

PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY

SPEAKING OF AND FOR FLOYD COUNTY

THURSDAY, MARCH 26, 1964

This Town . . . That World

Any time you let the weather keep you from fishing, brother, you're in the sere and yaller leaf.

Fellow was talking about the War of '64, and somebody suggested he should refer to it as the War of '61. "No, '64," he maintained. "And my wife won it."

HOME EARLIER

Nobody living or dead ever saw and none will ever see an earlier Easter than this year's. The day falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon following the spring equinox. The equinox was on March 22, the full moon will be on Friday the 27th. So it is that Easter could not come earlier than this one of 1964—unless a recent move to fix the date succeeds.

Since the day comes so early, believe my present that will make it through Easter.

OUT OF THE PAST

Speaking of old books (which we weren't), I have run across Marie Corell's oldie, "Thelma." Some of those old pieces of fiction which held me goggle-eyed as a youth have lost their interest for me, but this one, for all its archaisms and romanticism, still tickles the old fancy.

The book has an intriguing plot and a character or so that keeps me reading. Those long, descriptive paragraphs are a bit too mellifluous in spots; the sun gets too glorious in "his" glory, and the pale moon gets so pale she seems

HALL VICTIM ON HIGHWAY

Former Resident Dies At Clay's Ferry; Rites Conducted Here Sunday

Franklin Delano Hall, 27, former Prestonsburg resident, was killed instantly Thursday of last week at 5:30 a.m. when a truck he was driving left the highway and overturned near Clay's Ferry.

Hall, who was living at Maysville, was a truck driver for the PreFab Transit Company, Farmers City, Illinois, was enroute from Ashland, Georgia, with a load of aluminum sheets. On U. S. 25, just outside Clay's Ferry, he lost control of the vehicle. It knocked down a utility pole and plunged 250 feet into a field. Hall was thrown out and the load of aluminum piled onto him. It required nearly an hour to move the load of metal from his body.

Mr. Hall was a son of W. J. (Bill) Hall, North Webster, Indiana, and Mrs. Bart Copley, Maysville. He was never married. Surviving, besides his parents, are a sister, Mrs. Joe Weddington, Prestonsburg, and two brothers, Charles (Nig) Hall, of Lancaster, and Billy Joe Hall, in Pennsylvania.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday at 2 p.m. from the Community Methodist Church here, the Rev. LeRoy Sanders officiating. Burial was made in the May cemetery at Cliff under the direction of Carter & Callihan Funeral Home.

KENWOOD PICKS SITE ON BIG SANDY RIVER

$4-MILLION WOOD PLANT ENVISIONED

Initial Financial Fund Drive Is Nearing Goal; Stockholders Hold Meet

Kenwood Products, Inc., the group formed to put into operation a giant wood-utilization plant in Eastern Kentucky, has decided on the Big Sandy valley as the site of the operation but was not ready this week to say where on the Big Sandy that site is.

The report received here that the Music farm, on the railroad side of the Big Sandy and a short distance north of Blockhouse Bottom, had been selected for the plant could not be confirmed. George Branham, of Paintsville, president of the group, said a specific site had not yet been selected.

Branham did say that directors of Kenwood Products picked the Big Sandy valley for the plant site after a three-hour discussion of possible locations. The group plans a $4-million installation to process second- and third-grade timber, utilizing all parts of the raw product. It hopes to attract satellite mills and plants to the area.

A conference of students and economists at Princeton University last week ended in the conclusion that wood products and tourism offer to Appalachia the potential of thousands of jobs and a thriving section of the country.

Kenwood Products stockholders met in Lexington Wednesday to continue organization work. It was said that 90 per cent of the $75,000 in stock certificates sold by Kenwood was purchased in the Big Sandy and that this influenced the directors to pick the valley as the plant site. Prestonsburg business men subscribed approximately $12,000 of this total, it was learned.

After settling on a definite site, the next steps in Kenwood's plans will be the hiring of key trained personnel, purchase of machinery, and construction of a plant, Branham said. "We believe this is the first plant of its kind in Appalachia," Branham said. But he predicted several others would be begun in the near future and said Kenwood already is considering expanding after it gets its first plant in operation.

Directors considered available labor and raw materials, freight rates, natural gas rates, distance to potential markets, and the

DAM OUTLET JOB IS LET

Major Fishtrap Step On Construction Taken; Cowin & Co. Bids Low

A major step toward construction of Fishtrap Dam was announced Saturday by the Army Corps of Engineers.

The apparent low bid for construction of the outlet works for the dam was submitted by Cowin & Company, of Birmingham, Alabama.

The Huntington district engineer, Col. Harrington W. Cochran, said Cowin & Company—one of 14 firms bidding for the job—submitted an estimate of $1,420,745. The work is expected to take about a year to complete. Colonel Cochran said this contract represents the first phase of construction of Fishtrap Dam proper.

The outlet works is the facility which passes water around the dam. This particular contract includes part of a water structure, a 775-foot horseshoe-shaped tunnel, and an outlet channel.

According to Cochran, work on the $8 million federal multi-purpose reservoir project actually began about two years ago with highway relocation. Most of this work is nearing completion, and real-estate acquisition is well under way.

A contract for construction of the Fishtrap Dam structure is expected to be awarded this fall, according to Cochran.

The reservoir, located on Levisa Fork of the Big Sandy River, is being built for water-quality control, flood control, recreation, and fish and wildlife.

Gun Blast Injury Hospitalizes Miner

Amos Garrett, Ivel miner, is in the University Medical Center, Lexington, suffering from a shot-gun blast inflicted at 6 a.m. Monday. It is said the lower part of his face was almost completely blown off.

Members of the family heard the shot, rushed to the barn and found him. He was rushed to Our Lady of the Way hospital, Martin, and from there to Lexington. He remains on the critical list.

ASKS COURT DENY MOORE

Petition of Citizens Protests License Grant For Poolroom Operation

County Attorney Barkley Sturgill filed a written protest this week to the granting of a license to George C. Moore for the establishment of a pool room on U.S. 23 at Tram. Sturgill took the action after a committee of citizens from the area presented a petition bearing 149 names protesting the issuance of the license.

Moore filed application with the County Court March 18 for license to operate the place of entertainment. Under the law the County Court Clerk is required to advertise the application in the newspaper for three consecutive weeks. Thirty days must elapse between the application and its consideration by the County Judge.

Sturgill, in his written protest, made two chief points of objection. He referred to the protest petition submitted to the court and said that Moore had been charged twice in Magistrate Fred Conn's court for public drunkenness. He added that Moore had also been jailed by Conn for contempt.

Judge Stumbo will hear the application for license at the April term of County Court at which time both sides will have the right to offer witnesses. Where a protest is filed and a hearing is held the decision of the judge is discretionary.

Sturgill commented that he was gratified at the cooperation of the citizens in the Stanville and Tram areas in seeking to stamp out what could become a public nuisance.

Annual Founders Day Scheduled for April 2

The annual Founders' Day for Kiwanians and Kiwanians will be held at the May Lodge, April 2. The program, under the leadership of Mrs. Ed Hill, Kiwanian president, will consist of selections by the Prestonsburg high school chorus and a color movie just released by the State Parks Board, entitled, "Explore Kentucky."

The high school singers are under the direction of Mrs. Carlos Haywood, and this appearance will be a dress rehearsal for their singing at the Kentucky Youth Assembly the next day.

TWO MURDER CASES SET

May Slaying Charge Stated for Retrial; Juror Names Are Drawn

Two hundred six cases, in two of which defendants are charged with murder, are on the docket of the April criminal term of circuit court here.

Retrial of the case of Deputy Sheriff Troy Mullins and Marjion Martin, charged with the slaying of Ex-Magistrate John May, is set for April 14. The Court of Appeals recently reversed the two-year term given them at their earlier trial. The second murder trial scheduled is that of Grover Pratt, who is charged with the slaying of Phyllis Ann Sears. His trial is booked for April 29.

Forty-two liquor cases are on the April docket, but last week's Appellate Court decision wiped off about 15 of the liquor possession indictments. Seven of the liquor cases are set for trial the same day the Pratt trial is scheduled.

Names of 59 prospective jurors drawn from the jury drum for service at the court session, which will convene April 6, were listed this week by Circuit Court Clerk Frank DeRossett, as follows:

Dixie Campbell, Langley; Troy Hamilton, Galveston; Josie Nelson, Dwayne; Alice Stone, Estill; Bill Laferty, Water Gap; Mrs. Esther Evans, Prestonsburg; Mrs. Sally Baldrige, Blue River; Ernest Boyd, Dana; Bert Hall, Banner; Mrs. Andy Turner, Harold; Webster Akers, Grethel; Mrs. John Neely, Prestonsburg; Gladys Conn, Dana; Coet Handshoe, Hueysville; Dick Wells, Auxier; Mrs. Caroleen Burchett, David; Russell Sizemore, Prestonsburg; Rebecca Jarrells, Lancer; Crawford Sturgill, Martin; Hester Hall, Banner; Roy Cook, Drift; Johnny Bryant, Hi Hat; Oscar Blackburn, Drift; Babe Shepherd, David; John G. CARVER DIES IN ACCIDENT

Printer Miner Killed By Mining Machinery; Funeral Held Monday

Ed Carver, 49-year-old Printer miner, was instantly killed Friday at 6:30 p.m. while working in the new mine recently opened by George Evans at Printer. It is said that he was caught by a mechanical boom and thrown into a drilling machine. He suffered a broken neck, crushed chest and fractured arm.

Emma Truck Accident Damages Adkins Home; Tenant Hospitalized

A truck driven by James Laferty left the highway north of Emma Friday evening at 10 o'clock and plunged into the home of Mrs. Kate Adkins, demolished the porch and partially destroyed two bedrooms.

Mrs. Adkins, who was sleeping in the middle bedroom, was thrown out of bed. She received slight injuries and was removed to the Beaver Valley hospital but was released Monday. Her son, Alex Adkins, in another bedroom was unhurt.

The truck was going north at the time of the accident. The driver was uninjured. Taylor Lloyd Slone was arrested here Thursday of last week by Policemen Ray Click and Bill Booth. Charged with drunken driving, he was fined $100 and costs by Police Judge Watt Hale. Arrested the same day by the

SLONE CASE IS DECISIVE ON SEARCHES

Judge Williams Upholds Contention of Defense Search Warrants Illegal

A Court of Appeals decision handed down Friday virtually scuttled Floyd court attempts to convict approximately 15 persons on charges of illegal possession of alcoholic beverages in dry territory.

Affected are those who were arrested and booked on possession charges last July 3 in a raid by ABC agents and State Police and also those arrested in a Sunday morning raid, several weeks later.

Most of those accused were convicted in quarterly court and given jail terms as well as fines and placed under peace bonds. The cases were appealed to circuit court. After her conviction there Mrs. Cora Slone, one of the defendants, appealed to the Appellate Court, and officials and defendants alike have been marking time since that appeal was filed, acting so in the knowledge that the decision in Mrs. Slone's case would apply to all arrested and booked on the charge in the July 3 raid.

Joe P. Tackett, Mrs. Slone's attorney, contended that the search warrant which resulted in her arrest was void because it was issued by Trial Commissioner Glenn Burchett rather than by County Judge Henry

POTTER ASKS COMPLIANCE

Vehicle Sticker Law Enforcement Planned; April 1 Is Deadline

Chief of Police Bill Potter this week issued a warning to motor vehicle owners in Prestonsburg that license stickers must be purchased and displayed on the windshields of their cars or trucks by Wednesday, April 1.

Potter said the ordinance providing for this sticker will be strictly enforced and that violators will be "arrested on sight, beginning Wednesday, April 1." He added that police plan to establish roadblocks to enforce the city ordinance.

The ordinance, enacted two years ago, provides that every car or truck owner in the city, including those regularly employed here and using motor vehicles in the corporate limits of Prestonsburg, shall purchase and display a license sticker on or before April 1 of each year. The penalty for violation of the ordinance is a fine ranging from $1 to $9, with each day of violation constituting a separate offense.

Commented Police Judge Watt Hale: "I expect to comply fully with the provisions of this ordinance."

BUILDING BOOM HERE TO CONTINUE IN '64

Prestonsburg building apparently will boom through 1964, at least.

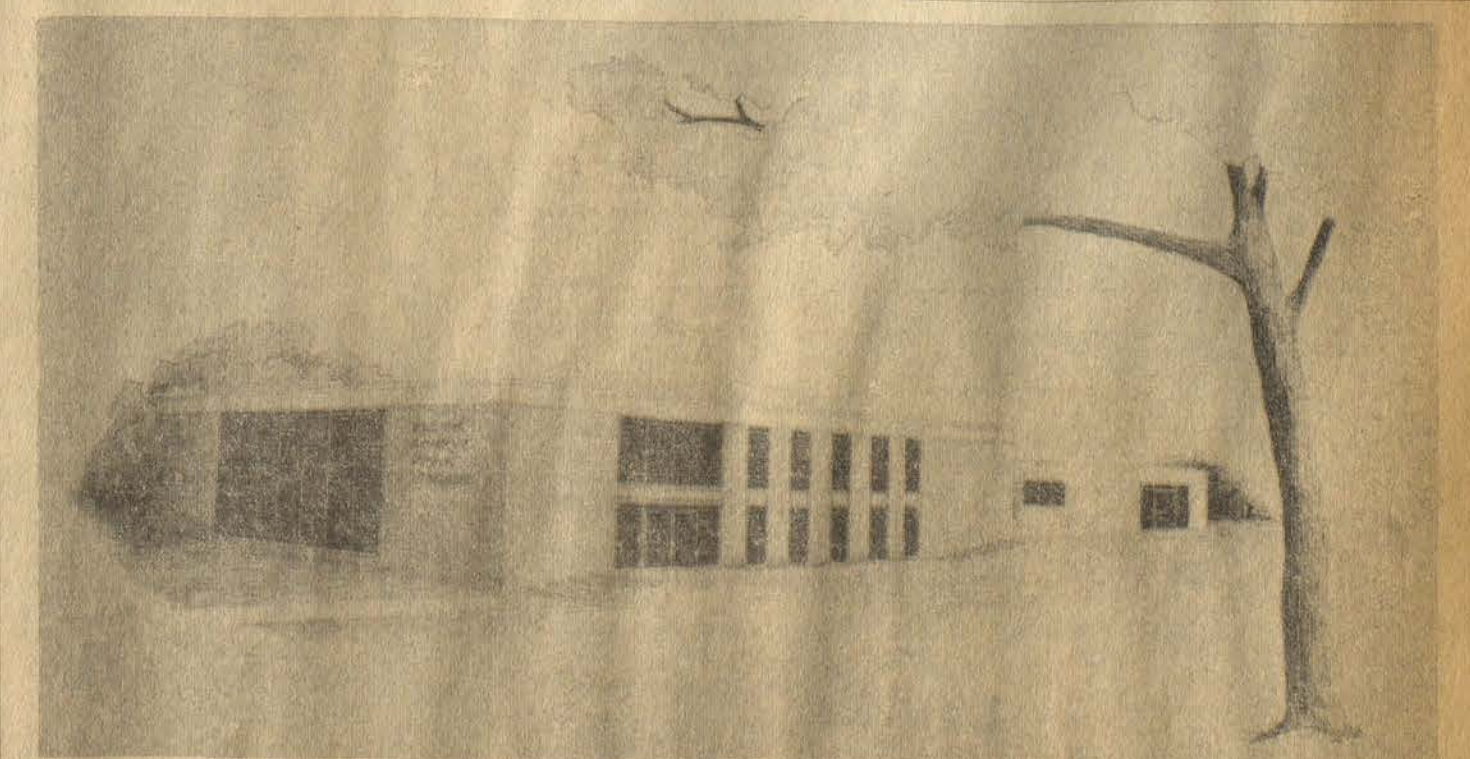

In addition to the courthouse and community college projects which are well under way and the library building just begun, an addition to the state's Economic Security structure on North Lake Drive is planned to begin by early summer, and construction of a number of residences is being started.

The Economic Security building addition will cost an estimated $50,000, George Lee Shannon, architect, said. Mr. Shannon will prepare the plans for this structure and the state's information center which already has been authorized at the junction of U. S. 23 and the Prestonsburg arm of the Mountain Parkway. The addition will house offices, and will be built on the area now used there for parking. The state has purchased a lot from Marvin Music for a parking area, across U. S. 23 from the state building.

Six residences now are under construction in the new Trimble Branch residential area. These and others planned for early work are expected to ease the need for additional housing which arises from the coming to Prestonsburg of faculty members of the Prestonsburg Community College.

Two of the residences are being built by Byron Nunery, who also plans a duplex there, Tom Oak McGuire, Gordon Moore and associates have two under construction and plan three more. In the same area Astor Meade, Prestonsburg contractor, is building a home which he and his family will occupy.

Architect's conception of the Floyd County library building on which Meade & Kendrick, contractors, began work recently. The structure will cost $109,500 and is scheduled for completion next fall. The $51,000 worth of bonds sold to finance the local portion of the cost was purchased by Prestonsburg banks, The First National and The Bank Josephine. Remainder of the construction cost is covered by federal grant.

That word, "figure," reminds me of some of Miss Corelli's figures of speech. Try this sample from Page 161 of my edition on your harpsichord:
"From her proud mouth, arched like a bow, sprang barbed arrows of scorn that fled straightly and struck home."
This and similar passages give me slight spells of the vapors, but I still say it's a good yarn.

WILD HOG CIDER CAUSED IT

Just in case you have an idea modern Floyd county gets out of hand and on the wild side at times, you are referred to the record. This comes from The Big Sandy News, of Louisa, in its edition of June 29, 1913, and was written by a correspondent to that paper from Endicott who used the pen-name, "Sunshine." The unsunshiny report reads:
"Never in time has there been known such a gathering of men at the mouth of Buffalo on John's Creek as there was last Sunday, the 7th, and Sunday before they came far and near. A big row ensued all day, shots to the amount of over 200 fired at random. Marvin Crider near his home and on his own premises came near being killed by a stray bullet. Everybody drunk and whooping and hollowing and shooting in such a way that the civil people could not pass the road. It is supposed by the people that wild hog cider was the cause of it all. This row and big time was kept up continuously until dark Sunday. The authorities of Floyd county should come into our community and investigate at once before someone is killed, for this is as near hell as any place I ever saw."

HE'D TRY, ANYHOW

Heard the one about the fellow who was asked what he would do if he had all the money in the world? That is what he "lowed he would do:
"I'd buy me a nice car, first of all, and then I'd pay my debts as far as the money would go."

Jailer Tells Reason For Permitting Martin To Return to His Home

Jailer Lawrence Hale this week explained the absence from jail of Junior (Red) Martin who was serving a 30-day jail term after pleading guilty to a liquor charge. The jailer made his statement after some criticism of him had been reported because of Martin's temporary liberty.

"He told me his wife was sick, that they have 10 children and that he needed to go home for a day and arrange to get somebody to help her," Jailer Hale said. "It wasn't my idea to turn him loose but I thought of the woman and children."

Hale explained that the time Martin was away did not count on his sentence. He said that the prisoner was "supposed" to return to jail the next day but that he did not return till Monday night.

Save The Children Store Is Relocated

Save the Children Federation announced the relocation of its clothing center. The new center is now open at North Lake Drive in the American Legion building in Prestonsburg, Kentucky.

According to Martha Miller, the local SCF manager, several million school children along with numerous civic and fraternal organizations throughout the country contribute the clothing. Each garment is carefully inspected and will be laundered or reconditioned when needed, before being made available to the Prestonsburg center.

Save the Children Federation is a non-profit and non-sectarian organization, now in its 30th year.

Lexington, Ky.—Clothing damaged by flood waters often can be saved if it is cleaned quickly, according to UK Extension Service home economists. Since flood waters often carry dangerous germs, no clothing that has been in contact with flood waters should be worn until it has been well cleaned.

Recipes Wanted

I want to thank those who have sent recipes for our cookbook. We have received many wonderful recipes from Kentucky and a number from other states, and we are grateful for them. Some have misunderstood, thinking the recipe should be their own original recipe. We want any proven favorite recipe, regardless of source. Would especially like additional everyday meat and vegetable dishes and new ideas for preparing vegetables. Our deadline for receiving recipes is April 10. If you have any you wish to send, please do so.

John Graham Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met with Mrs. H. L. Mayo, March 17, at her home on South Mayo Trail. Mrs. J. G. Stepp, the regent, presided. Mrs. Edward May, the chaplain, conducted the ritualistic service. Due to the illness of Mrs. Sallye Ligon Clark, the secretary, the minutes were omitted. Mrs. Everett H. Sowards acted as secretary pro-tem.

Mrs. Edward May reported five magazine subscriptions. The regent announced the State D. A. R. conference dates as March 24, 25, 26 at the Phoenix hotel in Lexington. Mrs. Joe M. Davidson, organizing regent of the Chapter, and Mrs. Everett H. Sowards, publicity chairman, will represent the Chapter at the conference.

Letters announcing candidates for vice-president general at the Continental Congress, April 19-25, Washington, D. C., were received.

Before the benediction, the group sang, "Happy Birthday," to Mrs. James. A salad course was served to Mesdames J. G. Stepp, Edward May, Everett H. Sowards, Tom James, H. L. Mayo, Winnie F. Johns. Guests were Miss Annette Akers, Mrs. William O. Goebel, Jr., Mr. Robert Jones.

Do not refreeze vegetables, cooked foods, or fish if they have thawed. If thawed fruits smell and taste good, they may be refrozen or used in cooked or baked foods or for jams, jellies, etc. Fruits usually ferment when they start to spoil; a little fermentation will not make fruits dangerous to eat but it may hurt the flavor.

MINERS WIN WAGE RAISE

United Mine Workers Negotiate Contract; Pay Raise Staggered

The new contract signed by the United Mine Workers of America and the soft coal industry Monday—the first new contract negotiated since 1958—provides for a $2-a-day wage increase and other benefits.

W. A. Boyle, president of the union, and Edward G. Fox, president of the Bituminous Coal Operators Association, disclosed that negotiations came close to a break-down at one point over welfare fund royalties.

The contract provides for payment of 80 cents a ton for handling coal on which a royalty has not previously been paid. Forty cents a ton is the standard royalty charge.

"The association agreed to this union demand only to avoid an interruption of production of coal," said Fox.

Boyle said the provision would "require some policing" to make sure the royalties are paid.

The new agreement covers 150,000 coal miners in 25 states—about 75 percent of the nation's coal miners.

The $2 wage increase will come in two steps, $1 on April 1 and another $1 next January 1. The basic daily wage for soft-coal miners then will become $28.25.

The national contract also increases vacation pay from $200 to $225 a year.

Another provision requires assigning a helper to work with the operator on all continuous mining machines. Also, coal operators will be allowed to load coal on trains on Saturday and Sunday, with workers receiving time and a half for Saturday work and double time for Sunday. The premium rates had been in effect for week-end work, but coal loading on week-ends was not permitted.

The new contract also provides for "mine-wide seniority" rather than seniority by classification. Boyle said this means "the worker with the greatest seniority in the mine will be retained on the job in case of a layoff."

The pact lists seven paid holidays, with a double-time clause. Most of the holidays are already in effect in local agreements.

Fox said he did not know how the new contract might affect the price of coal. He commented that coal prices now are lower than they were in 1950, because of competition from other fuels.

The contract is a revision of one in effect since 1950. There is no termination date. The negotiations that led to the agreement have been going on since last fall.

MARTIN YET HAS CHANCE

For Works Projects If Board OK's Bonds; Two Resign Positions

The outlook for public improvement projects at Martin, which last week appeared to be hopelessly stalled, took on a brighter aspect this week, although all difficulties have not been eliminated.

Main parts of the community program—sewers and sewage disposal plant and low-rent public housing—will get the answer at the April 4 meeting of the town board. At that time members of the board will be asked to authorize issuance of approximately $144,000 worth of bonds as the community's contribution toward sewer system construction.

If favorable action is taken, sewers and sewage disposal plant will be built. If these are not realized, the public housing project dies, since its completion without sewage disposal would add to present stream pollution.

Contention within the City Water Commission may have ended last Saturday with the resignation by mutual agreement of R. R. Allen and Lawrence Keathley. Ex-Mayor Haskell Frye and W. D. Goff were named to succeed them.

Allen, who remains as executive director of the Municipal Housing Commission there, said the $144,000 bond issue can be retired by means of a sewer service charge which would amount to about $4.50 a month to each property-owner.

Stumbo, The high court opinion, written by Judge Williams, upheld that contention.

The decision does not affect those cases in which defendants are accused of selling intoxicants, it was pointed out.

Wrote Judge Williams, in part: "After the appointment of Burchett as trial commissioner, was made, the county judge orally authorized Burchett to issue search warrants, and he approved the action taken by Burchett after this search warrant was issued.

"A county judge has many duties, one of which is the trial of civil and criminal cases. In his absence a county judge pro-tem may perform any of his duties, but the same wide latitude is not given a trial commissioner. The judicial duties which a trial commissioner may discharge are limited to those necessary to the proper disposition of the cases he is assigned to try. He may rule on motions, issue subpoenas and do the other acts necessary to the proper fulfillment of a trial, but beyond this he has no authority.

"Judicial duties discharged by the trial commissioner must be reported to the county judge, who has the right to approve or disapprove them. In the event of approval they become as authentic as if done by the judge. But an act performed by a trial commissioner not within the scope of his authority may not be given life by approval of the judge."

Judge Williams added that "a search warrant at the time of its issuance has no relation to and is not a part of the trial, and that such issuance is a separate judicial function within the authority of a county judge but not subject to delegation to a trial commissioner.

Mr. Burchett was appointed county judge pro-tem after the first raid, but results of the second raid are expected to be attacked and voided because he issued search warrants to officers at a time when Judge Stumbo was not absent from the county.

Among the possession cases voided directly by the appellate court decision are those against Paul Tackett, Cora Stone, Riley Wells, Jr., Banner Burchett, Melvin Click, James Stone, Willard (Bear) Little, Annie Dingus, Zella Mae Tackett.

Other possession cases which are expected to be attacked on the ground that the search warrants were issued by county judge pro-tem while the judge himself was available include those of Thomas Lafferty, Howard Stone, Bobby Joseph, Tommy Ratliff, Eugene Wright and Junior Martin.

The junior choir of Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church which will present the Easter cantata, "The Sower and the Seed," at the church Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. George Lee Shannon will direct the choir, and Mrs. Joe Buchanan will play the organ accompaniment. Mrs. H. G. Francis, Jr. is sponsor.

the confusion and argued with Collins. Several others tried to get the floor and Jack Hyden was recognized by Boyd. Hyden said that he would agree for everybody to vote if the seceders would stay in the room. Those leaving the room continued their departure. Forty-three remained seated.

Walter Frazier announced at this point that "he couldn't be at two places at the same time" and retired with the Collins group. Bill Darby was named to succeed him. Darby placed the name of Hyden in nomination for permanent chairman and the move was seconded by Lawrence Keathley. There were no other nominations and Hyden was elected without any dissenting votes.

Eddie Akers was elected permanent secretary. Mattie Music was named county chairwoman and L. B. Moore was picked as treasurer. A slate of seven were named delegates to the district convention but it was later decided that this was improper and would have to be done at a mass convention.

Named by the "rump" group to serve with McGary as chairman were Lackey Salisbury, secretary; Kathryn Blackburn, county chairwoman; and George T. Roberts, who was not at the meeting, treasurer.

Recognition of one of the groups will evidently have to be resolved by the Republican State Central committee.

TRI-COUNTY MED GROUP HOLDS PAINTSVILLE MEET

The Johnson-Floyd-Magoffin Medical Auxiliary held its second meeting of the year in the dining room of the Starfire Motel, Paintsville, at 12:30 p.m., March 12. Those attending were: Mrs. P. B. Hall, Mrs. A. B. Carter, Mrs. James W. Archer, Mrs. Jerry Frain, and Mrs. Lon C. Hall, all of Paintsville; Mrs. J. D. Adams, Mrs. George P. Archer, and Mrs. James A. Holbrook, all of Prestonsburg; Mrs. Lloyd M. Hall, Salyersville.

Following luncheon, Mrs. A. B. Carter, president, called for a reading of the minutes by the secretary, Mrs. J. D. Adams, and the financial report by the treasurer, Mrs. Lloyd M. Hall.

Plans were made for the April meeting which will be held in conjunction with the 14th annual interim meeting of the Kentucky State Medical Association at May Lodge, Jenny Wiley State Park, April 23. The 14th District Medical Auxiliary, of which the Tri-County is a part, will be hostesses to the State Medical Auxiliary members and to members of the families of doctors attending the meeting. Mrs. George P. Archer, Prestonsburg, wife of the president of the K.S.M.A., gave a report on plans being made for their entertainment and stressed the need for full cooperation of the Auxiliary in making each one feel welcome. She also emphasized that, though this is the first time this meeting has been held in this district, it could lead to future meetings if all members work at making it a success.

Mrs. Archer said that plans have been made for those inclined to bridge or golf and, for those wishing, there will be conducted tours of the park. At 3 p.m. there will be a board meeting of the Kentucky State Auxiliary at the lodge, at which time the state president will install officers of the local Auxiliary. The Hospitality Room will be open at 5 p.m., followed by the Auxiliary dinner at 7. After dinner, the Patsy Teenagers will entertain the group.

Thursday, April 23, the Auxiliary has been invited to attend any part of the program of the K.S.M.A. The meeting will begin with registration at 8:45 a.m. and will end at 3:00 p.m.

Mrs. James Archer moved that the first project of the Auxiliary will be an effort to collect medicine samples from all doctors in the three counties and donate them to the World Relief Medical Society. Approval was unanimous.

Mrs. Lloyd Hall, treasurer, collected local dues and then asked about the making of a donation to the American Medical Association Education and Research Fund. The treasurer was instructed to make a $25 donation to the fund and was given blanket permission to make future regular donations.

The unearned portion of any license fee paid to the City of Prestonsburg by any taxicab driver, or by the owner of any taxicab, upon revocation of the license of such driver or such owner, shall be forfeited to the City of Prestonsburg. No taxicab owner's license which may be revoked under the provisions of this ordinance shall be released to the former licensee, nor re-issued to a new applicant, unless and until the number of licensed taxicabs in actual use in the City of Prestonsburg has been reduced to fewer than ten (10) in number, unless it is made to appear to the City Council, upon proper showing, that public convenience and necessity require licenses in excess of the number of ten (10) to be issued; and in no event shall a revoked taxicab owner's license be re-issued to the licensee, or to a new applicant, except by order of the City Council, in its discretion, after a full hearing.

SECTION 8. It shall be unlawful for any owner to operate or permit any taxicab to be operated and for any driver to drive any taxicab unless there shall be conspicuously displayed in the interior thereof, and in full view of all passengers, a card of not less than 2 x 4 inches in size, upon which shall be plainly printed the name, business address, and telephone number of the owner, together with the rates to be charged for the carriage of passengers within the corporate limits of the City of Prestonsburg, and there shall at all times be displayed on the windshield the decal license sticker issued by the City Clerk.

SECTION 9. Drivers of taxicabs shall promptly report to the Police Department all property of value left in such vehicles by passengers, together with all information in their possession regarding the same. SECTION 10. It shall be the duty of every driver to report in writing to the Chief of Police, upon blanks to be furnished by the Police Department, all injuries to persons or property, accidents or casualties in which the taxicab driven by any driver participated, directly or indirectly, and said report shall be made within six hours after the happening thereof, and shall give in detail the time, place, nature, and cause of the accident or injury, the name and address of the person or persons injured or killed, if any, together with the name, address, and license number of the driver submitting the report. Physical disability alone shall constitute an excuse for non-performance with this section.

SECTION 11. It shall be unlawful for any taxicab to be driven or cruised or permitted to be driven or cruised over any of the streets of the City of Prestonsburg for the purpose of soliciting passengers. For the purpose of taking on and discharging passengers, it shall be lawful for drivers of taxicabs to answer calls for taxicabs and while taking on or discharging passengers to park taxicab temporarily in any place on the pavements of the streets of Prestonsburg provided for parking, and to use any parking space which has been provided with parking meters, without paying said meters, for such time only as is necessary to discharge passengers or take on waiting passengers.

Former Teacher Earns Degree While Educating His Children

Some men, a few years from retirement, look forward to the Golden Years with anticipation of fishing, reading or just plain whittling. Wallace Scalf, 58-year-old former teacher of Pike and Floyd counties for a few years in the early 30's and an employee at an Amherstdale, W. Va., mine since World War II, is going back next year to his first job.

He gets a bachelor of arts degree in August at Morris-Harvey College, Charleston, W. Va. Only one semester hour in practice teaching is now between him and the sheepskin.

Scalf has been working on that degree since the early 1930's when he entered Pikeville College. In the meantime he began teaching rural schools and soon afterward he married. The pressure for school positions in the depression years forced him to drop out, and he spent a few years farming. World War II rescued him from the plow, and he worked at Oak Ridge, Tenn., on the atom bomb project and guessed for months, as did almost everybody else, as to what they were building.

By now he had a family looking to him for education, and he got a job at a coal preparation plant in West Virginia—work which was interrupted for a brief period when he was a bank teller at Man, W. Va. His children went through grade school in Logan county, and Ronnie, the oldest, went on to an aeronautical engineering school in Indiana and wound up at UCLA in California. Graduating, he entered missile work as one of the youngest scientists in the field.

In the meantime Scalf had started back to college. He worked five days a week, took night classes at Marshall College at Huntington or Saturday classes at Morris-Harvey. He grabbed every extension class he could get in the Logan area and when his five-day week was up, drove the 140-mile round trip to get on campus credit. His wife accompanied him on the trips for a while as she wanted a few hours college credit herself.

Linda Gay, his second child, graduated from Mann high school and, accepting a position in Milwaukee, married an attorney there. But Nancy was graduated at Man high in a couple of years and went on to Concord College. Sallie, the youngest, is still in grade school. Scalf stuck to the coal preparation plant at Amherstdale and continued his studies.

"I can't say what made me want to start working for a college degree at my age," Scalf said, "but it just seemed that it was what I ought to do. When you have a family on your hands, and their education taking precedence over your ambition, and an everyday job to perform, it's pretty hard to concentrate on books. It is hard to compete with youngsters, too. They have had a better foundation for an education than I."

The displaced Kentuckian will quit his job in late July and finish that one-hour course at Morris-Harvey. Next fall he intends to make application for a school in West Virginia.

Girl Scout Troop No. 38, Mrs. Hubbard Francis, leader, presents Atty. Woodrow W. Burchett a certificate of appreciation in behalf of all Girl Scouts in the area. As legal adviser for the Sandy Valley Council the past five years, Mr. Burchett has rendered a great service to Girl Scouting. He also represented Sandy Valley in the recent council coverage project when the council joined seven other councils to form the Wilderness Road Girl Scout Council.

Scholar Townsend Pens Tales of the Bluegrass; Is Lexington Historian

A unique collection of reminiscences and tales of the Salt River and the Bluegrass, HUNDRED PROOF, by William H. Townsend, will be published March 16 by the University of Kentucky Press. Mr. Townsend, well-known Kentucky author, speaker, and Civil War scholar, has long delighted Civil War Round Table audiences throughout the country with many of these charming sketches and stories.

In his introduction to the book, Holman Hamilton, American historian who is vice president of the Kentucky Civil War Round Table, says that "Of all the amazing storytellers in the colorful annals of the Bluegrass Commonwealth there is none like Bill Townsend."

Mr. Townsend grew up in a small town on the Salt River, attended the University of Kentucky, and remained in Lexington to pursue a successful law career. He has written a number of books on Lincoln, the Civil War, and the Bluegrass region of Kentucky including LINCOLN AND THE BLUEGRASS (1955) which was also published by the University of Kentucky Press. He has served as president of the Kentucky Civil War Round Table since its formation in 1953.

Cemetery Entry Rights Needed In Renovation; Stumbo Urges Requests

County Judge Henry Stumbo this week urged persons interested in the cemetery renovation program now being performed by unemployed fathers to contact him at once. The name and location of the cemetery should be filed with the application, Stumbo said.

Right of entry is a requirement for the work and must be filed with Stumbo. Only public cemeteries will be renovated.

Stumbo said that for the next month or six weeks the plan is to work on the public roads in the county and then to begin on the cemetery program when by such time all applications should be in his office.

It was pointed out that if the community will furnish the wire and fence posts, the workers will fence the cemetery free of charge. Stumbo added that the workers could not fence individual burial plots.

Things have changed a lot since a Chevy was only a Chevy. Especially your ideas of what you want a Chevy to be.

So now you have the Jet-smooth Chevrolet—17½ feet of pure luxury, bumper to bumper. The size alone might make it a luxury car, even if nothing else did. And everything else does, but the price.

Or you can choose the thrifty Chevy II, a 15¼-foot family car with all kinds of passenger and luggage space—and three kinds of engines (4, 6 or extra-cost V8) to choose from, besides.

This year, your choice might be the new 16-foot-plus Chevelle, sized to fit nicely between Chevrolet and Chevy II (and between parking meters, with five whole feet left over), but with its own special looks and room.

Then, too, there's the sporty 15-foot Corvair, so right for so many people (you girls, in particular) that we've never touched an inch of it—except for things like bigger rear engines for '64. And finally, Corvette—still 14½ feet and still too much for any true sports-car lover to say no to.

The long and short of it is, you don't have to go to any length to find exactly the size and price and kind of car you want. Just see the five different lines of cars at your Chevrolet dealer's.

NO SALARY RISE SET FOR MANY DISTRICTS

Louisville, Ky. (Spl.)—Some teachers in Kentucky will not receive a $300 salary increase next year, according to Roy McDonald, Cadiz, president of the Kentucky Education Association. The action of the General Assembly, which concluded its regular 1964 session last Friday, has been misinterpreted by many people, he says.

Explaining his statement, McDonald reports that the main point of confusion results from failure to recognize that the state guarantees only the minimum school program, and many school systems have gone beyond this minimum to provide more "quality" in their schools. The salary increases voted by the Legislature are applied only to this minimum program, and would violate the basic principles under which the Foundation Program operates if they were applied in any other way.

In calculating the costs of the Foundation Program, McDonald explains, the state allocates a certain amount of money for each approved classroom unit. (This amount has been increased by $300 for next year.) An approved classroom unit, in most instances, is found where there are 27 pupils in average daily attendance (ADA), or about 30 pupils are enrolled.

"In order to add more quality to their programs," McDonald says, "some school systems have hired extra teachers to provide for smaller classes and additional offerings. The cost of this part of the program is paid entirely out of local funds, since this is more than the minimum. There is no allocation from the state for any salary increases for these teaching positions."

McDonald cites as an example a hypothetical school system which has 2,700 pupils in ADA, which would mean 100 approved classroom units. In terms of the actions of the 1964 General Assembly, this school system would be scheduled to receive an additional $30,000 in state funds for salaries next year. If they operate only the minimum program, then the board could increase each teacher's salary by $300 next year (assuming they all have a college degree and a regular teaching certificate).

"Suppose, however," says McDonald, "the people in this school system have wanted more quality in their program, and have employed an extra 10 teachers, whose salaries have been coming out of local revenues. Since these teaching positions are above and beyond the minimum number of approved classroom units, the state would not provide any additional funds for them next year. In this instance, the $30,000 increase in state funds would need to be divided among 110 teachers, with an average of about $273 per teacher. In order to have a $300 increase for each teacher, additional local funds (if available) would have to be put into salaries."

Essentially the same situation prevails in the wealthier, so-called "guarantee" districts (such as Louisville and Lexington) where the increase in state funds next year will be $11 per pupil in average daily attendance, or $297 for each 27 pupils in ADA. If the over-all average for the system is no more than 27 pupils per teacher, the full amount of the increase will be available for salaries. However, again, if additional teachers have been employed to add "quality," the amount per teacher would be reduced.

"The sad part of this," according to McDonald, "is that the Legislature failed to approve Point Five of the KEA Legislative Program, which called for an increase in the maximum local tax rate for school purposes. Many local school systems have reached the legal limit of their taxing authority, and have no way to increase the amount used to provide additional 'quality' in their school program. If Point Five had been approved, every qualified degree teacher in the

Feed Grain Program Application Deadline

Friday, March 27, is the last day for filing an application to take part in the 1964 feed grain program, Harry T. Hill, chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation county committee, says. He urges growers who are interested in the program to call at the ASCS county office as soon as possible.

"Time has a way of slipping up on us even though we think we have plenty," the chairman pointed out. "Actually, there are only seven working days left in which to sign up for this year's program. The office is open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. from Monday through Friday. We don't want anybody to be disappointed because he waited too long."

As last year, Hill explains, the feed grain program covers corn, grain sorghum and barley. Minimum diversion under the 1964 program is 20 percent of the individual farm's total feed grain base. For diverting more than the minimum acreage from feed grain production into a conserving use, the diversion payment will be figured at a higher rate. If the diversion is 40 percent or more, the higher rate applies to the whole diversion.

Besides the diversion payments (part of which may be paid in advance if the farmer requests it), a participating grower also earns price-support payments on the normal production of the acreage planted to one or more of the three feed grains in 1964, and he is also eligible to put his crops under the regular price-support loans or purchase agreements.

The chairman reports that farmer interest in Floyd county is higher than last year. Indications are that 1964 participation will run well ahead of that under the 1963 feed grain program.

The office is now located upstairs, over Cox's Department store, corner of Arnold avenue and Court street.

COACHES TO MEET

The Floyd County Coaches Association will meet at the Prestonsburg grade school Friday morning at 9 a.m. They will award the winners' trophy to Wheelwright and the runner-up trophy to Martin on the basis of season's play within the county. Twelve players will be selected as the all-conference team, based on season's play. A coach-of-the-year trophy will also be awarded.

All of these awards are separate from the 58th district tournament which involved the county's eight high schools.

The coaches also voted to continue payment of $200 to each of two officials to officiate the Floyd county pre-season and district tournaments. The Floyd county district is the highest paying meet in the state for officials.

Prestonsburg and Paintsville high will take their respective basketball teams to Louisville, December 11 and 12, for successive doubleheaders in the Convention Center (old Armory). On the first night, the Black Cats will play Louisville Manual, while Paintsville will tangle with Trinity. On the ensuing night, Prestonsburg plays Trinity and Paintsville collides with Manual.

The Jenny Wiley invitational tournament (involving eight 15th region teams) will be staged in the local fieldhouse, Thanksgiving week-end. In the first round of the four-day meet, Martin will vie with Mullins, McDowell is pitted against Virgie, Prestonsburg against Morgan County and Meade Memorial against Betsy Layne.

The annual spring meeting of the Eastern Kentucky Mountain Conference will be held in Hazard this Saturday at 6 p.m. The four-sport league will elect new officers, declare a basketball champion, which should be Hazard, and name the all-K.I.A.C. basketball team.

The 15th region will probably have two players on the annual all-state high school basketball team. Bob Tallent, Maytown's all-time scoring great, is a "dead cinch" to make the dream team and Orville Stepp, Inez, is expected to be the other player named.

Lee S. Grey, Cincinnati district sales manager for Ford Division, said 300-500 Club membership awards are presented for excellent retail sales performance. The Ford 300-500 Club was founded in 1950 to recognize outstanding Ford salesmen throughout the country.

WAYLAND LOSES OVERTIME TO FAVORED ALLEN COUNTY

Wayland high school's Wasps, representing the 15th region, lost in the first round of state tournament play to Allen County last Thursday but in doing so reflected credit on basketball of the area, fans returning here from Lexington said.

They led and outplayed the taller Allen County squad through almost the entire game. A few "close" calls in closing stages of the encounter apparently turned the tide to permit Allen County to pull even in regulation time, then go on to win in the overtime, 74-72. This same Allen County team later eliminated Dunbar of Lexington, one of the pre-tournament favorites.

Seneca of Louisville repeated last year's performance to retain the title, though barely squeaking past the Hazard Bulldogs, perhaps the tournament's surprise team and one which is regarded as a threat in future meets.

Line-up of the Wayland-Allen County game:

Allen County (74)—Anderson 4, Rigdon 17, Carver 10, Oliver 20, Weaver 20, Horn 3, Tabor.

Wayland (72)—Stanford 7, K. Martin 13, Johnson 21, Waugh, Williams 19, T. Martin 12.

Allen Co. . . 17 17 16 15 3-74

Wayland . . 23 19 14 10 6-72

Personal fouls: Allen County—Anderson 5, Rigdon 3, Carver 4, Oliver 2, Weaver 3, Horn, Wayland—Stanford 5, K. Martin, Johnson 3, Williams, T. Martin 2, Waugh.

Maytown and Martin high schools are old rivals on the basketball floor, but when all the shooting and shouting of the tournaments were over and Martin's team and band had distinguished themselves this letter, signed, "Maytown Faculty and Student Body," was addressed to James Salisbury, Martin high school principal:

"May we take this opportunity to congratulate you, your coach, fine ball team, cheerleaders, and student body, on your excellent performance in the 15th regional tournament.

"Your ball team was the best on the floor, your pep squad gave an excellent account of themselves, your coach and players were gentlemen, and your band was most excellent. If Paintsville did manage to win the game, we think your band is the winner in their field.

"We feel that the prestige of the 58th was upheld to the nth degree by your representing us in the tournament. It is, also, our opinion that with only a couple of breaks you could have won the game."
