This Town— That World

Did you ever stop to think that if every satellite the Russians and our side together have shot into orbit should collide at the same instant, the whole smashup wouldn't produce even the most distant roll of thunder?

WE STAND UP FOR CHRIS

Speaking of the Russians, we were bemused with that bit of propaganda timed to do another hero in on the day America does him honor. We refer, of course, to the Red scientist's remarkable "discovery" that Chris Columbus faked that discovery deal; and, although he found the country in a slightly depressed condition, returned home and teamed up with Ferdinand and Isabella to outdo Ananias with a cock-and-bull story about gold and diamonds and such stuff lying all over the place in these parts for all who would go and get same.

It seems, according to our Russian friend, that the illustrious Spaniards and the adventuresome Columbus lied themselves black in the face in order to get a labor crew onto these shores. He didn't accuse them of lying about the hours or the wage-scale, however, and you may mark that up to them on the credit side of the ledger.

We wouldn't argue with our Russian friend for a moment, if we did not recall a few other claims he and his friends have made, namely: "beeboll" was not originated by Abner Doubleday but was a Russian invention, and there is no God. Oh, well! Our history isn't all wrong. Even the Russian agrees that the old boy's ships were the Pinta, Nina and Santa Maria. How comforting it is to have such confirmation!

THE GOVERNORS

Governor J. Lindsay Almond, Jr., of Virginia, said at the Conference of Southern Governors at Asheville, N. C., this week:

"I have never bolted the Democratic party at the national, state or local level. I have always supported the nominees of the party." Kentucky's Governor Chandler in a "swan-song" speech that drew a standing ovation said he is looking forward to December 8, when he will leave office, because he plans "to just sit in a chair and whittle."

The governors elected Governor Almond their new chairman. (See Story No. 2, Page 8)

CONTRACTORS ON PROJECTS NEAR FINISH

Flood Control Work, Auxier-P'burg Road Cost It $1,394,000

Two major construction projects here and in this vicinity have beaten winter and its work-stopping weather to the draw.

The first completed is the $285,000 flood control project which is designed to protect a large portion of Prestonsburg from all but floods such as those of 1957 calibre.

The second is the $1,109,256 construction job nearing completion on the Prestonsburg-Auxier sector of the new US 23 which eventually will link Prestonsburg and Paintsville. Only the finishing touches remain to be done by the W. C. Snyder Construction Company to complete the area's finest highway.

Three bridges remain to be built along with the miles of roadway to be constructed, before Prestonsburg and Paintsville are linked by the new highway, however. One bridge will be at Auxier, a second across Johns Creek and the third across the Big Sandy in the vicinity of Hager Hill.

Contracts on remainder of the highway and the three spans remain to be awarded, and it is estimated that it will be five years yet before traffic takes to the new route and bypasses Abbott Mountain.

The floodwall project here was constructed with federal funds under the direction of the U.S. Corps of Army Engineers, only $22,000 being raised locally by public subscription. The S. T. Kenyon Company, contractor on the job, has moved its machinery and all personnel, and formal dedication of the flood wall will be done soon.

SENATORS SET AREA HEARING

Committee Studying Unemployment States Appearances In State

Senators investigating unemployment are expected to hold hearings in Eastern Kentucky, it was said recently by an aide of Sen. John Sherman Cooper. The special committee, of which the Kentucky Senator is a member, will appear in this section either at the end of October or the first of November.

There is a possibility the committee will go to the Covington area after the hearings here, it was said.

The special committee held its first session Monday, Oct. 5, and a lot was said about Kentucky's No. 1 problem: Coal mining.

Among other things, the senators heard a call from the United Mine Workers for a Congressional investigation of the coal-buying policies of the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Michael F. Widman, Jr., assistant to the U.M.W. president, said T.V.A. is buying coal at "sub-standard prices from mines whose men work under conditions not fit for human beings."

"No other single factor has such a depressing effect on the coal industry as T.V.A.," Widman said. "Remember that T.V.A. is the largest single consumer of coal in America."

Fall Conference Of Y-Teen Clubs Set At Danville

The state fall conference of registered Y-Teen Clubs of the Y.M.C.A. in Kentucky will be held Oct. 24, at Danville, with two Prestonsburg Y-Teen members taking a prominent part.

Miss Sally Burchett is conference secretary, Miss Barbara Ann Carter will serve as secretary of one of the workshop groups. Both are Prestonsburg high school seniors.

The conference, which will be held in Danville, will have for its theme, "Eye the World Through the Y." Dr. Jean Grambs, of the School of Education, University of Maryland, will be the key speaker at the conference. Adult leaders and advisers will meet in a discussion session.

URBANIZATION ON INCREASE

Floyd County Density Of Population Stands At 108 Per Square Mile

Special to The Times

New York, Oct. 13—Based on recent examinations of population shifts and changes, Floyd county appears to be "going urban" more rapidly than most sections of the United States.

The move to the cities and their suburbs, which has been in progress for some time, is accelerating, with the result that many people are now living in closer proximity than ever before.

The transition is attributed, in part, to the fact that fewer people are needed to operate today's mechanized farms, hence the decline in farm population. In part, also, it is believed due to the better employment opportunities that are presented in the more industrialized urban areas.

The changes are noted in studies made by the Department of Commerce, the Department of Agriculture and other agencies to determine how much of the nation's land area is populated and to what extent.

In Floyd county it is found, the concentration of population has reached a point beyond that of most sections of the United States.

In its 402 square miles of territory, the county now has a density of 108 people per square mile, according to the latest population estimates.

This compares with a density of 53 people per square mile in the nation as a whole and with 76 in the State of Kentucky.

Not included in the averages are the five counties of the nation in which there are cities above a million.

Nationally, it is reported by the Census Bureau, the cities and their suburbs are growing in population more than four times as fast as the rest of the country.

The biggest part of the expansion is occurring in the urbanized suburbs, points out Dr. Philip M. Hauser, former Deputy Director of the Census. "The growth has necessarily been outward," he explains.

CONN IS INJURED

Levi Conn, of the Arkansas Creek section near Martin, was seriously injured when thrown from a mule, Monday evening. He was taken to St. Mary's hospital, Huntington, by Hall Bros. Funeral ambulance, suffering from a back injury. He will recover, it was said.

WYATT IN SPEECH HERE SATURDAY PLEDGES WORK TO AID ECONOMY

FREE X-RAYS GIVEN 2,172

In Six Floyd Towns; Total Examinations Represents Increase

A total of 2,172 persons received free X-ray examinations during the chest clinics conducted in six Floyd county towns, Sept. 29, Oct. 9.

This total represented an increase of approximately 600 over the 1958 total, despite the fact that this year for the first time the X-ray tests were given only to persons 20 years of age or older or those who had reacted positively to skin tests.

Results of the work in the communities visited by the mobile X-ray unit:

Wayland, 268; Wheelwright, 281; McDowell, 146; Martin, 294; Harold, 262; Prestonsburg, 921.

The unit remained at each point only one day, except at Prestonsburg where its stay was for three days.

RIDDLED BODY OF POLICEMAN

Found At White Oak; Four Morgan Countians Undergo Detector Tests

Four Morgan countians were taken to Frankfort Wednesday, to undergo lie detector tests in the probe into the abduction-murder early Sunday of Harold Hilton, 31, night policeman at West Liberty.

The men under questioning were not identified, but it was said they live near the Morgan-Magoffin county line. One or two others who live in West Liberty have been quizzed.

If any definite clues to the identity of the slayers have been uncovered, Commonwealth's Attorney H. Major Gardner did not divulge them. Ballistics tests of bullets taken from the body have been made, it was said.

Helton was seized at his West Liberty home and taken 14 miles away, to a point near White Oak, where his body was found at 6 a.m. Sunday, in a ditch on a side road, about 75 feet off US 460. The body had been riddled with seven bullets. Morgan county Sheriff James Phipps said that Helton, night policeman about two years, apparently went home about 3:30 a.m. He lived alone.

When officers went to the home Sunday morning they found Helton's shirt, coat and gun on the bed. There was no evidence of a struggle. Helton was shot once through the neck and six times under the lower left ribs.

State police and local authorities questioned several people in the case. There was much conjecture about the motive for the killing, but none has been established.

Police said Judge John Helton, a distant relative, mentioned that Harold Helton had been active (See Story No. 4, Page 7)

Wilson Wyatt, Democratic nominee for Lieutenant-Governor, pledged himself here Saturday to promote a restoration of the economy of Eastern Kentucky. The candidate spoke to a packed courtroom at the court house.

"In time Eastern Kentucky will receive its fair share, along with the rest of the state," Wyatt said. "The area must be provided with adequate roads, reservoir dams for flood prevention and to provide water for industrial purposes and to increase the number of tourists."

Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill introduced Wyatt as an old classmate at the Jefferson School of Law, Louisville. Recognized were Burnis Martin, Democratic nominee for State Senator, Ollie Robinson and Ben Martin, nominees for State Representative.

Wyatt urged the development of the timber resources of the mountain section and said that a proper utilization of the timber would contribute heavily to a healthier economy. He particularly urged the development of the pulp wood business.

"Bert Combs and I have been together long enough to know each other well and we can work together to solve Kentucky's problems," he said.

The candidate came to Prestonsburg after having spoken at Pikeville at 10 o'clock in the morning. He went from here to Covington in the interest of his candidacy.

Wyatt has made repeated trips through the mountain area, before and after the consolidation of his forces with Bert Combs before the primary.

BOGUS CHECK ARTISTS HELD

Man, Woman Arrested By Pikeville Police; Checks Cashed Here

A Colorado woman and her male companion who were jailed at Pikeville last week may be the couple who have victimized business places here and elsewhere in the area with worthless checks, it was said here this week.

A woman listed as Ethel Cummings, 40, was arrested by Pikeville police after she allegedly had cashed a worthless $25.42 check at Dawhare's Department Store, Pikeville. Her companion, whose name was given as Russell Tackett, about 35, of Colorado, formerly of the Long Fork of Shelby Creek, Pike county, was held for investigation.

Checks issued by a woman in July to three Prestonsburg stores were written on the same company, the Ashland Construction Company, and on the same bank, the non-existent First National Bank of Ashland, as the check which was passed by the Cummings woman at the Dawhare store.

There is no such firm as the Ashland Construction Company, those who were victimized have learned. The Federal Bureau of Investigation has joined the probe into the activities of the couple held at Pikeville.

WHEELWRIGHT MAN PICKED

For Canadian Firm Post; Cummings, Inland Officer Transfers To Ontario

Election of Waldo B. Cummings, of Wheelwright, as treasurer of Caland Ore Company, Ltd. has been announced by Carl B. Jacobs, president of Canadian subsidiary of Inland Steel Company which is developing an iron ore property in Steep Rock Lake in Western Ontario.

Cummings is being transferred from the steel company's mining operations at Wheelwright where he has been manager of mine accounting. As chief financial officer of Caland, he moved with Mrs. Cummings and their two sons to the company's headquarters in Atikokan, Ontario, to assume his new duties October 1.

H. M. Wilkinson, Jr., has been named Cummings' successor as manager of mine accounting at Wheelwright. Mr. Wilkinson has been with Inland Steel's operation there since 1934.

Except for military service in World War II during which he spent 28 months in Australia, New Guinea, Biak Island and the Philippines, Cummings has been with Inland Steel since 1939, following his graduation from Amherst College.

He started as a clerk in the Inland Stores office, became a cost clerk upon his return from the Army, then assistant manager and manager of mine accounting.

At Wheelwright he has engaged in numerous communities activities. He was treasurer of the Community Church, a director and past president of the golf club, a charter member and past president of Kiwanis and an officer of the Kentucky-Tennessee district of Kiwanis International.

$75,000 DEAL IS MADE HERE

Half Interest in Motel, Other Branham Property Purchased by Inez Man

Bennie Branham, of Prestonsburg, has sold half-interest in his local holdings, which include the Blue Sky Motel, restaurant and three dwelling houses, for $75,000, it was learned this week.

His new partner, John Newberry, of Inez, conveyed his farm near Inez as part of the local purchase for $15,000, and is paid $100 a month by Branham as operator of the business here.

Mr. and Mrs. Newberry, former Huntington, W. Va., restaurant-owners, have assumed management of the property here, and Mr. Branham and family have moved to their farm near Inez.

Branham and Russell Hagewood this week purchased what was once the John Marshall farm on the Auxier road, near the former airport. Sixty acres were purchased from Menifee Hale, and 40 acres from John Lafferty.

The Blue Sky Motel and restaurant have been in operation about a year and has been a highly successful business. The motel consists of 20 units.

MAN APPEARS AFTER SEARCH

Blood-Stained Auto Of Ray Mitchell Fannin Found Near Florida City

Ray Mitchell Fannin appeared at a Solana Beach, Calif., doctor's office yesterday (Wednesday) and appealed for aid as an amnesia victim. He identified himself under sedation.

Mitchell Fannin, Betsy Layne native, now of Whitley City, offered a reward of $1,000 Saturday for information leading to the whereabouts of his son, Ray Mitchell Fannin, 30, whose bloodstained auto was found Wednesday of last week at Panama City, Fla.

A bloody, open knife was found on the front seat of the car. There was no sign of a struggle but luggage, containing drug samples of the Atlanta firm for which Fannin was salesman, had been ransacked. It was thought nothing was taken.

Officers have checked out numerous leads as to what happened to Fannin but so far without success. They learned he had spent Wednesday night in a Hawkinsville, Ga., motel, and had made a reservation for the next night at a Macon, Ga., motel but did not appear there.

Fannin's father, his son's wife, Nora Mae Fannin, of Doraville, Ga., and other members of the family were in Florida Saturday. The reward, posted with Sheriff M. J. Draffin at Panama City, specified that the money would be paid for information as to the man's whereabouts or as to his slayer.

Mitchell Fannin thinks his son was murdered by a hitchhiker, since the young salesman was inclined to pick up riders.

Tests were being made this week by the F.B.I. laboratory at Washington to determine if the blood stains were human.

Fannin's employer, Lederle Division of American Cyanamid Company, does not distribute narcotics, it was said by officers, thus ruling out the theory that the attack may have been made by a dope addict.

Fannin's father is a former state representative from McCreary county, and is now owner of an auto accessories store at Whitley City.

FEDERAL JURY PENS 6 FLOYD MEN IN THEFT

District Court Action Breaks Car Theft Ring Operating in This Area

A car theft ring came to light this week with the indictment and conviction in U.S. district court at Pikeville of six Floyd county men, residents of the Prestonsburg-Middle Creek area.

The defendants, each of whom was sentenced to three-year federal prison terms by Federal Judge Mac Swinford after they had entered pleas of guilty Wednesday, are Jim Marsillett, Fred Newsom, Jr., James Ray Akers, Willie (Jap) Harris, Damon Stamper and Guy Bates.

Harris was returned to Pikeville from a federal prison where he was serving a car theft sentence from U.S. court in Lexington.

Operations of the six, it was said, extended from West Virginia and possibly other states bordering on Kentucky where the cars were stolen to the Whitesburg area. Four automobiles were specified in the indictment naming all six.

Jim Marsillett and his brother, Ezra, and James Ray Akers were named in an indictment charging them with selling whiskey without federal license. The Marsilletts later were released, however, when Akers pleaded guilty, assuming responsibility for the liquor sale.

William C. Hall, of Clearfield, Rowan county, who was arrested here recently and found in possession of a "split" $20 bill, was charged with mutilating or defacing U.S. currency. The charge against him arose from the alleged splitting of a $20 bill and pasting on the reverse side of each piece a $1 bill—a process which, if others are not wary, may result in the violator having two $20's to convert into genuine currency. (See Story No. 3, Page 8)

RANIER SUIT ASKS $42,000

Of Insurance Company; Litigation Is Aftermath Of Johnson-Co. Accident

Recovery of a total of $42,000 from the Travelers Insurance Company is sought in a suit filed last week in circuit court here by H. B. Ranier, doing business as the Ranier Construction Company.

The suit is the aftermath of a collision of Ranier's 1957 International tractor with a Johnson county school bus last August 3, near Mealy. Damage to the tractor was placed at $15,000, and the suit, prepared by Atty. W. W. Burchett, claims it could have been repaired in 30 days but that negligence of the insurance company in settling the claim has caused Ranier to be without the use of the machinery for a period of 45 days.

Placing a reasonable rental of the tractor at $600 a day, the plaintiff claims $27,000 for loss of use of the machinery.

At the same time two suits were filed against the W. C. Snyder Construction Co., contractor on the Prestonsburg-Auxier road, both claiming damage to buildings here as a result of blasting done by the company. Otis Cooley asks $3,500 for damage to his store and residence; Heber Burke, $2,500 damage to his home.

MOTHER, TOT AUTO VICTIMS

On Salyersville Road; Father Seriously Hurt; Were Breathitt Natives

A mother and child were killed Tuesday in a car-truck collision on U.S. 460 a mile west of Salyersville. Dead are Mrs. Ruby Ellen Patton, 38, and a three-month-old son, Glenn Patton, Jr.

The Pattons were residents of Guage, Breathitt county. Driving the family auto was Glenn Patton, Sr., 40, and with the family group was Della Lovely, 40. Both received serious injuries.

The trailer-truck belonged to the Overby Drilling Company, Nowata, Okla. The driver, Bill Renfro, escaped injury.

The deaths of Mrs. Patton and her infant son raised Kentucky's 1959 road-death total to 564, compared with 597 at this time a year ago.

First news reports listed the Pattons as being from Gage, Ballard county, but this was found to be an error.

The floodwall that stands between Prestonsburg and the Big Sandy River is now completed. This picture, taken from the riverside, shows the control building and embankment.

A Challenge to Floyd County

In The Times last week there appeared a symposium of views expressed by five county officials after a Floyd deputy sheriff had on successive week-ends barely escaped death from gunfire.

Official views are interesting, and the public may find encouragement in them. But official action will mean more.

These elected officials have briefly stated their respective positions in the face of a situation which challenges the forces of law and order. But Floyd county, its citizens, also are challenged, and they must face up to the situation or run away.

For years now this newspaper has been warning Prestonsburg and Floyd county against its lackadaisical attitude toward law enforcement. In at least one editorial it told the story of Phoenix City, Ala., where from a small beginning, a beginning as small as in this county, vice mushroomed into organized crime; where, finally, a crusading county attorney was elected, and he set out to rid Phoenix City of its criminals.

This official was another who refused to bargain with the underworld or to be bluffed. He was shot down in the streets of Phoenix City.

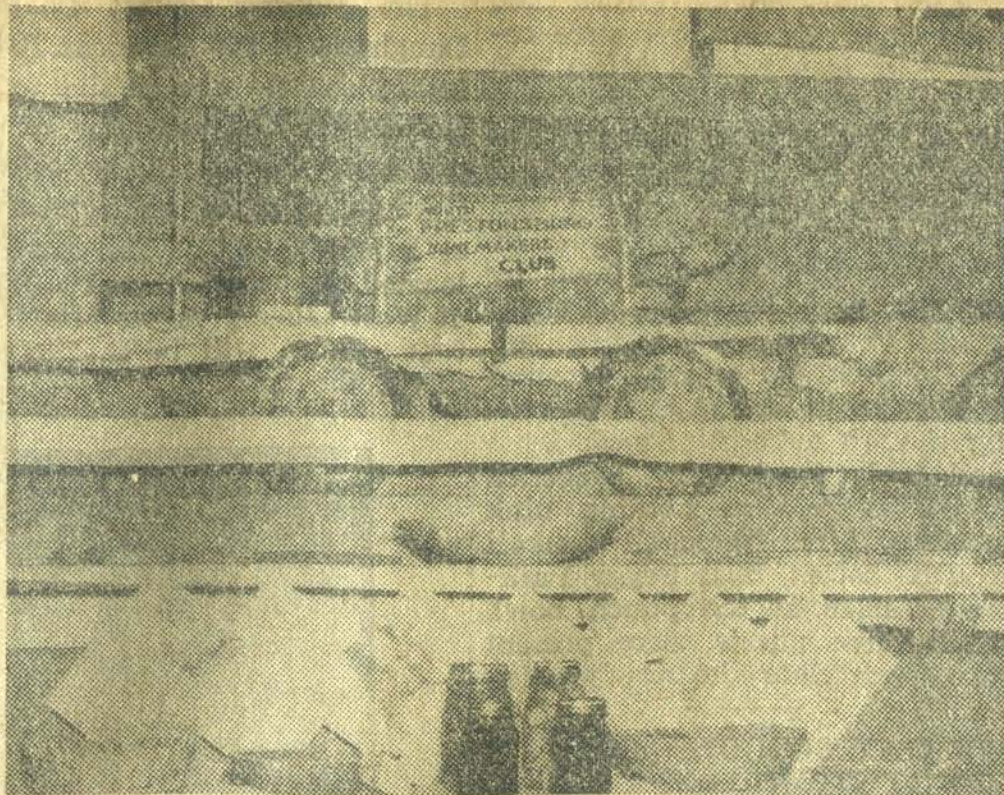

This man was shot down because crime had been permitted to grow till it had become big business, till any threat to it became a threat to men's pocketbooks.

Believe it or not, Floyd county could be presenting the Phoenix City picture all over again.

What is Floyd county's answer? That answer will be made, whether we speak and act or whether we continue to sit on our hands and remain silent.

It will be given by the people in their demands for law enforcement and by their work as jurors in the courts of this county. It will be given, too, by those elected by the people to do their sworn duty—by the sheriff, the circuit judge, the county judge, the commonwealth's attorney, the county attorney.

Winning Homemakers Club Booth

Pictured above is the winning Homemakers Club booth at the Floyd County Fair. The officers of the winning North Prestonsburg Club were Mrs. Betty Jones, president; Mrs. Betty Fannin, vice-president; and Mrs. Lou Ann Coleman, secretary and treasurer. Second place booth winner was the South Prestonsburg Homemakers, and third place winner was Martin Homemakers Club.

Mrs. Artie B. Martin, Former Floyd Teacher, Victim At Hueysville

Mrs. Artie Beverly Martin, 72, died at 8:30 p.m., Monday, at her home near Hueysville. Death was attributed to cancer.

A graduate of the old Eastern Kentucky Normal College, of Louisa, she entered the teaching profession and taught 10 years in the Louisa city schools and in Floyd county. She later was bookkeeper for the Elkhorn Coal Corporation at Wayland.

Mrs. Martin was a daughter of Martin Beverly and Hannah Martin Beverly and the wife of Joel C. Martin, who survives. She had no children.

Brothers and sisters surviving are Joe Beverly, of Drift, Kermit Beverly, Tampa, Fla., Miles Beverly, of Hi Hat, Archie Beverly, of Wayland, Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, Sallineville, Ohio, Mrs. Fanny Preston, and Mrs. Mary Vance, both of Martin, Mrs. Martha Stith, of Ashland, and Mrs. Nell Reed, Prestonsburg.

Funeral services were conducted at 1 p.m., today (Thursday) from the Garrett Methodist church, the Revs. C. O. Montgomery and H. M. Wiley officiating. Burial was made in the Davidson Memorial Gardens under the direction of Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

Practically every sale of every product manufactured in the U.S. will be purchased by one of the 10 million people who read a newspaper on an average day.

Pratt Carries Mail On Horseback From Pine Top To Pippa Passes; Last Route of Its Kind, Thought

Irvin Pratt climbed on a horse Tuesday and traveled up and down treacherous mountainsides for nine miles to deliver the United States mail.

He does the same thing three times a week.

But the trip from nearby Pine Top to Pippa Passes, Knott county, was different Tuesday.

A party of five men went along with Pratt to get firsthand knowledge of what he says is the only mail route of its kind in existence.

The 56-year-old Pratt, a former coal miner who was disabled, took over the circuitous route five years ago at a salary of $88.37 a month.

"It's an accommodation for the people," said Pratt, who delivers mail to more than 30 families, living in the back country away from highways.

It takes him about six hours to ride to Pippa Passes, home of the famed Caney Junior College, and then return to Pine Top.

By making the round trip, Pratt serves those who receive mail at the two post offices.

The first half of the journey required three hours 15 minutes of riding along narrow trails that in places seemed almost straight up and down.

Rain beat down steadily. Occasionally a horse slipped and almost fell with its rider, but the trip was completed without mishap.

One of Pratt's first stops was his own home, where he chatted briefly with his wife and daughter.

Col. W. J. Stiteler, Jr., 63-year-old president of the Coal Operators Casualty Company, Rockwood, Pa., headed the group escorting the mail.

He had shipped his nine-year-old purebred American saddle horse here especially for the mail-route ride, one of many trips he has made as a hobby. Afterward he said the ride was "as dangerous and rugged as any I've been on in 40 years as a horseman."

Stiteler and the other riders—H. Nick Johnson, Republican State-senatorial nominee from Harlan county; Wade Hall, Lexington insurance man; Frankfort photographer Eddie Gaines, and a reporter—ended their part of the trip at Pippa Passes.

Pratt rode off toward Pine Top on his six-year-old horse, called Nell, as if he were just going next door to visit the neighbors. It was still raining.

CLARK FAMILY REUNION IS HELD NEAR DEWEY LAKE, SEPT. 15

A reunion of the Clark family was held Sunday, September 6, on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmon Clark near Dewey Lake. The first get-together for this family was held last year and was so well enjoyed by all present that it was unanimously decided to have another this year at the same place. Since it was impossible to contact a lot of distant relatives at this time, it was the wish of all to have many more at this meeting.

Among those attending were Mrs. Susan Nesbitt, of Lucasville, Ohio, and three sons—Thomas, Sciotoville; Monroe, Columbus, and Bradley, of Lucasville, Ohio; a daughter, Mrs. Beulah Logan, and a granddaughter, Mrs. Geraldine Conway, also of Lucasville, Mr. and Mrs. James Adkins and family, Mrs. Geneva Volate and family, Cleveland, O.; Gene Porter, Jr., and family, Glen Wells and Henry Porter, Jr., Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Marlene Cornelson and family of Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Marshall and daughter, Nancy, of David; Mrs. Hess Williams, Josephine, and R. L. Spradlin, all of Prestonsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Damron and family, Ivel; Mrs. Martha Endicott, Banner; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Scott, Kenova, W. Va.; Mrs. Clotie Clark Rice, and sons, Mrs. Minto Clark Butcher and son, of East Point; Mr. and Mrs. Charley Clark, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nelson, West Van Lear.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Clark and family, Warfield; Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Clark and family, Pilgrim, Ky.; Mrs. Darleen Clark Burgess and Mr. Burgess, of Ohio; Mrs. J. B. Clark, Paintsville; Mrs. Ann Wells and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Collins and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Richmond and family, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Wright and family, Mr. and Mrs. Nevert Wells and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elmon Clark, Henry Porter, Sr., and son Howard, Mrs. Noka Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Banner Spears, and Kelley Wells, Van Lear; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hill, Mt. Sterling; and the Harmon Quartette, of Columbus, Ohio.

The devotional was led by Rev. James Sturgill. The many songs by the Harmon Quartette were enjoyed by all. These three young boys and a sister are really using their talents and are a blessing to all who hear them in their work which has been mostly in Ohio and Michigan, for some time.

After a short, but very interesting talk by Rev. Sturgill, it was a pleasure to have another by Mrs. Geraldine Conway who can always present truth in such a humble way. For the past 11 years Mrs. Conway has been a faithful servant. Besides the many revivals in our own country, she has been doing missionary work in 30 different countries—a short time ago in Jerusalem.

The crowd later enjoyed the huge boxes of food which were served on the long row of tables under the shade trees.

Before adjourning, pictures of the various family groups and of the older members were taken.

BABE DIES

Brenda Kay Lewis, four-month old daughter of Ireland and Lizzie Belle Boyd, of Cliff, died early Sunday morning at home. The cause of death was not given. Funeral rites were conducted at 2 p.m. Monday from the home of the child's grandfather, Taulbee Lewis, on Ivy Creek, the Rev. Wallace Lewis and others officiating. Burial was made in the family cemetery on Ivy Creek, under the direction of Carter and Callihan Funeral Home.

THYROID IMPLANTS

A test to see whether small amounts of a synthetic thyroid compound would increase fleece weights if given to sheep by an implant method resulted in no particular response to the chemical.

Glass is a poor insulator against sound. A picture window facing a highway may admit a large amount of noise into the house.

Goes to Winchester

Jack G. Stone, former Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company group manager at Paintsville, is the new Winchester district manager for the company, replacing H. M. Mitchell. Mitchell has been reassigned to Frankfort as the new district manager.

Prior to Mr. Stone's change he was public relations manager in the state office in Louisville.

A native of Louisville, Stone started with Southern Bell in 1946 at Owensboro. In 1953 he was appointed group manager at Paintsville and then as group manager at Danville in 1956.

He is married to the former Beatrice Lively, of Owensboro. They have four young sons.

Education Questions To Be Asked in Survey

Questions will be asked in the October Current Population Survey to determine how many children are enrolled in school, level of schooling and similar facts, it was announced by Director Robert A. Yerkey of the Census Bureau's regional field office at Cincinnati.

In addition, information will be obtained about college students on their major fields of study and how their college training is being financed. Inquiries on future plans for schooling will be made of high school seniors.

A number of families in the Current Population Survey sample panel will be asked special questions on consumer plans to purchase automobiles, television sets, washing machines, and refrigerators. This is part of a quarterly survey being made at the request of the Federal Reserve Board for use in a national study of consumer buying trends.

The questions on education and consumer buying plans are in addition to the regular inquiries on employment and unemployment which are asked each month in the Current Population Survey.

The Current Population Survey will be conducted locally and in 329 other areas of the country during the week of October 19. Information will be collected here by Mrs. Wilma L. Taulbee, Malone, Ky.

The ballot for veterans was published in The Floyd County Times and 14 other Kentucky newspapers, and as of Oct. 4, 2,514 veterans had voted. Of these, 2,381 voted "Yes," and 133 "No."

The Morgan county slaying is one of a series of recent violent events in the lives of Eastern Kentucky peace officers. Sheriff Dona Arnett, of Magoffin county, was found dead, near Swampton, and Early Cole was jailed, charged with running him down with a truck. Floyd Deputy Sheriff Joe Wheeler Lewis reported that he was under revolver fire two week-ends in a row, and a Carter county deputy sheriff's auto was blasted by dynamite recently.

BRUCellosis TESTING

The brucellosis testing program is continuing in the county. Progress has been slow since the three vet students went back to school. William Ring is the only technician working in the county at the present time. If those farmers that have not had their cows tested will be patient, they will get to their farm in the near future.

Areas yet to be tested include parts of Middle Creek, Spurlock, Bull Creek, Brandy Keg, Cow Creek, and from Mare Creek to Prestonsburg on U. S. 23.

Only eight cows have been reactors. This indicates a low infection in the county. For this we can be thankful. At the present rate, the county will certify on the initial test.

Martin P.-T.A. Closes Its Membership Drive; Projects Are Considered

The annual membership drive of the Martin Parent-Teachers Association closed Monday, October 12, when approximately 80 members were entertained to a band concert conducted by Mrs. Betty Salisbury. The drive closed with 216 members in the organization.

Several projects were introduced for consideration this year, and for immediate action. The Martin school librarian was authorized to purchase an encyclopedia for the elementary school. Among the other projects discussed were the tiling of the floors of the primary rooms of the elementary school and purchase of new uniforms for the band.

Both of the above projects were shelved for future consideration, and a committee appointed to make a study and report at the next meeting the result of their findings. As a result of the membership drive, all indebtedness incurred by the P.-T.A. was paid, so the group begins a new year with new projects and a complete freedom of any former indebtedness.

At the first meeting of the P.-T.A., Randall Allen was appointed chairman of the ways and means committee and one of the first projects was to prepare and organize a minstrel show to be presented soon.

As soon as the use of the new lunchroom is made available to the school, the P.-T.A. plans a Grand Opening with the preparation of a dinner to raise funds for the projects now under consideration.

Mrs. Howard's seventh grade was awarded the P.-T.A. banner for the most parents present at the Monday night meeting. Her room will retain this banner as long as her section can continue to win by having the most parents present.

The next P.-T.A. meeting will be November 9, at 7 p.m.

Only Two More Weeks

Look at the date opposite your name on on this copy of your paper. It indicates when your subscription to The FLOYD COUNTY TIMES expired or will expire.

For example: If the date reads "May 60," that means that your subscription will expire May 31, 1960. In all cases the expiration date is the last day of the month given.

THIS IS IMPORTANT

It is important that prompt notice be taken of subscribers' expiration dates for two reasons: (1) To check for a possible error in the date; (2) To make certain the expired subscription will not be cancelled.

Cost of production — wages, high newsprint costs and other factors — makes it necessary that all subscriptions be paid in advance. It is not of our choosing, the present situation, but the cost of producing a newspaper under present conditions is such that we will not be able any longer to "carry" subscribers, however well we know them or however much we would like to do so.

Please remember this. Your credit is good, but our credit may become bad if we do not collect for subscriptions.

For this reason alone on and after November 1, 1959, all subscriptions in arrears will be dropped from our mailing lists.

Subscription rates: In Kentucky, $3 a year; Outside Kentucky, $3.50.
On and after Jan. 1, 1960, the rate for subscribers outside Kentucky will be $4 a year.

Mrs. Minerva Hatfield, Of East Point, Is Victim Following Long Illness

Mrs. Minerva Hatfield, 78, lifelong resident of East Point, died Saturday, October 3, at the home of her nephew, Walter Ramey, at East Point, following an illness of several weeks.

She was first married to Sam Robinson in 1897, who preceded her in death January 17, 1942. Her second marriage was to John Hatfield, who also preceded her in death.

Surviving besides her nephew is a brother, Ben Estep, of Blaine.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at 2 p.m., from the East Point Church of Christ with Rev. S. C. Honeycutt as officiating minister. Burial was at East Point in the Hatfield-Leake cemetery.

YES, WE SHOULD. . . . While we're quoting, consider this statement made by Paul G. Blazer, head of the Ashland Oil & Refining Co. in an address at Pikeville College last Thursday when he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws:

"There's no place in the world where one can find greater native ability, and there are few places where an investment in education will yield a greater return" (speaking of Eastern Kentucky). "We should have here the largest chemical industry in this part of the country. Nowhere is there a more adequate supply of intelligent, easily trained labor, and we have cheap fuel—coal, gas and oil—which also is important as raw material."

If Mr. Blazer, for whom we have great respect, will tell us how we could have what we should have, we will go to court, if necessary, to have him named Trail Blazer.

SUGGESTION
 When Southern Bell "cuts over," Dec. 3, to its new long-distance dialing system, a code number will be assigned to Eastern Kentucky, and another to Western Kentucky. Eastern Kentucky's number will be 806. We suggest it should be code letters, instead . . . SOS, for instance.

The Combs-Wyatt press seminar, held at DuPont Lodge, Cumberland Falls State Park, Friday, was the third arranged by Bert Combs, Democratic nominee for Governor, and Wilson Wyatt, Democratic standard bearer for Lieutenant-Governor. Both candidates are seeking ideas for programs which will benefit local communities and the Commonwealth.

BABE DIES

Randall Carroll, six-month-old son of George and Verna Hall Carroll, of Blue Moon, died at 11 a.m. Saturday at home. Besides the parents, he is survived by seven brothers and sisters. Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Sunday, at home, the Rev. Willie Meade officiating. Burial was made in the Trace Branch cemetery at Honaker under the direction of Hall Bros. Funeral Home.

CORRECTION

Officiating ministers at the funeral of Preston Terry were incorrectly listed last week. The ministers were Hawley Warrens, Ellis Hopkins and Eppie Holbrook.

Indictments lodged against others from this county were:

Indicted from Johnson county were:

Millard Preston and James Spears, moonshining; Willard Preston and Willie Mullett, moonshining; Ballard Prater, of Whitehouse, breaking and entering postoffice; John Lee Williamson, possessing untaxed whiskey.

These from Knott county were indicted:

Thurman and Ethel Barnett, transporting moonshine whiskey; Harrison Stone, of Mallie, possessing untax-paid liquor; Clyde Watkins, possession of untaxed whiskey; Curtis Earl Myers, possession and sale of untaxed whiskey.

Charged with the dynamiting of an L. & N. railway bridge leading to the Flame Coal Co. in Letcher county, June 20, were: Wild Page, Irvin Napier, John Stidham and Troy Holland. The four entered pleas of not guilty when arraigned Wednesday and their bonds were continued at $10,000 each. Trial has been set for Feb. 2.

Floyd county's first exhibitor at the State Fair and the first south of Mt. Sterling challenged the rest of the state with his purebred Hampshire sheep and came off with ribbons and top placings.

The winner, Floyd B. Allen, Martin high school teacher and Langley farmer, is only 31 years old but he has been raising sheep for 23 years. Coached in the business since he was a youngster of eight years by his sheep-raising father, the late Ward Allen, he knows something about sheep. He proved it by showing four at one of the nation's top agricultural exhibitions.

FLOYD CIRCUIT COURT CITY OF PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY, A MUNICIPAL CORPORATION PETITIONER

Complaint and Petition Seeking Reduction of the Boundaries of the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, Striking Off Certain Territory Lying on the Southern City Limits of Said City.

To HON. EDWARD P. HILL, PRESIDING JUDGE OF THE FLOYD CIRCUIT COURT.

The petitioner, City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, for its complaint and petition herein states that it is a municipal corporation of the State of Kentucky, and a City of the Fourth Class.

1. Petitioner further says that on the 3rd day of August, 1959, at a regular meeting of the City Council of the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, held at the City Hall, the said City Council duly adopted and enacted an ordinance which was later advertised in three consecutive issues of the Floyd County Times, a weekly newspaper published in the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, directing that there be stricken from the southern limits of said City certain territory, thereby reducing the boundary of said city, and which ordinance also directed the City Attorney to take the necessary steps including the filing of this suit, to strike said territory from the city limits of the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky.

2. That the aforesaid ordinance was duly advertised and published in the Floyd County Times for three consecutive weeks commencing with the issue of September 9th, continuing with the issue of September 16, and concluding with the issue of September 23, 1959. A copy of said advertisement is filed herewith and marked "Exhibit A" for identity.

3. The said territory, proposed to be stricken off from the boundary of the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, is bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

"BEGINNING at a post on Big Sandy River at low water mark on the line of Mrs. G. W. Rhorer; thence with her line to U.S. Highway 23 and across said highway to the lower line of Goldie Layne 300 feet to the line of the city limits; thence up Big Sandy River with said line of the city limits to the L. V. Goble line 30 feet above his residence; and with said line to low water mark at the Big Sandy River; thence with the river to the beginning."

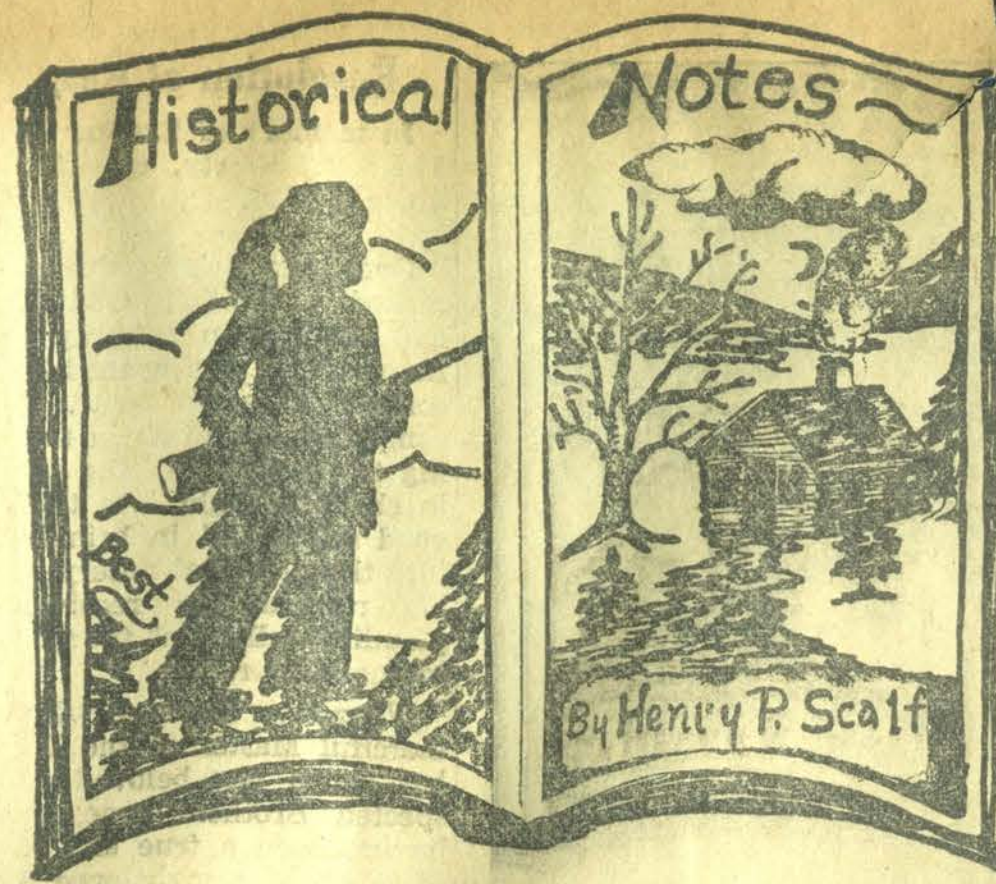

WHEREFORE, plaintiff, City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, demands: FIRST: That this court enter a judgment striking off the above described territory from the boundary of the City of Prestonsburg, thereby reducing the boundary of said city, and that the same be no longer considered as part of the boundary of said city, or within the same;

SECOND: That said territory shall thereafter be treated and considered for all purposes as outside the boundaries of said incorporated city;

THIRD: That if any defense is made hereto that petitioner recover its costs.

HEREFORD SLAVE

Three years ago David Hereford found a letter in the attic of the old Hereford home at Cliff. It was yellow with age for it had been written 95 years ago to Dr. James H. Hereford, Prestonsburg physician. The letter was from the doctor's cousin, F. M. Hereford, Baton Rouge, La., and was dated April 13, 1861.

The date of the letter, April 13, 1861, was the day after the firing on Fort Sumter at Charleston, S. C. Hereford was a staunch Democrat and slaveholder but he was no secessionist. He served with distinction as a surgeon in the Union Army but his son, James Hereford, Jr., elected to go into the Confederate service. The division of the country was no better exemplified than in the Hereford family.

Young Hereford, a lawyer, fought against Gen. "Bull" Nelson at the Battle of Ivy Mountain under Capt. Andrew Jackson May. Captured by the victorious Federals he was released at Pikeville through the intercession of members of the Unionists Ratliff family with which there was a marital tie.

However, when Fort Sumter was fired upon and the Louisiana cousin was writing Dr. Hereford at Prestonsburg, little news was being received in the Big Sandy valley. It would be days before news from the South reached Prestonsburg. It was probably weeks before the letter from Louisiana penetrated Confederate and Union lines to arrive at the Hereford home.

The letter concerns Dr. Hereford's negro slave, Flem, and we quote its entirety:

"Baton Rouge, La.
"April 13, 1861
"Dr. James H. Hereford
"Dear Cousin

"There is a negro man in jail at this place who says he belongs to Dr. James Hereford of Floyd county, Ky. He calls himself Flem and says he was brought off by a man named Henry Williams who was part of the coalworks and the negro run away from him at Natchez. The negro is about 24 or 25 years old and has a large scar near the left nipple which he says was caused by an injury received by a railroad accident.

"The laws of this state are very peculiar and strict in regard to the proof of negro property, it will be necessary for you to present before a justice the proof in your county, two witnesses that ever remember such time you lost a negro and accurately describe the mark and general appearance of the negro, all of which must be presented to the auditor of the state, and you or some other person will have to make such before a justice of the governor of the state, identifying the negro.

STATE NATIONAL GUARD UNIT IMPROVES ITS RESERVATION

Frankfort, Oct. 12 (Spl.) — For the first time in the history of Kentucky National Guard, one of its units deviated from traditional training at a military post this summer and completed a $250,000 construction project.

The work was done by the 201st Combat Engineers (Combat) at its Frankfort Reservation. In any language, says the Commonwealth Magazine, "the 201st went practical." It made camp on the grounds of the Frankfort Armory and successfully tackled its mission of improving the reservation's 33 acres.

Land was cleared, bulldozers ironed out the rugged terrain, and fills, culverts and retaining walls were built for the mile and a half of 28-foot wide military road that was constructed for use of the National Guard in testing motorized equipment repaired in the Frankfort maintenance shops.

The engineers constructed a test proof range for small weapons, erected more than 1,600 feet of steel wire fencing to enclose the area, and reconstructed a prefabricated steel airplane hangar which had been dismantled at Glasgow and transported to Frankfort by guardsmen.

Federal funds of more than $4,000 were allotted for supplies, and the Army sent inspectors from Fort Hays at Columbus, Ohio, to inspect the project daily.

Despite the departure in training procedures, all of the usual summer camp routine prevailed. Roll call at 6 a.m., and policing of the area preceded 6:30 breakfast. Work call came at 7:30, "chow" at 11, work call again at noon, with duty ended at 4 p.m. After-supper leaves were granted, with taps at 11. Regular dress regulations were the order for all going off the reservation, and for those who stayed on the post there was a completely stocked post exchange. Movies were furnished by the Army from Fort Knox.

Officers also had their special chores, including a daily muster at 4 p.m., at which progress reports were made and problems discussed.

The Kentucky Division of Forestry distributed 14 million tree seedlings in 1958 to landowners to reforest 14,569 acres of idle and eroded land.

FAMED HUNT-MORGAN HOME IS CIVIL WAR LANDMARK

The Hunt-Morgan Home, Lexington, a classic example of early 19th-century architecture, is famed as the residence of the "Thunderbolt of the Confederacy." Gen. John Hunt Morgan, leader of Morgan's Raiders whose daring exploits filled many Civil War chronicles.

Kentucky and the nation are making plans to observe the centennial of this war between the states.

The house was made a public shrine under the sponsorship of the Foundation for the Preservation of Historic Lexington and Lafayette county.

A stately ornament to the southwest corner of Mill and Second streets, the home was built by Kentucky's first millionaire, John Wesley Hunt, probably in 1814, the year he bought the tract from Thomas January.

A third famous Kentuckian, Thomas Hunt Morgan, also lived here during his boyhood. He was winner of the Nobel Prize for contributions to genetics.

The main part of the house, built first, faced Mill Street and had a courtyard and a second-story porch on the Second Street side. Almost a separate building, the rear portion of the house was added, probably as a servant's quarter, in the 1840's.

The facade, with its elegant double doors and the fanlight, the Palladian window above the arched window in the third story pediment, constitutes the outstanding architectural feature of Lexington's historic Gratz Park.

PIKEVILLE, HAZARD WIN; P'BURG UPSETS LOUISA

Eastern Kentucky high school football fans are becoming accustomed to the winning of Hazard and Pikeville this season, but to determine which will win the conference and a possible Class "AA" region four play-off berth remains to be seen.

Both schools have won six consecutive games, both have identical 4-0 regional records, and Jim Caudill's Bulldogs are one-half game ahead of Pikeville in the 10-team Eastern Kentucky Mountain Conference with a 5-0 mark, as compared to Pikeville's 4-0 record.

Hazard pasted non-regional and non-conference for Benham, 26-6, while Charlie Deaton's Panthers downed Fleming, 28-6, in a regional and league game.

Prestonsburg's Blackcats evened their season's mark at 3-3 by nipping Louisa, 13-6; Paintsville fell before Lexington Dunbar, 27-19; Elkhorn City won its first game in seven starts by whipping Raceland, 21-6; Belfry overpowered M. C. Napier, 34-8; Whitesburg bounced arch-rival Jenkins, 33-0, and Wheelwright lost, 31-14, to Hurley, Virginia.

Mike Minix, Paintsville's junior halfback, took over the individual scoring leadership in Eastern Kentucky by scoring three touchdowns and an extra point as his mates fell before Lexington Dunbar. The junior speedster plunged 7, 6 and 2 yards for his t.d.'s after personally putting the ball in scoring positions on two long runs. He now has 92 points in six games, putting him ahead of Pikeville's Charles Mims and Whitesburg's Roger Kinser.

Burly fullback James Allen paced Prestonsburg over Louisa with 198 yards gained and scored all 13 Blackcat markers. He went 45 yards for the first t.d. and 8 for the second and also ran the point after touchdown.

Hazard will be the scene of one of the state's top battles this Friday night, when Somerset of Region 3, Class "AA" comes to town. Although this game is a non-conference and non-regional game, it will be the big test of the season for Caudill's eleven. Somerset was the only team to mar Hazard's record last season and that was by a mere 7-6 margin.

The Briar Jumpers boast a 5-1 season's worksheet as compared with Hazard's 6-0 slate.

Float Fishing Popular Sport

Fishermen tired of crowds at Kentucky's big fishing spots are advised to try their luck while floating down some of the state's less known streams.

The advice comes from the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources. The agency calls this type of angling "float fishing." The majority of these smaller streams abound with bass, crappie, bluegill and even some monster musky, the department says.

The strong of back and heart will find this sport the answer to the problem of the battle of the joy-boaters on large lakes, despite the fact boats must be carried on some stretches of the smaller streams, adds the agency.

It lists some of the favorite float fishing streams in Kentucky, best fishing seasons and pices:

North Fork of Kentucky River — Largemouth and smallmouth bass and some musky; May, June, September, October.

Middle Fork of Kentucky River — Same fish and same fishing months.

South Fork of Kentucky River — Same fish; May, June and August.

Green River — Upper section noted for all three species of bass and redeye; lower section same and also walleye and mammoth musky; early spring and late summer and fall.

Red River — Small and largemouth bass and good musky; early spring and late summer and fall.

Licking River — Upper part has musky, black bass, redeye; lower part void of musky; early spring and late fall.

The department recommends these streams for musky fishing: Tygart Creek, Carter and Greenup counties; Triplett Creek, Rowan county, and Kennicottic Creek, Lewis county.

SPORTS AFIELD

By TED KESTING

How game is the pickerel? That's a matter about which there's some controversy. Here is the opinion of Jason Lucas, Angling Editor of Sports Afield Magazine.

Let's, as a standard of measurement, try to compare the gameiness of a pickerel with that of the bass, since bass and pickerel found in the same district are likely to average much the same size. When a pickerel of reasonable size takes your lure and heads sou'east by east he's considerably faster than a bass—one glance at his perfectly streamlined figure and powerful tail shows that he's built for speed.

That speed is in his favor. Against him is the fact that he's not nearly as likely to leap as a bass—but when he does go up his leap is likely to be higher and more spectacular than that of a bass.

Will he give as long and tough a fight as a bass? That varies greatly. In warmish water he's likely to put up only a brief and weak fight, scarcely to be called a fight at all; a bass almost never does so badly. But in cold water he'll probably fight longer than a bass of the same size; and his fight is likely to be tricky, with some periods of little action, when you think you have him licked, interspersed with unexpected, jet-propelled runs at that high speed he's capable of.

So far, things are very roughly equal, but here's a highly important angle: Generally speaking, a pickerel either isn't feeding so you can't catch him, or he is feeding and you hook him easily. Out of a whole season, there may be only two days when bass are really easy to catch, when every dub is catching some—periods when they might be said to be suffering from epizootic temporary insanity with suicidal tendencies. The rest of the time, unless where you are is really about fished-out, you can always catch some bass, and generally a nice number of them—if you're really studded bass fishing, and if you're willing to do approximately the same amount of mental work required in a hard game of chess.

Boiled down we might class the two species thus: The veteran angler far prefers bass, since catching them in reasonable numbers is strictly a game of skill, high skill.

GOOFY RATINGS

In the first state-wide high school football ratings, Hazard high was tabbed as the 21st team. Since that first release in the early part of the season, Jim Caudill's eleven has won six consecutive games without a setback and as a result has now "slid" to 35th position in the state.

Pikeville high school has virtually suffered the same fate in the looney ratings. They started in 40th position, won six consecutive games and are now down to 62nd place among Kentucky's 145 football-playing schools.

Other Eastern Kentucky teams are rated thusly: Whitesburg 37th, Paintsville 70th, Prestonsburg 97th, Fleming-Neon 110th, Jenkins 112th, Wheelwright 135th and Elkhorn City 141st.

Only four teams in Kentucky's top ten are undefeated, aside from Hazard and Pikeville.

Prestonsburg high school football players now vote on their team player-of-the-week instead of a secret five-man committee, as has been the practice for the past six years.

Bob Smith, who recently was switched from halfback to end, was named the outstanding player in the Pikeville game, and senior fullback James Allen received the award for the Louisa game. Allen personally accounted for 198 yards gained, and tallied all 13 points for the winning Blackcats.

Friday night's schedule offers area fans one of the best matches of the season as Hazard is host to Somerset, the state's 8th-ranked team, although they lost to Corbin 7-6; and in two important conference games, Pikeville invades Paintsville and Prestonsburg is at home to Belfry.

A Pictorial Review of East Kentucky
(No. 65 in a Series)

REV. WALLIS BAILEY, FOUNDER OF UNITED BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Wallis Bailey, founder of the United Baptist church of Eastern Kentucky, was a native of Magoffin county and was born in 1802. He was one of the most eloquent divines of the state.

For years he was a minister in the Regular Baptist church but a doctrinal dispute between two groups led to the secession of Bailey and his followers from Burning Springs Association in 1837. The seceding churches formed the Paint Union Association.

Rev. Bailey rode horseback over the Eastern Kentucky region, into West Virginia and Virginia to organize churches of his faith. He was fatally injured while riding to his home on the Rockhouse Fork of Burning Springs Fork of Licking River where he died January 5, 1885. He lies buried in the Bailey cemetery overlooking Ky. 7 and a memorial, paid for by his followers, marks his grave.

Today, the church Rev. Bailey founded has members in all of Eastern Kentucky, Southwest Virginia, Southern West Virginia and in other states. A picture of the minister hangs in the Burning Springs church at Salyersville, said to be the only one in existence. The picture here is a copy.
