If it were the law that every candidate for public office had to back his campaign promises with a bond to keep these promises, there either would be less election oratory or more bankrupt bondsmen.

BEWARE

"The White Man's Poll List" has made its appearance in this county. It would have its dupes sign a pledge to "vote to defeat any candidate who seeks the endorsement of the Nat'l Ass'n for the Advancement of Colored People in the 1956 elections." One of its aims reads: "The Powers delegated to the United States by this Constitution shall not be construed to interfere with Educational and Domestic Institutions in the respective States."

And for one buck mailed to Mr. A. L. Chivers in San Antonio, Texas you get "confidential membership" in "The Citizens' Protective Committee U. S. A."

It doesn't say so in so many words, but this pledge would have us also strike from the Constitution such phrases as "free and equal," "Justice" and "common welfare."

The idea may not be in Mr. Chivers' mind, but by shacking the Constitution to the extent it could not interfere with any educational or domestic institution in a state he would leave the way open to institutions operated for Communism with the only defense left up to the states. He would rewrite the basic law of the land to make of it a white man's Constitution. Wonder if he would have us revise the teachings of Jesus to make of it a white man's Bible?

STRIP-MINING
FIRM QUITTINGUnited Electric Halts
Operation At Evanston,
Unconfirmed Report Says

Although official confirmation of the report is lacking, it has been established here that United Electric, operator of strip-mining operations at Evanston, Breathitt county, is quitting there.

The report received here says the work begun by United Electric will be continued by the Pond Creek-Pochohantas Coal Company, operator of drift-mouth mining there. Strip-mining will be discontinued, it was said, because the overhang is so deep that stripping has become a costly undertaking. Pond Creek-Pochohantas is reported planning the use of huge augers, a new method of mining low-seam coal which breaks out at the face and conveys it to the mine opening.

Inability because of market conditions to operate more than two or three days a week is said to have caused United Electric to abandon its big Evanston job. The huge shovel used there is being dismantled for removal to another job.

If plans of Pond Creek-Pochohantas to operate the mine are carried out, United Electric's move would not mean any loss in employment, it was noted.

BLANKENSHIP
GETS 2 YEARS
PEN SENTENCEPike Man's Trial Here
In Mrs. Napier's Death
Is Concluded Wednesday

A jury quickly fixed the pen term of Henry Edward Blankenship, of McCombs, Pike county, at two years after holding him guilty at the conclusion of his trial Wednesday afternoon on a manslaughter charge growing out of the truck-auto collision death a few months ago of Mrs. Alonzo Napier, of Garrett.

Blankenship himself, testified that Dolores Howard, granddaughter of Mrs. Napier, and driver of the auto in which the victim was a passenger at the time of her death, was on his side of the road when his truck collided with the car. His testimony was supported by that of Birchall Smith who was a passenger in the truck. Smith's testimony was in the form of an affidavit.

The tragedy occurred on the Buffalo road to Dewey Lake at German.

Blankenship at an earlier court term was convicted on a charge of drunken driving, and testimony of five or six witnesses to the effect that he was drunk or drinking and was driving in an erratic manner was offered by the Commonwealth during this week's trial. Other testimony produced for the prosecution claimed tire marks indicated the auto was far over on its side of the narrow road and that the truck hit the car, crushing in the radiator, Commonwealth's Attorney Burnis Martin said.

Smith's statement did not mention Blankenship's state of intoxication or sobriety. The accused man's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Blankenship, testified for him, the father saying his son was not drinking when he parted from him at the top of the mountain between Cow Creek and Home Branch of Buffalo, the mother testifying she could not smell any liquor on her son's breath when she visited him at the jail here shortly after the wreck. Blankenship himself claimed he had not touched an intoxicant.

Miss Howard, driver of the car, said she made every effort to avoid a collision as the truck bore down on her, her mother and grandmother as they were leaving the lake.

The fact that the husband of the victim had filed a suit Tues-

Marcus Owens, Weeksburly teacher, was named first vice-president of the Eastern Kentucky Education Association without opposition at the Association's annual meeting in Ashland last week.

Dr. Adron Doran, president of Morehead State College, was elected president without opposition and was the first college president ever to head the EKEA since its founding in 1924.

Some 1,200 to 1,500 teachers and administrative officials from 17 counties attended the 31st annual three-day convention.

Others elected were: Mrs. Lahoma Maynard, of McVey, second vice-president; J. S. Trimble, Morgan county, and John York, Pikeville, members of the board of directors.

Roger Wilson, Morehead State Teachers College, and Mrs. Marguerite Preston, Ashland, were named delegates to the National Education Association.

Roy Denny, of Floyd county, was named member of the nominating committee for teacher retirement.

The principal speaker at the opening session was Lew Parmenter, Chicago, senior council for the National School Service Institute. His topic was "Public Relations," the theme of this year's meeting. Wendell Butler, State superintendent of public instruction, responded to an official welcome from Ashland Mayor David Aronberg, Russell Boyd, Williamsport, vice-president of the association, presided.

Floyd schools closed last Thursday noon to permit teachers to attend EKEA sessions. Instrumentalists from the Martin, Maytown, Wayland, McDowell and Wheelwright schools were members of the EKEA band which played at Friday night's final session.

Chester Stone, who is in jail here on a charge of shooting and wounding Mrs. Sue Preston Ward at Warco recently, faces another charge when his Floyd troubles are past.

A warrant accusing him of cutting and wounding, in Pike county was served on him at the jail this week. Bond of $2,000 is asked in this charge.

Among several others jailed with him in the week on more serious charges was Brother Johnson, of the Left Beaver section, who is accused of breaking and entering. He was booked at the jail by Deputy Sheriff Willie Johnson.

Three were booked for drunk driving. They are Emery Osborne, arrested by Deputy Sheriff W. L. Rice; Lacy Tackett, by State Trooper Addington, and Old Thomas, booked by Deputy Sheriff Silas Derossett.

FIELD STATION
WILL BE HOSTAt Open House, Nov. 21,
Schliemann Announces;
Public To Visit Center

Cumberland Field Station of the U. S. Public Health Service at West Prestonsburg will hold open-house on Sunday, Nov. 21, D. J. Schliemann, chief, announced this week.

This open house day for the general public is in recognition of the cooperation the Station has received since coming here a year ago. "Many persons have expressed a desire to visit the station and see the type of work that is conducted," Mr. Schliemann said. "We are glad to extend this opportunity to everyone in the area," he added.

The Station began work here with most of the personnel being transferred from an Augusta, Georgia field station, which was closed. Chief work of the Station is research on intestinal-borne parasitic diseases. Several Floyd county communities have been the objects of surveys since the work began. "We are pleased with the cooperation we have received in the various communities and would like to extend our thanks to the public," Schliemann says.

The station will be open to the public from 2 to 5 p.m. The personnel, including doctors, nurses, statisticians and engineers on duty will explain the program under way by the Station.

Work of the Station is not necessarily confined to Floyd county, and adjoining areas may later be subjects of the survey. Personnel of the Station includes 18 persons. The Station is located in the old Prestonsburg General hospital building at West Prestonsburg.

Strawberry Program To Include
'God's Acre' Work by Church

"God's Acre" of strawberries will be planted next spring by the Arnold Avenue Church of Christ, of Prestonsburg, on the Davidson farm at Ivel, it was said by Rev. Clarence Mansfield, pastor, this week. All proceeds of the church's agricultural venture will go to the Church of Christ, Labor on "God's Acre" will be done by members of the church and Rev. Mansfield.

R. H. Fike, strawberry specialist of the University of Kentucky's Extension Service, met with farmers, Extension workers and the Farm Advisory committee in the courthouse last Friday. Fike answered questions relative to berry production and marketing. The Advisory committee appointed agents to solicit strawberry acreage for next year.

Growing now in the county or scheduled for planting next spring are approximately 75 acres of strawberries. Orders are being taken by the Strawberry committee for plants to be filled from the 500,000 plants optioned by County Agent O. E. Boggs some time ago from a Tennessee grower. The plant option, expiring

VALLEY MINES
GIVEN ORDERS33 Operations To Ship
30,000 Tons To Korea;
Bidders Not Identified

Thirty-three mines served by the C. & O. Railway Company in the Big Sandy district will supply 30,000 tons of coal to be sent to Korea, but the Big Sandy-Elkhorn Coal Operators Association office at Pikeville said the individual mines supplying the order could not at this time be identified.

Three contractors got the orders for the coal to be produced in this field—10,000 tons for each contractor. These firms, which are coal sales agencies, are the Capital Coal Coke Company, St. Louis; Pinson Coal Company, Cincinnati, and A. T. Massey Coal Company, Richmond, Va.

One hundred two Kentucky mines will produce 100,000 tons of coal to be sent to Korea through the Foreign Operations Administration.

Representative Carl D. Perkins, Hindman, said Ben H. Bedwell, supervisory procurement officer for the Navy's fuel-supply office, sent purchase telegrams Monday to contractors who will buy the coal.

Bedwell said the coal will be sold in Kentucky at a price average from $3.75 to $4.25 a ton, making the order total approximately $400,000.

The Navy handled the bids for coal for the F. O. A., which negotiate the deal with Korea.

Bedwell said the coal must be shipped out of Kentucky quickly because the tentative tidewater loading dates range from late November to early December.

The Hazard district will furnish 20,000 tons from 35 mines served by the Louisville & Nashville Railroads. This will be split between the Davis-Climchfield Corporation, New York, and General Coal Company, Philadelphia.

Warrant Is Issued
As Probe Continues
In Case of Deerskins

A warrant was issued from the County Judge's office Tuesday naming Manis Gray, of West Prestonsburg, in the case involving possession of two deer skins found here recently.

Conservation Officer Raymond Copley's affidavit stated Gray had admitted having possession of the skins but had claimed they were given him by Glenn Robinson. Robinson in turn was said to have got the hides at War, Va.

The conservation officer said Wednesday that the investigation into the case is mounting. Questioning of Robinson and a check in the War, Va., section are to be included in the probe.

The skins involved in the case apparently changed hands frequent-

A news report emanating from Washington following a meeting there of the Southern Coal Producers Association, says the Southern coal industry has authorized its leadership to end its contract with the United Mine Workers of America, but adds that such action is "not an imminent prospect."

Membership of the Association weighed a resolution which would have instructed President Joseph Moody to seek new wage negotiations with the United Mine Workers.

This resolution never reached a vote. Moody told reporters after the session, despite some "pretty belligerent talk" the soft coal operators accepted instead a proposal that Moody and the association's executive committee be

VEEP RECORDS
61.4% OF VOTEReview of Floyd Voting
Shows Perkins' Margin
Was Slightly Heavier

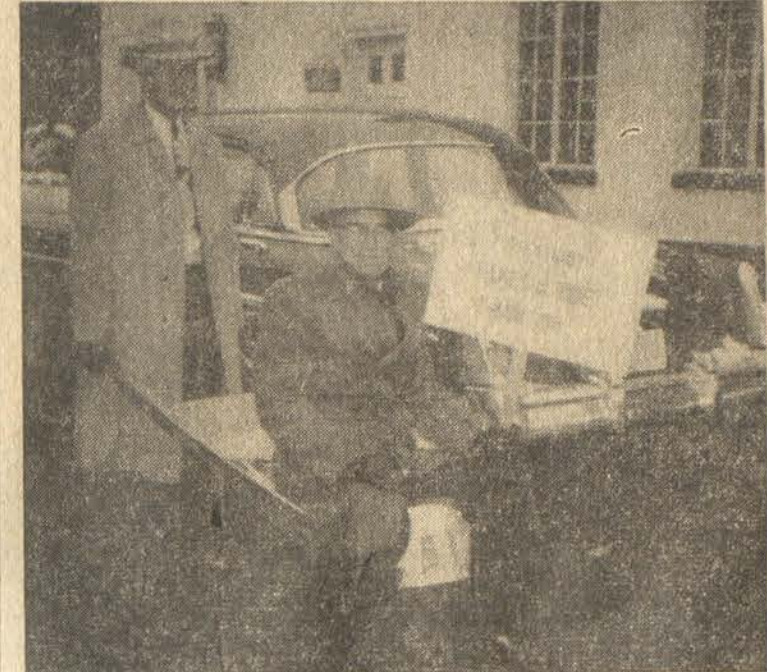

Holding majorities in 49 of the county's 60 precincts at last week's election, Senator-elect Alben W. Barkley polled 61.43% of 11,919 votes cast in his race against Senator John Sherman Cooper. The absentees voted 48 to 44 for Cooper.

At the same time, Congressman Carl D. Perkins retained his seat in Congress with 64.09% of the 10,846 votes cast in this race by Floyd countians going to him in his race against Curtis Clark, of Prestonsburg. Perkins led in absentee voting, 49 to 43.

Barkley led in all precincts except Prestonsburg No. 1, Prestonsburg No. 2, John Possum, Tickety, Betsy Layne, New Martin, Little Paint, Lackey, Kiser, Richmond and Trimble Branch. Four of these precincts are in the corporate limits of Prestonsburg. He and Cooper registered a tie vote in Auxier and Frasures Creek precincts.

Clark led in eight precincts—the same four Prestonsburg precincts carried by Cooper, plus John Possum, Tickety, Betsy Layne and Little Paint.

Haymond scored the biggest Democratic majority with 120 for Barkley to 4 for Cooper, 121 for Perkins to 3 for Clark, with Hen Hall's 51-3 vote next. Prestonsburg No. 2 was strongest Republican with Cooper leading Barkley 115 to 63 and Clark ahead of Perkins 109 to 66.

Promptly at 12:15 last Wednesday afternoon Tom Moore closed his Court street barber shop here, locked the door and turned his hands to the more strenuous job of pushing a wheelbarrow.

In the wheelbarrow was Joe P. Tackett, Prestonsburg attorney. He carried a placard reading: "Democracy Takes a Ride. Push, Tom!"

And in this fashion the two, Tackett riding and Moore pushing, turned up Lake Drive to Graham street, wheeled left on Graham and then down Third and back to Moore's shop—while passing motorists craned their necks and blew horns.

Thus Tackett, a Democrat, collected on his wager that Alben Barkley would win the race for U. S. Senator; and so did Moore, a Republican, helping him collect, pay for his faulty judgment on the strength of his favorite, John Sherman Cooper.

Improvement of Community
Urged in Minister's Sermon

"We must have Christ in our hearts, and that spirit must be expressed in our community," declared the Rev. Harold Dorsey, pastor of the Methodist Church here, in a Sunday morning sermon which called on the people of Prestonsburg to use their material blessings for the advancement and safety of the youth of the community and for civic progress.

The minister's message invoking practical application of religion to the end that "we roll up our sleeves and go to work" was inspired by tragedy. He re-

DECISION SEEN
ON TAX HEREAttorneys To Argue
Prestonsburg Case
Before High Court

The Court of Appeals will hear Friday oral arguments in the matter of Prestonsburg's responsibility for the special tax voted here to finance the construction of an auditorium-gymnasium in connection with the new county high school building in Prestonsburg.

Sitting in on the Appellate Court session will be representatives of both the city and county school boards, and two Prestonsburg ministers, Rev. Orville Pearson and Rev. Harold Dorsey, will be among those present.

Clarification of an earlier opinion handed down by a commissioner of the state's high court on Prestonsburg's responsibility for payment of taxes to amortize the auditorium-gymnasium bond issue is what will be sought at the hearing. As interested as the Floyd county representatives in the court's decision are State Department of Education officials who need a clear-cut ruling as a guide when several other proposed mergers over the state are effected.

Except for possible technical angles, the earlier court decision made clear that Prestonsburg taxpayers are responsible for the payment of a special tax levy until the auditorium-gymnasium bond issue is paid off, even though the Prestonsburg school system merges with the county by joint action of the two boards. But state officials agreed with county school authorities that the commissioner's opinion does not pin down responsibility in the event that merger is effected by the Department of Education acting in the role of arbiter or by action of the General Assembly.

Although the special 35-cent levy has been added to school taxes now being collected, the bonds have not been issued because of the demand for a ruling satisfactory to the county board and the state department in the event of merger.

Agreement on a site for the structure as a part of the high school has been reached.

MISSISSIPPIAN
IS ARRESTED
AS SUSPECTIn Baldrige Murder;
Former Martin Countian
Tells of Man's Statement

The mystery murder here in June, 1949 of Muriel Baldrige, Prestonsburg high school girl, vaulted into the news again this week as a man was arrested in Meridian, Miss., as a suspect in the brutal slaying.

Police Chief O. A. Booker, of Meridan, said a man named Ernest Brackin had been picked up there. Brackin, he said, had waived extradition, maintaining he had no connection with the murder.

Officials here maintained strict silence and declined to give out any information in the absence of Sheriff Gorman Collins who had asked his deputies and others not to discuss the case until developments warranted disclosure of names and other information.

The Times learned, however, that a man named Sam Stepp, formerly of Martin county, now a resident of Pensacola, Fla., had signed an affidavit alleging that Brackin had told him of committing the murder. Brackin made the statement, Stepp was quoted as saying, while the two were drinking at Brackin's home in Meridan.

Authorities here adopted a skeptical attitude because of the many false leads encountered during the long investigation into the girl's murder. Two "confessions" to the murder were obtained during the probe but these later were repudiated.

The Sheriff's office here said

MAY, OTHERS
ARE SLATEDFor Panel Discussion
At Pikeville Nov. 18th
Of River Canalization

The Prestonsburg Junior Chamber of Commerce announced this morning (Thursday) that a panel discussion on canalization of the Big Sandy river will be held at Pikeville College, Thursday, November 18.

The panel will be led by former Congressman A. J. May. Others participating will be James Wine, Pikeville, Marvin Music, Prestonsburg, B. F. Reed, Drift, and J. B. Wells, Paintsville.

The purpose of this discussion will be to acquaint the people with the many problems of canalization and to outline a program to fight for river improvement. The meeting is being held prior to an open hearing before the Corps of Engineers at Pikeville late this month.

The Jaycees last April conducted a campaign to get signatures to a petition requesting the open hearing which has been scheduled.

Enough Dogwoods Pledged To Set
Seven Miles Of Planned Memorial
To Memory of Floyd-Co. War Dead

Thirteen hundred trees or enough to set seven miles alongside U.S. 23 have been pledged to the planned Dogwood Memorial Trail through this county in memory of the war dead, it was said this week by Lon C. Hill, procurement committee chairman. Competition has developed, it seems between three schools as to which can secure the greatest number of trees for the project. The schools are Pitt's Fork, McDowell and Stonecoal.

Pledges of trees, some in excess of original pledges, were coming in fast to the procurement committee this week. New or increased pledges were from the Sam Hale school, Charles Houchins, teacher, for 119 trees gathered; the Cold Springs school, Richmond Stone, teacher, 100 trees; and Ancil Turner of the Turkey Creek school, 300 trees. Mr. Hill emphasized this week that teachers, pupils and other persons collecting trees for the project must notify him not later than Monday of next week. Otherwise the trucks to pick the trees up may not be available, he said.

"Local procurement committees are finding the trees easier to locate and take up than was anticipated," Hill says. "At first it was thought no great number of trees suitable for the project could be found on any single farm but since procurement started it has been found that large numbers of the small two to four foot trees can be located. They may be taken from the earth, by simply pulling them up."

The members of the Alva Homemakers Club in Harlan county wove more than 112 articles on looms last year, including rugs, mats, scarfs, luncheon sets and napkins.

The Oldham County Sheep Protective Association has paid all claims for 14 years.

The following districts will supply 10,000 tons each:

Southern Appalachian, from six mines served by the L. & N.

Clay-Leslie, from one mine served by the L. & N.

West Kentucky, from 24 mines served by the L. & N. or the Illinois Central Railroad.

Harlan from one mine served by the L. & N.

Williamson, from two mines served by the Norfolk & Western Railroad.

Bedwell told Perkins and Frank Dryden, administrative assistant to Kentucky's Senator Clements, that this is the first time the Navy has been authorized to seek bids for the F. O. A. which has announced it intends to buy 10,000,000 tons of coal for overseas. Of this, 2,000,000 tons is scheduled to come from Kentucky.

Acting as the F. O. A.'s purchasing agent, Bedwell said, he asked for competitive bids in each coal district.

Perkins and Dryden also called on Charles McNaron, chief of the F. O. A. coal-and-steel branch.

Perkins asked when Kentucky could expect some more foreign coal orders.

"If some of our operators don't get them, they'll soon have to close up shop," he said.

McNaron was pessimistic. He said he didn't know when the next order would go out and that when they did they probably would go to districts not sharing in the present order.

Perkins asked how much of a coal market the F.O.A. had been able to find overseas.

"Slightly under 1,000,000 tons," McNaron replied.

This is a tenth of the goal announced by the F.O.A. Administrator Harold E. Stassen and less than half of the 2,000,000 tons promised Kentucky.

"The legislation under which we operate was never designed to alleviate unemployment in the coal industry," McNaron said. "We have no authority to throw away money. We have to get back in foreign currency an amount equal to the dollars we spend."

Ocean freight rates have increased greatly in the past three months, McNaron said. The rate to Korea, for example, now exceeds the actual costs of the coal and getting it to an American port, he said.

"The foreign buyer must pay the freight and the more the coal costs him the less he is interested," McNaron added.

He suggested that foreign buying might be more interested in F. O. A. exchanges if some way could be obtained to equalize these total costs with what the buyers would pay on an open, competitive market.

Perkins said that when Congress convenes in January he will push for "any legislation to improve our export coal markets through the mutual-security program."

JUST MISSED

There's one way the obscure publication can get into print in the "big boys". How we have contrived to miss Reader's Digest or some of the other publications that get a laugh out of boners we'll never know.

We happened to catch this one, the other day, or we would have established a national reputation:

"The matron of honor wore flowers in her hair which was attached to a short veil."

CORRECT

Sometimes, though, newspaper people write things that sound screwballish that aren't. There, for instance, was the reporter who was sent to cover an important social event, returned to the office and wrote his story. Next morning, the editor called the reporter to his desk.

"What do you mean by this sentence, 'Among the beautiful girls was Horace Dinglepuss'? You crack-brain! Old Dinglepuss isn't a girl; he's part owner of this paper."

But the reporter stuck by his guns. "I can't help it," he declared. "That's where Dinglepuss was all evening."

Then there was the one about the boss who told his office force: "When I come into this office I want to see every man cheerfully performing his work. So I invite you all to put in this box any further suggestions as to how this can be brought about."

The best suggestion offered read, "Have steel taps put on your heels, and don't tiptoe when you come in."

Trust a boy to know his friends. Edgill Pouts, our purveyor of The Times at Weeksbury, wrote this paper several weeks ago requesting his shipment be reduced. He said: "Some of my friends are leaving here."

Last week we received a new note from him asking his papers be increased. We did, for he had written: "My friends are coming back."

2 NEW CAMPS ARE PLANNED

For 4-H Club Members Of Eastern Kentucky To Spur Junior Work

Two new summer camps are in the planning stage for Eastern Kentucky 4-H'ers, it was said in Club circles last week. The proposed camps are scheduled to serve Northeast Kentucky with 20 counties and Southeast Kentucky with a 19 county area. Floyd county is in the Northeast area. A meeting of 4-H leaders and Extension workers at Jackson last Thursday divided Eastern Kentucky into the two areas.

Kentucky has been served for sometime by two 4-H summer camps, at Dawson Springs in Hopkins county and Camp Bingham in Washington county. Several district camps served as intermediate camp sites. Fishtrap in Johnson county is available at present for use by Floyd campers.

An executive committee to handle the affairs of the two new camp districts was set up at the Jackson meet which was presided over by Charlie Dixon, former Morgan county agent, but now serving as area county agent. Howard Prail, of Paintsville, was selected as chairman, Mike Duff, of Lewis county, co-chairman, Sidney Trivette, of Pikeville, treasurer.

As a means of setting up the needed four committees on site, finance, facilities and policy, each county 4-H Club Council will pick two delegates, in early December, to a 4-H Club meeting. From these delegates the membership of the four committees will be selected. The Committees will begin their work soon afterwards.

The 4-H Club camp idea has been under consideration since last March and several meetings have been held to further the plans. Eastern Kentucky 4-H'ers, besides using Fishtrap and other local district camps, have had to use State parks and other facilities for their annual two-week camping activities. "Permanent camps operated throughout the summer would be a big boost for the 4-H program and would draw more boys and girls into it," County Agent Ellis Boggs, a delegate from this county to the Jackson meet, says.

Counties to be served by the Northeast Kentucky area are Floyd, Bath, Boyd, Carter, Elliot, Fleming, Greenup, Magoffin, Pike, Johnson, Lawrence, Lewis, Martin, Mason, Menifee, Montgomery, Nicholas, Robertson and Rowan.

T. B. Sturgill Is Guest Of Insurance Company

Qualifying for the annual meeting of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company's first-year representatives, Troy B. He was accompanied by Mrs. Sturgill.

The Prestonsburg man was one of 53 company representatives who became eligible for honor group membership by establishing an outstanding record of insurance sales and service to clients during their first year with Mutual Benefit Life. He is associated with the company's Lexington agency.

West Prestonsburg Child Is Found Dead in Bed; Burial in Middle Creek

Music Re-elected by Oil Group At Ashland

Marvin Music, right, Prestonsburg petroleum products distributor, looks at a tax explanation chart at the recent Ashland meet of petroleum industry men.

Ashland, October 27, 1954—Kentuckians were cautioned against over-planning road expansion beyond prospective needs in a talk given here tonight by Herbert L. Clay, executive secretary of the Kentucky Petroleum Industries Committee before the Eastern District Petroleum Industries Committee dinner meeting at the Henry Clay Hotel.

There is a real need for primary highway improvement in Kentucky, Mr. Clay said, but he was confident that it can be satisfied within current revenues if kept on a sane and economical basis. If, however, he continued, we proceed with plans to abandon many of our main highways for construction of limited access expressways, the cost will rapidly exceed Kentucky's ability to finance such a program. He pointed out that the Department of Highways' estimate in January of 1953 for the improvement of Kentucky's primary road system amounted to $126 million. A recently announced estimate for making limited access expressways of four Kentucky highways in the interstate system would amount to $183 million. Kentucky should consider carefully, he concluded, any plans to abandon our present heavy investments in rights-of-way and serviceable roads for the building of an elaborate system of limited access expressways.

All current officers were re-elected for 1955-56. J. S. Mahan, Jr., was re-elected district committee chairman. Mrs. Beulah N. Williams, of Morehead, and Marvin Music, Prestonsburg, was re-elected vice chairman. Mr. E. M. Tomlinson, of Ashland, was re-elected secretary.

Plans were perfected for holding meetings of the county committee early in 1955. District Chairman Mahan presided at today's meeting which was attended by 41 oil men from 13 counties, which comprise the Eastern District Petroleum Industries Committee.

HEALTH NOTES

By Floyd County Health Department

Tuberculosis, Kentucky's number one communicable disease problem, is found in all age groups but especially in adults. Ninety-four percent of all active cases in Kentucky are over 20 years of age. Only 20 of the 635 deaths from tuberculosis in Kentucky in 1953 were children from one through fourteen.

"It is for this reason that older people, rather than children, should be x-rayed during the mass x-ray surveys," P. M. Crawford, M. D., Director of Tuberculosis Control, Kentucky State Department of Health, says.

Tuberculosis in children often occurs in the form of tuberculous meningitis. In most cases the source of infection is an older person in the family.

To prevent tuberculosis in children, Dr. Crawford added, more cases must be found in adults. After a case of tuberculosis is known, proper methods of home care will help prevent the spread of tuberculosis from one member of a family to another. Hospitalization may be necessary not only for more rapid recovery but to make sure that no other member of the family is infected. Hospital care is strongly advised if there are small children in the household.

"If as an adult you detect symptoms of tuberculosis, see your family physician for examination and advice and if tuberculosis shows up, all members of the family including those children under 15—should also have an x-ray," Dr. Crawford stresses.

THANKS FOR SUPPORT

We wish to express our profound gratitude and appreciation to the many loyal voters who braved the bad weather to cast their votes for Alben W. Barkley and Carl D. Perkins. Each of these were highly deserving of the support of Floyd countyans. We have no doubt but that Mr. Barkley in the U. S. Senate and Mr. Perkins in the House of Representatives will by their future service justify the confidence you have placed in them.

The total vote of which Mr. Barkley received as well as the total vote of Carl D. Perkins is a tribute to the cooperative efforts of those who served on the Democratic Campaign Committee and the untiring efforts of many precinct workers.

The fact that Carl D. Perkins received only 183 votes more than Senator Barkley indicates how consistently the Democrats of Floyd county supported both of the Democratic nominees.

The 5-inch snow which blanketed Floyd county on Election Day kept hundreds of voters from reaching the polls. We are proud of the large number who did come out and support the party's nominees.

Again our sincere thanks for a fine job well done.

Floyd County Democratic Campaign Committee

16 Enumerators Begin 1954 Agriculture Census In County, Hatcher Says

Field work in the 1954 Census of Agriculture got under way in this county Nov. 3, when a force of 16 enumerators started visiting every farm in the area, S. R. Hatcher, crew leader, of Allen, said this week. The county was divided into 16 districts and enumerators, who had previously taken several hours of field practice, began either the picking up of blanks previously mailed to and filled out by the farmer or assisted the farmer in filling the forms out. George W. Bruner, of Corbin, is field supervisor for the area here.

The value of Kentucky farm lands has increased tremendously since 1850 when the first agricultural census was taken, Bruner pointed out. In 1850 the value of Kentucky farms and buildings was $155,021,262 but it rose to $1,572,256,000 in 1950. While the value of Kentucky farms and buildings has been steadily rising, it was pointed out that the number of farms in the state had been declining since 1935. At that time there were 278,298 farms in the state but in 1950 there were only 218,476 farms. This figure is the lowest since 1900.

Crew Leader Hatcher emphasized that all information about individuals and their farm operations furnished to the Census Bureau is held in absolute confidence under Federal law. It is used only to provide summary figures such as totals, averages and percentages. The information on an individual report cannot be furnished to any one other than sworn Census employees and thus cannot be used for investigation, taxation or regulation.

Larcy Goble Represents Southern States Co-Op

Larcy Goble, of Emma, will represent Southern States Cooperative members in this area at the cooperative's 31st annual stockholders' meeting today (Thursday) and Friday at Richmond, Va. Odgen tewart, manager of Prestonsburg Farm and Home Store, the local Southern States Cooperative service agency, will also attend.

The meeting will be featured by the annual report of 1953-54 operations by General Manager O. E. Zacharias, Jr., of Richmond, the finals of the six-state Southern States Farm Talent Round-up with the winner receiving an opportunity to appear with Ted Mack on the Original Amateur Hour television show, and an address by Roe Bartle, of Kansas City, nationally known educator and civic leader.

EIGHT MEN FROM FLOYD

To See First Action Of Basketball Season In 30-Game Schedule

Pikeville, Ky., Nov. 8 (Spl.) — Eight Floyd countyans on the Pikeville Junior College Bears will see their first action of the basketball season as the Bears' varsity opens its 30-game schedule at Wheelwright Thursday evening, November 18.

Four Pikeville sophomores from Floyd county high schools will be members of the Bears varsity team, which will meet the Westinghouse Apprentice School cagers from Pittsburgh, Pa., in the feature game of the evening. The four Floyd freshmen will undergo their collegiate baptism of fire either in the big game or in the curtain-raiser, which will pit the Bears frosh against Palmer Dunbar high school of Wheelwright. Coach Walter Hambrick announced.

Six-foot, five-inch Grady Wallace, of Betsy Layne high school, will dominate the experienced height on the floor Thursday night, being topped on the Bears squad only by one freshman and matched in height by another. Six-six Lloyd Mullins of Carr Creek, who did not play high school basketball, and 6-5 Lowell Conley, of Garrett, are the only Bears who can look Wallace in the eye, Hambrick said.

Betsy Layne's Bobby Clark, another first-year man standing 6-3, and letterman Mack Stone, of Garrett, at 6-2, helps make Floyd county outstanding in the front line of both teams, and four fast little guards, two of them lettermen, round out the octet. The guards are sophomores Don Stumbo, McDowell, and Ralph Roberts, Wayland high graduate, and freshmen Franklin Salisbury, Martin, and Jackie Stephens, Garrett.

The Bears-Westinghouse feature will follow immediately the preliminary game, which will begin at 6:45 in the Wheelwright gymnasium.

Grade and High Schools Eligible in Essay Contest

Kentucky grade and high school students are eligible for $3,225 in U. S. Savings Bonds in the 11th annual Soil Conservation essay contest.

The competition was announced by Barry Bingham, president of The Courier-Journal, The Louisville Times, WHAS and WHAS-TV; Wendell P. Butler, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and A. Threlkeld, president of the Kentucky Association of Soil Conservation Districts.

"How Water Conservation Benefits My Community" is the subject of this year's essay.

A $100 Savings Bond will go to the student submitting the composition judged to be state winner. Second prize is a $50 bond and third, a $25 bond. Winners of the three top prizes and their families will receive also all-expense-paid trips to Louisville as guests of honor for the annual Farm Awards Luncheon next spring.

In addition to the state awards, a district prize of a $25 bond will be given to the boy or girl who places first in each of the 122 soil conservation districts were at least five essays are submitted. These district essays will compete for the state awards.

As an added incentive a special certificate will be awarded to the writer of the winning essay in each Kentucky school and to the runner-up in each soil conservation district.

Entries should be sent to the county or city schools superintendents by December 11, the contest deadline.

Complete contest information may be obtained from school principals, superintendents, soil conservation district supervisors, work unit and area conservationists or the promotion department of The Courier-Journal, The Louisville Times, WHAS and WHAS-TV, Louisville, 2, Kentucky.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

BLAMES INTERNATIONAL LAWYERS

Editor, The Times:

Who are, one may ask, the most powerful instigators of international misunderstanding, tension, and of the turbulent friction which is now rampant throughout the world? The Russians, brusquely and unconciliatorily, would briefly retort: "Wall Street capitalists!"

This answer would be in error. They have never discarded the staid Marxist philosophical theories which developed at the birth of Communism. One theory was that the stock gamblers of Wall Street Canyon were heartless humans who aided and abetted world conflicts so that they might get rich on their invested dollars. True, some may be heartless, and may worship the dollar as their only god, but they are not—as the Russians would have us believe—the chief cause of the present international cold wars, misunderstandings and misconceptions.

This writer, after much thoughtful deliberation and after perusing many periodicals on internationalism, arrived at a conclusion on who are the real culprits responsible for this constant world discord. My opinion is, that international lawyers, stationed at some foreign post like Geneva, Switzerland, are the roots of all the trouble. They are in position to accept bribes from their respective governments, providing they react favorably with their opinions. They are also in position to act as spies on possible adversary nations. This, in itself alone, is one of the chief sources of friction.

For my part, I would rather be the humble dog warden of our town than to be the graduate of international law at some German university.

Population Estimate Shows Net Migration Of 50,000 from State

According to population estimates made by the Department of Rural Sociology, University of Kentucky, 209,000 more people left Kentucky from April 1, 1950 to June 30, 1954, than came into the state to live. This represents an average loss to Kentucky's population, through net migration, of 50,000 annually.

The out-migration trend evident in Kentucky population studies of the past few years, however, appears to have leveled off during the past year, says Paul D. Richardson, assistant in Rural Sociology at the University. The estimate made April 1, 1953, showed an average annual loss through net migration of 60,000 over the three-year period. The loss to the total population during the past year and a quarter amounted to 31,000, which is less than half the rate of the three preceding years. When the civilian population only is considered, 50,000 were lost during this period through migration.

Despite such heavy losses through migration, Kentucky has maintained a relatively stable population since 1950. The total population, according to the 1950 U. S. census, was 2,944,806. The estimate made as of June 30, 1954, revealed the total population of Kentucky to be 2,943,838, a loss approximately 1,000 over the four-year span. The continuing high rate of natural increase has practically offset the losses through out-migration. Kentucky has had an excess of 208,000 births over deaths since 1950.

The Vagabond Players of the Flat Rock playhouse, North Carolina's only professional Summer Theatre Company, have reassembled for another touring season that will take them into both Carolinas, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, and Kentucky to present plays under school, college, church, and civic sponsorship.

Since their inception in 1937, the Vagabond Players have staged over 150 productions for audiences totaling more than half a million persons. Approximately 40,000 theatre-goers witnessed the 10 Broadway revivals of the 1954 season in the 600-seat colorful playhouse.

The Vagabond Touring Theatre will present "The Curtain Rises", by Benjamin Kaye, November 24, at the Prestonsburg grade school auditorium. Jean Arthur, the film star, headed the original cast in the New York production. Recently, Veronica Lake toured the summer theatres as the leading lady in the Vagabond performance which will be the first presentation of the 1954-55 season for the Floyd County Community Concert Association.

The Judge Is Wrong— at Last

Judge Mulligan did not live to see the day, but inasmuch as that certain line of his famous poem is still quoted and re-printed, he is caught dead wrong about politics in Kentucky.

The cadenced opprobrium belongs to some other state now; to New Jersey or New Jersey, or Ohio or West Virginia—certainly not to the land of Blue Grass and Mountains. For here we have just passed through a typically hot election with that unholy mixture of mud and vitriol missing; while in other states slander and libel and inflammatory propaganda became a fine art.

In New York Republicans went far back to rake up charges against Averill Harriman that had long since been cleared by the courts. Democrats replied in kind, inveighing against the Dewey machine. The real issues were forgotten or deliberately ignored. In staid New England a candidate for Governor was the victim of a vicious racial issue. In New Jersey a Republican candidate was blamed for something his sister had done, years ago. And so ran the course of one of the most vicious elections the country has had in years.

Except in Kentucky. Here two fine Americans opposed each other for U. S. Senator. It is to their credit that the campaign remained as clean as it was. The characters of the two men did not invite the smear-attack, and both had subscribed to a code discouraging their followers from below-the-belt blows. Except in rare, scattered instances, the fight was conducted on gentlemanly lines down to the precinct level. Few wallowed in the rich mud that still lies in Kentucky, even if it wasn't stirred up in this campaign.

The issues as developed in Kentucky weren't earth-shaking. Take out the local angles—river canalization, tobacco and unemployment—and left for the voter to mull over mainly were the personalities of the two gentlemen involved and the politics of the voter. Mr. Barkley's age was tossed around a bit, but it obviously hurt him little. Unemployment was used by the Democrats against Senator Cooper, but in Eastern Kentucky Cooper turned that situation to his own advantage. So the campaign ran a pretty even course.

It is natural that the "common touch" be used in a political campaign, and so in their desire to find a least common denominator the politicians overlook the bigger issues. The difference between Kentucky and some other states was, we were decent about it and didn't dig into the mud to find that common denominator.

What it all amounts to is, Politics aren't the blankety-blanket in Kentucky.

W'Wright Man Picked For Bank Directorship Filling Death Vacancy

John T. Parker, manager of coal properties, Inland Steel Co., Wheelwright, was elected to the board of directors of the First Guaranty Bank, Martin, at the board's meeting Tuesday.

Mr. Parker's election fills the vacancy created by the death of A. B. Combs, of Prestonsburg. Other members of the board are B. F. Reed, Drift, chairman; A. H. Mandt, Manton, secretary; G. C. Spradlin, Prestonsburg; L. B. Brashear, Manton; Wayne Stumbo, Minnie; Jake C. Cooley, McDowell; C. Kilmer Combs, Prestonsburg, and B. Alvin Reed, Drift.

A native of Fayette City, Pa., Mr. Parker came to this county in 1930 as an engineer for the Inland Steel Company's coal operations at Wheelwright. He later became general superintendent, holding that post until the retirement of E. R. Price early this year as manager of coal properties. He is president of the Beaver Valley Kiwanis Club, and is a past president of Lonesome Pine Council, Boy Scouts of America.

"We have a responsibility for the health and sanitation of the community as well as for the soul," the minister said.

These things and the impoundment of water in the headwaters of the river to provide a steady flow of water, it was emphasized, are improvements necessary before we can attract the new industry we seek.

Urging on his hearers the spirit of Jesus who gave his life for the world, the Rev. Mr. Dorsey appealed for general interest and cooperation. "We can fight each other till there is no Floyd county," he admonished his congregation.

City and county school officials and the City Council were invited to hear the minister's discussion of local needs.

At Ohio county's annual meeting of homemakers, two braided rugs 9 by 12 feet in size and 12 smaller ones were displayed.

Another obstacle to firm action by the operators, one industry informant said, was the possibility that the Southern bloc of producers might find itself shut down while Northern operators and mines owned by the steel industry continued to dig and sell coal.

day against Mrs. Glenna Skaggs and her daughter, Mrs. Howard, seeking a total of $22,000 damages was introduced during the trial by A. J. May and W. W. Burchett, defense attorneys. Napier's suit alleged that negligent operation of the auto resulted in his wife's death.

The court term began Monday morning. Although a criminal term, it has no grand jury. The next session of the grand jury will be in January.

In addition to Blankenship's there were three convictions as of Wednesday afternoon. Others convicted were Ray Thompson on a child desertion charge, but his two-year pen term was probated; Stanley Hatcher, who was fined $20 and given a 30-day jail term for possession of alcoholic beverages, and John L. Lemaster, fined $100 for drunk driving.

Herbert Salisbury, who was convicted of a child desertion charge at a previous term of court and granted probation, was directed to appear in Nov. 19 to show cause why his petition should not be revoked on the charge that he failed to comply with its provisions.

The bond of Ira Jennings, who is accused of conversion, was forfeited, as was that of S. M. (Bill) Sturgill, who faces a cold check charge. The forfeiture of bonds of Forrest and Mabrey Sturgill and James Hatfield, however, was set aside and their trial on a grand larceny count was set for Nov. 23. Trial of Freddie Newsom on a charge of incest was set for the same day.

Trial of Virgil Rogers on a charge of obtaining merchandise by false pretense was docketed for Jan. 4 after he was given a jury hearing to determine his mental capacity. He was adjudged sane. The same date was designated for the trials of Gilford Smith and Russell Isaac for grand larceny and Arnold Mosley and Elva Smith on a charge of knowingly receiving stolen property. Trials of Homer Thacker, accused of issuing a cold check, and Ralph R. Scott for drunk driving were set for Nov. 29.

JAYCEES HEAD 2 PROGRAMS

Essay Contest To End Nov. 20; Chamber Plans Aid For Underprivileged

The Prestonsburg Junior Chamber of Commerce announced this week that the Voice of Democracy program, now being conducted in Floyd county high schools, will end the week of November 15-20.

Floyd county's winning entrant will compete in the state finals in Louisville, December 15, according to Jaycee project chairman, John Heinze.

This program is part of an educational contest, designed to give high school students the opportunity to write and speak on the many blessings and freedoms of democracy. It is a nationwide contest which will end in February, when the winners will spend a week in Washington, D. C. and Williamsburg, Va. and a personal interview with the President of the United States will end the contest.

The Junior Chamber also announced a plan for aiding underprivileged children during the Christmas season.

The Jaycees' plan works like this: Everyone is asked to save box tops of Fab soap. For every two Fab boxtops turned in to the Jaycees, the makers of Fab will give one doll to them and they in turn will distribute the dolls to underprivileged children during Christmas week.

Containers will be placed in all grocery stores where the boxtops may be deposited. These containers will be picked up December 10.

Those wanting to mail these box tops are asked to send them to Barkley Sturgill or Gordon Moore, Prestonsburg Junior Chamber of Commerce, Prestonsburg.

Cats Defeat Paintsville, 19-12, To End Season Undefeated

By accomplishing a gridiron feat unprecedented in this section—the defeat of two top-rated teams in a period of three days—Doc Ferrell's Prestonsburg high school Black Cats, undefeated for the season, hold undisputed claim to the Eastern Kentucky Mountain Conference championship and are within a Bowl game victory of a claim on the mythical state championship.

The Cats, whose schedule was interrupted two weeks ago by the deaths of two players, met and defeated the powerful Whitesburg Yellow Jackets, Tuesday night, 21 to 6. To complete the schedule in time for preparation for the Recreation Bowl encounter at Mt. Sterling this week, they then played arch-rival Paintsville on Friday night, defeating that team, 19 to 12.

Although not as impressive as their victory over Whitesburg, a team that earlier in the season had defeated Paintsville, the Black Cats Friday night had in reserve the ingredients for victory when needed. They apparently felt the effects of playing two major foes within so short a period, and actually maintained a clear superiority only in the first half when they at one time held a 13-0 lead over the fired-up Tigers.

Despite costly fumbles in the second half, it was then that Prestonsburg ball-handling and sound football play paid off. The last touchdown, scored by "Punkin" Goble on a 63-yard run resulted from a play declared by observers "as sharp as you'll see pulled by any football team," with Quarterback Lowell Hughes engineering the thrust.

After the Cats had piled up a first period lead of 13-0, play became very ragged as easy blocks were missed and tackling on the whole was weak.

End Bert Dixon put Prestonsburg in command in the first quarter after picking up a Tiger fumble on the 30 and racing into the end zone. Quarterback Lowell Hughes added the margin 13-0 with a 4-yard plunge an extra point, following a 55-yard drive by Ronnie and Clifford Goble.

Paintsville retaliated before the half on a 60-yard trek by halfback Rodney Oney who eluded would-be tackles. "Jeep" Alexander and Joe P. Tackett, after taking a pass. The point after failed and the Black Cats held a 13-6 halftime margin.

C. Goble reeled off this 63-yard run to pay dirt in the third period and Hughes failed on the point after. Tackles Randall Wells and Donald Puckett stopped several Tigers threats with fine defensive efforts until the last quarter. Tackett's interception of a pass ended the last, despairing.

Paintsville narrowed the gap to 19-12 in the final frame when Jim Knight went over from 6 yards out, climaxing a march of some 60 yards.

By scoring in this last game of the schedule, C. Goble has now scored at least one touchdown in Prestonsburg's last 20 games and he is third in the state and second in the EKMC. Teammate Lowell Hughes is fourth with 104 points, seven less than Goble.

SPORTS CHATTER

By Gordon Moore

Prestonsburg's three previous Bowl appearances have netted three losses, but a win over Lafayette in Mt. Sterling's Recreation Bowl, Friday night, would give the local eleven considerable prestige for the Kentucky state high school championship. A loss, as in the three previous tries, would discredit a highly successful season.

In 1950, after winning 10 and losing 1, Prestonsburg lost, 33-18, to Highlands in the Recreation tilt. In 1951, following a 9-1 mark, the facts fell before a crack Bellevue unit, 39-0, in the same bowl. In 1952 Prestonsburg posted a 9-1 season's record, then bowed to Lynch in Paintsville's first annual Big Sandy Bowl.

Basketball is off to a flying start in the Floyd county schools, and Garrett appears to be the team to watch. John Campbell's Black Devils downed the veteran Hindman Yellow Jackets last Friday night.

The best prospects for the all-state high school team in this area are: Paul Sloan, Catlettsburg fullback; Lowell Hughes, Prestonsburg quarterback; Buddy Fields, Whitesburg halfback and Clifford and Ronnie Goble, Prestonsburg halfbacks. It is virtually impossible for all of these boys to make the first unit, but all should be one of the three elevens picked by the sportswriters, radio and television crews.

Note to Hunters... Fishing isn't hazardous.

The true hunter displays both sportsmanship and safety. He knows how to use the right gun for the right game. He hunts only in season and does not take the limit unless he can use the meat or trophies. For bird hunting, he takes a trained dog to retrieve cripples. He puts out campfires and cigarettes carefully, breaks matches before dropping them and in other ways always uses his head.

1. Treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun.
2. Carry only empty guns, taken down or with the action open, into your auto, camp and home.
3. Be sure that the barrel and actions are clear of obstructions.
4. Always carry your gun so that you can control the direction of the muzzle, even if you stumble.
5. Be sure of your target before you pull the trigger.
6. Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot.
7. Never leave your gun unattended unless you unload it first.
8. Never climb a tree or a fence with a loaded gun.
9. Never shoot at a flat hard surface or the surface of water.
10. Do not mix gunpowder and alcohol.

Wayland Opens Season With Win; Martin Scores 93-53 over Salyersville

The Wayland Wasps opened their 1954-55 basketball season last Friday night by routing Knott County, 78-46. Coach "Copper John" Campbell's squad led all the way and was sparked by guard Kelly Coleman, who scorched the nets for 38 points.

In other games of the young season Martin outshot Salyersville, 93-53. Wheelwright nipped Auxier, 50-48; McDowell downed Maytown, 59-55, and Betsy Layne fell before the Pikeville College freshmen, 45-75.

Cumberland-Pikeville To Meet Friday Night In Big Sandy Bowl

Paintsville expects more than 3,000 football fans, Friday, November 12, when once-beaten Cumberland will meet Pikeville in the fourth annual Big Sandy Bowl game.

Mrs. T. E. Walden, president of the Junior Woman's League which is sponsoring the game, said that bad weather had hampered advanced ticket sales, but sales for this week are rising rapidly.

Many things have contributed to the tremendous interest in this game. Perhaps the most important factor to be considered is whether

The motoramic Chevrolet for '55

Great new

Two new 6's

It's got a "V" in its bonnet— or your choice of two new sixes!

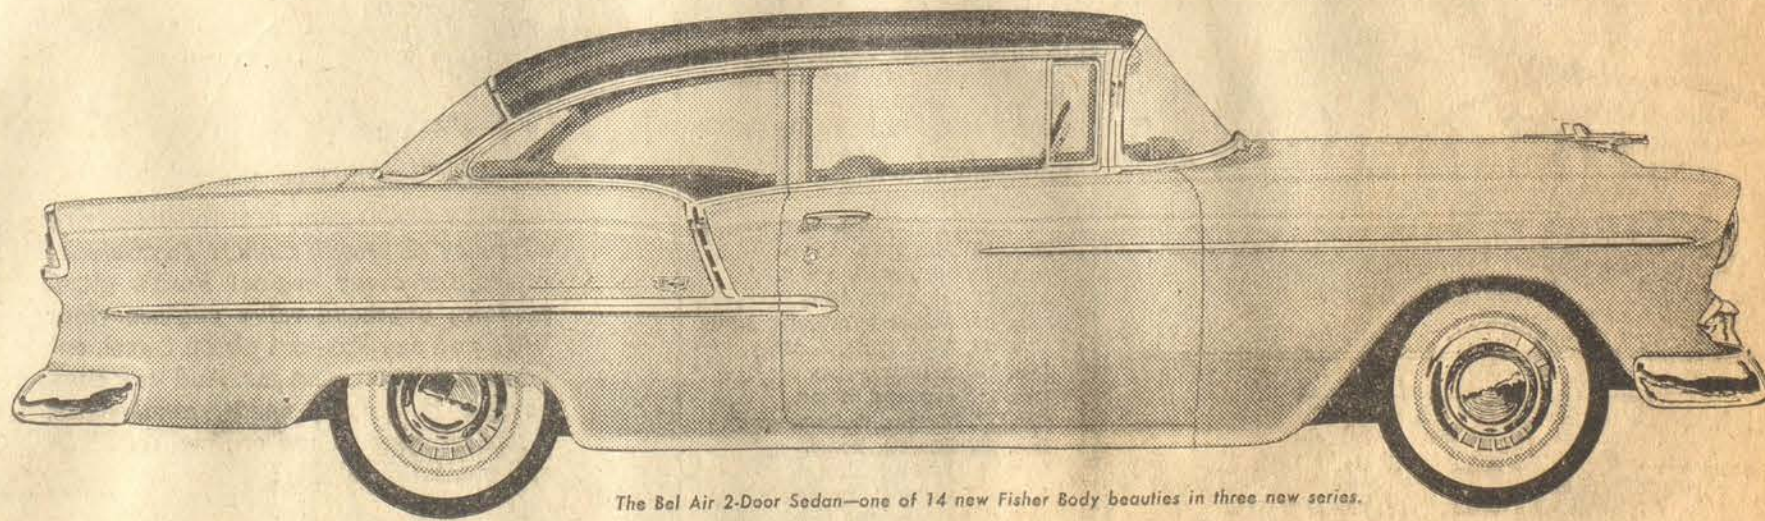

Chevrolet for '55

It's the valve-in-head V8 as only the valve-in-head leader can build it!

You'd expect Chevrolet to out-V8 the field—and it has! Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" puts a brand-new kind of excitement under your foot. The excitement of 162 horsepower! The excitement of an 8 to 1 ultra-high compression ratio that squeezes more pure fun out of a gallon of gas than you ever dreamed possible! The new "Turbo-Fire V8" is so wonderfully efficient that it requires only four quarts of oil instead of the usual five or more. And it has the shortest piston stroke in the low-price field, for longer engine life. But we can't even begin to give you the whole story here. Come in and let the new "Turbo-Fire V8" speak for itself. You'll like what it has to say!

With enough new advances to fill a book!

Chevrolet offers two new highstepping sixes for 1955! There's the new "Blue-Flame 136" (teamed with Powerglide as an extra-cost option) and the new "Blue-Flame 123." Both bring you new, higher-rated power—the zippy, thrifty high-compression kind. Both have new, more efficient cooling and lubrication systems... new engine mounts that result in almost unbelievable smoothness. And, like the new "Turbo-Fire V8," both are sparked by a new 12-volt electrical system for finer performance and faster cold-weather starting. All in all, they're the liveliest, smoothest sixes Chevrolet ever put into a passenger car. As you know, that covers a lot of territory. And so will you—with either of these two new sixes!

The Bel Air 2-Door Sedan—one of 14 new Fisher Body beauties in three new series.

More than a new car... a new CONCEPT of low-cost motoring (and much too good to miss driving!)

Miss Stewart Is Bride Of Mr. Paul J. Alaksa

Miss Vera G. Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stewart, 2118 E. 29th St., Lorain, O., and Mr. J. Paul Alaksa, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Masley, also of Lorain, were united in marriage Oct. 23, Floyd county relatives and friends have learned.

Rev. Fr. George Lawrence officiated at the nuptial mass in Holy Trinity church, which was decorated with ferns, palms, gladioli and chrysanthemums for the occasion.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father wearing a bridal gown of Chantilly lace and nylon net over satin. A long train cascaded from her full skirt. Her silk illusion veil fell from a crown of nylon net and imported blossoms. She carried a garland of roses and pompons.

Mrs. Mary Ziegman attended her as matron of honor, wearing a white nylon net over taffeta frock. A band of lilies of the valley, attached to a short veil, was worn in her hair. She carried a bouquet of yellow pompons and tulle roses.

Miss Patsy Kopronica and Miss Angie Diaz were bridesmaids, both appearing in orchid gowns designed identically with that of the matron of honor. They carried lavender pompons and Johanna Hill roses.

Attending the groom was Robert Mosley as best man. Ushers were Albert Kopronica and Elroy Hopke.

The bride, a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Halbert, of McDowell, and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stewart, of Minnie, was graduated from Lorain high school and is employed at Kline Brothers. The groom is a graduate of St. Mary high school and is employed at National Tubs Co.

SOIL, WATER LOANS READY

Conservation Work Set Up by New Act; Gov't Insures Loans

Soil and water conservation loans are available to eligible farmers in Kentucky, Earl Mayhew, State Director, Farmers Home Administration, said this week.

The loans may be used to carry out measures for soil conservation, water development, conservation, land use and drainage. This will include the construction and repair of terraces, dikes, ditches, ponds, and tanks, the establishment and improvement of permanent pastures, basic application of lime and fertilizer, tree planting, well drilling, and the purchase of pumps and other irrigation equipment.

The new loan program was made possible by legislation recently passed by the 83rd Congress.

Soil and water conservation loans may be made from funds supplied by private lenders and insured by the Government or from funds appropriated by Congress. Loans from appropriated funds will be made only when insured funds are not available. Loans, either direct or insured, will only be made when the applicant is unable to obtain the credit he needs at reasonable rates and terms from other sources. The Farmers Home Administration is authorized to insure loans up to a total of $25,000,000 each fiscal year. In addition, for fiscal 1955, Congress appropriated $11,500,000 for this type of assistance. Applications for all loans, either direct or insured, will only be made when the applicant is unable to obtain the credit he needs at reasonable rates and terms from other sources. The Farmers Home Administration is authorized to insure loans up to a total of $25,000,000 each fiscal year. In addition, for fiscal 1955, Congress appropriated $11,500,000 for this type of assistance. Applications for all loans, insured or direct, will be made at all the full time county offices of the Farmers Home Administration.

The three-member county committee of the Farmers Home Administration will certify the eligibility of applicants. Applications from veterans will receive preference in processing. Loans will be made to carry out only the types of soil and water conservation practices that are in accord with the recommendations made by the Extension Service and the Soil Conservation Service.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 8 (Spl.)—Kentucky's coal, oil and clay production declined last year as compared with 1952, A. D. Sisk, chief of the Department of Mines and Minerals, reported to Governor Wetherby.
 Coal mine tonnage fell from 64,515,091 tons to 63,535,507 tons while oil production dropped to 424,605 barrels from 1,917,903 barrels in 1952. The state's 72 clay mines' tonnage was 889,775 compared with 1,003,687 tons for the preceding year.

The department reported, too, that 46,789 men were employed in the coal mining industry, in 2,214 mines—while for the preceding year it was 53,742 men in 2,367 mines. Rail production was 50,442,722 tons, while truck mine production totaled 13,092,785 tons. In addition, Sisk reported that there were 59 mine casualties for the year, or an average of one for each 1,076,873 tons produced.

Foremen Attend Scout Finance Meeting

Foremen of the Inland Steel Company, Wheelwright, attended a meeting in support of the Boy Scout statewide finance campaign recently. The meeting, held in Pikeville, was for the purpose of enlisting the aid of the foremen in the local council drive.

The finance campaign, launched for the first time last year, is a co-ordinated effort in which all Scout Councils in the state conduct their finance drive at the same time. This eliminates the overlapping of campaigns as in the past.

Guest-speaker at the meeting was Robert L. Billington, regional Scout executive. He commented on the work of the foremen in the past and charged them with their responsibilities as campaign workers.

Foremen attending expressed their views on last year's campaign and pledged themselves to increased effort in the drive this year.

Winter Driving Dangers Cited by Safety Official

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 8 — Keeping the wintertime traffic accident toll on Kentucky's highways to a minimum will call for increased personal responsibility on the part of every motorist and pedestrian, Charles B. Jones, executive secretary of the Governor's Highway Safety Committee declared today.

He called attention to the fact that Kentucky's 1954 fatal accident toll through November 2nd showed a decrease of 12 per cent in comparison to the 1953 death rate. The state official pointed out that 599 persons had died on highways of the Commonwealth through the 2nd compared to 681 during the same period last year, a decrease of 82 lives.

The safety coordinator added a note of caution to these remarks by reminding motorists that the coming months are an acid test to highway users. "The fatality toll traditionally rises throughout the closing months of the year," Jones said.

He recommended careful study and practice of six fundamental rules of safe winter driving:

1. Accept your responsibility to do all in your power to drive without accident.
2. Get the feel of the road.
3. Keep windshields clear of snow and ice, fog and frost.
4. Use tire chains and have good tires.
5. Pump your brakes to slow down or stop.
6. Follow at a safe distance.

SUNDAY HUNTING BLUE LAW NOT TO BE ENFORCED IN KY.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 6 (Spl.)—Kentucky's Conservation Officers, or Game Wardens, have no authority to enforce a one hundred year old Blue Law which prohibits hunting on Sunday in this state, Earl Wallace, Commissioner of the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, announced today.

This statement was issued by Mr. Wallace following persistent reports emanating from other sections of Kentucky that Sunday hunting would be banned this year by the Department. Mr. Wallace pointed out that the Blue Law under which hunting may be banned can be enforced only by peace officers and then a warrant must be issued by the property owner on whose property the hunting occurs. There is no regulation under which a Conservation Officer may make an arrest for Sunday hunting, Mr. Wallace said, and therefore no arrests will be attempted by personnel of this Department. Furthermore, Mr. Wallace said, Sunday is the only day on which some of the sportsmen find time to hunt. Mr. Wallace advised all hunters, however, to obtain permission of property owners before attempting to hunt. Permission should be obtained not only on Sunday but on any day that a sportsman wishes to hunt. It is only common decency for the hunter to ask permission before going on a man's property, he pointed out, and the land owner will feel much better about it if permission is sought.

Scout Leaders Attend Training Work

Junior Scout leaders receive instruction in rope work from Don Gibson, of Wheelwright.

Two training courses were held for leaders of the Jenny Wiley Boy Scout district on the weekend of October 22-24. The training, held at Camp Shawnee, consisted of a junior leaders' training course and a Scoutmasters' basic training course.

The junior leader training course was the first of its kind to be held in this district. Top boy leaders received instruction in Scouting skills and troop and patrol organization. The boys functioned as a troop, helping to plan and execute their own program. Forty-one boy leaders attended the week-end affair. Ten troops from the district were represented.

Following the junior leaders, the adult leaders of the district attended a training course on troop administration. Leaders had the opportunity of seeing films of the ideal in troop administration. Instruction was given in Scout skills such as axeman-ship, rope work, compass work, rope making, and outdoor cooking. Each leader participated in the demonstrations, learning the various skills by actually doing them. Leaders present expressed the view that a regular schedule of training activities should be planned.

HUNT SEASON TO OPEN SOON

Trapping, Game Seasons Open Saturday, Nov. 20, Extend Through Jan. 18

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 8—Kentucky's hunting season is in the offing. Wednesday, November 17, at 12 noon, the waterfowl season opens and on the following Saturday, November 20, rabbits and quail may be killed.

Shooting hours for the 55-day waterfowl season are from one-half hour before sunrise until sunset except on the opening day, when shooting begins at 12 o'clock noon and continues until sunset. The 60 day rabbit and quail season will close on January 18. In all shooting only guns which will hold no more than three shells in the magazine and barrel combined may be used. A hunting license is required for all hunting in Kentucky except for residents over 65 and in addition waterfowl hunters, over 16 years of age, must also have a duck stamp which may be purchased at post-offices.

In addition to rabbits and quail, squirrels may be killed from November 20 through December 31, this being the second half of the split season which was decreed this year.

Ten quail may be killed each day and the possession limit after two or more days of hunting is 20. For rabbits the daily limit is eight and not more than 16 may be possessed after two or more days of hunting.

The season for trapping and taking raccoon, opossum, mink, skunk, muskrat and red fox opens on November 20 and extends through January 18. There is no limit on these furbearers.

OLYMPIC DRIVE ENDORSED

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 8 — Governor Wetherby endorsed the campaign designed to raise $1,000,000 to recruit, train, lodge and feed United States athletes selected to struggle for America's continued superiority in the 1956 Olympic Games—and asked Kentuckians to contribute generously to attain this objective.

HUGHES FAMILY HAS TWO QUARTERBACKS IN RESERVE

By GORDON MOORE

Football is the major sport and chief topic of conversation in the Hughes household in Prestonsburg.

Four sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. Thurman Hughes—John Delmar, Lowell, Paul Phillip and Francis Carroll—have kept, and apparently for some time will continue to keep, Black Cat teams supplied with quarterbacks.

There is nothing unusual about the physiques of the sports-minded youths who enjoy playing football, and the three at home spend the majority of their free time passing the pigskin in and around the backyard.

Although Mr. Hughes never played football himself, he is kept busy watching all the boys play, and he keeps a close watch on training habits. Last season, he traveled 10,000 miles to watch all of the University of Kentucky's games and see his eldest son, John Delmar, perform.

During the 1950, 1951 and 1952 seasons, John Delmar, a sophomore quarterback on this year's University of Kentucky team, rewrote every Prestonsburg high school scoring record and established many state-wide marks.

In master-minding 23 games in the three-year span, he attempted 397 passes, completed 271 for 3,401 yards, heaved 51 touchdown passes, scored 25 six-pointers and booted 67 extra points.

Twice an all-state high school choice, Delmar passed for at least one touchdown in every game except five and scored Prestonsburg's lone T.D. in three of these.

Lowell, a six-foot, one-inch 170-pound, 17-year-old Junior, moved into the quarterback spot last season and promptly assumed the family grid job with the Cats. His sophomore year records show: 104 passes attempted with 70 completions for 803 yards, passed for eight touchdowns, scored six, and annexed 15 extra points.

This season, Lowell is well on the way to erasing the records of his older brother. He has paced the Blackcats to an undefeated season as the top offensive unit in the state. A favorite topic of argument with Monday morning quarterbacks is which is the better player, Delmar or Lowell.

The first sub for Lowell is his 14-year-old brother, Paul Phillip, a freshman who has seen action in three games and who already has crossed the double markers once, not to mention completing two passes.

Francis Carroll, a seventh grader, is too young for the competitive sport, but the two big brothers at home can be seen giving him passing pointers and ball-handling duties any afternoon, long after, Coach Doc Ferrell has sent his lads home from organized practice.

Mrs. Hughes, an ardent fan, never misses a high school game or a home University of Kentucky contest.

Expect 3,000 To See Game

or not Pikeville, which had a mid-season slump, will be able to stop the powerful Cumberland Redskins.

Cumberland, whose only loss came at the hands of a powerful Danville eleven last week-end, has won nine consecutive games with three of these nine games being played in one-week period. Cumberland boasts of Ronny Cain and Jack Gallagher, two of the best backs in the state, and is out to avenge its loss to a strong Catlettsburg team in the bowl game last year.

Since submitting to Prestonsburg for its first loss of the season, injury-riddled Pikeville has had trouble trying to finish out their schedule. The Panthers have canceled their season finale with Jenkins, so that they will be in full strength for the Cumberland contest.

The bowl also will feature several added attractions during the day of the game and at halftime. A parade, led by the color guard of the Marine Corps Reserve, of Huntington, W. Va., will begin at 3:30 p.m. Floats, bands, queens and all that goes into making a parade will follow.

Winners of the float contest will be made Friday afternoon preceding the game. The queen will be selected immediately following the parade and the announcement will be made at halftime ceremonies. This year's queen will be crowned by "Miss Kentucky" of 1954, Diane Hunt, of Lexington.

The game will start at 8:00 p.m. and tickets will be sold at the gates. A dance at the old high school gymnasium will end the day's festivities.
