This Town-- That World

THE PRISONER

The prisoner paced restlessly back and forth, back and forth. He sat down, fingered a book, stared out the window, rose to resume the aimless pacing.

Out there the sun was shining. He recognized the driver of a passing automobile. Children ran and whooped with abandon. Off in the distance, a train bell clanged. Business went on as usual, and he had been a part of all that activity out there, but not now.

His knees grew wobbly. Was it because he had in his confinement had so little exercise, or was it because he had walked too long and without purpose?

He thought of how many times he had, without considering the implications, written about others being sentenced to years, even life, in prison. "Freedom" and "liberty"—liberty to come and go, to feel the good earth beneath his feet, to mingle with others—took on a new meaning.

Then, finally, the prisoner sat down, gave forth with his deepest sigh of the day and set his mind to reading. He almost succeeded in laughing at himself.

This wasn't the end; it all would pass soon. Why fret? The doctor had merely said, "Be sure you stay inside the house all week—don't take a chance on getting a backache from the flu."

OF BUSINESS PLANS

In the mail comes a communication from Detroit. It reads:

In a Detroit automobile plant several men from the Prestonsburg area were sitting around during lunch period discussing their plans for the future. Said the first man: "I hear that business is pretty good back home. Now that Bert Combs is our new Governor, things are going to be much better. I think I will go back and build me a skating rink. Then all I'll have to do is sit back and watch the girls skate by."

GARDEN GROUP IS ORGANIZED

New, Improved Gardens Is Object Of Committee; Martin Named Chairman

The long-planned family garden improvement program for Floyd county got underway officially here Saturday when a committee was organized charged with the overall responsibility of carrying out the work. Garland Martin, of Langley, was named chairman.

The group has a goal of 50 families in the program and April 1 was set as the deadline for enrollment.

"If this goal is reached and each one improves his garden 20 per cent, there will be a substantial rise in food production in this county," it was said by Robert M. Jones, county agent.

Enrollment cards will be available at all stores selling garden seeds, a spokesman of the group said. A packet of gardening seed in the program. Plans are to hold will be sent to each family enrolling community garden meetings throughout the county and demonstrations will be carried out on new practices in each community.

"Every family needs to be more aware of the value of a good garden," Jones continued in discussing (See Story No. 6, Page 6)

COUNCIL HEARS VIEWS ON FINANCING SYSTEM

NEW ESTIMATE OF SEWAGE COSTS ASKED

Early Plan To Pay Off Bonds, By Near-Doubling Water Bills Is Discarded

The Prestonsburg City Council heard two representatives of Howard K. Bell, consultants, Lexington, explain Wednesday evening of Jan. 20, just what the town is up against on its sewage problem. They were present at the meeting at the request of the Council.

(The meeting was the second of the week for the Council. At Monday night's session the Council repealed the ordinance authorizing the creation here of a 64-unit parking lot. This was a main feature of the urban renewal program here, and the action ends urban renewal plans but does not affect other programs under consideration.)

One of the Bell representatives, J. W. Finney, Jr., reviewed the long but fruitless effort to work out some plan to finance the proposed sewage treatment plant and accessory installations.

He noted that in 1956 his firm studied the city sewage system, its condition then and the urgent needs. An estimate of cost was made but his firm went further and worked out the only financing plan believed feasible. This plan envisioned the issuance of 4 per cent bonds to be amortized by an added charge of 90 per cent against the water bills. This move died because it was felt that this addition to the water consumers' bills would be too heavy.

Two years ago, he recalled for the Council, there was a new move to do something about the sewer system. There is now and was then an urgent need to supply sewage to several areas of the town that had insufficient service or none. Outfalls for the proposed extensions had to be in the Big Sandy River and this necessity brought the city face to face with the Kentucky Water Pollution Control Commission and its regulatory policy.

Representatives of the Council and the engineering company appeared before the Commission at Frankfort and sought approval of these new outfalls proposed to be constructed to serve the areas without service. The Commission denied the city's application but indicated if the Council would work in good faith to initiate construction on the new sewage treatment plant by Sept. 16, 1961, that the new outfalls might be approved on a temporary basis until the plant was in operation and they were no longer needed. Another exaction of the Commission was the passage of a (See Story No. 3, Page 6)

NAME WOMAN FOR MURDER

Mrs. Allen Is Charged In Death Of Parrigan; 36 Indictments Made

Of the 36 indictments voted by the grand jury in the last three days of its split session, one named a woman on a willful murder charge and two others accused officers of false arrest.

Mrs. Mary Allen, of Wayland, is the defendant in the murder indictment, accused of the revolver slaying recently of McKinley Parrigan, also of Wayland. Her trial has been docketed for April 18, and she executed $5,000 bond.

Charged with false arrest were State Trooper Tommy Wright, with Olive Jones as the complaining witness; and Deputy Sheriff Harold Johnson, who was named by Tuley Salisbury. Mrs. Jones, Paul Milford Compton and Donald Ray Robinson had been previously indicted on an assault and battery charge by Trooper Wright, and Salisbury had been named in an indictment accusing him of reckless use of a deadly weapon.

Another indictment accused Dave Stephens, Prestonsburg radio station owner, Arwin Meade and Alton Stephens of conspiracy, banding to destroy the property of another. The indictment was apparently made on a statement made by Arwin Meade, who at the September term entered a plea of guilty to attempted arson and was given a two-year pen term. The pen sentence later, however, was set aside on the contention that the original guilty plea was made at a time when the defendant was without legal counsel. The indictment developed from an alleged attempt to burn Radio Station WDOC here.

The Stephens also were named on the attempted arson charge but have not been given trial. Hearing of the cases has been set for the April court term.

Other major indictments reported by the grand jury before adjournment, Jan. 29, included these:

Tilden Shepherd, drunk driving; Ernest Reynolds, damaging property of another; John Lee Adkins, obstructing a public road; Thomas H. Meadows, converting property of another; Earl Tackett, obtaining goods under false pretense; Arthur Dudley, Frank Moore, Curtis Mullins, Bestel Mullins and George Newsome, each accused of knowingly receiving stolen property; Dennis Caudill and Clyde Justice, breaking and entering.

Banner Hall and Charlie Fyfe, grand larceny; Mart Reed, shooting and wounding; James Stone, shooting and wounding; Russell Lee Hall, seduction; Denver Hall, rape; Dewey Wallen, rape and incest; and the following accused of child desertion—Joel Allen, Willie Baldridge, Virgil Combs, Mark Henry, Ralph Jack Stone, John Lloyd Sturgill, Alfred Tackett, Charles Jeff Wells, Don Woods, Burlie Yates.

HOSPITAL TAX IS ANNULLED

By Tax Commission; County's Side Of Case Inadequately Made, Said

The $516,000 tax assessment made by the Floyd County Board of Supervisors against the McDowell Memorial hospital was annulled Feb. 4 by order of the State Tax Commission, county officials were notified this week.

The assessmen was made as of Jan. 1, 1959, and the UMWA-operated institution filed an appeal with the Tax Commission. The hospital's real estate holdings were evaluated at $500,000 and its tangible personal property at $16,000.

A hearing was held about two months ago at the Tax Commission's office here. Evidence produced for the hospital claimed it is a charitable institution. Tax Commissioner Manis Conley said the county's case supporting taxation of the hospital was not adequately presented.

The State Tax Commission order, written by William E. Scent, chairman, reads in part: "The Commission, after carefully reviewing the record, and being fully advised, is of the opinion that this organization is working within the requirements set forth in its articles of incorporation as a charitable institution, and is, therefore, exempt from the payment of property taxes under Section 170 of the Kentucky Constitution." The decision forestalls any other Kentucky county's attempt to tax hospitals of the Miners Memorial Association.

Virgil Warrix began operation Monday morning of Nunnery's store, Prestonsburg oldest grocery business, which he purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Heber Burke.

The business was established 47 years ago by the late J. H. Nunnery, and Mr. Burke, his son-in-law, was associated with him in its operation for years. Mr. and Mrs. Burke acquired ownership of the store after Mr. Nunnery's death, a few years ago, and converted it into a self-service grocery.

The new owner has been in the store business about 20 years, and for several years was manager of the Mallory Store at David.

Mrs. Wilson is also survived by a son, Trimble Wilson, of Huntington, and a sister, Mrs. Martha Moore, of Tram.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 1 p.m. from the Tram Church of Christ and burial will follow in the Camp Branch cemetery under the direction of Carter & Callihan Funeral Home.

Man Who Recalled Departed Period Of Rafting, Pushboating Succumbs; Was Associate Of "Free Silver" Kelly

John Forrest Brown, 87 years old, one of the last of Big Sandy's old-time raftsmen, died Tuesday night at the Prestonsburg General hospital. He had been in failing health the last two years but had been seriously ill only 10 days.

A native of Paintsville, he resided for a time in Prestonsburg with his parents, the late H. K. and Jane Maria Auxier Brown, moving from here in 1910. After his marriage to Miss Martha Murphy, he moved to Lawrence county where he operated a general store at Georges Creek 47 years. His recollections of life on and along the Big Sandy during rafting and push-boating days were varied and interesting. For about five years he was employed at the mouth of John Creek by "Free Silver" Kelly, early merchant and wealthy landowner.

Mr. Brown returned to Prestonsburg in 1950, and until ill health forced him into semi-retirement he was associated here with his son, George D. Brown, in the operation of the Brown Produce Company.

Surviving are his widow, four sons and one daughter, George D. Brown, Prestonsburg, J. B. Brown, Ashland, F. G. Brown, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., E. K. Brown, Shelbyana, Ky., and Mrs. C. A. Preston, of Ashland. He also leaves three brothers and two sisters, E. B. Brown, of Prestonsburg, Edgar Brown, of Ashland, D. G. Brown, of Georges Creek, Mrs. Nora Hayes, of Louisa, and Mrs. Jessie Daniels, of River, Ky.

The funeral will be conducted Friday at 2 p.m. from the First Church of God here, the Rev. Moses Kitchen officiating. Burial will be made in the family lot of the Mayo cemetery under direction of the Moore Funeral Home.

The boy membership shows 3,688,783 registered, a gain of 71,690 or 2.0 per cent during the year.

Cub Scouts, a program for boys eight, nine, and ten years of age, total 1,822,062, a gain of 7,558. There are 1,589,138 Boy Scouts, a gain of 46,090 or 3.0 per cent.

Cavins suffered multiple internal injuries and compound fractures of both legs when struck by a car at First street and Fourth avenue, at about 11:15 p.m. He died in a hospital 30 minutes later.

The driver of the car was identified by police as Norman Lee Adkins, 1608 Jefferson Ave., Huntington. Adkins told police he did not see the victim as he stepped into the path of the car. No charges were brought against the driver.

FRANCHISE TAX RULING TO CUT SCHOOL FUNDS

Alleged Michigan Forger Nabbed By Deputy Here; Few Others Arrested

Frank Joseph Caputo, of the Prestonsburg vicinity, was jailed Friday by Deputy Sheriff Joe Wheeler Lewis, to be held for Michigan authorities. The charge marked against him on jail records is forgery.

Few other arrests were recorded within the week, and fewer still on major offenses. Clyde Justice was booked Saturday by Deputies James Hall and Harold Lewis on a charge of no operator's license. Bill Stratton was jailed the same day on the same charge by State Trooper Williamson. Stratton also was accused of driving while under the influence of intoxicants.

AREA COLLEGE SOUGHT HERE

By Rep. Ollie Robinson; Resolution Is Adopted To Investigate Needs

A resolution requesting the Department of Education to study the need for a new, four-year college to be located in Eastern Kentucky, was introduced in the General Assembly, Tuesday, by Rep. Ollie Robinson, of Prestonsburg. Adoption was immediate in the House.

However, Robinson's plan for extension of higher education facilities to the Eastern Kentucky region seemed to be in for rough going when the Kentucky Council on Public Higher Education recommended a comprehensive review of higher education in the state. The recommendation was made public the same day Robinson's resolution was adopted.

The Council's request was made on the heels of a blast from Dr. Kelly Thompson, president of Western Kentucky State College, who charged that unless there was an orderly study of needs chaos might result in a few years from the establishment of more institutions of higher learning.

Legislation is now in the mill to establish a state college at Elizabethtown. Extensions of the University of Kentucky were made at Henderson, Ashland, Cumberland and Covington under the previous administration.

Robinson's plan for the bringing of higher education to Eastern Kentucky was a platform plank last year.

A new name was also suggested by Robinson for Eastern Kentucky State College at Richmond. He said the name lulls people into believing that Eastern Kentucky has a state college in its midst when it doesn't.

FLOYD'S LOSS IS ESTIMATED AT $137,715

Appellate Court Ruling Rouses Education Fears; Counties To Lose Funds

A recent decision of the Kentucky Court of Appeals will probably cost the Floyd county school system $137,715, it was calculated by County Superintendent V. O. Turner today (Thursday). It will put the county school revenue back near where it was 12 or 13 years ago unless the present legislature gives relief, he added.

The decision, with far-reaching effects on school systems and fiscal court budgets, ruled on litigation instituted by the Tennessee Gas Transmission Company seeking to have its franchise taxes reduced from a 55 per cent of valuation to the average state assessment level of 30.8 per cent. The court ruled unanimously in favor of the company by asserting that the method of taxation was discriminatory.

Just how seriously this would effect fiscal court revenues was not determined this week but it was pointed out that adverse effects there would not be ameliorated by legislative action in the foreseeable future.

Revenue loss to some school districts in the state could run to $2,000,000, it was said by the department of Education, Frankfort. Loss to the entire state in annual franchise assessments is calculated to run from $100,000,000 to $225,000,000.

Franchise assessments are set by the state, and other assessments at the county level. Kentucky, with one of the lowest assessment ratios in the United States, has been seeking to find some formula to raise it. This accounts in part for the wide differences in county and state ratios. Floyd county's property assessment ratio is a little over 28 per cent.

"No one seems to know what the actual effect of the decision upon school revenues will be," Turner (See Story No. 7, Page 4)

STOP SOUGHT TO POLLUTION

By Grand Jury Report; Hi Hat Elkhorn Named To Be Investigated

The grand jury in its final reports made to Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill upon its adjournment suggested that stream pollution be called to the attention of the April grand jury and that special attention be given by that body to one Floyd coal company.

The report, signed by Mike H. Staley, of Lackey, foreman, named the coal firm as the Hi Hat Elkhorn Coal Company, which operates on Left Beaver Creek, and advised that the company be required to correct "the condition which the evidence shows exists."

Coal dust entering the stream from a coal washing operation has commanded the attention of conservation officers for some time, it was said.

The jury's report gave considerable space to the courthouse, which it reported in "a bad state of repair and in need of considerable maintenance work." Specifically, it suggested that: (See Story No. 5, Page 4)

FLOYD-CO. BAR HONORS GOV. COMBS AT DINNER

Governor Bert Combs returned home Saturday to be honored guest at an appreciation dinner sponsored by the Floyd County Bar Association at the Wise Restaurant.

Chief Justice Morris Montgomery, of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, as the principal speaker declared that Combs' training as a lawyer eminently qualified him for the office of Governor. He said that while Combs was serving as an Appellate Court justice he was known to his colleagues as the "lawyer" of the group.

"That," Chief Justice Montgomery added, "was the highest compliment we could give him."

W. W. Burchett, president of the Bar Association, presided at the meeting. Joe Hobson presented the Governor, on behalf of the Bar Association, a clock-barometer for his desk at the Capitol.

Governor Combs spoke briefly to thank the bar members and others for their expressions of friendship. Approximately 60 persons, including members of the bar and county officials and their wives, attended the dinner.

Toll-Free Phone Service, Wayland To Prestonsburg Subject of Agreement

W. W. Burchett, of the Kentucky Public Service Commission, said Monday that conferences last week between the PSC and the Southern Bell Telephone Company resulted in an agreement which within the next five or six months will result in toll-free telephone service between the Wayland and Prestonsburg exchanges.

Toll-free service is currently given between Prestonsburg and Martin and from Prestonsburg to McDowell. The same concession may not be gained for Wheelwright, since that area is served through the Pikeville exchange, it was said.

An increase of 20 cents a month on the minimum charge for Wayland subscribers will be made. Installation of new equipment is necessary to insure the new service, telephone company officials told the Commission, and this will require from five to six months' time.

State Highway Makes Employee Reduction, Order of Gov. Combs

The Kentucky Department of Highways has virtually complied with Gov. Bert Combs' call for a 15 per cent reduction in employee rolls by state agencies.

Commissioner Earle C. Clements said the highway department now has 6,423 employees, as compared with 7,524 last Nov. 30.

This 1,101 reduction represents a decrease of 14.6 per cent. The savings in salaries will total more than $3,500,000 annually, Clements said.

The department has replaced 1,594 employees, the commissioner said, and is placing a heavy emphasis on personnel efficiency. "The department is hopeful," Clements said, "that when the legislative merit system is installed a high percentage of these people will be capable of meeting the standards set by the system."

Federal Court Jury Disagrees on Unionists; New Trial Scheduled

A Federal Court jury was unable to agree Friday in the case of four union men charged with dynamiting a Louisville & Nashville Railroad trestle in Letcher county last June 20.

After deliberating approximately 2 hours the jurors reported to Judge Mac Swinford that there was no chance of reaching a verdict and were dismissed.

The defendants, remaining under bonds of $10,000 each, are John Stidham, 51; Irvin Napier, 31; Troy Holland, 35, and Wid Page, 28. All are members of the United Mine Workers of America living at Marlow, a coal camp two miles from Whitesburg.

Judge Swinford reassigned the case for April 25.

The men were accused of blowing up a small trestle on a spur railroad line leading to the coal-preparation plant of Mrs. Virginia Collins at Bellcraft, a short distance from Marlow.

Mrs. Collins, of Hazard, had refused to sign a contact with the union.

During the trial, which began Tuesday, witnesses told of many acts of violence in the Marlow-Bellcraft community over a three-month period before the trestle explosion.

Union members told of shootings and a dynamiting in their camp. Mrs. Collins and other prosecution witnesses mentioned a series of dynamite blasts on the spur line near the nonunion tippie and thousands of shots fired into the plant.

Only one witness attempted to identify the defendants as the four men seen hurrying from the trestle a few seconds before it was blown up. He was Silas Young, Jr., employed by Mrs. Collins to guard the tippie.

The jury reportedly stood eight for acquittal and four for conviction.

The case came up in United States District Court, rather than Kentucky Circuit Court, because the men were charged with violating the federal train-wreck statute.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Frankfort, Feb. 11 — Those in state government whose job it is to publicize Kentucky's fishing facilities rue the day that Alaska became a state.

Entered as second class matter June 18, 1927, at the postoffice at Prestonsburg, Kentucky, under the act of March 3, 1879.

Let's be sure we get a change this time in our educational system.

I am running in Edu. Dist. 5 to vote with Ray Howard and John Hall to help them to improve education in Floyd county.

I will appreciate assistance from anyone who should want to help that lives outside my district.

JOE I. MAY

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to all who assisted us in anyway during the illness and death of Henry S. Elkins. We are thankful to the Rev. Robert Martin for his words of consolation. Our appreciation extends to all the kind neighbors, to those who sent food or flowers and the Carter & Callihan Funeral Home.

said after returning from a series of conferences with various departments of state government at Frankfort. He noted that every superintendent in Eastern Kentucky, "unless he was sick in bed," was in Frankfort the last few days.

"If it had to happen, now is the only time it could have happened and left a chance to survive," Turner continued. He was referring to the legislature being in session and the pending changes in the Minimum Foundation Law absorbing the revenue decreases.

There is a question whether or not all franchise holders will seek reduction in assessment, now that the court has indicated they may be entitled to it. Pending in the appellate court is a case brought by Texas Eastern Gas Transmission Corporation. Most observers think all franchise owners will eventually seek assessment reductions.

Superintendent Turner spelled out statistically just what the decision means to the Floyd county school system. Last year it had a revenue of $584,686 from county property and franchise taxes. Exonerations, delinquent taxes and cost of collection took $36,653 of this, leaving $528,033 for operation. Loss under the court decision of $137,715 would leave $390,318. This was approximately what the system derived from taxes in the 1946-47 school year.

School men do not know where curtailment of expenditures could be made. A few categories of operation are so fixed, such as sick leave and transportation, that reduction would be almost impossible. "We have to adopt a wait-and-see position," Turner said. "The whole situation is so fluid, the area of understanding is so befogged that no one on the local level or at Frankfort has the answers."

Money also is expected to be allotted for a geological mapping program expected to cost 12 million dollars over the next 10 years. Half of the fund would come from the federal government.

Most of the added revenue would come from the 3 per cent sales tax enacted into law this week and scheduled to become effective July 1.

Earlier this week, during a visit to the sports show at the State Fairgrounds, Governor Combs said his administration plans the building of a number of lakes where land is available and where the expense would not be too great.

"We want the fish and wildlife, the parks and the conservation people to work together on this," the governor said.

VETERAN PROTESTS BONUS RESTRICTION

Editor, The Times:

Being a veteran of World War II, I'd like to speak by piece about the Kentucky bonus bill, in behalf of myself and hundreds of others who together put up a fight against the enemy and who had to leave Kentucky later for employment.

I, with others, am fighting against Amendment No. 1 which says the veteran must have been living in Kentucky on Nov. 3, 1959, and (2) must be living in Kentucky at the time of payment. We feel like we're being cheated out of what we all fought for—freedom.

It didn't make any difference what state we were in when our number came up; we were called back to Kentucky to report for service in our line of duty. We were together then—where are we now? Together we stand—"divided we fell."

I am a veteran from Floyd county, drafted from Local Board 44. I spent 39 months in the army, 36 months overseas. No other state will pay me a bonus. I can't ask them to. They paid theirs, not having any exceptions like Kentucky. So why won't Kentucky stand up for her ex-service men now? Or is it that Kentucky's big officials don't even expect any more support from the good voters?

We won't sit still and let our rights be stolen.

Cost: 1 Ice Cream Soda A Day

If your doctor prescribed an ice cream soda a day for 10 days to get you out of a sick bed, you'd take your "medicine" gladly... with little thought to its cost. When figured on the basis of the quantity of medicine the doctor asks you to take every 24 hours, today's prescription rarely costs you more than a daily ice cream soda. But it does something no ice cream soda can do. It cures disease.

city ordinance within 90 days outlining step by step the program to be got under way. The Commission also asked the appointment of a city fiscal agent under the proposed program. Again nothing materialized from these efforts for the City could envision no acceptable method of financing.

The Bell representatives went on, pointing out and explaining, answering questions of the Councilmen and briefing them on the difficulties of the situation and offering information on new avenues that might be explored.

He pointed out that the new flood wall built here by the Federal government would materially affect the 1956 estimates on cost of a treatment plant and then remarked that construction costs have gone up approximately five per cent each year since the first figures were compiled.

Asked by Mayor Edward B. Leslie if there were any Federal grants-in-aid available for cities in the dilemma of Prestonsburg the Bell man pointed out that there is a Federal appropriation of $50,000,000 each year of which Kentucky gets about one million dollars each year. Thirty per cent of the total construction cost of the treatment plant and its auxiliaries could be made available by the state. He recalled that an application for a grant-in-aid was made but never pressed because the overall financing plan could not be arranged.

Mayor Leslie asked for information on the added personnel to operate the treatment plant. He was told one man, half time. The engineer then got back to the method of financing, a matter that he said was not in his line but that he was somewhat informed. He said that barring the issue of bonds with the added 90 per cent of the water bill to amortize, there was an alternative. This was general obligation bonds, approved by a vote of the people, to be retired by an assessment against property owners.

"Remember," he said, "bond men always want to know where their money is coming from." The Council and the Bell man got down to discussing treatment plant costs. It was found that the 1956 estimate, if revised in the light of today's conditions, would be reduced to slightly over $500,000. Since the water system has approximately 1,050 consumers in Prestonsburg and in Lancer, which is separated by the terrain, the question of two plants to serve the city was explored. All agreed that this would only increase the cost.

Councilman T. O. McGuire commented that there is a need for a new estimate and asked the cost. He was told that his firm believed the fairest way to approach a new estimate survey was on a per diem basis. Approximately $8 or $9,000 has already been paid his firm on estimates and this would be credited against any new estimate costs.

Final business of the Council on the matter was the authorization of the Bell consultants to complete a new estimate within 60 days.

The second man said: "When I go back I'm going to build me a bowling alley. The first thing you know, I'll be cruising around in a brand-new Cadillac."

Man No. 3 came up with this: "Well, boys, I've been thinking this over for several months. I'm getting out of this mad rush. I want to go back where the wind blows free. I'm going down there, somewhere around Prestonsburg, and build me a big red barn. I'm going to build in it a stage, put in several hundred plank seats and scatter some hay around, and have a big floor for the dancers. I'm going to have me a barn dance every Saturday night—I'll call it the Big Red Barn Dance."

But Conferee No. 4 had other ideas. Said he: "Since you fellows have told me your plans, I'll let you in on mine. I'm going back down there and rent me a building near the lake. Then I'm going to open me a bootlegging joint. And I promise you, in less than five years I will buy your barn, your bowling alley and your skating rink and probably wind up one of the most respected men in the community."

SO WEBSTER SAYS

R. J. Wallace, regional librarian, writes to convey apologies to the man who called to ask the correct pronunciation of the word, "envelope." The librarian relied on memory, and gave with the opinion the word is always accented on the first syllable and so is pronounced, ENvelope. Later turning to Webster's New International, he found, however, that, although this is the preferred pronunciation, enVELOpe also is correct. Webster's also says it's O. K. to pronounce it ONvelope (but what I want to know is, why).

How many TV westerns are viewed locally per week, think ye? One Prestonsburg youngster 'lows as how, podner, there are no less than 40—and he names 'em.

The president of the Norfolk & Western Railway recently told a Williamson group that "West Virginia is the land of promise." If he'd said, "Promised land," we would have been at him with type-writer keys bared and flying. Eastern Kentucky claims that title. Fact is, it has lived on promises till some of the folks had to go to other states while waiting for them to be fulfilled.

Cattle bruising during marketing and processing caused losses ranging from 6 cents to $2.77 a head in a study by USDA's Farmer Cooperative Service. This adds up to a 12 million dollar a year loss.

Lewis Shepherd, 73, David, Dies Tuesday At Residence of Son

Lewis Shepherd, 73, of David, died Tuesday at the home of a son, Morry Shepherd, on the Middle Creek road. Death was attributed to a heart attack.

Mr. Shepherd was a son of the late Brice and Easter Salyers Shepherd. He was twice married, his first wife, Susan Watson Shepherd, dying in 1956. Following her death he was married to Helen Marshall Shepherd, who survives.

Surviving sons, besides Morry, and daughters are Columbus Shepherd, Nero Shepherd, Richard Shepherd, Okey Shepherd, Mrs. Bertha Prater and Mrs. Jane Shepherd, all of David, Mrs. May Meece, Warsaw, Ind., Mrs. Roseann Williams, Pierceton, Ind., and Gordon Shepherd, U. S. Air Force, Italy. A brother and three sisters survive: Robert Shepherd, of Berea, Mrs. Queen Arnett, West Prestonsburg, Mrs. Sally Howard, Portsmouth, O., and Mrs. Lala Collins, in Magoffin county.

Funeral rites will be conducted Friday at 10 a.m. from the Dotson Pentecostal church, the Rev. G. R. Fannin and others officiating. Burial will follow in the Shepherd cemetery under the direction of Carter & Callihan Funeral Home.

ALLEN-MARTIN CLUB MEETS

The Allen-Martin Woman's Club held its regular monthly program meeting, Jan. 18, at the home of Mrs. Charles Marshall, with Mrs. John P. Sammons as program leader. The program topic was International Relations, and the speaker was the Rev. Harold Dorsey, of Prestonsburg. His remarks included some impressions and experiences incident to his trip to Japan. In his talk he stressed the brotherhood approach to the problem of cultivating better relations among nations, rather than the political phase. He emphasized the importance of understanding and tolerance, as opposed to bigotry, in the efforts to promote world peace, reminding his listeners that from the beginning of time man has had warring tendencies.

Following the program, plans were made for the club members to participate in the new March of Dimes Drive and the coin cans and cards were given to the members for distribution among the business places in town. The club decided to cooperate with the town council in a proposed clean-up campaign to be initiated soon. Following this brief business session, a dessert course was served to the following members: Mrs. David Marrs, Mrs. Glenn Spradlin, Mrs. William Martin, Mrs. T. A. Combs, Mrs. John P. Tidbits Of Kentucky Folklore

By GORDON WILSON, Ph. D.

Western Kentucky Teachers' College Bowling Green, Ky.

OUTWARD OR INWARD?

A great many people who write about folklore fail to understand that folkish people often have treasures within that a mere outsider can never know. Often folkish people live in circumstances below what may be the norm of their times. Some writers have a tendency to overplay this condition and imagine that only dull or even pathetic lives could arise in such a setting. I fear that a lot of good sympathy is often wasted on our contemporaries who seem to have less than we in money and travel and wealth and philosophy.

In my long years I have known many, many people who could be called the folk, and most of them were not to be pitied. It is true that they lived in a world quite different from the accepted one of people of better houses and books and lands. There is no doubt that some of the folkish ones are genuinely cynical because of their lot in life, but that percentage must be small if my experience with them is normal. You and I read books and discuss things that we find there; we listen to accepted classical or other dignified music and feel a little proud of ourselves that we know music and can speak as ones having authority; we know many of the great literary stories of the world and rejoice at our having acquired them. All this is good and in many ways evaluates our education. But the folk have their stories and their songs and their heroes, maybe not so tangible as ours but nevertheless genuine and life-like to the imagination. I wonder who of your acquaintances is as real to you as Barbara Allen is and has been to thousands of people. History as we know it, gets somewhat distorted or vague in ballads and folk tales, but it often gains a symmetry that we associate normally only with great works of art, in which the artist is allowed certain privileges of rearranging his materials after his own heart's desire. What does a folk singer do if not just that in singing his version of some well-known ballad, varying it ever so little but still giving it his own stamp, as plainly as a musician of world renown colors his music to suit his purpose or, maybe, his own heartbreak. We praise this in a skilled musician or a great novelist or a great dramatist; why not in a great folk singer, even though he may be an artist on a slightly different level?

Many a time I have listened to a story told by an elderly person in inimitable fashion and envied her artistry, which was probably utterly unknown to her. And I never failed to get the high points of the story, the dramatic scenes, the pathetic ones that often drew tears from the teller. I have also seen singers who so lived in their songs that they, too, rejoiced or wept at the right places, with no apparent consciousness of their being so lost in their songs. Maybe to you and me the song is just a ballad, somewhat like hundreds of others we have read or heard sung. The singer may find it a bit of moving history, which to her may seem as real as her own sorrows. When I have heard Negroes sing blues, not the music-hall variety but the kind we heard in the cornfields at Pidelity, I felt like crying as I heeded tobacco or followed my mule and plow. Before we think that the Negro was merely showing off and pretending a sorrow he did not actually feel, just swap places with him and sing "Nobody Knows the Trouble I See" or some of his blues.

We have history, art, music, literature—everything that formal learning can bring. The folkish person has some of these, of course, but he probably has ten times as much legendary, traditional lore as all that he has learned from books or bookish people. It is not fair to rule out his depths of feeling and his artistry merely because they do not seem to fit our pet schemes.

"So runs my song, but what am I?
An infant crying in the night,
An infant crying for the light,
And with no language but a cry."

Kentucky Mother Of The Year To Be Chosen

Some rare women with courage, cheerfulness, patience, affection, kindness, understanding and home-making ability will be honored as "the Kentucky Mother of 1960," sometime in April.

If you know such a woman, whose success as a mother is evidenced by the achievements of her children and who is an active member of a religious body, you are invited to nominate her for the title. Nomination papers may be obtained from Mrs. Harry Peters, chairman, Kentucky Mothers Committee, Trenton, Ky.

Mrs. Peters says the deadline for returning nomination papers to her is March 1.

Other qualities which must be possessed by the mother to be honored are:

Exemplification of the Golden Rule, a sense of civic responsibility and activity in service to benefit the public.

Mrs. Peters says she hopes each county will have an entry for the contest this year, which will be decided at Lexington.

The Kentucky mother will compete for the title of "American Mother of the Year." It is customary for this lady, after she is chosen, to be received at the White House by the First Lady and the President.

The purpose of this contest is to bring to the attention of the general public, particularly young people, the rewards of the career of ideal motherhood.

The Battle of Blue Licks was the last major engagement against the Indians on Kentucky soil. The site is Blue Licks Battlefield, now established as a state park and shrine, near Mt. Olivet. A pioneer museum is maintained at the park.

Up in Knott county, one Jake Sutton ran for the office of jailer. His handbills announced this humane platform: "If nominated and elected, I shall put a large table in the jail and let the prisoners set down and eat like men. The best citizens might happen to be in jail and they should be treated like real men and citizens. Every man has some of his friends and relatives who get in jail. You want them cared for. Mothers, if you want your boy treated right, vote for me."

All interest at the coupon rate shall be evidenced by proper interest coupons attached to each of said bonds and to be payable semi-annually on the first days of October and April in each year. That both principal and interest shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at State National Bank, Maysville, Kentucky. Said bonds shall be signed by the Mayor of said City and sealed with its corporate seal, attested by the City Clerk, and the interest coupons attached to said bonds shall be executed with the facsimile signatures of said Mayor and said City Clerk, and said officials, by the execution of said bonds, shall adopt as and for their own proper signatures their respective facsimile signatures on said coupons. All of said bonds, together with the interest thereon, shall be payable only out of the special funds as hereinafter more specifically provided and shall be a valid claim of the holder thereof only against said funds, and portion or amount of the revenues of such combined and consolidated municipal project of said City pledged to said funds.

SECTION 4. That said bonds and coupons shall be in substantially the following form, to-wit:

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That the City of Martin, in the County of Floyd and Commonwealth of Kentucky, for value received, hereby promises to pay to bearer the sum of ($ ) Dollars on the first day of April, 19 , and interest on said sum from the date hereof at the rate of _____ per cent (_____) per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of October and April in each year until paid, except as the provisions hereinafter set forth with respect to redemption may be and become applicable hereto, such interest as may accrue on and prior to the maturity of this bond to be paid upon presentation and surrender of the annexed interest coupons as the same severally mature, both principal and interest being payable in lawful money of the United States of America at State National Bank, Maysville, Kentucky.

This bond is issued by said City pursuant to an ordinance duly adopted for the purpose of acquiring and constructing additions, extensions and improvements to the combined and consolidated water and parking facilities of said City and this bond has been issued under and in full compliance with the Constitution and statutes of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, including among others sections 58.010 to 58.140, inclusive, of the Kentucky Revised Statutes.

Bonds of the series of which this bond is one and as may be outstanding from time to time are subject to redemption by said City prior to maturity, in whole or in part, in the inverse order of their maturities, less than all of a single maturity to be selected by lot, on any interest payment date on or after April 1, 1965, and in the event any of said bonds are called for redemption as aforesaid notice thereof, identifying the bonds to be redeemed, will be given by publication at least once not less than thirty days prior to the redemption date, in a newspaper of general circulation throughout Kentucky, and it is further agreed that should any of said redeemable bonds be called for redemption as aforesaid City will pay to the holder of the respective bonds so called for redemption, upon surrender thereof, a sum equal to par and accrued interest plus a premium equal to three per cent of the principal amount thereof. All of said bonds as to which notice as aforesaid shall have been given and for the retirement of which, upon the terms aforesaid, funds are duly provided will cease to bear interest on the redemption date.

This bond and the issue of which it forms a part, together with such additional bonds ranking on a parity therewith as may be issued and outstanding under the conditions and provisions of said ordinance, are payable from and secured by the income and revenues to be derived from the operation of said combined and consolidated municipal waterworks and parking facilities project, a sufficient portion of which, to pay the principal of and interest on this issue and any additional parity bonds, shall be set aside as special funds for that purpose, provided, however, said City has outstanding its Waterworks, Revenue, Improvement and Refunding Bonds dated October 1, 1949, which bonds by their terms are payable all on a parity from and secured by a first charge on and pledge of the revenues derived from the operation of the portion of said combined and consolidated project furnishing water service. This bond and the series of which it forms a part do not constitute an indebtedness of the City of Martin within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provisions or limitations. Said City covenants that said combined and consolidated project will be continuously operated at a revenue-producing undertaking and that it will fix and charge such rents, fees, rates and charges so that, after allowance for interest and sinking fund requirement for said bonds payable from and secured by prior charges and pledges aforesaid the income and revenues therefrom will be sufficient to pay all of said bonds and interest thereon as the same become due, to pay the cost of operation and maintenance thereof and to comply with all the covenants of the ordinance under which such bonds are issued.

This bond is fully negotiable. This bond is exempt from taxation in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

It is hereby certified, recited and declared that all acts, conditions and things required to exist, happen and be performed precedent to and in the issuance of this bond have existed, have happened and been performed in due time, form and manner as required by law in order that this bond will be a valid and legal revenue obligation of such City, that the amount of this bond, together with all other obligations of said City, does not exceed any limit prescribed by the Constitution or statutes of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and that a sufficient portion of the income and revenues of said combined and consolidated municipal project, after allowance for the vested rights and priorities aforesaid, has been pledged to and will be set aside into said special fund by said City for the prompt payment of the principal of and interest on this bond and all other bonds authorized or permitted to be made payable from said special fund.

SECTION 5. The proceeds of the bonds hereby authorized, exclusive of accrued interest and except as hereinafter otherwise provided, shall be applied to the extent necessary in paying the cost of acquiring and constructing additions, extensions and improvements to such project of said City and necessary expenses in connection therewith, provided that interest accruing on said bonds during such construction may be deemed an item of construction cost, and to the extent that such interest is not paid from proceeds of said bonds, the proceeds of said bonds thus set apart for construction costs shall be paid out only upon certification by the engineer employed by the City to supervise the construction work to the effect that the respective amounts of such expenditures represent interest accruing on the bonds hereby authorized during the construction period of the capital improvements to be financed thereby or represent amounts due and payable for materials furnished or work or services performed in accordance with the plans and specifications for such capital improvements. Pending expenditures such proceeds shall be deposited in a bank or banks, and each such deposit to the extent it causes the aggregate deposits by said City in any such bank to be in excess of $10,000 shall be secured by a surety bond or bonds furnished by a surety company or companies qualified or authorized to do business in Kentucky or by a pledge of direct obligations of the United States of America having a market value equivalent to such deposit. SECTION 5. The proceeds of the bonds hereby authorized, exclusive of accrued interest and except as hereinafter otherwise provided, shall be applied to the extent necessary in paying the cost of acquiring and constructing additions, extensions and improvements to such project of said City and necessary expenses in connection therewith, provided that interest accruing on said bonds during such construction may be deemed an item of construction cost, and to the extent that such interest is not paid from proceeds of said bonds, the proceeds of said bonds thus set apart for construction costs shall be paid out only upon certification by the engineer employed by the City to supervise the construction work to the effect that the respective amounts of such expenditures represent interest accruing on the bonds hereby authorized during the construction period of the capital improvements to be financed thereby or represent amounts due and payable for materials furnished or work or services performed in accordance with the plans and specifications for such capital improvements. Pending expenditures such proceeds shall be deposited in a bank or banks, and each such deposit to the extent it causes the aggregate deposits by said City in any such bank to be in excess of $10,000 shall be secured by a surety bond or bonds furnished by a surety company or companies qualified or authorized to do business in Kentucky or by a pledge of direct obligations of the United States of America having a market value equivalent to such deposit. Any surplus remaining after accomplishing the aforesaid purposes shall be converted into "Water and Parking Facilities Bond and Interest Redemption Account," hereinafter identified. All accrued interest which may be received from the sale of the bonds hereby authorized, plus such an amount as will be equal to interest for eighteen months on all of such bonds from their date, shall be converted into said "Water and Parking Facilities Bond and Interest Redemption Account." That any misapplication of the proceeds of the bonds herein authorized shall not to any extent affect the validity or legality of the bonds herein authorized.

SECTION 6. From and after the delivery of any bonds issued under the provisions of this ordinance the income and revenues of said combined project shall be set aside into a separate and special fund to be designated as the "Water and Parking Facilities Revenue Fund," provided that so long as there are outstanding and unpaid any of the said outstanding Bonds hereinbefore referred to, a separate account- ing shall be kept of the amount of the income and revenues from the system supplying water services. Out of the separate accounting of the income and revenues of said system supplying water services there shall be set apart at the times and in the manner prescribed by the ordinance or ordinances adopted authorizing said Bonds prior to the delivery of same the amounts to be paid into the special fund for the interest on said outstanding Bonds and to accomplish retirement thereof at or before maturity. Subject to the foregoing, the income and revenues of said combined project shall be used and apportioned as follows:

A. There shall be and there is hereby created a special fund to be known as the "Water and Parking Facilities Bond and Interest Redemption Account" (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "sinking fund"), and on the first day of each month after the issuance of any of the bonds herein authorized there shall be set aside from the income and revenues of said combined project such portion thereof as will be sufficient to pay the interest on and the principal of the bonds hereby authorized, and any additional bonds ranking on a parity therewith as may be issued and outstanding under the conditions and restrictions hereinafter set forth. Such payments into said sinking fund shall be made in equal monthly installments, and it is hereby determined that the minimum amounts to be paid into said sinking fund each month for the bonds hereby authorized shall be an amount equal to one-sixth of the interest on the bonds outstanding which becomes due on the next succeeding interest payment date plus an amount equal to one-twelfth of the principal of the bonds outstanding which becomes due on the next succeeding April 1. Computations for such payments into such sinking fund shall be made as of April 1 of each year, provided the monthly computations as to principal prior to April 1, 1962, shall be the proportionate amount of principal becoming due April 1, 1962, so that as of that date there will be an amount on hand at least equal to the total amount of such principal which will become due on April 1, 1962, and interest due on the income and revenues of such project only for the period beginning October 1, 1961. For the purpose of creating a reserve for assuring payment of said principal and interest there shall also be set aside and paid into the sinking fund from said revenues on the first day of each month after the issuance of any of the bonds herein authorized equal monthly sums each monthly sum to be in such an amount in order that said reserve within five years from the date of the issuance of the bonds herein authorized will be equal to the average annual principal and interest requirements of all the bonds herein authorized, and such reserve thereafter will be maintained at such amount. As and when additional bonds ranking on a parity with the bonds hereby authorized are issued, provision shall be made for additional payments into said sinking fund so as to pay the interest on and principal of such additional parity bonds as and when the same become due and for increasing the amount of said reserve within five years from the date of the issuance of such additional bonds to an amount equal to the average annual principal and interest requirements of all the bonds, including such additional bonds which by their terms are payable from said fund.

The amount by which such payments exceed the aggregate amount of interest and principal as it becomes due shall be held in said sinking fund as a reserve, and unless all bonds payable from said fund at the time outstanding are to be then retired only such part of said sinking fund shall be used to purchase or redeem bonds in advance of maturity as may be in excess of the prescribed reserve and the interest and principal becoming due within the succeeding twelve months on all bonds which by their terms are payable from said fund. Any such purchase of bonds prior to maturity shall be made at the lowest prices (not exceeding their current fair market value nor the terms of redemption thereof) following advertisements for tenders, but if insufficient acceptable tenders are received the remaining excess shall be applied to the calling and redemption of bonds as hereinafter provided. All bonds so purchased or redeemed shall be cancelled.

Any other provisions herein to the contrary notwithstanding, no further payments need be made into said sinking fund whenever and so long as such amount of the bonds shall have been retired that the amount then held in such fund (including the reserve) is equal to the entire amount of the interest and principal that will have accrued at the time of the retirement of maturity of all the bonds then remaining outstanding. If for any reason there should be a failure to pay into said sinking fund the full amount above stipulated, then an amount equivalent to 110% of such deficiency shall be set apart and paid into said sinking fund from the first available income and revenues of the following year or years, and same shall be in addition to the amount otherwise herein provided to be set apart and paid during such succeeding year or years.

from, shall be carried to the credit of the sinking fund. Such payments into such sinking fund shall be made in equal monthly installments on the first day of each month, except that when the first day of any month shall be a Sunday or a legal holiday then such payment shall be made on the next succeeding secular day.

In the event the income and revenues during any month are inadequate to make the required payment into said fund, the deficiency shall be made up and paid as aforesaid from the first available income and revenues thereafter received and shall in addition to payments otherwise provided to be made in such succeeding month or months.

The sinking fund as aforesaid shall be used solely and only and is hereby pledged for the purpose of paying principal of and interest on the bonds herein authorized and the additional bonds ranking on a parity therewith as may be outstanding from time to time.

The balance of income and revenues then remaining shall be set aside for operation, maintenance and depreciation as hereinafter provided.

B. There shall be and there is hereby created a fund known as the "Depreciation Fund," and 10% of the balance of the income and revenues remaining in said "Water and Parking Facilities Revenue Fund" after the aforesaid payments into said sinking fund shall be set aside on the first day of each month into said fund. Said Depreciation Fund shall be used to set up reasonable reserves for renewals, replacements, new construction and contingencies in the operation of said combined project, and provided also that withdrawals and disbursements shall be made from said Depreciation Fund to meet the payment of interest on or principal of any bonds authorized hereunder to whatever extent necessary if for any reason funds in the sinking fund are insufficient for that purpose.

All funds in the Depreciation Fund shall be kept apart from all other municipal funds and shall be deposited and secured in the same manner as herein provided for the deposit and security of the sinking fund, or all or any part of said Depreciation Fund may be invested in direct obligations or guaranteed bonds or securities of the United States of America.

C. There shall be and there is hereby created a fund known as the "Operation and Maintenance Fund," and 90% of the balance of the income and revenues remaining in said "Water and Parking Facilities Revenue Fund" after the aforesaid payments into the sinking fund shall be set aside on the first day of each month and used for the proper operation and maintenance of said combined and consolidated project, the Council of said City hereby finding and determining that said 90% of said balance of said revenues is necessary for the proper operation and maintenance thereof but not in excess of the amount required for said purpose, provided, however, that such amount of said 90% not actually used for operation and maintenance may be transferred to the Depreciation Fund.

SECTION 7. While the bonds authorized hereunder, or any of them, remain outstanding and unpaid, no free service shall be afforded by such combined project, and the rates for all services rendered by said combined project to said City and to its citizens, corporations or other consumers shall be reasonable and just, taking into account and consideration the cost and value of said properties and the cost of maintaining and operating the same, and the proper and necessary allowance for depreciation thereof, and the amounts necessary for the retirement of all bonds and the accruing interest on all such bonds as may be issued and outstanding and which by their terms are payable from the revenues of such project. There shall be charged against all users of the services and facilities of such combined project, including said City, such rates and amounts as shall be adequate to meet the requirements of this and the preceding sections hereof (including fire hydrant rentals). Compensation for services rendered or facilities afforded to said City shall be charged against the City, and payment for same from the corporate funds shall be made monthly into the special fund created by this ordinance as other income and revenues and shall be apportioned to operation and maintenance, depreciation and bond and interest redemption funds as such other income and revenues. If for any reason at any time there are not sufficient revenues available to pay the bonds herein authorized, the City covenants to charge such rates as may be necessary to produce sufficient amounts as to pay the interest and principal on the bonds herein authorized. That upon all of said presently outstanding Bonds being retired as to principal and interest, the bonds herein authorized shall thereupon be secured by a pledge of the first revenues from the system supplying water services, as well as the entire combined project provided for by this ordinance.

SECTION 8. That said City hereby covenants and agrees with the holder or holders of the bonds herein authorized to be issued, or any of them, that it will faithfully and punctually perform all duties with reference to said project required by the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, including the making and collecting of reasonable and sufficient rates for services rendered and facilities afforded, and will segregate the revenues and make the application thereof into the respective funds as provided by this ordinance; and the City hereby irrevocably covenants, binds and obligates itself not to sell, lease, mortgage or in any manner dispose of said properties, including any and all extensions and additions that may be made thereto, until all of the bonds herein authorized to be issued shall have been paid in full, both principal and interest, and the City further covenants and agrees with the holders of said bonds to maintain in good condition and continuously operate said project as a combined and consolidated municipal public project, and to charge and collect such rates and charges for services rendered and facilities afforded thereby so that the gross income and revenues will be sufficient at all times to make the prescribed payments into the several special funds as hereinafter provided, as well as pay the costs of operation and maintenance of the project. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed to prohibit appropriate changes in the location of on-street parking meters in the City made necessary by street widening or closing or to prohibit substitution or changes in the location of said parking meters to provide essential and necessary traffic regulation and control.

SECTION 9. That any holder of said bonds or of any of the coupons may, either at law or in equity, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceedings, enforce and compel performance by said City and its officers and agents of all duties and obligations imposed or required by law or this ordinance in connection with the operation of said properties, including the making and collecting of sufficient rates and segregation of the income and revenues and the application thereof.

If there be any default in the payment of the principal of or interest on any of said bonds, then, upon the filing of suit by any holder of said bonds or of any of the coupons, any court having jurisdiction of the action may appoint a receiver to administer said combined project on behalf of the City, with power to charge and collect rates sufficient to provide for the payment of any bonds or obligations outstanding against said project, and for the payment of the expenses, and to apply the income and revenues in conformity with this ordinance and the provisions of Chapter 58 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes. Reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs incurred by any bondholder or bondholders in connection with obtaining the appointment of such receiver shall be a proper charge and shall be payable out of the income and revenues from the properties securing the bonds herein authorized.

SECTION 10. The bonds herein authorized to be issued and the bonds ranking on a parity therewith shall not be entitled to priority over the other in the application of the revenues of said combined project, regardless of the time or times of their issuance, it being the intention of the Council that there shall be no priority among the bonds authorized or permitted to be issued under the provisions of this ordinance, regardless of the fact that they may be actually issued and delivered at different times. Said City hereby reserves the right and privilege of issuing additional bonds from time to time, payable from income and revenues of said combined project, ranking on a parity with the bonds herein authorized, only under the following conditions:

Additional bonds ranking on a parity with the bonds herein authorized may be issued from time to time in order to pay the cost of further extensions, improvements and betterments to said combined project, provided, that before any such additional bonds may be issued under this subparagraph there has been procured and filed with the City Clerk a statement by an independent state-licensed certified public accountant not in the regular employ of the City reciting the opinion, based upon necessary investigation, that the net annual revenues of said combined project for twelve consecutive months out of the preceding eighteen months were equal to at least one and one-half times the maximum amount of principal and interest that will become due in any succeeding year ending on April 1 on the bonds then outstanding and the bonds then proposed to be issued.

The interest payment dates for all such additional bonds hereinbefore permitted shall be semi-annually on October 1 and April 1 of each year, and the principal maturities of all such additional bonds shall be on April 1 of the year in which any such principal is scheduled to become due. "Net annual revenues" are defined as gross revenue less operating expenses, which shall include salaries, wages, cost of maintenance and operation, materials and supplies, pumping cost and insurance, as well as all other items as are normally and regularly included under recognized accounting practices, exclusive of allowances for depreciation, and the amount of gross revenue aforesaid shall be adjusted to reflect any revision in the schedule of rates and charges being imposed as to water service but not as to parking facilities service at the time of the issuance of such additional bonds such adjustments to be based upon a certification by an independent licensed engineer. Such engineer, in making such certification, shall base same only on the actual customers of the waterworks part of the project of the City from which such revenues were being obtained during the twelve-month period of operation hereinbefore referred to and shall not be based to any extent upon any estimate of any new or different customers. Any revision of figures based upon a revision in the schedule of rates and charges for water service shall be based only upon the service actually received by such customers during said twelve-month period. So long as any of said outstanding Bonds may be outstanding the annual payments required to be made on account of said Bonds shall be included in making the foregoing computations, it being the intent of this provision that there shall be at least one and one-half times coverage as hereinafter provided on all bonds secured by the revenues of such combined project, including said Bonds already outstanding.

The additional bonds (sometimes herein referred to as "permitted" to be issued), the issuance of which is restricted and conditioned by this section, shall be understood to mean bonds payable from revenues of said combined project on a parity with the bonds herein specifically authorized and shall not be deemed to include other obligations, the security and source of payment of which are the excess income and revenues from such combined and consolidated project and are subordinate and subject to the priority of the bonds herein authorized to be issued, it being provided that bonds which are subordinate and subject to the priority of the bonds herein authorized may be issued only for the purpose of making capital extensions and improvements to such combined project. In the case of the issuance of such bonds which are subordinate and subject to the priority of the bonds herein authorized to be issued, the bonds herein authorized shall continue to be secured by a pledge of the first revenues from the combined project in order to make the payments provided herein into the sinking fund, including the required reserve in such sinking fund. Any sinking fund provided for such subordinate and inferior bonds shall be provided for subject to the first revenues from such combined project being pledged to secure the payments of the amounts herein provided to be paid into the sinking fund herein provided for.

SECTION 11. Said City covenants and agrees that so long as any of the bonds herein authorized are outstanding it will not establish other parking facilities which are competitive or supply services and/or facilities to the same class of patrons, unless such additional facilities are included and constitute a part of the combined project of said City, so that the revenues from such additional facilities will be available for payment into the Water and Parking Facilities Revenue Fund and allocation into the several funds as herein provided. The schedule for rates for such additional competitive parking facilities shall be no less than that established at the same time for the parking facilities already included in said combined project of said City.

SECTION 12. It is hereby covenanted and agreed that so long as any of the bonds hereby authorized are outstanding the City will carry for the benefit of the holders of the bonds adequate fire and windstorm insurance on all buildings and structures of such combined project which are subject to loss through fire or windstorm and will carry adequate public liability insurance and will carry for the benefit of the holders of the bonds insurance of the kinds and in the amounts normally carried in the operation of similar properties in Kentucky. All monies received for losses under any of such insurance policies, except public liability, shall be paid into the Depreciation Fund, and such payments shall not reduce the amounts otherwise required to be paid into said Fund. Disbursements of such proceeds shall be made in the same manner and for the same purposes as are other disbursements made from the Depreciation Fund.

In so far as consistent with the laws of Kentucky said City agrees that so long as any of the bonds hereby authorized remain outstanding it will keep proper books of record and account, separate from all other municipal records and accounts, showing complete and correct entries of all transactions relating to said properties, and that the holders of any of said bonds shall have the right at all reasonable times to inspect the project and all records, accounts and data of the City relating thereto. Said City further agrees that it will within sixty days following the close of each fiscal year cause an audit to be made of the books and accounts pertinent to the project by an independent state-licensed public accountant showing the receipts and disbursements of the project, with the comments of the auditor concerning whether the books and accounts are being kept in compliance with this ordinance and in accordance with recognized accounting practices. All expenses incurred in making such audits

School Bus Stop Statute Applies To All Highways

The state law that requires motorists to stop when approaching a loading or unloading school bus from front or rear applies to four-lane highways as well as other roads, the Kentucky Department of Public Safety declares.

Numerous drivers on four-lane highways tend to forget that the law applies on these roads, said the department.

In other words, adds the agency, if you are meeting or following a school bus on either a two-lane or a four-lane road and the bus stops to let off or admit children, you must stop your vehicle and remain stopped until the bus again starts in motion.

"It is always wise to be especially alert for the unpredictable actions of children alighting from school buses," cautions the department. "They frequently are killed or injured when they dart from behind a school bus and across the highway."

CAMP ELLA BISHOP

J. Winston Coleman, Jr., Lexington historian and author, sends along a bit of history in the form of a handbill issued by the Union army at Lexington in 1862. It speaks for itself and is reprinted here.

Head-Quarters 1st Brigade, 2nd Division,
Camp Ella Bishop,
Lexington, Ky., October 28, 1862.
General Orders, No. 2.

When the rebels occupied this portion of the State they treated with disrespect all evidences of loyalty, and heaped their insults upon citizens by hauling from the steeples and windows of their houses, the emblem of their liberty and nationality, the flag of our armies, the ensign of our Republican institutions, and the banner we are so willing to defend. They trailed it in the dust, and trampled it under their unhallowed feet, and shouted it should wave no more over the city of Lexington or the State of Kentucky. But amidst their hellish reveling and traitorous shouts, following in the wake of the trailing banner, a bold and patriotic, yet beautiful and modest lady, scarcely eighteen years of age, one of Kentucky's proudest daughters rushed forth, with wounded spirit, yet undaunted courage, wrested it from the traitors grasp, defied their threats, waved it above their heads, and dared them touch it with their polluted hands. She recovered it—she waved it—she waved it, and today holds it, proudly protected by gallant soldiers from Illinois, Michigan and Ohio.

As a humble evidence, therefore, respect and admiration for such patriotism and worthy example, this Camp shall bear the name of that young lady, "Ella Bishop."

By command of Brigadier General G. Clay Smith.

Green Clay Goodloe, Lieut. and Aid de Camp.

LEMASTER FAMILY

Mrs. J. E. Herberger, Mt. Hawley Road, Peoria, Ill., contributes work from her research on the Lemaster family in this area.

She writes:
"I have been lucky in finding date on the Johnson county Lemasters. It seems that two brothers, John and Eleazer Lemaster, came to what is now Johnson county with their families. Their sons were named the same and that is causing me some trouble, as the following names show:
"Eleazer Lemaster, m. (Marchell) Tackett in 1768. Their children were Lancaster, Lewis, Francis (Big Frank and owner of Frank's Creek), John R., James, Richard, William, Jesse, Ailsie, Eleazer, Elijah and others.

"John Lemaster m. Tackett and children were Lancaster John, Francis, Abraham, Isaac, Jesse, Eleazer, Sarah m. William Tackett, John and his children with the exception of John, Jr., Joseph and Sarah, moved to Missouri about 1840. (Mrs. Harberger doesn't mention Joseph in the list above.)
"I wonder if you could tell me of an old Baptist church that would have records? I believe this would be the best place to find some of the answers to my questions.

"Here is an amusing story about Joseph Lemaster, son of John, the pioneer. Joseph owned about 1,000 acres of land but aside from farming, he taught school and was pastor of a Baptist church about a quarter of a mile from his home.

Once a visiting preacher was preaching where Joseph had been pastor for about 40 years. In the course of his sermon he called out in a loud voice: "Who has the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven? There was a prompt reply, actually of a drunk: 'Uncle Joe Lemaster.'

"If this Joseph Lemaster was a preacher for 40 years there must be a Baptist church that would have some old records. As far as I know, Joseph was born about 1807, married Eleanor Wheeler in 1833.
"I will appreciate any help you or your readers can give me in finding old church records."

Mrs. Harberger contributes also a page of genealogical data taken from the 1850 Census of Johnson county. She arrives at ages from the Census records. Below, with each family in the Census separately paragraphed, are the names of the family heads with other members, birth dates and native state.
James Lemaster, 1802, Virginia, farmer; Sarah, 1795, North Carolina; Eleazer, 1832, Kentucky, farmer; George W., 1834, Kentucky; Sylvester, 1835, Kentucky; Elizabeth, 1844, Kentucky; James, 1848, Kentucky. (There was an Eleazer Lemaster, born 1752 in North Carolina, living with the James Osborn family.)
Eleazer Lemaster, b. 1814, farmer of 800 acres. Children, all born in Kentucky. Eleanor, presumably his wife, was born in 1811. Children: John R., 1833; Francis M., 1835; Henry L., 1837; Eleazer I., 1839; Elizabeth, 1841; Tenums (female), 1845; Eleanor, 1847.
Lewis Lemaster, b. 1825, farmer of 250 acres and Anna, b. 1829. Listed with this family are Jacob, 1849, and Jane Castle, b. 1837.
Richard Lemaster, b. 1807, Virginia; Beney (female), b. 1813, Virginia. Others listed, evidently children were all born in Kentucky: Lancaster, 1832; Rachel, 1835; Zephie, 1837; Lydia, 1838; James, 1840; Elizabeth, 1842; Mary, 1844; Aisey, 1847.
John Lemaster, b. 1798, Virginia; Tamah or Tamir, b. 1815, Virginia. Children listed were all born in Kentucky: Sarah, 1834; Eleazer, 1835; Rachel, 1838; Angeline, 1839; (See Story No. 1, Page 6)

Ohio Valley Could Become Aluminum Center

Easy access to eastern and western Kentucky coal mines is a major asset in future development of aluminum production in the Ohio Valley.

So says Lt. Gov. Wilson W. Wyatt. In an address to Covington Elks, he said another asset was availability in the valley of water for power and navigation.

With this potential, Wyatt said, conditions are right for northern Kentucky to become the center of a major aluminum producing area. Conservative forecasts call for a 400 per cent increase in aluminum production area. Conservative forecasts call for a 400 per cent increase in aluminum production in the U. S. by 1975.

The lieutenant governor has already announced Kentucky plans to obtain a larger share of the nation's growing economy.

"I will make it my chief business to get the various government departments together in efforts toward economic expansion," Wyatt said.

The state administration's industry-promotion includes: Construction of a research center at Lexington, election-law reform, financing of a state industrial-development foundation to aid in industrial financing, and geological mapping.

LOOK AT THE LOWER PRICES

List prices as much as $76.05 lower on popular models with popular equipment

The '60 Chevrolet models most people buy, equipped the way most people want them, are actually priced lower than last year's models. This two-tone Bel Air V8 sedan, for example—with Turboglide, push-button radio and de luxe heater—lists for a whole $76.05 less! Prices are lower for all comparable V8 models throughout the line. Also for all comparable 6-cylinder models with Powerglide. Yet Chevy's loaded with more of the things that put pleasure into owning a car. (Just look at the list!) It's the greatest year yet to get into a Chevy!

Softer, more silent ride with coil springs at all four wheels and new butyl rubber-cushioned body mounts.

Big brakes for quicker, surer stops. Rivetless bonded linings mean they last longer, too.

More room to relax in. Chevy sedans offer roomier seating than any car in their class. Lower, narrower transmission tunnel means more foot room.

Only full wraparound windshield among the leading low-priced cars.

Electric windshield wipers keep sweeping even when you speed up to pass.

Vent windows crank open and closed. So much simpler than fighting those tricky little catches.

Keyless locking of all doors. Quick and easy. The same key opens door, glovebox, trunk and starts the car.

Economy Turbo-Fire V8. Or how to get up to 10% more miles per gallon of regular and still have lots of "git."

Thriftest 6 in any full-size car. It's the '60 version of the engine that got 22.38 miles per gallon in the 1959 Mobilgas Economy Run.

Widest choice of power teams. 24 engine-transmission teams in all, with output up to 385 h.p.

A trunk that's made for long trips with up to 22.5% more actual luggage space. Sill's lower for easier loading.

Fisher Body craftsmanship. Look at the finish, the fabrics, the detail work. (You'll see the difference.)

Drive it—it's fun-tastic! See your local authorized Chevrolet dealer for fast delivery, favorable deals.

GOT TO SEE A MAN ABOUT BASEBALL TALENT!
Dear Sir:
I would appreciate what information you would care to give regarding the type of baseball, such as high school and sandlot that is being played in your area. Also, if there is any outstanding player or players that you know or heard about.

Is your area covered by any major league scout?
Hoping to hear from you soon. I am also hoping to make a trip your way. Looking forward to meeting you.
Sincerely,
Tony Lucadello, Scout
Philadelphia Phillies

It seems that major league baseball is in a talent hunt. What is needed in the major league nest is a few golden eggs—or good prospects—for National and American league teams.

So scout Lucadello would like to know if we have any baseball talent. Do we?
Baseball talent, in these parts, is unfortunately not as readily found as in the '40's. No longer are our ball parks the gathering places for the Sunday game. Ballparks then were showcases of talent for a scout who wished to see our best.

Somehow, it's all different today. The oldtime Sunday carnival spirit of baseball has faded away with the advent of the television set, popularization of football and basketball, among many other recreational outlets.

Nowadays, youngsters play the game in parks which has stand-filled only with the ghosts of the capacity crowds of yesterday.
We feel that our baseball talent is still as good as yesterday. But it is so hard to find. There are no showcases.

We wonder if we have players of the talent of Theodore Miller, Ora Curnette, Adrian Collins, Buck Stumbo, Henry Stumbo, Kit Stumbo, "Togo" Harris, John Prod Clifton, Julian Harlowe, Ted Stumbo, Roe Turner, Alex Ratliff, Alex Frasure, Bill Africa, Ray Patton, and many others who do not come to mind.

Is there talent in our hills? The scout wants to know. We want to know. Baseball is a profession in which young men can play seven months of the year, travel the world, and attend college, if they should want to, in the off-season.

The Maytown Wildcats, seeking revenge as a result of an early season defeat at the hands of the Martin Purple Flash, found satisfaction in tipping the Martin team, 70-64, Jan. 22.
The Halbert-men had knocked off the Wildcats early in the season by a 28-point margin.
The two teams, perennial rivals, found Maytown starting the first quarter at a fast pace. The half ended with the Wildcats leading by 17 points. At one time in the game, the victors had a lead of 19-points.
Martin rallied in the second half in cutting the difference to six points as the game ended. Scoring honors were taken by Maytown's Cooley with 20. Following him were Wildcats Terry and Patton, each with 13.
Last Thursday night, Knott county high school was defeated by the Maytown team, 59-53. Maytown led most of the way but suffered a cold third quarter in which they scored only four points.

BEARS CLINCH TIE FOR FIRST
In Athletic Conference; Butcher Leads 15 Points In Game Against Union

Pikeville, Ky., Feb. 8 (Spl.) — The Pikeville College Bears clinched at least a tie for a second successive championship of the Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Saturday night, downing Union's Bulldogs, 65-59, at Barbourville.
They had disposed more easily of what was expected to be a tougher obstacle in their race for the crown when they rolled 82-69 over the Transylvania Pioneers on their floor at Lexington, Tuesday.
The week's action gives Paul Butcher's Bears an 8-1 standing in the KIAC and a 14-5 overall mark, with one conference game left to go. They will entertain the Villa Madonna Rebels, the last team to beat the Bruins on their own floor, Feb. 20, at the Pikeville College gymnasium.
The Rebels of Coach Charley Wolf triumphed, 99-85, on Feb. 21, 1958, to close Pikeville's 1957-58 season with a home loss. Since then the Bears have won 19 successive games, including nine conference contests, on their own hardwood.
Donnis Butcher led the Bruins with 15 points against Union, hitting five field goals on 10 shots and five for six free throws and wrapping up 13 rebounds. Junior Horn had 14 points with six of 12 from the field and a perfect pair of free tosses, and Vern Woods and Paul Setser got 13 points each. The Bulldogs' 6-5 Clyde Evans took scoring laurels in the game with 17 points.
Butcher also led the Bears against Transy with 20 points on eight of 13 field attempts and four of nine free throws. Jack Lucas paced the Pioneers with 20 points also as Transy's "Stick" Stidham, leading scorer of the KIAC with a 24.6 average before meeting Pikeville, was held to 18 points.
Setser coined 18 points against Transylvania with eight field goals on 16 shots and two of three free throws; Pete Campbell had 16 points, and Horn and Woods 13 each. Woods added 16 rebounds while Butcher was grabbing 19 of the Bears' total of 53.

Around Floyd County

I wonder how to answer the letter from Lucadello. Is there baseball talent in our area?

MUST BE GREAT!
Ah, to be young and in baseball! That is the enviable position of Ronald Robinette, 20-year-old right-hander who has cast his baseball fortunes with the Cincinnati Reds.

Robinette has said he will report to the minor league center of the Reds on March 16. The youngster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pervis Robinette, of Allen, is eager to get started on the gold-dust trail of major league baseball.

The Cincinnati organization signed Robinette at their Drift try-out camp last summer. He was one of the only youngsters signed by the Reds in their last three try-out camps.

Robinette said he felt last summer as though he may as well try out for the Reds since he had pitched a successful season for the McDowell high school baseball team. His record, in his senior year, was 7 won and none lost.

What was his best pitch? A hopping fast ball. That's the pitch all the scouts look for. They can teach a prospect the curve, change-up, knuckle-ball, control even—but never that God-given fast ball.

FLIP A COIN, TAKE YOUR PICK
If Wheelwright survives the district tournament, look for a "doozy" between Pikeville and Wheelwright in their second meeting this year.

The question now asked is: can you give the home team ten points advantage? If you can, then the 79-69 game (Pikeville won, at Pikeville) indicated both teams to be perfectly matched.

Pikeville played their best game of the season at home to beat the Trojans. The Trojans looked sharp but, at times, were susceptible to the Pikeville "press defense."

Wheelwright can whip this. The winner in the rematch, if it comes off, will, we think, be determined from one to five points margin.

PLAYERS SAY HE'S GOOD
College coaches, attention! Buddy Howell, Betsy Layne, according to several Floyd county basketballers, is your man. He has all-around ability, size, and potential. Grab him!

COLLEGE PROSPECTS
Some college prospects I can off-handedly think of: Darryl Luxmore, David Conley, Tommy Cole, Forrest Newsome, Jody Sword, Bobby Vicars, Red "Major" Hall, Buddy Howell, "Big Joe" Reynolds, Stumbo and Tuttle (McDowell). Gary Trusty and Jim Blankenship.

P'BURG IMPROVING
No predictions, none at all concerning the district tournament, but Prestonsburg might be able to muster a tough game when the blue chips fall.

A push-over so far this season, there are signs that the lethargic Black Cats are awakening. The Black Cats play Dunbar, recent winner over Pikeville by six points. The game takes place on Dunbar's floor.

If the Prestonsburg team can make a decent showing against the highly-rated quintet, optimism of P'burg fans may have some foundation.

Pioneer Memorial State Park, Harrodsburg, is the scene of the first school house in the state.

Wheelwright Trounced By Pikeville Panthers

Pikeville's Panthers rode a 28-point performance by Don Ratliff to a 79-69 triumph over Wheelwright at Pikeville February 3. It was the 11th win of the season for Pikeville against six losses.

Pikeville had to come from behind in the second period when they outscored the Trojans, 21-12 to gain an edge they never gave up. Wheelwright managed to get an 18-16 advantage in the first period but Pikeville was on top 37-30 at half time.

Bobby Venters kicked in with 19 points and Baird and Mims added 11 each to help the Pikeville cause. Forrest Newsome with 16 and Robert Vickers with 14 topped the Trojan scoring.

Newsome (16)	(11) Baird

PRESS AS YOU SEW

Are you starting to make spring clothes from the new fabrics now appearing in the stores? Proper pressing as you sew can give a tailor-made look to the garments you make, according to Rachael Rowland, University of Kentucky Extension clothing specialist.

Everything has some disadvantage and wall-to-wall carpeting is no exception.

1. Carpeting can never be completely cleaned on the floor. If it is taken up it may shrink and make re-laying difficult.

2. It cannot be turned to distribute wear or fading by sunlight.

3. If a family moves only part of the carpeting can be salvaged.

4. Carpeting is usually more expensive.

EATING HABITS OF AMERICANS

Eating habits in the U.S.A. today are quite different from 50 years ago, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture. What and how much people eat have changed considerably.

The USDA's national food supply figures, dating back to 1909, are the basis for comparing average per capita food consumption over the 50-year period. These figures show a trend toward more milk and most milk products, more meat and poultry, eggs, fats and sugars. People today also are eating more green and yellow vegetables, citrus fruit and tomatoes, but less of many of the other kinds of vegetables and fruits, especially potatoes. A steady drop in use of the grain products is noticeable.

Quantities and kinds of foods on the market have increased with technological advances in agriculture and marketing. Higher incomes allow more people to buy the foods they want. Interest in nutrition also has had an influence on what people buy.

How do these changes affect nutritional values?

Calories are down. In 1909, food provided almost 3,600 calories a day per person compared to about 3,200 today; this is partly because fewer people are doing the heavy labor that requires extra calories. The production of total calories from fat is up from 32 per cent in 1909 to 41 per cent in 1956, while the share of calories from carbohydrates is down from 56 to 47 per cent, as people are eating less grains and potatoes.

Two-thirds of the protein in today's diet comes from meat, poultry, eggs, milk products and fish compared to one-half in earlier years. Fifty years ago, a greater proportion of the protein came from

WALL-TO-WALL CARPETING

Should we have wall-to-wall carpeting in our home? Spring is on its way, and some people will be planning on new floor coverings.

Wall-to-wall carpeting means floor covering cut to fit the exact dimensions of a room or rooms and permanently installed either by tacking or some other method.

Wall-to-wall carpeting has some advantages and some very real problems. The following advantages and disadvantages would help a family decide on the selection of rugs or wall-to-wall carpeting. The decision should never be made on trends alone.

Some of the advantages of having wall-to-wall carpeting are:

- 1. It creates a unity within a room or from one room to another.
- 2. It makes the space look larger.
- 3. It adds warmth, a feeling of luxury, and sound insulation.
- 4. Floor cleaning can be done with one process and one tool.
- 5. It can conceal floors in poor condition.
- 6. Wall-to-wall carpeting does not slip nor are there edges to trip over.

Everything has some disadvantage and wall-to-wall carpeting is no exception.

1. Carpeting can never be completely cleaned on the floor. If it is taken up it may shrink and make re-laying difficult.

2. It cannot be turned to distribute wear or fading by sunlight.
