

THURSDAY

This Town-- That World

IS THERE NO PEACE?

We dislike the role of pessimist, but we must admit things do not seem to be improving. Time was when the November knock-down-and-drag-'em-out known as the final election was followed by Armistice Day, its memories and thoughts of peace. But now they call Nov. 11 Armed Forces Day. . . . Back to the foxhole --er, bomb-shelter--men!

Meanwhile, there is Halloween. Is there no place to hide?

Incidentally, that padlock on our office door was not put there by the Sheriff. We just beat him to it.

THE BIGGEST 'UN

Sgt. Marvin E. Craft, Army recruiter here, had a volunteer Wednesday afternoon that was accepted without even a physical. This recruit which swallowed the lure so temptingly dangled before him was an eight-pound, 12-ounce largemouth bass--the biggest bass taken on hook and line from Dewey Lake, or hooks truly is worse mislaken than usual. Hope the Of-Sarge is a member of the Floyd County Fish & Game Club. If he is, that catch should relieve them of some choice fishing equipment.

SO LET'S PHILOSOPHIZE

After bouncing back from the shock of seeing on another man's stringer this bass I've dreamed about, I decided I might as well be philosophical about the matter and swallow, bury or otherwise dispose of that envy that was showing. So I ruminate.

Here was a fish that may have known Johns Creek before it became Dewey Lake, a wise oldtimer that had sampled perhaps a dozen lures in his time and had promptly spat them back at the angler. Why, this patriarch probably knew the trademark, manufacturer and serial number of every artificial bait man has dunked in this lake of ours.

And here, for all his years and all his wisdom, this bass loses his head over a little, old minnow of crappie-fishing size.

POWER FIRM, C. & O. AGREE

On Coal Rate Pact; Assurance Is Viewed To Benefit Big Sandy

The Kentucky Power Company has guaranteed that at least 80 per cent of the coal it uses in the Big Sandy Plant, near Fallsburg, Lawrence county, will be transported by the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company, and in return C. & O. has set a special rate on coal shipments to the plant.

In this agreement coal men see the assurance that most of the coal the power company will use at the plant, which is now under construction, will be produced in the Big Sandy valley, which is served by C. & O.

The plant is expected to use about 600,000 tons of coal a year in the production of electric power.

The C. & O. said this is the first time such an agreement was concluded in this country, although such contract rates already are in effect in Canada, where they are known as "guaranteed annual minimums."

The lower rate for Kentucky Power was approved by the Kentucky Railroad Commission.

BOND ISSUE IS ENDORSED BY GROUPS

Five Organizations Vote Support Pledges In Recent Resolutions

Recognizing "the present inadequacy of Kentucky's system of roads and highways is one of the most serious problems facing the state," many area groups and organizations have resolved support of the proposed road and parks bond issue to be voted on Nov. 8.

Joining the growing number of organizations urging support of the $100,000,000 bond issue in this county are the Beaver Valley Kiwanis Club, of Wheelwright, and the Martin Kiwanis Club, the Prestonsburg Kiwanis Club, the Jenny Wiley Drama Association, the Prestonsburg Kiwanis Club. All the groups recently took action by formal vote at recent meetings.

The resolutions noted the need of the bond issue to improve Kentucky's position in many fields.

"Kentucky's agricultural, industrial, economic, social and tourist welfare depends greatly on adequate highway transportation facilities and full realization of our state's potential in these fields will be delayed for so long as we neglect to provide an adequate system of roads and highways," the resolutions said.

The various groups pointed out that they were affiliating with the Kentucky Better Roads Council that was organized to gain support for the bond issue and the program it will implement.

Educational Council Holds Allen Meeting; By-Laws Are Adopted

Persons interested in fully organizing the Citizens Educational Council of Floyd county met again at the Allen luncheon, Friday evening, and heard a report by the by-laws committee. The by-laws were submitted and adopted by those present. These had been prepared by Attorney Joe P. Tackett. A later meeting of the full group will vote on the by-laws for final adoption, it was said.

BOND DRIVE START GOOD

One-Third of Issue Sold, Thompson Says; Gov. Combs Subscribes

"Operation Bootstrap," the Prestonsburg high school Parent-Teacher Association's project to raise funds for a modern athletic field here to serve the entire school attendance area, was off to a "most encouraging" start, Byron M. Thompson, chairman of the Building Improvements committee, said Wednesday.

The committee's goal is $30,500. As of Wednesday afternoon, $8,830 worth of Youth Confidence bonds and certificates had been purchased and paid for, Thompson said.

Because all those who are working with the committee in the sale of the bonds and certificates had not reported and were not reached, Wednesday's report could not be

RIVER SPAN BIDS SLATED

For January, Announced; Van Lear Bridge Okehed By U.S. Army Engineers

The Kentucky Department of Highways announced this week it will call for bids in January for the construction of a U.S. 23 bridge across the Big Sandy River at Van Lear after receiving approval of the project by the U.S. Engineers and the secretary of the Army.

The bridge, 800 feet long and 30 feet wide, will also cross the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Co. tracks. An existing railway-highway bridge nearby will remain, but will be used only for train traffic after the completion of the new bridge.

A spokesman said the highway department doubted it will have trouble meeting federal requirements that the bridge must be completed by May 27, 1964.

This bridge is a part of the new Prestonsburg-to-Paintsville route. Some negotiations have been begun toward purchase of rights-of-way to extend the new road on toward Paintsville from its present terminus at Auxier.

Two other bridges are planned for construction--a major span across the river at Auxier and a smaller bridge across Johns Creek.

CURRY NABBED BY TROOPERS

Wallen Is Arrested For Michigan Forgery; Officers Chase Moore

Archie Curry, who was arrested in this county last Thursday on an auto theft charge, was later released to F.B.I. Agent James W. Horner to answer federal prosecution.

Curry, who was accused of stealing a West Virginia car and driving it to this county, was arrested by State Troopers D. H. Goble and E. B. Allen in the Bull Creek section.

Being held for Michigan authorities is Gladden Wallen, who was arrested at Garrett Monday by State Trooper W. Williamson on a forgery count. It was said at the county jail that Wallen is accused of forging a $70 check.

Elbert Collins was arrested Saturday by Deputy Sheriffs Lonnie Herald and Wesley Fannin and paid a fine of $112.50 on a reduced charge of reckless driving.

Glenn Moore was arrested on Left Beaver Creek Tuesday night by Deputy Sheriffs James and Robert Hall, and was booked for reckless driving and transporting alcoholic beverages. The officers said Moore "ran" a stop sign, then led them a chase in his truck. They said that when they finally overhauled him they found liquor in the truck. Another arrest of the week was that of James H. Watkins by Deputy Sheriff Robert Beach on a charge of destroying private property.

The Eastern Kentucky toll road moved toward the construction stage recently while the state cautiously eyed the source of money to pay for it--the bond market.

The Department of Highways received, Oct. 14, an apparent low bid of $1,275,061 for grade and drain work on the first stretch of the superhighway near Winchester in

"TRICK OR TREAT" IS THEME OF UNICEF "SPOOKS" MONDAY

Next Monday evening little spooks, and goblins, spacemen and witches will ring the doorbells of Prestonsburg and townfolks will hear the familiar, "Trick or Treat for UNICEF!"

Sponsored by some of Prestonsburg's churches and nationally by the United Nations Children's Fund Halloween program will be carried out at the same time in some 10,000 other communities. Last year more than two million American youngsters participated in the biggest project ever carried out by children to help children.

Each penny collected by the Trick or Treaters wearing the UNICEF black and orange tag Monday night can mean five glasses of milk for a needy child overseas, or the BCG vaccine to protect him from tuberculosis. A nickel's worth of UNICEF penicillin will cure a child of yaws, a crippling tropical disease.

The junior citizens of Prestonsburg participating in Trick or Treat for UNICEF will canvass the neighborhood in small groups, escorted by young adults who are also volunteering their time.

Church leaders here pointed out that UNICEF is not a give-away program. Governments that request its aid spend an average of more than $2.50 for each $1.00 received in UNICEF supplies.

TRUCK MISHAP KILLS MOORE

Orkney Man Succumbs After Price Accident; Others Are Hospitalized

Clyde Douglas Moore, 18, of Orkney, succumbed to injuries Saturday at Our Lady of the Way hospital, Martin, a few hours after a pick-up truck he was driving plunged over an embankment at Price. Four other men were injured, two seriously.

The accident occurred shortly after midnight Friday near the Price coal tipple. The truck fell over the embankment to the edge of the railroad tracks. Cause of the tragedy was not learned.

Hospitalized at Pikeville Memorial hospital are Manis Crawford, Jr., and Bert L. Johnson, both of Melvin. They were seriously injured, it was said. David McCowan and Duke Justice, both also of Melvin, received less serious injuries and were discharged from the McDowell Memorial hospital following first-aid treatment.

Moore, a senior at McDowell high school, died of a fractured skull and other injuries. He was a son of Ralph and Nova Isaacs Moore, who survives. Surviving brothers and sisters are Terry L. Moore, Earnie Moore, Anthony Moore, Carlotta G. Moore and Debra Moore, all at home.

HIGH NUMBER OF ABSENTEES

Make Vote Applications; Officers Are Instructed On Conduct of Election

Indicative of the high interest in the national election as well as local races is the record number of absentee ballot applications received at the county clerk's office here.

At noon Wednesday, 528 applications had been approved. Any others postmarked Oct. 24 or earlier will be honored, and the applicants will be mailed ballots.

The heaviest previous absentee balloting was in the 1957 primary when 298 votes were cast in this fashion. In the gubernatorial election last November the total number of absentee ballots tabulated was 168.

A large part of the applications received this year is from service men.

Absentee votes will be cast on printed ballots and marked by stencil or pen, as in previous Floyd county elections. All other voting will be by voting machine.

SEARCH MADE FOR ESCAPEES NEAR P'BURG

West Virginia Fugitives Seen Here, Saturday; Car Wrecked By Fleeing Men

Search was being intensified in northern Floyd county today (Thursday) by Federal Bureau of Investigation agents and other law enforcement agencies for two escapees from a West Virginia prison farm.

It was definitely confirmed early today that the two wanted men, Allen Hensley, of Matewan, W. Va., and Silas Anderson, Grundy, Va., who escaped from a minimum security farm at Huttonville, W. Va., Friday, had been seen in Prestonsburg, Saturday noon. They had been serving terms for a breaking and entering offense committed in the Williamson area.

The two men, who are said to be in their 20's, first appeared after their escape at Pikeville, Saturday morning when they wrecked a stolen 1953 Ford station wagon on U.S.23, north of town. Changing clothes and hiding their old clothing in a sewer line, they disappeared again for a few hours. At noon they were definitely identified as being at Leake's Gulf Service Station on Lake Drive here.

One of the men, who has a tattooed sword on his wrist, entered the Lake Drive-In restaurant in Prestonsburg about 1 a.m., Monday, and ate a hamburger. Policemen Kelly Frasure and Frank Blackburn were in the place at the time but, not having been alerted to the two men's presence in the area, were not suspicious. Frasure said the man left the restaurant, walked off up the highway. He afterward learned that the tattooed man was one of the fugitives.

Tuesday morning, Hansel Austin, of Paintsville, while hunting in the East Point section, came upon two men eating beside the road on Little Paint Creek. They fled to the woodlands when they saw Austin with a shotgun. The Paintsville man reported the incident to the Sheriff's office here but a search by deputies failed to find the escapees. Wednesday afternoon a call from Auxier to the office of Sheriff Hershel Warrens reported that two suspicious-looking men were in that neighborhood. Deputy Sheriff Joe Wheeler Lewis and others were looking for the men early today.

POUND DAM BID OFFERED

California Contractor Asks $4,034,530 Total To Build Impoundment

A California firm's bid below the U.S. Corps of Engineers' estimate apparently was the low offer made Tuesday for construction of the John W. Flannagan Dam on the Pound River, near Haysi, Virginia.

The low bid of $4,034,530 was submitted by the Green Construction Company & Tecon Corporation, San Mateo, California. The project cost had been estimated at $6,500,000.

The Flannagan reservoir is part of the system of impoundments planned for headwaters of the Big Sandy River as flood control and water conservation projects.

The rolled rock-fill dam will be 250 feet high and 980 feet long. The work will also include the clearing of 110 acres and the construction of a 2,000-foot-long service road. Work will begin within 10 days after the contract is awarded and must be completed in 960 calendar days.

Sixteen separate bids were offered on the project.

Underwriters Course Set At Prestonsburg; Brown Named Instructor

A Life Underwriters Course will be organized this evening (Thursday) at the Prestonsburg high school, it was announced Tuesday by Lacy E. Puckett, of Pikeville, president of the Big Sandy Underwriter's Association.

The 25-week course, open to all full-time life insurance men of all companies in the area served by the association, will offer training in the fields of estate planning, tax advantages and other phases of the insurance business. The classes will hold sessions of two and one-half hours at each weekly meeting.

Permanent dates of the classes will be determined by the enrollees, according to Roy Ramey, local insurance man. Paul Brown, of Paintsville, is scheduled as instructor.

"There are no company restrictions and all full-time agents are urged to attend," said Ramey.

MRS. LLOYD IS GIVEN FIRST TITLE AT CANEY

After 44 years of work as founder and directing genius of the Caney Creek Community Center, Mrs. Alice S. G. Lloyd only recently received a title in connection with the famed school.

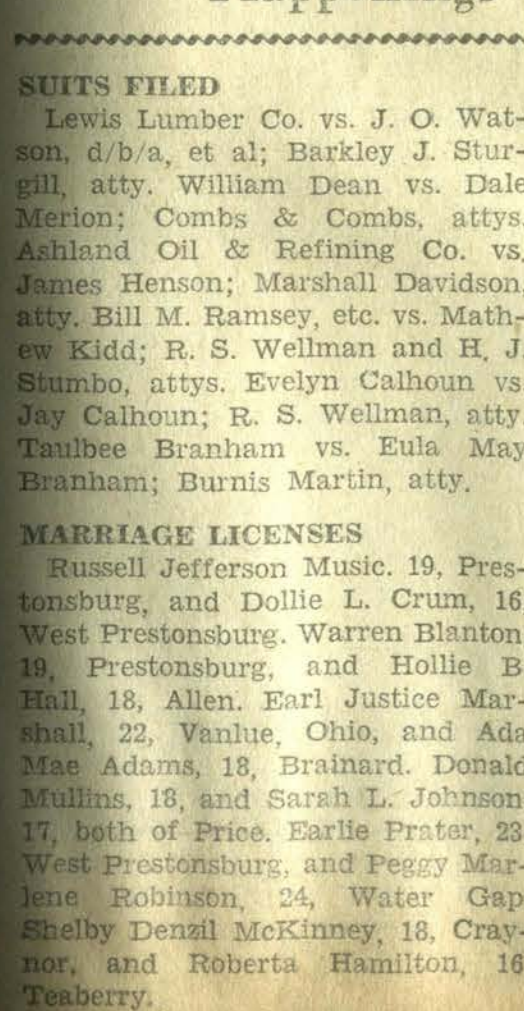

The board of trustees of the school has conferred on her the title of president-emeritus. And that came only after Mrs. Lloyd consented to slow down and delegate to others some of the work that has held her at her desk, all the days and many of the nights since she first went to Caney.

June Buchanan, who has been there for more than three decades herself, was made president of Caney Creek Community Center. Dean William Hayes was given the responsibility of executive director of Caney Junior College. William R. Hughes an alumnus of the college, returned this fall as registrar.

In designating Mrs. Lloyd president-emeritus, the trustees said the institution still will have the benefit of her vast experience and knowledge. She has worked without title and without pay since she first saw the rugged headwaters area of Caney in October, 1916.

Soon she began to gather about her as pupils in a one-room cabin boys and girls of the surrounding hill country.

Revival Here To End Sunday

Besides his work as evangelist, the Rev. Turner joins Mrs. Turner in special singing.

Mrs. Pace presented the resignation of Mrs. Zella S. Archer, who for the past five and a half years has served the Council as executive director. Her resignation is to become effective Oct. 31. It was accepted by the Council with regret. Mrs. Pace presented a silver goblet to Mrs. Archer as a token of the Council's appreciation for her devoted service.

The Rev. Harold W. Dorsey was presented to the Council as a long-time friend of Scouting. He spoke of the contribution Scout training and experience can make in preparing girls for a full life as citizens and homemakers and emphasized the importance their outdoor training could assume in the event of atomic warfare.

An honored guest was Miss Ruth Harmon who served as the first executive director of the Sandy Valley Girl Scout Council. Miss Harmon, formerly of Pikeville, has been serving for the past five years as a Presbyterian missionary in Iran. She is home on a year's furlough.

This official highway map shows the county's mileage of roads approved for Federal aid and thereby eligible for matching bond money. Markings are Federal agency designations and not numbers posted on the routes.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 24 (Spl.)—Floyd county has 237 miles of highways approved by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads for possible federal aid and eligible for participation in bond funds to be voted on November 8, Kentucky Highway Commissioner Henry Ward reports.

"As needs and priorities are determined, and as federal funds are made available, all roads indicated on the map (above) could qualify for improvement," Commissioner Ward said.

The county's mileage of federal aid highways include 46 miles of primary or main roads and 191 miles of secondary farm-to-market roads. There are 19,091 miles of federal aid roads in Kentucky.

"The familiar shield and number on many major highways designate them only as interlocking travel routes and have no direct relation to eligibility for federal aid," Ward said. "Many miles of roads qualify for federal aid, although they are not marked as U.S. highways."

"In addition to the roads mentioned, 641 miles of interstate and defense multi-lane highways will be built as Kentucky's part of the national program. These routes qualify for $9 of federal funds to $1 of state funds. All other federal aid roads are on a 50-50 matching basis.

"In 1956, voters approved a $100 million bond issue which has resulted in 1,440 miles of new highways. Total cost of these roads was $226 million, of which $62 million was from the 1956 bond fund and the balance was paid by the federal government.

"Late in July, the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads announced allocations of federal funds to Kentucky amounting to $160 million during 1961, 1962 and 1963. To take advantage of these funds, Kentucky must provide matching funds totaling $58 million for the three years.

"If voters approve the $90 million road and $10 million park bond issue, the Department of Highways can proceed with plans to complete a $218 million building program in the three years. The state will need $45.7 million to match federal grants on 19,091 miles of primary, secondary and urban systems. This is the most pressing problem. Only $12.7 million will be needed to match federal funds on the interstate system totaling $114 million.

"No part of the bond money can be used for turnpikes. The road bond funds are legally pledged, both by the act of the legislature and in the ballot, to be used only for participation in federal aid projects. Federal money cannot be used for toll road construction."

ANSWERS TO YOUR TAX QUESTIONS BY WILLIAM E. SCENT KENTUCKY'S COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE

In previous articles we have discussed recent changes in Kentucky's state tax structure. The reduction in individual income tax, effective January 1, 1961, has been mentioned but needs further explanation, particularly because of withholding. First, the tax credit for each dependent was increased from $13 to $20. Second, the surtax was repealed. Q. When will a salaried employee notice this tax change? A. The first paycheck a salaried employee receives after January 1, will show a reduction in the Kentucky income tax withheld. As a result, the "take home" pay will be greater. Q. Do the employers know of these changes in withholding? A. The revised edition of "Withholding Kentucky Income Tax," an instruction booklet for employers, will be mailed to each Kentucky employer during November. This booklet has the new withholding tables effective January 1, 1961. Q. How much will the withheld income tax be reduced because of the new law? A. This can better be shown with a table. The reduction for a man and wife with two children is as follows:

Table with columns: Monthly Income, Present Withholding, Jan. 1961 Withholding. Rows for income levels: $250, 300, 350, 400, 450, 500, 550, 600.

Q. Does this table mean that if an individual makes $400 a month his income tax is reduced 68 per cent? A. If an individual has no other income and has three dependents (four exemptions in all), his income tax would in effect be cut 68 per cent.

We Need More Work of This Kind

In all the political turmoil that afflicts Floyd county there is a work being done just now that by contrast puts all our bickering and discord in an extremely sorry light.

This work has been termed "Operation Bootstrap," and it is a movement in which there is such a unity of spirit, such an absence of selfishness and so much of a community of interest that, surely, it recommends itself to everybody. Conceived by the Prestonsburg Parent-Teacher Association and carried on through months of preparation and planning into the active work of raising funds by the P.-T.A.'s Building Improvement committee, it promises an addition to the school system here of a modern athletic field and an expansion of the athletic program to benefit all children in the school attendance area.

It is not our purpose to explain the plan in detail here—that already has been done, and effectively. What we want to say, as clearly as we may, is that this is a splendid demonstration of cooperation of people with each other, with nobody seeking personal profit and just about everybody wanting to do all they can in the service of all who this year and the years after will be attending the high school here, regardless of where they live.

Floyd county needs much more work done in this spirit. All such efforts deserve our active support.

THE WATCHMAN SPEAKS

ROMANISM (or) CATHOLICISM; Church over state. This is exactly what it is, and any amount of explanation, promises, views from any one who is a subject of the Catholic church, is just so much sham.

- (1) It is not a question of "where I go to church."
- (2) It is not a question of "when I was baptized."
- (3) It is not a question of what church "I am affiliated with."
- (4) It is not a question of belonging, or not belonging to a church.
- (5) It is not a matter of which political party a candidate is affiliated with.

(6) The important question to be discussed and considered is, if either candidate is asking to be our President, and if he is affiliated with a foreign state, subject to pressure from its ruler, demanding for itself all it can obtain, and denying for others the simplest of freedom, regarding all Christians of all churches non-believers, bigots and heretics. Then that candidate should be rejected, and forever consigned to unrecognition, public oblivion, without regard to his party label. LET US AMERICANS, DEMOCRATS, REPUBLICANS and INDEPENDENTS, use one standard, stamp first—then, after that stamp is so imprinted that it can never be erased without end, (this stamp to be AMERICANISM) join the party of his choice, exercise his privilege of the free ballot in the secret booth, blind to the eyes of man, open before the eyes of a loving GOD.

(7) We have a perfect right to discuss the religious or political beliefs of Kennedy and Nixon—and this we will do.

(8) COMMUNISM is a religion just as much as Quakerism and Catholicism.

(9) The Communist, as far as I know, have no candidate running for the Presidency. If they did we would expose them for the enlightenment of the voters and citizens, and not for hate or bigotry.

(10) The only reason at this time I am discussing some candidate more than the other, one is "a faithful son of the Catholic Church."

(11) The Catholic Church is a political power. This makes it a secular, political question. This power has a secular ruler in a foreign country, Italy; it is the Vatican; it has its own flag, exchanges diplomats with other nations. The Pope from abroad controls all his subjects. He has one policy for all of his people—applies the same to all nations, rulers and governments.

(12) What is done in Spain. No Protestant can run for any office; Argentina, the same; non-Catholic cannot run for high office, Paraguay, and Columbia are the same.

(13) It's a poor rule that won't work both ways: New York, October 19th. The Courier-Journal: Mrs. Clara Booth Luce Believes Religion Kennedy Aid. "Religion is an issue, John Kennedy's Roman Catholic Religion will win him almost all the Catholic votes, and may win him vital Negro votes as well." "Every Catholic will take Mr. Kennedy's Catholic faith into account when making his or her choice; this is inevitable; it is also right. The religion of Mr. Kennedy will, I think win him almost all Catholic votes." (See Look Magazine, November issue).

San Juan, Puerto Rico, October 21.—Three Roman Catholic Bishops wrote a pastoral letter forbidding Catholics to vote for Governor Luis Munoz Martin's Democratic party.—It is our obligation to prohibit Catholics from giving their votes, etc., they said. The letter was signed by Archbishop James P. Davis, James E. McManus, and Luis Aponte Martinez. James E. McManus, one of the Bishops, said the people would commit sin in voting against the wishes of the Bishops. HERE IS WHAT THE VATICAN SAID ABOUT IT: Roman Catholic Bishops were in their episcopal authority in forbidding members of the church to vote for Munoz Martin's party.

(14) Munoz Martin, the candidate that the Catholics were forbidden to vote for, said, "An incredible and unjust intervention in the political liberties of Puerto Rico citizens" was committed.

(15) In conclusion of this article, I want you to note a few things: Any Catholic, including John Kennedy, is bound, and will succumb to the command of the Pope. He did when invited, and after accepting to speak at the dedication of an inter-faith chapel for the four chaplains who went down on the Dorchester ship. His superior, Cardinal Dougherty, requested him not to speak, neither appear. Kennedy said, "As a loyal son of the church I have no alternative but not to come." He declined, he obeyed, he was submissive to his church.

We as Protestants are called bigots if we discuss the "religious issue." What will you call Catholic Clare Booth Luce?

The Catholic Bishops intervened in an election in Puerto Rico commanding their Catholic subjects not to vote for a certain party, and said it was sin to do it. The Vatican in Rome said the Bishops were right in forbidding the subjects to vote the way their conscience told them.

This is the same Catholic Church that is here in America—the same Pope is over them—the same principle applies here as in Puerto Rico—our President, if Catholic, would be subject to the same ruler, to the same flag—his allegiance would be first to the Vatican, he would have to have orders from the Pope in order to address a Protestant gathering.

Who do you suppose would officiate at the opening of the Congress? that is, the invocation.

The Priest Mayor of Dijon, France, had planned to welcome Nikita Khrushchev to city hall. He had to abandon his plan under orders from his bishop. (Courier-Journal, April 24th, 1960) I suppose all of us oppose Khrushchev, but the freedom to make ones own choice regarding it is right. The church should have no jurisdiction over a ruler.

With good will to all, and malice to none; and with no ill-feelings to any who differ with my views, I offer what I believe, from the depths of my heart some things that I believe, that every voter should consider, and search for himself, to see if these things are true.

My friends, I am standing up, I want to be counted one for America, America's freedom, her way of life—for you, your home—to come and go as you please. I want you to be able to keep whistling. (I hope you read the account of the mail carrier who whistled as he worked, but because of some nosy meddlers—they stopped him from whistling. But his whistling sound was missed so much, the people requested his employer to let him whistle. He said, "I am to whistle again." Long live America and our right to "whistle.")

Humbly, honestly and reverently submitted,
THE WATCHMAN AT TWELVE

complete. Mr. Thompson pointed out that individuals had pledged $6,000 before the sales campaign began and that not all these had been contacted.

"I would guess that we are already a third or better on the way to reaching our goal," Thompson said. "The response has been wonderful. In some cases men have borrowed from the bank to make this investment in our youth. In the mail, the other day, came a check from Governor Combs for a bond. Bonds have been bought by business firms and individuals located as far away as Ashland, Hazard and Lohair."

Thompson added that the first report meeting of workers will be held Monday night. He also said public acknowledgement of all expressions of confidence through bond and certificate purchases will be made later.

Dunn Says Engineering And Science To Create New Horizon for Coal

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 24 — Science and engineering will create "a new horizon" for coal through research programs now in progress, Stephen F. Dunn, president of the National Coal Association, said today.

"With the cooperation of allied industry interested in utilizing coal's advantages of economy and unlimited resources, coal's potential is infinite," Mr. Dunn told the 1960 Joint Solid Fuels Conference, which is sponsored by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the American Institute of Mining Engineers.

Construction of the new laboratory of Bituminous Coal Research, Inc., an NCA affiliate, is expected to get underway near Pittsburgh "next week or next month," Mr. Dunn said. He said the entire coal industry is also looking forward to "highly productive results" from the Office of Coal Research being set up in the problems since World War II, Mr. Department of the Interior.

Tracing coal's progress and Dunn said that the industry could have overcome deficits occasioned by losses in railroad and retail markets "had it not been for a dual attack under conditions that do not meet the ground rules of fair competition." He said that the impact of residual oil imports and natural gas dumped into industrial markets at the expense of coal has been felt all through coal-producing states.

Mr. Dunn said the mandatory oil imports control program, now in its second year of operations, has been effective, but the level of incoming shipments of alien residual oil is still far too high.

KENNEDY WILL WIN!

And Kentucky will fare much better with a 100% per cent DEMOCRAT in the Senate than with a REPUBLICAN, who was unable, even with a Republican President, to prevent the veto of a depressed areas bill which would have given great relief to thousands of jobless, needy Kentuckians.

KEEN JOHNSON

Gave his full support to the TVA Enabling Act, when he was Governor . . . and without this legislation, no farm, no home, no factory in Kentucky would now be getting low-cost electricity. JOHNSON'S program for FARMERS, who have seen prices for their products steadily decline during 8 years under Eisenhower, will help give our tillers of the soil a FAIR SHARE OF THE NATIONAL INCOME. JOHNSON favors federal aid to schools, which already would be a reality except for RICHARD NIXON'S vote against a bill, which was a tie, broken by the NO vote of REPUBLICAN nominee for President

SEVEN REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD ELECT DR. EDWARD B. LESLIE FOR MAYOR OF PRESTONSBURG

1. He has promoted the Low Rent Housing project and construction of these homes will materially aid in the development of Prestonsburg.
2. He has been instrumental in obtaining the Prestonsburg-Paintsville Airport to be built soon at Blockhouse Bottom.
3. The city is being cleaned up. Vacant city lots are no longer filled with weeds and debris. The job will be completed soon.
4. Dr. Leslie has made many, many trips to Frankfort at his own expense to obtain the $148,000 grant for sewage disposal in Prestonsburg.
5. He is a progressive man who will handle your tax dollars in a conservative manner.
6. He has been a consistent watch dog over the City Treasury and at all times he has guarded the taxpayer's interest.
7. He now has Prestonsburg on a practically Pay-As-You-Go basis without any additional taxes.

The population of the United States is increasing at a higher rate than many backward parts of the world. While a boon to some fields of business, this increase, reports the November Reader's Digest, threatens to outrun both renewable and non-renewable resources. More than 1,000 American towns and cities already have been forced to curtail their water service.

Officers named to serve in the county's 34 voting precincts received instructions Monday from a representative of the Shoup Voting Machine Company on the handling of the new devices. The election officers were trained in the opening and closing of the machines, how to lock off portions of the ballot to ineligible voters and how to tabulate the returns immediately after the close of the polling.
DeGarmo DeRossette, of the Coal Bit Company, will deliver the voting machines to the polling places on the Sunday and Monday preceding the Nov. 8 election. When the machines are first opened to voting the zeros showing that the machines are clear of previous voting will be visible. Immediately after the polls close, the election officers will read the totals received by each candidate or issue and will then lock the machines which cannot be again opened until the time for their opening by proper authority here.

The necessity of locking off parts of the ballot to some voters in certain precincts arises from the fact that precinct boundary lines and educational division boundaries do not always coincide. In Antioch precinct, for instance, some of the voters will be eligible to vote in the Division 3 school election while others will vote in the Division 4 race.

A two-lane arm from Salyersville to Pikeville by way of Prestonsburg would be a freeway, as would the entire southern arm from Campton to Whitesburg.
The apparent low bidder on the first section of the toll road was R. C. Durr, Walton contractor.

PIKE COUNTY BUSINESSMEN BUILD AIRPORT FACILITIES

Pike county and Pikeville businessmen have figuratively rolled up their sleeves and built a $60,000 airport runway, according to Pete Janis, secretary of the county and city Chamber Commerce.

"I guess we had more determination than sense," he remarked. The strip was built entirely with donations of materials, equipment and money.

The new gravel runway replaced a grass landing strip. The old runway was short and had a dangerous mound. There were obstructions at either end, and drainage was poor. "We've taken down the trees, removed the mound, and extended the runway to 3,000 feet," Janis said. "But the remarkable thing is the way the people of Pike county pitched in on a task that everyone said couldn't be done. There's no federal or state money in this field."

Work was started on the runway early last month. When plans for borrowing some giant bulldozers fell through, members of the County Airport Board and the chamber got on the phone and started begging for equipment, gasoline, small bulldozers, gravel and money.

Work started the following morning. Coal operators and small and large business firms in the area promised heavy equipment. In a few hours the chamber and air board located five bulldozers, three graders, a roller, 10 trucks and a highlift.

Oil firms and service stations volunteered gasoline and oil. Adams Construction Company, Burdine, contributed approximately $6,000 in gravel and stone for paving.

Money proved the least of the problems. "We didn't have to ask for money," Janis said. "People who wanted Pikeville to have a good airport stopped me on the street and gave me 25, 50 or 100 dollars."

The new strip is two miles northwest of Pikeville next to the Big Sandy River on land leased for five years from Dr. Ballard Cassidy and Leonard Thompson, both of Pikeville.

The air board, Janis said, hopes to negotiate a new 20-year lease and then persuade the state to blacktop

This job does have its rewards. Just this morning there came the nicest letter and some copy for this column. This letter sugared me up to a fare-thee-well. My reader evidently has not read about the good boat No-Strike or about my harrowing experiences with a flyrod and other incidents which carried me down, down into that old slough of despond. Hueysville Man Dies Thursday of Last Week; Burial, Sexton Cemetery

Ellis Sexton, 42, of Hueysville, died Thursday of last week at home. A truck mine operator, he had been in ill health ten months, seriously so for a week.

Mr. Sexton was a son of Bill and Jane Shepherd Sexton and the husband of Lula Duff Sexton, who survives. He was a member of the Church of God.

Surviving sons and daughters are Wendell Sexton, of Hueysville, Randall, Rondel, Atalee, Larry David, James Orville, Woodford Ray, Bobby Darrell, Ellis Edward and Bernita Ann Sexton, all at home, Birchel Sexton, of Garrett, and Mrs. Loretta Mullins, Cleveland, Ohio. A brother, Willis Sexton, and a sister, Mrs. Goldie Castle, both of Hueysville, survive.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday, at 10 a.m., from the Stonecreek Church of God, the Rev. Jim Duff officiating. Burial was made in the Sexton cemetery under the direction of Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

Colors can raise our spirits, impart serenity or kindle excitement, according to the November Reader's Digest. Automobile drivers feel a greater challenge to pass a red, maroon or yellow car than a black, blue or green one. A red dress appears closer than a blue one the same distance away.

Unless authorities act promptly to preserve them, Africa's great game herds face extinction, reports the November Reader's Digest. Leopards are almost gone because their coats are fashionable. Giraffes and wild beasts are going because their tails can be used as fly swatters, retailing at about $1 each.

NO ADDITIONAL TAXES NECESSARY!

We, the undersigned Floyd county business firms, endorse the Road and Parks Bond Issue.

This is our hope. Talk later will not do the job.

Only by voting this bond issue can the people of Kentucky see that their state has the funds needed to benefit from Federal Aid on highways.

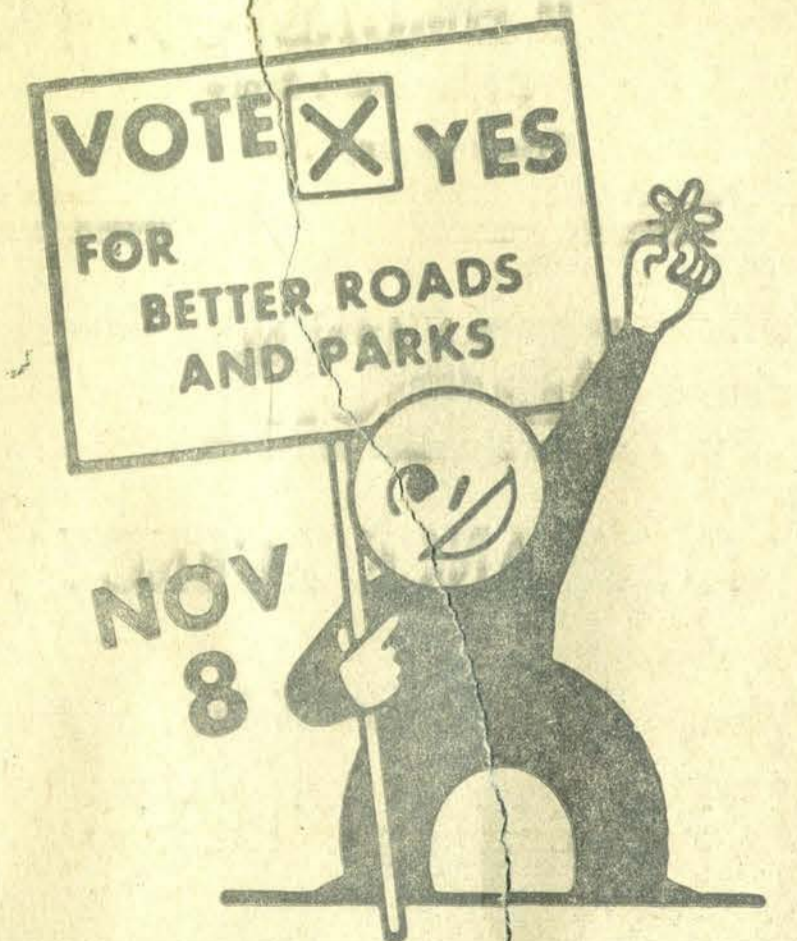

This Bond Issue will not add to our taxes—the gasoline tax, users of the highways pay the bill.

We are unwilling to let our gasoline tax and other present revenues planned for good roads fail of their purpose. $1 now will get us $9 from the Federal government on Federal Aid highways. $1 later will be just $1—and the Federal Aid will not be available.

The help Kentucky can thus get from the Federal Funds will leave most of our other highway funds untouched and available for improvement of rural roads and state highways that are not eligible for Federal Aid.

This Bond Issue makes sense—let's be sensible, too—let us all work for and vote, "Yes," on the plan to get Kentucky and our own part of Kentucky on the road to progress.

Auxier's Setser Figures Big in Butcher's Plans For Bears This Season

Pikeville, Ky., Oct. 24 (Spl.) — Looking the same in the show window, but different back in the shop, Paul Butcher's second edition of the Pikeville College Bears will include all six of last year's first-stringers and two other lettermen in a 10-man basketball squad.

The Bears, season champions of the Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference for the last two years, will open action Nov. 19, Joe M. Butcher, Pikeville athletic director, announced today. They will host the Tigers of Campbellsville College, an old foe from Pikeville's junior-college days and now a candidate for KIA membership, in the first of the Bears' 12 home games this season.

Returning to the Butchermen are four two-letter men—George Carroll, Ashland; Paul Setser, Auxier; Vern Woods, Dayton, Ohio, and Junior Dennis Butcher, Williamsport. Pete Campbell, Chattaroy, W. Va., and Everett Horn, Inez, won letters last year.

CATS WIN BY 21 TO 0; HAZARD IS NEAR TITLE

This is the "week of decision" for the Hazard Bull Dogs and the Fleming-Neon Pirates, who meet for the Eastern Kentucky Mountain Conference title in the Perry county seat, Friday night.

Paul Wright's unbeaten Bull Dogs appear the odds-on choice to retain the league title as they are 5-0 in conference play and 7-0 overall. Jack Hall's Letcher countians are 4-1 and must down the Bull Dogs to figure in the title race.

Hazard romped over Leslie county, 46-0, over the past week-end of play. Pikeville drubbed M. C. Napier, 39-0; Prestonsburg shut out Whitesburg, 21-0; Belfry upended Jenkins, 27-0; Wheelwright downed Benham, 20-7, and Paintsville overpowered winless Elkhorn City, 40-0.

Pikeville's Panthers, beaten only by Prestonsburg in league play, stand a good chance to share in the title, if Fleming can dump Hazard. The Panthers, 4-1 in the race, have Jenkins and Whitesburg remaining in the loop race.

Mike Minix, Paintsville's sensational halfback, upped his season's point production to 198 markers in racing for 18, 23, 39 and 78-yard touchdowns as the Tigers clawed Elkhorn City, 40-0 for their eighth straight triumph.

Playing about half the game last week, Minix will probably play in at least four more games, depending on how far his team advances in the regional playoffs.

Ray Brackett's Wheelwright Trojans won their third outing as Jess Little figured in all the scoring in the 20-7 triumph over Benham.

Little raced 9 and 21 yards for touchdowns in the first and second periods and fullback Perry Taylor annexed the point after on a run. Then, in the third canto, Little whipped an aerial to John Phillips that was good for a 51-yard six-pointer. Little also added the point on a run.

Prestonsburg lost the services of senior quarterback Bobby Marshall Friday night after he scored a touchdown in the first period. Marshall reinjured his ankle in scoring a 9-yard t.d., and will miss the final two games. Senior fullback Bob Smith continued his outstanding offensive and defensive play in setting up two touchdowns and scoring one and an extra point. Tackle Bobby Pearson fell on a Whitesburg fumble in the closing seconds to provide the Black Cats with a 21-0 margin.

Against Georgia we had our best pass defense of the year; and the forward pass beat us. This paradox is easy to explain. One of our halfbacks twice committed the cardinal sin of pass defense—he let a receiver get behind him. Outside of these two crucial errors, Georgia could do little with the passing game.

Their fine quarterback, Francis Tarkenton, completed six passes for 87 yards, but three of those completions were behind the line of scrimmage. The two scoring passes were good for a total of 44 yards, so for the rest of the night Georgia gained only 23 yards by air. Tarkenton had his poorest game of the season in total passing yardage and number of completions. That, I submit, is terrific pass defense.

But what makes those two killing passes all the more inexcusable was the situation. On the first one, Georgia had a fourth down on our 8-yard line. Everybody in the stadium knew they were going to throw. In the second instance, it was third down and 26 on our 36. Again they had to pass.

In such a situation it's elementary that you cover against the deep pass as the first order of business. We didn't.

Compounding the felony, we made too many mistakes of all types to win in the S.E.C.

Our errors were in three areas—first, fumbles, pass interceptions, and penalties; second, confusion caused by trying to do too much with the wild card rule; and third, failing to take advantage of the openings Georgia left us.

Our mistakes had a direct bearing on their three scores. On the first Georgia touchdown—the only drive they were able to generate—a useless piling-on penalty gave them 15 critical yards, from the Georgia 46 to the Kentucky 39.

Next, a poor pass from center and a fumble by the punter gave Georgia the ball on our 13. They couldn't push it over and had to settle for a field goal.

In the third quarter a pass interception gave Georgia the ball on our 32. They hit the long pass for the touchdown—the same play to the same man as in the other touchdown.

On the second type of mistake, we simply worked the wild card rule too hard. We have several automatic substitution situations, to get specialists in. On kickoffs, for instance, Tommy Simpson goes in to kick and then is replaced on the next play. To start the second half last Saturday, Simpson's replacement was also in.

The same thing happened on the delay-of-game penalty after our second touchdown. We were going for two points, but the automatic substitution of the place kicker went on through. Seeing this, I deliberately decided to accept the penalty to get squared away and try for the points that would put victory only a field goal away. I felt like the two-point try was important enough to justify taking the penalty.

As it turned out, one pass receiver was wide open in the end zone but wasn't spotted by the quarterback. Also, the pass protection broke down a little too soon.

Because of injuries and lack of great depth, we have been pushing the wild card rule to the limit. Several times we have just escaped trouble, and Saturday night it caught up with us.

Then the last type of mistake—failing to follow through in our play (Continued on Page 6)

The time of election is drawing near and the time for a very serious DECISION to be made by you the VOTERS. Are you going to make the RIGHT ONE? Are you going to elect one who's interested only IN POLITICS or one who's interested truly in YOUR CHILDREN?

The expression has been made that an honest man CANNOT get elected. I want to ask you CITIZENS in FLOYD COUNTY, "What's the matter?" Have you thrown your FREEDOM rights away? Are you going to let this expression brand your children in the near future?

I am an ORDAINED MINISTER and I stand on a platform of honesty. I am still obligated to the endorsement of Ray Howard and John G. Hall and the citizens of Educational Division No. 3. I am a candidate to win and will not cease this fight until Nov. 8th. If you want honesty represented in your schools VOTE AKERS.

Rampside—roll your loads in and out. Nothing to it!
Corvan—side loading height is only 14" from the ground!

REAR-ENGINE CORVAIR 95's—THE TRUCKS THAT BEGAN WITH 4 WHEELS AND A FRESH IDEA!

1. That Rampside model you see is nearly two feet shorter than a conventional pickup. Yet it has over 20 cu. ft. more capacity. The Corvaire 95 panel (Corvan) offers 191 cu. ft. of the most accessible load space you ever saw. Think of up to 1,900 pounds of whatever you haul riding on a highly maneuverable, light handling 95-inch wheelbase. That'll give you an idea of Corvaire 95 efficiency. This is a beauty. Has 4-wheel independent suspension. An integral body-frame build. Exceptional comfort and visibility. And a thrifty air-cooled rear engine that never needs water or antifreeze or radiator repairs. You've never seen trucks like these before!

TORSION-SPRING CHEVROLETS—WORTH MORE BECAUSE THEY WORK MORE!

2. Once around the block in this '61 and you'll never be satisfied with a front-axle truck again. The difference is that noticeable. You actually feel the advantages of independent front suspension in the almost total absence of l-beam shimmy and wheel fight. The driver rides easy, the load's better protected, tires take less abuse, the whole truck is subjected to far less damaging road shock and vibration. You find you can move faster over rough trails and off the road to get more done in a day. Efficiency goes up. Profits follow. Stop by your dealer's and look over the whole line—both types of Chevy trucks.

Nearly 5,000 Postoffices Built in Seven Years

Nearly 5,000 post office buildings have been constructed since the launching of the department's modern improvement program by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield shortly after his appointment to this position by President Eisenhower in 1953.

From January, 1953, through August, 1960, 106 new postal facilities were constructed in Indiana. These include new post offices, branches and stations; also garages and parcel post annexes. The number for Ohio for the same period was 199, and for Kentucky, 76. These three states comprise the Cincinnati Region of the Post Office Department, with almost 49,000 employees.

The new plastics are good winter protection for pansy plants. Stretch the plastic over the pansies and fasten at the edges to prevent it from blowing off. Once or twice during the winter, lift the edge of the plastic to let in fresh air; then refasten.

TO THE FLOYD COUNTY TEACHER ASSOCIATION:

I am a firm believer in associations. If we do not associate, cooperate, unite and work together, we will not be able to preserve our American way of life.

Your teacher Association, in my opinion, is the most important Association in Floyd County. You have the trained reservoir which the people of Floyd County must draw upon to develop the minds and hearts of our youth.

I pledge myself to support the Floyd County Teacher Association in their united effort to improve their status in their profession, in THEIR COMMUNITY and in our schools.

I feel that no school program can be progressive if the whole idea of the board is to be against. I would say leave the administration of the schools to trained educators. I feel that Charles Clark can do a good job if given a chance and I, if elected, will support Clark's program which is good and I would not agree that Charles should be driven from the office just because he is not one of the "big ones."

To The Patrons of Educational Div. No. 5:

After due consideration I have decided to withdraw my candidacy for member of the Board of Education—Educational Division No. 5.

I find that Bud Cooley and I were running on the same platform—the "for the children" program of Ray Howard and John G. Hall. In order that we may not have a division of votes for this fine school program which Bud Cooley and I have both endorsed, I, therefore, withdraw in his favor.

I wish to thank all my friends who have helped me in my campaign, and ask them to please vote and work for the election of Bud Cooley.

TO THE PARENTS AND VOTERS OF EDUCATIONAL DIVISION NO. 4

I became a candidate for member of the Board of Education at a meeting of representative citizens who were opposed to the present school administration. On this occasion I endorsed the "For the Children" program of Ray Howard and John G. Hall, and they in turn endorsed my candidacy.

Mrs. Osborne, the incumbent Board Member, later decided to withdraw from the Board race, and stated in her withdrawal announcement that she favored my candidacy. I then decided the sensible thing to do, since it appeared I would not have opposition, was to run an independent race—a quiet race without controversy, but this I have not been able to do, because I now find that certain people are using my name (unauthorized, I might say) in such a way as to distort my beliefs as to a good school program. In order to clarify the issues I make this statement—

I stand now, as I have always stood, for the program of Ray Howard and John G. Hall, and if elected will vote with them for the adoption of this child-centered program.

I also endorse the candidacy of Emmitt Conn, Educational Div. No. 3, and Ross "Bud" Cooley, Educational Division No. 5, and we stand together for better schools, and I ask the people to disregard any handbills or posters which they may have received associating my name with any other candidates other than Emmitt Conn and Ross "Bud" Cooley.

I will appreciate your vote on November 8, 1960.

To the Voters of Educational Div.
No. 5

This is my first statement and I do not need a notary public seal for the truth.

In this school race it appears that people are losing sight of the major issues involved. It's this "GANG" against that "BUNCH," or vice versa. Everyone seems to be ignoring the children, the teachers, schools, and are concentrating on different political factors. I am involved in no "BUNCH," "GANG" or faction. I have not asked any man to endorse me or to become associated with me in any way.

Curt Stumbo has asked not to be associated with me. This can easily be arranged! I have never met this man and from the way he presents himself as a man I do not care to become associated with HIM.

I am running my own race and seek support from all voters. My opponent in this race is Ross (Bud) Cooley, not Banner Meade or Dr. George Archer. I am running for the children of Floyd county and as an individual in Division 5. If I am elected I will vote for what I think is best for our children, regardless of how the other board members cast their vote.

I have endorsed Charles Clark because I sincerely feel that he is interested in our children and their needs. I did not endorse him for political reasons.

I will say again that my opponent is Ross (Bud) Cooley. I ask the voters of Division 5 to look us over, CHECK OUR RECORDS, consider us as men and choose between us.

I am promising the people of the Fifth division I will do everything in my power for their children if I am elected.

I KEEP MY PROMISES.

Clinton County high became the seventh team to sign to play in the Prestonsburg Invitational tournament, December 20, 21, 22, 23. This is the fourth team that played in last year's high school basketball tournament to accept a bid. Others of last year's select field of state tourney teams are: Meade Memorial, Monticello and Breathitt County. In addition are the host Black Cats, Louisville Male and Martin high.

One remaining berth will be filled soon.

The Eastern Kentucky regional high school cross country meet will be staged on the Paintsville Country Club golf course, Saturday morning at 10. Representing Prestonsburg will be Roy Prater, James Ousley, Floyd Johnson, Phillip Tucker, Billy Blackburn, John Chester Goble, and Jerry Ousley. Sixteen Eastern Kentucky high schools are expected to compete.

John Grant Anderson, junior seat-back, was named Player-of-the-Week in Prestonsburg's 21-0 conquest of Whitesburg last Friday. This was his first time to win the award of the Francis Stores.

execution. We thought we could do certain things against Georgia. And it developed that we could, but we didn't deliver the telling blow. We felt that they were overshifted to the wide side of the field and that our men in motion weren't covered properly.

Against a team of Georgia's caliber, however, you won't get many opportunities. You must capitalize hard and fast when an opening occurs. We were a play late or a step behind.

But despite a hatful of errors, we generally played very strong defensive football. Outside of their first touchdown—in which we suffered a letdown following our score—they were not able to sustain a drive. And although we gave them the ball repeatedly in good scoring territory, they had to use the desperation pass for both touchdowns.

I suppose this proves nothing more than that we beat ourselves.

NO ADDITIONAL TAXES NECESSARY!

FLOYD COUNTY BUSINESSMEN AND FIRMS TELL YOU WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU...

APPROVAL OF THE BOND ISSUE WILL MEAN

Better Roads and Parks for all of Kentucky
 With No Increase in Taxes Necessary!

GOOD HIGHWAYS ARE VITAL FOR BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY. Consumer goods, supplies, repair parts, service men and salesmen, all move by road. Over 65,000,000 consumers, and a great part of the nation's business and industry, are located within one day's delivery from Kentucky. Only good highways can link us to this market and source of industrial expansion.

GOOD HIGHWAYS ARE VITAL TO AGRICULTURE. Access roads to individual farms, area feeder routes and major highways—all link the farmer to markets and sources of supply and service.

GOOD HIGHWAYS ARE VITAL TO EDUCATION. Buses carry 53% of Kentucky pupils to school. Pupils get better education when brought together in modern consolidated schools. Better education must be financed by the expanding economy and revenue dependent upon highways.

GOOD HIGHWAYS ARE VITAL TO PUBLIC SAFETY. The death rate on all roads in 1959 was 6.4 per 100 million vehicle miles—adding up to 750 Kentucky deaths in the year. On our truly modern roads (the completed interstate turnpikes) there were no traffic deaths. Better roads are safer roads. The annual economic loss in highway accidents is $100,000,000—equal to the Bond Issue.

GOOD HIGHWAYS ARE VITAL TO GREATER TOURIST TRAVEL. Tourists select the best roads for vacation travel—and tourist dollars brought to Kentucky help all Kentuckians. In 1959, out-of-state tourists spent $165,000,000 in Kentucky. This spending alone, contributed over $7,500,000 in gasoline taxes (to build more highways), and would have created over $4,110,000 in sales taxes for Kentucky education and other tax support services.

WITHOUT THE ROAD BOND ISSUE KENTUCKY LOSES FEDERAL AID

There is absolutely no other alternative—we must vote yes November 8 for the bond issue whereby $90 million will go to roads and $10 million to parks which will enable Kentucky to take full value of the opportunity to match and obtain Federal Aid. Without the increase of present motor vehicle taxes, this can be accomplished.

'Tis seldom we receive something for nothing. Through federal aid we gain in four areas of road building provided voters approve the bond issue in November. Study closely the Federal Aid Road Systems in Kentucky, each of which shares in the allocation of funds provided by Congress:

1. Federal Aid Primary System consists of 3,600 miles of important trunk line highways throughout the Commonwealth. This is Kentucky's major network of roads serving the main flow of individual, farm, and business traffic. Although it comprises less than 6 per cent of the State's total road mileage, it carries almost one-half of all rural traffic. Federal funds are matched by State funds on a 50-50 basis.

2. Federal Aid Secondary System of 15,239 miles, serves the same needs as the primary system and is secondary only in that the traffic flow is not so great. Nearly all major farm-to-market roads are included in this system. The fund matching basis is 50-50.

3. Federal Aid Urban System of 252 miles consists of the urban links and extensions of both Primary and Secondary systems into and through the cities. The matching basis is also 50-50 State and Federal Funds.

DO YOU REALIZE that the highway construction program (which depends on approval of the bond issue has a most favorable benefit-cost ratio of 3 to 1? In other words the public, of which YOU are a part, gets back at least $3 in benefits for every $1 invested in better roads.

That the money obtained from the bond issue must be used only on the Federal-Aid systems, to match money put up by the Federal Government? It cannot be used for any other purpose.

DO YOU REALIZE NO NEW TAXES ARE NEEDED TO RETIRE THE BONDS?

The 1956 Legislature placed additional levies on heavy commercial trucks. This, plus normal expanding revenues on increasing traffic, will meet bond retirement costs.

WHY IS A SECOND BOND ISSUE NECESSARY?

In 1956 Kentuckians approved the first $100,000,000 Bond Issue. The last $30,000,000 worth, sold this year, is being applied to construction. The first $70,000,000 paid for more than 776 miles of construction throughout the state.

More federal aid funds have now been set by Congress. Kentucky must match these funds or lose highway dollars. No Bond Issue means simply this stark choice—Kentucky will either lose federal funds or will almost stop construction on the many roads financed entirely by state funds. Proper maintenance on existing roads would, virtually, come to a halt. To meet this challenge, the 1960 Highway Bond Issue must be approved.

STATE BEGINS RECRUITING HIGH SCHOOL, COLLEGE GRADS

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 24 (Spl.)—For the first time in the history of the Commonwealth the state Department of Personnel will actively recruit graduates of Kentucky colleges and high schools for career employment with the state. The new recruiting program, which is an outgrowth of the state employee merit system enacted by the 1960 General Assembly, will be launched October 18 at Berea College.

Fontaine Banks, director of the division of recruitment and placement, said his division has made arrangements to interview students at 18 Kentucky colleges and universities. "The main purpose of our visits to the colleges this fall is to establish contact with students to facilitate our recruitment efforts in the spring," Banks said. "The recruitment of students for state service is something that hasn't been done to any extent in the past, and we are eager to make such a program succeed," he said.

"We are interested in a wide variety of educational backgrounds," Banks said, "but we are primarily interested in business majors, such as accounting, economics and statistics, and majors in the social sciences, such as psychology, social work, sociology and political science."

"We are always looking for engineers," he added.

After the Berea visit, the state recruiting team, Jack Carson and John B. Winn, will visit Eastern Kentucky State College on October 19.

Banks said the recruiting program for high school graduates would begin in the spring. "Our greatest shortage of skilled employees is stenographers," Banks said. "Any high school graduate who has taken shorthand is qualified for a stenographer job."

Banks noted that many other state jobs were open to high school graduates, such as revenue investigator, police trooper, clerk typists, junior draftsman and dental aide. The average beginning salary for high school graduates is $220 a month.

The beginning monthly salaries for college graduates range from $324 to $436 a month, though in some instances the top salary requires a degree, plus a year of experience.

Regional Association Formed To Coordinate State, Federal Remedies

Kentucky and eight other states affected by the economic and social problems of the Appalachian region have formed an association to coordinate local, state and federal remedies.

This was accomplished at the Conference of Appalachian Governors at Lexington. Chairman was Governor Bert Combs of Kentucky, a state which already has made progress in attacking the problems of mountainous areas.

Other states entering the association are Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Maryland. Representatives from New York and South Carolina said they were in sympathy with the purposes of the meeting.

To alleviate economic depression in the Appalachian areas, Combs said, federal participation is necessary. The problems are too great to be handled effectively by local, state and regional leadership alone.

Other governors attending were Luther H. Hodges, North Carolina; Buford Ellington, Tennessee; J. Lindsay Almond, Jr., Virginia, and Millard Tawes, Maryland. The conference resolved to support creation of major economic facilities such as key roads and water control projects. It also voted in favor of comprehensive state and regional programs in such fields as forestry, agriculture, mineral resources, tourist travel, industrial and community development, education, health and welfare.

Kentucky Lt. Governor Wilson Wyatt said the two fundamental needs of the Appalachian region are roads and water control. He said that state and federal governments, instead of spending millions in direct relief should devote these sums to helping people help themselves.

TAYLOR GRADUATED

Great Lakes, Ill.—Mraion A. Taylor, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Demara Taylor, of Martin, Ky., was graduated from recruit training, Sept. 24, at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. The graduation exercise, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp," included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries. In nine weeks of instruction, the raw recruit is developed into a Navy Bluejacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

IRONMAKER'S IRON CASKET

This column has often excerpted "Ironton Soliloquy," by Charles Collett, in the Huntington (W. Va.) Advertiser. In a recent column there is the story of an ironmaker who built himself an iron casket.

We let Mr. Collett tell the story in a recent issue of The Advertiser: There is one fact about Lawrence county, Ohio, history that should stand out prominent for posterity . . . The number one story about the county should be that Vesuvius was the first hot blast furnace in America in 1837.

John Campbell, the founder of Ironton in 1849, put up the money for the experiment of the hot blast theory or experiment . . . He agreed to take all loss if it didn't work, and to share in the profits with others, if it worked . . . Later, it was said to be a very simple process . . . The change was made by placing the boilers and hot blast over the tunnel head, thus utilizing the waste gases . . . It revolutionized the art of making pig iron.

Pine Grove Furnace, just over the hills from Vesuvius at Newcastle, built in 1828, was the first in Lawrence county to become privately owned by one individual . . . Robert Hamilton became the sole owner in 1840 . . . All others were owned by companies . . . Being a Christian man, he decided to close operations on Sunday, which other furnace owners said would be so costly that it would mean bankruptcy . . . At that time there were 17 blast furnaces in the county . . . That furnace operated successfully six days a week from 1840 to 1897 . . . There are perhaps many readers today who can recall seeing old Pine Grove in operation.

A story for posterity should be that of the love of Andrew Ellison for pig iron . . . Robert Hamilton and Mr. Ellison built Pine Grove furnace in 1828 . . . Mr. Ellison died at Hanging Rock in 1836 . . . At his request, he was buried above ground in a coffin covered by an iron casket . . . This fact is verified from manuscripts printed in 1916 entitled "Statements of John Campbell and wife, made during years 1875 to 1890."

The iron casket was enclosed under a canopy of wood lattice not far from the river bank . . . During the decade of the 80's, the iron casket became such a tourist attraction each time a river packet landed at Hanging Rock to take on pig iron, that relatives of Mr. Ellison had the remains removed from the iron casket and buried elsewhere.

DEVIL JOHN'S CASKET

Speaking of caskets reminds of how Devil John Wright provided for his interment when he was old and his feud days were over. He lived on Bold Camp Creek, Wise county, Va., just over Pound Mountain from the present town of Jenkins. He was in his late eighties and, in preparation for death, had been baptized.

After that he picked out a giant walnut tree on the farm and had it sawed into lumber. A local carpenter dressed the boards and put the casket together. When Wright died his remains were placed in it and he was laid to rest on the Bold Camp farm where he had spent his last days in peace.

This columnist has written a little pamphlet, "Four Men of the Cumberland," detailing much on the lives of Big Ed Hall, Bad Talt Hall, Dr. M. B. Taylor and Devil John Wright. It may be procured by writing Henry P. Scaif, Box 421, Prestonsburg. It will be sent post-paid for $1.

The book represents two years of research and is historically accurate.

LETTERS

This column tries to serve as a sort of clearing house for genealogical information on Eastern Kentucky families. If readers ask for data that is not available, I try to forward the inquiry to some one who knows the answers. Some times answering a letter has to be delayed, due to finding the necessary time to do a bit of research or hunt up an address.

Instances right now of deferred action are two letters on the desk. One is from May W. Layne, 1087 Hamilton Ave., El Centro, Calif. She inquires for information, pictures if possible and copies of articles appearing in The Times on James Shannon Layne and his grandson, Moses Sanford Layne.

Another letter is from Mrs. Frank B. Spaulding, Norfolk, Conn., relative to the Scaif family of Southeastern Kentucky. Melvin Scaif, a nephew by marriage to Mrs. Spaulding, is a native of Lily, Knox county, Kentucky, but lives now in Connecticut. Mrs. Spaulding is helping on a Scaif genealogy for her nephew. Melvin is a son of Daniel and Betsy Jones Scaif. It is presumed that all the Southeastern Scaifs are descendants of Peter Scaif, early settler of Knox county. He was a brother of Britain Scaif, whose family migrated to Johns Creek in the 1840's after the father, Britain, was killed by a falling tree while working on a road in Russell county, Virginia.

Britain and Peter Scaif were sons of John Scaif, Revolutionary soldier, of North Carolina. John is found in the 1810 Census of Floyd county, Kentucky, but died in Virginia. Evidently he didn't like early Floyd county and returned to Virginia where he had migrated earlier.

“...and give thee Peace”

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The gong sounded! I dashed from the office into the crowded street, and hurried on into the fading sunlight. The bell in the familiar old church tower was striking five. I had made it again! I would reach the commuters' train and be in my suburban home at the usual hour.

As I rushed past the church, chimes sounded melodiously over the busy, struggling mass of humanity. Suddenly, I stopped in the midst of it. Why this mad rush day after day? Tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow would be the same. But today the chimes recalled to me a sense of peace and purpose, a satisfaction once experienced in the fellowship of worship and friendship.

The commuters' train was forgotten as I entered the vast, semi-lighted church. From far up at the marble altar came the words of a prayer: "O God, our Heavenly Father . . . the endless tide of business, toil, and care moves on around us. Go with us and bless us who have stopped within this holy place of prayer for one brief moment to be refreshed by thy love, and quieted by thy peace." The organ took up the response and the "Amen's" soared upward as I knelt in grateful prayer. "Never again," I resolved, "shall I deprive myself of the security and satisfaction of regular church attendance and worship. My place in the little suburban church shall be filled on each Lord's Day."

WILD FLOWER PARK OPENED BY RETIRED MARTIN MAN

(From The Paintsville Herald)
A Martin county man, A. B. Blankenship, bookkeeper for Ware Drilling Co., who looks forward to retirement soon, has established a park and a wild-flower and tree sanctuary, which lies on the waters of Blacklog Creek and Collins Branch of Coldwater Creek. It embraces about 500 acres of beautiful wooded mountain land. It is a project many men looking forward to retirement might well consider.

Blankenship has made trails through this beautiful tract of mountain land and has tagged most of the trees with their common and scientific names; he has also placed the names of most of the flowers on them, and plans to complete this work soon. He has one spot in the area, which he calls, "Magnolia Canyon," a beautiful scenic ravine lined with various kinds of magnolias and pretty wild flowers; he also has a high round peak in the park, which he calls "Echo Peak," and from this peak one may view many miles of rolling Kentucky hills, and can see the radio tower of the gas company on a hill at Inez.

Blankenship plans to devote the remainder of his life to enlarging the beauty and variety of the plants and trees in his sanctuary; he is seeking to establish all the wild flowers and trees common to the region, and to make his "park" a place for scientific study of botanists and naturalists. He also plans to distribute wild flower seeds and plant seedlings, and possibly to put on the market many varieties of medicinal herbs. A lake will be made soon, for aquatic plants and fish.

Enforcement Promised On Auger Mine Laws; Complaints Are Lodged

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 24 (Sp.)—Strict enforcement of the state law regulating auger and strip mines has been promised by the Kentucky Strip Mine and Reclamation Commission.

Numerous complaints have been received that some operators are flagrantly violating the Kentucky statutes governing the operation of these mines, according to J. O. Matlick, Commissioner of Conservation and chairman of the commission.

"The commission," Matlick said, "is charged with the responsibility of enforcing the law and regulations governing these operations, and it intends to bring about full compliance as quickly as possible."

The chairman's statement came following a meeting of the commission here, at which plans were made for regulating auger and strip mining operators as provided under the statutes. Other members of the commission are Henry Callis, director of the Division of Strip Mining and Reclamation, Frankfort, and Ambrose Mandt, chief of the Department of Mines and Minerals, Lexington.

Under the state law, operators must first obtain a permit from the division. Before the permit can be issued, however, they must file with the division a map showing the location and area of the land to be affected. They then pay certain basic fees and post bond.

Any violator who violates any provisions of the state law is subject to stiff penalties.

Commissioner Matlick said that at a meeting of the Strip Mine and Reclamation Commission held in September, the director was requested to notify by letter all operators of record who had failed to comply with the statutes, calling attention to the particular areas in which they were in non-compliance, and urging them to take the necessary steps to bring about full compliance immediately.

"It had been brought to our attention that some operators are stripping coal without permits," he said. "We believe an operator should not attempt to operate a strip or auger mine without a permit for the same reason he would not operate an automobile without a license," he added.

"We realize that coal mining is important to the economy of Kentucky," Commissioner Matlick continued, "and we want to do everything we can to co-operate with all auger and strip-mine operators. We have field men assigned to the areas to assist them in carrying out approved reclamation practices."

Pontiac announces the Trophy V-8 Engine

NEW PRECISION AND ECONOMY IN THE ENGINE ROOM OF THE '61 PONTIAC!

A completely new fuel induction system gives this new free-breathing V-8 more air... to save you gas. Closer calibration of this big 389-cubic-inch engine gives you maximum thrust at half-throttle without over-carbureting.

We made the engine lighter; mounted it lower for better balance. An oil refill now takes only 4 quarts. Tailor your Pontiac power plant to your needs. There are 11 versions to choose from. Horsepowers range from 215 to 348. (For best economy, specify the Trophy Economy V-8. Its lower compression lets you use regular gas.)

If this sounds a bit technical, just try a new Trophy engine soon. It's in all four Pontiac series. In one block, it will become clear why we've called this '61... all Pontiac!

THE ONLY WIDE-TRACK CAR!
Pontiac has the widest track of any car. Body width trimmed to reduce side overhang. More weight balanced between the wheels for sure-footed driving stability.
