STUDY GROUP REACTS TO COLLEGE CRITICISM

Reacting to criticism voiced by college presidents of Kentucky's community-college plan, members of the commission which studied and later outlined the need of such a higher education system last Thursday suggested, as it had suggested in its original report to Governor Combs, that the Governor reorganize the state's Council on Public Higher Education and eliminate college presidents from its membership.

Members of the Governor's Commission on the Study of Public Higher Education in Kentucky said such reorganization might be done during a special legislative session already called for January 28.

The statement was released by the chairman of the former commission, Otis C. Amls of Lexington. He said other members concurred by telephone.

The commission was formed in 1961 to make educational recommendations to the Legislature. Among its suggestions was one calling for four new community colleges in the state.

FLOYD-CO. COURTHOUSE GRANT IS ANNOUNCED

CFA APPROVES PART OF COST OF STRUCTURE

Construction To Start In 90 Days, Said; New Site Bought On Third

The Community Facilities Administration has approved a grant of $298,700 to Floyd county as part of the cost of construction of a new courthouse, Congressman Carl D. Perkins announced last Thursday.

For the overall project a total of $552,000 is envisioned, with the work depending heavily upon an urban renewal project which would improve two areas of Prestonsburg and provide off-street parking.

If Prestonsburg succeeds in selling parking meter bonds as its part of the urban renewal undertaking, the present courthouse property would be purchased for $100,000. This effected, the half-million-dollar construction job would be done at a net cost to the county of about $150,000.

It was explained that the county's part of the cost would be financed by bond sale.

WATER WORKS PLANS MADE

Community System Seen In Three-Town Section; Public Meeting Slated

A water system to serve the Betsy Layne-Harlan-Bell-Hazard-Stanville community is envisioned with the organization of a water district under state law and federal aid under the Accelerated Works Program.

Jack Tomlinson, president of the Betsy Layne Men's Club, announced this week that a public meeting will be held Wednesday, Jan. 23, at 6:30 p.m., at the Betsy Layne grade school auditorium, and that Noble D. Wrinkle, rural areas development representative, will discuss ways and means by which the community may benefit from the works program. Floyd and Pike county officials have been invited to participate in the discussion, and all interested citizens are being asked to attend.

The Betsy Layne Men's Club, which sponsors the volunteer fire department and a Boy Scout troop there, has done most of the work necessary in the area, it was said. A preliminary design and cost estimate already have been prepared by a consulting engineer.

Youths Fashion Key, Loot Parking Meters; Frazier Is Sentenced

Three juveniles were in quarterly court here Monday to answer to charges of robbing parking meters, using a key of their own manufacture.

The boys were caught, December 3, by Chief of Police Bill Potter at a parking meter. They tossed away their key but it was quickly found. Later, they admitted they had seen the key used by the traffic officer here, then had painstakingly filed away at a piece of metal till the proper combination was found. The key worked on about 15 meters, Chief Potter said.

UMWA PRICES 4 HOSPITALS

Area Group Protests July 1 Closing Date; Meet Held At Harlan

The United Miners Worker's welfare and retirement fund intends to close four of its Eastern Kentucky hospitals but it does not propose to give the closed hospital structures away.

This was learned by representatives of the area at a meeting held at Harlan last week—and they did not like much of what they heard.

The fund is asking for its 60-bed hospital at McDowell, this county, with its 23 apartments at the site, $1,694,000. There is no buyer hereabouts. Floyd county representatives agreed. They also were fairly well agreed that if the facility was a gift, it is doubtful that it can be operated.

Prices asked for the other hospital facilities to be closed, possibly by July 1, are:

The 94-bed Hazard hospital, with 26 apartments, $2,272,000; and the Whitesburg hospital, $1,694,000, and for the Middlesboro facility, $1,651,000.

Robert L. Johnson, director of the Division of State and Local Services, University of Kentucky Medical Center, singled out the McDowell and Hazard hospitals for comment in a prepared address to the gathering.

"Although it can be argued that McDowell does indeed serve a population grouping ... it can be equally argued that its setting is not one conducive to attract a professional staff," he remarked.

The McDowell hospital is in the rural section of Floyd county, where there is no nearby sizable town, but has a beneficiary population second only to the miner's hospital at Harlan.

"Challenge" Is Noted Johnson said the location of the McDowell hospital suggests it would be extremely difficult to recruit a highly trained staff for it.

"The challenge of McDowell will require the best thinking of every person here," he said.

Official representatives of Floyd, Bell, Letcher and Perry counties later adopted resolutions asking: "1. That the United Mine Workers Welfare and Retirement Fund be petitioned to: A. Extend the closure deadline on these four hospitals."

FIRST PLANS ARE ACCEPTED

College Construction Envisioned by April; Classes Set in 1964

Opposition from college presidents notwithstanding, a contract on construction of the Prestonsburg Community College is expected in April, George Lee Shannon, one of two architects designing the structure, said this week.

Preliminary plans made by Shannon and Jack Hatcher, Pikeville architect, were accepted last week by David Pritchett, chief engineer, Kentucky Department of Finance, and the architects were instructed to proceed with final plans.

These plans are expected, Shannon said, to be completed by March 1. Upon their acceptance the project will be advertised for bids.

The state received title to the site, some time ago. The only delay, to date, resulted from failure of University of Kentucky personnel to review and approve preliminary plans. The college is planned for classroom work to begin with the fall term, 1964.

AGENTS TAKE NINE STILLS

Quicksand Stills Cut By Officers; Gunlock Men Slated for Trial

State ABC and federal agents last Wednesday ended a week's round of steady moonshine raiding which, in all, netted nine stills, seven prisoners and several hundred gallons of whiskey and mash.

Starting January 2, the officers destroyed four stills at Duco, in the Quicksand section. Next day, they cut two stills at Gunlock and arrested Simon, Seldon and Paul Porter who are slated for trial, April 22, in U. S. district court. At Duco 3,600 gallons of mash were destroyed. One of the stills taken there was a 13-barrel outfit, Claude A. Flanery, of Martin, ABC agent, said. At Gunlock 10 gallons of moonshine whiskey and 200 gallons of mash were confiscated.

Monday of last week, with Deputy Sheriff Estill Meeks, the agents captured a still on Toler Creek and arrested Isaac Keathley, Cobble Rogers and Bert T. Moore. There they poured out 150 gallons of mash. Keathley, Rogers and Moore were arraigned before the U. S. Commissioner at Pikeville.

Next day, the raid was on Quicksand Fork of Licking River, where a four-barrel still was destroyed. A still of the same capacity was taken, the following day, on Turkey Pen, Pike county, and a man listed as Johnny Robinson was arrested.

TWO WOMEN DRAW TERMS

Mrs. Little Convicted For Slaying; Probation Requested From Court

Two women have drawn pen terms of two years each within the week at the hands of Floyd circuit judge.

Mrs. Ruby Little was convicted last Wednesday afternoon of the slaying at Wheelwright of her father-in-law, Andy Little. The verdict came at the conclusion of her second trial on the murder charge. The first ended in a "hung" jury.

The second woman convicted was Mrs. Goldie Clark, of Auxier, who entered a plea of guilty Tuesday to a voluntary manslaughter charge growing out of the death of a child who was hit by an auto driven by Mrs. Clark.

Both women have filed motions for probation.

By agreement of opposing counsel, an order was entered Monday setting the date of the trial of Troy Mullins and Merion Martin, charged with murder in the slaying of Ex-Magistrate John May, for January 23. The same order stipulated that a Johnson county jury will be summoned to hear the case. W. B. Boyd, of Prestonsburg, was designated special bailiff for the summoning of the jury.

Acting under provisions of new state law, Circuit Judge Hill directed that Boyd request the Circuit Judge of Johnson county to draw from the regular jury drum there the names of 50 jurors and that these be summoned for possible service in the trial.

Revocation of his probation from a two-year term previously given him for grand larceny and his conviction last week on three breaking and entering counts, with the penalty in each of the three new cases fixed at two years, mean that Columbus Quillen will have eight years to serve in the state reformatory. It was directed that the terms run successively, not concurrently.

Quillen, Roy Hall and Ernest Hall were the first to be indicted under the new criminal procedure in a single true bill on three separate counts. They were charged with breaking into the storeshouses of Robert Tackett, Denver Sammons and Hall Brothers Market. All three entered pleas of guilty. Hill and Hall were given two years each on each count but their terms run concurrently.

The indictment naming them was one of five which the grand jury has reported to date. Earl Haekworth, another of those indicted last week, pleaded guilty to charges of housebreaking and storehouse-breaking and was given a term of two years on each count.

Other convictions within the week: David B. Mullette, child desertion, plea of guilty, two years, probation granted on grounds that he pay $25 a month for January and February and $40 a month thereafter for support.

Harrison Reed, breaking and entering, plea of guilty, two years. Johnson Mining Company, pollution of stream, failed to answer when case was called, fined $500.

Dora Johnson, setting woods on fire, $10 fine. (See Story No. 2, Page 6)

Deported Missionary Speaks At Church Here

One of four Methodist missionaries to Angola who was deported last year by the Portuguese government, spoke at the First Methodist Church, Wednesday, at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. Edwin LeMaster, of Lexington, was deported by the Portuguese government after being accused of "activities subversive to the government." Although no proof of the charges was ever made, he and the three other missionaries were imprisoned in Lisbon for 90 days before their deportation.

Denial of the charges were made by the missionaries and efforts to get the Portuguese government to make public their charges and proof of those charges, are being made by the Methodist Board of Missions in New York.

Rev. LeMaster has been a high school principal and religious education teacher in the interior of Angola. Commissioned in 1953, his first assignment was at Quessua in the north central part of the country, where he became director of the William Taylor Institute, a boys' elementary school and a co-educational secondary and teacher-training school.

He was also appointed co-director of religious education of the Angola Methodist Conference, sharing his responsibilities with an African pastor.

Married and the father of a son, David Edwin, 6, and a daughter, Katherine Jean, 8, Mr. LeMaster, a native of Rush, Kentucky, spent most of his early life in that state and attended Asbury College and Asbury Theological Seminary in 1947. He was a pastor in the Kentucky Methodist Conference seven years and returned to school in 1950 to do graduate work.

He received a master of arts degree from Butler University, Indianapolis, Indiana, in 1951 and spent a year studying in Portugal before going to Angola.

BABE DIES

Vernie Tucker, 18-month-old daughter of Charles and Della Younce Tucker, of Ligon, died at 9:50 a.m., Tuesday, en route to a doctor's office. Besides the parents, she is survived by nine brothers and sisters. Funeral rites were conducted today (Thursday) at 10 a.m. from the home of Otis Miller, at Ligon, and burial was made in the Burton cemetery under the direction of Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

FOOD STAMPS ISSUED TOP MILLION DOLLARS

More than a million dollars worth of food stamp coupons were issued last year to needy families participating in the U. S. Department of Agriculture's two pilot food stamp projects in Kentucky.

Carl Horn, representative of USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service who is supervising the Kentucky pilot food stamp program, said $1,213,616.00 worth of food coupons were issued in Floyd county and $50,756.00 worth in Knott county. The Knott project, however, did not begin until December 3.

A third pilot food stamp project in Kentucky—in Perry county—is scheduled to open about March 1. Floyd county has been in the experimental program since June 1, 1961.

More than 2,600 needy families received food stamp coupons in the two eastern Kentucky counties in December. This represents nearly 15,000 persons. The Division of Public Assistance of the Kentucky Department of Economic Security, which administers the pilot food stamp projects jointly with the Agricultural Marketing Service's Food Distribution Division, reports that of the 1,935 families receiving coupons in Floyd county, 201 were

ORAL VACCINE CLINICS SET

Limited Type III Amount Is Purchased; Use Priority Is Plan

Type III oral polio vaccine will be given Sunday, February 3, from 1 to 4 p.m., at the same sites where the previous two oral vaccine clinics were held, Dr. Russell L. Hall, county health doctor, said Tuesday.

The clinic sites are Prestonsburg high school, David, Harold and Garrett grade schools, Martin, McDowell and Wheelwright high schools.

Dr. Hall said a limited amount of Type III vaccine has been purchased by the Floyd County Health Department and that priority will be given to those six weeks of age to 30 years, also to older persons with children or to older persons suffering from a debility which makes them more susceptible to disease.

"However," he added, "the vaccine will be given to all others desiring it, as long as the supply lasts."

He urged those applying for the polio protection to go to the same clinics they attended when they received Types I and II vaccine.

A pediatric clinic will be held at the health department next Wednesday for children who are unable to pay for such services and who are referred to the clinic by their family physician.

The mobile chest X-ray unit will be in the county next month—February 6 at Prestonsburg and February 7 at Martin. No more than 300 persons may be X-rayed in one day.

PROGRAM SET BY BREATHITT

Jackson Rally Draws Crowd of Thousands; Objectives Emphasized

Edward T. "Ned" Breathitt opened his campaign for Governor Saturday in the Eastern Kentucky county which bears his family name.

The event drew into Jackson, the county-seat, a crowd estimated as ranging from 4,500 to 6,500 persons.

Breathitt emphasized five objectives headed by advances in education and highway development. Other points of his program, he said, will:

- 1. Continue the enforcement of laws against commercialized gambling and vice.
2. Keep in Frankfort an administration dedicated to "consideration for all and favor to none."
3. Recognize the economic needs of all sections of the state.

Mrs. Marie Turner, superintendent of Breathitt schools for 31 years, said the crowd was the biggest assembled for one occasion in her memory, "even bigger than the crowd which came to hear Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt dedicate this school in 1934."

Breathitt charged that his chief opponent, A. B. Chandler, has a record of failure or an attitude of indifference in each of the fields he listed as objectives.

He said he wants an educational system as good as Kentucky can afford, financed by a fair, equitable, and adequate revenue program without any new taxes. Chandler, he said, has labeled himself a "one-room-schoolhouse man."

Breathitt said he wants Kentucky to continue its leadership in building great arterial highways, and he said he has a plan for improving rural highways.

He called attention to Chandler's criticism of the toll roads being built by the Combs Administration, and added:

"A highway half finished is no highway at all. My opponent would stop progress in its tracks, abandon the highway, and leave Eastern Kentucky isolated and in the mud."

Breathitt charged that the gamblers, driven out of business by the Combs Administration, "anxiously look forward" to the return of Chandler.

"The attorney general of Kentucky predicted," he said, "that these same commercial-gambling interests would pour money into the gubernatorial campaign of my principal opponent in 1963. I regret to tell you that I fear his prediction has come true ...

"I pledge here and now, and want to emphasize this, under my administration there will be no peace treaty with the underworld, and no connivance with syndicated vice anywhere in Kentucky."

Breathitt renewed his challenge to Chandler to appear with him in face-to-face debates of campaign issues on television and before the people of Kentucky. He forecast a refusal by Chandler, saying that Chandler knows "his position will not withstand a searching examination."

The meeting will begin at 10:30 a.m., with the welcome by Mayor George P. Archer, of Prestonsburg, and County Judge Henry Stumbo. Items of the program follow:

After lunch at 12:30, a panel on U. S. 23 regional travel promotion will be led by Mayor David Aronberg, of Ashland. Taking part will be Lon B. Rogers, Pikeville, temporary regional secretary; Thornton M. Tice, executive secretary of the Ashland Board of Trade, and Rufus P. Thomas, Ashland, industrial development representative of the Kentucky Power Company.

Mr. Music will preside at the business session to be held at 2 p.m.

SCHOOL MAN IS INDICTED

Embezzlement Charged To Transportation Head In Pike County System

A suspended employee of the Pike county school system was indicted Wednesday of last week on a charge that he embezzled $18,176 in school funds.

The employee, Woodrow Runyon, 48, said in an interview after the action that the entire amount was money which he helped channel into a slush fund for use in school board elections.

Runyon outlined a system through which invoices from a non-existent auto-parts firm, for bus parts that were not obtained, were submitted for board approval.

The money thus obtained, he said, was deposited in the name of the fictitious firm and was withdrawn when needed later in elections.

He emphasized that none of the board members knew the source of the money or that the firm was not existent when they approved the bills.

Runyon said he will be able to prove that none of the money was ever converted to his personal benefit.

The Pike county grand jury which returned the indictment recommended that an independent auditor be hired to inspect school records.

B. Transfer these hospitals to the communities at no cost. C. Guarantee the purchase of medical care from these hospitals for U.M.W. Welfare and Retirement Fund beneficiaries.

"II. That the state government be petitioned to: A. Extend hospitalization coverage under the Medical Care Program from six to 10 days. We understand from our conversations here that this position is consistent with previous recommendations of the Kentucky Hospital Association and the Governor's Advisory Council on Medical Care. B. Explore the possibility of extending hospitalization coverage to the dependents of unemployed fathers under the Aid to Dependent Children Program. C. Consider the introduction of legislation, during the coming special session to permit these four counties, and any others, to join in cooperative activity for the purpose of continued operation of these hospitals in the best interests of the people they serve.

"III. That the counties of Bell, Floyd, Letcher and Perry be petitioned to: A. Immediately set about the task of critically evaluating their ability to support a community hospital, and to begin the organizational process necessary to the successful operation of a hospital. B. Designate representatives from each county to meet together for the purpose of determining what these four counties, and any others, might do jointly that they can not do alone, to enhance the continued operation of these hospitals, and to facilitate current efforts with the U.M.W. Welfare and Retirement Fund and other agencies in working out the future status of the hospitals.

"IV. That the state medical society, the Kentucky Hospital Association, the State Department of Health and Economic Security, and the University of Kentucky Medical Center be petitioned to: A. Provide technical assistance or staff to the separate counties in their endeavors cited above. B. Provide technical assistance or staff to assist the representatives of the counties working jointly as cited above.

"V. That Mr. John Whisman be requested to immediately assist us in the implementation of the above points, and that he particularly assist us in the petition to state government."

Arthur Bradbury, of Wheelwright, signed the resolution as the Floyd county representative.

Commented Gov. Bert Combs after reading the resolution:

"The resolution addressed itself in part to the U.M.W., partly to the communities in the area and partly to federal and state government. I have already directed several persons in state government, whose responsibilities relate to points in the resolution, to work immediately to learn what can be done by state government and to take the point of view that we will do everything possible to assist the people of the hospital areas to deal with this difficult and urgent problem. I will probably have a more specific response for you and the citizens of your areas within a few days."

Attending the Harlan conference from this county, in addition to Mr. Bradbury, were County Judge Henry Stumbo, County Attorney Barkley J. Sturgill, County Clerk C. Ollie Robinson, Dr. George P. Archer and Frank H. Layne, Prestonsburg; J. R. Camelia, David; Dr. J. L. Patterson, George E. Fain, Willie R. George, Jim Thornsberry, all of Wheelwright, and Thomas M. Fain, administrator of the McDowell Memorial hospital.

Bar Group Condemns Waves of Violence Plaguing Coal Fields

Hazard, Ky., Jan. 12—The Perry County Bar Association has condemned the wave of violence that plagued mountain coalfields from September through December.

The association extended its support in a resolution passed Friday to the Perry County Committee for Law and Order, Inc.

The committee was formed here by church, business, and civic leaders shortly after the November Perry County grand jury failed to return any indictments in connection with the labor unrest.

Two members of the grand jury were involved in picketing in the coalfields.

In its resolution the bar association said, "Many acts of violence and other unlawful acts have occurred throughout Perry county, including the dynamiting of a church, homes, railroad property, power lines, coal tipples, and other personal property.

The resolution noted that the grand jury failed to make any indictments and persons responsible for the violence have not been brought to trial.

Board members who would keep in office the administration of Superintendent Claude Farley.

Pike county superintendent of schools says he knows nothing of a political fund and that the only monies his administration ever used were voluntary contributions that never amounted to over $250.

Runyon said his troubles started when one of the checks to the fictitious parts firm got into the mails in December and was returned with the postal notation, "Address Unknown."

It was for $450, made payable to Curtis Auto Parts, Williamson, West Virginia, purportedly representing payment for a new bus engine.

Because Runyon had submitted the invoice for board approval, he was called upon for an accounting. He declined comment until the indictment was returned.

By Runyon's estimate, some $15,000 to $18,000 in school money had been obtained over a 10-year period in the same manner, always to be used by favored board candidates.

He said the system worked like this: "First, he submitted a bill for parts that had not been obtained. Curtis Auto Parts, the nonexistent firm, was identified to the board as the supplier.

When the invoice was approved for payment, the authority to pay was taken to the finance officer, who later delivered the check to Runyon.

Runyon then deposited the check, with an endorsement in the name of a fictitious T. C. Curtis, to the account of Curtis Auto Parts in the First National Bank at Williamson.

For withdrawals, the signature of the fictitious Curtis was used on checks made payable to Runyon.

"I have taken as much as $2,000 in cash in my brief case and helped pass it out to be used in organizing precincts for board races," Runyon said.

Concerning his involvement in the check-writing plan, he deduced that he trusted his friends too much.

"I could have covered up my identity by using a stamp endorsement instead of my signature if I had wanted to get by with anything," he said. "I didn't think this was necessary because I wasn't stealing.

"Anybody who wants to can find out that I haven't accumulated any money. I don't own any property and, in fact, I don't own anything. I am paying for my furniture and I am paying for my car. I owe the bank."

LEADERS PLAN DRIVE TO PLANT SEEDLINGS

Agricultural and forestry leaders of the county will open a drive February 1 to induce Floyd county landowners to plant tree seedlings. The seedlings, supplied by nurseries from the Kentucky Division of Forestry, are made available on a cost share basis.

No goal has been set on the program as yet, it was said at the offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee.

The forestry chiefs of seven southern states recently jointly announced the designation of "Plant Trees—Grow Jobs Week" as part of the largest concerted regional reforestation effort ever undertaken. Six of the states—Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia—designated the week of February 3-9; Kentucky designated the week of March 3-9.

"This is a time of dramatic opportunity for the South," the seven state forestry leaders said in a joint statement. "Rarely has there been a chance for so many people to do so much, with so little individual effort and cost, to help make this region a good place for their children and grandchildren to live."

The Tennessee Valley Authority, which is participating with the states in the drive to complete the reforestation of 13 million acres in the next seven years, said that emphasis will be placed during the week on getting landowners to make definite plans to plant seedlings.

Ten Years Ago

(January 15, 1953)

The City Council here last Friday voted final steps for the purchase of the First National Bank building here and financing of the $40,000 purchase price. Representatives of this area attending a meeting called in Ashland Saturday by the Kentucky Agricultural and Industrial Development Board took preliminary steps toward getting things done in a hurry for this section of Kentucky, hoping eventually to attract new industries to this region of declining coal business. At the Prestonsburg Board of Education meeting Monday night, there was mounting sentiment for merger of the Prestonsburg independent school district with the county system. Exactly 773 petitions to the U. S. Corps of Engineers asking deepening of Dewey Lake by five feet had been returned to the Floyd County Times office by Wednesday afternoon. Senators Clements and Cooper are in a non-partisan effort to aid Big Sandy valley and the Green River watershed, co-sponsoring legislation in the Senate that will provide funds for the development of the rivers. Prestonsburg's City Council last week named the Rev. M. Robert Regan collector of delinquent taxes. Married: Miss Dorothy Greene, of West Prestonsburg, and Mr. Clifford Kinder, Dayton, Ohio, at Dayton; Miss Sue Miller, of Lancer, and the Rev. Vernon C. Wright, West Prestonsburg, December 23, at the First Assembly of God Church; Miss Anna Mae Christian, and Mr. Norman Christopher Sengel, November 28, in the First Lutheran Church, Louisville. John E. Harris, having fireworks in possession, $10 fine.

The judgment of September 13, 1962, setting the penalty of the Utilities Escrow Coal Co., charged with stream pollution, at a $500 fine was set aside last Thursday. Then, by agreement with the Commonwealth's Attorney, the defendant submitted "law and facts" and its fine was set at $100 and costs.

In addition to the indictments under which Haskeworth, Quillen, Hill and Hall were convicted, true bills reported to date by the grand jury include these:

James Gordon May and Jack Salviers, displaying a deadly weapon and robbery of A. B. Meade, a total of $11,000 bond asked for the release of each; Turner Lafferty, Barbara Lafferty and Vernon Clay, grand larceny, accused of taking tires and batteries owned by Trammel Turner.

Other court actions of the week:

Richard Compton, accused of child desertion, $1,000 bond forfeited; Denzil Rav Hall, seduction under promise of marriage, dismissed for lack of prosecution; Ella Chullen, charged with malicious shooting at and wounding another, $1,000 bond forfeited; Amos Lee Duncan, break-in and entering, $1,000 bond forfeited; John Scott Clevenger, grand larceny, dismissed on grounds that defendant was in federal court at the time the offense was committed.

Sonny Mullins, grand larceny, dismissed because he had been acquitted in a companion case; Paul and Grace Burke, breaking and entering, continued to January 29; Ballard Harris, falsifying, dismissed for lack of prosecution; Thomas E. Burchett, child desertion, probation from one-year term revoked; Carl James Tackett, child desertion, dismissed, husband and wife living together; Claude Little, voluntary manslaughter, continued to April 1 with rule to try; Ollie Georheart, detaining a woman against her will, not guilty; Don Hoover, seduction under promise of marriage, dismissed with the notation that defendant had asked complaining witness to marry him.

Trial of James Gordon May and Jack Salviers, charged with the robbery of A. B. Meade, was set for January 21.

Because the youths had no previous record, the case was filed away, subject to being redocketed.

Another youth, 16-year-old Johnny Frazier, was convicted and committed to the Kentucky Youth Authority. He admitted breaking into Sammons' Drive-In and the Prestonsburg high school, also to taking two bicycles. Police also accused him of these breaks: the Black Cat Drive-In, the home of Mrs. Bruce Conley from which $325 in cash was taken, the Buck Manns home from which about $300 was taken, and Janet Whitten's auto from which $22 was missing.

Jailed within the week were Romaine Shepherd, arrested by Deputy Sheriff H. Slone on a grand larceny charge, and Denvil Joseph, who was booked by State Trooper W. B. Clark on a drunk driving count.

Presbyterians Emphasize Advance of Christianity At Meet of Presbytery

Ebenezer Presbytery, meeting at May Lodge January 14 in the presentation of "Whither Kentucky," sounded a call for advance in the various branches of church work. Christian Education, with a strong emphasis on teaching of the good news of Christianity, was the main theme for the advance. Many felt that churches have spent too much time on the negative approach to the teachings of Christ and not enough on the main themes of salvation and Christian living.

In the field of National Missions, a strong urge was given to the re-evaluation of Presbyterian work, especially in the Eastern Kentucky area. Here the dangers of keeping certain churches open, merely because of sentiment, when there was no possibility of carrying on a vital church program, was sounded. The need for relocation and disbanding of inactive churches, as well as developing new areas, was discussed.

It was reported that an arrangement had been made whereby certain of the clergy members of Pikeville College faculty could supply, on a regular basis, the smaller churches of the Big Sandy Parish.

About 55 ministers, elders and lay leaders of the churches in Eastern Kentucky attended the meeting.

Wrong Body Is Returned To Pikeville; Officers Seek Whereabouts of Justice

As a result of an argument on a farm near Cotton Wood Point, Missouri, in late November two men fought a death duel. Ralph Key, 47, of Pollard, Arkansas, allegedly picked up an axe and fatally injured Adam G. Justice, 31, of Pikeville. Justice was identified by papers in his pocket.

Key was lodged in the Pemisocot county, Missouri, jail and the body of Justice was shipped to relatives at Pikeville. Relatives declined to identify Justice, pointing out differences in weight and height of the body and that of Justice. A check of fingerprints at Washington by Kentucky State Police found that the body was that of Robert Earl Wood, Willis Spring, Missouri.

Perplexed officials agreed to a return of the body to Cabool, Missouri, where Wood, a Marine veteran of Two Jima in World War II, was buried. How Justice's papers got into his pocket is a mystery.

Key is now held in Pemisocot county jail awaiting charge for first degree murder of Wood. Sheriff Clyde Orton has asked the FBI to check on the whereabouts of Justice. It is said that he has not been in Pikeville for several years. His wife, Mrs. Audrey J. Justice, resides in Pikeville.

GRADY SELLARDS ENDS 41-YEAR UK SERVICE

GRADY SELLARDS

Grady Sellards, for 41 years the University of Kentucky's Agricultural Extension Service swine and meats specialist, retired last week following a distinguished career. He has been acclaimed the South's outstanding authority on swine husbandry.

Sellards, a native of Floyd county, was graduated with distinction in 1921 from the University's College of Agriculture, Lexington, and went to work with the service the next day. He is a son of the late John and Maggie Clark Sellards, proprietors of the old Valley Inn here.

With few definite plans except to travel and pursue his hobby of collecting short stories, he said that he wants to do the things he always wanted to do but never had the time.

"My biggest regret on retirement," he added, "is saying goodbye to my friends."

As a veteran of the service, Sellards—like many of the other pioneer agents and specialists—has traveled every county of the state in his 41 years. He has also used every mode of transport available—horse, mule, auto, train, bus, boat, foot and plane—except motorcycles or bicycles. He also was of the era when the traveling specialists or agents frequently took meals and lodging with the people of the rural counties they visited. He estimates that in 41 years he traveled a half million miles in this state.

Sellards devoted his time to promoting improvement of the swine industry—from farrowing of pigs through sale of market hogs and their conversion into table cuts.

He emphasized use of purebred stock for breeding purposes, and development of the famed Kentucky country ham as a commercial enterprise. At one time, he says, the swine industry in Kentucky had a net annual worth of close to a hundred million dollars.

He helped develop the freezer-locker and plant system in Kentucky and made sure the products so stored were high quality. He pushed the use of purebreds despite the fact about 90 percent of Kentucky market hogs are from crossbreds, since purebred foundation stock is fundamental for good crossbreds.

He recommended adequate equipment on swine farms by cooperating with county agents in such a program, concentrating on revising existing structures to keep down expenses. Many thousands of such structures have been remodeled cheaply into efficient, useful swine feeding and farrowing structures.

In the late 20's and early 30's Sellards helped Kentucky be one of the first states to concentrate on swine sanitation as a prerequisite for good production. USDA parasitologists visited this state to tell, in rural meetings, how sanitation can prevent costly outbreaks of disease.

He has helped develop swine shows in the state, stressing 4-H Club member participation. For eight years he was manager of the Kentucky State Fair swine show, helping build it to its present sizable status. Sellards stressed showing by Kentucky breeders.

He worked hard with 4-H Club pig chains, and there are now 30 to 40 such chains in the state in efficient operation. This taught youngsters good swine management and promoted dissemination of purebred breeding in numerous areas. One such chain has "returned" 1,000 purebred sow pigs in a five-year period to members and others; these in turn were "chained out" to new youngsters.

The unit arrived in California on December 16, two months after embarking in 20 amphibious ships and passing through the Panama Canal. The combined Navy and Marine Corps force leaving the Pacific Coast was 18,000.

The force spent 51 days at sea and visited ports in Puerto Rico, Jamaica and Panama.

The day of the "turned" shirt collar may be gone forever. USDA scientists have found a way to make long-lasting collars and cuffs for men's cotton wash-wear shirts. An interliner of wash-wear fabric is bonded to outer layers of untreated cotton cloth. Together, these give shirt cuffs and collars the wash-wear qualities of the interliner and the high resistance to fraying and abrasion of the untreated cotton.

wish by Sellards, who says "all breeds" can produce meat-type hogs. He assisted in establishing the sizable feeder-pig operation in Kentucky by tours, meetings and cooperation with livestock marketing specialists and groups. One Blue Grass market now sells about 100,000 feeder pigs a season, Sellards noted.

He was an early cooperater with the "Ton-Litter" program, by which farmers were encouraged, through proper management, to have a litter weigh a ton by the age of six months. It was so successful the age limit eventually was dropped to 5 1/2 months, Sellards recalled. He says the program was "an epoch" in Kentucky hog production because it showed farmers how efficient, good management improved profits and returns.

Sellards over the years has either written or been a contributing writer to many Extension Service bulletins, national agricultural magazines, pamphlets and circulars teaching farmers how to raise swine.

He is a member of the American Society of Animal Science, president of its Extension division one year, of Alpha Zeta, honorary agricultural fraternity, Epsilon Sigma Phi, honorary extension fraternity, and of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, social fraternity.

Sellards was in the Army from 1942 to 1946 as a Quartermaster Corps property officer, and was separated with the rank of Major. He is married to the former Dorothy Arnold of Oklahoma, a graduate of Oklahoma University. He has one daughter, Mrs. Harold Snowden, of Lexington, and one son, Grady Sellards, Jr., who is due to graduate in June from the University of Tennessee Medical College at Memphis, Tennessee.

Eastern State Planning
New Women's Dormitory;
Martin Hall Completed

The second large women's dormitory constructed in two years at fast-growing Eastern Kentucky State College is scheduled for completion in May.

McGregor Hall, a six-story residence hall for women and named for Jurgis Thomas B. McGregor, Frankfort, a long-time member of the college board of regents, will be occupied for the first time by 448 coeds when the summer session begins June 10.

It will be the second completely air-conditioned dormitory completed this year and it will mark the third of six major construction projects finished during this school year. Earle Combs Hall, five-story men's dorm for 238 students, is expected to be completed in March.

The first major project completed this year was Martin Hall, which has housed 404 men students since the fall semester began in September. Other projects to be completed include Alumni Coliseum, the James E. Van Peursem Music Pavilion and an eight-apartment faculty housing unit.

The new dormitory will be serviced by two elevators. Cost of the hall will be $1,958,500. Architects are Watkins, Burrows and Mills, Lexington.

Ground will be broken next month for two 12-story men's dorms, recently named by the board of regents Dupree Hall and Todd Hall to honor F. L. Dupree, Harlan, and Dr. Russell I. Todd, Richmond.

Art Linkletter, "House Party" host, has based four books on the unpredictable sayings of children on his WHAS-TV show.

FIFFE AND CLARK

A letter from Mrs. O. F. Weissgerber, 931 Vine street, Paso Robles, California, seeks information on a Henry H. Fiffe and contributes a bit of data on the Clark family.

"I want to learn something of Henry H. Fiffe, of Lawrence county, Ky., who received a land grant of 40 acres, Feb. 1, 1865, in that county.

"This note was published in Jillson's Virginia Land Grants in Kentucky, published in 1925. I have just bought from Goodspeed in Boston a copy of his book, Early Kentucky Grants and Entries, published in 1926. In that book is a chapter of the warrants for war service in Virginia, where I found my Captain John Clark who had three years service in the Virginia Continental Line. He was the father of my Jacob Clark, born there (Ky.) in Nicholas county, April 17, 1791. He married April 23, 1815, Dorcus Fiffe.

"I had not found any Fiffe name near enough to Lawrence county until I found this Henry H. Fiffe. . .

"They did not continue to live in that county (Nicholas) but by 1820 they had moved to Parke county, Indiana, where my grandfather, John P. Clark, was born April 1, 1820."

Mrs. Weissgerber will welcome correspondence relative to the Fiffe or Fife family. She notes that she is descended from Ephraim and Isabella Roy Musick, an old Virginia family with many branches in Eastern Kentucky.

WILEY FAMILY

A letter from Mrs. Pricy M. Smith, 715 Franklin Avenue, Belpre, O., contributes information on the Wiley family.

"The pioneer, Jenny Wiley, was my father's great-grandmother, Jenny's daughter, Janie, (Jenny,) married Richard Williamson. Janie and Richard Williamson's daughter, Marinda, was my father's mother and she married William Smith. They were my grandparents. They were born and reared in Kentucky. . .

"My father told a grandson the story of Jenny Wiley and he told his class at Ripley High School and their teacher brought the class to visit my father to hear the story of the historical incident.

"My father was of a large family, six sons and three daughters and reared in one or more of the counties mentioned. (Floyd and Johnson). His name was Ali Smith. The others were Matheew, Joseph, Raughley (Raleigh?), Thomas and James A. Smith. He (James A.) passed away four or five years ago near Portsmouth, Ohio. He has ten or eleven living descendants of Jenny Wiley. . .

"My maternal grandparents were William and Kathryn Lynch. She was a sister of the elders, John and Tom Meade. I have many relatives in Kentucky."

COUCH FAMILY

A letter from Mrs. James Sparks, 1101 Oriin Drive, Idaho Falls, Idaho, offers information on the Couch family of Virginia and Kentucky.

"Our Couch relative was our great-great-great-grandmother, Violet Couch was born about 1850 in North Carolina, died June 10, 1930 and buried at Caney, Ky. She married Daniel Williams, famous Morgan county, Ky., Baptist minister. He was born between 1748 and 1753, it is thought, in North Carolina. He died July 3, 1820 and is buried at Caney. He was in the Revolutionary War. He and Violet Couch were married at Boonesborough, Ky., before 1794. They had at least 12 children: Squire John T. Williams, married, Sept. 21, 1809, to Phoebe Ferguson; Nancy, married March 19, 1809, to David Lykins; Elizabeth, married June 1813 to John Ferguson (our great-great-grandparents), Isaac, married April 25, 1820, to Elizabeth Lykins (sister to above David, Caleb, born Sept. 12, 1803, married Malinda Davis; Winnie or Vina, married Sept. 20, 1821 to Peter Lykins (brother to David); Wiley C., William, Edie, Frankie, Jeremiah Verdman, born 1811, and Polly Williams. As you see Daniel and Violet Couch Williams had a large family."

Mrs. Sparks wants to learn the name of Violet Couch Williams' parents. She is sure they came to Kentucky with her parents and thinks that they may have used the name Couchman at that time.

HISTORY OF PIKE COUNTY

Clyde Runyon, Belfry, Ky., advises that a history of Pike county, Ky., was written 85 years ago.

"William A. Grinshaw is supposed to have published a History of Pike County, Kentucky, in 1877. It was printed by the Democrat Job Rooms, Catlettsburg, Ky. There was a copy in the Library of Congress in 1937."

Has anyone seen this book or know of a copy?

PICTURES WANTED

This columnist would like to borrow your old pictures for publication in the Floyd County Times. Needed are pictures of old schools, churches, ministers, teachers or any picture of our past that will be of general interest.

STATE CLOSES RECORD YEAR

In Road Construction; Contracts Are Awarded At $3 Million Per Month

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 6 (Spl.) — The Kentucky Department of Highways closed out another record year by awarding work contracts totaling $157,400,000 during 1962.

The new record surpasses the 1961 record figure of $122 million by more than $35 million—an average of nearly $3 million more per month.

Some 2,500 miles of roads and highways—new and improved—were placed under contract. Third quarter figures released by the U. S. Department of Commerce showed Kentucky had awarded contracts for work on more miles of road during the year than any other state except Texas, which had only 50 miles more.

Of the contract totals, some $25 million in state funds (no federal-aid participation) went for improvement of state projects, including rural roads.

At present, 237 mile of Interstate and Turnpike routes are open to traffic and another 231 miles are under construction. These 468 miles of multi-lane, divided highways represent 44 per cent of the state's planned 1,061 miles of new, modern highways.

During the year, 86 miles of modern highways were opened to traffic, including such key segments as the Frankfort Bypass (I164); additional Lexington Bypass; the Henderson Parkway (U. S. 41); the Mountain Parkway (43 miles between Winchester and Campton); the Kuttawa Bypass on U. S. 641; and Interstate 75 between Florence and Covington, between Clays Ferry and Richmond and between Saxton and the Tennessee line.

The Mountain Parkway will be opened to toll traffic on January 14 with a charge of 80 cents for the 43-mile stretch.

Contracts were awarded during 1962 for segments on all Interstate routes and both turnpikes under construction in the state.

"The new record in itself is not important," said Commissioner Henry Ward. "The significance of this busiest year ever is that for the first time in Kentucky's history a modern system of highways interlaced with adequate connecting roads, is being constructed to serve all the citizens of the state."

Schofield Barracks, Hawaii—Army Sgt. Russell Isaac, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ark Isaac, of Wheelwright, Kentucky, is participating with other members of the 26th Infantry Division in a three-week training exercise in Hawaii.

Sgt. Isaac's unit, Headquarters Company of the division's 14th Infantry, has moved by sea and air from its home station at Schofield Barracks on Oahu to the Army's Pohakuloa Training Area on Hawaii for combined mobility and fire-power exercises with other divisional units.

Assigned as a combat demolition specialist in the company, the sergeant entered the Army in September, 1955, and arrived in Hawaii on this tour of duty in May, 1960.

He attended Wheelwright high school. His wife, Elfriede, is living in Hawaii.

From Winchester to Campton, 4 lanes of safe, smooth-riding concrete will carry you through some of the most beautiful natural scenery in the nation. Driving this new toll road in Eastern Kentucky will show you a whole new world of driving pleasure. When they give you modern concrete—they're giving you the best.

Laid flat to stay flat, concrete has a grainy surface for safe stops. Its light color lets you see better at night and in bad weather. And this concrete is "air entrained"—billions of tiny bubbles in it prevent surface roughening from freezing. Upkeep of this modern concrete turnpike will be as much as 75% less than for asphalt.

All these advantages work for highway progress in Kentucky. Modern concrete provides safe, economical and dependable routes for citizens and industry.

The Portland Cement Association congratulates the engineers and contractors on the high quality concrete pavement constructed for the Mountain Parkway.

HANEY HEADS PROGRAM FOR YOUTH FITNESS

The Lincoln county of Kentucky is again feeling the Presidential touch—a touch blamed for many sore muscles and aching backs among the school-age population of LaRue county where a former Floyd resident is superintendent of schools.

President John F. Kennedy's experimental program to improve the physical fitness of American youth was launched at the beginning of this school year in seven pilot school districts across the United States. LaRue county is one of the seven districts selected by the President's Council on Youth Fitness to pursue the school year a vigorous program of daily physical exercises.

The program is designed so that every student from the fourth to the twelfth grade, except those excused for medical reasons, must take physical training for 15 minutes each school day.

How "soft" were the students when the program began? How are they reacting to the exercises?

Ova Haney, superintendent of LaRue county schools and a firm believer in the value of physical training, has nothing but praise for the program and says the students share his outlook. (Mr. Haney resided for a time at Wayland where he married a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. V. Wicker.)

"After the first month of school a marked improvement in the students' physical condition was apparent," Haney says. "They had spring in their step, their backs were straight."

Haney backs up his observation with facts. When school began this year all students were tested on three exercises: pull-ups, sit-ups, and squat thrusts. They were measured by standards that varied according to age and sex. Only 57.7 per cent of 1,848 students taking the tests passed.

A month later the same tests were given. This time 85 per cent passed. Haney says a large part of the students who failed were overweight.

The most startling fact uncovered by the screening tests was the physical condition of the high school's football team. Football players scored slightly below the student average at LaRue County High.

Even more surprising, says Haney, was the discovery that several male students whose physical condition was rated excellent did not play football or basketball.

The school day had to be extended 30 minutes to work the exercises into the high school schedule, but Haney says so far no complaints have been heard from the students.

Haney admits the program is an administrative headache because of detailed records that must be sent to the Youth Fitness Council. Because of the program's experimental nature, each student is tested individually with a record of his progress kept by his instructor. So far each student has been tested three times and a final test is scheduled for next spring.

Under the President's program LaRue county is not required to continue its physical fitness program after the school year ends. But Haney says his district plans to stick with the daily exercises.

"The program will be simpler to administer next year . . . individual tests and records won't be necessary," he says.

"We hope our success with the program will encourage other school districts to follow President Kennedy's lead in improving the physical condition of the nation's youth."

MARTIN FOR STATE SENATOR

Without any solicitation from Senator Martin, we take this means of bringing to the attention of the general public and the Democratic voters of this county the immediate need of having Burnis Martin return to the State Senate to represent the people.

His record in the state senate for the school teachers and the schools, for the establishment of the college in Floyd county and his record in the state senate of having never voted wrong on a labor issue should especially endear him to the Democratic voters of this county.

Senator Martin has had four years experience in the State Senate, would make a strong candidate in the Democratic counties of Floyd and Knott, and knowing his way in and around Frankfort and the maneuverings of the legislative process, the Democrats should unite and get behind Senator Martin and return him to the State Senate where he can be of great benefit to the people.

If you want a man you can have confidence in, a man who will stand and fight for the interests of the common, laboring class of people, a man of experience and unquestioned ability, a man who, at the last session of the legislature, was named by a poll of the newspapers as an outstanding legislator, I urge all Democrats and Republicans alike to get behind Senator Martin and request that he run for re-election.

RESOLUTION MAKERS

Are you making another resolution to "watch your weight," starting this very minute? You will need resolution for success, and you will need helpful authoritative information, too. Nutritionists and doctors advise following a plan of three well-balanced meals a day as the only way to get the important food needed — vitamins, minerals, protein and energy-giving foods. From many standpoints, breakfast is the most important meal of the day. So, when you feel the morning hunger reaction, and the urge to sit down and enjoy an adequate breakfast with your family, diet or no diet, go ahead! Scientific studies have shown that an adequate breakfast will enable one to turn out more work, to be more alert, and to be less fatigued.

Weight records kept in the scientific Iowa breakfast studies gave another clue to the importance of including breakfast in any weight reducing diet. Young men and women, elderly men, and 12 to 14-year-old boys were subjects in the scientific tests. These subjects went through periods of skipping and skipping breakfast and of eating adequate breakfasts. Regardless of variations in breakfast regimens, subjects weight did not change provided the total number of calories for the day remained the same.

An adequate breakfast is defined as one which provides one-fourth the total daily caloric requirement, and one-fourth the total daily protein allowance calculated for any one individual. The meal can be a simple basic one, easily and quickly prepared—fruit, cereal and milk, bread and butter or margarine, and a beverage. The whole family can enjoy this same basic breakfast. For most people, average servings of these foods supply one-fourth of the day's food needs. Smaller quantities of foods should be served the dieter and nonfat milk may be used.

SILVERFISH AND FIREBRATS

When you looked for your Christmas ornaments in the attic, you may have found a whole colony of small, silvery insects. These are silverfish or firebrats, which often live in boxes stored in basements or attics.

These insects cause damage in homes by eating any paper on which there is glue or paste, sizing in bookbindings and other paper (including wallpaper), rayon fabrics, starch in clothing and curtains, moist wheat flour and cereals. These slender, wingless insects are nearly cigar-shaped, are covered with scales, and are about 1/8 to 1/2 inch long. A silverfish or firebat has two long "feelers" at the head and three long, tail-like appendages, each of which is nearly as long as the body.

Although silverfish and firebrats are very similar in appearance, they are two different species of insects. Silverfish live in damp, cool places, especially basements while firebrats develop in hot, dark places, such

GARRETT TIED WITH TROJANS
 John Campbell's Garrett Black Devils lost an 85-57 decision to No. 1-rated Carr Creek, last Friday. So what happens in the state-wide loss also moved Garrett promptly moves into a first-place regional tie with Wheelwright at 67.6. The loss also moved Garrett into a 20th place statewide tie with Wheelwright, McDowell (14-4) meanwhile whipped Martin, 72-69, and the 13th regional's top team, Clay County, and dropped two points. Thus the moral of the ratings appears to be, it's better to lose to a team in the top-twenty than beat two in the medium-class range.

Walter Hambrick, former Pikeville College cage mentor, and now chief scout and recruiter for the University of South Carolina, is interested in McDowell's Keith Howell and David Turner, along with Prestonsburg's Wayne DeBoard for future play with the Columbia school.

Turner, with a 28.7 per game average, is waging an individual scoring battle with Maytown's junior guard, Bob Tallent, who sports a nifty 26.5 average. Prestonsburg's left-handed ace, Wayne DeBoard, owned a 21.6 mark for ten outings.

Pete Grigsby's Dare Devils pace the county with a 9-2 mark in basketball play. Garrett is second with a 6-2 slate. Oddly enough, both McDowell losses have been to Garrett.

The drawings for the Floyd county district tournament will not be held until mid-February. . . . Martin will represent Floyd county in the annual Paintsville Invitational tournament this week. Denzil Halbert's club is the only one in the eight-team field capable of beating the Tigers, who are in the weak upper bracket. . . . Mission Stores Founder Kiwanis Club Speaker

Wheelwright, Ky.—The Kiwanis Club of Beaver Valley opened its new year on January 7 with the Rev. John H. Lewis, of Jackson, as its guest-speaker. Rev. Lewis, a native of Petersburg, Virginia, is founder and administrator of the Methodist Mountain Mission Stores, which serves the mountain counties of Kentucky.

Rev. Lewis explained that the stores, which sell used clothing, books and furniture, have been used as the instrument to provide employment and purpose to numerous mountain people and the profits are used to establish churches and Sunday Schools in remote areas. Five stores are now in operation, at Jackson, Vicco, McKee, Everts and Barbourville. These stores, which are operated and assisted by the Methodist Church, not only sell used clothing but provide clothing, furniture and other necessities to needy people. Some 10 churches and Sunday Schools have been founded or re-established over the years as a direct consequence of the stores.

A graduate of Asbury College, Bible Seminary of New York, and Emory University, he was chosen "Rural Minister of the Year" by the Kentucky Council of Churches in 1962.

The services of Rev. Lewis were obtained by the Support of Churches Committee.

FLANERY CATCH TOPS IN FISHING CONTEST

The "Thin Man" in the largemouth bass division won the 1962 fishing contest sponsored by the Floyd County Fish & Game Club.

This resulted when the club reviewed fishing entries at its Maytown meeting Monday night and followed the printed rules of the contest.

So it was that the 6-pound, 13-ounce largemouth landed from Dewey Lake by Dave M. Flanery, of Allen, won in that division, although the second-place winner and four other entries were heavier. But Flanery's was longest, and it's length that counts in the contest. It measured 23 3/4 inches, a quarter-inch longer than the nearest competitor.

In second place was the 23 1/2-inch largemouth weighing 7 pounds, 4 ounces, caught at Dewey Lake by John D. Ward, of Prestonsburg. Both the No. 1 and No. 2 bass were caught on Bombers.

One bass weighed in at nine pounds but was disqualified because it was taken on a trotline. Rules of the contest provide that game fish must be caught on cane pole, casting or fly rod, using live or artificial bait. Other heavy largemouth entered in the contest were: One of 8 1/2 pounds caught by Olin Elliott, of Allen, and one of nine pounds, 4 ounces landed by Steve Stout, of Martin. All these big bass were taken from Dewey Lake.

Joe B. Bates Named Adviser To Breathitt; Is Former Congressman

Former Congressman Joe B. Bates, of Greenup, has been named to the state advisory committee for the gubernatorial campaign of Edward T. "Ned" Breathitt.

Announcement of the appointment was made by Foster Ockerman, Breathitt's state campaign chairman.

In accepting the campaign post with Breathitt, Bates said, "Any man who wants to lead the Democratic Party should act like a Democrat at all times. Ned Breathitt meets this requirement admirably."

Bates was an unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination for the United States Senate in 1956. Backed by Ex-Governor A. B. Chandler, he ran against former Senator Earle C. Clements. Bates, an attorney, served 15 years as Congressman from the old Eighth district. He was Greenup County Clerk 16 years.

ARKANSAS CREEK RURAL SCHOOL IN 1907

Cherished souvenirs of our yesterdays are the old photographs of early school days. Many of the old school buildings were of log, there were no free textbooks and slates were used almost universally as a substitute for paper.

CHEVROLET... the Quality truck!

WALK AROUND IT. SEE THE DIFFERENCES.

Start at the rear of this Fleetside pickup. Grab the tailgate and pull hard. No give. Two wedge latches keep it tight. Now unfasten them and let down the gate. Jump up and down on it. Does it sag? Notice how the chains are wrapped in rubber so they won't rattle or mar paint.

Now look at the lower side panels. Two walls. You might dent the inside one but it won't show through. The floor will never rust. It's select wood, not metal.

Now please sit in the cab a minute. Comfortable? It also is double walled and the roof is insulated. Let's start 'er up and look for a washboard road. Chevrolet coil-spring suspensions fight road shock better than other types, good for the truck, load and the driver. There are other things. But you can see why this is a truck that does a job without a lot of pampering. It's built right. Which is why it's usually worth more at trade-in. When would you like us to deliver it?
