THURSDAY

This Town— That World

If, as we devoutly hope, no strings break, this paper will be published today (Wednesday). And if that little thing does happen, it will mean that The Floyd County Times force will enjoy a complete Thanksgiving holiday for the first time in perhaps ten years. Well, it was worth waiting for.

GIVING THANKS

Thanksgiving is more than turkey and dressing and cranberry sauce. It was not born of gluttonous appetites. The first Thanksgiving came, as it still does, at harvest time, when the Pilgrim Fathers looked about themselves and their little world to give thanks to God for the sun and the rain and the mercy that had permitted them to survive under the most rigorous circumstances and in forbidding surroundings. It is interesting to note that they did not wait until the year was over before they gave thanks. The cold of the winter with all its trying days lay ahead. Savage Indians, disease, all the stern uncertainties of life remained, but they did not wait till fair days came once again before giving thanks.

We all, every one of us, have much, so much, to be thankful for. But how thankful are we in the true sense?

Let us state an obvious fact: Thanksgiving means what it says—giving thanks.

GROUP STAGES 1st BOOK FAIR

Innovation Sponsored By Wheelwright P.-T.A.; Similar Events Planned

The lively Wheelwright P.-T.A. last Thursday night sponsored the first book fair held in this county.

Planned for P.-T.A. members and children, the fair was staged with the help of Floyd County Chapter of Friends of Kentucky Libraries and the Bookmobile.

The P.-T.A. members, filling the auditorium of the old gym in this model Inland Steel Community, first held its regular business session. Worley Mace is president of the group. Then they moved to the rear of the room to look at the 160 books which had been furnished for the fair by the Floyd County Bookmobile. Orders for about $90 worth of books were taken by the P.-T.A. during the time the books were on exhibit.

Professional librarians had examined the books and were with them to answer any questions. Helping with the fair at Wheelwright were Miss Linda Stephens and Mrs. Evelyn Salisbury, both of Prestonsburg; Mrs. Lillian Hall, McDowell; Mrs. Clara Rupe, Wheelwright Public Library; and Mrs. Dorothy Conley, Wheelwright grade school library. Mrs. Conley, with the help of Boone Hall, principal, and Mrs. Blackburn and Mrs. Cummings had done a good job of advertising the fair at the school. Walls of the gym were covered with eye-catching posters about the fair made by students.

Out-of-town Friends of Kentucky Library members attending and assisting at the fair were Mrs. Crit Wells and Mrs. Noah Howard, both of Wayland, Mrs. Charles Hornsby, Garrett; Mrs. R. V. May, Mrs. Lon C. Hill and Everett Patton, of Prestonsburg.

The Friends, under Mrs. R. V. May, president, plan more such projects which will keep Floyd county well ahead in furnishing good books to children and the public, Robert Wallace, Bookmobile librarian said.

STUMBO WINS ACQUITTAL; 7 HELD GUILTY

Armed Robbery Trial Ends in Circuit Court; Two Enter Guilty Pleas

A jury in circuit court here deliberated about 30 minutes Tuesday afternoon before returning a verdict of not guilty in the trial of Grover Stumbo, Jr., on a charge of armed robbery.

The indictment against Stumbo was made by Policeman Herschell Lester, of Martin, who testified in the trial that the defendant held him up at gun's point and took from him two half-pint bottles of whiskey which he had taken from Stumbo and three companions when he arrested them in Martin.

Only other witnesses were the defendant and his companions. They claimed the gun used after they were arrested had been redeemed earlier in the day from pawn at Allen, that it lay in the floor of the car till picked up by defendant. Stumbo admitted he pointed it at the officer but denied he touched him. They said that after the car was stopped Lester tossed the whiskey back into the car and that he was not robbed.

Ernest "Cat-Tail" Campbell and Willie Harris received two-year pen terms after entering pleas of guilty to grand larceny in the theft of copper wire. Campbell later was prosecuted under the Habitual Criminal Act, but was not given trial on this charge.

The rape charge against Russell Hall was reduced and on conviction he was fined $250.

Two liquor offense convictions are being appealed. These are a fine of $100 against Balmar Hall and a $50 fine and 30-day jail term for Tommy Ratliff. Other convictions resulted in fines: Brown Sammons, cutting and wounding, $50; Margaret Slaven, reckless use of a deadly weapon, $50.

BELL PETITION SEEKS BOOST

Phone Company Claims Rate Increase Needed To Effect Fair Return

The Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company has asked the Kentucky Public Service Commission to examine its revenue requirements and approve rates that are fair to telephone subscribers and which will provide the company a fair return.

In an application filed Monday with the PSC at Frankfort, Vice-President and General Manager, H. G. Barteo, of Louisville, said that increasing costs have depressed earnings and that the company currently is earning about 4 3/4% on the value of its Kentucky properties. This is much lower than the 8% (See Story No. 10, Page 3)

UMWA PAPER MOURNS LOSS

Mine Workers' Journal Blame Chandler in Loss Of Clements, Wetherby

The United Mine Workers of America last week bemoaned the defeat of Earle C. Clements and Lawrence W. Wetherby in Kentucky's two Senate races.

The U.M.W. Journal, in appraising the union's successes and failures in the election, characterized Clements as its "good friend" and declared the victor, Truston B. Morton, is "no friend" of the mine workers.

Wetherby, who lost to John Sherman Cooper, had been endorsed by the union.

"Kentuckians generally credit Governor A. B. Chandler with causing the defeat of Clements and Wetherby and with coming close to causing Representative Carl D. Perkins to suffer a defeat," the Journal said.

The miners' Journal also recorded that it was on the losing side in West Virginia, where Republican Chapman Revercomb defeated Governor William C. Marland in a Senate race.

In fact, the journal reported that only five Senate candidates whom it backed were elected, whereas seven whom it supported were defeated. But in the House races, the union helped elect 26 out of the 41 candidates the Journal said.

Wayland Girl Victim Of Diabetes; Funeral Conducted in Johnson

Darlene Gail Hall, 13, of Wayland, died at 6 a.m., Wednesday of last week. Death was attributed to diabetes. She was a daughter of Richard and Hester Wells Hall, both surviving. Two brothers, Ronald and Darnell, at home, survive.

Funeral services were conducted Friday at 2 p.m., at the home of the girl's grandfather, Ed Wells, Boons Camp, Johnson county, the Rev. Holland officiating. Burial was made there in the family cemetery under the direction of Hall Bros. Funeral Home.

NO CONTEST FOR CONTROL

Of Party Is Foreseen As Date For Election Of Precinct Heads Set

What could develop into an all-out fight for Democratic party control in this county was seen this week with the announcement by County Judge Henry Stumbo, chairman of the Floyd party organization, that precinct chairmen and chairwomen will be elected Saturday, Dec. 1, with the naming of district chairmen and a county chairman to follow on the next Saturday.

Chances are, however, it was learned from one source, the chairmanship may not be contested, with a state administration supporter winning the post.

A chairman and a chairwoman will be named at mass meetings to be held in each of the 60 precincts at 2 p.m., Dec. 1. These, then, will meet at 10 a.m., the following Saturday to elect a chairman from each of the county's two legislative districts—at the courthouse to name the 9th district chairman, and at the McDowell school to elect the chairman from District 97.

These two legislative district chairmen then will meet here at 2 p.m., the same day, to elect the county chairman.

FLOYD GROUP GIVEN $3,550

By Children's Crusade; Continuance of School For Retarded Assured

The Floyd County Council for Retarded Children has been given a grant of $3,550 from the 1956 WHAS Crusade for Children, it was announced today (Thursday). A special WHAS television and radio program, "Crusade Report," made the official announcement.

The grant will enable the Council to continue for another year the school for mentally trainable retarded children established with Crusade funds two years ago. Of the grant, $2,050 will be used to underwrite the salary and mileage for the teacher, and $1,200 will be used for the transportation budget.

This year's Crusade for Children was staged at Memorial Auditorium in Louisville on September 22 in a 16-hour television and radio marathon. All contributions were distributed to organizations serving mentally and physically handicapped children in Kentucky and Southern Indiana. Crusade grants totalled $171,500.

The 1956 Crusade for Children funds were allocated again this year by panel members of the WHAS Radio program, "Moral Side of the News." The panel consists of Dr. Frank Caldwell, president of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary; Dr. Duke K. McCall, president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary; Monsignor Felix N. Pitt, secretary of the Catholic School Board Archdiocese of Louisville; Dr. Joseph Rauch, rabbi of Temple Adath Israel; and Rev. Robert T. (See Story No. 7, Page 4)

Abbott Creek Home Levelled by Blaze

A dwelling occupied by Ann Allen and children, formerly of West Prestonsburg, was destroyed by fire on the Big Branch of Abbott, Tuesday morning. The occupants were away from home at the time, and nothing was saved. Cause of the blaze has not been determined. It was said all fires had been turned off. The home was owned by Sarah Jane Collins.

HUNT RESULT IS 48 DEER

From Robinson Forest; Doe Killers Are Fined, Biologist Stephens Says

Howard Stephens, of Prestonsburg, district game biologist, Department of Fish & Wildlife Resources, said last week that 48 deer killed during the three-day hunt in the Robinson forest area of Knott, Perry and Breathitt counties were reported at checking stations maintained by the Department. Several others known to have been killed during the hunt were not reported at the established stations, and it is estimated that at least 60 were bagged.

Success of the hunt was a surprise to hunters and Department officials alike.

One 14-point buck was killed, and the largest killed weighed 209 pounds, field-dressed.

Three Winchester and Lexington men were caught with a doe they had killed and were fined $109 each, Mr. Stephens said.

It was the first legal deer-hunt in this part of Kentucky since the days of the pioneers.

EVENT HONORS ACHIEVEMENTS

4-H Club Members, Farm Leaders Receive Awards At Exercises Held Here

The second annual Achievement Night exercises honoring Floyd countyans for outstanding work in 4-H club and various other agricultural activities was held at the Prestonsburg grade school auditorium last Saturday evening. Forty-two county champions were awarded trophies, ribbons and medals.

A large crowd attended the exercises, heard Rev. Harold Dorsey, pastor of the First Methodist church here, extend congratulations to the winners. Kermit Howard was master of ceremonies.

Group singing, led by Franklin Moore, preceded the main event of the occasion which was the presentation ceremonies.

Recognized as top in sheep production were Virgil Smith, of Allen, first place, with a blue ribbon and a cup; Greeley Dotson, West Prestonsburg, second place, ribbon and cup; and James Allen, of Pyramid, third place, white ribbon. The trophies for sheep and wool production were awarded by Carter & Callihan Funeral Home.

Winners in strawberry production, the trophies also being given by Carter & Callihan, were first place, W. Frasure, of Bonanza, blue ribbon and cup; second place, Virgil Smith, ribbon and cup; and third place, Manuel Hall, of Water Gap, white ribbon.

The corn derby winners, the trophies awarded by the Prestonsburg Kiwanis Club, were first place, Miss Barbara Lafferty, of Cliff, with 129 bushels per acre; second (See Story No. 9, Page 3)

Church Women Meet To Plan Work Ahead

Two committees of the Council of Local Churchwomen have met within the week at the home of the Council president, Mrs. R. V. May, to plan future work.

The Christ for Christmas committee, headed by Mrs. Ray Howard, met last Thursday, and the committee to promote World Day of Prayer, of which Mrs. H. B. Wright is chairman, met Tuesday.

DEPUTIES NAB FUGITIVE TRIO

County Provides Poor Sanctuary for Prater, Two Others in Hiding

Fugitives from legal prosecution in other states found Floyd county insecure sanctuary last week as deputy sheriffs arrested two escapees from Ohio and a third man who was wanted by Michigan authorities.

Estill Prater, former Floyd man, who escaped 14 days earlier from the Sandusky (O.) Honor Farm where he was serving a 1-to-20-year sentence for assault with intent to kill, was arrested on Salt Lick Creek last Wednesday by Deputy Sheriffs Al Patton, A. J. Reed and Chester Neeley. Taken at the same time was his companion, Lee Richard Haught, who had been serving a sentence for auto theft and burglary. The two men were nabbed in bed. They have been claimed by Ohio authorities.

The third out-of-state man arrested was Matt Owens, who was captured at Garrett last Wednesday by Deputy Sheriffs Al Patton, Chester Neeley and Silas DeRossett. Sheriff Gorman Collins said he was told Owens was accused of taking $1,400 in cash from an elderly Michigan woman.

Officers jailed here within the week two men on drunk driving charges—Jay Johnson and James Wright. Russell Gibson was booked by Conservation Officer Raymond Copley on a charge of hunting out of season, and Kermie Conley was jailed for Knott county authorities on a possessing untax-paid whiskey charge.

Mrs. Judith Allen, 84, Of Hueysville, Succumbs At Home, Last Tuesday

Judith Allen, 84, of Hueysville, died at 2:30 p.m., Tuesday of last week, at home. The infirmities of old age were given as the cause of death.

Mrs. Allen, the widow of Jacob Allen, was the daughter of Israel Turner and Elizabeth Gearheart Turner. Two sons and a daughter survive: Ward Allen, Hueysville, J. R. Allen, of Hindman, and Mrs. Madge Casey, also of Hueysville.

Funeral rites were conducted at 10 a.m., Friday, at the Wilson Creek Regular Baptist church, the Revs. M. C. Wright, Willard Akers and Banner Manns officiating. Burial was made in the family cemetery under the direction of Hall Bros. Funeral Home.

CITY COUNCIL VOTES CURBS

Enacts Taxicab Control; Ban To Liquor Traffic Is Ordinance Objective

The City Council here Monday evening enacted a 16-page ordinance which is designed to regulate taxicab operations and their owners and drivers.

The ordinance, second to be enacted within a period of two months in an attempt to curb the liquor traffic here, was drafted by Marshall Davidson, Prestonsburg attorney, at the request of Councilman Watt Hale, moving spirit behind the fight on bootlegging. It will become effective Dec. 1.

An earlier, and severer, ordinance was discarded after it was held that some of its provisions were vulnerable to attack.

Crowd Told Future Of Lake Not Bright

Dewey Lake fishing, Eastern Kentucky deer-hunting and the Kentucky conservation picture in general came in for the full treatment at the fourth annual banquet of the Floyd County Fish & Game Club at the Maytown school's lunchroom Monday evening.

Club members, their wives and friends—136 in all—heard talks by John Redwine, Seventh district supervisor, Bernard Carter, fisheries biologist, Ellis Carter, game pathologist, and Ed Adams, director of the department of Conservation Education.

"Don't expect too much of Dewey Lake," Bernard Carter told the gathering. Much of his talk was a repetition of what he told a gathering of sportsmen here recently after Dewey Lake had been "poisoned" in an attempt to rid it of an over-supply of shad, Carp and small Crappie and bluegill.

The lake, he said, is over-fished, it is poor in fertility—next to the poorest in the state and actually the poorest of all the Commonwealth's major impoundments—and will never support enough game fish to provide the fisherman's dream of limit catches.

"But we're trying our best to raise Dewey Lake's productivity to the absolute maximum," Carter added. He said white crappie—an undesirable species—were introduced to the lake without the Department's knowledge and that the lake actually was impounded before Department officials were aware that this was being done, thus preventing steps he and others of the fisheries division might have taken at the outset to control the rough fish population.

He expressed the opinion that not enough fish have yet been killed at Dewey. Study of the lake will be continued, and this will determine what further action will be taken.

Handshoe Veteran Dies From Injuries Received In 2-Month-Old Accident

Hebert Thomas, 35, of Handshoe, died at the Veterans hospital, Huntington, Monday, at 6 a.m., of a blood clot. He fell from a tree two months ago and was being treated for a broken back when complications developed. It was at first thought he would recover. He was found dead in bed by attendants.

Mr. Thomas, a veteran of World War II, was the son of B. T. and Mandy Collins Thomas, both surviving. He was married to Sylvia Handshoe Thomas, who also survives. Surviving children, all at home, are Michael, Patricia, Buford, Averil, Dora Lee, and Benny. Eight brothers and sisters survive.

Funeral rites were conducted today (Thursday) at 10 a.m. from the home, the Revs. Ashland Shepherd and Stewart Howard officiating. Burial was made in the Wilson Handshoe cemetery under the direction of Turner-Ryan Funeral Home.

WATER PLANT CONSTRUCTION IS FINANCED

Letting of Contracts Expected Soon; Bonds Bought by Cincy Group

Sale of $560,000 worth of bonds to finance waterworks construction here and improvement of the water system was made Monday night by the City Council to Charles A. Hinrich & Co., Cincinnati.

Bids for construction of a new water plant, laying of water mains and other allied work have already been accepted, the bonds will be issued within three weeks, and so actual work on the expanded water system is expected to begin without any great delay, it was said this week.

The Cincinnati firm, representing a group of six bond companies, submitted the only bid received on the bond issue. It offered par on $18,000 worth of bonds maturing from 1958 to 1963, with 2 3/4 per cent interest. Bonds maturing between 1964 and 1968 were sold at 95 and bear 4 3/4% interest. Those maturing from 1969 to 1991 will bear 5% interest and were also sold at 95.

All the bonds are callable after 10 years, in inverse order.

The $18,000 worth of bonds sold at par will clear bonded indebtedness against the City Gas System. Outstanding waterworks bonds total $76,000.

To handle affairs of the city-owned utilities in compliance with a recent ordinance enacted in preparation for the bond sale, Mayor Harry Sandige named a Utility Commission. Personnel of the Commission remains the same as the old commission which has managed the gas and water systems.

Burl Spurlock was named for a period of six years, his term to expire Nov. 19, 1962, Henry D. Fitzpatrick, for four years, ending Nov. 16, 1960, and Russell Hagewood for a two-year term ending Nov. 19, 1958.

21 FIRES TAKE FOREST TOLL

Turner Estimates Fires Swept Up to 5,000 Acres Of County's Timberland

Twenty-one fires took their toll last week when from 3,000 to 5,000 acres of Floyd woodland were swept by flames.

The blazes, scattered over the county and whipped by high winds, presented firefighters led by Forest Warden Roe Turner and Ranger Oliver Hall, a baffling problem most of the week. Despite the wind, which on occasion carried fire across fire lanes and "rings" to break out anew 40 to 50 feet away, the fire-fighting crews had the situation pretty well under control when rain fell Thursday night to put a stop to the destruction.

"We've had 40 to 50 men on the job, but at that we were short of manpower," Turner said Monday. "We had a lot of wind, and we would no more than get a fire under control when the flames would jump 'rings' we had raked and then break out all over again."

One of the biggest of the blazes was in the upper Dewey Lake section where approximately 700 acres were burned over, Turner said. Other large fires were in the Wheelwright-Price area, on the head of Salt Lick Creek and in Mud Creek—all at or in the vicinity of county boundaries, and most of the blazes originating outside Floyd county.

Party Fight SPUTTERS OUT

Regular Organization Of Young Democrats Recognized at Meet

The expected scrap between two groups of Young Floyd Democrats before the state Credentials committee of the Young Democratic Clubs of the state failed to materialize last week-end as the state organization met in Frankfort.

Delegations representing two Young Democrat organizations from this county went to Frankfort, but the organization effected at a recent meeting of the regular group stood unchanged. Fred A. James, chairman of the Young Democratic Club of the state failed to materialize last week-end as the state organization met in Frankfort.

The ruckus in the state convention appeared imminent after young party members who claimed they were not invited to attend the first meeting and election of new officers got together and effected an organization of their own. No contest or protest was officially lodged, however, against the original organization headed by James. He, Henry C. Hale and Donald L. Meade represented the "regular" Young Democratic group at the convention.

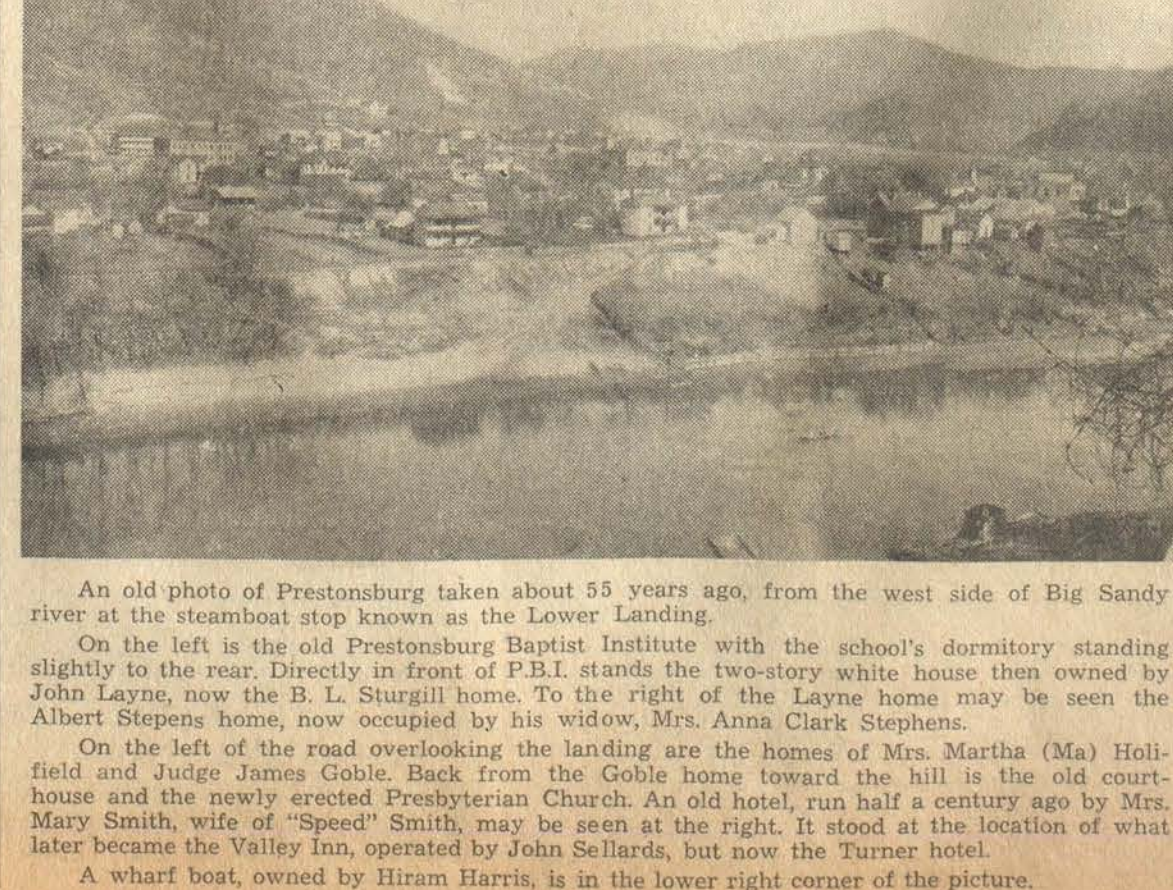

Mr. Hale nominated Mrs. Thelma Stovall, Secretary of State, for the office of state chairman of Kentucky Young Democrats, and she was elected.

Other officers of the Floyd club elected with Mr. James are: David Hereford, first vice-president; Bessie Draughn, second vice-president; Fred Hayes, third vice-president; Edith Stratton, fourth vice-president; Kathleen Moore, secretary-treasurer.

"There will be no factional disputes in the organization as far as I am concerned," James said this week. "Any young Democrat is welcome in our group."

Members of the club pay dues, and the age limit is 40 years.

Trial of Irvine Stone on charges of hit-run driving and voluntary manslaughter in the death of Dan Collins at West Prestonsburg was continued until Dec. 6. Estill Newsome has filed notice of appeal from the one-year pen term given him last week for shooting and wounding Cecil Newsome, and has been admitted to $2,500 bond.

These liquor cases were continued till Dec. 8, and attachment was issued for Magistrate May to appear in court on that date: Sam Stanley, Gordon Clik, Virgil Moore, Della Breeding, Eugene Allen, Dora Johnson, Bill Williams, William Moore, Margaret Gibson, Scott Samples, Thelma Collins, Henry Boto, Ted Martin and Davey Hughes.

Other cases continued include: James Stone, possession of intoxicants; Donald Slaven, drunk driving; Ed Prater, rape, trial set Jan. 8; Walker Hamilton and Banner Hall, liquor; Bill Stone, liquor, process to issue for Magistrate Grover Holbrook, trial set Dec. 6; John W. Blackburn, jail escape; Lloyd Hall, obstructing justice; Lonnie Adkins, cutting and wounding; Douglas Osborne, S. J. Bates, Tiny Hall and James McPeake, shooting on public highway; Homer Thacker, cold check; Frank Johnson, breaking and entering; William Ferrell, shooting at without wounding; Dale Hall, Joe W. Harris and Tilda Hamilton, each for assault and battery with an auto; John W. Goble and Robert Hurd, shooting into a dwelling; Jimmie Johnson, assault and battery.

Liquor cases dismissed: Eugene Allen, selling; Gordon Carroll, possession, indictment marked "Reversed by the Court of Appeals"; Grant Walters, possession, on the grounds, it was indicated on the indictment, that Agnel Jones had been convicted for possession of the same whiskey; James Mullins, possession, marked, "Mistaken identity."

The ordinance enacted Monday depends for its "teeth" upon enforcement officers to make arrests and courts to convict, since most of the grounds for revoking or suspending a license hang upon conviction of a cab owner and drivers.

Offenses on which licenses may be revoked under the new legislation are: 1. Conviction for operation of any vehicle while under the influence of an intoxicant or narcotic.

2. Conviction for trafficking in, selling, giving, distributing, soliciting, transporting, delivering or receiving alcoholic beverages in dry territory. 3. Conviction for a felony. 4. Conviction for failing to drive carefully.

5. The frequent and constant changing of drivers of a cab. 7. The violation of two or more traffic ordinances. 8. The presence of intoxicating beverages in a taxicab, the same to be deemed illegal unless proved to the contrary.

The same ordinance set up a licensing Commission composed of the Mayor, the Chief of Police and a representative of the taxicab interests who must be a resident of Prestonsburg. This commission may request personal interviews before licensing cabs or their drivers. Applications for operators' and drivers' licenses, to be made to the Commission, must contain complete information, and the ordinance provides that the applicant must be at least 21 years of age, sober and of good moral character.

The license fee per cab is $30 a year; for drivers, $2. Any citizen or member of the Licensing Commission may institute proceedings to have an owner's or driver's license revoked. Hearings then are to be held, and if action to revoke or suspend is taken the defendant may appeal to the Commission or the City Council itself.

turn being earned by comparable businesses in the state and too low to justify the additional investment required in Kentucky to keep service good and expand and improve it to meet the full needs of the state, he added.

Southern Bell claims $4,500,000 in additional service is needed to insure a fair return on its Kentucky property investment. "For many years prior to 1937, while telephone costs were increasing, there were no increases in the price of telephone service," Mr. Bartee said. During the past 10 years, however, the full effects of inflation and rising costs have been felt by Southern Bell and it has been necessary to apply to the Kentucky Public Service Commission for increased rates.

"The rates authorized during this inflation period have been less than asked for and needed. In September of 1954, when the Commission set the present rates, we pointed out that they were inadequate and would not produce earnings as intended by the Commission. Since 1954, the rates have increased 100 percent—wages, taxes, goods and services, as well as construction costs—have continued to increase. For example, there have been four employee wage-level increases, which require $2,024,000 of revenue a year. Cost increases associated with additional investment accounted for another $2,040,000—a total of $4,064,000 for these items alone," he said.

"During the same period, rate increases totaling $1,987,000 have been authorized. The remainder of the cost increase is not covered by the present rate schedule. In addition, many other items of costs have gone up," he pointed out. "There is still a big demand for telephone service in Kentucky. We are endeavoring to meet this need and we have plans to spend about $100,000,000 during the next four years for new facilities," Mr. Bartee said.

Homer P. Burchett, 65, Dies in Vet Hospital At Johnson City, Tenn.

Homer P. Burchett, 65, a veteran of World War I, died at the Veterans hospital, Johnson City, Tenn., at 7:45 p.m., Monday of last week. Heart disease was given as the cause of death. He was a native of Prestonsburg and a farmer.

Mr. Burchett was twice married. Four children survive and as does a brother, John Burchett. The body was returned to this county Thursday of last week and funeral rites were conducted the next day from the Cow Creek Freewill Baptist church, the Revs. Isaac Stratton and Henry Crider officiating. Burial followed in the Jones cemetery at Banner under the direction of Carter & Callihan Funeral Home.

Aged Weeksbury Woman Victim at Son's Home; Was Pike County Native

Mrs. Tiney Mullins Tackett, 92, of Weeksbury, died at 1:40 p.m., Tuesday at the home of a son, Lint Tackett, following an illness of two weeks. She was a native of Pike county and was married to George Tackett who preceded her in death in 1951.

Mrs. Tackett, a resident of Weeksbury, was a member of the Regular Baptist church for 65 years.

Surviving besides Lint Tackett is another son, Delmer Tackett, Letcher county, and a daughter, Mrs. Mary Burke, Myra, Ky. A step-daughter, Mrs. Sarah Bryant, of Hi Hat, also survives as do 32 grandchildren.

Funeral rites were conducted from the home of her son today (Thursday), the Revs. Mark Burke and Ellis Moore officiating. Burial was made in the John Cook cemetery on Beehive, Pike county, under the direction of Call Funeral Home.

9-Year-Old Daughter Of Buckingham Resident Killed by Automobile

Linda Lou Hall, nine-year-old daughter of James and Leona Shepherd Hall, formerly of Buckingham, was instantly killed at 7:15 p.m. Friday, Nov. 9, at Ash-tabula, O. Beyond the fact that she was struck by an automobile no details were available.

Her parents had been living in Ash-tabula but a short time. She was the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hall, of Buckingham, and of Mrs. Johnny Harris, of Topmost.

Surviving, besides the parents are the following brothers and sisters: James, Gerry, Terry, Barbara, Wanda, Thelma, and Patrick, all at home.

Funeral rites were conducted Monday of last week at the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hall, the Revs. Hobert Bates, Johnny Bates, and Mack McCloud officiating. Burial was made in the Buckingham cemetery under the direction of Call Funeral Home.

NET TOURNNEY SET TO BEGIN

Betsy Layne, Maytown Meet in Same Bracket; Play Starts Tuesday

Floyd county's 13th annual pre-season high school basketball tournament will open in Maytown at 7:30 p.m., next Tuesday night.

Defending titlist, Betsy Layne, and last season's regional winner, Wayland, open the tourney in the first game of the lower bracket.

In the first game of the upper-round at 7 p.m., Wednesday, gym-less Prestonsburg tangles with Martin, and in the second game of the evening those neighborhood rivals, McDowell and Wheelwright square off.

Thursday at 7 p.m., Garrett is pitted against the victor of the Betsy Layne-Wayland tussle, and in the final game of the first round host Maytown vies with winless Auxier.

The semi-finals are carded for Friday night and the finals for Saturday at 7 p.m.

Charles Hughes (Garrett) and Milford "Toodies" Wells (Prestonsburg) will officiate the tourney.

On the basis of early season records, Betsy Layne and Maytown are the leading contenders for the crown. However, both are in the lower bracket and are expected to meet in the semi-finals, Friday night.

Denzil Halbert's Martin Purple Flash looms as the choice in the top bracket.

Betsy Layne topped Martin 74-64 for the crown last year.

COMMUNITY LEADERS HEAR JOHNSON

Dr. John L. Johnson, acting director of the University of Kentucky Bureau of Business Research, told a group of community leaders that industrial expansion brings problems to a community as well as numerous benefits. The business specialist spoke at the opening session of the University's 1956 Community School-for-a-Day held recently on the campus.

Magoffin Race Recount To Determine Winner; Lee Gullett Leading

A recount in the race for sheriff of Magoffin county started Tuesday morning under the direction of Special Judge William Johnson. Paintsville, may soon resolve the heated question of who won. Noah Rudd, Republican, and Lee Gullett, Democrat, were running neck and neck when the returns were in recently and it looked as if the Democrat was the victor by 59 votes.

Charges of incorrect counting of smudged ballots and the detail of counting the absentees added to the controversy and Gullett forced the tallying to cease. The recount is the outcome of litigation. Magoffin county has not yet officially reported any of the races there.

The sheriff race there was made necessary to choose a successor to Hade Montgomery, who resigned.

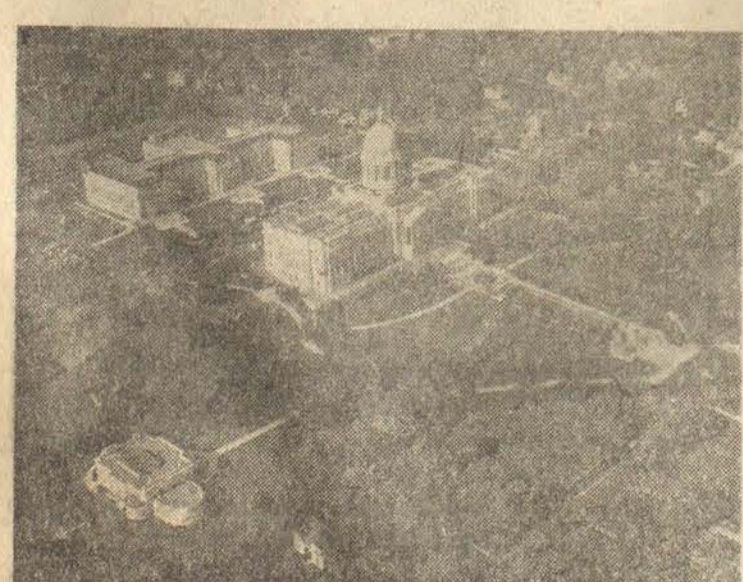

Carl Spurlock, a Democrat, and Bill Minix, a Republican, are guarding from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. the ballots, which are stored in the Circuit Court clerk's office in the courthouse.

Then they are relieved by two more guards, Pat Holbrook, Democrat, and Earl Rudd, Republican, son of the candidate for sheriff.

The forest warden said traces of campfires on ridges indicated that the fires started from the carelessness of hunters. No estimate of the damage has yet been attempted, but it was said that cost of suppressing the blazes was around $1,000.

One fire has broken out since the rain which helped suppress the other blazes, and there yet remains a critical danger of more fire loss unless hunters and all others handling matches, smoking, or building fires for any purpose do not take every precaution, Mr. Turner said.

To My Many Friends Of Floyd County

It might seem early for this announcement, but since our Primary Election has been moved from August back to the month of May, I feel that it is proper for me to let my many good friends know that I deeply appreciate your kind and considerate help that you have given me in the past.

I have worked hard to help the people get the best service possible in your County Court Clerk's office. I will do my very best to do a good job in the future.

Please give me your consideration in the Democratic Primary for reelection as your County Court Clerk on the 28th day of May. I will give to the people the same good service that we have given in the past.

ADD OFF-TOLD TALES

This one has been batted around in newspapers since Hector was a pup, or maybe even longer, but it has been called to our attention again, and again we print it:

Publishing a small paper is no picnic. If we print jokes, people say we are silly; if we don't, they think we are too serious. If we stick to the office all day, we ought to be out hunting stories; if we go out and try to hustle, we ought to be at the office. If we don't accept contributions, we don't appreciate genius; if we print them, the paper's full of junk. If we clip them from other papers, we're too lazy to write them; if we don't we're stuck with our own stuff. Now, likely as not, some guy will say we swiped this from some other paper. We did.

When the man's frau entered the room with a new hat perched on her head, his comment was in the form of a question:

"Bought or caught?"

I PROTEST

Sometimes—you won't believe this—I have an almost irresistible urge to get up and say a few words, as they say. Such a time was at the Fish & Game Club banquet, the other night. It came while I listened to my friend, Bernard Carter, fish biologist, blandly declare in effect that there aren't any 10 to 14-inch bass in Dewey Lake.

I just wanted to ask, "If this is the way matters stand, wonder what it is I've been specializing in over there?"

THIS IS NEWS

Charles Wiechers caught three bass last Friday, trolling at Dewey, that weighed 12 pounds. What makes this an item of interest is, he didn't come waving these bass around in the vicinity of this desk to see how quickly I could get going.

MAYTOWN

W.S.C.S. MEETS

The Maytown Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service held its monthly meeting in the church basement Tuesday evening with Mesdames Edward Robinson and Rebecca Hayes as hostesses.

The program, on the United Nations was "A Good Trustee". Under the direction of Mrs. Baisden Osborne, a beautiful and educational program was presented by the Junior members: Misses Doris Maggard, Linda Maggard, Karen Burchett, Carolyn Ison. Miss Ison gave a vivid description of the U. N. Building which she visited this past summer.

Following the program, the business meeting was called to order. It was voted to remodel and modernize the church kitchen as our next project.

Four new members, Mrs. Bouch, Mrs. L. E. Roberts and daughters, Linda and Becky, were taken into the Society, bringing the membership to 37.

A short social period, with refreshments was enjoyed by the 24 members present. Mesdames Howard Ramey and Elizabeth Allen put their money in the birthday bank and Mrs. L. E. Roberts for her anniversary.

The December meeting will be Tuesday, December 11, with Mesdames Howard Ramey and Amy Begley as hostesses and Mrs. Edward Robinson as program leader. "Secret Sisters" will be revealed and names drawn for "Secret Sisters" for the coming year.

MRS. ROBINSON, HOSTESS

The Maytown Woman's Club held its regular monthly meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Edward Robinson. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Theodore Gibson. Mrs. Shirley Stewart led the group in prayer. Due to the absence of the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Paul Borders, no reports were given.

A motion was made and seconded to give the entire amount of money made at the bake sale on Election Day to the Boy Scouts to help with the building of a Scout house.

An invitation was extended to the Club to attend Henry C. Hagan Garden Club Flower Show in Morehead, Nov. 17.

Plans were discussed about a Christmas project. It was decided the Club will help the needy children at school and several needy families, and each member will be assigned a needy child at school to provide a small gift and any clothing that can be given. Mrs. Gibson expressed hope that some of the Boy Scouts will help distribute the food to the families. Mrs. Paul Borders and Mrs. Jones Tallent were appointed to help Mrs. Gibson buy the fruit and candy.

The annual Christmas party was discussed and all plans made. This year each member, her husband and also another couple. Gifts will be exchanged and refreshments served. The party will be held Dec. 21 at 8 o'clock in the school lunchroom. Names were exchanged for gifts.

The members of the Club welcomed Mrs. Beckie Bouch as a new member. This brings the total membership to 14.

Mrs. Robinson served refreshments to the following members: Mesdames David Reed, Theodore Gibson, Mabel Roberts, Ed Stewart, Frank Stewart, John Ison, Beckie Bouch, Roland Burchett, Charles Patton and James Allen. Mr. and Mrs. Dan "Buster" Robinson are the parents of a daughter, born November 3, at Our Lady of the Way hospital. The babe has been named Charlotte Ann.

Paul Patton, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Patton, underwent a tonsilectomy at the Paintsville hospital, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Allen and Jimmy Lynn and Doug and Gene Coburn are spending the week in Tulsa, Oklahoma with relatives.

(This is the fourth article on the Stephens family compiled from data gathered by Henry Stephens and his son, Edgar P. Stephens).

In the century and half since Samuel Stephens, the progenitor of the Big Sandy family, was born in Virginia several thousand descendants have lived, carved out their destinies and either passed on or live today to claim him as ancestor.

Many engaged in business or went into the professions, notably the law. Others sought public office and served in various official capacities in local or district government. There were physicians, a number were teachers.

David Stephens, son of Samuel and Florence Stephens, who married Margaret Daniels, was elected county judge and also served as county surveyor of Floyd county. His son, Albert, of Prestonsburg, was elected Commonwealth's Attorney of the 31st Judicial district. Claude P. Stephens, son of Albert, was elected and served as Commonwealth's Attorney for the same judicial district from 1922 to 1934. He was named United States Assistant District Attorney for the Eastern District of Kentucky by President Franklin D. Roosevelt and in a few years succeeded Sawyer Smith as District Attorney.

John Stephens, of Watergap, son of Morgan Green Stephens and Malinda J. Hale Stephens, taught school for many years and was elected to the office of County Superintendent of Schools, succeeding Harry N. Cooley. H. C. Stephens, grandson of Samuel and son of George W. Stephens, was elected to the office of Justice of the Peace for one of Floyd county's eight magisterial districts. Henry Stephens, son of Alexander Stephens and Della Hale Stephens, was elected Circuit Court Clerk in 1915 and served two terms. He was a successful candidate for Circuit Judge in 1939, serving six years.

Three of Samuel Stephens' descendants were physicians—Dr. Orris Gearheart, Dr. O. T. Stephens, and his son, Dr. Raymond Stephens. Six were practicing attorneys, one of whom is Harris Stephens Howard, a great-grandson, of Prestonsburg. George Stephens, grandson of David and Margaret Daniels Stephens, is now an instructor in a California college.

David Stephens and his wife, Margaret Daniels Stephens, resided on Left Beaver Creek, near the present postoffice of Printer. Their 11 children married chiefly in the local families of the area. John, the eldest son, married Annie Salisbury in 1882. Their two children were Grover, married Minnie Dingus, Jan. 9, 1908; and Annie who married Monroe Stumbo, Jan. 3, 1905. James Stephens, second son of David, married Elizabeth (Betsy) Salisbury and they were the parents of three children: Ballard F. married Sally Fitzpatrick, July 23, 1913; Beverly married Mona Howell, June 4, 1917; Viola married John Hamilton, Oct. 21, 1904.

Andrew Stephens married Rebecca Cornett, and they were the parents of ten children: John, Wilbur and Lockhart, triplets, died infant; Betty, married George Stephens; Jerry married Wanda Scott, later Jenny Bunting; Emma married George Hereford; Lesty B. married Ernest Akers; William R. married Bird Weddington and upon her death married China Dillon; Bertha M. married John Butler; David married Dora Snapp.

Albert Stephens, who married Annie Clark, was the father of ten children: Claude P. Stephens, married Bess Leete; Oscar married Virginia Needham; Edgar married Gladys Cooper; Alta married Alex L. Davidson, who served a term as County Judge of Floyd county; Ethel, twin sister of Alta, married Blaine Smith; William, died not married; Lindsay married Lucille Rorrer and later Gunnells; Cora married C. D. McHone; Lewis P. married Roberta Bradley, Florence married J. W. Howard, Prestonsburg attorney.

Samuel Stephens, fifth son of

John B. Joseph, of Emma, Dies at P'burg Hospital; Funeral Is Held Sunday

John B. Joseph, 65, Emma farmer, died at the Prestonsburg General hospital, at 10 p.m., Thursday of last week. Seized at home, presumably by a heart attack, he died within 20 minutes after arrival at the hospital.

Mr. Joseph was a native of Magoffin county, the son of John and Rose Salyers Joseph and had lived at Emma the last 33 years. He was a member of the Baptist church.

Surviving are the following children: Adam Joseph, of Ashland, Mrs. Eva Masterson, Dundalk, Mo., Mrs. Lily Mae Barber, Ashland, Mrs. Ethel Garolski and Miss Betty Joseph, both of Baltimore, Md., Claude Joseph and Arnold Joseph, both of Cleveland, O., Clay Joseph, Pine Creek, O., Mrs. Orpha Whitt, Ashland.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday at the Emma Methodist church, the Revs. Isaac Stratton and Abe Vanderpoole officiating. Burial was made in the Emma cemetery under the direction of Carter & Callihan Funeral Home.

David and Margaret, married Martha Haynes in 1908, and were the parents of seven children, most of whom live in or near Missoula, Montana. They are Martha, Mary, Kermit, Kenneth, May, Margery and Barbara. May married Ray Wohlschlager.

Mary Stephens married James Tomlin (son). Five of their children, Dorothy, Sam, Dolly, Rebecca and Rufus, are living in the Northwest, near Bellingham, Wash. Rebecca Stephens, daughter of David and Margaret Daniels Stephens, was an invalid and never married.

Fannie married S. D. Kiek and their children live in West Virginia and Iowa. Their four children were Dakota, married Claude Knockenheimer; Ballard, Bascom, and Marie.

Cynthia Stephens married Frank Bunch. Their children were Marie, Harry, Hager, and Mildred. Harry Bunch was killed in Ashland.

Darcus Stephens was twice married. To her and her first husband, Jeff Galloway, were born five children: Hazel, Opal, Kermit, Edgar and Vernice. To Darcus and her second husband, Percy Kiser, was born only one son, Percy Kiser, Jr. These sons and daughters of Darcus Stephens lived in and around Kenova, W. Va., and Catlettsburg, Ky.

Miranda Stephens married Ned Gearheart and resided for years on Toler Creek, near Amba, Ky. After his death Mrs. Gearheart moved to Betsy Layne where she died in 1955. Their 11 sons and daughters are: Robert married Ann Beverly, later Martha Jones; Hatler married Minnie Haynes and moved west; Dr. Orris married May Dingus; Verlie married Oscar Bush; Sally married J. Burke Bush; Carlye married Palmer Crum; Margaret married Okie Compton; Kelsa married Jesse Elliott; Fred married Rachel Roberts; Fannie married Don Bush; Bill B. died infant.

Nearly all the children and several of the grandchildren of Miranda Stephens Gearheart and Ned Gearheart were teachers.

us," he commented.

Bernard Baldrige, of Martin, supervisor of Seventh district Junior Clubs, was complimented for the part he played in developing a hunter safety program that has been declared by the National Rifle Association director to be the best in the United States. Mr. Adams said that of all the thousands of youths who have attended conservation camps, boating in deep water, using firearms and participating in other activities which without care could be hazardous there has never been a fatal accident in the history of the Kentucky program.

J. J. Gilpin, of the Department of Fish & Wildlife Resources, regaled the crowd with typical Gilpin piano and saxophone numbers.

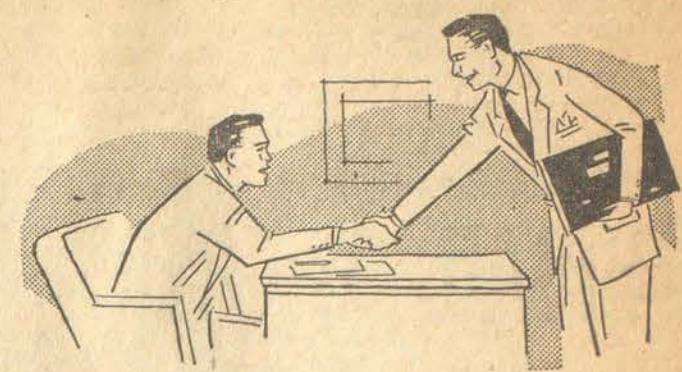

George E. Allen presided as toastmaster.

Introduced to the gathering were Circuit Judge Edw. P. Hill, County Attorney Hollie Conley, County Clerk DuRan Moore, Tax-Commissioner Clive Akers, Roe Turner, Floyd county forest warden, Wayne Stumbo, manager of Dewey Lawe State Park, Conservation Officers Charles Lafferty and Raymond Copley and officers and directors of the fish and game club, including George W. Newman, Dr. Paul Savage, A. J. Turner, Dr. C. L. Allen, who also is vice-president of the League of Kentucky Sportsmen, Henry May, L. G. Mayo, J. C. Moore, J. D. Fitzpatrick and Arnold Workman.

Miss Hinchman, Mr. Porter Wed

A double ring ceremony performed Saturday evening, November 10, in the First Baptist Church at Allen, Ky., united in marriage Miss Bonita Hinchman and Mr. Thomas E. Porter.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hinchman, Tram, Ky. Mr. Porter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Porter, Allen, Ky. The Rev. Ervin Childers performed the ceremony before an altar and archway of white gladioli and palms, and tiers of candelabra and baskets of white gladioli. Nuptial music was played by Mrs. Gertrude Clay, pianist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street-length gown of white silk faille, princess style, with powder blue chiffon trim. She carried a corsage of white and blue carnations on a white satin-covered Bible with white and blue streamers tied with love knots. Miss Betty Jane Deskins, of Dayton, Ohio, was her only attendant. Mr. Ernest Clay served as best man.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Robert Branham, of Prestonsburg sang "Always," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Luther Shivel, also of Prestonsburg.

The reception was held in the recreation building, near the church, immediately following the ceremony. The refreshment table was covered with a white hand-crocheted lace cloth, with a centerpiece of white pom-poms and with carnations with tapers, flanked by a

Dr. Martin Calls Meet Of School Bond Group; $100 Million Is Talked

Dr. Robert Martin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction issued a call for a meeting of the School Bond Issue committee to convene at the conference room of the Department of Education at Frankfort, Nov. 28. The committee will consider further proposals in regard to the projected $100,000,000 school buildings bond issue tentatively scheduled to be submitted to the voters next November.

"We feel that the work of the committee has been successful and that we will have some concrete proposals to make at this meeting," James L. Sublett, assistant state superintendent wrote the committee members.

First public mention of the proposed bond issue was made recently by Dr. Martin at the Eastern Kentucky Education Association meet at Ashland. If submitted and passed by the voters it will be the second bond issue of that size approved by the state within a year, the road bond issue for the amount having been voted overwhelmingly two weeks ago.

Floral Arrangements Studied in Louisville

Mrs. Dolly Messer, of Garrett, who taught a class in flower arrangement here this fall, has completed a course at Louisville under the famed J. Gregory Conway, internationally known flower arranger. Mrs. Messer has been requested to teach another class here next summer.

Mrs. Messer, in commenting on her advanced work under Conway, said: "I am working constantly in this field, trying to bring more to my students each year."

Mr. Conway, she says, studied flower arranging in Japan and is the only Occidental to earn a master's degree in floral arranging at the University of Osaka. He gives the only accredited university flower arrangement course in the United States at the University of Southern California.

Three Floyd county women recently were pledged to Phi Beta, professional music and speech fraternity at the University of Kentucky. They are Cassandra Tingue, who was elected vice president; Winnifred Sue Cooley, newly elected secretary, and Libby Burchett.

Miss Tingue is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tingue, of Langley, and is a graduate of the Maytown high school. She is a member of the Glee Club and Choristers.

Miss Cooley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ward Cooley, of Prestonsburg, and is a graduate of the Prestonsburg high school. Miss Burchett is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Burchett, of Lancer, and also is a graduate of the Prestonsburg high school. She is a member of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

Farm population of the United States has been declining about 600,000 persons a year since 1949.

Both Ends Against The Middle

Clive Akers supported Gov. Chandler for Governor against Judge Bert Combs. It will be most interesting, between now and next May, to see if Mr. Akers tries to play both ends against the middle, hoping to worm his way back into the good graces of Judge Combs' friends for personal political reasons.

I can't believe a few little state jobs will cause any of Judge Combs' friends to forget how actively Mr. Akers supported Gov. Chandler against Judge Combs. I'm sure none of Happy's friends will forget how some of Happy's most loyal supporters were not recommended for jobs which they expected and deserved but did not get.

One more thing. A lot of Happy's friends want a new Tax Commissioner—what about you???

Coach Bobby Laughlin's Eagles of Morehead State College set a national scoring record last year as they averaged 95.6 points a game. They won the Ohio Valley Conference championship and placed third in the NCAA regional at Iowa City, losing to the eventual national runner-up Iowa. Laughlin had the nation's number three scorer in Dan Swartz, who averaged 28.6 points a game, and a team which was what many observers called "the fastest big team" they had ever seen.

This year Laughlin moves into a new fieldhouse seating 5,000 with a team averaging over 6-4. He has lost his big scorer and diminutive guard, Donnie Gaunce, but has picked up height. While they won't score as much as last year's squad, Laughlin's Eagles will be better defensively and should be little less than terrific on the boards.

Leading the Eagles are co-captains Steve Hamilton and Harlan "Fats" Tolle. Hamilton, a 6-7 forward, averaged 16 points a game as a sophomore last year and pulled down 14.1 rebounds a game to rank among the nation's leading rebounders. Tolle is a fancy dan ball-handler and works well at the head of Morehead's tremendous fast break.

Fighting for the starting center post are 6-8 Bernie Shimmfessel and 6-6 Thornton Hill. Both are rugged rebounders and will probably alternate at center.

Fighting for the guard berth opposite Tolle are Ken Thompson, 6-1; Gene Carroll, 6-3 and 5-10 Fred Simpson. All are fine shots and speedy. It's a toss-up as to who will start.

Rugged 6-7 Dave Kelecher will start at the other forward with 6-5 Jim Jewell adding relief at the Eagles' strongest position. Kelecher is a junior who starred at Iowa City last year as the Eagles placed third in the NCAA regional tournament.

Few persons will argue that there's a tougher schedule in the nation. The Eagles open with the team early season pollsters place in the number one slot, the University of Louisville. Morehead meets the Cardinals twice.

The Eagles also face such formidable foes as Dayton, Western Kentucky, the University of Cincinnati, Marshall, Furman, Niagara, St. Bonaventure, Murray, Eastern Kentucky, Tennessee Tech, Middle Tennessee and Ohio University.

Morehead will be participating in the Senior Bowl Tournament in Mobile, Alabama on January 2 and 3. Other participants include Furman, Florida State and host Spring Hill College.

SPORTS CHATTER

By GORDON MOORE

ALL-E.K.M.C. TEAM, POOR REPRESENTATIVE
 The 1956 all-Eastern Kentucky Mountain Conference football team, selected by the 10 football mentors in Pikeville last Sunday afternoon, shows evidence of good trading by second division teams, with little regard given to players who rightfully deserved a place on the select team.

Pikeville, winner of the loop championship, had only all-state halfback H. L. Justice on the unit, and a tie had to be broken between him and sixth-place Jenkins' Elmer Brashear before he made the team. This very same Pikeville team waited to their second successive title, being tied 6-6 only by Prestonsburg, yet had no other players make the team, which is utterly ridiculous.

Second-place Paintsville had quarterback Jim Conley named, who was far and above any other quarterback in the area, but failed to land Frankie Patton on the first unit. Patton only led the loop in scoring with 144 points, was second in the entire state and played eight and a half games, averaging 15 points a game. Another oddity in the selections was the absence of big Tiger guard, Jim Cyrus, who unquestionably was the outstanding lineman in the valley this season. He received only one vote from the loop's ten coaches, since no coach could vote for his own player.

This is the system now used by the loop in selecting the team. Each coach may nominate any player he feels should make the team. After that, the coach votes for any eleven players other than his own. Then what happens in this method of selection, if a coach feels that the balloting is going to be close on any position he has a boy slated for, he won't vote for any other good boy for that position but will cast his vote for some player that has no possibility of making the team, thus giving his own player a greater chance.

The players who rightfully deserve to be on the team shouldn't feel badly, though, when some coaches get together to have their own less deserving players receive the gold footballs, emblematic of the all-E.K.M.C. team. The unbiased fans, sportscasters and writers know the inside when their selections are made.

SOMETHING NEW

The ten basketball coaches of the E.K.M.C. will try something new when they stage their first "Basketball Panaroma" in Paintsville's spacious gym Monday night at 7. Each team will play ten minutes and to keep a running score, the group has been divided into the East and the West, with five teams in each division.

Playing for the East will be: Elkhorn City, Prestonsburg, Paintsville, Belfry, and Pikeville pitted against Hazard, M. C. Napier, Whitesburg, Fleming and Jenkins, in that order.

Kentucky High School Commissioner Ted Sanford has informed the group that this will not count as a game for any of the 10 participating schools.

FLOYD COUNTY TOURNEY

The annual Floyd County pre-season tournament will open Tuesday night in Maytown's gymnasium with the host Wildcats and Tommy Boyd's Betsy Layne Bobcats as co-favorites. Ray Henisch's charges are undefeated in four outings and feature "Wild Bill" Elliot, who has tallied 116 points for a 29-point-per-game average. Betsy Layne owns a 4-1 mark, losing only by four points to highly-talented Flat Gap.

NAMED TO TEAM

Columbus, O. — Winifred Hamilton, former Prestonsburg athlete, was named to the 18 man Bliss College basketball squad today. The Columbus team opened its season against Sinclair College of Dayton with a 62-51 win.

4th Place Team Dominates All-Conference Grid Team

Fourth-place Fleming dominated the all-Eastern Kentucky Mountain Football Conference team with four selections, while the three first, second and third place teams, Pikeville, Paintsville and Hazard, each had one player named.

Second division Jenkins and Whitesburg each placed two players on the select group in the most unusual balloting in the six-year history of the 10-team loop.

A noticeable absence was Paintsville halfback, Frankie Patton, who vanned the area in scoring with 144 points and was second in the entire state, Jim Cyrus, 270-pound Tiger guard, considered one of the best linemen ever in the mountains, was not named on either the first or second team.

In other action of Sunday's stormy and hectic session, Hazard's grid chief, Jim Caudill, proposed that the E.K.M.C. be divided into two divisions, the East and the West.

The East would be composed of Elkhorn City, Prestonsburg, Paintsville, Belfry and Pikeville and Wheelwright, if admitted. In the West would be Hazard, M. C. Napier, Whitesburg, Fleming, Jenkins, and possibly Leslie County if their application is approved for membership.

Representatives of the 10 schools failed to agree on the proposal by an appointed five-man committee to make recommendations to the entire group at the spring meeting.

Caudill's proposal would have the winners of each division vie on a neutral field at the season's end for the championship of the league, which now uses the Dickinson system of rating for selecting a champion.

Pikeville was officially awarded the 1956 football crown and Paintsville the runner-up position. Hazard was third and Fleming fourth. Election of new officers will not be held until the Spring meeting.

For the first time the basketball mentors have planned a "Basketball Panaroma" for Monday, November 26, at 7 p.m., in the Paintsville gymnasium.

The 10 cage teams will be divided as East versus West with each team scheduled to play one 10-minute period. The schools will vie in this order.

Visitors Out to Spoil Pikeville's Homecoming Net Game Friday Night

The highest-scoring college basketball team in the nation will try to spoil the Pikeville College Bears' homecoming Friday night.

The Golden Bears of the West Virginia Institute of Technology, who have held the high-scoring crown for two years, will open their 1956-57 campaign at Pikeville. Back from last season will be four of the five starters, and five first-line reserves, who helped West Virginia Tech tally an average of 100.5 points per game to lead the nation last year.

Homecoming queen Geraldine Smith, Sidney, Ky., escorted by Kenneth Smallwood, Sassafras, Ky., will be crowned in ceremonies at halftime of the Pikeville-Tech game. She will be attended by four other young women who were close run-

Eight Fatalities Reported In State Coal Mines

Frankfort, Nov. 16 (Spl.) - Eight coal mine fatalities during October were reported by Commissioner of Mines and Minerals James H. Phalan.

Five fatalities occurred in the Kentucky River district and one each in the Western Kentucky, Big Sandy-Tug River, and Cumberland Valley districts. For the same month last year four deaths were recorded. At the end of October, 1955, 50 persons had died in mine accidents while the fatalities this year stand at 66.

Phalan asked mine officials to check accumulations of coal dust and called attention to the need for a more adequate and better supervised timbering program.

"We of the Department of Mines and Minerals," he said, "hope that by a better understanding among all concerned in the coal industry, we can bring about a renewed effort in the prevention of accidents, mine fires and the promotion of safety education in our coal mines."

WAYLAND

The Lackey - Garrett - Wayland Woman's Club met Nov. 5, in the club house. This was a program meeting on Spiritual Values. Mrs. Richard Vinson gave a very interesting program on the subject, "Teach Us To Pray."

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Earl Castle. Mrs. Crit Wells announced that 40 good books were received to be given to the Floyd County Chapter, Friends of Kentucky Libraries, and $5 in cash. The drive is still on and the club's goal is 100 good books. Membership in the chapter is $1 or a good book.

Mrs. Castle reminded the club that it is continuing to place emphasis on youth work and that the club hopes to get going strong on its 4-H groups in the Garrett and Wayland schools, and that, since a new home demonstration agent is at work in the county plans are being made to invite her to a meeting soon.

The president also asked the club members to serve dinner Saturday night to the Caney Alumni Association. The money received from the dinner will be spent on the bill for painting the club-house, which will be about $150.

Mrs. J. T. Spillman and Mrs. S. M. Martin served refreshments to the following members: Mesdames W. T. Hatcher, Ellen Hornsby, George Evans, Crit Wells, Delbert Sloane, L. B. Price, Richard Vinson, C. S. Francis, J. E. Miller, Fred Hall, N. D. Howard, Earl Castle and a new member, Mrs. C. L. Totten.

School Milk Program Now Greatly Increased

More than 23 million half pints of milk were served to youngsters in 1,180 schools in Kentucky last year in a special milk program.

According to a report from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, more than twice as much milk was served to children in the public schools of nine southeastern states as in the previous school year, the number of schools increasing from 8,499 to 11,581 during the peak period. The quantity of milk served increased from more than 91 million half pints to more than 195 million half pints, a gain of 114 per cent.

Federal funds used to help pay part of the cost in the region also more than doubled, amounting to $6,939,640 the past year.

In addition to public and private schools, the special milk program for this year has been expanded to include nonprofit schools, child care centers, settlement houses, summer camps and similar institutions devoted to the care and training of children.

Kentucky Leads Area In '55 Beef Production

Kentucky outranked all states of the southeast in meat production in 1955, says the UK Agricultural Extension Service and Experiment Station.

The U. S. meat total was 49,987,000,000 pounds of beef, veal, mutton, lamb and pork. Kentucky produced 1.7 per cent of that total, or slightly under 1 billion pounds. This included 1.6 per cent of the U. S. beef and veal total; 1.8 per cent of pork; and 2.7 per cent of lamb and mutton.

Nearest rivals were Tennessee and Alabama, which produced 1.6 and 1.5 per cent of the U. S. total. Florida led the southeast in beef cattle numbers (1,376,000 head) but only produced two-thirds as much beef in 1955 as Kentucky, with a beef cattle total of 935,000.

In lamb and mutton, Kentucky had twice as much as Virginia or Tennessee. In pork Kentucky was second, just behind Georgia.

500 FOREST FIRES A DAY?

Shocking, isn't it? Yet it's the tragic truth. Last year alone there was a total of 177,000 forest fires throughout the U.S., an average of nearly 500 per day!

These fires were not small ones, either. They burned a total area of nearly 10 million acres—larger than the states of Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island combined!

Just the cost of fighting them came to more than 70 million dollars. And that doesn't count the loss of watershed, timber, recreational values and even lives.

And the most tragic part of all is that 9 out of 10 of these fires were preventable because they were caused by just plain old human carelessness—carelessness with campfires, cigarettes, brush and clearing fires, burning rubbish, etc.

So please—won't you do your part in helping to put an end to this needless waste? Be extra careful with fire, wherever you are. Observe local regulations when burning rubbish. Use your ash tray when motoring. Make sure your campfires are out—dead out! Help keep America green!

Remember—Only you can PREVENT FOREST FIRES

Repeat after me:
I WILL BE CAREFUL!

HENRY STEPHENS

For Circuit Court Clerk

Before I announced my candidacy in The Floyd County Times on June 28th, 1956 for Clerk, I was requested by a lot of people who were urging me to make the race for Circuit Judge, and with ample support from proper sources, I have not abandoned that idea yet. Anyone serving in that capacity is in a position to do a great service for the people in the enforcement of the law, as you are well aware.

I was born in a log cabin on the Caney Fork of Middle Creek; was a farmer, coal miner, school teacher, merchant, postmaster, cashier and president of The First National Bank and assistant cashier of The First Guaranty Bank of Martin.

I have the endorsement by the State Examiner upon the records of the Circuit Court as being one of the most efficient and best clerks in the state. My record as Circuit Judge of this district is an outstanding one in the Court of Appeals of Kentucky and my reversals by that court were few and far between. My record for honesty and efficiency in office is unimpeachable and unexcelled. It speaks for itself and upon that record I stand. Whatever position I have held has received my whole-hearted attention. You will always find me on the job in person, ready to serve you.

I am a Baptist, a member of the Masonic Lodge, Chapter Knights Templar, Shrine, an Elk, and an I. O. O. F. However, these organizations are nonpolitical but are evidence of honesty, integrity, moral fitness and qualification to serve others.

Preserve this ad in your home. I want to be your friend, tried and true throughout the days to come. Stick with Henry and he will stick with you. He always has and always will. If you want service in person vote for him, and you can be assured of a job well done. Remember him in the coming Democratic May Primary for his kindness, and the many good deeds he has done for others, he will do for you.

HEAVY CAPITAL INVESTMENT SEEN TO MEET COAL DEMAND

"Billions of dollars of new capital will be required to meet the mounting demand for coal within the next decade," said Raymond E. Salvati, president of Island Creek Coal Company, in a talk last Thursday before the New York Society of Security Analysts.

Mr. Salvati estimated a total coal demand of 602 million tons by 1960 and 728 million tons by 1965. This compares with 478 million tons produced in 1955. Individual markets in which the greatest growth is expected are utilities, estimated at 290 million tons by 1965, industrial at 165 million, coke ovens to supply steel plants at 133 million and export at 90 million. The retail market, which has been declining over the past ten years, is expected to level off at about 50 million tons.

"To meet this increasing demand and to replace exhausting mines, many new, high capacity mines must be opened," Mr. Salvati said.

"The capital cost of developing new coal mines has risen sharply because of mechanization of operations. This, together with the fact that the larger quantities of coal consumed by large enterprises has made high output mines desirable, necessitate larger corporate organizations which are being brought about through mergers, consolidations and purchases. Only the large 'career' company with sound finances can have ready access to the capital markets to obtain the large amounts of new capital which the growing coal industry will need. The current trend toward larger scale operations is both necessary and healthy."

The Island Creek president pointed to the era of labor peace which the coal industry is enjoying and to the fact that the United Mine Workers of America, realizing its stake in increasing production and extending markets, looks favorably upon mechanization and the trend toward larger producing units.

Salvati pointed out that while labor rates have increased and hours have been shortened, production per man shift in deep mines has been more than doubled in the past eleven years through mechanization and management efficiency. Output per man shift is even higher in strip and auger mines and further increases can be confidently expected. "This increased efficiency," he declared, "has enabled producers, faced with competition from within and without the industry, to absorb much of the wage cost gains since 1948. In spite of paying the highest wages and working the shortest hours, we in the United States produce coal of good quality at less cost than any other free country."

Touching on the subject of nuclear power, the speaker observed that while atomic energy is often thought of as an early competitor of coal for electric power generation, such is not the case. "Atomic energy plants," he said, "are today large consumers of coal and will continue increasingly to be so. Based on the best opinions available, it now appears that significant contributions to energy supply by nuclear power will begin not earlier than 1970 and nuclear power's greatest period of growth will come after 1975. By that time the question will not be one of competition between fuels, but rather how and where to find sufficient energy sources to satisfy the rapidly expanding demands."

Mr. Salvati described for the analysts the operations of his own company and stated that it is recognizing the trend toward larger corporate units. In the past two years Island Creek has made three major acquisitions—the Coal Department of the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Company, the mines and business of Pond Creek Pocahontas Company and the mines and business of Red Jacket Corporation.

Island Creek Coal Company is now third in production among the commercial coal producers of this country and second in dollar sales. "It is my expectation," he said, "that the company will continue to grow as desirable acquisitions can be made. It is our policy not to grow merely for the sake of growth but only where we think we can, by so doing, increase the value and earnings of our existing stock."

In 1956 Salvati estimated his company will produce 14,900,000 tons, sell for others 3,660,000 tons, and make a net profit of approximately $4.15 per common share. For 1957 he expressed optimism, anticipating slight increases in volume but substantially increased earnings resulting from improved sales and the completion of various operating programs to improve the cost and productivity of certain mines acquired in 1956.

The number of persons working on U. S. farms this fall showed an advance over summer figures, but the number is 4 per cent less than for the same period in 1955.

Lost River Cave, near Bowling Green, is said to have been a favorite hiding place of the notorious outlaw brothers, Frank and Jesse James.

ALLEN-MARTIN CLUB MEETS

The Allen-Martin Woman's Club met at the Sea Cafe, Nov. 5. After the usual preliminaries, Mrs. John J. Sherman gave a report of the special convocation held at the Martin high school, Nov. 2, with Miss Edna Mitchell, K.E.A. delegate, as guest-speaker. Miss Mitchell's objective was to stimulate interest in the Future Teachers of America organization.

Miss Nelle Music, who represented the club at a recent meeting of the Floyd County Chapter of the American Cancer Society, reported that Mrs. John J. Sherman had been appointed as a member of the board of directors for the Society.

Club members were asked to watch the T.V. "Home" program on Mondays at 11 a.m. for General Federation of Women's Club news. As a fitting subject for election eve, Nelle Music, legislation chairman, gave a history of the Democratic and Republican parties. She was assisted in the presentation by Mrs. Rusesell Laven.

Why Southern Bell is Asking For a Thorough Study of its Kentucky Rates and Earnings

A lot of things have happened to the cost of providing telephone service in Kentucky since 1952:

1. Four general wage increases have added $2,024,000 a year to our costs.
2. Cost increases associated with additional investment in Kentucky amount to another $2,040,000 a year.
3. Taken together these two items alone have boosted the cost of furnishing telephone service in Kentucky by more than $4,000,000 per year.
4. Additional revenue from rate increases during this period failed by far to cover these added costs alone, to say nothing of other cost increases.

As a result, Southern Bell earnings amount to only about 4 3/4 per cent on the value of the Company's Kentucky properties. This return is lower than that of comparable businesses in the state and too low to justify the expenditure of the $100 million needed during the next four years to keep in step with Kentucky's progress and telephone needs.

For these reasons, we have asked the Public Service Commission to approve rates that will provide a reasonable return on our investment in the state.

Official Seeks More Home Rule In Local Taxes

Frankfort, Nov. 16 (Spl.) — Revenue Commissioner James E. Luckett has recommended "more home rule" in property tax assessments.

In a recent address before the National Tax Assn. Conference at Los Angeles, Luckett said, "local bodies should be given effective control of the property tax assessment base."

He said "an appropriate local fiscal agency should be given the authority to issue blanket raises on the assessment to bring the tax base to a level necessary to produce the revenue needed."

Luckett said perhaps a biennial or even quadrennial assessment would be cheaper and more efficient than the present annual assessment.

"The state should withdraw from the taxation of locally assessed property," Luckett said.

He explained: "As long as the state collects a tax on property assessed locally, it has a legal obligation to insure an equitable distribution of the state property tax burden among the taxpayers of all local districts. Repeal of the state tax would eliminate the legal necessity of state authorities to interfere with local assessment levels."

The commissioner added that assessment of general intangible property should be transferred to the state level as it bears a state rate only and the state does the greatest part of the necessary work.

Luckett also said collection procedures should be modernized and other sources of local revenue explored.

"BARKING UP THE WRONG TREE"

A few minutes ago I laid down a book I was reading, in the main a very fascinating book, for it is a series of honest-to-goodness pictures of simple life in America written on the spot by a sympathetic observer. The author had visited just about every sort of American engaged in honest labor and had tried in every instance to get the viewpoint of the men engaged in their tasks, not the viewpoint of a mere reader a thousand miles away. One of his visits took him to the home of a horse trainer, and there the writer made his strangest mistake. In commenting on the passing of the horse, the writer prophesied that the horse was coming back, that it would not be more than twenty years until it would again be as important as it had ever been, in spite of autos, tractors, and machinery in general. The book was published in 1936, just twenty years ago. It is not necessary to comment on the failure of the prophecy. I fear the author did a bit of wishful thinking rather than any real prophesying. It seemed to me in 1936, and earlier, that the horse was a passing institution. My own three-article essay for this series on "The Old Family Nag" appeared in 1935 and was actually a rewrite of one that I had prepared in 1925, originally as an after-dinner speech. Certainly it was obvious away back then that, for better or worse, the horse was losing ground except as a plaything, such as our race horses, our ponies for children to ride or drive, and the nags kept to rent for riding trail in parks. In spite of our idealization of the days when the horse was an all-important adjunct of our farms, we will have to admit that Old Nell or Old Nag or Old Sam is gone for good.

Thomas Bailey Aldrich, in his inimitable STORY OF A BAD BOY, tells of an eccentric in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, who, after the War of 1812, decided to make a fortune by buying up the discarded guns used by the army then and selling them back to the government when another war broke out. The poor old fellow finally had to go to the poorhouse, and his numerous small cannon were dumped on the seashore, a temptation to the bad boys to fill them with powder and something that would serve for shot and scare the daylight out of the sleepy townspeople one fall night. I have often thought of that funny chapter when I have watched people who refuse to admit that change, not staying put, is the normal rule of things.

The strangest event, in this sort of thing, I have ever known was my meeting the boy, still under twenty-one, who wanted the Civil War to start all over again. Rip Van Winkle, arising from his twenty years of slumber, was away ahead of this good-looking and rather well-informed central Kentucky youth, for Rip slept only twenty years. Even the old boys who actually fought in the Civil War never, in my presence, wished for a resumption of hostilities. Maybe they were not altogether satisfied with the results of that strange, pathetic conflict, but they did not want shooting to start all over again.

One of my former students, an eccentric but devoted man in his calling of a schoolteacher, worked for many years of his professional life to maintain the one-room schoolhouse. His theory was that that sort of educational setup is the most effective way of conducting our public schools; he felt that the three R's could more effectively be taught thus. His county followed him for many years, so that it still has a larger percentage of one-roomed country schools than any neighboring county. And there is much to be said for his strange theory, so out of line with what is going on everywhere. But my student, now retired, surely reads more widely than the items in his small county paper, he owns a radio or TV, he drives a car, he has a telephone, he gets his mail daily; I wonder whether it has ever occurred to him that he is a bit inconspicuous about his pet theory. I admire his grit in trying to put into every one-room school a devoted teacher, but I am afraid that he is as much out of date as the author who believed in 1936 that the horse was staging a comeback that would, by 1956, make horses as numerous as they had ever been in America.

The state official said extremely low humidity coupled with an already dry season has brought the outdoor fire situation to a critical point.

"Outdoor fires are especially hazardous because they are extremely difficult to bring under control," he said.

Humkey listed these outside fire precautions:

"Abide by the law. When lighting a fire have help handy to keep it under control. Kill every spark when through.

"Break every used match in two. When the burnt end can be held between your fingers, put it in an ashtray or grind it into the ground with your heel.

"Crush out your cigarettes, cigars, pipe ashes.

"Drown your campfire and outdoor trash fires, then stir and drown again. Repeat if live coals are still present."

The old State Capitol building in Frankfort, erected in 1827, is one of the finest examples of Greek Revival architecture in the world.

Census To Inquire If Idle Seek Jobs. Full or Part-Time

Special questions will be asked in the November current population survey to determine if unemployed persons are seeking full-time or part-time work, according to Supervisor Robert A. Yerkey of the U. S. Census Bureau's field office, Cincinnati, Ohio, which will participate in the survey.

These special questions, asked four times a year, round out the labor force statistics provided by Current Population Survey monthly inquiries on employment and unemployment by furnishing information on the availability of part-time workers. In May of this year, around 11 per cent of the unemployed men were seeking part-time jobs while 17 per cent of the unemployed women were seeking part-time rather than full-time jobs. Of the unemployed men seeking part-time jobs in May, 52 per cent were between 14 and 17 years of age while 11 per cent were 65 years of age and over. Thirty-seven percent of the unemployed women seeking part-time work in May were the 14-17 age bracket.

The special part-time work questions, together with the usual inquiries on employment, will be asked during the week of November 18 as part of the nation-wide Current Population Survey which is conducted each month on a sample basis by the Census Bureau. Current Population Survey information is collected locally by Mrs. Mary Mitchell, of Allen.

Newest Buick Yet

WE'VE introduced a lot of new Buicks to the local scene—but never before one as new as this.

Inside and outside, top to toe, end to end—this is the newest Buick yet.

And it's not just new for newness itself—but new in ways that make driving more comfortable, safer and more fun.

You'll see what we mean when you study these gorgeous new Buicks close up.

They're inches lower and stunningly styled from stem to stern—yet each is wondrously roomy inside.

They bring a wide-eyed new visibility of the road ahead with a rakish windshield that adds hundreds more square inches of glass area.

They're new in ride, with a new contour frame chassis that "nests" your going—giving new roadability with a lower center of gravity—yet road clearance is unchanged.

They're new in handling with a new Buick-developed ball-joint suspension that makes steering and cornering easier while it levelizes braking.

But above and beyond all else—these 1957 Buicks are brand new in performance!

—with a V8 engine that's new from the crankshaft up, to give you the highest power and compression in all Buick annals.

—with an advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo* that brings you such instant response, such smoothness, such a full range of fluid motion in "Drive" that the need for "Low" is all but eliminated.

All this covers only the big advances in the 1957 Buick.

There are other wonderful new things—the new safety instrument panel—the new color-mate interiors—the new counterbalanced brake pedals—well over a hundred and fifty new features in all.

As your Buick dealer, we're ready to show you these newest Buicks yet—and how easy you'll find it to call one your own. Stop in and see us this week.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

ners-up when she was elected by Pikeville's students, and the escorts they have chosen from the Bears squad.

The attendants and their escorts will be Barbara Dempsey, Kermit, W. Va., with Douglas Chaffins, Garrett; Toby Ann Bussey, David, with Charles Francis, Wiscool, Ky., Anna Sue Webb, Elkhorn City, with John Lee Butcher, Pikeville, and Billie Jo Martin, Hunter, with Ralph Roberts, former Wayland star, now of Putney, Ky.

Brightest star in the West Virginia Tech lineup is high-scoring Ken Hammond, six-foot, two-inch sharpshooter who stood 18th among small college scorers of the entire country last year with an average of 27.3 points per game. He thus accounted for better than a quarter of the scoring of his entire team, which was the only outfit, from large or small colleges, to average above the century mark last season.

In a preliminary game, the West Virginia Tech "B" team will meet the Pikeville College freshmen.

After a win and a loss in the opening two games of their first season as a four-year-college team, the Pikeville Bears took a step into the unknown in tangling Monday with their first opponent from the Kentucky Interscholastic Athletic Conference, the Transylvania Pioneers.

The Bears fell to the Paty Lumber Co. "Splinters", of Johnson City, Tenn., 75-77, Saturday in their second outing of the season. Scoring honors went to the losers' Ken Smallwood, who pitched in five field goals and 13 for 16 free throws to total 23 points. The Splinters were led by Stan Johnson, who scored 20 points with ten fielders.

In a preliminary, the Pikeville College freshmen defeated the Generals of Lees Junior College, 72-69.

Progress Report On Child Welfare Given By State

Frankfort, Nov. 16 (Spl.) — A progress report through September 1956 concerning child welfare in the Commonwealth was released recently by officials of the Department of Economic Security. It showed:

The transfer of the Kentucky Children's Bureau from Welfare to the Economic Security Department. Transfer of the Home which has a population of 143 dependent or neglected children of school age was confirmed by the Legislature.

Establishment last Oct. 1 of a homemaker service to prevent breakdown of family units when conditions take one or both parents from the home.

Kentucky Dam Forestry Camp has 28 boys and reports have been favorable. Expansion is planned.

A 50 percent increase in the number of adoptions and number of homes approved for adoptions was noted in 1956.

Adoptions for this year were 119; for all of 1955, 194. Homes approved were 157 to 138 for the same period.

A plan went into effect Oct. 1 to pay maternity care costs for unmarried mothers more than 18 years old.

Effective July 1957, cousins, aunts and uncles may receive aid for dependent cousins, nephews or nieces.

At the end of September, public assistance service to approximately 2,000 children was being conducted.

"The number of our children will increase. We are well pleased with the over-all program," Commissioner Vego Barnes said.

BETSY LAYNE

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

The Betsy Layne Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. O. J. Williams with Mrs. Beecher Hardwick as hostess. The meeting opened with the business session, Miss Alice Williams, presiding.

The club voted to send individual contributions to the Veterans hospital in Lexington. Contributions for seeds for Democracy and CARE packages for Greece were voted as the International Relations projects for the year. A living endowment for Pikeville College was pledged. The club's annual contribution to the tuberculosis seal sale was approved.

Mrs. O. J. Williams was in charge of the program for the evening. She presented Mr. Williams, who gave an interesting discussion on "Religions of the World." In his talk Mr. Williams pointed out the basic similarity of all religions.

The next meeting will be a covered dish dinner at the home of Mrs. T. S. Salisbury on Dec. 20.

Those present at the meeting were Mrs. Edward Lykins, Mrs. Glen Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Miss Alice Williams, Johnny Stewart and the hostess for the evening, Mrs. Hardwick.

Mrs. E. P. Davis is convalescing from a major operation performed at the Pikeville Memorial hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Elliott are preparing to move into their new home on the Mayo Trail. Mrs. Eliza Blackburn, housemother at Pikeville College, and her daughter, Billie Jean, music teacher at Wayland high school, spent the week-end at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Williams are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Homer Ferguson and Mrs. William Collins in Toledo, Ohio.

A community Thanksgiving service will be held on Wednesday evening at the Freewill Baptist church in Betsy Layne. All Betsy Layne churches will participate.

Mrs. James George spent last week-end visiting relatives on Johns Creek. She was accompanied by her daughter Janalyn.

GOOD FOOD HABITS PREVENT EARLY AGING, EXPERTS SAY

It's never too late to start to eat the foods that make one feel and look better, say food specialists at the University of Kentucky. Poor eating habits, they say, can contribute not only to early aging but to a physical breakdown.

In contrast, a protective diet can stretch out the life span of the middle years and delay the period commonly called old age. Here's how:

Shy away from foods that supply only energy, such as rich desserts, fried foods, oil salad dressing, sugar, candy, gravies, cake and pastry. They add pounds, and there is extra work for the heart and other organs. Less energy foods are needed after 30, for the majority of people are less active.

It is the protective foods, those rich in proteins, vitamins and minerals, that should be eaten regularly to extend the middle-age period.

Best sources of protein are milk, cheese, eggs, meat and fish. They can scarcely be over-rated in their importance, for they repair and build up cells and tissues. Two or more of these foods, in addition to a pint of milk, are recommended for every adult every day.

Meats of various kinds are the best sources of protein and vitamin B, and should be eaten by old and young. The idea that older people should not eat meat is in error, for it actually delays aging, say the foods authorities.

Milk provides more calcium than does any other food. Without it, bones become thin and brittle and break easily. Calcium is necessary, too, for nerve, muscle and heart action.

Fruits and vegetables provide vitamins and minerals and are as necessary for oldsters as children. Due to less efficient absorption, generous amounts of fruit juices may be desirable. Green or yellow vegetables are good sources of vitamin A, and may be served raw or cooked.

Bread and cereals that are enriched, or are of whole grain cereals, supply the B vitamins that help the body made use of other foods.

Mammoth Cave contains three underground rivers. A boat trip is included in some of the tours through the cave.

The William Whitley House, between Stanford and Crab Orchard, was the first brick house west of the Alleghenies. It is now a State Shrine.

Tested Baking Instructions

Saw off hock, place ham in a vessel, cover with cold water, and soak for ten hours. Remove from water, scrape and clean thoroughly. Place in roaster, skin side down, add one inch of water, pour into this one cup of cooking wine or one cup of vinegar and one cup of brown sugar. Bring to a boil on top of stove. Place top on roaster, put in 250 degree oven, bake at this temperature two and one-half hours. Then turn ham skin side up and continue baking until a long tined fork will easily penetrate to the bone and withdraw easily. Take ham from roaster, place in shallow pan, remove the skin, working with care. Cover top of ham with a paste made of one cup of brown sugar and grease cooked out of ham. Place in a 350 degree oven and brown, watching closely to avoid scorching. Ready to serve when cool enough to slice. Keep carving knife sharp and SLICE THIN for best flavor.

For Perfect Frying

Slice ham from one-eighth to one-quarter inch thick; place in warm skillet, turn heat on medium and cook slowly. Turn back and forth until done. AVOID OVERCOOKING! That makes it tough. If slices tend to curl up, press flat while cooking with a hot cake turner or a broiler weight.

Drivers' Point System Gets Chandler Backing

Frankfort, Ky. — Acting Safety Commissioner Don Sturgill received Governor Chandler's go-ahead today for his point-system crackdown on dangerous drivers.

"The Governor told me he would support anything that would save lives," Sturgill said after a conference with Chandler.

He added that the point system of keeping up with careless drivers should save 300 to 350 lives in Kentucky per year.

Under the system, a driver is charged with a certain number of points for traffic violations depending on the seriousness of the violations.

When he accumulates a prescribed total, he loses his driver's license.

Sturgill said his next steps would be:

1. A meeting with Finance Commissioner James W. Martin to arrange for funds to carry out the program.

2. A conference with Morris Carter, commissioner of Indiana's Bureau of Motor Vehicles.

Sturgill must present his financial needs to Martin. He estimated he would need $45,000 to $50,000 for the current fiscal year and more next fiscal year, all to come out of the Governor's emergency fund.

Commenting on the lifesaving factor of the program, Sturgill said it was known that 10 to 15 per cent of the drivers account for 50 per cent of the accidents.

"By removing these drivers from the highways, or shocking them into slow, sensible driving, we theoretically eliminate 50 per cent of our accidents," he declared. "It has been shown that a driver will slow down to save his license when he won't slow down to save his life."

Sturgill added that Indiana's comparatively new program had removed 45,000 dangerous drivers from its highways.

He said the number of points that will be charged for the various traffic violations has not been decided. Carter's advice will be sought on the subject, he added.

Spot of the bloodiest Indian massacre in Kentucky's history is Wilderness Road State Park, near London.

The members present were served dinner by the Wayland Woman's Club.

The next meeting will be held Jan. 12 at the same place.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the city of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, and its citizens, desire to improve real estate located within the corporate limits, and

WHEREAS, there presently exists certain telephone poles and lines, owned by Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company over certain properties located on Central Avenue within the corporate limits of Prestonsburg, which poles and lines are so situated as to detract from the appearance of improved properties as would likely cause a decrease in their value, and

WHEREAS, the Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company apparently has the legal right to maintain the said telephone line right-of-way, and

WHEREAS, pursuant to request of the Mayor, City Council and residents located on Central Avenue, the Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company, being desirous of continuing its good public relations in Prestonsburg, and at a great expense to the Company, has offered and agreed to move the said poles and lines from their present location to one near or on the City right-of-way line on Central Avenue, which location will make the improved properties more attractive and will enhance the value of said unimproved properties.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY, AS FOLLOWS:

That the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, hereby commends the Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company for the action it has taken to alleviate the aforementioned matter and for its interest in good business, good public relations and good citizenship.

WHEREFORE, by motion made by Edward B. Leslie, seconded by J. Y. Goble, and passed by unanimous vote, the resolution is approved and accepted, this 5th day of November, 1956.

HARRY SANDIGE,
Mayor

Gain Reported In Employment

Frankfort, Nov. 16 (Spl.) — Kentucky presented a bright employment picture in September, according to a report issued by the Department of Economic Security.

Non-agricultural wage and salary employment, excluding construction, totaled 590,500 at mid-September. This is the highest employment level for any September on record. The figure was 6,100 higher than in August and 8,500 above September, 1955.

Manufacturing employment increased 2,700 above the level of September, 1955. The largest month-to-month gain was recorded in the distilling industry where 900 seasonal workers were added.

Non-manufacturing employment with construction omitted stood at 421,000 in September, an increase of 5,900 over the previous September and a gain of 5,700 over August. Trade industries employment reached 135,400, a gain of 1,900 from August to September.

Trees Will Grow Faster Given Plenty of Room

U. S. Department of Agriculture forest workers recently proved that trees need plenty of room to grow, and develop properly.

Workers thinned a nine-year-old stand of loblolly pine from 1,100 trees to 100 trees per acre. They were testing effect upon root development and tree growth.

At thinning time, well developed root systems reached just a little more than three feet from each tree and covered less than 10 per cent of the total area on which trees were planted. Two years later, when the stand was rechecked, both roots and tops had expanded to about the same degree. They covered about 30 per cent of the total area.

P'burg Students at U.K. Pledged to Phi Beta

Misses Winnifred Sue Cooley and Elizabeth Ann Burchett, sophomores at the University of Kentucky, have pledged Phi Beta, a national fraternity of music, speech and drama. They were recommended to the fraternity by professors in the Music Department, and auditioned on Oct. 28. The pledging ceremony was held Nov. 1 and the first meeting of the pledge class was held Nov. 8, when Miss Cooley was elected secretary.

Miss Cooley is the daughter of Circuit Clerk and Mrs. W. W. Cooley, and Miss Burchett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Burchett.

State Submits Request For Railway Protection On Route 979 at Harold

The Kentucky Department of Highways has submitted to the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads a request for the official programming of a federal aid project in Floyd county on Ky. Route No. 979, which is for railroad protection at Harold on the Harold-Ambs road.

The proposed construction includes flasher light signals with short arm gates.

This request is the first step in the procedure required for processing this project for future federal aid construction. If approved by the Bureau of Public Roads, other steps in the procedure are the completion of surveys and plans and the acquisition of rights-of-way.

MORE FEED, FEWER EGGS

Pullets lay fewer eggs and eat more feed when fed oats as the only cereal in their ration, says the University of Illinois after a recent experiment. Oat-ration pullets averaged 162 eggs per pound of feed compared to 294 eggs for a mixed corn-wheat ration.

Industry Needs More Graduate Engineers

Frankfort, Nov. 16 (Spl.) — Kentucky's need for more and better graduate engineers was voiced recently by George W. Hubley, Jr., the state's economic development commissioner.

He told an Industry-Engineering College conference at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, the current shortage of engineers could develop into a "desperate situation tomorrow."

Reviewing the state's industrial progress, Hubley said if it is to continue Kentucky must "be able to supply engineering brains" to meet advances in technology.

Hubley offered the services of his agency to the representatives of more than 100 Kentucky and out-of-state industries attending the conference sponsored by the University's Engineering Experiment Station.

Health Official Lauds Counties Passing New Tax

Frankfort, Nov. 16 (Spl.) — State Health Commissioner Russell E. Teague has praised passage of new public health taxes by eight more counties as a "business-like way to pay for services of a health department."

Dr. Teague added, "This is a good way for counties to obtain money needed for their share in the new public health foundation program." The program, announced recently by Gov. A. B. Chandler, will enable county health departments to provide personnel and facilities recommended by the American Public Health Association for adequate services.

To take part in the program, each county must provide a share of its operating expenses, to be determined by equalized property values in the county.

Counties that approved the tax at the last general election are Pike, Grayson, Jessamine, Pendleton, Powell, Nicholas, Trimble and Wayne.

Bracken, Calloway, Fulton, Henry, Lewis, Mason, McCreary, Perry, and Webster counties had approved the tax in previous elections.

Funds from the tax become available for use about 14 months after the tax is approved. Counties voting for the tax this year will have use of the money around January, 1958.

Health departments in counties without the tax must depend upon allotments from local governmental agencies and upon contributions from civic groups to pay the local share of the foundation program's cost.

Women's Clubs Play Big Part In Public Health Undertakings

Kentuckians interested in public health never underestimate the power of a woman—or the power of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs. Case histories in the files of this organization show some astounding accomplishments by small town clubs, among these are clubs of Eastern Kentucky.

For example, Jackson, Ky., had been plagued for years with an unsightly garbage dump on the main approach to town. Gordon Combs, who is now health administrator for Breathitt county, was local sanitarian at the time. His pleas to the city officials had moved neither officials nor dump. People were in the habit of dumping there; besides there was no other place, the sanitarian was told. Finally it was suggested that Mr. Combs enlist the aid of the Jackson Women's Club. Somewhat uneasy about addressing an all-female meeting, he nevertheless explained the danger of the dump as a breeding place for disease in the form of rats, roaches, and flies. Also, it was ugly. And it smelled bad.

The women took action in short order and with the assistance of Mr. Combs and Kella Herald, who has since been appointed sanitarian, they found a deep hollow outside of town which property-owner Adam Hudson said he'd be glad to lease for a nominal sum. Club president, Mrs. Ray Salyers, appointed

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Floyd Circuit Court rendered and entered at the October term, 1956, in the above styled cause I shall proceed to offer for sale at the Courthouse door in Prestonsburg, Kentucky, to the highest and best bidder, at public auction, on the 26th day of November 1956, at ten o'clock, a.m., same being the first day of the regular term of the Floyd County Court, upon a credit of six months, the following described property, to-wit:

TRACT No. 1—Lying and being on Abner Fork of Left Beaver Creek, in Floyd county, Kentucky, beginning on a stake on the west side of Beaver Creek just opposite the lower end of B. H. Johnson's house; thence to a small spicewood in the lower end of the hollow; thence a straight line to the top of the point to T. W. Jones' line; thence running with said line to the top of the hill to Matthew Tackett's line; thence down the point to Dewey Little's line; thence with said Dewey Little's line down to the point to center of Beaver Creek; thence down the creek with center of same to opposite the beginning; thence to the beginning corner.

TRACT No. 2—Beginning on a stake 50 feet from center of railroad right of way at Dave Chaffins' line; thence down with said right of way 75 feet to a stake at Rosaney Johnson's line, a corner stake; thence a straight line running with the Rosaney Johnson's line to center of Beaver Creek; thence with the center of Beaver Creek 75 ft. to Dave Chaffins' line, a corner stake of said Dave Chaffins' line; thence with Dave Chaffins' line to the beginning corner stake, containing one-half acre, more or less, and being the same property conveyed to Lee Johnson and Anna Johnson, his wife, by deed bearing date April 28, 1934, recorded in Deed Book 100, page 254, Floyd County Court Clerk's office.

THIRD TRACT—Beginning on a planted stone at the intersection of the right of way of the State Highway with the right of way line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company; thence up Beaver Creek with the right of way line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company to a planted stone on the property line of Virgie Mills; thence across the bottom and up the hill in a southerly direction with the property line of Virgie Mills to a planted stone on the property line of Moses Mitchell; thence down the hill in a northerly direction with the property line of Moses Mitchell to a planted stone on the property line of the State Highway; thence down Abner Fork with the right of way line of the State Highway to the beginning corner, and being the same property conveyed to B. H. Johnson and Minnie H. Johnson, or to the survivor thereof, by deed of conveyance dated Sept. 13, 1948, recorded in Deed Book 132, page 194, Floyd County Court Clerk's Office.

For the purchase price the purchaser must execute bond with approved surety or sureties, bearing legal interest from the day of sale until paid and having the force and effect of a judgment with a lien retained upon said property as a further security. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.

Given under my hand, this 5th day of November, 1956.

J. B. CLARKE, Master Commissioner, Floyd Circuit Court.

a committee to meet with members of the City Council. Many committee members were wives of Councilmen. At the meeting plans were made to lease the land for a new dumping place, to abolish the old dump, and to institute a garbage collection program. In less than two months time the ladies had members of the Council standing on the new dump posing for publicity pictures.

The local Woman's Club was quick to see the sanitation problems which arose when LaCenter, Kentucky, became a boom town with the advent of the nearby atomic plant. Overcrowded living conditions, too few sanitary and disposal facilities, and rapid building of dwellings and business places combined to produce debris in yards and streets and polluted water supplies. A new sewage system had been laid and an ordinance passed giving officials authority to serve notices on all residents and business not connected to the sewer. Nevertheless, hurried builders and newcomers had neglected to hook on to it. Faulty septic tanks and cesspools and outdoor privies were still a problem in the spring of 1954. Then, with the Woman's Club as hostess group, every civic organization in LaCenter was called upon to send a representative to a meeting to discuss the situation.

Mrs. Sam Criswell, then president of the Woman's Club, led the entire group to see the need for a clean-up plan. It was voted to have sanitarians conduct house-to-house inspections. Within three weeks a general face-lifting took place in town. While sanitary inspectors checked premises, the improvement committee pulled and tugged, raked, and loaded trash. The town had furnished trucks to haul it away. And as time went on, more and more pressure was applied to those reluctant souls who refused to correct their unsatisfactory methods of sewage disposal. At the end of eight months the problem was solved.

This year one Kentucky Woman's Club won recognition over women's clubs all over the world. At the 1956 Convention of Women's Clubs in Kansas the Midway Woman's Club was awarded a $1,000 third-place prize for helping to organize the Woodford County Health Department. Until the health department began operating in July, 1955, Woodford was for some time the only county in Kentucky without such a unit.

The above projects are not the only features in the clubwomen's caps. Mrs. Green Rose, outgoing chairman of the Health Division of the Federation's Public Welfare Department, has prepared an exhaustive report of health programs carried on by 228 clubs throughout the state from June, 1955, to June, 1956. About 120 clubs reported to Mrs. Rose that members worked with local health departments, identifying children and doing clerical work at tuberculosis, dental, vaccination or blood-donor clinics and trailers. Similar work was done at hospitals by members of some 30 different clubs.

The women have made money for other health projects. General hospital in Louisville, for example, owns a new "croupette" donated by the Highland Younger Woman's Club. Beechmont Younger Woman's Club, also of Louisville, gave $700 toward an oxygen tent for a local hospital. The county hospital lawn is more trim this year, thanks to the power mower bought by the Albany Younger Woman's Club. The Woodford County Woman's Club, Ver-

Aviation Training Open To Marine Enlistees

Aviation training is now open to a limited number of applicants for enlistment in the regular Marine Corps, Sgt. Floyd L. King, local Marine recruiter, said this week.

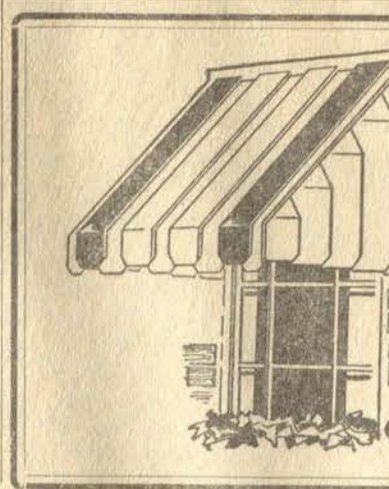

Young men enlisting under the new program are guaranteed assignment to an aviation school for training upon completion of recruit training and individual combat training, unless they voluntarily request assignment to other duties in the Marine Corps.

Sgt. King said recruiting officers have been authorized to specify on the records of new recruits that they have enlisted for aviation training.

Applicants for aviation training will receive valuable technical training. Promotional opportunities are excellent in the aviation field. Complete details on the program are available at the local Marine recruiting station, located at the Post Office Building, Prestonsburg. Sgt. King is in Prestonsburg every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 1:00 to 4:00.

Step into the wonderful world of AUTODYNAMICS! It unleashes a hurricane of power!

There are many fresh and exciting discoveries awaiting you in the wonderful world of Autodynamics. But none is more exciting than the exhilarating performance you'll experience behind the wheel of a Swept-Wing Dodge.

This low-slung beauty takes off like a scalded cat, rips over hills like a hungry cougar, whips past slow-moving traffic like a gunshy jackrabbit. At your command is a mighty new aircraft-type V-8 engine with up to 310 hp.

And this Swept-Wing Dodge introduces such important advances as Push-Button TorqueFlite that packs a 1-2 punch. Revolutionary new Torsion-Aire that sweeps you along in a "Realm of Silence," masters curves with race car torsion bar suspension. New Total-Contact Brakes — the greatest in the industry!

This is Autodynamics... where everything is new from road to roof. It's all yours in a lithe, lean master of motion only 4 1/2 feet high. You have never seen, felt, owned anything like it.

It tames a tornado of torque It breaks through the vibration barrier It is swept-wing mastery of motion
