This Town... That World

WE ENVY THEM The Salyersville Independent recently published a blackface item on Page 1 which we've been trying to get around to printing in this sheet of ours, ever so long now. It reads: "You are receiving this issue of The Independent one day earlier than usual. The reason: WE'VE GONE FISHING."

LONG AGO AND FAR AWAY Today, May 1, was the day my mother invariably agreed that we could go barefoot. Those were old-time springs, though, when you could depend on the weather. Remember when mothers sewed boys' shirt-collars together instead of buttoning them, just to make certain the brats didn't go in swimming? That's why some boys became sissies and took up sewing.

PHONE TROUBLE Old man Bell, I suppose, did the world a favor when he invented the telephone. But there are times when you wonder. The times, for instance, when a girl's voice sings out, "Just a minute for Mr. ...," and then you sit and fidget and doodle and grow hot under the collar, waiting five minutes for the guy who told her in the first place to call you and who is doing nothing while you wait but trying to impress you with his importance and with how busy he is. Then, too, there is the occasion when you dial a number and a recording talks back to you, and then you take dead aim and dial the exact number that's in the directory, and the same recording begins all over again, and you catch yourself talking back.

Body of Victim Brought To County for Burial; Death Followed Fall

Body of Bert Tackett, 37, who died April 22 at Kenosha, Wisconsin, of a brain injury suffered as the result of a fall, was returned to this county for burial last Friday. Mr. Tackett, who had been employed at Kenosha the last four years by the Lakeside Metal Company, either fell or was pushed down a flight of apartment building stairs. Two men were arrested and held for investigation, relatives said. He was a son of Eliza Bentley Tackett, of Beaver, and the late Noah Tackett. Surviving, besides his mother, are his widow, Mrs. Gladys Hamilton Tackett, and five children, Ermal, Randy, Lorraine, Augustine and Nadine, all at home; two brothers, Hazzel and Joe Tackett, both of Kenosha, Wisconsin, and four sisters, Mrs. Maxine McKinney, Mrs. Millie Mae McKinney and Mrs. Hattie Kiser, all of Lorain, Ohio, and Nellie Tackett, of Beaver. 2 DIE IN PRICE MINE, DAY OF ITS OPENING

ORKNEY MAN, SON-IN-LAW ARE VICTIMS

Fatalities First Since May 2 Last Year, Said; Moore, Little Victims

A cave-in of rock from the roof of a small mine of the Hamilton Coal Company at Price claimed the lives Tuesday morning of 39-year-old Marson Moore, of Orkney, and his son-in-law, Clyde Little, 33, of Wheelwright. The mine in which they died was in its first day of operation. The mine opening had been driven beneath the hill only about 12 feet, and the two men were working at the face of the coal when a slab of rock 14 feet long by 10 feet in width and seven inches thick fell, breaking into two parts on a homemade shuttle buggy. One struck Moore, the other hit the younger man. Both died instantly. Another son-in-law of Moore, Carl Mullins, witnessed the tragedy and himself barely escaped the fall. It was the first mine fatality in this county since May 2, 1962, when Paris Martin was killed. Mine Inspector Willard Stanley said more than three million tons of coal had been mined during that time. The highest coal production in the county prior to this time without a fatality was 1,870,000 tons, he added. Marson Moore was a son of the late Tom and Kizzie Gayheart Moore. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Verda Moore; two sons, Cleenies Moore, of Orkney, and Carl Jennings Moore, of the U. S. Army, in Texas; three daughters, Mrs. Shirley Little of Wheelwright, Mrs. Verlie Mosley, Polkston, Ohio, and Mrs. Patsy Sue Mullins, of Orkney. Two brothers and one sister also survive: Nokomis Moore, of Hi Hat, Anglon Moore, of Beaver, and Mrs. Amos Stumbo, of Price. Little is survived by his parents, Oscar and Mary Belle Collins Little, of Wheelwright; his widow, Mrs. Shirley Moore Little, and five children, Carl Ray, Barry Edwin, Kathy Ann, Gaylena and Sharon Kay; and by two brothers and two sisters, Edsel Ray Little, Wheelwright, Robert Samuel Little and Mrs. Betty Lou Little, both of Dayton, Ohio, and Mrs. Dora Sue Barnett, Columbus, Ohio. Funeral arrangements were incomplete, it was said at the Hall Brothers Funeral Home, Tuesday afternoon.

The Southern Bell Telephone Company is spending nearly $70,000 on additional facilities in the Pyramid-David and Highway 114 areas of Floyd county, according to A. Guy Hisle, local manager. NEW SPELLING CHAMP NAMED

Bonanza Pupil Wins County Contest Here; 2 To Go To Huntington

Sue Holbrook, 13, eighth grade pupil at the Bonanza school, is the new spelling champion of Floyd county. She won the 1963 title at the spelling bee held here last Saturday, completing in a field of 21.

Runner-up was 14-year-old Patricia Vance, eighth grade pupil at the Beaver school, who has for the last three years in a row finished first or second. Both girls will represent the county in the Herald-Dispatch regional finals at Huntington, May 11. Miss Vance lost because the judges literally "went by the book." She spelled "criticize" with an "s," which is an alternate spelling of the word according to Webster's dictionary. But the contest rules provided that the book in use determine the exact spelling, and the book used the "z."

CHURCH SAYS PLANS MADE

To Purchase Hospitals; Combs Announces Intent To Call State Assembly

Presbyterian Church officials announced Wednesday their tentative decision to buy the four United Mine Workers hospitals scheduled for closing. Purchase would be subject to the approval of the Area Redevelopment Administration. Gov. Bert Combs announced Tuesday that he will call a special session of the General Assembly if necessary to aid in the move to keep the four U.M.W. hospitals in Eastern Kentucky open. The Governor's announcement was made while the United Presbyterian Church's National Board of Missions and representatives of the federal government were negotiating on the massive financial help the church would need. Discussions were underway this week between church officials and Undersecretary of Commerce Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., and it was thought that agreement could be made Wednesday. The four hospitals scheduled for closing by July 1 are at McDowell, Hazard, Whitesburg and Middlesboro. Negotiations also centered around the Harlan Memorial hospital which provides special services to the chain. Chief hope of keeping the hospitals open lies with the Area Redevelopment Administration which may provide the necessary financial grants to the church to acquire and maintain the medical institutions. Felix Joyner, administrator of the state Health and Welfare Agency, Frankfort, said Tuesday the A.R.A. would hesitate to advance funds unless the state gives assurances the hospitals will continue to operate. Hence the need for a special session of the legislature, he added. Joyner said that if and when the Presbyterians decide to assume management of the hospitals, the Legislature would have to follow these steps in rough outline: 1. Authorize an administrative structure for the hospitals by giving the church the legal go-ahead to form a nonprofit board that would in no sense be affiliated with the religious organization. 2. Provide more money for the

Breathitt Youth Rally Draws Estimated 1,500 At Garrett, Saturday

Garrett, Ky., April 29 (Sp.)—Between John Young Brown, Jr., the speaker, and a dance given for the enjoyment of area youth, a crowd estimated at 1,500 gathered here Saturday night for the Breathitt youth rally staged at Garrett high school. Mr. Brown spoke on the topic, "The New Look," and he advised youth and their elders, too, to take a new look by way of Edward T. "Ned" Breathitt's ideas of government for Kentucky. Michael Brown, program chairman, said the crowd overtaxed the school auditorium, necessitating use of the gymnasium. He said many expressed the belief the gathering was the biggest to assemble at Garrett except, possibly, at a district basketball tournament held there. Special recognition was given to Dr. Joe T. Hyden, Floyd county chairman for Breathitt; Evaloe Hicks, Knott county youth chairman; Pauline Hayes, Knott county chairwoman; Paul Luxmore, representing Floyd county teachers, and Mrs. Goldia P. Short, Floyd chairwoman.

U. S. AGENCY OKEHS WORK ON COURTHOUSE

County officials were authorized Monday by the Community Facilities Administration, Atlanta, Georgia, to issue a work order to the successful bidder on construction of the Floyd county courthouse. The contractors on the project, Akers & Akers, will probably begin work next week, it was said here Tuesday. A pre-construction conference will be held today (Thursday) between the contractors, the architect, George Lee Shannon, county officials and representatives of the Community Facilities Administration. First work to be done on the new courthouse site, the property purchased from Mrs. Jo M. Davidson across Third avenue from the present courthouse, will be the driving of piling. The new courthouse foundation will go down to solid rock, it was said. Akers' bid of $549,000 on the three-story structure was lowest submitted, and this was reduced to $496,848.50 by elimination of alternates. Meanwhile, the plan for an urban renewal project to include the old courthouse site has gained approval of the Atlanta office and is now in Washington. The project would make possible the purchase by Urban Renewal of the old site, which has been appraised at approximately $100,000. The property would be converted into a parking area, with city beautification a major aim.

JENKINS FIRM COPS AWARDS

At Institute Banquet; Alan Reed Is Elected To Head Mining Body

The Big Sandy-Elkhorn Coal Mining Institute this week announced winners of its annual Bronze Safety Awards at the Institute's annual banquet held at May Lodge, Jenny Wiley State Park, Prestonsburg.

Recipients of the coveted bronze awards were Mine 21, Bethlehem Mines Corporation, Jenkins, for Class A mines, and Mine 24, Bethlehem Mines Corporation, Jenkins, for Class B mines. Class A mines produce more than 200,000 tons of coal per year; Class B mines produce under that tonnage. This is the second straight year that Mine 24 of Bethlehem Mines Corporation has won the Class B award. The bronze plaque safety awards are presented each year by the Institute to employees and officials of the mine having the best safety standing in each class. Bethlehem's No. 21 mine production of over 776,000 tons of coal during 1962 was accomplished without a lost time injury to any of the mines employees. Mine 24, a relatively new mine, produced over 128,000 tons of coal without a lost time injury. C. B. Pass, general mine foreman of Mine 21, received the award on behalf of the mines employees and officials. H. C. Mercer, superintendent of Mine 24, received the Class B award for that mine's employees. Presentations of the awards were made by J. H. Mosgrove, director of the Safety Training Division of the Kentucky Department of Mines and Minerals. Officers elected for 1963-64 are: C. Alan Reed, Prestonsburg Engineering Company, president; W. E. Wheeler, assistant general manager, Eastern Coal Corporation, Stone, first vice-president; Marvin May, Stephens Elkhorn Fuel Corporation, Manton, second vice-president; Ralph Banks, safety director, Inland Steel Company, Wheelwright, third vice-president; Arlie Webb, Pikeville, elected Secretary-treasurer.

HOBSON LOSES ON APPEAL

Appellate Court Holds Former Board Attorney Rightfully Discharged

The Court of Appeals last Friday affirmed the judgment of Special Judge James B. Stephenson, of the Floyd circuit court, to the effect that the Floyd County Board of Education was within its rights when it discharged Joe Hobson, of Prestonsburg, as its attorney. Mr. Hobson was discharged soon after a new school board took office in January, 1961. Woodrow W. Burchett was employed in his stead. Hobson filed suit, contending that the board could not arbitrarily terminate his employment because he was a "public school employee" within the meaning of KRS 160.380. In the early litigation between County Superintendent Charles Clark and the new board of education Mr. Hobson filed a suit against the board. The Appellate Court decision pointed out that the board of education was only one of appellant's numerous clients, adding: "... the trial court correctly concluded that the record disclosed that there existed between the board and the appellant the traditional relationship of attorney and client and that, since appellant

Organizing Board Meets, Committees Are Named; Financing Is Studied

The organizing board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce met at the Kentucky Hotel Monday evening. After they had discussed certain methods of proceeding, committees were appointed.

The Finance committee to discuss ways and means of raising the necessary money to finance a Chamber of Commerce is composed of Burl Spurlock, William O. Gobel, Sr. and Ed Music. This committee will also survey the possible membership potential of the community and make its recommendations at a meeting to be held next Monday evening. Russell May and T. W. Chisholm were selected to develop the publicity for the membership campaign that will take place very shortly. Clifford Latta was asked to proceed with articles of incorporation of the Chamber and to have these articles ready as soon as it is possible to use them. Arbor Jones was named to review the suggested by-laws and to make recommendations for the by-laws of the Prestonsburg Chamber. Ed Music will function as secretary-treasurer during the organizing stage.

FLOYD-CO. AID TOTAL ANNOUNCED BY STATE

Floyd county's medically indigent clients were aided a total of $107,391 last year under the public assistance and medical assistance for the aged program. Only six counties in the eastern section of the state received higher payments. Physicians, hospitals, druggists and dentists in 11 counties in the state were paid over $100,000 in the program and two of these were the populous Jefferson and Fayette counties. One county receiving more than $100,000 was McCracken in the Jackson Purchase. Seven of the counties in the high bracket are in Eastern Kentucky. Nearby Pike county with a far greater population received only $70,355. The figures are taken from the Statistical Journal of Economic Security in Kentucky released last week. The total amount spent in the state was $4,549,812. The program was initiated in January, 1961. Of the counties in the high-bracket payment list, Perry takes second place to Jefferson, which leads at $299,570. Recipients in Perry county were assisted to the amount of $195,193. In the remaining eight counties, payments were made in this order: Letcher, $188,217; Whitley, $187,049; Fayette, $179,785; Bell, $157,407; Harlan, $129,426;

OFFICERS DRAW TERMS IN JOHN MAY SLAYING

False Fire Alarm Here Arouses Ire of Fireman; Prosecution Threatened

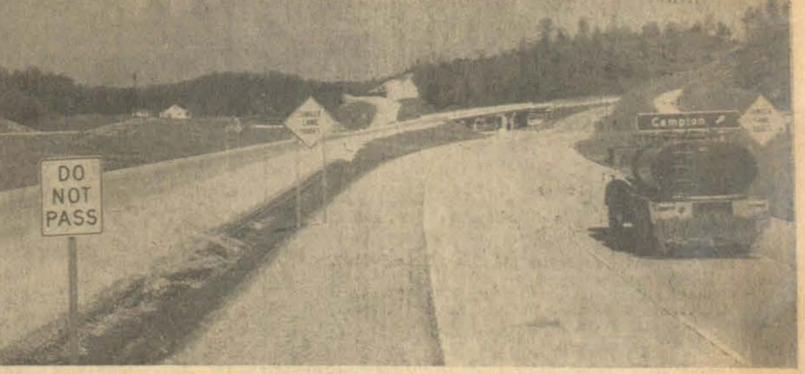

The false fire alarm turned in here Wednesday at 4:30 a.m. was made by a woman, Fire Chief Henry Gray said. The unidentified woman reported that the home of Byron Nunnery on Arnold Avenue was on fire.

Gray called out 12 men and rushed to the Nunnery place where he found the family asleep. Cost of the call to the city was $60, Gray said. "She sure was a good actor," Gray said, in referring to the woman who called. "She fooled me for good, but these things are no joking matter. Aside from the cost, the fire runs are highly dangerous and false alarms are a violation of the law and carry a penalty as high as five years imprisonment." Gray says that in cases where the caller of false alarms can be identified the person will be prosecuted. Katherine Martin, who stayed at May's place of business on the mountain at the head of Cow Creek, where the shooting took place, was the principal Commonwealth witness. She testified that May was sitting in the kitchen, eating at a table, with his back to the door when the two officers entered. "Don't move, or I'll kill you," she quoted Mullins as telling May. Thereupon, she said, May told her to run, and as he turned he was shot by Mullins. She claimed two other shots were fired but could not say who fired them. The woman testified that May did not have his hand on his revolver, which lay on the table at his left side. Dr. C. L. Allen testified that May was shot three times—in the chest, head and across his back. State Detective Chester D. Potter told of physical findings in the room and of what appeared to be bullet holes in the wall. The two defendants and Deputy Sheriff Willie Johnson agreed in their testimony that Miss Martin was outside the kitchen and was near, or emerging from, the front door, screaming, when the first shot was fired. Both defendants said May fired two or three shots. Mullins said he fired one shot and May at least two. He maintained that he did not draw his revolver until May had fired at him. This shot, he said, was fired at almost point-blank range and he escaped being shot in the chest by whirling, the bullet ranging across his back. Two shots were credited to Martin. Deputy Sheriff Johnson and his driver, William Younce, told of having been forced into May's car and of being held under threat of death until they were released on Clear Creek. It was after this alleged incident that a

JOHNSON JURY SETS 2 YEARS AS PENALTIES

Second Trial of Case Ends Here Last Friday; Coal Companies Fined

A jury of Johnson countians last Friday held Troy Mullins and Marion Martin, Floyd county officers, guilty of manslaughter in the slaying of Ex-Magistrate John May last Aug. 25, and fixed their pen terms at two years each. It was the second trial of the two. The first resulted, early last December, in a "hung" jury. Testimony heard in the case was much the same as that produced at the first trial, except that the defense did not introduce as witnesses Sheriff Henry C. Hale, Deputy Sheriffs Samuel Hale and Lonnie Herald and Ex-Deputy Joe Horn. Katherine Martin, who stayed at May's place of business on the mountain at the head of Cow Creek, where the shooting took place, was the principal Commonwealth witness. She testified that May was sitting in the kitchen, eating at a table, with his back to the door when the two officers entered. "Don't move, or I'll kill you," she quoted Mullins as telling May. Shown here is the Campton exit of the $39 million Mountain Parkway which will be dedicated next Wednesday.

The four-lane, 43-mile section of the new Mountain Parkway from near Winchester to Campton will be dedicated May 8, it was announced last week by L. Felix Joyner, administrator of the Kentucky Turnpike Authority. The Mountain Parkway, cut through hilly and mountainous terrain, opens up landlocked Eastern Kentucky to fast and safe automobile and truck traffic, Joyner pointed out. The dedication ceremony will begin at the Campton exit at 2 p.m. After a ribbon is cut there, a motorcade will proceed westward on the new highway. Ribbons also will be cut at five other exits and two toll plazas along the route. They are the Pine Ridge-Beattyville exit; Slade, Ky. Route 77 Natural Bridge exit and toll plaza; Stanton, Ky. Route 213 Jeffersonville exit; Clay City, Ky. Route 1057, Vaughans Mill exit; Clay City-Ky. Routes 11, 15, 82-Mt. Sterling-Irvine exit; Waltersville toll plaza, and the Interstate 64 junction near Winchester at the western end of the Mountain Parkway. Governor Bert Combs, chairman of the Turnpike Authority of Kentucky, and members of the Authority will head the Mountain Parkway dedication group. Other state officials, along with members of the General Assembly, are expected to be in the official party. The public is invited to attend the ceremonies. The section of Mountain Parkway to be dedicated was opened to traffic on January 14. The toll for passenger cars between Winchester to Campton is 80 cents, or about 18 cents per mile. Actual cost of driving the turnpike will be only about three tenths of a cent per mile when the savings over traveling the old route are considered, highway officials pointed out. A 33-mile section of Mountain Parkway, between Campton and Salyersville, is now under construction, and work is in progress in some areas on freeway legs which will join the parkway at Campton. One leg will extend to Pikeville by way of Prestonsburg. The other will extend to Whitesburg by way of Jackson and Hazard. Kentucky turnpike mileage—now 81—will be tripled late this year with the completion of the 33 additional miles of Mountain Parkway and the 127 miles of Western Kentucky Parkway. The state will then have 241 miles of turnpikes.

The Law Governs the Clerk's Office... Not Just What A Man Thinks

One of my opponents has been going over the county and through the columns of The Floyd County Times advertising that he would set up a drivers training program. According to the laws of Kentucky as shown in the Statutes of this State, he cannot do this. See K.R.S. 186:620, which states as follows: "No person shall authorize or knowingly permit a motor vehicle owned or controlled by him to be driven by any person who has no legal right to drive it, and K.R.S. 186:400 specifically states that the Department of Public Safety shall prescribe all regulations and shall enforce regulations governing the acts of the Circuit Clerks and motor and motor vehicle operators."

K.R.S. 186:400 specifically states all licenses shall be issued by the Department of Public Safety. The Circuit Clerk has nothing to do with this, and they must be certified by the Department of Public Safety.

As to notifying each operator of a drivers license thirty days before date due, this would be utterly impossible, since there is contained in the files of this office approximately sixteen thousand, which would take two people about one month to perform this duty which would have to be done each month in the year. These copies are filed alphabetically and then by letter as bank ledgers are kept. The law requires these copies to be kept as stated above, however this party seems to be or will make an attempt to change the whole law governing the issuing of drivers license and everybody knows that this cannot be done, because the Department of Public Safety would not permit it.

One candidate copies a few of the many duties of the clerk, but copying does not mean that he would know how to do the duties under these requirements. Another candidate states that he will see that all jurors are drawn according to law which he has nothing to do with whatever.

The Judge of the Circuit Court each January in each year appoints three jury commissioners who are directed to place in a jury drum or wheel case several hundred names of persons eligible to serve upon juries and then the drum is locked and the keys delivered to the Judge who unlocks the Jury drum himself draws the names from the drum and delivers the names to the clerk and the clerk in turn delivers the names to the sheriff who summons them for various terms of court at required times as provided by law. So you can readily see that the Clerk has nothing to do with the selection of juries.

I know since a lot of false rumors have been spread among a lot of people by candidates for this office, many people have been coming to this office, thinking they could get a drivers license without the required test as provided by law.

One Circuit Clerk in this State thought he was so wise he undertook to evade the law in the issuing of drivers license, and was displaced and put out of his office and another took his place instead. A lot of this talk is ridiculous and people should not be misled, thereby causing them to make trips to this office without avail. If a candidate will deceive you about little matters such as these what will he do when it comes to bigger ones? Never deceive—you will be caught.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

"WHY?" HE ASKS

Editor, The Times:

I noticed in your editorial where you was praising Bert Combs administration for doing so much for eastern Ky. Can you honestly say he has done anything for eastern Ky. except waste our tax money. If his administration had been as good as you say why did you and Bert let Wilson Wyatt loose to a republican. You know Chandler had nothing to do with Wyatts defeat. I am supposed to know if for I can see things as same as you can. Why did you and the little Judge let Abbott precinct go republican. Now do you think little Ned is half as strong as Senator Morton. I think you have got your wires crossed.

Eastern Honors Four Floyd County Students

Richmond, Ky., April 3 (Spl.).—More than 500 students were honored for outstanding scholarship, leadership, and service Wednesday morning at the first Joint Honors Day Program for both men and women at Eastern Kentucky State College.

This marked the first time that both men and women had been honored in one ceremony. Previously, separate programs were held. A Women's Honors Day was initiated 16 years ago by Mrs. Emma Y. Case, former dean of women, and a Men's Honors Day was started ten years ago.

Receiving recognition at the Hiram Brock Auditorium program were students with high scholastic standings within each class, students receiving departmental and organizational awards, presidents of organizations and nominees for the four honor societies. Also presented were those who have received graduate scholarships and assistantships.

Among those honored were these from Floyd county:

Sophomores with 2.5 Overall Standing: John David Wallen, Prestonsburg.

Freshmen With 2.5 Overall Standing: Patricia Anne McCormick, Allen.

Burnam Hall, Best Contribution: Jackie Howard, Dwale.

K. I. E. Nominees: Carl Edmond Tackett, Prestonsburg.

MINISTERS ENDORSE DEROSSETT

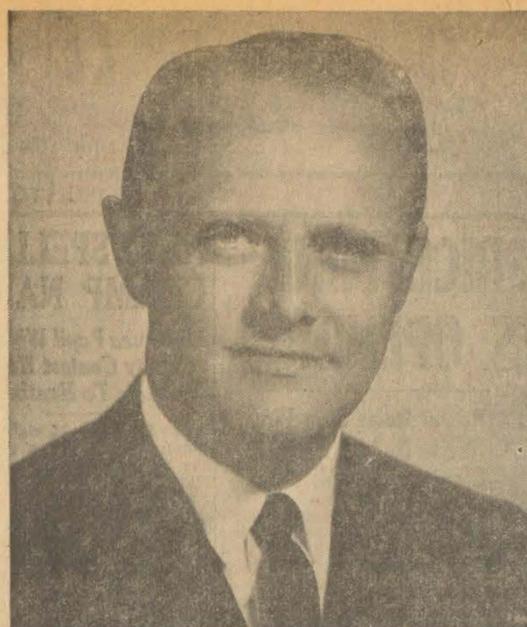

We, the undersigned ministers, want to take this means of urging upon the voters of Floyd county a consideration of Frank DeRossett as a candidate for the office of Circuit Court Clerk.

We feel Frank DeRossett meets all the qualifications for a good public servant. He is a dedicated Christian, raised in a Christian home and lives by the Golden Rule.

He meets other tests for public office. He is prepared through education and his sense of responsibility to his fellow man to conduct the office efficiently and in the public interest.

Considering these things, we think it proper and in the interest of Floyd county that we endorse Frank DeRossett for Circuit Court Clerk and urge you to support him in the May 28 Primary.

KENTUCKY
MUST NOT TURN BACK!
FOR PROGRESS
VOTE BREATHITT

For democracy to succeed voters must use their minds and their memories. If you don't know what the candidates stand for—not just what they SAY they stand for—the battle for self-government is lost.

Mr. Chandler thinks in terms of the 1930's. He thinks people MUST be poor; that we must do as little as possible for them, and then only when forced.

But this is not the decade of the great depression.

We refuse to believe that Kentuckians must be poor.

Mr. Chandler wishes to reduce expenses for parks and recreation. We see these as an expanding need.

Mr. Chandler sees the state as it was over thirty years ago when he was Lieutenant Governor. Since that time he has been twice Governor and United States Senator. He resigned as Senator in a crucial time, because he was able to get a higher paying job in baseball.

Mr. Chandler's chief adviser and lieutenant, Mr. Clements, has been Representative, Governor, Senator.

Between them, these two men have been elected by Kentuckians to the highest offices that the state can bestow for terms totalling more than thirty years.

Mr. Chandler says we reached peaks and pinnacles of education under him. But the Federal Census of 1960 shows us in 50th place, the lowest, at the end of his last administration.

VOTERS, BEWARE! The technique of the Big Lie is abroad in the land again.

Look about! Do you believe the people of Kentucky are so witless or have such short memories as to believe Mr. Chandler? Can he cut taxes and at the same time increase expenditures?

This is what he has always promised. This is what he has never done.

Do you believe he can destroy the Merit System and overnight reconstruct a competent independent group of state employees?

Do you believe in a Governor closing his eyes to open gambling and vice such as was at Newport—and then closing his ears to the pleas of Christian people asking him to do something about such a shameful situation?

We have no way to judge his future conduct except upon his past performance.

Do you remember the mass, indiscriminate firing of hundreds and hundreds of state workers in 1936 and in 1956?

Do you remember the merciless assessment of low-paid state workers?

The standards that rule his conduct appear to be revenge and personal advancement.

Kentucky deserves better, much better than this. Only the voters can get it.

Our hope, our only hope, is that Kentuckians can see and remember; that they can see the roads being built; that they can see the schools that have been built. That the teachers can tell them of the increase in salaries...; that they use the parks and recreational facilities; that they can see how they benefit from the swelling tourist tide.

Our hope is that Kentuckians remember and that they care about Kentucky.

EVANSTON MINE ENDS WORK TUESDAY NIGHT

Effective at midnight Tuesday, the Elkhorn No. 3 mine of the Island Creek Coal Company at Evanston worked its last shift. The mine was closed, approximately 180 employees were furloughed—and Evanston, barring some stroke of good fortune, was on its way to becoming a "ghost town."

The town that may die, unless new capital becomes interested, is a community of upwards of 150 houses and a population of between 750 and 1,000.

On the headwaters of a fork of Quicksand Creek, the town is the terminus of a spur of the C. & O.

Five Million Dollar Job Awarded To Partnership

The Lexington firm of architects, Shannon & Morgan, has been awarded a contract for approximately $5 million worth of work on eight three-story dormitories on the campus of the University of Kentucky. The firm is owned by George Lee Shannon, of Prestonsburg, and John Morgan, of Lexington.

Shannon & Morgan will do the working plans for the eight dorms, all of which will be under one roof.

Edward D. Stone, of New York, internationally known architect who did the American Pavilion at the Brussels World's Fair, is doing the preliminary planning of the giant complex of dormitories at U. K. which includes not only these eight but also three 14-story structures average cost of which will run from $14 to $18 million.

railway which was built in the 1940's to serve that area as it was being developed for coal production. The mine began operation in 1949.

No official reason for closing the mine was given. It was reported here that economic factors led to the decision.

A giant strip-mining operation in the area closed earlier.

The Elkhorn No. 3 mine is a slope operation, coal being reached by a 1380-foot slope. The seam mined there ranged from 36 to 40 inches in thickness.

The mine fan will still operate, and the installation will be fire-bossered. Some hope that the mine will be operated under new ownership is entertained.

A number of Floyd countians were employed at Evanston.

Qualified teachers who conduct and offer the prescribed 12-hour course of instruction to adult classes will be compensated at the rate of $50.00 per class.

The course of instruction deals with the techniques of individual and family survival in the nuclear age and includes such subjects as conventional weapons, the effects of nuclear weapons, chemical and biological warfare, biomedical aspects of radiation, national, state and local planning for emergencies, the preparation and stocking of shelters and evacuation.

Teachers who have already received training may wish to attend any or all sessions as refresher training. Films and instructional materials will be furnished in adequate supply and without cost.

WHY WE BELIEVE IN PEOPLE
We don't have exactly what might be called the Pollyanna outlook, the innocent stare and the glad smile because we believe all is happiness and light about us. But we do get tired of those who insist on dwelling on the faults and shortcomings of the human race and set people down, generally, as no good. The genus homo gets pretty onerous at times, and then at others he rises to a point near where he belongs.

On a recent night a woman lay dying at the Prestonsburg General hospital, but the fight for her life continued. At 2 a.m., eight persons were called to give blood. None of these eight knew the woman, but not one failed the call. Between 2 and 3 a.m., all were at the hospital, giving to a stranger, without thought of compensation. Their names? — Cal Herrick, Bud Shepherd, Claude Goble, T. F. Ratliff, Gordon Ratliff, Rev. Moses Kitchen, Pauline Whitaker, Jo Vaughan.

What Is A Chamber Of Commerce?

WHAT IS A CHAMBER OF COMMERCE?

A Chamber of Commerce is an organization of the business and professional leaders of a community or area for the promotion of the interests of that area.

This is a large task, and made larger today by the fact that we no longer live only in our area but actually throughout the whole world. Today our business does not come just from our own small area, but in the case of Prestonsburg reaches out into several states. We must sell our city to those in these states.

The coming of good roads is opening up great areas for us, but we must remember that these roads lead in both directions. They bring (or can bring) business to us, or they take (or can take) our business from us. A Chamber of Commerce can help us bring that business to us, by encouraging us to make our city and business better. The opportunity for united promotion, instruction in business methods, and united promotional methods for our city can be and will be carried on by the C. of C.

The C. of C., with the support of the whole business and professional section of a city, can and must promote and build up the whole community area. Today, that is a job that is too big for any one individual or group, but by working together the C. of C. has revitalized many communities.

A Pictorial Review of East Kentucky

(No. 236 in a Series)

BAPTISMAL SERVICE ON CANEY CREEK, KNOTT COUNTY, 1903

Religious services six decades ago in Eastern Kentucky were such an integral part of the rural cultural fabric of the region that people in an almost roadless area travelled many miles by horseback for baptismal services, revivals or memorial meetings.

Typical of outdoor religious services at the turn of the century in an isolated Eastern Kentucky section was a baptismal service at Caney Creek, Knott County, Kentucky, in 1903.

The First National Bank salutes the thousands of dedicated men and women who founded our area churches and preserved for their posterity our religious heritage.

The Heavy Hand of Politics

They have forgotten the 3 R's, and took up Politics —

Some of our Floyd County School Teachers are caught in an embarrassing position — Afraid to express their sentiments, voice their convictions, or speak their piece. Politicians, posing as educators, are trying to organize them into a political block, into ward heelers and precinct strikers.

They are being brain-washed as methodically and systematically as CASTRO'S CUBA. The politicians are afraid to tell them the plain truth — that Happy gave the teachers everything they asked for and provided the money to implement the Minimum Foundation Program, and built the finest Institution of Higher Learning in Kentucky, over the objection of his present opponents.

A year ago the teachers of this county were asked to elect a Sheriff. This year they are being asked to elect a Circuit Judge, a Commonwealth's Attorney and a Governor.

If this practice is permitted to continue they will be asked to elect Jailers, Magistrates and Constables, and will be so involved in politics that they won't know whether to electioneer or teach.

No one wants to destroy our fine school system in Kentucky, least of all Governor Chandler.

(We teach that action speaks louder than mere words)

The House Journal unmistakably proves that Combs' puppet Candidate did not sponsor the Minimum Foundation Law. He was present and had two opportunities, but DID NOT VOTE FOR IT!

I urge the teachers of Floyd County to throw off their yoke of bondage and not be deceived by the BIG-Fisted, hand-picked politician.

The committee was originally announced by Chandler and Waterfield.

The newly appointed members brings the committee membership to a total of 121 and represents every section of Kentucky.

General Campaign Chairman, Mack G. Walters, said that one of the prime objectives of the committee was to find means to meet Kentucky's future needs.

The Floyd county members of the committee are:

Oral Polio Immunization Program Is Appreciated By Kentucky Med Group

Appreciation for an outstandingly successful oral polio immunization program has been expressed by the Kentucky State Medical Association to county health departments, county medical societies, the State Department of Health and other statewide organizations which were active in this campaign.

More than 1,500,000 persons received Type I vaccine in Kentucky, reported Dr. Delmas M. Clardy, chairman of the KSMA Public Health Committee. Nearly one and a half million doses of Type II vaccine were administered, and a little under a million of Type III Doctor Clardy noted that a number of counties had not yet reported, and some had not completed their program.

During 1962, total cases of poliomyelitis in the United States was 886, a 98% decline below the annual average for the prevaccine years of 1951-1954. Kentucky's 30 cases reported last year marks a 96% decline from the 819 average of pre-vaccine years.

Doctor Clardy said that the cooperation of everyone involved made it possible for Kentucky to approach reaching a long desired goal of complete eradication of this dreaded disease. He urged that every Kentucky family continue this same effort in helping push poliomyelitis toward oblivion.

Oil Production Group Features Kentuckians

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 2 (Sp.) — Two Kentuckians, both from Prestonsburg, were among the speakers at the May 1-2 Eastern District meeting of the American Petroleum Institute's Division of Production.

Sessions are being held at the Pittsburgh Hilton hotel. Some 500 oil and gas company executives from eight states will attend.

The two Kentuckians took part in a panel discussion on Appalachian Basin shallow gas wells, on the afternoon of May 1.

Phillip Jenkins, of Kentucky West Virginia Gas Co., will speak on "Balling and Snabbing, Siphon Strings and Detergents."

James B. Luffler, of United Fuel Gas Co., will discuss "The Application of Air or Gas Cementing Techniques to the Berea Sand Wells in Eastern Kentucky."

Among the nationally known speakers on the program are Indiana's Governor Matthew E. Welsh, chairman of the Interstate Oil Compact Commission; Lawrence J. O'Connor, Jr., a member of the Federal Power Commission; and AFI President Frank N. Ikard.

Dr. Hall Notes Threat Of Rabies In Spring; Clinics Dates Are Told

With the arrival of spring always comes the threat of a rabies outbreak, and Dr. R. L. Hall, health officer, and his staff of the Floyd County Health Department, realizing the dangers of such an outbreak, have scheduled rabies clinics a little earlier this year.

The health department again this year, has acquired the services of Dr. Beecher L. Scutchfield, licensed veterinarian, to conduct the clinics.

The health department, in trying to take this service as near as possible to the people, has scheduled clinics in practically every community within the county. A complete schedule of these clinics will appear in this newspaper next week.

The clinics will start Monday, May 13, and continue through Tuesday, May 28. All clinics will start at 4:30 p.m. and continue through 7 p.m. This will give those who work an opportunity to bring their animals to the clinics. The cost of the immunization will be $1.50 per animal, and will immunize the animal for three years.

VOTERS of FLOYD COUNTY

I take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation for the support of my many friends and relatives in this campaign.

HAROLD STUMBO

for COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY

TO THE PEOPLE OF FLOYD COUNTY

In an attempt to get sympathy, my opponent has been telling the people of this county that I have attacked the legality of his filing papers. He repeated this accusation in last week's paper and on the radio. I say to you as I would say to him, I HAVE NOT DONE SO. Yet, I would not be entirely frank with the people of this county, if I failed to tell them that in truth my opponent FAILED TO HAVE HIS SIGNATURE NOTARIZED on his nomination papers to run in the Democratic Primary. This is a matter of public record for all to see.

Whether this mistake is serious enough to keep him off the ballot is of little concern to me, because I do not intend to take any legal action in this direction. In fact, I am willing to go with my opponent to the Clerk's office and allow him to correct his mistake. I say this because I want to serve the people of this county in public office in the future. I do not want the office of Circuit Judge given to me on a technicality. I believe the people should have the right to vote and elect their Judge. On the other hand, I do not appreciate my opponent accusing me of spreading false rumors.

Do you know how easy it is to take a corner with a Corvair or park one? Turn this newspaper sideways and it will give you a pretty good idea. The wheel handles just about that easily.

The Corvair's engine is in the rear, you see, for not only greater traction but more balanced weight distribution. And that's what makes the steering so completely effortless.

The engine is air cooled, too. No radiator. No water or antifreeze. No boiling over or freezing up to worry about. It takes the weather and the terrain as it comes.

James Keathley, 34, Harold railroad employee, died Sunday of a bullet wound in his head. Ninety-one Floyd youths have been accepted for federal employment in reforestation camps. The contract advertised for letting May 10 on the Left Beaver road leaves a gap between Hupler and McDowell, officials said here this week. The auto used as the getaway car in the recent attempt to rob the Bank of Allen was stolen Tuesday morning from its parking-place, in front of the Beaver Valley hospital at Martin. The suit filed here to revoke the franchise of the Prestonsburg Water Company failed this week. George B. Gomersall, Cincinnati film salesman, was possibly fatally hurt and William Thomas Dingus, manager of the Unique Theatre here, was less seriously injured when their car wrecked here Thursday. Alex H. Spradlin has begun construction of a service station on the Mayo Trail at Friend street. Ellis Boyd is the new manager of the A & P store here. Work has been begun on the clubhouse at the Beaver Valley Golf Club, near Allen. Married: Miss Maggie Flaney, of Martin, and Mr. Elder Wright, of Water Gap, March 14. Born: to Mr. and Mrs. Gwynne Ford, March 25, a daughter—Mary Auxier Ford. There died: Mrs. Lydia Sherman Burchett, 59, Sunday at the home here of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Howard.

Twenty Years Ago

First Floyd mine to be idle as a result of the current wage dispute between the United Mine Workers and operators was that of the Elk Horn Coal Corporation at Wayland where 800 miners quit work this morning. Floyd county hemp growers, helping to supply America's wartime need, after the Japanese captured our best source of imported hemp, are seeking a goal of 400 acres this year. Last obstacle to the purchase of the Prestonsburg Gas Company by the city of Prestonsburg was removed last week when the transaction was approved by the Public Service Commission at Frankfort. Attempt of Mrs. Catherine Nolen, 77 years old, to extinguish a flaming curtain in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Melvin Allen, near Garrett, Sunday resulted in burns which proved fatal to her, Monday. Floyd county is definitely "over the top" in its drive to reach the $463,000 quota assigned it in the nation's $13 million War Bond campaign this month. Married: Miss Nellie Marie Leslie, of Estill, and Mr. Delbert Webb, of Wayland, April 17, at the home of Rev. R. R. Rose, in Painsville. Born: to Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Patrick, of Tram, a son, Larry Douglas; to Mr. and Mrs. Sambo Laferty, of Sloan, a son, Vernon, April 18. There died: Daniel D. Martin, 89, Floyd county native, Wednesday, at his home at Ashland; Mrs. Sarah Johnson, 56, at her home at Lambert, on Clear Creek, Tuesday; Mrs. Amanda Akers, 62, at her home at Ligon, Sunday.

Ten Years Ago

(April 30, 1953)

The Floyd circuit court grand jury adjourned Wednesday noon with a final report in which it took potshots at "certain officers" of the law, assailing them for a "general effort to cover up the true condition of lawlessness in this county, particularly bootlegging." A sanitation report of Floyd county schools made by Galen Brown, state area sanitarian, shows that unsanitary conditions exist to an alarming degree in the county schools, with only 23% having a safe water supply and 57% with unsafe sewage disposal systems. For his rescue of a three-year-old child from the path of an oncoming passenger train, Glenn L. McComas, 25, Lima, Ohio, formerly of Eastern, this county, has been awarded the Carnegie Medal for heroism. The firm of Akers & Akers, of Banner, successful bidders on construction of the county high school building here, with a bid of $388,281.47, is expected to begin work on the structure next week. Members of the Big Sandy Valley delegation were highly encouraged Tuesday by the tenor of the hearing held before the Senate Public Works sub-committee on the matter of river canalization. Fire losses in Floyd county in 1952 for the 45 fires reported, totaled $32,420. Married: Miss Edna Mae Gibson, of Price, and S. Sgt. Ruben Delmar Frazier, April 11, at the home of her parents. There died: Joe Bradley, 50, of Dema, at a Lexington hospital, April 27; Rev. Mack Hall, 71, at home at Drift, April 25; Mrs. Armelida C. Caudill, 76, at home at Dwaile, April 23.

TO SPIKE A FALSE RUMOR

Last Sunday, my opponent, Hollie Conley, and some of his supporters spread a false rumor pertaining to my nomination papers. They rumored that I would not be on the ballot on account of a defect in my papers. These rumors are false and without foundation in law or in fact. The County Court Clerk, possibly through unintentional oversight, did not sign my papers on the proper line after administering an oath. This oversight is unimportant, and can be and will be corrected in due time. In fact, the law does not require an oath at all.

My opponent did not believe these rumors himself. Otherwise, he would stop campaigning if he thought he was getting elected your judge that easy.

What do you think about a crowd that will resort to false rumors in an effort to get the highest and most important judicial office in our county?

I ask my friends to spike these false rumors, and continue to wage the good fight against the forces of evil.

Faithfully yours,
EDWARD P. HILL

warrant was sworn out for the former official's arrest. Coroner James J. Carter and others told of finding 11 .32-20 cartridges on the table at which May had sat and of finding 39 other cartridges of the same calibre in May's pockets. Raymond Turner, drift merchant, testified he sold May a box of 50 .32-20 cartridges, the day of the shooting.

Ed Bentley, who had been at May's place of business and who said he was outside when the shooting took place, testified only three shots were fired. Ex-Magistrate Glenn Burchett and Mrs. Henry Collins, who live in the vicinity, said they heard the same number.

The manslaughter trial of Joe Wheeler Hyden, charged in the death of James Marcum, was continued last week till the September term, and his bond was later reduced to $2,000.

For example, the number of hospital-care days for which the state will pay for indigent (non paying) patients might be increased. The limit recently was raised from six to 10 days annually.

The state also might ease regulations under which residents could obtain free hospital care.

WHY WE ARE FOR BILL REYNOLDS

We, the friends of Bill Reynolds, want to take this means of stating why we are supporting him for Representative of the 95th Legislative District. Mr. Reynolds has for many years devoted himself to various civic causes in Floyd county without any compensation whatever except the satisfaction of serving his people. It was he who sparked the drive to raise $100,000 to buy the Community College site here and under his leadership as president of the Floyd County Parent-Teacher Association Council the new Garth Vocational School is now being built.

His leadership as head of the P-T.A. Council has resulted not only in the construction of the Garth Vocational School but the group has brought about many accomplishments, among them the renovation of classrooms at various schools. He feels that the children of our area are as entitled to educational opportunities equal to those of Lexington and Louisville.

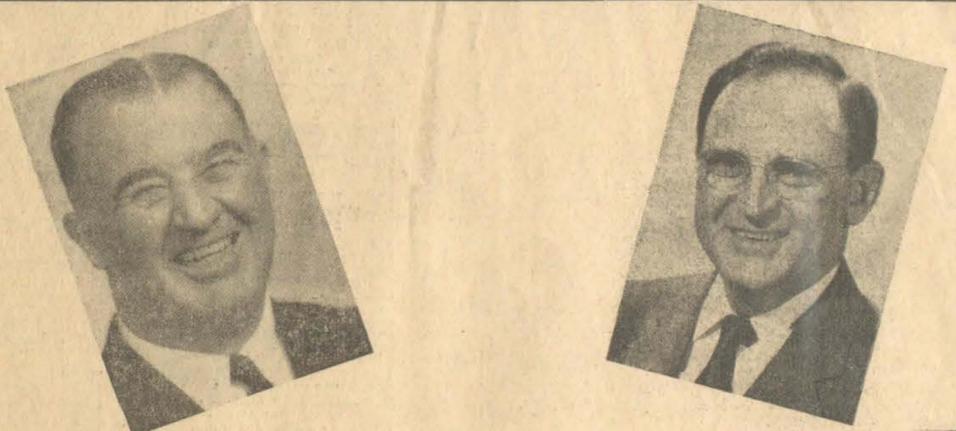

Mr. Reynolds served as chairman of the Finance Committee of the Big Sandy College Development Association and by working with 3,000 other participants, raised the necessary amount to insure the purchase of the college site and the construction of the institution will soon be started. The hundreds of boys and girls who will attend Prestonsburg Community College and Garth Vocational School will have a greater opportunity due to the dedicated efforts of Bill Reynolds.

We urge you to join with us in supporting him not only because of his civic accomplishments in the interests of our people but because he will continue to dedicate himself to the job of making a better and greater Floyd county. Not only that but he is sober, honest, a man of dedicated purpose and with high ideals of integrity. He has nothing whatever to say against his opponents and will not indulge in mudslinging. He expects to win upon his merits.

Again we urge you, in the interest of our children and all our people, to vote for Bill Reynolds for Representative.

FRIENDS OF BILL REYNOLDS COMMITTEE

GOVERNOR COMBS REDUCED TAXES ON 8 MILLION BARRELS OF WHISKEY YET OPPOSES REMOVAL OF 3% SALES TAX ON FOOD, MEDICINE, AND CLOTHING.

Recently Governor Combs reduced the value of whiskey in barrels for tax purposes from $28.00 per barrel to $27.00 per barrel. This means a reduction in taxes for municipal, county and school districts of 8 million dollars. We submit that an empty barrel is worth approximately $27.00. This is a wind-fall for the whiskey industry. Governor Combs is urging you to support his hand-picked candidate for Governor—Ned Breathitt—who has promised to continue the program of the present administration which would include tax favors to the whiskey industry.

We ask you in all fairness if it is right for Governor Combs and Ned Breathitt to reduce the tax on whiskey and yet oppose the removal of the 3% sales tax on your bread, meat, potatoes, medicine, clothing, and diapers??

We urge you to support "Happy" Chandler for Governor who will relieve the people of these unfair tax burdens and will not favor the whiskey industry against the welfare of the people.

2 Miners Wounded; Ambushers Sought

You Are Entitled to the Best Qualified Commonwealth's Attorney Available

Vote for honesty, integrity and ability.

Vote for a man who is honest and independent and will be free to serve all the people with equal justice as his goal, regardless of race, color or wealth.

Vote for a man qualified, physically, mentally and morally, to handle the office of Commonwealth's Attorney. A man who has had experience in Circuit Court in all types of felony cases and who has spent the past three years continuously in the various Circuit Courts of this state as trial attorney for the Department of Highways.

Vote for a man who believes in protecting the life, liberty and safety of the good citizens of this county. A man who was disabled in World War II, as were many other young men, while fighting for the protection of our people from criminal-minded aggressors.

Vote for me for Commonwealth's Attorney and secure for yourselves and your neighbors the best qualified man seeking the office.

Personal feelings and friendship will not protect your safety or welfare nor assure you of honest capable prosecution of criminals. You should consider the candidates in this race and make your choice, based on your honest judgment as to the one most qualified and able to give you the best service.

It is time you were protecting yourselves and your neighbors. A vote for me will be a vote for your safety and welfare and will assure your neighbors of honest, capable service.

Your friend,

Superintendent Clark Speaks at Club Meet

Wayland, Ky., April 29 (Spl.)—"You must be objective in assessing your own personality," stressed Charles Clark, Floyd county superintendent of schools, speaking on "Self Improvement" last Monday evening to the Lackey-Garrett-Wayland Woman's Club.

"There are some personality traits that lead to success and without which you cannot be a success," he said. "We must see ourselves as others see us," he quoted from Robert Burns.

Mr. Clark further listed the following ten questions for his listeners to ask themselves in evaluating their personality traits:

1. Do you have the ability to assess your own shortcomings?
2. Are you big enough so that you are not blind to your own situation?
3. Do you think positively?
4. Do you accept the fact that others are your equal?
5. Do you have a pleasing voice?
6. Have you cultivated the habit of listening?
7. Are you constantly agreeable, or do you gush and frown alternately?
8. Do you hold grudges?
9. Can you laugh at yourself?
10. Do you have the strength and determination to defend your position on what you think is right?

"If you can answer 'Yes' to these questions, then you are a well-rounded personality; or, else, there is room for improvement," warned the speaker. Concluding, he pointed out that wealth and authority are two basic tests to prove the real character of a person.

Prior to Mr. Clark's discussion, Mrs. J. T. Spillman conducted a brief devotional period. Her subject was "Worry." Mrs. Spillman pointed out that when we realize that life itself is more important than the things this world can bring, our worries will diminish.

After the program, a business session was held during which the current officers were re-elected for the coming year. They are: Mrs. S. M. Martin, president; Mrs. Fred Hall, vice-president; Mrs. Arnold Cooley, recording secretary; Mrs. Glenn Pack, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Mervil Dixon, treasurer; and Mrs. J. C. Wells, building treasurer. The installation breakfast will be held Saturday morning, June 1, at the clubhouse, Wayland.

At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Arnold Cooley and Mrs. Charles Hornsby.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deepest thanks and appreciation to all our relatives, neighbors and friends for being so kind in our time of trouble, during the loss of our son, Marcus. Especially, our thanks go to our minister, the ones who sent flowers and food or helped in any way, and to the Hall Brothers Funeral Home, for their sympathetic cooperation.

D. H. Dorton, Paintsville banker, and Mrs. Mildred Muller, Memphis, Tennessee, prominent in regional banking circles, were featured speakers at the annual meeting of the Kentucky Group, National Association of Bank Women held at May Lodge, April 6-7.

Miss Burieta Gearheart, assistant cashier of the Bank Josephine, was chairman of the meeting. Mayor George P. Archer delivered the welcome address. Mrs. Iley B. Brown served as hostess at the Saturday luncheon.

Mrs. J. M. Davidson, widow of one of the founders of the Bank Josephine, was an honor guest of the group at luncheon on her 86th birthday.

Miss Gearheart announces that the next meeting of the Kentucky Group will be held at Hopkinsville.

Farm families alone lose about 800 lives and $163 million worth of farm property through fires each year. Annually, about 11,300 farm residents are killed and 950,000 injured in accidents. A general clean-up of homes and farms will help remove many of the hazards that cause fires and accidents, they note.

Weddington Named To Million-Dollar Group

Joe David Weddington, representative here for Coastal States Life Insurance Co., has received notification of membership in the 1963 Million Dollar Round Table of the National Association of Life Underwriters.

All members of the 1963 Round Table must have sold at least a million dollars of life insurance in 1962 in accordance with rigid Round Table standards, or else must have met the special requirements for life membership by their million-dollar-a-year sales in prior years.

At the end of 1962, about 6.2 million needy persons in family units were receiving foods donated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture through its Direct Distribution Program. This was an increase of about 200,000 over a year earlier.

DeROSSETT APPEALS TO VOTERS

To the Young . . . To the Old . . . To the Veterans:

I am a son of John Derossett and Anna Calhoun Derossett of Bull Creek, a lifelong resident of this county. My father is now 82 years old. He is a former teacher and former employee of the Kentucky-West Virginia Gas Company. He is a lifelong resident of the county and a life member of the Regular Baptist Church.

I was born in 1922, attended our local schools, served in the U. S. Army 5 years in the European Theatre.

I do not make any hero's claim but I was awarded the Bronze Star and five Battle Stars, one for the Normandy Invasion. I am a member of the Free Will Baptist Church.

My family connections include many well-known Floyd county names, to mention a few: Calhoun, Lafferty, Robinson, Rowe, Mayo, Rorrer, Wallen, Shepherd, McGuire, Sizemore, Meadow, Miller, Slone, Warrix, Tussey, Parrott, Wells, Thornsberry, Webb, Montgomery, Flannery, Sprigg, Hall, Mosley, Peters, Anderson, Sammons, Skeans, Smith, Ellis, Prater, Moore, Nelson, Ousley, Patton, Spurlock, Baisden, Baldrige, Banks, Hicks, Bingham, Blackburn, Burchett, Conn, Crisp, Crum, Davidson, Dingus, Dotson, Ford, Frasure, Howard, Hubbard, Bayes, Campbell, Clifton, Scutchfield, Barnett, Younce, Gunnell, Merritt, Ramey, Garrett, Goble, Gray, Harmon, Hayes, Herald, Holbrook, Hobson, Layne, Horn, Jarrell, Marshall, Osborne and Clark.

This is my first time to ask for a public office and I do now, knowing that I can perform the required duties, and I will go beyond that call and establish a Driver-Training Program in every Floyd county high school. I believe Floyd county owes this to our younger generation. It will eliminate many highway accidents.

I trust your good judgment and beg to remain your friend.

TOTAL PERFORMANCE:

IF YOU KNEW WHAT HE KNOWS...YOU'D BE DRIVING THE 1963 TOTAL PERFORMANCE FORD

Ford is traditionally the nation's Number One police car. The reason: Total Performance!

When it comes to cars the police don't take chances. Put yourself in a State Trooper's shoes. Every day you must patrol hundreds of miles in your cruiser. Mileage and time grind into a man and his machine, but when the bell rings you've got to be ready. Chase. Turn. Corner. Quick stop. You've got to be able to do it all if you're going to do your job.

Listen to a trooper list the reasons why he prefers a Ford and you realize how difficult it is for any car to measure up to his standards. The car must be strong . . . it has to stand up to big mileage. It must be silent . . . when you practically live in a car a rattle can sound like a kettle drum. It must be swift . . . powerful enough to catch any car on the road. It must be sure . . . dependable even in the face of the unexpected. Strong. Silent. Swift. Sure. A four-word outline of total performance. The police demand it. That is why they choose the total performance Ford. Why should you settle for anything less?

Whatever your special demands and needs, the total performance Ford is the car most likely to satisfy you all the way down the line. You can prove this for yourself.

First, look at Ford's astounding record in open competition this year in the grueling Daytona, Riverside and Atlanta 500's, and in the demanding Pure Oil Performance Trials. Only a car with total performance could roll up so many impressive wins.

Second, before you buy any new car, test-drive the solid, silent Super Torque Ford. If you haven't driven one lately, you can't really know what a new Ford is like. Make this important discovery—if it's built by Ford, it's built for performance . . . total performance.

CARROTS PROMINENT

Carrots first gained prominence as food because of their supposed medicinal value, according to USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service. Ancient Greek physicians, for example, considered carrots a valuable stomach tonic. The carrot was cultivated in the Mediterranean area before the Christian era and reached the orchards and gardens of Germany and France by the 13th century. It appeared in England by 1601 as a farm crop as well as in gardens.

Car-Burning A Problem In State, Bureau Says

Chicago, Ill., April 11—Kentucky automobiles seem to be particularly prone to burning up. The National Automobile Theft Bureau, a car theft and arson investigative agency supported by 350 insurance companies, explained that in terms of auto fires per 100,000 registered automobiles, Kentucky ranks third in the nation. Only Mississippi and Tennessee have a higher "burned car" rate.

William J. Davis, manager of the NATB's western division in Chicago, estimates that probably 90 percent of all cars totally destroyed by fire are the work of arsonists. He said a Kentucky telephone lineman, Kentucky state trooper and the state fire marshal's office recently put one automobile arsonist out of business. The lineman was working on a telephone pole near Cammer when he observed a man set fire to a 1951 car. Hooking his test-set directly into the telephone line, he called his company which notified the state police.

The arsonist, and an accomplice, were arrested later that day and subsequently pleaded guilty to the attempt to defraud an insurance company. The NATB has conducted training seminars in Kentucky to alert police authorities, firemen and insurance company adjusters to the problems of auto arson, how to detect it and means of combating it. Recently the state's rate of burned cars declined slightly, although still remaining third highest in the nation.

"Most automobile arson is committed by amateurs for the purpose of collecting from the insurance company," Mr. Davis said. "The favorite arson method is to pour five gallons of gasoline on the car, usually on the upholstery, and throw a match at it."

The NATB official said most cars are highly fire resistant and making the burning of one look like an accident is extremely difficult.

HAMILTON FAMILY

A letter from Emory L. Hamilton, Box 481, Wise, Virginia, inquires for information on James Hamilton. Our Virginia correspondent offers data on James, who was married some time after 1830.

Mr. Hamilton writes: "I do not know James Hamilton's wife's name. He was born in 1814 in Russell county, Virginia, the son of Nelse Hamilton (who died in the War of 1812 on October 9, 1814) and Mary Ann Nolen. In 1836 this Mary Ann Nolen Hamilton was living in Floyd county, Kentucky. She had remarried and her name was Mary Ann Jacobs."

A cursory glance at records shows no James Hamilton marrying in Floyd county prior to 1830 but a James did marry Partheny Tussey in Floyd county, August 4, 1869. Also a James Hamilton married Patsy Ratliff in Pike county, September 15, 1837.

Mr. Hamilton, an accomplished genealogist and a teacher in the Wise schools, would appreciate information on this branch of the Hamilton family.

MUSICK FAMILY REUNION

The Musick family will hold its annual reunion this year at the 4-H Pavilion at Abingdon, Virginia, August 4, according to a letter received from Rev. G. C. Musick, pastor of the Anthony Baptist Church, Anthony, West Virginia. Rev. Musick has been appointed as a committee of one to procure a mailing list of Musicks or Musics in order to issue invitations.

The Musick family is a very old colonial family and has hundreds of the name residing in Southern West Virginia, Southwest Virginia and Eastern Tennessee as well as Eastern Kentucky. Generally, the family spells the name Musick, except in the Big Sandy valley.

Dr. Carlos Garrett, Blountville, Tennessee, is secretary of the Musick family reunion and the secretary is Henry S. Lester, Jr., Route 1, Bristol, Virginia. The West Virginia pastor notes that the pavilion in which the reunion is scheduled has a public address system and other features which makes it attractive for events of this kind. The public is invited to attend.

MICROFILM WORK

Herbert Finch, field representative of the University of Kentucky Libraries, Lexington, advises that he would like to do microfilming of historical documents in the eastern part of the state.

He wrote in early January: "I think some time in the late Spring would be the best time for me to be away from Lexington and also the easiest for our microfilm to be out of town. The Mormons did the Ohio River counties of Boyd, Greenup and others and are now in the western part of the state. They should be ready to operate in the mountains next fall or spring a year from now. So far we have about a third of the counties done but they are most of the oldest and ones with the most records. Then there are several counties formed after 1865 or which have

Low Temperatures Damage Many Evergreen Shrubs

The unusually low temperatures of December and January caused considerable damage to many of our broadleaf evergreen shrubs and trees. Some of our more tender deciduous shrubs and trees also suffered from the cold. The full extent of the damage is just now becoming recognizable.

Don't get in a hurry to cut into these damaged plants until it's time for growth to start. In some cases, wait until the new shoots are from one to three inches long. Often, pruning too early will reduce the plants' chances of recovery if they have badly damaged tops.

Where cambium (bark) is completely killed around the trunk of a tree or shrub, growth may start in an apparently normal manner. Plants damaged this way usually die early in the summer unless they have the ability to regenerate the cambium. Most plants do not have this ability. Trees this seriously damaged should be removed. Shrubs with a complete cambium (bark) kill of the trunk often can be cut to the ground now and recover to become desirable plants again.

It is no sign that the plants are dead even though the leaves of broadleaf evergreen shrubs and trees are mostly or fully killed. Pruning on these plants should be delayed until the extent of the damage can be fully appraised. They remove only dead branches or shoots and whatever else is necessary to partially reshape the plants, unless the trunk is completely damaged. In this case, cut the trunk-damaged shrub to the ground. Small (young) broadleaf evergreen trees also may recover from trunk damage if they are cut to the ground. Large (old) trees probably will not.

Deciduous shrubs and trees can be handled in a similar manner. However, most of the late flowering shrubs are usually cutback severely every spring anyway, and a little delay in their pruning needs to be done. These include butterfly bush, hypericums, bush-type crape myrtle, and snowhill hydrangea among others. The crape myrtle is the least hardy of the group. Probably those grown as a bush will be more likely to survive. The usual time to remove the tops to the ground is when new growth can be seen. It may be well to slightly delay this procedure for crape myrtle this spring.

You should be able to appraise the damage to roses now, or very soon. The winter of 1961-62 was very hard on most hybrid tea roses in Kentucky. Unless adequate winter cover was provided last fall, severe damage will be evident now. If the roses happened to be covered with snow at the right time, much less damage will be evident.

Beetle, Moth Damages Estimated At 5 Million; Prevention Methods Told

Clothes moths and carpet beetles cause an estimated damage of from $200 million to $500 million each year in the U. S. Most people know from personal experience that a hole in a wool suit or a carpet can be quite expensive. What can be done to avoid this damage?

Good housekeeping is an important factor in prevention. Frequent cleaning with close attention to materials these pests might attack and brushing, airing and dry cleaning woolen garments are important. Old woolen scraps or garments that stay on shelves or in corners for a long time often are sources of infestation. Store these things properly or get rid of them.

Applying protective treatment to items that the pests might attack is another preventive measure. Parachlorobenzene crystals (moth balls) are often used and are quite effective. Sprays (usually a five percent DDT oil solution) also is effective in preventing damage.

If you have an infestation of clothes moths or carpet beetles, more thorough methods will be needed to get rid of them. First, find the source of the infestation; look in secluded or protected places, boxes of stored woollens, old upholstered furniture, and similar spots. Spray thoroughly. If clothes moths are your problem, use DDT.

SAVE OUR SCHOOLS

NOW IS THE TIME FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS OF KENTUCKY TO UNITE IN THE FIGHT FOR THE CONTINUED PROGRESS OF EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES FOR OUR CHILDREN.

We, as teachers, would ask you parents to visit our schools—talk to the principals and teachers, and let them show you the progress that has been made in the past THREE YEARS. Visit the classrooms and see the effort being put forth to enable your child to compete in this Modern Age. Visit our science departments. See the equipment and work being done there that was not possible three years ago. Visit our English, Social Science and Mathematics departments and see for yourself what has been and is being done.

We have been able to add a fine testing program along with an excellent guidance and counseling program directed by capable teachers.

Can we as parents and teachers allow a group of men, who would for their own personal gain, destroy the opportunities that our children have now, and will continue to have for an education?

The TEACHERS OF KENTUCKY are united and have pledged themselves to fight for equal educational opportunities for your children and ours.

We have pledged ourselves to support the candidates for public office in our state and county who will support the LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM proposed by the K.E.A.

We are asking you, MOM and DAD, to join us in this fight for the welfare of our children, our most precious resource. VISIT OUR SCHOOLS. Talk to your neighbors; tell them of the importance of this issue.

NED BREATHITT, WHO HAS FOUR CHILDREN HIMSELF, HAS MADE THE EDUCATION OF OUR YOUTH THE NO. 1 ISSUE IN THIS CAMPAIGN.

LET US JOIN THIS YOUNG MAN IN HIS EFFORT TO MOVE EDUCATION FORWARD IN KENTUCKY.

WATCH SWEET BEVERAGES

During hot weather when adults and children drink more fluids than usual, a drink of water replaces body water losses without adding calories. The adult or child who is less active than usual in hot weather does not need the extra calories of sweet beverages. Excessive use of sweet beverages also tends to spoil the appetite for well-balanced meals.

A crowd estimated at 500 persons from this and neighboring counties attended the reception given April 22 at May Lodge, Jenny Wiley State Park, honoring Mrs. Frances Breathitt, wife of Edward T. (Ned) Breathitt, Democratic candidate for Governor. The reception was given by the Floyd County Teachers Association.

The receiving line included chairwomen from the various counties of the area.

The door of the vault at the U. S. gold repository at Fort Knox, Ky., weighs 20 tons.

I am asking your support for my Daddy, A. J. CONLEY, for Representative at the May 28, 1963 primary election.

I am recovering from two serious heart operations—one on Dec. 20, 1961, and open heart surgery on May 4, 1962. Just before my last operation, my Daddy had to get 23 pints of blood before I could have the surgery. I want to thank all the people who helped do this for me.

I am still under the care of doctors at Louisville, Ky., and have an appointment for a check-up May 22. I have been going there four years. As you all know, it takes a lot of money to pay these expenses. My Daddy doesn't have any job or income and has our home mortgaged. I am a freshman in high school and have no mother to care for me, just a father.

A vote for my Daddy will be a vote for me. He is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative. I will appreciate your support of my Daddy in this race.

Daniel Hager settled in Floyd county, Ky., which county he represented in the Legislature one term; he also served as county judge two terms. John Hager, grandfather of our subject, was a native of Germany, and came to America as a British soldier during the Revolutionary War. Daniel M. He passed his life on a farm until twenty-one years of age, when he kept store for six months, after which he spent two years in Salyersville, Magoffin county. In 1863, he enlisted in the army under Col. John M. Brown, and was promoted to the rank of Sergeant Major. At the close of the war, he returned to Paintsville, Johnson county, and engaged in merchandising.

"In 1866 he married Mary I. Borders, of Johnson county, who died in 1873, leaving two children, George and Samuel P. In 1877 Mr. Hager married Mojaska T. Vaughn, of Johnson county, a daughter of Judge H. S. and Mary (Turner) Vaughn. She died in 1886, the mother of three children, Eugene, Virgie S. and Robert B. Hager was born in Floyd county, Ky., January 22, 1828, and in 1817 moved to Ohio; he was a farmer, and from 1867 to 1885 served as postmaster at Salyersville, Magoffin county, Ky. He was also a Freemason and a member of the Presbyterian Church. He was a son of Daniel M. and Violet (Porter) Hager, natives, respectively, of Amherst and Russell counties, Virginia. The maternal grandparents of our subject were Simeon and Diana (Koutz) Roach of Maryland and Virginia. Simeon E. Hager was educated in the common schools and he has always been a merchant. In June, 1885, he was appointed postmaster at Salyersville, which position he still holds, and votes with the Democrats."

L. T. is Lowell Hughes, of Prestonsburg, Floyd county, son of J. T. Hughes, owner and operator of Hughes Motor Co., Cadillac dealer in Prestonsburg, a friend and supporter of the Combs Administration, and is the son-in-law of A. M. Howard, of Howard Wholesale, Allen, Kentucky.

The records at the University of Kentucky will show that Lowell was a full-time law student during all the period set out and the Department of Revenue had him listed on their payroll as Field Representative.

How many of you students have had to work part-time and borrow from your relatives and home-town banks to go to college???

Maybe you could have qualified for a job like this had you lived in the Governor's home-town and your father was a Cadillac Dealer and worth over One Hundred Thousand Dollars. The Administration's Candidate says he approves all the Combs payrolls — the only thing he needs is keep the Sales Tax on Food, Clothing and Medicine so that they can continue the payroll padding. This is not an isolated case, just one of the many hundreds, in the state of Kentucky.

What's Going On in FISH & WILDLIFE

By MINOR CLARK, Commissioner

Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources

Too many people in Kentucky do not realize the great amount of wealth that is brought into a community by the creation of new fishing waters. They have, down through the years, taken fishing and its returns as a matter of fact without once giving thought to the business end of this art. They are not aware that hunters and fishermen in Kentucky each year spend an amount equal to about one-third of the annual cash value of the Kentucky burley crop. They do not know that money spent by local and visiting sportsmen totals well above 60 million dollars each year and, therefore, they are unaware of the vast revenue that is forthcoming, especially to the people of those areas where good fishing waters are available.

The Department can point with accuracy to better living conditions that have been created in given areas merely by the creation of new waters. Take, for instance, the area around Kentucky Lake: Only a few years ago the economy of that area was very low, with most of the residents relying on revenue from farming practices to supply their needs. Today fine motels, hotels and restaurants dot the landscape and these have resulted in a civic pride that has caused residents to build better homes and barns and fences. And, because of this influx of new money those residents have higher incomes and can afford the better things of life.

The Kentucky Lake area is but one of many examples. There has been created a relatively small lake in Central Kentucky and as a result of that lake residents of several counties in the area are benefiting. Boat dealers do a greater number of boats and motors; restaurants offered better menus which attracted more people; gasoline stations took on a new look and not only offered their products in a more pleasing manner but also gave out information on fishing and fishing conditions.

Most violations are committed by persons who are not acquainted with the rules and regulations covering a given field of operation. For instance, there are those who are arrested or cited for driving their car in an unlawful manner, but who doubtless, are not familiar with the rules and regulations governing that particular phase of operating a car. In the field of fish and wildlife there is no doubt but many of those arrested are conscientious, law-abiding citizens, but they do violate fish and game laws, designed to protect sportsmen and the various species of game and fish, simply because they do not know what they can or cannot do.

This again points up the phrase that has been heard so many times—ignorance of the law excuses no one. That, we have heard for years and it is as true today as it was 100 years ago. If a person is to drive an automobile, or operate a grocery store, or fish or hunt or take frogs, then he should be acquainted with the rules and regulations that are designed for that particular phase of living.

If a basketball player becomes a star he must be familiar with the rules of the game. A baseball pitcher, although he may have the best arm in the national pastime, would not get far if he did not know what was or was not a balk in the pitcher's box. The most rugged football lineman would be of little use to a team did he not know how to legally use his hands. And if these athletes are found guilty of any of these offenses, they are punished for committing a violation. They should have known the rules.

We realize that many laws are flaunted by the chronic violator. He's the type who does illegally as much as he can get away with. And most often after he is apprehended and pays, perhaps, a fine, he'll return to the streams and fields and commit the same infraction of the rules. For him it is no ignorance of the law, but that he was just born a violator—a fellow who believes the laws were made to violate.

We sympathize with those who violate the game and fish laws through ignorance. But it is their responsibility to acquaint themselves with the rules of the game before they practice the sport. Otherwise they are sure to be caught off base and they must pay the penalty.

Babe Ruth, Connie Mack Baseball Leagues Meet; Officers Re-Elected

Garrett, Ky., April 29. (Spl.)—Representatives of several towns in Floyd and Knott counties attended the meeting of Babe Ruth and Connie Mack baseball at Garrett last Thursday night. Attending and entering teams for their communities were: Paul D. Hager, Prestonsburg; Rudell Wickert, David; Carlos Watkins and Ora Simpson, Hindman; David Osborne and W. C. Smith, Wheelwright; Edd Stewart, Martin-Maytown; Day Crisp, Allen; Coet Messer, Joe Gayheart and Shelby Draughn, Garrett.

All officers were re-elected for the coming season. These are: Shelby Draughn, Garrett, president; Carlos Watkins, Hindman, vice-president; Paul D. Hager, Prestonsburg, secretary; Rudell Wickert, David, treasurer.

Two teams that were in the league last year, the Auxier Braves and Wheelwright Millers, did not enter this year. A new team from Allen entered the League to bring the teams to seven for the year. It is still possible for other teams to enter the League if they so desire. Any one interested should contact the League president.

Three communities are interested in Connie Mack this season. So the Floyd County Connie Mack League was formed. Garrett, Wheelwright and Prestonsburg each will enter a team. One other team in the county or an adjoining county is needed to complete the League. Connie Mack Baseball is for 16, 17 and 18-year-old boys. With Connie Mack, there will be baseball for boys from 8 years to 19 for the first time in Floyd county.

The two Leagues will hold their next meeting Sunday, May 12, at 4 p.m., in the Garrett school building. The season schedules, birth certificates of boys and other items will be on the agenda. All people interested in baseball for all age groups are urged to attend this meeting.
