This Town— That World

If you think writing a column is fun, try it some time when there isn't an idea, not even a stale joke, left in the bin. This is one of those weeks when I feel like I am putting down just so many words, to fill space with something that might be better left out.

HE KEPT THE PEACE

My apologies having been indited, our across-the-street neighbor's black dog comes to the rescue. A dog of less ebullient hue moves in to pick a fight. The black one, who by the color chart should be an imp of Satan, backs as far as he can against the closed door, and looks far over the other dog's head to some unseen something, ignoring the growled threats of the other. . . . And I just wonder how much more hoss-jense that black dog is using than many highly educated, presumably civilized human beings, including some world leaders, use. . . . I make inquiry about this certain canine, and I am told he can, if need be, acquit himself admirably in a show of teeth. . . . which is all the more to his credit that he declined both quarrel and fight. . . . But after considering this matter further, I am not all certain that that dog didn't have a bone buried somewhere and that he didn't have his mind on that item more than on keeping the peace.

HE HAD HIS CHOICE

A 40-years-ago item in the London (Ky.) Sentinel-Echo last week told of a certain Mr. Allen receiving two life sentences at the hands of a Laurel circuit court jury for the murder of his wife and a Mr. Weaver. The interesting part of the item was, he was given his choice as to which sentence he would serve first. A lawyer could perhaps tell you how it would make any difference to the convicted man, but I don't happen to be one.

JURY IN TRIAL OF EX-DEPUTY IN DEADLOCK

Messer Offers Invoice To Prove Whereabouts; "Pay-Off" Is Alleged

Trial of Cluett Messer, of Estill, former Floyd deputy sheriff, on a charge of accepting a bribe while serving as an officer ended here Tuesday afternoon with the jury hopelessly disagreed.

Second trial of the case was set for Jan. 14. No date for trial of another charge against him, that of obtaining money under false pretense, was set.

The indictment against Messer was made by Georgie Hamilton, and this witness testified that on October 4, 1954 to June 6, 1955 he paid Messer $10 a week on Messer's claim that he represented the Sheriff's office and that he would be protected in the liquor business. He added that he was raided in August and convicted, and that 30 minutes after his conviction he went before the grand jury to indict Messer.

County Court and Sheriff records showed, however, that Messer was a deputy sheriff only from June 15 to June 23, 1955, and Hamilton claimed only one payment was made during that period.

The defendant countered with his testimony and that of Sol Bradley, that they left Estill early on the morning of June 21, 1955, the payment date on which the indictment was based, that they visited the Morehead and Mt. Sterling stock markets and bought a hog and a heifer. These they had butchered while there, and the defendant produced the butcher's bill to corroborate his statement as to his whereabouts on the day in question. Melda Mosley, employe of Messer, also testified that they left on that date while she stayed at Estill to take care of the business and that Hamilton did not appear there to pay $10 as he had claimed he did.

Messer denied having ever been paid as accused.

The Commonwealth called other witnesses who admitted they had sold illegal whiskey and three of whom said they had paid Messer $10 to $20 a week "protection money" over a period of time.

These witnesses included Mrs. Troy Mullins, Tommy Ratliff and Clyde Jones. Mrs. Georgie Hamilton said she paid Messer at times when her husband was away from home. Two others said arrange-

COAL TONNAGE SHOWS GAINS

Track Mine Loadings Off, But Small Mines Going Back to Work

Coal production in the field represented by the Big Sandy-Elkhorn Coal Operators Association is still ahead of last year at this time, it was noted in a recent report of the group. Production was 5.33 percent above the corresponding period in 1955.

This tonnage increase amounts to 627,490 tons. Production last year, ending Nov. 19, was 11,763,310 tons but tonnage to Nov. 17, this year, was 12,390,800 tons. The industry was enjoying an increased work-week, too. Average days worked in the corresponding week last year were 4.32. It was 4.67 for the week ending Nov. 19, date of the last report.

Total days worked last year to this time were 133.05 but it had a significant climb this year to 196.38 days. Total cars of an average 50 tons each for the corresponding period last year was 235,266.2 but it was 247,816 cars this year.

Truck mining, which was in doldrums a few weeks due to a wage dispute and other complications is climbing back to normal in the Big Sandy area. The truckers, though, were lagging in total production. Last year, at this time, those in the Big Sandy Elkhorn group had loaded 8,735 cars. This year they loaded only 7,608 cars. This is not considered a true criterion of the truck mining industry, however, since not many of the truckers belong to the Big Sandy-Elkhorn organization.

Most of the operators represented worked five days for the week ending Nov. 17 but a few operated only four. Hi Hat Elkhorn worked only two days.

Production of Princess Elkhorn Coal Company, David, was running slightly ahead of last year as was that of Stephens Elkhorn Fuel Company at Manton. Most of the other Floyd mines, too, had added tonnage.

Betsy Layne Man Dies Of Cerebral Hemorrhage At Methodist Hospital

Tony J. Compton, 60, of Betsy Layne, died at the Methodist hospital, Pikeville, at 11:30 p.m., Sunday, of a cerebral hemorrhage. He had been ill seven years but seriously so only two days.

Mr. Compton was a veteran of World War I and was a native of Ulysses, Lawrence county, a son of the late Brit and Elizabeth Castle Compton. His wife, Novella Akers Compton, survives, as do a son, Tommy Compton, of Betsy Layne, and a daughter, Mrs. Bethel Deskins, Dayton, O.

Brothers and sisters surviving are Dewey Compton, Dayton, O., Hollie Compton, Shelbyana, Ky., Eugene Compton, Middlesboro, O., Mrs. Dovie Bickford, New Canton, Va., and Mrs. Jack Johnson, of Shelbyana.

Funeral rites were conducted Wednesday, at 1 p.m. at the Betsy Layne high school auditorium, the Rev. Estill Hughes officiating. Burial followed in the Sowards cemetery at Shelbyana under the direction of Hall Bros. Funeral Home.

HOWELL SEEN AS CHAIRMAN

Price Man's Selection Viewed As Party Fight Missing in This County

Former State Representative Jerry F. Howell, of Price, was seen this week as a sure-fire bet to be the next Floyd county Democratic chairman as the last threat of a scrap in the election of precinct committee members vanished.

Chandler forees are firmly in control in this county as in most other counties of the state, and the Governor was said this week to be shooting for 100 per cent domination of party affairs in the state.

To achieve this complete control, his supporters will be seeking to unseat party chairmen in perhaps as much as 85 per cent of the 120 counties.

The powerful state Credentials committee gave the administration whatever added strength it might have needed in this county. Those who pondered opposition decided that if they could muster sufficient strength in the precincts administration forces could hold "rump" conventions, name their favorites and win before the Credentials committee.

(Use of the Credentials committee to hold party control is nothing new in Kentucky politics.)

The precinct committeemen named Saturday for this county will hold caucuses in each of the two legislative districts the following Saturday at 10 a.m., to name legislative district chairmen, and these will meet here that afternoon to pick a county chairman and secretary.

Chandler needs only the county chairmanships to wipe out the last avenues of opposition held by Earle C. Clements, Lawrence W. Wetherby, and Emerson Beauchamp.

Chandler grabbed a firm upper hand by wresting control of the Democratic State Central Executive Committee last summer. That advantage alone should assure him victory in the mopping up exercise because the state body will have the final say in recognition of contested chairmen.

INVADING FOX IS HELD RABID

Mad Animal Terrorizes Left Beaver Home; Fox Hunts Hunter at Allen

Rabid foxes struck in three places in this county recently but the one that invaded the home of Bert Newman, on Frasure's Creek, at East McDowell, last Friday night brought near-terror to the home, it was said.

The Newman family had retired for the night but hearing a fight on the front porch between his dogs and an animal, Newman got up and opened the door to investigate. When he did so red fox ran in the house, through a bedroom into the kitchen. His wife screamed.

Newman grabbed a revolver, went into the kitchen, closed the door on the animal that had now climbed to the top of the kitchen cabinet. From there it jumped to a table, Newman firing at it. It was necessary to empty the gun before the animal was killed while it was under some of the kitchen furniture.

FARM BUREAU DONATES $150

To County Fair Board; Cut Slated in Premiums For 1956 County Exhibit

In an effort to aid the financially-embarassed Fair Board, the Floyd County chapter of the Farm Bureau contributed $150 this week to help pay for premiums awarded in the fourth annual post-war exhibit which was held here in late September.

However the still embarrassed board will have to cut the prize list money back 33 per cent at its Dec. 6 meeting in order to extricate itself from the deficit, a spokesman said Wednesday. The total prize list was $331 and the deficit is approximately one-third that amount.

Notice of the cut-back will go to prize-winners with their checks after the December meeting, it was said.

"The Floyd County Fair Board has made every effort to pay premiums in full again this year but just not enough money could be raised. The exhibits were in excess of 6,200 this year. Naturally that made our prize money much larger and our resources were strained," it was said. "The only fair way to get around the deficit is to cut prize money clear across the board. However, even at that our premium lists will be considerably above that of surrounding counties."

The first post-war fair here four years ago had a surplus of $1,100, it was pointed out, and after that each succeeding event had a surplus of a smaller amount until this year's exhibit when a deficit occurred.

Bad weather was noted as one of the deficit contributing factors as that cut attendance at the concessions.

It is planned to seek the new Prestonsburg high school gym as the site of next year's fair. This would relieve the board of large expenditures for tents.

The December 6 meeting will also elect officers for next year, it is announced. These are chairman, vice-chairman, and treasurer. A secretary will be employed by the board as that is a paid position.

DEWEY GIBSON, PAROLLEE, RETURNED TO LaGRANGE

Dewey Gibson, of Melvin, who was paroled last January from a 21-year prison term for murder, was returned to LaGrange Friday by Milford Wells, district parole supervisor, and H. T. Hill, Floyd county parole officer, for violation of his parole.

Wells, who maintains his office in Prestonsburg, has supervision of 25 counties and 11 parole officers.

Seal of This County May Be Part Of Insignia of the USS Floyd County

A copy of the official seal of Floyd county has been supplied at Navy request by County Judge Henry Stumbo for incorporation into the official emblem of the USS Floyd County, U. S. Navy destroyer named for this county.

Asking for the county's seal or emblem, Lt. R. J. Finnegan wrote Judge Stumbo:

Thanksgiving Deaths Bring Floyd Auto Toll to Four

Death of Earl Kidd and Raymond Newman at Harold, Thanksgiving evening, brought to four the number of fatal automobile accidents on Floyd county highways for the year. This is only one-third of the number killed last year when 12 persons met death during that period.

A two-car collision near Beaver in the head of Mud section resulted in two persons being seriously injured Monday evening. Irvin Hamilton and Norman Walker were both hospitalized and their condition is not known today, State Police were investigating the mishap Tuesday.

Two brothers, Jesse and Herbert Bowling of Elkhorn City, were fatally injured in a collision near that place Saturday night. State Police said both brothers were passengers in the car that collided with another vehicle.

The Kentucky State Police Report, from Jan. 1 to June 30, shows that rural road wrecks are on the increase in the county. Twenty-eight percent more automobile and truck mishaps occurred in that six months period than did the previous period.

"On an overall basis, rural road wrecks in the Commonwealth increased eight percent during the first half of 1956 while urban crashes jumped 11 percent," the report says. Speeding arrests by the State Police went up 48 percent while drunk driving arrests increased nine percent, it was noted.

Commissioner P. A. B. Widener cited the fact that Kentucky's conviction rate last year was 68.5 percent for moving hazardous traffic violations as compared with a 96.7 percent figure in New Jersey.

"Speed primarily stands at the head of the list of causes of fatal accidents," the Commissioner said.

Suit for $51,535 Damages Brought By Stella Stover

A total of $51,535 is sought by Stella Stover in a damage suit filed Saturday in circuit court against Clarence Speaks.

The plaintiff claims in her petition, which was prepared by Charles E. Lowe, Pikeville attorney, that she had crossed U. S. 23 below Mare Creek last Aug. 31 when Stover drove his auto "in such a negligent and careless manner" that he caused it to run over her. She listed her injuries as a broken pelvis, punctured kidney, fractured right ribs and hip.

In addition to $50,000 damages, $1,500 is asked for hospital and medical expenses and $35 for the plaintiff's spectacles which were broken.

Ralph Deboard Fined $115 as Drunk Driver

Ralph Deboard, who was jailed here Thanksgiving Day on a drunk driving charge by Deputy Sheriffs Lewis and Martin, was fined $121 by Magistrate Edgar Howell.

Vernon Akers was jailed Saturday by the same officers and Deputy Sheriff Grant Akers on charges of drunkenness, no operator's license and possessing moonshine whiskey. Twenty-seven have been booked at the jail since last Thursday. Most of these were accused of drunkenness.

HUNGARY AID FUNDS SOUGHT

Floyd Red Cross Chapter Accepting Contributions For Hungarian Assistance

Floyd Chapter, American Red Cross, and chapters across the county are accepting contributions to be earmarked solely for Hungarian assistance. Miss Ella Noel White, executive secretary of the local chapter, said this week.

Confronted with new and increasingly urgent appeals for help for the people of Hungary, the Red Cross has increased allocations for relief of the people of that country by $100,000, bringing the total thus allocated to well over $250,000.

Action was taken following an appeal from the International Red Cross for additional supplies to care for Hungarian refugees pouring into Austria in ever increasing numbers.

FEW CHANGES MADE BY ASC

Only Committee Shifts Result from Election Held in Communities

No changes in personnel and only a few shifts in official positions resulted in the make-up of the county Agricultural Stabilization Committee from the community elections held Monday by the farmers participating in the program.

J. L. Lafferty, of Cliff, former vice-chairman of the county committee, was named chairman by delegates to the county convention, Tuesday, to succeed William Hicks, Huesville, who was picked as regular member. Daniel Akers, of Grethel, who served last year as regular member, was selected as vice-chairman.

The county convention, composed of delegates selected at community meetings at 2 p.m. Tuesday, renamed Elder Goble, office manager. Delegates were James Hicks, H. D. Martin, Lee Alley, J. L. Lafferty, Jr., and W. D. Steele.

Thompson, district manager, called attention to the fact that the new office is staffed to serve the residents of these counties in all matters pertaining to old age and survivors' insurance and is open Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

BOOKMOBILE'S WORK IS TOLD

Driver-Librarian Says Floyd Book Circulation In 2 Years at 80,000

"There's magic in this Bookmobile," Robert Wallace, driver-librarian, told members of the Floyd County Library Board Monday evening in a board meeting at the Sea Cafe, Martin.

The statement was made in a review of Bookmobile work and growth, made at the request of Chairman V. O. Turner for the benefit of a new member.

Mr. Wallace amplified the statement with a description of the eagerness of school children for books, from the first trips made by the Bookmobile to the schools of the county. "I wish I could take this whole truckload of books home with me," he has heard children say. He is often delayed in his itinerancy as clients, young and old, linger to study titles and authors, to browse over the books.

Superintendent Turner said he had found, in educational meetings over the state, that the Floyd Bookmobile is considered a model of efficiency and that it closely approaches the dream that founders of the library system had of service to the people.

In two years book circulation in this county has grown to a total of 80,000. From a beginning of about 900 books the Bookmobile inventory has grown to 5,940 volumes.

And more are needed. Only this week Mr. Wallace found that he had not enough children's books to meet the demand. The heaviest drain on Bookmobile funds is created by the purchase of new books.

Not every school in the county can be reached by the service because of bad roads, but in some instances where road conditions curtail service at the school door teachers pick up books at the highway and distribute them among their pupils. Community stations also are maintained where adults readers may borrow books, and the Bookmobile library in the old high school building here is being used more and more, Wallace said.

"Everything broke right for us, from the beginning," he said.

SUFFERS FROM BURNS

John Darwin, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Laferty, of Emma, suffered severe burns Tuesday of last week when his clothing caught fire as his mother was burning trash at the Laferty home on Calf Creek. Burned from the waist to his neck, the tot was brought to the Prestonsburg General hospital, where it was said he will recover.

KIDD, NEWMAN DIE IN WRECK AS TRIO HURT

Auto in Harold Crash Skids 190 Feet on Side Before Coming to Stop

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday morning for two Floyd men who received fatal injuries in a head-on collision of their cars on U.S. 23 at Harold, Thanksgiving evening. Dead are Earl Kidd, 28, of Harold, and Raymond Newman, 24, of Grethel.

Three other passengers in the two cars were hospitalized but all have been released. Keen Tackett, a passenger with Newman, who was driving south in a 1947 Chevrolet, suffered a severe mouth injury, and Henry Spears and Dana Jackson, riding with Kidd, received lacerations and bruises. Kidd was driving a 1950 Oldsmobile.

State Police said both cars at the moment of the impact were on the center line of the highway. The Kidd car overturned, skidded along the highway for 190 feet before coming to rest in a ditch line. Newman's car was flung from the road and wedged between two trees on the grounds of the Harold school.

Witnesses at the scene of the tragedy said Kidd was thrown out of his shoes and from the car onto the highway. The right shoe was still crushed down on the accelerator when the car stopped, it was said. Both men lived only a few minutes, dying from head and other injuries.

Newman was an employe of the United Fuel Gas Company and had been working in Pike county for some time. Kidd was

COURT ANNULS FLOYD RULING

Appellate Court Holds Judge Speckman Erred In Tax League Action

The judgment of Special Judge Lawrence F. Speckman in favor of Polk Saunders, et al, of the Floyd County Good Government Taxpayers League, against John Chris Cornett, former Commonwealth's Attorney here and now Circuit Judge of the Magoffin-Knott district, has been reversed by the Court of Appeals.

The opinion reversing the judgment was written Nov. 16 by Appellate Judge Montgomery.

Two questions concerning the right of the taxpayers to bring the suit, the opinion pointed out, were decisive in the appeal from the Speckman ruling: (1) was a sufficient demand made upon the fiscal court prior to the bringing of the action against Cornett; and (2) would such demand have been futile.

It was pointed out that both these questions already had been answered adversely to the Tax League in the case of Cooley vs. Sturgill and consolidated cases wherein the same memorandum or demand and the same circumstances were considered. Other questions urged on appeal, it was noted, were not reached.

Ike's Kentucky Plurality Reaches Official 95,740

President Eisenhower carried Kentucky by a plurality of 95,740 votes over Adlai Stevenson, certified official returns show. The vote tabulation was complete except for 64 absentee ballots remaining to be certified Wednesday from Magoffin county.

Eisenhower received 572,192 votes and Stevenson 476,452. The President scored a clear majority of 90,580 over the combined vote of all his opponents for the presidency, including the candidates of the Prohibition, Socialist-Labor and States' Rights parties.

The total vote of 1,053,804 set a new record in Kentucky, topping the previous high turnout of 1,107,366 in 1935 when A. B. Chandler was elected over Republican King Swope, of Lexington.

The road bond issue carried by an overwhelming 426,021 majority. The vote in favor was 511,656 and the vote against was 85,635. John Sherman Cooper defeated Lawrence W. Wetherby for United States Senator by 63,365. The total vote was 538,505 for Cooper and 473,140 for Wetherby. Thurston B. Morton, Louisville Republican who challenged Senator Earle C. Clements, won by a majority of only 6,981 votes. Cooper's term will fill the vacancy made by the death of Senator Alben W. Barkley, but Morton's election is for the regular six-year term.

President Eisenhower carried seven counties Cooper and Morton lost. His vote this year was 96,440 votes better than he did in 1952 when he lost the state to Stevenson by a mere 700 votes.

Results in the eight Congressional district races of the state are as follows:

First—Noble J. Gregory, Mayfield Democrat, 75,726 votes, although he was unopposed.

Fire Casualties Bring Warning

Frankfort, Nov. 26 (Sp.) — The deaths by fire in Kentucky of six children ranging in age from three months to seven years in a 24-hour period last week brought a warning from State Fire Marshal Ray Humkey, urging parents not to leave small children unattended even for a few minutes.

Humkey also urged extreme caution in the use of kerosene and other inflammable materials.

He attributed three deaths, two at Louisville and one at Paducah, to children being left alone. Three other children ages 2, 4, and 7 years, were burned to death near Burlington as a result of kerosene being thrown on live coals in a heating stove.

"Accidents, said Humkey, cause more deaths in children under 10 years than all childhood diseases combined. Fire is the leading cause of these accidental deaths, he said.

The trace element boron can generally be applied to alfalfa fields throughout Kentucky, says the UK Agricultural Experiment Station Agronomy Department, although many areas of the state have enough boron on hand now in the soil.

The author was born in Virginia, Minnesota, near the Canadian border, and was graduated at Charleton College, Northfield,

Minnesota. She studied drama there and later at the Chekhov Theatre Studio in England. She has acted in off-Broadway plays in New York and in summer theatres. She has written stories, articles, and poems, but "The Story of Gabrielle" is her first book. "The book was written out of a deep need to keep this experience vivid for myself," she explains, "and also to try to convey to family and friends the atmosphere in which we lived during those five months. It wasn't quite the way they imagined it. It was heartbreak, yes, but so much more."

When Digest editors read it in proof form, they outbid several other publications for the magazine rights and revised their December issue to rush the narrative into print.

Circuit Clerk Fees Set By Legislature Effective Immediately

Franklin Circuit Judge W. B. Ardery set, in a ruling Nov. 17, effective dates of new circuit-clerk fees enacted by the 1956 Legislature.

Effective immediately, Judge Ardery ruled, are these fees:

Increase in the fee for issuing a duplicate driver's license from 25 cents to $1.

A new fee of 50 cents to compensate clerks for preparing applications for driver's licenses.

An increase in fees for preparing records in pauper and sanity inquests from $2.50 to $10.

A 50-cent fee for each attestation of the court's order book.

Effective the first Monday in January, 1958, Judge Ardery ruled, is the increase from $20 to $100 a month for acting as an ex officio county law librarian.

That is when the next regular term of circuit clerks begin.

DAUGHTER'S GALLANT FIGHT AGAINST CANCER IS TOLD

Cancer sometimes hits children. In Reader's Digest for December, a young mother reveals the suffering and heroism involved when her nine-year-old daughter was stricken. Her narrative, addressed to the dead girl, is entitled "The Story of Gabrielle," and is a condensation of a book to be published by the World Publishing Co. The author writes under her maiden name of Catherine Gabrielson.

Shortly before a recent Christmas, Gabrielle, a "long-legged, sun-kissed little girl with long straight, sun-bleached hair," became mysteriously ill. After many tests and x-rays, an operation revealed a malignant tumor that had grown out from the spine and invaded everything.

"It's worse than our worst fears," a doctor told the mother. "There's nothing we can do. We couldn't begin to remove it."

Gabrielle was not told of this and seemed to recover rapidly from her operation. She was taken home to the family's New York apartment to celebrate her 10th birthday.

But a few days later she was ill again and returned to the hospital. There followed weeks of suffering which the girl endured with cheerful courage. For many nights her mother slept at her side to hold her hand and administer drugs when needed.

"Sweet dreams," said Gabrielle to her mother by way of good-night on the evening of Friday, April 25. The little girl could not speak next day and on Sunday, less than five months after her illness was noticed, she died.

A minister read the Twenty-third Psalm as she was buried on a hillside facing the bay in the old Snow Cemetery at Truro, Mass., where the family has a summer home.

Her favorite doll was buried with her.

The Stephens Family

With reference to the Stephens family that has been appearing in The Floyd County Times, which required about one year to compile. There will be no expense in this connection, only the cost of publication, which runs about 60c per inch single column. With some assistance we will continue the history. I presume there will be approximately thirty issues to complete.

If any of those who are interested, desire to help defray the expense, it will be appreciated if you will either send your check to me in order that the family line may be continued.
Yours truly,

Ladd Air Force Base, Alaska—Pvt. Edsal Osborne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hawk Osborne, of Drift, Ky., recently arrived in Alaska and is now a member of the 4th Antiaircraft Artillery Group at Ladd Air Force Base.

Osborne entered the Army in June 1956 and was last stationed at Fort Hood, Texas, where he received basic training. Osborne attended Martin high school.

Miss Martin and Mr. Childers Wed

Miss Joyce Lorene Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Martin, of Wayland, Ky., and Mr. Orbin Childers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Childers, of Garner, Ky., were married, Saturday, November 17, in the Wayland Methodist church.

The Rev. Paul Dorsey performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated in a background of white under candlelight and banked with fern and white gladioli.

The bride wore a white, long sleeved, ballerna length nylon and lace dress with a white satin sash. A fingertip veil attached to a bandeau of pearl and crystal beads added to her costume. She carried a white prayer book embellished with a white carnation corsage.

Miss Marianna Martin, sister of the bride, was the only attendant. She was dressed in a light turquoise ballerina-length taffeta dress with a matching feather-trimmed bandeau hat. To this costume was added a pink carnation corsage.

The groom's brother, Ivan Childers, Jr., was best man. The ushers were friends of both the bride and groom. They were Robert Lynn Hatcher and William Arnold Cooley, of Wayland.

The mother of the bride was dressed in dusty blue satin and wool jersey street length dress with matching hat and a corsage of pink rosebuds. The mother of the groom wore a beige silk dress with hat to match, and a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Nuptial music was rendered by Miss Billy Blackburn, band director and music teacher at Wayland high school.

A reception was held following the ceremony, and immediately thereafter the couple left for a short wedding tour. They are now at home at Hindman, Ky.

PARENTS STILL HOLD KEY TO HAPPINESS OF CHILDREN

Despite great changes in patterns of family life, it is still the parents who endow their children with courage, a sense of responsibility, generosity, compassion and other finer qualities, Morton M. Hunt writes in the December Reader's Digest in his article, "There's No Substitute for Parents."

Hunt found youth specialists in varied fields concerned about a tendency to delegate parental responsibilities to church, school and camp. Yet, a Scout executive reports—"All the camp training in the world is of no avail, if, when he gets home, the child is again allowed to become overly dependent on his parents."

In one New York University study, a group of children from well-to-do middle class homes was found to cheat far more than a group of reform school kids.

The explanation offered by Dr. Howard Lane was that in "good homes", where success is the principal goal, honesty was given lip service but children saw their parents lie, give flattering welcome to people they despised and do a hundred other dishonest things to advance their interests.

Even in the first year of life, the parent is all important as psychologists agree that a basic liking for people can be created if an infant is always handled gently, fed when hungry, and comforted when miserable. This creates a fundamental liking and unshakable trust in others.

Hunt concludes, that parenthood can't be an effortless and unconscious process but that when we give our creative best to the task, the reward is unlike any other this life offers. As Hunt and his wife Lois are parents of a 16-months-old son, he has a personal interest in the subject. Mrs. Hunt is a lyric soprano, formerly with the Metropolitan opera, who now sings on television. She recently appeared on NBC's "Rosalinda" spectacular.

State Industrial Growth Exhibits Reversal Trend, Research Study Reveals

Despite an abundance of physical assets, resources, and a central location, Kentucky's industrial growth between 1947 and 1954 lagged behind most Southern states, Rayburn Watkins, managing director of Associated Industries of Kentucky, reported today. This constitutes a reversal of the trend in Kentucky's favor from 1939 to 1947. AIK represents the firms that furnish approximately 85 per cent of the state's manufacturing jobs.

A research study based on the 1954 Census of Manufacturers shows that:

1. Out of the 12 southern states, Kentucky ranked 11th in attracting new industries, beating only Mississippi.

2. In employment gains, Kentucky ranked 8th out of 12, and 70 per cent of its gain was tied up in one plant—General Electric in Louisville.

3. In manufacturing payroll gains Kentucky ranked 8th out of 12 in "dollar gain" and only one notch better in percentage of gain despite the fact that its weekly pay per person is exceeded by only one state in the South—Texas.

This study came on the heels of a report that Kentucky had compared favorably with the nation and the South since 1939—but Watkins said the 1947-54 comparisons are more significant "because they indicate more recent trends."

Prospective new industries are looking more and more at the economic climate they would encounter in a given area, Watkins said. This takes the form of closer study of employers' obligations under Kentucky law, since laws reflect governmental attitudes. Recently it has been extended to an examination of the voting records of state legislators and editorial attitudes of newspapers in areas being studied.

Although AIK is not in industrial development as such, Watkins said that much of this information is sought from his office because it represents existing business and concentrates in such areas of study.

"With a better location, equal facilities, and resources that take a back seat to few states, if any," Watkins continued, "Kentucky faces the important challenge of improving its business, tax, and labor climate so that its many plus factors can be merchandized more effectively."

Watkins paid tribute to the many agencies which act as sales organizations attempting to lure new industry to the state, citing the energetic work of local chambers of commerce, development groups, and state-level organizations for vigorous campaigns plugging Kentucky's assets.

"Kentucky is already facility conscious, and most of the credit for this goes to such groups," Watkins said. "Kentucky must now develop a proper attitude toward business on the part of its people generally, its workers, its government, and important segments of the big press. It is in the area of economic climate that Kentucky faces one of its biggest challenges."

DEER HUNTERS FLOCK

During the recent deer-hunting season in Kentucky, an estimated 1,500 licensed hunters used Camp Robinson Forest, University of Kentucky's experimental tract in Breathitt county, says O. M. Davenport, forester. Of that number, about 60 persons "got their deer," Davenport says.

Southern Bell Must Advertise Rate Increases

Frankfort, Nov. 26 (Spl.)—The Public Service Commission entered an order this week directing Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co. to advertise for three consecutive weeks its bid for increased service rates.

The telephone company is asking for approximately $4,500,000 more revenue, which would raise its investment return to 6.75 per cent instead of 4.75 per cent as reported Sept. 30.

The Commission further directed the telephone company to promptly post a schedule of the proposed new rates in each exchange throughout the territory affected, J. E. Bassett, secretary said.

The effect upon individual subscribers and various types of services then will be available to the public, the secretary added.

"The cumulative effects of repeated increases in wages and other costs, together with the inability of the company to increase its revenue sufficiently . . . has impeded the company's efforts to discharge properly its full obligation to the public in Kentucky," the Southern Bell Telephone Co.'s petition stated.

Hearing date is set for 9 a.m., Dec. 18 in the Public Service Commission offices, here Bassett said.

Southern Bell services extend to 60 of the 120 counties in the state.

Governor Chandler is in Chicago and will attend the heavy-weight championship fight there Friday. After that he will go to Miami to attend an insurance meeting and to rest.

To The People of Floyd County

In order that my many friends may not be in doubt about my political plans, and after toying for months with the idea of becoming a candidate for either Circuit Judge, Commonwealth Attorney or County Attorney, I have decided that it would cause too much confusion and division among my friends for me to make the race for either Circuit Judge or Commonwealth Attorney.

In view of the situation as above recited, I am now announcing that I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination to the office of County Attorney, subject to your wishes as you will express them at the May, 1957 Primary Election.

In making this decision, I am fully aware of the responsibilities of the office, having heretofore served in that capacity for a four year term. I solemnly pledge the people that during the next four years, as County Attorney, I shall keep an alert eye on all matters affecting the welfare of our people and as God enlightens me so to do, shall give you honestly, the best that is in me. It shall be my purpose to fulfill every obligation of the office in such a way that after my term expires, Floyd county will be an easier place in which to do right and a harder place in which to do wrong.

With these high ideals and aims in view I beg of you your support.

Faithfully yours,

Let's Hope The Change Is For the Better

The "point system" being adopted by the Kentucky Department of Public Safety to determine who shall continue to operate motor vehicles and who shall not is heralded as a definite advance in the motor traffic field of safety. We sincerely trust it will prove to be all that is expected of it.

For the casualty lists from the highways of Kentucky continue to read like dread news from a battle front Old methods obviously have not been effective.

Only this week the Department of Safety released the figures on motor vehicle traffic accidents for the month of September. If you make even the most perfunctory attempt to feel something of the loss, the physical suffering and mental anguish of the victims and their families as you read, the statistics will become more important to you.

In September there were 61 traffic accidents in which 70 persons lost their lives in this state, bringing the number of those who in this senseless fashion died during the first nine months of the year to 547. During the same month, September, 1,139 persons were injured. One person was killed every 10 hours of every day. One person was injured every 38 minutes. September saw in all 2,638 motor traffic accidents, bringing the total for nine months to 22,750. Already this year, 9,626 persons have been injured, not to mention those who died.

Among those who died in September were two who were killed in Floyd county where 27 wrecks injured 12 others during the month.

And yet the awesome picture is not complete. Not told in the figures at hand are the hundreds of thousands of dollars in property damage, the staggering cost of hospital and doctor bills, the cost of litigation. And, if every statistical item were complete, the full story of valuable lives lost, of the suffering of victims and also of those who caused their suffering, would not be there for us to read. To get the full impact of this race with death in which we all engage, voluntarily or involuntarily, every time we drive on car-jammed highways, we must pause to think and feel.

If we do this, and feel strongly enough, as certainly we should, the cruel senselessness of this destruction of life and damage to person and property, we will have no fear that any new regulations the Department of Public Safety may introduce will be too harsh. On the contrary, we will entertain the strong fear that too many drunks, "wild" drivers and actual incompetents will enjoy unmerited leniency.

POSTAL SERVICE IN EUROPE BEATS THAT OF UNITED STATES

While Europe may lag behind America in technology, Europeans enjoy faster mail service and some public services that would be welcome on this side of the Atlantic, reports Robert Bendiner in a December Reader's Digest article, "What Europeans Can Teach Us About Public Service," condensed from Collier's.

Living in Huntington, Long Island, on the fringe of New York's metropolitan area, Bendiner regards it as normal for a letter from the city to reach him in two days.

"In London, by dizzying contrast," reports the writer, "a housewife can mail her grocery order before ten in the morning and have her groceries delivered in time for dinner that evening. Both London and Paris take for granted three punctual deliveries a day.

"A Parisian can get a letter to anyone in the French capital and its environs in an hour or two by dropping it in a special slot for pneumatic-tube mail at the nearest post office. Almost everywhere from Glasgow to Moscow a letter will go by the fastest method available at the moment, whether it carries airmail postage or not."

European telephone systems offer many services. In Paris, you have only to dial INF-1 (information) to catch a recording of the most recent news bulletins, which are refreshed every two hours. In Amsterdam, a recorded voice will list the films showing at movie theatres along with the comment of local critics.

In Vienna, telephone service supplies stock quotations, recipes, bedtime stories for children, practice dictation for secretarial students, even perfect pitch A for the tuning of musical instruments.

Attorneys — Commonwealth's Attorney Burnis Martin and W. W. Burchett for the prosecution, Tackett & Tackett and Fred C. See for the defense — by agreement did not argue the case after the last witness was heard.

Only two persons were convicted within the week—T. J. Kendrick for breaking and entering and given a four-year pen term, and Gurnis Hall who was fined $50 for assault and battery. Kendrick has asked probation of his sentence.

Trial of Magistrate John May on an assault and battery charge was not held as scheduled last Wednesday when Special Judge E. D. Stephenson failed to arrive here from Lexington.

Dismissed were these cases: Homer Dudley, accused of grand larceny; Thomas E. Kaye, cold check; H. S. Johnston, two cold check charges that had been continued earlier in the term; Estill Tackett, grand larceny, subject to redocket; James Owens, knowingly receiving stolen property, subject to redocket. Special Judge Kit C. Elswick, of Louisa, dismissed the drunk driving charge against Ralph Archer when the case was not ready for trial on his third trip here for its hearing.

Third trial of Colie Salisbury on a murder charge is docketed for today (Wednesday). The other trials have resulted in "hung" juries. Twenty-seven liquor cases are docketed for hearing Friday.

Diagnosis of rabies was made from the animal's head by the state laboratory at Louisville. None of the Newman family were bitten, but his dogs and it is suspected, several hogs were bitten.

Two weeks ago, Johnny James, of Allen, was chased by a fox. He struck it down with a window weight, finally killing it with a shovel. Since it didn't bite anyone its head was not submitted for analysis.

The case of the hunter being hunted was the experience of Arville Hall, of Dinwood, who was attacked two weeks ago shortly after he left home on a fox-hunt Hall beat the animal to death with a large flashlight. This head too was not submitted but it was presumed it was rabid.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

EDITOR, THE TIMES: Tuesday night, when the results of the election began to be definitely known, I was immediately aware of the great debt I owe as the Governor of Kentucky for the generous use of newspaper space in helping to acquaint the people of our state with the facts concerning the highway bond issue.

I am delighted that the people gave such generous approval to this proposition, because I know well that the road bond program throughout the state, which the bond issue will permit, will be of enormous benefit to our churches, our schools, our State Park system, all of our merchants doing business along the highways, to the Highway Department itself, and therefore to every user of Kentucky highways.

In varying degrees, the new Highway Program will aid every citizen of the Commonwealth. My feeling is that the newspapers of the state made a very material contribution to the passage of the bond issue and I thank you on behalf of all of us who instituted it and for all of the people of Kentucky.

Cordially, A. B. Chandler

OF BOOK REVIEWS AND SUCH

Reminded, the other day, that book reviews are a blessing to readers, I have been mulling over the matter and am almost inclined to dissent.

It would depend much on the reviewer. If he or she is one of those who date on this "flow of consciousness" stuff or who has a taste for the sordid, the profane and obscene, I would say you could waste a lot of good money on the trash they recommend.

But what strikes me is the fact that buying after you have had a synopsis of the story and after reading all the blurbs takes the "kick" out of the discovery of a good book for yourself, all by yourself. I think of my experience, years ago, with Mark Twain.

I had never heard of Mark Twain, Samuel L. Clemens, Hannibal, Mo., Huck Finn, Tom Sawyer, or any other person, character or place connected therewith. But when a certain so-called "bad man" from Magoffin county told me one day that he had twenty-four books by "a feller called Mark Twain" he would sell for $6 I told him to bring them. He carried them across the mountain in a coffee sack, dumped them in the floor and in his soft drawl said, "Oughta be a lot of good readin' there, son."

It was the Harper edition. The pages had not even been cut. And I saluted into them.

That first volume was "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," my own adventure into a book that was uncharted territory for me, a youngster who really wasn't expecting much. So you who have read and laughed about and re-read this boyhood classic and those other matchless books of the great humorist can imagine how glad I am even today that I by pure chance "discovered" Mark Twain, back when words such as "reviewer" or "critic" were not a part of my working vocabulary.

Two weeks ago this column asked for information on the Hargis family of Breathitt and Rowan counties. To which inquiry Mrs. Irma Wicker Hanev, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. V. Wicker, of Wayland, and wife of Ova Hanev, county superintendent of Lurie county schools, submits a brief resume of the Hargis family, particularly of Thomas F., the appellate judge.

Mrs. Hanev's manuscript follows: Thomas Frazier Hargis, born June 24, 1842 at Jackson, Breathitt county, a son of John and Elizabeth Weddington. John, born in Washington county, Virginia, was a lawyer. He moved to Kentucky in 1826, first to Pike county. In 1839 he moved to Breathitt county. John served 12 years as Clerk of County and Circuit Courts of Breathitt county. In 1850 he became Assistant United States Marshall.

In 1856, he moved his family to Rowan county. In 1869, John was elected County Attorney and served eight years. His father, Samuel Hargis, was of English descent and a soldier in the Revolutionary War. Elizabeth Weddington, John's wife, was a daughter of Jacob Weddington, who was one of the early settlers of Pike and Morgan counties and a soldier in War of 1812.

With these illustrious parents and grandparents it is little wonder that Thomas Frazier Hargis turned to the profession of law. But first, the Civil War came and Thomas Frazier cast his lot with Col. John S. Morgan and enlisted as a private in Company H, 5th Kentucky Confederate Infantry, in October 1861. In Oct. 1862, he enlisted in Col. Andrew Jackson, May's 10th Kentucky Confederate Cavalry as a member of Company E. He remained with this company until the end of the war.

Thomas Frazier Hargis then returned to his father's home in Morehead and began the study of law. Soon after he was admitted to the bar, he started to practice with Judge John M. Elliott, the Appellate Judge.

On June 23, 1869, he was married to Miss Lucy S. Norvell, of Nicholas county, a daughter of William Norvell, a lawyer in Carlisle.

Thomas Frazier and his wife donated a large tract of land and a nice sum of money to the Christian Woman's Board of Missions that helped to support Morehead Normal School that later became the outstanding educational institution of Morehead State College.

"Older Workers" To Have Added Job Opportunity

Frankfort, Nov. 26 (Spl.) — The Employment Service Division, Economic Security Department, plans to improve and expand services to older workers.

L. P. Jones, director of Employment Service, has informed all service office managers "that older workers in general do not get the kind and amount of services needed to gain for them equality in employment."

With respect to older workers, it is the policy of the Employment Service (1) to provide such services as necessary to promote for them equal opportunity for employment in competition with other workers of similar qualifications, and (2) to engage in educational programs with employers, labor unions, and the community to increase employment opportunities for this group.

In the Employment Service, an "older worker" is not defined in terms of age brackets. An applicant is considered an "older worker" for purposes of this program if he is encountering, or may encounter, difficulty in getting or keeping a job because of his age.

Jones notified his personnel "to insure improved services to older workers, all local offices are requested to examine their present operations regarding service to older workers and institute action" necessary to insure adequate service.

A number of special studies, by various state and federal agencies, regarding "older workers," are being conducted and will be released to the proper offices when completed.

HOME PROGRAM OUTSTANDING

Mrs. W. T. Hatcher, American Home chairman, presented one of the finest programs the Lackey-Garrett-Wayland Woman's Club has enjoyed for some time. Miss Billie Jean Blackburn, music instructor at Wayland, entertained the club members and guests with several members presented by a group of grade school girls and boys from the Wayland school. This program included folk dancing.

Mrs. Hatcher gave a talk on the history of the American home, with emphasis (a) on character development in children from cradle to school entrance; (b) developing and establishing fine relationship in families; (c) family attitude for constructive community and national growth; (d) building the home as a basis for center of family activity.

Miss Dixie Trapp, home demonstration agent, outlined to the club members how important the leaders are for the 4-H groups and their duties, and distributed literature on different phases of the work to be studied by the club, since this is the main project of the club. Mrs. Will Gearheart, Hueysville, and Mrs. Fletcher Gayheart, Maytown 4-H leaders, assisted Miss Trapp in explaining the work and told some of their projects with the girls in their communities.

Miss Trapp made plans for a meeting with the leaders and club members at the woman's clubhouse 6:30 Monday night, Nov. 26. At the business meeting conducted by the club president, Mrs. Earl Castle, the club voted to send $20 to the Veterans' hospital in Lexington for gifts and $3 for T. B. Seals.

A quilt top was finished at the sewing meeting. This department will start on Christmas decorations and items to be made to be used at the December meeting, which will be a tea and a display of arts and crafts under the supervision of Mrs. W. T. Hatcher and Mrs. R. H. Messer.

Mrs. J. E. Miller and Mrs. Fred Hall served as hostesses for the meeting. Twenty members were present. Guests were Miss Dixie Trapp, Mrs. Will Gearheart, Mrs. Fletcher Gayheart, County agent O. E. Boggs, Mrs. Edd Decoursey, home economics teacher in the Wayland school, and Miss Billie Jean Blackburn with 15 grade school children.

The Wayland P.T.A. had its regular meeting in the high school auditorium Tuesday night, Nov. 20. An election of officers for the coming year was held. The new officers are: Robert Hicks, Jr., president; Mrs. Kathryn Morgan, vice-president; Mrs. Glow Hicks, secretary; and Eddie Craft, treasurer.

The Association will present a Christmas program on the next meeting night, Tuesday, Dec. 18, at 7 p.m. The grade school will be in charge of the program. The presentation will be, "Christmas At The Circus." The public is cordially invited, sponsors say.

"The Wayland P.T.A. and the school need more activity on the part of the parents," President Hicks says. "Won't you come to our next meeting and join our group," he asks.

Your Social Security — 1956 Model

Questions and Answers by Cost Accountants

Have you ever thought of your social security card as an insurance policy? You may not think of it as an insurance policy—indeed it is in many ways different from any regular policy—yet that in effect is what it is. It promises a certain degree of protection against loss of income due to death or old age. Social Security is basically a scheme to keep widows, orphans and old people from being left destitute.

This is the fifth in a series of articles containing questions and answers on the new 1956 Social Security law, prepared by the Louisville Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants as a public service in answering some of the questions on the latest changes in the Social Security law.

- Q. Can a wife with earnings under Social Security draw disability benefits?
A. Yes, at age 50.
- Q. What happens when she reaches age 62?
A. If she is drawing disability benefits at 62 she can instead, draw a wife's regular benefits based on her husband's earnings, if it is larger.
- Q. Does income other than earnings affect the disability payments?
A. No. A disabled person can receive his benefits even if he has substantial income from investments. But any payments received under State workmen's compensation laws or disability programs of federal agencies will reduce the sum he gets from Social Security.
- Q. Can children draw benefits too?
A. Yes, if certain requirements are met.
- Q. What are these requirements?
A. The child of a retired worker can get a child's monthly benefit equal to one-half of your benefit. To qualify, the child must file an application and at the time be under 18, unmarried, and dependent upon you for support.
- Q. How long can a child draw benefits?
A. Until age 18, if the child is not disabled. The change in the 1956 law permits disabled children to draw benefits so long as the child remains totally disabled, regardless of age. The child must have been disabled before reaching age 18.
- Q. What about children that are 18 or over at the time a worker retires?
A. At age 18 or over, the child is not eligible for benefits unless totally disabled before age 18.
- Q. If you die leaving only one child meeting the requirements, he gets 75 percent of what your own retirement benefits amounted to if you leave more than one child, each gets one-half of your retirement benefit plus one-quarter of it divided by the number of children. Suppose your monthly retirement benefit is $80 per month and you die leaving 2 dependent children. Each will get $50 a month. These benefits will continue until the children reach age 18. A child totally disabled will continue drawing benefits after age 18.

MARTIN

By Betty Preflatish

(Last Week's Correspondence)

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Hayes and Miss Verna Ratliff have just returned from a month's vacation trip to Arizona. While gone they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Crisp, of Meso, Ariz.

Mrs. John A. Conley is recuperating nicely at her home here from an operation she recently underwent at Our Lady of the Way hospital.

Dick Brashear, who attends school in Louisville, spent last week-end home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Brashear.

A/2c Richard Compton has returned to his duty station after spending a furlough home. He is stationed in Biloxi, Miss.

The M.Y.F. girls of the Methodist Church gave a miscellaneous shower Friday night for Mrs. Roger Burcham. Mrs. Burcham was a member of M. Y. F. and is the former Miss Florence Blackburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blackburn. Several of the young couple's friends attended the shower, bringing many nice and useful gifts.

It is nice to note so many nice changes in Martin since I've been away. There's an addition to the Martin school, especially for the Retarded Children. This was sorely needed.

The St. Juliana School has been redecorated inside and made larger for its growing needs. More students attend each year.

A new book store owned and managed by W. S. Frazier, has opened here.

Mrs. Mary Jenkins, formerly of Kopperston, W. Va., now moved back to Martin, and Mrs. Bill West, formerly of El Paso, Texas, now of Martin, have added a nice and quaint shop, the "Mary and Martha Shop."

Hank Roberts, of Prestonsburg, was a business visitor in Martin this week.

Miss Sarah Jane Hill, of Martin, and Mr. Andrew Himes, of Muncie, Ind., were married three weeks ago at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. M. Hayes, of New Castle, Ind. Only the members of the two families were present.

The bride wore a navy blue street-length dress with white accessories and white rosebud corsage. They live in Muncie, Ind. This past week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Himes and Mr. and Mrs. Hayes spent the week-end here with their brother, Ken Hill, and sister, Betty Preflatish. About 30 neighbors and friends dropped in, bringing gifts as a surprise shower for the couple.

Another change: Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hunter have entirely remodeled one of their houses and moved into it. Mr. and Mrs. Bill West moved into the one vacated by the Hunters.

Betty Preflatish, who has spent four months with her son and daughter-in-law, Marine S/Sgt. and Mrs. Harry Gene Preflatish, and grandson, Steven Lee, of Cherry Point, N. C., has returned home (as you can plainly see).

Mrs. S. J. Roberts has spent several days, the guest of Mrs. Florence Crisp.

The Altar Society of St. Juliana Church held its monthly meeting last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. S. D. Dermont. Plans for its Christmas party, which will be held the first week in December at the home of Mrs. L. B. Brashear, were discussed. After all the other business was taken care of, pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee were served to the moderator of the Society, Rev. George W. Nerbonne and the following members, the hostess, Mrs. S. D. Dermont, Mrs. L. B. Brashear, Mrs. Jo Evans, Mrs. Betty Manfred, Mrs. Frances Sherman, and Betty Preflatish.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Skeans and daughter, Linda Kay, spent an afternoon this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Johnson, of Halo.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hampton have completed their new home between Allen and Martin and have moved into it.

Miss Magdalene Hampton and guest, Miss Carol Langburn, of Louisville, were the recent guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hampton. The Hamptons had as guests also their two sons, Johnny and Clyde, of Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. Z. C. Dingus and daughter, Marceta Carol, have returned home after spending a few months in Tampa, Fla., for Marceta Carol's health. They plan to return there soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dingus, of Lexington, visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. George H. Fox, of Ashland, is a patient in Our Lady of the Way hospital for treatment and observation.

Her sister, Betty Serrey is employed in the office of the hospital here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Lester and children were visiting his brother, Clyde Lester and family, of Matewan, W. Va., during the week-end.

Rev. George W. Nerbonne, along with all the other priests of Eastern Kentucky, spent Monday in Lexington, attending a Deanery meeting.

Top State Job Change Made By Chandler

Frankfort, Nov. 26 (Spl.) — Robert Humphreys, Frankfort, has been appointed state highway commissioner for the third time by Gov. A. B. Chandler.

Humphreys, road chief during Chandler's first term as governor, was re-named to the post when the governor began his present administration. Then Humphreys resigned after the death of U. S. Senator Alben Barkley, and was chosen by Chandler to serve in the Senate until Barkley's successor was elected.

Bert Kiser, Olive Hill, who served as highway commissioner while Humphreys was in Washington, has been designated his administrative assistant.

Chandler also appointed Mack G. Walters, Shelbyville, advisory highway commissioner for the Third Road District.

Walters succeeds Bernard J. Bax, Louisville, who was named director of the State Athletic Board of Control by Chandler. S. Rush Nicholson, Louisville, formerly held this post.

The governor accepted the resignation of Dr. Frank M. Gaines, commissioner of mental health. Dr. Harold McPheeters, assistant to Gaines, was appointed to the position by Governor Chandler.

East Kentucky Towns Told Shortage of Gas Expected This Winter

Frankfort, Nov. 28 (Spl.) — Five Eastern Kentucky towns were warned by the Public Service Commission this week to start looking for ways to avoid hardship of depleted gas supplies.

A serious shortage will occur even this winter, as the natural gas supply from Knox and Clay counties will be developed within four years, Public Service Commission Chairman James F. Gordon said.

City and county officials, legislators and civic clubs in Corbin, London, Barbourville, Manchester and Burning Springs were warned by the commission to concern themselves immediately with a solution to the problem.

"It might be possible to get natural gas from lines which cross Kentucky from Texas-Louisiana gas fields at a rate increase of approximately 80 to 105 percent," Gordon said.

Members of the commission will be glad to aid public officials in solving this problem, the chairman said.

GROUP CHAIRMAN

Dr. Frank J. Welch, director of the Kentucky Extension Service, is chairman of the advisors-at-large group of the U. S. College Feed Survey for 1956-1957.

Census Bureau Conducts National Housing Survey

The National Housing Inventory, authorized by the Congress to provide the first measurement of the Nation's housing since the 1956 Census, will begin locally on November 28, according to Supervisor Hobert A. Yerkey of the Census Bureau's field office at Cincinnati, which will participate in the survey.

The survey, to be carried out on a sample basis, will furnish information on the number and characteristics of dwelling units and the gains and losses resulting from new construction, conversions and demolitions since 1950.

The survey will show size and age of houses, rents paid, value of homes, condition of houses, vacancies, plumbing facilities and characteristics of families living in the houses covered in the survey. Information will be gathered also on outstanding mortgage debt, interest rates, use of conventional and government-insured mortgages, second mortgages and monthly payments, if amortized.

Supervisor Yerkey pointed out that all information furnished to the Census Bureau is kept confidential by law and only statistical totals and averages are published. National Housing Inventory information will be collected locally by Mrs. Mary Mitchell, of Allen, and Mrs. Wima Taulbee, of Malone.

TWO GIRLS, A CHEVY AND A RECORD!
A meaningful achievement in automobile performance

Most automobile performance records are pretty difficult to relate to the kind of day-in, day-out driving most of us do. Running at safe and legal speeds, a '57 Chevrolet recently chalked up an important new coast-to-coast record on the road. And the way it set this record is even more important than the record itself!

A new '57 Chevrolet recently proved it has the qualities most people look for in a car—and proved it on the roads you travel. It set a new record of less than 57 hours for the run from New York to Los Angeles (certified by NASCAR). It was a strictly stock, V8-powered Chevy. It was driven by two young ladies.

When you consider that all the driving was done by 98-pound Betty Skelton and her friend Caroline Russ, the true significance of this record run becomes apparent. It's a tribute to Chevrolet's great-hearted V8 engine and solid road-worthiness that it could travel day and night for 2,913 miles at safe and legal speeds—and better the existing record for the trip by more than three hours. And when a pair of young ladies step into a car and drive it round the clock to a new transcontinental record, you know that car is easy to drive. Come try a Chevy.

The members of the Commission shall serve without compensation.

2. The Commission shall hold their first meeting within ten (10) days after being appointed and shall fix a regular time and place for conducting meetings, hearings and other business, and shall have authority to conduct special meetings as agreed by them. The chairman shall preside at all meetings, and in his absence the members present may agree on a chairman pro-tem. Three members shall constitute a quorum to conduct any business. The Commission may adopt further rules of procedure as it may see fit for the conducting of business.

2a. The purposes for which this Commission is established is to study and consider the qualifications of the applicants for licenses under this ordinance and to determine whether or not their qualifications meet the requirements imposed by this ordinance for issue of licenses hereunder and further to approve the applications and authorize the issue of licenses where the requirements of the ordinance are met, and to disapprove the applications and deny the issue of licenses where the requirements of the ordinance are not met.

2b. The second purpose for which this Commission is established is to conduct hearings on written, verified charges filed with the Commission, setting forth facts that would constitute the commission of a nuisance, as defined by the terms of this Ordinance, by the holder or holders of licenses under this ordinance on some date after the effective date of this ordinance, and seeking the revocation of the license or licenses on the grounds of the commission of said nuisance. Any citizen of Prestonsburg, Ky., the Commission or one of its members may institute such a proceeding for revocation by filing such a charge. These proceedings shall be conducted as is prescribed in Article V of this ordinance.

3. The Commission shall notify applicants of action taken by the Commission on their applications for license by written notice delivered through the U. S. Mails, and such notice shall be considered as having been delivered the day after it was mailed; this procedure shall be followed by the Commission, in notifying individual applicants and licensees of all actions taken with regard to applications and licenses under the terms of this Ordinance by the Commission and, unless stated otherwise, the applicants or licensees are granted a period of ten days following the delivery of the notice, either to carry out the directions of the notice, or by a written protest, to be delivered or mailed to the Chairman of the Commission where a ruling of the Commission is protested or to the Mayor where a ruling of the Commission is appealed, showing cause why the ruling on which the notice is based, should not be carried out. After filing the written protest or appeal the applicant or licensee should then appear at the next regular meeting of the Commission or of the City Council after the expiration of this ten day period, in support of this written protest in order to be heard by that particular body before whom protest is made, either at the regular meeting or by hearing at a date and place to be set by the body concerned at this regular meeting. The entire burden of proof and proceeding shall be upon the protestant or appellant to show cause why the ruling protested or appealed from should be set aside. A written protest shall first be filed within the ten day period before the protest shall be filed within that ten day period before the protestant may be heard by the Commission and if the protest is not filed, the ruling shall become final.

4. Any ruling that is made by the Commission that provides for the denial of an application for a license or for the revocation of a license may be appealed after a hearing before the Commission, directly to the City Council, provided the appeal was filed with the Mayor within ten days after delivery of written notice of the ruling. A ruling of the City Council, after a hearing, or after the expiration of an opportunity allowed for a hearing, providing for the denial or grant of an application, or for the revocation of a license, shall be final.

There shall be no transfer of a taxi-cab driver from the taxicab to which he was originally assigned, nor the substitution of a new or different taxi-cab driver for the original driver, unless either the operator or the driver originally assigned to the taxi-cab first obtain oral permission from the Chief of Police, who is hereby authorized to allow such transfers or substitutions on a temporary basis only, and if the substitution or transfer is to continue for a period of more than five days, it shall be considered as permanent and the taxi-cab operator must appear personally before the Commission and request authority for this permanent transfer or substitution, which may be allowed, unless good cause be shown for refusal of such a request. Under no circumstances may a taxi-cab driver who has not been issued a license under this Ordinance be permitted to drive a taxi-cab. It shall be the policy of this ordinance to discourage frequent transfers and substitutions of drivers without good cause being shown and such practice may constitute grounds for the revocation of a license or licenses under the terms of this Ordinance.

9. This Ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its passage for the purpose of filing of applications for licenses and for the allied purpose of the consideration and approval or disapproval of these applications. ## SPORTS CHATTER

By GORDON MOORE

EAST TOPS WEST

In the first Eastern Kentucky Mountain Conference "basketball panorama", held in Paintsville Monday night, the East came from behind in the final 10 minutes on Pikeville's 28-point spurge to win, 98-92.

With less than two weeks' practice, the majority of the teams looked and played ragged. Pikeville and Paintsville highlighted the scoring for the East unit, while their three counterparts were outscored by their opponents.

The results:

EAST (98)	WEST (92)
P'burg 16	24 Hazard
Eik. City 11	22 M. C. Nap.
P'sville 24	10 W'burg
Belfry 9	18 Fleming
Pikeville 38	18 Jenkins

POWERS VANS REGION

Auxier high school is still winless on the cage front, but vaning the area scoring is six-foot two-inch guard, Porter Powers, who has been flipping them in at a rapid pace for Bill Goebel's Hornets. The agile senior has hit for 183 markers in five outings for a nifty 36.7 per game mark. Flat Gap's highly-touted senior center, Charlie Osborne, has dropped in 71 points in two games for a 36.5 ratio.

Hughes, 12 Others Presented Watches By Alumni Group

Quarterback Delmar Hughes, 12 other University of Kentucky football players and a student manager—all seniors—were presented watches Monday night at the University Alumni Association football banquet. The gifts, contributed by friends and UK alumni, were presented by Athletic Director Bernie Shively.

In addition to Hughes those honored were:

Center Dave Kuhn, Louisville; End Roger Pack, Jenkins; Fullback Bob Daugherty, Bellevue; Halfback Don Netoskie, Martinsburg, W. Va.; Halfback Billy Mitchell, Georgetown; Guard Bob Bennett, Russell; Tackle J. T. Frankenberger, Louisville; Guard Duke Curmutte, Ashland; End Al Zampino, Philadelphia, Pa.; Tackle Jack Butler, Tompkinsville; Quarterback Bill Farley, Charleston, W. Va.; Quarterback Jack Freeman, Danville, and Manager Robert Holt, Cox's Creek.

Hughes, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hughes, of Prestonsburg, closed his collegiate football career Saturday with his most brilliant performance for the UK Wildcats against Tennessee at Knoxville. He scored Kentucky's touchdown and kicked the extra point that sent Kentucky ahead till late in the fourth quarter. Hughes also quarterbacked the team to an amazing display of power against the rugged Tennessee line that had held Georgia Tech scoreless.

His brother, Lowell, freshman at UK, is regarded as his certain successor next year at the quarterback post. Lowell captained the Kittens, freshman football team, on three occasions during the 1956 season and starred at the quarterback post. His team was undefeated.

LIFE AND DEATH OF PARTY

The driver who drinks even one drink and takes his car down the highway should be called "The Life and Death of the Party."

Alcohol slows down reflexes the way efficient brakes slow down a car—with this difference: a driver controls his brakes, but alcohol controls the driver.

Take a look, for a moment, at some figures that show what reflexes really mean. They mean, of course, the difference between life and death, but these National Safety Council data on "stopping distances" give a new sharpness to this meaning:

A car going 20 miles per hour travels 52 feet between the time a driver sees the danger, applies the brakes, and brings it to a stop. A driver's "thinking distance" at 60 mph—that is, the time it takes him to see danger and apply brakes—is 66 feet, and the car itself, going at a mile-a-minute speed, will travel 336 feet before being stopped by average brakes.

At 70 miles an hour—the speed at which so many reflex-fuzzy drivers travel after bending an elbow—the "thinking distance" is 77 feet, and the stopping distance 332 feet, with good brakes, and 445 with "passable" brakes.

There is no way to laugh off these facts. Nor is there any way to laugh off the tragic results caused by ignoring them.

Put it this way: if you're going 70 miles an hour, you will cover more ground than the length of a football field before you can stop your car. And this holds true only when your reflexes are normally keen and efficient.

A driver whose mind is fuzzy with alcohol will take far more time to see danger and stop his car—if, indeed, he stops it at all before hitting a train, an embankment, or another car.

Danger signals—such as a pedestrian suddenly stepping into the street, or an automobile cutting recklessly out of its proper traffic lane—don't register automatically in a befuddled brain. There must be a dual process of recognition and transmission. This may take only a few seconds, but these few seconds are generally the difference between life and death on the highway.

Obviously, the ritual of "one for the road" can be a prelude to disaster. It is often the choice between taking a drink and taking a life.
