

This Town— That World

VACATION TIME The class will come to attention, please. Now, if any there be who do not know the full meaning of the word, "frustration," you have only to try to write a column while all your ideas have gone on ahead of you on vacation.

P. S.—HE DIDN'T A group of men were attending a picnic-meeting at Arrowhead Point on Dewey Lake, Tuesday afternoon, and nearby stood a man dropping a fly out onto the water.

"If that guy catches a fish," muttered one member of the group, "this meeting is adjourned."

Sombody once said, "A conference is a gathering of important people who singly can do nothing but together can decide nothing can be done." Which reminds us that somebody else said a camel looks like it was put together by a committee.

THE MYSTERY SOLVED The story is told that archeologists messing around in the ruins of ancient Rome were mystified by a hole in a wall that otherwise had pretty well withstood the weight of centuries.

They went over the situation with a fine-tooth comb, studied every angle, even sifted the dirt around it. They were ready to call it a day and set the whole thing down as a mystery when somebody came up with a piece of metal.

"Aha!" exclaimed the head archeologist. "Why did we not think of this hours ago? It now is so obvious—somebody's wife tried to back the family chariot into the garage!"

HEALTH BLDG. NEARS FINISH

Acceptance Is Scheduled; Center Already In Use As Meetings Slated

Floyd county's new Health Center, which was scheduled for official state and county acceptance Wednesday, will be put into service immediately, even before the Floyd County Health Department moves into it late next week.

An area meeting was held in the auditorium of the Center Wednesday night to plan the founding of a heart clinic here. Then a series of meetings will begin next Wednesday to study mental health in its relationship to public health nursing.

Subsequent mental health meetings will be held July 11, July 18, July 25, August 1 and August 8.

Miss Bessie Ball, mental health nursing consultant, with the state Department of Mental Health, will lead the discussions here, it was said by Ruth Spurrier, director of the Division of Public Nursing, in a letter to Catherine Wiechers, Elizabeth Harris and Regina Roberts, of the Floyd County Health Department.

"All nurses in this area are invited to attend this series of meetings, regardless of their particular field of work," Miss Harris said.

ANSWER TO SUIT SAYS MEADE VIOLATED LAW

ARGUES RIVAL DISQUALIFIED FOR CONTEST

Special Judge Asked To Hear Absent Vote Suit In Clerk's Race

Denying allegations of fraud made by A. B. Meade in his contest of the absentee voting in the Democratic County Court Clerk's race at the recent primary election, DuRan Moore, incumbent, filed answer, counterclaim and cross complaint to Meade's action last Saturday.

Moore countered with the allegation that the contestant violated the Corrupt Practices Act in that he, his friends, relatives, adherents, strikers and supporters, at his direction and with his knowledge, authority and consent, made up and used in the election a pool or fund of money or other things of value in the amount or the value of not less than $40,000.

Claiming that this amount was used for the purpose of buying or influencing votes, the contestee maintains that because of such alleged violation the contestant has no right to maintain his contest action.

His answer also claims the contest was not filed within the required 15 days after the primary and that Special Judge M. J. See's overruling of Meade's motion for amended judgment constitutes a full and complete bar to the prosecution of the contest action and that all issues in the action have been adjudicated.

The contestant's motion for an amended judgment pertained to the judgment given by Judge See in the dismissal of the injunction to prevent the counting of the absentee ballots. The motion asked that the judgment be amended so that "the finding of fact and judgment in this cause shall in no way preclude a trial of the issues which may be made in a general contest case over the result of the primary election."

The contestee's answer asked that the petition of the contestant be dismissed because the court is without jurisdiction to hear or determine the case; that the contestant be adjudged to have violated provisions of the Corrupt Practices Act and that by reason of such violation he be adjudged disqualified; and that, should the court open the absentee ballot box, the ballots of 50 persons whose ballots were not counted should be tabulated.

Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill disqualified for trial of the case, and it was certified Tuesday to the Court of Appeals for appointment of a special judge.

LAKE CAMP FOR BOYS AWAITING U. S. LEASE

A new conservation camp in the Dewey Lake area as a part of Kentucky's program for problem boys awaits only the approval by the federal government of a long-term lease on 12,000 acres of land surrounding the lake, it was said in Frankfort last week.

The lease arrangement is not fully known here, but it is said to provide for continued operation of Dewey dam by employees of the U. S. Corps of Army Engineers. Conservation Commissioner Laban Jackson was quoted as saying the state will retain water rights necessary to the operation of Dewey Lake State Park and the new conservation camp. It has also been unofficially said here that this may also mean patrolling of the waters by state rather than federal employees as heretofore.

The Dewey Lake camp is planned as a training and recreation center for older boys who have been committed to Kentucky Village, near Lexington. Mr. Jackson said the signature to the lease is expected from Washington next month.

Kentucky a year ago established for dependent children a conservation camp at Kentucky Dam Village State Park in Western Kentucky.

Present recommendations call for five such camps, four of them

Boy Scouts Schedule Safety Demonstration At Dewey Lake, July 4

Boy Scouts and others will hold a boat and water safety demonstration at Dewey Lake, July 4, it was said this week. The demonstrations are scheduled at the Stratton Branch recreation area at 1 p. m.

One of the chief demonstrations on safety will be what to do when a boat capsizes or a person falls from a boat, Howard Osborne, Dewey Reservoir manager, said. The Scouts will also make a lay-out of equipment devoted to safety.

Tuffy Griffith, of Paintsville, will demonstrate skin-diving, and two Scouts from an aquatic school in Virginia will assist in the demonstrations on water safety.

BERRY SALES IN FLOYD LOW

County This Year Sold Only 53 Crates of 1,265 Marketed by Association

The East Kentucky Strawberry Growers Association shipped 1,265 crates of strawberries at a total selling price of $7,985.56 up to June 10, it was announced recently by Harold Rice, manager. Of this total, Floyd county shipped only 53 crates, the bulk of the shipments going from Johnson county.

Last year the Association had shipped in the same period a total of 4,162 crates. Prices for good quality berries in the country generally this year were about the same as for the same quality last year, it was stated recently by the Department of Agriculture. However Kentucky berries brought lower prices due to many factors, it was pointed out.

Lower strawberry prices noted by growers in the counties of Johnson, Floyd, Morgan, Magoffin, Martin and Pike were due to two factors causing low quality, Mr. Rice said. He gave as reasons the extreme dry weather the three weeks prior to marketing and the extreme wet weather after the 19th of the month. Heavy rains on May 18 through the 22 prevented many of the berries from being picked and caused others to be heavy with water which in turn caused early molding.

The department also announced that "higher prices for strawberries in 1956 may result if the usual pattern is followed by producers all over the U. S. A. Large numbers of producers commonly get in after a season of high prices and get out two or three years after a season or two of lower prices. For instance in 1951 prices dropped below the level of several years; in 1952, Kentucky acreage declined 1,100 acres.

DIAL SYSTEM IN OPERATION

Dignitaries Are Expected For Harold Telephone Co. "Open House", Dedication

Paul Gearheart, head of the Harold Telephone Company, made the first call on his company's new dial system Monday noon after the switch-over was made from the old crank-style telephone. The call went to his cousin, Line Conn, in Fort Worth, Texas.

The new organization has approximately 400 subscribers with facilities to take care of 1,000 within the near future. The new company succeeds the Roberts-Olga Telephone Company which operated in the communities in the southern part of the county from 1936 to 1953.

Four operators were required to serve the old exchange, but the new one is automatic. The phone company will employ permanently one person, a maintenance man, besides the Gearhearts.

The firm will have open house at its central office and exchange building from 2 p. m. to 5:30 p. m. Friday. A dedication program is scheduled from 6 p. m. to 7 p. m. Friday at the Betsy Layne high school auditorium. Scheduled speakers include J. B. Wells, rural highway commissioner, and Congressman Carl D. Perkins.

WOODS FIRES FEWER IN '57

Turner Reports Cost Of Firefighting Less; Build Radio Tower

The number of forest fires in the Floyd-Magoffin district headed by Roe Turner, forest ranger, is on the decrease, it was noted this week. Last spring the area had 47 fires but this year it dropped to 37, Turner pointed out.

The suppression cost decreased, too, it was calculated. Cost of putting out the woodland blazes last spring was $494.65 but this spring the figure dropped to $364.45. There was a slight increase in acreage burned, 536 acres were burned, but this spring the total rose to 561 acres.

Turner, in explaining the rise in burned acreage, said that this spring most fires occurred in the first ten days of May when there was a lot of wind, contrary to the weather conditions of the preceding May.

Locals of many fires in this county some time ago was the Middle Creek section but an intensive educational campaign there carried on by the schools and the landowners seems to have had its effect, Turner said. There wasn't one fire in the area this spring.

Radio transmitters have been installed in the trucks used by personnel of the Division of Forestry, and a radio tower is nearing completion on Abbott mountain.

At the annual training meet of the Division of Forestry held in May at Cumberland Falls and attended by the wardens and rangers from all districts it was pointed out that three Kentucky districts were leading the rest of the state, neck-and-neck, in the race to eliminate forest fires. These are the South-eastern, South Central and Eastern. The latter district, of which Bill Music, of Prestonsburg, is forester, is composed of the six counties of Floyd, Magoffin, Pike, Martin, Lawrence and Johnson.

The Cumberland Falls meeting also commented on the educational program on forest fire prevention being carried on in Floyd county.

REA Electric Farm Show Scheduled at Paintsville; Beauty Contest, Feature

The annual Electric Farm Show of the Big Sandy Rural Electric Co-operative is scheduled at Paintsville, July 12, it was announced this week by Oran Hinkle, manager.

"Folks have been attending this annual event for many years now, and every year the crowds get larger," Hinkle said. "Heading this year's cast of top-flight professional entertainers is Duncan, the magician, and Commille's Dog Show that will delight everybody. These dogs do practically everything but talk, and are considered some of the best in the business."

Favorite of the scheduled contests is the beauty contest, which is open to unmarried girls 16 through 22 who reside in a home served by the rural electric co-op. The top girl will get, besides a silver tray, an expense-paid trip to Louisville in September, where she will compete for the state title during the State Fair.

Wheelwright Girl, 10, Is First Registrant At Camp Chatterawha

Jami B. Fields, ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fields, of Wheelwright, was the first registrant of the 1957 season for Camp Chatterawha.

Camp Chatterawha, operated by the Sandy Valley Girl Scout Council, has plans completed for its fourth season. There will be two-week sessions beginning June 30 and running through July 27. Registrations have been heavy for all week, except for the fourth week beginning July 21 for which period there are a few vacancies left. It is expected that these places will be filled by late registrations.

The camp, located on Dewey Lake, has the advantage of a beautiful swimming site. Instruction in all types of water activity is offered. Courses in junior and senior life-saving, all levels of swimming and canoeing provide training for the campers.

The natural setting gives ample opportunity for nature study, campcraft, badge work and other activities not available in town.

The registrants include girls from Paintsville, Pikeville, Prestonsburg, David, Martin, Betsy Layne, Wheelwright, Whitesburg, and Hazard all in Kentucky. Girls from Williamson, Malloy, Morgantown, W. Va., will also be in attendance.

Members of the staff include Mrs. Zella Archer, director, from Prestonsburg; Miss Martha Joyce May, waterfront director, Prestonsburg; Stella Miller, nurse, Pikeville. The unit staff is made up of Miss Mary Martha Williams, Prestonsburg; Mrs. Madge Williams, Paintsville; Miss Phyllis McBrayer, Morehead; Miss Cheryl Sue Jones,

DEPUTIES RAID LIQUOR SPOTS

One of Nine Is Taken For Expected Hearing On a Federal Charge

One of nine men on whose properties intoxicating liquors have been confiscated by deputy sheriffs since June 13 has been remanded to U. S. district court for possible prosecution, Sheriff Gorman Collins said here Monday.

The federal court defendant is Romain Shepherd, of Middle Creek, from whose premises a half-gallon of moonshine whiskey was taken June 20.

Others raided and the intoxicants reported confiscated follow: Bennie Blackburn, 68 cans of beer taken from his trailer located on the site of the Round House which was destroyed by fire near Lancer a few weeks ago; Sherman Cook, McDowell, 25 cans of beer; Jolie Maynard, Banner, 14 half-pints of whiskey; Hayse Howell, Betsy Layne, 4 1/2 pints of whiskey, 6 cans of beer; Edd Halbert, Arkansas curve, 16 half-pints of whiskey; Jim Blanton, operator of the Shingle Top, between Allen and Martin, 42 half-pints of whiskey and gin; Dewey Lake Inn, Lancer, 6 half-pints of whiskey, 44 cans of beer; Ed Wright, Melvin, 144 cans of beer.

Sheriff Collins said the June 21 raids on Wright and the Dewey Lake Inn were the third made this year and that the raid on Maynard the same day was the second.

Jailed here within the week were the following: James Derossett, reckless use of a deadly weapon; Luke Woods, drunk driving; Claude Napier, breaking and entering; Tom Arnett and Ollie Robinson, grand larceny; Jack C. Meadows, driving while intoxicated; Cecil Jacobs, violation of probation; Herbert Salisbury, grand larceny; William Isaac, Jr., drunk and resisting arrest.

FRAZIER QUILTS SCHOOL FIELD

Ends 20 Years in Schools For Job as Administrator Of Prestonsburg Hospital

Chalmer H. Frazier, former superintendent of Prestonsburg schools, is quitting educational work to become administrator of the Prestonsburg General hospital, it was announced here this week.

Mr. Frazier's resignation, submitted to the Floyd County Board of Education a few days ago, becomes effective July 1. His most recent connection with the school system was as principal of the Prestonsburg grade school, a post he has held since merger of the city school system with the county.

Mr. Frazier, a graduate of Berea College and a post-graduate of the University of Kentucky, has taught in the county and Prestonsburg school systems 20 years, beginning at Wayland as mathematics teacher and basketball coach and later was coach at Martin and Auxier before coming here as high school principal 11 years ago. He was superintendent of Prestonsburg schools nine years, having succeeded Monroe Wicker at that post.

ARTHUR HALL TRUCK VICTIM

Dema Gas Worker Is Third In Tragedy-Dogged Family Killed by Cars or Trucks

Tragedy which has stalked the family of David "Sonny" Hall, well-known Knott county man, over a period of seven years claimed the life Friday of his third son to be killed by an automobile or truck.

Friday's victim was 43-year-old Arthur Hall, of Dema, who was crushed to death beneath a coal truck which left Ky. 7, near Hall's home, in the vicinity of the Floyd-Knott line, and dropped over an embankment onto him. Hall died as he was cutting weeds along the ditchline, a short distance from his home.

Other members of the David Hall family who have died within the last few years include his wife, his daughter, Mrs. Carl Allen and Buster Turner, a son-in-law. Turner was accidentally electrocuted at his home, near Northern.

Maynard Hall, 20, Dema neighbor of the victim in last week's tragedy, said he was driving up Beaver Creek following another coal truck which cut left to avoid striking a boy in the roadway. At the same time an oncoming truck cut outside to avoid a collision, and Maynard Hall said he was confronted with the task of trying to miss both the truck and child by cutting to his right and attempting to go up a driveway.

He missed the driveway, hit the ditchline, and the truck overturned. His truck traveled 49 feet from the point where it left the road to where Hall was hit, it was said.

Not until Arthur Hall's wife made inquiry as to his whereabouts was it learned that the truck had toppled onto him, it was said.

The victim was an employee of the Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company at its Beaver Creek compressor station at Dema. He is survived by his wife, several children, his father, two brothers and two sisters.

Lenna Alonzo Conley, 70, Bonanza Resident, Victim; Burial In Pruitt Cemetery

Lenna Alonzo Conley, 70, of Bonanza, died at 12:30 a. m., Saturday. Mr. Conley was a son of the late Samuel Clark Conley and Sarah Ellen Pieklesier Conley. His wife, Mrs. Collista Bell Harmon, to whom he was married Dec. 25, 1909, survives.

Surviving sons and daughters are Henry Martin Conley, of Cliff, Mrs. Ruby C. Osborne, of Buckingham, Mrs. Susan C. Akers, Lexington, Mrs. Sarah Margaret Calder, Louisville, Mrs. Lena Maxine Osborne, also of Buckingham, and Mrs. Estella Ruth Fletcher, Lexington. Two surviving sisters are Mrs. Ollie Hill, of Cliff, and Mrs. Grace Chatfield, Huntington. Seventeen grandchildren survive.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday at the Methodist Community Church at Cliff, the Rev. J. Baldwin Stiltz, Charlie Lemaster and Howard Church officiating. Burial was in the Pruitt cemetery on Abbott Creek under the direction of Carter & Callihan Funeral Home.

SCHOOL BOARD REVISES 5 DIVISION BOUNDARIES

Garrett Man Completes State Police Course

Jerry M. Combs, 28, Garrett, was among the 32 cadets who were graduated Friday in the 22nd class of the Kentucky State Police basic training school. An immediate-area graduate was Robert R. Morrison, 24, Paintsville.

Donald Lafferty, Garrett, recently finished the state police basic training in the 21st class. Also graduating with him, in a class of 30 cadets, Paul C. Fraim, former Weeksburg resident who now lives at Barnett's Creek in Johnson county near Paintsville.

SAVINGS, LOAN ASS'N OPENS

Begins Business Monday; Will Serve Nearby Area Of 300,000 Population

Floyd county's newest financial institution, the Floyd County Federal Savings & Loan Association, began operation here Monday morning with its opening in the DuRan Moore Building on Lake Drive.

Frank Harmon, formerly of Wayland, is secretary-treasurer and manager of the Association. Bert T. Combs, president of the Association, gave as its prime purpose the encouraging of savings and providing methods of financing, repairing or remodeling of homes. He added that the Association has been authorized to do business in a 50-mile radius of Prestonsburg.

"This is the only Association of this type between Paintsville and Pineville that covers an area with a population of 300,000," he said.

Officers in addition to Combs and Harmon, are Dr. Claude L. Allen, of Langley and Martin, and Glenn C. Spradlin, Martin and Prestonsburg, vice-presidents. The board of directors is composed of Association officers and the following: J. M. Turner, Ray Frayley, and M. E. Deering, of Wayland, Ogden Stewart and J. R. Camicia, both of Prestonsburg.

VFW Plans Encampment At Paducah, Stumbo Says; Memorial Service Slated

The 37th annual encampment of the Department of Kentucky VFW will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Paducah, it was announced this week by Kentucky VFW Department Commander E. H. (Ted) Stumbo, of Harold.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Department of Kentucky, VFW, will hold its 21st annual encampment at the same time and place.

A new feature of the encampment this year will be a memorial service Friday morning at the close of the opening session. Department Chaplain Harold Ledbetter, Madisonville, has arranged a program to honor deceased veterans.

Timothy J. Murphy, Boston, Mass., past national commander.

VOTERS HERE NOW INCLUDED IN DISTRICT 1

District Least Changed Is No. 2; Merger Here Leads To Redistricting

Boundaries of the five educational districts of this county were redrawn last week by the Floyd County Board of Education. Redistricting was mandatory due to the merger last year of the Prestonsburg independent school system with the county system.

All of the precincts making up the new educational districts are contiguous, it was pointed out, although no statute made that mandatory. The law directs only that the districts must be as nearly equal in population as possible. The next election for members of the Board of Education is November, next year, when elections will be held in District No. 1, of which James Greene is incumbent, and District No. 2, which Dr. J. H. Allen represents.

Districts No. 1 and 3, the latter represented by John M. Stumbo, of Harold, contain 11 precincts each. Dr. Allen's district now has 12 precincts, District No. 4, represented by Dr. W. D. Osborne, of Bypro, has 13 precincts and J. E. Campbell's No. 5 contains 14 precincts under the new set-up. Dr. J. H. Allen's district was the least changed, only Drift and Dwale precincts having been added to his district.

The new educational districts are composed of the following precincts: District No. 1—Prestonsburg No. 1, Prestonsburg No. 2, Depot, Auxier, Abbott Creek, Little Paint.

COOLEY SUIT IS DISMISSED

Special Judge See Says Summons Not Filed Till Time for Action Expired

Special Judge M. J. See, of Louisa, last Friday dismissed two actions taken by Floyd county against Circuit Clerk W. W. Cooley.

The first was an appeal of the county from the amount set by the Floyd fiscal court as due by Mr. Cooley on alleged excess salary or fees collected; the other was the suit filed recently to collect from the Clerk $17,000, the amount claimed as due from him.

Special Judge See's order dismissing the appeal and complaint said they were dismissed "for the reason that the record shows that summons was issued more than five years ago after the cause of action accrued and is therefore barred by the Statute of Limitation."

See had been designated special judge in this case as well as in the contest action filed by A. B. Meade vs. DuRan Moore and the Board of Election Commissioners.

16 IN COUNTY ISSUED FEDERAL RUM STAMPS

Sixteen businesses, clubs and individuals have had federal permits to sell intoxicating liquors in legally dry Floyd county during the fiscal year which ends Sunday.

This information, made available for publication here for the first time, was given The Times by Sheriff Gorman Collins after the list of those holding federal liquor stamps had been supplied him by the Kentucky Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control.

The record shows that the 16 possessing stamps this fiscal year is fewer by 9 than during the preceding year.

One of the 1956-57 permits, issued to Slone's Drive-In, Lancer, is for the retail of malt liquor (beer). All others issued cover only the usual run of alcoholic liquors.

Those having "liquor stamps," the Sheriff announced are: Johnnie Thornsby, Melvin; Truck Miners Association, Inc.; Hunter; Slone's Restaurant, Lancer; Ed Wright, Bypro; Floyd County Overseas Veterans Club, Inc., Prestonsburg; Napier's Grocery (Howard Slone), Lackey; Napier's Grocery (Ed Napier), Lackey; Neval Jones, Lackey; Dora Johnson, Bypro; Lark Hunt, Hunter; Fraternal Order of Eagles, Prestonsburg; Melvin Click, Lancer; Home Dispensary, Melvin; American Legion Club, Martin; Allen's Grocery and Restaurant, Garrett.

Possession of a federal liquor stamp gives a seller of liquor the status of a licensed retailer in the eyes of the federal government, even though sales are made in a dry county such as Floyd, it was explained. This leaves the dealers subject only to city or county prosecution under state law.

Family Man's Tax Load Lower For Canadians

Ottawa—The family man fared better income-tax-wise in Canada during 1956. The cash bonus paid by the Canadian government every month to families with children under 16 makes the big difference.

When these baby bonuses are subtracted from the Canadian's tax bill, as a general rule he pays less than his American counterpart.

The Canadian gets a $150 dependent's allowance per child on his tax return compared with the U. S. allowance of $600, but during the year he collects $5 to $8 per child each month from the national Government independent of the income tax.

Michigan State's 1956-57 basketball team played before crowds of more than 10,000 on 10 different occasions.

Exam For Postmaster At Melvin Slated

An examination for fourth-class postmaster for the post office at Melvin, which pays $2,514 a year, will be open for acceptance of applications until July 9, the U. S. Civil Service Commission has announced.

Complete information about the examination requirements and instructions for filing applications may be obtained at the post office for which this examination is being announced. Application forms must be filed with the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C. and must be received or postmarked not later than the closing date.

We Like This Promise Made By The Governor

Governor Chandler has had his share of criticism on matters great and small but surely he will receive his share of praise for the stand he took recently when he announced that he will use his full influence to induce the next General Assembly to repeal the absentee voting law except as the present law pertains to members of the armed forces.

When this reform is effected the absentee ballot law will have achieved its original purpose—to serve those who were away from home in the service of their country, and not necessarily as a matter of choice.

Not till this year did the law, as written, reach its full potentiality as a corrupting influence in Kentucky elections. Now it is apparent what can be done with the ballot under this law. In this case the letter of the law is not sufficient even to give a promise of honest balloting. The resulting furore has been heard in almost every county of the state.

We are glad that the furore was heard in Frankfort and that action early next year is promised.

Help Now Would Make Plans More Than Dreams

This idea of a Regional Planning Committee for Eastern Kentucky, with state funds supplying technical assistance, is encouraging, and The Times is glad the step has been taken. But we are far from convinced that the most skillful planning will enable the area itself or any certain community to lift itself by its own initiative and effort.

The plans that have long since been laid are fundamental, and without them all other planning will fail to achieve anything of great value to the region in our time. These are the plans for headwaters reservoirs to control floods and furnish an adequate water supply, with water transportation to grow out of that. Without these we talk progress for a valley (we speak here of the Big Sandy valley) that may be flooded any day or week or month; progress for an area that depends for transportation on one narrow, twisting main highway and one railroad that has taken such a narrow view of Eastern Kentucky's rights that the region's economy is ensnared.

Why talk of "Operation Bootstrap"? Two days before the Pikeville meeting at which the committee of 200 formally applied for a Regional Planning Committee, the House Appropriations Committee failed even to mention Big Sandy flood control.

That—unless the Senate corrects the injustice—leaves us without boots.

We are all for planning and for using the best brains and technical know-how available. We agree that more tourists should and can be attracted to the region, that diversified industry is needed. We agree that careful planning, even planning with the long-range view, is needed. Agriculture, conservation, scientific forestry methods, housing, a thriving tourist business—all are needed, and all are possible.

But first things must come first. Which gets us back to flood control, an adequate water supply and water transportation.

And that takes us back to the premise that, perhaps as much as planning, our present need is for a concentration of effort on these first things.

For we are faced with a situation wherein the boots on our collective feet must first of all be supplied by the federal government, and that federal government apparently is one which will spend millions to feed us if we are starving but would not supply a row-boat to rescue us from drowning.

The Times does not intend this to discourage the planning move that has been started. Planning is good. The cooperation of the state is needed, and it will be appreciated.

What we are trying to point out is this: Action now on the part of federal government will make our planning more than mere dreaming.

FULLBACK AT 5-FOOT-4

East Lansing, Mich. — Michigan State probably has the smallest fullback in the collegiate ranks. He is Hendricks (Henny) Young, brother of Buddy Young of Illinois fame. Henny is 5 foot 4 and weighs only 145. Spartan coaches believe he will make the varsity.

Four former Michigan State football players—Everett, Grandelius, Doug Weaver, John Polonchek and Gorgie Serr—are members of coach Duffy Daugherty's staff.

THE TRUTH ABOUT ABSENTEE VOTING

As your county court clerk, I have had the pleasure, to serve and to accommodate those persons who found that they would be unable to be in their precincts on the day of the election by issuing to them absentee ballots upon their signed and notarized affidavits that they expect to be absent from the county on election day. At no time have I nor my deputies abused the privilege of any absentee voter nor have we violated any of the laws as set out in Kentucky Revised Statute, Chapter 126, in regard to absentee voting. When a voter made his application, your clerk and his deputies, showed to him the same courtesy as I have always shown to any person requesting service from your clerk's office. With kindness and a willingness to help, we followed the law and issued the absentee voter his ballot.

One of my opponents in the recent primary election resorted to the low method of campaigning by slandering and abusing my wife in her duties as deputy clerk, and myself as your Clerk in one issue of the Floyd County Times. His objective was to confuse the minds of the voters and to mislead the candidates for various offices as to my honesty in serving you. He attacked the rights of legally, qualified voters and called their affidavits, "an illegal application for a ballot." These persons who applied do not deserve this kind of malicious criticism. These persons made sworn affidavits that they would be away from the county, these persons were ministers of the gospel, merchants, business men and women, college students, boys in service, and people from all walks of life. These persons go to make our government, our community, and our Christian nation, under God with Liberty, and Justice for all.

Because of this injustice, I want to bring to you good Floyd county people the requirements according to law of an absentee voter.

The statute, chapter 126 provides as follows:

1. Absent voter means any qualified voter who expects in the course of his business or duties to be absent from the county in which is situated his voting precinct on the day of holding any election.

2. Application for absent voter's ballots shall be signed and sworn to by the absent voter before the County Clerk, or before a civil officer authorized by law to administer an oath. (The application forms as used in your clerk's office is furnished by the Secretary of State, Frankfort, Kentucky).

3. Upon receipt of any application for an absent voter's ballot, the county clerk shall examine the registration books for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the applicant is a registered voter as stated in the application. If the county clerk finds that the applicant is so registered he shall forward a ballot to the voter.

4. The county clerk shall furnish for each precinct a list of names of all voters of that precinct to whom he has sent absent voter's ballots.

5. Proper and appropriate envelopes shall be printed and provided in such a form as required by law to each voter.

6. When the absent voter receives the ballot he shall go before some civil officer authorized by law to administer an oath and before him make and subscribe to the affidavit on the face of the envelope and shall in the presence of such officer AND NO ONE ELSE mark the ballot so as to indicate the way he desires to vote, but in such a manner as to prevent the officer from knowing how the ballot is marked or how he voted. He shall then, and while in the presence of the officer fold the ballot, and place same in the envelope as provided.

This is the part of the absentee voting Banner Meade tried to violate and tried vigorously with force and slander to prohibit my deputies from performing their required duties. In order to proceed with her duty and because I was out in the county campaigning, my wife had to request the Sheriff to remove Banner Meade from the clerk's office, so the absentee voter could vote his ballot as required by law.

7. Before sending an absent voter's ballot to an applicant, the clerk shall provide himself with one or more legal ballot boxes, and shall lock same in the presence of the election commissioners, and give the keys to said commissioners. This ballot box the clerk uses to deposit absentee ballots received. At the close of the polls on election day, the clerk turns the box over to the election commissioners. This was done as required by law by your clerk.

The above explanation to the voters and good people of Floyd county is for the purpose of correcting misleading propaganda as to the honesty and integrity of your clerk and deputies.

All requirements by law have been followed and no FRAUD has been shown as given in the Judgment in four orders entered by Special Judge See, who tried the injunction case filed by Meade attempting to disfranchise all absentee voters.

Your clerk's office is ready and willing to serve you. If you find that you expect to be away from the county on Nov. 5th for the General Election and you desire to cast your vote by absentee ballot, we shall be glad to furnish you with an application and assist you in the future as we have always in the past.

Qualifying rounds for the fifth annual E. R. Price Invitational golf tournament on the Wheelwright course this week-end must be completed Friday if the participant expects to enter the championship flight or vie for medalist honors.

Club officials have planned a many gala attractions to keep visiting linkmen occupied during the three-day affair. Highlights off the course will be a banquet and dance, Saturday evening.

HAZARD EVENT NEXT WEEK-END

The Invitational golf scene will switch to Hazard, next week-end, July 5-7, as the Perry county folks will roll out the carpet for the seventh annual Hazard tournament.

OSBORNE WITH VICTORS

Flat Gap's Charlie Osborne, the subject of a bitter feud between Western and Morehead for next season's basketball play, scored three points in Kentucky's surprising 91-71 victory over the Indiana All-Stars last Saturday night in Louisville. Osborne played four minutes in Kentucky third victory in 20 tries. His play for the East All-Stars in the East-West series has been outstanding.

KENTUCKY IS AGAIN TO HAVE SPLIT SQUIRREL SEASON IN '57

Frankfort, Ky., June 19 — Kentucky again will have a split squirrel season and the bag and possession limit will remain the same as last year, according to an announcement by the Fish and Wildlife Resources Commission.

Dates for most of the seasons and bag limits were announced by the Department following a meeting of the Commission recently. Seasons for deer, waterfowl and doves have not yet been set. The latter are set by the federal government while for deer the Commission is awaiting the findings of a survey on the deer herd.

The squirrel season will open on August 15 and continue through October 15. That will constitute the first phase, while the second part will open on November 20 and continue through December 17. The bag limit will be six a day or a total of 12 after two or more days of hunting.

Seasons for bobwhite and cottontail quail, grouse, or native pheasant, rabbit opossum, raccoon, mink, skunk, muskrat and red fox will open on November 20 and continue through January 18.

The bag limit for bobwhite or cottontail quail, will be ten singularly or in aggregate and the possession limit will be 20 after two or more days of hunting. The grouse bag limit is two or a possession limit of four after two or more days of hunting, while the rabbit take may be eight a day or a possession limit of 16. There is no bag limit on opossum, raccoon, mink, skunk, muskrat and red fox.

Opossum and raccoon may be taken with dog only from October 20 through November 18. This means that a coon may be taken on the ground by a dog but may not be shaken from a tree nor may the hunter climb a tree to force out the game.

In addition, coon hunters are given a training season for their dogs beginning September 1 and continuing through October 19. Neither opossum nor coon may be taken during this period in any manner.

Jerome R. Shepherd, 84, Former Greenup Judge, Floyd-Co. Native, Dies

Jerome R. Shepherd, Floyd county native who became County Judge of Greenup county and a Democratic leader in Greenup for many years, died Tuesday at the age of 84 at the home of his son, R. S. Shepherd, South Shore, Ky.

A son of Jake and Sarah Curburn Shepherd, he was a native of the Middle Creek section of the county. He moved to Greenup county about 60 years ago. After serving as a deputy sheriff there, he was elected County Judge in 1933, and for the last 15 years had been Greenup county Democratic chairman.

A sister, Mrs. Jim Ratliff, of Hueysville, is among his survivors who also include another son, Hager Shepherd, Dayton, Ky., six grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Funeral rites were conducted today (Thursday) at the Fullerton Church of Christ, and burial was made in Mount Zion cemetery near South Shore.

William H. Ratliff, 55, Of David, Victim Here; Burial, Cooley Cemetery

William H. Ratliff, 55, of David, died at the Prestonsburg General hospital, Friday at 10 p.m. of a heart attack. He had been ill over a year, seriously so two months.

Mr. Ratliff was a son of the late S. P. and Rebecca Allen Ratliff and the husband of Grace Marshall Ratliff who survives. He had been an employe of Princess Elkhorn Coal Company for 17 years. He was a member of the Regular Baptist Church.

Surviving sons are Charles Ratliff, U. S. Navy, in Germany, T. F. Ratliff, and Billy Ratliff, both of David and Gordon Ratliff of Prestonsburg. Surviving brothers and sisters are John (Bogie) Ratliff, Hillsboro, O., Allen (Dock) Ratliff, of Langley, Jack Ratliff, of Wayland, Mrs. Rebecca Click of Eastern, Mrs. Lucinda Ratliff, in Indiana, and Mrs. Susan Adkins, Sidney, O. Funeral rites were conducted Monday at the Wilson Creek Regular Baptist church, the Revs. M. C. Wright, Banner Manns and Bert Howard officiating. Burial was made in the Cooley cemetery at Eastern under the direction of Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

Trainers Jim Fitzsimmons and Jimmy Jones who train Bold Ruler and Gen. Duke, respectively, both believe that about 10 horses will be in the running for the 3-year-old crown this year.

SPORTS AFIELD

It is a fact that many owners of outboard motorboats are not getting the performance they should from their modern outfits. Even at sub-par, new outboard boats may perform so much better than the outboards of yesterday that a don't-know and don't-care situation has developed not only among new owners says Sports Afield magazine's Boating Editor Willard Crandall.

Performance is simply speed and handling on turns and in rough water. Comfort enters into the picture, too. It is important to remember, says Crandall, that under-par performance can easily become poor or unsafe for those who can't recognize it.

First and foremost in any consideration of performance is not only how much weight is carried aboard, but just where it is placed. This is obvious in the case of most small-motor boats that cut through the water instead of planing. Too much weight forward, and the bow may cut in dangerously and the propeller may even come out of water. Shift the weight aft, and the stern will sink way down. Move toward one side and the boat leans. Weight distribution is every bit as important with slow-moving boats as with fast, big-motor craft.

Outboard runabouts are now being introduced that have been designed to carry weight amidship or forward. Most of these handle as well with the passengers toward the bow, but some don't. Most of them still go a little faster with the weight aft. An exception is the boat with only just enough power to plane. For increased speed, the weight may then have to be moved forward.

A lean with a slow boat makes it handle badly. A planing boat leaning to one side loses speed even though the amount of tilt never looks like much. Even if the weight is exactly centered a boat will lean because of the torque of the engine propeller. This is one good reason to have the steering wheel located on the proper side. Generally this is the right-hand side, but the propellers of some outboard motors rotate in the opposite directions.

$467,000 Loan Approved For Hindman Phone Firm

Washington, March 28 — Senators Cooper and Morton announced that the Rural Electrification Administration had approved a $467,000 loan for Thacker-Grisby Telephone Company, Hindman, Ky.

The plan is to extend telephone service to 772 new subscribers and improve service to 183 present subscribers.

The company, headed by Robert Thacker, also plans new dial central offices at Cody and Mousie, Ky., and a combination central office and commercial building at Hindman.

Morton and Cooper said the loan also is to help finance construction of 133 miles of new telephone lines for the rural telephone system.

MOORE IS CLEARED OF VOTE FRAUD

(From Huntington Advertiser)

PRESTONSBURG, Ky. — Du-Ran Moore, incumbent Floyd county clerk, was cleared today of fraud charges filed by one of his two opponents in May's primary election.

Special Judge M. J. See, appointed by the Kentucky Court of Appeals to hear the case, ruled today that no fraud was committed in connection with the handling of the absentee ballots in the May 28 election and ordered that those not contested be counted.

A. B. Meade, Moore's opponent, filed fraud charges after the regular voting showed he was 95 votes ahead of Moore. He also obtained an injunction against W. B. Boyd, Woodrow Fitzpatrick and Gorman Collins, election commissioners, restraining them from counting the absentee ballots until a ruling was made.

Moore Wins By 24
After Judge See's decision today, 301 of the 391 absentee ballots were counted. Moore received 190 votes to Meade's 71, making Moore the winner by 24 votes. The third man in the race Ray Howard garnered 37 votes from the absentee ballots.

The final tabulation gave Moore 4,387 votes to Meade's 4,363. Howard received 2,911.

Eighty-four absentee ballots were contested and not counted. The county clerk nominees were not listed on the remaining six ballots.

Judge See also ordered Meade to pay court costs in the suit. (Adv.)

Bituminous Production Down for Half Year

WASHINGTON.—The National Coal Association Tuesday estimated bituminous production for the week ended June 15 as approximately 10,295,000 tons against 10,020,000 tons for the period ended June 8.

Production for the corresponding week in 1956 was 10,122,000 tons.

Production for the January 1-June 15 period was estimated at 232,065,000 tons compared with 232,563,000 tons a year ago.

FLOYD COUNTY NATIVE FINDS COURT CASE LOAD IS LIGHT

Most courts these days complain of crowded calendars, but business is slow at the International Court of Justice at the Hague in which Green Hackworth, native Floyd countian, is president.

The court, established in 1946 as a top organ of the United Nations, has been asked to settle only 17 international disputes. And it was unable to act in a substantial number of these because some of the parties refused to accept jurisdiction.

In addition to the so-called continuous cases handled by the 15-judge tribunal, it has delivered 11 advisory opinions, including 10 at the request of the U. N. General Assembly.

But the court has been far from busy. Its president acknowledges that 17 cases are not many in the postwar era with its many tensions. He says:

"No one is more conscious than the court itself that its services are not being utilized to the extent envisaged by the framework of the charter.

"The court would be glad if it were faced with a full calendar of cases and were thus enabled to play a greater role in the adjustment of international disputes."

Admitting that the court is still in its infancy, he concedes that the trouble stems from "a disinclination of some states to appear before the court which they helped to create." He hopes this feeling may gradually disappear.

The court is open to all 81 members of the U. N. and to any other countries, such as West Germany and Switzerland, which have accepted its jurisdiction. So far only 33 have accepted compulsory jurisdiction. The Soviet Union is represented in the court by a judge, but no country in the Soviet bloc has agreed to compulsory jurisdiction.

The only time an Iron Curtain country appeared was when Britain sued Albania for reparations for mining British destroyers in the Corfu Channel. Albania was ordered to pay $2,400,000 compensation but never did.

The United States sued four Soviet satellites for reparations for plane incidents, but all refused to appear. The court had to drop the four cases.

The court's best clients have been Britain and France, each with five cases. In one of these, Britain called on the tribunal to resolve her dispute with Chile and Argentina over the Antarctic. The two Latin-American countries refused to appear.

The most publicized dispute to reach the world court was the nationalization of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company. Iran challenged the court's jurisdiction and was upheld by a 9-5 vote.

In an advisory opinion, requested by the General Assembly, the court held that the U. N. could claim compensation for agents killed or injured in their U. N. work. This opinion was asked following the assassination of Count Folke Bernadotte, the U. N. Palestine mediator.

The court sits in the former Temple of Peace, built by the late Andrew Carnegie at a cost of 1 1/2 million dollars.

The court room, in which the black-robed judges hear oral arguments in English and French from leading world lawyers, is dominated by a huge painting of peace intervening in conflict. It also has four stained-glass windows showing the struggle and hopes of mankind and the final victory of peace.

The judges are elected by the U. N. General Assembly and Security Council on a geographic basis. They are outstanding authorities on international law, some of them jurists and some diplomats.

The court costs the U. N. $600,000 a year. More than half that goes to the judges in salaries and allowances.

Hackworth, the American judge, was born 74 years ago. He is a former solicitor and adviser in the U. S. State Department.

spring, Jackson said. He remarked that the orphan and dependent boys have "really blossomed out," thanks largely to the way the nearby community of Gilbertsville has "opened up its heart."

Starting from scratch in July with eight tents for housing, Allphin said the camp by fall had such permanent structures as a barracks, mess hall and bath house. The boys are responsible for general upkeep of the buildings.

Allphin said the summertime is devoted to work and recreation like boating, swimming, and fishing and wintertime mostly to instruction, both at the camp and public schools.

He said the number of boys is expected to increase to 36 later. "We send them out when they can be good risks, said Allphin. "And we've never had a boy that didn't want to go."

A staff of eight men from the welfare department, headed by superintendent Carl Monhollen, supervise the camp.

HOUK EXPLAINS
 Denver, Colo. — Ralph Houk, manager of the Denver Bears of the Class AAA American Association, has his own explanation as to why he was named the Puerto Rican baseball league's No. 1 manager of 1957.

"It was a five-team league," Houk explains. "Two of the managers got fired, one finished below me and the other one hit a sportswriter. "That left me for the award."

AT AUCTION

75 Head of Choice Holstein Cows and Heifers

Saturday, June 29 at 1:00 p.m. (D.S.T.)

I will sell at my barn, located 12 miles west of Frankfort, 8 miles East of Shelbyville at Peytona on U. S. 60, the following:

15 Holstein cows, some fresh and the rest to freshen in July and August. 6 fresh Guernsey cows. These cows are T.B. and Bangs tested and calf-hood vaccinated. These are young cows and were selected with care for their producing ability.

Also 30 Holstein heifers, weighing from 1200 to 1300 lbs., to be fresh in August. 10 Holstein heifers weighing around 500 lbs and 10 four month old heifers. All are calf-hood vaccinated. These heifers have plenty breeding and production behind them.

This is as nice a herd of cows and heifers that has ever been sold in Shelby county. If in need of clean, high-producing Dairy cows and heifers, be sure to attend this auction where choice cows are a business and not a side line.

Sale held in Sale Pavilion.

Our sad-faced friend is Bill McGoo,
 Who thought he'd bought a car brand-new;
 And while he got a "special deal"
 His disappointment he can't conceal!
 While others drive in Swept-Wing style
 Poor Bill just mutters curses vile:
 "They got new styling, features, too—
 "I bought a 'deal'—boo-hoo, boo-hoo!"

Moral: Yesterday's looks and features are no bargain at any price!

No car is a bargain if it's obsolete in styling and engineering features. And the Swept-Wing Dodge actually obsoletes other cars in its field with its low, low look of tomorrow and revolutionary advances like Torsion-Aire Ride, Push-Button TorqueFlite and Total-Contact Brakes. So don't get "bargain-talked" into yesterday's styling and features. The same money buys the car that's years ahead. See your Dodge dealer. Join the swing to the Swept-Wing Dodge.

Last Rites Conducted For Collision Victim; Seven Others Injured

Services were held last Thursday for Conley Sowards, 17-year-old Dorton high school freshman, who died the previous Tuesday at a Pikeville hospital from injuries suffered in a two-car collision which injured seven other persons Sunday, June 16, on U. S. 23 near Virgie.

He was the son of Johnny Sowards who is an employe of Inland Steel Company at Wheelwright, and the grandson of Mrs. Nancy Little Hall, Wheelwright.

Officers said the mishap occurred on a straight stretch of highway and that both vehicles were heavily damaged. Information available here indicated the seven survivors are in fair condition at hospitals in the area or have been released after treatment.

State Police reported Sowards was one of five in a 1949-model sedan driven south by Donie Adkins, 18. Adkins was cited for driving with defective brakes and without a license.

The driver of the other vehicle, a northbound 1953-model sedan, was listed as Gary Mullins, 20.

Officers said his passengers were Jeffro Maggard, 21, and Jimmy Maggard, 22, owner of the car. The relationship of the Maggards was not listed.

Officers reported the passengers with Adkins and Sowards were Gary Wright, Reuben Branham, and Darryl Belcher, all 18.

Survivors besides his father and grandmother, include his mother, Mrs. Lissie Little Sowards; and two brothers, Frank Sowards, Pikeville, and Eugene Sowards, at home; three sisters, Mrs. Juanita Mullins, Detroit, Mrs. Helen Cable, Lorraine, Ohio, and Miss Nancy Louise Sowards, at home.

Mrs. Amy Sammons, 69, Of Martin, Dies June 18; Burial On Arkansas-Cr.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the home for Mrs. Amy Sammons, 69, of Martin who died at her home, June 18. A heart condition was given as the cause of death which came after an illness of four years.

A member of the Church of Christ for 40 years, she was the wife of Bill Sammons and the daughter of Jeff and Susan Click Crum.

Survivors, in addition of the husband, include six sons, Millard, Paul, Hearlie, Jason, Henry and Jack Sammons, all of Martin; four daughters, Mrs. Flora O'Brian, Martin, Misses Judy, Inis and Beva Sammons, all at home; four brothers, Dave, Tom, Oscar and K. C. Crum, all of Martin; four sisters, Mrs. Sarah Ellen Sammons, Mrs. Margaret Conn, Mrs. Fanny Robinson, all of Martin, and Mrs. Cora Spears, Banner; and seventeen grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

The services were conducted by the Revs. Henry Parsons and Leonard Webb. Burial was made in the Sammons cemetery on Arkansas Creek under the direction of Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to thank everyone who in any way assisted us upon the occasion of the death of Mrs. Flora Banks. To those who offered flowers, to the ministers, Revs. Wallace Calhoun and Alex Stephens, and to the Moore Funeral Home for its fine service our appreciation is extended.

The Family

Grace-Bond Vows Solemnized

The Community Methodist Church in Arlington, Virginia was the scene of the marriage, June 8, of Miss Ernestine Grace, daughter of Mrs. William J. Grace, of Arlington, Va., to Ensign Charles Stephen Bond, son of Mrs. Oscar P. Bond, of Lexington, Ky.

The Rev. H. Wark Curry, officiated at the double-ring ceremony which took place at 4:00 p.m. Floral arrangements of lavender snapdragons and white gladioli graced the altar, and on each side of the chancel were baskets of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and carnations.

Escorted by her brother, Mr. Rex Coleman Grace, of Detroit, Mich., the bride wore a chapel-length gown of silk bombazine in pearl white. It was fashioned with a portrait neckline and fitted sleeves which formed calla lily points at the wrists. The bodice was delicately etched with seed pearls and opalescents. She carried a bouquet of Cattleya orchids from which fell ribbons of stephanotis.

The bride's cousin, Mrs. Buck Lambdin, Bel Air, Md., was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Spaulding Russell, of Chattanooga, Tennessee, Mrs. James Mahoney, Wilmington, Del., Mrs. John D. Crouch, and Miss Dorothy Bass, of Arlington, Va. Their gowns were floor-length orchid crystalettes fashioned along princess lines above bouffant skirts, accentuated by headpieces of matching orchid silk face veils which fell from braided tulle bands trimmed with seed pearls. Their short white gloves were embroidered with seed pearls and they carried nosegays of Dendrobium Phalaenopsis orchids.

The best man and five of his ushers were classmates of the bridegroom and were graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md. class of 1957. Second Lieutenant Charles M. Houtz, of Dallas, Pa., served as best man; the ushers who formed the ceremonial arch of crossed swords through which the bride and her bridegroom left the church were Lt. (j. g.) Joseph P. Cosgrove, Aurora, Ill.; Ensigns Sherwood Ritchie of Lillian, Va.; William N. Leslie, Arlington, Va.; John E. Bartocci, Brooklyn N. Y.; and Second Lieutenants Paul C. Hamilton, Vashon Island, Wash., and Norman E. Gammons, Cowan, Tenn. The groom, best man and ushers wore their full dress white service uniforms.

The mother of the bride wore a street-length navy blue tailored dress and a corsage of Phalaenopsis orchids. Her accessories were navy blue with white elbow length gloves trimmed with pearl buttons.

The groom's mother was attired in a dove-grey jersey dress with matching gloves and pink accessories. She wore a Cattleya orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Bucholz in Kensington, Maryland. Following a wedding trip through New England, the newlyweds will make their home in Pensacola, Florida where the bridegroom is assigned to the U. S. Naval Air Station during flight training.

The bride and groom were graduated from Pineville high school, Pineville, Ky., and both attended George Washington University in Washington, D. C. Until her marriage, the bride was employed by the Federal Communication Commission.

MOORE FILES ANSWER AND COUNTER-CLAIM

DuRan Moore, Democratic nominee for County Court Clerk of Floyd County filed his answer, counter-claim and cross-complaint today June 22, with the Floyd Circuit Court Clerk in answer to the contest suit filed by Meade June 12.

Moore specifically denied the allegations set forth in Meade's contest suit and alleged that Meade's contest suit was not filed in the Circuit Clerk's office within the prescribed time as required by the statute, that action taken on the previous hearing by Special Judge See is a full and complete bar; thus meaning Meade has already had his chance in court in which the court has said Meade failed to prove any fraud on the part of the Democratic nominee DuRan Moore or his deputies.

Moore also alleged in his answer to the contest suit filed by Meade that said Banner Meade violated the Corrupt Practice Act as set out by Statute KRS: 123, which forbids the intimidation and bribery of votes by money, promises or other things of value, in that said Meade expended more than the $1,000.00 permitted by law, but had expended the sum of some $40,000.00 to intimidate, to bribe, and influence voters; and because of this violation, said Meade is prevented from maintaining this contest suit against DuRan Moore.

DuRan Moore, Democratic nominee for County Court Clerk, in addition to his answer to Meade's contest suit filed with the Circuit Court Clerk his motion to dismiss said contest.

Miss Reed, Mr. Lowry Wed June 18

The marriage of Miss Phyllis Jane Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Reed, Drift, Ky., and Mr. Donald Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Lowry, Berea, O., was solemnized at 7 p.m., June 18.

The candlelight ceremony was conducted from Lindsay-Crossman Memorial Chapel, Baldwin-Wallace College, Berea, O., by Dr. William McLeod. The chapel was decorated with white gladioli and pom-pom chrysanthemums. The altar scene was illumined by two sets of candelabra, each bearing seven candles.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of hand-clipped Chantilly lace over taffeta, with fitted bodice, portrait neckline and long sleeves that ended in calla points. Her skirt was accented on both sides by lace appliques on wide tulle panels, with sweep train. Her fingertip-length veil was of silk illusion with face-framing shell of lace, trimmed with seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of pink roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Donald Kelly, sister of the bride, who was matron of honor, wore a ballerina-length gown of silk organza in orchid, with shoes to match, a small headband of the same material as her gown, and white kid gloves. She carried a cascade of white carnations touched with pink.

Costume of the bridesmaid, Miss Patricia Apryle, was identical to that of the matron of honor. She carried pink carnations.

Mr. Bob-Bill Lowry, brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Mr. Paul James and Mr. Don Kelly.

The nuptial music program included the vocal solo, "Oh, Perfect Love" by Mrs. R. W. Ankrum, Williamson, W. Va., a sister of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Lamda Chi Alpha fraternity house.

The bride is a junior at Baldwin-Wallace College, where she is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta social sorority. Mr. Lowry was graduated from Baldwin-Wallace, June 16. He is a member of Lamda Chi Alpha fraternity.

Mrs. Flora B. Banks Dies At Water Gap Residence, Victim of Heart Attack

Mrs. Flora Baisden Banks, 69, of Water Gap, wife of Ed Banks, well-known Bull Creek man, died at 6 a.m., Friday at home of a heart attack. She had been ill several years.

Mrs. Banks was born in Lenore, W. Va., the daughter of the late John Smith Baisden and Martha Wills Baisden Wright, of Water Gap. She was a member of the United Baptist Church.

Surviving, besides her husband, are three daughters and a son: Mrs. Norman Martin, Prestonsburg, Mrs. Beverly Burchett, of Water Gap, Mrs. Thomas Kuss, Hampton, Va., and Harry A. Banks, Pikeville. One brother, Harry Baisden, Oak Hill, O., and a half-brother, Elder Wright, of Water Gap, also survive, as do five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday at 1 p.m., at the United Baptist Church at Water Gap, the Revs. Wallace Calhoun and Alex Stephens officiating. Burial was made in the family cemetery under the direction of the Moore Funeral Home.

The NCAA championship North Carolina basketball team had seven individual records last season. Six were made by Lenny Rosenbluth, the other by Pete Brennan.

Retiring Admiral Gets High-School Diploma

Monroe, La. — Rear Admiral Hugh H. Goodman, who retired recently, was graduated from high school this year.

Goodman, commander of Naval forces, Continental Air Defense Command at Colorado Springs, spoke at graduation exercises of Neville High School, successor to the Monroe City school he had attended.

After completing 11 grades, he quit in 1917 to join the Navy. He took a competitive examination for Annapolis and was graduated in 1922.

Forty years after he left here, the State Department of Education checked his records and found he had enough credits to be graduated.

After receiving his diploma as a member of the high-school class of 1918, he headed for Colorado Springs and retirement.

JUDGE SEE OVERRULES AMENDMENTS TO INJUNCTION

In the injunction that was filed by A. B. Meade in the Floyd Circuit Court Clerk's office, June 3, 1957, against the Floyd County Election Commissioners to prevent the counting of the absentee ballots, Special Judge See of Louisa dismissed Meade's complaint because no fraud was shown, as charged by Meade, by the proof taken on the trial of this case and ordered the Election Commissioners to proceed with the count.

On June the 21st Judge See heard arguments by the attorneys for Meade and Moore on the motion as filed by Meade on June 15th to amend Judge See's final judgment. Said motion to amend states as follows: "The finding of fact and judgment in this cause shall in no way preclude a trial of the issues which may be made in a general contest case over the result of the primary election in the race for County Court Clerk complained of in this action."

After hearing arguments, Judge See dismissed the motion to amend his judgment. This is the 4th decision handed down by Special Judge M. J. See in favor of DuRan Moore, the Democratic nominee for county court clerk of Floyd county and in each instance the Judge indicated that there was no fraud committed by DuRan Moore or any of his deputies. (Adv.)

NARROW ESCAPE

Ernest Turner, manager of the Drift Theatre, is deeply indebted to a little girl who called him last Saturday evening to inquire when the show would open. He had been outside watching a ditchline that the rain had almost filled. The phone rang, a child's voice asked when the show would start and he had barely replied, "7:15" when he reeled back from a blinding flash of lightning and a deafening clap of thunder.

Realizing that the bolt must have struck nearby, he walked back outside—and there, on the very spot where he had stood a few minutes earlier, was a 75-pound block of limestone coping which the lightning had hurled from the top of the building.

13,800 AND A PAPER PARK

The Kentucky Department of Public Relations at Frankfort informs The Times that Dewey Lake State Park enjoyed its all-time high attendance Sunday, June 16, when more than 13,800 persons visited there.

The news release adds, "The visitors were not overnight guests."

And we add: "If they had been overnight guests, 13,800 persons would have slept out under the stars (if the weather was clear)." For the simple reason that Dewey Lake State Park, with the exception of a swimming area, is in the same category as the fabled roc. Both exist only on paper.

The state has built a road from Dewey Dam to Hager Gap, and that road has been closed throughout the winter and spring by an earthslide. A road still is used from Hager Gap on to Goble Branch. From the Prestonsburg end a road leads to the boat dock and down to the Stratton Branch area, the only developed spot on the lake. There is no road whatsoever to the Arrowhead Point section which once was mentioned as the probable location of vacation cottages and a lodge.

Dewey is a beautiful lake: beautiful water, wooded hillsides, beautiful sky overhead. For beauty Kentucky Lake cannot approach it. Few we have ever seen surpass it.

The lake is there, all the natural advantages are there. And the people over a great section of Kentucky are here to join visitors from other sections of the Commonwealth and from other states in the enjoyment of Dewey Lake State Park—when, and if, it does become what its name implies.

They tell us permanent buildings can't be built till a road is built. We'll buy that; it stands to reason. But why no road, why no earnest effort to make it a park?

Material To Repair Tooth Enamel Tested

Chicago — Dental researchers report that developments now in the research stage will make dental treatment better and more comfortable. Among them are remineralizing agents applied to the teeth to repair weakened enamel before cavities can start, anti-enzyme agents to prevent decay, a filling material to stimulate in the repaired tooth the formation of secondary dentin, the substance underneath the enamel layer, and another that would "grow" to the tooth surface and actually help ward off future decay.

THREE FACTORS CAUSING LOWER STRAWBERRY PRICES

Lower strawberry prices noted by many Kentucky growers in 1957 were mainly due to three factors, the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station agricultural economics department says. The department listed them as (1) low quality; (2) large supplies of stored frozen berries from the 1956 crop; and (3) the later spring 1956 crop. Prices for good quality berries this year were about the same, as for the same quality berries in 1956, the department noted. "Kentucky acreage has but little influence in setting the price of berries in the national market," the economists noted. Twelve other states produce strawberries for the same mid-spring market on which Kentucky berries are sold. Kentucky produced only about five per cent of the mid-spring crop in 1956. Preliminary reports indicate Kentucky's strawberry production was less in 1957 than in 1956. Low quality of Kentucky early market berries was caused by late frost damage heavy rainfall and hail damage, plus continued drought conditions in some areas after late frost damage. Frozen strawberry stocks in April were at an all-time high; and an unusual spring contributed considerably to price variations.

"Higher prices for strawberries in 1958 may result if the usual pattern is followed by producers all over the U. S. A large number of producers commonly get in after a season of high prices and get out two or three years after a season or two of lower prices. For instance, in 1951, prices dropped below the level of several years; in 1952, Kentucky acreage declined 1,100 acres. "These 'inners - and - outers' seldom learn how to produce strawberries efficiently. Some producers have learned, through several years of experience to reduce their costs through good production practices and good management. Such producers will do a good job of renovating their old patches this season as soon as berries are through the harvest period. Kentucky producers may well be rewarded if they will try to go contrary to the national trend by renovating their strawberry patches this year and by setting out new plants next spring," they said.

Lower strawberry prices in most of Kentucky this year were mainly due to low quality; a large supply of stored frozen berries; and the late spring, the economists said. Low quality berries on the early market were the principal cause of low early prices, it was said; late frost damage, heavy rainfall and hail damage were the main causes of low quality in Kentucky production. Drought conditions in some areas also caused crop damage. The economists noted that strawberry prices "are little affected" by amount of Kentucky production; the state produces only a small fraction of mid-spring strawberries, and an even smaller fraction of the total U. S. crop. Also, 12 other states have a marketing season coinciding generally with Kentucky's.

Capitol Notebook

Frankfort, June 25 — A good source of advice and information for the Commonwealth's war veterans is Director R. R. Thomas of the Kentucky Disabled Ex-Service Men's Board. Thomas sends out news releases almost every week advising veterans or their survivors of rights, benefits and responsibilities under federal law in such things as pensions, jobs, social security, and medical treatment. Thomas' office is at 1405 West Broadway, Louisville.

THIS WEEK'S QUOTE
"Hard work, blood and sweat and endurance alone will not suffice. It is also not enough to expand existing businesses and consolidate only present programs. New ideas, new products and services, and changed ways of living must be combined to overcome or go around many of the obstacles which confront economic development in Eastern Kentucky."—Lt. Gov. Harry Lee Waterfield in a talk at Pikeville.

PINK POODLES
For the rare Kentuckian who doesn't like horses, the Lexington Junior League Horse Show will have other attractions. For instance, there'll be pretty pink poodles with rhinestone collars. Mrs. William H. P. Robertson, general horse show chairman, says the poodles, brought by several "beautiful girls always show up. We don't know who they are. And last year, there was a green one." (Green poodle, not girl). Then, for the children, there'll be a hitch of six coal black ponies. So, say the Junior League girls, the horse show (July 8-13) is a "show" in the strictest showbusiness definition of the word, with music, parades, and a gay atmosphere which will be enjoyable to even those who know nothing about horses.

RECOLLECTIONS
I recall the superstition that if a girl swallows a thimblefull of salt before going to bed she'll dream about her sweetheart. I tried it one time and all I did was wake up thirsty.—Miss A. T. Ashland.

I recall when walnut, oak and hickory bark and elder berries were used to dye clothing.—Old Timer, Owensboro. (This column invites contributions of similar short items of Kentucky folk lore and memorabilia. Contributors will be sent a copy of In Kentucky Magazine. Address: Recollections, Ky. Dept. of Public Relations, Capitol Annex, Frankfort, Ky.)

HOSPITALITY IN PERSON
Your friend, the Kentucky State trooper, is on duty to protect you and serve you. He is as anxious to provide information or assistance to you when you need help as he is determined to enforce the traffic laws and regulations designed to keep Kentucky highways safe for you to travel.

SPEECH CLINICS
The state is expanding its speech clinic program for children. For the program during the 1957-58 fiscal year, $26,280 has been set aside, compared with $15,040 for the current year. The money comes from the emergency fund of Gov. A. B. Chandler, who started the program. The additional funds will enable the program to have three speech therapists next year instead of one, as now. Under the program, clinics are provided to study and correct children's speech defects. The work is administered by the Kentucky Crippled Children's Commission.

Prestonsburg Men Made Instructors At Reserve Camp

The 364th Heavy Construction Battalion of Ashland and companies A&B of Morehead and Prestonsburg arrived at Camp Breckinridge June 16 for two weeks' annual training. The 364th Battalion is a part of the 387th Group with headquarters in Louisville. The mission of the unit during the first week is to provide instruction and maintain one of the six military specialty schools. The unit is conducting an automotive driver first echelon maintenance school. Instructors are 1st Lieut James May, Co. B, Prestonsburg; 1st Lieut. Wesley Smith, Ashland; Lieut. Kenneth Baldoek, Ashland; Sp/3 F. D. Osborn, Prestonsburg; SP/2 Leroy Hall, Morehead; Pvt. Jessie Adkins, Morehead; Sgt. Earl Alderman, Morehead; Sgt. Gene Ross, Ashland; M/Sgt. Alfred Yakubowski, Ashland; Sgt. Charles Felty, Ashland; SP/3 Paul Messer, Prestonsburg, and Pfc. Charles Phillips, Morehead. The recreational part of summer camp is highlighted by a trip to Kentucky Lake in military buses supplied by Major William H. Nelson, of Ashland. Members of the unit will return to their home stations June 30 after two weeks of educational, recreational and physical training.

Thurman Reports Drop in Workmen Insurance Rates

Frankfort, June 24 (Spl.) — Kentucky Insurance Commissioner C. P. Thurman has announced that there will be an average 6.7 per cent decrease in workmen's compensation insurance rates, effective June 30. He estimated savings to Kentucky policyholders will be in excess of $600,000, even though additional workmen's compensation benefits were enacted during the last legislative session. The change applies to all Kentucky industries except coal mining, which was reviewed separately before Jan. 1, Thurman said. He explained the rate reductions were filed by the National Council on Compensation Insurance, a rating organization. All companies writing workmen's compensation insurance in Kentucky report premium writings and losses to the council and the writings are listed as basis for the rates, Thurman said. Kentucky industries, other than coal mining, are divided into three groups for statistical and rating purposes. Thurman said average changes by industry group are: manufacturing, 10.1 per cent decrease; contracting, 2.0 per cent decrease; all other 7.6 percent decrease. With each group the change will vary from the average classification, depending upon the volume and character of the particular classification experience. Certain classes have sufficient volume to warrant considerable "credibility" or weight be given their experience, whereas other classes with little volume are modified according to the overall average experience indication, Thurman said.

KENTUCKY IS WAGING BATTLE AGAINST OAK-KILLING FUNGUS

Kentucky's oak trees are threatened by a fungus disease that is spreading westward across the state.

The Kentucky Division of Forestry cautions against undue alarm, however. It has been fighting the disease—known as oak wilt—for years and believes victory may be at hand.

The latest round in the battle began recently at Hazard, where key forestry personnel attended a special training school conducted by Harry Nadler, associate director in charge of forest management.

The school will be followed shortly by a state-wide survey. Then "control teams" will be sent out to combat the disease where found.

Nadler said the disease is definitely not similar to the blight that wiped out chestnut trees several decades ago. "It is a slow mover," he said, "and we hope to lick it before it moves far."

Until 1956 the disease had been found in only 13 counties. Last year it entered 14 new counties. The number of cases increased from 73 in 1955 to 232 last year, almost all of them in the east.

Preliminary reports indicate the wilt has now invaded Central Kentucky, with "traces" found in Western Kentucky. Nadler said it will be several months before full details of the advance are known.

The Breathitt-Perry counties area has been hit hardest, Nadler said, with 162 cases known there last year. The area has been made a place of permanent study to find how the disease spreads and how it may be controlled.

The fungus has been found to enter the roots or wounds in the tree then, spread in the sapwood under the bark. It kills by clogging water-conducting capillaries. Other varieties of trees are not affected.

Nadler said the disease was combated in the past by cutting all oaks within 50 feet of an infected tree. This expensive method has now been abandoned, with only the diseased tree being cut.

It then is sawed into logs, which are sprayed to kill the fungus. The stump is stripped and poison is applied to prevent it from sprouting new roots.

Experts do not know, said Nadler, how the fungus is spread. The "traces" found in Western Kentucky might have come from another state, he said, or spores may have been carried by the wind.

"It could be a very serious problem," Nadler emphasized. About 50 per cent of the volume of timber marketed in Kentucky is oak.

The value of oak timber cut in Kentucky each year is estimated at $25,000,000. There are 11 billion feet of salable oak timber in the state in an area of six million acres.

HEALTH NOTES
By Floyd County Health Department

"Start fighting those pesky mosquitoes before they start full-scale attacks on you and your family," John M. Stumbo, sanitarian for the Floyd County Health Department, advises.

Instead of fussing and fuming about mosquitoes we should take steps to prevent them, the sanitarian went on to say. Mosquitoes, in addition to being annoying, may carry malaria, yellow fever or encephalitis.

A cupful of water provides an ideal maternity ward for about 250 mosquito eggs. After ten days the egg becomes a healthy—and hungry—mosquito. "It's no wonder that we often have a thriving, home-grown crop in our back yard," said Mr. Stumbo.

Lead the attack against mosquitoes by destroying their breeding places and by killing the larvae and adult mosquitoes. The breeding chain must be broken to prevent the familiar mosquito buzz, then the bite and the consequent disturbances.

Mr. Stumbo gives this advice:

- (1) Drain all puddles of water in your garden or yard. Destroy limbs or debris in shallow ponds because this is an ideal place for mosquito breeding.
- (2) Flatten or punch holes in tin cans.
- (3) Cut up that old tire leaning against the garage.
- (4) Flush out birdbaths frequently.
- (5) Clean the gutters on your buildings.

A five-percent DDT solution sprayed on screens and flat surfaces will kill mosquitoes after contact and will be good for over a month. DDT can also be sprayed on standing water in your yard, Mr. Stumbo said. Caution should be used, however, since DDT will kill small animals and may cause serious illness in human. Be sure to follow the directions on the package or contact the Floyd County Health Department for precautions to take.

Rocketeller Biography Notes Poverty, Adversity And Ultimate Success

The book, "John D. Rockefeller, Jr.: A Portrait," by Raymond B. Fosdick is the story of a man born to adversity who rose to greatness. It is condensed in the July issue of the Reader's Digest.

"The handicaps that shape human life take many forms—says the author, "poverty, deformity, ill health, an unhappy environment. In the case of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., the handicap was wealth—a stifling kind of wealth that might have sapped his energies and blighted his life."

To overcome his original adversity JDR, Jr. had to demonstrate a talent equal to his father's in amassing the great fortune. As for his decision to dedicate himself to giving rather than making, his father supported him as he did in everything; he had supreme confidence in JDR Jr.'s judgment and ability. "John," he said simply, "I want you to do what you think is right."

The younger Rockefeller did. As a result, the great Rockefeller fortunes grew—hundreds of millions upon hundreds of millions. They were given to the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, the General Education Board, the Rockefeller Foundation, the Rockefeller Sanitary Commission which eradicated the hookworm in the South, the International Health Division which dealt with malaria, yellow fever and other scourges of human health throughout the world. Millions went for the restoration of Versailles and Williamsburg and for the site of the United Nations.

The father was pleased. Before he died in 1937, the senior Rockefeller said: "My greatest fortune in life has been my son."

There are 70 native species of trees in Kentucky's forests of which 59 have commercial value.

Clinton, Hickman county, was planted in 1826 by James Gibson and incorporated in 1831 after the seat of county government was moved there from Columbus.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Heber Whitaker announce the engagement of their daughter, Juanita, of Richmond, Ky., to James Douglas Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Adams, of Martin, Ky.

The wedding will take place Aug. 4 at the First Christian Church, Richmond, Ky. The custom of open church will be observed.

Shipman In "Boot Camp" For Marine Corps Training

Roy Lee Shipman, Jr., 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee Shipman, Sr., Hueysville, was enlisted for a three-year period in the U. S. Marine Corps at Louisville and is now undergoing recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, South Carolina.

Shipman applied for enlistment at the Marine Recruiting Sub-Station, Pikeville.

Pvt. Shipman is a 1957 graduate of Maytown high school. Upon completion of 12 weeks of "boot camp", Shipman will undergo four weeks advanced combat training at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune, North Carolina.

Sgt. King, Marine Corps recruiter, is in the Post Office Building, Prestonsburg, every Tuesday afternoon from 1 to 3 p.m.

The 1957 women's city bowling tournament at Grand Haven, Mich., was won by Coralyn Olthof, who is only 19. She set a record with a high series of 694 on games of 245, 213 and 236.

MAYTOWN

Club Honors 'Old' Members

The Maytown Woman's Club paid tribute to its members of 1926 through 1931 at a buffet dinner in the Maytown Methodist Church basement, June 20 at 8 p.m. The club members and guests found their places at beautifully decorated tables and heard Mrs. S. J. Tallent, club president, and Mrs. James Allen tell of the years when the first Maytown Woman's Club practically established the church and school. It was brought out they paid the teacher's salary until the school tax was voted in; paid the pastor's salary; helped build, paint and wire the church parsonage, and, in general, worked diligently for community improvement.

Mrs. Tallent introduced the first club members to the group. They were Mesdames Thomas Patrick, Frank May, Henry L. May, Arnold Cassiday, Edd Sutton, Viola Stewart, and Elizabeth Baker. Each of the early members responded and explained to the group some of their work and also related several amusing things that had happened through the years. Mrs. James Allen ended her talk with the wish that the current woman's club be half as worthy of praise as the older club.

The club was honored to have with them for the occasion, Mrs. A. L. Danburg, of Pikeville, governor of the Seventh district, Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Danburg spoke informally to the group.

Present for the occasion were Mesdames A. L. Danburg, Thomas Patrick, Frank May, Henry L. May, Arnold Cassiday, Edd Sutton, Elizabeth Baker, Viola Stewart, David Reed, H. M. Wiley, Theodore Gibson, Roland Burchett, John Ison, Paul Borders, Frank Stewart, Charles Patton, Edward Robinson, Miles Gibson, Jr., James Allen and S. J. Tallent.

HEALTH JOBS ARE OFFERED

Sanitation Work Open In 7 Kentucky Counties; Qualifications Stated

Frankfort, June 27 (Spl.) — Job opportunities in sanitation are good now, John Henninger, merit system officer for the State Department of Health, has announced.

Men who live in or would like to work as sanitary inspectors in Bracken, Anderson - Woodford, Nicholas-Robertson, Letcher, Kenton, Whitley, or Lewis counties are being invited to apply at their county health departments or directly to the department at Louisville.

Two types of vacancies are to be filled. A high school graduate with at least two years of business experience can qualify for Sanitarian I, salary range $2,880 to $3,340. A college graduate having had courses in one of the biological or physical sciences can qualify for Sanitarian II, salary range $3,360 to $3,940.

Both positions involve making sanitary surveys and inspections of dairies, restaurants, swimming pools, schools, and sewage disposal systems and carrying on related activities.

Merit system examinations will be given in several Kentucky cities Saturday, July 13. The sites of examinations will be chosen to be convenient to applicants. Interested men are asked to write for applications and information immediately.

MARTIN
 By Betty Preflatish

Mr. and Mrs. John Pelphrey and children are away on a two-week vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Keathley and son, Tony, have spent this week on vacation in Cincinnati, and other points of interest. His employees, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hampton, Shelby Jean Hampton and David Patierno have also been on vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. C. Dingus have been business visitors in Huntington and Ashland this week.

Miss Lind Jean Waters, of Baltimore, Md., is spending part of her vacation here visiting the following relatives; her uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Tackett, Mr. and Mrs. Sumpter Tackett, Jr., Mrs. Virginia Sidell, and her cousin, Mrs. Kenneth H. Johnson.

The vacation Bible School of the Methodist Church closed Friday after two weeks with a picnic for the youngsters, Linda Kay Skeans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Skeans received a certificate for good attendance, not having missed a day.

Mrs. Bessie Elam, formerly of Martin, now of Emma, has been the recent guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Elam, at their home in Louisville. While there she attended the graduation of her grandson, Tony Elam, at Eastern high school.

Mrs. Marion Hale and a large group of friends, all of Betsy Layne, attended a conference of the Freewill Baptist Church here Saturday.

Bob Walters, of the army, and Betty Walters, of the Air Force, both of Emma, were visiting in Martin during recent furloughs home.

Mrs. C. R. Peters spent last week-end in Washington, D. C., the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Urban Peters. The occasion was Mr. Peters' graduation from college. He received his B. S. degree.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Moore, of Mansfield, Ohio, and her mother, Mrs. Miles Beverly, of Price, were visiting Mrs. J. C. Skeans here during the week-end.

Gary Martin spent a week's vacation at his home here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Martin. He is attending summer school at the University of Kentucky, Lexington.

E. A. Dunbar, of Versailles, is the new pharmacist in the Martin Drug Store.

Dotty Gay Martin spent last week-end in Versailles, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dunbar. From there she went to Georgetown College band camp to spend a week.

Leo Walters, of Baltimore, Md., arrived Friday to visit Mrs. Virginia Sidell, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Tackett and Mr. and Mrs. Sumpter Tackett, Jr. His daughter, Linda Jean Waters, was already here.

Mrs. Grace Mahood, of Seffner, Florida, is spending most of the summer here visiting Mrs. Owen Babb, Mrs. C. C. Hunter, and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Maggard and daughter, Ada Carol, are leaving Monday for West Alexandria, Ohio to spend a short vacation with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Francis.

Rev. Joseph Wimmers, formerly pastor of the Catholic Church in Martin and vicinity and at Paintsville, Ky. He has been replaced by Rev. George Riley, of Boston, Mass. Father Wimmers was in this section 16 years and we wish him well in his new parish.

Miss Sandy Marrs is spending her summer vacation here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Marrs, Sr.

Mrs. Dillard Howard and Mrs. Denzil Halbert, owners and operators of the Modernistic Beauty Shop here, attended the annual convention of beauty operators in Louisville last week.

Miss Shelby Jean Hampton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hampton, winner of the beauty contest staged here by the AMVETS Club, Post 27 will leave this week for Lexington where she will compete with representatives of other posts in the statewide contest. She will be accompanied by her mother.

North Carolina's Lennie Rosenbluth set a school record when he tallied 47 points against Furman. He also set a field goal mark with 20.

Martin High School Site for Training Meet On Tuesday, July 2nd

Plans are now complete for the aluminum tray training meet on July 2 at the home economics room of the Martin high school, Miss Dixie Trapp, home demonstration agent, said this week. The meet is scheduled at 10 a.m.

Miss Trapp, in writing interested persons, said she was inviting representatives from organizations other than the Homemakers. This should fairly include representation of all women in the county, she added.

The Farm and Home Field Day, slated for the Virgil Smith farm, at Allen, July 31, will be discussed at the Martin meet as it is planned to include a woman's program on that day.

Push-Button Fishing Appears on Scene

Casparilla Island, Fla.—Push-button deep-sea fishing is here. It's done with the aid of storage battery-powered winch originally designed to hoist 3,000 pound boats from water to trailer.

Former speed boat water skiers Douchy Burgeon, Bob Couskins and Tram Pickett devised a special rig for threading the heavy line through the pole to the winch. The outfit is attached to the rear of an outboard motor cruiser and fishing is done by trolling.

The electronic fishing gear is powered by a 6 or 12 volt battery. One finger controls the switch and brake.

Although the powered reel would enable women to enjoy deep-sea fishing as a thrilling sport, the designers expect it will be used by paraplegics who seek the outdoors. The winch is the product of a West Hartford Conn., firm.

The maker says the powered winch uses less electric juice than car lights.

Summer Drivers Urged To Learn Rules Of Road

Frankfort, June 24 (Spl.) — Commissioner of Public Safety Don S. Sturgill said recent highway death figures are grim proof that traffic accidents take no vacation. He urged summer motorists to "stay safe, and maintain vigilance on the road."

"During vacation months, thousands of drivers are on the highways, and too many of them are intent on cramming as much activity as they can into one brief vacation," the commissioner emphasized. "The result is often tragedy."

He cautioned vacationers to be on guard against speeders, drinking drivers and drivers who disregard traffic laws.

The safety official advised highway users to observe these rules for a safe and pleasant trip.

Plan the trip to allow plenty of time to reach the destination and return in comfort. This means a minimum of night driving, no speeding or slow-poke driving, and no driving when fatigued.

Before starting a trip, learn the driving regulations of the states you expect to travel through. Never drive after drinking. Watch for and heed all road signs and speed limits.

Have the car (and trailer, if you one) completely safety-checked before starting a trip.

Load the car carefully so luggage and equipment do not interfere with vision and will not shift dangerously in an emergency.

SENATE OK'S LIBRARY AID

Five Million Approved For Library Program; Cooper Notes Progress

Senator John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky.) declared last week that Senate action on appropriations for rural library services would permit Kentucky's rural library program to move forward at close to maximum speed.

The Senate last week appropriated $5 million for the Library Services Act, the same amount earlier approved by the House. This was $2.5 million below the amount authorized by the Act, but $2 million above the Administration's budget request for fiscal year 1958. Only $2,050,000 was appropriated for the current fiscal year, the program's first year of operation.

During debate on the bill, Senator Cooper obtained assurance from Senator Lister Hill (D-Ala.), chairman of the Appropriations Subcommittee, that the $5 million appropriation would permit Kentucky "to make very definite progress with its program."

He noted that Kentucky may receive more than its regular share of these funds under a provision which would reallocate to States having rural library programs funds not used by States without fully developed programs.

Emphasizing Senator Cooper's support of the full appropriation and his "strong statement" to the Appropriations Committee, Senator Hill explained that the committee had included language in the bill providing that "when the funds are not used by some states, such unused funds can be allocated to the states which are ready to go forward, and are going forward, with their programs."

Senator Cooper pointed out: "My state is one of those which has taken advantage of this program. By means of these contributions, bookmobiles have been placed in service in the counties of Kentucky. Kentucky has joined with private organizations in providing all the matching funds required in order to make the program wholly effective; and in a period of three years the circulation of books has increased from 2 million books in 1953-54, to 5 million books in the next year and to 6 million books last year."

FOOD NOTES

By Dixie Trapp
Home Demonstration Agent

Ice cream is everybody's dish. It is a great favorite during the Dairy Month of June as well as the rest of the twelve.

Not long ago when you ate ice cream, it was something about which to write home. Now you can buy ice cream around the clock, thanks to improved refrigeration. There is enough ice cream made that each could enjoy 3 1/2 gallons each year.

Ice cream is made by combining milk, cream, sugars, and a stabilizer.

Other frozen milk dessert are frozen custards, sherbert and soft serve desserts. Custard is very similar to ice cream except egg yolks are added. Sherbert is a mixture of milk, fruit or fruit juice, sugar or sweetener. There is less milk fat in sherbert than in ice cream but more sugar. Calorie content is slightly lower.

Best way to find good quality ice cream is to "buy, try, and compare." A high quality ice cream or custard has a delicate flavor. Sherberts have a stronger flavor. Sherberts have a grainy texture, custards should be smooth, ice cream may be either.

How well you like ice cream will determine the number of servings. If you are serving a crowd, plan an average of 6 servings per quart.

Keep ice cream frozen. If it softens and refreezes, it shrinks and becomes sandy. Keep it sealed. Contact with air permits loss of flavor and shrinkages and causes a waxy surface.

You may keep ice cream up to 30 days in a home freezer at 0° F. It may be stored 2 to 3 days in the refrigerator freezer compartment using the coldest setting. Quality is better when used within a few hours.

Ice cream is more than just a dessert. It is also a healthful food as well as delicious one.

Historic Floyd County

(No. 9 in a Series)

CANEY JUNIOR COLLEGE

Caney Junior College, Pippa Passes, Ky., has made a monumental contribution to the advance of Eastern Kentucky by training future educational and professional leaders. It was founded by Mrs. Alice S. G. Lloyd, former Boston newspaperwoman, and under her consecrated guidance has grown to recognition as one of the state's outstanding colleges.

Shown here is the arrival at Caney of a boiler, donated in 1930 by State Senator Doug Hays, of McDowell. It was used by the college to operate a mill and for other power purposes. It was hauled from Left Beaver Creek, this county.

Some of the Floyd county students who were attending Caney in 1930 and who watched the arrival of the boiler drawn by the six-span mule team were Bill Osborne, Charles Clark, Woodrow Allen, Russell Hall, Clive Akers, Jarvis Allen, Buena R. Howell, Sylvia Hall Newman and others.

The First National Bank, like many others, has a profound respect for Mrs. Lloyd and her school, and over the years it has been pleased to work with and serve her Caney "boys and girls."

Telephone Talk

by
H. D. HAYES
Your Telephone Manager

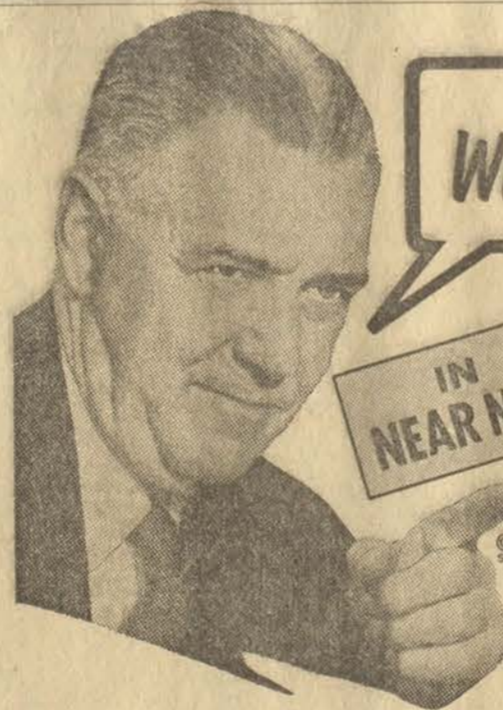

THEY FLY THROUGH THE AIR — Most folks don't realize that many Long Distance calls fly through the air with the greatest of ease—not on wires, but over high frequency radio waves. Microwave radio relay, we call it. I know you've seen those tall towers in the countryside or on a hill, with the horn-like contraptions on top. Well, radio relay bounces your voice across the country with the speed of light from tower to tower, spaced about 30 miles apart. It supplements land wires and carries hundreds of telephone conversations at the same time. Radio relay is still another way we're working together to bring people closer together.

HOW TO MAKE LIVING EASIER — A lady told me something the other day that makes sense. She said, "Folks arrange their furniture and appliances so they'll be most convenient—why not their telephones, too?" (She has two extra phones.) Now, she's got the right idea about easy living. Phones where you need them most, like the kitchen, bedroom or den. Phones in smart colors that add just the right touch. Phones you reach for, not run for. You know, extra phones cost only about four cents a day each, plus a one-time charge for color and installation. Why not order an extra phone or two now—for easier living?

HOW TO SAVE ON LONG DISTANCE—I'd like to remind you how you can save real money on your Long Distance calls. Call station-to-station instead of person-to-person. I think that most of the time you'll find a station-to-station call will serve your purpose. That's when you call a telephone number instead of a particular person at that number. Look at these sample station-to-station bargains: Prestonsburg to Lexington, just 65 cents. Prestonsburg to Bowling Green, only 75 cents. Taxes are extra. Those rates are half the person-to-person rates. And when you call station-to-station nights after 6 and all day Sunday, you get to talk four full minutes for the price of two. So many folks are in the habit of calling person-to-person, they don't realize how they can save by calling station-to-station. Maybe there's someone you'd like to call right now?

Three AF Enlistees Flown To Texas Base

T/Sgt. Junior Murphy, of the Prestonsburg Air Force Recruiting Office, announced recently that the following local youths have enlisted in the Air Force and have been flown to Lackland Air Force Base, Texas to begin their basic training.

Royal Donn Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin, Langley; James Ray Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nokomis Moore, Hi Hat; Merrel Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, East Point.

Eastern teams have won the National A.S.K. basketball Assn. play-offs the last three years. Boston won in 1957, Philadelphia in 1956 and Syracuse in 1955.

Books and Such

By Laura Virginia Roberts

Do I get a gold star pasted in the back of my book for achievement or don't I? I've read a book. Since critics hailed it for months, Broadway is still enjoying it as a hit starring Rosiland Russell, and all kinds of reliable friends recommended it. I read, finally, AUNTIE MAME. And she wasn't like any aunt anybody I know ever had. AUNTIE MAME, by Patrick Dennis, is hilariously funny on every page and is certainly worth reading about. The author is said to be a well-known writer whose real identity is "closely guarded" in part, at least, by the pen-name Patrick Dennis.

The book has been out about a year, so probably everybody but me has already read it. If you haven't, it is available in a pocket edition now and you can't afford to put off those laughs you'll get.

Greenwillow is a village on the banks of the Meander River and nearly everyone in Greenwillow moves at about the same pace as the river's name suggests. GREENWILLOW, a novel by B. J. Chute, is another book which has been out for months, and which I am probably the very last to discover and praise. It is a touching pastoral novel and it's very pleasant reading. Call AUNTIE MAME lazy summer laughing. Call me lazy.

SURVEY NOTES OVER-40 BIAS

Older Employes Superior In Most Instances, Said; Local Action Suggested

Older persons gradually are disproving the myth they can't hold their own with young workers. But obsolete company policies and prejudice still continue to operate against job seekers over 40.

Ronald Schiller reports on this problem in a July Reader's Digest article titled, "HELP WANTED: For the 40-Plus," condensed from Your Life.

Schiller says a National Association of Manufacturers survey of 3,313,000 employes showed that in work performance 93 per cent of the older workers were equal or superior and only seven per cent were not equal to younger workers.

A more detailed study by the University of Illinois revealed that the rates of absenteeism and lateness actually are lower among older employes and that their loyalty, sense of responsibility and morale are higher.

But, says Schiller, a Department of Labor survey revealed that half of all employes still have age restrictions, and that between 50 and 60 per cent of the job openings are still not available to men over 40 and 45, or to women over 35.

Schiller says the survey showed that many firms still feel that older persons can't meet production requirements, are too set in their ways, are less creative than younger workers and are more prone to absenteeism.

However, he says the NAM report proves the companies wrong. "Actually," it said, "older workers are the cream of the crop."

Senator Thomas C. Desmond, of Newburgh, Chairman of New York State's Legislative Committee on Problems of the Aging and a leader in the fight to overcome age-bias in industry, says only five states—Colorado, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island—have passed laws forbidding discrimination against workers because of age.

In addition to calling for more action at the state level, however, Desmond warned that this is a local problem and must be solved at the community level.

He suggested the organization of a committee of local groups, including the local Chamber of Commerce, to steer the fight against age-bias. He also called for the appointing of a special job counselor for the aging to the local employment agency and the enlistment of the community's biggest guns to help break down local employers' prejudices against employing older persons.

MAYTOWN

BOX SUPPER HELD

An old-fashioned box supper was held at the Maytown school lunchroom June 11, for the benefit of the Maytown Little League baseball team, which is being coached by Raymond (Red) Crum, and Jones Tallent. Beautifully decorated boxes filled with fried chicken and all the trimmings were brought by the following mothers and interested friends:

Mrs. Delmont Bailey, Mrs. Hugh Rowland, Mrs. Raymond Crum, Mrs. Arnold Lowe, Mrs. Ralph Spencer, Mrs. Lowell Howard, Mrs. Jones Tallent, Gloria Jean Spencer, Claudena Lowe, Peggy Crum, Carolyn Ison, Karen Burchett Ruth Ann Burchett, Sue Robinson, Henrietta Patton, Sinda Marshall, Billa Marie Stone, Marcella Patton, Phyllis Ousley, Charlene Patton and Mrs. Theodore Gibson.

All of the boxes sold from $1.75 to $10.00 each and the net sum received from the sales was $803.00. Lowell Howard, assisted by "Red" Crum, served as auctioneer. Mrs. Hugh Rowland did a wonderful job of advertising and making arrangements for the supper, and was assisted by the Little League mothers at the lunchroom in serving refreshments.

Proceeds from the box supper are being used to purchase equipment for the new baseball field, and many Little League fathers are donating their services in building and setting up the equipment on the field.

The Little League organization thanks the following people who have donated money and materials:

Mildred Osborne, Champ Gibson, Dr. C. L. Allen, Theodore Gibson, Mrs. George E. Allen, Charles Patton, Bess Webb, Joe Patton, Susie Bradley, Jack Turner, Mrs. Glen Patton Viola Stewart, Ogden Stewart, Inland Gas Co., T. A. and Spence Combs, Arnold Maggard, and Bethel Terry.

Clyde Lovelette led Minneapolis in basketball scoring last season with 1,434 points in 69 games for a 20.8 average in National Basketball Assn. games.

Tunes Once Played On Train Whistles

St. Louis—In the old days of rail-roading, some engineers put blocks of wood in their locomotive whistles to give them a distinctive note. DODGE outperforms "other two" low-priced trucks!

CERTIFIED TEST PHOTO

They're off! All three low-priced trucks are lined up at the bottom of a test grade equal to the steepest hill in San Francisco. The flag drops, and this grueling test of climbing power is officially underway. Dodge takes an early lead.

CERTIFIED TEST PHOTO

Halfway up. The extra V-8 power under the hood of the Dodge sends it quickly ahead. It's already two lengths out front. And there's a 1000-lb. test load on each one of these comparably equipped trucks. What's more, Dodge is still gaining!

Dodge flashes past the finish five lengths ahead of competition. Truck "C" and truck "F" just couldn't match that 204-hp. Power Giant. And this is just one of a rugged series of tests that prove Dodge is best of the low-priced three.

Your Dodge truck dealer has proof that Dodge leads in many ways. Come in . . . see other certified test-photo sequences . . . and take a demonstration ride!

Prestonsburg Woman Studies Government In Washington Office

Miss Julia May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. May, Prestonsburg, is in Washington, D. C., as a participant in the Wellesley-Vassar summer internship program.

Miss May is one of 17 students from Wellesley College who are spending six weeks working in the national capital to see government in action from a behind-the-scenes vantage point. Each of the participating students from Wellesley has just completed her junior year at the college and is majoring in political science, history or economics.

Miss May is doing her internship in the office of the Democratic National Committee.

The Washington internship program was begun by Wellesley in 1942 when the war-time fuel shortage necessitated a long winter vacation on the campus. Since then the program has been carried on as a summer project, in which Vassar College has been a partner for three years.

Miss May, who attended St. Catherine's school in Virginia is majoring in political science at Wellesley.

James and William Pore built the first log cabin in Paducah—then known as Pekin—at the foot of Broadway in 1817. William Clark, brother of George Rogers Clark, laid out the town site in 1827 and named it for his Chickasaw friend, Chief Paduke.

To The People of Floyd County:

The nomination for Circuit Court Clerk of Floyd County has been given me without opposition by the Republican Party, for which I am deeply grateful.

The good people of Floyd county have within their power to elect some one whom they want to manage this office, some one whom they trust and think would be honest, courteous and able to give them the best of service. This is my first time to ask you good people for any of your offices and I am definitely not a politician, but it is my belief that you should elect a man who does not want to get rich from the office and if there should be more money made in the office than the law allows after expenses it should be turned back to the treasurer of Floyd county to help build roads and other things which the county so badly needs.

To the ones who do not personally know me, I would like to give you the following information about myself:

I am 53 years of age, the son of B. M. and Julia Langley Spurlock, of West Prestonsburg, Ky., after finishing high school in 1923, and going to business college, I came home and worked as store manager for Colonial Coal Company, Prestonsburg. In March, 1925, I was employed by the First National Bank, Prestonsburg as clerk and teller. I worked at the bank for over 18 years and when I resigned in 1943 I was assistant cashier. I have been in the life insurance business ever since. In 1928, I married Stella Fitzpatrick, daughter of Penn and Maggie Stanley Fitzpatrick. We have two children, Margaret Douglas Blackburn, wife of Adrian Blackburn, of Prestonsburg, and Jimmy Dick Spurlock, who recently married Barbara Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Adams, Wheelwright, Ky. Jimmy Dick is in the armed services and at present is stationed in Japan.

We have a host of relatives, both blood and by marriage living in Floyd county—so many that I will not attempt to name them, and I shall appreciate their support and the support of our many friends in the coming November election if they think me worthy and capable of the job.

It behooves every voter and citizen of Floyd county to think seriously about their vote, and you have time to do so before the November election. The offices belong to the people and if you feel that every citizen who so aspires should have one term of office, I shall appreciate your support. It is within your power to elect me to this office, and if you do support and elect me to this office, I promise to operate the office in a business-like way and according to law.

Your support and confidence will be appreciated and I shall be forever grateful.

Sincerely yours,
DICK SPURLOCK

WHY put your money in a small car?

READ THIS STARTLING FACT

5 out of 10 Smaller Cars wear a Pontiac Price Tag —yet none gives you Any of Pontiac's Advantages

PONTIAC GIVES YOU MORE SOLID CAR PER DOLLAR THAN THE BIGGEST OF THE SMALLER JOBS!

The so-called "low-price" numbers just aren't in it—Pontiac gives you up to 8.9% more solid car per dollar! And your Pontiac dealer can prove it—with official specifications. Check them yourself. Starting with Pontiac's rugged X-member frame and continuing through every inch of the car, you'll discover engineering advances and advantages the smaller cars haven't even thought of. Then put the facts and figures to a test—with you behind the wheel. Right from the start you'll discover that this big heavyweight handles like a dream in traffic or on the open road, because only Pontiac offers you Precision-Touch Controls for almost effortless steering and braking. No doubt about it—here's driving that puts the smaller cars in the shade!

NO SMALLER CAR EVEN APPROACHES PONTIAC'S 122-INCH WHEELBASE!

You can't ride on overhang—but you can on wheelbase! Pontiac gives you from 4 to 7 inches more length between the wheels where it counts! From bump-smoothing comfort to interior stretch-out room, this is real man-size bigness! Add Pontiac's exclusive Level-Line Ride suspension system and you have a car that makes the smaller jobs seem under-sized and overpriced!

NOTHING ON WHEELS PERFORMS LIKE A PONTIAC... THE SMALLER CARS DON'T EVEN COME CLOSE!

Your Pontiac dealer can show you on-the-record proof that Pontiac is America's Number One Road Car. And he can give you a point-by-point comparison to show you why no smaller car can hope to imitate Pontiac's alert, effortless response to every driving demand from stop-and-go traffic to superhighway cruising... why Pontiac loafs while smaller cars strain... how Pontiac's all-around performance superiority has made it the talk of the automotive writers! But don't stop with facts and figures—prove it yourself behind the wheel—take this handsome husky out on the road and let it show you how far ahead it really is. You'll be spoiled for the smaller cars forever!

—AND PONTIAC HAS ALWAYS BEEN FAMOUS AS ONE OF AMERICA'S TOP TRADE-INS!

Pontiac's high trade-in value is a tradition in the industry! A quick check with your Pontiac dealer for his eye-opening offer will prove beyond a shadow of a doubt that you're getting not only a wonderful buy but a wonderful investment! So, before you spend your hard-earned dollars on a smaller car—check Pontiac and discover the easy way to break the small-car habit.

First Kentucky Settlement Is Commemorated

By Charles F. Hinds
Secretary-Treasurer Kentucky Historical Society

Frankfort, June 25 — The Harrodsburg Historical Society, headed by I. C. James, Jr., recently celebrated the founding of Harrodsburg, Kentucky's first town.

On June 16, 1774, according to Collins' History of Kentucky, James Harrod with 31 men and Isaac Hite with 11 started construction of the first permanent settlement in Kentucky, initially called Harrodstown. Before Harrodstown, was completed, however, the Indians went on the warpath. The Kentuckians were forced to flee east, not to return until the following year.

The Harrodsburg society meets regularly once a month, but a special meeting is always held June 16. This year, the members were reminded of how Harrod and the others descended the Monongahela and the Ohio Rivers and went up the Kentucky to the site of Harrodsburg; of early pioneer and antebellum life in Mercer county; of the widely-publicized pioneer pageant directed by Mrs. W. T. Lafferty, of Lexington, and of the dedicatory address June 16, 1927, by Gov. Jason Fields, opening up the State-directed Pioneer Memorial Park, containing a replica of original Fort Harrod.

Harrodsburg has a distinctive history. But so does every town and community in history-rich Kentucky. Other states of the Old West are far more conscious, perhaps, of their past than Kentucky. But none can boast of raw materials with which to shape written history.

In years past, we have had historical gatherings in Kentucky attended by several thousand persons. Now we count ourselves fortunate to have two or three hundred. A few years ago we had dozens of local historical societies. The Kentucky Historical Society reported eight last year for the entire state. Every state touching Kentucky reported more.

Must Kentucky always be 46th, 47th, or last? Alert and vigorous leadership in the Departments of Highway, Finance, Education, Public Relations, Conservation, and Economic Development is moving the State to a higher statistical position.

But what about the family, the community, the state, and the church, best understood by our students of local history? Are we to forsake our valuable heritage in the mad scramble for a greater share of the national wealth?
