in Huntington during the week. She continued on to Cincinnati over the week-end.

NEIGHBOR STATES SOCK BIG TRUCKS FOR OVERLOADING

While Kentuckians know little of enforcement of their state's excellent laws governing highway freighting, newspapers in neighboring states have recently published a plenty about efforts of highway police and other agencies to safeguard roads and the motorists who pay for them.

The North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles reports that in July, this year, its workers weighed 36,391 trucks, found 438 in violation of the state's weight load limit laws, and collected fines of $18,377.15.

The annual report of the Virginia Highway Department for the year ending June 30, 1951 says the state collected in that year $990,000 in fines against overloaded trucks. A total of 725,000 trucks were weighed. Virginia has 30 portable scales. Weighing is done by the state police. The money collected in fines goes to schools.

In West Virginia, the Division of Enforcement, State Road Commission, reported that from July, 1951, to March, 31, 1952, it caught 2,326 trucks hauling loads in excess of legal limits and collected $96,074.71 in fines and costs.

Indiana caught 760 big trucks violating the weight limits in April, and the Florida Supreme Court has held it is constitutional to seize trucks for violation of its weight and load limits.

The Ohio Highway Patrol, reporting for 1951, showed 7,703 arrests of truckers for overloading, with $321,233 collected in fines, one-half of which went to the highway maintenance fund, the remainder to the city or county in which the law was broken and the arrest made.

State highway officials throughout the nation, aware of the great damage done highways by overloaded boxcars using the roads, have moved strongly in recent months by greater efforts to enforce laws regulating the use of highways by freight trucks, widely called the worst hazard to the life of any type of highway.

"Free Enterprise" at its best

We read and hear a lot about the "free enterprise system" these days. It's the American way of life, and it's certainly the world's best.

But your neighborhood Standard Oil dealer, (who is an independent business man, operating his own business, employing his own help, paying his own taxes), has his own definition of free enterprise.

He's found from experience that the service station operator who has the enterprise to offer extra free services, is the one who winds up with the most customers. That's why, year after year more southern motorists patronize their neighborhood Standard Oil dealer.

PERRY COUNTY CONSOLIDAT'N

Of High Schools Promises New era in Progress; Buildings Cost $1,000,000

Hazard, Ky., Oct. 13 — A long-standing dream of better means of education in this mountain area has been realized with the opening of two new-equipped high school buildings.

Located at central points in Perry county, the two brick-steel structures replace seven old and inadequately equipped frame buildings. The new buildings which cost $1,000,000, offer the latest in educational facilities for the county's 1,000 high school students.

Consolidation of Perry county schools had long been discussed among educators and others interested in bettering education in the county system.

How to get the money was the big problem. But in 1949 the County School Board voted to float a $800,000 bond issue, with the remainder of the cost to be paid from county funds. The structures cost about $500,000 each.

Construction was started in the summer of 1950 and both schools were opened for the present term.

They were dedicated recently by Dr. Lyman Ginger, University of Kentucky professor and president of the Kentucky Education Association, and Wendell P. Butler, State superintendent of public instruction. Both structures were designed by Henry A. Spalding, Hazard engineer, and his staff.

One of the schools at Lotts Creek is named for M. C. Napier, who retired in July, 1951, after 35 years as Perry county school superintendent.

It has an enrollment of about 650, and consolidates high schools at Robinson, First Creek, Combs and Hardbury.

The other, at Jeff, was named for G. Dice Combs, Education Board member who was killed in a school-bus wreck in 1945. With an enrollment of 350, it replaces schools at Vicco and Viper. The two men for whom the schools were named were leaders in getting them built.

The old wooden buildings, now used for grade schools, are lighted by bare electric bulbs hanging from the ceiling and heated by coal stoves. They have no inside toilet facilities, telephones, separate library or laboratory facilities and are badly run down. As high schools their four to five rooms were overcrowded.

The new structures have modern lighting, including glass-brick windows to filter sunlight; an inter-communication system from the principal's office to each of the 20 classrooms; tile floors, and acoustically treated ceilings. The walls are in pastel colors.

Each building is equipped with a cafeteria, library, music room, study hall, and science laboratory. The home-economics rooms are furnished with refrigerators, electric and gas stoves, and electric and mechanical sewing machines.

RULING GIVEN

Franklin Circuit Judge William B. Ardery held unconstitutional a plea that employers be required to pay employees for time taken off in which to vote with the assertion that "absolute and arbitrary power over the lives and property of other men does not yet exist in Kentucky." Labor leaders had sought to have a new construction placed on a law held invalid several years ago—but the court held that while employees may be permitted time off in which to vote, an employer may not be compelled to pay for unrendered services.

Plans are under way to have 2,000 calves vaccinated by the first of the year in Ballard county.

"The Old School Path"

This article is being written for the old-timers who walked to school, before the days of modern transportation.

The old school path needs a poem in its honor, for it was, in well-worn words, "The royal road to learning" for many of us. It began at a farmhouse, ran through woods, joined other paths, and finally reached a shabby little building, usually on the most unproductive land in the whole community. Along it thronged all the school generation, armed with dinner baskets or buckets and book satchels, and often walking uncomfortably in the shoes that had had a long summer's rest. And back over it in the afternoon came the same irregular hordes, with empty baskets or buckets and with shoes and stockings in their hands, another day of learning achieved.

Now, our school path must have been typical. It went up past the stockbarn, across a field to a tobacco barn, and then into the woods. Those woods extended for miles—rather thin, unimpressive woods, for they had all grown up since the Purchase area had ceased to be a prairie. But to a boy who had never seen anything else they seemed great enough. Along the way we might see squirrels or an opossum or a rabbit. Birds would sing, too, though I knew the names of very few of them. The path crossed a wet-weather branch, and the water gurgled as it swept over drifts of leaves and sparkled over shiny pebbles, just like the ones we took to school to help us learn to count. Sometimes we delayed our eager pursuit of knowledge long enough to construct mighty dams in the brook and then had to run all the rest of the way to keep from being late. In late fall there were some pretty sour wild grapes along the path, but who ever heard of a boy's passing up something to eat because it was sour? The hickory nuts were not too good, as most of the trees were pignuts, noted for their pucker kernels. But dogwood berries grew on the old poor hillside and were ready-made ammunition for our popguns. And in some places there would be clumps of a woodland variety of goldenrod, and on the hillside the bluest blue asters I have ever seen.

Not far beyond our tobacco barn and the edge of the woods another school path joined ours, the avenue to learning for children who lived slightly up the creek from us. My first sweetheart lived on the farm just up the creek from our farm. She and I were in the tree-climbing age then; neither could ever accuse the other of being a sissy. If a tree existed, that was a plain evidence that it should be climbed. And we often accepted the challenge. Still farther along in the woods another path came in, with its full complement of children. So that when we all got there, we constituted fully a third of the whole school, most of the others coming from Fidelity itself.

Just why we quit using this old path I have never known, for it was poetic enough to justify its existence. We younger children of the family went our last years to school by walking up the road toward Fidelity and then turning into the woods by a short cut. That small stretch of path was beautiful, too, but it was not a fourth as long as the time-honored one that I first trod on my way to a lifetime of school.

But here is the oldest's lament! The schoolhouse is gone, the path obliterated. Cultivated fields occupy much of the old, old path through the woods. A modern four-year high school in the village itself has succeeded the shabby little one-room place where we said our lessons. Buses bring children daily from places 15 or 20 miles away; only the children of the village walk to school. And no one would think of trailing off across the woods to the village or the school when a car sits impatiently at the front door. It would probably cause a commotion if, some fine day, I should go back to Fidelity and start across the hills by the old path.

A demonstration flock of 25 New Hampshire chickens owned by Ezra Lentz, of Marshall county, showed a net profit of $3.12 per bird, and an average production of more than 230 eggs.
