SPEAKING OF AND FOR FLOYD COUNTY

PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY

THURSDAY

This Town— That World

Carl Corbin gave me a set of golf clubs this week. I am duly grateful, but I'd swap the clubs back to him for a few ideas for this column. . . Trouble with his ideas, they're either Republican or the kind I can't—well, let's say adapt.

And only a few weeks ago I publicly renounced golf. A few weeks earlier, I quit cigarettes, co. Now I have quit cigars for cigarettes. But I won't quit fishing for golf. Period.

Here's an item. I can give Val Strahan a credit line for hooking a key back on this typewriter after I had exhausted my mechanical ingenuity and patience and was about to call the repairman. It wasn't the "T" key, either, that had been pounded till it came loose from its moorings, way back there inside the machine.

QUESTIONS OF THE SEASON

Now comes the curator of the American Museum of Natural History making a statement in support of what some folks in this section will tell you they knew all the time. He declares the "wooly bears"—wooly worms, to you—have been wrong only one time in seven years as prophets of winter weather to come. Counting of their brown stripes is the secret, easy as reading a thermometer. . . easier than reading that barometer I got as a Christmas present, a few years back, to help me decide when to go fishing.

What do the wooly worms say? What about those other questions? Are the squirrels busier than usual hunting acorns to lay up against the winter? Are the corn husks thick and tight? How high are the hornets and wasps building their nests?

And did you see any frost this morning?

The way to get along with some people is to "No" them.

MAYO SCHOOL FUND OKEHED

$55,000 To Buy Plant For Printer-Operator Training Appropriated

The Kentucky Press Association has won its drive for a department in the Mayo Vocational School, Paintsville, to train linotype operators and printers.

This became certain Tuesday when the State Property and Building Commission allotted $55,000 for the purchase of equipment for the training shop.

The school for printers and linotype operators will be the first operated in connection with any state-owned school, and it is expected to attract students from all parts of Kentucky.

The idea of such a school had its origin in the continued shortage of printers and operators, and the Press Association at a meeting some months ago instituted the movement to interest the state in offering such training to young women and men to help meet the state and national demand for skilled workers in the printing craft.

The Paintsville school readily accepted the responsibility of adding the trade to its curriculum if funds were made available.

Water, Gas System Under New Control

COURT ACTION IN COMPLIANCE WITH REQUEST

Of Bond Companies; Allen, James, Craft Named Commissioners

Operation of five gas systems and one water system hitherto under control of the Beaver Elkhorn Water District was placed in new hands Monday by the Floyd fiscal court as the court's lease agreement with the water district was cancelled at the request of representatives of bondholders.

The utilities are now leased to the Floyd County Waterworks and Gas System, with three new commissioners in charge of the business. The commissioners are R. R. Allen, of Martin, C. C. Craft, Ruesville, and J. W. James, Allen.

The installation of a new board of commissioners was made with none of the old board offering objection to the change.

Entered in the court's record of the lease cancellation and change of commissioners was a letter from R. G. Howes, representative of Nelson, Browning & Co., bond firm, pointing out that he and John Baas, representative of Edward G. Taylor & Co., Cincinnati bond firm, had recommended that the court terminate the old lease agreement and that Allen, James and Craft be named commissioners. "These steps," the letter stated, "were taken primarily to protect the interest of the bondholders and to effect efficient management and operation of the properties."

Magistrate Grover C. Holbrook abstained from voting on the changes made. The new commissioners were sworn in Monday, and each is to execute surety bond. The unemployment situation at Wayland has added to the troubles of the gas system there, and the new commissioners were frankly skeptical of that system's earning power as a result of the closing of the Elk Horn Coal Corporation operations there. R. R. Allen said Wednesday that the Weeksburg water system may as well be written off as hopeless. It has been operated several months on a commission basis.

Facing the new commissioners is the problem of raising $5,500 by Jan. 1. A meter deposit may be necessary, it was indicated. Other business of the court session which consumed most of the day included the cancellation of the court's order of Oct. 5 which placed road employees on an hourly pay basis. The court ordered that these workers, Eugene Hopkins Shelly Woods, Jerry Stephens and Carl Layne, be paid at the rate of

BOTH PARTIES PLAN RALLIES

Clements, Perkins Here Saturday; Cooper Stated For Address on Tuesday

The closing 10 days of the political campaign will see two rallies in Prestonsburg—one at 1 p. m., Saturday at the courthouse where U. S. Senator Earle C. Clements and Congressman Carl D. Perkins will speak in behalf of Alben W. Barkley for U. S. Senator and for the re-election of Congressman Perkins; the second next Tuesday night at 7:30 at the Strand Theatre here where U. S. Senator John Sherman Cooper will make his bid for Floyd county support in his race for re-election.

A series of Democratic rallies have also been scheduled for these points in the county with local speakers discussing campaign issues: Garrett, Oct. 21, 6 p. m.; Drift, Oct. 25, 6 p. m.; Antioch, Oct. 27, 6 p. m.; McDowell, Oct. 29, 6 p. m.; Wayland, Nov. 1, 6 p. m.

The Congressional races, for all the speaking, were not engendering half the heat that the race for member of the Floyd County Board of Education in Division 1 has created. This campaign is expected to bring out a particularly heavy vote in the precincts of Dwaile, Bull Creek, Lancer and the portion of the county north of those points.

Fire Destroys Store Of Music at Bonanza; Blaze Origin, Unknown

Fire destroyed a store building at Bonanza last Saturday evening and the entire contents of a grocery store belonging to Gale Music housed in it were a total loss. The building, belonging to Robert Frazier, was a two-story frame building and the lower floor was occupied by Music while the upper floor was used as a storage room. The nearby residence of Frazier was saved but a barn of his suffered some damage.

Origin of the fire, which started at 10:30 p. m., is unknown. Music it was said, had installed a new heater the day before the fire, but it is not known whether the fire originated from it or not. A grandson of Mr. Frazier's discovered the fire. Mr. Music lives about a mile farther down Abbott Creek. The store and its contents were uninsured, it was said.

DOCKET LISTS TOTAL OF 222

For November Hearing At Criminal Session; Only 1 Murder Case

Docket of the November criminal term of the Floyd circuit court, released this week by Circuit Clerk W. W. Cooley, shows that a total of 222 cases are slated for trial during the month.

Again, as of this date, the murder docket is one of the lowest in Kentucky. The lone trial for that offense is a re-trial of Ray Click, whose previous conviction in the slaying of Otis Blankenship was reversed by the Court of Appeals. Click's trial has been set for Nov. 22. A voluntary manslaughter charge against Ray Blankenship in the car-truck-crash death of Mrs. Alonzo Napier is docketed for trial Nov. 9.

UNITED FUEL MAKING TESTS

113,000-Acre Lease In Property Explored As 10 Test Wells Sunk

The United Fuel Gas Company is drilling 10 test wells over a wide area in one of its biggest exploration programs in years, Glover Spencer, company superintendent, said here this week.

Six of the test wells are being drilled on the 113,000-acre lease United Fuel procured from the Ford Motor Company interests in Leslie and Clay counties. Three others are being sunk in Breathitt county, and the tenth is being drilled in Buchanan county, Virginia.

The wells are being drilled 10 miles apart in one operation to test a huge area. In the Leslie-Clay field where the company leased the big acreage from Fordson, United Fuel is obligated to drill 25 wells, regardless of how unproductive the lease might be.

It was indicated, however, this week that the lease will not be disappointing. The first of the test wells was drilled into the coniferous formation in Leslie county, and the resulting well gauged 312,000 cubic feet of gas.

Six Schools Pledge Enough Dogwoods To Plant Mile of Memorial Way; Need 6,000 Trees, Hill Writes Teachers

Enough trees to plant one mile of the proposed Dogwood Trail honoring the county's war-dead have been pledged to date to Lon C. Hill, chairman of the procurement committee of the Dogwood Trail Association. The number pledged was 175 and were received from teachers in the county system. These initial pledges were looked upon as the forerunner of many others. It will take 6,000 to set the proposed trail.

Mrs. Margaret Taylor Succumbs to Cancer; Burial Made at Ivel

Mrs. Margaret Taylor, 76, of Ivel, died at 7:50 p. m., last Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Hiram Ratliff. She was a victim of cancer. Mrs. Taylor was a daughter of the late Sam and Rachel Bunch Dillon and the widow of James Taylor who preceded her in death several years ago. She had no surviving children.

A surviving brother and sister are Sam Dillon, of Ivel, and Mrs. Louisa Ratliff, of King's Creek, Ky.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday at the home, at 10 a. m., the Revs. Carl Layne and Isaac Stratton officiating. Burial followed in the Davidson cemetery at Ivel under the direction of Hall Bros. Funeral Home.

TASTE BAD, WATER GOOD

Council Told Tests Show No Impurities; Supervisors Named

Prestonsburg's water supply is as pure as ever, although its taste is far from its usual par, Mayor Curtis Clark told the City Council Tuesday evening after he had discussed the water situation with Dick Davis, water system manager.

He said Mr. Davis explained that water samples, sent daily to State Board of Health laboratories, show the water is absolutely free of any unhealthful substances. The unusual taste of the water was attributed to algae forming in the river, source of the town's water supply, at low river stages such as at present.

The Council at its Tuesday night meeting set the next year's tax rate at the usual 75 cents per $100 valuation, and named Sam V. Hale, Homer Salisbury and Mrs. Nancy Caudill to the City Board of Supervisors.

The bond issue for municipal improvements, among which would be a new water plant and improvements of the sewage system, was discussed by Councilman Paul C. Combs, who with Atty. C. Kilmer Combs recently conferred with bond attorneys in Louisville. A suit attacking the bond issue is delaying further action.

Thomas A. Baldrige Dies At Little Paint Residence; Was Victim of Accident

Thomas A. Baldrige, 88, well-known Little Paint Creek man, died at 1:30 p. m., Tuesday at his home, apparently the victim of injuries suffered 10 days earlier in a fall.

A farmer, Mr. Baldrige spent his entire life in the community where he died. He was a son of William and Dicy Conley Baldrige, and was one of the county's best citizens. He was never married.

Surviving are two brothers, W. L. and Jack Baldrige, both of Little Paint, and three sisters, Mrs. Jane Stephens, of Cliff, Susan Baldrige, of Little Paint, and Mrs. Celia Hackworth, of Bonanza.

Funeral services were held at 10 this morning (Thursday) from the residence, the Revs. John D. Music and Millard O'Brien officiating. Burial in the family cemetery was under direction of the Carter & Callihan Funeral Home.

STATE ASKED TO UP FUND

Stumbo Says $25,000 From State To Assure $100,000 Health Center

An appropriation increase of $10,000 from the State Building and Planning Commission will result in the proposed Floyd County health center being a $100,000 structure and one adequate to serve Floyd, a county of 50,000 or more population.

So wrote County Judge Henry Stumbo this week to W. T. Judy, executive chairman of the state committee, asking that the state increase its appropriation from $15,000 to $25,000.

"Floyd fiscal court," Judge Stumbo wrote, "has already set aside $25,000. . . If your committee will match this, making a total of $50,000 from county and state, we understand that federal funds will be available in like amount, making a grand total of $100,000."

County and health officials here are optimistic about the chances of an increased state appropriation, but the Building and Planning Commission met Tuesday without taking any reported action.

M. V. Clark, Floyd County Health Department administrator, said both the County and City Board of Education have virtually agreed to providing a site for the health center on the present high school grounds. Payment for the site would be made in health services over a period of years.

The proposed center will house the health department offices and clinics of various sorts under department auspices. Removal of the department from the courthouse will make available space for other county agencies there.

Sue State Trooper For $5,000 Damages After Two Arrested

Alleging that they were arrested and jailed without cause and without warrant or legal process, Deputy Sheriff George Hall, Jr. and Dick Hinton, of Allen, last week filed suit in the Floyd circuit court seeking to recover $5,000 each in damages from State Trooper S. K. Armitage, the arresting officer.

The complaint, prepared by Atty. W. W. Burchett, alleges the plaintiffs "were greatly exposed to the unhealthful conditions in and about the jail" and that they were humiliated and ridiculed and their reputations damaged as

TO ADD SPACE After Films Spoiled

Plans New Structure As Business Expands; Employees Are Added

The City Council approved at a meeting Tuesday evening the construction of a new building by the Joy Coal Bit Company in South Prestonsburg.

The new building, for which concrete footers were poured today, will be 25 or 60 feet and construction is planned so as to attach any needed additional floor space in the future. The planned building will serve as additional floor space to the building already being used by Joy and will take care of the expanded sales of the tungsten-carbide coal bit manufactured by the company.

W. R. Joy, head of the firm, pointed out the rapid expansion his company is enjoying. He now employs eight persons regularly and when the additional floor space is available others will be employed. The new building will house two bit-shaping machines bought recently.

"My plant is the only one of its kind in Kentucky," Joy says. "Money for bits is money that leaves the state. When coal operators realize my company was in the business to stay, that we were not piddling around, orders began to come in," he added.

Twenty of the larger coal companies are now buying Joy bits. When the new plant building is in operation, the company will be in position to take orders from any large operation in Eastern Kentucky or Southern West Virginia. The largest coal company in Eastern Kentucky is now a buyer of Joy bits, it was disclosed.

The Joy coal machine is a process of W. R. Joy and is tungsten-carbide tipped. Patent for the process has been applied for, as have patents on jack hammer and roof bolting bits.

Discovery of Deerskins Sets Officers on Probe

Who killed the deer and where? These are questions for which answers are being sought by Conservation Officers Raymond Copley and Charles Laferty this week after a deerskin was found in a Highland avenue home here and after this discovery led to where another had been left in a "rock-house" on the hillside not far away.

The officers aren't certain yet who is guilty, but the trail is hot. The first deerskin was found when water company employees went to a house recently vacated by Mrs. Kendall Powers, now a resident of Bear Hollow, near East Point. After they had taken possession of this skin two young boys came to the home, one announcing he had come there to show his friend a deerskin. During the conversation he remarked that he knew where there was another, and so the second was found.

From that point the conservation officers called on Mrs. Powers. She said Fire Chief Vernon Blackburn had given the hides to her. Blackburn confirmed this, saying Manis Gray had given them to him. In turn, Gray said a Glenn Robinson, a gas well driller from Virgie, had given him the skins.

Gray said Robinson told him he got the skins at War, W. Va., where he had been working.

EASTERN TOT ILL OF POLIO

Floyd county's first bonafide polio sufferer this year is two-year-old Sammy Salisbury, Jr., of Eastern, the Floyd County Health Department and the Floyd Chapter National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, have been notified.

The child, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Salisbury, is a patient at Morris Memorial hospital, Milton, W. Va., where he has received respirator treatment. His case, it was said, is believed not to be serious enough to result in any permanent form of paralysis.

Another child in the Salisbury family and two in the family of Salisbury's brother have been issued the gamma globulin preventive. M. V. Clark, health administrator, said. Two cases of diphtheria were reported this week by the Martin hospitals to the health department. The sufferers, are five-year-old Mary Allie Newsome, daughter of Chester Newsome, of Craynor, and Linda Sue Hall, three-year-old daughter of Mrs. Tessie Hall.

New FORD THUNDERBIRD

A personal car of distinction
 ...with Trigger-Torque performance

No matter what you have come to expect in a car, you'll be delighted at the wealth of conveniences the Thunderbird offers. Two tops are available: a disappearing fabric top... and an easy-to-lift-on hard top. The extra-wide vinyl upholstered seat is foam-rubber-cushioned... power-operated 4 ways. Windows roll up... by power, if you like. There is a tachometer... and a clock with a sweep second hand. There is a telescoping steering wheel. The baggage compartment is ample. And you can have power steering and power brakes.

Something totally fresh is here—a bewitching new all-steel beauty that sets the styling keynote for other Ford cars to come.

But, styling gives the merest hint of what the Thunderbird has to offer. For here is a car you can drive with assurance and pleasure... for business or for recreation.

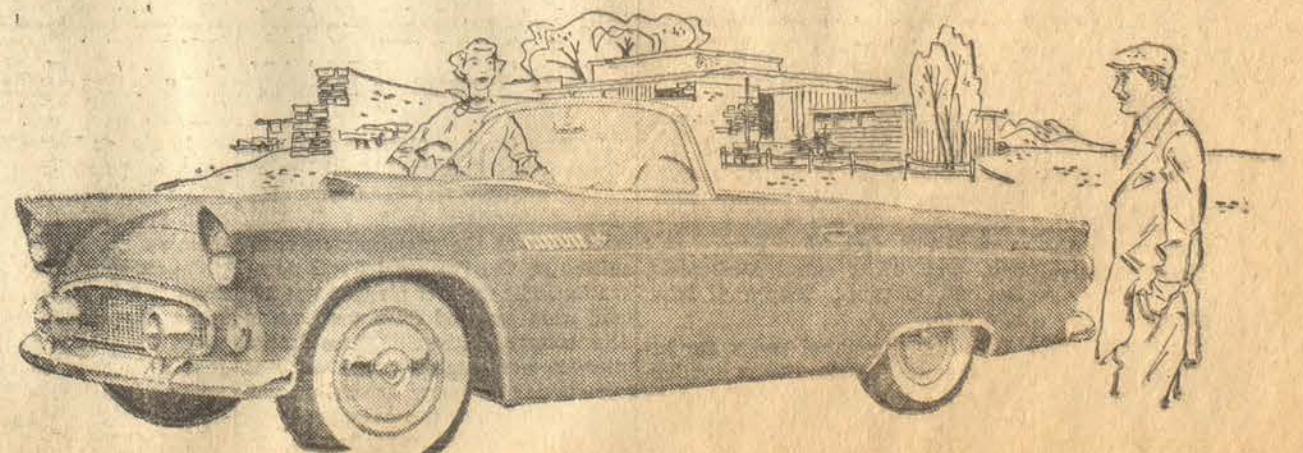

In traffic and on the open road the Thunderbird's Trigger-Torque performance is literally a revelation. Here is hair-trigger response... fleet, liquid agility... backed by a reserve of swift, sure power to meet safety's every demand.

Trigger-Torque performance stems from Ford's new Thunderbird Special V-8—a high-torque engine with 4-barrel carburetor, dual exhausts, wide-opening valves and Ford's famous low-friction design. And to enhance the performance characteristics of this brilliant V-8 engine, the Thunderbird provides special rear axle ratios to match the transmission of your choice—Conventional, Overdrive, or new Speed-Trigger Fordomatic.

Then, in the ride department, Ford's Ball-Joint Front Suspension really works wonders. It not only velvet-cushions your ride, it also allows the Thunderbird to handle with utmost ease—to corner with greatest stability. And when it comes to stopping, brakes are big and powerful.

But, more important is the way the Thunderbird is engineered, designed... and built! For it is the product of the same advanced engineering... the same manufacturing skills that have made Ford products so dependable, so value-full and so desirable to so many.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR
SAYS FEE IS ILLEGAL
 Editor, Floyd County Times:
 An illegal practice of collecting and receiving a $5.00 attorney fee for the County Attorney on fines over $25 has been carried on for sometime now in the County Courts and in the Magistrate Courts. I take this means of acquainting those defendants involved and who have paid this illegal fee of their rights in order that this illegal practice may be abruptly halted.
 The Kentucky Revised Statutes expressly prohibit such a fee and always has and I would like it clearly understood that it is not an attorney general's opinion. Any lawyer will be glad to advise what your rights are in such situations.

You are coal miners and members of the United Mine Workers of America. You go down under the earth and dig the fuel needed to turn the wheels of American industry and heat American homes. Aside from this necessary contribution to American life, you dig coal to earn your bread, clothe and educate your children, and to provide for yourselves the security needed for old age.

But you are free men, although over you while you labor is the weight of a great mountain and around are the black walls of a tunnel. You were free to choose your occupation. You went in the mines because you had a choice to go or not to go and when you emerge to walk home in the evening sun you are still free men, free to choose, to speak and act like other Americans. You are free, as you are aware, of course, to vote with full freedom of choice.

In 1948 the word went down requesting you to vote for a great Kentuckian, a statesman who was a candidate for the United States Senate. That man was John Sherman Cooper. You rallied to his standard, rallied with us, the independent Democrats of Floyd county who felt you were right in your choice. We chose to vote with you as free men who put Kentucky and ourselves first and party affiliations last. We have never regretted voting with you.

Today the struggle is renewed but under different circumstances. Conditions and times change but John Sherman Cooper has not changed. He was your friend in 1948 and is yours and Eastern Kentucky's friend now. His re-election means progress on canalization, the only salvation for a great coal section, burdened with unfair freight rates and too far from the northern markets. Canalization will bring a full work week, a full pay check. The only hope for the dream of canalization is John Sherman Cooper.

Canalization would have been a reality, factories and plants would have dotted the Big Sandy countryside if Alben W. Barkley had said the word when he was majority leader in Congress or Vice-President of the United States. He was the second most powerful man in Washington for years. That he failed you and us is one of the tragedies of history.

Cooper offers you the prime years of his life, offers you the dedicated service of a man as vigorous and untiring as yourself, tenders you the promise of long years of service in the future. You supported him in 1948 at the request of your collective organization. He merited your support then, he merits and needs it now.

Now that we are coming down to the day when our votes are to be cast, when all Kentuckians are free to voice their choice in the race for United States Senator, we call upon all men who think things through, all voters who place Kentucky first, to go to the polls, forget your party alignments, remember only Kentucky and yourselves.

Cooper will speak in Prestonsburg at The Strand Theatre Oct. 26 at 7:30 p.m. We ask you to make this test. Come and hear him speak, allow him to explain his program for Eastern Kentucky, and let him report in person what he has accomplished in laying the groundwork for canalization and a greater Big Sandy.

You will see and feel the deep sincerity of a Kentucky statesman. See a FREE MOVIE After the speech.

BERRY MEET SLATED HERE

Nov. 6 Date Is Fixed
To Determine If Order Of Plants Acceptable

The Farm Advisory Committee to the Extension Service decided last Saturday to launch the strawberry promotion program with a mass meet of farmers here on Saturday, Nov. 6.

While the date is rather early for the start of the drive to induce more Floyd farmers to grow berries next year, the committee thought it advisable to hold the rally early in order to take advantage of the offered one-half million plants of a Tennessee grower at a reduced rate.

The Tennessee grower several months ago tendered an offer of that number of plants, either Tennessee Beauty or Blakemore, at a greatly reduced price if they were ordered now. The plants would be delivered before December 1 to a cold storage plant in Lexington, free of charge. Transportation charge on plants from Lexington would, of course, be borne by Floyd farmers in the spring but the cost would be cut by this method practically one-half from what it was last year.

One result of the Farm Advisory Committee meeting was the setting up of a strawberry committee, a sub-group to the full committee.
The work of this committee will be soliciting new acreage of the berry crop from the farmers and assisting those who would need financial aid in getting started. Two members of the committee were selected at last Saturday's meeting but a third remains to be picked. It was suggested that vo-ag teachers of the county be offered an opportunity to select a member of the strawberry committee.

One requirement of those seeking aid financially to get into strawberry production will be that farmers grow beans with the strawberries the first year. This will enable the grower to have a cash crop while waiting for strawberries to come into full production. Instances of success with this method last year was pointed out.

The meeting on November 6 will be at the Municipal building and will get under way at 10 a.m. Buddy McGill, strawberry specialist of the University of Kentucky, will discuss production and marketing problems with the farmers.

With a sheaf of U. S. Savings Bonds you can welcome opportunity with a smile.

FOUR THINGS THAT WILL HELP EASTERN KENTUCKY

- 1.—Canalization of the Big Sandy River.
- 2.—Factories to give work for our people here at home.
- 3.—Restrictions on the importation of residual oil.
- 4.—A new congressman from this district that has a fresh outlook on the many problems besetting Eastern Kentucky.

A majority of the people do not believe that our present congressman is for canalization of the Big Sandy river, so that our coal could be shipped from this field by boat to market at a very low transportation cost. A move that would give the miners of this section full employment, something they haven't had in four years.

When the federal government was building defense plants all over the country, not one factory was built in Eastern Kentucky to give jobs to our men and women here at home. No public effort is being made even now by our present Congressman to get factories to locate here. Yet they are still building them elsewhere.

If the Big Sandy was now canalized we would not have to search for factories to locate here, they would be begging to move in because of our industrial water and cheap transportation. Chemical plants would be attracted to the Big Sandy Valley as they were to the Kanawha in West Virginia because of the salt brines just under the surface.
These factories would require large amounts of coal to operate the plants.

Importation of cheap residual oil, duty free, which started in 1946 under the Truman-Barkley administration from South America is displacing 40 million tons of coal that was mined here in the United States. The loss of these orders has brought widespread unemployment to our coal miners and to the people that depend upon the coal industry for their livelihood. Your present Congressman has been unable to stop this oil from being dumped in this country. Certainly a new man to represent you in Washington, that understands your problems is indicated.

Our present Congressman is tired. He must have developed a defeatist attitude, having been unable to get a single bill introduced by him in six years passed to help Eastern Kentucky. NO, NOT ONE! What is needed is a new Congressman to represent you in Washington, a man who has fresh ideas for developing the Big Sandy.

CURTIS CLARK IS THAT MAN

Clark has always been for canalization.

He is a member of the same party as President Eisenhower and Senator John Sherman Cooper, and certainly the Eisenhower administration will do more to help Curtis Clark bring factories, plants and work to Eastern Kentucky than it would our present Congressman.

Forget about politics, whether a man is a Democrat or a Republican. Vote for yourself and the future of your children. Vote for a man that will go to Washington and fight for your rights.

AND THAT WOUND MATTERS UP

We are told, on what we consider reasonably good authority, that that Freedom for Married Men movement, began in West Prestonsburg, died suddenly when the vice-president, late for a meeting, was found at home with an apron on doing the supper dishes.

SIGNS

An Iowa church, located next to a tennis court, put up a "No Trespassing" sign, which was removed with a good deal of alacrity when the tennis players put up a sign of their own which read, "Forgive Us Our Trespasses".

SERMON TOPIC

Incidentally, the Presbyterian Church here is located directly across the street from a shoe shop and its sign about getting soles repaired, new heels for your shoes, etcetera. The pastor, the Rev. Orville Pearson, is dallying with the idea of announcing this sermon topic: "Have Your Souls Healed".

J. L. (Lennie) Oppenheimer has left Prestonsburg to live in Dayton, O., after about 40 years' residence here. I always regret the departure of a good citizen, but I have a special reason for lamenting Lennie's. He is one of the few tall men I have ever known who didn't make me feel more insignificant than usual while talking with him.

BABE IS VICTIM

Wanda Carol, three-day-old daughter of Carl and Ann Allen Clay, died Friday at the Prestonsburg General hospital. Funeral was held Saturday by the Rev. Joe Combs, and burial was made in the Sallie Stephens cemetery on the Middle Creek road, the Carter & Callihan Funeral Home directing.

Estimated 750 Attend National Kids Day As Beaver Kiwanians Hosts to Children; Athletic Competition Features Program

Approximately 750 children representing school grades 1 through 8 from the Clear Creek, Drift, Ligon, Melvin, McDowell, Palmer-Dunbar, Weeksburg and Wheelwright schools were guests last week at the delayed observance by the Beaver Valley Kiwanis Club of National Kids Day.

The original observance, scheduled for outdoors, was cancelled by inclement weather.

The youngsters enjoyed athletic competition and a lavish treat of soft drinks and food served by the Kiwanians. The Kids Day celebration was staged by a committee headed by Ralph Banks and William Lockin.

The Wheelwright school won first place in both divisions of the field meet. Its pupils edged Melvin for the group I trophy for grades 1 through 6, and also won out over Weeksburg, receiving the Group II trophy offered for grades 7 and 8. Clear Creek placed third in Group I, and Drift held that spot in the Group II class.

Winners of events follow, with the Group I winners followed in each instance by Group II winners.

Floyd Groups To Attend District PTA Conference At Paintsville, Friday

The fall conference of the Ninth district, Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers, will be held in Paintsville Friday, with all Johnson county units as hosts and the district president, Mrs. W. B. Nalle, heading the meeting. Speakers for the all-day meeting are Mrs. W. J. Lattin, of Owensboro, president of the Kentucky Congress, and James L. Patton, director, vocational education, State Department of Education, Frankfort. Mrs. Lattin is making her first visit to the district since her election to the presidency at the annual convention of the Kentucky Congress last May.

Both sessions of the all-day meeting will be held in the Paintsville high school auditorium with the opening session scheduled for 10:00 a.m., and registration at 9:30 a.m.

J. B. Wells, Jr., mayor, of Paintsville, will extend greetings to the delegates, and Lawrence R. Stewart, superintendent of the Ashland public schools, will give the response. The pledge to the flag will be led by Girl Scout Judith Safriet, Cub Scouts Tommy Tatum and Bill Slone and Boy Scouts J. R. Griffith and Ronnie Walks. J. C. Eldeman, superintendent of the Paintsville schools, will give the invocation.

Special music will be presented by Mrs. Louise Cooper, Paintsville, with Mrs. Robert Conley as accompanist. Mrs. Minnie C. Winder, district music chairman, is in charge of all music for the conference and will lead group singing.

Plans of work of district chairmen will be presented and several recommendations from the district board of managers presented.

Luncheon will be served at the Howard hotel with Mrs. Clyde Blevins, and Mrs. Clyde Langley in charge of reservations at the hotel.

Miss Blanche Dingus, of Prestonsburg, is district second vice-president, and will have a part in the program.

Units of the district from Floyd county receiving the conference call are Allen, David, Prestonsburg and Wheelwright. All others interested are invited to attend.

TWO-HOUR TV SHOW TO MARK "LIGHT'S DIAMOND JUBILEE"

Did you know you owed a vote of thanks to Thomas Edison's wife? It was from her sewing basket that Edison took a piece of cotton thread which he used in the first practical light bulb.

Seventy-five years ago Edison was experimenting with all kinds of material, searching for one to use as filament in the light bulb he was trying to perfect. The thread from Mrs. Edison's sewing basket was carbonized and enclosed in a glass bulb with a near-perfect vacuum. With the lamp in a crude socket and his key assistants gathered round, Edison turned on the current. The light shed by that carbonized thread was several times brighter than anything yet tried.

With his co-workers, he set up what was later called the "death watch". For 40 hours the bulb glowed.

Then they began to increase voltage to see how much the lamp would take. They deliberately burned it out, but Edison had achieved the supposedly impossible. He had created the first practical incandescent lamp.

Actually, he did even more. He introduced the electrical era—helping to give this country the greatest productivity and the highest standard of living the world has ever known.

That event's significance is being celebrated throughout the nation by Light's Diamond Jubilee. Climax of the jubilee is the two-hour TV show on October 24. The Sunday night show between 9 and 11 will be broadcast over 354 interconnected stations, largest network in TV history.

President Eisenhower, Helen Hayes, Joseph Cotton, Thomas Mitchell, Guy Madison and many other national figures will appear on the biggest spectacular in this season of spectacles. David O. Selznick, famous for such pictures as "Gone With the Wind", is directing the show sponsored by more than 300 major electrical manufacturing and utility companies.

Felby county homemakers made 288 planters of copper or brass, 38 waste baskets and 37 pairs of bookends in their summer craft project.

Boyd county farmers bought several carloads of ewe lambs to launch county-wide sheep production.

To James Greene:

In an ad appearing in last week's Floyd county Times it appeared that you were trying to create dissension between the County children and the town children. The students of P.H.S. resent this statement because it is not true. We are treated equal and given the same opportunities. It is up to us to meet the high standards set for us. Shame on you, Mr. Greene—the school children should be put above selfish gain. This is a sorry way to try to win votes—trying to pit children against children. We learn from our history books that Hitler used these methods.

You are barking up the wrong tree. There is no favoritism shown. We are one student body—the teachers and the head of the school are interested in all of us, and do everything they can to help us.

The record proves how wrong you are:

- Doris Boyd, last year's Valedictorian, a county student.
- Ed. Ousley, Vice-President, Senior Class, a county student.
- Bert Dixon, Captain Football team, a county student.
- Shirley Hager, Secretary Senior Class, a county student.
- Johnny Everly, President, Key Club, a county student.

We, the county students at P. H. S. resent your insinuation, and we think you owe our teachers an apology.

Floyd-co. Bond Sales Up For Month of September

The sale of Series E and H Savings Bonds in Floyd county during the month of September, totaled $26,456. The county's annual goal is $439,200 and the cumulative sales for the first nine months total $347,962 or 79.2 per cent.

Throughout Kentucky in September, sales of Series E and H Bonds amounted to $4,857,220. Cumulative sales for the State for the year total $43,123,745, or 74.5% of the annual goal of $57,800,000.

Despite the fact that the monthly figures for the State represent a 16.8% increase over September a year ago, we are behind our nine-months objective by $226,000. Only 29 counties have exceeded their goals to date; however, many others are close. In order for the State to achieve its goal, it is necessary that all counties concentrate their efforts on increased sales of both Series E and H Bonds throughout the remainder of the year.

The Basic Idea Behind the All-New 1955 PONTIAC

On Display October 29 and 30

ABOUT 30 years ago General Motors Corporation presented to America a new car called Pontiac. This new car was the direct result of a very specific idea.

The idea was this: to create a car which took its style, its engineering principles and its features from the very best and most expensive in America—and to build these into a car priced just above the very lowest!

Naturally, such an idea produced a wonderful and highly popular car—a car which millions of satisfied owners have driven with outstanding pride and pleasure.

Now, nearly three decades later, an entirely new Pontiac has been created for 1955—a car completely new from the ground up!

One thing, however, about the 1955 Pontiac remains unchanged—its basic idea—to offer the American public the very finest car that can possibly be built to sell at a price within easy reach of any new-car buyer.

When you see the new Pontiac on Friday or Saturday—Oct. 29 or 30—you will be immediately impressed by its remarkable new styling. No other car in the world looks like this new Pontiac!

When you drive it you will be astonished at its performance. For the 1955 Pontiac introduces the powerful new Strato-Streak V-8, an all-new engine that has already been proved in more than 3 million test miles!

When you price the new Pontiac you will come face to face with the basic Pontiac idea—you will be agreeably surprised that so much car, so much sparkling newness, so much luxury, so much downright goodness can be priced so near the very lowest.

We cordially invite you to come in on Friday or Saturday and see for yourself what a superb all-new General Motors masterpiece has been created to carry the wonderful name "Pontiac" for 1955.

Child desertion continues to occupy a large part of the docket, with 42 such cases slated for hearing during the term. Seven are charged with the offense of carrying a concealed deadly weapon, and this number marks an increase over such cases docketed at the last criminal term. Guns figured in indictments against 19 others, including shooting and wounding, shooting into an auto and shooting on the public highway.

Twenty-four are accused of drunk driving, assault and battery with an auto and hit-run driving. The other cases range through forgery, conversion of property, grand larceny, knowingly receiving stolen property and down the scale to assault and battery and common drunkenness.

The jury list for the November term follows:

Harrison Williams, Bonanza; Albert Dotson, Cliff; Katherine Reffett, Prestonsburg; Lizzie Goble, Emma; J. W. It also paid Atty. J. B. Clarke $600, half of the fee agreed on for representing the court in suits filed by the Floyd County Good Government Tax League. The remaining $600 is to be paid later.

The court paid Dobbs Brothers Record Rebuilding Services $1,000 of the $2,578 due since February, 1953 for rebuilding old records in county offices here which were in danger of being completely lost through age and disrepair. P'burg Defeats Louisa, 71-0 For Seventh Consecutive Win

The Prestonsburg Black Cats increased their statewide football prestige here last Thursday night by routing Louisa, 71-0, for their seventh consecutive victory.

Coach Doc Ferrell used his entire 35-man squad in attempting to quell the scoring, but the second and third stringers were just as effective as the regulars in moving the Black Cats back into the state offensive leadership.

Seven different players figured in the scoring as Prestonsburg struck for a touchdown in the first five minutes, then added four in the second quarter, and three in the third and fourth periods.

All-State candidate Lowell Hughes whipped his 15th and 16th touchdown passes of the season and scored two others, while fleet-moving halfbacks Ronnie and Clifford Goble added two each.

R. Goble, who sparked the Cats over Pikeville, put his team in a first period lead by galloping 45 yards on a punt return. He bettered that feat by ten yards in the second half.

Fullback "Jeep" Alexander, guard Don Reatherford and freshman Lowell McKenzie, each tallied once, and end Chester Shepherd caught two pay-off passes from the Hughes brothers.

The longest gain of the fray came in the last minute as 14-year-old Paul Hughes, freshman brother of Lowell and John Delmar, hurled a 45-yard aerial to C. Shepherd, who sped the remaining 12 yards to the end zone.

Louisa muffed its lone scoring opportunity in the first frame after recovering a Black Cat fumble on the Prestonsburg 13-yard stripe, but four plays resulted in a five-yard loss.

Prestonsburg goes in quest of its eighth consecutive win Thursday night in Williamson, West Virginia, with the Belfry Pirates as its fourth Eastern Kentucky Mountain Conference foe.

By Gordon Moore

The 1954-55 basketball season will have eight rule changes. It is suggested that the fans learn them before booting the officials and to keep in mind that the rules committee still performs certain unusual functions.

These will be the new changes:
(1) Substitute should enter promptly when beckoned by the official. Penalty is a technical foul.

(2) Time out may be requested when the ball is dead or in control of a player of the requesting team. Player must be holding or dribbling the ball.

(3) College games are to be 20-minute halves.

(4) Thrower-in must pass the ball directly into the court. He cannot bounce-pass the ball against the floor out-of-bounds to teammate in bounds.

(5) During a free throw it is possible to penalize for both a violation (stepping across line too soon) and a foul at the same time.

(6) For a jump ball violation the official's decision is delayed only until the jump ends. Goal made on tip is not allowed if violation (player in circle) is called.

(7) If a common personal foul occurs before the final three minutes of the game the foul shooter gets a second (bonus) throw if the first is successful. This is the major change of the year. There is no longer a one-plus rule. If the player misses his free throw following a personal foul the ball is in play.

Fouls which are not common personal fouls include the double foul, technical, multiple—in which two players foul another—and the foul against the goal shooter.

(8) The three-minute rule goes into effect this year at 2 minutes and 50 seconds on the clock.

Probably a justifiable criticism of officiating over the past years has been that the officials have too often overlooked the greater responsibility of the dribbler when contact was made and thus penalized wrongly the defensive player. This year officials will study closely charging situations in an effort to properly place responsibility for fouling.

A minor rule revision this year emphasizes that the greater responsibility for fouling must be placed on the dribbler. He has the greater responsibility for avoiding contacts. Following are a few play situations:

(1) It is virtually impossible for a defensive player to be guilty of making contact when he is backing away and giving ground to the dribbler.

(2) When a dribbler attempts to dribble between two opponents or between an opponent and a boundary without sufficient space to provide a reasonable chance for him to go through without contact he is responsible if a foul occurs.

(3) If the dribbler's path is blocked, he is expected to pass or shoot.

(4) In starting a dribble the dribbler has the greater responsibility for contact until such a time as he may have feinted his guard out of position so that the dribbler has his head and shoulders past the guard.

(5) After a dribbler has established a straight line path he is protected in that path only from a guard who is behind or even with him.

(6) The dribbler does not have the right of way over a guard who secures a defensive position in his path.

(7) If a dribbler has his head and shoulders in advance of his opponent the greater responsibility for contact is on the opponent.

Conley in Air Force

Sampson Air Force Base, N. Y. — Airman Jackie L. Conley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Conley, Prestonsburg, Ky., is undergoing basic military training at Sampson. He enlisted Aug. 17, 1954, and is a member of the 3705th flight here since the base's activation in December 1950.

Newly-enlisted airmen arrive here from many sections of the United States to receive their initial Air Force indoctrination. They become members of a "flight," composed of 72 men—generally from the same region, and receive an intensified 11-week training course which deals with basic military techniques and principles.

Upon graduation they are assigned directly to an Air Force installation, or report to various Air Force Training Command schools for primary and advanced technical knowledge.

Sampson is one of three Air Force indoctrination centers. Others are located at Lackland AFB, San Antonio, Tex., and Parks AFB, Pleasanton, Cal. More than 40 per cent of all Air Force enlistees receive their initial training at Sampson.

Who's afraid of the big bad fire?

"Not I," said the snake. "Not I," said the chigger. "Not I," said the boll weevil. "But I am," said the tree. The moral of this story is that farmers who set fire to their woods to get rid of pests are just hurting themselves. They're burning up valuable trees that could pay off the mortgage, supply lumber for a new house or perhaps put a son through college. Farm woodland owners in the United States sell about $700,000,000 worth of wood a year. More farmers could share in this harvest of green gold if they, too, would protect their trees from fire and manage them as a crop. This year prevent fires, don't start them—help keep our state green.

LOYALTY!

The voters of Eastern Kentucky will remain loyal to a party whose aims and accomplishments have been faithful to the trust of providing what our people need and want. This statement could apply only to the Democratic Party represented at the November election by one of the greatest living Democrats, Alben W. Barkley, for U. S. Senator and by Carl D. Perkins for Congress.

The record of the Democratic party, and more especially of Barkley and Perkins, most forcibly demonstrates a loyalty to the people of our section, our state and our nation.

The interest of the common people has been protected by the Democratic party while the Republicans have fought for big businesses.

The right of the laboring man to organize and assert his rights was one of the first and most important accomplishments of the New Deal program under F. D. R. A Republican congress curbed these rights by enactment of the Taft-Hartley Bill. When President Truman vetoed this Act, John Sherman Cooper voted to override this veto, thus voting for the Taft-Hartley law. Barkley, on the other hand, voted to let the President's veto stand and thus destroy this anti-labor legislation. Carl D. Perkins has so consistently fought for the laboring man's interest that no comment on his record is needed.

Flood control and development of Water Resources was started and continued by the Democratic party.

Alben W. Barkley, a Senator in 1938, guided the Flood Control Act to passage. Under that measure floodwalls were built at Ashland, Maysville, Covington, Louisville and Paducah. Under this bill walls were built at Russell, Newport, Middlesboro, Hickman, Uniontown, Hawesville and Taylorsville — all in Kentucky. The Democrats must also be credited for development of the Kentucky Dam, Wolf Creek Dam, Dale Hollow Dam, and, last but not least, DEWEY DAM.

The administrations of President Roosevelt and Truman spent an average of $18,000,000 a year in Kentucky on such projects. Compare this with an appropriation that has averaged only $6,000,000 a year for similar works under the present Republican administration. Compare, also, the amount of money spent by the Democrats on the Dewey Dam in Floyd county as against the pittance of $10,000 set up by John Sherman Cooper for a restudy of the canalization of Big Sandy; or, for that matter, compare the $10,000 as against the appropriation made by the Democrats for many earlier studies of this project. John S. Cooper has admitted that the canalization of Big Sandy is a long way off. We say, when canalization is accomplished it will be by a Democratic administration, because that is the party interested in such projects.

Only a Democratic Administration can save the Coal Industry.

When the coal industry was sick in 1933 it was a Democratic Administration which caused the industry to recover and thrive. The party which rescued miners and operators from despair in 1933 will not sit on its laurels in 1955 while men are still hungry. But what about the 10,000,000 tons of coal the government will buy and send to Europe—2,000,000 tons from Kentucky for political purposes—6 days of mining? The last Democratic Administration had set up a program to sell not 10 but 55 million tons of coal each year to European nations, but the Republican Mutual Security Administration abandoned the plan on the pretext that coal industries in other nations should be encouraged to produce.

If we are Democrats, believing in the principles of the Democratic party, for whom could we in good faith possibly vote other than Alben Barkley—the heart and soul of our party in Kentucky for more than 35 years?

For these reasons we as Democrats and Floyd countians must assert our loyalty to our Democratic party, which has guided us in the past to days of Abundance and Prosperity. We must assert our loyalty to a man who has given our State and Nation such great leadership in our most trying days. We must assert our loyalty to Alben W. Barkley and Carl D. Perkins.

34th Education Week Observance Scheduled

The 34th annual observance of American Education Week is announced for November 7-13 by its national sponsors, the National Education Association, the American Legion, the U. S. Office of Education, and the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The central theme, "Good Schools Are Your Responsibility," is, in effect, a lesson assignment for every citizen. Also, some of the daily topics for AEW this year emphasize everyone's personal responsibility for good schools: "Ideals To Live By," "Teachers for Tomorrow," "Investing in Good Schools," "Working Together for Good Schools," "Effective Citizenship," "Teaching the Fundamentals Today," and "How Good Are Your Schools?"

During American Education Week the nation's schools extend invitation to the public to visit classrooms — to see the schools in action. The sponsors estimate that this year 20 million people will accept that invitation. Millions more will learn about their schools through newspapers and magazine features, radio and television programs, displays and demonstrations, and special community programs and activities.

"Wishing for good schools is not enough," declares the sponsoring committee. "Communities have good schools when the people want them enough to take an interest in them, to work for them, to cooperate with them. American Education Week is an appropriate time to reexamine the educational program of your community. What is your school doing best? Can it do some things better? To help your school, you need to be well-informed about it."

National Figures To Join State Leaders in Meets Studying Tot's Problems

Prominent national figures will work with Kentucky leaders in group meetings about the whole range of exceptional children's problems at the second annual Kentucky Conference on Handicapped Children in Lexington November 11 and 12. The sessions will be held at the University of Kentucky.

The conference's primary goal is to help launch promptly a Kentucky-wide program of special education for, and the training of teachers of, the exceptional child. At longer range, the conferees seek a unified service program for all Kentucky handicapped children. Much interest from non-professional members of the public, including many parents who do not have handicapped children, is being shown in the conference, said Neil Dalton, Louisville, general chairman.

Dr. Henry H. Work, Louisville, program planning committee chairman, said group sessions on developmental problems of handicapped children by age groups, and on medical and educational problems of all types of handicapped children, are featured on the agenda.

Among out-of-state leaders signed for these discussions are Dr. Romaine P. Mackie, Ph. D., Washington, D. C., chief of the Division of Exceptional Children and Youth, Office of Education; Dr. Warren A. Ketcham, Ph. D., assistant professor of education and co-ordinator of psychological services in the University Elementary School, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor; Dr. Richard E. Wolf, assistant professor of pediatrics and psychiatry, College of Medicine, University of Cincinnati; Dr. Lloyd Dunn, Ph. D., director of the special education department of Peabody College, Nashville, and others.

Sponsored by a volunteer group, the Co-ordinating for Handicapped Children, and The Nemours Foundation, Wilmington, Del., the conference has Gov. Lawrence W. Wetherby as honorary chairman.

The Turner-Greene Tax Propaganda Program

It is being rumored and circulated throughout Educational Division Number One, that I, Frank Arnett, am running for Board Member to raise your school taxes. NOTHING IS FARTHER FROM THE TRUTH. This is merely election propaganda, as they are scared to death that I am going to win.

They are telling voters throughout the district, that if I am elected the county people will have to pay for the new gymnasium in Prestonsburg. THIS IS UTTERLY RIDICULOUS, REGARDLESS OF WHO IS ELECTED, THE PRESTONSBURG GYM WILL BE PAID FOR BY THE TAXPAYERS IN THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG, AS THE COURT OF APPEALS RULED ON JULY 20th, 1954. IT WILL NOT COST THE TAXPAYERS OUTSIDE OF THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG ONE THIN DIME.

KENTUCKY'S HIGHEST COURT, THE COURT OF APPEALS, held in its opinion that, "Regardless of any merger of the County and Prestonsburg city schools the $226,000 bond issue voted by the Prestonsburg taxpayers must be paid for by the citizens of Prestonsburg at a maximum rate of 35 cents on each $100.00 valuation of property. . ."

YOUR PRESENT SCHOOL TAX RATE, SET BY THE FLOYD COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION IS THE MAXIMUM UNDER LAW, $1.50 on $100.00 property valuation, while the city of Prestonsburg's is $1.85 per $100.00 valuation.

We have enough tax money now to operate good schools, if the money is used for that purpose. I am not in favoring of any additional taxes, and I give you my word on that, REGARDLESS OF WHAT ANY OF MY OPPONENTS WOULD HAVE YOU BELIEVE.

The Prestonsburg City Board has offered the County Board of Education the gymnasium FREE. Just giving it to the county at no cost to the county taxpayers, whatsoever, so it will be available to all of the county children, yours and mine.

The people of Prestonsburg wanted the gym, voted to pay for it, and will do so, and in order to get a better school system are willing to merge with the county, give them the gym and yet, James Greene is against that.

My honor and integrity do not permit me to LIE, AS OTHERS DO, THEREFORE I WANT TO TAKE THIS MEANS OF EXPLAINING THIS TO YOU, IF I DO NOT GET TO SEE YOU PERSONALLY BEFORE ELECTION DAY.

A VOTE FOR FRANK ARNETT IS A VOTE FOR YOUR CHILDREN. I AM INTERESTED IN THEM.

Very Truly Yours,

FRANK ARNETT

Think Hard, Mr. Taxpayer-- It's Your Money...

Since Mr. V. O. Turner moved into the superintendent's office in 1952, he has failed to publish an AUDIT of the Floyd County Board of Education receipts and expenditures under his administration, as required by law.

Why have he and Mr. Greene failed to do so? Could it be, Mr. Taxpayer, they do not wish for you to see what is actually happening to your tax money?

No doubt, by now you have received your 1954 property tax card from the sheriff's office. How much have your school taxes increased?

In 1953 the county school assessment for Real Estate and tangibles (automobile, etc.) in Floyd county amounted to $16,699,957.00 and an assessment of $730,164.00 on bank shares. From this the County Board of Education received $250,049.50 on the Real Estate and Tangibles assessment and $2,920.40 on bank shares—a total of $252,969.90.

In 1954, the county school assessment for Real Estate and Tangibles has been increased by $984,853.00, as you well know Mr. Taxpayer, since you are paying for it. This year the county school assessment is $17,684,810.00 on real estate and tangibles and $762,481.00 on bank shares. From this, the Board of Education will receive $264,272.00 on real estate and $3,049.60 on bank shares, a total of $267,321.60.

Therefore, the schools will receive $14,351.70 more from the county taxpayers alone this year. (These figures do not include the franchise taxes and equalization money, from the state).

Where is this additional money going? How many teachers in Floyd county got raises this year? If you failed to get yours, teachers, we'll tell you where it's going... to the maintenance department and to the overloaded office force payroll.

From this tax money it takes $76,050.00 before one penny is spent on the education of your children. Eleven (11) people, four more than any previous administration had, work in the county superintendent's office at excellent salaries. Thirteen (13) are on the maintenance payroll full time, which does not include all of the $1.25 hour pre-election workers.

Mr. Turner's first campaign promise to the voters of Floyd county was to cut out the waste in the Superintendent's office. He was elected but he forgot that promise and look what's happened... seven to eleven...

If and when the audit is published will it show how much money was paid to these bus drivers, whom the Board tried to fire... Will Reed, Hobert Howell, Bud Elliott, Scott Howell, Lee Owens, Jerry Lafferty, Walter Porter, Jim Reynolds, Raymond Osborne and Donald Hunt...

Since you, Mr. Taxpayer, have not seen an audit since Turner and Greene started handling your money, here's the office and maintenance salaries.

Southern Bell Has New "Hands Free" Telephone

The Southern Bell Telephone Company has once again put its thumb into the telephonic pudding and has come out with a rich electronic plum. A new "hands free" telephone which includes a microphone - and - loud - speaker arrangement in addition to the conventional hand set operation, has been developed by the Bell Laboratories, the research arm of the Bell System.

Jack Stone, Southern Bell's group manager, said that the instrument may be used in the normal manner if desired. The user can depress a button in the base of the telephone when he desires "hands-free" operation. This permits the user to move about considerably, as the microphone will pick up the voice and transmit it. When used in this manner incoming messages will be received over a loud-speaker. The volume of the loud-speaker can be adjusted to the desired level.

The telephone manager said that the telephone frees the hands for note-taking and reference to records. He also said that it enables several persons to participate in a single telephone conversation, allows freedom of movement to get papers or other reference material. Since the handset remains in its cradle during the "hands-free" operation, the tiresome need of holding the hand set during a lengthy conversation is eliminated.

The home telephone user can use this instrument advantageously also, since it permits several members of a family to join in a conversation at the same time. It enables the housewife to continue baking, to wash dishes, sew, care for the baby, and perform other household activities while using the telephone.

Greene Replies TO MISSTATEMENTS

It should never be required of any candidate that he must take time out to reply to misstatements of fact being issued by the opposition. That I do so here is not that the misstatements are being given any credence but since they have been given such wide circulation by the supporters of my opponent the record should be set straight.

To set this record straight, so loosely described in an advertisement in the Floyd County Times and by the old hand-bill method by the opposition, the following facts are given and the voters are asked to check them at the office of the County Superintendent and anywhere else.

I submit that the Floyd County Board of Education has had a maintenance department for a long time, long before the present superintendent took office. A good maintenance department is a money-saving device. It enables a school administration to do for itself at a reduced price what contractors will not or cannot do as cheaply. In order to do this and save the taxpayers money our maintenance department was expanded with skilled men.

A good example of how a good maintenance department can save money is by comparing the Maytown lunchroom with the Betsy Layne lunchroom. The Maytown building was contracted for construction by the previous administration at $32,000. The present Board of Education used our maintenance system to save a huge sum. We bought a good building at Betsy Layne, refurbished and remodeled it with our maintenance department for a little over $4,000. Total cost of the Betsy Layne lunchroom was about $9,000 as compared with Maytown's $32,000 under the previous administration.

The men in our maintenance crew are skilled men. They can command much more for their services elsewhere but are willing to work for reasonable wages here. George Edward Allen is a skilled electrician, carpenter and plumber. He is the only employe of the maintenance department, employed by the year. He has repeatedly been offered much higher wages elsewhere but decided to remain with us because of his family. French Campbell is hired from month to month. Berl Greene, my son, is a skilled mechanic and, like Campbell, is employed only from month to month. It should be unnecessary to drag the names of good employes into public discussion and debate their fitness. They are good employes, earning less wages for the Board of Education than they can get elsewhere. Their services are a contribution to a good school system.

Now we want to submit the facts and refute the inferred misstatements in regard to certain teachers. The opposition seeks to make out a case that these teachers were thrown out of the school system. Let's take a look at the record.

Mrs. Grace Conley is teaching her home school. She was never unemployed. Billy Paris Conley was hired for the David school but resigned to go into the insurance business where he said he could make more money. Sarah Lavens was employed at Allen where she wanted to be but resigned to take a good job with the Cumberland Field Station at West Presonsburg. Hazel Campbell resigned before Mr. Turner became County Superintendent and her resignation had nothing to do with a change in school administrations. Eileen Conley has a good job at the Bank Josephine and never at any time asked for a job with the present administration. Betty Stephens is employed at Ivel as a teacher. Margaret May was employed to teach but resigned to take a position in the City school system. Lewis Campbell has the same type of job and salary at McDowell. Does that look like teachers have been thrown out of the Floyd County system for some inexcusable reason? I ask only that the voters check the records of the superintendent's office.

Now what does the opposition say about the number employed in the administrative office of the County Superintendent? He says there are 21 employes. But there are only ten at present and at no time was there more than 11. If they had any interest in veracity they would have been more careful with the record.

Now the writer of this propaganda says again that we spent $61,994.00 on administration last year. Here again is a loose handling of facts and figures. We spent exactly $31,850.29 as certified to and checked by the State Department of Education. Why did he misstate the facts by $30,143.71? Then again he says there has been over 100% increase in administration and control. We submit that our records show there has been scarcely any. In 1951-52 school year, the year before the present administration, there was spent exactly $30,265.49 in administration and control.

To charge that we are over-staffed in administration is not true. The Minimum Foundation program recommends three supervisors of instruction. We have never had but two. The Foundation program recommends three attendance officers but we have never used but two. Another assistant to the county superintendent is permitted by the law, but this assistant, in the interest of economy, has never been hired.

The Floyd County school system is a huge educational and business administration project. There are 385 teachers and about 35 bus drivers and 15 janitors. This system requires a large outlay of taxpayers' money, but none of that money is being wasted.

The public is respectfully asked to come to the County Superintendent's office, or come to me and I will go with any voter to check the record. Upon that record and upon no misstatements of facts, I solicit your vote and confidence.

New Church Is Organized in This County

—Polaroid 1-Minute Photo by The Times
 The first church to originate in this county, Baptist Fellowship Church of Christ Jesus, was organized at Tom's Creek, near Ivel, Feb. 14, this year by Rev. Carl Layne. It has 52 members with an average Sunday school attendance of 75. A branch of the church has been organized at Wyandotte, Mich., by Rev. Davon Lynch, who was formerly connected with the movement here. The new church places emphasis upon fellowship and its articles of incorporation lists 23 articles of faith.

HOW TREES LIVE AND GROW

Trees are Floyd county's biggest crops. Seventy-four percent of the land or about 191,000 acres is growing timber crops. This means that three out of every four acres in the county is in farm woods or forests.

What is a forest or woods? It is a large group or a community of trees. There may be only one or two kinds of trees or there may be many kinds. Altogether there are about 40 different kinds of forest trees in the county. Some of them such as poplar and black oak we see every time we visit a community of trees; others such as cucumber and black cherry are scarce and seldom seen. How many different kinds of trees do you know?

Each tree is an individual in the community where it lives. Like a person, it must have food on which to live and grow; it must have water to drink. Like people, trees are first babies; then they grow into children or saplings; then into young men and women or poles; then into adults or sawtimber; and finally they become old and eventually die.

Every tree grows in only three places: At the end of each twig or branch; at the tip end of every root; and a thin lining called the cambium, underneath the bark. The cambium grows new wood on one side and new bark on the other.

Each part of the tree has a necessary job to do, most parts have more than one task to perform.

The leaves are the factories where the food is made. They pick up carbon dioxide from the air. They add the minerals and water obtained from the roots, and with the help of sunshine changes the parts into sugar and starches which are "tree food". Sugars and starches are also part of the things our bodies require to keep us healthy.

The roots pick up minerals and absorb water from the soil. These materials they send up to the leaves. They also hold firmly to the soil and keep the tree from blowing over or falling down. Another thing they do is act as a store house for "tree food" during the winter time. This stored food is used to get the new leaves and growth started in the early spring.

The trunk is like a road. Minerals and water go up to the leaves; starches and sugars come down to feed the roots and be stored until needed. The trunk also supports the leaves and limbs.

The bark is the tree's armor or protection against injury.

Each part of the tree depends on another part to do its job well. If any part is injured so it can't do a good job the tree becomes ill and often dies.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deepest appreciation to those who did so much for us upon the passing of our dear father and husband, Curtis M. Stone, and for every courtesy extended to us through flowers and personal services. Especially we are thankful to the ministers, Revs. Johnny Marshall, Johnny Ramey and Green Allen for their consoling words, and Hall Brothers Funeral Home for their kind and efficient service.

LET'S TALK FRANKLY ABOUT NOVEMBER 2nd

The issues before Kentucky voters at the Nov. 2 election can be boiled down to these simple terms:

- 1 The Republican administration at Washington has been surrendered to ruthless, big business tycoons who have little sympathy for the average man and woman.
- 2 John Sherman Cooper is a Republican, and the Republican strategy is to keep that crowd in control at Washington.
- 3 Alben W. Barkley is a Democrat—"Mr. Democrat" of the nation—and his record is proof that he believes in government for the people.
- 4 Republican policies during the past two years have produced widespread unemployment, brought back the bread lines, and threaten the economic well being of the nation.
- 5 There are too many hard-hearted men in control at Washington who feel as Defense Secretary Wilson does that many working men are "kennel-fed dogs".
- 6 The Republican lack of firm foreign policy has undermined the prestige of the United States abroad, and divided us at home.
- 7 The Benson farm program is wrecking progress made for the farmers through the 20 years the Democrats worked for them.
- 8 Cooper has little influence at Washington. At a critical time during the last session of Congress, President Eisenhower would not even talk with him. He was not consulted about the appointment of the new TVA chairman. He cannot get Republican senators to vote with him.
- 9 Barkley has the greatest influence of any living Democrat. His opinions are valued and respected, especially in the Senate.
- 10 Cooper voted against giving individual taxpayers relief by raising their exemptions $100 a year, but voted for tax relief for the big corporations.
- 11 Barkley has always voted for a tax program to protect the little man, and against the theory that big business will let benefits "trickle down".
- 12 Cooper voted against a bill for 90% parity for tobacco, wheat, corn, cotton and other basic crops; against dairy supports; against increased support for REA and Soil Conservation; against beef cattle supports.
- 13 Barkley has waged the fight for strong agricultural supports throughout his career.
- 14 Cooper voted for final action to approve the notorious Dixon-Yates contract that gives a private power combine undeserved profits.

FLOYD UNEMPLOYED, NEEDY PAY OVER $1,000,000 A YEAR

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 18 (Sp)—Kentucky's Department of Economic Security is supervising the outlay of funds at the rate of some $80,000,000 a year for unemployment benefits, various categories of public assistance and costs of operation, Commissioner of Economic Security Vege E. Barnes reported today.

The unemployed and needy in Floyd county last month were paid a total of $113,863.

Barnes declared that present unemployment and public assistance benefits over Kentucky (which last month totaled $6,314,650) was being spent at the rate of $75,778,800 a year with an added outlay of $4,390,000 for administration of the combined programs.

Unemployment payments in Kentucky continued at record-high levels with an outlay of $32,094,883 in actual outlay for the first nine months of 1954—compared with an outlay of $15,431,279 for the previous entire highest twelve-month period in the history of the fund—in 1949.

"The number of unemployed in Kentucky is now far more than for the year 1949—with payments for this purpose in the first nine months of 1954—more than twice the entire outlay for the previous highest period," said Barnes, "a circumstance that shows unemployment is a real and major problem with us."

Unemployed and needy residents of Floyd county were paid $113,863 during September, reflecting an expenditure at the rate of $1,366,356 a year. Unemployment benefits paid for the month were $68,410 while public assistance benefits totaling $45,453 were paid to county recipients, payments being divided into these categories:

Veterans of Foreign Wars
Meets the first and third Friday in each month at 8:00

Needy aged, $22,487; families of dependent children, $20,788; needy blind, $2,178.

Total statewide monthly outlay to the unemployed and needy persons was $6,314,650, with unemployment payment totaling $3,109,035; and the needy $3,205,615. Monthly averages include $35.12 to the needy aged, with an average payment to families of dependent children of $61.79 and a needy blind average of $36.93. Average payment for a week of total unemployment was $22.31, Barnes added.

Henry Ward Honored For Outstanding Work

Cumberland Falls State Park, Oct. 18 (Sp)—Three hundred soil Conservation District Supervisors and their wives attending the 11th Annual Convention of the Kentucky Association of Soil Conservation Districts at Cumberland Falls State Park saw Conservation Commissioner Henry Ward presented an honorary award plaque for outstanding service to Soil Conservation Districts and heard Don Williams, Administrator of the Soil Conservation Service speak on "Our Growing District and Watershed Responsibilities."

A. Thelkeld, president of the Association, referred to Ward as "M.R. Water Resources" in making the presentation. He also recalled the long-time interest and activities of Ward in behalf of the Soil Conservation movement in Kentucky.

In 1935 as a newspaper reporter in Paducah, Ward was instrumental in the setting up of the first Soil Conservation Demonstration Projects in Kentucky, on Massaic Creek in McCracken county.

As a member of the Kentucky Legislature in 1938, Ward aided in an unsuccessful effort to pass the enabling legislation which would have allowed the formation of Soil Conservation Districts. In 1940, however, Ward joined with the late Joe Robinson, Garrard county, in sponsoring and securing the passage of the present law under which Kentucky's 122 Soil Conservation Districts were formed.

In 1946 Ward as a State Senator sponsored the Act creating the Division of Soil and Water Resources. 1948 saw him sponsoring in the Senate the Act setting up in the Division of Soil and Water Resources a $400,000 revolving fund for use by the Soil Conservation districts in securing conservation equipment.

Since 1948 the Commissioner has served as Chairman of the State Soil Conservation Committee. In this capacity he, this year, signed the Charter of the Henderson County Soil Conservation District, which brought the entire state into the district program.

To the Voters of Educational Division No. 1

On the night of Oct. 9, 1954, I was awakened by a friend of mine, W. T. Hammonds, to tell me that one of my opponents, Frank Arnett, and Paris Conley had just been to his home telling him that I had been seen on Middle Creek the preceding day with Abe Greene, doing electioneering for James Greene, (Abe's son), the present board member.

I wish to tell all the people of my district that this was not a true report. If Frank Arnett and Paris Conley heard this they were wrongfully informed.

I wonder why there are so many false statements being circulated against me. It could be that someone is getting worried. I'm in this race to win. I'm sure I will do that, with the help of my many friends. I'm for getting our schools out of politics and helping the Floyd county school system to become one of the best in the state. I can and will win by the help of my many friends and supporters.

I'm your friend 12 months a year, not just at election time. Vote for a man who will be willing to serve you at all times with a good free will.

Your Friend
