PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY

NOVEMBER 1, 1956

This Town— That World

THE DRUIDS STARTED IT ALL The youngsters are not expected to study this with rapt attention...

This isn't recorded here in an attempt to be funny, but young Doug Osborne who won a party prize recently as the prettiest "girl" tripped over his dress at the party and cracked a bone in his wrist.

WE APOLOGIZE Orville Pearson, who recently resigned as pastor of the Presbyterian Church, left Prestonsburg with his family this week to assume the pastorate of the Princeton, Ky. Presbyterian Church.

MAY WE REMIND YOU AGAIN? Next Tuesday is Election Day—thank goodness!—and we have often reminded our readers, it is the duty of every American of voting age to cast his or her ballot.

P'BURG PICKED FOR VFW MEET

Annual Fall Conference Of Veterans To Be Held Here, Starting Nov. 9

Walter Karr Bowling Post No. 5239, will be host here, Nov. 9-11, to the annual fall conference of the Department of Kentucky, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Because of the consideration shown VFW delegates attending the State conference held here in 1952, the vote for Prestonsburg as the convention city again was unanimous.

Prestonsburg is the home post of State Commander Ellsworth H. (Ted) Stumbo and Department Auxiliary President Anna Ruth Toosey. This is the first instance where representatives of one post have occupied these top state offices.

Representing the national Veterans of Foreign Wars at the conference will be Ted C. Connell, Killen, Texas, national chief-of-staff and former commander of the VRW, Department of Texas. Other VFW notables are expected to join the delegates at the Kentucky posts during the meeting here.

BALL KILLED, TRIO INJURED IN CAR WRECK

Former P'Burg Man, Others In Tragedy On Way to Wedding

Enroute to Prestonsburg for the marriage of his daughter, Lafon Ball, 35, Detroit, Mich., was fatally injured in an auto wreck last Friday morning near Hager Hill, and three survivors of the crash, including his wife and 10-year-old daughter, are in critical condition at a Paintsville hospital.

The car in which the Ball family and William Alley, 18, of Detroit, had driven all night hit a bridge, near the Hager Hill railroad crossing. Cause of the wreck is not definitely known, but it is believed that Mr. Ball fell asleep at the wheel. A tire was blown out, but it was not known if the blowout came before or after the crash.

His wife, Mrs. Mavis Sammons Ball, has a skull fracture and has been conscious only intermittently and for brief periods since the wreck.

Their daughter, Cheryl Lynn, has not regained consciousness, although it was said no skull injury has been detected. She has a broken jaw and brain concussion.

Alley has a brain injury, it was said here. The accident occurred between 8 and 8:30 a.m., Saturday. Mr. Ball got out of the car, pulled his wife and daughter out and walked to the ambulance. Seriousness of his condition was not realized until he collapsed in the hospital. He died at 3:25 a.m., Sunday.

The party was en route here for the marriage of the Ball's daughter, Alice Faye, to Mr. Alley.

Victim of the wreck was a son of Mrs. Alice Vaughan Ball, of Prestonsburg, and the late Richard Ball. He had resided for the last nine years in Detroit where he was employed by the Atomic Metal Company. He was a veteran of World War II, serving in the U. S. army from August, 1942 till October 1945. Before moving to Detroit he was in business here where he had many friends and relatives.

Surviving, besides his wife and two daughters and his mother, are three brothers, Richard D. Ball, Jr., Willow Run, Mich., Donald Ball, Prestonsburg, and Prentis L. Ball, Huntington, W. Va.

Funeral rites for Mr. Ball were conducted Tuesday afternoon from the First Methodist Church here, the pastor, the Rev. Harold Dorsey, officiating. Burial was made in the Mayo cemetery under direction of the Carter & Callihan Funeral Home.

SLAYER OF 4 GIVEN 'CHAIR'

Indiana Jury Decides Fate of Mrs. Collins Who Slew Spouse, Kin

Mrs. Opal Collins, 25, who almost wiped out a former Magoffin county family by gunfire last May at Hammond, Ind., was sentenced Friday at Crown Point, Ind., to die for one of the four murders charged to her.

One of her victims was her paraplegic army veteran husband, Ben Collins. Collins was paralyzed by injuries suffered in a car wreck near Royalton while on army furlough a few years ago, and in this same wreck Alberta May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David May, of Prestonsburg, was killed.

The accused woman fainted when she heard the sentence and the date of her execution set for next February 15. She was carried from the drama-quietened courtroom.

The sentence followed the recommendation by an all-male jury that had deliberated 23 hours over the fate of the woman accused of killing her husband and three in-laws May 26, last.

Mrs. Collins' counsel said an appeal probably would be made. Mrs. Collins had been married only four weeks to Ben Collins, 28, a World War II paraplegic at the time of the shooting.

Her trial was for the shooting of her husband's sister, Mary Sue Collins, 11. She also had been indicted for the slaying of his mother, Mrs. Ben Collins, Sr., 48, and another sister, Martha Ann Collins, 14.

The defendant was sobbing softly into a handkerchief when led to the courtroom, but regained her composure when the jury entered the room 15 minutes later.

But when jury foreman Carl Sherman, a 32-year-old Gary

New Store Opening Scheduled by Jones In Ford-Ranier Bldg.

Verne and Hazel Jones, who conducted the Prestonsburg Bargain store here for three years before moving to Hemet, Calif., to operate a store, are returning to Prestonsburg to open a shoe store, it was said this week. The new store will be in the Ford-Ranier building on Lake Drive opposite the bus depot.

Mr. Jones, after disposing of his California store about a year ago, went on the road as a salesman for some time. He is presently living at Winchester.

JURY INDICTS MAGOFFIN MAN

Former Sheriff Named In Account Shortage; Whereabouts Unknown

Former Sheriff Hade Montgomery, of Magoffin county, is a wanted man.

He was indicted a few days ago by the Magoffin grand jury, and the present Sheriff, Noah Rudd, later reported he has been unable to locate him. Rudd was quoted as saying Montgomery was last known to have been in Magoffin county in September.

Montgomery was accused in the indictment of a shortage of $26,000 in his accounts with the county. Montgomery was removed June 19 by order of County Judge Silas Carty, who named Noah Rudd to serve until the November 6 election.

An audit supported by an affidavit bearing the signature of S. C. Otis, certified public accountant of Ashland, last July attested to a shortage of some $55,000 in Montgomery's accounts in county and school taxes.

The indictment pertained only to the county accounts. Montgomery was under a total bond of $30,000, or $15,000 each for the county and school accounts.

He was elected to a four-year term in 1952, Rudd, a Republican, and Lee Gullett, Democrat, are nominees in the November 6 election to complete the remaining year of Montgomery's term.

The next term of court at Salyersville will not be convened until after the first of the year.

FARMERS SET 1957 PROGRAM

Projects To Be Pushed Are Sheep, Strawberries, 4-H Rural Development

The farm program for next year was set by the Farm Advisory committee in a meeting at the courthouse here Monday evening. It was the first meeting of the committee for several months.

Projects and programs to be sponsored next year are sheep production, strawberry growing, 4-H Club work, Farm Home development and several other phases of agricultural activity.

A finance committee of three men was appointed to aid farmers desiring to raise sheep. They are Greely Dotson, Wade Blackburn and Virgil Smith. They will advise with each prospective grower on the feasibility of their plans and if necessary will advise on financial arrangements and where credit for capital outlays, like fencing expense, may be procured.

Mrs. Louisa Hoover, 76, Dies of Heart Attack At Hospital, Last Week

Mrs. Louisa Hoover, 76, of Garrett, died at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, last Thursday, at 1:15 p.m. of a heart attack. She was ill only one day.

Mrs. Hoover was the daughter of John and Peggy Hale Wireman and the widow of Melvin Hoover.

Surviving sons and daughters are Adam Hoover, Amherstdale, W. Va., Mrs. Thelma E. Martin, of Detroit, Ep, Johnny, George, and Woodrow Hoover, all of Garrett, Mrs. Eva Roberts, and Mrs. Nancy Jane Nowalk, both also of Garrett.

Funeral rites were conducted Saturday at 10 a.m. at the home, the Revs. Banner Manns, Marion Chaffins, Russell Jacobs and others officiating. Burial was made in the Tom Martin cemetery at Garrett under the direction of the Turner-Ryan Funeral Home.

$5,000 BOND SET FOR TWO

Hall Brothers Freed Under Bail Last Week In Johnson Shooting

Virgil and Newton Hall, brothers, who had been held in jail here in connection with the shooting and wounding Oct. 20 of Deputy Sheriff Green Johnson, were released from jail last Wednesday under $5,000 bond each. They waived the charges against them to the grand jury.

Sheriff Gorman Collins said that investigation of the shooting has uncovered no further evidence to implicate others.

Deputy Sheriff Johnson, it was reported here this week, has been dismissed from the Williamson Memorial hospital and has moved to Pike county. It was reported early last week that because of fears for Johnson's safety while a patient at the McDowell Memorial hospital he was removed to the Williamson hospital.

The Hall brothers have denied any connection with the shooting. Johnson was struck in the face and chest by shotgun pellets fired from a distance of 35 feet under cover of darkness. Slugs fired from another shotgun missed him, but one struck his revolver, fouling the mechanism.

The brothers were named in warrants sworn out by the deputy's wife and son.

OPINION SAYS GIFTS ILLEGAL

Court's Appropriation Of Funds for Scouts, Fire Dept. Discussed

A fiscal court has no authority or power to appropriate county funds to Boy or Girl Scout clubs of the county, an opinion written recently by Assistant Attorney General M. B. Holifield said.

The opinion was given in response to a query from Ernest Hopkins, of Prestonsburg, as to the legality of appropriations of county funds for such purposes.

The opinion also was construed locally to hold invalid Floyd fiscal court appropriations for the Betsy Layne volunteer fire department, although the fire department was not specifically mentioned in the Holifield letter.

The fiscal court at its May 11 session appropriated $500 to each the Jenny Wiley Boy Scout district and the Betsy Layne fire department.

Two Jefferson county cases were cited by Holifield, who quoted Judge Willis in one of the cases as holding that "the power of the fiscal court is conferred by statute, and it possesses no authority not delegated to it expressly or impliedly by some provision of law."

Mr. Holifield wrote that Judge Willis' ruling held that county funds for Christmas presents to juveniles under the supervision of the Jefferson county juvenile court could not be made by the Jefferson fiscal court, adding that this strengthened him in his conclusion that Scout groups cannot legally be given county funds.

Heavy Lake Restocking With Bass Only Planned

In a letter to Russell Hagewood, cashier of The First National Bank here, Minor Clark, assistant commissioner of the Department of Fish & Wildlife Resources, said late this week that the Department proposes to institute a tremendous stocking policy of bass only in Dewey Lake as soon as these fish are available.

His letter, written on behalf of Commissioner Earl Wallace, was in response to Mr. Hagewood's letter in which Hagewood inquired where bass for restocking purposes may be bought with funds proposed to be raised locally.

Mr. Clark added that it is doubtful "that this (restocking) will give us a population which we desire for our fishermen there in Eastern Kentucky." But, he wrote, such a policy will not harm the lake.

What the Department is seeking is a balance between game and rough fish, with bass in control there. The assistant commissioner said he thinks not enough fish yet have been removed from the impoundment to permit bass to gain the upper hand. When that does

Former P'Burg Child Dies After Surgery

Karen Jean, 22-month-old daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. Walter Snavely, formerly of Prestonsburg, died at the University of Virginia hospital, Charlottesville, Va., Saturday, following heart surgery.

Body of the little victim was returned for burial in the Snavely cemetery on Little Paint Creek, the Carter & Callihan Funeral Home directing. The funeral rites were conducted by the Rev. Harold Dorsey, pastor of the Methodist Church here.

Surviving, besides the parents, is a 10-month-old brother.

PUPILS QUIZ 495 FARMERS

In Sectional Study Of Fire Prevention; Winners Announced

The contest in the schools of the Middle Creek section conducted to find the best pupil-landowner interview on the subject of forest fire prevention was closed last week, according to Roe Turner, forest warden. A total of 495 landowners were contacted.

Two lead questions pertinent to the forest fire prevention program were asked the nearly 500 landowners by the school children. Comments of the landowners were written down by the pupils.

Winners in the various schools, as revealed by Turner, are:

David school, Sue Dawson, winner, with the prize money contributed by Richmond Stone; Needmore school, Phyllis A. Webb; Sam Hale school, Sam Hicks; Johnson school, Jerry Ousley; Forks of Middle Creek, Frankie Poe; Arnett school, Larry Dean Adams; Adams school, Joyce Prater; Cold Spring school, Leona Ousley; Pitt's Fork school, Faye Evelyn Moore; Buckeye school, Columbus Stone, Jr.

Turner had nothing but praise for the cooperation he received

Garrett Man Is Named Princess Chief Engineer By Dahlin, Company Head

C. T. Dahlin, manager of the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company, of David, announces the appointment to William H. Mullins, of Garrett, to the position of chief engineer.

Mr. Mullins, who is a native Floyd countian, graduated from Garrett high school in 1944. Upon graduation from high school he served in the navy as a communications technician until 1946. In the fall of 1946 he entered Pikeville College and completed two years' studies and then transferred to the University of Kentucky in the fall of 1948 and was graduated from the University in 1951 with a degree in mining engineering.

After graduation Mr. Mullins worked with the Elkhorn Coal Corporation, at Wayland, as a mining engineer for four and one-half years and from there he went with the Inland Steel Company, at Wheelwright, also a mining engineer, which position he had held up to the present time.

Mr. Mullins and his wife, Mary, and three-year-old son, David, will make their home at Permele, Kentucky, which is near David.

FIRM DECIDES TO MOVE LINE

Southern Bell Decision On Property Here Told; Project To Cost $6,500

The Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company this week announced its decision to move from Central avenue residential property its poles supporting toll and other lines.

The company moved immediately to determine the location of future sidewalks, in order to move the poles onto city property without invading sidewalk right-of-way.

Cost of the work will entail an estimated expenditure of $6,500. Because some of the lines supported by the poles are toll lines carrying teletype and radio communications, it will be necessary for a new line to be built and connections completed before the old line is moved, it was said.

"Our company has owned the right-of-way on Central avenue for years, and there was no question of our legal right to stay where we are, but we want the goodwill of the people of Prestonsburg, which is what led to our decision," explained Harry Mitchell, Winchester, Ky., Southern Bell district manager.

Poles of the present line are on lots where three homes are being erected by Carl Watson, Joe Weddington and Astor Meade, as well as on residential lots occupied for the last few years.

'TRUCK' MINES REMAIN SHAKY

Estimated 2,000 Men Idled, But Few Mines Have Resumed Operation

The future of small "truck" mining in this county remained uncertain this week, although a few that had been idle returned to work.

Although the shutdown has affected most of these small operations, throwing perhaps 2,000 men out of work, this idleness was not reflected in the registration for unemployment benefits at the Prestonsburg office of the Division of Unemployment Insurance. About 280 men employed in these mines have filed for benefits, it was said this week.

What has created the situation is not clearly understood. One source said the shutdown grew out of union demands that tippie and ramp operators with the mine operators for the Welfare Fund, and that most tippie owners had declined to do so. Another claims it is a general move on the part of the union to enforce the contract between the union and the operators, and that the unmechanized truck mines find it impossible to meet the wage scale and fringe benefits without a better price for their coal.

One mine owner said a delegation of his men demanded the full $22.25 a day, plus a Christmas bonus of $40 and $180 vacation pay. When he told the workers he could not do that and continue to operate, he quoted them as saying, "We know you can't."

He added that the workers set Friday as the deadline for his decision.

Except for those filing for unemployment benefits from the small mines, the employment situation is very stable in the county, Glenn S. Anderson, manager of the office, said. In fact, he added, the unemployment rolls had been dropping till two weeks ago when about 75 men filed for benefits. These were followed by 170 last week and 35 Monday.

Trials of Man, Wife For Magoffin Slaying May Be in 2 Counties

Paintsville, Ky., Oct. 25—A Magoffin county couple may be tried in separate courts, one here and the other at Salyersville, in the fatal stabbing of their son-in-law.

Taylor Craft, 58, Salyersville, was released yesterday on $10,000 bond pending action by the Magoffin county grand jury, which convenes next Monday. Both Craft and his wife, Mrs. Dora Craft, were charged with murder.

Mrs. Craft waived to the January term of the Johnson county grand jury and posted $5,000 bond.

A defense motion was upheld that because Craft surrendered to authorities in Magoffin county, further action against him should be taken there.

Six Jailed Accused Of Drunk Driving; 39 Nabbed Over Week-end

Six accused of drunken driving were among the 39 persons jailed by county and state officers here over the week-end.

Those booked on that offense are Henry Clark, George Robinson, Jr., Claude Hall, Paul Lumpkins, B. P. Brown, John S. Ward.

Others jailed included: Charles Hager, possessing whiskey; John Rose, disposing of mortgaged property.

STAGE IS SET FOR ELECTION

Floyd Gets Attention Of Candidates; County Voting May Be Heavy

The campaigning was nearing its close this week, and Floyd county is all set to name officials ranging all the way from a President of the United States to school board member.

All the dramatic and sometimes comic aspects of the quest for votes will terminate in the showdown at the polls next Tuesday.

Aside from the national tickets presented, Kentuckians will elect two Senators and eight Congressmen and they also will decide if Kentucky shall issue $100,000,000 worth of bonds to finance a road-building program.

In two educational divisions of Floyd county, members of the County Board of Education will be elected. In those two divisions, the third and fifth, a heavy vote is assured.

INSTRUCTS POLL OFFICIALS

In reply to repeated queries as to the duties of election officers in presenting to the voter all ballots on which he is eligible to vote, Sheriff Gorman Collins said this week he has told poll officials that it is their duty to issue all ballots—both regular and school ballots—whether the voter asks for a school ballot or not.

Floyd county has attracted during the campaign all the candidates except those on the national ticket, and many voters from this county have gone to Kentucky cities to hear both President Eisenhower and his Democratic opponent, Adlai Stevenson, in their bids for votes.

Floyd Farmers Receive $638.36 As Incentive For Wool Production

Twenty-three Floyd county farmers received $638.36 in wool incentive payments for last year, it was announced recently.

Roy C. Gray, chairman of the Kentucky State ASC committee, announces that as of October 22, 85 percent of the farmers in this state who had filed applications for 1955 shorn wool or lambs and yearlings incentive payments had been paid a total of $908,948.92 and that this figure is expected to reach well over the $1,000,000 mark by the time all payments are made.

Gray also says that the guaranteed incentive rate on shorn wool and unshorn lambs for the 1957 marketing year which begins April 1, 1957, has been set at 62c which is the same incentive level as the 1955-56 marketing year. The rate announced for 1957 is 101 per cent of September 15, 1956, parity price for wool.

'Can' Martin, Merchant for 76 Years, Succumbs at Estill in 91st Year

C. C. (Can) Martin, 90, a merchant for 76 years and said to have been the first man in Right Beaver Creek of this county to own a steam mill, succumbed to a heart condition at his home at Estill, Wednesday, last week. Although in failing health for some time, he had retired from the mercantile business only two months ago.

Mr. Martin, who was widely known, was a native of the Knott county section of Right Beaver Creek, a son of Allen and Rita Sergeant Martin. He was twice married; first to Cordelia Hall Martin and after her death to Jane Hall Martin, who survives. He and his last wife had no surviving children. Mr. Martin was a member of the United Baptist church.

Surviving sons and daughters are Has Martin, of Langley, Gomer Martin, Port Williams, O., Bill Martin, of Halo, Ted Martin, of Bevensville, John Martin, of Halo, Mrs. Leonard Hall, of Halo, Miss Florence Martin, of Port Williams. Brothers and sisters surviving are John, Has and Alex Martin, Mrs. Cordelia Bentley and Mrs. Nannie Hall, all of Democrat, Ky.

Funeral services were conducted from the home Saturday, the Revs. Robert Martin, Carl Senters, Stewart Howard, Bill Amburgey and Green Boyd officiating. Burial was made in the Whit Martin cemetery at Dema under the direction of Hall Bros. Funeral Home.

CITY COUNCIL ACCEPTS PLAN ON FLOOD AID

Resolution Is Adopted For Flood Control Here; Core-Drilling Under Way

The Prestonsburg City Council this week adopted a resolution accepting the offer of the U. S. Corps of Engineers' assistance on flood control work here to the extent of a quarter-million dollars.

The Huntington district office recently submitted to the city a proposal which would mean that the federal government would spend about $250,000 on construction of a levee, pump-house and operating machinery to protect this community from Big Sandy river and backwater during times of flood.

The city's contribution would be the acquisition of property easements and construction of a diversion sewer line along U. S. 23 from Ford street to the site of the levee on Trimble Branch at or near the present Second street fill.

The engineers now have a crew doing core drilling to test soil composition at the site of the proposed levee and other installations.

The undertaking is planned to protect the community from all flood stages of record except that of 1862 which was the highest known here.

'NOT ASHAMED OF IKE SLIPS'

Says Sheriff in Comment On Court's Vote Denying Payment of Postage Bill

"I may have been a little overzealous in putting those 'Vote for Ike' slips in the tax notices," Sheriff Gorman Collins admitted this week in commenting on last week's fiscal court denial of his claim for postage used in mailing out the notices.

"But," he added, "I am not a bit ashamed of it. It didn't cost the taxpayers a cent. If the fiscal court can give away thousands of dollars illegally, it seems that the matter of a few 'Vote for Ike' slips shouldn't worry them."

The Sheriff's reference to illegal spending pertained to fiscal court contributions of funds to the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and the Betsy Layne fire department. A recent Attorney General's opinion held appropriations to the Scout groups illegal.

"The fiscal court that refuses to pay my postage gave the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts and the Betsy Layne fire department big illegal donations, as the Attorney General says," Collins pointed out in a prepared statement, adding: "I don't want the public to misunderstand me. I'm not against either of the Scout organizations or any volunteer fire department. I'll give my regular contributions to the Scouts when requested, but it will be my money, not the taxpayers'."

"Now," concluded the Sheriff's statement, "I've apologized for a few 'Vote for Ike' slips. Who is going to apologize for giving the tax money away?"

"Some people have been highly

Miss Howard, Reigning Bowl Queen, Slated for Television Appearance

Miss Helen Jo Howard, of Prestonsburg high school, reigning Big Sandy Bowl Queen, will appear on WSAZ-TV Monday at the 9 a.m. "Coffee Time."

Miss Howard was chosen from 18 contestants at the 1956 Big Sandy Bowl festivities was crowned by Raymond Sparks, Whitesburg, the 1955 queen, and was congratulated and kissed by Governor Chandler. She will lead prior to this year's Bowl game in Paintsville the "Parade of Beauties", which include beauty queen contestants from high schools throughout Eastern a Central Kentucky.

The number of entries for the Beauty Queen honor is getting larger each year. Twenty-five high school queens are expected this year.

Betsy Layne Opens Net Card With Win Over HELLIER, 86-65

Betsy Layne opened the Floyd county basketball season Friday night in high-scoring style, defeating HELLIER high school, 89 to 65. Charles Blevins and Ray Clarke led the winners with 27 points each.

The lineup:

Betsy Layne (89) POS HELLIER (65)
Hinchman (3) F. Reese (8)
H. Martin (13) F. Wallace (8)
Blevins (27) C. Francisco (24)
Clarke (27) G. Gibson (12)
Bush (11) G. Lathon (13)
Substitutes: Betsy Layne—Johnson (2), Tackett, Newman, Slone (6), A. Martin; HELLIER—Collins, Kendrick, Akers, Blevins, Bartley.

Centre Representative To Visit School Here

Mrs. Katherine Metcalf Silcott, women's admissions counselor at 137-year-old Centre College, will visit Ashland, Catlettsburg, Paintsville, Louisa, and Prestonsburg this week to interview high school girls who might be interested in attending the Centre Women's College.

Mrs. Silcott's schedule is as follows: Tuesday night and Wednesday, Catlettsburg; Thursday, Ashland; Friday, Paintsville, Prestonsburg and Louisa. She will visit Catlettsburg high school on Wednesday, Ashland high school on Thursday, and Paintsville, Prestonsburg and Louisa high schools on Friday.

SPORTS CHATTER

By GORDON MOORE

BLACKCATS TO MEET TIGERS

For the first time in the past seven years, Prestonsburg's Blackcats will be the "underdogs" in their annual football tilt with heated rival Paintsville Friday night at 8:00 p.m.

Paintsville boasts a 8-1 record and a 6-1 slate inside the loop. Prestonsburg, facing its first losing season since 1950, has an overall 3-4-1 mark and is 2-3-1 inside the E.K.M.C.

The Tiger-Blackcat meeting will be the 31st of the series. Since the first meeting in 1923, Prestonsburg has won 17, Paintsville eight, and five have ended in ties. The Blackcats failed to field a team during the war years of 1943 and 1944.

Paintsville has not won in the past six years and lost last season's battle, 27-21, as the Blackcats twice came from behind on Lowell Hughes' passes.

BETSY LAYNE WINS FIRST

Tommy Boyd's Betsy Layne Bobcats won the first basketball tilt to be played by Floyd county's nine schools this year. The Bobcats punted HELLIER, 85-69, last Friday night with Ray Clarke and Charles Blevins paving the way with 27 points each.

This week's action is:

Thursday night
Auxier at Martin
Friday night
Van Lear at Wayland
Oil Springs at Maytown
Virgie at Betsy Layne
Saturday night
Hindman at Garrett

PIKEVILLE APPEARS "IN"

Defending Eastern Kentucky Mountain Conference champion Pikeville appears in as this season's champs. If the Panthers can defeat Jenkins Friday night, they will cop the crown, regardless of the outcome of the Hazard-Fleming and Prestonsburg-Paintsville games.

MAYTOWN HOST

The annual Floyd County Pre-Season Basketball Tournament will be held in the Maytown gymnasium, November 27, 28, 29, 30 and December 1. Milford Wells and Charles Hughes are the officials. The 58th district tournament (Floyd county) is set for the newly renovated Betsy Layne gym, the first week in March.

CROSS COUNTRY RUN

The K. H. S. A. A. has established the first regional cross-country runs in the history of the state. The regional meets will be held Saturday, November 3rd, in Murray, Bowling Green, Louisville, Berea and Morehead. Winners of the regional events will vie in Lexington, November 17, for the state championships.

All eastern Kentucky schools participating are to enter the Morehead regionals, which is to be held on the Morehead State College course.

Bowl Ticket Sales Boom As Both Teams Entered Near Titles

Advance ticket sales for the Big Sandy Bowl sky-rocketed as Madison-Model which has already cinched the Central Kentucky Conference crown, rolled over Elkhorn High, 47-7, and Paintsville, without the services of Frankie Patton snowed under Cumberland High of Elkhorn City, 53-0.

The fans of Central Kentucky are backing Madison-Model to the limit. The entire allotment of tickets for the Purples has been sold and ticket requests from the Blue Grass Section are being received daily.

Both Big Sandy Bowl teams will complete their regular schedule Friday night. Madison meets Cynthiana, whom they should take for a perfect season, while Paintsville meets Prestonsburg, always a tough opponent. When Prestonsburg and Paintsville meet, the dope bucket is pitched out the window and both teams start from scratch. Paintsville will enter the game a slight favorite and will be fighting for the Big Sandy Conference crown to match against the Central Kentucky Conference crown in the Big Sandy Bowl.

Tickets are available in Paintsville from Junior Women's League members and at the Men's Shop and Rexall Drug Store.

DECISIVE GRID CONTESTS LOOM FOR THREE TEAMS

This is the "Week of Decision" for Hazard, Pikeville and Paintsville in the hotly contested Eastern Kentucky Mountain Conference high school football race. However, Bobby Phillip's once-beaten Pikeville Panthers can cop the crown with a victory over Jenkins, regardless of the outcome of other games. The Panthers' first defeat of the season came last Saturday night in bowing to powerful Paducah Tighlmen, 27-6.

Walter Brugh's Paintsville Tigers, playing without high-scoring Frankie Patton and two other regulars, romped over Elkhorn City, 53-0, for its eighth triumph of the year and in another loop game Whitesburg tripped Crippled Prestonsburg, 21-7, as fullback Lloyd Hodge scored two touchdowns.

Belfry evened its conference mark at 3-3 with a win over Leslie County. Fleming bounced M. C. Napier 40-0, and Wheelwright closed its first season in losing to Wurtland, 19-7.

Dave Hurst's Coal Bowl-bound Fleming Neon Pirates sent fullback James "Red" Hill over for three touchdowns and two extra points, halfback Donnie Skaggs for one six-pointer and two points after, quarterback Leon Sergeant for two markers, one an 80-yard punt return.

Whitesburg grabbed the opening kick-off from Prestonsburg and marched 69 yards in nine plays to take a 7-0 lead in the opening minutes. The Yellowjackets climaxed two more long drives in the second period with Hodge scoring both from 3 yards out for a 21-0 half-time lead.

Injury-riddled Prestonsburg completely outplayed the "ackets" in the last half, but could muster only one six-pointer, that a 55-yard jaunt by junior halfback Lowell McKenzie in the third. The Blackcats used freshman quarterback ames Allen the entire fray, since Paul Phillip Hughes missed his second consecutive game with a bad wrist. The Cats' big running threat, Buford Crager, played part of the game against Whitesburg and again suffered a leg injury. He may not see action again in a Prestonsburg uniform, since he is a senior and his injuries are such that he may be sidelined for remainder of the season.

Elighth-grader Mike Minix, a 160-pounder, started as Paintsville scored at will against Elkhorn City. Minix raced 35 and 19 yards for two of the seven Tiger t.d.'s and gained a total of 120 yards. Quarterback In Conley tallied one, Maurice Minix one and junior Jim Wells added the final three on runs of 21, 12 and 5.

Yes, Turner, There Are Good Teachers

The Superintendent has been crying in the Floyd County Times about the shortage of qualified teachers. From the record we find that there is another qualification required in addition to the teaching certificate. The teacher must vote right not only in all Board of Education races, but other county political campaigns.

LET'S LOOK AT A RECORD

In the past few weeks, we have seen so much in the papers about some of our "Little Political Would Be Leaders", trying to show you and I political records, by withholding facts, and trying to cover up their own political blunders, crooked, and short comings. They will tell you that so and so voted for, or against a bill H. R. so and so, as though we voters could go to Washington any time to see the records. I doubt very much that if you would ask one of those little record-campaigning politicians, "What Bill H. R.—So and So was supposed to be, whether they could quote you the first paragraph, much less tell you the good or bad points in it."

Now I want to say that I have no religious or political prejudice against my fellow man. If you doubt this, you don't have to go to Washington, or the courthouse to find the record, just come to one of our jobs and talk and question any of our employers, you will find Baptists, Methodist, almost any kind of denomination of church, here again you will find as many or more Democrats as Republicans on our job.

Why can you find all of these? It is because we love our neighbors, and neighbors' sons, and we feel so good and thankful that we are able to give them employment, so they can be at home with their loved ones, instead of going to distant place for employment, as so many of our mountain people are forced to do, to support their families.

I never have tried to force any of our employees to vote the way I do, nor have I discharged one because he never. Although, I would be pleased sometimes if they would vote the way I do. In the past some of our men have voted contrary to the way I did. I am very sure, but I feel that I am still their friend because they are still our employee, and will be.

Let's go back to some of our little political record straighteners, and see if they can measure up to this standard. You do not have to go to Washington to get their record, but go to the Prestonsburg Courthouse, and search the records, as many of you already know about them.

Is this what those political record straighteners mean, when they say we are for you, "Vote Straight Democratic", that they may still convert our honest tax dollar to their own selfish use. I wonder, and so should you. Although, we have one in their midst, that has been trying his best to expose, and stop this corruption in our county government, what has he got for it? Black eyes, and finger of scorn pointed at him, but this is not from the good citizens. He still has the respect and gratitude of the good people of Floyd county who believes in good, clean, and honest government.

How does the state machine measure up? How many of you remember the primary election last year, and years before, when those dictators and record-straightener politicians notified you, that you must donate $10.00, $20.00, or $30.00, according as your stations might be, and this from your meager earnings, and this came from yours, and my tax money. Shame on those little cheap politicians. That is what they mean when they say, "We Are for You." "Vote Straight Democratic." They think you are dumb enough to forget you were cut off the State payroll, because you did not obey the little dictator's command.

Shame on all of us, to think that a great state as Kentucky is, has to be so near the bottom of the list of other great states, in education and employment for the fine young boys and girls that are leaving the most, God-fearing part of the world and their loved ones to seek a living. Who is responsible for this condition? Those cheap vote straight politicians would have you to believe that the Republicans are to blame. Not so. Now let's look at the true cause which is very clear and cannot be denied, even by those cheap fellows that are crying, the same old song, "We Are For You, Vote Straight Democratic."

Now like you and I, and they know, that this, our beloved State has been ruled and dominated by the Democrat party ever since we have been a state, and the reason we do not have employment and the proper education facilities for our boys and girls is very clear.

We just haven't had any representation in Washington from our state, like those great neighboring states, of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and other great states, where the factories and prosperity is humming from one end to the other. Their fine roads, schools, and well-paid teachers is evidence of peace and prosperity there.

Friends and neighbors, we too can have politicians, just like those liberty hungry people of Poland, that we are tired of their dictatorial powers over us, and we intend to have our rightful place in this great United States. We can do this by leaving our party emblem and the fear of those cheap misleading voters straight orders at home, and give our great peace loving, and I feel God fearing President Dwight D. Eisenhower, and his worthy and qualified fine young running mate, Richard M. Nixon, an overwhelming majority in Kentucky, and the nation, so if disaster should strike, we may not be left without a qualified leader to step in, as we were left when Franklin D. Roosevelt died, and also give him great worthy and able men as our beloved John Sherman Cooper, Thurston Morton, and our own neighbor Scott Craft to fill the vacancies that have existed in Congress too long. These great statesmen, I feel, believe in the steelworker, announced a verdict of guilty of first-degree murder with the death sentence recommended. Mrs. Collins burst into tears again before collapsing in a faint.

If the sentence is not reversed by higher authority, she will be the first woman to be executed in Indiana history.

Mrs. Collins had entered a plea of insanity, but two court-appointed psychiatrists testified shortly before the case went to the jury yesterday that she was sane and liable to conviction for murder.

The decision by the unshaven, bleary-eyed jurors followed what had seemed a hopeless deadlock.

All 12 men reportedly believed her guilty but two opposed the death sentence until noon. The last objector yielded 3½ hours later.

During the trial a Hammond police officer, Howard Snyder, testified Mrs. Collins told him after he arrived at the scene of the tragedy:

"I'm the one that did it. I'm ready to go up with you. I just shot up the whole damned family."

Giving BOTH our guns away!

Communist leaders . . . RUSSIAN LEADERS . . . have heartily approved Adlai Stevenson's hydrogen bomb proposals. They have, in fact, been seeking that type of proposal from America for several years.

Kentuckians hope the United States will never have a President so naive that he would give away the STRENGTH which equalizes the military potential of America and that of the Soviet Union and its mighty, teeming, hordes of slave laborers of vast production-power and fighting-power.

As president of the United States, as Commander in Chief of the U. S. Armed Forces, and as a leader for peace and understanding in the free world, President Eisenhower has made definite proposals to the Soviet Union for discontinuing nuclear experiments of super bombs. All of these plans were based on a positive system of supervised international inspection.

The safety of our nation should not be in politics. Limitation of testing and use of all weapons is clearly a diplomatic problem and cannot be decided by popular vote! Let's talk sense!

In the last two years Soviet Russia has REJECTED 14 specific disarmament proposals. Soviet Russia has violated every major treaty and agreement it has entered into in the last quarter of a century. Any disarmament agreement not guaranteed by President Eisenhower's aerial inspection plan would be a "scrap of paper."

The super-bomb is war's greatest deterrent in the world today! Except for the influence of the H-bomb, Russia would probably be in control of all of Western Europe at this moment.

If they ever trick an American President into discontinuing nuclear research, the Soviet Russians will have won a diplomatic victory fraught with disaster for the United States and the Free World.

Will Kentucky vote for national suicide on November 6th? The answer is emphatically NO!

Keep America Strong . . . Keep America Safe!

Cadillac Agency Change Announced; Car Dealers Make Location Changes

The new Cadillac agency for Floyd, Johnson and Magoffin counties is the Hughes Motor Company, of Prestonsburg, it was announced this week by J. T. Hughes, head of the Prestonsburg firm which also is the Pontiac dealer.

The former Cadillac dealer here was Carter Motor Sales, and the agency has been moved from the building occupied by Carter Motor Sales to the Hughes Motor Company building.

Meanwhile, the Carter Motor Company building, which is owned by Winston Ford, is being prepared for occupancy by Prestonsburg Motors, agency for Chrysler-Plymouth.

The Studebaker agency has been purchased by Gerald K. Hunter, of Betsy Layne, and Paul Jones, of Pikeville, and they have moved into the building formerly occupied by N. M. White.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank every one who in any way tried to make lighter our burden of grief upon the death of our little daughter. We would especially thank the Rev. Harold Dorsey for his comforting words and the Carter & Callahan Funeral Home for its efficient services.

There's Danger in the Big Mine Idea

From bare newspaper reports, and in the absence of other information, we are given to understand that John L. Lewis, famed president of the United Mine Workers of America, is committed to the idea that a concentration of coal production in a few big companies is acceptable to him.

We cannot agree with such a concept of the needs of the coal industry and of the men who work in it and upon whom women and children depend for the necessities of life. And we find it hard to believe that Mr. Lewis, himself removed from the mines only by time and circumstances, can envision such a situation as his idea of what is best for the hundreds of thousands of men who mine coal for a living.

Centralization of coal production in a few large companies will mean further mechanization of the industry; and the more mines that become fully mechanized, the fewer men will be required for their operation. Production can be maintained by a few such companies, but there is more involved to this part of the fuel industry than mere production and the collection of the UMW's per ton royalty for its Welfare Fund.

Men who know no other occupation and who find it most difficult to find another are involved—they and their families. Their right to work and to live where they have always lived and worked—these are involved too. And the isolated communities which depend on these people for their economic life as well as for their very existence also are involved. Because it deals with living human beings, with their ambitions and desires and loyalties, and with feelings their very own, economics cannot be reduced to mere figures.

Centralization of the mining industry would in a few years leave comparatively few miners to profit from the Welfare Fund they so loyally supported and believed in during their better years.

Besides, any plan to reduce an industry such as is the coal business to a few production giants is not the American idea of freedom of opportunity or of the incentive to initiative on the part of the individual that we hear so much about. What of the many who already have their money and work invested in small mines?

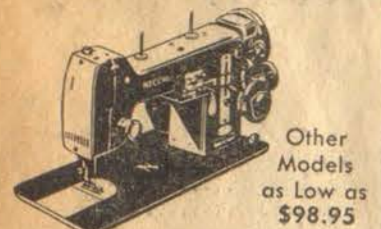

16 In Workshop Held Here By Woman's Club

The Arts and Crafts workshop sponsored by the Prestonsburg Senior Woman's Club and directed by Mrs. H. L. Ley, Arts and Crafts chairman, is meeting each Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., in the Municipal building. Sixteen members of the Senior and Junior Woman's Clubs here and of the David Woman's Club are making brass planters under the tutelage of Mrs. James Camelia and are doing decorative painting on china which is being taught by Russell Rice.

Registration for the workshop is still open, Mrs. Ley said.

same great high American ideals of peace and prosperity that our great beloved President does. Those politicians will tell you that peace and prosperity is no issue in this campaign.

Fathers, and mothers, can these cheap politicians make you and I forget those horrible nights when we were rolling in our beds, and lonesome places, begging a great God to protect our dear sons, while they were fighting, bleeding, and dying in a far off muddy battlefield, or being blown to pieces in an airplane or sunk to the bottom of the ocean by a shell? They could only look to a loving God for mercy, and to think if only mother were here moments. It brings back memories with me to soothe my last fleeting days when our blessed Savior hung upon the rugged cross, and cried, "I thirst," and His blessed Mother standing a far off, was not permitted to give him drink, I say "NO, I haven't forgotten."

Ten thousand of those little power greedy politicians that think more of their selfish greed than they do for the very life blood of your son and mine, cannot erase those horrible memories from our mind. I think God heard the prayers of those humble and grieved fathers and mothers, and gave us this great peace loving President, which we now have.

To some of our dear ministers, that could possibly be misled by cheap politicians, can you forget the agony and grief that you saw in some mother's eyes and heart, when you were called to stand over their loved ones (who had given their lives) and to try to speak words of comfort to those beloved ones, and can you forget the longing and grief in those mothers eyes, whose sons are still sleeping on foreign soil or in the briny deep. I say NO you cannot forget.

Let's pray God that He will let us all live and join as one man and march to the polls on November 6th and show our thanks to God for giving us this humble and peace loving man for president. Let us give him still a greater victory, along with men of courage to help him still maintain and keep the peace with the great prosperity that we now enjoy.

Mothers, isn't the smile, nearness, and safety of our boys and girls, worth more to us than all those record twisters put together? Yes, ten times more. Even if they have to go to other states for employment they are still in our loved country.

Friends, compare this record with those that say we are for you, then vote according to your good conscience, and you will have done your duty.

These stated facts are from one that have had four sons in the armed forces, and I feel that it was through God's great mercy, that He let them all come back to Mother and me, we thank God for it. Although some of our fathers and mothers were not fortunate as we were, our heart aches for them, and I truly pray that we will meet our loved ones again some sweet day, when the turmoil of life is over.

FRIENDS, PLEASE VOTE.

DEMOCRATIC TEAM

Can Carry On The

DEMOCRATIC RECORD

EARLE C. CLEMENTS

The Democratic Record for You

UNDER THE DEMOCRATS (1949-52)
Average person's take-home pay increased20%
Stockholders' income rose20%
.....the same for both. Under the Democrats, all the people prosper. Total national income increased 39 per cent during the last three Democratic years.

Farm income rose15%
Prices paid the farmer rose15%
Parity was always above100%
To Democrats, the farm support program is "prosperity insurance" for everyone, not just the farmer. Democrats have fought to restore firm 90% supports. Kentucky Democrats have protected our tobacco farmers against Benson.

The Democratic-controlled 84th Congress voted retirement benefits to women at age 62 instead of 65, and disability benefits age 50 instead of 65. Coverage was extended to new groups. The Democrats increased payments to the aged, needy, blind persons, and families with dependent children—the increases taking effect in Kentucky in October.

100% of Senate Democrats voted AGAINST tougher punitive legislation against labor.
The Democratic 84th Congress raised the minimum wage from 75 cents to $1 per hour.
Senate Democrats in July, 1955, passed a bill providing Federal aid to economically distressed areas.

Democrats Favored:
Increased compensation for veterans injured in service.
Increased compensation for widows of World War II and Korean War veterans.
Extension of home loan guarantees.
All These proposals opposed by Republican administration.

Democrats in Congress proposed raising personal income tax exemptions to give tax cuts to everybody. The Republican Administration opposed this. Republicans voted down such tax relief.

Most small business had satisfactory lines of credit with local banks. Interest rate on Government loans to small business was 5% or less. Growth in total number of businesses was 69% above rate for first three years of present Republican Administration.

Remember, also, Adlai Stevenson is Kentucky's neighbor from across the river in Illinois. Estes Kefauver is our neighbor from Tennessee—just south of our border.

CLEMENTS-WETHERBY TEAM

1. THE MEN

Earle C. Clements and Lawrence W. Wetherby have been teammates in starting—and finishing—many jobs for Kentucky and Kentuckians!

2. THEIR RECORDS

Over the years, singly or together when they were in state government, Earle C. Clements and Lawrence W. Wetherby have accomplished much.

The Clements record as Governor and Senator includes:

- INAUGURATED NEW RURAL ROAD PROGRAM.
- MADE GREAT ADVANCES IN EDUCATION AND PUBLIC WELFARE.
- STARTED NEW INDUSTRIAL AND TOURIST DEVELOPMENTS IN KENTUCKY.
- DOUBLED APPROPRIATIONS FOR KENTUCKY WATERWAYS DEVELOPMENTS.
- AIDED IN RESTORING TOBACCO ACRES—AFTER BENSON CUT THEM.
- PROTECTED INTERESTS OF KENTUCKY FARMERS IN SOIL BANK ACT.
- SPONSORED FEDERAL AID FOR EDUCATION.

3. THEIR PLANS FOR KENTUCKY

Both these men know your problems and how to solve them at Washington. In addition, Senator Clements would return to Congress with the prestige of a leader and a strong position on important committees. These items are in their platforms:

- AIDED IN SECURING $33 BILLION DOLLARS FOR OUR HIGHWAYS.

These and other accomplishments are in the Wetherby record for Kentucky:

- INCREASED STATE SCHOOL FUNDS 88%.
- SPONSORED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO LOWER VOTING AGE TO 18.
- AIDED IN BRINGING 511 NEW PLANTS AND 41,000 JOBS TO KENTUCKY.
- HELPED BUILD FINE STATE PARK SYSTEM AND TOURIST INDUSTRY.
- DURING HIS 8 YEARS IN FRANKFORT, 17,000 MILES OF ROADS BUILT.
- INCREASED BENEFITS TO AGED, NEEDY, CHILDREN AND BLIND.
- CREATED MENTAL HEALTH DEPARTMENT AND NEW HOPE FOR THE ILL.
- BUILT THE NEW STATE FAIR AND EXPOSITION CENTER.

4. THEIR IMPORTANCE TO THE NATION:

Adlai Stevenson ought to be elected President and Estes Kefauver should be Vice President. They will need a Democratic Senate to help carry out the Democratic platform—which is a platform for you.

Republicans would wreck your hopes for the future if they win control of the Senate.

WHY WE ARE ASKING FOR YOUR VOTE

We citizens looked forward to the Foundation program. The program is now fully financed—WE ARE PAYING THE BILL IN NEW TAXES. Floyd county is getting $1,380,494.00 from the state.

In last week's issue of The Floyd County Times, the Floyd County Board of Education stated that they were primarily responsible for the passage of the Minimum Foundation Program. The facts are that every citizen fought and voted for the Foundation program. But has Floyd county moved forward as a result of all this new money? Have our schools improved as the schools in the counties around us have? WE KNOW THEY HAVE NOT. WHAT IS THE TROUBLE. Could it be that the 75 percent increase in supervisory and office personnel and salaries is taking the lion's share of this money from the poor teachers, who are having to use their own money to purchase school supplies?

IT'S TIME FOR A CHANGE!

I PROMISE YOU a CHANGE For The BETTER

I can only offer you what I would offer if you were hiring me to do any other job. I am willing to work as hard as necessary in order to do a good job. I will be loyal to the children, to the parents, and to the teachers in our district.

I am glad now that I decided to run. I have found out so many things in the last few weeks, it only strengthens my determination to win.

(Pol. Adv.)

No teacher will fear reprisals because some members of their family voted "wrong." I will not tolerate intimidation of the teachers in my district. They are free men and women. The constitution gives them the right to vote as they please. If I am elected I will hire teachers on their qualifications and satisfactory service only.

Some of our rural schools are badly in need of repair. Some have no water supply and the pupils must bring water from home. Some are badly in need of paint. Others need enlarging. All this can and should have been done long ago. There is no reason that these repairs cannot be made on the present budget of $91,820.00, for school maintenance.

I am free to go according to my best judgment in all decisions. I have not promised any job to anyone. I will make all decisions with fairness and justice to all concerned.

If you want a man to represent you without political interference or domination then I will welcome your support on Nov. 6.

Yours for Better Schools,

WAGE-HR. LAW CAUTION GIVEN

Small Mine Operators Worried About Penalties On Federal Act Misuse

Operators of coal mines, especially those in charge of small mines, were advised last week to familiarize themselves with the requirements of both the federal wage-hour law and the federal Public Contracts Act. This caution came from the regional office of the U. S. Department of Labor's Wage-Hour and Public Contracts Divisions in charge of enforcing these two acts in the states of Kentucky, Virginia, West Virginia and Tennessee.

Regional Director Eaves reminded coal operators they were subject to all of the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act (Wage-Hour Law) if any of their production moved directly or indirectly in the stream of interstate commerce. Mine operators were also reminded that they are subject to the provisions of the Federal Public Contracts Act if any part of their production is used to fill coal contracts in excess of $10,000 with agencies of the federal government.

Eaves pointed out that the safety provision of the Public Contracts Act means that all requirements of the federal mine safety code and state laws must be complied with. It was also pointed out that all bituminous coal contracts in excess of $10,000 with the federal government on which negotiations were commenced after November 25, 1955 require the payment of higher minimum wage rates. These higher minimum wage rates under the Public Contracts were set by Secretary of Labor Mitchell last November. The minimum wage rate for certain northeastern coal fields, including East Kentucky, is $2.24 1/2 an hour.

Eaves pointed out that last winter and spring the regional office conducted an extensive informational program over the area in an effort to advise the heads of businesses and industries on the application and requirements of these two federal statutes. These laws he said, are being vigorously enforced. He advised all interested persons not familiar with the requirements, including record keeping of the Fair Labor Standards Act and the Public Contracts Act to communicate at once with the nearest field office or the regional office in Nashville. In Kentucky, the field office of the Wage-Hour and Public Contracts Divisions is located at 830 West Broadway, Louisville.

George Ratliff Dies, Heart Attack Victim At 63, At Sidney, Ohio

Stricken while working as foreman for a sand and gravel firm at Sidney, O., George Ratliff, 63 years old, former Maytown man, died Tuesday morning. A heart attack was given as the cause of death.

Son of the late S. P. and Rebecca Allen Ratliff, he was a native of Wilson Creek, near Maytown, and was a former employee of the Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company. He had suffered from a heart condition for several months.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Anna Frazier Ratliff, one son, Virgil, both of Sidney, and the following brothers and sisters: John Ratliff, Hillsboro, O., Allen Ratliff, of Langley, Bill Ratliff, of David, Jack Ratliff, Wayland, Mrs. Roberta Click, Eastern, Mrs. Lucinda Reffett, Kewana, Ind., Mrs. Susie Adkins, Sidney, Ohio.

Funeral rites will be held at 10 a.m., Friday, from the Wilson Creek Regular Baptist Church, and burial will be in the M. V. Allen cemetery at Eastern, the Hall Brothers Funeral Home directing.

Specialist Allen Stationed in Hawaii

25th Div., Hawaii—Specialist Third Class Ballard H. Allen, 20, son of Mrs. Della Allen, West Prestonsburg, Ky., is a member of the 25th Infantry Division in Hawaii.

He attended Prestonsburg high school and was employed by F. S. Van Hoose Lumber Co.

DRIFT

The Drift Woman's Club met October 15 at the Turner-Elkhorn Mining office, with Mrs. Bobby Hall as hostess. The American Homes Committee presented Mrs. R. H. Messer, of Garrett, who gave an interesting demonstration of flower arrangement.

After the program a business meeting was held for the purpose of electing delegates to the Seventh district convention at Pikeville, and Mrs. Ray Turner and Mrs. C. J. Cahill were named delegates, with Mrs. Bobby Hall and Mrs. Delmer Hall as alternates.

A discussion was held concerning the president's report to be given at the convention. A committee was appointed to plan a skit for this report.

Members had been asked at a previous meeting to bring their hobbies and have them displayed at the meeting. Several beautiful articles were arranged in tables around the room. These included quilts, block print, ceramics and hooked rugs.

Members present were: Mrs. Joe C. Moore, Mrs. Ray Turner, Mrs. Howard Stickler, Mrs. Glen Ward, Mrs. Delmer Hall, Mrs. H. D. Hewlett, Mrs. Bobby Hall, Mrs. Dick Showers, Mrs. Fred Cochran, Mrs. I. E. Reed, Mrs. Girdle Moore, Mrs. C. J. Cahill, Mrs. William Hoffman, Mrs. Lloyd Stumbo, Mrs. W. L. Reed, Misses Ruby Akers and Myrtle Rakes, and guest, Mrs. Messer.

The next meeting will be at the Turner-Elkhorn office, with Mrs. Mrs. Delmer Hall as hostess.

COURT RULES SPECIAL TAX
For Roads and Bridges May Not Be Diverted For Maintenance Use
The Court of Appeals Friday ruled that a special county tax levy, voted specifically to build roads and bridges, cannot be used to maintain them.
In so doing, the high court reversed Judge Silas Jacobs of Bracken Circuit Court.
The opinion written by Judge Morris Montgomery, criticized the time-honored Kentucky custom of dividing county road money among the magistrates, then, allowing each to spend it in his district as he sees fit.
Here is the background of the case:
In 1952, Bracken county voted a special 20-cent levy "for improving and constructing, either or both, the roads and bridges of the county." In the first three years $65,165 was collected.
This money was kept in a "special road fund," thus separating it from the "general road fund." The latter is supported by 15 cents of the general tax levy of 50 cents, and is used for maintenance and repair.
Each year, Bracken Fiscal Court appropriated money from both funds to the eight magistrates on a percentage based on the mileage of county-maintained roads in each district.
The money was paid to the county road supervisor. He spent it in each district as directed by the magistrate of that district.
From the legal standpoint, Judge Montgomery found that construction money from the special levy cannot be used for maintenance. To do so, he said, violates the constitutional ban against levying a tax for one purpose and spending it for another.
Moreover, the high court ruled that it was legally improper to pay the money to the road supervisor, then permit him to spend it. The law is, the court found, that claims for road work shall be paid by the sheriff or county treasurer.
"It is readily apparent," Judge Montgomery wrote, "that the salutary method prescribed is vastly different from the method utilized by the Bracken Fiscal Court in the payment of claims for road work.
The opportunities for fraud, mistake, and mismanagement are so obvious under the system in question as not to merit further description.
The method employed lends itself to political misuse and waste of funds. It is based on a misconception that road funds are to be used as individual magistrates may determine in their separate districts, rather than the proper use of the funds by the fiscal court as a whole for the benefit and best interest of the entire county.

BETTER
Kentucky coal production is up, wages have reached record highs, and prospects for better things are good. John Sherman COOPER brought miners, owners and the Government together in 1954 to get these good things started. Since 1928, when he fought in the Kentucky Legislature for wash-houses for mineworkers, COOPER has been a hard-working friend of the miners. He has been your Senator. You can depend on COOPER.

critical of my vote to pay Sheriff Cormon Collins his postage bill," said Magistrate Grover Holbrook this week. "But I wasn't voting because he inserted 'Vote for Ike tickets in the tax notices. I voted as I did because I think the Sheriff was entitled to receive pay for the postages."
Holbrook and Magistrate Edgar Howell voted to pay Collins but were overruled by Magistrates John May and Ellis Martin, and the vote of County Judge Henry Stumbo cast because of the tie.
"I'm a Democrat," Holbrook said, "but I believe the Ike stuff in the letters actually made votes against him."

FISHING REPORT
Wayne Stumbo calls to remind us the bass have been striking a certain deep-trolled lure at Dewey Lake. Bait dealers who stock a Helldiver should let the boys know about it. Shad color seems to do the trick. Raymond Copley landed two, Monday—one 4 1/2 pounds, the other about 2 1/2 pounds—and on Tuesday three, one a 5 1/2-pounder.
Yours truly was chained to this desk Monday and Tuesday and Wednesday. And Thursday and Friday and Saturday those fish will be thumping their noses at fishermen and everything they offer them. Just wait and see!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR
Editor, The Times:
Judge Stumbo, Magistrate John May and Ellis Martin should be commended on their vote not to allow the Sheriff's office postage for tax notices in which "Ike" stickers were enclosed. It would have not been ethical even if the Sheriff had paid the postage out of his pockets, since he is a public servant serving both Democrats and Republicans and both Democrats and Republican pay his salary.

EARLE AND LAWRENCE ARE OUR FRIENDS

This area has received specific benefits from the interest shown in us by Earle C. Clements and Lawrence W. Wetherby.

During the combined 8 years that Clements and Wetherby served as Governor, and the years that Clements has been in the U. S. Senate, they helped get great projects for our area.

PROJECTS THEY HAVE HELPED TO GET FOR US:

Took the lead both at Frankfort and Washington in securing funds to develop the modern navigation facilities on the Ohio River, of vital importance to this district.

Secured funds, over Republican opposition, to speed up studies of the Big Sandy River looking toward its canalization and complete development, and money for surveys on the little Sandy, Tygart's Creek and other streams.

Got $1,000,000 appropriated to start construction of Buckhorn Dam near Hazard, over opposition of Republicans.

Created the interstate park at the Breaks of Sandy, provided the first state money for it, and built a new road and bridges to the Virginia line.

Established and advanced the development of Dewey Lake State Park.

Built Carter Caves State Park into an outstanding attraction.

Made the start on the development of Greenbo Lake.

Gave large increases in appropriations to Morehead State College.

Promoted the Small Watershed Flood Control projects and new federal legislation, over Republican opposition.

161 miles of roads built or improved in Floyd county, and $2,800,00.00 spent on them.

CANEY ALUMNI ADD TO FUND

Benefit Dinner Nets $610 For Dormitory; $10,000 Gift Made

Floyd county members of the Caney Creek Community Center Alumni Association gave a benefit dinner at the Wheelwright high school lunchroom Oct. 13 at 5:30 p.m.

The buffet-style dinner was prepared by Mesdames Boone Hall, Leatha C. Wilkinson, Alma J. Slone, Anne B. Hall, Mattie Hall, Mattie Marie Reedy, Inez R. Owens, Alberta Moore Ralph Terry, Ruby Akers, Beuna R. Howell, and Sylvia H. Newman.

Charles Clark, president of the Association, explained that the proceeds of the dinner were to be used to build a dormitory for Caney College, which will house 60 students.

The "Rhythm Teens" of the McDowell high school glee club, and their sponsor, Mrs. Olive R. Hall, entertained with mixed singing, which included mountain ballads, and "Caney", the alma mater song.

As an added attraction, the film of the TV program, "Alice Lloyd—This Is Your Life" was shown by Boone Hall, principal of Wheelwright high school.

The Floyd members of the association wish to express their deep gratitude to the wholesale meat, milk, ice cream and grocery companies, and the local stores in the county for their contributions of food and drinks. They are deeply grateful, too, to the non-alumni who purchased tickets. Because of the splendid cooperation of these, the net proceeds of the dinner totaled $610. This sum swelled the association's treasury to $4,800.00. Elizabeth Slone, secretary-treasurer, reported.

An incentive gift of $10,000 has been given by an interested donor, but it is to be used for the last expenditures.

Mrs. Beuna R. Howell, chairman, contributed much to success of the dinner.

Clark Is Ordained To Baptist Ministry

Reevis Clark, son of Mrs. Goldie Clark, of Grethel, was ordained into the ministry of the Baptist Church at a service held Oct. 22 at the Grethel Baptist Church on Brannham's Creek.

Messengers from eight Baptist Churches met in Council at the Grethel Baptist Church in the afternoon to consider the candidate's qualification for the ministry. At the ordination service, presided over by Rev. Irvin Stanton, who had been chosen moderator, the following pastors took part: Rev. Philip Peterson, of Price, clerk of the Council, who gave the charge to the candidate; Rev. Cletis Leverett, from Cornettsville, gave the charge to the church; Rev. William Patterson, from Slemp, presented the Bible to the candidate; Rev. Irvin Stanton led in the ordination prayer, and Rev. Norman Warner, from Stoney Fork, welcomed Mr. Clark into the fellowship of the gospel ministry. The ordination message was delivered by Lester Pipkin, president of the Appalachian Bible Institute, Beckley, West Virginia.

Also present for the Council sessions were Rev. Mr. Gibson, of Cavalry Baptist Church, Cleveland, Ohio, Rev. Jeff Adkinson, Bulan, Ky., Claire Miller, and Harry Baker, from the First Day Baptist Church, Richburg, New York.

Mr. Clark, who was graduated from the Appalachian Bible Institute, in May, 1955, is now affiliated with Baptist Mid-Missions, Cleveland, Ohio, has been missionary pastor of the Pigeon Roost Baptist Church, near Bulan, since July last.

Grethel Baptist Church, the scene of the ordination service, is his home church. Elmer M. Francis is the present pastor of the Church.

A committee of women from the church served supper to those who attended from out of town.

FIND YOUR 'BLIND SPOT'

Most of us have been accused at one time or another of having a blind spot and it's true—at least technically. To find yours, simply mark a small dot on a piece of paper and an inch or two away, mark a cross. Now, move the paper slowly back and forth from your eye. You will find that at some point the cross will "disappear"—and you will have found your blind spot.

Promoted By Bell

Clyde E. George has been promoted to a management position with the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company at Pikeville. He was upped recently to the job of junior engineer.

Mr. George has been in the employ of Southern Bell for ten years. For some time now he has been associated in the Adams & George hardware store on North Lake Drive.

BUYING A HOME MAY REQUIRE LESS MONEY THAN YOU THINK

You need less money than you probably imagine to buy a home today. Thanks to mortgage insurance you often can buy a home for less than you pay in rent.

This has been the major factor in boosting home ownership from 40 to 60 per cent of the population since World War II, reports Wolfgang Langwiesche in "The Idea That Built Ten Million Homes," an article appearing in the November issue of Reader's Digest and House Beautiful.

Thus, a $10,500 home may be bought with a down payment of from $275 to $1,200 and monthly payments of around $72.50 and this payment includes repayment of the loan, interest, fire insurance, and real estate taxes. For this you can get two bathrooms, three bedrooms, washing machine, clothes dryer and refrigerator. More than half the homes built since 1945 have used this system.

During the last decade, a new home has been built for one out of each four non-farm households. Most are small single family homes bought in large part by people who would have rented before World War II.

Except that former servicemen can borrow a little more money a bit cheaper, no government subsidy and no social welfare tinge attaches to this far reaching development.

A million families a year can become home owners because of a mechanism called mortgage insurance, a device whereby Uncle Sam signs the mortgage papers along with you and protects the seller against loss.

The Federal Housing Authority deals with all, the Veterans Administration only with veterans. Neither lends money, they merely endorse your papers which makes it possible for banks, savings and loan

Point-System Crackdown Slated Within 45 Days

Frankfort, Oct. 29th (Spl.) — State Police are expected to begin a point-system crackdown on dangerous drivers within 45 days, acting Safety Commissioner Don Sturgill said this week.

The new system will keep records on all drivers convicted of traffic violations in moving vehicles.

Sturgill said, "Seriousness of violations will determine the number of points registered against each driver. When the accumulation of points reaches a certain total State Police will revoke the driver's license."

Plans based on point systems of six other states are being studied by the Department of Public Safety, Sturgill said. Operation of the state-wide safety program will begin as soon as Governor Chandler approves the department plan, he added.

Explaining the program Sturgill said, "Suppose we settle on a total of 12 points for suspension or revocation of licenses. Speeding, as an example, might carry three points. If an accident results from speeding, an additional three points will be placed against the driver."

"When a driver's total points reach 6 or 9, he will be notified. If his next violation is serious enough to bring his points to 12, he will lose his driver's license."

Parking violations will not be considered. Only the so-called moving-vehicle violations such as speeding, reckless driving and crossing yellow lines will add up in the point-system, Sturgill said.

Drunken driving, which carries automatic revocation of license, is not included in the point-system proposals.

"BLINKERS" READ FASTER

Are you a "blinker?" If you are, chances are you're a better than average reader. According to statistics good readers blink more often than poor ones. It is generally believed that the blinks made it possible to ignore non-essential objects, such as punctuation marks and other gaps in the text. Normal person seem to blink at about the rate of 25 times a minute.

Many Young People Drink

By EUGENE GILBERT
(In The Courier-Journal)

There is a growing indication that hit-the-bottle may be replacing spin-the-bottle as a diversion among teen-agers of the modern generation.

The youth of today learn early how to bend a friendly elbow and down a sociable glass. And, surprisingly enough, many of them learn right in their own homes, long before they get to college.

Dad may have had his first sip at a fraternity smoker or football celebration, but Junior and Sis are old hands at the guzzling game before they get their high-school diplomas.

"Why shouldn't I take a drink or two?" asks a 16-year-old San Diego bobbysoxer. "All my friends do. And besides, what can you do on a date—order an ice cream soda?"

Our survey of more than 5,000 boys and girls between the ages of 15 and 17 in 90 communities across the country shows that 79 per cent have had one or more alcoholic drinks in their young lives.

The sampling included teenagers in large cities, suburban areas and small towns, with no appreciable difference in drinking habits by population grouping.

Only 15 per cent said they never had a drink, and the rest declined an answer.

Where did they usually obtain their drinks?

Right at home, answered 56 per cent. Tied for second place, at 33 per cent each, were parties and neighborhood bars. Twelve per cent said they had a drink in a night club, and 9 per cent listed various other places. Those who drank both at home and at parties or bars accounted for the total's going over 100 per cent.

It is interesting to note that considerably more than one third of these youngsters sometimes drink in bars and night clubs, although no state in the Union permits serving of alcoholic beverages to persons under 18.

The heavy percentage of home drinkers may account for the teenagers' scorn of "sly drinkers". An overwhelming 76 per cent of the boys and 80 per cent of the girls thought it was dishonest to drink without their parents' knowledge.

Yet, despite these figures, teenagers were far quicker to blame the tavernkeeper than the parent for cases of drunkenness in their own set.

The question asked was: "Whom would you punish if a teen-ager got drunk—the teenager, the tavernkeeper or the parent?" Punish the tavernkeeper, answered 56 per cent of the boys and 52 per cent of the girls.

Girls would tend to be harder on the teen-ager than the parent. The opposite was true among boys. Eleven per cent of the girls but only 6 per cent of the boys would blame the teenager. But 9 per cent of the boys and only 4 percent of the girls would blame the parent.

Even more significant, 18 percent of the girls said they would blame no one.

"I've only been drunk once," said a Minneapolis youth. "And even then I got home all right." But an 18-year-old Kansas boy delivered this strong indictment of a tavernkeeper serving liquor to minors: "There is nothing lower than a grown man contributing to the corruption of minors. I know. I had a little trouble myself back when I was 15."

Drinking statistics jumped astronomically when our surveyors moved from high-school to college youth, proving that collegiate habits have changed little since the days of the Student Prince in old Heidelberg. School days quickly become skool days on the modern campus.

Our researchers, visiting 10 campuses in nine states, found that only one out of 10 college boys does not drink at all, and only one out of eight does not drink hard liquor.

Among the girls, only one out of five does not drink at all and one out of two does not drink hard liquor.

CLUB STUDIES SCHOOL

The Allen-Martin Women's Club held a business meeting, Monday evening, October 15, at Frazier's Cafe with Mrs. John J. Sherman presiding. After the club collect and flag salute, led by Mrs. Wm. Martin, there was a discussion of the organization of chapters of "Future Nurses" and "Future Teachers of America" in the local high school. A survey had been asked by the school principal to determine the number of interested pupils.

Mrs. T. J. Allen and Mrs. John J. Sherman, who attended the last "Friends of Kentucky Libraries" meeting gave a report of activities. Then each club member was asked to get at least ten new members or a good book for the Floyd County Chapter of the Library Club. Mrs. German Vance was appointed membership chairman.

A letter was read from Mrs. C. Cruse, new state president, asking for some observance to be made of United Nations Day, Oct. 24, and a letter from the Chairman of Public Affairs asking for cooperation in getting more people out to vote, November 6.

Mrs. Sherman received the report of the year's work to be presented at the Seventh district convention in Pikeville. Ten members expressed their intention to be present. At the close of the meeting a dessert course was enjoyed.

Nov. 11-17 Named Education Week

Frankfort, Oct. 29 (Spl.)— Gov. A. B. Chandler has proclaimed Nov. 11-17 American Education Week in Kentucky.

Dr. Robert R. Martin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, expressed hope that Kentuckians would use the special week as an opportunity to visit schools and discuss their problems and accomplishments.

Theme of the observance is "schools for a strong America." Chandler's proclamation urged that schools be given "the wholehearted support and cooperation they require and deserve."

The proclamation added: "Schools of Kentucky, operating this year for the first time under a fully financed Foundation Program, afford new opportunities for sound educational improvement."

DON'T GAMBLE on another term of MISSTATEMENTS MISREPRESENTATION and BROKEN PROMISES

Before you cast that vote... STOP...
REMEMBER...

TEACHERS

how Mr. Clements, in his quest for the governorship, promised to uphold the K. E. A. request for thirty-four and a half million dollars to raise teacher's salaries. In the face of this promise his 1948 budget provided only about half of this sum annually... nowhere near enough to provide a living wage for all teachers.

FARMERS

that Mr. Clements now charges the Eisenhower administration with the tobacco bill—S-1457—which he sponsored and authored.

LABOR

how Mr. Clements was a member of Congress and voted IN FAVOR of that slave law—the Temporary Industrial Disputes Settlement Act.

MINERS

the defeat of the Mine Safety Bill which would have made Kentucky's safety laws second to none in the nation—and how Mr. Clements had promised to support it!

TAXPAYERS

how Mr. Clements, in campaigning for governor, advocated creating and developing new industry, increasing the income of agriculture and business, encouraging the tourist trade so greater revenues would result and income taxes would not be raised. YET—ON MARCH 6, 1950, GOVERNOR CLEMENTS ASKED THE LEGISLATURE FOR AN INCREASE IN STATE INCOME TAXES AND ON MARCH 10, 1950, THE SENATE, WHICH HE CONTROLLED, PASSED THE BILL IN 90 MINUTES!

PARENTS! VOTERS! TEACHERS!

Of EDUCATIONAL DIVISION No. 5

It would seem it's a crime to support any honest, unbossed and very interested young man for Board Member from our district. We, personally, have been made to feel unreasonable pressure and intimidation because of our support of James Arville Duff. First our jobs were threatened. When this failed to intimidate us we began to feel it through our children. It has now reached the stage of ridiculous lies and ridicule.

This is quite a price to pay for the "crime" of opposing the present administration. Our only interest in this race is to see a man elected who will not be dictated to by selfish and political interests.

Ask any teacher in our district if there has been any improvement in our schools in the last four years. We supported the incumbent Board Member four years ago thinking we were going to have a change for the better. We are not satisfied that everything is being done that can be done to improve the schools in our own district.

We can not understand why Bill Arnold Spradlin and Tom Graham Dingus are trying to tell us how to vote. Are they sending children to school in this district? We do not begrudge Prestonsburg their school but we would like to have as much. Why does Mr. Campbell allow others to do his talking for him?

We need politics in our government but not in our schools. It has been the ruination of our schools. As long as every decision is made on the strength of votes alone, we will have poor schools. Jobs have been created in order to hold votes. Our maintenance costs have risen enormously and yet no more work is being done. Do you want your tax dollars spent this way? It would seem that more attention was given to holding the maintenance personnel than was given to teachers. Remember this—after our teachers are gone to other states they will not come back.

It is time for every parent to wake up to the fact that our children are going to suffer enormously from the pennywise and pound foolish method the Board has used about paying the teachers. No doubt the Board Members think they have only to command the teachers to stay in Floyd county and they will obey. But we assure you that many, many teachers are planning right now to apply for jobs in other states. They can make twice as much and not be pressured about voting or holding votes. Then, too, they like the advantages their own children will have in the schools in other states. Remember the only have to go to Louisville to make twice as much as they make in Floyd county. How did minimum foundation help them? As we understand it, Knott and Pike county are paying their teachers more than Floyd county, yet they receive the same amount per student that Floyd county does. We believe that Floyd county is paying their teachers 10% below minimum. We may be wrong but we thought that minimum was the lowest you could pay.

Many rumors have been started with the express purpose of hurting the candidacy of James Arville Duff. It is easy to spot them. A current one is that some one in Prestonsburg is "running" him. This is false. It is a well-known fact that parents and no one else persuaded him to run. One parent told him that if he wouldn't run otherwise he would be drafted to run. He answered, and we quote: "In that case, I will run." No one at Prestonsburg or any other town knew at that time that he had decided to run. All efforts in his behalf have been in the form of contributions without strings attached.

If James Arville Duff is elected, and we believe he will be, it will be the first time a man has served on the board free to decide as his conscience dictates with obligation to no one but the children, their parents, and the teachers.

To the teachers of our district:

Help us help you. We are doing everything in our power to help elect James Arville Duff. We are strong but you can make us stronger. Next to our children you stand to gain most from his election. You will have four years of freedom to vote as you please without intimidation. We will fight for your right to do this. We would not support this man if we were not sure that he will treat each of you fairly regardless of how you vote—or whether you supported him or not.

We have not asked anyone to expose themselves to the threats, intimidations and lies that we have been exposed to but we do ask you as parents, grandparents and good citizens to vote this Hitlerism out of our schools Nov. 6 DO NOT ALLOW ANYONE TO INFLUENCE YOUR VOTE AGAINST YOUR CHILDREN.

In spite of all the intimidation we have experienced, we are determined and we remain,

VERY INTERESTED PARENTS

U. K. Press To Publish Anthology By Clark

Lexington, Ky. — A new book, entitled BLUEGRASS CAVALCADE, an anthology of writings about the fabled Bluegrass region of Kentucky, will be published November 7 by the University of Kentucky Press.

Edited by Dr. Thomas D. Clark, Kentucky's outstanding historian, the book contains the richest and most colorful passages from almost two centuries of literature about the Bluegrass.

Among the selections are pieces by Pulitzer Prize winners Robert Warren and A. B. Guthrie, Jr. Henry Clay is represented and two of his biographers as well, Bernard Mayo and Calvin Cotton. Three selections from the works of James Lane Allen appear. Other favorite Kentucky authors are included: Elizabeth Madox Roberts, Irvin S. Cobb, John Fox, Jr.; and with them such famous outsiders as Joseph Hergesheimer, John James Audubon, Theodore Roosevelt, Anthony Trollope, Charles Dudley Warner and even Harriet Beecher Stowe.

Also included are the thunderings of "Marse Henry" Watterson and George Dennison Prentice, and the folksy humor of Allan Trout and Joe H. Palmer.

From John Filson's narrative of the discovery of the Bluegrass to Patrick O'Donovan's remarks on the last gubernatorial campaign, BLUEGRASS CAVALCADE discloses the varied pattern of life in "The Promised Land".

Dr. Clark, a native of Mississippi, has been associated with the University of Kentucky history department, which he now heads, for a quarter of a century. During that time he has become a noted historian of the South, the frontier and Kentucky, gaining a reputation which has led to his election to the presidency of the Southern Historical Association (1947) and of the Mississippi Valley Historical Association (1956-57).

"Under God, we espouse the cause of freedom and justice and peace for all peoples!"

Dwight D. Eisenhower

"God has given us freedom . . . and justice . . . and peace. And when we frame our plans around the reverent belief in a God of order, justice and love, there is bright hope for the world.

"Millions of families in homes around the globe pray for freedom and justice just as we do. And they look to us to use our strength to keep the peace.

"Now, as I see it, there are three imperatives for peace.

"The first imperative for peace is the elementary necessity of maintaining our own national strength—military, economic and moral.

"During the past three and one-half years, our military strength has been greatly increased. Never before in peacetime have we been so strong as today. Our economic power is reaching new peaks every day. But, most important, we are competing today for men's hearts and minds and trust. So what we do and say at home is even more important than what we say abroad!

"The second imperative for peace is collective security.

"We live in a shrunken world in which oceans are crossed in hours. Today it is madness to suppose that there could be an island of tranquility and prosperity in a sea of wretchedness and frustration. For self-preservation we must engage in a mutual economic and military cooperation with the free nations.

"But even this is no longer enough.

"The third imperative for peace is this:

Without for a moment relaxing our internal and collective defenses, we must actively try to bridge the chasm that separates us from the peoples under Communist rule. The hope is that little by little mistrust based on falsehoods will give way to international understanding based on truth.

"We shall continue to work religiously until peace and understanding gradually come about. Then it will be possible for older people to feel they can bequeath to their children a better inheritance than was their own. Then young people can hope for a new and shining world.

"Under God, we espouse the cause of freedom and justice and peace for all peoples."

Boone Festival
Honors Westward
March Into State

Frankfort, Oct. 29 (Spl.) — The Westward march of pioneers into Kentucky was re-enacted recently in the gigantic Daniel Boone Festival at Barbourville.

A highlight of the fete was the annual commemoration of the signing of the traditional Cane Treaty following an Indian feast attended by about 700 palefaces and genuine Cherokees.

Indians from Qualla Reservation, Cherokee, N. C., return each year to sign the treaty which gives them the right to take all the cane for basket weaving they want from the Knox County braves. They are descendants of tribes who less than 200 years ago fought bitterly with the white man for possession of the area.

Former Gov. Flem D. Sampson, Barbourville, signed the treaty for white man. Vice Chief McKinley Ross signed on behalf of the Indians.

Pioneer men in buckskin and women in long cotton dresses and sunbonnets mingled on Barbourville streets with brightly-painted Indians in feathered headdress.

These marched in parade, beheld by more than 12,000 persons. Also in gala procession were covered wagons, yokes of oxen, bears, coons and eight high school bands.

Ed Gregory and Mrs. Corbin Melton, both of Barbourville, won the "Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Boone Contest" by virtue of their costumes.

Hog calling, husband calling, archery, blowgun shooting, square dancing, and muzzle-loading rifle contests enlivened the festivities.

Boone is honored because the trail he blazed into Kentucky from from Virginia passed through the site of Barbourville. In 1775, he and Richard Henderson bought all of Kentucky south of the Kentucky River from the Cherokees and signed the first treaty.

EYES ON HISTORY

Persons have been concerned with the care of eyes almost since the dawn of time. The Code of Hammurabi (2250 B.C.) had these pertinent comments on eye care: "If a man destroy the eye of another man, they shall destroy his eye." And, "if a physician open an abscess (in the eye) of a man with a bronze lancet and destroy the man's eye, they shall cut off his fingers."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deepest appreciation to those who did so much for us during the illness and upon the passing of our dear brother and son, Kenneth Hurst, and for every courtesy extended to us through flowers and personal services. Especially we are thankful to the ministers for their consoling words, and Hall Brothers Funeral Home for their kind and efficient service.

Your Social Security — 1956 Model
Questions and Answers by Cost Accountants

Do you know and understand your social security rights? As an individual you should know about your rights and benefits and how to make the most of them because they may be worth thousands of dollars to you and your family. Few people realize that this much money is involved.

This is the third in a series of articles containing questions and answers on the new 1956 Social Security law, prepared by the Louisville Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants as a public service in answering some of the questions on the latest changes in the Social Security law.

Q. Will the combined pensions of a husband and wife be higher when both have worked?

A. Yes, in many cases. A wife who has worked can take a pension based upon her own earnings or she can collect a wife's benefits, whichever is larger.

Q. Must a working woman retire completely to get benefits?

A. No, it's all a matter of how much she earns. She can earn up to $1,200 a year without loss of any Social Security benefits.

Q. If a husband 65, and his wife 62 are retired, can each earn up to $1,200 a year, or $2,400 in total, and both receive pensions?

SPORTS AFIELD
By TED KESTING

A generation ago the pike didn't have much of a reputation. Nowadays he's regarded as one of the country's top-ranking game fish. What makes this so interesting is that even a hardfished like, supposed to have only smaller pike, is pretty sure to contain some great brutes. This time of the summer, big ones are lying on the bottom in deep water, feeding little. Your chances of hooking one will be better after a few hard frosts in the fall.

If you've never tackled pike before, here are some tips from Jason Lucas, angling editor of Sports Afield magazine.

Tackle: Fresh water spinning is pretty out of place in fishing for big pike; it's best to use spinning tackle of the sea type, meant to handle bigger lures and bigger fish. Even the most expert anglers are forced to use quite heavy tackle or lose the big fish; however, those who've had lots of experience with pike prefer casting tackle. With this, use a line of not less than 20 pounds test; those who troll only often use line much heavier, up to 50 pounds test.

You need no larger than an ordinary bass-size casting reel; nor is a drag handle needed. Lucas disagrees with the oft-given advice that one needs a very stiff rod to set the hook in a pike's hard mouth. Inspection will show his mouth to be softer than that of a bass, and he usually takes a lure much deeper, making him easy to hook. Use a rod with no more than "medium" bass action. Be sure to use a wire leader—6 to 8 inches is long enough.

Lures: Pike are inclined to favor a shiny spoon, sometimes with pork rind. On some days you'll get more strikes with a nunderwater plug. But there's a third type that has been producing unusually well for Lucas: A surface lure retrieved very slowly—about one turn of the reel handle in two seconds. This certainly refutes the old "rule" that Pike prefer a fast-moving lure!

There's a favorite trick of pike that causes many broken rods: Very often one of them will put up practically no fight when you first hook him; you lead him right up to the boat—until he gets a good look at you. Then there's a sudden, terrific splash and he's off, jet-propelled. To save rod and fish, hold the rod well out from your body. When his swift rush turns your wrist, pull the tip down to the water—fast—release the reel handle, and lighten thumb pressure on the spool until it's just enough to prevent an overrun.

Drunk Drivers Get Due Charge Under New Plan

Frankfort, Oct. 29 (Spl.) — "No drunken driving charges were amended to lesser charges in the first week following the Department of Public Safety's announcement of a policy whereby data on such charges will be released to the press," Acting Safety Commissioner Don Sturgill said.

Personnel in the Division of Operator Responsibility said this is the first week in their memory when some drunk driving convictions were not amended to lesser charges.

Commissioner Sturgill announced on Oct. 11 that the Department in the future would publicize amended drunken driving convictions. "In the past," Sturgill said, "some courts convicted drunk drivers then permitted them to recover their driver's licenses by amending the charge. With the new plan, names of the judge amending the charge and the defendant receiving the amendment will be released to the wire services and the news media in the defendant's home town."

When the charge is reduced the driver may retain his driver's license. A recent opinion from the that law permits a court to reduce the charge even after the conviction has been returned.

Floyd Paces Two On Pikeville Bears Schedule Announced

Pikeville, Ky., Oct. 11 (Spl.) — Jack Stephens, of Hueysville, and Douglas Chaffins, of Garrett, will be the only Floyd countians on the Pikeville College Bears varsity basketball squad this year.

Stephens, a junior at Pikeville, won his letter on the varsity team last year, and Chaffins was a member of the freshman squad.

Opening Nov. 12 for their first season as a four-year-college team, the Pikeville College Bears will undertake a 26-game schedule "full of rocks, and with no outright breathers," Coach John E. Renfro, of Pikeville said today.

The all-senior-college card will pit the Bears for the first time against Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opposition. The six K. I. A. C. members who will meet Pikeville are Berea, Georgetown, Transylvania and Union colleges in home-and-home series, and Bellarmine and Villa Madonna in single games.

Four exhibitions against non-collegiate clubs, including one meeting with the Quantico Marines and two with the U. S. Army cagers from Fort Knox, Ky., also are on the program. The nine other four-year colleges listed include five whom Pikeville met last season, gaining a split with one and dropping single games to the others.

The Bears left the Kentucky Junior Athletic Conference last spring, after having been champions of that loop three times, and finalists every year, during the last seven seasons. They ended their last junior-college year on a high note, sweeping the Southeastern junior-college tournament February 29-March 2 at Bluefield, W. Va., to become Southeastern champs for the third time in 15 years.

The victory closed their "growing-up" season, in which they faced a mixture of junior-college and senior-college competition, with a standing of 19 wins and 15 losses, Renfro said.

Besides the K. I. A. C. schools, other opponents added since last year will be Kentucky Christian College, Grayson; King College, Bristol, Tenn.; Stead College of Technology, Johnson City, Tenn., and Rio Grande College, Rio Grande, Ohio.

The varsity squad with which Pikeville will open the season is made up of nine lettermen and three members of last year's junior varsity. Eight of the group were freshmen last year.

The upperclassmen are John Lee Butcher, Pikeville, in his second season on the Bears after a year as a member of the University of Kentucky freshman squad; Ralph Roberts, Putney, Ky., Pikeville's only fourth-year man; Stevens, the only third-year Bear, and Lloyd Mullins, Amburgey, Ky., in his second varsity year.

Three former Carr Creek High School cagers, Charles Francis Wiscoal, Ky., Kenneth Smallwood, Sassafras, Ky., and R. B. Singleton, Anco, Ky., with Millard Reynolds, Toler, Ky., and John Waddell, Hindman, Ky., are the other lettermen. Chaffins, Jack Cunningham, Phelps, Ky., and Arnold Meek, Boons Camp, Ky., from last year's freshman squad, complete the Pikeville varsity.

Joe M. Butcher, Williamsport, Ky., a junior at Pikeville College, will be Renfro's assistant coach during the season. Homer Adams, Chicago, Ill., is team manager.

The Bears' schedule:
Nov. 12—Kentucky Christian, H.
Nov. 17—Patty Lumber, H.
Nov. 19—Transylvania, H.
Nov. 23—W. Va. Tech. (Homecoming) H.
Nov. 24—Berea, Berea, Ky.

TYLER LEAVES STATE STAFF

Former Morgan-Co. Man Joins Publishing Firm; Was Reviser of Statutes

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 18 — James A. Tyler, reviser of Kentucky statutes, has resigned, effective November 10, to join the editorial staff of Lawyers Co-operative Publishing Company at Rochester, N. Y.

Lieutenant Governor Harry Lee Waterfield, chairman of the Legislative Research Commission, accepted Tyler's resignation with "reluctance and regret."

"He will be difficult to replace, but I can't blame him for bettering himself when he has the opportunity," Waterfield said.

In his letter of resignation, Tyler said the 1956 edition of the Kentucky Revised Statutes should be ready for delivery within three weeks.

Tyler, 34, has been chief reviser of the statutes since July 1, 1954. His successor has not been named.

Before he became reviser, Tyler was a member of the legal staff of the Department of Revenue. He obtained his law degree from the University of Kentucky in 1949. He is married and has four children.

Mr. Tyler is a brother-in-law of Charles Goble, former Prestonsburg man.

Let's Stick to the Truth!

Floyd county is not the highest county in the state in maintenance costs. The maintenance costs per child are about average for the state. The truth of the matter is that we need more improvements to our buildings, not less. We are doing the best we can with the money we have.

Take these examples from last year. Floyd county spent on maintenance and capital outlay $111,386.50 while Pike county spent $347,047.00. Johnson spent more per pupil on maintenance than Floyd county. Magoffn spent more per pupil on maintenance than Floyd county.

The work of all employees of the Board of Education is constantly checked to see that we get the most of our tax dollar.

Do not be misled by propaganda.

John M. Stumbo, Jr.
John E. Campbell

(Pol. Adv.)

WHAT ABOUT THIS BUDGET?

Do you think the Board "wrestled" long enough with this budget? Evidently the teachers don't. A large number are planning to apply for positions in other states and counties next year. Maintenance costs could be cut approximately in half. This money could have been added to the teachers' salaries. The present administration would seem to be more interested in keeping maintenance men than in keeping teachers. Why doesn't some interested parent require the Board to supply a work schedule of the maintenance department?

Step into the wonderful world of AUTODYNAMICS

A low-slung beauty with Flight-Sweep style: Swept-Wing '57 Dodge Custom Royal Lancer 2-Door.

It unleashes a hurricane of power
It breaks through the vibration barrier
It is swept-wing mastery of motion

SWEPT-WING '57 Dodge

How do you describe a car so daring in concept, so revolutionary in features and advances, so rewarding in beauty and performance? How do you explain its newness when everything about it is new? On display today is just such a car—the Swept-Wing '57 Dodge that steps you into the wonderful world of Autodynamics.

What is this wonderful world of Autodynamics? It is a world where everything is new from road to roof to achieve absolute mastery of motion.

Here's what it does in the Swept-Wing Dodge:

- It unleashes a hurricane of power from a thundering new aircraft-type Super Red Ram V-8 engine that's a spitfire in action!
- It tames a tornado of torque with a new TorqueFlite Push-Button Drive for the greatest get-away on the road!

- It breaks through the vibration barrier with a revolutionary new rubber-mounted suspension system—Dodge Torsion-Aire—that features race car torsion-bars. You ride in a "Realm of Silence," isolated from vibration, noise and road shock.
- It is swept-wing mastery of motion in a sleek, low-slung beauty barely 4½ feet high that has no equal in the way it corners, handles and rides.

You have never seen, felt or owned any car that compared with this new Swept-Wing Dodge. See and drive it today . . . now at your Dodge dealer's!

If You're a Bore You Can Be Cured

If you think you're a bore, the chances are you're not, writes I.A.R. Wylie in the November issue of the Reader's Digest. The outstanding characteristic of the bore is that he never knows it.

Miss Wylie says that the bore is "too self-satisfied, too insensitive, or too busy entertaining himself to be concerned with his effect on others." There is a cure for him, however, if he can only be made to realize his sad condition.

There are a vast number and variety of bores, the writer says. One of the worst examples is the "narrator who starts a story with its grandmother explores every branch of its family tree and ends up with remote descendants."

Then there is the "Jokester Bore" and the "Hypochondriac Bore" and the "Snob Bore," or "name dropper." Not all bores are talkative; there is even the "Strong, Silent Bore." The varieties are endless, all characterized by intense absorption in oneself.

Miss Wylie regards boredom as a serious, infectious, spiritual sickness. It can be cured if caught before it becomes chronic. The cure: to "stay alive and interested not only in our own affairs, but in the affairs of the world around us." The man who is never bored himself, never bores others.

The writer advises all bores and potential bores to heed the prayer of the old Scot: "O Lord, keep me alive while I am still living."

Miss Parker Is Named To Centre 'Dean's List'

Danville, Kentucky, October 22 (Spl.) — Miss Ann Parker, formerly of Wheelwright, has been named to the "Dean's List" at 137-year-old Centre College here for making a high scholastic standing.

The "Dean's List" is composed of students who make a 2.0 standing with no grades below B or make a 2.2 standing with no grades below C for the preceding semester. "Dean's List" students are not subject to class attendance rules so long as they maintain the high average.

Miss Parker is the daughter of Mrs. John T. Parker, of Huntington, formerly of Wheelwright, and is a junior at Centre. She is a member of the A Capella choir and soloist for that group.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deepest appreciation to those who did so much for us during the illness and upon the passing of our dear father, Richard M. Wells, and for every courtesy extended to us through flowers and personal services. Especially we are thankful to the ministers, Green Boyd and Doug Burkett, for their consoling words, and Hall Brothers Funeral Home for their kind and efficient service.

The Family

If the telephone company still had to depend on the old manually operated system instead of the dial phones, notes Reader's Digest, there would not be enough women between the ages of 18 and 40 in all of the United States to perform the job now required by telephone traffic.

WEST PRESTONSBURG

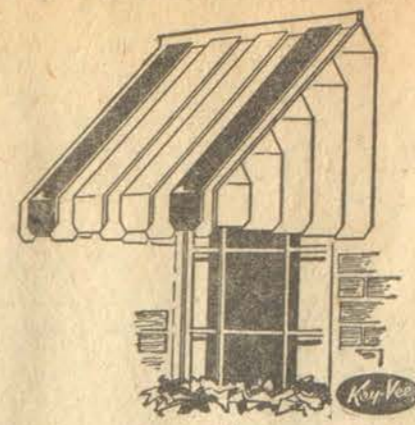

The 900 Club met October 19 at the home of Anna Mae Harris, the president, Mrs. Sam Hatcher, presiding. Reports of the secretary, Mrs. Frances Bolling, and the treasurer, Mrs. Joe Arnett, were followed by readings on the theme, "More Reverence for God in Our Schools." "Christian Economics" was discussed by Mrs. Henry Wright. The prayer for the Common Task was given by Anna Moore, and highlights of holidays for the month of October were reviewed by Mrs. David B. Leslie.

The hostess was presented a useful gift which she gratefully accepted. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jan. Harris to 12 members of the club. The next meeting will be held Nov. 16 at the home of Mrs. Fannie Runnels.

State Police To Make Safety Check On Autos

Frankfort, Oct. 29 (Spl.) — If your car is not adequately equipped for safety you'll probably be stopped soon by a Kentucky state trooper.

Director of Kentucky State Police Paul M. Smith says his officers are inspecting vehicles which appear to be in unsafe mechanical condition.

Safety inspections are in line with a law passed by the Kentucky General Assembly this year. It provides for inspection upon reasonable belief a motor vehicle is unsafe or not equipped as required by law.

If a vehicle is found in unsafe condition or any required part is not present and in proper repair, the inspecting officer will give a written notice to the driver and send a copy to the Department of Kentucky State Police. The notice will require the vehicle to be placed in safe condition within a period of 48 hours.

The law states that anyone who receives a notice and fails to take proper action shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than $200 or by imprisonment for not more than 20 days, or both.

Smith stressed that motorists can expect troopers to check brakes, steering mechanism, tires, front and rear lights, exhaust system, all glass, windshield wipers, rear vision mirror, horn, lights to illuminate license plates and turn signals.

Chicken Coops and Horse Troughs

The boy on the farm where I was young had to be just about everything; consequently, he was seldom an artist in anything. When a fence had to be built, he helped, whether it was a rail fence or the later paling or wire fences. When a roof had to be covered, he made or helped make the boards and then nailed them on. Ordinary carpentry was his every-day practice. Some of us were exceedingly awkward with tools and were not allowed to do anything that required skills. Thus chicken coops and horse troughs came to mean, to me, at least, the most ordinary sort of work that any moron could do.

Nearly always at Fidelity there was a pile of lumber lying around, often rotting because it was not stacked rightly. Lumber was plentiful and cheap; hence we paid little attention to it. When we wanted a plank for some purpose we tore up a pile of lumber and got something suitable, leaving the rest open to the weather or even the dirt. It was just planks, now worth big money, that I would saw up into the right lengths for a horse trough. Sometimes my lines were a bit crooked; but a few stout nails could hold the pieces together, anyway. Our horses had a great way of gnawing the troughs or kicking them to pieces. It was not necessary, then, to be too particular about the carpentry we used.

With plenty of chickens to shelter in the nesting season, we had to have many chicken coops. I early learned how to saw the framework for a coop. I fudged considerable in putting on the planks, for home-made boards were just the things for this, already the right length. Some of my chicken coops, like my horse troughs, were hardly works of art, but they served for years. Many a rural preacher got a full meal of fried chicken from the inmates of my coops. What more could you ask in a useful or artistic object?

It hurt my feelings when I was not allowed to show other feats of carpentry. It is true that I could nailed on planks that my brothers had sawed, that is, after they had used a few impressive words to remind me of what I was doing. But nothing requiring actual skill ever fell into my hands. To this day my fingers are largely thumbs, capable of making useful rather than artistic horse troughs and chicken coops but hardly to be trusted in more careful sawing and nailing.

It is a mistake to assume that there were no artistic fingers or hands in Fidelity. Long before my clumsy efforts at carpentry the Union Church was made right there by skilled workmen, yellow poplar being used throughout. Nails were not so commonly used then; hence mortised joints were to be found where sills and uprights came together. Planes in the hands of local carpenters smoothed away the roughness of sawed lumber and left surfaces that glistened from long use as well as from the original planing. Later buildings showed much of the same skill, nothing to brag but useful and sturdy. Everything from the framework of the houses to the single roofs showed patient skill that was good for that time and place. Only after I left home was it at all customary for an actual carpenter to be employed to erect the ordinary buildings of the farm or even the houses themselves. I can recall how strange it seemed when I was down at Fidelity on a visit once, many years ago, to learn that a local carpenter had the contract — imagine that — to wreck a store building, salvage the material worth using again, and then erect one of the stores that still adorns the hill at Fidelity. That was a long way from the older days, when a man built his own house or barn or store or had a neighborhood working that did most of it in a single day. Maybe my skill, or lack of it, in making horse troughs and chicken coops was not to be laughed at, after all.

FASTEST KNOWN PAIN RELIEF FOR ARTHRITIC, RHEUMATIC VICTIMS—NOW AVAILABLE

Seven "Film-Coated" Ingredients Offer Positive Relief

The crippling, torturing, twisting pain of Arthritis and Rheumatism may soon be forgotten, thanks to an exciting new laboratory discovery named Ar-Pan-Ex. Ar-Pan-Ex was perfected by a noted scientist of a world-famed university, working with all known facts about these crippling ailments. The result is a safe, easy to take tablet that promotes the fastest relief known from that stabbing agony.

Ar-Pan-Ex is compounded of seven active ingredients including a special new medicine to help provide longer lasting relief. Ar-Pan-Ex exclusively perfected to curb chronic, deep-seated pains.

Why AR-PAN-EX Helps
Ar-Pan-Ex does not dissolve uselessly in the stomach—avoids stomach distress. Ar-Pan-Ex is scientifically "Film-Coated" so that ALL the powerful, pain-relieving medicine is released only in the small intestine where it can be quickly carried by the blood stream to every pain-wracked muscle joint and nerve. Swelling, stiffness and soreness may seem to be miraculously eased when Ar-Pan-Ex helps the system throw off excess Uric Acid that can also aggravate pains.

Nothing Like AR-PAN-EX
Nothing ever offered before can bring results faster, more effectively or with longer lasting benefits than Ar-Pan-Ex. It may mean a renewed life of usefulness and pleasure to millions.

Ask for genuine Ar-Pan-Ex today at any drug store for the kind of relief no other product can claim to equal. If your druggist is out of it, he will be glad to order it for you.

FLOYD COUNTY REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

What Do They Want?

The Floyd County school system is being administered under the provisions of the Minimum Foundation Law. That law is the best educators, who have spent their lives studying these matters, can devise.

Right here we want to ask Ulysses Collins, Jack Branham, Arville Duff, and their supporters what they have to offer in place of the Foundation Program? Do they think that they can improve on this law that was brought about by parents, teachers and school groups working together?

Or in lieu of a program do they have little petty gripes, grudges and hates they want to satisfy? Do they want to remove school principals like D. W. Howard, because of his church, or political beliefs? We are proud, and many patrons are proud, of the Betsy Layne school plant. Would Jack Branham destroy all of this to satisfy a little clique around him?

The schools on Right Beaver Creek are excellent institutions devoted to the education of our boys and girls. Of what does Mr. Duff complain? Or is he out to help another little group to wreak private spite at the expense of our boys and girls?

Until our opponents have something better to offer than petty gripes, and grudges we shall continue to administer the school system in the interest of our girls and boys.

In the meantime we ask only that our opponents to stick to the truth!
