SPEAKING OF AND FOR FLOYD COUNTY

PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY

JULY 19, 1956

THURSDAY

This Town— That World

ANENT APOLOGIES

If any apologies are due, and we suspect there may be, for this issue of The Times, allow us to say that Hooker and Buck are pinch-hitting for the senior ed who is vacationing at Myrtle Beach.

CUSTOMS CHANGE

She came through the front door, found her way through the semi-darkness of the room. She didn't step on any of the children's toys or slip on a comic book. Expecting to find the room empty, she found a seat her seat and sat down. No one spoke.

Strange? Not a bit. The seeming lack of courtesy is a part of the changing amenities of the times. When our visitor arose to leave, we like good hosts, pulled in our knees and turned the bluish-blah of the commercial down.

MAYBE IT'S A SYMBOL

An Associated Press story of last Saturday tells of burning crosses planted near the homes of top Washington officials and a chairman of a local colored organization. Two students of George Washington University discovered and kicked over the one that was set up before a Jewish residence.

It may be that the action of the two students is a symbol of the

SPEED TRAP SET AT ALLEN

City Council, Police Chief Issues Warning; License Revocation Threatened

"Warning, Allen is a speed trap," says the members of the City Council and Chief of Police Frank Crum.

"Allen, beset with speeders, has at last decided to crack down," Crum said. "The citizens of tomorrow are playing on the streets and we intend to protect our children. The courts here will double the fine the second time, and will fine and revoke licenses for the third offense."

The Allen City Council, in a meeting Tuesday evening, decided on a more stringent enforcement of the speed laws. Signs will be erected at each end of town so that no motorist can plead ignorance.

"Yes, it's a speed trap," the Allen policeman said in a prepared statement. "Traffic violations must be stopped in the City of Allen. We have a device to check the speed of all traffic through Allen and anyone caught violating the law, particularly in reference to excessive speeds, scratching-off or with open mufflers, will be dealt with strongly. No one can put a price tag on a human life but we can and will make the chance of an accident less."

The decision to deal harshly with violators was made by the City Council as speeding and other violations are on the increase, Crum said.

RADIO SYSTEM INSTALLATION BEING MADE

On Floyd Sheriffs' Cars; County Towns To Assist In Program, Collins Says

The two-way radio system envisioned by Sheriff Gorman Collins for the last two years as an aid to law enforcement in this county was becoming a reality this week. Radio Engineering and Maintenance Corporation, of Lexington, is installing the tower, the necessary receiving and broadcasting units.

Cost of the system, approximately $5,600, was raised by public subscription. It will consist of a tower, located on the hill overlooking town near the present Flanery and Dingus TV tower, an auxiliary unit in the sheriff's office where the system's controls will be located and equipment on five cars of the deputies. The receiving and sending units on the cars will be allocated one to each magisterial district and one on the car of Chief Deputy Sheriff Troy Mullins.

Collins says that several of the Floyd county towns are planning to cooperate in the system. Allen has already installed a unit in its policeman's car and Wheelwright will put in two units, Martin, Prestonsburg and Wayland, one each.

Liaison will be maintained with

FRED MARTIN TRANSFERRED

Personnel Shuffle Made In Park Management; Four More Laid Off

Personnel changes were in the process of being effected at Dewey Lake State Park this week. Park Manager Fred Martin, who succeeded Tom Clark, will be transferred, July 31, to "some other branch of the state government", according to Laban Jackson, Commissioner of Conservation.

Succeeding Mr. Martin for the present is Ford Nunnally, superintendent of Boat Docks and Equipment, in the State Division of Parks, Herschell Riordan, who is in charge of physical control of the division was at the park this week making a routine check which he said is always done "when a shuffle of personnel occurs."

Four others laid off effective July 31 are Frankie Woods, Clyde Turner, Harvey Spears and Shirley Morrison. Mr. Jackson pointed out that their layoff may be temporary as business at the park is not now at its height.

The transfer of Martin, Mr. Jackson said, was "in no way a reflection on him. Preachers and service clubs were making com-

LEAGUE SEEKS VACATION OF

High Court in Cases Brought in Floyd-co.;

Motion Is Made June 8

Lexington attorney Jesse K. Lewis asked the Court of Appeals Friday of last week to disqualify itself in three suits brought by the Floyd County Good Government Taxpayers League. His motion was in a petition that sought a rehearing of three suits dismissed by the appellate court June 8.

The three suits were Joe H. Cooley et al vs. Troy Sturgill; Polk Saunders et al vs. DuRan Moore, individually, and as County Court Clerk; and the Good Government Taxpayers League, Inc., et al vs. A. B. Meade, as sheriff. The fiscal court was made a party defendant in each action.

Lewis' motion asking the seven judges of the appellate court to disqualify themselves is the first of its kind within memory. The court on occasion has voluntarily declined to hear a case.

One such time was last year when disbarment proceedings were brought against Lewis and Commonwealth's Attorney Burnis Martin. The proceedings grew out of the suits against the county officials.

The court's dismissal of the suits upheld Special Circuit Judge Law-

Mrs. Pebble Rader, 32, Former Floyd Resident Dies in Lima Hospital

Mrs. Pebble Rader, 32, of Lima, O., but formerly of Manton, this county, died at the Lima Memorial hospital, at 6:10 p.m., Saturday of last week. She was the victim of a kidney ailment. She was ill three months.

Mrs. Rader was a daughter of the late Silas Colley and Mrs. Ella Anderson Colley, of Emma. Her husband, Roger Rader, survives. Surviving children are Danny Ray, Mary Elizabeth, and Geneva Catherine, all at home. Brothers and sisters surviving are Tivis Coley, and Mrs. Lexie Click, both of Lima, and Mrs. Beva Halbert, of Allen.

Funeral rites were conducted at 1 p.m., Wednesday, at the chapel of the Hall Bros. Funeral Home, the Revs. Howard Colley and Willard Akers officiating. Burial was made in the May cemetery at Alphoretta.

JAYCEES ASK FOR MARKERS

On Lake Where Deaths Have Occurred; Letter Addressed To Manager

The Prestonsburg Junior Chamber of Commerce wants to mark the places on Dewey Lake where fatalities have occurred, it was noted this week.

Byron Thompson, safety director of the Jaycees, wrote J. R. Weaver, July 14, reservoir manager, requesting such permission. Thirteen deaths have occurred at the lake since the recreation area was opened.

The letter to Weaver, written at the direction of the Chamber, said:

"In an effort to assist safety regulations and preserve human lives, the Prestonsburg Junior Chamber of Commerce would like to secure permission from you and the U. S. Corps of Engineers to erect markers (possibly white crosses) at the spots on the bank near the water where people have lost their lives at Dewey Lake.

"It is the desire of the Prestonsburg Jaycees to aid you and the U. S. Corps of Engineers in every possible way and we feel that the white markers would possibly induce the many lake users to be more cautious and careful in the operations of their boats.

"You and your staff are doing an excellent and capable job in every respect, and in any way that we can be of future service to you please feel free to call on us."

FARMER QUILTS AS POLICEMAN

Former P'burg Trooper Meted Fine, Suspension; Political Activity, Cited

State policeman Carl M. Farmer, formerly stationed at Prestonsburg, but now at the Dry Ridge post of the State Police near Williamstown, was fined 2 per cent of his salary for a year for attending the Madison County Democratic Convention June 30 in uniform.

The fine was assessed Wednesday of last week. Farmer resigned Tuesday of this week, saying: "I feel there might be some prejudice against me in the department in the future."

The punishment was meted by State Police Commissioner P. A. B. Widener, III. Farmer earns $320 a month, hence, the fine would be $7.60.

Farmer was under a 15-day suspension for "misconduct" other than his activities at the party convention. His suspension ended Monday.

Don Sturgill, State-police counsel, said Widener wrote a letter to the 275 State policemen to clarify their political rights.

Sturgill said the letter prohibited political activity—factional or otherwise—by the troopers. Governor Chandler has agreed with Widener's views, Sturgill added.

Earlier last week, Assistant Attorney General Walter C. Herdman said in an opinion that Farmer had a right to stand up and vote publicly for the Chandler faction at the convention. The law forbidding political activity by State police did not apply in that instance, said Herdman.

On the other hand, the opinion said, the presence of the trooper in uniform was improper and should be forbidden in the future by regulation.

15-YEAR-OLD WIFE KILLED

By Husband At Stearns; Mrs. Yancey, Floyd Native Buried At Betsy Layne

Ruby Faye Yancey, 15-year-old housewife and native of the Harold section of this county, was shot to death by her crippled husband, Donald Yancey, 23, at Stearns, Whitley county, last Saturday morning. The tragedy occurred around 9:30 on the drive-way of their home.

According to the dead woman's mother, Mrs. Della Potter Harvel, her daughter and a small neighbor boy had gone to the postoffice while her husband, crippled since last year in an auto accident, drove the family car to the local bank. While on the way back home she and the accompanying boy were picked up by her husband and a quarrel ensued. Yancey had a pistol. The mother says that as her daughter was alighting from the car the husband fired, the bullet entering the head above the left eye.

Mrs. Yancey was taken to a local hospital but died within three hours without regaining consciousness. Yancey was jailed at Whitley City.

Mrs. Yancey was a daughter of Harvey Harvel and Della Porter Harvel, now of Conway, Va. Surviving besides the parents are the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Lauren Taylor, Mrs. June Meadows, Loretta, Iola, Dorothy Jean and Harvey H. Harvel, all of Conway, and Mrs. Bernice Kendrick, of Mouthcard, Pike county.

The body was brought to the home of the grandmother, Mrs. Allie Harvel, at Harold, Tuesday evening. Funeral rites were conducted at the home there today (Thursday) at 2 p.m., the Rev. Carl Layne officiating. Burial was made in the Bill Layne cemetery.

CHURCH BODY STAGES MEET

Freewill Organization Gathers at Huntington; Is First In This Area

Several delegates from the local churches in this county attended the National Association of Freewill Baptists held at Huntington and ending last Thursday. It was the first time the national organization held its annual meeting in this section of the United States and it was brought to Huntington by the united effort of the churches in the tri-state area. Last year's meet was held in Oklahoma City.

Elections and business sessions closed the meeting Thursday. It was the twentieth annual conference of the national group. Final meetings were held at the Hotel Pritchard.

The delegates of the Freewill churches from all sections of the country heard some fundamental doctrines of the church expounded by nationally recognized speakers. In an address to the more than 1,800 delegates, Dr. Ivan L. Bennett, former chief of Army chaplains, told the association that no boy or girl should be permitted to graduate from high school without having read the entire Bible.

"The church should realize its responsibility for instructing young people in religious education," the retired major general declared in an address at city auditorium. "Under the guidance of the family and the church, every youth should be instructed in the Scriptures."

Dr. Bennett now is in charge of the American Bible Society's distribution.

Mrs. Peggy Gibson, 65, Of Dema, Succumbs, At Home, Last Friday

Mrs. Peggy Gibson, 65, of Dema, died last Friday, at 3:30 p.m., at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Nebraska Mullins. The cause of death was not given.

She was a daughter of the late Andy and Sarah Caudill and the widow of Ben Gibson. She had no surviving brothers or sisters. Surviving children, besides Mrs. Mullins, are Andy, Sylvester, Daniel, Maynard, Leonard, all at home, Mrs. Neola Meade, Mrs. Clarice Stone, and Mrs. Ursie Stone.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m., Monday, at the Caney Fork church at Raven, the Revs. Sherman Stone, E. V. Hopkins, Hawley Warrens, and Eppie Holbrook officiating. Burial was made in the Gibson cemetery at Raven under the direction of the Turner-Ryan Funeral Home.

County 4-H Club Council Slates Meeting Saturday At Dewey Lake Boat Dock

The Floyd county 4-H Club Council has a meeting scheduled Saturday, at the Dewey Lake boat dock, beginning at 5 o'clock. Loredo Jamandre, native Filipino, who is studying extension work in this country, and Alois Rohrmoser, of Germany, who is an exchange of the International Rarm Youth Exchange program, will be present.

Rohrmoser arrived in this county Monday and is staying with the Arnold Lowe family at Eastern. He leaves Aug. 1.

The 4-H Club members and friends will enjoy a picnic at the Saturday outing and families are asked to bring baskets.

FLOYD GROUP AT FRANKFORT

Highway Heads Pledge County Cooperation In Road Development

A delegation of six persons from this county met with Rural Highway Commissioner J. B. Wells, Jr., and other high state government officials at Frankfort Monday to discuss and plan the county's highway construction program. They were asked to come to Frankfort by the Commissioner last week.

Meeting with Wells, Highway Commissioner Bert Kiser and Acting Governor Harry Lee Waterfield were two members of the fiscal court, Ellis Martin and Grover Holbrook, with State Representative Lon C. Hill, Tax Commissioner Clive Akers, H. D. Fitzpatrick, Jr., and Jerry F. Howell.

Wells assured the group of the cooperation of the present administration in the development of a road-building program for the county. Several projects were discussed, among them being the work on the Auxier road and the construction of the sidewalks from town to the new high school building. The Auxier project will be resumed in a week or two, the delegation was told, and the advertisement of the sidewalk job will be done immediately, they were informed.

Work on resurfacing U. S. 23 from Prestonsburg to Pikeville for which a contract was let a few weeks ago will be started by August 1.

WARDEN PICKS UP 77 STRAYS

In Scattered Towns Over County; Owners Asked to Buy Tags

Alternating from one end of the county to the other, Dog Warden Roy Cook, of Drift, was picking up strays the last two weeks. A total of 77 dogs were headed for the pound at Drift by Wednesday, Cook said.

"I'm having trouble convincing people their dog tags expired June 30," Cook told The Times. "I'm doing my best, though, to get it through their heads. Dog owners must buy tags to comply with the law."

The warden has left tags at Drift Service Station, Oak Mullins' residence at Wayland, Francis Hardware store, at Garrett, the Prestonsburg Police station and in the office of Sheriff Gorman Collins here. "This is purely a matter of public convenience and the dog owners may purchase their tags at these places without hunting me up," he said.

The warden suggested that persons having strays to pick up to notify their police departments and the message will be relayed to him.

Places "worked" recently by the warden are Right Beaver Creek towns down to Garrett and Auxier on the river.

Fitzpatrick Named Eastern Regent Second Time by Governor Chandler

Henry D. Fitzpatrick, Sr., Prestonsburg banker, was appointed a regent of Eastern Kentucky State College, Richmond, Tuesday, by Governor A. B. Chandler. Mr. Fitzpatrick's present term will be his fifth, constituting one of the longest periods anyone has served in that capacity. Announcement of the appointment was made by Henry G. Davis, the Governor's executive secretary.

Appointed to serve with Fitzpatrick were former Governor Flem D. Sampson, who first named the Prestonsburg man to the regency of the same institution in 1925. Serving the present regency term with Fitzpatrick will be former Governor Keen Johnson who also selected him to the same position for his fourth term. Fitzpatrick's second appointment was made by Governor Ruby Lafoon,

MINE MISHAP KILLS WICKER

At Midas Last Week; Shuttle Car Operator Contacts Electric Wire

Basil Lee Wicker, 35, of Mousie was electrocuted in a mine accident Wednesday of last week while hauling coal on a shuttle buggy for the Hall and Coal Company at Midas. Instantly, it was said.

It is said that Wicker, operator of a shuttle buggy, a mine conveyance as part of general duties, was making the second trip of the day outside the mine when he observed an electric cable burning in two in the car. He came in contact with a high voltage line. Approximate time was seven o'clock, witnesses said.

Mr. Wicker was a son of J. and Rosa Belle Hicks Wicker, both surviving, and the husband of Etta Wicker, who also survives. Surviving are the following children and step-children: Ed, Vernon, Jerry Lane, Sandra Kay, Lena Sue, all at home, Don of Gary, Ind., Mrs. Peggy Wicker, Hammond, Ind., Mrs. Mintie Wicker, Gary, Ind., and I. Gerald Gibson, in the armed services. Brothers and sisters surviving are Tom Wicker, and Basil Wicker, both of Mousie.

FLOYD LOGGER TREE VICTIM

In Pike County; Was World War I Veteran; Foreman Is Injured

Floyd Cornett, 61, former resident of the Johns Creek section of this county, was killed by a falling tree Wednesday of last week while at work on Big Creek, near Hatfield, on a logging job. Hayes Manrick, of Matewan, W. Va., foreman for the R. L. Cook Lumber Company, also was injured although not seriously by the death tree.

Mr. Cornett was a veteran of World War I and had resided at Hatfield the last six years. He was born at Thomas, the son of the late Jerry Cornett. His wife, Edna Cornett, survives.

Surviving are the following sons and daughters: Theodore Cornett, of Sidney, Hatler Cornett, Logan, W. Va., Mrs. Barbara Maynard, Turkey Creek, Ky., Mrs. Sylvia Mauna, Fallen, Nev., and Miss Lucille Cornett, of Hatfield. Two brothers, John and Hobart Cornett, both of Thomas, this county, and a sister, Mrs. Virgil Adams, of Lexington, survive.

Funeral arrangements were under the direction of the Belfry Funeral Home.

SCHOOL FUNDS ARE SUBJECT OF BANK SUIT

First National Asks Court for Permission To Offer Interest Bid

Suits was filed Monday in Circuit Court here by the First National Bank asking it be allowed to bid as a depository for the school funds of the county Board of Education. The action, prepared by Combs and Combs, named the Board, its members and the Bank Josephine as parties defendant.

The First National Bank recites eleven alleged facts and Kentucky statutes in support of its petition. Item One identifies the two banks. The other ten points are:

2. July 1, 1955 to July 1, 1956 the First National Bank was the depository of the school funds of the Floyd County Board of Education for which it paid $1,200 in interest.

3. On July 1, 1956 the Board withdrew the funds from the First National Bank and placed them on deposit in the Bank Josephine.

4. Prior to July 1, 1956 the First National Bank requested the Board and the County Superintendent to allow competitive bidding for the deposit of the funds. The plaintiff bank states that it would have paid $2,000 in interest but that it had no opportunity to submit a bid.

5. The petition points out KRS 160.570 that provides a depository of school funds may be designated for a period not to exceed two

Filipino Student of 4-H Clubs Says Islands' Hope is Youth

Inspecting the strawberry field of Clarence Frasure, (with hoe), 4-H Club boy of Bonanza, are Donald Claypool, (right), assistant county agent, and Loredo Jamandre, of the Philippines, who is here studying extension activities. In center are Mrs. Willie Frasure and small daughter.

Loredo Jamandre, a 4-H district leader in the Philippines, is still amazed. "No more than we leave Tokyo, Japan, than we arrive in Washington, D. C., he says.

"Suddenly," said the middle-aged Filipino, whose youthful looks are deceiving, "I realized my dream as a grown man. That of seeing the United States."

"I have come to the United States as a member of six-man crew whose principal objective is the observation of the methods and techniques of conducting 4-H clubs. I especially am observing the development of leadership, the co-operation of parents with the clubs, the success of 4-H projects conducted by teen-age members," he pointed out.

"And I have also come to the United States to observe the modern technique of farm lands which is taught to farmers by the extension department of colleges throughout America. In my land we have the soil and the climate to farm the whole year around. We have the natural resources, which, if we had the know-how or methods, we could raise our standard of living.

He stated that the hope of his country is youth. "They are the ones who have the boundless enthusiasm to work the fields. These are the ones who must be led away from the old ways and accept the new ones of modern farming. We must break away from ignorance and

Small "Twister" Performs "Devilish" Deed; Upsets "Old Fashion Gospel" Tent

Small twister swept in and knocked down the "Old Fashion Gospel Hour" tent located at the twin bridge junction in Martin. The large sign in front of the tent wasn't touched. According to Mr. Clarence Wolfe who leads the singing for the meetings being held in the tent, the twister "just seemed to come and he reports the wind not only lifted the tent but also lifted him about three feet off the ground. "It seemed that for a few minutes, I was floating, then I fell to the floor of the tent."

The accident occurred just a few hours before evangelist Phil Young from Paducah, the speaker for the meetings, was to speak on the subject "When the Devil and his Wife Take Their Vacation." Commenting on the matter Mr. Young said "It is evident from this that the Devil is not on his vacation yet."

growing tolerance of America. It may be that education of the head and heart will finally make the burning cross a relic of the past.

NO WORDS SUFFICE

On a news story of last week from the Sentinel-Echo of London, Ky., this column does not comment. Words here would be an inadequate groping for the inexpressible and even if eloquence kissed the hand and mind, no language would suffice.

We quote: "A young mother drowned in a rain-swollen creek Tuesday, July 3, when she gave up her innertube to save an 11-year-old boy, at the mouth of Line Creek in the Rockcastle River. She could not swim."

"Althine Arthur Decker, 25, mother of two, was swept into deep water by a swift current after she threw the innertube on which she was floating to Denton Burdine who was floundering nearby."

Her brother, Donald Arthur, 15, swam to the boy.

They were in shallow water in an old roadbed when Denton Burdine got into deep water and went down twice. Neighbors said that the Burdine boy was learning to swim and that he had been washed into deep water by the current. With them was another of Mrs. Decker's brothers, Larry, and her daughter, Deborah.

"Her body was found Wednesday, 60 yards from the swimming hole, which is in front of her house."

TOO MUCH CORN

The senior editor usually ends this column with a joke, most of the time original, well it originated you know. Which reminds of one in which too much corn figured.

He was a fisherman who not only took along his bait and gear but a jug of spirits to comfort him on the water. So one day he fished late, and having imbibed too much, he allowed his boat to drift downstream. It grew dark. A swirling current caught up the fragile craft, swung it around and around in a huge circle in the river. Some rural folk were having a square dance at a farmhouse back from the river bank and the "loaded" fisherman, when his boat approached that side of the stream, could hear the fiddling and the calling of the "sets."

About daybreak the fisherman passed out but a friendly boatman pulled near and awakened him. "How far you come, Mister?" the devotee of Walton and the jug was asked. "Well, I don't rightly know," the bleary-eyed answered. "But one thing I can say. Every house I passed they were fiddling and dancing."

years "and before entering upon its duties shall agree with the Board as to the rate of interest."

6. The petition also cites KRS 166.210 which provides that an employee of a school system may not, if he has any pecuniary interest in "supplying goods or services" for which funds are expended, enter into such a contract, and if he does his office is vacant.

7. The plaintiff affirms that no one connected with the Board of Education can legally profit from a contract with the Board.

8. It is alleged that County Superintendent V. O. Turner is a stockholder in The Bank Josephine.

9. It alleges that Joe Hobson, attorney for the Floyd County Board of Education is a stockholder and director of The Bank Josephine.

10. W. A. Spradlin, a member of the Floyd County Board of Education since the merger of the city and county systems, is an assistant cashier of The Bank Josephine.

11. The plaintiff bank says in its petition that the action of the Board, without requiring interest from The Bank Josephine was "arbitrary and capricious and an abuse of the Board's discretion."

The First National Bank asks that it be permitted to bid and if it is the low bidder that it be designated the depository of the school funds. It also asks the court to enjoin the Board from designating The Bank Josephine from serving as the depository in the absence of a contract to pay interest.

Both the Prestonsburg banks are members of F. D. I. C. and Joe Hobson, attorney for the Board of Education says that "it is a violation of the Federal statutes for a member of the F. D. I. C. to pay interest on demand deposits."

"Interest may be paid only on time deposits, saving accounts and certificates of deposit which are maintained and against which no withdrawals are made for a period of six months. . . . If The Bank Josephine violated this law it would be subject to a fine of $100," Hobson wrote in a prepared statement to The Times.

Pony League Solicits Funds This Saturday, Leslie Announces

Edward B. Leslie, commissioner of the Prestonsburg Pony League, has issued a call to the citizens of Prestonsburg "to reach down deep in their pockets to help defray expenses incurred this year."

Youngsters in baseball uniform will be making the appeal for funds this Saturday when they will pass through Prestonsburg places of business.

Since the Pony League is considered as a part of the Prestonsburg recreational program, Leslie expressed confidence in the Prestonsburg people to support the drive. He said that the Pony League owes approximately $125.

Bituminous coal dumpings at Lake Erie ports through July 2, 1956 totaled 309,183 cars, 23,554 cars above the same period last year. Lake Ontario dumpings were 23,100 cars and 25,534 cars respectively. Dumpings at Chicago through June 20 were 32,556 cars and 30,312 cars.

Shorn Wool Market Price Averages Are Announced; Payments Expected Aug. 1

Mr. Roy C. Gray, Chairman of the State ASC Committee, announced recently that the national average price received by producers for shorn wool marketed during the 1955 marketing year was 42.8 cents per pound. He stated that this means that producers who filed applications for shorn wool incentive payments will receive an incentive payment of $44.90 for each $100.00 that they received from the sale of shorn wool and that producers who filed applications for lambs and yearlings incentive payments will receive 77 cents per cwt. of live animals which were sold for slaughter.

Mr. Gray went on to say that local ASC offices will begin making payments to producers who have filed applications about August 15, 1956, and that it will not be necessary for producers to go to their county ASC office to receive their incentive payment as it will be mailed directly to the producer.

Mine Jeep Sparks Kill Pike-co. Man; Another Injured in Explosion

Sparks, possibly from a mine jeep, ignited a gas pocket in the Osborne Coal Corporation mine at nearby Goody, Pike county, killing one man and slightly injuring another last Thursday.

The dead man is John Gilman, 61, Turkey Creek, Ky., third-shift foreman. His body was recovered near the jeep by members of a rescue crew and federal and state mine inspectors about 5 hours after the blast.

Earl Edgar Van Hoose, 50, formerly of Johnson county, motorman, his light knocked out, made his way to the outside about an hour and a half after the accident.

Van Hoose suffered facial burns, but did not require hospital treatment.

Deputy coroner Russell Rodgers, of Pike county, who conducted an inquest, received Van Hoose's statement as to the probable cause of the accident but returned no findings.

Van Hoose and Gilman both were equipped with respirators, but Gilman appeared to have been killed outright. The two men were on a fire-test run at the time.

Members of the rescue crew, from the Eastern Coal Corporation mine at Stone, Ky., said a flash fire apparently followed the blast, and that damage to the area was heavy.

Orphanage Wards, Others Hurt in Collision Enroute To Salyersville Church

Sixteen children from a Magoffin county orphanage, their governess and two other adults were injured, three of the children seriously, July 7 in the collision of the orphanage station wagon with a car on a curve near West Liberty.

All 16 children were taken in two ambulances to the West Liberty hospital. Their governess was admitted to the Paintsville General hospital and Miss Margaret Wood, Floyd county missionary, was taken to the Prestonsburg General hospital.

State Police Trooper Jack Roberts said he filed charges of reckless driving and failure to have an operator's license against the driver of the car, identified as Bobby Morrison, 20 of Preu, Ind. Morrison was treated at Paintsville hospital for face cuts and bruises and was released.

His companion, Elmer McIntosh, 32, also of Peru, reportedly suffered a broken leg and was taken to the Prestonsburg hospital.

The children, representing half of the total orphan population of the Dora Lee Children's Home at Womnie, Magoffin county, were being taken to a Salyersville church where they were to present a program at the Sunday school hour the next day.

Their station wagon was driven by Miss Margaret Wood, one of the co-operators of the orphanage. Miss Wood suffered small cuts on one knee and either a bruised or fractured collarbone.

At West Liberty facilities of the 28-bed hospital were sorely taxed as the 16 near-hysterical patients, ranging in age from 3 to 13 years, were brought in. None suffered fatal injuries.

The town's two physicians and three nurses were augmented by numerous women volunteers who help quiet the children, many of whom kept calling for "Mommy," the name they use for Miss Wood.

Scholarships Awarded Two Eastern Ky. Youths

Scholarships to the University of Kentucky have been awarded two Eastern Kentucky youths through a fund supported by Consolidation Coal Company.

Recipients of the grants, worth $700 each, are Thomas Larry Mullins, of Jenkins, and James M. Johnson, of Shelby Gap, Pike county. Both plan to enter U. of K. as freshmen this fall.

Dean D. V. Terrell, of the university's College of Engineering said the university's scholarship committee selected the two youths on the basis of character, scholastic ability, extracurricular activities, and need.

Mullins and Johnson were chosen to receive the grants after a competitive test given at Jenkins in March. Twenty-seven high school graduates took the test. Preference was given to children of employees of Consolidation Coal Company.

Mullins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mullins, Jenkins, was graduated from Jenkins high school last May. He plans to major in mechanical engineering in the university's College of Engineering.

Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, Shelby Gap, is a graduate of Dorton high school in Pike county. He will enter the university's College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

Increased freight rates on coal moving in Canada took effect July 3. Amounting to 12 cents net or gross ton, as rated, the increases are on an interim basis until October, 1956. Efforts to have them rescinded are in progress.

plaints and there is a lot of local misunderstanding. It seems to me that it is a matter of personalities clashing. We want to make Newey Lake State Park a credit to Floyd county and the State of Kentucky. I think the changes will be a lot of bickering."

Nunnelley pointed out an improvement in the parking situation at the lake that will soon be made. All the low-lying land between the park manager's residence and the lake will be drained and made available for parking this summer.

Cash income from poultry in Boyd county in 1955 was $476,750, which put poultry near the top as a source of cash farm income in the county.

Increases in general demurrage charges were published by the railroads in tariffs filed June 23, to become effective August 1. These increases, unless suspended or cancelled, will apply to large coal tonnage taken by inland receivers. The National Industrial Traffic League, and no doubt others, will ask for suspension.

Railroad carloadings (50-ton units) of bituminous coal during the first 25 weeks of 1955 were 3,787,095—389,753 cars above the same period last year.

superstition by better education, new ideas, and a progressive life."

Then he added, "You know there is a great deal of similarity between my home county and Floyd county. Both have hills, valleys, and rolling land. The people have made me feel just as though I am back home. For that I am very grateful, for they have made my visit a very happy one."

Getting back to the subject of his country, now 22,000,000 in population, he said that the acceptance of new methods and techniques as all-important. "Your Mr. Boggs, Jones, and Clayooll are going up the creeks of Floyd county trying to teach the farmers the right way of farming. They are hard workers. I am very impressed by the good gardens, different kinds of vegetables, promising strawberries, and the hospitable people of Floyd county. They are teaching new ideas. I have much admiration for the early settlers of America who had the courage to change from the old way of life to a new one. It was these first brave people who characterized progress in the United States.

"We feel that our youthful, energetic president, Ramon Magsaysay, will ameliorate conditions among the rural people of our country. He is a man who guarantees happiness and security for the common man. He was a farm boy, himself, whose heart is with the common people. President Magsaysay follows democratic processes and if he is lambasted by the press, he doesn't mind it."

He concludes that if his people could follow the way of farming in the United States, they could, as a whole, surely produce more from their lands and raise their standard of living.

Net railway operating income of Class I railroads for the first five months of 1956 totaled $415,532,086, compared with $423,676,314 for the same period of 1955.

Key Club Convention Delegates Report Sights — They Saw A Star!

Two of the Prestonsburg Kiwanis Key Club affiliates, Tom Harmon and Melvin Stuart had exciting news to report at a regular meeting of the Kiwanis last Thursday in Prestonsburg.

They had seen Kim Novak! More than that, Tommy Harmon proudly boasts that he snapped her picture. And from only five feet away!

But even more important than seeing beautiful Miss Novak, the Hollywood star, the boys gave full report of the Key Club national convention held in Dallas, Texas.

Stuart, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stuart, of Allen, and Harmon, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Harmon, of Prestonsburg, were introduced by the Rev. Ira McMillen.

According to Harmon the kick-off brunch in the swank Statler-Hilton Hotel, got things started. William E. Meyer, psychiatrist, reported results of brainwashing of American soldiers in Korea.

The eventful night of Miss Novak's appearance, Harmon said, was "Salute to Youth" night with Harold Stassen as the principal speaker. Melvin Stuart added to Harmon's remarks that Wednesday was the most important day when nominations for international offices were received. All candidates were limited to one minute speeches, he said. Then there were reports on projects during the last year. After business had been concluded in Dallas, the boys traveled to New Orleans where they made a 5 1/2 hour tour of the old French quarters.

These boys were selected to represent the Prestonsburg Club on a competitive basis. The ywon the trip by writing the best essays on the "Youth of Today." They stated that they were very much impressed by the large clubs represented at Dallas and that the very spirit and enthusiasm of the convention indicated that the Key Club meant a great deal to the attending boys. Harmon concluded the report with a note of thanks to the sponsoring Kiwanis Club.

Prospects for Watershed Development In Area Improve With Funds Allocation

An impetus was given conservation activities in the state this week when it was announced from Governor Chandler's office that $80,000 had been allocated from the emergency fund for planning of watershed projects. The amount set aside is to be used for planning over the next three years.

One watershed in this county has been under consideration for improvement the last two years. The Cow Creek Watershed Association was organized to promote the improvement of that valley and the "papers are all in the mill," according to L. R. Johnson, conservationist of the Floyd County Soil Conservation District. The members of the Association are holding quarterly meetings.

Johnson provided figures on seven watersheds in this county needing conservation work. They are the designated acres: Mud Creek, 21,450 acres, Middle Creek, 18,880, Abbott Creek, 12,800, Cow Creek, 6,450, Bull Creek, 8,240, Right Beaver Creek, 22,600, and Left Beaver with 21,350 acres.

"Of course the watershed first improved in this section will have the greatest priority of need," Johnson pointed out. The money provided from the Governor's emergency fund will be placed in a trust fund, earmarked for use by the Soil Conservation Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture to finance a watershed planning crew. One crew is already allotted to Kentucky under provisions of Public Law 566, which governs federal participation in watershed projects.

Governor Chandler's action will place in the field an identical group of technicians hired and trained by the SCS. Each crew can man four watershed improvement plans a year.

With the money now made available, it will be possible for construction to proceed on each watershed immediately after planning and approval by Congress. Each project requires about five years for completion.

Conservation Commissioner Laban P. Jackson and Robert Lee Bolin, director of the Division of Flood Control and Water Usage, were assigned the task of negotiating the agreement with the United States Department of Agriculture after Governor Chandler took office last December.

It was signed last week by Bolin and H. K. Gayle, State SCS Conservationist and witnessed by Lieutenant Governor Harry Waterfield, acting for Governor Chandler, who is out of the state.

Waterfield said the plan will "directly benefit the farmers of Kentucky and afford us the key to control of our streams and propagation of our forests."

Jackson said in addition to flood control and soil conservation benefits, the projects will be of great value in attracting industry to the commonwealth. He termed the agreement "the greatest step this administration has made to acquire such far-reaching benefits for the farmer, business man and industrialists interested in moving into Kentucky." He said creation of new watersheds will afford reservoirs of water for industry, municipalities and for recreational uses.

200 Golfers of 3 States To Compete on Week-End At Paintsville Tourney

The 17th annual Paintsville Open Invitational Golf tournament will be staged this week-end with some 200 golfers from three states expected to compete for prizes.

In size, the Paintsville affair is the biggest golfing event in Eastern Kentucky and the field is expected to outnumber the Kentucky State Amateur tournament, which it has done for the past three years. Joe Turner, winner of this year's Kentucky State Amateur title, has indicated to club officials that he hopes to take part in the event, and last year's two-amateur finalists, Authie Meeks and Al "Joker" White, Huntington, will again battle for the title.

Meeks, who grew up on the Paintsville course, edged White for the championship last year.

Two-time champion, Jack Peck, Logan, W. Va., will be on hand as will 1954 champ Buddy Mahan, Versailles, along with some 25 others in the big-time of Kentucky Golf.

Defending pro champ George Hoffer, Huntington, W. Va., and runner-up Dan Atcher, LaFollette, Tenn., are expected to lead a field of some 25 professionals. Hoffer downed Atcher on the 21st hole in last year's pro-race.

NO CONSOLATION

There will be no consolation rounds this year and all qualifying rounds must be played by Friday night. The program event (good for $50.00 to the winners) will be staged Friday.

Dr. Robert Hall, local golfing enthusiast, said today that the course is in the finest condition of all time with ample space for visiting golfers.

The visiting pros will battle for some $300 in prize money and the amateurs will haul down more than $1,000 worth of golfing merchandise and equipment.

Friday night the club will serve a chicken dinner to the contestants and Saturday night will be the annual dinner-dance.

Last year 257 golfers took part in the event. By eliminating the consolation rounds this year, it is hoped there will be no waiting on the tee. One match will be played on Saturday and two on Sunday.

The 18-hole course is one of the finest and most beautiful courses in the South. It features play up the hollows, across the Big Sandy River, and over three lakes and numerous hazards of sand traps and bunkers.

Seven Faculty Members Return to College Duties

Pikeville, Ky., July 19—Seven members of the Pikeville College faculty returned to the classrooms as students this summer.

Three teachers in Pikeville's affiliated grade school began work for their master's degrees, and the others took more advanced work. Dr. A. A. Page, college president, said today.

Harry A. Banks, principal, and Katherine Ratliff, Mae R. Leslie and Caroline Caudill, teachers in the graded school, were members of the University of Kentucky's intensive class in Supervision of Practice Teachers, given on the Pikeville campus the week of May 28. Mrs. Leslie and Miss Caudill later entered summer school at Morehead State College, Morehead, Ky.

Both Pikeville's business teachers, Mildred J. Davis, and Russell Sage, are taking advanced work this summer. Miss Davis in the business-education department of New York University and Sage at Ball State Teachers College, Muncie, Ind. Mrs. Carl P. Hatcher, principal of Pikeville College Academy, is studying at Marshall College.

MAYTOWN

Miss Eunice Flanery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parley B. Flanery, returned to Cincinnati, after an extended visit at home, to complete her clinical practice in the Cincinnati General Hospital. She will return to Berea College in August where her sister, Nora Sue, will join her in college.

Mrs. Burr Wright, her son, Buck, and grandchildren, all of Wyandotte, Mich., were visiting friends on Buck's Branch during the fourth of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Flanery and sons, Dale, Lowell, and Stephanie, visited his father, Wm. Flanery and other relatives on Buck's Branch. After a short visit they returned to their home in Jackson, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Dingus drove Eunice Flanery back to Cincinnati, Sunday. They were accompanied by Eunice's brother and sisters, Joe, Emma Lois and Mavis.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hutchinson, Maggie Hughes, and Nora Sue Flanery, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hutchinson, and Mrs. Floyd Skaggs motored to Shelbyville, Sunday to attend a funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steele, of San Antonio, Texas and daughter, Vickie Ann visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Hampton, of Bucks Branch. She is the former Miss Hope Hampton.

College Baseball Team Enters Intercollegiate Sports of the Section

Pikeville, Ky., July 19 — Pikeville College, which last spring fielded its first baseball team in several years, will enter several minor intercollegiate sports in 1956-57.

Coach John E. Renfro, of Pikeville, announced today that tennis and golf teams, and perhaps some track work, would be organized during the next school year, in which Pikeville will become a four-year college for the first time. A two-year school since before 1920 and a member of the Kentucky Junior College Athletic Conference until this year, the college added a third-year class last fall, and is to open a full four-year course in September.

Two new clay-surface tennis courts are under construction beside Pikeville's gymnasium, and the school is negotiating for the use of golf links at a country club near Pikeville, Renfro said. College students and faculty now use a municipal tennis court.

POLIO SHOTS TOTAL 18.2%

Of County's Population Under 20; Epidemic Feared by Authorities

Only 18.2 per cent of Floyd county's 27,328 persons under the age of 20 have received any polio vaccine, according to figures reported to the Kentucky State Department of Health. With so small a percentage of highly susceptible persons protected, there is always the danger of an epidemic.

Thirty-three cases of polio have been reported in Kentucky this year. This figure is lower than the number of cases at this time last year, when 55 had been reported. Last week, 180 new cases throughout the United States were reported, as compared with 277 for the corresponding week of last year. The reduction in the numbers of cases perhaps can be largely attributed to the effectiveness of the polio vaccine. Parents are being urged to have their children vaccinated at once before the polio season gets further under way. Most susceptible to polio are those under 20 years of age and pregnant women. Over 10,000,000 persons in this most susceptible group have received vaccine with a perfect safety record.

Vaccine is available through family physicians. Parents are being advised to check with their physicians and follow the plan which has been adopted in their localities for the administration of the vaccine.

The State Health Department is shipping orders of vaccine to counties on a first-come, first-served basis. Floyd county parents have been asked to call for the vaccine so that this area will receive its proper allotment.

Three Loans Awarded By Scholarship Fund

Frankfort, July 19 — The Rural Kentucky Medical Scholarship Fund has granted loans to three additional medical students, according to Dr. C. C. Howard, Glasgow, chairman of the fund's board.

Approved were, James G. Self, Elkhorn City; James E. Van Hoose, Nippa, Johnson county; and John T. Teegan, Davenport, Iowa. Self and Van Hoose are students at the University of Louisville Medicine School. Teegan attends the University of Iowa College of Medicine.

Loans were recently granted to 13 students through the Scholarship Fund which seeks to provide rural communities with adequate medical facilities.

Under the plan, medical students may borrow $800 a year if they agree to practice in Kentucky communities acceptable to the fund.

You Can't Buy It, ANYWHERE!

Tuberculosis is a dreaded killer. It strikes someone every day. Tomorrow... next year... anytime... it could be you.

Woodmen with a year or more of membership have the peace of mind of knowing that if it does strike them, they will receive free, full and adequate treatment in a modern hospital, or as an outpatient of one of our authorized hospitals... just because they are Woodmen.

This modern plan of treatment in nationally recognized private hospitals in or near members' home cities is something you cannot buy anywhere—but it is free as one of the many "plus" benefits of a Woodmen membership. Authorities estimate that it costs $5,000 to arrest the average pulmonary tuberculosis case. There is no hospitalization insurance policy you can buy at any price giving benefits which can match Woodmen's new plan of free treatment.

For further information on how you can become a Woodman and enjoy this and the many other "plus" benefits of fraternalism—and get safe, sound, legal reserve life insurance at cost—contact one of the representatives listed below.

Get Your Dodge Dealer's Deal Before You Decide!

Maybe you've had your eye on one of the other two makes of low-priced trucks. But why settle for second best when Dodge is in the same price class? After all, Dodge leads in the features that truck owners look for:

Most Payload! Dodge hauls up to 375 more pounds of payload per trip. It carries the extra weight you'd have to leave behind if you were driving another truck. Saves trips as well as cash.

Most Power! Dodge gives you up to 17 more V-8 horsepower than its competitors. You get the brawn you need for tough hauling jobs without engine strain.

Easiest Handling! You breeze in and out of the tightest traffic or parking spots because Dodge is the sharpest turning truck of all. Try it! It's the most comfortable riding, too.

And when you add to these advantages the biggest brakes in the field and the roomiest cabs, plus famous Dodge economy and dependability, you see why we say: Check Dodge before you decide. Come in and let us show you the facts... we'll prove Dodge is your best truck buy.

Farm Forestry Awards Competition Announced By Louisville Newspaper

Cash prizes totaling $600 are waiting for Kentucky and Southern Indiana farmers in the 1956 Tom Wallace Farm Forestry Awards competition.

Announcement of the second annual contest recognizing outstanding forestry programs was made by Barry Bingham, president of The Courier-Journal, The Louisville Times and WHAS, Inc.

A grand prize of $200 will be given to the farmer who has carried out the most complete forestry program. His accomplishments may be the result of several years' effort or of the current year alone. The program should include protecting an improving established woods areas, planting new tree seedlings and coordinating all woods operations under a management plan.

Second prize will be $150. Certificates will be presented to the ten farmers whose programs rate honorable mention. An award of $150 is offered to the landowner who makes the greatest improvement on his woodland during the contest year—October 1, 1955, to September 30, 1956. Second improvement prize is $100.

The Tom Wallace Farm Forestry Awards, one of five contests in the farm-incentive program of the newspapers and radio - television station, are named in honor of the editor emeritus of The Louisville Times and an active conservationist.

Entries must be submitted by September 30 to the Tom Wallace Farm Forestry Awards, c/o The Courier-Journal, The Louisville Times, and WHAS, Inc., Louisville 2. Contest information may be obtained from foresters, soil conservationists, and county agents or by writing the Promotion Department of the newspapers.

EXPERTS TEST TOBACCO HERE

Specialists of 2 States Examine Aromatic Crops Growing As Experiments

Specialists from two state universities were in this county last week to examine the three pilot fields of aromatic tobacco being grown here on an experimental basis. The men were from the University of Kentucky and the University of North Carolina. Heading the inspection team was Roy Cruse, aromatic tobacco specialist of the latter institution.

The specialists found two of Floyd county's three fields growing excellent aromatic tobacco, but it was pointed out by Dr. W. D. Valleau, plant pathologist of the University of Kentucky, that it is too early to evaluate properly the quality of the tobacco. Ira Massie, tobacco specialist at the University, said the soils in this area seemed to be good for the production of this tobacco.

Aromatic or Turkish tobaccos are used to "leaven" the typical American cigarette, and its expanding use has depleted world markets. Most of this tobacco used by the American industry has heretofore been imported from Turkey or other Near-East countries. It is now grown in Virginia, North and South Carolina. It is not under the government quota system.

Curing and marketing of the aromatic tobaccos are handled differently than the American burley product, it was pointed out by County Agent O. E. Boggs. The initial stage of harvesting here will be under the direct supervision of Cruse who will return at the proper time. The leaves are strung out on an eight-foot wire and hung in curing sheds where they will cure for nearly a week, depending on a number of factors. They are transferred after this curing to a barn that has a special heating unit. After final preparation for market it is baled in 20-pound bundles and will be shipped to the Southeastern Aromatic Tobacco Company, Anderson, South Carolina.

Sharp conflict over France's system of coal imports has arisen between the French Government and the supranational High Authority of the Coal and Steel Community. The French Government backed their agency (A.T.I.C.) on the ground that it protected their purchasers from being victimized by producers.

NOTICE

To Interested Parties

The Kentucky Public Service Commission has ordered a hearing to be held at its offices at Frankfort, Kentucky on August 7, 1956, at 11:00 A. M., CST, in connection with the application of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company for a certificate of public convenience and necessity which would authorize it to establish a telephone exchange of common battery dial operation at McDowell, Kentucky. Veterinary Training Available to Students Frankfort, July 19 — Applications for veterinary medicine training under the Southern Regional Education Board program at Auburn University and Tuskegee Institute must be filed by August 15, Dr. Floyd E. Hull of the University of Kentucky announced this week.

Under the program approximately 48 Kentucky students attend the two Alabama schools without paying out-of-state tuition. Nine Kentucky students recently graduated under the program, 7 from Auburn and 2 from Tuskegee.

Dr. Hull explained that the program is made possible by a system of contracts among the State of Kentucky, the Southern Regional Education Board and the two schools. In return for the quota of students who are admitted on the same basis as Alabama residents, Kentucky pays $1,000 per student to the school to help meet operating costs.

The Kentucky quota for the September class is 10 new students at Auburn and 2 at Tuskegee. Applicants must be Kentucky residents and must have a minimum of two years pre-veterinary training.

Dr. Hull asked that students interested in further information about the program write to the Kentucky Council on Public Higher Education, State Office Building, Frankfort.

Woodmen of the World Meet at Dewey Lake For Watermelon Picnic

Several hundred Woodmen of the World, their families and friends met at Dewey Lake last Sunday for a watermelon picnic. The W. O. W. has planned another picnic chiefly for the younger members of the Woodmen's families, for the latter part of this month at the same location.

Prizes were won last Sunday at the melon feast by Mrs. George Thomas, of Paintsville, who was awarded a Scotch grill; Francis Akers, of Banner, who was given a pocket knife; and Paul Osborne, of Maytown, who received a Schaefer fountain pen.

Prestonsburg Colts Will Play Wheelwright, Sat., In Twi-Light Twin Bill

The Prestonsburg Colts will travel to Wheelwright Saturday night to play a double-header. Manager Don Sullivan notified The Times this week.

Both games will be seven inning frays, with the first game starting at 6:30 and the second being played under the lights.

Starting pitchers will be Archer Childers, and Wayne Dixon, with Bunny Setser doing the catching.

The tentative starting line-up includes Joe Jack Harris, 2b, Charles Harris, 1b, Bunny Setser, c, Lowell Hughes, ss, Ronald Strickland, 3b, Julian Campbell, cf, Buddy Osborne, rf, Charles Wells, lf, Waddy Dixon, p.

Plans are now being made by representatives of this area for the formation of a six-man team league next season for boys between the ages of 15 through 17, Sullivan also said.

Tentative teams forming the league are expected to be Wheelwright, Williamson, Pikeville, Paintsville, Prestonsburg, and Drift-Martinsville.

Paintsville, Williamson, and Prestonsburg are now operating teams independently. The Prestonsburg team, nicknamed the "Colts", is playing under the supervision of Manager Don Sullivan and Coach Amon Childers.

The possible schedule for next year calls for games on Tuesday and Thursday with an afternoon game being played on Saturday. Sponsorship of the team is a major obstacle in the formation of the league. Any Prestonsburg firm who would like to sponsor the Colts are advised to call Don Sullivan or Amon Childers.

Kentucky Turnpike To Open August 1st

Frankfort, July 19 — The Kentucky Turnpike will open August 1, according to an announcement by Commissioner of Highways Bert Kliser.

Kliser said, "barring any unforeseen difficulties," the 40-mile stretch of highway between Louisville and Elizabethtown will accommodate the first traffic on that date.

The date was announced at a meeting here between highway officials and Ed Kubale, Sr., Danville, Turnpike manager. Kubale said extending to midnight on opening day, motorists will be allowed to use the road toll-free. He said the opening day program will be announced at a later date.

FLOYD QUARTERLY COURT V. ADVERTISEMENT OF SHERIFF'S SALE

Joe Green, Plaintiff vs. Sheriff's Sale. By virtue of a judgment by default, issued by the Judge of the Floyd Quarterly Court in favor of W. H. Conley, I will on Friday, July 27, 1956, between the hours of 10:30 a.m. and 11:30 a.m., at the Court-house door in the City of Prestonsburg, Floyd County, Ky., expose to public sale to the highest bidder one 1948 Buick two-tone automobile, Indiana License No. 746.

This sale will be made on a credit of three months, with approved surety. The amount to be raised on the day of sale is $200.00, plus interest and costs. Gorman Collins, Sheriff Floyd County, Kentucky. 7-12-3t.

In the southern division will be Middlesboro, Harlan, Cumberland, Benham, Lynch, Hall and Everts. The northern section includes teams from Paintsville, Pikeville, Hyden, Prestonsburg, Hazard and Martin.

The first round of the northern section of the tournament will begin play in Hyden, Monday, July 23rd as Pikeville and Hyden are matched at 3:00 p.m. (EST) in an upper bracket contest.

Paintsville drew an upper bracket bye and will play the winner of the Pikeville-Hyden fracas Tuesday afternoon, at a time to be decided on by the winners. If Pikeville wins, the game with Paintsville will be played on a neutral field at Drift, and if Hyden wins, the game with Paintsville will be in Hyden.

In the first round of the lower bracket, Hazard and Martin clash in Hyden at 5:00 p.m. (EST) Monday, July 23rd and bye-drawing Prestonsburg will meet the winner Tuesday afternoon at a site to be determined by the two winners.

If Martin wins its meeting with Hazard, Martin and Prestonsburg will play in Drift Tuesday afternoon, or if Hazard wins, they will play Prestonsburg in Hazard Tuesday afternoon. In either case the game will be at 5:00 p.m.

National District Four representative of Little League Baseball, L. L. Price, Benham, said that the two division winners would meet later for the championship and that winner would move on to Louisville for the State Tournament.

Middlesboro is the defending champion of District four and also for the state of Kentucky.

COOPER GOES TO MOREHEAD

Warren Cooper, ex-Morehead College basketball star and three-season cage coach at Combs Memorial high school in Perry county, was named head basketball coach at Morehead high school this week. Thus, Cooper returns to the scene of his greatest scoring performances. His 1954 Combs team lost to state champion Inez in the quarterfinals of the state high school basketball tournament.

In another cage change at Sandy Hook high in Elliott county, ex-Sandy Hook player, Donald Wagoner, will replace veteran Tom Adkins, who is taking a year's leave of absence.

WEST VA. EASES OUT

A notice of considerable interest concerning Wayland's Kelly Coleman was released to several West Virginia newspapers last week stating that Coleman would not be admitted to West Virginia since he had only 15 credits from high school.

Practically any school in the country will admit a student with 15 credits, that is a simple matter usually handled by giving an entrance examination, which is not too "tough".

The big question is, "Did West Virginia get scared by a reported N. C. A. A. investigation and use the credit total as an excuse?"

Since refusing to admit Coleman or give him a chance to make up his credit, the school technically voiced disapproval of any undue influence that might have been exerted on Coleman by ambitious alumni or other well-wishers.

COOK FINISHES ELEVENTH

TOURNEY OPENS TODAY

The Kentucky Division of tournament of the National Baseball Congress opens in Louisa Thursday with eight possible teams to vie for the crown now held by the Yates Club of Ashland.

Prestonsburg's semi-pro team has entered along with a similar group from Paintsville.

OFFICIALS ASSOCIATION OPEN TO ALL

In answer to several queries, the Eastern Kentucky Officials Association is open to all football and basketball officials who have previously registered with the Kentucky High School Athletic Association. All officials must be approved by Commissioner Ted Sanford's office.

SEE WILDERNESS ROAD

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Akers, Jr., of Melvin, attended a performance recently of the smash-hit drama, Wilderness Road, at Berea. This award winning play by Paul Green is receiving national recognition as an exciting and beautiful presentation about blood-torn Kentucky during the Civil War. Over 63,000 people saw it in its first season in 1955 and it will play nightly, except Sundays, through September 1 this summer.

Felix Dudley holds a 25 pound carp, 34 1/2 inches long, caught in Beaver Creek recently. The fish, probably the largest of its kind caught in that stream, was landed with the same rod he won last year by catching the largest carp in a fishing rodeo.

SPORTS AFIELD

By TED KESTING

There are many emergencies that may rise in the field other than those caused by injuries. These "medical emergencies" are just as serious and dangerous as even the severest accident. They can be classified under four general groups: unconsciousness, heart disease, acute abdominal disease and stroke.

Unconsciousness is always terrifying and frustrating emergency to cope with. There are dozens of causes, but don't rack your brain for them. Your main concern as a first-aid volunteer is to do nothing that will injure the patient. Let him rest flat on his back; with a minimum of handling, inspect for hemorrhage. Under no circumstances should you force any fluid down his throat. If he is cold and clammy, apply heat. If he is hot, apply cold compresses to the head.

Acute heart disease includes coronary, angina, heart failure and others. The stricken patient usually collapses, face an ashen gray color, gasps for air. Place on his back in a half-sitting position. Do not let him move; he must not be moved until seen by a doctor. If he vomits, help him so he doesn't exert himself.

Acute abdominal disease includes appendicitis, perforated ulcer, gall bladder attack, and such. Place the patient in a semi-reclining position with the knees bent and legs supported by a pillow under them. Put an ice pack over the most tender area of the abdomen. Don't permit patient to move about. Don't give anything by mouth, not even water.

A stroke is an interruption of the blood supply to the brain. Symptoms depend on which area of the brain is affected. About half the cases of stroke lapse into unconsciousness. The face is flushed, eyes pop out and pupils are unequal in size. Breathing may be snoring or irregular and shallow. Facial paralysis may be present. About the best you can do for cases of stroke is to give general supportive measures. Loosen all clothing and apply cool compresses to face and head. Place your patient in a semi-reclining position. Don't let him swallow if he vomits. Don't force anything down his throat. If he becomes cold from shock, keep him warm. When carrying patient on a litter, keep pillow under his head.

These first-aid suggestions are from an article in Sports Afield magazine by Dr. A. Michaels, M. D.

For accurate measuring, farm milk-holding tanks must be on level floors, and this means putting them on concrete floors strong enough to hold the tank and the milk without cracking.

Hunting Season Dates Announced for State

Frankfort, July 19 — Kentucky's squirrel hunters received good news during the week with the announcement that the first part of the State's divided hunting season opens Aug. 15 and extends to Oct. 15.

Officials of the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources in making the announcement said the second part of the season will open Nov. 19 and continue through Dec. 16. The shooting limit is 6 squirrels a day, with 12 permitted in possession after two or more hunting days.

Officials also announced a three-day deer hunting season for Nov. 8-10 in 27 counties. The limit is one deer during the season, with shooting restricted to buck deer with at least two points on an antler. A $5 deer permit will be required. Hunting hours will be 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Rabbit, ruffed grouse and quail season will open Nov. 19 and continue through Jan. 17. Limits are: Rabbits, 8; quail, 10, and ruffed grouse, 2. Double the limit will be permitted in possession after two or more hunting days. Bag limits and seasons for waterfowl and doves will be announced by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Kentucky's Mammoth Cave Featured in Magazine

Frankfort, July 19 — The July issue of the "Hudson Family Magazine" has an article, illustrated with colored as well as black and white pictures, of Kentucky's famed Mammoth Cave.

Titled "Let's Go Underground," the story says: "Since a bear hunter stumbled on its rocky entrance, 156 years ago, this cave has satisfied the cravings of millions of travelers for adventure. One hundred-fifty miles of winding, narrow, treacherous-looking passages and corridors are waiting for the explorer."

The magazine shows pictures of the emerald-green Crystal Lake, one of the intriguing entrances to the cave, the Drapery Room, an underground corridor and the underground river.

Hudson's automobile dealers throughout the country are distributing this magazine to readers.

State's National Guard Leaves for Training

Frankfort, July 19 — Some 6,000 Kentucky National Guardsmen assembled July 15, to begin two weeks of intensive field training. Of the 67 Guard units, 48 went to Camp Breckinridge, while the others headed for Fort Knox.

Commanded by Maj. Gen. J. J. B. Williams, the Kentucky Guard is taking part in the largest peacetime training maneuver in the State's history.

July 20, Gov. A. B. Chandler will be at Camp Breckinridge, with other dignitaries, to review the troops during the annual "Governor's Day Parade." Hugh B. Miller II, assistant secretary of the Army, will visit the encampment during the first week, while Gen. John Erickson, chief of the National Guard Bureau, will observe training during the second week.

The Senate Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee seemingly will not be rushed into granting I. C. C. authority to prescribe higher per diem charges. (Charges paid by one railroad for the cars of another railroad while on the former's line). In executive session the committee has three times passed over S. 2770, which would provide for this authority.

POLICY RATES GO UP AUG. 1

Workmen's Compensation To Cost Kentucky Firms More, Thurman States

Higher policy rates for workmen's-compensation insurance will go into effect August 1, Insurance Commissioner Cad P. Thurman announced last week.

The higher rates, Thurman said, are due to increased payments for workmen's-compensation claims.

The increase is the first in seven years for industrial risks, except coal-mine operations. It is based on higher medical expenses and increased workmen's-compensation benefits authorized by the 1956 Legislature.

Coal-mine rates will be increased 12½ per cent until January 1. Then, coal-mining risks will be reviewed and rates adjusted, Thurman said.

Policies, other than coal mines, that do not expire until after September 1 will reflect an 8.6 per cent increase after August 1.

After September 1, policies renewed for risks other than coal mining will be written at rates that reflect experience of previous years and anticipated increased benefits.

Thurman said each class will be reviewed individually, and various percentages will apply to changes in renewal rates.

Kentucky employers paid $10,293,579 for workmen's-compensation insurance in 1955. Thurman said that amount will increase about 10 per cent in 1956 under the new rates.

Accidents on farms cost the American people about 1½ million dollars annually.

NEW MISSIONARY

Miss Ella Faye Hayes, of Allen, began work with the Kentucky Baptist Women's Missionary Union as mountain field worker, on July 1.

Miss Hayes is a graduate of Georgetown College, having received her A. B. degree there in 1954 and is a graduate of Carver School of Missions and Social work, where she received her M.R.E. degree this year. She served as a summer worker in the Girl's Auxiliary camps last summer and with the Baptist State Board of Missions in the summer of 1954.

She grew up in the First Baptist Church of Allen and was active in all of the organizations there, having trusted Christ as her Savior at an early age. It was in the meetings of the Girl's Auxiliary of her church that she surrendered to the call to full-time service.

The late Miss Annie Allen enlisted Miss Hayes' service in Vacation Bible School work during five or six summers, and she cherishes those memories and the valuable lessons learned during the association with the beloved mountain missionary.

Kentucky Attracts 47 New Industries

Frankfort, July 19 — Forty-seven manufacturing plants began operations or announced plans to locate in Kentucky the first six months of the year, an official report states.

Issued by the Department of Economic Development and the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, the report said the new plants will create more than 6,500 new jobs and have annual payrolls estimated to reach 23 million dollars.

New factory employees for the entire year of 1955 totaled approximately 8,000, according to the report.

The new factories located in 22 counties, will have a plant investment of nearly 40 million dollars, compared with plant expenditures of 70 million dollars during the entire year of 1955.

The report said Kentucky reported a monthly average of 164,000 manufacturing jobs in 1955, about 9 per cent more than the previous year which was the highest rate increase in 11 southeastern states.

Smaller Burley Crop Predicted for Year

Frankfort, July 19 — Kentucky's burley tobacco crop this year will yield 300,150,000 pounds or slightly less than 1955, according to a report issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Gross sales of the 1955 crop totaled $17,943,533 pounds, the Federal-State Market News Service reported. From this figure is deducted resales totaling about 5 percent of the crop which cuts the total to near the estimate for this year's crop.

Look Magazine Features Kentucky's State Parks

Frankfort, July 19 — The issue of Look Magazine for July 24 carries a feature story on Kentucky's State Parks. Titled "Backyard Vacation," the six-page, 10-picture article takes a trip with a young couple from Hopkinsville, Mr. and Mrs. Phelps Anderson.

The story points out the Andersons could have gone almost anywhere on their vacation, "but their favorite places lie almost in their own back-yard—in Kentucky's State parks—among the Nation's finest."

Among the nearly 30 parks, shrines and monuments throughout the State visited by the Andersons were Cumberland Falls, Kentucky Dam Village, Kentucky Lake State Park and Mammoth Cave.

"I can't think of anywhere we could have had a better time than right in our own back yard. It sure is a great way to get away from it all and enjoy the outdoors," said Anderson, who spurned distant places for a fascinating tour of his own scenic State.
